THE INDIAN LAW REPORTS
ALLAHABAD SERIES

CONTAINING ALL A.F.R. DECISIONS OF THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT ALLAHABAD

2023 - VOL. IV
(APRIL)

PAGES 1 TO 1526

PUBLISHED UNDER THE AUTHORITY OF THE GOVERNMENT OF UTTAR PRADESH COMPOSED AT INDIAN LAW REPORTER SECTION, HIGH COURT, ALLAHABAD.

INDIAN LAW REPORTING COUNCIL

ALLAHABAD SERIES

****

PRESIDENT

HON'BLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE PRITINKER DIWAKER

******

COUNCIL

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SAUMITRA DAYAL SINGH

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JAYANT BANERJI

****

EDITORIAL PANEL

SENIOR LAW REPORTERS

1. MR. VINAY SARAN, SENIOR ADVOCATE
2. MR. SAMIR SHARMA, SENIOR ADVOCATE

JUNIOR LAW REPORTERS

1. MR. ANOOP BARANWAL, ADVOCATE
2. MS. PRIYA AGRAWAL, ADVOCATE
3. MR. ASHUTOSH MANI TRIPATHI, ADVOCATE
4. MS. NOOR SABA BEGUM, ADVOCATE
5. MR. SAROJ GIRI, ADVOCATE
6. MS. MANISHA CHATURVEDI, ADVOCATE
7. MR. ARVIND KUMAR GOSWAMI, ADVOCATE
8. MR. VINEET DUBEY, ADVOCATE
9. MR. PRASHANT MISHRA, ADVOCATE
10. MR. ABU BAKHT, ADVOCATE

****

JUDGES PRESENT

Chief Justice: Hon'ble Mr. Justice Prittinker Diwaker
Puisne Judges:
1. Hon'ble Mrs. Justice Sunita Agarwal	33. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Ajay Bhanot
2. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Devendra Kumar Upadhyaya (Sr. Judge Lko.)	34. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Neeraj Tiwari
3. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Surya Prakash Kesarwani	35. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Prakash Padia
4. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Manoj Kumar Gupta	36. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Alok Mathur
5. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Arjani Kumar Mishra	37. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Pankaj Bhatia
6. Hon'ble Dr. Justice Kaushal Jayendra Thaker	38. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Saurabh Lavania
7. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Mahesh Chandra Tripathi	39. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Vivek Varma
8. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Suneet Kumar	40. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Sanjay Kumar Singh
9. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Vivek Kumar Birla	41. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Piyush Agrawal
10. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Attau Rahman Masoodi	42. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Saurabh Shyam Shamshery
11. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Ashwani Kumar Mishra	43. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Jaspreet Singh
12. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Rajan Roy	44. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Rajeev Singh
13. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Arvind Kumar Mishra-I	45. Hon'ble Mrs. Justice Manju Rani Chauhan
14. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Siddhartha Varma	46. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Karunesh Singh Pawar
15. Hon'ble Mrs. Justice Sangeeta Chandra	47. Hon'ble Dr. Justice Yogendra Kumar Srivastava
16. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Vivek Chaudhary	48. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Manish Mathur
17. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Saumitra Dayal Singh	49. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Rohit Ranjan Agarwal
18. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Rahul Chaturvedi	50. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Rajendra Kumar-IV
19. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Salil Kumar Rai	51. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Mohd Faiz Alam Khan
20. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Jayant Banerji	52. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Suresh Kumar Gupta
21. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Rajesh Singh Chauhan	53. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Narendra Kumar Johari
22. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Irshad Ali	54. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Raj Beer Singh
23. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Saral Srivastava	55. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Vipin Chandra Dixit
24. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Jahangir Jamshed Munir	56. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Shekhar Kumar Yadav
25. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Rajiv Gupta	57. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Deepak Verma
26. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Siddharth	58. Hon'ble Dr. Justice Gautam Chowdhary
27. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Ajit Kumar	59. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Shamim Ahmed
28. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Rajnish Kumar	60. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Dinesh Pathak
29. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Abdul Moin	61. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Manish Kumar
30. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Dinesh Kumar Singh	62. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Samit Gopal
31. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Rajeev Misra	63. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Sanjay Kumar Pachori
32. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Vivek Kumar Singh	64. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Subhash Chandra Sharma

65. Hon'ble Mrs. Justice Saroj Yadav
66. Hon'ble Mrs. Justice Sadhna Rani (Thakur)
67. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Syed Aftab Husain Rizvi
68. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Ajai Kumar Srivastava - I
69. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Chandra Kumar Rai
70. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Krishan Pahal
71. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Sameer Jain
72. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Ashutosh Srivastava
73. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Subhash Vidyarthi
74. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Brij Raj Singh
75. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Shree Prakash Singh
76. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Vikas Budhwar
77. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Om Prakash Tripathi
78. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Vikram D Chauhan
79. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Umesh Chandra Sharma
80. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Saurabh Srivastava
81. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Om Prakash Shukla
82. Hon'ble Mrs. Justice Renu Agarwal
83. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Mohd. Azhar Husain Idrisi
84. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Ram Manohar Narayan Mishra
85. Hon'ble Mrs. Justice Jyotsna Sharma
86. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Mayank Kumar Jain
87. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Shiv Shanker Prasad
88. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Gajendra Kumar
89. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Surendra Singh - I
90. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Nalin Kumar Srivastava
91. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Syed Qamar Hasan Rizvi
92. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Manish Kumar Nigam
93. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Anish Kumar Gupta
94. Hon'ble Ms. Justice Nand Prabha Shukla
95. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Kshitij Shailendra
96. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Vinod Diwakar
97. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Prashant Kumar
98. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Manjive Shukla
99. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Arun Kumar Singh Deshwal

(2023) 4 ILRA 9
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 21.04.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MAYANK KUMAR JAIN, J.

Crl. Misc. Bail Cancellation Application No. 302 of 2021
with
Crl. Misc. Bail Cancellation Application No. 188 of 2022
with
Crl. Misc. Bail Cancellation Application No. 207 of 2022
with
Crl. Misc. Bail Cancellation Application No. 255 of 2022

Nitesh Kumar Singh ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Sri Rajiv Kumar Singh, Sri Manish Tiwari, Sri Prabhakar Awasthi, Sri Surendra Kumar Chaubey, Vinay Kumar, Sri Pradeep Kumar Mishra, Sri Vinay Saran (Sr. Advocate)

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A., Sri Amrish Tiwari, Sri Vikram Bahadur Singh, Sri Satya Dheer Singh Jadon, Sri Rajiv Nayan Singh, Sri Krishan Murari Tripathi, Sri V.P. Srivastava (Sr. Advocate)

(A) Criminal Law - Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Section 439(2) - Bail Cancellation - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 302 & 120B - cancellation of bail cannot be limited to the occurrence of supervening circumstances - Court has the inherent powers and discretion to cancel the bail of an accused even in the absence of supervening circumstances - grounds for cancellation of bail - interference or attempt to interfere with the due course of administration of Justice - evasion or attempt to evade the due course of justice - abuse of the concession granted to the accused in any manner - Possibility of accused absconding - Likelihood of/actual misuse of bail- Likelihood of the accused tampering with the evidence or threatening witnesses. (Para -30)

Offences of murder and criminal conspiracy - Opposite parties named in F.I.R. - committed conspiracy to kill - deceased made oral dying declaration before informant - involvement of opposite parties in incident - not taken into consideration by trial court - release on bail - another Case registered and charge sheet submitted - for offence of making threat of causing death or grievous hurt to witness of case - trial court overlooked that opposite parties were absconding soon after incident - eluded process of law.(Para - 50)

HELD:-Trial Court passed impugned bail orders based on incorrect facts without verifying the record. Material evidence was overlooked by trial Court. Impugned bail orders cannot be sustained hence set aside. (Para -39,51,52)

Bail Cancellation Application allowed. (E-7)

List of Cases cited:

1. Manoj Kumar Khokhar Vs St. of Raj. & anr. AIR (SC) 364

2. Pooran Vs Ramvilas & nr., 2001 CRI.L.J. 2566

3. Deepak Yadav VS St. of U.P. & anr., 2022 (8) SCC 559

4. Dolat Ram & ors. Vs St. of Haryana, (1995) 1 SCC 349

(Delivered by Hon'ble Mayank Kumar Jain, J.)

1. Heard Sri Vinay Saran, Senior Advocate assisted by Sri Pradeep Kumar Mishra and Sri Surendra Kumar Chaube, learned counsel for the applicant-Nitesh Kumar Singh.

Sri V.P. Srivastava, Senior Advocate assisted by Sri Satya Dheer Singh Jadon, Sri Rajeev Nayan Singh, Sri Vikram Bahadur Singh and Sri Krishan Murari Tripathi learned counsel for the opposite parties-Sabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh, Hari Singh and Raj Narain Pandey.

Sri S. K. Ojha, learned AGA, Sri Suraj Singh, Sri Yogeshwar Rai, Ms. Reema Gupta, learned counsel for the State of U.P.

2. Applicant Nitesh Kumar Singh has filed Criminal Misc. Bail cancellation application Nos. 302 of 2021, 188 of 2022 and 207 of 2022 under Section 439(2) of Cr.P.C. seeking cancellation of bail granted to opposite parties namely Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh, Hari Singh and Raj Narayan Pandey in Case Crime No. 167 of 2021 u/s 302, 120B IPC relating to Police Station Bairiya, District Ballia.

3. Criminal Misc. Bail Cancellation Application No. 255 of 2022 is filed by the State of U.P. seeking cancellation of bail granted to opposite party/ accused Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh by the Additional Sessions Judge, Court No.3, Ballia vide its order dated 05.08.2021 in the above noted case passed in Bail Application No. 1426/2021.

4. Opposite parties/accused Hari Singh and Raj Narayan Pandey were granted bail by the learned In-charge Additional Session Judge, Ballia vide the order dated 28.04.2022 in the above noted case passed in Bail Applications No. 2324/2021 and 95/2022 respectively.

5. Since all the bail cancellation applications relate to same crime number and same set of facts, therefore, these applications are being decided by this common order.

6. The facts of the case are that the applicant/complainant Nitesh Kumar Singh lodged the first information report in Police Station Bairiya, District Ballia, on 07.07.2021 mentioning therein that on 07.07.2021, his elder brother Jaleshwar Singh @ Balbeer Singh along with Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh, who was known to him, was returning in his private vehicle after visiting his friend. At around 12.00 noon the car was stopped at the shop of Jauhar Mistri. Five persons riding two motorcycles came there and fired upon his elder brother. On receiving this information, the informant rushed towards the place of occurrence and found that his brother was still alive at that time. When he, along with some other persons, was taking his brother to Sonbarsa Hospital, his brother told him that Harish Paswan S/O Indradev Paswan, R/O Babubel, Police Station Haldi, Hari Singh S/O late Kedar Singh R/O Bairiya and Raj Narayan Pandey S/O late Singar Pandey R/O Bairiya accompanied by two unknown persons had shot him. His brother also told him that Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh committed conspiracy to kill him. As soon as he reached the hospital, the doctors declared his brother dead.

7. Learned counsel for the applicant and learned Government Counsel for the State of U. P. argued that on 14.08.2021 i.e. after the release on bail pursuant to impugned bail orders, the opposite parties namely Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh, Harish Paswan and Hari Singh gave threats of causing death or grievous hurt to Amit Kumar Varma, who is the witness of inquest proceedings of the deceased and also the Pairokar of the informant. First information report having crime No.207 of 2021 was registered on 15.08.2021 against them under Section 506, 507 of IPC at Police Station, Bairiya District Ballia. A charge sheet came to be filed against them except Harish Paswan, since he was killed in the police encounter on 03.09.2021. This act of the opposite parties demonstrate that they had misused the liberty of bail granted to them. They would adversely affect the fair trial and they would tamper the evidence proposed to be produced against them during the trial. There is strong apprehension of killing of the applicant as well as the witnesses of the prosecution by these persons/opposite parties.

8. The learned trial Court while passing the impugned bail orders, completely ignored the credible evidence that the deceased before his last breath told the informant and his sister-in-law [Bhabhi]-Ranjana Singh that opposite parties Harish Paswan, Hari Singh, Raj Narain Pandey and two unnamed persons shot him and Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh committed criminal conspiracy. The statement of the informant was noted down by the Investigating Officer on 02.08.2021 which was available before the trial court on record at the time of granting bail to opposite party Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh vide order dated 05.08.2021. Similarly, the statement of Ranjana Singh-the sister in law [Bhabhi] of the deceased, who was also sitting in the same car in which the deceased was being taken to the hospital by the informant, and before whom also the deceased made his oral dying declaration indicating the involvement of the opposite parties in the incident, was also noted down by the Investigating Officer on 17.08.2021. The opposite parties Hari Singh and Raj Narain Pandey were granted bail by the learned trial court on 28.04.2022. The statements of the informant and Ranjana Singh were completely overlooked while granting bail to them by the learned trial court. This demonstrates that the impugned bail orders were passed without considering the record.

9. It is also vehemently argued that the learned trial Court while passing the impugned bail orders completely ignored the statement of Jauhar Ansari, the owner of Motor Garage, who was present at the time of the incident at the place of occurrence. This witness specifically denied that the opposite party Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh had any dues against him. It has been wrongly noted in the impugned bail order passed by the trial court in favour of the opposite party Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh that the statement of Jauhar Ansari was not recorded by the Investigating Officer since his statement was noted down on 02.08.2021 while the impugned bail order was passed by the trial court on 05.08.2021. Therefore it is clear that his statement was available on record before the trial Court at the time of granting bail to opposite party/ accused Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh.

10. It is further submitted that it was wrongly argued before the trial court that the opposite parties also received firearm injuries along with the deceased during the incident. It is not true since none of the opposite parties were medically examined and their medical reports were also not available on record. Thus, the trial Court was misled and it considered this argument without verifying the record. The learned trial Court had copied and pasted the bail order previously passed in subsequent orders. Thus, the impugned bail orders are not based upon true facts and are passed without verifying the record. The learned trial Court mentioned wrong facts in the bail orders passed in favour of opposite parties namely Hari Singh and Raj Narain Pandey that they were also sitting in the same car along with the deceased and they committed conspiracy to eliminate Jaleshwar Singh @ Balbeer Singh, the deceased. It is factually incorrect since these opposite parties fired upon at Jaleshwar Singh @ Balbeer Singh with firearm weapons at the time and the place of occurrence but they are not assigned the role of committing conspiracy to kill Jaleshwar Singh @ Balbeer Singh. Thus the impugned order is patently wrong and is passed on the basis of incorrect facts.

11. It is also submitted that it was strongly argued on behalf of the applicant that the learned trial court while passing the impugned bail orders, has completely ignored and overlooked the criminal history of opposite parties namely Shabal Singh@ Amritesh Singh and Hari Singh.

12. The opposite party Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh had criminal history of two cases i.e. Case Crime No. 98/2015 under Sections 354-B, 506 of IPC Police Station Shivpuri District Varanasi and Case Crime No.49 of 2011 under Sections 147, 148, 323, 307, 342, 506 of IPC Police Station Shivpuri District Varanasi.

13. The opposite party Hari Singh had criminal history of four cases having Crime No.167/2021, under Sections 302/120B IPC, P.S. Bairiya, District Ballia, Case Crime No.207/2021 under Sections 506, 507 IPC, Crime No. 128/2010 under Sections 147, 148, 149, 307, 336, 427 IPC Police Station Dokati, District Ballia and Case Crime No.179/2006 under Sections 307, 302, 120B of IPC and Section 7 of Criminal Law Amendment Act, Police Station Bairiya, Distirct Ballia.

14. Both the opposite parties Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh and Hari Singh had concealed their criminal history to their credit and they were history sheeters, however, the learned trial Court wrongly observed otherwise.

15. It is further submitted that the learned trial court while granting bail to opposite parties namely Hari Singh and Raj Narain Pandey overlooked this fact that they were absconding soon after committing the murder of the brother of the informant. Non Bailable Warrants were issued against them. The process of Section 82 Cr.P.C was also issued against opposite party/ accused Hari Singh and it was served upon him. Thereafter, a reward of Rs. 25,000/- was also declared upon him to ensure his presence. Both these opposing parties have eluded the process of law.

16. It is also submitted that the bail granted to the co-accused Abhay Bharti by this Hon'ble Court has been cancelled by the Hon'ble Apex Court after consideration of all the facts and circumstances of this case vide its order dated 07.03.2022 passed in CRIMINAL APPEAL NO.374/ 2022 [SLP [CRL.] NO. 339/ 2022]

17. Learned counsel for the applicant placed reliance on Manoj Kumar Khokhar Vs. State of Rajasthan & Anr. AIR (SC) 364.

18. Per contra, learned counsel for the opposite parties-Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh, Hari Singh and Raj Narayan Pandey vehemently opposed the bail cancellation applications and argued that opposite parties have been falsely implicated in this case. The incident was caused by some unknown persons. As a matter of fact, the deceased himself was a history sheeter, having criminal history of as many as 13 criminal cases to his credit. Therefore, it might be possible that he was killed by some other enemies who were not known to him. Opposite parties Shabal Singh and Hari Singh have been falsely implicated in Case Crime No. 207 of 2021 under Sections 506, 507 of IPC by Amit Kumar Varma. They did not threaten to cause death or grievous hurt to the witness. Amit Kumar Varma is not a witness of fact but he is only the witness of inquest proceedings.

19. It is further submitted that the non-disclosure of criminal history of the opposite party Shabal Singh @ Amritresh Singh was not a deliberate suppression because at the time of presentation of bail application he was in jail, therefore, the information about earlier criminal cases could not be brought on record and the pairokar had no knowledge about his criminal history.

20. He was falsely implicated in Case Crime No.98/2015 under Section 354B, 506 of IPC, Police Station Shivpur, District Varanasi in which the final report was submitted on 10.05.2015 which has been accepted by the court concerned on 27.04.2015.

21. In another case, he was falsely implicated which was registered as S.T. No. 133 of 2012 arising out of Crime No.49/2011, under Sections 147, 148, 323, 307, 342, 506 of IPC, Police Station Shivpur, District Varanasi. In this case, he has been acquitted vide judgement and order dated 22.11.2012 passed by the Additional Sessions Judge, Court No.8, Varanasi.

22. So far as the criminal history of opposite party Hari Singh is concerned, in two cases, Case Crime No.167/2021 is the present case, and in Case Crime No.207/2021 under Section 506, 507 IPC he has already been granted bail. In the third case, Crime No. 128/2010 under Section 147, 148, 149, 307, 336, 427 IPC, Police Station Dokati, District Ballia, he is discharged by the court concerned. In the fourth case having Crime No.179/2006, under Sections 307, 302, 120B of IPC and Section 7 of Criminal Law Amendment Act, Police Station Bairiya Distirct Ballia, he is acquitted by the trial Court.

23. It is further argued that the informant is not the eye witness of the incident and the alleged eye witness Jauhar Mistri had not taken the name of opposite parties Hari Singh and Raj Narain Pandey. The first information report is silent about the motive behind the murder of the deceased. The role of opposite parties Hari Singh and Raj Narain Pandey is quite different from the role of opposite party Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh and co-accused Abhay Bharti.

24. It is further submitted that the opposite party Raj Narain Pandey is not named as accused in Crime No. 207 of 2021 under Section 506, 507 of IPC. No charge sheet is filed against him in this case. He never made any threat to any witness of the case. He is a retired person from the Army having no rivalry with the deceased. The deceased had criminal history of 13 cases and the deceased was trying to grab his landed property. The deceased had attempted to murder his son Suryakamal Pandey therefore, an FIR was lodged against him and other co-accused namely Maniram Singh and Amit Varma having Case Crime No.173 of 2019, under Section 307, 147, 148, 149 IPC Police Station Bairiya , District Ballia. Rajnarayan Pandey and his wife lodged NCR No.37 of 2019, 67 of 2019 and 125 of 2019. Only for this reason he has falsely been roped in the present case.

25. It is vehemently argued that as per the postmortem report of the deceased Jaleshwar Singh @ Balbeer Singh, he sustained as many as 13 firearm injuries. During the postmortem, blood was found to be present in both the nostrils and the mouth of the deceased. Closed bloodstains were present over the face and clothes. Both the lungs of the deceased were found to be punctured and right lower ventricle of the heart was found to be punctured. In view of the above fire arm injuries and findings, the deceased could not have spoken even a word and hence, there could be no occasion of making dying declaration by him before the informant and Ranjana Singh. The alleged dying declaration is not a credible evidence and it cannot be proved during the course of the trial.

26. It is also submitted that the bail granted to the co-accused Abhay Bharti by this Hon'ble Court was cancelled by the Hon'ble Supreme Court for the reason that he was previously convicted and sentenced for imprisonment for life under Section 302 and 506 IPC in earlier FIR No.467 of 1998. The opposite parties Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh and Hari Singh are not previously convicted and their criminal history is properly explained. The impugned bail order was passed by the learned trial Court after considering all the material available on record. The present Bail Cancellation Applications deserve to be dismissed.

27. Learned counsel for the opposite parties placed reliance in Pooran Vs. Ramvilas & Anr., 2001 CRI.L.J. 2566 and submitted that setting aside the unjustified illegal and perverse order is totally different from the concept of cancelling the bail on the ground that accused has misconducted himself or because of some new facts requiring such cancellation.

28. I have perused the record.

29. Section 439 (2) in The Code Of Criminal Procedure, 1973 provides :-

"(2) A High Court or Court of Session may direct that any person who has been released on bail under this Chapter be arrested and commit him to custody.

30. The Hon'ble Apex Court in Deepak Yadav VS. State of U.P. & Anr., 2022 (8) SCC 559 referred the grounds for cancellation of bail as laid down by the two Judge bench in Dolat Ram And Others Vs. State of Haryana, (1995) 1 SCC 349 :

"...
(i) interference or attempt to interfere with the due course of administration of Justice
(ii) evasion or attempt to evade the due course of justice
(iii) abuse of the concession granted to the accused in any manner
(iv) Possibility of accused absconding
(v) Likelihood of/actual misuse of bail
(vi) Likelihood of the accused tampering with the evidence or threatening witnesses."

31. Based on the above grounds, the Hon'ble Apex Court in Deepak Yadav (supra) further observed that:

"33. It is no doubt true that cancellation of bail cannot be limited to the occurrence of supervening circumstances. This Court certainly has the inherent powers and discretion to cancel the bail of an accused even in the absence of supervening circumstances. Following are the illustrative circumstances where the bail can be cancelled :-

33.1 Where the court granting bail takes into account irrelevant material of substantial nature and not trivial nature while ignoring relevant material on record.

33.2 Where the court granting bail overlooks the influential position of the accused in comparison to the victim of abuse or the witnesses especially when there is prima facie misuse of position and power over the victim.

33.3 Where the past criminal record and conduct of the accused is completely ignored while granting bail.

33.4 Where bail has been granted on untenable grounds.

33.5 Where serious discrepancies are found in the order granting bail thereby causing prejudice to justice.

33.6 Where the grant of bail was not appropriate in the first place given the very serious nature of the charges against the accused which disentitles him for bail and thus cannot be justified.

33.7 When the order granting bail is apparently whimsical, capricious and perverse in the facts of the given case."

32. Perusal of the impugned bail order, granting bail to opposite party /accused Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh dated 05.08.2021 passed by the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Court No.3, Ballia relating to Bail application No.1426 of 2021, goes to show that in the argument paragraph, advanced on behalf of the accused, it is mentioned that "Kathit Ghatna me mratak Jaleshwar ke sath aawedak ko bhi fire arms ki choten aayi hain" (Applicant also sustained firearm injuries during the incident along with the deceased Jaleshwar).....uska koi apradhik itihas nahi hai" (he has no criminal history to his credit).

33. On the basis of the record it is found that opposite party/ accused Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh did not sustain any firearm injury during the incident. He was not medically examined and no medical report is available on record. The learned trial Court did not confirm this with the record but considered this argument while granting bail to the opposite party. So far as the criminal history of the opposite party accused Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh is concerned, it is brought on record that he had criminal history of two cases at the time of granting of bail to him. One was case crime no.98/2015 under Section 354B, 506 IPC P.S. Shivpur, District Varanasi and another was Case Crime No.49 of 2011, under Sections 147, 148, 323, 307, 342, 506 IPC P.S. Shivpuri District Varanasi. This criminal history is not controverted by opposite party no.2/Accused Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh. Through his counter affidavit he explained the criminal history to his credit that in the first case, final report was submitted and in another case he was acquitted after trial by the trial court. It may be considered as criminal history is explained but its existence is not denied. The argument raised on behalf of the opposite party/accused Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh cannot be accepted that non disclosure of the criminal history on his part was not deliberate since he was confined in jail and these facts were not within the knowledge of his pairokar. Therefore, it is clear that opposite party/accused Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh had criminal history at the time of presentation of bail application which was concealed by him. Learned trial Court believed this contention and it was one of the grounds for granting the bail to the accused Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh.

34. So far as the impugned order granting bail to opposite parties Hari Singh and Raj Narain Pandey is concerned, similar narration is found in the argument paragraph quoted by the trial court, advanced on behalf of these opposite parties that they also sustained firearm injuries during the incident alongwith the deceased Jaleshwar Singh @ Balbeer Singh and opposite party Hari Singh did not have any criminal history to his credit.

35. The criminal history of opposite party Hari Singh is brought on record which are as follows:

(i) Case Crime No. 167/2021, under Section 302, 120B IPC PS. Bairiya, District Ballia

(ii) Case Crime No. 207/2021, under Section 506, 507 IPC , P.S. Bairiya, District Ballia

(iii) Case Crime No.128/2010, under Section 147, 148, 149, 307, 336, 427 IPC, P.S. Dokati, District Ballia

(iv) Case Crime No. 179/2006 under Section 307, 302, 120B of IPC, Section 7 of Criminal Law Amendment Act, P.S. Bairiya, District Ballia.

36. Opposite party/ accused Hari Singh through his counter affidavit has explained the aforesaid criminal history.

37. It is observed that the existence of criminal history of opposite party/ accused Hari Singh is not controverted by him. Merely offering an explanation does not mean that it may be considered as having no criminal history.

38. So far as mentioning of the argument that during the incident opposite parties Hari Singh and Raj Narain Pandey also sustained firearm injury alongwith deceased Jaleshwar Singh @ Balbeer singh is concerned, it is not supported by the record. It was also wrongly argued that there were allegation of committing conspiracy by the opposite parties Hari Singh and Raj Narayan Pandey whereas in the first information report they were assigned a specific role of firing at deceased Jaleshwar Singh @ Balbeer Singh and they were named in the FIR as shooters. It is apparent that learned trial court did not verify this fact from the record and it appears that in a routine manner this argument was cut and pasted from the previous bail order passed in favour of Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh. Suffice to mention here that learned trial court in its observation has mentioned that the allegation of conspiracy to kill deceased Jaleshwar Singh @ Balbeer Singh has been made against opposite parties Hari Singh and Raj Narain Pandey. As discussed, the observation of the learned trial court is not based upon the record and also not based upon the facts of the case.

39. Perusal of the case diary goes to show that the statement of Jauhar Mistri was noted down by the Investigating Officer on 02.08.2021. Bail was granted by the learned trial Court to opposite party/ accused Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh on 05.08.2022. It is incorrectly observed by the trial court that the statement of Jauhar Mian was not recorded in case diary by the Investigating Officer because at the time of hearing of bail application and passing of impugned order granting bail to Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh, his statement was very much available in the case diary. It appears that learned trial court did not consult the record in proper manner and made observation otherwise. The witness Jauhar Mistri specifically stated in his statement given to the Investigating Officer that the opposite party Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh had no dues against him. He further stated that at the time of the incident Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh was sitting in the car next to Jaleshwar Singh @ Balbeer singh. When firing took place, he opened the door of the car and ran away but he returned to close the door and then again ran away. The conduct of the opposite party/ accused Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh got corroboration from the CCTV footage. This material evidence was overlooked by the learned trial Court.

40. The incident of the present case Crime No.167 of 2021 under Section 302/120B of IPC is said to have been occurred on 07.07.2021. Amit Kumar Varma, the witness of inquest proceedings and alleged pairokar of the informant, lodged First Information Report with Police Station Bairiya under Section 506, 507 IPC naming Harish Paswan, Hari Singh and Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh with the allegation that they threatened and restrained him on 14.08.2021 from doing pairvi on behalf of the informant Nitesh Kumar Singh failing which he would also face dire consequences. This threat was given by Harish Paswan on a call made on the mobile of Sameer Thakur. On receiving this threat he promptly informed the Superintendent of Police, Ballia that he apprehended causing of death or grievous hurt by the said persons. After the investigation, a charge sheet came to be filed against these persons. Therefore, it is apparent that after releasing on bail pursuant to impugned bail orders, opposite parties Shabal Singh and Hari Singh made threat to witness Amit Kumar Varma of causing him death or grievous hurt.

41. The informant in his first information report mentioned that when he was taking his brother to Sonbarasa Hospital along with some persons, his brother told him that Harish Paswan S/O Indradev Paswan, R/O Babubel, Police Station Haldi, Hari Singh S/O late Kedar Singh R/O Bairiya and Raj Narayan Pandey S/O late Singar Pandey R/O Bairiya and two unknown persons had shot him. His brother also told him that Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh committed conspiracy to kill him.

42. It is to be noted here that the statement of the informant Nitesh Kumar Singh was noted down by the Investigating Officer on 16.07.2021 while the impugned bail order granting bail to opposite party Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh was passed on 05.08.2021. Therefore, the statement of the informant Nitesh Kumar Singh that deceased before his last breath made an oral dying declaration was available on record while passing the impugned bail order dated 05.08.2021 but it was not taken into consideration by the trial court. Similarly, the statement of Ranjana Singh-sister in law (bhabhi) of the informant, was noted down by the Investigating Officer on 17.08.2021 wherein she stated that when Jaleshwar Singh @ Balbeer Singh was being taken to the hospital by the informant after the incident she was also sitting in the same car and that she was also the witness of the said oral dying declaration.

43. The statements of the informant and Ranjana Singh were available on record before the trial court but while passing the impugned bail orders dated 28.04.2022 granting bail to opposite parties Hari Singh and Raj Narain Pandey, these statements were not considered by the trial Court. Therefore, it can be said that the credible evidence was not taken into consideration by the trial Court.

44. Opposite parties Hari Singh and Raj Narayan remained absconded soon after the incident. Process of non bailable warrants were issued against both of them. Opposite party/accused Raj Narain Pandey was arrested on 29.12.2021. Process of section 82 Cr.P.C. was issued by the competent court against opposite party/ accused Hari Singh. A reward of Rs.25,000/- was also declared on him to ensure his presence during the investigation. Pursuant to this process he surrendered before the trial Court on 15.12.2021. This aspect was also not taken into consideration while granting bail to Hari Singh and Raj Narain Pandey by the learned trial Court.

45. One important aspect to be taken into consideration is that the co-accused Abhay Bharti, who was identified through CCTV footage, was granted bail by this Court. His bail order was challenged before the Hon'ble Apex Court by the informant/ Applicant in Criminal Appeal No.374/2022 (@SLP (Crl.) No.339/2022) and the bail granted to him was cancelled by the Hon'ble Apex Court vide order dated 07.03.2022.

46. The argument is advanced on behalf of the opposite parties that the bail of co-accused Abhay Bharti was cancelled by the Hon'ble Apex Court since he was already convicted and sentenced for imprisonment of life under Section 302/506 IPC in another case, however, none of the contesting opposite parties have earlier been convicted.

47. This argument cannot be accepted since there is no denial that the opposite parties Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh and Hari Singh had criminal history to their credit which was concealed by them and they misled the trial court into believing that they had no criminal history to their credit. Moreover, the criminal history to the credit of opposite parties are not controverted by them.

48. The Hon'ble Apex Court in its order date 07.03.2022 observed that it was second case against co-accused Abhay Bharti under Section 302 IPC. In the present matter also this is a second case under Section 302 IPC against opposite party/ accused Hari Singh. The order of cancellation of bail granted to the co-accused Abhay Bharti was also not considered by the trial Court while passing the impugned order dated 28.04.2022.

49. The learned trial Court while granting bail to Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh vide order dated 05.08.2021 overlooked the oral dying declaration made by the deceased Jaleshwar Singh @ Balbeer Singh about involvement of opposite parties/accused who were accompanied by two unknown persons. Similarly, while passing the impugned bail order dated 28.04.2022 the learned trial Court completely overlooked the statements of the informant and Ranjana Singh as noted down by the Investigating Officer in which the oral dying declaration of the deceased was narrated.

50. On the basis of the above discussion it is concluded that:

(i) Opposite parties Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh, Hari Singh and Raj Narain Pandey were named in the first information report. Opposite party Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh committed conspiracy to kill Jaleshwar Singh @ Balbeer Singh. Opposite parties Hari Singh and Raj Narain Pandey were assigned the role that they open fired with firearm weapon at the Jaleshwar Singh @ Balbeer Singh which resulted in his death.

(ii) The deceased before his last breath made oral dying declaration before the informant and Ranjana Singh about involvement of these opposite parties in the incident. These statements were noted down by the Investigating Officer and were available on record before the trial Court while passing of the impugned bail orders. This evidence was completely overlooked by the trial court.

(iii) Opposite parties Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh and Hari Singh had criminal history to their credit which were concealed by them before the trial Court.

(iv) Bail granted to the co-accused Abhay Bharti has been cancelled by the Hon'ble Apex Court considering the facts and circumstances of the case.

(v) The statement of Jauhar Mistri was not taken into consideration by the trial Court while it was already available on record.

(vi) Pursuant to impugned bail order after their release on bail another Case Crime No. 207 of 2021, under Section 506, 507 IPC was registered against opposite parties Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh and Hari Singh and a charge sheet has been submitted against them for the offence of making threat of causing death or grievous hurt to the witness of the case.

(vii) The learned trial Court wrongly mentioned that opposite parties Hari Singh and Raj Narain Pandey were sitting in the same car with the deceased and they also received firearm injury and they committed conspiracy whereas a specific role of firing with firearm weapons at deceased were assigned to them and neither they were medically examined nor any medical report was available on record.

(viii) It was wrongly considered by the trial court that opposite party Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh also received firearm injury but it was not supported by any medical report. The observation made by the learned trial court is factually incorrect.

(ix) The learned trial court while passing impugned bail order dated 28.04.2022 also overlooked the aspect that opposite parties Hari Singh and Raj Narain Pandey were absconding soon after the incident and they eluded the process of law.

51. The learned trial Court passed the impugned bail orders taking into consideration the incorrect facts of the case, therefore, all the bail cancellation applications deserve to be allowed.

52. Having considered the facts and circumstances of the case, the material available on record and the observations made above, the Court is of the opinion that the impugned bail orders dated 05.08.2021 and 28.04.2022 passed by learned trial Court cannot be sustained. Accordingly, all the aforesaid bail cancellation applications are allowed and the impugned bail orders dated 05.08.2021 and 28.04.2022 are hereby set aside.

53. Opposite parties Shabal Singh @ Amritesh Singh, Hari Singh @ Hare Ram Singh and Raj Narain Pandey are hereby directed to surrender within a week before the court concerned.

54. Any observation made above shall not be treated as any finding on the merit and shall not prejudice the trial.

55. Registrar (compliance) is also directed to communicate this order to District Judge concerned for necessary compliance.

(2023) 4 ILRA 20
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 11.04.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE BRIJ RAJ SINGH, J.

Crl. Misc. Bail Application No. 4824 of 2023

Jeetan Lodh @ Jitendra ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Pradyumn Shukla, Qasim Abbas Zaidi

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A.

(A) Criminal Law - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 376, 452 & 506 - The Protection of Children From Sexual Offences Act, 2012 - Section 3/4, Section 33 (8) - Special Court may pay compensation to children for any physical or mental trauma for rehabilitation, The Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Rules, 2020 - Rule 9 - Compensation, The Code of criminal procedure, 1973 - Section 164 - Prosecutrix became hostile - denied allegation of rape against applicant. (Para -8)

HELD:-If victim became hostile and does not support prosecution case, amount of compensation given to the victim or family member should be recovered by the authorities concerned who have paid the compensation. State Government should pass orders and issue directions to the authorities to recover compensation.(Para -11,12)

Bail application allowed. (E-7)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Brij Raj Singh, J.)

1. Sri Arvind Mishra has filed his power on behalf of O.P. No.2, complainant which is taken on record.

2. Heard learned counsel for the applicant, learned counsel for the complainant and Sri Rajesh Kumar Singh, learned A.G.A.-I for the State.

3. This bail application has been filed by the applicant with a prayer to enlarge him on bail in Case Crime No.225 of 2022 under Section 376, 452, 506 IPC and Section 3/4 of POCSO Act, PS Gangaghat distt. Unnao.

4. Learned counsel for the applicant has submitted that PW-2 prosecutrix has not supported the prosecution case in cross-examination. She has deposed before the Court that she could not identify the person who committed rape against her. She has further stated that she had not seen the face of the person who committed rape. She has further stated that there is no enmity between her family and the applicant. It has been submitted that prosecutrix has totally denied version of FIR as well as the version of 164 CrPC before the Court. Once she has denied the version under Section 164 CrPC and the FIR, at the moment the applicant may not be held guilty and he is liable to be granted bail. He has further submitted that the PW-1 brother who is complainant has also not supported the prosecution case. The brother has stated that some other person had written FIR and he cannot read Hindi language, therefore, he could not come to know how the FIR was lodged. He has submitted that the applicant has no criminal history and he is in Jail since 20.5.2022.

5. On the other hand, Sri Arvind Mishra learned counsel for the complainant and Sri Rajesh Kumar Singh learned AGA-I have opposed the bail and submitted that version of FIR and statement under Section 164 CrPC are intact and in examination-in-chief, the prosecutrix reiterated the version of FIR as well as statement under Section 164 CrPC, therefore, the bail prayer be rejected.

6. Considering the over all facts and circumstances of the case, particular the cross-examination version of the prosecutrix PW-2, who deposed before the Court that she could not identify the person who committed rape against her and the version of the brother who is complainant, who has also not supported the prosecution case, it is a fit case for bail.

7. Let the applicant Jeetan Lodh @ Jitendra be released on bail in the above case crime number on his furnishing a personal bond and two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of Court concerned with the following conditions :-

(i) The applicant shall file an undertaking to the effect that he shall not seek any adjournment on the dates fixed for evidence when the witnesses are present in court. In case of default of this condition, it shall be open for the trial court to treat it as abuse of liberty of bail and pass orders in accordance with law.

(ii) The applicant shall remain present before the trial court on each date fixed, either personally or through his counsel. In case of his absence, without sufficient cause, the trial court may proceed against him under Section 229-A of the Indian Penal Code.

(iii) In case, the applicant misuses the liberty of bail during trial and in order to secure his presence proclamation under Section 82 Cr.P.C. is issued and the applicant fails to appear before the court on the date fixed in such proclamation, then the trial court shall initiate proceedings against him, in accordance with law, under Section 174-A of the Indian Penal Code.

(iv) The applicant shall remain present, in person, before the trial court on the dates fixed for (i) opening of the case, (ii) framing of charge and (iii) recording of statement under Section 313 Cr.P.C. If in the opinion of the trial court absence of the applicant is deliberate or without sufficient cause, then it shall be open for the trial court to treat such default as abuse of liberty of bail and proceed against him in accordance with law.

It is made clear that the observations made in this order are limited to the purpose of determination of this bail application and will in no way be construed as an expression on the merits of the case. The Trial Court shall be absolutely free to arrive at its independent conclusions on the basis of evidence led unaffected by anything in this order.

8. Before parting with the case, Sri Rajesh Kumar Singh learned AGA-I for State has pointed out that in rape cases as well as sexual offence against minor, the victim and her family is provided financial assistance. He has submitted that in the present case, the prosecutrix has become hostile and she has denied the allegation of rape against the applicant. Thus, the compensation amount if any, paid to the victim or her family should be recovered back. He has invited attention of this Court towards Section 33 (8) of the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act, 2012 which is quoted below:-

"(8) In appropriate cases, the Special Court may, in addition to the punishment, direct payment of such compensation as may be prescribed to the child for any physical or mental trauma caused to him or for immediate rehabilitation of such child."

9. Sri Rajesh Kumar Singh learned AGA-I has further invited attention of this Court towards Rule 9 of the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Rules, 2020 which is quoted below:-

"9. Compensation.--(1) The Special Court may, in appropriate cases, on its own or on an application filed by or on behalf of the child, pass an order for interim compensation to meet the needs of the child for relief or rehabilitation at any stage after registration of the First Information Report. Such interim compensation paid to the child shall be adjusted against the final compensation, if any.

(2) The Special Court may, on its own or on an application filed by or on behalf of the victim, recommend the award of compensation where the accused is convicted, or where the case ends in acquittal or discharge, or the accused is not traced or identified, and in the opinion of the Special Court the child has suffered loss or injury as a result of that offence.

(3) Where the Special Court, under sub-section (8) of section 33 of the Act read with sub-sections (2) and (3) of section 357A of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974) makes a direction for the award of compensation to the victim, it shall take into account all relevant factors relating to the loss or injury caused to the victim, including the following:-

(i) type of abuse, gravity of the offence and the severity of the mental or physical harm or injury suffered by the child;

(ii) the expenditure incurred or likely to be incurred on child's medical treatment for physical or mental health or on both;

(iii) loss of educational opportunity as a consequence of the offence, including absence from school due to mental trauma, bodily injury, medical treatment, investigation and trial of the offence, or any other reason;

(iv) loss of employment as a result of the offence, including absence from place of employment due to mental trauma, bodily injury, medical treatment, investigation and trial of the offence, or any other reason;

(v) the relationship of the child to the offender, if any;

(vi) whether the abuse was a single isolated incidence or whether the abuse took place over a period of time;

(vii) whether the child became pregnant as a result of the offence;

(viii) whether the child contracted a sexually transmitted disease (STD) as a result of the offence;

(ix) whether the child contracted human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) as a result of the offence;

(x) any disability suffered by the child as a result of the offence;

(xi) financial condition of the child against whom the offence has been committed so as to determine such child's need for rehabilitation;

(xii) any other factor that the Special Court may consider to be relevant.

(4) The compensation awarded by the Special Court is to be paid by the State Government from the Victims Compensation Fund or other scheme or fund established by it for the purposes of compensating and rehabilitating victims under section 357A of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 or any other law for the time being in force, or, where such fund or scheme does not exist, by the State Government.

(5) The State Government shall pay the compensation ordered by the Special Court within 30 days of receipt of such order.

(6 Nothing in these rules shall prevent a child or child's parent or guardian or any other person in whom the child has trust and confidence from submitting an application for seeking relief under any other rules or scheme of the Central Government or State Government."

10. It has further been submitted by the learned AGA that in compliance of the aforesaid Act and Rules, various Government orders have been issued by the State Government of U.P. i.e., on 9.4.2014, 7.6.2016 and 14.6.2016. The last Government order for paying compensation is issued by the State Government of U.P. on 14.6.2016. The Government order dated 14.6.2016 has been passed whereby the earlier Government order dated 9.4.2014 has been amended for providing compensation to the victim of the categories mentioned in the Government order dated 7.6.2016. The relevant portion of the said Government order dated 14.6.2016 is quoted below:-

1), Rs.3,00,000/- for the victim of rape;

2) Rs. 1,00,000/- for the victim suffering from loss or injury causing severe mental agony to the victim of the crime (under Section 325, 326, 333, 394, 429, 435 and 436 IPC;

3) Rs.5,00,000/- to the victim of corrosive substance i..e, acid attack etc.;

4) Rs.1,50,000/- on death (non-earning member).

5) Rs.2,00,000/- on death (earning member).

6) Rs.2,00,000/- to the victim of human trafficking.

7) For offences under Section 4, 6, 7, 9, 11 and 14 of the Protection of the Children from Sexual Offences Act, 2012:-

(a) Rs.2,00,000/- to the victim of penetrative sexual assault (Section 4).

(b) Rs.2,00,000/- to the victim of aggravated penetrative sexual assault (Section 6).

(c) Rs.1,00,000/- to the victim of sexual assault (Section 7).

(d) Rs.1,50,000/- to the victim of aggravated sexual assault (Section 9).

(e) Rs.1,00,000/- to the victim of sexual harassment (Section 11).

(f) Rs.1,00,000/- to the victim of using child for pornographic purpose (Section 14).

8) Rs.2,00,000/- to the victim of burns affecting greater than 25% of the body (excluding acid attack cases).

9) Rs.50,000/- to the victim of sexual assault (excluding rape).

10) Rs.50,000/- to the victim of loss of foetus.

11) Rs.1,50,000/- to the victim of loss of fertility.

12) Rs.2,00,000/- to the victim of permanent disability (80% or more).

13) Rs.1,00,000/- to the victim of partial disability (40% to 80%).

14 Women victims of cross border firing:-

(a) Rs. 2,00,000/- victim of death or permanent disability (80% or more).

(b) Rs.1,00,000/- to the victim of partial disability (40% to 80%).

11. Now, the question has cropped up before me as to whether, the prosetrix who has become hostile is entitled to retain the amount of compensation. In my opinion, if the victim has become hostile and does not support the prosecution case at all, it is appropriate to recover the amount if paid to the victim. The victim is the person who comes before the Court and during trial if she denies the allegation of rape and becomes hostile, there is no justification to keep the amount of compensation provided by the State Government. The State Exchequer cannot be burdened like this and there is all possibility of misuse of the laws. Therefore, in my opinion, the amount of compensation given to the victim or the family member, is liable to be recovered by the authorities concerned who have paid the compensation.

12. Therefore, considering the above aspect of the matter, it is directed that the State Government will pass appropriate orders and issue necessary directions to the authorities concerned to recover the amount of compensation if paid, in the cases, where the victim has become hostile during trial and not supported the prosecution. Let necessary exercise be done within a period of three months.

13. The Senior Registrar of this Court is directed to send a copy of this order to the Chief Secretary of Government of Uttar Pradesh for necessary compliance.

14. List this case in the second week of August and learned AGA will submit progress report.

(2023) 4 ILRA 24
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 28.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SANJAY KUMAR SINGH, J.

Crl. Misc. 2nd Bail Application No. 30489 of 2022

Neeraj ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Sri Ali Hasan, Sri Deepak Kumar Singh

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A.

Criminal Law – Criminal Procedure Code, Section – 439 - Indian Penal Code, Sections 328, 376 & 506 - Protection Of Children From Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act, Sections 3 & 4 - Second Bail Application - FIR - offence of Rape, threat and dire consequences – court finds that, applicant is in jail since second day of incident but, trial has not been concluded - charges were framed since informant and victim are not traceable therefore case could not be produced for trial - applicant does not have any criminal history - Held, Case as well as keeping in view the nature of the offence, evidence, complicity of the accused and submissions of learned counsel for parties, this Court is of the opinion that applicant has made out a case for bail - hence, bail application is hereby allowed - directions issued for compliance, accordingly. (Para – 18, 19, 22, 23, 26)

Bail Application Allowed. (E-11)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Sanjay Kumar Singh, J.)

1. The prosecution case commenced on the basis of first information report lodged by Khushi Ram, who is the brother of the victim (hereinafter referred to as 'the first informant') on 22.6.2016 against the applicant Neeraj to the effect that on 21.6.2016 when his family members were sleeping, the applicant entered the house and caused them to smell certain intoxicant, due to which they became unconscious. Thereafter, the applicant committed rape on her minor sister aged about 15 years (hereinafter referred as 'the victim') and also threatened her of dire consequences.

2. On the basis of the aforesaid report, a case was registered against the accused Neeraj at case crime No. 369 of 2016, under Sections 328, 376, 506 IPC and ¾ of POCSO Act, police station Sardhana, district Meerut. After lodging of the FIR, the law set into motion and the investigating officer arrested the applicant and after completing all the formalities thereof, submitted charge sheet against him. Vide order dated 06.1.2017, the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Court No. 7/Special Judge, POCSO Act, Meerut framed the charges against the applicant under the aforesaid sections.

3. Perusal of order sheet of the lower court shows that after submission of the charge sheet, neither the first informant nor the victim is appearing before the trial court and the accused has been in jail since 23.6.2016.

4. In the year 2017, the applicant filed first bail application (Criminal Misc. Bail Application No. 38021 of 2017), which was dismissed by the Coordinate Bench of this Court vide order dated 24.9.2019 as none appeared on behalf of the applicant to address the Court. However, after a lapse of about five years, in the year 2022, this second bail application has been filed on behalf of the applicant.

5. By means of this second bail application under Section 439 of Cr.P.C., applicant, who is involved in Case Crime No. 369 of 2016, under Sections 328, 376, 506 IPC and ¾ of POCSO Act, police station Sardhana, district Meerut, seeks enlargement on bail during the pendency of trial.

6. Since, the matter relates to the POCSO Act, notice was issued to the first informant vide order dated 16.2.2023. The Station House officer, Police Station Sardhana, district Meerut, in whose jurisdiction, the first informant and victim reside, was also directed to ensure service of notice upon the opposite party No. 2 and to file an affidavit in this regard by the next date fixed in the matter, i.e. 03.03.2023. However, neither the notice was served upon opposite party No. 2 nor the SHO concerned filed any affidavit.

7. On 20.3.2023, when this case was taken up, Shri Virendra Kumar Maurya, learned Additional Government Advocate made a statement at the Bar that the order of this Court dated 16.2.2023 was communicated to the Station House Officer, police station Sardhana, district Meerut through the Senior Superintendent of Police, Meerut on his email ID on 22.2.2023 and the same had been received in his office, but no heed has been paid by the S.S.P. Meerut and the SHO, police station Sardhana, district Meerut to the order of this Court. However, by order dated 20.3.2023, learned Additional Government Advocate was granted a week's time to get the order dated 16.2.2023 complied with. The Senior Superintendent of Police, Meerut and Station House Officer, Sardhana, district Meerut were also directed to show cause as to why the order dated 16.2.2023 has not been complied with by them. They were also directed to produce the victim of the instant case before this Court, failing which they have to appear before this Court on 28.3.2023.

8. As the aforesaid officers failed to produce the victim, they appeared before this Court in person.

9. So far as the order of this Court dated 20.3.2023 is concerned, it speaks in two volumes. Firstly, in spite of the order of this Court 16.2.2023, which was communicated to the Station House Officer, police station Sardhana, district Meerut through the Senior Superintendent of Police, Meerut on his email ID on 20.3.2023 and the same having been received in his office, why no response to the said order has been given and secondly, pursuant to the order of this Court dated 20.3.2023, victim has not been produced.

10. Pursuant to the order of this Court dated 20.3.2023, Shri Rama Kant Pachauri, presently posted as Inspector, police station Sardhana, district Meerut has filed his personal affidavit stating therein the steps taken to search the victim. He has stated in his affidavit that the victim was living in a rented house at Mohalla Cantonment, Police Station Sardhana, district Meerut. When the police personnel went to the aforesaid address, the landlord told that she had already left the house and that he does not have any information about the victim. Thereafter, the police visited the permanent address of the informant at Narnaul, Haryana where his brother told the police that neither the first informant is living in the village nor does have any relation about him and that his father has dispossessed the first informant from his property. Thereafter, the police contacted the Sarpanch of the village, who also told the police that Khushi Ram (informant) left the village about 4-5 years back. The Sarpanch of the village has also given a certificate to this effect. Thereafter, the SHO sent one SI Param Lal Singh at Tariza Nagar, Dhariwal, police station Dhariwal, district Gurdaspur, where he was told that informant of this case sold out his movable and immovable properties and left the village about 19-20 years back. In view of the above circumstances, the victim could not be traced out.

11. Shri Rohit Singh Sajwan, presently posted as Senior Superintendent of Police, Meerut submits that the order of this Court dated 16.2.2023 was communicated to his office, but Head Constable Nishant Chawla, who is dealing with the matter, did not forward the same to the Station House Officer, Sardhana, district Meerut to ensure compliance thereof. Therefore, they could not forward any information to the learned Additional Government Advocate. He further submits that as soon as he came to know about the lapse on the part of Head Constable Nishant Chawla in complying with the orders of this Court dated 16.2.2023 and 20.3.2023, he immediately suspended him for his dereliction in duties. He tenders his unconditional apology for the inconvenience caused to this Court for non-compliance of the order dated 16.2.2023.

12. Shri Rohit Singh Sajwan, Senior Superintendent of Police, Meerut also submits that he has discussed the matter with the senior officers of the department in respect of issuance of general guidelines regarding taking ID, mobile number, Adhar number, undertaking of the informant and the victim, who are living in a rented house that in case they shift to another house, they shall inform the police station concerned etc. at the time of lodging of FIR and to take other suitable steps in order to ensure the presence of the informant/victim before the trial court at the time of their examination.

13. The Senior Superintendent of Police, Meerut assures the Court that the aforesaid guidelines shall be issued by the higher authorities within three months. This Court has no reason to doubt the bona fide of the officer concerned.

14. The personal appearance of Shri Rohit Singh Sajwan, Senior Superintendent of Police, Meerut and Shri Rama Kant Pachauri, Inspector, police station Sardhana is dispensed with.

15. Since the applicant has been in jail since 23.6.2016, therefore, this Court proceeds to decide the prayer of bail of the applicant on its merits.

16. Heard learned counsel for the applicant and learned Additional Government Advocate representing the State.

17. By means of this second bail application under Section 439 of Cr.P.C., applicant, who is involved in Case Crime No. 369 of 2016, under Sections 328, 376, 506 IPC and ¾ of POCSO Act, police station Sardhana, district Meerut, seeks enlargement on bail during the pendency of trial.

18. The main substratum of argument of learned counsel for the applicant is that the applicant has been in jail since 23.6.2016, but the trial has not been concluded. This Court vide order dated 10.1.2023 had called for a report from the trial court through the District Judge, Meerut. Purusant to the said order, the learned Additional Sessions Judge/Special Judge, (POCSO Act), Meerut submitted his report dated 20.1.2023 mentioning there that in this case charge sheet was submitted on 14.9.2016 and charges were framed against the applicant on 06.1.2017, but in spite of best efforts, informant and victim of the case could not be produced for trial. Statements of formal witnesses have already been recorded. In spite of best efforts, the informant and the victim are not traceable.

19. It is submitted by the learned counsel for the applicant that there is no chance of the applicant fleeing away from the judicial process or tampering with the prosecution evidence. The applicant does not have any criminal history and is languishing in jail since 23.6.2016 and in case, he is released on bail, he will not misuse the liberty of bail and cooperate with the trial.

20. Per contra, learned Additional Government Advocate opposed the prayer for bail of the applicant, but could not dispute the above factual aspect of the matter.

21. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and examined the matter in its entirety, I find that the victim and informant are not traceable and that the applicant is languishing in jail since 23.6.2016.

22. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case as well as keeping in view the nature of the offence, evidence, complicity of the accused and submissions of the learned counsel for the parties, this Court is of the opinion that the applicant has made out a case for bail. Hence, the bail application is hereby allowed.

23. Let the applicant Neeraj, be released on bail in the aforesaid case crime number on furnishing a personal bond and two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of the court concerned with the following conditions:

(i) That the applicant shall cooperate in the expeditious disposal of the trial and shall regularly attend the court unless inevitable.

(ii) That the applicant shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence.

(iii) That after his release, the applicant shall not involve in any criminal activity.

(iv) The identity, status and residential proof of sureties will be verified by court concerned before the release of the applicant.

24. In case of breach of any of the conditions mentioned above, court concerned will be at liberty to cancel the bail of the applicant.

25. Copy of this order shall be communicated to the Senior Superintendent of Police, Meerut by the learned Government Advocate for onward transmission to the authorities concerned.

26. The Registrar (Compliance) of this Court is directed to send a copy of this order to the Director General of Police, U.P. Lucknow and Legal Remembrancer, U.P. Lucknow for compliance.

27. Although this bail application has been disposed of, but the same shall be listed before this Court on 14.7.2023 for limited purpose of compliance of the order in respect of issuance of necessary guidelines as discussed above by the authorities concerned.

(2023) 4 ILRA 28
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 23.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SAMEER JAIN, J.

Crl. Misc. First Bail Application No. 57731 of 2022
Connected With
Crl. Misc. Bail Application No. 60061 of 2022

Mohd. Tufail ...Applicant
Versus
U.O.I. & Anr. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Sri Anil Kumar Srivastava

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
A.S.G.I., Sri Krishna Agarawal, Sri Vinay Kumar Singh

Criminal Law – Criminal Procedure Code, Section – 439 - Custom Act, 1962 - Sections 2(33), 11, 104, 104(6), 104(7), 108, 111, 125, 135(1)(A) & 135(1)(B) - Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act,1985 - Section – 67 - Bail Application - intelligence input about smuggling of Foreign Origin Gold by the accused applicants - recovering of total 2548.5 gm gold from the possession of applicants - Whether value of individually recovered gold should be considered or value of combined recovered gold should be considered - Held, According to prosecution gold was recovered from possession of applicants which was liable for confiscation Section 111 of Customs Act and as per Section 125 Customs Act authority concerned may levy fine in lieu of confiscation and therefore, it appears from provisions of Section 11 of Customs Act gold is not prohibited goods but it is restricted goods and as per Section 125 Customs Act in lieu of confiscation fine may be levied - As import of gold is not prohibited but restricted subject to prescribed payment of duty, thus alleged recovered gold is not prohibited goods Section 2(33) Customs Act, but, it is restricted goods in view of judgment of three Judges Bench of Apex Court in case of 'Atul Automation' - Alleged offence committed by the applicants is Bailable one, hence, they are entitled to be released on bail - Bail Application allowed - directions accordingly. (Para – 39, 40)

Appeal Dismissed. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. Air Customs Vs Begaim Akynova, Writ Petition (Criminal) No.1974 of 2021, decided on 3.1.2022

2. Toofan Singh Vs St. of T.N., 2021 (4) SCC 1

3. Satender Kumar Antil Vs Central Breau of Investigation & anr., (2021) 10 SCC 773

4. Om Prakash Bhatia Vs Commissioner of Customs, Delhi, AIR 2000 SC 581

5. Sheikh Mohd. Omer v Commissioner of Customs, Calcutta & ors., 1970 (2) SCC 728

6. Commissioner of Customs Vs Atul Automation Pvt. Ltd., (2019) 3 SCC 539

(Delivered by Hon'ble Sameer Jain, J.)

1. Since both the instant bail applications have arisen out of Case No.2 of 2022, under Sections 135(1)(A) and 135(1) (B) of Customs Act, 1962 (in short the Act) through Directorate of Intelligence, therefore, both the bail applications are being decided by common order.

2. Heard Sri N.I.Jafri, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Sri Ali Jamal Khan and Sri Anil Kumar Srivastava, learned counsels for the applicants, Sri Krishna Agarwal, learned counsel for DRI-opposite party no.2, Sri Vinay Kumar Singh, learned counsel for the Union of India and Sri Tanay Kumar, learned AGA, for the State.

3 The instant applications have been moved on behalf of the applicants with the prayer to release them on bail in Case Crime No.02 of 2022, under Sections 135(1)(A) and 135(1)(B) of Customs Act, 1962, through Directorate of Intelligence, during pendency of the trial.

BRIEF FACTS:

4. According to the prosecution, on 6.11.2022 an intelligence input was received by DRI that some persons, who were travelling in Train No.22422 in Coach-B-5 at Seat No.2, 3,54 and 56 are smuggling the foreign origin gold and they boarded in the Train from Jodhpur, Rajasthan and are going to deliver smuggled foreign origin gold in Rampur, Uttar Pradesh. Thereafter on 6.11.2022 Team of DRI Officers arrived at Rewari Junction Railway Station and when train arrived at the Junction at about 8.20 PM then Officers found that on the above mentioned seats applicants and two others were sitting and from the possession of applicant Mohammad Alam 549.5gm. gold in form for rods and from the possession of applicant Mohammad Tufail 526gm. gold in paste form were recovered. It is further alleged that from the possession of rest of accused persons, namely, Ishrat Ali 947.5gm gold and from the possession of Mohammad Naeem 525.5gm gold were recovered. Thus, as per DRI total 2548.5gm gold were recovered from the possession of applicants and two others. Thereafter, the extracted weight of alleged gold recovered from the possession of applicant Mohammad Tufail was ascertained and weight of extracted gold was ascertained as 448.50gm. As the gold recovered from the possession of applicant Mohammad Alam was already in solid form , therefore, it was not made part of extraction process.

5. According to the DRI, the market value of the total gold recovered from the possession of the applicants and two others was Rs. One Crore Thirteen Lacs Twenty Four Thousand Six Hundred and Eight and market value of the gold recovered from the possession of applicant Mohammad Alam and applicant Mohammad Tufail was Rs.27,98,054/- and Rs.22,83,762/- respectively. It is further alleged that the statements of applicants and other co-accused persons were recorded by the Custom Officers under Section 108 Customs Act and they confessed their guilt and stated that the alleged recovered gold was smuggled gold of foreign origin and they purchased it from Dubai.

6. All the accused persons including applicants also stated that they are known to each other and they collectively indulged in smuggling of gold of foreign origin.

7. After panchnama applicants were arrested on 9.11.2022 and investigation was commenced and after investigation on 5.1.2023 DRI filed criminal complaint against applicants and two others in the court of Special Chief Judicial Magistrate (Economic Offences) Meerut.

SUBMISSIONS ON BEHALF OF THE APPLICANTS :

8. Learned counsels for the applicants submit, entire allegation made against the applicants are totally false and baseless and applicants never indulged in smuggling of alleged gold of foreign origin. They further submitted that applicants and two others were forcibly apprehended by Officers of DRI from the Train on 6.11.2022 and thereafter by cooking up false story and planted recovery of gold they have been implicated in the present matter. He further submits, applicant were arrested on 9.11.2022, i.e., after about three days from the date of alleged seizure of gold.

9. Learned counsels for the applicants further submitted that as individually the alleged gold recovered from the possession of applicants is having value of less then Rs. One Crore, therefore, in view of Sections 104 and 135 of Customs Act, the offences alleged to have been committed are bailable. They further submitted, value of combined gold recovered from the possession of all accused persons including applicants can not be considered.

10. They placed reliance on the judgment of Delhi High Court in the case of Air Customs Vs. Begaim Akynova decided on 3.1.2022 in Writ Petition (Criminal) No.1974 of 2021.

11. Learned counsel for both the applicants further argued that from the train applicants and two others were taken to DRI Office, NOIDA and thereafter search was made and after three days they were made accused in the present matter after showing their formal arrest in the present case therefore, the procedure adopted by the DRI Officers is totally illegal and cannot be approved under the law as at the time when applicants were apprehended then neither search was taken at spot nor they were immediately arrested and thus applicants were under illegal custody of DRI for almost three days, i.e., from 6.11.2022 to 9.11.2022.

12. Learned counsels for the applicants further submit that statements recorded under Section 108 Customs Act are not admissible in view of the law laid down by the Apex Court in the case of Toofan Singh Vs. State of Tamilnadu, 2021 (4) SCC1.

SUBMISSIONS ON BEHALF OF THE OPPOSITE PARTIES.:

13. Learned counsel for the DRI as well as learned AGA and learned counsel appearing on behalf of Union of India submitted that from the combined possession of applicants and two others gold of foreign origin valuing more than Rs. One Crore was recovered and, therefore, considering the provisions of Sections 104 and 135 Customs Act alleged offences are non-bailable and although maximum punishment provided is seven years but as the present offence is economic offence under Special Act, therefore, even in view of the law laid down by the Apex Court in the case of Satender Kumar Antil Vs. Central Breau of Investigation and another, reported in (2021) 10 SCC 773 the bail applications of applicants should be considered on merit.

14. Learned counsel for the DRI further submits that on the specific intelligence input applicants were apprehended from the train while they were travelling from Jodhpur, Rajasthan to Rampur Uttar Pradesh and from their possession smuggled gold of foreign origin was recovered and although from individual possession of both the applicants gold valuing less than Rs.One Crore was recovered but total value of the gold recovered from the possession of applicants and two other co-accused persons was more than Rs. One Crore, therefore, considering the provisions of Customs Act applicants committed non-bailable offences.

15. Learned counsel for the DRI further submits that statements of accused recorded under Sections 108 Customs Act is admissible and the Apex Court in the case of Toofan Singh (supra) also held that Custom Officers are not Police Officers and, therefore, statements recorded under Section 108 Customs Act cannot be equated with the statements recorded under Section 67 NDPS Act as officers acted under NDPS Act are Police Officers therefore, in view of law laid down in Toofan Singh (supra) statements of applicants recorded under Sections 108 Customs Act are admissible.

16. He next submits that from the statementS of applicants it appears that they collectively smuggled the recovered gold and they were known to each other and, therefore, considering the fact that they as a team indulged in smuggling of gold of foreign origin, the entire recovery made from all the accused persons including applicants should be considered for the purpose of Section 135 Customs Act and as value of entire recovered gold is more than Rs.One Crore, therefore, applicants and others committed non-bailable offences.

17. He further submits that as all the accused persons including applicants were well aware that all of them were carrying gold, therefore, they are all having conscious possession over entire recovered gold and it cannot be said that they acted individually and as they committed alleged offence as a team therefore, total value of recovered gold should be considered.

18. Learned counsel for the DRI further submits that the recovered gold is prohibited goods as its import or export is subject to certain prescribed condition, therefore, as per Section 104 Customs Act, the offence committed by applicants is non-bailable and according to Section 135 Customs Act maximum punishment for such offence is 7 years.

19. He placed reliance on the judgment of the Apex Court in the case of Om Prakash Bhatia Vs. Commissioner of Customs, Delhi, AIR 2000 SC 581.

20. He further submits that applicant Mohammad Aalam was earlier also involved in act of smuggling with regard to foreign currency of US Dollar and Euros in the year 2020. He further submits that applicant Mohammad Tufail was also booked in three cases of smuggling and out of three cases, two cases were of the the years 2019 and 2022 and both cases related to smuggling of gold and another case was of the year 2021 which related to cigarettes valuing about Rs.3,18,000/-and, therefore, considering the antecedents of applicants, severity of punishment and manner of commission of instant crime, applicants are not entitled to be released on bail.

CONCLUSION:

21. I have given my anxious consideration to the rival submissions and perused the record of the case.

22. From perusal of the complaint and panchnama of the case it appears that from the possession of the applicants and two others total gold of the value of Rs.1,13,24,608/- was recovered and from the possession of the applicant Mohammad Aalam gold valuing Rs. 27,98,054/- and from the possession of applicant Mohammad Tufail gold valuing Rs. 22,83,762/- was recovered respectively , therefore, from the individual possession of both the applicants gold less than Rs. One Crore was recovered.

23. Applicants have been challaned under the provisions of Section 135 Customs Act which runs as follows:

"135. Evasion of duty or prohibitions.--(1) Without prejudice to any action that may be taken under this Act, if any person--

(a) is in relation to any goods in any way knowingly concerned in misdeclaration of value or in any fraudulent evasion or attempt at evasion of any duty chargeable thereon or of any prohibition for the time being imposed under this Act or any other law for the time being in force with respect to such goods; or

(emphasis supplied)

(b) acquires possession of or is in any way concerned in carrying, removing, depositing, harbouring, keeping, concealing, selling or purchasing or in any other manner dealing with any goods which he knows or has reason to believe are liable to confiscation under Section 111 or Section 113, as the case may be; or

(c) attempts to export any goods which he knows or has reason to believe are liable to confiscation under Section 113; or

(d) fraudulently avails of or attempts to avail of drawback or any exemption from duty provided under this Act in connection with export of goods or

(e) obtains an instrument from any authority by fraud, collusion, wilful mis-statement or suppression of facts and such instrument has been utilised by such person or any other person, he shall be punishable,--

(i) in the case of an offence relating to,--

(A) any goods the market price of which exceeds one crore of rupees; or

(B) the evasion or attempted evasion of duty exceeding fifty lakh of rupees; or

(C) such categories of prohibited goods as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify; or

(D) fraudulently availing of or attempting to avail of drawback or any exemption from duty referred to in clause (d), if the amount of drawback or exemption from duty exceeds fifty lakh of rupees,

(E) obtaining an instrument from any authority by fraud, collusion, wilful mis-statement or suppression of facts and such instrument has been utilised by any person, where the duty relatable to utilisation of the instrument exceeds fifty lakh rupeees, with imprisonment for a term which may extend to seven years and with fine:

Provided that in the absence of special and adequate reasons to the contrary to be recorded in the judgment of the court, such imprisonment shall not be for less than one year;

(ii) in any other case, with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years, or with fine, or with both.

(2) If any person convicted of an offence under this section or under sub-section (1) of section 136 is again convicted of an offence under this section, then, he shall be punishable for the second and for every subsequent offence with imprisonment for a term which may extend to seven years and with fine:

Provided that in the absence of special and adequate reasons to the contrary to be recorded in the judgment of the court such imprisonment shall not be for less than one year.

(3) For the purposes of sub-sections (1) and (2), the following shall not be considered as special and adequate reasons for awarding a sentence of imprisonment for a term of less than one year, namely:--

(i) the fact that the accused has been convicted for the first time for an offence under this Act;

(ii) the fact that in any proceeding under this Act, other than a prosecution, the accused has been ordered to pay a penalty or the goods which are the subject matter of such proceedings have been ordered to be confiscated or any other action has been taken against him for the same act which constitutes the offence;

(iii) the fact that the accused was not the principal offender and was acting merely as a carrier of goods or otherwise was a secondary party to the commission of the offence;

(iv) the age of the accused.

Explanation.- For the purposes of this section, the expression "instrument" shall have the same meaning as assigned to it in the Explanation 1 to Section28-AAA"

24. From the perusal of Section 135 Customs Act it appears that if any person acquires possession or the possession in any way is concerned in carrying any goods liable to be confiscated and market price of the goods exceeds Rs. One Crore then he may be punished with imprisonment for the term which may extend upto seven years along with fine.

25. Section 104 Customs Act deals with the power of arrest and it runs as follows:

"104. Power to arrest.--(1) If an officer of customs empowered in this behalf by general or special order of the Principal Commissioner of Customs or Commissioner of Customs has reason to believe that any person in India or within the Indian customs waters has committed an offence punishable under section 132 or section 133 or section 135 or section 135A or section 136, he may arrest such person and shall, as soon as may be, inform him of the grounds for such arrest.

(2) Every person arrested under sub-section (1) shall, without unnecessary delay, be taken to a magistrate.

(3) Where an officer of customs has arrested any person under sub-section (1), he shall, for the purpose of releasing such person on bail or otherwise, have the same powers and be subject to the same provisions as the officer-in-charge of a police-station has and is subject to under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (5 of 1898).

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974), any offence relating to--

(a) prohibited goods; or

(b) evasion or attempted evasion of duty exceeding fifty lakh rupees; or

(c) fraudulently availing of or attempting to avail drawback or any exemption from duty provided under this Act, where the amount of drawback or exemption from duty exceeds fifty lakh rupees; or

(d) fraudulently obtaining an instrument for the purpose s of th is Act or the Foreign Trade (Development and Regulation) Act, 1992(22 of 1992), and such instrument is utilised under this Act, where duty relatable to such utilisation of instrument exceeds, fifty lakh rupees, shall be cognizable.

(5) Save as otherwise provided in sub-section (4), all other offences under the Act shall be non-cognizable.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, (2 of 1974) an offence punishable under section 135 relating to--

(a) evasion or attempted evasion of duty exceeding fifty lakh rupees; or

(b) prohibited goods notified under section 11 which are also notified under sub-clause (c) of clause (i) of sub-section (1) of section 135; or

(c) import or export of any goods which have not been declared in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the market price of which exceeds one crore rupees; or

(d) fraudulently availing of or attempt to avail of drawback or any exemption from duty provided under this Act, if the amount of drawback or exemption from duty exceeds fifty lakh rupees or,

(e) fraudulently obtaining an instrument for the purposes of this Act or the Foreign Trade (Development and Regulation) Act, 1992(22 of 1992), and such instrument is utilised under this Act, where duly relatable to such utilisation of instrument exceeds fifty lakh rupees, shall be non-bailable.

(7) Save as otherwise provided in sub-section (6), all other offences under this Act shall be bailable.

Explanation.- For the purposes of this section, the expression "instrument" shall have the same meaning as assigned to it in Explanation 1 to section 28-AAA. "

26. According to Section 104 (6) Customs Act an offence punishable under Section 135 Customs Act relating to prohibited goods notified under Section 11 of Customs Act which are also notified under sub-clause (c) of Clause (i) of sub-section (1) of Section 135 Customs Act, or import or export of any goods which have not been declared in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the market price of which exceeds Rs. One Crore shall be non-bailable and as per Section 104(7) Customs Act all the other offences are bailable except provided in sub-section (6) of Section 104 Customs Act.

27. Therefore, from the perusal of Section 104 Customs Act it is evident that if import or export of any goods have not been declared as per the provisions of the Customs Act and market price of such recovered goods exceeds Rs.One Crore then offence will be non-bailable and similarly the offence committed with regard to prohibited goods also would be non-bailable.

28. In case at hand, from the individual possession of both the applicants gold valuing less than Rs. One Crore was recovered, however, value of total gold recovered from the possession of applicants and two others was more than Rs. One Crore.

29. Therefore, question arises whether value of individually recovered gold should be considered or value of combined recovered gold should be considered.

30. In Section 135 Customs Act, term "any person" has been used and, in my view, it denotes to an individual. The term "any person" cannot be interpreted as a group of persons. From the plain reading of Section 135 Customs Act it appears that it refers to an individual.

31. Delhi High Court also in the case of Air Customs Vs. Begaim Akynova (supra) observed that punishment which is to be imposed on the accused should correspond to the gold that has solely been recovered from his possession and each person should be made answerable for the recovery of gold found in his possession.

32. Therefore, in my view, for the purpose of Section 135 Customs Act value of individually recovered gold should be considered and not the value of combined recovered gold.

33. The next question in the case at hand is whether alleged recovered gold was prohibited goods as if it was prohibited goods then by virtue of Section 104 (6) and 135 Customs Act, the alleged offence committed by the applicants would be non-bailable and maximum punishment provided for such offence is seven years.

34. Prohibited goods has been defined under Section 2 (33) Customs Act which reads as under:

2 (33) —"prohibited goods" means any goods the import or export of which is subject to any prohibition under this Act or any other law for the time being in force but does not include any such goods in respect of which the conditions subject to which the goods are permitted to be imported or exported have been complied with.

35. From the perusal of Section 2(33) Customs Act it appears that every good is prohibited if its import or export is subject to an prohibition under the Customs Act or any other law for the time being in force.

36. The two Judges Bench of the Apex Court in the case of Om Prakash Bhatia (supra) observed that prohibition of importation or exportation could be subject to certain prescribed conditions to be fulfilled before or after clearance of goods and if conditions are not fulfilled, it may amount to prohibited goods.

37. The Apex Court in the case of Om Prakash Bhatia (supra) relied upon its earlier two Judges Bench judgment in the case of Sheikh Mohd. Omer Versus Commissioner of Customs, Calcutta and others, 1970 SCC (2) 728 in which it was held that any restriction on import or export is to an extent prohibition and any prohibition whether it is complete or partial is the prohibition and as held by the Apex Court in the case of Sheikh Mohd Omer (supra) "any prohibition" means "every prohibition".

38. Therefore as per the judgments of Sheikh Mohd. Omer (supra) and Om Prakash Bhatia (supra) of the Apex Court even if the goods are not prohibited but if there is some restriction on its import or export then it will be prohibited goods but both the above noted judgments of Apex Court were delivered by two Judges, recently three Judges Bench of the Apex Court in the case of Commissioner of Customs Vs. Atul Automation Private Limited, (2019) 3 Supreme Court Cases 539 with regard to multi function device observed that MFDs were not prohibited but restricted items for import and further observed that there will exist fundamental distinction between what is prohibited and what is restricted. Therefore, from the case of Atul Automation (supra) it appears that on the basis of restriction on import a good cannot be said to be prohibited good in terms of Section 2 (33) Customs Act .

39. In case as hand, according to the prosecution, gold was recovered from the possession of the applicants which was liable for confiscation under Section 111 of the Customs Act and as per Section 125 Customs Act the authority concerned may levy fine in lieu of confiscation and, therefore, it appears from the provisions of Section 11 of Customs Act gold is not prohibited goods but it is restricted goods and as per Section 125 Customs Act in lieu of confiscation fine may be levied. Therefore, as import of gold is not prohibited but restricted subject to prescribed payment of duty, thus alleged recovered gold is not prohibited goods under Section 2(33) Customs Act but it is restricted goods in view of the judgment of three Judges Bench of the Apex Court in the case of Atul Automation (supra).

40. Therefore, from the discussions made above, it appears that applicants committed offence under the provisions of Customs Act for which maximum punishment is three ye/ars and as their case does not fall under Section 104 (6) Customs Act, therefore, by virtue of Section 104(7) Customs Act the alleged offence committed by applicants is bailable one, therefore, they are entitled to be released on bail.

41. Accordingly, without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, both the instant bail applications are allowed.

42. Let the applicants-Mohd. Tufail and Mohammad Alam be released on bail in the aforesaid case on furnishing a personal bond and two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of the court concerned with the following conditions:-

(i) The applicants shall appear before the trial court on the dates fixed, unless their personal presence is exempted.

(ii) The applicants shall not directly or indirectly, make inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or any police officer or tamper with the evidence.

(iii) The applicants shall not indulge in any criminal and anti-social activity.

43. In case of breach of any of the above condition, the prosecution will be at liberty to move an application before this Court for cancellation of the bail of the applicants.

(2023) 4 ILRA 37
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 13.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE UMESH CHANDRA SHARMA, J.

Crl. Misc. First Bail Application No. 59154 of 2022

Kamaruddin ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. ...Opposite Party

Counsel for the Applicant:
Sri Sushil Kumar, Sri Mukul Yadav

Counsel for the Opposite Party:
G.A.

(i) Criminal Law - Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Sections 161 & 164 - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 306, 354, 354(ka), 366, 376, 376(d), 504 & 506 - Application for Bail – Rape - accused person threaten the deceased - also tortured, abetted and recorded the illicit video clips of the incident - victim commit suicide - Application of Bail - ground taken that, that in the other connected matter to this case co-accused have been released on Bail - court finds that, Incarceration in Jail has no significance and no element in society can act in a manner by consequence of which life or liberty of others is Jeopardised - held, it is not universal rule that bail should be granted to the co-accused n the ground of parity - Parity cannot be the sole ground of Bail - accordingly, bail application rejected. (Para – 12, 13)

Bail Application Rejected. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. Sanjay Chandra Vs C.B.I., A.I.R. 2012 (SC) 830,

2. Ash Muhammad Vs Shiv Raj Singh, (2012) 9 S.C.C. 446,

3. Bhagat Singh Vs St. of U.P., 2009 (66) A.C.C. 859 (Alld.),

4. Ravi Khandelwal Vs St. of U.P., 2009 (67) A.C.C. 148 (Alld.)

5. Rajesh Ranjan Yadav Vs Pappu Yadav Vs C.B.I., A.I.R. 2007 (SC) 451

6. Amar Nath Yadav Vs St. of Punjab & Haryana, 2009 (67) (A.C.C.) 534 Alld

7. Shah Narain Vs St. of U.P., 2009 (66) A.C.C. 189 Alld.

8. Ajmer Singh Vs St. of Har., 2010 (5) S.C.J. 451

(Delivered by Hon'ble Umesh Chandra Sharma, J.)

1. Heard Sri Sushil Kumar, alongwith Sri Mukul Yadav, learned counsel for the applicant, learned A.G.A for the State and perused the record.

2. Applicant Kamaruddin is the main accused in Case Crime No. 594 of 2020 (S.T. No. 355 of 2021), under Section 306 I.P.C, Police Station Anoopshahar, District - Bulandshahr.

3. The applicant has moved bail application supported with an affidavit and Annexures, stating therein that on 16.11.2020 at about 01:00 p.m. in the noon informant's daughter committed suicide after closing the door of the room hanging upon a Kunda of room, leaving a suicide note on the place of occurrence alleging that the present accused-applicant and co-accused Mobin and Abrar are the reason behind her suicidal death.

4. Earlier also F.I.R in Case Crime No. 549 of 2020, U/s 366, 376 and 354 I.P.C was lodged by the deceased against them.

5. After inquest, during the postmortem ligature mark in size of 29 c.m x 2 c.m present around the neck was found. The Doctor opined that the deceased had died due to Asphyxia arised out of ante-mortem hanging. The first informant has reiterated the version of the F.I.R in his statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. In suicide note it was stated that the deceased was B.A and was the student of LL.B (Ist Year) and applicant - accused Kamaruddin used to come to her frequently. On 03.10.2020, when she went to the Bank, all the accused persons carried her in a vehicle and tried to rape her for which she had lodged F.I.R. Later on when the applicant made an apology and proposed that if she gives favourable statement, he would marry with her. Thereafter, the deceased had given statement in favour of the applicant. On 16.10.2020, after receiving the message of the applicant, she came out of the village at about 04:00 p.m. wherefrom she was forcibly taken by the accused persons and on the pretext of marriage, the applicant committed rape with her and Mobin and Abrar made a illicit video clips of the incident and after describing fear of video they both also committed rape with her and left her in Kasba Chhata and also threatened that if she lodged any case, they would viral that video.

6. The applicant has taken ground that there is no iota of evidence that the applicant had tortured and abetted the applicant. In case crime No. 505 of 2020 under Sections 506, 366 & 354 I.P.C, the victim had denied the allegations in her statement recorded under Section 164 Cr.P.C. The applicant met to the deceased on 03.10.2020 and thereafter an F.I.R in Case No. 549 of 2020 under Sections 366, 376, 354 I.P.C had been lodged in which the applicant has been released on bail by this Court on 11.11.2022 in Criminal Misc. bail Application No. 29731 of 2022. The present case is connected with the above two cases, except these cases, there is no any criminal history to his credit. The statement of the deceased-victim P.W. 1 in the previous case is contrary to her statement under Section161 Cr.P.C. After meeting between the deceased and accused on 03.10.2020, the deceased had committed suicide on 16.11.2020, therefore no case of abetment to commit suicide is made out. Co-accused Abrar and Mobin have been released on bail by the Apex Court and this Court respectively by orders dated 21.11.2022 and 28.11.2022. His bail application has been illegally rejected by the Sessions Judge, Bulandshahr vide order dated 15.03.2022. He is in jail since 17.11.2020. He is a peace loving and law abiding citizen, there is no likelihood of his abscondance and tempering with the prosecution evidence, he is ready to follow all the conditions of bail and is ready to fully cooperate in the trial, therefore the bail application be allowed.

7. The learned A.G.A opposed the bail application and argued that since long the accused persons were committing the crime with the deceased and had made her life worse and hell. They used to rape her repeatedly by showing fear of making the video viral. For an offence of abetment to commit suicide, now-a-days, it is not necessary to abet such offence physically or personally, but it can be made through Whats-app, Face-book, E-mail etc. or through any other way. In this case after meeting with the deceased on 03.10.2022, the accused-applicant used to threat her and abated her for committing suicide, therefore, having no any alternative, for the sake of her dignity, respect and honour, the deceased committed suicide. The applicant is the main accused, therefore no parity of grant of bail can be tendered to the applicant.

8. After hearing the argument and after perusal of the papers, it reveals that firstly a case under Sections 366, 354 and 506 I.P.C in Case Crime No. 520 of 2020 was registered in P.S. Anoopshahar, District Bulandshahar against applicant-Kamruddin, in which after getting assurance of the marriage, the deceased had given a hostile statement under Section 164 Cr.P.C. Later on, again an F.I.R in Case Crime No. 549 of 2020 under Sections 366, 354-Ka, 504 and 376-D I.P.C was registered against the applicant and the co-accused persons in the same Police Station, in which the co-accused Abrar and Mobin had been granted bail by another Bench of this Court and on the basis of parity the present applicant had also been granted bail on 11.11.2022 by Court No. 54 of this Court through Bail Application No. 29731 of 2022. At the time of allowing the bail, the period of languishment in jail was also considered, at that time the present applicant was in jail since 17.11.2020. By that order several conditions were imposed upon the applicants.

9. Learned A.G.A pointed out that conditions imposed by this Court were not complied with by the applicant and he was continuously tendering false promise of marriage and by alluring her all the accused persons raped her again and again thereafter the deceased came in delirious conditions. The accused persons had threatened the deceased that if she told anyone about this incident, they would make her porno-graphical videos viral. According to the informant the deceased had told him and her mother about the incident that had happened with her when she recovered.

10. Learned A.G.A also argued that there was no enmity or ground to falsely implicate the applicant-accused. In suicide note the deceased has written that she was the student of LL.B Ist Year, the accused Kamruddin was the resident of her village, who used to come to her house and used to talk with her. After sometime they both started talking through mobile as well. Taking advantage of this, on 3.10.2020, when she was going to Bank, Kamruddin alongwith his friends took her in his car and tried to forcibly rape her. Later on, he apologized and started weeping and said that if she did not give statement in his favour, the matter will escalate. He will marry with her, thereafter she stated in his favour, after that on 16.10.2020 accused-Kamruddin sent a message at 04:00 "O' Clock in the morning and called her on the road, outside of the village, where other two persons were also present. He took her in a car and there Kamruddin made a relationship with her on the pretext of marriage and said that now she might go right now. Now none of them would do anything, she might go anywhere. No one would harm her, go somewhere and die. Instead of Kamruddin, Anwar and Mobin, these three persons also raped her and ruined her life, left her nowhere to show her face, ruined her carrier and her future and forced her to die and also threatened that if any action was taken, her video would go viral, if they would have gone to jail. The family members and the police no one trusts her. She had no any other way to assure the parents. In the last line the deceased has written that she was committing suicide and for this Kamruddin, Anwar and Mobin were responsible. The police was also not doing anything. Pardon her, mom and dad SABA (deceased).

11. Learned A.G.A argued that if Kamruddin would not have done wrong, she would not have committed suicide. The role of rest two accused is much lesser and different than the role of present accused-applicant Kamruddin. In this case the informant has lost his young daughter and earlier instances show that the applicant-accused succeeded in getting the hostile statement from the deceased under the pressure and in the subsequent case under Sections 366, 376, 364-B I.P.C, the conditions imposed regarding the enlargement of bail have been mis-utilised by the accused. (Sanjay Chandra Vs. C.B.I A.I.R 2012 (S.C) 830.) Except this case the accused-applicant is also the prime accused in rest crime numbers 594 of 2020 and 505 of 2020.

12. In Ash Muhammad Vs. Shiv Raj Singh (2012) 9 S.C.C 446, considering the criminal antecedent, the Apex Court cancelled the bail granted by the High Court and observed that the concept of personal liberty of the person is not realm of absolutism, but is restricted one. Incarceration in Jail has no significance and no element in society can act in a manner by consequence of which life or liberty of others is Jeopardised.

13. In Bhagat Singh Vs. State of U.P. 2009 (66) A.C.C 859 (Alld.) in Ravi Khandelwal Vs State of U.P. 2009 (67), A.C.C 148 (Alld.), and in Rajesh Ranjan Yadav Vs. Pappu Yadav Vs. C.B.I A.I.R 2007 (S.C) 451, similar view has been taken by the Apex Court in Amar Nath Yadav Vs. State of Punjab & Haryana 2009 (67) (A.C.C) 534 Alld, Shah Narain Vs. State of U.P. 2009 (66) A.C.C 189 Alld. and Ajmer Singh Vs. State of Haryana (2010) (5) S.C.J. 451, that it is not the universal rule that bail should be granted to the co-accused on the ground of parity. Parity cannot be the sole ground of bail, as judge is not bound to grant bail on the ground of parity.

14. On the basis of above discussion, this Court finds the bail application without any merit and is accordingly rejected.

(2023) 4 ILRA 40
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 19.04.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE VIVEK KUMAR BIRLA, J.
THE HON'BLE SURENDRA SINGH-I, J.

Criminal Misc. Writ Petition No.10924 of 2019

Sanjay Verma ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Murlidhar Misra, Sri Akash Mishra

Counsel for the Respondents:
G.A.

(A) Criminal Law – Constitution of India, 1950 - Article - 72, 161, 162, 172, 226 - Arms Act, 1878 - Section - 25, - Cable Trespass Act - Section 24 - U.P. Gangsters and Anti Social Activities (Prevention) Act, 1986 - Sections 2, 3 & 3(1) - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 148, 149, 307, 448, 427, 323, 504, 332, 302 & 120-B - Writ Petition – filed by petitioner who was fatally injured in the related Session Trial in which respondent no. 5 was convict and sentenced - seeking writ of certiorari for quashing the impugned order passed by Governor of the St. has remitted the remaining part of sentence of respondent no. 5 - Session Trial by which sentence of the convict respondent no. 5 was remitted – court finds that, respondent no. 5 who has a criminal history of 26 criminal cases which was not brought to the notice of the Governor - it is settled law that, the by-product order cannot get the approval of law and in such cases, judicial hand must be stretched to it - hence, respondent no. 5 was not entitled to remission of sentence - thus, impugned order is liable to be set-aside - issue directions accordingly.
Para - 22, 23, 24, 25, 26)

Writ Petition Allowed. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. Satpal Vs St. of Har., (2000) 5 SCC 170,

2. Bikas Chatterjee Vs U.O.I.& anr., (2004) 7 SCC 634,

3. Epuru Sudhakar & anr. Vs Govt. of A.P. & ors., (2006) 8 SCC 161,

4. Narayan Dutt & ors. Vs St. of Pun. & anr., (2011) 4 SCC 353,

5. Maru Ram Vs U,O,I. AIR 1980 SC 2147,

6. Swaran Singh Vs St. of U.P. (1998) 4 SCC 75,

7. Gopal Vinayak Godse Vs St. of Mah., AIR 1961 SC 600

(Delivered by Hon'ble Surendra Singh-I, J.)

Heard Sri Akash Mishra, holding brief of Sri Murlidhar Misra, learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri Ratan Singh, learned A.G.A. for the State of U.P.

2. Vide order dated 25.04.2019, learned counsel for the petitioner was permitted to implead Man Singh, S/o Jardan Singh. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, Man Singh was impleaded as respondent no. 5 and notice was issued against him.

3. Vide order dated 16.03.2023, the Court held about the service of notice on respondent no. 5 as follows :-

"We find that notices were issued to the respondent no.5-Man Singh vide order dated 25.04.2019 and as per office report dated 01.05.2019 notices were issued to him by registered post A.D. fixing 20.05.2019. As per office reports dated 18.05.2019 and 24.07.2019 neither acknowledgement nor undelivered cover has been received back. Till date no one has put in appearance on behalf of the respondent no.5.

Accordingly, service upon respondent no.5 is deemed to be sufficient."

4. This writ petition has been filed by the petitioner, Sanjay Verma who was fatally injured in the related Sessions Trial No. 41/2007 in which convict respondent no. 5, Man Singh's sentence was remitted. The petitioner has prayed to :

(i) issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of certiorari quashing the impugned Government Order dated 01.02.2019 (Annexure No. 1 to the writ petition) passed by Vishesh Sachiv, Karagar Prashashan Evam Sudhar Anubhag-2, Uttar Pradesh Shashan, Lucknow;

(ii) issue any other suitable writ, order or direction which this Hon'ble Court may deem fit and proper under the circumstances of the case;

(iii) award the cost of the petition to the petitioners.

5. The Governor of the State of U.P. has remitted the remaining part of the sentence of Man Singh exercising his power under Article 161 of the Constitution of India. The Special Secretary, Jail Administration & Reforms has issued impugned order no. 314/22-2-2019-17(150)/2019, Lucknow dated 01.02.2019 granting aforesaid remission to convict respondent no. 5, Man Singh, son of Jardan Singh, lodged in Central Jail, Agra, who was convicted and sentenced with life imprisonment in S.T. No. 41/2007 u/s 148, 307/149, 302/149 I.P.C. and 25 of Arms Act by Additional Sessions Judge, Jhansi vide order dated 20.08.2009 and whose conviction was upheld by this Court vide judgement and order dated 12.09.2017.

6. It has been submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that released convict respondent no. 5, Man Singh, has a criminal history of 27 cases which were not taken into consideration while impugned order granting remission to respondent no. 5, Man Singh, was passed. The criminal history is as follows :-

(i) Case Crime No. 204/1985 u/s 147, 148, 307, 323 I.P.C., Police Station- Seepari Bazar, District- Jhansi.

(ii) Case Crime No. 257/1987 u/s 147, 148, 149, 307, 448, 427 I.P.C. and 24 of Cable Trespass Act, Police Station- Seepari Bazar, District- Jhansi.

(iii) Case Crime No. 259/1990 u/s 452, 323, 504 I.P.C., Police Station- Seepari Bazar, District- Jhansi.

(iv) Case Crime No. 299/1990 u/s 452, 323, 504 I.P.C., Police Station- Seepari Bazar, District- Jhansi.

(v) Case Crime No. 257/1990 u/s 147, 148, 149, 307, 332 I.P.C., Police Station- Seepari Bazar, District- Jhansi.

(vi) Case Crime No. 70/1991 u/s 307, 302 I.P.C., Police Station- Seepari Bazar, District- Jhansi.

(vii) Case Crime No. 150/1992 u/s 147, 148, 149, 302, 506 I.P.C., Police Station- Seepari Bazar, District- Jhansi.

(viii) Case Crime No. 205/1992 u/s 302, 120-B, 148 I.P.C. (Aajeevan Karavas) 09.09.03, Police Station- Seepari Bazar, District- Jhansi.

(ix) Case Crime No. 208/1992 u/s 3(1) Uttar Pradesh Gangsters and Anti-Social Activities (Prevention) Act, 1986, Police Station- Seepari Bazar, District- Jhansi.

(x) Case Crime No. 719/1993 u/s 323, 504, 506 I.P.C., Police Station- Seepari Bazar, District- Jhansi.

(xi) Case Crime No. 39/1994 u/s 147, 148, 149, 302, 307, 504, 506, 427 I.P.C. and S.C/S.T. Act, Police Station- Seepari Bazar, District- Jhansi.

(xii) Case Crime No. 190/1998 u/s 302, 34 I.P.C. (Aajeevan Karavas) 11.08.04, Police Station- Kotwali, District- Jhansi.

(xiii) Case Crime No. 304/1999 u/s 147, 148, 149, 302, 307, 504, 506, 427 I.P.C., Police Station- Seepari Bazar, District- Jhansi.

(xiv) Case Crime No. 425/2002 u/s 3 of U.P. Goondas Act, Police Station- Seepari Bazar, District- Jhansi.

(xv) Case Crime No. 686/2002 u/s 2/3 Uttar Pradesh Gangsters and Anti-

Social Activities (Prevention) Act, 1986, Police Station- Seepari Bazar, District- Jhansi.

(xvi) Case Crime No. 687/2002 u/s 2/3 Uttar Pradesh Gangsters and Anti-Social Activities (Prevention) Act, 1986, Police Station- Seepari Bazar, District- Jhansi.

(xvii) Case Crime No. 807/2003 u/s 110 of Cr.P.C., Police Station- Seepari Bazar, District- Jhansi.

(xviii) Case Crime No. 828/2003 u/s 147, 148, 149, 307, 504, 506 I.P.C. & 7 of Criminal Law Amendment Act, Police Station- Seepari Bazar, District- Jhansi.

(xix) Case Crime No. /2004 u/s 41, 102 Cr.P.C. and 411 I.P.C., Police Station- Seepari Bazar, District- Jhansi.

(xx) Case Crime No. 413/2004 u/s 379 I.P.C., Police Station- Seepari Bazar, District- Jhansi.

(xxi) Case Crime No. 167/2004 u/s 110 Cr.P.C., Police Station- Seepari Bazar, District- Jhansi.

(xxii) Case Crime No. 172/2002 u/s 107/116 Cr.P.C., Police Station- Seepari Bazar, District- Jhansi.

(xxiii) Case Crime No. 1463/2006 u/s 147, 148, 149, 307, 302 I.P.C. & 7 of Criminal Law Amendment Act (Aajeevan Karavas date 26.08.2009), Police Station- Kotwali, District- Jhansi.

(xxiv) Case Crime No. 85/2006 u/s 452, 323, 506B, 294, 227 I.P.C. and 25/27 Arms Act, Police Station- Tharet, District- Datiya (M.P.).

(xxv) Case Crime No. 1538/2006 u/s 25 Shastra Act, Police Station- Kotwali, District- Jhansi.

(xxvi) Case Crime No. 1591/2006 u/s 2/3 Uttar Pradesh Gangsters and Anti-Social Activities (Prevention) Act, 1986, Police Station- Kotwali, District- Jhansi.

(xxvii) Case Crime No. 75/2007 u/s 3(2) of National Security Act, Police Station- Kotwali, District- Jhansi.

7. It has also been submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that due to indiscriminate firing by respondent no. 5, Man Singh and other convicts, the petitioner, Sanjay Verma received grievous injuries and his bodyguard, Ajay Goswami died of gunshot wounds. It has also been submitted that convict respondent no. 5, Man Singh was previously convicted in four sessions trials u/s 302 I.P.C. with life imprisonment and in one case under Uttar Pradesh Gangsters and Anti-Social Activities (Prevention) Act, 1986, for 10 years imprisonment. The impugned U.P. Government Order dated 01.02.2019 has concealed these facts. The S.L.P. No. 1144/2018 filed by respondent no. 5, Man Singh against his conviction and sentence was dismissed by Hon'ble Supreme Court vide order dated 05.03.2018.

8. In the counter affidavit filed on behalf of the State, it has been admitted that respondent no. 5, Man Singh has been released vide G.O. No. 314/22-2-2019-17(150)/2019, Lucknow dated 01.02.2019 passed by Special Secretary granting remission to the petitioner. It has also been submitted that the impugned order dated 01.02.2019 has been passed by the Government of U.P. in accordance with the policy dated 01.08.2018. It has also been submitted that the power of remission is vested in the Governor under Article 161 of the Constitution of India for premature release of the convict persons and the impugned order was validly passed under Article 161 of the Constitution of India. In paragraph no. 9 of the counter affidavit, it has been admitted that at the time of release, respondent no. 5, Man Singh was confined in Central Jail, District- Agra. He was forwarded to Central Jail, Agra with two conviction warrant i.e. S.T. No. 41 of 2007 relating to Case Crime No. 1463 of 2006 u/s 148, 307/149, 302/149 I.P.C. and 25 Arms Act, P.S.- Kotwali, District- Jhansi where he was undergoing life imprisonment as awarded to him vide order dated 20.08.2009 and the second conviction warrant was with regard to G.S.T. No. 89 of 2007 in connection with Case Crime No. 1591 of 2006 u/s 3(1) of Uttar Pradesh Gangsters and Anti-Social Activities (Prevention) Act, 1986, P.S.- Kotwali, District- Jhansi wherein vide judgement and order dated 01.09.2017, convict respondent no. 5, Man Singh was awarded 10 years of imprisonment by the trial court. In paragraph no. 10 of the counter affidavit, the criminal history of respondent no. 5, Man Singh as given in the writ petition has been admitted. In paragraph no. 11 of the counter affidavit, it has been submitted that respondent no. 5, Man Singh, has been validly released after grant of remission in compliance of Clause 2-C of policy dated 01.08.2018 as mentioned in G.O. No. 564/2018/1106/22-02-2018-07G/2018 as he had undergone the sentence of 12 years 2 months without remission and 14 years 6 months and 10 days with remission. The Medical Board had given an opinion that the convict is having "congestive heart failure". It has also been submitted that convict Man Singh, was qualified to be released under Clause 2-C of policy dated 01.08.2018 and he was rightly released by the impugned order dated 01.02.2019. In the counter affidavit, Government Order dated 01.08.2018 issued by the Karagar Prashashan Evam Sudhar Anubhag-2, Uttar Pradesh Shashan, Lucknow has been attached as Annexure No. 1. The relevant provisions of Government Order under which convict respondent no. 5, Man Singh, has been released is as follows :

2 (ग) आजीवन करावास की सजा से दंडित ऐसे सिद्धदोष बंदी जिनका अपराध आगे धारा-3 में वर्णित प्रतिबंधित श्रेणी में इंगित किसी भी उपनियम से अच्छादित नहीं है तथा जो निम्न में से किसी बीमारी से ग्रसित हो एवम जिनके संबंध में उत्तर प्रदेश जेल मैनुअल के विवरण संख्या 195 में प्रवेशित मेडिकल बोर्ड द्वारा उक्त बीमारी से गंभीर होने का प्रमाण पत्र दिया गया हो और जिनके द्वारा विचाराधीन अवधि सहित 10 वर्षा की अपरिहार सजा तथा 12 वर्षा की सपरिहार सजा व्यतीत कर ली गई हो :

1- Advanced bilateral pulmonary tuberculosis

2- Incurable malignancy

3- Incurable Blood diseases

4- Congestive heart failure

5- Chronic epilepsy with mental degeneration

6- Advanced leprosy with deformities and trophic ulcer

7- Total blindness of both eyes

8- Incurable paraplegias and hemiplegics

9- Advanced Parkinsonism

10- Brain Tumor

11- Incurable Aneurysms.

12- Irreversible Kidney failure.

3. प्रतिबंधित श्रेणी (Prohibited Class which is applicable to respondent no. 5, Man Singh is) :

(x) ऐसे सिद्धदोष बंदी जिन्हें एक से अधिक आपराधिक प्रकरणों में आजीवन कारावास के दंड से दंडित किया गया है |

9. According to the aforesaid government notification, respondent no. 5, Man Singh's remaining period of sentence was remitted by the Governor under Article 161 of the Constitution of India as Man Singh had fulfilled the following requirements as per the provisions mentioned in the G.O. :-

(i) he had undergone the sentence of 12 years 2 months without remission;

(ii) the medical board had given an opinion that the convict is suffering from "congestive heart failure' which is one of the disease mentioned in the G.O.

10. The provisions regarding grant of pardons, etc., by Governor of a State is given in Article 161 of the Constitution of India which is as follows :-

161. Power of Governor to grant pardons, etc., and to suspend, remit or commute sentences in certain cases.- The Governor of a State shall have the power to grant pardons, reprieves, respites or remissions of punishment or to suspend, remit or commute the sentence of any person convicted of any offence against any law relating to a matter of which the executive power of the State extends.

11. Under this Article, the Governor has the power to grant pardons etc., and to suspend, remit or commute the sentence of any person convicted of any offence against any law "relating to a matter to which the executive power of the State extends".

12. According to Article 162 of the Constitution of India, the executive power of the State extends to matters with respect to which the Legislature of a State has power to make laws.

13. The exercise or non-exercise of pardon power by the President or Governor, as the case may be, is not immune from judicial review. The grounds for judicial review has been laid down in Satpal Vs. State of Haryana, (2000) 5 SCC 170 which has been referred to with approval by the Constitution Bench in Bikas Chatterjee Vs. Union of India and Another (2004) 7 SCC 634 wherein it was held as under :-

9. In a Division Bench decision of this Court in Satpal Vs. State of Haryana (2000) 5 SCC 170, these very grounds have been restated as: (i) the Governor exercising the power under Article 161 himself without being advised by the Government; or (ii) the Governor transgressing his jurisdiction; or (iii) the Governor passing the order without application of mind; or (iv) the Governor's decision is based on some extraneous consideration; or (v) mala fides. It is on these grounds that the Court may exercise its power of judicial review in relation to an order of the Governor under Article 161, or an order of the President under Article 172 of the Constitution, as the case may be.

14. In Epuru Sudhakar and Another Vs. Govt. of A.P. and Others (2006) 8 SCC 161, it was held as under :-

34. The position, therefore, is undeniable that judicial review of the order of the President or the Governor underArticle 72orArticle 161, as the case may be, is available and their orders can be impugned on the following grounds:

(a) that the order has been passed without application of mind;

(b) that the order is mala fide;

(c) that the order has been passed on extraneous or wholly irrelevant considerations;

(d) that relevant materials have been kept out of consideration;

(e) that the order suffers from arbitrariness.

15. The same view was reiterated in Narayan Dutt and others Vs. State of Punjab and another, (2011) 4 SCC 353.

16. In Maru Ram Vs. Union of India, AIR 1980 SC 2147, the Apex Court expressly stated that the power of pardon, commutation and release under Article 72 (also under Article 161) cannot run riot and must keep sensibly to a steady course and that public power "shall never be exercisable arbitrarily or malafide and, ordinarily, guidelines for fair and equal execution are guarantors of the valid play of power."

17. In Swaran Singh Vs. State of U.P., (1998) 4 SCC 75 where the Governor grants remission of sentence to a convict in ignorance of the fact that several other criminal cases were pending against him. The court invalidated the remission and observed that if the power under this article "was exercised arbitrarily", malafide or in absolute disregard of the finer canons of the constitutionalism, the byproduct order cannot get the approval of law and in such cases, the judicial hand must be stretched to it." Thus, the exercise of Governor's power under Article 161 is subject to judicial review.

18. This is an admitted fact that respondent no. 5, Man Singh has been convicted in S.T. No. 41 of 2007 relating to Case Crime No. 1463 of 2006 u/s 148, 307/149, 302/149 I.P.C. and 25 Arms Act and sentenced vide judgement and order dated 26.08.2009 u/s 302/149 I.P.C. for life imprisonment and a fine of Rs.1,00,000/-.

19. In Gopal Vinayak Godse Vs. State of Maharashtra, AIR 1961 SC 600, the Apex Court has held "a sentence of transportation for life or imprisonment for life must prima facie be treated as transportation or imprisonment of the whole of the remaining period of the convicted persons natural life."

20. The respondent no. 5, Man Singh was remitted the remaining period of his life imprisonment after a period of 12 years and 2 months by the Governor under Article 161 of the Constitution of India. The rules mentioned in the G.O. for remitting sentence of a convict requires fulfilment of following conditions :-

(i) the convict had undergone imprisonment for a period of 10 years without remission;

(ii) he was suffering from one of the disease mentioned in the G.O.;

(iii) his case is not covered by any of the provisions mentioned in the prohibited class of convicts;

The clause (x) of the prohibition class in the aforesaid G.O. dated 01.08.2018 mentions that the convict should not have been convicted in more than 1 criminal case with the sentence of life imprisonment.

21. Although the convict Man Singh fulfils the requirement relating to period of sentence undergone by him and his suffering from one of the disease "congestive heart failure" mentioned in the G.O., but his sentence cannot be remitted as his case is covered under clause (x) of the exempted class of convicts. Respondent no. 5, Man Singh has been convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment in following two S.T. cases :

(i) S.T. No. 41 of 2007 and

(ii) S.T. No. 26 of 1995, State of U.P. Vs. Sardar Singh and Others u/s 302, 120-B, 149 I.P.C. relating to P.S.- Seepari Bazar, District- Jhansi. The petitioner has filed the judgement of the 2nd S.T. at pages 107 to 154 of Annexure No. 10 of the writ petition.

22. Thus, respondent no. 5, Man Singh was not entitled for remission of sentence under the provisions of the impugned order issued under G.O. dated 01.08.2018 passed under Article 161 of the Constitution of India. Apart from this, in the impugned order by which the respondent no. 5, Man Singh has been granted remission in his sentence, there is no notice of the fact that he has a criminal history of 26 other criminal cases against him. As it has been held by the Apex Court in Swaran Singh (supra) that where the Governor granted remission of sentence to a convict in ignorance of the fact that several other criminal cases were pending against him, the byproduct order cannot get the approval of law and in such cases, judicial hand must be stretched to it.

23. From the above mentioned facts and circumstances of the case, we are of the considered opinion that respondent no. 5, Man Singh was not entitled to remission of sentence as this case was covered by the prohibition no. (x) mentioned in above G.O. dated 01.08.2018 and while granting remission, his 26 other criminal cases was not brought to the notice of the Governor.

24. Thus, the impugned order dated 01.08.2018 by which respondent no. 5, Man Singh was granted remission of sentence was without authority of law and is liable to be set-aside.

25. Accordingly, the writ petition stands allowed. The aforesaid impugned order no. 314/22-2-2019-17(150)/2019, Lucknow dated 01.02.2019 granting remission to respondent no. 5, Man Singh is hereby quashed and set-aside.

26. The respondent no. 5, Man Singh shall surrender before the Sessions Judge, Jhansi within 30 days from today and he will be sent to Central Jail, Agra, to undergo the remaining part of his sentence. In case, the respondent no. 5, Man Singh does not surrender within the aforesaid period, the Sessions Judge, Jhansi will take coercive measure to ensure his appearance before the court and send him to Central Jail, Agra for undergoing his remaining sentence.

27. Copy of the order be sent to Sessions Judge, Jhansi for necessary compliance.

(2023) 4 ILRA 47
REVISIONAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 13.04.2023
BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MRS. JYOTSNA SHARMA, J.

Criminal Revision No. 4365 of 2022

Yogendra & Anr. ...Revisionists
Versus
The State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Revisionists:
Sri Sanjeev Kumar Rai

Counsel for the Opposite Party:
G.A., Sri Devi Prasad Singh

Criminal Law – Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Section – 227 - Indian Penal Code,1860 - Sections 308, 323, 324 & 506 - Criminal Revision - Challenging the order impugned by which the application of revisionist for discharging the accused was rejected - FIR u/s 323, 324 of IPC - allegation of physically assault - after investigation, charge sheet was filed u/s 308, 324, 504 & 506 of IPC - Revisionists are aggrieved by order for framing charges u/s 308 of IPC in addition - plea taken by the revisionists that injuries sustained by the injured persons were not fatal in nature - Evaluation of Evidence - court finds that, from the contents of the FIR coupled with medical evidence, prima facie offence u/s 308 IPC is made out - at the stage of framing of charge no in depth enquiry into evidence or credibility thereto is required - hence, no any illegality or incorrectness in order so as to justify interference by Revisional court - Revision is dismissed. (Para – 6, 7)

Criminal Revision is dismissed. (E-11)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Mrs. Jyotsna Sharma, J.)

01. None responds for the revisionists. Learned A.G.A. for the State is present.

02. This criminal revision has been filed against the order dated 06.09.2022 by which the application moved under Section 227 Cr.P.C. for discharging the accused persons for offence under Section 308 I.P.C. was dismissed and case was posted for framing of charge.

03. The material facts are as below:-

The F.I.R. against the applicants and two more has been filed under Section 323 and 324 I.P.C. with the allegations that the accused persons were raising construction to encroach upon the land of Gram Samaj. The first informant and his brother protested. Irked over such interference accused persons physically assaulted the first informant Sanjay Tiwari and his brother causing them injuries. After investigation chargesheet has been filed under Sections 308, 323, 504 and 506 I.P.C.

04. Perusal of the revision memo shows that the revisionists are aggrieved by order for framing charge under Section 308 I.P.C. in addition and rejection of discharge application. The only ground taken by the revisionist is that injuries sustained by the injured persons were not fatal in nature. There was not a single fracture on vital part of the person of any of the injured.

05. I went through material on record. Papers show that there were three injured persons namely Ramashankar Tiwari who sustained seven injuries on his person and four out them were above neck, Chandan Tiwari who sustained five injuries, with one on the head and the X-ray showed soft tissues shadow, mildly increased over vault of skull. The third Umashankar Tiwari sustained three injuries.

06. It is settled position that number of injuries or nature of injuries are not the sole factor to decide upon whether any and if so what offence affecting human body is made out. The intention or knowledge as the case may be and even attending facts and circumstances may be of even greater significance.

07. In my view, nature of the injuries, seat of injuries and number thereof may be material but are not everything to decide upon the fact as to which charge is made out. However, in this case from the contents of the F.I.R. coupled with medical evidence , prima facie offence under Section 308 I.P.C. is made out. At the stage of framing of charge no in depth enquiry into evidence or credibility thereto is required. I do not find any illegality or impropriety or incorrectness in the order so as to justify interference by revisional court.

08. The criminal revision is dismissed at the stage of admission.

(2023) 4 ILRA 48
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 11.04.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE VIVEK KUMAR BIRLA, J.
THE HON'BLE SURENDRA SINGH-I, J.

Habeas Corpus Writ Petition No. 221 of 2023

Ahzam Ahmad & Anr. ...Petitioners
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:

Sri Sri Abhishek Kumar Mishra, Sri Khan Saulat Hanif, Sri Ravindra Sharma, Sri Shadab Ali, Sri Vijay Mishra, Sri D.S. Mishra (Sr. Advocate).

Counsel for the Respondents:
G.A.

Civil Law - Constitution of India, 1950 - Article 21, 22(1), 22(5), 226, - Indian Penal Code, 1860 Sections 34, 120-B, 147, 148, 149, 302, 307 & 506 - Criminal Law Amendment Act, 2013 - Section 7 - Criminal Procedure Code,1973 - Sections 50 & 97 - Juvenile Justice (Care & Protection of Children) Act, 2015 - Sections 37, 37(1)(a), 37(1)(b), 37(1)(c), 37(1)(d), 37(1)(e), 37(1)(f), 37(1)(g) & 37(1)(h) - National Security Act,1980 - Section - 3(2), 4 - Explosive Act, 1884 - Section - 3 - Writ of Habeas Corpus - petitioners are in Child Protection Home - petitioners are minor sons - police forcibly arrested them in illegal custody - through natural guardian mother of petitioners seeks direction in nature of writ of Habeas corpus commanding respondents to produce corpus and set them liberty forthwith - preliminary objection with regards to maintainability of a writ of Habeas Corpus on the ground of alternative remedy - they have availed effective statutory remedy by invoking provisions of section 97 of Cr.P.C. and thus, have put criminal administration of justice into motion - Held, as per the settled law writ of habeas corpus cannot be issued to set same at knot by simultaneously invoking extra-ordinary remedy under Article 226 - Moreover, when corpus are in Child Protection Home, petition would not be maintainable - petition stands dismissed.
(Para - 38, 39, 40)

Writ Petition Dismissed. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. Rachna & anr. Vs St. of UP & ors., AIR 2021 ACR 109 (FB),

2. Smt. Icchu Devi Choralia Vs U.O.I. & ors., (1980) 4 SCC 531,

3. Ayya @ Ayub Vs St. of U.P. & ors., (1989) 1 SCC 374

4. Bhim Sen Tyagi Vs St. of U.P. through D.M. Mahamaya Nagar, 1999 (2) JIC (All) (FB),

5. Chairman Railway Board & ors. Vs Chandrima Das (Mrs) & ors., (2000) 2 SCC 465,

6. Whirlpool Corp. Vs Registrar of Trade Marks, Mumbai & ors., (1998) 8 SCC 1,

7. In the matter of Mdhu Limaye & ors. (1969 (1) SCC 292),

8. Sunil Batra (II) Vs Delhi Administration, (1980) 3 SCC 488),

9. Dushyant Somal Goyal Vs Smt. Sushma Somal & anr. (1981 vol. 2 SCC 277),

10. Vinayak Goyal Vs Prem Prakash Goyal & ors., 1981 AWC 457

11. Ram Manohar Lohia Vs Superintendent, Central Prison, Fatehgarh, 1954 (0) Supreme(All) 149

12. Munshi Singh Gautam (D) & ors. Vs St. of M.P., 2004 (0) Supreme(SC) 1416

13. Prabhu Dayal Deorah etc. Vs District Magistrate, Kamrup & ors., 1973 (0) Supreme(SC) 320

14. Raman Lal Rathi Vs Commissioner of Police 1951 o Supreme (Cal) 209,

(Delivered by Hon'ble Vivek Kumar Birla, J.)

1. Heard Sri D.S. Mishra, learned Senior Counsel assisted by S/Sri Ravindra Sharma, Shadab Ali and Abhishek Kumar Mishra, learned counsel for the petitioners and Sri Manish Goyal, learned Additional Advocate General assisted by Sri A.K. Sand, learned A.G.A. appearing for the State respondents.

2. Present petition has been filed with the following prayers:-

]

"(i) Issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of writ of Habeas Corpus commanding and directing the respondents to produce the corpus before this Hon'ble Court and set them at liberty forthwith.

(ii) Issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of writ of Habeas Corpus commanding and directing the respondents may also be directed to satisfy this Hon'ble Court for the illegal detention of the petitioners."

3. The petition has been filed by minor sons (corpus) of Ateek Ahmad, Ex. MP under the guardianship of their natural guardian and real mother Shaishta Parveen. It is claimed that the petitioner no. 1-Ahzam Ahmad and the petitioner no. 2-Aaban Ahmad are student of Class-XII and Class-IX respectively and at present both the petitioners are minor. It has been disclosed in the petition that father of the petitioners, namely, Ateek Ahmad is in jail since 2017 and real uncle of the petitioners, namely, Khalid Azeem @ Ashraf is also in district jail Bareilly since 2020. The minor sons (corpus) are living with their mother. It is alleged that on 24.2.2023 at about 06:00 P.M. police of Police Station Khuldabad, Dhoomanganj and Puramufti came to the house of the petitioners without lady police and forcibly and illegally entered in the house of the petitioners by breaking the doors arrested the petitioners without showing any summon, warrant or any other document and police personnels also misbehaved with the petitioners as well as with their mother. The allegation is that the police personnels of Police Station Dhoomanganj, Puramufti and Khuldabad forcibly arrested the petitioners and have taken them in their illegal custody without disclosing any reason for their arrest and that the petitioners are innocent and are not wanted in any criminal case. The allegation is that the police authorities have illegally detained the petitioners without any authority since 24.2.2023. It is also alleged that the petitioners are in detention till today i.e. 3.3.2023 (till the date of filing of the present petition). It is alleged that the petitioners are being kept in some undisclosed location by the police and are being mentally and physically tortured without any authority of law or any other reason and thus, the petitioners are being deprived of their personal life and liberty provided under Article 21 of the Constitution of India, which clearly provides that the same cannot be affected except in accordance with the procedure established by law.

4. Fact regarding lodging of the first information report dated 25.2.2023 being Case Crime No. 0114 of 2023, under Sections 147, 148, 149, 302, 307, 506, 34 and 120-B IPC, Section 3 of Explosive Act and Section 7 of Criminal Law Amendment Act, Police Station Dhoomanganj, District Prayagraj regarding incident of murder of one Umesh Pal, who was eye witness in the murder case of Raju Pal, wherein father of the petitioners Ateek Ahmad and real uncle Khalid Azeem @ Ashraf are main accused has also been disclosed with a categorical statement that the petitioners are not accused in the aforesaid crime and copy of the first information report has been annexed as Annexure-1 to the petition.

5. A supplementary affidavit was filed on 23.3.2023 annexing therewith several documents. It has been stated that the police authorities have arrested the petitioners without any warrant in the night of 1.3.2023, however, we find that in paragraph 9 of the petition it has been stated that the petitioners were arrested on 24.2.2023 at 06:00 P.M. Annexure-1 to the supplementary affidavit is a copy of the application dated 27.2.2023 filed by the mother of the petitioners Shaishta Parveen before the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Allahabad regarding alleged illegal detention of the petitioners, namely, Ahzam Ahmad and Aaban Ahmad and prayed that a report be summoned from the Police Station Dhoomanganj in respect of the petitioners as to whether the petitioners are named in any crime so that necessary legal action may be taken. Annexure-2 to the supplementary affidavit is the report dated 2.3.2023 submitted by the Police Station Dhoomanganj that there is no GD entry in respect of the petitioners in the said police station and the alleged first information report being Case Crime No. 0114 of 2023 is being investigated by In-charge Inspector Dhoomanganj, who is out of the police station. Annexure-3 to the supplementary affidavit is a copy of the orders dated 28.2.2023, 3.3.2023 and report dated 4.3.2023 submitted by the In-charge Inspector Police Station Dhoomanganj to the effect that the applicant Shaishta Parveen is named in the first information report dated 25.2.2023 in a triple murder case and her sons petitioner nos. 1 and 2 herein were found in Chakia Kasari Masari area and they have been sent to Child Protection Home on 2.3.2023. Annexure-4 to the supplementary affidavit is a copy of the application moved by Shaishta Parveen on 6.3.2023, wherein prayer was made that Police Station Dhoomanganj be directed to inform about the report from the Child Protection Home. A copy of the order-sheet of the court of Chief Judicial Magistrate, Allahabad from 28.2.2023 to 20.3.2023 has been annexed as Annexure-5 to the supplementary affidavit. A copy of the order dated 21.3.2023 passed by this Court in Criminal Misc Writ Petition No. 4003 of 2023 (Khalid Azeem @ Ashraf vs. State of U.P. and others) is also annexed, which to our mind, is not relevant for the purpose of considering present petition in hand as the same relates to the relief that were being claimed by the petitioner-Khalid Azeem @ Ashraf (real uncle of the petitioners) exclusively for himself only.

6. Perusal of Annexure-1 to the petition reflects that the mother of the petitioners, namely, Shaishta Parveen, who has filed present petition as natural guardian and real mother of the petitioners, is also one of the accused along with father and uncle of the petitioners named above. It is further reflected that contrary to the statement made in the petition at Sl. Nos. 6 and 7 sons of Ateeq Ahmad have also been arrayed as accused. Specifically, at Sl. No. 6 accused is "Ateek Ahmad ka Putra" (i.e. son of Ateek Ahmad) whereas at Sl. No. 7 accused specified are "Ateek Ahmad ke anya Putra". Therefore, clearly, even without giving specific names other sons of Ateek Ahmad have also been arrayed as accused in the above mentioned FIR.

7. During course of arguments it also transpired that Shaishta Parveen, mother of the petitioners, through whom this petition had been filed, is absconding and is also carrying award of Rs. 25,000/- on her head.

8. It is alleged in the petition that the police authorities have arrested the petitioners without any warrant and are being detained illegally without there being any order of competent court / Magistrate and there is a clear violation of Section 50 Cr.P.C. in the present case. Crux of submission of learned counsel for the petitioners is that the detention of the petitioners is clear violation of their constitutional as well as statutory rights.

9. A preliminary objection was raised by Sri Manish Goyal, learned Additional Advocate General assisted by Sri A.K. Sand, learned A.G.A.-I that the present petition is not maintainable as the petitioners have already invoked provisions of Section 97 Cr.P.C. and have approached the competent court i.e. the court of Chief Judicial Magistrate, Allahabad and the corpus are in Child Protection Home. Submission, therefore, is that as the petitioners have already invoked the alternative effective statutory remedy, and moreso, when the stand taken by the police authorities that the petitioners are in Child Protection Home, therefore, on the ground of already invoked effective statutory remedy and also in view of Full Bench decision in the case of Rachna and another vs. State of UP and others, AIR 2021 ACR 109 (FB), the present Habeas Corpus petition is not maintainable.

10. Replying to the same, learned counsel for the petitioners Sri D.S. Mishra, learned Senior Counsel submitted that as there is a violation of Article 21 of the Constitution of India, therefore, existence of alternative remedy would not be a bar.

11. Learned counsel for the petitioners has placed reliance on judgments of Smt. Icchu Devi Choralia vs. Union of India and others (1980) 4 SCC 531 (paragraph 4), Ayya @ Ayub vs. State of U.P. and others (1989) 1 SCC 374 (paragraph 11), Bhim Sen Tyagi vs. State of U.P. through D.M. Mahamaya Nagar 1999 (2) JIC (All) (FB) (paragraph 21), Chairman Railway Board and others vs. Chandrima Das (Mrs) and others (2000) 2 SCC 465 (paragraphs 7 to 11), Whirlpool Corporation vs. Registrar of Trade Marks, Mumbai and others (1998) 8 SCC 1 (paragraphs 14 to 20), In the matter of Madhu Limaye and others 1969 (1) SCC 292 (paragraphs 10 to 14), Sunil Batra (II) vs. Delhi Administration (1980) 3 SCC 488 (paragraphs 20, 21, 26, 27, 30, 31, 40, 42), Capt. Dushyant Somal vs. Smt. Sushma Somal and another (1981) 2 SCC 277 (paragraphs 5 and 7), Vinayak Goyal vs. Prem Prakash Goyal and others 1981 AWC 457 (paragraphs 8 to 11), Ram Manohar Lohia vs. Superintendent, Central Prison, Fatehgarh 1954 0 Supreme (All) 149, Munshi Singh Gautam (D) and others vs. State of M.P. 2004 0 (Supreme (SC) 1416, Prabhu Dayal Deorah etc. vs. District Magistrate, Kamrup and others 1973 0 Supreme(SC) 320 and Raman Lal Rathi vs. Commissioner of Police 1951 0 Supreme (Cal) 209.

12. During course of argument, Sri D.S. Mishra, learned Senior Counsel submitted that the provisions of Section 97 Cr.P.C. would not be applicable in the present case.

13. On a pointed query by this Court that if this argument is to be raised, he must specify under which provision the mother of the petitioners Shaishta Parveen has moved an application before the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Allahabad, which is being pursued, wherein several orders have already been passed, if the said application has not been filed under Section 97 Cr.P.C.? We specifically note that no reply to the said question was given by the learned Senior Counsel.

14. In any case, we find that it is a settled law that mention of incorrect provision or non-mentioning of the provision by itself does not render the proceedings invalid and therefore, preliminary objection that the petitioners have already approached the competent court under Section 97 Cr.P.C. by filing effective statutory remedy is upheld.

15. Before proceeding further it would be relevant to take note of Article 21 of the Constitution of India, which is quoted as under:-

"21. Protection of life and personal liberty.- No person shall be deprived of his life or personal liberty except according to procedure established by law."

(emphasis supplied)

16. Article 21 clearly provides that no person shall be deprived of his life or personal liberty except "according to procedure established by law".

17. It is also relevant to take note of meaning of "habeas corpus' as provided under Law of Writs by V.G. Ramachandran Seventh Edition at page 5, which is quoted as under:-

"Habeas Corpus Meaning

"Habeas corpus" is a Latin term. It means "have the body", "have his body" or "bring the body". By the writ of habeas corpus, the court directs the person (or authority) who has arrested, detained or imprisoned another to produce the latter before it (court) in order to let the court know on what ground he has been arrested, detained, imprisoned or confined and to set him free if there is no legal justification for the arrest, detention, imprisonment or confinement.

According to the dictionary meaning, "habeas corpus" means "have the body", "bring the body-person-before us". Habeas corpus is a writ requiring a person to be brought before a judge or a court for investigation of a restraint of the person's liberty, used as a protection against illegal imprisonment.

It is a writ to a jailer to produce a prisoner in person, and to state the reasons of detention.

Habeas corpus is a writ requiring a person to be brought before a judge or court for investigation of a restraint of the person's liberty, used as a protection against illegal imprisonment.

Habeas corpus is a writ requiring a person under arrest to be brought before a judge or into court to secure the person's release unless lawful grounds are shown for his or her detention.

18. For ready reference, Section 97 Cr.P.C., which provides effective statutory remedy, is also quoted as under:-

"97. Search for persons wrongfully confined.- If any District Magistrate, Sub-divisional Magistrate or Magistrate of the first class has reason to believe that any person is confined under such circumstances that the confinement amounts to an offence, he may issue a search-warrant, and the person to whom such warrant is directed may search for the person so confined; and such search shall be made in accordance therewith, and the person, if found, shall be immediately taken before a Magistrate, who shall make such order as in the circumstances of the case seems proper."

19. We have carefully gone through the judgments cited by learned counsel for the petitioners and we find that none of the judgments so cited support the submission of learned counsel for the petitioners made in reply to the preliminary objection.

20. In Smt. Ichhu Devi Choralia (supra) order of detention passed under the provisions of Conversation of Foreign Exchange and Prevention of Smuggling Activities Act, 1974 was under challenge and also on the ground of violation of Article 22(5) of the Constitution of India. In paragraph 4 as relied on by learned counsel for the petitioners it has been laid down that the practice evolved by this Court is not to follow strict rules of pleading nor place undue emphasis on the question as to on whom the burden of proof lies. Such questions are not involved in the present case, and aforesaid case also does not deal with preliminary objection as raised in the present case therefore, the case is not relevant for the purpose of dealing with preliminary objection involved herein.

21. Reliance on paragraph 7 of the Ayya @ Ayub (supra) has been placed to assert that the personal liberty protected under Article 21 of the Constitution of India is sacrosanct and high in the scale of constitutional values. There is no quarrel about this proposition of law. However, it may be noted that in this case also the order of detention of the petitioner under Section 3(2) of the National Securities Act, 1980 was under challenge and therefore, this case is also not relevant for the purpose of disposal of issue of preliminary objection.

22. There can be no dispute that the question of interpretation of Article 21 of the Constitution of India and its applicability is not before this Court at this stage.

23. Madhu Limaye (supra) is also not on the issue of availability of alternative remedy and thus, does not address the preliminary objection raised by the State, where Madhu Limaye, Ex-MP and several other persons were arrested and question in relation to the compliance of Article 22(1) of the Constitution of India was raised. This case also does not provide any reply to the issue of preliminary objection.

24. In Sunil Batra (supra) right of a detenue in jail was under consideration, therefore, the same is also not relevant for the purpose of preliminary objection issue.

25. Similarly, in Re Keshav Singh 1964 0 Supreme (SC) 238 the paragraph relied on by learned counsel for the petitioners are on the question of grant of bail in habeas corpus matter, which again is not relevant for replying the issue of preliminary objection.

26. The judgments of Capt. Dushyant Somal (supra) and Vinayak Goyal (supra) are on the child custody and they are also not relevant on preliminary objection.

27. Munshi Singh Gautam (supra) is also not relevant as it is on the custodial death and thus, is not relevant in the present case on preliminary objection.

28. In Prabhu Dayal Deorah (supra) the detention order under the Maintenance of Internal Security Act, 1971 was under challenge and therefore, this case also does not address the preliminary objection issue.

29. Similarly, in Raman Lal Rathi (supra) the detention order under the Preventive Detention Act, 1950 was under challenge and is also not relevant. In the said case also the question of Article 22(5) of the Constitution of India was involved, which is not so in the present case.

30. In Ram Manohar Lohia (supra) the petitioner was arrested and scope of habeas corpus petition was considered and challenge to the constitutionality of the Act was also raised, however, we find that the same also does not provide any specific reply to the preliminary objection.

31. We find that in Whirlpool Corporation (supra) the question of maintainability of the writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India was considered and it was held that power to issue alternative writs under Article 226 of the Constitution of India is plenary in nature and is not limited by any other provision of Constitution and this power can be exercised by the High Court not only for issuing writs for the enforcement of any of the fundamental rights contained in Part-III of the Constitution but also for "any other purpose'. It was held that under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, the High Court, having regard to the facts of the case, has a discretion to entertain or not to entertain a writ petition but the High Court imposed upon itself certain restrictions one of which is that if an alternative effective remedy is available, the High Court would not normally exercise its jurisdiction but the alternative remedy has been consistently held by this Court not to operate as a bar. However, in three contingencies, namely, for enforcement of any fundamental rights or in violation of principles of natural justice or where the order proceedings are wholly without jurisdiction or the vires of an Act is under challenge it was held that alternative remedy would not operate as an absolute bar. The said judgment is being consistently relied on till now.

32. In The Chairman, Railway Board (supra) while the question of invoking jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution on India was whether the same can be invoked to get relief otherwise available under the private law.

33. In Bhim Sain Tyagi (supra) the question of challenge to notice issued under U.P. Control of Goondas Act, 1970 was involved and in this case judgment of Whirlpool Corporation (supra) on alternative remedy was relied on, which has already been discussed above.

34. We find that there is no quarrel with the law regarding invoking the jurisdiction of High Court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India that availability of alternative remedy is not an absolute bar. However, equally settled is the law that Courts ought to be extremely slow in exercising its extraordinary jurisdiction if effective alternative statutory remedy is available. In the present case, we find that the petitioners have already invoked the provisions of Section 97 Cr.P.C., which is an effective statutory remedy, therefore, it is not the question where preliminary objection is being raised solely on the ground that effective statutory remedy is available. In fact, preliminary objection is that admittedly, the effective alternative statutory remedy has already been availed of by the petitioners, which is still pending and is being pursued by the petitioners. Therefore, reply to the preliminary objection that effective statutory remedy has already been availed of, merely by asserting that the alternative remedy is not an absolute bar, in our opinion, is of no help to the petitioners as admittedly the same has already been availed of. On this admitted fact, the preliminary objection is liable to be sustained.

35. We further find that a clear stand taken by the State is that the petitioners have been lodged in Child Protection Home, therefore, prima facie, a genuine presumption can be raised that the machinery under the provisions of the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2015 has been put into motion. Therefore, present petition would not be maintainable in view of the judgment of Full Bench of this Court in the case of Rachna (supra). The questions referred to the Full Court and the answers thereto as given in para 79 of the said judgement are quoted as under:

"79. We accordingly come on our conclusions in respect of question nos. 1, 2 and 3 for determination as follows:

Question No. 1: "(1) Whether a writ of habeas corpus is maintainable against the judicial order passed by the Magistrate or by the Child Welfare Committee appointed under Section 27 of the Act, sending the victim to Women Protection Home/Nari Niketan/Juvenile Home/Child Care Home?*

Answer: If the petitioner corpus is in custody as per judicial orders passed by a Judicial Magistrate or a Court of Competent Jurisdiction or a Child Welfare Committee under the J.J. Act. Consequently, such an order passed by the Magistrate or by the Committee cannot be challenged/assailed or set aside in a writ of habeas corpus.*

Question No. 2: "Whether detention of a corpus in Women Protection Home/Nari Niketan/Juvenile Home/Child Care Home pursuant to an order (may be improper) can be termed/viewed as an illegal detention?*

Answer: An illegal or irregular exercise of jurisdiction by a Magistrate or by the Child Welfare Committee appointed under Section 27 of the J.J. Act, sending the victim to Women Protection Home/Nari Niketan/Juvenile Home/Child Care Home cannot be treated an illegal detention.*

Question No. 3: Under the Scheme of the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2015 the welfare and safety of child in need of care and protection is the legal responsibility of the Board/Child Welfare Committee and as such, the proposition that even a minor cannot be sent to Women Protection Home/Nari Niketan/Juvenile Home/Child Care Home against his/her wishes, is legally valid or it requires a modified approach in consonance with the object of the Act?"*

Answer: Under the J.J. Act, the welfare and safety of child in need of care and protection is the legal responsibility of the Board/Child Welfare Committee and the Magistrate/Committee must give credence to her wishes. As per Section 37 of the J.J. Act the Committee, on being satisfied through the inquiry that the child before the Committee is a child in need of care and protection, may, on consideration of Social Investigation Report submitted by Child Welfare Officer and taking into account the child's wishes in case the child is sufficiently mature to take a view, pass one or more of the orders mentioned in Section 37(1)(a) to (h)."*

36. Much emphasis was given by learned counsel for the petitioners while replying to the preliminary objection regarding violation of Article 21 of the Constitution of India.

37. At the cost of repetition it is reiterated that Article 21 clearly provides protection of life and personal liberty, however, it has clearly provided that no person shall be deprived of his life or personal liberty "except according to procedure established by law".

38. In the present case, the stand taken by the State while raising preliminary objection to the present petition was that the petitioners are in Child Protection Home, therefore, even if at this stage, it is not clear as to how the petitioners have reached Child Protection Home, one thing is clear that administration of criminal justice is operating, which is the procedure established by law (although with this stand of the State, Full Bench decision in Rachna (supra) would cover the issue involved, including preliminary objection). It is clearly reflected from the record that the petitioners have already invoked provisions of Section 97 Cr.P.C. before the competent court of law i.e. Chief Judicial Magistrate having jurisdiction over the matters. Thus, they have availed the effective statutory remedy and thus, have put the criminal administration of justice into motion and as per settled law writ of habeas corpus cannot be issued to set the same at knot.

39. To sum up, it can be said that the petitioners have already invoked provisions of Section 97 Cr.P.C., hence administration of criminal justice has already come into play and the same cannot be set at knot by simultaneously invoking extra-ordinary remedy under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, which may be a remedy of right but as per settled law cannot be issued as a matter of course. Moreover, when corpus are in Child Protection Home, the present writ petition would not be maintainable as per the law settled by Full Bench decision in Rachna (supra).

40. Consequently, in view of the discussions made hereinabove preliminary objection raised by the State that the present petition is not maintainable as the petitioners have already invoked provisions of Section 97 Cr.P.C. and have approached the competent court is upheld.

41. Present petition, accordingly, stands dismissed as not maintainable.

(2023) 4 ILRA 57
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 15.02.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAM MANOHAR NARAYAN MISHRA, J.

Habeas Corpus Writ Petition No. 919 of 2022

Vivan & Anr. ...Petitioners
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
Sri Manoj Kumar Keshari, Sri Beerendra Singh Pal

Counsel for the Respondents:
G.A., Sri Shri Krishan Yadav

Civil Law - Constitution of India - Article 226, - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 304-B, 306, 498-A, 323, 504 & 506 - Guardianship and Wards Act, 1890 - Section - 4, 4(1), 4(2), 4)3), 7, 17(1), 17(2), 17(3), - Hindu Minority and Guardianship Act, 1956 - Sections 2, 4, 6 & 13 - Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 - Section - 26, - The Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961 - Section - 3/4, - Domestic Violence Act, 2005- Section 12 - Writ of Habeas Corpus - father seeking custody of his Children being natural Guardian - Corpus are minor are aged about 8 years and 3 years lying in custody of their maternal grandparents - elder of them has expressed his unequivocal desire to reside with his father and second corpus could not identify his father as he is too young - father of the corpuses facing criminal charges of abatement of commission of suicide of his wife the mother of children and he is on the bail - further, family atmosphere of the father is not conducive to their health growth and polluted - on the other hand, maternal grandfather maintained the child with utmost love and affection - it is settled law that, it is not the 'negative test' that the father is not 'unfit' or disqualified to have custody of his son/daughter is relevant but the 'positive test' that such custody would be in the welfare of the minor - hence, this court does not find good ground to make the rule nisi absolute - accordingly, discharged - petition fails and stands dismissed. (Para - 9, 21, 23)'

Petition Dismissed. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. Nil Ratan Kundu & anr. Vs Abhijit Kundu, (2008) 9 SCC 413,

2. Saraswatibai Shripad Ved Vs Shripad Vasanji Ved, AIR 1941 Bom 103,

3. Surinder Kaur Sandhu Vs Harbax Singh Sandhu, (1986) 3 SCC 698,

4. Mausami Moitra Ganguli Vs Jayant Ganguli, (2008) 7 SCC 673,

5. Rosy Jacob Vs Jacob A. Chakramakkal, 1973(1) SCC 840,

6. Kirtikumar Maheshankar Joshi Vs Pradipkumar Karunashanker Joshi, (1992) 3 SCC 573.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ram Manohar Narayan Mishra, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioners, learned counsel for the private respondents and learned A.G.A. for the State.

2. Corpus Vivan aged around 8 years and Divyansh aged around 3 years have been produced before this Court by respondent nos. 4 to 7.

Corpus Vivan is identified his father Vijay Vikram, deponent in present petition. The second corpus Divyansh could not identify his father as he is too young. Corpus Vivan stated that he intends to reside with her Mausi and maternal grand parents. He expressed his dis-inclination to go or live with his father.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that children who are corpus in present case are sons of deponent, who are too younger to decide their future. They are brainwashed by their maternal grandfather and Mausi (aunt). In-laws of deponent had taken away his both sons along with them after death of his wife Smt. Sweta, who died on 29.4.2022 and they are residing with their maternal grandparents for more than nine months and they have been produced by them who are impleaded as respondents in present case. Deponent operates a GST Seva Kendra. Deponent resides with his father who is retired Bank Manager and the deponent is although an accused in a Case Crime No. 89 of 2022 lodged on 1.5.2022 under Section 306 IPC on account of alleged suicidal death of his wife, however, he is enlarged on bail. He undertakes to ensure welfare of the children if they are granted in his custody.

4. Per contra, learned counsel for the private respondents submitted that atmosphere of the house of deponent is polluted. His own mother resides separately from his father. Private respondents are well educated people. Respondent no. 7, aunt (Mausi), of the corpus is a Bank employee in Bank of Baroda and all the respondents are taking due care of the corpus. They are receiving appropriate education in their supervision.

5. Learned counsel for the respondents placed reliance on a judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in Nil Ratan Kundu and Another Vs. Abhijit Kundu, (2008) 9 SCC 413 wherein Hon'ble Apex Court while interpreting provisions of Section 17(1), (2), (3), 7 and 4(1), 4(2) and (3) of Guardianship and Wards Act as well as Sections 2, 4, 6 and 13 of Hindu Minority and Guardianship Act, 1956 and Section 26 of Hindu Marriage Act held that in determining the question as to who should be given the custody of minor child, the paramount consideration is the welfare of the child and not the rights of the parents under statute for the time being in force. The legal position in India follows the doctrine laid down in English and American Law. In that case A was the son of the respondent. Allegedly, A' s mother, M had been continuously tortured by the respondent for bringing more dowry from her parents, the appellants here. On day M was brutally assaulted by the respondent and his mother which resulted in her death. The appellants herein lodged F.I.R. against the respondent and his mother under Sections 498-A and 304 IPC. The respondent was consequently arrested. A, who at that time was only five years old, was found in sick condition at the respondent's residence. His custody was then handed over to the appellants. The appellants maintained the child with utmost love and affection and got him admitted to a well-reputed school.

6. During the pendency of the criminal case, the respondent was enlarged on bail. He then filed an application under the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890 seeking custody of A. The appellants opposed that application. The trial court allowed the application and held that the respondent was the natural guardian of A and the present and future of A would be better secured in the custody of the respondent. Accordingly, it directed the custody of A to be "immediately" given to the respondent. This order was upheld by the High Court. The appellants then filed the present appeal by special leave.

7. Hon'ble Apex Court allowed the appeal filed by mother of the child and observed that the trial court's order to hand over minor to such guardian (father) immediately and High Court's order to do so within 24 hours positively was not proper on application of the father of the child which was opposed by his maternal grandparents with whom child was lying.

8. In deciding a difficult and complex question as to custody of minor, a Court of law should keep in mind relevant statutes and the rights flowing therefrom. But such cases cannot be decided solely by interpreting legal provisions. It is a humane problem and is required to be solved with human touch. A Court while dealing with custody cases, is neither bound by statutes nor by strict rules of evidence or procedure nor by precedents. In selecting proper guardian of a minor, the paramount consideration should be the welfare and well-being of the child. In selecting a guardian, the Court is exercising parens patriae jurisdiction and is expected, nay bound, to give due weight to a child's ordinary comfort, contentment, health, education, intellectual development and favourable surroundings. But over and above physical comforts, moral and ethical values cannot be ignored. They are equally, or we may say, even more important, essential and indispensable considerations. If the minor is old enough to form an intelligent preference or judgment, the Court must consider such preference as well, though the final decision should rest with the Court as to what is conducive to the welfare of the minor.

9. Hon'ble Apex Court further observed that it is not the negative test' that the father is not `unfit' or disqualified to have custody of his son/daughter is relevant but the `positive test' that such custody would be in the welfare of the minor which is material and it is on that basis that the Court should exercise the power to grant or refuse custody of minor in favour of father, mother or any other guardian.

10. As regard the trial court's direction to hand over the custody of the child "immediately" by removing him from the custody of his maternal grandparents and the High Court's order to hand over the child to his father within twenty-four hours positively, it has to be held, that a child is not "property" or "commodity". The issues relating to custody of minors and tender-aged children have to be handled with love, affection, sentiments and by applying human touch to the problem.

11. Hon'ble Apex Court further observed that examination of the child helps the court in performing its onerous duty in exercising discretionary jurisdiction and in deciding the delicate issue of custody of a tender-aged group child. Moreover, final decision rests with the court which is bound to consider all questions to make appropriate order keeping in view the welfare of the child. Normally, therefore, in custody cases, wishes of the minor should be ascertained by the Court before deciding as to whom custody should be given. In the present case trial court ought to have ascertained the wishes of the child as to with whom he wanted to stay. The child was called in the chamber of judges deciding the present case. He admitted to be quite intelligent. When asked whether he wanted to go to his father and stay with him, he unequivocally refused to go with him or to stay with him. He also stated that that he was very happy with maternal grand parents and would like to continue to stay with them. It has, therefore, to be held that in would not be proper on the facts and circumstances to give custody of the child to his father, the respondent herein.

12. In above case also mother of the child died unfortunate death and the father of the child was arrested in a case lodged by parents of the deceased wife under Section 498-A IPC and Section 304-B IPC as she was repeatedly brutally assaulted by her husband and his mother, and after death of his wife and after death of mother of corpus, custody of child was handed over to maternal grandparents. At that time, he was only of five years. It was his maternal grandfather, appellant no. 1, who maintained the child with utmost love and affection. He was imparted education in a reputed college in Kolkata.

13. Hon'ble Apex Court in above case cited various Authorities in English and American Law held that ordinarily basis for issuance of writ of habeas corpus is an illegal detention; but in the case of such a writ issued out for the detention of a child, the law is concerned not so much with the illegality of the detention as with the welfare of the child. The legal position in India follows the this doctrine. There are various statutes which gives legislative recognition to these well established principles. Section 4 of the Guardian and Wards Act defines "minor" as a person who had not attained the age of majority. "Guardian means a person having care of the person for a minor or of his property, or of both his person and property." "Ward" is defined as a minor from whose person or property or both, there is a guardian.

14. Hon'ble Apex Court further reproduced statutory provisions in paragraph nos. 31, 32, 35, 36, 37 which are reproduced as under"-

31. Chapter II (Sections 5 to 19) relates to appointment and declaration of guardians. Section 7 deals with `power of the Court to make order as to guardianship' and reads as under:

7. Power of the Court to make order as to guardianship.-(1) Where the Court is satisfied that it is for the welfare of a minor that an order should be made--

(a) appointing a guardian of his person or property, or both, or

(b) declaring a person to be such a guardian, the Court may make an order accordingly.

(2) An order under this section shall imply the removal of any guardian who has not been appointed by will or other instrument or appointed or declared by the Court.

(3) Where a guardian has been appointed by will or other instrument or appointed or declared by the Court, an order under this section appointing or declaring another person to be guardian in his stead shall not be made until the powers of the guardian appointed or declared as aforesaid have ceased under the provisions of this Act.

32. Section 8 of the Act enumerates persons entitled to apply for an order as to guardianship. Section 9 empowers the Court having jurisdiction to entertain an application for guardianship. Sections 10 to 16 deal with procedure and powers of Court. Section 17 is another material provision and may be reproduced;

17. Matters to be considered by the Court in appointing guardian.-(1) In appointing or declaring the guardian of a minor, the Court shall, subject to the provisions of this section, be guided by what, consistently with the law to which the minor is subject, appears in the circumstances to be for the welfare of the minor.

(2) In considering what will be for the welfare of the minor, the Court shall have regard to the age, sex and religion of the minor, the character and capacity of the proposed guardian and his nearness of kin to the minor, the wishes, if any, of a deceased parent, and any existing or previous relations of the proposed guardian with the minor or his property.

(3) If the minor is old enough to form an intelligent preference, the Court may consider that preference.

* * * * *

(5) The Court shall not appoint or declare any person to be a guardian against his will.

(emphasis supplied)

35. Hindu Minority and Guardianship Act, 1956 (hereinafter referred to as "1956 Act") is another equally important statute relating to minority and guardianship among Hindus. Section 4 defines "minor" as a person who has not completed the age of eighteen years. "Guardian" means a person having the care of the person of a minor or of his property or of both his persons and property, and inter alia includes a natural guardian. Section 2 of the Act declares that the provisions of the Act shall be in addition to, and not in derogation of 1890 Act.

36. Section 6 enacts as to who can be said to be a natural guardian. It reads thus;

6. Natural guardians of a Hindu Minor.

--The natural guardians of a Hindu minor, in respect of the minor's person as well as in respect of the minor's property (excluding his or her undivided interest in joint family property), are--

(a) in the case of a boy or an unmarried girl--the father, and after him, the mother; provided that the custody of a minor who has not completed the age of five years shall ordinarily be with the mother;

(b) in the case of an illegitimate boy or an illegitimate unmarried girl-- the mother, and after her, the father.

(c) in the case of a married girl--the husband:

Provided that no person shall be entitled to act as the natural guardian of a minor under the provisions of this section--

(a) if he has ceased to be a Hindu, or

(b) if he has completely and finally renounced the world becoming a hermit(vanaprastha)or an ascetic(yati or sanyasi).

Explanation.--In this section, the expressions "father" and "mother" do not include a step-father and a step-mother.

37. Section 8 enumerates powers of natural guardian. Section 13 is extremely important provision and deals with welfare of a minor. The same may be quoted in extenso;

13. Welfare of minor to be paramount consideration.

(1)In the appointment or declaration of any person as guardian of a Hindu minor by a court, the welfare of the minor shall be the paramount consideration.

(2)No, person shall be entitled to the guardianship by virtue of the provisions of this Act or of any law relating to guardianship in marriage among Hindus, if the court is of opinion that his or her guardianship will not be for the welfare of the minor.

(emphasis supplied)

15. In Saraswatibai Shripad Ved Vs. Shripad Vasanji Ved, AIR 1941 Bom 103, the High Court of Bombay stated that it is not the welfare of the father, nor the welfare of the mother i.e. paramount consideration for the Court. It is the welfare of the minor and of the minor alone which is the paramount consideration.

16. In Surinder Kaur Sandhu Vs. Harbax Singh Sandhu, (1986) 3 SCC 698, Hon'ble Apex Court held that Section 6 of the Hindu Minority and Guardianship Act, 1956 consitutes the father as a natural guardian of a minor son. But that provision cannot supersede the paramount consideration as to what is conducive to the welfare of the minor.

17. In Mausami Moitra Ganguli Vs. Jayant Ganguli, (2008) 7 SCC 673, Hon'ble Apex Curt has held in paragraph no. 20 as follows:-

20 "The question of welfare of the minor child has again to be considered in the background of the relevant facts and circumstances. Each case has to be decided on its own facts and other decided cases can hardly serve as binding precedents insofar as the factual aspects of the case are concerned. It is, no doubt, true that father is presumed by the statutes to be better suited to look after the welfare of the child, being normally the working member and head of the family, yet in each case the Court has to see primarily to the welfare of the child in determining the question of his or her custody. Better financial resources of either of the parents or their love for the child may be one of the relevant considerations but cannot be the sole determining factor for the custody of the child. It is here that a heavy duty is cast on the Court to exercise its judicial discretion judiciously in the background of all the relevant facts and circumstances, bearing in mind the welfare of the child as the paramount consideration."

18. Hon'ble Apex Court in Nil Ratan Kundu (supra) placeing reliance on Rosy Jacob Vs. Jacob A. Chakramakkal, 1973(1) SCC 840, observed that "we may only state that a child is not "property" or "commodity". To repeat issues relating to custody of minors and tender-aged children have to be handled with love, affection, sentiments and by applying human touch to the problem.

.....

One of the matters which is required to be considered by a court of law is the "character" of the proposed guardian.

20. In Kirtikumar Maheshankar Joshi Vs. Pradipkumar Karunashanker Joshi, (1992) 3 SCC 573, Apex Court, almost in similar circumstances where the father was facing the charge under Section 498-A IPC did not grant custody of two minor children to the father and allowed them to remain with the maternal uncle, thus a complaint against father alleging and attributing the death of the mother under Section 498-A IPC is indeed a relevant factor and the court of law must address the said circumstance while deciding the custody of the minor in favour of such a person.

21. From perusal of material on record it appears that maternal uncle of the children Yogesh lodged an F.I.R. against deponent, father of the corpuses, and his father under Section 323, 504 IPC on 29.12.2014 at P.S. concerned with allegation that they had assaulted and abused the victim Shweta who happens to be his sister. The deceased wife of the deponent/petitioner had also lodged a case under Section 12 of the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act in Etawah in which interim maintenance was ordered by competent court to the wife of the deponent. She had also lodged an F.I.R. against her husband and in-laws on 5.7.2015 under Sections 498-A, 323, 504, 506 and Section 3/4 D.P. Act with allegation of demand of dowry and subjecting her to matrimonial cruelty against named accused persons at P.S. Diviyapura, District Auraiya. Unfortunately she died unnatural death on 29.4.2022 as alleged, by consuming some poisonous substance and her cremation took place on 30.4.2022. After death of the mother of the corpuses, her father Suresh Chandra Yadav lodged an F.I.R. on 1.5.2022 vide crime no. 89 of 2022 under Section 306 IPC against deponent, father of the corpuses, and his family members with allegation of subjecting the deceased to matrimonial cruelty on account of non-fulfillment of demand of dowry and her continuous torture physically and mentally committed by them and now the deponent, father of the corpuses, is enlarged on bail in that case under Section 306 IPC, however, he has been alleged to have abetted the mother of the corpuses to commit suicide, who happened to be his wife thus, relations of husband and wife remained strained just after some time of their marriage and ultimately she allegedly committed suicide. The corpus Vivan aged around 8 years and Divyansh aged around 3 years respectively have appeared before this Court today.

Vivan categorically stated that he intends to reside with her maternal grandparents and her mausi (aunt). He expressed his disinclination to go or live with his father, who has filed the present petition on their behalf. The second corpus Divyansh could not identify his father as he is too young and therefore his desire could not be elicited. It is submitted on behalf of private respondents, maternal grandparents and mausi (aunt) of the corpuses that family atmosphere of the deponent, father of the corpuses, is not conducive to their health growth and polluted. His own mother resides separately from his father. Private respondents are well educated and resourceful person and are able to take proper and due care of the children as they are lying with them, to ensure over all development. In counter affidavit, bona fide certificate has been filed which is issued by the Principal of Tapasthali Public School, Mainpuri which bears dated 10.10.2022 in which it is stated that Vivan s/o Vijay Vikram Singh is a student of class-3 in his school. He was admitted to the school by his maternal grandfather on 6.7.2022. The maternal grandfather of the child is also bearing all the academic expenses of the child and they are ready to carry on nurturing of both the children of their deceased's daughter.

22. This Court in habeas corpus writ petition no. 389 of 2020 (Master Aryan and Another) decided on 1.3.2021 wherein it was held that in that case the child appeared a bright and intelligent on his protection before the Court. He expressed his feelings of animosity feelings for his mother who was facing a charge about her husband's death in relation to which she was subjected to trial and there was a possibility, remote or not so remote, that she might be convicted and sentenced on the charge relating to her husband's (minors' father) murder. If that were to happen while minors are staying with her it would create trauma to the minors, to know that their mother, with whom they have bonded and are living, stands convicted of the father's murder and on that count, this Court dismissed habeas corpus petition filed by the mother of the children who were residing with their parental uncle and aunt after death of their father.

23. Considering rival submissions of learned counsel for the parties, facts and attending circumstances of the case and the judicial authorities of the Hon'ble Apex Court as well as this Court cited above and keeping in view the paramount interest of the welfare of the children who are presently lying in custody of their maternal grandparents and elder of them has expressed his unequivocal desire to reside with them and peculiar facts of the case that father had sought custody of the child in present habeas corpus petition who is facing charge of abatement of commission of suicide of his wife, the mother of the children, this Court does not find good ground to make the rule nisi absolute. It is accordingly, discharged.

24. In the result, this petition fails and stands dismissed.

(2023) 4 ILRA 64
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 04.04.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MANISH MATHUR, J.

Matters U/A 227 No. 1396 of 2023

Anupma Sinha ...Petitioner

Versus

Real Estate Regulatory Authority, Rajya Niyojan Sansthan, Lko. U.P. & Anr.

...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Kartikey Dubey

Counsel for the Respondents:
Shobhit Mohan Shukla

A. Real Estate Law – Maintainability - Real Estate (Regulation and Development) Act, 2016 - Section 40 r/w Rule 23 of Rules, 2016 - A preliminary objection has been raised in order dated 22.03.2023 w.r.t. maintainability of petition u/Article 227 of the Constitution of India that the Real Estate Regulatory Authority is neither a Court nor a Tribunal.

RERA has been held to be a quasi judicial authority by Hon'ble the Supreme Court and has been held to be covered under the connotation 'Tribunal' and as such petition would be maintainable.

The preliminary aspect whether the authority can be a Tribunal or not in terms of Article 227 of the Constitution of India is that it is a statutory authority which is empowered under special enactment and setup by the State to decide a lis between contending parties in a judicial manner but under exercise of quasi-judicial powers since it has been invested with some function of judicial powers of the State. (Para 10)

The authority (RERA) exercises quasi-judicial powers and would thus come within the term of tribunal as envisaged under Article 227 of the Constitution of India due to which petition against the said authority would be maintainable under Article 227 of the Constitution of India. (Para 13)

B. The petitioner had filed a complaint case which has been decided on 22.03.2022 whereafter execution of the sale has been required by filing of an application. It is submitted that in the meantime the authority itself has framed standard operating procedure on 02.09.2020 which is not being adhered to. As such, it is submitted that execution order is required to be made in terms thereof. (Para 15)

RERA is directed to ensure execution of order dated 22.03.2022 filed in Complaint No. LKO162/08/57523/2020, passed by RERA in terms of its standard operating procedure dated 02.09.2020 in case there is no other legal impediment. (Para 16)

Writ petition disposed of. (E-4)

Precedent followed:

1. Newtech Promoters & Developers Pvt. Ltd. Vs St. of U.P. & ors., 2021 SCC OnLine SC 1044 (Para 5)

2. Pan Realtors Pvt. Ltd. Vs St. of U.P. & ors., W.P. No. 27631 of 2021 (Para 5)

3. Associated Companies Ltd. Vs P.N. Sharma & anr., AIR 1965 SC 1595 (Para 6)

4. All Party Hill Leaders Conference Vs Captain W.A. Sangma, (1977) 4 SCC 161 (Para 7)

5. St. of Guj. Vs Gujarat Revenue Tribunal Bar Association, (2012) 10 SCC 353 (Para 8)

Present petition u/Article 227 seeks a direction to the RERA for taking necessary steps to ensure execution of order dated 22.03.2022 passed in Complaint No. LKO162/08/57523/2020, Anupma Sinha Versus M/s Ansal Properties and Infrastructure Limited.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Manish Mathur, J.)

1. Heard Mr. Kartikey Dubey, learned counsel for petitioner and Mr. Shobhit Mohan Shukla, learned counsel for opposite party no.1.

2. In view of order being proposed to be passed, notices to opposite party no.2 stand dispensed with.

3. Petition under Article 227 of the Constitution of India has been filed seeking a direction to the Real Estate Regulatory Authority for taking necessary steps to ensure execution of order dated 22.03.2022 passed in Complaint No.LKO162/08/57523/2020, Anupma Sinha Versus M/s Ansal Properties and Infrastructure Limited. Further relief for issuance of Recovery Certificate under Section 40 of the Real Estate (Regulation and Development) Act, 2016 read with Rule 23 of Rules, 2016 has also been sought.

4. Initially as noticed in order dated 22.03.2023, a preliminary objection has been raised with regard to maintainability of petition under Article 227 of the Constitution of India that the Real Estate Regulatory Authority is neither a Court nor a Tribunal.

5. Learned counsel for petitioner in response to the preliminary objection has placed reliance on judgement rendered by Hon'ble the Supreme Court in the case of Newtech Promoters and Developers Pvt. Ltd. versus State of U.P. and others reported in 2021 SCC OnLine SC 1044 as well as judgment rendered by Coordinate Bench of this Court in the case of Pan Realtors Pvt. Ltd. versus State of U.P. and others passed in W.P. No.27631 of 2021 to submit that the aforesaid authority has been held to be a quasi judicial authority by Hon'ble the Supreme Court and has been held to be covered under the connotation 'Tribunal' and as such petition would be maintainable.

6. With regard to aforesaid preliminary objection, it would be necessary to advert to whether the Real Estate Regulatory Authority can be construed to be either a Court or a Tribunal. The aspect of when an authority can be said to be a Court or a Tribunal has been discussed by Hon'ble the Supreme Court in the case of Associated Cement Companies Ltd. V. P.N. Sharma and another reported in AIR 1965 SC 1595:

"9. Tribunals which fall within the purview of Article 136(1) occupy a special position of their own under the scheme of our Constitution. Special matters and questions are entrusted to them for their decision and in that sense, they share with the courts one common characteristic; both the courts and the tribunals are "constituted by the State and are invested with judicial as distinguished from purely administrative or executive functions", (vide Durga Shankar Mehta v. Thakur Raghuraj Singh [(1955) 1 SCR 267 at p. 272]). They are both adjudicating bodies and they deal with and finally determine disputes between parties which are entrusted to their jurisdiction. The procedure followed by the Courts is regularly prescribed and in discharging their functions and exercising their powers, the Courts have to conform to that procedure. The procedure which the tribunals have to follow may not always be so strictly prescribed, but the approach adopted by both the Courts and the tribunals is substantially the same, and there is no essential difference between the functions that they discharge. As in the case of Courts, so in the case of tribunals, it is the State's inherent judicial power which has been transferred and by virtue of the said power, it is the State's inherent judicial function which they discharge. Judicial functions and judicial powers are one of the essential attributes of a sovereign State, and on considerations of policy, the State transfers its judicial functions and powers mainly to the Courts established by the Constitution; but that does not affect the competence of the State, by appropriate measures, to transfer a part of its judicial powers and functions to tribunals by entrusting to them the task of adjudicating upon special matters and disputes between parties. It is really not possible or even expedient to attempt to describe exhaustively the features which are common to the tribunals and the Courts, and features which are distinct and separate. The basic and the fundamental feature which is common to both the Courts and the tribunals is that they discharge judicial functions and exercise judicial powers which inherently vest in a sovereign State.

44. An authority other than a Court may be vested by statute with judicial power in widely different circumstances, which it would be impossible and indeed inadvisable to attempt to define exhaustively. The proper thing is to examine each case as it arises, and to ascertain whether the powers vested in the authority can be truly described as judicial functions or judicial powers of the State. For the purpose of this case, it is sufficient to say that any outside authority empowered by the State to determine conclusively the rights of two or more contending parties with regard to any matter in controversy between them satisfies the test of an authority vested with the judicial powers of the State and may be regarded as a tribunal within the meaning of Article 136. Such a power of adjudication implies that the authority must act judicially and must determine the dispute by ascertainment of the relevant facts on the materials before it and by application of the relevant law to those facts. This test of a tribunal is not meant to be exhaustive, and it may be that other bodies not satisfying this test are also tribunals. In order to be a tribunal, it is essential that the power of adjudication must be derived from a statute or a statutory rule. An authority or body deriving its power of adjudication from an agreement of the parties, such as a private arbitrator or a tribunal acting under Section 10-A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, does not satisfy the test of a tribunal within Article 136. It matters little that such a body or authority is vested with the trappings of a Court. The Arbitration Act, 1940 vests an arbitrator with some of the trappings of a Court, so also the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 vests an authority acting under Section 10-A of the Act with many of such trappings, and yet, such bodies and authorities are not tribunals.

45. The word "tribunal" finds place in Article 227 of the Constitution also, and I think that there also the word has the same meaning as in Article 136.

7. In another case of All Party Hill Leaders Conference v. Captain W.A. Sangma, reported in (1977) 4 SCC 161; it has been held as follows:-

23. The earliest decision of this Court as to the ambit of Article 136(1) with reference to the order of a tribunal came up for consideration in Bharat Bank Ltd., Delhi v. Employees of the Bharat Bank Ltd. [AIR 1950 SC 188 : (1950) 1 SCR 459 : 950 Lab LJ 21] . The question whether an Industrial Tribunal constituted under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, was a tribunal within the scope of Article 136 was raised in that case. By majority the Constitution Bench of this Court held that the Industrial Tribunal was a tribunal for the purpose of Article 136. Having regard to the scheme of Article 136, this Court was not prepared to place a narrow interpretation on the amplitude of Article 136. This Court observed at p. 476/478 of the Report as follows:

"As pointed out in picturesque language by Lord Sankey, L.C. in Shell Co. of Australia v. Federal Commissioner of Taxation [1931 AC 275] , there are tribunals with many of the trappings of a Court which, nevertheless, are not Courts in the strict sense of exercising judicial power. It seems to me that such tribunals though they are not full-fledged Courts, yet exercise quasi-judicial functions and are within the ambit of the word "tribunal' in Article 136 of the Constitution.

Tribunals which do not derive authority from the sovereign power cannot fall within the ambit of Article 136. The condition precedent for bringing a tribunal within the ambit of Article 136 is that it should be constituted by the State. Again a tribunal would be outside the ambit of Article 136 if it is not invested with any part of the judicial functions of the State but discharges purely administrative or executive duties. Tribunals, however, which are found invested with certain functions of a Court of justice and have some of its trappings also would fall within the ambit of Article 136 ....

25. From a conspectus of the above decisions it will be seen that several tests have been laid down by this Court to determine whether a particular body or authority is a tribunal within the ambit of Article 136. The tests are not exhaustive in all cases. It is also well-settled that all the tests laid down may not be present in a given case. While some tests may be present others may be lacking. It is, however, absolutely necessary that the authority in order to come within the ambit of Article 136(1) as tribunal must be constituted by the State and invested with some function of judicial power of the State. This particular test is an unfailing one while some of the other tests may or may not be present at the same time.

8. In the case of State of Gujarat V. Gujarat Revenue Tribunal Bar Association reported in (2012)10 SCC 353; it has been held as follows:-

18. Tribunals have primarily been constituted to deal with cases under special laws and to hence provide for specialised adjudication alongside the courts. Therefore, a particular Act/set of rules will determine whether the functions of a particular tribunal are akin to those of the Courts, which provide for the basic administration of justice. Where there is a lis between two contesting parties and a statutory authority is required to decide such dispute between them, such an authority may be called as a quasi-judicial authority i.e. a situation where, (a) a statutory authority is empowered under a statute to do any act; (b) the order of such authority would adversely affect the subject; and (c) although there is no lis or two contending parties, and the contest is between the authority and the subject; and (d) the statutory authority is required to act judicially under the statute, the decision of the said authority is a quasi-judicial decision. An authority may be described as a quasi-judicial authority when it possesses certain attributes or trappings of a "Court", but not all. In case certain powers under CPC or CrPC have been conferred upon an authority, but it has not been entrusted with the judicial powers of State, it cannot be held to be a Court. (See Bharat Bank Ltd. v. Employees [AIR 1950 SC 188] , Virindar Kumar Satyawadi v. State of Punjab [AIR 1956 SC 153 : 1956 Cri LJ 326] , Engg. Mazdoor Sabha v. Hind Cycles Ltd. [AIR 1963 SC 874], Associated Cement Companies Ltd. v. P.N. Sharma [AIR 1965 SC 1595] , Rama Rao v. Narayan [(1969) 1 SCC 167 : AIR 1969 SC 724] , State of H.P. v. Mahendra Pal [(1999) 4 SCC 43 : AIR

1999 SC 1786] , Keshab Narayan Banerjee v. State of Bihar [(2000) 1 SCC 607 : 2000 SCC (Cri) 272] , Indian National Congress (I) v. Institute of Social Welfare [(2002) 5 SCC 685 : AIR 2002 SC 2158] , K. Shamrao v. Asstt. Charity Commr. [(2003) 3 SCC 563] , Trans Mediterranean Airways v. Universal Exports [(2011) 10 SCC 316 : (2012) 1 SCC (Civ) 148] , SCC p. 338, para 53 and Namit Sharma v. Union of India [(2013) 1 SCC 745] .)

9. A Coordinate Bench of this Court in the case of Pan Realtors Pvt. Ltd. versus State of U.P. and others passed in Writ Petition No.27631 (M/s) of 2021 has also considered when an authority can be said to be Tribunal in the following manner:

"16. Considering the aforesaid including the judgments referred hereinabove, this Court is of the view that in this case for determining that as to whether an "Authority" i.e. "State Government" is a "Tribunal" or not, as in this case the power of State Government under Section 41(3) of the Act of 1973 is in issue, which is as per above observations of this Court is revisional power, the basic test(s)/parameter(s) can be summarized as under:

(a) That the power of adjudication should be conferred on the concerned 'Authority' by a statute.

(b) That such adjudicating power is the part of State's inherent power exercised in discharging its judicial function.

(c) That the 'Authority' concerned is under obligation to act judicially.

(d) That the decision of the 'Authority' on the 'lis' before it is binding between the parties and final.

In this case, the power of adjudication is conferred upon 'State Government' by the statute, the 'State Government' is under obligation to act judicially and is also required to follow principle of natural justice, as appears from the proviso to Sub Section 3 of Section 41 of the Act of 1973, the State Government in this Sub Section decides the lis between the parties and decision of 'State Government', as per Sub Section 4 of Section 41 is binding and final. Thus, all test(s)/ parameter(s), aforesaid, are satisfied and being so it is held that the 'State Government' under Section 41 Sub Clause 3 of the Act of 1973, is a 'Tribunal'."

10. It is thus seen that the preliminary aspect whether the authority can be a Tribunal or not in terms of Article 227 of the Constitution of India is that it is a statutory authority which is empowered under special enactment and setup by the State to decide a lis between contending parties in a judicial manner but under exercise of quasi-judicial powers since it has been invested with some function of judicial powers of the State.

11. The aforesaid aspect has also been considered by Hon'ble the Supreme Court in the case of Newtech Promoters and Developers Pvt. Ltd. versus State of U.P and Ors. reported in 2021 SCC OnLine SC 1044; in the following manner:

"117. The further submission made by learned Counsel for the Appellants that Section 81 of the Act permits the authority to delegate such powers and functions to any member of the authority which are mainly administrative or clerical, and cannot possibly encompass any of the core functions which are to be discharged by the authority, the judicial functions are non-delegable, as these are the core functions of the authority. The submission may not hold good for the reason that the power to be exercised by the authority in deciding complaints Under Section 31 of the Act is quasi- judicial in nature which is delegable provided there is a provision in the statute. As already observed, Section 81 of the Act empowers the authority to delegate its power and functions to any of its member, by general or special order."

12. The authority as indicated in the judgment has reference to Section 31 of the Real Estate (Regulation and Development) Act, 2016 regarding filing of complaints with the authority or the adjudication officer. The term 'authority' has been defined under section 2(i) to mean the Real Estate Regulatory Authority Established under section 20(1) of the Act.

13. In view of aforesaid judgments, particularly Newtech Promoters (supra) it is evident that the authority therefore exercises quasi-judicial powers and would thus come within the term of tribunal as envisaged under Article 227 of the Constitution of India due to which petition against the said authority would be maintainable under Article 227 of the Constitution of India.

14. In view of aforesaid fact, preliminary objection raised is rejected.

15. Learned counsel for petitioner has submitted that the petitioner had filed the aforesaid complaint case which has been decided on 22.03.2022 whereafter execution of the sale has been required by filing of an application. It is submitted that in the meantime the authority itself has framed standard operating procedure on 02.09.2020 which is not being adhered to. As such, it is submitted that execution order is required to be made in terms thereof.

16. Upon consideration of submissions advanced by learned counsel for petitioner, opposite party no.1 i.e. Real Estate Regulatory Authority, Rajya Niyojan Sansthan, Naveen Bhavan, Kalakankar House Road, Old Hyderabad, Lucknow Uttar Pradesh is directed to ensure execution of order dated 22.03.2022 filed in Complaint No.LKO162/08/57523/2020, Anupma Sinha Versus M/s Ansal Properties and Infrastructure Limited passed by Real Estate Regulatory Authority, Rajya Niyojan Sansthan in terms of its standard operating procedure dated 02.09.2020 in case there is no other legal impediment.

17. Benefit of this order shall be available only in case petitioner cooperates in early conclusion of the application/trial.

18. With the aforesaid direction, the petition stands disposed of.

(2023) 4 ILRA 70
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 29.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE J.J. MUNIR, J.

Criminal Misc. Application U/S 482 No. 10522 of 2023

Mohammad Talha & Ors. ...Applicants
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Sri Vijay Kumar Mishra

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A., Sri Abhijeet Mukherji (State Law Officer)

(A) Criminal Law - Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Section 482 - Inherent power - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 323, 332, 336, 352, 395, 427, 435, 504, 506 & 120B - Criminal Law (Amendment) Act, 1932 - Section 7 - The Prevention of Damage to Public Property Act, 1984 - Section 3/4 - Constitution guarantees to every citizen is the right to protest peaceably and without arms - no sanction to unlawful assemblies that indulge in rioting and violence as a means to vindicate their rights, or to convey their point of view - democratic rights have to be exercised in a lawful manner, so that order in society, which sovereignty has to uphold at all costs, is not lost.(Para -7)

Widespread protest in the country relating to the Citizenship (Amendment) Act, 2019, the National Register of Citizens3 and Citizenship (Amendment) Bill, 20194 - Rampant rioting - assault on public officials - both uniformed and of civil administration - besides members of the public - destruction of property - both of government and public - continued over a stretch of about four hours - efforts were made at different points of time to restore order and peace - enough opportunity for a locus poenitentiae was given - rioters persisted in their violent course - did not relent, until much damage had been done to public property - injury inflicted to different sections of the society. (Para -2,7)

HELD:-Case relates to widespread incidents of violation of public order in the name of protest against a particular or more than one Bills introduced in Parliament. Charge against applicants may be true, but the case diary's material is subject to trial testing, and the Court cannot test it under Section 482 of the Code. Court cannot exercise jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceedings and nip this prosecution in the bud. (Para -7,8,9)

Application u/s 482 Cr.P.C. rejected. (E-7)

(Delivered by Hon'ble J.J. Munir, J.)

This is an application under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 19731, seeking to quash the entire proceedings of Criminal Case No. (R) 6205 of 2020 (Computerized Criminal Case No. (C) 605/2020), State v. Aasif Chandan and others (arising out of Case Crime No. 246 of 2019), under Sections 323, 332, 336, 352, 395, 427, 435, 504, 506 and 120B of the Indian Penal Code, 1860, Section 7 of the Criminal Law (Amendment) Act, 1932 and Section 3/4 of the Prevention of Damage to Public Property Act, 1984, Police Station Dakshin Tola, District Mau, pending the Court of the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Mau.

2. Heard Mr. Vijay Kumar Mishra, learned Counsel for the applicants and Mr. Shashi Shekhar Tiwari, learned Additional Government Advocate along with by Mr. Abhijeet Mukherji, learned State Law Officer appearing on behalf of the State of Uttar Pradesh

3. A First Information Report2 was lodged by Nihar Nandan Kumar, Station House Officer, Police Station Dakshin Tola, District Mau, regarding an incident dated 16.12.2019 in the aftermath of the widespread protest in the country relating to the Citizenship (Amendment) Act, 2019, the National Register of Citizens3 and Citizenship (Amendment) Bill, 20194. The FIR reported that on 16.12.2019, at half past two in the afternoon, a large multitude of people, who were 900-1000 strong, congregated at a certain Mirzahadipura. They were protesting against the NRC and the CAB They were shouting slogans and proceeded to the Mirzahadipura crossing. They shouted slogans there and obstructed public streets. Some of them proceeded again to the crossroads, where some others joined. The congregation of these protestors was addressed by the District Magistrate, the Superintendent of Police, the Additional Superintendent of Police, the City Magistrate and other administrative officers present, but the mob, which has been described as those of rioters, were not prepared to heed counsel. There were also efforts made by other respectable citizens of District Mau, including Imams of mosques and other police officers, but to no avail. The aggressive members of this unlawful assembly, according to the FIR, abused the Chief Minister, the Prime Minister, the Superintendent of Police and the other administrative officers. They exhorted members of the unlawful assembly to do the police and the administrative officers to death. At this juncture, the members of the unlawful assembly turned violent and assaulted the Police, the administrative officials and other members of the public with an intent to kill. They hurled brickbats and opened fire with illicit weapons on the Police and the administrative officers with an intent to kill. They also hurled petrol bombs. It is reported that during this period of time, some sniping was also done, employing illicit weapons from rooftops and brickbats were also hurled. All these acts of violence led to public order being torn asunder. The shopkeepers in the neighbourhood pulled down their shutters and the passers-by, including the journalists et cetera made good their escape, abandoning their motorcycles and vehicles. The rioters, who are said to be about 600-700 strong, at this juncture, could not be controlled by any means. On the orders of the District Magistrate, the members of the unlawful assembly were warned for 10-15 minutes on loud-hailers. However, when nothing worked to restore order, the Police resorted to a light lathi-charge. At this stage, the rioters hurling bombs, brickbats and also taking potshots from their illicit weapons, escaped through different routes. They set afire dozens of motorcycles belonging to members of the public and the police force, besides government vehicles, that were four-wheelers. These were badly damaged. Finally, under the orders of the District Magistrate, in order to control the still ongoing rioting, tear gas shells, numbering about 50, were lobbed, besides chilly bombs. Thereupon, all the rioters escaped towards Rampur Chakiya. This violence had continued up to 06:30 in the evening. The FIR mentions that the rioters who were attacking the police force and indulging in acts of incendiarism were identified by police personnel present. Those identified have been named in the F.I.R.

4. The Police, after investigation, submitted a charge-sheet against 44 of the named accused, whereas another 55 are said to be absconding. The applicants, who have been charge-sheeted, are named in the FIR.

5. Learned Counsel for the applicants has argued that the first informant in this case is the Station House Officer of Police Station Dakshin Tola, whereas a number of his subordinates are involved in the teams subsequently set up to investigate, which vitiates the resultant charge-sheet. It is next submitted that none of the witnesses who have seen the various video-clips of rioting that were captured as the violence was on have identified the applicants. The applicants are students, who ought to be shown some leniency instead of being involved in a case of mob violence, giving rise to heinous offences that would be charged in consequence. It is also submitted that the applicants have already been granted the indulgence of bail, which shows their doubtful complicity.

6. It is argued by Mr. Shashi Shekhar Tiwari, learned A.G.A. that the prosecution case that has been reported in the F.I.R. carries a very natural description of the offence, where, initially, 900-1000 people are said to be part of the unlawful assembly, who perpetrated all this violence and later on, they have been reported to have thinned down to a figure of 600-700. After a thorough inquiry, out of this multitude, 85 named accused have been reported in the FIR that was lodged on the day following the incident, with 600 unnamed offenders. It is submitted by Mr. Tiwari that the applicants being amongst the 85 named accused out of a mob of 600-700 persons, cannot be said to be implicated without identification. It is next submitted that it is not just that the applicants have been identified by the Police, but they have been identified by independent witnesses as well, who number more than 20. There is, thus, no reason to doubt the applicants' complicity, in the submission of Mr. Tiwari. In addition, it is submitted that there are video-clips that are part of the case diary, where the entire events of the fateful day have been captured, which would render anything of a doubt about the identity of the applicants beyond pale of controversy.

7. Upon hearing learned Counsel for the applicant and learned A.G.A. for the State, this Court is of opinion that the present case relates to widespread incidents of violation of public order in the name of protest against a particular or more than one Bills introduced in Parliament. What the Constitution guarantees to every citizen is the right to protest peaceably and without arms. There is no sanction to unlawful assemblies that indulge in rioting and violence as a means to vindicate their rights, or to convey their point of view. It is not that democracy and sovereignty are at crossroads. It is only that democratic rights have to be exercised in a lawful manner, so that order in society, which sovereignty has to uphold at all costs, is not lost. Here, what appears from the materials collected in the case diary is that there was rampant rioting, where there was assault on public officials, both uniformed and of the civil administration, besides members of the public. There was also destruction of the property, both of the government and the public. The episode in which all that happened was not a momentary one. It continued over a stretch of about four hours, during which, efforts were made at different points of time to restore order and peace, if the FIR version were to be accepted. To persuade the rioters to change course, enough opportunity for a locus poenitentiae was given. The rioters persisted in their violent course and did not relent, until much damage had been done to public property and injury inflicted to different sections of the society.

8. This Court does not mean to say that the charge against the applicants are true. There are materials in the case diary, which indicate that these could be true. All this is a subject matter to be tested at the trial. The kind of material that there is in the case diary is not such which this Court, in exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code, can test.

9. In the circumstances, this Court does not find the present case to be one where we ought to exercise our jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceedings and nip this prosecution in the bud.

10. In the result, this application fails and consequently, stands rejected.

(2023) 4 ILRA 74
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 20.02.2023
BEFORE

THE HON'BLE KARUNESH SINGH PAWAR, J.

Criminal Misc. Application U/S 482 No. 11914 of 2022

Man Singh ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Sri Shiv Sagar Singh

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A.

(A) Criminal Law - Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Section 482 - Inherent power - The Negotiable instruments Act, 1981 - Section 138 , Proviso (c) of Section 138 N.I. Act - pre-condition for invoking Section 138 by giving a notice to the drawer of the cheque - before filing a complaint under Section 138 of the Act which is a mandatory requirement - Once it is stated in the complaint that notice has been sent by the registered post to the address of the drawer, the due service has to be presumed in view of Section 27 of the General Clauses Act read with Section 114 of the Evidence Act - at the time of taking cognizance of the complaint under Section 138 of the Act, the Court is to only prima facie satisfy that a case under said section is made out and the mandatory requirement have been complied with.(Para 10,11)

(B) The general clauses act, 1897 - Section 27 - meaning of service by post - service of notice has been effected when it is sent to the correct address by registered post. (Para 10)

(C) Indian Evidence Act, 1872 - Section 114 - when a notice is sent by registered post and is returned with a postal endorsement refused or not available in the house or house locked or shop closed or addressee not in station, due service has to be presumed .(Para 10)

Cheque issued by accused - to discharge a legal debt - returned unpaid - dishonoured - evaded legal notice send through registered post - complainant filed a complaint - held by trial court - while passing impugned order - notice dated 07.07.2018 and 27.07.2018 will be deemed to have been issued within 30 days of dishonour of cheque in dispute. (Para -3,12)

HELD:-No infirmity in the impugned order passed by trial court.(Para - 13)

Petition dismissed. (E-7)

List of Cases cited:

C.C. Alavi Haji Vs Palapetty Muhammed & anr.,(2007) 6 SCC 555

(Delivered by Hon'ble Karunesh Singh Pawar, J.)

1. Heard Shri Shiv Sagar Singh learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned A.G.A. for the State.

2. Notices to respondent no. 2 are dispensed with.

3. Through this petition, the petitioner has challenged the impugned order dated 11.10.2021 passed by the Presiding Officer, Additional Court, Saharanpur in complaint case No. 877 of 2018 (Praveen Singh Vs. Man Singh), under Section 138 of N.I. Act, P.S. Sadar Bazar, District Saharanpur whereby the petitioner has been summoned for facing trail for an offence under Section 138 N.I. Act with regard to dishonor of alleged cheque dated 28.03.2018.

4. Brief facts of the case are that in order to discharge a legal recoverable debt or liability a cheque No. 004565 dated 28.03.2018 to the tune of Rs. 1,00,000/- was issued in favour of the complainant by the accused, the cheque was presented by the complainant in his bank account No. 3463556822, Central Bank of India, Naveen Nagar, Saharanpur for encashment. The cheque was returned back unpaid with an endorsement of the bank that payment stopped by the drawer. Again the cheque was presented by the complainant in his bank for encashment in his account, however, the same was again dishonoured on 25.06.2018 and the information regarding dishonouring of cheque was received by the complainant on 28.06.2018. The payment was again stopped by the drawer as per memo of the bank. The complainant thus issued a legal notice dated 07.07.2018 to the accused on his residential address through registered post which was evaded by the accused in collusion with the postal employees by mentioning an endorsement that the accused does not reside on this address. The second notice was sent by the complainant on 27.07.2018 through registered post which was also returned by the accused and was received by the complainant on 01.08.2018 and then on 20.08.2018, a complaint was filed by the complaint before the learned court below.

5. Earlier in the case under Section 138 of N.I. Act, vide order dated 17.1.2019, the learned trial court summoned the accused. Against that order, the accused filed a criminal revision No. 143/2019 "Man Singh Vs. State of U.P" which was allowed vide order dated 19.10.2019 by the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Court No. 6, Saharanpur and the order dated 17.01.2019 was set aside. The relevant part of the order passed by the Revisional Court is extracted below:-

निगरानीकर्ता के विद्वान अधिवक्ता का मुख्य तर्क यह था कि चेक अनादृत होने की मैमो दिनांकित 26.5.6.2018 की है तथा कथित नोटिस दिनांकित 27.07.2018 को दिया गया है। इस प्रकार उक्त नोटिस 30 दिन के अन्दर नहीं दिया गया है। आक्षेपित आदेश दिनांकित 17.01.2019 के अवलोकन से स्पष्ट है कि उसमें विद्वान अवर न्यायालय द्वारा नोटिस दिये जाने की तिथि / अवधि के आंकलन करने हेतु अपने आदेश में चैक अनादृत होने की सूचना की तिथियां 14.05.2018 व 25.06.2018 दर्शित की गयी है। यदि बाद वाली तिथि 25.06.2018 से दिनों की गणना की जाये तो जो नोटिस दिनांक 27.07.2018 को प्रेषित किया गया वह *30*दिन के बाद का है। विद्वान अवर न्यायालय द्वारा इस सम्बन्ध में अपने आदेश में कोई विवेचना नहीं की गयी है कि *30*दिन पश्चात् नोटिस भेजे जाने पर भी परिवाद किस कारण से पोषणीय है। इसके अतिरिक्त यहाँ यह भी उल्लेखनीय है कि परिवाद में परिवादी द्वारा चैक अनादृत होने की सूचना दिनांक 28.06.2018 को प्राप्त होना कथित किया है और इसके बाद एक नोटिस दिनांक 7.7.2018 को भी प्रेषित किया जाना कथित किया है। जिसके सम्बन्ध में पत्रावली पर रजिस्ट्री रसीद भी दाखिल है। उक्त दोनों तथ्यों की भी विवेचना विद्वान अवर न्यायालय द्वारा अपने आदेश में नहीं की गयी है, जो इस सम्बन्ध में निष्कर्ष निकालने में महत्वपूर्ण हो सकती थी कि वास्तव में परिवादी द्वारा प्रेषित नोटिस समय सीमा के अन्दर है या नहीं। इस प्रकार उक्त परिस्थितियों में विद्वान अवर न्यायालय द्वारा पारित आदेश पूर्णतया तथ्यों एवं साक्ष्यों पर आधारित नहीं है। विद्वान अवर न्यायालय द्वारा अपने में निहित क्षेत्राधिकार का पूर्णतः प्रयोग करने में लोप किया गया है। अतः उक्त आदेश यथावत् बने रहने योग्य नहीं है। निगरानी स्वीकार किये जाने योग्य है।

आदेश

प्रस्तुत फौजदारी निगरानी स्वीकार की जाती है। विद्वान अवर न्यायालय द्वारा पारित आदेश दिनांकित 17.01.2019 निरस्त किया जाता है। विद्वान अवर न्यायालय को निरदेशित किया जाता है कि वह उपर की गयी विवेचना के आधार पर यथोचित नवीन आदेश पारित करना सुनिश्चित करें। पत्रावली अग्रिम कार्यवाही हेतु विद्वान अवर न्यायालय प्रेषित की जाये। पत्रावली दिनांक 13.11.2019 को विद्वान अवर न्यायालय के समक्ष पेश हो परिवादी दिनांक 13.11.2019 को विद्वान अवर न्यायालय में उपस्थित हो।

6. On remand, the matter was again heard for orders on summoning. In compliance of the observations made by the Revisional Court, the learned trial court has passed the impugned order dated 11.10.2022 summoning the accused. The relevant extract of the order is extracted below:-

"In support of the complaint averments the complainant has filed an affidavit in which she has reiterated her complaint's averments. In addition to aforesaid preliminary evidence the complainant has also filed on record following documents---

1 Cheque No. 004565 dated 28-3-2018 for the sum of Rs. 100,000/ in favour of the complainant

2 Bank memo dated 14-5-2018 showing cause of dishonour of the cheque as "payment stopped by drawer.

3. Bank memo dated 25-6-2018 showing cause of dishonour of the cheque as "payment stopped by drawer".

4. Copy of legal notice bearing date as 27-7-2018.

5. Registered postal receipt dated 07-7-2018 and

6. Registered postal receipt dated 27-7-2018.

7. Registered postal envelope issued against the accused on his residential address and returned undelivered bearing an endorsement of the postman dated 09-7-2018.

8. Registered postal envelope issued against the accused on his place of posting and returned back undelivered bearing endorsement of the postman dated 01-8-2018.

The complainant not only in her complaint but even in her affidavit has specifically mentioned that lastly she had presented the cheque in dispute for encashment before her banker but it was dishonoured once again and she could get such information on 28-6-2018. The veracity of this fact can only be ascertained after the conclusion of evidence. Therefore notices issued on 07 7-2018 against the accused on his residential address and then issued on his place of posting on 27-7-2018 will be deemed to have been issued within 30 days of the receipt of information of dishonour of cheque in dispute.

Therefore at this stage the complainant succeeds in proving all ingredients of Section 138 of NI Act against the accused.

So on the basis of the preliminary evidence of the complainant under Section 200 of Criminal Procedure Code and aforesaid documents the complainant at this stage appears to have been successful in prima facie establishing the necessary ingredients of Section 138 of NI Act as under:-

1. The cheque in dispute was issued by accused in order to discharge his legally enforceable debt or liability.

2. The cheque was presented for encashment within its validity period by the complainant.

3. The cheque was dishonored due to the reason "payment stopped by the drawer.

4. After being informed about dishonor of cheque the complainant within 30 days got issued the legal notice by way of registered post through his counsel.

5. Despite service of such notice the accused failed to pay the cheque amount within 15 days of the receipt of notice, 6 Thereafter the present complaint has been filed within time prescribed under Section 142(1)(b) of the NI Act.

Therefore at this stage the complainant appears to have been. successful in proving all legal ingredients of Section 138 of Negotiable Instruments Act against the accused. So at this stage prima facie case under Section 138 of NI Act, against the accused is made out. Hence it appears reasonable and proper to summon the accused Maan Singh to face trial for an offence punishable under Section 138 of Negotiable Instruments Act

Order

1. Let the accused Maan Singh be summoned to face trial for an offence punishable under Section 138 of Negotiable Instruments Act 1881,for 07-01-2022 fixed for appearance.

2. Steps for service of summons be taken within 3 days in following modes:-

(i) By way of ordinary process.

(ii) By way of registered post with AD.

(iii) By way of courier service.

(iv) By way of e-mail, if possible.

3. Let the copies of the complaint and list of witnesses be filed within three days.

4. Compliance report along with postal and courier service receipts be filed positively by or before the date fixed."

7. Submission of learned counsel for the petitioner is that cheque was dishonoured on 26.06.2018 and the alleged notice was given on 27.07.2018 approximately after 30 days and thus, notice has not been given within 30 days as mandated under Negotiable Instrument Act. He further submits that in the complaint it has been mentioned by the complainant that information regarding dishonour of cheque was given on 28.06.2018 and subsequently a notice dated 07.07.2018 was sent to the accused. He further submits that the learned trial court while passing the summoning order order dated 17.01.2019 has not discussed the fact that as to whether the notice sent by the complainant was within time and the complaint can be maintainable after 30 days and therefore, the learned revisional Court on these grounds has remanded the matter to the learned trial court vide its order dated 19.10.2019.

8. Perusal of the record shows that cheque No. 004565 dated 28.03.2018 for a sum of Rs. 1,00,000/- issued in favour of the complainant was dishonoured on 14.05.2018 as per the bank memo filed with the complainant as payment was stopped by the drawer. Again when the cheque was presented second time in the bank it was again dishonoured showing the cause as payment was stopped by the drawer. As per the averment made in para 7 of the complaint, information regarding such dishonour of cheque was received by the complainant on 28.06.2018 and consequently registered legal notice dated 07.07.2018 was sent on the address of the accused. The postal receipt of the notice dated 07.07.2018 is on record. Thereafter again a notice was sent dated 27.07.2018 along with postal receipt which is also on record. Both the envelopes issued with legal notice on the address of the accused returned back not delivered with an endorsement of the postman dated 09.07.2018 and 01.08.2018. The complainant in para 6 of her complaint has categorically pleaded that she received information regarding dishonour of cheque on 28.06.2018 regarding that a registered notice was sent on 07.07.2018 on his correct residential address. Again a second legal notice was sent on 27.07.2018 on his official address. Both notices were returned with the endorsement.

9. Proviso (c) of Section 138 N.I. Act being a pre-condition for invoking Section 138 by giving a notice to the drawer of the cheque before filing a complaint under Section 138 of the Act which is a mandatory requirement appears to have been fulfilled by the complainant in this case. The argument of the petitioner that no notice dated 07.07.2018 has been given to him and only notice dated 27.07.2018 has been given after 30 days of the date of dishonour of cheque was the second time i.e. on 25.06.2018 is misconceived for the reason that in the complaint the bank memo dated 25.06.2018 showing the dishonour of the cheque is annexed, coupled with the categorical pleading of the complainant in para 7 of the complaint and it has also been pleaded that on 07.07.2018 the registered notice on the residential address of the accused was sent which was returned with an endorsement and thereafter again a registered notice dated 27.07.2018 was sent on the official address of the accused which was again returned with endorsement and was received on 01.08.2018, hence, the notice issued on 07.07.2018 as well as 27.07.2018 were deemed to have been issued within thirty days of the receipt of the information of dishonour of cheque in question.

10. At the stage of taking cognizance only prima facie case has to be seen. The basic facts regarding mode and manner of issuance of the notice to the drawer of the cheque have been narrated in the complaint. Once it is stated in the complaint that notice has been sent by the registered post to the address of the drawer, the due service has to be presumed in view of Section 27 of the General Clauses Act read with Section 114 of the Evidence Act.

No further averment at this stage is required as per the judgment of the Apex Court passed in the case of "C.C. Alavi Haji Vs. Palapetty Muhammed and Another" reported in "(2007) 6 SCC 555". The relevant para 14 and 15 of the said judgment are extracted below:-

"14. Section 27 gives rise to a presumption that service of notice has been effected when it is sent to the correct address by registered post. In view of the said presumption, when stating that a notice "14. Section 27 gives rise to a presumption that service of notice has been effected when it is sent to the co been served or that the addressee is deemed to have knowledge of the notice. Unless and until the contrary is proved by the addressee, service of notice is deemed to have been effected at the time at which the letter would have been delivered in the ordinary course of business. This Court has already held that when a notice is sent by registered post and is returned with a postal endorsement "refused" or "not available in the house" or "house locked" or "shop closed" or "addressee not in station", due service has to be presumed. (Vide Jagdish Singh v. Natthu Singh [(1992) 1 SCC 647 : AIR 1992 SC 1604] ; State of M.P. v. Hiralal [(1996) 7 SCC 523] and V. Raja Kumari v. P. Subbarama Naidu [(2004) 8 SCC 774 : 2005 SCC (Cri) 393] .) It is, therefore, manifest that in view of the presumption available under Section 27 of the Act, it is not necessary to aver in the complaint under Section 138 of the Act that service of notice was evaded by the accused or that the accused had a role to play in the return of the notice unserved.

15. Insofar as the question of disclosure of necessary particulars with regard to the issue of notice in terms of proviso (b) of Section 138 of the Act, in order to enable the court to draw presumption or inference either under Section 27 of the GC Act or Section 114 of the Evidence Act, is concerned, there is no material difference between the two provisions. In our opinion, therefore, when* the notice is sent by registered post by correctly addressing the drawer of the cheque, the mandatory requirement of issue of notice in terms of Clause (b) of proviso to Section 138 of the Act stands complied with. It is needless to emphasise that the complaint must contain basic facts regarding the mode and manner of the issuance of notice to the drawer of the cheque. It is well settled that at the time of taking cognizance of the complaint under Section 138 of the Act, the court is required to be prima facie satisfied that a case under the said section is made out and the aforenoted mandatory statutory procedural requirements have been complied with. It is then for the drawer to rebut the presumption about the service of notice and show that he had no knowledge that the notice was brought to his address or that the address mentioned on the cover was incorrect or that the letter was never tendered or that the report of the postman was incorrect. In our opinion, this interpretation of the provision would effectuate the object and purpose for which proviso to Section 138 was enacted, namely, to avoid unnecessary hardship to an honest drawer of a cheque and to provide him an opportunity to make amends."

11. The purpose of notice is to give an opportunity to the drawer to pay the cheque amount within 15 days from the date of the receipt of notice so as to free from prosecution under Section 138 of Negotiable Instrument Act. Law in this regard has been settled by the Apex Court that at the time of taking cognizance of the complaint under Section 138 of the Act, the Court is to only prima facie satisfy that a case under said section is made out and the mandatory requirement have been complied with. The drawer will be having opportunity to rebut the said presumption about the service of notice at the appropriate stage of the trial.

12. Perusing this fact, learned trial court while passing the impugned order has held that notice dated 07.07.2018 and 27.07.2018 will be deemed to have been issued within 30 days of dishonour of cheque in dispute.

13. There is no infirmity in the impugned order passed by the learned trial court. The petition lacks merits and is accordingly dismissed.

Office is directed to present this order to learned trial court.

(2023) 4 ILRA 79
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 13.04.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE UMESH CHANDRA SHARMA, J.

Criminal Misc. Application U/S 482 No. 13185 of 2019

Janki Sharan Trivedi @ Aman & Ors.
...Applicants
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Sri Birendra Singh, Sri Harikant Shukla, Sri Virendra Singh

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A.

(A) Criminal Law - The Code of criminal procedure, 1973 - Section 482 - Inherent power - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Section 420, Dowry prohibition Act,1961 - Section 3/4 - false implication by way of general and omnibus allegations made in the course of matrimonial dispute, if left unchecked would result in misuse of process of law - courts warned from proceedings against the relatives and in-laws of the husband if no prima facie case is made out against them.(Para -17)

Applicant nos. 4 and 5 participated in ceremony - no role in arranging marriage - family members - were bound to accompany - participate in related functions with her brother and parents - general and omnibus allegations against them - no specific allegation - applicants refused to perform marriage - due to demand for dowry - F.I.R. lodged - F.I.R challenged in High Court - arrest of applicants was stayed - charge-sheet - Non-bailable warrant issued against applicants - quashing of. (Para - 3,4)

HELD:-No prima facie offence either under Section 420 I.P.C. or under Section ¾ D.P. Act made out . Impugned criminal proceedings against applicant nos.4 and 5 is nothing but misuse and abuse of legal process. Entire criminal proceedings with regard to applicant nos.4 and 5 quashed.(Para - 8, 22)

Application u/s 482 Cr.P.C. partly allowed. (E-7)

List of Cases cited:

1. Km. Pooja & ors. Vs St. of U.P. & ors. , Crl. Misc. Writ Petition No.14500 of 2008

2. Smt. Mithilesh & ors. Vs St. of U.P. & ors., Crl. Misc. Writ Petition No.14929 of 2008

3. Kahkashan Kaussar @ Sonam & ors. Vs St. of Bihar & ors., 2022 0 Supreme (SC) 117

4. Lalita Kumari Vs St. of U.P. & ors., (2014) 2 SCC 1

5. S.A.F. for Manav Adhikar & anr. Vs U.O.I., Ministry of Law & Justice & ors., (2018) 10 SCC 443

6. Rajesh Sharma & ors. Vs St. of U.P. & anr., (2018) 10 SCC 472

7. Arnesh Kumar Vs St. of Bihar & anr., (2014) 8 SCC 273

8. Preeti Gupta & anr. Vs St. of Jharkhand & anr., (2010) 7 SCC 667

9. Geeta Mehrotra & anr. Vs St. of U.P. & anr., (2012) 10 SCC 741

10. K. Subba Rao Vs St. of Telengana, (2018) 14 SCC 452

11. Pawan Kumar Bhalotiya Vs W. B.l, 2005 CrLJ 1810 (SC)

12. Premlata Vs St. of Punj., AIR 1991 SC 69

13. Kahkashan Kausar @ Sonam Vs St. of Bihar, 2022 0 Supreme (SC) 117

14. Geeta Mehrotra Vs St. of U.P. & ors., 2012 (10) ADJ 464

(Delivered by Hon'ble Umesh Chandra Sharma, J.)

1. Heard Sri Harikant Shukla, Advocate, holding brief of Sri Virendra Singh, learned counsel for the applicants, Sri Pankaj Kumar Tripathi, learned A.G.A for the State and perused the material available on record.

2. From perusal of the records, it transpires that opposite party no.2 is served personally but he has not come forward to oppose this application and neither opposite party no.2 nor the State have filed any objection/counter affidavit.

3. This application under Section 482 Cr.P.C has been moved to quash the proceeding of Case No.2119 of 2008 (CNR No.UPMB040002302008, State Vs. Janaki Sharan and others) arising out of Case Crime No.2460 of 2008, under Section 420 I.P.C. and Section ¾ D.P. Act, Police Station Kotwali Mahoba, District Mahoba pending in the Court of Chief Judicial Magistrate, Mahoba and also to quash non-bailable warrant issued against the applicants.

4. In brief, facts of the case are that opposite party no.2 lodged an F.I.R. on 16.07.2008 against the applicants that marriage of Kumari Anjana niece of opposite party no.2 had been fixed with applicant no.1, ring ceremony etc. were performed and date of marriage was fixed to solemnise marriage on 08.07.2008, but the applicants refused to perform the marriage for want of demand of dowry. The applicants never demanded the dowry. The present F.I.R was the result of malice. The F.I.R was challenged in the High Court through Criminal Misc. Writ Petition No.14500 of 2008 (Km. Pooja and others Vs. State of U.P. and others), and the arrest of the applicants had been stayed vide order dated 14.08.2008 and vide order dated 20.08.2008 passed in Criminal Misc. Writ Petition No.14929 of 2008 (Smt. Mithilesh and others Vs. State of U.P. and others). During the course of investigation the investigating officer (I.O.) recorded statement of informant Narendra Kumar Mishra and statements of hearsay witnesses Smt. Gauri Dulhaina (mother of informant) and Sushila Devi (wife of the informant) and also of one Deoki Nandan and other family members of the informant. All the witnesses have supported the prosecution story and after recording evidence, the I.O. submitted charge-sheet under Section 420 I.P.C and Section ¾ D.P. Act.

5. The concerned learned Magistrate took cognizance without passing detailed and reasoned order on 21.09.2008. Pursuant to the charge-sheet, process have been issued, neither any summon nor any notice has been served upon applicants. Later on, bailable warrant has been issued in February, 2019. It is true that the marriage of Kumar Anjana D/o Mahendra Kumar was proposed with applicant no.1, Janaki Sharan but later on, the applicants came to know that her family members are of criminal background, therefore, applicant no.1 refused to marry with Anjana. After refusal by applicant no.1, they exerted much pressure for marriage, rather they threatened to kill the applicant no.1 and just to harass the applicants lodged the F.I.R. in question.

6. Being aggrieved with false prosecution by opposite party no.2 and submission of charge-sheet, applicant no.1 moved an application to D.G.P. (Complaint), Government of U.P. and prayed for fair investigation, in which he also mentioned the criminal history of opposite party no.2 and his family. Applicant no.4 is the married daughter of applicant no.2 and applicant no. 5 is unmarried daughter of applicant no.2. Applicant no.6 belongs to same village, but she has no relation with the family of applicant nos.1 and 2, applicant nos.7 and 8 belong to other villages, they are relatives of applicant nos.1 and 2. From perusal of entire evidences it shows that applicants have not committed any cheating/fraud. Therefore, no offence under Section 420 I.P.C is made out against them. Applicant Kamla Kant is villager, applicant Uma Kant is maternal uncle and applicant Neeraj is cousin, son of aunt (mausi) of applicant no.1, thus they are not the family members of applicant no.1, therefore, no offence under the D.P. Act is made out against them.

7. Dowry means "a demand made by parents of either party to a marriage by any other person, to either party to marriage or to any other person at or before or after marriage as consideration of marriage of said parties". In this case opposite party no.2 has implicated the entire family, villagers and other relatives of Janaki Sharan, thus the allegations contained in the F.I.R. do not come within the purview of Section ¾ D.P. Act, 1961.

8. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case, it is quite clear that no prima facie offence either under Section 420 I.P.C. or under Section ¾ D.P. Act is made out. No useful purpose would be served to continue with trial on the basis of material available in the charge-sheet.

9. The applicants are innocent, committed no offence and F.I.R. is the result of malice of opposite party no.2, and the prosecution is void ab initio, hence the application be allowed and the entire proceedings of the impugned criminal case be quashed.

10. During the course of argument the learned counsel for the applicants has argued that at present this application remains only in respect of applicant nos.4 and 5 and rest of the applicants have appeared in the trial court and they are ready to face the trial.

11. As per the F.I.R. and the prosecution version marriage between the niece of the informant Kumari Anjana had been settled with Janki Sharan @ Aman, applicant no.1 son of applicant nos.2 and 3 but after godbharai and before the tilak ceremony, applicant no.2, Ram Bihari Trivedi sent a letter dated 14.06.2008 demanding a santro car and additional dowry and later on he also sent a notice dated 19.06.2008 for not being ready to solemnise the marriage of his son i.e. applicant no.1 with Anjana, niece of the informant.

12. The prosecution case is that the reason behind the denial was that applicant no.1, Janki Sharan had been successful in getting entrance in MBA, hence the applicants had become greedy and wanted more and more dowry. According to the prosecution applicant no.1 was provided a golden ring and rest of the applicants were also provided cash and clothes as a mark of honour. The informant was continuously meeting with the applicants to fix the date of marriage but they troubled him for an additional demand of car and valuable things.

13. According to the prosecution, all the applicants are jointly and severely liable for the offence about which charge sheet has been submitted against all the accused persons.

14. In spite of service upon the informant/opposite party no.2 neither he appeared nor filed any counter affidavit nor contested the application. However, the application has been opposed by the learned AGA on behalf of the State. During course of argument learned counsel for the applicants states that he does not press the application on behalf of the applicants except applicant nos.4 and 5. Hence, the role of the applicant nos.4 and 5 has to be scrutinized and it has to be seen as to whether the criminal proceedings going on against applicant nos.4 and 5 is the abuse of process of Court and whether it is necessary to give effect to any order under the Code of Criminal Procedure and to secure the ends of justice, this Court should exercise its inherent jurisdiction for quashing the criminal proceedings pending against applicant nos.4 and 5. In this regard Section 482 CrPC has to be seen which reads as under:-

"482. Saving of inherent powers of High Court. Nothing in this Code shall be deemed to limit or affect the inherent powers of the High Court to make such orders as may be necessary to give effect to any order under this Code, or to prevent abuse of the process of any Court or otherwise to secure the ends of justice."

15. Learned counsel for the applicants has relied on the judgment Kahkashan Kaussar @ Sonam and others Vs. State of Bihar and others, 2022 0 Supreme (SC) 117, in which, niece, mother-in-law, sister-in-law and brother-in-law were made accused and general allegations were levelled against them.

16. The Apex Court relying on the citation Lalita Kumari Vs State of U.P. and others, (2014) 2 SCC 1 and Social Action Forum for Manav Adhikar and another Vs. Union of India, Ministry of Law and Justice and others, (2018) 10 SCC 443 quashed the criminal proceedings.

17. The Apex Court held that now-a-days, a tendency is increased to apply provisions such as Section 498-A I.P.C. as instrument to settle personal scores against the husband and his relatives. The Apex Court cited the previous judgments of Rajesh Sharma and others Vs. State of U.P. and another, (2018) 10 SCC 472; Arnesh Kumar Vs. State of Bihar and another, (2014) 8 SCC 273; Preeti Gupta and another Vs. State of Jharkhand and another, (2010) 7 SCC 667; Geeta Mehrotra and another Vs. State of U.P. and another, (2012) 10 SCC 741 and K. Subba Rao Vs. State of Telengana, (2018) 14 SCC 452 and observed that false implication by way of general and omnibus allegations made in the course of matrimonial dispute, if left unchecked would result in misuse of process of law. Therefore, the Apex Court by way of this judgment has warned the courts from proceedings against the relatives and in-laws of the husband if no prima facie case is made out against them.

18. The Apex Court found that no specific and distinct allegations had been made against either of appellants. They had not been attributed any specific role in the cited case; the order of High Court of Patna and the F.I.R. was set aside.

19. It was held in Pawan Kumar Bhalotiya Vs. West Bengal, 2005 CrLJ 1810 (SC) that where the F.I.R. has been lodged only to harass the applicants, the criminal proceedings could be quashed exercising the power under Section 482 Cr.P.C.

20. In Premlata Vs. State of Punjab, AIR 1991 SC 69, it has been held that if the High Court observed that if no useful purpose would be served in continuing the proceedings, the High Court can quash the proceedings of the court below.

21. In view of the judgment pronounced by the Apex Court, the role of applicant nos.4 and 5 has been deeply scrutinized by this Court and thereafter this Court comes to the conclusion that being family members they had participated in the ongoing ceremony but neither they had any role in fixing the marriage between Anjana and applicant no.1 nor they had demanded any dowry nor they had instigated rest of the applicants for making further demand of dowry nor there is any proof of conspiracy by them in this regard nor they were in any way beneficiary to the alleged demand of dowry, simply because they are the real sisters of applicant no.1, they were bound to accompany and participate in related function with her brother and parents. There is general and omnibus allegations against them. There is no specific allegation against applicant nos.4 and 5. On this score learned counsel for the applicants has relied on Kahkashan Kausar @ Sonam Vs. State of Bihar, 2022 0 Supreme (SC) 117 and Geeta Mehrotra Vs. State of U.P. and others, 2012 (10) ADJ 464 which are fully applicable to this case in support of both the applicants.

22. On the basis of above discussion, this Court is of the view that the impugned criminal proceedings against applicant nos.4 and 5 is nothing but misuse and abuse of legal process and to secure the ends of justice, it is mandatory to exercise the inherent power of this Court under Section 482 CrPC and to quash the entire criminal proceedings with regard to applicant nos.4 and 5, Puja and Meenu. Hence, this application is liable to be allowed accordingly.

ORDER

23. This application under Section 482 CrPC is dismissed in respect of applicant nos.1, 2, 3, 6, 7 and 8 on account of not pressing the petition by the learned counsel for the applicants.

24. This application is partly allowed with regard to applicant nos.4 and 5, Puja and Meenu and the entire criminal proceedings of the aforementioned case in respect of applicant no.4, Puja and applicant no.5, Meenu are hereby quashed.

(2023) 4 ILRA 84
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 20.02.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE KARUNESH SINGH PAWAR, J.

Criminal Misc. Application U/S 482 No. 28521 of 2022

Anwar Saifi ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Sri Sushil Kumar Pandey

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A.

(A) Criminal Law - Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Section 482 - Inherent power - The Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 - Section 138 - Dishonor of cheque for insufficiency, etc., of funds in the accounts - when the notice is sent by registered post by correctly addressing the drawer of the cheque, the mandatory requirement of issue of notice in terms of Clause (b) of proviso to Section 138 of the Act stands complied with. (Para -15)

(B) The general clauses act, 1897 - section 27 - meaning of service by post - service of notice has been effected when it is sent to the correct address by registered post. (Para - 15)

(b) Indian Evidence Act, 1872 - Section 114 - when a notice is sent by registered post and is returned with a postal endorsement refused or not available in the house or house locked or shop closed or addressee not in station, due service has to be presumed - once the notice is sent by the registered post by correctly addressing the drawer of cheque, the service of notice deemed to have been effected.(Para -15,18)

Complainant was offered money by applicant to keep - applicant dishonored two cheques - complainant demanded money back - applicant-accused presented two more cheques - dishonored due to insufficient funds - complainant confronted applicant and asked him to present cheques again - bank dishonored cheques - complainant returned them - applicant not gave any heed to demand of complainant - not made payment- complainant filed a legal notice - sent by registered post with acknowledgment due - Misconceived request for specific service date in complaint.(Para - 4,5,14)

HELD:-In view of Section 27 of General Clauses Act, 1987 and Section 114 of the Evidence Act, 1872 once the notice is sent by the registered post by correctly addressing the drawer of the cheque, the service of notice is deemed to have been effected. Notice was sent on 11.01.2016 on a local address by the registered post, hence, the service of notice is deemed to have been effected.(Para - 18)

Petition dismissed. (E-7)

List of Cases cited:

1. M.S. Shakti Travel & Tours Vs St. of Bihar , 2022 (9) SCC 415

2. C.C. Alavi Haji Vs Palapetty Muhammed & anr. , (2007) 6 SCC 555

(Delivered by Hon'ble Karunesh Singh Pawar, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for the applicant and learned A.G.A. for the State.

2. In view of the order which is proposed to be passed, notice to respondent no. 2 is dispensed with.

3. By This petition, the petitioner has prayed for quashing the impugned proceeding of complaint case No. 3792/9 of 2016 as well as the summoning order dated 05.04.2016 passed by the learned trial court.

4. Brief facts of the case is that an offer was given by the applicant to the complainant to keep his money with him. Believing that the complainant deposited Rs 1,00,000/- with the applicant in presence of a witness and promised to pay him back anytime after 1 year. The complainant further gave different amounts on different dates and all those amounts were got entered into a passbook by the applicant. After one year, the complainant demanded his money back, then on 10.09.2015, a check of rupees Rs. 3,50,000/- drawn at Punjab National Bank numbered as 958870, and another check dated 20.09.2015 of Rs. 3,50,000/-, numbered is 958871 were given at the house of the complainant by the applicant-accused which were presented by the complainant at the concerned bank. Those cheques were dishonored due to insufficiency of funds. Then the complainant confronted with the applicant regarding the dishonor of cheque and then he asked him again to present the cheque on 23.12.2015 as he has deposited the amount in the bank. Again checks were presented on 23.12.2015, however, the cheques were dishonored by the bank on 29.12.2015 on account of of insufficient funds and were returned.

5. Thereafter, the compliment gave a notice dated 11.01.2016 through his Council to the applicant. It is alleged in the complaint that after receiving the notice, the applicant has not given any heed to the demand of the complainant neither he has made the payment, hence, the complaint was filed.

6. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that that there is no averment in the complaint disclosing the date of service to the applicant and therefore, the complaint case ought to have been dismissed as premature and summoning order should not have been passed. It is further submitted that even if the legal notice dated 11.01.2016 is accepted as served then also the complaint filed by the complainant is premature.

7. Having heard the learned counsel for the complainant and the learned A.G.A. and perusal of the record also including the summoning order which shows that the learned trial court has considered the fact that the cheques has been produced before the bank in the stipulated period of three months. Cheques were returned on 29.12.2015 and the notice was given by the complainant on 11.01.2016 and after prima facie being satisfied regarding the compliance of three conditions provided under Section 138 of N.I. Act, the summons appears to have been issued. Section 138 of N.I. Act is extracted below:-

138 Dishonour of cheque for insufficiency, etc., of funds in the account. --Where any cheque drawn by a person on an account maintained by him with a banker for payment of any amount of money to another person from out of that account for the discharge, in whole or in part, of any debt or other liability, is returned by the bank unpaid, either because of the amount of money standing to the credit of that account is insufficient to honour the cheque or that it exceeds the amount arranged to be paid from that account by an agreement made with that bank, such person shall be deemed to have committed an offence and shall, without prejudice to any other provisions of this Act, be punished with imprisonment for [a term which may be extended to two years], or with fine which may extend to twice the amount of the cheque, or with both: Provided that nothing contained in this section shall apply unless-

(a) the cheque has been presented to the bank within a period of six months from the date on which it is drawn or within the period of its validity, whichever is earlier;

(b) the payee or the holder in due course of the cheque, as the case may be, makes a demand for the payment of the said amount of money by giving a notice in writing, to the drawer of the cheque, [within thirty days] of the receipt of information by him from the bank regarding the return of the cheque as unpaid; and

(c) the drawer of such cheque fails to make the payment of the said amount of money to the payee or, as the case may be, to the holder in due course of the cheque, within fifteen days of the receipt of the said notice.

Explanation.-- For the purposes of this section, "debt or other liability" means a legally enforceable debt or other liability.]

Clause (b) of the aforesaid Section 138 of N.I. Act requires that the payee or the holder in due course of a cheque, has to make a demand for the payment of the said amount of money by giving a notice in writing to the drawer of the cheque within 30 days of the receipt of the information from the bank regarding the return of the cheque as unpaid.

8. A supplementary affidavit has been filed by the applicant which is taken on record which contains several documents filed by complainant in support of the complaint which also include two return memorandum of the bank dated 29.12.2015. Thereafter within 30 days i.e. on 11.01.2016 a notice has been given by the complainant to the accused-applicant through his counsel. Specific averment of giving notice has been made in the complaint to the effect that the complainant has given a notice dated 11.01.2016 through his counsel to the accused-applicant which has been received by the accused and has not given any reply. The mandatory requirement under 138 clause-b of N.I. Act is only that the complainant or the payee or holder of cheque has to make a demand for payment of the said amount of money by giving a notice in writing within 30 days of the receipt of information received by him from the bank.

9. In this case, the bank has dishonored both the cheques on 29.12.2015, return memo of the bank are on record. The notice has been given well within 30 days from 29.12.2015. The submission of learned counsel for the applicant is that there is no specific averment in the complaint regarding the date of service to the accused-applicant of the legal notice sent by the complainant, therefore, the entire proceedings are liable to be quashed.

10. The second contention is that even if the legal notice dated 11.01.2016 is accepted as served then also the complaint impugned has been filed on 09.02.2016 before the stage of maturity. The contention of the learned counsel for the applicant seems to be misconceived. There is no requirement under Section 138 to disclose the date of service in the complaint, however, the only requirement is that a demand for payment of the said amount of money has to be made by the payee or holder in due course of the cheque by giving a notice in writing to the drawer of the cheque within thirty days of the receipt of information by him from the bank. In this case, that requirement has been complied by the complainant. There is categorical averment in the complaint that a legal notice has been given to the accused-applicant by the complainant through his counsel. The notice has been given within thirty days of the receipt of the information by the bank.

11. Along with the supplementary affidavit, the applicant has filed all the nine documents filed by the complainant along with the complaint. Among those documents, are two cheques as well as the registered AD by which the legal notice was sent. He has also filed the registered acknowledgment receipt which shows that the the registered post sent to the address of the accused-applicant has been received at his resident. Copy of the registered AD is also on record.

12. Learned counsel for the applicant has relied on the judgment of the SC in the case of "M.S. Shakti Travel and Tours Vs. State of Bihar, reported in 2022 (9) SCC 415".

13. A perusal of the aforesaid judgment shows in that case, in the complaint itself was not mentioned that the notice has been served, whereas in this case it is clearly mentioned in the complaint that the notice was given and it has been duly served. Therefore, the facts of the case of M.S. Shakti Travel and Tour (supra) are different from the present case. The of M. S. Shakti Travels and Tours (supra) is distinguishable on the facts.

14. In the present case, a demand has been made by the complainant by giving a legal notice through his counsel which has been sent by the registered post along with the acknowledgment due and as he received the acknowledgment due. The argument advanced by the learned counsel for the applicant that there should be specific averment disclosing the date of service in the complaint in question, is misconceived.

15. The controversy has been settled by the Apex Court in the case of "(2007) 6 SCC 555, C.C. Alavi Haji Vs. Palapetty Muhammed and another" and it has been held that there is no need to make such averment in the complaint for raising presumption as to service of notice in the said situation and in view of Section 27 of General Clauses Act, 1987 and Section 114 of Evidence Act, 1872, once the notice is sent by the registered post by correctly addressing the drawer of cheque, the service of notice deemed to have been effected.

14. Section 27 gives rise to a presumption that service of notice has been effected when it is sent to the correct address by registered post. In view of the said presumption, when stating that a notice has been sent by registered post to the address of the drawer, it is unnecessary to further aver in the complaint that in spite of the return of the notice unserved, it is deemed to have been served or that the addressee is deemed to have knowledge of the notice. Unless and until the contrary is proved by the addressee, service of notice is deemed to have been effected at the time at which the letter would have been delivered in the ordinary course of business. This Court has already held that when a notice is sent by registered post and is returned with a postal endorsement "refused" or "not available in the house" or "house locked" or "shop closed" or "addressee not in station", due service has to be presumed. (Vide Jagdish Singh v. Natthu Singh [(1992) 1 SCC 647 : AIR 1992 SC 1604] ; State of M.P. v. Hiralal [(1996) 7 SCC 523] and V. Raja Kumari v. P. Subbarama Naidu [(2004) 8 SCC 774 : 2005 SCC (Cri) 393] .) It is, therefore, manifest that in view of the presumption available under Section 27 of the Act, it is not necessary to aver in the complaint under Section 138 of the Act that service of notice was evaded by the accused or that the accused had a role to play in the return of the notice unserved.

15. Insofar as the question of disclosure of necessary particulars with regard to the issue of notice in terms of proviso (b) of Section 138 of the Act, in order to enable the court to draw presumption or inference either under Section 27 of the GC Act or Section 114 of the Evidence Act, is concerned, there is no material difference between the two provisions. In our opinion, therefore, when the notice is sent by registered post by correctly addressing the drawer of the cheque, the mandatory requirement of issue of notice in terms of Clause (b) of proviso to Section 138 of the Act stands complied with. It is needless to emphasise that the complaint must contain basic facts regarding the mode and manner of the issuance of notice to the drawer of the cheque. It is well settled that at the time of taking cognizance of the complaint under Section 138 of the Act, the court is required to be prima facie satisfied that a case under the said section is made out and the aforenoted mandatory statutory procedural requirements have been complied with. It is then for the drawer to rebut the presumption about the service of notice and show that he had no knowledge that the notice was brought to his address or that the address mentioned on the cover was incorrect or that the letter was never tendered or that the report of the postman was incorrect. In our opinion, this interpretation of the provision would effectuate the object and purpose for which proviso to Section 138 was enacted, namely, to avoid unnecessary hardship to an honest drawer of a cheque and to provide him an opportunity to make amends.

16. In the aforesaid case of C.C. Alavi Haji (supra), the averments made in complaint that the complainant issued lawyer's notice intimating dishonor of cheque and demanded payment on 04.08.2001, the same was returned on 10.08.2001 saying that the accused was out of station. There was no averment to the effect that the notice was sent at the correct address of the drawer or the cheque by "registered post acknowledgment due". However, since the returned envelope was annexed to the complaint which formed a part of the complaint which showed that notice was sent by registered post acknowledgment due to the correct address and was returned with an endorsement that "the adressee was in abroad". It was held by the Apex Court that requirement of Section 138 of N.I. Act have been sufficiently complied. Likewise in this case, the complainant has issued lawyers notice on 11.01.2016, intimating the dishonor of cheque and a demand of payment was made by that notice which was sent by registered post at the correct address of the drawer, the registered receipt is on record and acknowledgment from the receiver on piece of paper by one Jeenat on behalf of the complainant is on record which confirms that the notice was properly served. That signed document/receipt has been delivered to the complainant/sender which is filed along with the supplementary affidavit. Therefore, it cannot be said that legal notice sent to the applicant-accused has not been served. The registered receipt as well as registered AD have been filed as evidence along with the complaint which form part of the complaint.

17. In this case, clear avement has been made in the complaint that a legal notice demanding the money has been sent through his lawyer's by the complainant to the applicant-accused. The registry receipt as well as the registered AD have been filed along with the complaint which forms part of the complaint, therefore it is unnecessary that specific date of service of legal notice to the applicant accused should have been mentioned. Law in this regard has been settled by the Apex Court in the aforesaid case of C.C. Alavi Haji (supra).

18. So far as the second limb of argument that the complaint is premature is concerned, it is evident that legal notice through registered post was sent by the complainant to the applicant-accused who are resident of the same district, therefore, in view of Section 27 of General Clauses Act, 1987 and Section 114 of the Evidence Act, 1872 once the notice is sent by the registered post by correctly addressing the drawer of the cheque, the service of notice is deemed to have been effected. As per Section 142(1) N.I. Act, complaint under the said Act is to be made within one month of the date on which the cause of action arises under clause (c) of the Proviso to Section 138 of N.I. Act. The notice was sent on 11.01.2016 on a local address by the registered post, hence, the service of notice is deemed to have been effected. The drawer of the cheque of the accused-applicant was supposed to make a payment of the said amount within 15 days of the receipt of such notice, which he has failed to pay. The complaint has been filed on 09.02.2018.

19. In this case the notice was sent on 11.01.2016 which shall be deemed to have been served on seven days on local address as it was sent through registered post. The drawer of the cheque/applicant-accused was supposed to make the payment of the said amount of money to the payee within 15 days of the receipt of notice, therefore, after expiry of 15 days within one month, the complaint could have been filed which has been done in this case. There is no substance in the argument of learned counsel for the applicant.

20. Even otherwise the applicant accused has filed the summons of learned trial court he has also filed the copy of the complaint as well as the other documents annexed with the complaint, therefore, it will be presumed that he has received the summons from the learned trial court along with the copy of the complaint under Section 138 of N.I. Act and therefore cannot contend that there was no proper service of notice as required under Section 138 of N.I. Act as held by the Apex Court in the aforesaid case of C.C. Alavi Haji (supra). Relevant para no. 17 is extracted.

17. It is also to be borne in mind that the requirement of giving of notice is a clear departure from the rule of criminal law, where there is no stipulation of giving of a notice before filing a complaint. Any drawer who claims that he did not receive the notice sent by post, can, within 15 days of receipt of summons from the court in respect of the complaint under Section 138 of the Act, make payment of the cheque amount and submit to the court that he had made payment within 15 days of receipt of summons (by receiving a copy of complaint with the summons) and, therefore, the complaint is liable to be rejected. A person who does not pay within 15 days of receipt of the summons from the court along with the copy of the complaint under Section 138 of the Act, cannot obviously contend that there was no proper service of notice as required under Section 138, by ignoring statutory presumption to the contrary under Section 27 of the GC Act and Section 114 of the Evidence Act. In our view, any other interpretation of the proviso would defeat the very object of the legislation. As observed in Bhaskaran case [(1999) 7 SCC 510 : 1999 SCC (Cri) 1284] if the "giving of notice" in the context of Clause (b) of the proviso was the same as the "receipt of notice" a trickster cheque drawer would get the premium to avoid receiving the notice by adopting different strategies and escape from legal consequences of Section 138 of the Act.

21. In view of the aforesaid discussions and the law laid down by the Apex Court, the petition fails and is accordingly dismissed.

(2023) 4 ILRA 90
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 20.02.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE KARUNESH SINGH PAWAR, J.

Criminal Misc. Application U/S 482 No. 28701 of 2022

Vijay ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Sri Sunil Kumar Yadav

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A., Sri Umesh Kumar

(A) Criminal Law - Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Section 482 - Inherent power , Section 200 – Examination of complainant , Section 202 - Postponement of issue of process , Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections - 307, 323, 324, 504, 506 - Cross-examination is conducted by the adverse party for trial purposes under Section 137 Evidence Act . (Para - 8)

Sessions Judge noted rivalry between parties - criminal case of murder against petitioner father - at evidence stage - accused persons claimed alleged injuries were fake - C.M.O. ordered petitioner to appear for a re-medical examination - but he couldn't - accused persons used fake pellets to protect themselves from murder and exert pressure - court did not find any documents revealing petitioner's summons by C.M.O. - rivalry dispute between parties not considered - revisional court remands case to proceed afresh, following the observations . (Para - 9)

HELD:-Order of the revisional court that after cross examining the complainant and the witnesses, the learned Magistrate shall pass orders does not seem to be tenable and is bad in law. Order dated 28.7.2022 set aside to the extent it directs cross examining the complainant and witnesses, while the rest is upheld. Magistrate directed to proceed according to law, disregarding revisional court's direction for cross-examination of complainant and witnesses.(Para - 9)

Petition disposed of. (E-7)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Karunesh Singh Pawar, J.)

1. The petition has been filed under Section 482 CrPC for setting aside judgment and order dated 28.7.2022 passed by Sessions Judge, Etah in Criminal Revision No.63 of 2022 Chandra Kant alias Vikku and others versus State of U.P. and others under sections 307, 323, 324, 504, 506 I.P.C., P.S. Pilua, district Etah, with a further prayer to remand back the case to Sessions Judge, Etah to reconsider the matter.

2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner, learned counsel for private respondents and learned A.G.A. for the State.

3. In brief, the case of the petitioner is that he filed an application under section 156 CrPC before the trial court with the allegation that on 25.12.2018 at 8.00a.m. he along with one Raju alias Raj Kumar had gone to attend call of nature and when they reached near Primary School, Kapreta, they found the accused persons, i.e. respondents 2 to 4 present there. They abused the petitioner, beaten him and with an intent to kill, the accused Shivkant and Shashikant shot on him with fire arm, causing injury to the petitioner by the shot of Shiv Kant. The petitioner was escaped by the villagers.

4. Learned Addl. Civil Judge (Junior Division)/Judicial Magistrate, Court No.21, Etah after recording statement of the complainant and witnesses under sections 200 and 202 CrPC passed order dated 10.5.2022 whereby the trial court took cognizance and summoned the accused Shivkant alias Bhalu, Shashikant alias Gaurav under sections 323, 307, 504, 506 I.P.C. and and accused Chandrakant and Abhishek under sections 323, 324, 504, 506 I.P.C.

5. Feeling aggrieved with order dated 10.5.2022 (supra), the accused persons preferred a Criminal Revision No.63 of 2022 Chandrakant and three others versus State of U.P. and another. The Sessions Judge, Etah by the impugned order dated 28.7.2022 while allowing the revision petition set aside the order passed by the trial court with a direction to pass a fresh order in the light of the observation made in the order.

6. The learned counsel for the petitioner has assailed the revisional court's order mainly on the ground that the order directing the trial court to pass a fresh order after cross examining the complainant, i.e. the petitioner and the witnesses with a view to know the correct fact is bad in law and being irregular is liable to be set aside.

7. Learned A.G.A. as well as learned counsel for the private respondents have opposed the petition.

8. A perusal of the order under challenge reveals that the learned Sessions Judge has noted in the impugned order that there is a rivalry going on between the parties and a criminal case of murder of the father of the accused Shivkant is pending against the petitioner and it is at the stage of evidence.

Further it has been taken note of by the learned revisional court that on the complaint of the accused persons that the alleged injuries on the person of the petitioner are fake, the Chief Medical Officer Etah vide order dated 4.1.2019 directed the petitioner/complainant to appear before him for his re-medical examination by the Medical Board, however, he could not turn up before him. It was the case of the accused persons that by arranging with the Doctor, fake pellets were placed in the chest just below the skin and with a view to protect himself from the criminal offence of murder and exert pressure, the petitioner/complainant made a false case against the accused-respondents. Learned revisional court further did not find any document on record of the lower court to disclose that the petitioner was summoned by the Chief Medical Officer for his medical examination before the Medical Board.

A perusal of the order dated 10.5.2022 passed by learned trial court also shows that the learned Magistrate while summoning the accused persons did not take into consideration the fact that the P.W.3, Doctor has not deposed before the court that the alleged injury caused to the injured petitioner was an injury by fire arm, nor there is any document on record to prove the injury by fire arm. The rivalry dispute going on between the parties has not been taken into consideration by the learned Magistrate. Taking this in view, the revisional court's order does not call for any interference to the extent it remands the matter to proceed with the case afresh, in accordance with law after taking into consideration the observations contained in it.

However, the order of the revisional court that after cross examining the complainant and the witnesses, the learned Magistrate shall pass orders does not seem to be tenable and is bad in law. In this context, the law is very clear. The cross examination is done by the adverse party and it is for the purpose of trial within the meaning of Section 137 Evidence Act.

9. In view of the above, the order dated 28.7.2022(supra) to the extent it directs cross examining the complainant and witnesses is set aside. The rest part of the order is upheld. The learned Magistrate is directed to proceed with the case in accordance with law and the discussions made herein above, ignoring the direction of the revisional court to cross examine the complainant and the witnesses.

10. The petition is disposed of accordingly.

(2023) 4 ILRA 93
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 17.02.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MRS. MANJU RANI CHAUHAN, J.

Criminal Misc. Application U/S 482 No. 42957 of 2022

Laxmi Shankar Pandey & Ors. ...Applicants
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Sri Sandeep Pandey

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A.

(A) Criminal Law - Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Section 482 - Inherent power - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections -323, 504, 506, 356 .

(B) Criminal Law - Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 – Sections 155(2) , 200, 202, 203, 204(2) & 254 - If the Magistrate taking cognizance of an offence considers that there is sufficient ground for proceeding - he shall issue process against the accused person -Object of requiring the complainant/opposite party no.2 to furnish a list of witnesses before issue of process to the accused - contemplated under Section 204(2) Cr.P.C. - to enable the accused persons to prepare themselves for their cross-examination - nothing in section 204 Cr.P.C. says or indicates that if no list of prosecution witnesses is filed before the process is issued to the accused, then none can be filed later .(Para -8,10)

NCR filed by opposite party no.2 against applicants - application under Section 155(2) CrPC - requesting SHO to conduct investigation - case treated as complaint case - summoned applicants - appeared before court and obtaining bail - summoning order not passed considering mandatory provision of Section 204(2) of CrPC - which requires list of prosecution witnesses before issuing a summons - process improper and illegal - proceedings an abuse of law - application for quashing entire proceedings & summoning order.(Para -3,4)

HELD:-Section 204 (2) Cr.P.C. protects accused interests from harassment by unscrupulous litigants and does not limit Magistrate's power to issue summons to witnesses under Section 254 (2) Cr.P.C.. Section 204(2) Cr.P.C. provisions do not vitiate the issue of process or Court jurisdiction, even if mandatory.(Para -10,11)

Application u/s 482 Cr.P.C. dismissed. (E-7)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Mrs. Manju Rani Chauhan, J.)

1. Heard Mr. Sandeep Pandey, learned counsel for the applicants, Mr. K.P. Pathak, learned AGA for the State and perused the records.

2. This application U/s 482 Cr.P.C. has been filed by the applicant with a prayer to quash the summoning order dated 04.09.2015 as well as the entire proceedings of Old Case No.1118 of 2018 (New Case No.4678 of 2021) (Smt. Rajni Mishra vs. Laxmi Shankar Pandey and others), under Sections 323, 504, 506, 356 IPC, Police Station-Kotwali Katra, District-Mirzapur, pending before the Court of Chief Judicial Magistrate, Mirzapur.

3. Brief facts of the case are that an NCR was lodged by the opposite party no.2 on 29.09.2014 against the applicants under Sections 323, 504, 506 IPC at Police Station-Kotwali Katra, District-Mirzapur. Subsequently, on 10.10.2014, an application under Section 155(2) CrPC was filed by the opposite party no.2 before the concerned Magistrate requesting that the concerned SHO be directed to conduct the investigation in the above NCR, on which, the aforesaid case was treated as complaint case and after recording the statements under Sections 200 and 202 Cr.P.C., the applicants have been summoned vide order dated 04.09.2015. Pursuant to which, the applicants appeared before this Court and have obtained bail. Therefore, the present application has been filed for quashing of the entire proceedings pursuant to the summoning order.

4. Learned counsel for the applicants submits that the summoning order has not been passed considering the mandatory provision of Section 204(2) of CrPC wherein it has been mentioned that before issuing summon, the list of prosecution witnesses has to be provided. He further submits that as the said provision is mandatory in nature and the complainant/opposite party no.2 having not furnished the list of witnesses, therefore, the issue of process against the accused-applicant is improper and illegal. He further submits that no offence under the relevant section is made out, therefore, the entire proceedings are nothing but abuse process of law and the same may be quashed by this Court.

5. Per contra, learned AGA submits that the complainant/opposite party no.2 has named herself as a witness of the incident in the complaint and, therefore it cannot be said that no list of witnesses has been furnished. In this regard, it is submitted that it is not necessary to furnish a separate list of witnesses and the complainant/opposite party no.2 having been named as a witness in the complaint itself, the same is sufficient compliance of the provisions prescribed under Section 204(2) Cr.P.C. It is submitted that as the said provision under Section 204(2) Cr.P.C., regarding furnishing of a list of witnesses before issue of process to the accused is only a matter of procedure, the same is not mandatory and the same can be complied before commencement of the trial, to avoid any prejudice to the accused persons. Even otherwise, the applicants have already given up their claim as the summoning order of the year 2015 is being challenged after a laps of about 7 years and after being released on bail. As regards the other contentions that the offence under the relevant sections has not made out, perusal of the FIR itself goes to show that the applicants after using abusive language entered into the house of the opposite party no.2 and assaulted the opposite party no.2 and her family members with kicks, fists, lathi and danda, due to which they sustained injuries. They also threatened her to leave the house or to face dire consequences. Thus, the allegations are prima facie made out. Therefore, no interference is required by this Court.

6. I have carefully considered the submissions advanced by learned counsel for the parties and have also gone through the material available on record.

7. The principal issue which thus arises is with regard to the manner of taking cognizance and issuing process as per the procedure prescribed under the Code and as to whether detailed and elaborate reasons are required to be recorded at the stage of taking cognizance or issuing of process. Complaints to Magistrate are dealt with under Chapter XV of the Code. The provisions relating to examination of complainant and the witness are under Sections 200 and 202 Cr.P.C. Section 202 Cr.P.C. provides for postponement of issue of process, where the Magistrate, thinks fit, to either inquire into the case himself or direct an investigation to be made by a police officer or by such other person as he thinks fit, for the purposes of deciding whether or not there is sufficient ground for proceeding. Section 203 CrPC provides for dismissal of complaint in a situation where after considering the statements on oath (if any) of the complainant and of the witnesses and the result of the inquiry or investigation (if any) under Section 202 CrPC, the Magistrate is of the opinion that there is no sufficient ground for proceeding. The relevant Sections 200, 202 and 203 CrPC, are being extracted below:-

"200. Examination of complainant.- A Magistrate taking cognizance of an offence on complaint shall examine upon oath the complainant and the witnesses present, if any, and the substance of such examination shall be reduced to writing and shall be signed by the complainant and the witnesses, and also by the Magistrate: Provided that, when the complaint is made in writing, the Magistrate need not examine the complainant and the witnesses- (a) if a public servant acting or purporting to act in the discharge of his official duties or a Court has made the complaint; or (b) if the Magistrate makes over the case for inquiry or trial to another Magistrate under section 192: Provided further that if the Magistrate makes over the case to another Magistrate under section 192 after examining the complainant and the witnesses, the latter Magistrate need not re-examine them.

202. Postponement of issue of process.- (1) Any Magistrate, on receipt of a complaint of an offence of which he is authorised to take cognizance or which has been made over to him under section 192, may, if he thinks fit, and shall, in a case where the accused is residing at a place beyond the area in which he exercises his jurisdiction postpone the issue of process against the accused, and either inquire into the case himself or direct an investigation to be made by a police officer or by such other person as he thinks fit, for the purpose of deciding whether or not there is sufficient ground for proceeding: Provided that no such direction for investigation shall be made- (a) where it appears to the Magistrate that the offence complained of is triable exclusively by the Court of Sessions; or (b) where the complaint has not been made by a Court, unless the complainant and the witnesses present (if any) have been examined on oath under section 200.*

(2) In an inquiry under sub-section (1), the Magistrate may, if he thinks fit, take evidence of witness on oath: Provided that if it appears to the Magistrate that the offence complained of is triable exclusively by the Court of Session, he shall call upon the complainant to produce all his witnesses and examine them on oath.

(3) If an investigation under sub-section (1) is made by a person not being a police officer, he shall have for that investigation all the powers conferred by this Code on an officer in charge of a police station except the power to arrest without warrant.

203. Dismissal of complaint.-If, after considering the statements on oath (if any) of the complainant and of the witnesses and the result of the inquiry or investigation (if any) under section 202, the Magistrate is of opinion that there is no sufficient ground for proceeding, he shall dismiss the complaint, and in every such* case he shall briefly record his reasons for so doing."

8. The procedure for commencement of proceedings before Magistrates is provided under Chapter XVI of the Code. Section 204 CrPC provides that if the Magistrate taking cognizance of an offence considers that there is sufficient ground for proceeding, he shall issue process against the accused person. Section 204 CrPC reads as follows:-

"204. Issue of process.- (1) If in the opinion of a Magistrate taking cognizance of an offence there is sufficient ground for proceeding, and the case appears to be- (a) a summons-case, he shall issue his summons for the attendance of the accused, or (b) a warrant-case, he may issue a warrant, or, if he thinks fit, a summons, for causing the accused to be brought or to appear at a certain time before such Magistrate or (if he has no jurisdiction himself) some other Magistrate having jurisdiction.

(2) No summons or warrant shall be issued against the accused under sub-section (1) until a list of the prosecution witnesses has been filed.

(3) In a proceeding instituted upon a complaint made in writing, every summons or warrant issued under sub- section (1) shall be accompanied by a copy of such complaint. (4) When by any law for the time being in force any process-fees or other fees are payable, no process shall be issued until the fees are paid and, if such fees are not paid within a reasonable time, the Magistrate may dismiss the complaint.

(5) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to affect the provisions of section 87."

9. After the close scrutiny of the aforesaid sections, this Court observed that the jurisdiction of the Magistrate under Section 204(1) Cr.P.C. to issue a summons or a warrant in the first instance, as the case may be, if he is satisfied that there was sufficient ground for proceeding cannot be taken away by the failure on the part of the complainant to file a list of prosecution witnesses. Section 204(2) Cr.P.C. does not override Section 254(1) Cr.P.C., which imposes a duty on the Magistrate to take all such evidence as may be produced in support of the prosecution. Moreover, sub-section (2) of Section 254 of the Code empowers the Magistrate, on the application of the prosecution, to issue summons to any witness. Section 254 Cr.P.C. does not contemplate that the witness to be examined would be only those witnesses who were cited in the list filed by the complainant in terms of Section 204(2) Cr.P.C. Therefore, the provision regarding submission of a list of witnesses in Section 204(2) Cr.P.C. cannot be considered as mandatory in nature so as to control the jurisdiction of the Magistrate to proceed with the trial of the accused and record his plea. Unless clear prejudice is shown to have been caused to the accused by late submission of the list of prosecution witnesses, the order issuing a summons to him cannot be said to be vitiated.

10. From the discussions made above the legal position that emerges is that the object of requiring the complainant/opposite party no.2 to furnish a list of witnesses before issue of process to the accused, as contemplated under Section 204(2) Cr.P.C., appears to be to enable the accused persons to prepare themselves for their cross-examination. There is nothing in section 204 Cr.P.C., which says or indicates that if no list of prosecution witnesses is filed before the process is issued to the accused, then none can be filed later.

Section 204 (2) Cr.P.C. is meant only to safeguard the interest of the accused against undue harassment at the hands of unscrupulous litigants and not to circumscribe the power of the Magistrate to issue summons to any witness, on the application of the prosecution, as provided under Section 254 (2) Cr.P.C. Further, even if it is held that the provisions of Section 204(2) Cr.P.C. are mandatory, that by itself, would not vitiate the issue of process or the jurisdiction of the Court.

11. In view of the above, this Court is of the opinion that the prayer for quashing the impugned summoning order dated 04.09.2015 as well as the entire proceedings of the aforesaid case are refused, as I do not see any abuse of the court's process.

12. This application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. lacks merit and is, accordingly, dismissed.

(2023) 4 ILRA 97
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 22.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SHEKHAR KUMAR YADAV, J.

Criminal Misc. Application U/S 482 No. 43713 of 2022

Sushil Kumar Singh ...Applicants
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Sri Sugendra Kumar Yadav, Sri Dilendra Pratap Singh, Sri Anoop Trivedi (Sr. Advocate)

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A.

(A) Criminal Law - Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Section 482 - Inherent power - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections - 419, 420, 467, 468, 471, 504 & 506 - The Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989 - Section 3(1)(Da) & 3(1)(Dha), The Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Amendment Act, 2015 - Section 14A - an appeal shall lie, from any judgment, sentence or order, not being an interlocutory order, of a Special Court or an Exclusive Special Court, to the High Court both on facts and on law - When a statutory remedy is created by enactment for redressal of grievances, the exercise of inherent power by way of a petition U/S 482 Cr.P.C. could not be invoked ignoring the statutory dispensation.(Para -14)

(B) Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Section 5 - Saving - when a special Act, provides remedy of appeal from any judgment, sentence or order, not being an interlocutory order, of a Special Court or an Exclusive Special Court, to the High Court both on facts and on law, the special provision in the Act would prevail over the general provision. (Para - 6)

(C) Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Section 482 - inherent powers under section 482 Cr.P.C. can be exercised only when no other remedy is available to the litigant and not where a specific remedy is provided by any particular statute.(Para - 15)

Application seeks to quash proceedings, including charge sheet and cognizance order - Objection related to maintainability of application - applicant has a statutory alternative remedy to appeal - against cognizance/summoning order under Section 14-A of the 1989 Act - petition not maintainable - due to non-obstant clause in Section 14-A - appeals must lie from a Special Court judgment to the High Court (Para - 2,3)

HELD:-If an effective statutory alternative remedy is available, this court should refrain from exercising its extraordinary power under section 482 Cr.P.C., especially when the applicant has not availed of that remedy. Direction to applicant to avail remedy of appeal available to him under the Statute before the appropriate forum.(Para - 15,18)

Application u/s 482 Cr.P.C. disposed of. (E-7)

List of Cases cited:

1. Ghulam Rasool Khan & ors. Vs St. of UP & ors., 2022 0 Supreme (All) 608

2. Criminal Writ- Public Interest Litigation No. - 8 of 2018

3. Ramavawatar Vs St. of M.P., 2021 0 Supreme (SC) 625

4. Hitesh Verma Vs St. of Uttarakhand & anr., 2020 0 Supreme (SC) 653

5. Arnit Das Vs St. of Bihar, 2000 (5) SCC 488

6. N. Bhargavan Pillai Vs St. of Kerala, AIR 2004 SC 2317

7. Madhu Limaye Vs St. of Maha., AIR 1978 SC 47

8. St. of Har. Vs Bhajan Lal ,1992 Supp. (1) SCC 335

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shekhar Kumar Yadav, J.)

1. Heard Sri Anoop Trivedi, learned Senior Counsel for the applicant, Sri R.P. Mishra, learned A.G.A. for the State and perused the material available on record.

2. The present application U/S 482 Cr.P.C. has been filed by the applicant with the prayer to quash the entire proceedings of S.T. No. 469 of 2022 (State Vs Sushil Kumar Singh) arising gout of Case Crime No. 45 of 2018, under Sections 419, 420, 467, 468, 471, 504, 506 I.P.C. and Section 3(1)(Da) & 3(1)(Dha) of SC/ST Act, P.S.-Khajani, District- Gorakhpur including the charge sheet as well as cognizance order dated 8.2.2022 passed by learned Additional District Judge (Special Judge) S.C./S.T. Act, Gorkahpur.

3. A preliminary objection has been raised by learned A.G.A. regarding maintainability of the application on the ground that the applicant has a statutory alternative remedy of appeal challenging the cognizance/summoning order under Section 14-A of the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Amendment Act, 2015 (in short 1989 Act). It is submitted that the present 482 petition is not maintainable in view of opening line of Section 14-A of the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989, which is a statutory provision and this section starts with non obstant clause that "Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974), an appeal shall lie, from any judgment, sentence or order, not being an interlocutory order, of a Special Court or an Exclusive Special Court, to the High Court both on facts and on law." In support of his contention, learned A.G.A. has relied upon the Full Bench decisions of this Court in the case of Ghulam Rasool Khan and others Vs State of UP and others, 2022 0 Supreme (All) 608 and In Re:-Provision of Section 14 A of SC/ST (Prevention of Atrocities) Amendment Act, 2015 (CRIMINAL WRIT- PUBLIC INTEREST LITIGATION No. - 8 of 2018) decided on 10.10.2018.

4. On the other hand, learned counsel for the applicant submitted that against the order impugned, petition under section 482

Cr.P.C. would be maintainable. He further submitted that the inherent power of the High Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C. cannot be ousted by Section 14-A of the Act. He relied upon the judgement of Apex Court rendered in Ramavawatar Vs State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021 0 Supreme (SC) 625 & Hitesh Verma Vs State of Uttarakhand and another, 2020 0 Supreme (SC) 653.

5. Learned AGA has further pointed out that the Hon'ble Apex Court has never considered the issue, in the cases relied upon by the learned counsel for the applicants, as to whether appeal would lie under Section 14-A of the Act, 1989 or petition U/S 482 Cr.P.C. would lie against the cognizance order passed of special Court, therefore, the decisions relied upon by the learned counsel for the applicant cannot be said to be a binding. In support of his argument, learned A.G.A. relied upon the case of Arnit Das Vs Sate of Bihar, 2000 (5) SCC 488, in which while examining the binding effect of such a decision, the Apex Court observed that "A decision not expressed, not accompanied by reasons and not proceedings on a conscious consideration of an issue cannot be deemed to be a law declared to have a binding effect as is contemplated by Article 141. That which has escaped in the judgement is not the ratio decidendi. This is the rule of sub silentio, in the technical sense when a particular point of law was not consciously determined". He has also relied upon the case of N. Bhargavan Pillai Vs. State of Kerala, AIR 2004 SC 2317, to contend that if any view has been expressed without analyzing the statutory provision, it cannot be treated as a binding precedent.

6. Learned A.G.A. further taking recourse to Section 5 of the Code of Criminal Procedure has also contended that when a special Act, provides remedy of appeal from any judgment, sentence or order, not being an interlocutory order, of a Special Court or an Exclusive Special Court, to the High Court both on facts and on law, the special provision in the Act would prevail over the general provision.

7. In the case of Ramavawatar (supra) the issue was whether criminal proceedings arising out of non compoundable offence can be quashed against a person accused of hurting the sentiments of the victim who belongs to the Scheduled Caste category by exercising special powers of the court? The Hon'ble Apex Court has ruled that where it appears to the Court that the offence in question, although covered under the SC/ST Act, is (i) primarily private or civil in nature;, or (ii) where the alleged offence has not been committed on account of the caste of the victim; or (iii) where the continuation of the legal proceedings would be an abuse of the process of law, the Court can exercise its powers to quash the proceedings.

8. However, in the case of Hitesh Verma (supra), appellant had sought quashing of the charge-sheet on the ground that the allegation does not make out an offence under the Act against the appellant merely because respondent No. 2 was a Scheduled Caste since the property dispute was not on account of the fact that respondent No. 2 was a Scheduled Caste. The property disputes between a vulnerable section of the society and a person of upper caste will not disclose any offence under the Act unless, the allegations are on account of the victim being a Scheduled Caste.

9. This Court is also mindful of the two Full Bench decisions of this Court rendered in Ghulam Rasool Khan and Others Vs State of UP and Another, 2022 Latest Case Law 8330 Alld and In Re:- Provision of Section 14 A of SC/ST (Prevention of Atrocities) Amendment Act, 2015 (CRIMINAL WRIT-PUBLIC INTEREST LITIGATION No. - 8 of 2018) decided on 10.10.2018.

10. In Re: Provision of Section 14-A of SC/ST (Prevention of Atrocities) Amendment Act, 2015 (supra), Full Bench of this Court has considered the question "(B) Whether in view of the provisions contained in Section 14-A of the Amending Act, a petition under the provisions of Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India or a revision under Section 397 of the Code of Criminal Procedure or a petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C., is maintainable. OR in other words, whether by virtue of Section 14-A of the Amending Act, the powers of the High Court under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution or its revisional powers or the powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C. stand ousted?

11. The Full Bench answered the said question in the negative. It was held that against the judgments or orders, for which remedy has been provided under Section 14-A of the 1989 Act, invoking the jurisdiction of this Court by filing petition under Articles 226 or 227 of the Constitution of India, a revision under Section 397 Cr.P.C. or an application under Section 482 Cr.P.C., will not be maintainable.

12. In another case of Ghulam Rasool Khan and Others (supra), which is another Full Bench of this Court also considered the following question as to whether an aggrieved person who has not availed of the remedy of an appeal under the provisions of Section 14-A of Act, 1989 can be allowed to approach the High Court by preferring an application under the provisions of Section 482 of the Cr.P.C.? The Full Bench answered the said question in negative holding that the aggrieved person having remedy of appeal under Section 14-A of the 1989 Act, cannot be allowed to invoke inherent jurisdiction of this Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C.

13. Both the cases relied upon by the learned counsel for the applicants are not applicable in the facts of the present case as the same are silent over the technical issue of maintainability of the petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C. after insertion of Section 14-A of Act, 1989 and unless the said issue is decided consciously, any departure from the statutory provision would be a bad precedent. The cases relied upon by the learned counsel for the applicants have been decided by Hon'ble Apex Court considering the fact that the dispute involved therein was either in the nature of private dispute or compromise took place between the parties.

14. It is no doubt true that the exercise of inherent power of the High Court is an extraordinary power which has to be exercised with great care and circumspection as has been reminded by Hon'ble Supreme Court in catena of decisions on various occasions. Perusal of Section 14-A of the Act 1989, itself shows that it starts with a non obstante clause. The legislative intent behind inserting non-obstante clause in any provision is to enforce overriding effect of that provision over any other provision or any other prevailing law. When a statutory remedy is created by enactment for redressal of grievances, the exercise of inherent power by way of a petition U/S 482 Cr.P.C. could not be invoked ignoring the statutory dispensation.

15. Section 482 of the Code envisages the three circumstances under which the inherent jurisdiction may be exercised by High Court, namely, (i) to give effect to an order under the Code; (ii) to prevent abuse of the process of court; and (iii) to otherwise secure the ends of justice. It is trite law that the inherent power of the High Court under Section 482 of the Code ought to be exercised to prevent miscarriage of justice or to prevent the abuse of the process of the court or to otherwise secure the ends of justice and the Court possesses wide discretionary powers. It is well settled that the inherent powers under section 482 Cr.P.C. can be exercised only when no other remedy is available to the litigant and not where a specific remedy is provided by any particular statute. If an effective statutory alternative remedy is available, this court should refrain from exercising its extraordinary power under section 482 Cr.P.C., especially when the applicant has not availed of that remedy.

16. The Apex Court in the case of Madhu Limaye Vs State of Maharashtra, AIR 1978 SC 47, has held that the following principles would govern the exercise of inherent jurisdiction of the HC:

1. Power is not to be resorted to, if there is specific provision in code for redress of grievances of aggrieved party.

2. It should be exercised sparingly to prevent abuse of process of any Court or otherwise to secure ends of justice.

3. It should not be exercised against the express bar of the law engrafted in any other provision of the code.

17. In the landmark case State of Haryana v. Bhajan Lal (1992 Supp. (1) SCC 335), a two-judge bench of the Supreme Court of India considered in detail, the provisions of section 482 and the power of the High Court to quash criminal proceedings or FIR. The Supreme Court summarized the legal position by laying the following guidelines to be followed by High Courts in exercise of their inherent powers to quash a criminal complaint:

1. Where the allegations made in the first information report or the complaint, even if they are taken at their face value and accepted in their entirety do not prima facie constitute any offence or make out a case against the accused.

2. Where the allegations in the first information report and other materials, if any, accompanying the FIR do not disclose a cognizable offence, justifying an investigation by police officers under Section 156(1) of the Code except under an order of a Magistrate within the purview of Section 155(2) of the Code.

3. Where the allegations made in the FIR or complaint and the evidence collected in support of the same do not disclose the commission of any offence and make out a case against the accused.

4. Where the allegations in the FIR do not constitute a cognizable offence but constitute only a non-cognizable offence, no investigation is permitted by a police officer without an order of a Magistrate as contemplated under Section 155(2) of the Code.

5. Where the allegations made in the FIR or complaint are so absurd and inherently improbable on the basis of which, no prudent person can ever reach a just conclusion that there is sufficient ground for proceeding against the accused.

6. Where there is an express legal bar engrafted in any of the provisions of the Code or the concerned Act (under which a criminal proceeding is instituted) to the institution and continuance of the proceedings and/or, where there is a specific provision in the Code or the concerned Act, providing efficacious redress for the grievance of the aggrieved party.

7. Where a criminal proceeding is manifestly attended with mala fide and/or where the proceeding is maliciously instituted with an ulterior motive for wreaking vengeance on the accused and with a view to spite him due to private and personal grudge.

18. In view of above legal position, instant application is finally disposed of with the direction to the applicant to avail the remedy of appeal available to him under the Statute before the appropriate forum.

19. Certified copy of the impugned order, if any, be returned as per rules.

(2023) 4 ILRA 102
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 15.02.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SURYA PRAKASH KESARWANI, J.
THE HON'BLE ANISH KUMAR GUPTA, J.

Writ C No. 32432 of 2022

Aasha Devi ...Petitioner
Versus
The State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Rajnath Yadav

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Sri Narendra Kumar Tiwari

Civil Law-Constitution of India,1950-Article 21- Right to just compensation - Physical disability caused by electrocution-Writ petition against inadequate compensation-Notional Income provided under the scheme of the U.P. Power Corporation prima facie appears to be inadequate-Petitioner was doing the work of grazing of goats which is an activity connected to agriculture-Minimum wages for the unskilled employees working in agriculture as Rs. 409/- per day-Compensation enhanced taking into account (I)-Loss of Earning due to Disability(II)-Compensation for Medical Expenses (III)-Future Medical Expenses(IV)-Attendant Charges(V)-Loss of Conveyance and Special Diet(VI)-Pain and Suffering(VII)-Marriage Prospects-(VIII)-Loss of Amenities and Enjoyment of Life-Compensation enhanced from Rs. 5,81,000/- to Rs. 43,84,416. (Para 10-30)

Writ petition Allowed. (E-15)

List of Cases cited:

1. Kaneez Fatima Vs St. of U.P. & ors. in Writ-C No. 25065 of 2022

2. Kirti Vs Oriental Insurance Co. Ltd., (2021) 2 SCC 166

3. Kajal Vs Jagdish Chand, (2020) 4 SCC 413

4. Lata Wadhwa Vs St. of Bihar (2001) 8 SCC 197

5. National Insurance Co. Ltd. Vs Pranay Sethi, (2017) 16 SCC 680

6. Sarla Verma Vs DTC (2009) 6 SCC 121

7. Raman Vs Uttar Haryana Bijli Vitran Nigam Ltd., (2014) 15 SCC 1

8. Maharaja Agrasen Hospital Vs Rishabh Sharma (2020) 6 SCC 501

9. M.P. Electricity Board Vs Shail Kumari (2002) 2 SCC 162

10. Shiv Ranshu Chhuneja Vs St. of U.P. & ors. (WRIT - C No. - 10191 of 2009)

11. R.D. Hattangadi Vs Pest Control (India) Pvt. Ltd. & ors. (1995) 1 SCC 551

12. Raj Kumar Vs Ajay Kumar (2011) 1 SCC 343

13. K. Suresh Vs New India Assurance Company Limited & anr., (2012) 12 SCC 274

14. Sidram Vs Divisional Manager, United India Insurance Co. Ltd. & anr., 2022 SCC OnLine SC 1597

15. Divisional Controller, KSRTC Vs Mahadeva Shetty & anr. (2003) 7 SCC 197

16. Nizam's Institute of Medical Sciences Vs Prasanth S. Dhananka & ors.,(2009) 6 SCC 1

17. Subulaxmi Vs Managing Director, T. N. St. Tansport Corporation & anr. (2012) 10 SCC 177

18. Jagdish Vs Mohan & ors. (2018) 4 SCC 571

19. Ibrahim Vs Raju & ors., (2011) 10 SCC 634

20. Master Ayush Vs Branch Manager, Reliance General Insurance Company Ltd. & anr. (2022) 7 SCC 738

21. Govind Yadav Vs New India Insurance Co. Ltd., (2011) 10 SCC 683

22. Afnish Vs Oriental Insurance Company Ltd. (2018) 13 SCC 119

(Delivered by Hon'ble Surya Prakash Kesarwani, J.
&
Hon'ble Anish Kumar Gupta, J.)

1. Heard Sri Rajnath Yadav, learned counsel for the petitioner, learned Standing Counsel for the State respondents no. 1 and 4 and Sri Narendra Kumar Tiwari, learned counsel for the respondents no. 2 and 3.

2. Rejoinder affidavit filed today is taken on record.

3. On 16.1.2023, this Court passed the following order:-

"Heard Sri Rajnath Yadav, learned counsel for the petitioner, Sri Manish Kumar, learned Standing Counsel for respondent nos. 1 and 4 and Sri Narendra Kumar Tiwari, learned counsel for respondent nos. 2 and 3/Purvanchal, Vidyut Vitran Nigam Limited, Kaushambi/Varanasi.

It is admitted case of the respondents that the petitioner aged about 18 years as on 7.12.2020, lost her right hand below right elbow and left thumb due to electrocution on 22.7.2020 caused by 11 KV three phase line which was found at the height of 1.80 meter as against standard height of 4.6 meter. Thus, physical disability caused to the petitioner by negligence of the respondents is undisputed.

The respondents have merely granted compensation of Rs. 1,40,000/ to the petitioner by which she could hardly meet expenses of her treatment. As per the certificate issued by the Chief Medical Officer, Kaushambi, the petitioner has incurred permanent physical disability of 70%. Having lost her right hand below elbow and left thumb, her whole life stood ruined and, she has become incapacitated to engage herself to earn her livelihood and shall remain dependent for whole life.

Despite the aforesaid fatal incident, the compensation payable to the petitioner has not been computed in accordance with law more particularly the law laid down by this Court in Writ-C No. 25065 of 2022 (Kaneez Fatima Vs. State of U.P. and others) decided on 9.11.2022.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, we direct the respondent nos. 1 and 2 to file separate counter affidavits within two weeks from today. The petitioner shall have one week thereafter to file rejoinder affidavit.

Put up as a fresh case on 3.2.2023."

4. Most of the relevant facts stated in the writ petition have been admitted by the respondent no. 2 in his counter affidavit dated 1.2.2023. Paragraphs 4, 5, 6, 12, 20 and 21 of the counter affidavit are relevant which are reproduced below:-

"4. That, a first information report was lodged by mother of petitioner after deliberate delay on 21-08-2020 bearing case crime No. 299 of 2020, under section 338 of I.P.C at concern police station-Paschim Sharira, District-Kaushambi. The reason of delay has not been explained by the informant. The Director Electrical Safety submitted its report on 09-09-2020 with its recommendations.

5. That, claim in respect to compensation has been filed by the petitioner. The claim of petitioner has been considered as per the provisions of the office memorandum dated 25-09-2021 (U.P.P.C.L.) applicable in case of petitioner. There are guidelines to calculate the amount of compensation including application of multiplier and income factor of the injured. The case of petitioner is covered with the 2nd row of the table II of the circular dated 2509-2021 (U.P.P.C.L.) applicable to calculate compensation for permanent disability.

A Copy of the office memorandum dated 25-09-2021 (U.P.P.C.L.) issued by the U.P. Power Corporation is being filed herewith and marked as ANNEXURE NO. CA-1 to this affidavit.

6. That, the age of injured is admittedly 17 years as mentioned in first information report that means above 15 and below 20 years as mention at Sl. No.2 of the table-II annexed with the office memorandum. There is no income proof of injured as such the factor of notional income will apply. The multiplier of 16 will apply. The percentage of disability is 70% as per medical report. The amount of compensation is mentioned for above mentioned claim is Rs. 5,81,200/- in table-II.

12. That, the contents of paragraph no. 5 of the writ petition needs no comment being matter of record.

20. That, the contents of paragraph no.13 and 14 of the writ petition is not admitted and vehemently denied. It is respectfully submitted that case of petitioner has been considered as per the guidelines and directions made in office memorandum dated 25-09-2021. The claim of petitioner has been awarded worth Rs. 5,81,200/. Out of the said amount Rs. 1,40,000/- has been paid on 30-03-2022 and remaining amount of Rs. 4,41,200/- has been paid on 24-01-2023. The Copy of the approval dated 20-01-2023 and letter of receipt of petitioner payment of Rs. 4,41,200/- is being filed herewith and marked as Annexure No. CA-3 to this affidavit.

21. That it is further to be pointed out here that an enquiry will be conducted to find out as to why the payment to the victim has been delayed and who was responsible for such an inordinate delay. It may further be pointed out here that on the basis of the enquiry report, an appropriate action shall be against the erring officer/employee in accordance with law who might have caused the delay in making payment to the victim."

5. Thus, the averments made by the petitioner in paragraph 3 of the writ petition that she is a scheduled Caste and is unmarried and doing the work of grazing of goats, have been admitted by the respondent no.2 in paragraph 10 of the counter affidavit. The respondent no.2 has also admitted in paragraph 13 of the counter affidavit, the averments made by the petitioner in paragraph 6 of the writ petition that an enquiry report dated 9.9.2020 was sent to the respondent no.2 holding the negligence and liability of the respondent department. The averments made in paragraph 5 of the writ petition that the petitioner incurred more than two lakh rupees towards medical expenses has not been denied by the respondent no.2 in paragraph 12 of the counter affidavit. The averments made in paragraph 14 of the writ petition regarding 100% disability has also been denied by the respondent no.2 in paragraph 20 of the counter affidavit and in paragraph 22, the extent of disability has been admitted only to be 70%.

6. A counter affidavit on behalf of respondent no.1 has also been filed by Sri Anupam Shukla, Special Secretary, Energy Department, U.P. Secretariat at Lucknow, who has admitted contents of paragraphs 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 of the writ petition. In paragraph 8 of the counter affidavit, respondent no.1 has stated as under:-

"8. That in reply to the contents of paragraph no. 11 of the writ petition, it is submitted that in pursuance of the order of Uttar Pradesh Power Corporation Ltd. Dated 03.02.2016, Rs. 1,40,000/- was paid as compensation on 30.03.2022 and as per the order dated 06.10.2018 of Uttar Pradesh Power Corporation Ltd., out of the total amount of Rs. 5,81,200/-, the remaining amount of Rs. 4,41,200/- had been paid on 24.01.2023, which is admitted by the mother of the petitioner. Further, it is submitted that an order No. 2828-Aus/2021-19(125)A.S./01 25.09.2021 had also been passed by Uttar Pradesh Power Corporation Ltd. In this regard a photocopy of the order dated 06.10.2018 and order dated 25.09.2021 and photocopy of the Bank Statement of Aasha Devi and the receipt dated 25.01.2023 are being filed herewith and marked as ANNEXURES NO. CA-3, CA-4, CA-5 to this counter affidavit."

7. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that once it is admitted case of the respondents that on account of their negligence, the petitioner, who is a young girl of about 18 years; has suffered 70% disability and thus her entire life has been ruined by negligence of the respondents, therefore, the respondents are liable to pay just compensation. He further submits that the respondents have not paid compensation in the light of the law laid down by this Court in the case of Kaneez Fatima Vs. State of U.P. and others in Writ-C No. 25065 of 2022 decided on 9.11.2022. He further submits that the petitioner is also entitled for payment of interest on the delayed payment of compensation.

8. Learned standing counsel representing respondents no. 1 and 4 and learned counsel for respondents no. 2 and 3 reiterate the aforequoted paragraphs of the counter affidavit and submitted that compensation has been paid as per office memorandum dated 25-09-2021 filed as Annexure-CA-1 to the counter affidavit.

9. We have carefully gone through the records of the case.

10. It is admitted case that the petitioner who is young girl belonging to Scheduled Caste had sustained injuries due to electrocution and she was admitted in District Hospital, Manjjanpur, Kaushambi from 02.08.2022 and was discharged on 19.09.2022 after being treated for about 49 days. It is also admitted that the right hand from elbow and left thumb of the petitioner were amputated during treatment. Thereby she had conjointly suffered permanent disability to the extent of hundred percent. It is further admitted that the petitioner had suffered injury due to the negligence of respondent nos. 2 and 3 in maintaining the electricity lines.

11. The U.P. Power Corporation Ltd. has framed some guidelines on 25.09.2021 for payment of compensation in case of death or permanent disability caused to third parties due to electrocution which has been heavily relied by the respondents while computing the amount of compensation to the petitioner. The aforesaid scheme/policy is reproduced herein below:

"'उ0प्र0 पावर कारपोरेशन लिमिटेड

(उ0प्र0 सरकार का उपक्रम)

न्च्च् च्वूमत ब्वतचवतंजपवद स्पउपजमक

;ळवअजण वि न्जजंत च्तंकमेी न्दकमतजांपदहद्ध

शक्ति भवन विस्तार, 14 अशोक मार्ग, लखनऊ–226001

संख्याः–

2828–औस/2021–19(125)–ए0एस0/01 दिनांक 25 सितम्बर, 2021

विषयः– त्रृटिपूर्ण विद्युत अधिष्ठापन के कारण हुई विद्युतीय दुर्घटना में बाहरी व्यक्ति की मृत्यु अथवा अपंगता/पशुओं की मृत्यु/फसल अग्निकाण्ड तथा सम्पत्ति के प्रकरणों में क्षतिपूर्ति प्रदान किये जाने के सम्बन्ध में।

कार्यालय ज्ञाप

उ0 प्र0 पावर कारपोरेशन लि0 के निदेशक की 169वीं बैठक में लिए गये निर्णय

के अनुसार उ0 प्र0 पावर कारपोरेशन लि0 एवं उसके सहयोगी डिस्काम के नियंत्रणाधीन क्षेत्रों में त्रुटिपूर्ण विद्युतीय अधिष्ठापन के फलस्वरूप घटित दुर्घटनाओं में किसी बाहरी व्यक्ति की मृत्यु अथवा अपंगता/पशुओं की मृत्यु/ फसल अग्निकाण्ड तथा सम्पत्ति के नुकसान होने की स्थिति में प्रभावित व्यक्ति अथवा उसके वैधानिक वारिस को निर्धारित समय–सीमा में क्षतिपूर्ति प्रदान किये जाने एवं निस्तारण के सम्बन्ध में कारपोरेशन के आदेश संख्या– 1890–ई0ए0/रा0वि0प0/ औ0सं0–18/92–8/विविध/92 दिनांक 26.09.1992, आदेश संख्या– 4570–औ0सं0–17/पाकालि/2004 दिनांक 25.09.2004, आदेश संख्या– 3286–औ0सं0/ 2011 दिनांक 19.10.2011 आदेश संख्या–4095–औ0सं0/2016 दिनांक 13.10.16 आदेश संख्या– 1816–औ0सं0/2017 दिनांक 10.04.2017, आदेश संख्या– 4004– औ0सं0/2018 दिनांक 06.10.2018 सपठित आदेश संख्या– 402–औ0सं0/2019 दिनांक 21.02.2019 को अवक्रमित करते हुए क्षतिपूर्ति प्रक्रिया के सरलीकरण व त्वरित निस्तारण हेतु एकल व्यवस्था एतद्द्वारा निम्नवत प्रतिपादित की जाती हैः–

विद्युत दुर्घटना की स्थिति में जॉच प्रक्रियाः–

1. त्रृटिपूर्ण विद्युत अधिष्ठान के कारण हुई विद्युतीय दुर्घटना में बाहरी व्यक्ति की मृत्यु अथवा अपंगता/पशुओं की मृत्यु/ फसल अग्निकाण्ड तथा सम्पत्ति के प्रकरणों के सम्बन्ध में।

. विद्युत अधिनियम, 2003 की धारा 53 के प्राविधानों के अनुसार सुरक्षित विद्युत

आपूर्ति में विफलता के कारण किसी जनहानि/पशुहानि/फसल अथवा सम्पत्ति के नुकसान की सूचना प्राप्त होने पर, सम्बन्धित उपखण्ड अधिकारी/ सहायक अभियन्ता 24 घण्टे के अन्दर विद्युत सुरक्षा निदेशालय को सूचित करेगा एवं 02 दिवस के अन्दर विद्युत दुर्घटना के सम्बन्ध में निर्धारित प्रपत्र सं0–44(ए) पर सहायक निदेशक/ उप निदेशक/ निदेशक, विद्युत सुरक्षा निदेशालय को सूचित करेगे तथा साथ में विद्युत सुरक्षा निदेशायल, उ0प्र0 द्वारा संचालित बेवसाइट टपकलनजेनतींण्वतह पर घटना का विवरण अपलोड भी करेंगे। इसके अतिरिक्त विद्युत दुर्घटना की सूचना जिला प्रशासन/ पुलिस प्रशासन एवं निकटतम चिकित्सालय

को देगें तथा कॉरपोरेशन के उच्च अधिकारियों को भी संज्ञानित करायेंगे।

. विद्युत दुर्घटना की सूचना प्राप्त होने पर सहायक निदेशक/उप निदेशक/निदेशक, विद्युत सुरक्षा द्वारा स्थालीय जॉच 18 दिनों में (विद्युत अग्निकाण्ड के कारण फसलों एवं सम्पत्ति की क्षति के प्रकरण में 02 दिवस में) पूर्ण कर जॉच आख्या अधीक्षण अभियन्ता को प्रेषित करेंगे तथा उसकी प्रतिलिपि अधिशासी अभियन्ता एवं सम्बन्धित विद्युत वितरण निगम के प्रबन्ध निदेशक एवं मुख्य अभियन्ता को उपलब्ध करायेंगे।

. कतिपय कारणों से यदि मृतक की पोस्टमार्टम रिपोर्ट एवं एफ0आई0आर0 रिपोर्ट आदि अभिलेखों की अनुपलब्धता होने की स्थिति में क्षतिपूर्ति (अनुग्रह राशि) के भुगतान में उत्पन्न हुई समस्याओं पर जॉच कमेटी बनाकर व जिलाधिकारी के समक्ष तथ्यों को लाकर प्रकरण का नियमानुसार विधिवत स्पष्ट रूप से निस्तारण सुनिश्चित किया जायेगा।

. उ0प्र0 पावर कारपोरेशन के अधीन विद्युत वितरण निगमों मे दिनांक 01.01.1992 से 06.1.2018 के मध्य घटित विद्युत दुर्घटनाओं के लम्बित प्रकरणो में बाहरी व्यक्तियों के एवं पशुओं की मृत्यु/ घायल होने की क्षतिपूर्ति पूर्ववत सम्बन्धित आदेशों के अन्तर्गत अनुमन्य की जायेगी।

. विद्युतीय दुर्घटना के कारण उत्पन्न हुई विपरीत प्रशासनिक स्थिति (सड़क जाम/उग्र प्रदर्शन आदि) के कारण यदि तत्काल अनुग्रह धनराशि का भुगतान किया जाना आवश्यक हो तो, ऐसी स्थिति में क्षेत्र के जिलाधिकारी क्षतिपूर्ति/ अनुग्रह राशि की स्वीकृति हेतु सक्षम अधिकारी होंगे।

2. क्षतिपूर्ति के रूप में दी जाने वाली अनुग्रह राशि की प्रक्रिया का विवरणः– बाहरी व्यक्ति की विद्युत दुर्घटना में हुई मृत्यु/अपंगता की दशा में

कारपोरेशन के त्रृटिपूर्ण विद्युतीय अधिष्ठान के कारण हुई बाहरी व्यक्ति की विद्युत दुर्घटना से प्रभावित बाहरी व्यक्ति/ वारिस को क्षतिपूर्ति/ मुआवजा दिये जाने हेतु निम्न व्यवस्था प्रतिपादित की जाती हैः–

. त्रृटिपूर्ण विद्युतीय अधिष्ठापन के कारण विद्युत दुर्घटना में बाहरी व्यक्ति की मृत्यु होने पर क्षतिपूर्ति के रूप में रू0 5.00 लाख, अनुग्रह राशि देय है। उ0प्र0 शासन द्वारा गठित समिति की संस्तुतियों के अनुसार मृतक की आयु के सापेक्ष यदि किसी व्यक्ति की गणना के अनुसार क्षतिपूर्ति की धनराशि रू0 5.00 लाख के कम होने पर सम्बन्धित मृतक के आश्रितों को न्यूनतम रू0 5. 00 लाख की क्षतिपूर्ति अनुमन्य की जायेगी।

. विद्युत दुर्घटना में मृत्यु, स्थायी/ पूर्ण अपंगता/ आंशिक अपंगता होने पर, क्षतिपूर्ति दुर्घटनाग्रस्त व्यक्ति की विवाहित/ अविवाहित स्थिति, आयु एवं परिवार की संख्या के आधार पर समिति की रिपोर्ट (तालिका–1 एवं 2) में दी गई सारणियों के अनुसार अनुमन्य किया जायेगा।

. सक्षम अधिकारी द्वारा घातक/ अघातक विद्युत दुर्घटनाओं में कारपोरेशन के अधिष्ठापन की त्रृटि न होने की स्थिति में छव निसज सपंइपसपजल के रूप में अनुग्रह धनराशि की क्षतिपूर्ति स्वीकृत की जायेगी।

. बाहरी व्यक्ति की मृत्यु की दशा मे, क्षतिपूर्ति के रूप में अनुग्रह राशि स्वीकृति करने हेतु अधीक्षण अभियन्ता सक्षम अधिकारी होगें।

. अनुग्रह धनराशि/ क्षतिपूर्ति हेतु सम्बन्धित अधिशासी अभियन्ता द्वारा निम्न प्रक्रिया का पालन किया जायेगाः–

. सम्बन्धित अधिशासी अभियन्ता, निदेशक, विद्युत सुरक्षा से विद्युत दुर्घटना से सम्बन्धित जांच आख्या प्राप्त होने पर पीड़ित परिवार के द्वारा प्रस्तुत आवेदन पत्र एवं उपलब्ध कराये गये साक्ष्यों/ अभिलेखों को संकलित करेंगे।

. विद्युत दुर्घटना में मृत्यु होने पर बाहरी व्यक्ति के परिवारजनों से प्राप्त आवेदन के अनुसार, उत्तराधिकारी की सूचना, मण्डल कार्यालय सहित सम्बन्धित विद्युत कार्यालय में चस्पा करेंगे, जिसमें आपत्ति प्रस्तुत करने हेतु 07 दिनों का समय दिया जायेगा।

. आपत्ति प्राप्त करने की समयावधि समाप्त होने पर, 07 दिन के अन्दर उत्तराधिकारी से उनका आधार कार्ड/ चुनाव पहचान–पत्र (वोटर आई0 डी0)/पैनकार्ड/ राशनकार्ड/ पासपोर्ट/ लेखपाल अथवा ग्राम विकास अधिकारी द्वारा प्रदत्त कुटुम्ब रजिस्टर के आधार पर पीड़ित परिवार के उत्तराधिकारी का निर्धारण विधिक मापदण्डों के आधार पर करते हुये प्रकरण में क्षतिपूर्ति स्वीकृति का कारण, आदेश में लिखित रूप से अंकित (Recording reason in writing) करते हुए आदेश निर्गत करेंगे। उत्ताराधिकारी के सम्बन्ध में किसी भी प्रकार के विवाद की स्थिति में विधिक रूप से समक्ष अधिकारी द्वारा प्रदत्त उत्ताराधिकार प्रमाणपत्र प्राप्त होने के उपरान्त ही अग्रिम कार्यवाही की जाये।

. क्षतिपूर्ति के रूप में अनुग्रह राशि प्राप्त करने वाले को अण्डरटेकिंग देना होगा कि यदि किसी भी प्रकार का विवाद उत्पन्न होने पर उनके द्वारा उक्त धनराशि विभाग को वापस की जायेगी और अगर तथ्य गलत पाये गये तो उनके विरूद्ध विधिक कार्यवाही भी की जायेगी।

. किसी बाहरी व्यक्ति की विद्युतीय दुर्घटना में मृत्यु की दशा में, क्षतिपूर्ति के रूप में दी गयी अनुग्रह राशि के अतिरिक्त, मृतक आश्रित के अधीन किसी भी प्रकार का सेवायोजन अथवा कोई अन्य अनुतोष अनुमन्य नहीं होगे।

3. बाहरी व्यक्ति की विद्युत दुर्घटना में घायल होने की दशा में।

बाहरी व्यक्ति की विद्युत दुर्घटना में घायल होने की दशा में, क्षतिपूर्ति के रूप में अनुग्रह राशि स्वीकृति करने हेतु अधीक्षण अभियन्ता सक्षम अधिकारी होगे।

. अघातक विद्युत दुर्घटना में किसी व्यक्ति के आंशिक/ पूर्ण अपंगता होने पर

तालिका–1 में दिये गये विकलांगता प्रतिशत के आधार पर क्षतिपूर्ति/ अनुग्रह

राशि का आंकलन किया जायेगा।

. विद्युत सुरक्षा निदेशालय द्वारा प्रस्तुत जांच आख्या, मुख्त चिकित्सा अधिकारी द्वारा निर्गत विकलांगता प्रमाण–पत्र, एफ0आई0आर0 की प्रति एवं विभागीय जांच में प्राप्त संस्तुति के आधार पर क्षतिपूर्ति की कार्यवाही सुनिश्चित की जायेगी।

. क्षतिपूर्ति के रूप में अनुग्रह राशि प्राप्त करने वाले को शपथ–पत्र देना होगा

कि यदि किसी भी प्रकार का विवाद उत्पन्न होने पर उनके द्वारा उक्त धनराशि विभाग को वापस की जायेगी और अगर तथ्य गलत पाये गये तो उसके विरूद्ध विधिक कार्यवाही भी की जायेगी।

4. विद्युत दुर्घटना में पशु की मृत्यु होने की दशा में।

. पशु की मृत्यु की दशा मे, क्षतिपूर्ति के रूप में अनुग्रह राशि स्वीकृति करने हेतु, अधीक्षण अभियन्ता सक्षम अधिकारी होंगे।

. विद्युत सुरक्षा निदेशालय द्वारा प्रस्तुत जांच आख्या, पशु की क्रय रसीद, समक्ष पशु चिकित्सा अधिकारी द्वारा जारी मृत्यु प्रमाण पत्र, पोस्टमार्टम

रिपोर्ट, एफ0आई0आर0 की प्रति, विभागीय जांच में प्राप्त संस्तुति के आधार पर क्षतिपूर्ति की कार्यवाही सुनिश्चित की

जायेगी।

. क्षतिपूर्ति के रूप में अनुग्रह राशि प्राप्त करने वाले को शपथ–पत्र देना होगा

कि यदि किसी भी प्रकार का विवाद उत्पन्न होता है तो उनके द्वारा उक्त

धनराशि विभाग को वापस की जायेगी और अगर तथ्य गलत पाये गये तो उनके विरूद्ध विधिक कार्यवाही भी की जायेगी।

5. विद्युतीय अग्निकाण्ड में फसलों/ सम्पत्तियों की हुई क्षति के सम्बन्ध में।

. विद्युतीय अग्निकाण्ड में फसलो/ सम्पत्तियों की हुई क्षति के रूप में अनुग्रह राशि स्वीकृति करने हेतु मुख्य अभियन्ता (वितरण) सक्षम अधिकारी होंगे।

. विद्युत सुरक्षा निदेशालय, उ0प्र0 शासन की संस्तुति के आधार पर सम्बन्धित पीड़ित परिवार के द्वारा प्रस्तुत आवेदन पत्र में भू–स्वामी होने के अभिलेखों का मालिकाना हक एवं खतौनी/ लेखपाल द्वारा उपलब्ध कराये गये साक्ष्यों/ अभिलेखों को संलग्न किया जायेगा।

. सम्बन्धित जिले के तहसीलदार एवं जिलाधिकारी के द्वारा क्षति का आंकलन एवं संस्तृति तथा निदेशक, विद्युत सुरक्षा निदेशालय, उ0प्र0 शासन की संस्तृति के आधार पर सम्बन्धित मुख्य अभियन्ता (विवरण) द्वारा अनुग्रह धनराशि की स्वीकृति प्रदान की जाएगी। स्वीकृत धनराशि का भुगतान खण्ड स्तर पर किया जायेगा।

. विद्युत दुर्घटना में बाहरी व्यक्तियों/ पशुओं के प्रकरणों के निस्तारण में विद्युत सुरक्षा निदेशालय की जॉच आख्या एवं संस्तृति प्राप्त होने के 10 दिनों के अन्दर क्षतिपूर्ति की धनराशि का भुगतान कर दिया जाये तथा सम्पूर्ण प्रक्रिया 30 दिनों में पूर्ण कर ली जाये। इसके अतिरिक्त फसल/ सम्पत्तियों की हुई क्षति के फलस्वरूप क्षतिपूर्ति के प्रकरणो को विद्युत सुरक्षा निदेशायल की संस्तृति व जिलाधिकारी की आख्या प्राप्त होने के आधार पर 07 कार्य दिवसों के भीतर स्वीकृत एवं निस्तारित किया जाये।

. मुख्य अभियन्ता (वितरण) विद्युत दुर्घटना के फलस्वरूप क्षतिपूर्ति के प्रकरणों का मासिक आधार पर अनुश्रवण करेंगे एवं भुगतान से सम्बन्धित समस्त सूचनायें क्षेत्रीय कार्यालय में संरक्षित रखेंगे एवं दुर्घटनाओ को रोकने हेतु किये गये प्रयासों की मासिक रिपोर्ट प्रबन्ध निदेशक, डिस्काम को भेजेंगे। सम्बन्धित डिस्काम/ क्षेत्र/ मण्डल/ खण्ड का दायित्व होगा कि वे अपने कार्यालय मे विद्युत दुर्घटनाओं के प्रकारणो की सूची बनाकर सुरक्षित रखेंगे एवं त्रृटिपूर्ण अधिष्ठापन को ठीक किये जाने हेतु किये गये प्रयासो को भी लिपिबद्ध करेंगे।

GUIDE LINES FOR COMPENSATION ON ELECTROCUTION

FAULT LIABILITY

A-Fatal Accident

1. Notional Income (N.I.) of victim shall be taken in to consideration as Rs. 51,000 (Fifty One Thousand) per annum (about Rs. 140 per day).

2. Multiplier shall be adopted as per following chart

Age of Victim Multiplier Applied (M.A.)

Up to 15 years 15

Above 15 years but not exceeding 20 years 16

Above 20 years but not exceeding 25 years 17

Above 25 years but not exceeding 30 years 18

Above 30 years but not exceeding 35 years 17

Above 35 years but not exceeding 40 years 16

Above 40 years but not exceeding 45 years 15

Above 45 years but not exceeding 50 years 13

Above 50 years but not exceeding 55 years 11

Above 55 years but not exceeding 60 years 8

Above 60 years but not exceeding 65 years 6

Above 65 years 5

3. The amount of compensation so arrived at in the case of fatal accident claims shall be deducted towards Personal and living Expenses (P.E.) by

(i) 1/2nd if deceased was unmarried but if family of a bachelor is large and dependent on the income of the deceased, the deduction shall be 1/3rd (33.33%)

(ii) 1/3rd if deceased was married where dependent family members are 2 to 3 in number, 1/4th where dependent family members 4 to 6 in number and 1/5th where dependent family members are more than 6 in number.

(iii) For the purpose of calculation of number of family members in clause (ii), a minor dependent will be counted as half.

Spouse, parents and grand-parents having no income and minor children shall be deemed dependent family members. (Parivar Register and affidavit may be considered as proof of family members and dependency).

4. The following General Damages shall also be payable in addition to Compensation Outlined (C.O.) above:

(i) Compensation for Loss of Estate (L.E.) Rs. 5,000 (Five Thousand).

(ii) Compensation for Loss of Consortium (L.C.), if beneficiary is spouse Rs. 5.000 (Five Thousand).

(iii) Compensation for Loss of love and Affection (L.A.) Rs. 5,000 (Five Thousand).

(iv) Funeral Expenses costs of transportation of body (F.E.) Rs. 5,000 (Five Thousand) or actual expenses whichever is less.

(v)Medical Expenses (M.E.) - Actual expenses incurred before death supported by bills/vouchers but not exceeding Rs. 20,000 (Twenty Thousand).

*Formula: N.I.M.A.=C.O.

C.O.:P.E.=Amount

C.O.-Amount+L.E.+L.C.+L.A.+F.E.+M.E.=Total Compensation.

Example for spot death of a person aged 14 years leaving behind mother and father:

*Rs.51000*15 (Multiplier) =765000*

Rs.765000/3 =255000

Rs.765000-255000+5000+5000+5000 =525000

B-Non-Fatal

General Damages in case of Injuries and Disabilities:

(i) Pain and Suffering Grievous injuries

(ii) Grievous injuries (G.I.) -- Rs. 10,000/-

(iii) Simple injuries (S.I.) --Rs. 5,000/-

(ii) Medical Expenses (M.E.) :- Actual expenses incurred, supported by bills/vouchers but not exceeding Rs. 20,000 for grievous injury and - Rs. 10,000 for simple injury (on medical report)

Disability in non-fatal accidents:

The following compensation shall be payable in cases of disabilities to the victim arising out of non-fatal accidents:

C- Temporary Disability

Loss of income, if any, for actual period of disablement not exceeding fifty two weeks.

D- Permanent Disability

(a) In case of permanent total disablement the amount payable shall be arrived at by multiplying the annual loss of income by the Multiplier applicable to the age on the date of determining the compensation, or

(b) In case of permanent partial disablement such percentage of compensation, which would have been payable in the case of permanent total disablement as specified under item (a) above.

Injuries deemed to result in Permanent Total Disablement/Permanent Partial Disablement and percentage of loss of earning capacity shall be as per Schedule I under Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923, Disability Certificate from Medical Board mentioning percentage of disablement shall be final and shall be taken in to consideration.

Notional Income of victim shall be taken in to consideration as Rs. 51,000 (Fifty One Thousand) per annum.*

Example for 100% permanent disability of person aged 14 years with medical bills for amount. Rs. 20.000 (Twenty Thousand):

*51000*15 =765000*

*765000*100/100 =765000*

765000+10000+20000 =795000

No Fault Liability

1. In death - Rs. 1.000,00 (One Lac)

2. In permanent disability - Rs. 1,25,000 (One Lac and Twenty Five Thousand)

3. Grievous injury - Rs. 3000 (Three Thousand)

4. Simple injury - Rs. 2000 (Two Thousand)

No compensation shall be paid if victim was involved in illegal activities like theft of electricity or riots etc. Third party insurance system may also be introduced to meet out compensation.

6- विद्युत दुर्घटना में पशुओं की मृत्यु/ घायल होने पर वर्तमान में प्रभावी क्षतिपूर्ति अनुग्रह राशिः–

दुधारू पशु

. भैस, गाय, ऊँट, याक आदि की मृत्यु होने पर रू0 30,000/– (तीस हजार) अनुमन्य किया जायेगा।

. भेड़ बकरी, सुअर, आदि की मृत्यु होने पर रू0 3,000/– (तीन हजार) अनुमन्य किया जायेगा।

दुधारू पशुओं के अतिरिक्त पशु

. ऊँट, घोड़ा, बैल आदि की मृत्यु होने पर रू0 25,000/– (पच्चीस हजार) अनुमन्य किया जायेगा।

. बछड़ा, गधा, खच्चर आदि की मृत्यु होने पर रू0 16,000/– (सोलह हजार) अनुमन्य किया जायेगा।

7. अनुशासनात्मक एवं वसूली की कार्यवाहीः–

विद्युत दुर्घटना के लिए दोषी कार्मिक/ कार्मिको का उत्तरदायित्व निर्धारित करते हुए डिस्कॉम के प्रबन्ध निदेशक के स्तर से एक माह के भीतर कार्यवाही सुनिश्चित की जायेगी।

क्र0सं0	विवरण	मुख्य दायित्व	पर्यावरणीय दायित्व	प्रशासकीय दायित्व
	एल0टी0 लाइन	लाइनमैन/ अवर अभियन्ता	उपखण्ड अधिकारी	अधिशासी अभियन्ता (वितरण)
2	11/04 परिवर्तक या इससे अधिक एवं 11 के0वी0 लाइनें	लाइनमैन/ अवर अभियन्ता	उपखण्ड अधिकारी	अधिशासी अभियन्ता (वितरण)
3	33 के0वी0 उपकेन्द्र	टी0जी0–2 (एस0एस0ओ0)/ अवर अभियन्ता	उपखण्ड अधिकारी	अनुरक्षण– अधिशासी अभियन्ता (वि0), परीक्षण– अवर अभियन्ता/ सहायक, अभियन्ता–मीटर
4ण	33 के0वी0 लाइन	अवर अभियन्ता/ उपखण्ड अधिकारी	अधिशासी अभियन्ता (वि0)	अधीक्षण अभियन्ता (वितरण)

8. प्रकरण के निस्तारण हेतु आवश्यक अभिलेखः–

क्र0सं0	वद्युत दुर्घटना का प्रकार	पीड़ित पक्षकार द्वारा उपलब्ध कराये जाने वाले अभिलेख
	बाहरी व्यक्तियो के विद्युत दुर्घटना में मृत्यु होने की दशा में	1. विद्युत सुरक्षा की जांच आख्या 2. मृत्यु प्रमाणपत्र 3. सक्षम अधिकारी द्वारा वारिसान प्रमाणपत्र 4. पोस्टमार्टम रिपोर्ट 5. एफ0आई0आर0 की प्रति 6. विभागीय जांच
2	बाहरी व्यक्तियो के विद्युत दुर्घटना में घायल होने की दशा में।	1. विद्युत सुरक्षा की जांच आख्या 2. मुख्य चिकित्सा अधिकारी द्वारा निर्गत विकलागता प्रमाण पत्र 3. एफ0आई0आर0 की प्रति 4. विभागीय जांच
3	विद्युत दुर्घटना मे पशुओं की मृत्यु होने की दशा में	। 1. विद्युत सुरक्षा की जांच आख्या 2. पशु की क्रय रसीद 3. पशु की मृत्यु में सक्षम पशु चिकित्सा अधिकारी द्वारा जारी मृत्यु प्रमाण पत्र 4. पोस्टमार्टम रिपोर्ट 5. एफ0आई0आर0 की प्रति 6. विभागीय जांच
4ै	फसल के नुकसान होने की दशा में।	1. विद्युत सुरक्षा की जांच आख्या 2. फसल के नुकसान में फसल मालिक के नाम खेत होने के सम्बन्ध में खतौनी होने के सम्बन्ध में प्रधान द्वारा सत्यापित विवरण पत्र 3. जिलाधिकारी/ उपजिलाधिकारी द्वारा फसल के आंकलन एवं क्षतिपूर्ति की संस्तुति 4. एफ0आई0आर0 की प्रति 5. विभागीय जांच
5	सम्पत्ति के नुकसान होने की दशा में।	1. विद्युत सुरक्षा की जांच आख्या 2. सम्पत्ति के नुकसान में सम्पत्ति मालिक के नाम होने के सम्बन्ध में सत्यापित विवरण पत्र 3. जिलाधिकारी/ उपजिलाधिकारी द्वारा सम्पत्ति के आंकलन एवं क्षतिallowed to the extent indicated above.पूर्ति की संस्तुति 4. एफ0आई0आर0 की प्रति 5. विभागीय जांच

कारपोरेशन मुख्यालय को डिस्काम के माध्यम से धनराशि अवमुक्त हेतु प्रत्येक

माह मॉग पत्र निम्न सूचना के साथ प्रेषित किया जायेः–

1ण् विद्युत दुर्घटना की प्रकरणवार आख्या/ त्रृटिपूर्ण अधिष्ठान के दूर किये जाने के सम्बन्ध में की गई कार्यवाही।

2ण् पीड़ित व्यक्ति/ परिवार को विद्युत दुर्घटना के फलस्वरूप प्रदान की गई क्षतिपूर्ति का विवरण।

3ण् विद्युत दुर्घटना के लिए दोषी अधिकारी/ कर्मचारी के विरूद्ध की गई

अनुशासनात्मक एवं वसूली की कार्यवाही का विवरण संलग्न प्रारूप में उपलब्ध

कराया जाये।

4ण् विद्युत सुरक्षा निदेशालय से प्राप्त आख्या में दोषी कार्मिको के विरूद्ध कारपोरेशन के नियमानुसार जॉच कार्यवाही की जायेगी तथा सम्बन्धित कार्मिकों को अपने बचाव का पूरा अवसर देते हुए आवश्यक कार्यवाही सुनिश्चित की जायेगी।

ऐसे प्रकरण जिनमें दुर्घटना की तिथि प्रश्नगत आदेश के निर्गमन की तिथि से पूर्व की है, में तत्कालीन विद्यमान नियमों/ आदेशो के अनुसार ही क्षतिपूर्ति का निर्धारिण किया जायेगा साथ ही किसी भी दशा में कोई पुराना प्रकरण पुनर्रूदघाटित नहीं किया जायेगा। उपर्युक्त समस्त व्यवस्थायें तत्काल प्रभाव से लागू की जाती है।

निदेशक मण्डल की आज्ञा से*

12. In the aforesaid guidelines for compensation of electrocution, it has been provided that compensation is to be determined on the basis of income of the victim with minimum compensation of Rs. 5 lakhs. However, in the absence of actual income so as to avoid litigation and to grant compensation quickly to the dependant of the deceased, a notional income of Rs. 140/- per day has been provided in the aforesaid policy.

13. In the instant case, there is no definite proof for the income of the petitioner. In a catena of judgements, it has been time and again held, that compensation to the victims of accidents has to be just and reasonable and should be adequate to bring the victim on the same position as such accident would not have taken place.

14. In Kirti v. Oriental Insurance Co. Ltd., (2021) 2 SCC 166 (Para-10), Hon'ble Supreme Court has laid down the law that any compensation awarded by a court ought to be just, reasonable and consequently must undoubtedly be guided by principles of fairness, equity and good conscience.

15. In the case of Kajal v. Jagdish Chand, (2020) 4 SCC 413 (para-33), Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that it is well settled law that in the motor accident claim petitions, the court must award the just compensation and, in case, the just compensation is more than the amount claimed, that must be awarded especially where the claimant is a minor. In the case of Kajal (Supra), Hon'ble Supreme Court quoted with approval certain foreign judgments and its own judgment and held in Paras-8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13 and 14 as under:

"8. In Phillips v. London & South Western Railway Co., (1879) [L.R.] 5 Q.B.D. 78 (CA), Field, J., while emphasising that damages must be full and adequate, held thus : (QBD p. 79)

"... You cannot put the plaintiff back again into his original position, but you must bring your reasonable common sense to bear, and you must always recollect that this is the only occasion on which compensation can be given. The plaintiff can never sue again for it. You have, therefore, now to give him compensation once and for all. He has done no wrong, he has suffered a wrong at the hands of the defendants and you must take care to give him full fair compensation for that which he has suffered."

Besides, the Tribunals should always remember that the measures of damages in all these cases "should be such as to enable even a tortfeasor to say that he had amply atoned for his misadventure".

9. In Mediana, In re, 1900 AC 113 (HL), Lord Halsbury held : (AC pp. 116-17)

"... Of course the whole region of inquiry into damages is one of extreme difficulty. You very often cannot even lay down any principle upon which you can give damages; nevertheless, it is remitted to the jury, or those who stand in place of the jury, to consider what compensation in money shall be given for what is a wrongful act. Take the most familiar and ordinary case : how is anybody to measure pain and suffering in moneys counted? Nobody can suggest that you can by any arithmetical calculation establish what is the exact amount of money which would represent such a thing as the pain and suffering which a person has undergone by reason of an accident. In truth, I think it would be very arguable to say that a person would be entitled to no damages for such things. What manly mind cares about pain and suffering that is past? But nevertheless the law recognises that as a topic upon which damages may be given."

10. The following observations of Lord Morris in his speech in H. West & Son Ltd. v. Shephard, 1964 AC 326 : (1963) 2 WLR 1359 (HL), are very pertinent : (AC p. 346)

"... Money may be awarded so that something tangible may be procured to replace something else of the like nature which has been destroyed or lost. But money cannot renew a physical frame that has been battered and shattered. All that Judges and courts can do is to award sums which must be regarded as giving reasonable compensation. In the process there must be the endeavour to secure some uniformity in the general method of approach. By common assent awards must be reasonable and must be assessed with moderation. Furthermore, it is eminently desirable that so far as possible comparable injuries should be compensated by comparable awards."

In the same case, Lord Devlin observed (at p. 357) that the proper approach to the problem was to adopt a test as to what contemporary society would deem to be a fair sum, such as would allow the wrongdoer to "hold up his head among his neighbours and say with their approval that he has done the fair thing?", which should be kept in mind by the court in determining compensation in personal injury cases.

11. Lord Denning while speaking for the Court of Appeal in Ward v. James, (1966) 1 QB 273 : (1965) 2 WLR 455 : (1965) 1 All ER 563 (CA), laid down the following three basic principles to be followed in such like cases : (QB pp. 299-300)

"First, assessibility : In cases of grave injury, where the body is wrecked or the brain destroyed, it is very difficult to assess a fair compensation in money, so difficult that the award must basically be a conventional figure, derived from experience or from awards in comparable cases. Secondly, uniformity : There should be some measure of uniformity in awards so that similar decisions are given in similar cases; otherwise there will be great dissatisfaction in the community, and much criticism of the administration of justice. Thirdly, predictability : Parties should be able to predict with some measure of accuracy the sum which is likely to be awarded in a particular case, for by this means cases can be settled peaceably and not brought to court, a thing very much to the public good."

12. The assessment of damages in personal injury cases raises great difficulties. It is not easy to convert the physical and mental loss into monetary terms. There has to be a measure of calculated guesswork and conjecture. An assessment, as best as can, in the circumstances, should be made.

13. McGregor's Treatise on Damages, 14th Edition, Para 1157, referring to heads of damages in personal injury actions states:

"The person physically injured may recover both for his pecuniary losses and his non-pecuniary losses. Of these the pecuniary losses themselves comprise two separate items viz. the loss of earnings and other gains which the plaintiff would have made had he not been injured and the medical and other expenses to which he is put as a result of the injury, and the courts have sub-divided the non-pecuniary losses into three categories viz. pain and suffering, loss of amenities of life and loss of expectation of life."

14. In Concord of India Insurance Co. Ltd. v. Nirmala Devi, (1979) 4 SCC 365 : 1979 SCC (Cri) 996 : 1980 ACJ 55, this Court held : (SCC p. 366, para 2)

"2. ... the determination of the quantum must be liberal, not niggardly since the law values life and limb in a free country in generous scales."

16. Therefore, it is well established that it is the duty of Courts to award just compensation to the victims of accident and it has also been held that right to Just Compensation to Victims emanates from their right to life guaranteed under Article 21 of the Constitution of India.

17. Now, the question that arises for consideration is that how to determine the Just Compensation where no direct proof of income is available on record?. It is now well established that in such cases, the notional income of the victim has to be determined. So far as the concept of notional income is concerned, it has been held that the notional income cannot be a fixed term, it has to be dependant on the variety of circumstances such as the age of the victim, occupation, living status, future prospects of the victims, their contribution in the family on the basis of service rendered by them and the quality of life being led by the victim and her family.

Notional income of the victim is also to be determined on the basis of the earning capacity and sometimes in accordance with the provisions of the Minimum Wages Act etc., for example, the reference may be made to para 17, 18 and 19 of judgement in the case of Kirti (supra) and Lata Wadhwa v. State of Bihar (2001) 8 SCC 197 (Para-10).

18. When the notional or actual income is determined, the computation of the loss of income is to be calculated applying the multiplier method. However, for the loss of future prospects of the victim, the compensation has been directed to be awarded separately by the Constitution Bench Judgment in National Insurance Co. Ltd. v. Pranay Sethi, (2017) 16 SCC 680 (Para-57) and also Sarla Verma Vs. DTC (2009) 6 SCC 121 (paras 17, 18, 19, 30, 31 and 32). In the Constitution Bench Judgment of Pranay Sethi (supra), Hon'ble Supreme Court held that the benefit of future prospects to be given to all the victims to the extent of an additional 40 per cent of the established income of the deceased towards future prospects if the deceased is below 40 years and an addition to the extent of 25 percent to be granted where the victim was between age of 40 to 50 years.

19. In the case of Lata Wadhwa (supra), Hon'ble Supreme Court has entertained the writ petition under Article 32 of the Constitution of India for grant of compensation to the victims of fire accidents. The same principal has further been recognised by Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Raman Vs. Uttar Haryana Bijli Vitran Nigam Ltd., (2014) 15 SCC 1 and also by this Court in its judgment dated 09.11.2022 passed in Writ C No. 25065 of 2022 (Kaneez Fatima Vs State of U.P. 3 Ors.).

20. In the case of death or injury caused due to the negligence, the principle of "strict liability' has been approved by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in various cases such as Maharaja Agrasen Hospital v. Rishabh Sharma (2020) 6 SCC 501 (Para-12.5.4), Raman v. Uttar Haryana Bijli Vitran Nigam Ltd., (2014) 15 SCC 1 (Paras-16, 17, 18, 19, 20 and 21) and M.P. Electricity Board v. Shail Kumari (2002) 2 SCC 162 (Paras 9, 10, 11, 12 and 13). In the case of Raman (supra), the Hon'ble Supreme Court has affirmed the judgement of Punjab and Haryana High Court passed in Civil Misc. Writ Petition No.14046 of 2012 and L.P.A. No.1631 of 2013, whereby the High Court granted Rs. 60 lakhs as compensation for 100 % permanent disability suffered by five years old boy due to electrocution.

21. In the case of Shiv Ranshu Chhuneja v. State Of U.P. And Others (WRIT - C No. - 10191 of 2009, decided on 10.04.2018), a coordinate Bench of this Court has granted compensation to the tune of Rs. 86,20,000/- to a victim who suffered hundred percent disability on account of electrocution. Further, another Bench of this Court in the case of Kaneez Fatima Vs State of U.P. 3 Ors. (Writ C No.25065 of 2022) decided on 09.11.2022 has awarded compensation of Rs. 66,85,000/- with simple interest while holding in para 36 as under:

"36. The discussions, findings and directions made above are briefly summarized as under:-

(A) Compensation awarded ought to be just, reasonable and consequently must undoubtedly be guided by principles of fairness, equity and good conscience and, in case, the just compensation is more than the amount claimed, that must be awarded especially where the claimant is a minor.

(B) The respondents are bound to award just compensation to the petitioner for fatal accident on account of their own negligence which caused the death of the husband of the petitioner on 10.04.2022. (E) "Consortium" is a compendious term which encompasses "spousal consortium", "parental consortium", and "filial consortium". The right to consortium would include the company, care, help, comfort, guidance, solace and affection of the deceased, which is a loss to his family. With respect to a spouse, it would include sexual relations with the deceased spouse.

(F) To deny a legitimate claim or to restrict arbitrarily the size of an award would amount to substantial injustice to the claimant. The (E) "Consortium" is a compendious term which encompasses "spousal consortium", "parental consortium", and "filial consortium". The right to consortium would include the company, care, help, comfort, guidance, solace and affection of the deceased, which is a loss to his family. With respect to a spouse, it would include sexual relations with the deceased spouse.

(F) To deny a legitimate claim or to restrict arbitrarily the size of an award would amount to substantial injustice to the claimant. The compensation which is required to be determined must be just. Grant of compensation involving an accident is within the realm of law of torts. It is based on the principle of restitution in integrum. The said principle provides that a person entitled to damages should, as nearly as possible, get that sum of money which would put him in the same position as he would have been if he had not sustained the wrong.

(G) The order for compensation has been passed by the authority in exercise of statutory power under Section 161 of the Electricity Act, 2003 and the policy decision to award just compensation. If just compensation is not awarded, it would affect fundamental rights of the sufferer guaranteed under Articles 14 and 21 of the Constitution of India. Therefore, order so passed would be amenable to writ jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India.

(H) Decision of the respondents dated 25.09.2021 to compute and pay compensation only on the basis of notional income, is not only arbitrary and violative of fundamental rights guaranteed under Articles 14 and 21 of the Constitution of India but is also in conflict of the law laid down by Hon'ble Supreme Court in judgments aforementioned directing for payment of just compensation. Therefore, we issue a general mandamus to the respondents to compute and pay just compensation on the basis of actual income of the injured person/ victim/ deceased wherever actual income is ascertainable or may be proved by claimant with future prospect as per law settled by Hon'ble Supreme Court in the various judgments aforenoted and apply the multiplier as provided in the policy decision dated 25.09.2021. If actual income of injured/ victim/ deceased is either not ascertainable or is not proved by claimant, then notional income as given in the policy decision dated 25.09.2021, shall be applied for computation and payment of compensation. The amount of compensation for loss of estate, loss of consortium and funeral expenses shall be determined and paid by the respondents in accordance with the law settled by Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of National Insurance Company Ltd. vs. Pranay Sethi (supra), which is binding under Articles 141 of the Constitution of India.

(I) The amount of compensation determined above shall be distributed amongst the dependents of the deceased as under:-

(a) The respondents shall pay to the dependents of the deceased the above mentioned amount of compensation of Rs.66,85,000/- with simple interest @ 6% per annum from the date of filing of the claim application till realisation, after adjusting the amount earlier paid by them to the petitioner."compensation which is required to be determined must be just. Grant of compensation involving an accident is within the realm of law of torts. It is based on the principle of restitution in integrum. The said principle provides that a person entitled to damages should, as nearly as possible, get that sum of money which would put him in the same position as he would have been if he had not sustained the wrong.

(G) The order for compensation has been passed by the authority in exercise of statutory power under Section 161 of the Electricity Act, 2003 and the policy decision to award just compensation. If just compensation is not awarded, it would affect fundamental rights of the sufferer guaranteed under Articles 14 and 21 of the Constitution of India. Therefore, order so passed would be amenable to writ jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India.

H) Decision of the respondents dated 25.09.2021 to compute and pay compensation only on the basis of notional income, is not only arbitrary and violative of fundamental rights guaranteed under Articles 14 and 21 of the Constitution of India but is also in conflict of the law laid down by Hon'ble Supreme Court in judgments aforementioned directing for payment of just compensation. Therefore, we issue a general mandamus to the respondents to compute and pay just compensation on the basis of actual income of the injured person/ victim/ deceased wherever actual income is ascertainable or may be proved by claimant with future prospect as per law settled by Hon'ble Supreme Court in the various judgments aforenoted and apply the multiplier as provided in the policy decision dated 25.09.2021. If actual income of injured/ victim/ deceased is either not ascertainable or is not proved by claimant, then notional income as given in the policy decision dated 25.09.2021, shall be applied for computation and payment of compensation. The amount of compensation for loss of estate, loss of consortium and funeral expenses shall be determined and paid by the respondents in accordance with the law settled by Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of National Insurance Company Ltd. vs. Pranay Sethi (supra), which is binding under Articles 141 of the Constitution of India.

(I) The amount of compensation determined above shall be distributed amongst the dependents of the deceased as under:-

(a) The respondents shall pay to the dependents of the deceased the above mentioned amount of compensation of Rs.66,85,000/- with simple interest @ 6% per annum from the date of filing of the claim application till realisation, after adjusting the amount earlier paid by them to the petitioner."However, despite there being admitted proof of actual income of the deceased to be Rs.3,50,000/- per annum, the respondents have computed compensation on the basis of assumed notional income of the deceased as Rs.51,000/- per annum, which is arbitrary and illegal.

(C) There are two distinct categories of situations wherein the court usually determines notional income of a victim. The first category of cases relates to those wherein the victim was employed, but the claimants are not able to prove victim's actual income, before the court. In such a situation, the court "guesses" the income of the victim on the basis of the evidence on record, like the quality of life being led by the victim and her family, the general earning of an individual employed in that field, the qualifications of the victim, and other considerations. The second category of cases relates to those situations wherein the Court is called upon to determine the income of a non-earning victim, such as a child, a student or a homemaker. Different principles are adopted by courts for determining the compensation towards a non-earning victim in order to arrive at the just compensation.

(D) In the absence of proof of actual income*, notional income is applied to compute compensation.*

(E) "Consortium" is a compendious term which encompasses "spousal consortium", "parental consortium", and "filial consortium". The right to consortium would include the company, care, help, comfort, guidance, solace and affection of the deceased, which is a loss to his family. With respect to a spouse, it would include sexual relations with the deceased spouse.

(F) To deny a legitimate claim or to restrict arbitrarily the size of an award would amount to substantial injustice to the claimant. The compensation which is required to be determined must be just. Grant of compensation involving an accident is within the realm of law of torts. It is based on the principle of restitution in integrum. The said principle provides that a person entitled to damages should, as nearly as possible, get that sum of money which would put him in the same position as he would have been if he had not sustained the wrong.

(G) The order for compensation has been passed by the authority in exercise of statutory power under Section 161 of the Electricity Act, 2003 and the policy decision to award just compensation. If just compensation is not awarded, it would affect fundamental rights of the sufferer guaranteed under Articles 14 and 21 of the Constitution of India. Therefore, order so passed would be amenable to writ jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India.

(H) Decision of the respondents dated 25.09.2021 to compute and pay compensation only on the basis of notional income, is not only arbitrary and violative of fundamental rights guaranteed under Articles 14 and 21 of the Constitution of India but is also in conflict of the law laid down by Hon'ble Supreme Court in judgments aforementioned directing for payment of just compensation. Therefore, we issue a general mandamus to the respondents to compute and pay just compensation on the basis of actual income of the injured person/ victim/ deceased wherever actual income is ascertainable or may be proved by claimant with future prospect as per law settled by Hon'ble Supreme Court in the various judgments aforenoted and apply the multiplier as provided in the policy decision dated 25.09.2021. If actual income of injured/ victim/ deceased is either not ascertainable or is not proved by claimant, then notional income as given in the policy decision dated 25.09.2021, shall be applied for computation and payment of compensation. The amount of compensation for loss of estate, loss of consortium and funeral expenses shall be determined and paid by the respondents in accordance with the law settled by Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of National Insurance Company Ltd. vs. Pranay Sethi (supra), which is binding under Articles 141 of the Constitution of India.

(I) The amount of compensation determined above shall be distributed amongst the dependents of the deceased as under:-

(a) The respondents shall pay to the dependents of the deceased the above mentioned amount of compensation of Rs.66,85,000/- with simple interest @ 6% per annum from the date of filing of the claim application till realisation, after adjusting the amount earlier paid by them to the petitioner."

22. In case of the victims, who suffered permanent disability the compensation for physical pain and sufferings, emotional distress, loss of enjoyment of life and for the loss of prospects of marriage etc., a separate compensation has been held to be awarded to the victims in addition to the compensation for pecuniary losses.

23. In R.D. Hattangadi v. Pest Control (India) Pvt. Ltd. And Others (1995) 1 SCC 551 dealing with the different heads of compensation in injury cases, Hon'ble Supreme Court held in para 9 as under:-

"9. Broadly speaking while fixing the amount of compensation payable to a victim of an accident, the damages have to be assessed separately as pecuniary damages and special damages. Pecuniary damages are those which the victim has actually incurred and which are capable of being calculated in terms of money; whereas non-pecuniary damages are those which are incapable of being assessed by arithmetical calculations. In order to appreciate two concepts pecuniary damages may include expenses incurred by the claimant: (i) medical attendance; (ii) loss of earning of profit up to the date of trial; (iii) other material loss. So far as non-pecuniary damages are concerned, they may include: (i) damages for mental and physical shock, pain and suffering, already suffered or likely to be suffered in the future; (ii) damages to compensate for the loss of amenities of life which may include a variety of matters i.e. on account of injury the claimant may not be able to walk, run or sit; (iii) damages for loss of expectation of life, i.e. on account of injury the normal longevity of the person concerned is shortened; (iv) inconvenience, hardship, discomfort, disappointment, frustration and mental stress in life."

24. In Raj Kumar v. Ajay Kumar (2011) 1 SCC 343, Hon'ble Supreme Court in para 6 laid down the heads under which compensation is to be awarded for personal injuries, as under:

"6. The heads under which compensation is awarded in personal injury cases are the following:

Pecuniary damages (Special damages)

(i) Expenses relating to treatment, hospitalisation, medicines, transportation, nourishing food, and miscellaneous expenditure.

(ii) Loss of earnings (and other gains) which the injured would have made had he not been injured, comprising:

(a) Loss of earning during the period of treatment;

(b) Loss of future earnings on account of permanent disability.

(iii) Future medical expenses.

Non-pecuniary damages (General damages) (iv) Damages for pain, suffering and trauma as a consequence of the injuries.

(v) Loss of amenities (and/or loss of prospects of marriage).

(vi) Loss of expectation of life (shortening of normal longevity).

In routine personal injury cases, compensation will be awarded only under heads (i), (ii)(a) and (iv). It is only in serious cases of injury, where there is specific medical evidence corroborating the evidence of the claimant, that compensation will be granted under any of the heads (ii) (b), (iii), (v) and (vi) relating to loss of future earnings on account of permanent disability, future medical expenses, loss of amenities (and/or loss of prospects of marriage) and loss of expectation of life."

25. In the case of K. Suresh v. New India Assurance Company Limited And Another, (2012) 12 SCC 274 Hon'ble Supreme Court in para 2 held as follows:

"2. ... There cannot be actual compensation for anguish of the heart or for mental tribulations. The quintessentiality lies in the pragmatic computation of the loss sustained which has to be in the realm of realistic approximation. Therefore, Section 168 of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988 (for brevity "the Act") stipulates that there should be grant of "just compensation". Thus, it becomes a challenge for a court of law to determine "just compensation" which is neither a bonanza nor a windfall, and simultaneously, should not be a pittance.

26. In the case of Kajal v. Oriental Insurance Co. Ltd., (2021) 2 SCC 166, the Hon'ble Supreme Court mandated to adopt minimum wages instead of notional income to compute loss of earning. Paragraph 20 of the judgment in the case of Kajal (supra) is reproduced below:-

"Loss of earnings

20. Both the courts below have held that since the girl was a young child of 12 years only notional income of Rs 15,000 p.a. can be taken into consideration. We do not think this is a proper way of assessing the future loss of income. This young girl after studying could have worked and would have earned much more than Rs 15,000 p.a. Each case has to be decided on its own evidence but taking notional income to be Rs 15,000 p.a. is not at all justified. The appellant has placed before us material to show that the minimum wages payable to a skilled workman is Rs 4846 per month. In our opinion, this would be the minimum amount which she would have earned on becoming a major. Adding 40% for the future prospects, it works to be Rs 6784.40 per month i.e. 81,412.80 p.a. Applying the multiplier of 18, it works out to Rs 14,65,430.40, which is rounded off to Rs 14,66,000."

27. In view of the aforesaid settled prepositions of law the compensation in case of permanent disability is calculated for both pecuniary loss as well as non-pecuniary losses under different heads, as under:

a) Loss of Earning due to Disability-

For calculating loss of earning capacity due to disability, it has been held that the multiplier method must be applied for calculation of the loss of the earning due to disability. In the case of Kajal (supra), it is clearly held that when there is no proof of income available, then the provisions of minimum wages payable to such victims may be taken recourse to. In the instant case since the petitioner was unskilled person, the minimum wages applicable to unskilled workers can safely be taken as Notional Income of the petitioner. The Notional Income provided under the scheme of the U.P. Power Corporation prima facie appears to be inadequate. The Government of India vide Notification dated 28.09.2022 has determined the minimum wages for the unskilled employees working in agriculture as Rs. 409/- per day. The notification dated 28.09.2022 reads as under:

"File No. 116(r)/2O22-LS-II
Government of India
Ministry of Labour & Employment
Office of the Chief Labour Commissioner(C)
New Delhi
Dated:28/09/2022

O R D E R

In exercise of the powers conferred by Central Government vide Notification No. S.O.186(E) dated 19th January, 2Ol7 of the Ministry of Labour and Employment, the undersigned hereby revise the rates of Variable Dearness Allowance for the employees employed in Agriculture w.e.f. 01.10.2022 on the basis of the average Consumer Price Index for Industrial workers reaching 365.76 from 357.65 as on 30.06.2022 (Base 2016-100) and thereby resulting in an increase of 8.11 points. The revised Variable Dearness Allowance as under shall be payable from 01.10.2022:-

Category of Worker	Rates of V.D.A. Area wise per day (in Rupees)
	'A'	'B'	'C'
Unskilled	121	111	109
Semi-Skilled/Unskilled Supervisory	131	121	112
Skilled/Clerical	144	131	121
Highly Skilled	158	147	131

Therefore, the minimum rates of wages including the basic rates and Variable Dearness Allowance payable w.e.f. 01.10.2022 to the employees working in Agriculture shall be as under:-

Category of Worker	Rates of wages including V.D.A. Area wise per day (in Rupees)
	A	B	C
Unskilled	333+ 121=454	303+ 111=414	300 + 109 =409
Semi-Skilled/Unskilled Supervisory	364+ 131=495	335+ 121=456	307 +112=419
Skilled/ Clerical	395+ 144=539	364+ 131=495	334 +121=455
High1y Skilled	438+ 158=596	4O7+147=554	364 +131=495

The VDA has been rounded off to the next higher rupee as per the decision of the Minimum Wages Advisory Board.

The classification of workers under different categories will be same as in Part-l of the notification, whereas classification of cities will be same as in the Part-ll of the notification dated 19th January, 2Ol7. The present classification of cities into areas A, B & C is enclosed at Annexure I for ready reference.

(Remis Tiru)
Chief Labour Commissioner(C)"

Since, the petitioner was doing the work of grazing of goats, which is an activity connected to agriculture, the minimum wages payable to a workman involved in agricultural field, can safely be considered for determining the Notional Income of the petitioner. If such employee works about 26 days in a month, then the monthly income would be Rs. 10,634/- (Rs. 409/- x 26 days) and consequently, the annual income would be Rs. 1,27,608/-. Therefore, considering the aforesaid minimum wages, the annual Notional Income of the petitioner can safely be calculated to Rs. 1,27,608/- and if we add 40 % of the same towards the loss of future prospects, total annual loss of earning capacity would be safely calculated as Rs. 1,27,608/- + Rs. 51,043/- (Total Rs. 1,78,651/- per annum) and since the age of the deceased was between 15 to 20 years, as per the Scheme of U.P. Power Corporation, the multiplier of 16 can be applied. Thus, the total loss of earning due to disability would be Rs. 28,58,416/- to which the petitioner is entitled in our considered opinion.

b) Compensation for Medical Expenses-

It is admitted case of the parties that the petitioner was not only treated at Nirmala Devi Charitable Society Hospital, Paschin Sarai, District- Kaushambi but subsequently, she was referred to District Hospital, Manjhanpur, District-Kaushambi, where she was treated from 02.08.2020 and was discharged on 19.09.2022. The right hand and left thumb of the petitioner have been amputated. The petitioner has stated in paragraph 5 of the writ petition that more than Rs. 2,00,000/- have been spent by the relatives for her treatment which has not been disputed by the respondent no. 2 in their counter affidavit. This being the admitted position, we award Rs. 2,00,000/- towards medical expenses incurred by petitioner for her treatment.

c) Future Medical Expenses-

The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Sidram v. Divisional Manager, United India Insurance Co. Ltd. and Another, 2022 SCC OnLine SC 1597 held as under:

"67. At the outset, we may state that the "Future Medical Expenses" and "Attendant Charges" would fall within the ambit of Pecuniary Expenses. In Abhimanyu Partap Singh v. Namita Sekhon and Another, (2022) 8 SCC 489, this Court held:

"19. In view of the said legal position, the compensation can be assessed in pecuniary heads i.e. the loss of future earning, medical expenses including future medical expenses, attendant charges and also in the head of transportation including future transportation. In the non-pecuniary heads, the compensation can be computed for the mental and physical pain and sufferings in the present and in future, loss of amenities of life including loss of marital bliss, loss of expectancy in life, inconvenience, hardship, discomfort, disappointment, frustration, mental agony in life, etc."

Considering the age of the petitioner at the time of accident and even if the bare minimum expenses of Rs. 1,000/- per month is taken into consideration which the petitioner is likely to spent on her medical treatment throughout her life, then the compensation for future medical expenses can be calculated as Rs. 1,000 x 12 x 16. Therefore, the compensation of Rs. 1,92,000/- is awarded towards future medical expenses.

d) Attendant Charges-

Since the petitioner had suffered hundred percent permanent disability and she will not be able to work in the same manner as she used to do prior to the accident, therefore, she will require an attendant throughout the day for her daily chores.

Replying upon Paragraph 73 of the judgement in the case of Sidram (supra), we fix charges for medical attendant, which the petitioner may require, at the rate of Rs. 2,000/- per month. As a result of which we award Rs.3,84,000/- (Calculated as Rs. 2000/- X 12 X 16= Rs.3,84,000/-) towards attendant charges.

e) Loss of Conveyance and Special Diet-

Since the petitioner was admitted in the Hospital for about 49 days, the relatives must had spent on conveyance and the petitioner must have required the special diet during her treatment in the Hospital and, thereafter for sometime. Hence, relying upon Paragraph 89 of the judgement in Sidram (supra), we award Rs. 50, 000/- towards conveyance and special diet.

f) Pain and Suffering-

Hon'ble Supreme Court in Divisional Controller, KSRTC v. Mahadeva Shetty and Another (2003) 7 SCC 197 held in para 18 as under:

"18. A person not only suffers injuries on account of accident but also suffers in mind and body on account of the accident throughout his life and a feeling is developed that he is no more a normal man and cannot enjoy the amenities of life as another normal person can. While fixing compensation for pain and suffering as also for loss of amenities of life, features like his age, marital status and unusual deprivation he has undertaken in his life have to be reckoned."

In Nizam's Institute of Medical Sciences v. Prasanth S. Dhananka and Others, (2009) 6 SCC 1, Hon'ble Supreme Court granted an amount of Rs. 10,00,000/- on account of pain and suffering of the victim. However, that was a case related to an engineering student aged about 20 years.

In Sidram (supra), the Hon'ble Supreme Court in para 93 held as under:

"93. Pain and suffering would be categorized as a non-pecuniary loss as it is incapable of being arithmetically calculated. Therefore, when compensation is to be awarded for pain and suffering, special circumstances of the claimant have to be taken into account including the victim's age, the unusual deprivation the victim has suffered, the effect thereof on his or her future life....."

While holding thus, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has awarded an amount of Rs. 1,00,000/- toward pain and suffering in the case of Sidram (supra). Likewise in the case of Subulaxmi v. Managing Director, Tamil Nadu State Tansport Corporation and Another (2012) 10 SCC 177, the Hon'ble Supreme Court awarded compensation of Rs. 1,00,000/- towards pain and suffering.

In the case of Jagdish v. Mohan and others (2018) 4 SCC 571, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has awarded Rs. 2,00,000/- as compensation on account of pain and suffering in the case of permanent disability. Thus, in our considered opinion, it will be appropriate to award compensation of Rs. 2,00,000/- towards pain and suffering, which the petitioner shall undergo throughout her life.

g) Marriage Prospects-

In Paragraph 19 of the judgement in the case of Ibrahim v. Raju and Others, (2011) 10 SCC 634, Hon'ble Supreme Court in para 19 has held as under:

"19. On account of the injuries suffered by him, the prospects of the appellant's marriage have considerably reduced. Rather, they are extremely bleak. In any case, on account of the fracture of pelvis, he will not be able to enjoy the matrimonial life. Therefore, the award of Rs 50,000 under this head must be treated as wholly inadequate. In the facts and circumstances of the case, we feel that a sum of Rs 2 lakhs should be awarded to the appellant for loss of marriage prospects and enjoyment of life."

In Master Ayush v. Branch Manager, Reliance General Insurance Company Ltd. and Another (2022) 7 SCC 738, the Hon'ble Supreme Court awarded Rs. 3,00,000/- for loss of marriage prospects. In Sidram (Supra), the Hon'ble Supreme Court awarded a sum of Rs. 3,00,000/- towards marriage prospects.

In the instant case, since the petitioner is an unmarried girl of eighteen years old and had lost her hand and thumb, her prospects of marriage have reduced. Therefore, we award a sum of Rs. 3,00,000/- towards loss of marriage prospects.

h) Loss of Amenities and Enjoyment of Life-

In Paragraph 18 of Govind Yadav v. New India Insurance Company Limited, (2011) 10 SCC 683, Hon'ble Supreme Court in para 18 held as under:

"18. In our view, the principles laid down in Arvind Kumar Mishra v. New India Assurance Co. Ltd. (2010) 10 SCC 254 and Raj Kumar v. Ajay Kumar (2011) 1 SCC 343 must be followed by all the Tribunals and the High Courts in determining the quantum of compensation payable to the victims of accident, who are disabled either permanently or temporarily. If the victim of the accident suffers permanent disability, then efforts should always be made to award adequate compensation not only for the physical injury and treatment, but also for the loss of earning and his inability to lead a normal life and enjoy amenities, which he would have enjoyed but for the disability caused due to the accident."

In the case of Afnish v. Oriental Insurance Company Ltd. (2018) 13 SCC 119, the Hon'ble Supreme Court had awarded a sum of Rs. 5,00,000/- for the loss of amenities and enjoyment of life. Thus, having regard to the totality of circumstances of the petitioner herein we award a sum of Rs. 2,00,000/- towards loss of amenities and enjoyment of life.

28. Thus, the total compensation awarded under different heads are as under:

S. NO.	Compensation	Amount (In Rupees)
a	Loss of Earning due to Disability	Rs. 28,58,416/-
b	Compensation for Medical Expenses	Rs. 2,00,000/-
c	Future Medical Expenses	Rs. 1,92,000/-
d	Attendant Charges	Rs. 3,84,000/-
e	Loss of Conveyance and Special Diet	Rs. 50,000/-
f	Pain and Suffering	Rs. 2,00,000/-
g	Marriage Prospects	Rs. 3,00,000/-
h	Loss of Amenities and Enjoyment	Rs. 2,00,000/-
	Total	Rs. 43,84,416/-

29. Thus, the petitioner is entitled for a total compensation of Rs. 43,84,416/- with simple interest @ 6% per annum from the date of filing of claim application till realisation of the same, adjusting the amount earlier paid to the petitioner by the respondents. Out of the aforesaid amount of Rs. 43,84,416/- an amount of Rs. 5,81,000/- has already been paid by the respondent no. 2 to the petitioner. Out of the aforesaid total amount of compensation, a sum of Rs. 25,00,000/- shall be kept in the highest interest bearing Fixed Deposit

Account in a Nationalised Bank in the name of the petitioner, with interest payable on monthly basis to enable the petitioner to meet her day-to-day expenses and maintenance. In case of some emergent requirements, the petitioner may be permitted to withdraw 25 percent of the said amount. The interest and the balance amount of compensation after adjusting the amount already paid, shall be paid to the petitioner directly within two months from the date of production of a certified copy of this order.

30. With the aforesaid direction the writ petition is allowed to the extent indicated above.

(2023) 4 ILRA 124
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 24.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE UMESH CHANDRA SHARMA, J.

Writ C No. 49599 of 2011

U.P. State Warehousing Corporation, Rambagh, Bareilly ...Petitioner
Versus
Employee Provident Fund, Appellate Authority & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Abhishek Mishra, Sri Abhishek Mishra, Sri K.N. Mishra, Sri Ashish Jaiswal

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Sri Dhananjay Awasthi, Sri D.K. Pandey, Ms. Bushra Maryam, Sri Ramnath, S.C., Sri Sachindra Upadhyay, Sri Y.K. Sinha, Sri K.K. Pandey

क. केन्द्रीय कर्मचारी भविश्य निधि अधिनियम, 1952 – धारा 2.एफ एवं 7.ए – ठेके के कर्मचारी को पी0 एफ0 के भुगतान की देनदारी – कर्मचारी पर पर्यवेक्षण (सुपरविजन) एवं नियंत्रण, कितना महत्त्वपूर्ण – क्या ठेके के कर्मचारी, निगम के कर्मचारी माने जाएंगे – अभिनिर्धारित किया गया, बिना साक्ष्य के यह तय कर पाना संभव नहीं होगा कि ठेका कर्मचारियों का कोई सुपरविजन व कंट्रोल याची.निगम का था या नहीं और क्या ऐसे कर्मचारियों का पी0 एफ0 अं ादान की देयता याची.निगम की है अथवा ठेकेदार की है – इस बिन्दु पर आयुक्त एवं ट्रिब्यूनल द्वारा कोई स्पश्ट आदे ा नहीं किया गया है – हाईकोर्ट ने दि ाानिर्दे ा देने के साथ मामले को सहायक भविश्य निधि आयुक्त को वापस कर दिया। (पैरा 10, 11, 12 एवं 13)

रिट याचिका आं िाक रूप से स्वीकृत (म.1)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Umesh Chandra Sharma, J.)

1. याची की ओर से विद्वान अधिवक्ता, श्री अभिषेक मिश्रा एवं विपक्षी तरफ से विद्वान अधिवक्ता श्री सचिन उपाध्याय, वाई०के० सिन्हा एवं कु० बुश्रा मरियम को सुना।

2. संक्षेप में वाद के तथ्य यह हैं कि वर्तमान रिट याचिका उ०प्र० राज्य वेयर हाउसिंग कॉरपोरेशन द्वारा औद्योगिक न्यायाधिकरण (केन्द्रीय) की अपील ए०टी०ए० सं०-570 (14)/2004 में पारित आदेश दिनाँक 03.08.2010 को चुनौती इस आधार पर दी गयी है कि धारा 7-ए, केन्द्रीय कर्मचारी भविष्य निधि अधिनियम, 1952 के अन्तर्गत सुनवाई करते हुए गलत तरीके से ठेका कर्मचारियों को उ०प्र० राज्य भण्डारण निगम का कर्मचारी मानकर पी०एफ० की देनदारी निर्धारित की गयी है। जबकि इस सम्बन्ध में औद्योगिक न्यायाधिकरण (प्रथम), इलाहाबाद द्वारा अभि० वाद सं0-89/2006 एवं 03/2009 में यह अभिनिर्णीत किया गया है कि ठेका कर्मचारी निगम

के कर्मचारी माने जायेंगे और समस्त लाभ पाने के अधिकारी होंगे। उपरोक्त अभिनिर्णय को निगम द्वारा रिट याचिका संख्या-72314/2010 से चुनौती दी गयी जिसमें इस न्यायालय द्वारा यह कहा गया कि ठेका कर्मचारी निगम के कर्मचारी नहीं हैं और कोई लाभ पाने के अधिकारी नहीं हैं। इस आधार पर सेवायोजकों ने धारा 7-ए के कार्यवाही के दौरान माननीय उच्च न्यायालय के आदेश दिनाँक 15.05.2013 की प्रति प्रस्तुत करके यह कहा है कि ठेका कर्मचारी निगम के कर्मचारी नहीं हैं। और उनके पी०एफ० की देनदारी नहीं बनती है।

3. सेवायोजकों द्वारा प्रस्तुत तथ्यों को सहायक आयुक्त कर्मचारी भविष्य निधि ने बल न पाते हुये आदेश दिनाँक 06.05.2004 द्वारा सेवायोजकों को 15 दिन में पी०एफ० की धनराशि जमा करने के निर्देश दिये। इस आदेश को याची द्वारा अधिनियम की धारा 7-आई के अन्तर्गत कर्मचारी भविष्य निधि अपीलेट le 10:53ट्रिब्यूनल, नई दिल्ली के समक्ष अपील दाखिल की गयी जो ए०टी०ए० नं० 570 (14)/2004 के रूप में पंजीकृत होकर सुनी गयी। अपीलेट ट्रिब्यूनल द्वारा पक्षों को सुनने के उपरान्त आदेश दिनाँक 03.08.2010 द्वारा सेवायोजकों के अपील में बल न पाते हुये अपील निस्तारित कर दी जिसे याची द्वारा वर्तमान याचिका में चुनौती दी गयी।

4. इस न्यायालय के अंतरिम आदेश दिनांक 30.08.2011 द्वारा इस शर्त पर कि यदि सेवायोजक विपक्षी द्वारा संगणित धनराशि को भविष्य निधि आयुक्त के समक्ष एक माह में जमा करें तो उसके विरूद्ध कोई दण्डात्मक कार्यवाही नहीं होगी और यदि एक माह में पैसा जमा नहीं किया जाता है तो अन्तरिम आदेश का लाभ सेवायोजक को प्राप्त नहीं होगा।

5. विपक्षी संख्या-2 द्वारा अपना प्रति शपथपत्र प्रस्तुत कर यह कहा गया कि अधिनियम की धारा 2-एफ के अंतर्गत सभी कर्मचारी जैसे-रेगुलर, कैजुअल, कांट्रेक्टर या पीस-रेटेड कर्मचारी, कर्मचारी की भाषा में आवृत होते हैं और उनका पी-एफ० का अंशदान देय है। विपक्षी संख्या-2 द्वारा यह भी कहा गया कि रिट के प्रस्तर-11 व 12 में उल्लिखित रिट याचिका का कोई सम्बन्ध भविष्य निधि संगठन से नहीं है, यह भी कहा गया है कि वर्मतान याची मुख्य सेवायोजक ठेका कर्मचारियों के नियोजक की परिभाषा में आवृत्त होता है और उनके द्वारा पी०एफ० के अंशदान का भुगतान किया जाना है। प्रतिवादी द्वारा धारा 7-ए के अंतर्गत पारित आदेश को सही कहा गया है।

6. प्रतिवादी संख्या 3 जो कि कर्मचारियों की यूनियन है के द्वारा भी अपना प्रति शपथपत्र प्रस्तुत करके कहा गया है कि वे याची के यहाँ कार्य करते हैं और उनके द्वारा की गयी शिकायत पर प्रतिवादी संख्या 1 व 2 ने संज्ञान लेते हुये जाँच करके नियमानुसार देनदारी की संगणना की है। याची द्वारा अपने रिज्वाइन्डर एफिडेविट प्रस्तुत किया गया।

7. वर्तमान याचिका को माननीय न्यायमूर्ति देवेन्द्र प्रताप सिंह द्वारा सुनकर दिनाँक 28.07.2013 को याचिका स्वीकार करते हुये आक्षेपित आदेश दिनाँक 03.08.2010 एवं 02.12.2002 को अपास्त किया गया।

8. उक्त आदेश के विरुद्ध सहायक भविष्य निधि आयुक्त, इ०पी०एफ०ओ० बरेली द्वारा माननीय उच्चतम न्यायालय के समक्ष एस०एल०पी० (सी) संख्या •3458/2015 प्रस्तुत की जो बाद में सिविल अपील संख्या 6295 वर्ष 2019 हो गयी।

9. माननीय उच्चतम न्यायालय अपने दिनांक 14.08.2019 द्वारा वर्तमान अपील स्वीकार करते हुए आदेश दिनाँक 15.05.2013 को कानूनन दूषित मानते हुये याचिका को पुनः सुनवाई हेतु इस न्यायालय को वापस की गयी और यह कहा गया कि उच्च न्यायालय (रिट कोर्ट) पक्षों को पुनः सुनकर नवीन आदेश पारित करे और ऐसा करते समय वह कर्मचारी की परिभाषा जैसा कि अधिनियम की धारा 2-एफ में दी गयी है को विचार करते हुये उस आलोक में देखे कि धारा 7- ए में पारित आदेश सही है अथवा नहीं।

10. माननीय उच्चतम न्यायालय द्वारा पारित रिमाण्ड आदेश दिनाँक 14.08.2019 के बाद याचिका पुनः सुनवाई हेतु सूचीबद्ध की गयी और पक्षों को सुना गया तथा पत्रावली का गहन अवलोकन किया गया। वर्तमान याचिका में मूल विवादित प्रश्न यह है कि क्या ठेके के कर्मचारी निगम के कर्मचारी माने जायेंगे और उनके पी०एफ० के अंशदान की जिम्मेदारी किसकी होगी। इस सम्बन्ध में सेवायोजकों ने यह साबित करने का प्रयत्न किया है कि उनके द्वारा अपने पंजीकृत ठेकेदारों द्वारा लोडिंग अनलोडिंग का कार्य लिया जाता है और उनका भुगतान कांट्रेक्टर को प्रस्तुत बिल के माध्यम से किया जाता है। सेवायोजकों का तर्क है कि उनका किसी प्रकार से कंट्रोल और सुपरविजन संबंधित कर्मचारियों के ऊपर नहीं रहता है।

11 वर्तमान परिस्थितियों में बिना साक्ष्य के यह तय कर पाना संभव नहीं होगा कि ठेका कर्मचारियों का कोई सुपरविजन व कंट्रोल याची का था या नहीं और क्या ऐसे कर्मचारियों का पी०एफ० अंशदान की देयता याची निगम की है अथवा ठेकेदार की है। न्यायालय द्वारा पक्षों से यह पूँछे जाने पर कि क्या कोई ऐसा अभिलेख पत्रावली पर उपलब्ध है कि श्रमिकों/ठेकेदार/निगम की कोई मौखिक साक्ष्य धारा 7-ए में जाँच करते

समय करायी गयी है अथवा नहीं। इस पर पक्षगण मौन रहे। सहायक भविष्य निधि आयुक्त ने भी यह उल्लिखित किया है कि प्रवर्तन अधिकारियों द्वारा कोई भी रिकार्ड जाँच के लिए प्रस्तुत नहीं किया गया।

12 मेरे द्वारा गहन अध्ययन करने पर यह पाया गया कि सहायक भविष्य निधि ' आयुक्त द्वारा धारा 7-ए में एवं अपीलीय ट्रिब्यूनल द्वारा अपना कोई सुस्पष्ट आदेश इस बिन्दु पर पारित नहीं किया है तथा उक्त के अभाव में वर्तमान विवाद का निस्तारण किया गया है।

आदेश

13. अतः सेवायोजक द्वारा प्रस्तुत वर्तमान याचिका आंशिक रूप से स्वीकार करते हुए आदेश दिनाँक 03.08.2010 एवं 02.12.2002 को निरस्त किया जाता है और प्रकरण प्रतिवादी संख्या 2, सहायक भविष्य निधि आयुक्त को इस निर्देश के साथ वापस किया जाता है। वह आदेश की प्राप्ति के 6 माह के अन्दर पक्षों को सुनवाई का अवसर देते हुये साक्ष्यों (लिखित व मौखिक), के आधार पर मुखर आदेश पारित करें। याचिका में पारित अन्तरिम आदेश दिनांक 30.08.2011 द्वारा जमा की गयी धनराशि अन्तिम निर्णय तक विपक्षी संख्या 01 के पास सुरक्षित रहेगी।

(2023) 4 ILRA 126
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 15.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MANISH MATHUR, J.

Matters Under Article 227 No. 27 of 2021

Oriental Insurance Co. Ltd. ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Anchal Mishra

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Rinku Verma

A. Insurance Law – Compensation - Claim for compensation, which is the basic cause of action, arises only upon death of the insured. As such the issue of accident which precedes death of the insured is only a condition precedent for the purposes of entertainability of the claim and it is only death of insured arising from an accident which gives rise to cause of action to nominee/legal heir of the insured.

A perusal of Part-I of the agreement dated 14.09.2016 makes it evident that in case of death arising out of an accident pertaining to Head/Bread Earner of a family during course of insurance policy/scheme, the Insurance Company is required to compensate the nominee/legal heirs of deceased to the tune of Rs.5,00,000/-. The stipulation also indicates that the death should have occasioned during the course of insurance scheme. (Para 10, 11)

In the present case, it is apparent that although accident has occurred prior to enforcement of the scheme on 14.09.2016 but the death of the insured, late Usman Khan has occurred on 17.09.2016 which was after enforcement of the insurance scheme on 14.09.2016. Clearly, the nominees/legal heirs of the deceased were entitled to maintain a claim in accordance with the scheme since death has occasioned during the subsistence of agreement dated 14.09.2016. To that effect, the claim of opposite parties 3 to 6 was wrongly rejected by the Insurance Company. (Para 12)

B. Double Jeopardy – When claim is made in terms of mutually agreed and binding contract, it is only the conditions of contract which are adhered to without imposition of extraneous considerations. As such, once a penalty is clearly indicated under the contract for a party to fulfill in case of breach of contract, it is only that penalty which can be imposed and in the considered opinion of this Court, no further penalty or costs can be imposed which is beyond the terms and conditions of such contract. (Para 18)

Agreement dated 14.09.2016 provides for imposition of penalty upon the Insurance Company in case payment is not made to claimant in accordance with the terms and conditions of the agreement. It appears that earlier an amount of Rs.2500/- per week had been imposed as penalty, which was subsequently reduced to Rs.1,000/- per week. (Para 14)

By means of impugned order, while the Permanent Lok Adalat has imposed the aforesaid penalty, at the same time interest at the rate of 9% has also been imposed upon the Insurance Company. It is apparent that neither any statutory provision has been indicated for grant of interest nor does agreement dated 14.09.2016 stipulate grant of any interest. As such, grant of interest over and above the penalty clearly amounts not only to Double Jeopardy but unjust enrichment and is unsustainable. (Para 16, 19)

Writ petition partly allowed. Order dated 27.12.2019 is set aside only to the extent of grant of interest on the claimed amount. (E-4)

Precedent followed:

Shameena Khatoon & ors. Vs The Oriental Insurance Co. Ltd. & ors., PLA Case No. 15 of 2018 (Para 22)

Present petition challenges the order dated 27.12.2019, passed by the Permanent Lok Adalat, Lucknow whereby the claim of private parties for seeking compensation in terms of the Mukhya Mantri Kisan Evam Sarvhit Bima Yojna has been allowed.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Manish Mathur, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for petitioner, learned State Counsel for opposite parties 1 and 2 and Mr. Rinku Verma, learned counsel for opposite parties 3 to 6.

2. Petition has been filed under Article 227 of the Constitution of India challenging order dated 27.12.2019 passed in PLA Case No.15 of 2018 by the Permanent Lok Adalat, Lucknow whereby claim of private opposite parties for seeking compensation in terms of the Mukhya Mantri Kisan Evam Sarvhit Bima Yojna has been allowed.

3. Learned counsel for petitioner submits that aforesaid scheme of the State Government was floated in which various insurance companies were a party to the memorandum of understanding for the purposes of providing services for implementation of the said insurance scheme for indemnifying farmers of the State from accident and death arising therefrom.

4. Learned counsel for petitioner submits that agreement was entered into between the petitioner-company and the State on 14.09.2016. It is further submitted that the said scheme was to be implemented with effect from the date it was entered into and as per provisions of the scheme, in case of death arising out of an accident pertaining to head of family/bread earner of family during the operation of the agreement, the insurance company was bound to make compensation at the rate of R.5,00,000/- to the nominee/legal heir.

5. It is submitted that in the present case, admittedly the predecessor in interest of opposite parties 3 to 6, Late Usman Khan was involved in an accident on 12.09.2016 and as a result thereof, passed away on 17.09.2016. It has been submitted that upon claim being made by legal heirs of Late Usman Khan, the same was rejected by the insurance company on 23.02.2017 on the ground that accident resulting in death of Late Usman Khan took place on 12.09.2016, which was prior to enforcement of agreement dated 14.09.2016. As such, the said incident was not covered within the insurance period.

6. Learned counsel for petitioner submits that since the cause of action, i.e. the accident occurred on 12.09.2016, which was prior to enforcement of insurance agreement dated 14.09.2016, the claim of answering opposite parties has been rightly rejected. It is further submitted that the date of death of Late Usman Khan would be totally immaterial since cause of action has accrued to answering opposite party due to the accident which took place on 12.09.2016. Learned counsel has also adverted to the fact that by means of impugned order, the petitioner-insurance company has been put to double jeopardy since penalty amounting to Rs.1,000/- per week as provided in the agreement has been imposed along with interest at the rate of 9% per annum, which could not have been done since award of interest is beyond the stipulations indicated in agreement dated 14.09.2016.

7. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of opposite parties 3 to 6 has refuted the submissions advanced by learned counsel for petitioner with the submission that a perusal of agreement dated 14.09.2016 makes it evident that claim for compensation in terms of aforesaid insurance scheme arises from the date of death of an insured and not from the date of accident and as such cause of action will accrue from the date of death and not from the date of accident as is being submitted by learned counsel for petitioner. Learned counsel has also adverted to Part-I of the agreement dated 14.09.2016 to indicate the specific provision with regard to same.

8. With regard to double jeopardy, it is submitted that agreement dated 14.09.2016 itself stipulates grant of penalty in case compensation is not made upon claim being made under the scheme. It is submitted that the grant of penalty is an issue separate from grant of interest which is awarded in terms of the Interest Act, 1978.

9. Upon consideration of submissions advanced by learned counsel for the parties and perusal of material on record, the two questions requiring adjudication, are as under:-

(i) Whether cause of action would accrue to a claimant under the scheme from the date of accident or from the date of death as a result of accident?

(ii) Whether award of interest in addition to penalty indicated in the agreement amounts to double jeopardy?

Question No.(i) : Whether cause of action would accrue to a claimant under the scheme from the date of accident or from the date of death as a result of accident?

10. With regard to question no.(i), a perusal of Part-I of the agreement dated 14.09.2016 makes it evident that in case of death arising out of an accident pertaining to Head/Bread Earner of a family during course of insurance policy/scheme, the Insurance Company is required to compensate the nominee/legal heirs of deceased to the tune of Rs.5,00,000/-. The relevant provision reads as under:-

"दुर्घटना में मृत्यु– यदि दुर्घटना के कारण परिवार के मुखिया/रोटी अर्जक की मृत्यु बीमा अवधि के दौरान हो जाती है तो बीमा कम्पनी सम्पूर्ण बीमित राशि रू0 5.00 लाख का भुगतान नामिनी/कानूनी वारिश को करेगी।"

11. Evidently, although as per aforesaid clause, accident from which death has occasioned is an essential ingredient for fulfilling the claim of compensation as per insurance scheme, a reading of the said provision makes it evident that cause of action for filing a claim for compensation arises only in case of death due to a previous accident. The stipulation also indicates that the death should have occasioned during the course of insurance scheme. As such, a bare reading of the provision makes it evident that claim for compensation, which is the basic cause of action, arises only upon death of the insured. As such the issue of accident which precedes death of the insured is only a condition precedent for the purposes of entertainability of the claim and it is only death of insured arising from an accident which gives rise to cause of action to nominee/legal heir of the insured.

12. In the present case, it is apparent that although accident has occurred prior to enforcement of the scheme on 14.09.2016 but the death of the insured, late Usman Khan has occurred on 17.09.2016 which was after enforcement of the insurance scheme on 14.09.2016. Clearly, the nominees/legal heirs of the deceased were entitled to maintain a claim in accordance with the scheme since death has occasioned during the subsistence of agreement dated 14.09.2016. To that effect, the claim of opposite parties 3 to 6 was wrongly rejected by the Insurance Company.

13. Question no.(i) is answered accordingly in favour of claimant.

Question No.(ii) : Whether award of interest in addition to penalty indicated in the agreement amounts to double jeopardy?

14. With regard to the second question, it transpires that agreement dated 14.09.2016 provides for imposition of penalty upon the Insurance Company in case payment is not made to claimant in accordance with the terms and conditions of the agreement. It appears that earlier an amount of Rs.2500/- per week had been imposed as penalty, which was subsequently reduced to Rs.1,000/- per week.

15. Apparently, the imposition of penalty upon the Insurance Company is a measure not only of encouragement to adhere to the terms and conditions of the agreement but is also in the nature of cost imposed upon the Insurance Company in case the claim is wrongly repudiated and compensation is not made to the nominee/legal heir of the insured.

16. By means of impugned order, while the Permanent Lok Adalat has imposed the aforesaid penalty, at the same time interest at the rate of 9% has also been imposed upon the Insurance Company.

17. It is trite that when claims are made and are to be decided in terms of a contract, it is only the conditions of contract which are required to be adhered to. The court concerned cannot on its own volition impose a condition which is not contemplated in the agreement. In the present case, it appears that a steep penalty of Rs.1000/- per week has been imposed upon insurance Company for repudiating or not providing compensation in terms of the insurance scheme. Award of penalty by Permanent Lok Adalat as such appears to be in conformity with agreement dated 14.09.2016. However, so far as award of interest at the rate of 9 percent per annum is concerned, the Permanent Lok Adalat in its impugned order does not indicate any provision or condition of agreement under which interest has been awarded over and above penalty imposed in terms of the agreement nor does the agreement contain any clause regarding payment of interest to claimant over and above the penalty clause. As such, in the considered opinion of this Court, the permanent Lok Adalat travelled beyond the conditions of agreement dated 14.09.2016 in granting interest while ignoring the fact that a steep penalty of Rs.1,000/- per week has already been imposed and is payable by the Insurance Company in terms of the agreement.

18. As has been indicated herein above that when claim is made in terms of mutually agreed and binding contract, it is only the conditions of contract which are adhered to without imposition of extraneous considerations. As such, once a penalty is clearly indicated under the contract for a party to fulfill in case of breach of contract, it is only that penalty which can be imposed and in the considered opinion of this Court, no further penalty or costs can be imposed which is beyond the terms and conditions of such contract.

19. In the present case, it is apparent that neither any statutory provision has been indicated for grant of interest nor does agreement dated 14.09.2016 stipulate grant of any interest. As such, grant of interest over and above the penalty clearly amounts not only to Double Jeopardy but unjust enrichment and is unsustainable.

20. In view of aforesaid, Question no.(ii) is answered in favour of petitioner-Insurance Company.

21. In terms of aforesaid, order dated 27.12.2019 passed in PLA Case No.15 of 2018(Shameena Khatoon & others v. The Oriental Insurance Co. Ltd. & others) is set aside only to the extent of grant of interest on the claimed amount.

22. The petition as such is partly allowed in terms of aforesaid. Parties shall bear their own costs.

(2023) 4 ILRA 130
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 28.02.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE UMESH CHANDRA SHARMA, J.

Application U/S 482. No. 39133 of 2022

Rishipal ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Sri Vinod Kumar Pandey, Sri Piyush Kumar Shukla

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A., Sri Sanjeet Kumar Mishra

(A) Criminal Law - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 147, 148, 307, 323, 504, 506 & 452 - Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Section 156 (3) - For offense under Section 307 IPC - Not necessary for the accused to have injuries - criminal state of mind, motive and attempt of accused must be seen - to determine if the accused has an intention to commit murder - Injury caused by which weapon and on which part of the body can also be used to determine - whether the accused has an intention to commit murder.(Para -7)

Charge sheet and cognizance order under challenge - Injuries not of a serious nature - applicant had no intention of killing his own brother - applicant/accused filed a civil suit - pre-existing enmity between two parties - applicant also filed a F.I.R. against complainant under Section 156 (3) of Cr.P.C. - allegation - accused kept committing crimes against him - to grab his land - just because he is old and has only daughters. (Para -2,7,17)

HELD:-Facts recorded in F.I.R. corroborated by oral , documentary and medical records. Even if the complainant and his relatives wanted to grab the property of the applicant/accused, such intention does not give the applicant/accused the right to cause the incident. (Para - 14)

Application u/s 482 Cr.P.C. dismissed. (E-7)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Umesh Chandra Sharma, J.)

1. प्रार्थी के विद्वान अधिवक्ता श्री विनोद कुमार पाण्डेय, विपक्षी संख्या-2 के विद्वान अधिवक्ता श्री संजीत कुमार मिश्रा तथा विद्वान अपर शासकीय अधिवक्ता श्री पंकज कुमार त्रिपाठी को ध्यानपूर्वक सुना गया तथा पत्रावली का अवलोकन किया गया।

2. प्रार्थी अभियुक्त ऋषिपाल ने धारा 482 दं०प्र०सं० के अंतर्गत सत्र वाद संख्या 1149 वर्ष 2021, अपराध संख्या 117 वर्ष 2021, अंतर्गत धारा 307 एवं 452 भा०दं०सं०, थाना नागल, जनपद सहारनपुर के बाद में प्रस्तुत चार्जशीट एवं संज्ञान आदेश दिनांकित 07.09.2021 को खण्डित करने के लिए यह प्रार्थनापत्र प्रस्तुत किया है। उक्त सत्र बाद अपर सत्र न्यायाधीश देवबंद जनपद सहारनपुर के न्यायालय में लंबित है।

1. संक्षेप में प्रार्थी ने यह आधार लिया है कि दिनांक 06.06.2021 को कथित घटित घटना के संबंध में एक दिन विलंब से दिनांक 07.06.2021 को प्रथम सूचना रिपोर्ट बिलंब का स्पष्टीकरण दिये बगैर पंजीकृत कराया गया है।

2. चोटें धर्मस्थल पर पायी गई, परन्तु वह गम्भीर प्रकृति की नहीं है।

3. प्रार्थी का अपने सगे भाई को जान से मारने का कोई आशय नहीं था।

4. विवेचक ने पर्याप्त साक्ष्य एकत्रित किये बगैर तथा साक्षीगण के बयान पर विचार किये बगैर अनुचित विवेचना करते हुए अवैध आरोपपत्र प्रस्तुत किया है।

5. प्रार्थी 77 वर्षीय वृद्ध व्यक्ति है, जो वृद्धावस्था की बीमारियों से ग्रस्त है तथा उसकी चिकित्सा चल रही है।

6. प्रार्थी ने भी शिकायतकर्ता के विरुद्ध प्रथम सूचना रिपोर्ट धारा 156 (3) दं०प्र०सं० के अंतर्गत अपराध संख्या 92 वर्ष 2022, अंतर्गत धारा 147, 148, 504, 506, 307 एवं 323 भा०दं०स० के अंतर्गत संबंधित थाने में दर्ज कराया है कि वृद्धावस्था एवं मात्र लड़कियाँ होने के कारण उसकी जमीन को हड़पने के लिए अभियुक्तगण उसके प्रति ऐसा अपराध करते रहते हैं।

7. प्रार्थी को प्रश्नगत अपराध करने की कोई भूमिका प्रदान नहीं की गई है।

8. प्रार्थी की कोई पूर्व आपराधिक इतिहास नहीं है।

9. सम्पूर्ण साक्ष्य के आधार पर धारा 307 एवं 452 भा०दं०सं० का अपराध उसके विरुद्ध नहीं बनता।

3. यह निवेदन किया गया कि उपरोक्त आधारों पर यह प्रार्थनापत्र स्वीकार कर प्रश्नगत आरोपपत्र दिनांकित 12.08.2021 खण्डित किया जाए।

4. पत्रावली पर उपलब्ध साक्ष्य से यह निष्कर्ष निकलता है कि घटना दिनांक 06.06.2021 के 3.50 बजे अपराह्न की कही जाती है। जिसके संबंध में दूसरे दिन अर्थात् दिनांक 07.06.2021 को 03.37 बजे अपराह्न प्रथम सूचना रिपोर्ट नामित अभियुक्त के विरुद्ध लाठी में जड़े हुए गड़ासे से अपने भाई चुटैल वादी के पिता राजपाल त्यागी के शरीर के मर्मस्थल पर हत्या करने के आशय से चोटें कारित करने के संबंध में पंजीकृत कराया गया।

5. प्रथम सूचना रिपोर्ट से यह ज्ञात होता है कि शिकायतकर्ता ने सर्वप्रथम अपने पिता की जान बचाना आवश्यक समझा यद्यपि उसकी भतीजी खुशी ने घटना की सूचना घटना के तत्काल उपरान्त 112 नंबर पर पुलिस को दे दिया था तथा शिकायतकर्ता अपने दो अन्य मित्रों के साथ चुटैल को गाड़ी में डालकर थाने में ले गये तथा वहाँ से प्राथमिक स्वास्थ्य केंद्र नागल ले गये तथा प्राथमिक उपचार करा कर सहारनपुर सरकारी अस्पताल ले गये तथा सहारनपुर के सरकारी अस्पताल के चिकित्सकों ने चुटैल की गम्भीर हालत को देखते हुए उन्हें अन्य उच्चीकृत चिकित्सा केंद्र में ले जाने की सलाह दी, तब शिकायतकर्ता चुटैल को मैक्स अस्पताल देहरादून ले गया, वहाँ भी चिकित्सकों ने चुटैल की गम्भीर स्थिति

को देखते हुए डिस्चार्ज कर दिया तथा किसी अन्य बड़े अस्पताल में ले जाने के लिए कहा तब वह चुटैल को मेरठ कैलाशी अस्पताल मेरठ बाईपास पर ले गये जहाँ चुटेल की चिकित्सा चल रही है एवं तदुपरान्त वह प्रथम सूचना रिपोर्ट दर्ज कराने थाने आ सका।

6. उक्त से यह स्पष्ट है कि घटना के उपरान्त जिस प्रकार प्रार्थी अपने पिता चुटैल की चिकित्सा में व्यस्त रहा तथा फुर्सत पाते ही तत्काल प्रथम सूचना रिपोर्ट दूसरे दिन पंजीकृत कराया तो इसमें कोई अनुचित विलंब नहीं है, जो भी विलंब हुआ है, तत्संबंधी परिस्थितियों का समुचित स्पष्टीकरण स्वयं प्रथम सूचना रिपोर्ट में ही वर्णित है। उक्त के विरुद्ध प्रार्थी द्वारा कोई अन्य तथ्य इंगित अथवा प्रस्तुत नहीं किया जा सका।

7. प्रार्थी की तरफ से यह तर्क प्रस्तुत किया गया कि यद्यपि चोटें शरीर के मर्मस्थल पर हैं। परन्तु वह गम्भीर प्रकृति की नहीं हैं। इस न्यायालय के मतानुसार धारा 307 भा०दं०सं० का अपराध कारित करने के लिए चोटें भी होना आवश्यक नहीं हैं। मात्र अभियुक्त की आपराधिक मनःस्थिति, हेतुक एवं प्रयास देखा जाना चाहिए तथा यदि चोटें आयी हैं तो वह किस हथियार से आयी हैं तथा वह शरीर के किस भाग पर हैं, इसको देखते हुए भी यह अवधारित किया जा सकता है कि क्या अभियुक्त का हत्या करने का आशय एवं ज्ञान था। अथवा नहीं।

8. इस संबंध में पत्रावली पर उपलब्ध चिकित्सकीय साक्ष्य से यह स्पष्ट होता है कि चुटैल के शरीर के मर्मस्थल पर जैसे दाहिनी भौंह पर दाहिने कान के पिना पर तथा गर्दन पर धारदार हथियार से कटे हुए घाव (Incised Wound) पाये गए। चिकित्सक के अनुसार ऐसी चोटें धारदार हथियार से कारित की गई थी तथा अभियोजन के अनुसार प्रार्थी /अभियुक्त ने लाठी में लगे हुए गड़ासे जैसे धारदार हथियार से चुटैल को चोटें पहुँचाई थीं। यह भी अंकित है कि सभी चोटें ताजा तथा गम्भीर प्रकृति की थी। इस प्रकार यह सिद्ध होता है कि प्रार्थनापत्र के साथ संलग्न शपथपत्र में प्रार्थी द्वारा यह झूठा तथ्य वर्णित है कि चोटें गम्भीर प्रकृति की नहीं हैं। उस दशा में और भी महत्वपूर्ण हैं, जबकि अत्याधुनिक चिकित्सा प्रदान किये जाने के उपरान्त भी चुटैल 16 तारीख को 9 दिन के उपरान्त अस्पताल से डिस्चार्ज हो सका। इससे प्रथमदृष्टया यह निष्कर्ष निकलता है कि यदि चुटैल को तत्काल अच्छी चिकित्सा न दी गई होती तो उसकी मृत्यु संभावित थी।

9. प्रार्थी की तरफ से यह तर्क प्रस्तुत किया गया कि चुटैल उसका सगा छोटा भाई है तथा प्रार्थी अभियुक्त का उसकी हत्या कारित करने का कोई आशय नहीं था। इस संबंध में पत्रावली पर उपलब्ध साक्ष्य से यह निष्कर्ष निकलता है कि चूंकि गड़ासे जैसे धारदार हथियार से चुटैल के मर्मस्थल पर चोटें पहुंचाई गई थीं, अतः यह निष्कर्ष निकाला जा सकता है कि प्रार्थी / अभियुक्त का चुटैल की हत्या करने का आपराधिक आशय विद्यमानः था।

10. प्रार्थी/ अभियुक्त ने विवेचक पर यह आरोप लगाया है कि उसने पर्याप्त साक्ष्य एकत्रित किये बगैर तथा साक्षीगण के बंधान का उचित विश्लेषण किये बगैर अवैध तरीके से विवेचना करते हुए गलत आरोपपत्र प्रस्तुत किया है। इस संबंध में विपक्षी की तरफ से यह तर्क प्रस्तुत किया गया कि प्रथम सूचना रिपोर्ट में प्रार्थी /अभियुक्त नामित व्यक्ति है, वह वादी का सगा बड़ा ताऊ तथा चुटैल का सगा बड़ा भाई है तथा घटना दिन की है। अतः उसके न पहचानने का कोई प्रश्न उत्पन्न नहीं होता। यह भी तर्क प्रस्तुत किया गया कि अभियोजन केस एवं कथानक तथा प्रथम सूचना रिपोर्ट के तथ्यों का समर्थन साक्षीगण ने अपने बयान में किया है तथा उनका समर्थन चिकित्सकीय साक्ष्य से भी होता है, अतः यह नहीं कहा जा सकता कि विवेचक ने बिना पर्याप्त साक्ष्य एकत्रित किये तथा साक्षीगण के बयान को ध्यान में रखे बगैर गलत तरीके से विवेचना कर गलत आरोपपत्र प्रस्तुत किया है। यह न्यायालय विपक्षी के उक्त तर्क से पूर्णतया सहमत है।

11. प्रार्थी/ अभियुक्त की तरफ से यह तर्क लिया गया कि वह 77 वर्षीय वृद्ध व्यक्ति है तथा वृद्धावस्थाजनित रोगों से ग्रस्त है तथा उसकी चिकित्सा चल रही है। इस न्यायालय के मतानुसार किसी अभियुक्त का वृद्ध होना तथा वृद्धावस्थाजनित रोगों से ग्रस्त होना धारा 482] दं०प्र०सं० का प्रार्थनापत्र स्वीकार कर किसी आरोपपत्र एवं संज्ञान आदेश को निरस्त करने का कोई आधार नहीं है।

12. प्रार्थी/अभियुक्त ने यह कथन किया कि उसने भी शिकायतकर्ता एवं उसके परिजनों के विरुद्ध धारा 152 (3) दं०प्र०सं० के अंतर्गत अपराध संख्या 92 वर्ष 2022 में संबंधित थाने में धारा 147, 148, 504, 506, 307 एवं 323 भा०दं०सं० का प्रथम सूचना रिपोर्ट दर्ज कराया है। पत्रावली पर उक्त प्रथम सूचना रिपोर्ट के चिक एफ. आई. आर. की प्रतिलिपि को प्रस्तुत किया गया है, जिसके अनुसार घटना दिनांक 19.03.2022 के प्रातः 08.30 बजे की है तथा उसके संबंध में दिनांक 02.05.2022 को प्रथम सूचना रिपोर्ट दर्ज करायी गई है। प्रार्थी जहाँ 1 दिन विलंब से दर्ज प्रश्नगत बाद के प्रथम सूचना रिपोर्ट को विलंबित होना। कहता है वहीं इसका कोई स्पष्टीकरण नहीं देता कि क्योंकर दिनांक 19.03.2022 की घटना के संबंध में पुलिस द्वारा प्रथम सूचना रिपोर्ट दर्ज नहीं किया गया तथा क्यों उसे दिनांक 02.05.2022 को धारा 156 (3) दं०प्र०सं० के अंतर्गत प्रथम सूचना रिपोर्ट दर्ज करना पड़ा। यह भी महत्वपूर्ण है कि उसके प्रथम सूचना रिपोर्ट के घटना की तिथि दिनांक 19.03.2022 की कही जाती है जबकि प्रश्नगत मामले की घटना दिनांक 06.05.2021 की है, अतः इस कथित पश्चातवर्ती घटना के आधार पर वर्तमान मामले के आरोपपत्र एवं संज्ञान लिये जाने के आदेश को खण्डित करने का कोई आधार एवं औचित्य उत्पन्न नहीं होला।

13. प्रार्थी यह तर्क प्रस्तुत करता है कि उसका कोई पुत्र नहीं है तथा मात्र दो विवाहित पुत्रियाँ है, अतः परिवादी एवं उसके परिजन उसकी संपत्ति को हड़पना चाहते हैं, अतः उन्हें फर्जी मुकदमे में फंसा दिया है।

14. इस संबंध में पूर्व की विवेचना से यह पूर्णतया स्पष्ट है कि ऐसा नहीं है। त्वरित प्रथम सूचना रिपोर्ट में दर्ज तथ्यों की पुष्टि मौखिक अभिलेखीय एवं चिकित्सकीय प्रपत्रों से हुई है। घटना का जो भी कोई कारण हो, यदि शिकायतकर्ता एवं उसके परिजन प्रार्थी/ अभियुक्त की संपत्ति हड़पना चाह रहे थे तथा उनका यदि ऐसा आशय रहा भी हो तो ऐसा आशय प्रार्थी/ अभियुक्त को आरोपित घटना कारित करने का अधिकार प्रदान नहीं करता।

15. प्रार्थी ने यह तर्क लिया है कि उसको घटना कारित करने में भूमिका प्रदान नहीं की गई है। जो सर्वथा गलत आधार है। प्रथम सूचना रिपोर्ट से लेकर सभी मौखिक एवं अभिलेखीय साक्ष्य में इस घटना को कारित करने की एक मात्र भूमिका एवं उत्तरदायी व्यक्ति प्रार्थी को माना गया है। ऐसी दशा में इस प्रकार का निराधार तर्क लेने का कोई औचित्य नहीं है।

16. प्रार्थी/ अभियुक्त ने यह आधार लिया है कि वह शांतिप्रिय एवं कानून का पालन करने वाला व्यक्ति है, जिसका इस मामले के अतिरिक्त अन्य कोई आपराधिक इतिहास नहीं है। इस संबंध में विपक्षी की तरफ से स्वयं प्रार्थी / अभियुक्त दर्ज कराये गये प्रथम सूचना रिपोर्ट दिनांकित 02.05.2022 के तथ्यों पर बल दिया गया, जिसमें प्रार्थी / अभियुक्त ने स्वयं यह स्वीकार किया है कि वर्ष 2012 में उसके छोटे भाई राजपाल व भतीजे मनोज शिकायतकर्ता ने उसके हाथ की हड्डी तोड़ दिया था तथा उसे झूठे मुकदमे में जेल भिजवा दिया था। इससे स्पष्ट है कि वर्ष 2012 में भी प्रार्थी/ अभियुक्त के विरुद्ध कोई प्रथम सूचना रिपोर्ट दर्ज की गई। होगी अथवा परिवाद दर्ज कराया गया होगा, जिसमें पारित आदेश के अनुपालन में उसे जेल भेजा गया था।

17. प्रार्थी/ अभियुक्त ने अपने स्वयं दर्ज कराये गये प्रथम सूचना रिपोर्ट में यह स्वीकार किया है। कि उसने दीवानी का मुकदमा दर्ज कराया है, जिसके कारण वादी पक्ष उससे तथा उसकी लड़कियों से रंजिश रखते हैं। उक्त से इतना स्पष्ट है कि उभयपक्षों में पूर्व से दुश्मनी विद्यमान है, जो घटना को कारित करने का कारण भी हो सकता है तथा झूठा फंसाये जाने का भी, परन्तु इस संबंध में विचारण न्यायालय ही निष्कर्ष दे सकता है।

18. इस प्रकार उपरोक्त विवेचना के आधार पर यह निष्कर्ष निकलता है कि इस प्रार्थनापत्र अंतर्गत धारा 482 दं०प्र०सं० में लिये गये कोई भी आधार स्थापित नहीं होता तथा अनायास एवं निराधार तरीके से यह प्रार्थनापत्र प्रस्तुत किया गया है जिसमें धारा 482 दं०प्र०सं० के अंतर्गत इस न्यायालय को हस्तक्षेप करने का कोई युक्तियुक्त कारण, आधार एवं औचित्य प्रतीत नहीं होता। यह प्रार्थनापत्र अत्यंत गुणहीन है तथा उपरोक्तानुसार खण्डित किये जाने योग्य है।

आदेश

19. यह प्रार्थनापत्र अंतर्गत धारा 482 दं०प्र०सं० उपरोक्तानुसार खण्डित किया जाता है।

(2023) 4 ILRA 134
REVISIONAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 14.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MANISH MATHUR, J.

Civil Revision No. 7 of 2023

C/M Waqf Masjid & Anr. ...Revisionists
Versus
Waqf Tribunal, U.P. & Ors. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Revisionists:
Mohd. Shadab Khan

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
Syed Aftab Ahmad

A. Civil Law – Waqf Act, 1995 – Sections 3(k), 67(6) & 83(9) – Proceeding before the Waqf Tribunal – Who can sue – Plaintiff was removed from the post of Mutawalli – Effect – Person interested – Defined – Held, a person interested in a waqf is any person who is entitled to receive any pecuniary or other benefits from the waqf – Provision is inclusive of any person who has a right to offer prayer or perform any religious rite in a religious place as defined thereunder – Held further, despite the fact that revisionist was removed from his post as Mutawalli/Secretary of the managing committee of waqf, the application filed by him under Section 83(2) of the Act, 1995 in his individual capacity was clearly maintainable not only as a person interested in a waqf but also as a person aggrieved by order. (Para 10 and 18)

Revision allowed. (E-1)

List of Cases cited:

1. P. Kasilingam & ors. Vs P.S.G. College of Technology & ors.; 1995 Supp (2) SCC 348

2. N.D.P. Namboodripad Vs U.O.I.& ors.; (2007) 4 SCC 502

3. Ayaaubkhan Noorkhan Pathan Vs St. of Mah. & ors.; (2013) 4 SCC 465

(Delivered by Hon'ble Manish Mathur, J.)

1. Heard Mr. Mohd Shadab Khan learned counsel for revisionist and Mr. Syed Aftab Aftab Ahmad learned counsel for opposite parties 4 and 5. The opposite parties 1,2 and 3 being merely proforma in nature, notices are dispensed with.

2. Revision under Section 83(9) of the Waqf Act 1995 has been filed against order dated 26th December, 2022 passed in Case No. 37 of 2022 whereby the suit proceedings have been dismissed on the ground that it has become infructuous.

3. Learned counsel for revisionist submits that the aforesaid case had been filed before the Waqf Tribunal under Section 83(2) of the Act of 1995 against order dated 16th February, 2022 whereby the opposite party No.4 was inducted as a Member of the Committee of Management. It is submitted that the aforesaid suit was filed by the revisionist in his capacity as Mutawalli/Secretary of the Managing Committee of the Waqf as well as in his individual capacity. It is submitted that by means of impugned order, it has been noticed that subsequent to filing of the suit, the revisionist has been removed from the post of Mutawalli/Secretary by means of order dated 20th September, 2022 in terms of Section 67(6) of the Act, 1995 and therefore the cause of action having come to an end, the case itself was dismissed as infructuous.

4. Learned counsel for revisionist submits that the Waqf Tribunal has clearly erred in passing the impugned order while ignoring the fact that suit proceedings were maintainable in the individual capacity of revisionist apart from his status as Mutawalli/Secretary of the Committee of Management. He has adverted to Section 83(2), Section 32(2)g) and Section 3(i)(k) of the Waqf Act 1995 to submit that the revisionist would come within definition of not only a person interested but also a person aggrieved by the initial order and these are the aspects which have not been considered by the Tribunal by passing the impugned order.

5. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of opposite party No. 4 and 5 has submitted that it was on the application made by opposite party No.5 that the impugned order has been passed dismissing the case as having become infructuous. It is submitted that there is no error in the impugned order since the case was filed by the revisionist in his capacity as Mutawalli/Secretary of the Managing Committee of the waqf and since during pendency of proceedings, he was removed from the said post, the cause of action at the instance of revisionist came to an end since he lost his locus standi to maintain the suit. It is further submitted that the revisionist does not come within the definition of either any person interested in a waqf or any other person aggrieved by the order made under the Act and therefore the impugned order rejecting the suit as infructuous has been rightly passed.

6. Considering submissions advanced by learned counsel for parties, it is evident that a suit or proceeding can be instituted before a waqf tribunal in terms of Section 83(2) of the Act of 1995 which authorizes any mutawali or person interested in a waqf or any other person aggrieved by an order made under the Act or Rules made thereunder to make an application before the Tribunal within the specified time frame for determination of any dispute, question or other matter relating to waqf.

7. In the present case, admittedly the plaint was filed by revisionist not only in his capacity as Mutawalli/Secretary of the Managing Committee of waqf but also in his individual capacity. The order against which the suit proceedings were instituted is dated 16th February, 2022 pertaining to inclusion of opposite party No.4 as a member of the managing committee of the waqf. It is also admitted that during pendency of proceedings, revisionist was removed from his post of Mutawalli/Secretary of the managing committee of waqf vide order dated 20th September, 2022.

8. For the purposes of maintaining any proceeding before the waqf tribunal in terms of Section 83(2) of the Waqf Act of 1995, a person should either be a mutawalli, a person interested in a waqf or any other person aggrieved by an order made under the Act. Admittedly at the time of filing of proceedings, revisionist was a mutawalli. Question as such requiring adjudication is whether the revisionist would also come within definition of a person interested in a waqf as well as any other person aggrieved by order made under the Act ?

9. For the purposes of determination of aforesaid question, it is necessary to advert to definition of 'a person interested in a waqf' as defined under Section 3(k) of the Act, 1995 which is as follows:-

"3(k) "person interested in a [wakf]" means any person who is entitled to receive any pecuniary or other benefits from the [wakf]and includes--

(i) any person who has a right to [offer prayer] or to perform any religious rite in a mosque, idgah, imambara, dargah,[khanqah, peerkhana and Karbala], maqbara, graveyard or any other religious institution connected with the [wakf] or to participate in any religious or charitable institution under the [wakf];

(ii) the [wakif] and any descendant of the [wakif] and the mutawalli;"

10. Evidently a person interested in a waqf is any person who is entitled to receive any pecuniary or other benefits from the waqf. The provision is inclusive of any person who has a right to offer prayer or perform any religious rite in a religious place as defined thereunder.

11. It is not denied by learned counsel for opposite party that the revisionist has a right to offer prayers or to perform religious rite in the religious institution for which the waqf has been created but submits that the aforesaid right would be restricted to only those persons who receive any pecuniary or other benefits of the waqf only and as such would exclude the revisionist who after removal from the post of Mutawalli/Secretary of the managing committee of the waqf does not derive any pecuniary or other benefits of the waqf. The aforesaid submission of learned counsel for opposite party No.4 and 5, though attractive at first glance, does not hold any good ground in view of definition clause itself which is an inclusion clause and not an exclusion clause and is therefore required to be seen ejusdem generis with the primary clause whereby a person interested in a waqf has been defined to be any person entitled to receive any pecuniary or other benefits from the waqf. Such other benefits have been explained as an inclusionary clause to include a person who has a right to offer prayer or to perform any religious rite in the religious institution concerned. Once it is admitted that petitioner even without holding the post of Mutawalli or Secretary of the managing committee of the waqf has a right to offer prayers or to perform any religious rite in the religious institution of the waqf, the revisionist would come within definition of a person interested in the waqf as defined under Section 3(k) of the Act, 1995.

12. With regard to an inclusionary clause in a statutory provision, Hon'ble Supreme Court in the cases of P. Kasilingam and others versus P.S.G. College of Technology and others reported in 1995 Supp (2) Supreme Court Cases 348 and N.D.P. Namboodripad versus Union of India and others reported in (2007) 4 SCC 502 has held as follows:-

P. Kasilingam and others versus P.S.G. College of Technology and others

"A particular expression is often defined by the Legislature by using the word 'means' or the word 'includes'. Sometimes the words 'means and includes' are used. The use of the word ' means' indicate that "definition is a hard- and-fast definition and no other meaning can be assigned to the expression that is put down in definition." [See Gough v. Gough, (1891) 2 QB 665; Punjab Land Development and Reclamation Corpn. Ltd. v. Presiding Officer, Labour Court, (1990

(3) SCC 682,717]. The word 'includes' when used, enlarges the meaning of the expression defined so as to comprehend not only such things as they signify according to their natural import but also those things which the clause declares that they shall include. The words 'means and includes', on the other hand, indicate "an exhaustive explanation of the meaning which, for the purposes of the Act, must invariably be attached to these words or expressions."

N.D.P. Namboodripad versus Union of India and others

"19. Justice G.P. Singh in his treatise Principles of Statutory Interpretation (10th Edn., 2006), has noticed that where a word defined is declared to "include" such and such, the definition is prima facie extensive, but the word "include" when used while defining a word or expression, may also be construed as equivalent to "mean and include" in which event, it will afford an exhaustive explanation of the meaning which for the purposes of the Act must invariably be attached to the word or expression [vide pp. 173 and 175 referring to and relying on the decisions of this Court in Municipal Council, Raipur v. State of M.P. [(1969) 2 SCC 582 : AIR 1970 SC 1923] , South Gujarat Roofing Tiles Manufacturers Assn. v. State of Gujarat [(1976) 4 SCC 601 : 1977 SCC (L&S) 15 : AIR 1977 SC 90] , Hindustan Aluminium Corpn. v. State of U.P. [(1981) 3 SCC 578 : 1981 SCC (Tax) 280 : AIR 1981 SC 1649] and Reserve Bank of India v. Peerless General Finance & Investment Co. Ltd. [(1987) 1 SCC 424] It is, therefore, evident that the word "includes" can be used in interpretation clauses either generally in order to enlarge the meaning of any word or phrase occurring in the body of a statute, or in the normal standard sense, to mean "comprises" or "consists of" or "means and includes" depending on the context."

13. Upon applicability of aforesaid judgment, it is evident that the inclusionary clause would directly relate to other benefits being derived from the waqf by any person who is entitled to such benefit and would therefore come within definition of a person interested in a waqf.

14. Furthermore under Section 83(2) of the Act 1995, an application for the purposes of determination of any dispute, question or other matter relating to waqf is also maintainable at the behest of 'any other person aggrieved by and order made under this Act or Rules'.

15. Although the definition of person aggrieved has not been provided in the Act of 1995 but the same has been explained in a number of judgments not only of this Court but also of the Hon'ble Supreme Court as laid down in the case of Ayaaubkhan Noorkhan Pathan versus State of Maharashtra and others reported in (2013) 4 SCC 465 in the following manner:-

10. A "legal right", means an entitlement arising out of legal rules. Thus, it may be defined as an advantage, or a benefit conferred upon a person by the rule of law. The expression, "person aggrieved" does not include a person who suffers from a psychological or an imaginary injury; a person aggrieved must, therefore, necessarily be one whose right or interest has been adversely affected or jeopardised. (Vide Shanti Kumar R. Canji v. Home Insurance Co. of New York [(1974) 2 SCC 387 : AIR 1974 SC 1719] and State of Rajasthan v. Union of India [(1977) 3 SCC 592 : AIR 1977 SC 1361] .

xxx xxxx xxxxx

12. In A. Subash Babu v. State of A.P. [(2011) 7 SCC 616 : (2011) 3 SCC (Civ) 851 : (2011) 3 SCC (Cri) 267 : AIR 2011 SC 3031] , this Court held : (SCC pp. 628-29, para 25)

"25. ... The expression ''aggrieved person' denotes an elastic and an elusive concept. It cannot be confined within the bounds of a rigid, exact and comprehensive definition. Its scope and meaning depends on diverse, variable factors such as the content and intent of the statute of which the contravention is alleged, the specific circumstances of the case, the nature and extent of the complainant's interest and the nature and the extent of the prejudice or injury suffered by the complainant."

16. The provision of Section 83(2) of the Act 1995 as such clearly includes any other person aggrieved by an order made under this Act or Rules. It is not disputed that the order dated 16th Febraury, 2022 pertaining to inclusion of opposite party No.4 as a member of the committee of management has been passed in terms of Section 32(2)(g) pertaining to powers of the Board to appoint and remove Mutawalli in accordance with provisions of the Act. The aforesaid power is clearly referable to Section 3(i) of the Act of 1995 which defines Mutawalli in the following manner:-

"3(i) "mutawalli" means any person appointed, either verbally or under any deed or instrument by which a 1[waqf] has been created, or by a competent authority, to be the mutawalli of a 1[waqf] and includes any person who is a mutawalli of a 1[waqf] by virtue of any custom or who is a naib-mutawalli, khadim, mujawar, sajjadanashin, amin or other person appointed by a mutawalli to perform the duties of a mutawalli and save as otherwise provided in this Act, any person, committee or corporation for the time being managing or administering any 1[waqf] or 1[waqf] property:

Provided that no member of a committee or corporation shall be deemed to be a mutawalli unless such member is an office-bearer of such committee or corporation:

2[Provided further that the mutawalli shall be a citizen of India and shall fulfil such other qualifications as may be prescribed:

Provided also that in case a waqf has specified any qualifications, such qualifications may be provided in the rules as may be made by the State Government;]"

17. Upon consideration of the said provisions of the Act, it is clear that the order dated 16th February, 2022 which was under challenge at the behest of revisionist was passed by the board exercising its power under Section 32(2)(g) of the Act of 1995 read with Section 3(i) of the Act pertaining to any person, committee or corporation for the time being managing or administering any waqf or waqf property.

18. It is therefore evident that despite the fact that revisionist was removed from his post as Mutawalli/Secretary of the managing committee of waqf, the application filed by him under Section 83(2) of the Act, 1995 in his individual capacity was clearly maintainable not only as a person interested in a waqf but also as a person aggrieved by order dated 16th February, 2022 passed in terms of Section 32 of the Act.

19. A perusal of the impugned order reveals the fact that revisionist's application under Section 83(2) of the Act of 1995 has been dismissed as infructuous only on the ground that he has been removed from the post of Mutawalli/Secretary of the managing committee of waqf. The Tribunal has clearly not adverted to other provisions of Section 83(2) of the Act of 1995 pertaining to whether the suit was maintainable in individual capacity of revisionist either as a person aggrieved or as a person interested in the waqf.

20. The aspect of a person aggrieved by the order dated 16th February, 2022 was also required to be seen in the context of pleading made in the plaint particularly with regard to paragraph 16 thereof in which the revisionist has clearly stated that the person inducted in the management of the waqf have no concern with the management and that their inclusion is also barred under provisions of Section 32(2)(g) of the Waqf Act, 1995. The aforesaid pleadings made by revisionist in his plaint have clearly been ignored by the Tribunal while passing the impugned order.

21. Considering the aforesaid factors, the impugned order dated 26th December, 2022 passed by the Waqf Tribunal in case No. 37 of 2022 being against provisions of Act,1995 is hereby set aside.

22. Consequently the revision succeeds and is allowed. Parties to bear their own cost.

(2023) 4 ILRA 139
REVISIONAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 16.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MANISH MATHUR, J.

Civil Revision No. 14 of 2023

Ansar Nawaz Khan ...Revisionist

Versus

Adeel Ahmad & Ors. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Revisionist:
Mohammad Tariq Saeed

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
Sunil Sharma, Farhan Habib, Ruved Kamal Kidwai, Syed Aftab Ahmad

A. Civil Law – Court Fees Act, 1870 – Sections 7 (iv-A) and (iv-A) Suit for declaration, not for possession – Application of provision – Held, suit for declaratory decree has been filed with consequential relief of only permanent injunction and not for possession. In such circumstances, Court fees would be payable in terms of Section 7(iv)(a) of the Act and not in terms of Section 7(iv-A) of the Act and therefore only a fixed Court fee of Rs. 500/- was payable by the revisionist. The Tribunal has clearly erred in holding ad valorem Court fee being payable. (Para 21)

Revision allowed. (E-1)

List of Cases cited:

1. Basant Kumar Mata Nehliya Vs Chowdhary Ujjair; (2011) 89 ALR 551

2. Dr. Sushil Suri Vs Harish Suri & ors.; 2023(2) ADJ 552 (L.B)

3. Chief Inspector of Stamps Vs Laxmi Narain; AIR 1958 SC 245

4. Suhrid Singh Vs Randhir Singh & ors.; (2010)12 SCC 112

(Delivered by Hon'ble Manish Mathur, J.)

1. Heard Mr. Mohammad Tariq Saeed, learned counsel for revisionist, Mr. Sunil Sharma and Mr. Ruved Kamal Kidwai, learned counsel for opposite party no.2 and Mr. Syed Aftab Ahmad, learned counsel for opposite party no.8.

2. In view of order being proposed to be passed, notices to opposite parties no.1, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7 stand dispensed with.

3. Learned counsel for opposite parties submit that since a question of law is involved, the revision may be decided without objections being filed by the answering opposite parties.

4. Revision under section 83(9) of the Waqf Act 1995 has been filed against order dated 17.11.2022 passed in Case No.38 of 2020 whereby revisionist-plaintiff has been directed to pay ad valorem Court fees on the relief sought in plaint.

5. Learned counsel for revisionist submits that the aforesaid case had been filed by revisionist seeking a relief of permanent injunction against the defendants and their agents from interfering in peaceful possession over suit property. Further relief for a decree of declaration for properties entered in Waqf deed dated 03.12.1924 as Waqf Properties were also sought. It is submitted that for the purposes of payment of Court fees, it was indicated in the plaint that Waqf Property not having marketable value, only for the purposes of payment of Court fee, suit was being valued tentatively at Rs.1000/- and since prayer for permanent injunction had been sought, the maximum prescribed Court fee of Rs.500/- was being paid and on the point of declaration, Rs.200/- was being paid.

6. It is submitted that objection against the valuation and Court fee was filed by defendants whereafter by means of impugned order dated 17.11.2022, the Waqf Tribunal held that in view of relief sought in the suit, ad valorem Court fee was payable which was required to be paid within a period of two weeks.

7. Learned counsel for revisionist submits that while passing impugned order, Tribunal has ignored specific provisions of Section 7 of Court fee Act 1870 inasmuch as, with regard to relief sought, Court fee was payable only in terms of Section 7(iv)(a) excluding the provisions of Section 7(iv)(A) of the aforesaid Act and as such only the fixed Court fees was required to be paid as indicated in plaint and not ad valorem Court fee.

8. Learned counsel has placed reliance on judgment rendered by Division Bench of this Court in the case of Basant Kumar Mata Nehliya versus Chowdhary Ujjair reported in (2011)89 ALR 551 to buttress his submission.

9. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of opposite parties on the other hand submits that in view of consequential relief being sought by the revisionist-plaintiff, Tribunal has rightly considered the provisions of Section 7 of the Act and has rightly adjudged ad valorem Court fee being payable by plaintiff in view of relief that has been sought in plaint.

10. He has placed reliance on judgment of Coordinate Bench rendered by this Court in the case of Dr. Sushil Suri versus Harish Suri and others reported in 2023(2) ADJ 552 (L.B).

11. Upon consideration of submissions advanced by learned counsel for parties, the question of law requiring adjudication is whether in a suit for declaration with consequential relief for permanent injunction, ad valorem Court fee or fixed Court fee is payable in terms of Section 7(iv) of the Court Fees Act, 1870.

12. For the aforesaid purpose, it is relevant to indicate that in the suit filed by revisionist, a decree for declaration of suit properties as Waqf Properties in terms of Waqf deed dated 03.12.1924 was sought along with consequential relief of permanent injunction to restrain defendants from interfering in the peaceful possession of plaintiff over the suit property. It is noticeable that no prayer for consequential relief of possession has been sought by the plaintiff.

13. Section 7 of Court Fees Act, 1870, which is relevant for the purposes is as follows:

"Computation of fees payable in certain suits for money. -- The amount of fee payable under this Act in the suit next hereinafter mentioned shall be computed as follows:

For money--(i) In suits for money (including suits for damages or compensation, or arrears of maintenance, or annuities, or of other sums payable periodically)-according to the amount claimed;

For maintenance and annuities-(ii-a) In suits for maintenance and annuities or other sums payable periodically, according to the value of the subject-matter of the suit and such value shall be deemed to be ten times the amount claimed to be payable for one year:

Provided that in suits for personal maintenance by females and minors, such value shall be deemed to be the amount claimed to be payable for one year;

For reduction or enhancement of maintenance and annuities-(ii-b) In suits for reduction or enhancement of maintenance and annuities or the sums payable periodically according to the value of the subject-matter of the suit and such value shall be deemed to be ten times the amount sought to be reduced or enhanced for one year,

For other movable property having a market value-(iii) In suits for movable property other than money, where the subject-matter has a market value-according to such value at the date of presenting the plaint;

For declaratory decree with consequential relief (iv) In suits-(a) to obtain a declaratory decree or order, where consequential relief other than reliefs specified in sub-section (iv-A) is prayed; and

For accounts.- (b) For accounts according to the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or memorandum of appeal:

Provided that in suits falling under Clause (a), where the relief sought is with reference to any immovable property, such amount shall be the value of the consequential relief and if such relief is incapable of valuation, then the value of the immovable property computed in accordance with sub-section (v), (v-A) or (v-B) of this section as the case may be:

[Provided further that in all suits falling under Clause (a), such amount shall in no case be less than Rs. 300]:

[Provided (also), that in suits falling under Clause (b) such amount shall be the approximate sum due to the plaintiff and the said sum shall form the basis for calculating (or determining) the valuation of an appeal from a preliminary decree passed in the suit.

For cancellation or adjudging void instruments and decrees.?(iv-A) In suits for or involving cancellation of or adjudging void or voidable a decree for money or other property having a market value, or an instrument securing money or other property having such value:

(1) where the plaintiff or his predecessor-in-title was a party to the decree or the instrument, according to the value of the subject-matter, and

(2) where he or his predecessor-in-title was not a party to the decree or instrument, according to one-fifth of the value of the subject-matter, and such value shall be deemed to be?

if the while decree or instrument is involved in the suit, the amount for which or value of the property in respect of which the decree was passed or the instrument executed, and if only a part of the decree or instrument is involved in the suit, the amount or value of the property to which such part relates.

Explanation.--'The value of the property' for the purposes of this sub-section, shall be the market-value, which in the case of immovable property shall be deemed to be the value as computed in accordance with sub-section (v), (v-A) or (v-B) as the case may be.

For easement.-(iv-B) In suits-(a) for a right to some benefit (not herein otherwise provided for) to arise out of land;

For an injunction-(b) to obtain an injunction;

To establish an adoption- (c) to establish an adoption or to obtain a declaration that an alleged adoption is valid;

To set aside an adoption-(d) to set aside an adoption or to obtain a declaration that an alleged adoption in invalid or never, in fact, took place;

To set aside an award other than awards mentioned in section 8--

(e) to set aside an award not being an award mentioned in section 8; according to the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint;

[Provided that such amount shall not be less than one-fifth of the market value of the property involved in or effected by the relief sought or Rs. 200 whichever is greater:

Provided further that in the case of suits falling under Clauses (a) and (b) the amount of Court fee leviable shall in no case exceed Rs. 500]

Explanation 1.--When the relief sought is with reference to any immovable property the market-value of such property shall be deemed to be the value computed in accordance with sub-section (v) and (v-A) or (v-B) of this section, as the case may be.

Explanation 2.--In the case of suits?

(i) falling under Clauses (a) and (b), the property which is affected by the relief sought, and where properties of both the plaintiff and defendant are affect, the property of the plaintiff so affected;

(ii) falling under Clauses (c) and (d), the property to which title by succession or otherwise may be delivered or affected by the alleged adoption; and shall be be deemed to be the property involved in or affected by the relief sought within the meaning of the proviso to this sub-section."

(iii) falling under Clause (e), the property which forms the subject-matter of the award;

14. From a perusal of aforesaid provision, it is evident that computation of Court fee payable in certain suits particularly with regard to declaratory decree with consequential relief is indicated in Section 7(iv)(a) whereunder provisions of sub-section(iv-A) is an exception. The proviso to aforesaid provisions indicates that in cases of suits falling under Clause (a) where relief sought is with reference to any immoveable property, such amount shall be the value of consequential relief and if such relief is incapable of valuation, then the value of immoveable property is to be computed in accordance with Sub-Section (v-A) or (v-B) of the Section.

15. The provisions regarding cancellation or adjudging void instruments and decrees has been indicated in Section 7(iv-A) of the Act, which has been exempted for consideration for purposes of Court fees pertaining to Section 7(iv)(a).

16. Proviso to section 7(iv-B)(e) provides that in cases of suits following under clauses (a) and (b), the amount of Court fee leviable shall in no case exceed Rs.500/-. Section 7 (iv-B) provides also that with regard to consequential relief of injunction, the amount of Court fee leviable in no case shall exceed Rs.300/-.

17. The aspect of matter with regard to Court fees payable for the purposes of relief sought in a plaint for declaration with consequential relief of permanent injunction has been considered by Division Bench of this Court in the case of Basant Kumar Mata Nehliya (supra) in the following manner:-

"6. A plain reading of relevant portion reproduced (supra) shows that so far as the injunction is concerned, Court fee shall not exceed Rs. 500/-. Similarly, in case a suit is filed to obtain a declaratory decree or order, where consequential relief other than the relief specified in sub-section (iv-A) is prayed, then for the occupant of the property, the Court fee shall be paid to the amount on which relief sought is valued in the plaint or memorandum of appeal. However, in case, the suit is filed for cancellation or adjudging void instrument and decrees, then Court fee shall be assessed on the face of market value of the property keeping in view the explanation given in the section.

7. It is settled law that it is for the plaintiff to pay Court fees in terms of the relief sought in the plaint and ordinarily such valuation for the purpose of Court fee and jurisdiction ordinarily has to be accepted vide S. Rm. Ar. S. Sp. Sathappa Chettiar v. S. Rm. Ar. Rm. Ramanathan Chettiar [AIR 1958 SC 245.],Tara Devi v. Sri Thakur Radha Krishna Maharaj through Sebaits Chandeshwar Prasad and Meshwar Prasad[(1987) 4 SCC 69.].

10. In the present case, the consequential relief is of injunction for which the proviso to section (iv-B) provides that the amount of Court fee leviable shall in no case exceed Rs. 300/-. To put in other words, in case the plaintiff is in possession of the property and files declaratory suit with prayer for injunction, then the Court fee leviable shall not exceed Rs. 500/-.

12.The aforesaid proposition also revealed that from the combined reading of section 7 (iv-A) or section 7 (iv-B), the legislature to their wisdom while making provision for valuation of declaratory decree with consequential relief under the proviso of section 7 (iv-a) has consciously excluded section 7 (iv-A) which provides imposition of Court fee with regard to the suit for cancellation or adjudging void instrument or decree for money or other property having market value, where the Court fee shall be assessed on the basis of market value of such property. In the present case, so far as relief is concerned, plaintiff has not made any prayer for cancellation or setting aside of any document, deed or revenue record or sought the delivery of possession. The proviso of section 7 (iv-B) has not been dealt with in the cases referred relied upon by the parties Counsel."

18. Paragraph 6 of the aforesaid judgment clearly indicates the fact that in a suit filed to obtain declaratory decree or order where consequential relief other than relief specified in sub-section (iv-A) is prayed for with relief for permanent injunction, then the Court fees is to be assessed as per the valuation indicated in the plaint. As such, the Division Bench has come to a conclusion that in such cases that possession of property is not sought as a consequential relief, the declaratory suit filed with prayer for injunction, Court fee leviable shall not exceed Rs.500/-.

19. The Division Bench in terms has placed reliance on Full Bench of this Court in the case of Chief Inspector of Stamps versus Laxmi Narain reported in AIR 1958 SC 245 in the following manner:

"11. The Full Bench has been relied upon by both sides in Chief Inspector of Stamps v. Laxmi Narain [1970 AIR All 488.] , in which identical situation has been dealt with. Para 22 of the judgment is reproduced as under:

"In suit No. 12 of 1960, the reliefs prayed for were a declaration that the first plaintiff was the Mahant of the Math and the Sarbarakar of the deity and the properties of the Math and an injunction restraining the defendants from interfering with the possession of the first plaintiff over the properties as Mahant and Sarbarakar. The relief of injunction flowed directly from the right which the plaintiff desired to be declared and is a consequential relief. This suit is also, therefore, covered by sub-section (iv)(a)."

20. The aforesaid aspect has also been considered by Hon'ble the Supreme Court in the case of Suhrid Singh v. Randhir Singh and others reported in (2010)12 SCC 112 in the following terms:

"7.Where the executant of a deed wants it to be annulled, he has to seek cancellation of the deed. But if a non-executant seeks annulment of a deed, he has to seek a declaration that the deed is invalid, or non est, or illegal or that it is not binding on him. The difference between a prayer for cancellation and declaration in regard to a deed of transfer/conveyance, can be brought out by the following illustration relating to A and B, two brothers. A executes a sale deed in favour of C. Subsequently A wants to avoid the sale. A has to sue for cancellation of the deed. On the other hand, if B, who is not the executant of the deed, wants to avoid it, he has to sue for a declaration that the deed executed by A is invalid/void and non est/illegal and he is not bound by it. In essence both may be suing to have the deed set aside or declared as non-binding. But the form is different and Court fee is also different. If A, the executant of the deed, seeks cancellation of the deed, he has to pay ad valorem Court fee on the consideration stated in the sale deed. If B, who is a non- executant, is in possession and sues for a declaration that the deed is null or void and does not bind him or his share, he has to merely pay a fixed Court fee of Rs. 19.50 under Article 17(iii) of the Second Schedule of the Act. But if B, a non-executant, is not in possession, and he seeks not only a declaration that the sale deed is invalid, but also the consequential relief of possession, he has to pay an ad valorem Court fee as provided under Section 7(iv)(c) of the Act.

8. Section 7(iv)(c) provides that in suits for a declaratory decree with consequential relief, the Court fee shall be computed according to the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint. The proviso thereto makes it clear that where the suit for declaratory decree with consequential relief is with reference to any property, such valuation shall not be less than the value of the property calculated in the manner provided for by clause (v) of Section 7."

21. Upon applicability of aforesaid judgments in the present facts and circumstances of the case, it is evident that suit for declaratory decree has been filed with consequential relief of only permanent injunction and not for possession. In such circumstances, Court fees would be payable in terms of Section 7(iv-a) of the Act and not in terms of Section 7(iv-A) of the Act and therefore only a fixed Court fee of Rs.500/- was payable by the revisionist. The Tribunal has clearly erred in holding ad valorem Court fee being payable by the revisionist. It is also a relevant factor that it can not be assumed that a relief of possession is to be sought for by the plaintiff particularly when no such express relief has been sought in the plaint. The aforesaid judgments clearly indicate that Court fee is payable only as per relief sought in a plaint and not for what it ought to have prayed for.

22. Learned counsel for opposite parties has placed reliance on judgment rendered in the case of Dr. Sushil Suri (supra) but upon a perusal of same, it is evident that nothing contrary has been laid down in the aforesaid judgment, which in itself is based on judgment rendered by Supreme Court in the case of Suhrid Singh (supra) whereby also it has been held that ad valorem Court fees in such matter is not paid.

23. Considering aforesaid facts and the aforesaid judgments, it is apparent that the impugned order dated 17.11.2022 passed by the Waqf Tribunal in case no.38 of 2020; Ansar Nawaz Khan versus Tashkeel Ahmad & others is against the propositions of law and is therefore set aside.

24. Consequently, revision succeeds and is allowed. Parties to bear their own costs.

25. Learned counsel for answering opposite parties submits that even otherwise the suit was not maintainable in view of the fact that the plaintiff has not disclosed his locus standi as a Mutwali to maintain the suit and the value of property has not been disclosed.

26. With regard to aforesaid submissions, it is apparent that issue with regard to maintainability of suit is not the subject matter of the present proceedings and for which purpose opposite party as defendant have a right to file objections before the Tribunal concerned.

(2023) 4 ILRA 145
REVISIONAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 20.12.2022

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE UMESH CHANDRA SHARMA, J.

Civil Revision No. 104 of 2001

Dev Raj ...Defendant-Applicant-Revisionist
Versus
Smt. Rukmani Devi ...Plaintiff-Respondent

Counsel for the Revisionist:
Sri Rama Goel, Sri Rajesh Tandon

Counsel for the Plaintiff-Respondent:
Sri S.K. Jauhari, Sri Kshitij Shailendra, Sri S.K. Joshi

A. Tenancy Law – UP Urban Buildings (Regulation of Letting, Rent and Eviction) Act, 1972 – Section 2(2), Proviso – Eviction suit – Applicability of the Act – Map of house was sanctioned on 19.04.1984 – Presumption of construction – Date of sanctioning the map, how far relevant – Held, as per the relevant proviso enumerated in Section 2 where construction of a building is completed on or after April 26, 1985 then the reference in this section to the period of 10 years shall be deemed to be a reference to a period of 40 years from the date on which its construction is completed – House in suit is not governed by UP Act No. 13 of 1972. (Para 19 and 20)

B. Evidence Act, 1872 – S. 114(g) – Burden of proof – Presumption – Non-production of public document – Effect – Rate of rent fixed by the Government was very much available in Collectorate which could be obtained by the plaintiff land-lord to prove the averments of the plaint – Held, It is omission on the part of the plaintiff-land-lord – A presumption arises against the plaintiff that if any public document is already available and the same has not been filed by the concerned party it would be presumed that it is against the party who had not filed it. (Para 22 and 23)

Revision dismissed. (E-1)

List of Cases cited:

1. Ram Swaroop Rai Vs Smt. Leelawati, 1980 ARC 466

(Delivered by Hon'ble Umesh Chandra Sharma, J.)

1. This civil revision has been filed to quash the judgment and decree dated 24th January, 2001 passed by Sri R.B. Singh, Spl. Judge Anti-Corruption/A.D.J. Bareilly in SCC Suit No. 23 of 1997.

2. In brief, facts of the case are that respondent Rukmani Devi filed a suit for eviction and arrears of rent and damages against the defendant/revisionist Dev Raj alleging that the plaintiff is the owner of House No. 29-A Sindhu Nagar, Mohalla Katra, Chand Khan Old City, Bareilly. There is a room, kitchen-cum-store room, bathroom and latrine room towards North-East on the ground floor of the house in which the defendant is a tenant since 15th February, 1995 @ Rs.1,000/- per month. He is also responsible for paying the electric bill and local taxes. The tenancy starts from 15th of every month. The defendant after 15th May 1996 has not paid rent, mesne profits, electric bill and local taxes after 15th May, 1996. The plaintiff is a little educated lady and has a little knowledge of law. She used to deliver receipts pasting revenue tickets on blank papers. She never prepared any copy or counter foil of it. Therefore, she had not taken signatures of the defendant on any counter foil of receipts. After 15th May, 1996, the plaintiff had demanded several times the rent, mesne profits and amount of electric bill and local taxes but defendant ignored and has not paid the same and started unparliamentary behaviour and abusing. Therefore, she sent a notice under Section 106 of the T.P. Act on 06th January 1997 reduced in writing by her Advocate, Raj Kumar Agrawal. It was delivered to the defendant same day as dasti notice but defendant refused to receive the same. Thereafter, the plaintiff pasted the notice upon the main door and terminated the tenancy of the defendant.

3. The defendant had filed a suit No. 37 of 1996 Dev Raj vs. Rukmani Devi and Others and moved temporary injunction application. The plaintiff had filed objection and counter objection and also copy of notice dated 06th January, 1997 as Schedule-A and copy of affidavit was also provided to the counsel of the defendant. Thus, the defendant had full knowledge of the notice. In spite of that neither the defendant vacated the tenanted part of the house nor provided the possession nor paid any rent, mesne profit, electric bill amount and local taxes due upon him. In Para 6 of the suit, the plaintiff has given the details of the amount. In Para 8 of the plaint she has valued the suit and has stated about the court fees and thereafter, has sought the relief.

4. The copy of the written statement has been annexed as Annexure 2 in which the petitioner has said that provisions of U.P. Act 13 of 1972 are applicable to the property in suit. He admitted to be the tenant and also admitted filing of the suit. In addition to that he replied that the suit is not property valued and insufficient court fees has been paid. The property in suit is very old. The rear portion of the house was made in 1973. When the tenancy started, the house in suit was under the operation of U.P. Act 13 of 1972. The plaintiff did not adopted the procedure of allotment which was necessary. Therefore, the contract between the plaintiff and the defendant is against the law and void, and is not enforceable. The defendant has not received any notice under Section 106 of the T.P. Act. The defendant is tenant @ Rs. 500 per month in which taxes of water and electric charges are also included. The defendant has been paying the rent to the plaintiff but plaintiff had never given receipt. The plaintiff had taken Rs. 20,000/- cash for the construction of kitchen with the condition that this amount would be set off in the amount of rent but the plaintiff did not construct the kitchen and got it lingered. The plaintiff again started demanding Rs. 10,000/-. The defendant is a poor, gentle and peace loving person who any how passes the life. When he refused to pay this amount, the plaintiff became angry and disconnected the electricity of the defendant and started to dispossess the defendant forcefully with the help of unsocial elements. She stared threatening and tried to throw the household articles of the defendant. Then he moved an application to the S.P. and filed the suit in the Court of Civil Judge (Junior Division). The defendant also sent rent money through money order but the plaintiff refused to accept the same. Therefore, he started depositing the rent in Misc. Case No. 230/1996 under Section 30 of the U.P. Act 13 of 1972 in the Court of Civil Judge(Junior Division), Bareilly. The plaintiff has no right to sue and the cause of action. It is wrong to say that the defendant has not paid the rent after 15.05.1996 in spite of the repeated demand. The allegations of the ill treatment and abusing by the defendant is totally wrong, baseless and concocted. No such notice was given or pasted on the door of the defendant's rented room. It is also wrong to say that copy of the notice along with counter affidavit had been filed in the original suit and its copy was given to the counsel of the defendant. Hence, at this score alone, the suit is liable to be dismissed. Hence, the case be dismissed.

5. The suit was decreed and decree for eviction and for arrears of payment and for arrears of rent @ Rs.500/- per month was ordered to be paid by the lower court. Being aggrieved, the defendant has preferred this SCC revision on the following grounds that:

6. The impugned order is wholly illegal. The U.P. Act 13 of 1972 is fully applicable to the premises in dispute. The defendant-revisionist has fully proved the advance given by the plaintiff-respondents which has not been adjusted. Hence, the impugned order is wholly illegal. There was no arrears of rent. Hence, the impugned order and judgment is wholly illegal. Until and unless the first assessment is assumed according to Municipalities Act as well as under Section 2(2) of the U.P. Act 13 of 1972 there cannot be any presumption of the building being constructed in the year 1985. Therefore, the impugned judgment and decree is wholly erroneous illegal and bad in law. Even if the Act No. 13 of 1972 is not applicable, the defendant even assuming without admitting that Act No. 13 of 1972 is not applicable the defendant-applicant is entitled for the benefit under Section 114 of the T.P. Act. In any view of the matter, four month rent was not due. Hence, the suit could not be decreed.

7. It has been held in Ram Swaroop Rai Vs. Smt. Leelawati, 1980 ARC 466 that the municipal records appearing on the completion of construction alone is a criteria in order to prove the assessment as contained in the explanation to Section 2(2) of the U.P. Act 13 of 1972. The trial court has decreed the suit without examining the first assessment in accordance with Section 2(2) of U.P. Act No. 13 of 1972 and as such, the impugned judgment and decree is wholly illegal and erroneous and bad in law.

8. This Civil Revision was taken up for hearing on 11.11.2022.

9. No one appeared from the either side. Since the revision should be decided on merit, hence, the judgment was reserved and this judgment is passed on merit.

10. From perusal of file it transpires that Sri Sarvasri Prakash and Sri Apoorva Prakash, advocates have filed Vakalatnama on behalf of defendant land-lord on 12.02.2001. Later on Sri Shailendra Kumar Jauhari and Kshitij Shailendra, advocates have filed Vakalatnama from the side of the respondent, Rukmani Devi on 29.07.2003. An application to vacate the stay and a counter affidavit have also been filed on behalf of respondents.

11. In the counter affidavit the respondent has reiterated the contents of her plaint and has denied the averments of the revision and has said that the provisions of UP Act No.13 of 1972 are not applicable as the map of the disputed house was itself got sanctioned on 13.04.1984 which clearly shows that the construction were raised thereafter. She had denied that the house in suit was constructed in the year 1980. According to the respondent, the finding regarding non-applicability of Act No.13 of 1972 while deciding issue no.1 is true and correct. Further she has averred that there was no assessment and it was not the case of defendant revisionist that the building was subject to municipal assessment. According to the respondent land-lord, the finding of the trial court that on the basis of date of construction the house in suit falls under the exemptions as enumerated under Section 2 of the Act is a correct finding. The ex parte stay order dated 16.02.2001 be vacated and the amount of monthly rent be deposited in the bank account of the respondent land-lord instead of depositing in the court as the opposite party is finding it very difficult to withdraw the amount from the court.

12. No rejoinder affidavit has been filed by the revisionist. The record of the lower court has been summoned and it is before the Court.

13. The following oral evidence were adduced by the plaintiff land-lord to prove the case:

(I) PW-1, Rukmani Devi, plaintiff land-lord (ii) PW-2, Ghanshyam.

14. Documentary evidences of the plaintiff land-lord are the map sanctioned by the Bareilly Development Authority, copy of the notice, copy of the affidavit produced in Original Suit No.371 of 1996 (Dev Raj Vs. Rukmani Devi).

15. From the side of defendant tenant following witnesses have been testified:

(I) DW-1, Dev Raj, tenant himself (ii) DW-2, Urmila.

16. The trial court has framed following points for determination:

(1) Whether the provisions of UP Act No.13 of 1972 are applicable to the house in suit?

(2) Whether the notice given by the plaintiff was served on the defendant?

(3) Whether the house rent is Rs.1,000/- per month or Rs.500/-?

(4) Whether the defendant had provided Rs.20,000/- to the plaintiff, if yes, its effect?

(5) Whether the respondent has paid the rent from May, 1996?

(6) Whether the respondent has not paid the rent to the plaintiff since May, 1996?

17. The trial court had decided the points for determination serially.

18. Point No.1--In this respect the trial court has concluded that the Act of 13 of 1972 is not applicable to the house in suit. The basis of the finding is that the map was sanctioned by Bareilly Development Authority on 19.04.1984, therefore, it cannot be said that the house was made in 1980 as alleged by the defendant. It would have been constructed certainly after 1984. In this regard the defendant has replied in written statement that the property in suit is covered under the Act of 13 of 1972 and the property in suit is very old. The rear portion of the house is made in 1973. The defendant tenant has also relied on the citation in Ram Swaroop Rai Vs. Smt. Leelawati, 1980 ARC 466 in which it is held that the municipal records appearing on the completion of construction alone is a criteria in order to prove the assessment as contained in explanation to Section 2(2) of the Act of 13 of 1972 and the trial court had decreed the suit without examining the first assessment in accordance with Section 2(2) of the Act.

19. According to this Court when it has been established from the documentary evidence that the map was sanctioned on 19.04.1984 then certainly the house could not be constructed before the said date. As per the relevant proviso enumerated in Section 2 where construction of a building is completed on or after April 26, 1985 then the reference in this section to the period of 10 years shall be deemed to be a reference to a period of 40 years from the date on which its construction is completed. The option was also open to the tenant to file a copy of assessment if so available to establish that the house in suit was completed prior to the cut date April 26,

1985. In this respect explanation-1 is also relevant which has been perused by this Court. Section 2 of the Act reads as under:-

"2. Exemptions from Operation of Act.- (1) Nothing in this Act shall apply to-

(a) any building belonging to or vested in the Government of India or the Government of any State or any local authority ; or

(b) any tenancy created by grant from the State Government or the Government of India in respect of a building taken on lease or requisi-tioned by such Government ;, or

(c) any building used or intended to be used as a factory within the meaning of the Factories Act, 1948 ; or

(d) any building used or intended to be used for any other industrial purpose (that is to say, for the purpose of manufacture, preservation or processing of any goods) or as a cinema or theatre, where the plant and apparatus installed for such purpose in the building is leased out along with the building :

Provided that nothing in this clause shall apply in relation to any shop or other building, situated within the precincts of the cinema or theatre, the tenancy in respect of which has been created separately from the tenancy in respect of the cinema or theatre ; or

(e) any building used or intended to be used as a place of public entertainment or amusement (including any sports stadium, but not including a cinema or theatre) , or any building appurtenant thereto ; or

(f) any building built and held by a University or any other statutory corporation or' by a society registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860, or by a co-operative society, company or firm, and intended solely for its own occupation or for the occupation of any of its officers or servants, whether on rent or free of rent, or as a guest house, by whatever name called, for the occupation of persons having dealing with it in the ordinary course of business.

(2) Except as provided in sub-section (2) of section 24 or sub-section (3) of section 29, nothing in this Act shall apply to a building during a period of ten years from the date on which its construction is completed.

Explanation- For the purposes of this sub-section,-

(a) the construction of a building shall- be deemed to have been completed on the date on which-the completion thereof is reported to or otherwise recorded by the local authority having jurisdiction, and in the case of a building subject to assessment, the date on which the first assessment thereof comes into effect, and where the said dates are different, the earliest of the said dates, and in the absence of any such report, record or assessment, the date on which it is actually occupied (not including occupation merely for the purposes of supervising the construction or guarding the building under construction) for the first time :

Provided that there may be different dates of completion of construction in respect of different parts of a building which are either designed as separate units or are occupied separately by the landlord and one or more tenants or by different tenants ;

(b)"construction" includes any new construction in place of an existing building which has been wholly or substantially demolished ;

(c) where such substantial addition is made to an existing building that the existing building becomes only a minor part thereof the whole of the building including the existing building shall be deemed to be constructed on the date of completion of the said addition.

(3) The State Government, if it is satisfied that it is necessary or expedient so to do in the interest of genera public, may by notification in the Gazette, exempt from all or any of the provisions of this Act any building which is owned by an educational or charitable institution and the whole of the income derived from which is utilised for the purposes of that institution, and may in the like manner cancel or amend such notification."

20. On the basis of aforesaid discussion this Court is in conformity with the findings recorded by the trial court that the house in suit is not governed by UP Act No.13 of 1972.

21. Point No.2--The plaintiff land-lord has proved this fact that she had provided dasti summon to the defendant on 06.01.1997 and when he did not receive it, the same was pasted at the house of the defendant. It is noteworthy that a suit i.e. Original Suit No.371 of 1996 was filed by the defendant tenant against the land-lord in which the land-lord had filed affidavit and also copy of the notice dated 06.01.1997. The trial court found that from the perusal of the aforesaid papers it has again been established that the notice was properly served to the defendant. This Court is also in conformity with the finding recorded by the lower court contrary to these facts no any adverse fact could be established by the defendant tenant.

22. Point No.3--According to plaintiff land-lord the monthly rent of house is Rs.1,000/- per month but denying it, the defendant tenant has said that the monthly rent of the house in suit was only Rs.500/- per month. In this respect both parties had filed affidavit and from the side of the plaintiff an independent witness, Ghanshyam has tried to prove the fact that even in his presence Rs.1,000/- monthly rent was fixed but evidence thereon has not been accepted by the trial court. The trial court considered the accommodation provided to the tenant that it was only one room, store, bathroom and latrine without kitchen. The trial court has also based its finding stating that in this regard no documentary evidence could be produced by the plaintiff. When there was dispute regarding rate of rent then it was also the duty of the plaintiff land-lord to get the rate of rent from administration and after filing the same the plaintiff land-lord could argue that in the area where the house in suit exists is not so as said by the defendant and for such accommodation the rate of rent is not less than Rs.1,000/-. It is known to all that the Government has fixed the market value of the properties and also rate of rent of the urban areas, therefore, the rate of rent fixed by the Government was very much available in Collectorate which could be obtained by the plaintiff land-lord to prove the averments of the plaint. Thus, it is found that there is omission on the part of the plaintiff land-lord, therefore, a presumption arises against the plaintiff that if any public document is already available and the same has not been filed by the concerned party it would be presumed that it is against the party who had not filed it.

23. Section 114(g) of the Indian Evidence Act reads as under:-

"114 Court may presume existence of certain fact.--The Court may presume the existence of any fact which it thinks likely to have happened, regard being had to the common course of natural events, human conduct and public and private business, in their relation to the facts of the particular case. Illustrations The Court may presume-- x x x x x

(g) That evidence which could be and is not produced would, if produced, be unfavourable to the person who withholds it."

24. Thus on the basis of the aforesaid discussion this Court also comes to the conclusion that a monthly rent of the house in suit was Rs.500/- and not Rs.1,000/- per month as alleged by the plaintiff land-lord

25. Point No.4--It is said by the defendant that he had provided Rs.20,000/- to the plaintiff land-lord for construction of kitchen with condition that this amount would be adjusted in the rent. This point has also been decided against the tenant. In this respect there is only oral evidence of defendant DW-1 and Urmila, DW-2. Urmila is maid servant of the defendant, therefore, it appears that being maid servant of the defendant she is deposing in his favour. The trial court has noted the fact that if actually Rs.20,000/- were provided to the plaintiff, why date of payment was not mentioned in the written statement. This aspect has also been considered by the trial court that if such amount would have been given to the plaintiff, certainly any receipt or document would have been reduced in writing.

26. Considering the aforesaid circumstances and evidence the trial court concluded that a prudent person cannot believe the evidence of the defendant and his maid servant in this regard.

27. According to the trial court it was a concocted story. Hence, this point has been decided against the tenant. According to this Court if Rs.20,000/- would have been provided certainly it would have been provided either in bank account or at least by affixing revenue stamp. If it was given to the plaintiff land-lord it would have been withdrawn from the bank. In this regard document regarding withdrawal of the money from the bank would have been produced. If such money was already with tenant in cash, he has to explain as to how such amount was available with him.

28. On the basis of aforesaid discussion this Court is of the view that the finding recorded regarding non-payment of Rs.20,000/- to the plaintiff land-lord by the tenant has been correctly decided by the trial court.

29. Point No.5--This issue is as to whether the defendant has not paid the rent since May, 1996. The trial court has rightly concluded that the burden of proving the payment of rent is on the tenant. He has to prove that he has made the payment of rent. The trial court noticed that in this regard defendant tenant has not produced any receipt while according to the plaintiff land-lord the defendant has not paid the rent since May 15, 1996. The trial court found that the fact of non-payment of rent since May 15, 1996 has been sufficiently proved by the plaintiff by adducing her evidence and evidence of PW-2. It is a matter of surprise that plaintiff is neither taking any receipt regarding giving Rs.20,000/- for the construction of kitchen to the plaintiff and also not taking receipt of rent from the plaintiff land-lord.

30. In this regard no sufficient and cogent evidence has been produced by the defendant tenant that he was paying the rent and he has paid the rent before any person. It cannot be assumed that a maid servant who occasionally comes to the defendant's rented house for an hour for washing, cleaning and dusting before whom the rent would have been provided continuously by the tenant. Hence, the finding recorded in this regard by the trial court is also affirmed by this Court.

31. In the last the trial court concluded that the property in suit is not covered by the provisions of UP Act No.13 of 1972. The tenant defendant could not prove payment of rent. By the notice under Section 106 of Transfer of Property Act the tenancy was rightly terminated by the plaintiff. The defendant tenant could not prove the payment and was found to be a defaulter. Hence, the petition was allowed and an order of eviction was passed but it has been concluded that since the plaintiff could not succeed in proving that the rate of rent is Rs.1,000/- hence it was directed that since May 15, 1996 till the date of eviction the plaintiff land-lord would be entitled to receive the amount of rent and for damages at the rate of Rs.500/- per month.

32. If the plaintiff land-lord was aggrieved by the finding regarding determination of rent to be only Rs.500/- per month instead of Rs.1,000/- per month, the plaintiff land-lord had option to file a cross revision. Hence, it would be concluded that she has accepted the finding given by the trial court regarding rate of rent. Therefore, this Court cannot and should not enter into the question regarding rate of rent any more.

33. So far as the finding regarding rest points for determination are concerned, this Court is in conformity with the finding given by the trial court as a whole. The revisionist could not establish any error, mistake regarding facts or applicability of law applied by the trial court. Thus, on the basis of the aforesaid discussion, this Court is of the opinion that the trial court's judgment is liable to be affirmed. The revision preferred by the defendant tenant has no merit and is liable to be dismissed with costs.

ORDER

34. The revision is dismissed with costs.

35. Let the lower court record be sent back to the District Judge, Bareilly with a copy of this judgment.

36. The respondent land-lord is entitled to execute the judgment and decree of the lower court and this Court as well.

(2023) 4 ILRA 153
REVISIONAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 07.04.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MRS. RENU AGARWAL, J.

Criminal Revision No. 145 of 2008

Ajay Kumar ...Revisionist
Versus
State of U.P. ...Opposite Party

Counsel for the Revisionist:
Virendra Singh, Ashwani Kumar Srivastava, Sharad Kumar Vaish

Counsel for the Opposite Party:
G.A.

Criminal Law – Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Sections 313, 360, 361, 397 & 401 - Indian Penal Code.1860 – Sections 457, 380 & 411, - Probation of Offender Act, 1958 - Sections 4 & 5 - Criminal Revision - unnamed FIR u/s 457, 380 of IPC - investigation - alleged stolen generator was recovered from the joint possession of revisionist & anr. accused - charge-sheet framed u/s 457, 380, 411 of IPC - trial court acquitted accused for offence punishable u/s 457 & 380 of IPC - but, punished them with rigorous imprisonment for one year u/s 411 of PC - Revisionist has no criminal history apart from this case - revisionist preferred revision U/s 397/401 of Cr.P.C. confined himself only with respect to the order of sentence passed by learned trial court, on the ground that, trial court neither invoked the provisions of Probation of Offenders Act, nor the provisions u/s 360 Cr.P.C. while sentencing the accused-revisionist - as such trial court is violative of provisions u/s 361 of Cr.P.C. - Court finds that, Trial Court did not considered the fact that this is a fist case against the accused and he is not convicted earlier and merely on the ground that the generator, which was too costly was recovered from the possession of accused-appellant, the benefit of section 4 of Act, 1958 is withheld - hence, revisionist is entitled to granted the benefit of section 4 of the Probation of Offenders Act, - direction issued accordingly. (Para – 11, 12, 13)

Criminal Revision Dismissed with directions. (E-11)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Mrs. Renu Agarwal, J.)

1. Instant revision is filed under Section 397/401 Cr.P.C. against the judgment and order dated 8.02.2008 passed by Additional sessions Judge/Special Judge, Lucknow in Criminal Appeal No. 208 of 2000, Guddu @ Ratan Lal and another Vs. State of U.P. dismissing the appeal preferred against the judgment and order dated 19.10.2000 passed by Vth Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lucknow in case No. 1793 of 1996 under Sections 457, 380 and 411 I.P.C. sentencing revisionist to undergo one rigorous imprisonment under Section 411 I.P.C.

2. As per prosecution story, F.I.R. was lodged against unknown persons on the ground that someone has stolen Shri Ram Honda Model EBK 1200 Engine No.0899537 Generator set of red colour by breaking the door of the shop in the night of 10/11-03-1996. A report was registered at police station on 21.03.1996 in crime No. 81 of 1996 under Section 457 and 380 I.P.C.

3. The investigation was conducted by investigating officer-Y.P. Singh, who recovered the alleged generator from the joint possession of Arun Kumar, Guddu and Ajay Kumar and prepared recovery memo thereof, recorded the statements of witnesses, prepared site plan and submitted charge-sheet under Section 457, 380 and 411 I.P.C. The trial court framed the charges under the above mentioned Sections and read over to accused to which the accused abjured from the charges and claimed to be tried.

4. Prosecution adduced P.W.1-Rajendra Kumar Agarwal (complainant), P.W.2-Constable Ghanshyam Yadav, P.W.3-S.I., Bedhadak Singh, P.W.4-S.I., Yogendra Pal Singh, investigating officer and P.W.5- R.K. Singh, Station Officer.

5. Statements of accused were recorded under Section 313 Cr.P.C. wherein the accused denied all the allegations levelled against them and stated that nothing incriminating has been recovered from their possession and witnesses have wrongly implicated them and the false evidence is given by witnesses against them. No defence witness was produced, however, opportunity to produce defence evidence was provided.

6. After hearing the arguments on behalf of the accused and ADGC, learned trial court acquitted the accused Guddu and Ajay Kumar for the offences punishable under Section 457 and 380 I.P.C and convicted them under Section 411 I.P.C. and punished them with rigorous imprisonment for one year. It is also mentioned in the operative portion of the judgment that the accused have remained in jail since 22.03.1996 to 11.04.1996 and the period already undergone in jail shall be adjusted towards the sentence.

7. Learned counsel for the revisionist submitted that the revisionist is not challenging the impugned order confirming the order of conviction passed by the Trial Court and he confined himself only with respect to the order of sentence passed by the learned trial court. It is further submitted that revisionist is not a previous convict and he has no criminal history apart from this case, therefore, in view of the above facts and circumstances, trial court ought to have invoked the provisions of Probation of Offenders Act, 1958. It is submitted that learned Trial Court neither invoked the provisions of Probation of Offenders Act nor the provisions under Section 360 Cr.P.C. while sentencing the accused-revisionist. Trial Court has not given any specific reason why the present accused is not given the benefit of above mentioned provisions. Therefore, the judgment and order passed by the learned Trial Court suffers from serious illegality as the order of learned trial court is violative of provisions under Section 361 Cr.P.C., therefore, the impugned judgment is liable to be set-aside.

8. Section 361 Cr.P.C. is read as under:-

"361. Special reasons to be recorded in certain cases -- Where in any case the Court could have dealt with

(a) an accused person under section 360 or under the provisions of the Probation of Offenders Act, 1958 (20 of 1958), or

(b) a youthful offender under the Children Act, 1960 (60 of 1960), or any other law for the time being in force for the treatment, training or rehabilitation of youthful offenders, but has not done so, it shall record in its judgment the special reasons for not having done so."

9. From the perusal of the judgment, it transpires that learned Trial Court, while dealing with the sentence recorded that the Generator Set, recovered from the possession of accused was very costly and, therefore, the benefit of Section 4 of Probation of Offenders Act cannot be given to the accused.

10. Learned AGA appearing on behalf of the State did not dispute the fact that accused-revisionist is a first time offender and was not previously convicted in any other case and the time period which has lapsed since the date of incident, the benefit of Section 4 of the Probation of Offenders Act can be granted in this case.

11. It is apparent from the impugned judgment that learned Trial Court mentioned the special reason to deny the benefit of section 4 of the probation of offenders act to the revisionist but learned trial court did not considered the fact that this is a first case against the accused and he is not convicted earlier and merely on the ground that the generator, which was too costly was recovered from the possession of accused-appellant, the benefit of section 4 of the probation of offenders act is withheld. Hence, learned learned trial court did not consider the facts and circumstances of the case as a whole, the age of revisionist, the possibility for his improvement and passed the judgment without considering the above mentioned circumstances.

12. In view of the facts and circumstances and considering the scope of Section 4 of the Probation of Offenders Act, and the time period which has elapsed since the date of occurrence, the Revision is according dismissed by upholding the conviction of accused-revisionist. However, he is granted the benefit of Section 4 of the Probation of Offenders Act.

13. Revisionist is directed to appear before the court concerned and CJM concerned is directed to extend the benefit of Section 4 of the Probation of Offenders Act to the accused-revisionist and release him on probation on the execution of personal bond and sureties to the tune of Rs. 20,000/- (Twenty thousand) along with undertaking to keep peace and tranquility in society and not to commit any offence in future for one year.

14. Accused-revisionist shall appear before the CJM within a period of one month from today for compliance of the present order.

15. As provided under Section 5 of the Probation of Offenders Act, revisionist shall pay a compensation of Rs. 15,000/- (Fifteen thousand) in DLSA within one month from today.

16. In case of breach of any of the said condition, the accused-revisionist shall subject himself to undergo the sentence.

17. Let the copy of the judgment as well as lower court record be transmitted to concerned trial forthwith for necessary compliance.

(2023) 4 ILRA 156
REVISIONAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 07.04.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MRS. RENU AGARWAL, J.

Criminal Revision No. 338 of 2009

Ali Sher ...Revisionist
Versus
State of U.P. ...Opposite Party

Counsel for the Revisionist:
Saurabh Srivastava, Abdul Samad

Counsel for the Opposite Party:
G.A.

Criminal Law – Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Sections 313, 360, 361, 397 & 401 - India Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 326 & 304(2) - India Evidence Act,1872 – Section 106 - Probation of Offender Act, 1958 - Sections – 4 & 5: : - Criminal Revision - an FIR u/s 326 of IPC - investigation - charge-sheet - conviction & sentenced u/s 326 IPC with simple imprisonment of 3 year with fine - court finds that, victim expressed her desire to divorce her husband and re-marry - and the trial court found the accused guilty based on the Victim's testimony and medical evidence - the issues revolved around the assault on the victim, the credibility of witnesses, and the applicability of the Probation of Offenders Act, - accused is not previously convicted, nor other case apart from this case, is registered against him - The trial court while dealing with the sentence did not discussed why the benefit of Section 4 of Probation of Offenders Act, 1958 cannot be given to the accused - hence, The court upheld the conviction of the accused but, granted the benefit of section 4 of Probation of offenders Act, 1958, directing to the accused to appear before the Chief judicial Magistrate for compliance and payment of compensation - direction issued accordingly. (Para – 26, 28, 29, 30)

Criminal Revision Dismissed. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. Mohd. Monir Alam Vs St. of Bihar - (2010) 12 SCC 26),

2. St. of Karnataka Vs Mudappa - 1999 SCC (CRI) 1028.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Mrs. Renu Agarwal, J.)

1. The present Criminal Revision is moved by revisionist u/s 397, 401 CrPC against the judgment and order dated 11.06.2009 passed by Additional Sessions Judge Barabanki in Criminal Appeal No.5 of 2007 (Ali Sher and others vs State of U.P.) u/s 326 IPC in Case Crime No.89 of 1998, P.S.- Deeh, District- Raebareli upholding the conviction of Section 326 IPC for 3 years and fine of Rs. 1000/- each and in default of payment of fine, imprisonment for one month passed by the learned First Judicial Magistrate, Court No.17, Raebareli on 17.04.2007 in Case Crime No.1820 of 2006 (State vs Sher Ali and Others).

2. Wrapping the facts in brief, the victim was married to the revisionist Ali Sher son of Mohammad Zama 14 months ago. Ali Sher was jobless and was doing nothing for rearing his family, therefore, the victim complained his husband and father-in-law that she could not live with Ali Sher in such circumstances and expressed her desire to divorce her husband and remarry another person. When she expressed such desire, her husband and father-in-law came in the courtyard in the night where she was sleeping. Her father-in-law ride on her stomach and her husband amputated her nose. When she made hue and cry, her brother-in-law Mohd. Abbas came to the scene and saw the incident.

3. On the basis of written report, the case was registered on 26.07.1998 as Case Crime No.89 of 1998 u/s 326 IPC and was investigated by Investigating Officer to record the statements of witnesses. He investigated the spot and prepared site plan and produced the victim/injured before the Medical Officer and got her medically examined. Thereafter, he submitted charge-sheet u/s 326 IPC.

4. Learned Trial Court framed and explained charges against the accused who abjured from the charges and claimed to be tried.

5. The prosecution in order to prove their case, adduced PW-1 Mustafa, PW-2 Abbas, PW-3 Zahida Bano and PW-4 Dr. R.P. Maurya, PW-5 Constable/Moharrir Subhash Chandra Tiwari.

6. After the conclusion of prosecution witnesses, statements of accused were recorded u/s 313 CrPC whereby they denied the allegation levelled against them and they refused to adduce any defence, however, the opportunity was awarded to them.

7. Learned Trial Court, after the perusal of record and evidence adduced by the prosecution, reached to the conclusion that the medical report is proved by PW-4 Dr. R.P. Maurya and the face of victim was deformed due to deep cut on nose. The victim herself appeared as PW-1 and she corroborated the contents of the FIR, hence the learned Trial Court convicted both the accused u/s 326 IPC and sentenced them with simple imprisonment of 3 years and fine to the tune of Rs. 1000/- each and with additional simple imprisonment of one month each in default of payment of fine.

8. Aggrieved with the judgment and order dated 13.04.2017 passed by the Judicial Magistrate, Court No.17, First Appeal was filed.

9. First Appellate Court perused the statements of PW-1 Mustafa, PW-2 Abbas who were declared hostile during trial. PW-1 Mohd. Mustafa admitted that he accompanied the injured to the police station. He is also close relative to Ali Sher and Mohammad Zama who is uncle and brother of the accused respectively, consequently, he did not corroborate the prosecution version. PW-2 Abbas is the real brother of accused/revisionist Ali Sher and son of accused/revisionist Mohammad Zama, who has not supported the prosecution version and were declared hostile. It is very natural that he did not corroborate the testimony of the injured as he is in the blood relation of the revisionist.

10. PW-4 Dr. R.P. Maurya proved injury report and found the following injuries:-

11. (i) cut injury of 2.5 cm X 0.5 cm X muscle deep in the middle of right side of nose of the victim/injured the edges of which were averted.

12. (ii) cut wound of 2 cm X 0.5 cm X muscle deep in the middle of left side of nose the edges of which were sharp and averted and;

13. (iii) cut wound of 5.5 cm long cutting left nostril, deep into nose and to the septum of nose.

14. PW-4 Dr. R.P. Maurya opined that some part of nose was severed from nose and was not found at the time of medical examination. The face was deformed and all the injuries were caused by sharp edged weapon and are 12 hours old. First Appellate Court analyzed the statement of the victim/injured.

15. Injured Zahida Bano proved the incident beyond suspicion. First Appellate Court held that the incident occurred in the house of the accused, therefore, the burden of proof u/s 106 of Indian Evidence Act lies upon the accused to explain how Zahida Bano sustained such injuries. The motive is self-evident that victim wanted to divorce the revisionist Ali Sher and wanted to remarry another person, therefore, the accused deformed the face of victim/injured so that she may be refrained from remarriage. During cross-examination, Smt. Zahida Bano admitted that she knew before marriage that her husband was physically challenged by right leg and the family of both the bride and groom were agreed that both the bride and groom will get divorced if the bride is not agree to reside with her husband. Later on, she expressed her desire to divorce her husband after 14 month of marriage.

16. Aggrieved with the judgment and order dated 11.06.2009 passed by Judicial Magistrate and the order of First Appellate Court dated 13.04.2017, the present revision has been filed.

17. Heard learned counsel for the revisionist Sri Abdul Samad and learned AGA for the State and perused the record.

18. Learned counsel for the revisionist submitted that the Trial Court and the First Appellate Court did not look into the fact that PW-1 Mustafa and PW-2 Abbas turned hostile during the trial and injured Zahida Bano admitted in her cross-examination that she was sleeping inside the house and closed the main door from inside and revisionist no.1 was sleeping outside at the time of occurrence, therefore, it is not possible that revisionist broke the door from outside and committed the alleged offence at 02:00 am in the night.

19. It is also submitted that occurrence had taken place at 02:00 am on 26.07.1998 which goes to show that Zahida Bano did not sustain grievous injuries. Revisionist no.1 is physically handicapped and Zahida Bano married to revisionist no.1 having full knowledge that revisionist no.1 is handicapped before marriage.

20. It is also submitted that Dr. Arun Kumar Singh performed plastic surgery of the nose of Zahida Bano at Raj Nursing Home and she has solemnized second marriage after getting divorced from Ali Sher. It is also submitted that there is no opportunity awarded to revisionist to explain the circumstances appearing in evidence against them, therefore, it is prayed to set aside the judgment and order of conviction passed by learned First Judicial Magistrate, Court No.17 on 17.07.2007 and the judgment passed by Additional Sessions Judge, Raebareli in Criminal Appeal No.5 of 2007 on 11.06.2009 convicting the revisionist u/s 326. It is also contented that if learned Trial Court do not award benefit of Probation of Offenders Act, 1958 to accused, he must mention the reason of not awarding the benefit of Probation of Offenders Act, 1958. Learned counsel relied on Mohd. Monir Alam vs State of Bihar (2010) 12 Supreme Court Cases 26, Hon'ble Apex Court held that:

"...His conduct and attainments after his involvement in the matter justifies his release on probation..."

21. And Hon'ble Apex Court awarded the benefit of Section 4 of Probation of Offenders Act, 1958.

22. Learned Counsel for the revisionist relied upon State of Karnataka vs Mudappa, wherein Hon'ble Supreme Court considered the question as to whether the benefit of Probation of Offenders Act, 1958 could be extended to offence u/s 304(2) of IPC and concluded that there is no statutory bar for the application of Probation of Offenders Act, 1958 to an offence u/s 304(2) where maximum punishment is neither death, nor imprisonment for life.

23. During the argument, learned counsel for the revisionist did not dispute the conviction of revisionist. Arguing on the point of sentence, learned counsel submitted that it was a family dispute and the incident happened in deep depression of accused/revisionist Ali Sher when his wife desired to divorce him and remarry another person. Learned Trial Court did not explain why the benefit of Section 4 of Probation of Offenders Act, 1958 must not be granted to present revisionist. It is further submitted that revisionist is not previous convict and he has no criminal history apart from this case, therefore, in view of the above facts and circumstances, learned Trial Court ought to have invoked the provision of Probation of Offenders Act, 1958.

24. Per contra, learned AGA submitted that there is concurrent finding of both the Courts that revisionist with the help of his father, chipped off the nose of victim/injured deforming her face, however, it was agreed between the parents of both the sides that the party shall divorce if the bride is not agree to reside with her husband after marriage and when she expressed her willingness to divorce her husband, present revisionist chipped off her nose so as to deform her face.

25. Nothing is on record to show that the revisionists are falsely implicated in the case, therefore, from the perusal of the judgment of both the Courts, it transpires that the concurrent finding is given by both the Courts and the revisionists were held guilty u/s 326 IPC. Court agreed with the aforesaid finding of the learned Sessions Judge especially in the opinion of PW-4 Dr. R.P. Maurya.

26. From the perusal of the judgment, it transpires that learned Trial Court while dealing with the sentence recorded, did not discuss why the benefit of Section 4 of Probation of Offenders Act, 1958 cannot be given to the accused.

27. It transpires from the finding of Court that learned Trial Court neither invoked Probation of Offenders Act, 1958, nor the provision u/s 360 CrPC while sentencing the accused revisionist, Trial Court has not given a specific reason why the present accused should not be given to benefit of above mentioned provisions. Therefore, the judgment and order passed by learned Trial Court suffers from serious illegality as the order of learned Trial Court is violative of provisions under Section 361 CrPC, therefore, the impugned judgment is liable to be set aside. Section 361 CrPC is read as under:

"361. Special reasons to be recorded in certain cases -

Where in any case the Court should have dealt with

(a) an accused person u/s 307 or under the Probation of Offenders Act, 1958(20 of 1958), or

(b) A youthful offender under the Children's Act, 1960(60 of 1960), or another like for the time being in force for the treatment, training of Rehabilitation of youthful offenders, but has not done so, it shall record in its judgment the special reasons for not having done so."

28. It is apparent that the accused is not previously convicted, no other case apart from this case, is registered against him. The offence committed in the desperate state of mind when his wife desired to divorce him and remarry another person and to the fact that respondent Zahida Bano had already remarried another person, the benefit of Probation of Offenders Act, 1958 can be extended to the present revisionist also.

29. In view of the above facts and circumstances and considering the scope of Section 4 of Probation of Offenders Act, 1958 and the time which is already lapsed from the date of occurrence, the revision is accordingly dismissed by upholding the conviction of accused/revisionist, however, he is granted the benefit of Section 4 of Probation of Offenders Act, 1958.

30. Revisionist is directed to appear before the Court concerned and Chief Judicial Magistrate concerned is directed to extend the benefit of Section 4 of Probation of Offenders Act, 1958 to the accused/revisionist and released him on probation on the execution of personal bond and sureties to the tune of Rs.20,000/- along with the undertaking to keep peace and tranquility in society and not to commit any offence in future during the period of one year.

31. Accused/revisionist shall appear before the CJM within the period one one month from today for compliance of the present order. As provided u/s 5 of Probation of Offenders Act, 1958, revisionist shall pay a compensation of Rs.10,000/- which shall be deposited in District Legal Services Authority, within one month from today.

32. In case of breach of any said conditions, the accused/revisionist shall subject himself to undergo the sentence.

33. Let the copy of this judgment as well as Lower Court record be transmitted to the concerned Trial Court forthwith for necessary compliance.

(2023) 4 ILRA 161
REVISIONAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 16.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ARUN KUMAR SINGH DESHWAL, J.

Criminal Revision No. 1848 of 2010

Pawan Singhania ...Revisionist
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Revisionist:
Sri A.P. Tewari, Sri S.S. Tripathi, Sri Sudhanshu Pandey

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A., Sri B.K. Tripathi

Criminal Law – Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Sections 145 & 146(1) - Criminal Revision - - Civil Suit - Right to possession - revisionist challenged the order passed by Additional Sessions Judge in Criminal Revision filed by opposite party no. 2 by which Revisional court set aside the order passed by the City Magistrate, U/s 145 & 146(1) Cr.P.C. merely on the ground that civil suit, which was subsequently filed, is pending between the parties - There is apprehension that civil suit is pending between parties and they can adjudicate their rights through civil court - , there is no purpose for proceeding under Section 145 Cr.P.C. - Apex Court clearly held that, proceeding u/s 145 of Cr.P.C. cannot be dropped merely on the ground that one party had approached civil court not with regard to title or right to possession therefore in view of law and fact, the impugned order passed by the Additional Sessions Judge, in Criminal Revision is absolutely erroneous and passed on non-application of mind - hence, impugned order is liable to be quashed and it is accordingly quashed - The matter is remanded back and the City Magistrate is directed to conclude the proceeding, preferably within a period of six months - directions issued accordingly. (Para – 5, 7)

Criminal Revision is disposed of. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. Prakash Chand Sachdeva Vs St. & anr. reported in AIR 1994 SC 1436

2. Amresh Tiwari Vs Lalta Prasad Dubey & ors. (AIR 2000 Supreme court 1504),

3. Jhummamal @ Devandas Vs St. of M. P. reported in, (AIR 1988 SC 1973),

4. Ganga Bux Singh Vs Sukhdin, AIR 1959 All 141

(Delivered by Hon'ble Arun Kumar Singh Deshwal, J.)

1. Heard Sri Sudhanshu Pandey, learned counsel for the revisionist and Sri Hari Pratap Gupta, learned AGA for the State.

2. By means of present revision, the revisionist has challenged the order dated 28.04.2010 passed by the Additional Sessions Judge/Court No.10, Gorakhpur in Criminal Revision No.217 of 2010

(Deepankar Pandey vs the State of U.P. and another) filed by the opposite party no.2 by which the revisional court set aside the order passed by the City Magistrate, Gorakhpur, under Sections 145 and 146(1) Cr.P.C. merely on the ground that civil suit, which was subsequently filed, is pending between the parties.

3. Contention of learned counsel for the revisionist is that impugned order passed by the Additional Sessions Judge, Gorakhpur is absolutely erroneous as learned court below has failed to consider that the civil suit is not in the right to possession but simply on the question of possession and prayer was made in that suit that he may not be evicted except adopt due procedural law. It was further contended that the Apex Court in the judgement of Prakash Chand Sachdeva vs State and another reported in AIR 1994 Supreme Court 1436 has held that merely pendency of civil suit between the parties can not be a ground for dropping the proceeding under Section 145 Cr.P.C. if there is no title or right of possession to the subject matter of suit. The civil suit was filed by the opposite party no.2 subsequent to the initiation of proceeding under Section 145 Cr.P.C. merely on the ground that there is some dispute between the parties on the basis of agreement to sale cannot be a ground to drop the proceeding under Section 145 Cr.P.C.

4. Learned counsel for the revisionist further relied on the case of Amresh Tiwari vs Lalta Prasad Dubey and another reported in AIR 2000 Supreme Court 1504, wherein the Apex Court has already held in the case of Jhummamal alias Devandas vs. State of Madhya Pradesh reported in, (1988) 4 SCC 452 : (AIR 1988 SC 1973 : 1989 Cri LJ 82) that "this authority lays down that merely because a civil suit is pending does not mean that proceedings under Section 145, Criminal Procedure Code should be set a naught. In our view this authority does not lay down any such broad proposition. In this case the proceedings under Section 145, Criminal Procedure Code had resulted in a concluded order. Thereafter the party, who had lost, filed civil proceedings be quashed. It is in that context that this Court held that merely because a civil suit had been filed did not mean that the concluded order under Section 145 Criminal Procedure Code should be quashed. This is entirely a different situation. In this case the civil suit had been filed first. An order of status quo had already been passed by the competent civil court. Thereafter Section 145 proceedings were commenced. No final order had been passed in the proceedings under Section 145. In our view on the facts of the present case the ratio laid down in Ram summers case (AIR 1985 SC 472 : 1985 Cri LJ 752) (supra) fully applies. We clarify that we are not stating that in every case where a civil suit is filed. Section 145 proceedings would never lie. It is only in cases where civil suit is for possession or for declaration of title in respect of the same property and where reliefs regarding protection of the property concerned can be applied for and granted by the civil Court that proceedings under Section 145 should not be allowed to continue. This is because the civil court is competent to decide the question of title as well allowed to continue. This is because the civil court is competent to decide the question of title as well as possession between the parties and the orders of the civil Court would be binding on the Magistrate."

5. On the other hand, learned AGA for the State submits that there is apprehension that civil suit is pending between the parties and they can adjudicate their rights through civil court, therefore, there is no purpose for proceeding under Section 145 Cr.P.C.

6. Considering the rival contention of the parties, I am of the view that impugned order was passed mainly on the ground that civil suit is pending between the parties without looking to the nature of leave of civil suit and without even going into the question that civil suit is not regarding the possession but merely to protect the possession till the process of law adopted and from perusal of plaint of the suit No. 709 of 2009, it appears that there is no title dispute between the parties and private respondents did not claim ownership or possession on the basis of any right, therefore, there is no occasion to drop the proceeding under Section 145 Cr.P.C. when there is purely question of possession is pending before the Magistrate even in the judgement relied upon by the counsel for the revisionist. The Apex Court clearly observed that question of possession is involved then the Magistrate is empowered to take cognizance under Section 145 Cr.P.C. Even in the judgement of Full Bench of this court reported AIR 1959 All 141, Ganga Bux Singh vs Sukhdin has settled the issue.

"It has been held that the proceedings under Sections 145 Cr.P.C. are only in the interest of the maintenance of peace and not in the interest of the preservation of the rights of any party. It was further held that the proceedings under Section 145 of the Code of Criminal Procedure are materially different from the proceedings in a proper suit.

From the nature of the provisions it is clear that the Magistrate has been given this power primarily to preserve peace. The individual rights are affected only incidentally.

The nature of the enquiry is quasi civil. It is an incursion by the criminal court in the jurisdiction of the civil court. It is, therefore, necessary that this incursion should be carefully circumscribed to the extend absolutely necessary discharging the function laid on the Magistrate of preserving the peace. The provisions of Section 145, Code of Criminal Procedure make that ample clear.

The Magistrate does not enquire into the merits of the claims of the parties or even their right to possess the subject of the dispute. He is only concerned with the question as to who was in actual physical possession on the relevant date. This also indicates that the starting point of the proceedings) must be the date when he was satisfied that an apprehension of a breach of the peace existed and not even he received the first information."

7. The Apex Court clearly held that proceeding under Section 145 Cr.P.C. cannot be dropped merely on the ground that one party had approached civil court not with regard to title or right to possession therefore in view of law and fact, the impugned order dated 28.04.2010 passed by the Additional Sessions Judge, Gorakhpur in Criminal Revision No. 217 of 2010 is absolutely erroneous and passed on non-application of mind, therefore, the impugned order is liable to be quashed and it is accordingly quashed.

8. The matter is remanded back and the City Magistrate is directed to conclude the proceeding under Section 145 as well as 146 Cr.P.C. preferably within a period of six months from the date of production of a certified copy of this order, strictly in accordance with law.

9. The revision is finally disposed of.

(2023) 4 ILRA 164
REVISIONAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 05.01.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE UMESH CHANDRA SHARMA, J.

Criminal Revision No. 2608 of 2022

Smt. Suman ...Revisionist
Versus
State of U.P. ...Opposite Party

Counsel for the Revisionist:
Sri Pankaj Kumar Shukla

Counsel for the Opposite Party:
G.A., Sri Devesh Kumar Sharma

Criminal Law – Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Sections 161, 293, 311, 313 & 482 - India Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 323, 325, 504 & 506 - Criminal Revision - revisionist challenged the order passed by the trial court by which the application moved u/s 311 of Cr.P.C. by the informant requesting to summoned the Doctor as witness who had examined the injured person was rejected on the ground that the injuries alleged to be caused to the injured are said to be simple in nature and it is not necessary that if the investigator has not taken the St.ment u/s 161 Cr.P.C., a person cannot be summoned as well as on the ground that the prosecution is itself opposing the application on the ground that an advocate can be appointed by the informant to assist the prosecution, but they cannot act as prosecution officer - maintainability of application – Held, it was the duty of the Trial Court to summon the witness of concern doctor suo-moto, - and - the judge of a criminal court is not a silent spectator - it is his duty to be vigilant and conscious and if there is apprehension of injustice during the court of trial - further, the charge-sheet is not a borderline, which cannot it crossed by the trial court, it is not a Holy Bible, Quran or Gita or any other mandatory enactment, which must be obeyed in every event, if the learned trial court finds that the injured were medically examined by a particular doctor and he has prepared the injury report, it was the duty of court to summon him instead of fact that his St.ment was not recorded by the I.O. and he was not arrayed in the list of witnesses of charge-sheet - Hence, any person and any such person can be summoned as witness, which shows that there is not limit in exercising the discretion of the court in any way - Revision is allowed and impugned order is quashed. (Para – 12, 13, 16, 18, 22, 32)

Criminal Revision allowed. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. Rekha Murakka Vs St. of W. B .& ors., J.T 2019 (11) S.C 291

2. Mohan Lal Shamji Soni Vs U.O.I., A.I.R 1991 S.C. 1346

3. R.B. Mithani Vs St. of Mah., A.I.R 1971 S.C 1630

4. Rama Paswan Vs St. of Jharkhand, 2007 Cr.L.J 2750

5. Raku Manjal Vs St. of Jharkhand, 2006 Cr.L.J 293

6. Raj Deo Sharma Vs St. of Bihar, AIR 1999 SC 3524

7. Shailendra Kumar Vs St. of Bihar, AIR 2002 SC 270

8. Govind Ram Vs St. of U.P., 1999 Cr.L.J 1955 (Allahabad)

9. Ramasami Vs Sriniwasan, 1987 (3) Crimes 89 Madras.

10. Bhima Mudali and Ors. Vs St. of Orissa & anr., 1996 Cr.L.J. 1899 Orrisa

11. Chemo Steel Limited Vs St. of Andhra Pradesh 2005 Cr.L.J 716

12. Om Prakash Vs St. of Raj. 2003 Cr.L.J 4704

(Delivered by Hon'ble Umesh Chandra Sharma, J.)

1. This criminal revision has been instituted by the revisionist to set aside the order dated 31st May, 2022 passed by A.S.J-VI, Mathura in S.T. No. 433 of 2012 (Smt. Suman Vs. Krishna Murari & Ors.) under Sections 323, 325, 504, 506 I.P.C. Police Station Vrindaban, District Mathura, by which the Trial Court has rejected the application 136-B by the informant under Section 311 Cr.P.C.

2. In brief facts of the case are that the aforementioned Sessions Trial is pending in the Court of A.S.J-VI, Mathura, in which the informant moved an application 136-B that injured Rajan Lal was examined on 03rd July, 2009 in Swarna Jayanti Community Hospital. Medical report 4-A/17 is on record, he was examined by Dr. Ajai Gopal, during the medical examination Mild Subarachnoid Hemorrhage was found on the head and he was carried out in unconscious position/stage to the hospital therefore the statement of concerned doctor is necessary. Hence, Dr. Ajai Gopal be summoned as witness. The concerned I.O. has not arrayed him as witness, therefore Dr. Ajai Gopal be summoned under Section 311 Cr.P.C.

3. Learned counsel for the accused had vehemently opposed the application and had stated that this file is under Section 313 Cr.P.C on 01.01.2014 and is being delayed intentionally. The injury of Rajan Lal is simple in nature and the statement of Dr. Ajai Gopal has not been been recorded by the concerned I.O. under Section 161 Cr.P.C.

4. By the impugned order, the learned trial court has rejected the application on the ground that the injuries alleged to be caused to the injured are said to be simple in nature. The learned A.D.G.C has objected the summoning of the said witness in such a situation when the statement of the victim has been made and the trial relates to Sections 323, 325, 504, 506 I.P.C, therefore calling or not calling of the aforesaid doctor would have not special effect on the prosecution. It is also clarified that this sessions trial is connected with another cross case, which is under the action plan laid down by the Hon'ble High Court, which has to be decided expeditiously, therefore, the application is not maintainable and is liable to be rejected.

5. It has also been concluded by the trial court that the application under Section 311 Cr.P.C has been opposed by the learned ADGC (Criminal) what evidence the prosecution wants to present in the court, it is the responsibility of the prosecution. It is not necessary that if the investigator has not taken the statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C, a person cannot be summoned but in this case, the prosecution itself is opposing it. The advocate appointed by the informant can assist the prosecution, but they can not act as prosecution officer. The learned trial court has referred the judgment Rekha Murakka Vs. State of West Bengal & Ors. J.T 2019 (11) S.C 291, in which it has been held that the learned counsel for the victim//informant plays only a secondary role in advancing the prosecution case.

6. Being aggrieved the revisionist has filed the present revision.

7. In the application, the applicant has taken ground that the impugned order has been passed without application of mind by wrongly interpreting the judgement of Rekha Murakka (supra) and thus rejected the legal and genuine claim of the revisionist.

8. Dr. Ajai Gopal is the sole witness, who has medically examined the injured Rajan Lal on 03rd July, 2009 in Swarna Jayanti Community Hospital and has given opinion in which he has contended that the injury cannot be seen due to plaster and referred the injured to District Hospital, Mathura for x-ray about the opinion regarding injury no. 1. In this incident, Rajan and Sunder Lal, two persons had sustained grievous injury and both were examined by Dr. Ajai Gopal, therefore his deposition is more important for conclusion of the case.

9. Since, the learned trial court is also adjudicating the cross version, therefore, it is duty of the trial court to scrutinize the injuries thoroughly, but the trial court adopting the process in harried manner only on the ground that it is cross case and referring the High Court action plan, rejected the claim of the revisionist in violation of statutory provisions under the garb of action plan. The impugned order is wholly illegal and arbitrary and against the principles of natural justice, hence the revision be allowed and the order dated 31st may, 2022 be set aside.

10. Heard Sri Pankaj Kumar Shukla, learned counsel for the revisionist, Sri Pankaj Kumar Tripathi, learned A.G.A for the State and perused the material available on record.

11. The injury reports have been filed through annexure no. 2, which are said to be prepared after medical examination by Dr. Ajai Gopal. As per the injury report the victim Rajan Lal has sustained three injuries, he could not see injury no. 1 properly as there was plaster of paris thereon, hence he referred the patient to District Hospital, Mathura for expert opinion. He found that injury no. 2 is simple in nature caused by hard and blunt object. Injury no. 3 was the stitched wound. At page no. 28 there is a copy of x-ray report form. At page 30 there is photocopy of the injury report of Sundar Lal, he has sustained two injuries, out of which injury no. 1 was kept under observation and it was referred for x-ray and expert opinion. At page 30, there is x-ray form regarding the injured Sundar Lal.

12. This court is of the view that it was the duty of I.O. to record the statement of the concerned Doctor and array his name in the column of witness in the charge-sheet. If it has not been done, it is not a fault of the informant/revisionist, if Dr. Ajay Gopal is not examined, the injury reports prepared by him would not be proved and would not be admissible in evidence. If no objection has been raised on the said injury report, it may be exhibited but it is not liable to be exhibited under Section 293 Cr.P.C. Therefore, it was the duty of the trial court to summon the witness Dr. Ajay Gopal suo-moto. He was also under the obligation to record a finding that it is fault on the part of I.O that he did not record the statement of Dr. Ajay Gopal and has not copied the injury reports in case diary.

13. The judge of a criminal court is not a silent spectator, it is his duty to be vigilant and conscious and if there is apprehension of injustice during the course of trial, it is his duty to be vigilant. The charge-sheet is not the borderline, which cannot it cross by the trail court, it is not a Holy Bible, Quran or Gita or any other mandatory enactment, which must be obeyed in every event, if the learned trial court finds that the injured were medically examined by Dr. Ajay Gopal and he has prepared the injury report, it was the duty of the trial court to summon him instead of fact that his statement was not recorded by the I.O and he was not arrayed in the list of witnesses in charge-sheet.

14. Section 311 Cr.P.C provided wide power to the court to summon the material witness, which is as under:-

"Power to summon material witness, or examine person present. Any Court may, at any stage of any inquiry, trial or other proceeding under this Code, summon any person as a witness, or examine any person in attendance, though not summoned as a witness, or. recall and re- examine any person already examined; and the Court shall summon and examine or recall and re- examine any such person if his evidence appears to it to be essential to the just decision of the case."

15. The second part of Section 482 Cr.P.C is mandatory and it casts duty on the court to summon, examine or call or re-examine any such persons, if his evidence appears to be essential to the just decision of the case.

16. This court is of the view that the evidence of Dr. Ajay Gopal in the aforesaid circumstances is very much essential for the just decision of the case otherwise the prosecution would be deprived of its valuable right. There might be direction under the action plan to decide the case as early as possible, but solely on this reason either of the parties cannot be deprived of his valuable legal right and a trial cannot be finished in illegal and hurried manner. If Dr. Ajay Gopal is not examined certainly the injury reports would be of no avail and inadmissible in evidence.

17. It has not been said by the learned trial court that the accused persons have admitted the genuineness of the injury reports or they have dispensed with the formed proof of the injury reports, it appears that till now the injury reports has not been proved in due course of law, therefore, it was the bounden duty of ADGC (Crl.) and the concerned court not to oppose such necessary application, if was duty of A.D.G.C (Crl.) to move an application to summon Dr. Ajay Gopal as a witness and if this duty was omitted by him, it was the duty of the trial court to summon the concerned doctor for proving the medical report.

18. In Mohan Lal Shamji Soni Vs. Union of India A.I.R 1991 S.C. 1346, it is held that Section 311 is enacted which enables the Court to find out the truth and render a justice decision where-under any court by exercise of it's discretionary authority at any stage of inquiry, trial or other proceedings can summon any person as witness or examine any person in attendance though not summoned as a witness or recall or re-examine any person already examined, who are able to through light upon the matter in dispute .

19. Opportunity to rebuttal would be provided to the other party.

20. In this case on the basis of above decision and provision following ingredience are found which are as under:-

1. To summon any person as a witness, Or

2. To examine any person in attendance, though not summoned as witness or to re-call, re-examine any person, who already examined.

21. The second part which is mandatory imposes obligation on the Court: - to summon and examine or to recall, re-examine any such person, if his evidence appears to be essential to the just decision of the case. This Section is in two parts and wide discretion has been given to the Court to exercise it's jurisdiction at any stage or any inquiry or trial in the proceedings.

22. Any person and any such person can be summoned as witness, which shows that there is not limit in exercising the discretion of the court in any way.

23. In R.B. Mithani Vs. State of Maharashtra A.I.R 1971 S.C - 1630, it is held that additional evidence must be necessary, not because it would be ample to pronounce judgment, but because there would be failure of justice without it. The power must be exercised sparingly and only in suitable case. Once such action is justified there is no restriction in the kind of evidence, which must be received. It may be formal or substantial.

24. In Rama Paswan Vs. State of Jharkhand 2007 Cr.L.J 2750, the Apex Court held that the determine factor is whether summoning or re-calling of the witness is essential to the just decision of the case. The Section is not limited only for the benefit of the accused and it will not be improper of the power of the Court, to summon a witness under the Section merely because the evidence supports the case of the prosecution and not that of the accused. The Section is a general Section which apply to all proceedings, inquiries and trials under the court and empowers the Magistrate to issue summon to any witnesses at any stage of such proceedings, trial or inquiry.

25. In Raku Manjal Vs. State of Jharkhand 2006 Cr.L.J 293, the case was pending for the last 25 years and the prosecution evidence had already been closed. The I.O. and the Doctor, who had performed postmortem examination, were summoned under Section 311Cr.P.C. as their examination was found necessary for the justice decision of the case.

26. In Raj Deo Sharma Vs. State of Bihar, A.I.R 1999 Supreme Court 3524, it is held that once it is found that the evidence is essential for the just decision of the case, the witness can be recalled at any time before pronouncement of the judgment, the time factor would not come for the way. It is not a case where if Dr. Ajay Gopal is summoned it would be an attempt to fill up the lacuna in the prosecution case as the injury report has been prepared by him. It would also not cause prejudice to the accused as he would have an opportunity to cross examine the witness.

27. In Shailendra Kumar Vs. State of Bihar, A.I.R 2002 (Supreme Court) 270, it is held that if there is any negligence, latches or mistake by not examining material witness, the Courts function to render just decision by examining such witness at any stage is not, in any way impaired.

28. In Govind Ram Vs. State of U.P. 1999 Cr.L.J 1955 (Allahabad), it is held that the court had a duty to see that the witnesses are examined for just decision of the case and the court has to call and examine a witness as court witness even if the prosecution does not produce him would be fine that the evidence of the witnesses had an important bearing on the case.

29. In Ramasami Vs. Sriniwasan 1987 (3) Crimes 89 Madras, it is held that the criminal court is not just umpire to deal only the material brought by the parties before it. The court has to play an active role in the administration of criminal jurisprudence. Though, it is not normal duty of the court to collect evidence, in cases where justice requires, the Court has power to further inquire into the matter in order to ascertain the truth.

30. In Bhima Mudali and Ors. Vs. State of Orissa & Anr.1996 Cr.L.J. 1899 Orrisa, In Chemo Steel Limited Vs. State of Andhra Pradesh 2005 Cr.L.J 716 and in Om Prakash Vs. State of Rajasthan 2003 Cr.L.J 4704, it is held that a person not examined under Section 161 Cr.P.C. can also be summoned as witness under Section 311.

31. In view of the above, this Court is of the considered view that the impugned order is perverse and bad in law and is liable to be quashed and the revision is liable to be allowed.

O R D E R

32. This criminal revision is allowed and the impugned order dated dated 31.05.2022, passed by Additional District Judge-VI, Mathura in S.T. No. 433 of 2012 - (Smt. Suman Vs. Krishna Murari & Ors), under Sections 323, 325, 504 and 506 I.P.C, Police Station Vrindavan, District Mathura, is hereby quashed.

33. The learned court is directed to summon Dr. Ajay Gopal, to prove the medical reports.

34. This order be sent to the trial court ASJ-VI, Mathura, forthwith for immediate and strict compliance.

(2023) 4 ILRA 169
REVISIONAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 16.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ARUN KUMAR SINGH DESHWAL, J.

Criminal Revision No. 3212 of 2009

Uma Shankar & Ors. ...Revisionists
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Revisionists:
Sri D.K. Singh, Sri A.K. Rai, Sri Bimal Prasad

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A., Sri A.K. Srivastava

Criminal Law – Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Sections 145 & 146 - Criminal Revision - Challenging the order passed by S.D.M. in a proceeding u/s 145 of Cr.P.C. by which Application of revisionist, to drop the proceedings, was rejected - court finds that, title of the suit property is already decided in favour of the revisionist and a Civil Suit is also pending between parties an interim injunction is also passed in favour of the revisionist - held, in view of legal position highlighted by the full bench in a case of 'Ganga Bux Singh' the proceeding u/s 145 Cr.P.C. are materially different from proceedings in proper suit and as such when the proceedings in Civil Suit is pending regarding a property then SDM has no jurisdiction to proceed u/s 145 of Cr.P.C. - therefore, order impugned is set-aside and the impugned proceeding u/s 145 Cr.P.C. are hereby dropped - however, parties are at liberty to pursue their cases in Civil Court - revision stands allowed.

(Para – 7, 10, 11)

Criminal Revision Allowed. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. Ram Sumer Puri Mahant Vs St. of U.P. & ors. (AIR 1985 SC 472)

2. Kunj Bihari Vs Balram & anr., reported in (2006) 11 SCC 66,

3. Mohd. Abid & ors. Vs Ravi Naresh & ors. (SLP (Criminal) No. 544/2022,

4. Ganga Bux Singh Vs Sukhdin, AIR 1959 All 141.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Arun Kumar Singh Deshwal, J.)

1. Heard Sri Bimal Prasad, learned counsel for the revisionists and Sri Hari Prasad Gupta, learned counsel appearing for the State. No one appears on behalf of the private respondents.

2. The revisionists have challenged the order dated 15.7.2009, passed by the S.D.M., Chakia, Chandauli by which the application of the revisionists for dropping the proceedings u/s 145 Cr.P.C., on the ground that civil proceeding regarding the land in dispute is already pending and injunction has been granted in his favour and issue of title has been decided by the D.D.C., Chandauli, has been rejected.

3. Learned counsel for the revisionists submitted that D.D.C., Chandauli by order dated 23.8.1983, had already decided the title in favour of the revisionists against which a review application was filed by the private respondents which was rejected on 11.2.2011 by the D.D.C. against which Writ Petition No. 13761 of 2011 was preferred before this court which was also dismissed by order dated 8.3.2011.

4. It is further submitted that a civil suit No. 182 of 1994 was also filed by the revisionists for permanent injunction in which application of the revisionists for temporary injunction was allowed by the civil court by order dated 8.4.1996 and injunction order is also continuing. It is also submitted that the name of the revisionists have already been mutated in the revenue record and Khatauni 1409-1414 fasali of the same has been annexed at Page-55 of the revision. The contention of the counsel in a nutshell is that once the civil proceeding regarding property is pending and title regarding same property was also decided by the D.D.C., then the S.D.M. has no jurisdiction to proceed u/s 145 Cr.P.C.

5. On the other hand learned A.G.A. submitted that there is a report of police station that there is apprehension of breach of peace for taking the possession of the property in dispute, therefore, proceeding was rightly initiated.

6. I have considered the rival submissions and it is clear from the record that a civil suit No. 182 of 1994 regarding same property is pending before the Civil Judge, Chakia and an interim injunction was also granted in favour of the revisionist and also D.D.C. Chandauli by order dated 23.8.1983 has also decided the title regarding the property in dispute in favour of the revisionists. This order has been affirmed up to this Court, therefore, there is no occasion on the part of the S.D.M. to further proceed u/s 145 Cr.P.C. after knowledge of the above fact.

7. The Apex Court in the judgement of Ram Sumer Puri Mahant vs. State of U.P. and others (AIR 1985 Supreme Court 472) has observed that when the proceeding in civil court is pending regarding a property then S.D.M. has no jurisdiction to proceed u/s 145 Cr.P.C. against the said property.

8. In the case of Kunj Bihari vs. Balram and another, reported in (2006) 11 SCC 66, the Apex Court observed that once the right of parties is settled by a forum then proceeding u/s 145 Cr.P.C. cannot be allowed to continue as the same would be abuse of process.

9. In the case of Mohd. Abid and other vs. Ravi Naresh and others passed in SLP (Criminal) No. 5444 of 2022, the legal position explained by the Apex Court in paragraph-4 of the judgement is quoted below:-

"4. It is, however, an admitted fact that the petitioners have already filed a suit for injunction in which ex-parte adinterim injunction has been granted by the Civil Court, Faizabad, Uttar Pradesh on 05.12.2020. Once the Civil Court is seized of the matter, it goes without saying that the proceedings under Section 145/146 Cr.P.C. cannot proceed and must come to an end. The interse rights of the parties regarding title or possession are eventually to be determined by the Civil Court."

10. A full Bench of this Court in its judgement reported in AIR 1959 All 141 (Ganga Bux Singh vs. Sukhdin) has settled the position regarding proceeding u/s 145 Cr.P.C. and observed that it is only in the interest of maintenance of peace and not in the interest of preservation of right of any party. It was further held that the proceedings u/s 145 Cr.P.C. are materially different from proceedings in proper suit and legal position was highlighted by the full Bench in paragraph-13 which is being quoted below:-

"13. From the nature of the provisions it is clear that the Magistrate has been given this power pri-mirily to preserve peace. The individual rights are affected only incidentally.

The nature of the enquiry is quasi civil. It is an incursion by the criminal court in the jurisdiction of the civil court. It is, therefore, necessary that this incursion should be carefully circumscribed to the extent absolutely necessary discharging the function laid on the Magistrate of preserving the peace. The provisions of Section 145, Code of Criminal Procedure make that amply clear.

The Magistrate does not enquire into the merits of the claims of the parties or even their right to possess the subject of the dispute. He is only concerned with the question as to who was in actual physical possession on the relevant date. This also indicates that the starting point of the proceedings) must be the date when he was satisfied that an apprehension of a breach of the peace existed and not when he received the first information."

11. In view of the above fact, the impugned order dated 15.7.2009, passed by the S.D.M. Chakia, Chandauli is set aside and proceeding before him u/s 145 Cr.P.C. are hereby dropped and parties are at liberty to pursue their cases in civil court.

12. Accordingly, the revision stands allowed.

(2023) 4 ILRA 172
REVISIONAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 05.01.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE UMESH CHANDRA SHARMA, J.

Criminal Revision No. 3318 of 2022

Nizamuddin & Ors. ...Revisionists
Versus
State of U.P. ...Opposite Party

Counsel for the Revisionists:
Sri Safiullah

Counsel for the Opposite Party:
G.A.

Criminal Law – Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Sections 83, 446 & 446(3) - Criminal Revision - filed on the ground that, the order impugned is illegal and against the weight of evidence on record - maintainability of revision – court finds that, when the sureties produced the accused in the Court before that the amount of the surety bonds had been forfeited - From the principles laid down in the aforesaid judicial precedents, it is clear that, even after forfeiture of the surety bonds, order of remission may be passed adopting lenient view if the accused had been produced by the sureties in the Court concerned – Revision disposed of - impugned order modified, direction accordingly.
(Para – 14, 19, 20)

Criminal Revision Disposed of. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. Rajpal Vs St. of U.P., 2009 Crl.L.J. 160,

2. Jagannath Vs St. of U.P., 2008 (6) AllLJ 696 (All),

3. Jamila Khader Vs St. of Kerala, 2004 CrLJ 3389 Kerala,

4. Mohd. Kunju Vs St. of Karn., AIR 2000 SC 6,

(Delivered by Hon'ble Umesh Chandra Sharma, J.)

1. Heard Shri Safiullah learned counsel for the revisionists and Shri Pankaj Kumar Tripathi, learned A.G.A. for the State.

2. This revision has been preferred against judgement and order dated 12.5.2022 passed by Special Judge POCSO Act Sambhal at Chandausi in Criminal Misc. Case No. 09 of 2022, Computer Case No. 76 of 2022 (State Vs. Chandrapal and Others) arising out of S.S.T. No. 34 of 2020 (State Vs. Faisal) Case Crime No. 207 of 2020 Police Station- Behjoi Disttrict-Sambhal.

3. By the impugned order, the Court below has ordered the revisionists to deposit Rs. 50,000/- as surety amount after forfeiture of surety of entire amount of Rs. 1,00000/-.

4. The present revision has been filed on the ground that the order is illegal and against the weight of evidence on record and based on surmises and conjuncture. The revisionists were not aware of the proceedings under Section 446 Cr.P.C. against them, when they came to know, they searched the accused -Faisal and asked him to surrender before the Court below. The revisionists are very poor persons and do labour work to earn their livelihood. They went to Delhi for labour work and their family had no knowledge of the aforesaid proceedings launched against them. The revisionists moved an application 9 B before the Court below to remit the amount on the aforesaid ground but the Court below remitted the amount to the tune of Rs. 50,000/- to be deposited within two days. The Court below taken the custody of accused and sent him to jail, therefore , the impugned order is against the law and not sustainable in the eye of law and liable to be set-aside. If this Court does not remit the surety amount of Rs 50,000/-, the revisionists shall suffer irreparable loss and injury.

5. The copy of the impugned order alongwith affidavit has been annexed with the revision.

6. Vide order dated 15.10.2022 this Court had allowed Criminal Misc. Bail Application No. and both the revisionists had executed surety bond in compliance of order of this Court for release of the accused Faisal. Perusal of order dated 31.3.2022 shows that in spite of process under Section 83, the accused Faisal did not appear, therefore, notices were issued to the revisionists which were served upon them; consequently surety bonds were forfeited and a criminal misc. Case U/S 446 Cr.P.C. was registered and an order was passed to recover the surety amount of Rupees one lakh through District Magistrate Sambhal.

7. On 10.5.2022 accused-Faisal appeared and requested to take him into judicial custody and thereafter further proceeding of the sessions trial was conducted. It is orally informed by learned counsel for the revisionists that after conclusion of the trial, the accused Faisal has been convicted.

8. Before the trial Court, both the revisionists moved an application on 10.5.2022 stating that they were not knowing that accused Faisal is absconding; after coming to know, they searched the accused at the probable places but he had gone to the eastern part of the country. They could not know about the recovery proceeding, when they found the accused, they brought him before the Court and prayed that the accused may be taken into custody and recovery proceeding against them be terminated.

9. After hearing the revisionists, the trial Court concluded that though the sureties have produced the accused on 10.5.2022 but before that the surety amount of the surety bond had already been forfeited in favour of the State under Section 446 (3) Cr.P.C. After recording the reason, the Court remitted the amount to the extent of Rs. 50,000/- and directed to deposit the amount of Rs. 50,000/- instead of Rs. 1,00000/- within two days.

10. Against the aforesaid order the revisionists have preferred this revision on the ground that they are very poor labour and anyhow they are pulling on their life and anyhow feeding themselves and their family members; they are unable to pay such a huge amount; they should either totally be exempted from depositing such amount or a meagre amount may be directed to be deposited by them within reasonable time.

11. Section 446 (3) Cr.P.C. reads as under;

"the Court may after recording its reason for doing so, remit any part of the penalty mentioned and enforce payment in part only."

12. In Rajpal Vs. State of U.P., 2009 Crl.L.J. 160, "where the sureties have produced the accused before the Court, a lenient view may be taken in matter of recovery of surety amount.

13. In Jagannath Vs State of U.P., 2008 (6) ALJ 696 (All), it has been held that "where the surety appeared before the Court, his application for discharge and remission of penalty would not be rejected merely on the ground that the Court has already passed order for forfeiture of whole amount."

14. In this case though the trial Court has exercised its jurisdiction under Section 446 (3) Cr.P.C., it has also been noted that when the sureties produced the accused in the Court before that the amount of the surety bonds had been forfeited. From the principles laid down in the aforesaid judicial precedents, it is clear that even after forfeiture of the surety bonds, order of remission may be passed adopting lenient view if the accused had been produced by the sureties in the Court concerned.

15. In Jamila Khader Vs. State of Keral, 2004 CrLJ 3389 Kerala, it has been held that "the Appellate or Revisional Court, as the case may be, can always consider, even at a later stage, where there are circumstances warranting remission of penalty."

16. In Mohd. Kunju Vs. State of Karnataka, AIR 2000 SC 6, "the surety amount of Rs. 25,000/- was remitted to Rs.5,000/- only i.e. 1/5th of the total amount"

17. In Jamila Khader (supra) instead of ordering to pay whole amount of Rs. 5,000/- only Rs. 5,00/- was directed to be deposited, after remission.

18. During the course of argument, learned A.G.A. opined that if 1/5th of the total amount is directed to be deposited by the revisionists and rest amount is remitted, it would meet the ends of justice.

19. Considering the overall facts and circumstances, the order dated 12.5.2022 passed by the trial Court is modified to the extent that instead of depositing Rs. 50,000/-, the revisionists shall pay Rs. 20,000/- within a month from the date of this order.

20. In case of the compliance of this order as indicated above, proceedings under Section 446 Cr.P.C. would be terminated by the Court below by passing a speaking order. Let a copy of this order be transmitted to the Court below for compliance and necessary action.

21. With the aforesaid observations, the revision stands disposed of.

(2023) 4 ILRA 174
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 05.04.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE CHANDRA KUMAR RAI, J.

Second Appeal No. 1087 of 2015

Sarnam Singh, Lekhpal Chakbandi
...Plaintiff/Appellant
Versus Preetam Kumari & Anr.
...Defendants/Respondents

Counsel for the Appellant:
Sri Manoj Kumar Sharma, Smt. Krishna Singh, Sri Vijendra Pal Singh

Counsel for the Respondents:
Sri Manoj Kumar Gupta, Sri Mahesh Narain Singh

Civil Law- Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 - Section 100 - Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 -

Section-25 - Second appeal against the part of the judgment & decree of the lower appellate by which the permanent alimony has been granted to defendant against plaintiff- Trial court decreed the suit filed for declaration of the marriage as null and void and also dismissed the suit filed for restitution of conjugal rights- Since the trial court passed the decree declaring the marriage as void / ineffective, as such, there was no occasion to order for maintenance / permanent alimony in favour of respondent – wife while dismissing the civil appeal filed by respondent – wife- No application u/s 25 of the H.M Act on record as such exercise of power u/s 25 of the H.M Act by the lower appellate court while dismissing the civil appeals filed by respondent – wife, affirming the decree of trial court, declaring the marriage as void and ineffective is vitiated by manifest error of law. (Para 15, 16, 17, 20 & 21) (E-15)

List of Cases cited:

1. Abbayolla M. Subba Reddy Vs Padmamxna, 1998 0 Supreme (AP) 477;

2. J. Rajeshwarkant Shahdev Vs Neelam Shahdev, 1980 0 Supreme (MP) 364;

3. Jai Krishan Pandita Vs Nana Kumari, 2007 0 Supreme (J & K) 190; &

4. Amar Chand Sharma Vs Smt. Sita Devi, 2005 0 Supreme (Raj) 291.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Chandra Kumar Rai, J.)

1. Heard Mr. Manoj Kumar Sharma and Smt. Krishna Singh, learned counsel for the appellant and Mr. Manoj Kumar Gupta, Advocate, holding brief of Mr. Mahesh Narain Singh, learned counsel for defendant-respondent no.1.

2. The instant second appeal has been filed against the part of the judgment and decree dated 17.10.2015, by which the permanent alimony has been granted to defendant / respondent no.1 (Preetam Kumari) against plaintiff-appellant (Sarnam Singh) in Civil Appeal No. 44/2010 and Civil Appeal No.45/2010, decided by a common judgment arising out of Original Suit No.257/1997.

3. Original Suit No.257/1997 has been filed by plaintiff-appellant (Sarnam Singh) for declaring the marriage as void and ineffective. Original Suit No.213 of 2003 was filed under Section 9 of the Hindu Marriage Act by defendant respondent no.1 (Preetam Kumari) for restitution of conjugal rights.

4. Plaint case of O.S. No.257 of 1997 in brief is that talk of marriage between the plaintiff and defendant has taken place but due to fraudulent act of the wife- Preetam Kumari and their family members, the mediation has taken place and the proposal of the marriage has come to an end but the father of the Preetam Kumari has illegally kidnapped the plaintiff (Sarnam Singh) and illegally solemnized the marriage which is not a legal marriage as prescribed under the Hindu Marriage Act. It is also mentioned in the plaint that there was no relation of husband and wife between them, as such, the alleged marriage be declared null and void. In the written statement, Preetam Kumari denied the plaint allegations and submitted that the valid marriage has taken place, as such, the suit for declaring the marriage null and void be dismissed. Plaint case of O.S. No.213 of 2003 in brief was that Preetam Kumari was married to Sarnam Singh according to the custom on 5/6.7.1997 but husband Sarnam Singh has deserted her, as such, the instant suit for restitution of conjugal rights has been filed by wife Preetam Kumari. In the written statement, husband Sarnam Singh denied the plaint allegations and stated that no valid marriage according to the Hindu Marriage Act has taken place between them, as such, the plaintiff is not entitled to the relief claimed in the suit for restitution of conjugal rights. It is also mentioned in the written statement that defendant has already filed a Suit No.257/1997 for declaring the marriage as null and void.

5. Both the aforementioned suits were consolidated and heard together. Parties filed oral and documentary evidence in support of their cases. The trial court vide judgment and decree dated 26.8.2010 decreed the Suit No.257/1997 and declared the marriage as null and void and dismissed the Suit No.213/2003 (Preetam Kumari vs. Sarnam Singh) filed for restitution of conjugal rights. Against the judgment and decree dated 26.8.2010, passed by the Civil Judge (S.D.), Etah, Preetam Kumari filed two civil appeal i.e. Civil Appeal No.44/2010 and Civil Appeal No.45/2010 in respect to Suit Nos. 213/2003 and 257/1997. Both the civil appeals were consolidated and heard together by the District Judge, Etah. The District Judge, Etah vide judgment and decree dated 17.10.2015 dismissed both the appeals but directed that respondent (Sarnam Singh) shall pay Rs.6500/- per month as maintenance and Rs.2 lacs to the appellant (Preetam Kumari) towards permanent alimony. Hence this second appeal on behalf of Sarnam Singh (plaintiff).

6. No second appeal has been filed by defendant Preetam Kumari before this Court.

7. This Court on 15.12.2015 admitted the second appeal after formulating the substantial questions of law and granted the interim order to the effect that half of the amount of the order of the maintenance granted by the 1st appellate court shall remain stayed. The records of the district courts were also summoned by this Court. The substantial questions of law are quoted hereunder:-

"1.Whether the order of maintenance under Section 25 of the Hindu Marriage Act can be passed without such relief being asked by the person in whose favour such order is being passed ? If so, its affect.

2. Whether the first appellate court had not afforded opportunity of hearing to parties on the point of maintenance under Section 25 of the Hindu Marriage Act. ? If so, its affect.

8. In pursuance of the order dated 15.12.2015, records of the district courts have been received to this court which has been perused by me. The respondent - Preetam Kumari has already put in appearance through caveat in this appeal.

9. Counsel for the appellant submitted that once the suit for declaring the marriage as null and void / ineffective, has been decreed and decree has been affirmed in 1st appeal, the grant of maintenance by the 1st appellate court is manifestly erroneous. He further submitted that the appellate court has not formulated point of determination while deciding the 1st appeal as provided under Order 41 Rule 31 of the C.P.C., as such, the order for grant of maintenance by the 1st appellate court is manifestly erroneous. He also submitted that the order of maintenance under Section 25 of the Hindu Marriage Act cannot be passed unless there is an application and relief claimed by the party concerned in the proceeding. He further submitted that no opportunity has been afforded by the appellate court on the point of maintenance under Section 25 of the Hindu Marriage Act, as such, the judgment and decree passed by the lower appellate court is erroneous. Counsel for the appellant placed the finding of the trial court recorded while deciding the issue no.2 in Suit No.213 of 2003 and issue no.1 in Suit No.257/1997 to the effect that marriage between Sarnam Singh and Preetam Kumari has not taken place according to the Hindu Marriage Act, as such, the marriage is held to be void and ineffective. The oral and documentary evidence were taken into consideration by the trial court while decreeing the suit of the appellant Sarnam Singh and dismissing the suit of respondent Preetam Kumari. The finding of fact recorded by the trial court was affirmed in appeal but the appellate court has arbitrarily granted monthly maintenance of Rs.6500/- and a lumpsum amount of maintenance of Rs.2 lacs to the respondent Preetam Kumari which is manifestly erroneous. Counsel for the appellant placed reliance upon the decisions of the other High Courts, which are hereunder:-

1. Abbayolla M. Subba Reddy vs. Padmamxna, 1998 0 Supreme (AP) 477;

2. J. Rajeshwarkant Shahdev vs. Neelam Shahdev, 1980 0 Supreme (MP) 364;

3. Jai Krishan Pandita vs. Nana Kumari, 2007 0 Supreme (J & K) 190; &

4. Amar Chand Sharma vs. Smt. Sita Devi, 2005 0 Supreme (Raj) 291.

10. On the other hand, learned counsel for the respondent submitted that the appellant has not complied the conditions of the interim order passed by this Court for paying the half of the maintenance amount to the respondent, as such, the appellant is not entitled to be heard and the second appeal is liable to be dismissed. He further submitted that the monthly maintenance / lumpsum maintenance has been granted by the lower appellate court in accordance with law as appellant has failed to maintain the respondent on the basis of valid marriage taken place between them. He also submitted that the finding of fact recorded by the lower appellate court cannot be interferred with in the second appeal and the second appeal is liable to be dismissed. He also submitted that the substantial questions of law as framed by this Court are not involved in the second appeal, as such, the second appeal is liable to be dismissed. He further submitted that the amount of maintenance of Rs.500/- granted by the trial court during the pendency of the proceedings, has not been timely paid to the respondent, as such, the appellant is not entitled to any relief in the matter.

11. In reply, counsel for the appellant submitted that the monthly amount of maintenance granted during the pedency of the proceeding before the trial court has been paid to the respondent and the receipt has been annexed along with the affidavit filed in support of the stay application along with the second appeal, as such, it cannot be said the appellant has not complied the conditions before the trial court. He further submitted that so far as the compliance of the additional interim order passed by this Court is concerned, the appellant has filed a modification application no.332915 of 2017 to modify the order dated 15.12.2015 which is still pending before this Court. He further submitted that no counter affidavit to the stay application has been filed by respondent no.1 denying the averment made in the affidavit to the effect that plaintiff has complied the condition imposed during the trial.

12. I have considered the arguments advanced by learned counsel for the parties and perused the records.

13. The instant second appeal has been admitted on the following two substantial questions of law, as such, the same shall be heard on the substantial questions of law which were framed at the time of the admission of the appeal, same are as under:-

"1.Whether the order of maintenance under Section 25 of the Hindu Marriage Act can be passed without such relief being asked by the person in whose favour such order is being passed ? If so, its affect.

2. Whether the first appellate court had not afforded opportunity of hearing to parties on the point of maintenance under Section 25 of the Hindu Marriage Act. ? If so, its affect.

14. In order to answer the substantial question of law as framed by this Court, the perusal of the relevant portion of finding of fact recorded by trial court will be necessary which are as under:-

वाद सं०-213/03 के वाद बिन्दु सं०-2 एंव वाद सं०357/97 के वाद बिन्दु सं०-1 का निस्तारणः-

वाद सं० 213/03, श्रीमती प्रीतमकुमारी बनाम सरनामसिंह में वाद बिन्दु सं०-2 इस आशय का विरचित है कि,- " क्या वादनी के पिता व सहयोगियों ने विपक्षी का अपहरण करके बिना विपक्षी की सहमति के, जबरन शादी सम्पन्न करायी?" जबकि वाद सं. 357/97 सरनामसिंह बनाम प्रीतम कुमारी में वाद बिन्दु सं०-1इस आशय का विरचित किया गया है कि- " क्या वादी की शादी, प्रतिवादिनी के साथ अनुचित दबाव डालकर सम्पन्न करायी गयी?"

"उपरोक्त विवेचना एंव पत्रावली पर उपलब्ध मौखिक व अभिलेखीय साक्ष्य से यह तथ्य साबित पाया जाता है कि, वादिया प्रीतमकुमारी के पिता व सहयोगियों ने विपक्षी सरनामसिंह का अपहरण कर उस पर अनुचित दबाव डालकर जबरन उक्त शादी सम्पन्न करायी। तदनुसार वाद सं० 213/03 का वाद बिन्दु सं०-2 व वाद सं० 357/97 का वाद बिन्दु सं०-1 सकारात्मक रूप में निर्णित किया जाता है।"

Operative portion of the judgment of trial court is as under:-

जहां तक वाद सं० 357/97 का प्रश्न है, ऊपर की गयी विवेचना से यह निष्कर्ष निकलता है कि , वादी सरनामसिंह की शादी प्रतिवादिनी प्रीतमकुमारी के साथ अनुचित दबाव डालकर, उसकी इच्छा के विरूद्ध सम्पन्न करायी गयी थी। ऐसी स्थिति में पक्षों के मध्य सम्पन्न हुयी उक्त शादी,शून्य व निष्प्रभावी घोषित किये जाने योग्य है। इस प्रकार यह वाद सव्यय आज्ञप्त किये जाने योग्य है।

आदेश

वाद सं० 213/03 प्रीतमकुमारी बनाम सरनामसिंह, स्वयय खारिज किया जाता है।

वाद सं० 357/97सरनामसिंह बनाम प्रीतमकुमरी आदि सव्यय आज्ञप्त करते हुये याची व विपक्षी प्रीतमकुमारी के मध्य हुये वाईडेविल विवाह को शून्य व निष्प्रभावी घोषित किया जाता है।

इस निर्णय की एक प्रति वाद सं० 357/97 सरनामसिंह बनाम प्रीतमकुमारी में रखी जाये।

दिनांकः 26.08.2010
(वंशबहादुर यादव)
सिविल जज(सी.डि.)
एटा।

आज यह निर्णय मेरे द्वारा खुले न्यायालय में दिनांकित व हस्ताक्षरित करके उद्घोषित किया गया।

दिनांकः 26.08.2010
(वंशबहादुर यादव)
सिविल जज(सी.डि.)
एटा।

The relevant / operative portion of the judgment of lower appellate court by which judgment and decree of trial court was maintained but decree of permanent alimony was granted is as under:-

पक्षकारों की बहस को सुनकर तथा पत्रावली का अवलोकन करने से यह विदित होता है कि चूंकि इस अपील में पक्षकार सन् 1997 से ही अलग रह रहे है और उन्हें अलग रहते हुए लगभग 18 वर्ष का समय व्यतीत हो चुका है तथा वे मुकदमें के विचाराधीन रहने के दौरान भी कभी साथ-साथ नही रहे और इस बीच उनके सम्बन्धों में भी काफी कडवाहट आ चुकी है और अब ऐसा प्रतीत होता है कि दोनों पक्षकार, पति व पत्नी की तरह साथ-साथ रह कर भी, एक- दूसरे के प्रति वैवाहिक दायित्वों का पालन नहीं कर सकते और ऐसा करना उनके लिये असंभव है। अतः मै विद्वान अधीनस्थ न्यायालय द्वारा पारित तलाक की डिक्री को निरस्त किये जाने योग्य नहीं पाता हूँ, अपितु उसकी बजाय तलाक की डिक्री ज्यो-की त्यों रखते हुए, धारा-25 हिन्दू विवाह अधिनियम के तहत, श्रीमती प्रतिमा कुमारी के लिये स्थाई भरण-पोषण की धनराशि की व्यवस्था किया जाना न्योयोचित होगा।

पक्षकारों को यह स्वीकार है कि सरनाम सिंह लेखपाल के पद पर नियुक्त है और उसे इस पद पर नौकरी करते हुए, लगभग 18 वर्ष का समय व्यतीत हो चुका है, इसलिये उसका वेतन इस समय किसी भी दशा में 20,000/- रूपये से कम नहीं होगा, अतः धारा 25 हिन्दू विवाह अधिनियम के तहत, श्रीमती प्रतिमा कुमारी के लिये, सरनाम सिंह मुव० 6500/- रूपये प्रतिमाह अदा करता रहेगा। यदि 3 माह तक यह धनराशि अदा करने में उसको ओर से डिफॉल्ट किया जाता है तो श्रीमती प्रतिमा कुमारी, इस संबंध में इज़राय दाखिल कर सकती है।

इसके साथ ही साथ, चूंकि पक्षकारों के मध्य पहले मूलवाद और फिर अपील चलते हुए लगभग 18 वर्ष का समय व्यतीत हो चुका है, इसलिये एकमुश्त धन राशि भी श्रीतमी प्रतिमा को दिलाया जाना न्यायोचित होगा और यह धनराशि मुव० 2 लाख रू० आज से अंदर 2, सरनामसिंह के द्वारा उसे प्रदत्त कर दी जायगी।

उपरोक्त विवेचना के आधार पर, दोनों अपील निरस्त किये जाने योग्य हैं।

तदनुसार, दोनों सिविल अपील्स, निरस्त की जाती है, किन्तु विपक्षी- सरनाम सिंह को यह निर्देश दिया जाता है कि वह, इस निर्णय व आदेश की दिनांक से मुव० 6500/- रूपये प्रतिमाह, बतौर भरण-पोषण धनराशि, प्रत्येक माह की 10 तारीख तक श्रीमती प्रीतम कुमारी को अदा करें। यदि 3 माह तक यह धनराशि अदा करने में उसकी ओर से डिफॉल्ट किया जाता है तो श्रीमती प्रीतम कुमारी, इस संबंध में इज़राय करके यह रकम प्राप्त कर सकती है।

इसके अतिरिक्त विपक्षी- सरनामसिंह, एकमुश्त धनराशि के रूप में, मु० 2 लाख रू० आज से 2 अंदर माह, श्रीमती प्रीतम कुमारी को अदा करना सुनिश्चित करे।

भरण-पोषण एंव वाद व्यय की धनराशि को प्राप्त करने के लिये, श्रीमती प्रीतम कुमारी, नियमानुसार कार्यवाही कर सकती है।

मूल अभिलेख, अविलंब विद्वान अधीनस्थ न्यायालय, वापस भेजा जाय।

इस निर्णय व आदेश की एक प्रति, सिविल अपील सं०-45 सन् 2010 श्रीमती प्रीतम कुमारी प्रति सरनामसिंह की पत्रावली पर रखी जाय।

अक्टूबर 17, 2015
(कमल किशोर शर्मा)
जिला न्यायाधीश, एटा

निर्णय एंव आदेश, आज मेरे द्वारा खुले न्यायालय में हस्ताक्षरित व दिनांकित कर, उद्घोषित किये गये।

अक्टूबर 17, 2015
(कमल किशोर शर्मा)
जिला न्यायाधीश, एटा

15. The perusal of the judgment of lower appellate court reveals that lower appellate court has ordered for maintenance/permanent alimony on the ground that there was divorce decree of the trial court although trial court passed the decree declaring the marriage as void / ineffective, as such, there was no occasion to order for maintenance / permanent alimony in favour of respondent - wife while dismissing the civil appeal filed by respondent - wife, as such, judgment and decree passed by lower appellate court for maintenance/permanent alimony is vitiated by manifest error of law.

16. So far as exercise of the jurisdiction under Section 25 of the Hindu Marriage Act while dismissing the civil appeal filed by wife is concerned, the perusal of Section 25 of the Hindu Marriage Act will be necessary which is as under:-

25. Permanent alimony and maintenance.--(1) Any court exercising jurisdiction under this Act may, at the time of passing any decree or at any time subsequent thereto, on application made to it for the purpose by either the wife or the husband, as the case may be, order that the respondent shall pay to the applicant for her or his maintenance and support such gross sum or such monthly or periodical sum for a term not exceeding the life of the applicant as, having regard to the respondent's own income and other property, if any, the income and other property of the applicant, the conduct of the parties and other circumstances of the case], it may seem to the court to be just, and any such payment may be secured, if necessary, by a charge on the immovable property of the respondent.

(2) If the court is satisfied that there is, a change in the circumstances of either party at any time after it has made an order under sub-section (1), it may at the instance of either party, vary, modify or rescind any such order in such manner as the court may deem just.(3) If the court is satisfied that the party in whose favour an order has been made under this section has remarried or, if such party is the wife, that she has not remained chaste, or, if such party is the husband, that he has had sexual intercourse with any woman outside wedlock, it may at the instance of the other party vary, modify or rescind any such order in such manner as the court may deem just].

17. The perusal of the lower court record reveals that there was no application under Section 25 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 on record, as such, exercise of power under Section 25 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 by the lower appellate court while dismissing the civil appeals filed by respondent - wife, affirming the decree of trial court, declaring the marriage as void and ineffective is vitiated by manifest error of law.

18. So far as grant of monthly maintenance by trial court is concerned, the same has come to an end while passing the final judgment and decree by trial court declaring the marriage as void and ineffective, as such, no reliance can be placed upon the monthly maintenance granted by trial court.

19. Since there was no application under Section 25 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 by respondent-wife in civil appeal, as such, there was no question that lower appellate court has provided opportunity of hearing to appellant - husband in civil appeal before passing order of maintenance in favour of wife.

20. The case law of the Andhra Pradesh High Court as cited by learned counsel for the appellant rendered in Abboyolla M. Subba Reddy (supra) is relevant. Paragraph Nos. 26, 31 & 32 of the aforementioned judgment rendered in Abbayolla M. Subba Reddy (supra) are as under:-

26. The learned Counsel for the respondent submitted that under Section 25 of the Hindu Marriage Act, a wife whose marriage is void would be entitled, as of right, of relief of permanent maintenance once her marriage is annulled by a decree of nullity under Section 11 or passing a decree of a kind envisaged under Sections 9 to 14 of the Hindu Marriage Act, and therefore, it follows that the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 recognizes, notwithstanding the fact that the marriage is null and void, that the wife has the status atleast for limited purpose of applying for alimony and maintenance. This statutory intention, according to the learned Counsel for the respondent, has to be borne in mind in considering the claim of the respondent in this case to maintenance. The support of this contention the learned Counsel relied on the decision of a learned single Judge of Bombay High Court in Smt. Rajesh Bai and others v. Shantha Bai. In that case, the first wife of the deceased filed a suit for partition against the brothers of her deceased husband and the 2nd wife of her husband by name Rajesh Bai. The defendants in that suit took the plea that the plaintiff was divorced by her husband as per the caste custom and after divorce, he married 2nd wife Rajesh Bai. The learned single Judge while holding that the marriage of Rajesh Bai is void in view of the subsisting first marriage of the deceased with Shantha Bai, granted maintenance to 2nd wife Rajesh Bai relying on the pari materia provisions of Section 25 of the Hindu Marriage Act and also relying on the inherent powers of the Court under Section 151 C.P.C. to meet the ends of justice. The learned single Judge observed thus: "The rights recognised by Section 25 of the Hindu Marriage Act can clearly be worked out in any civil proceedings subject to consideration of facts and circumstances so as to meet the ends of justice by resort to the inherent powers conferred upon the Courts by Section 151 C.P.C. The statutory references do not indicate that there is any prohibition or any specific Provision in this regard. On the other hand, the principle is statutorily recognised that upon a decree being passed for nullifying the marriage as void de jure, the Court is possessed with ample power to make order as to alimony and maintenance. What could, therefore, be available in special proceedings cannot be said to be not available when the same issue is involved collaterally in competent civil proceeding." The learned Judge further observed: "Ultimately, having based the relief under Section 151 C.P.C. with the aid of inherent powers and drawing upon the principle underlying Section 25 of the Hindu Marriage Act, it is implicit that before maintenance is granted, the need to grant such must exist as well as the grantee must fulfil the ordinary conditions like that of chastity, not being married with any other person and further of not being in a position to maintain herself." With due respect, we are not in a position to accept the said reasoning of the learned Judge. Firstly, the assumption that Section 25 recognizes the right of a woman bigamously married to claim maintenance at the time when a decree of nullity is passed is not correct. Secondly in the absence of a proceeding under Sections 9 to 14, such a relief cannot be granted by invoking Section 151. Section 151 could have no application to such a situation.

31. In view of the above decision taken by us, the claim of the respondent for maintenance, whose marriage is void ab initio, against the appellant is not maintainable. Hence, the decree and judgment in O.S. No.131/87 on the file of the Principal Subordinate Judge, Chittoor, is liable to be set aside.

32. In the result, the appeal is allowed. The judgment and decree in O.S.No.131 of 1987 on the file of the Principal Subordinate Judge, Chittoor, is set aside and the suit O.S.No.131 of 1987 is dismissed. In the circumstances of this case, parties are directed to bear their costs throughout.

21. Considering the entire facts and circumstances of the case, the grant of maintenance under Section 25 of the Hindu Marriage Act in favour of Preetam Kumari when marriage has been declared null and void by the trial court, cannot be maintained in the eye of law. The suit for declaring the marriage as null and void, has been decreed by the trial court and the decree has been affirmed in the first appeal, as such, the first appellate court has committed illegality in passing the order for maintenance under Section 25 of the Hindu Marriage Act. It is also material that finding of the trial court has been maintained in the appeal, as such, there was no occasion to grant maintenance under Section 25 of the Hindu Marriage Act in favour of the respondent Preetam Kumari coupled with the fact that there was no application under Section 25 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 in civil appeal by respondent-wife.

22. In view of the finding of fact recorded by the trial court declaring the marriage as void and ineffective, the grant of maintenance under Section 25 of the Hindu Marriage Act in favour of the respondent Preetam Kumari is manifestly erroneous and illegal. The substantial questions of law nos. 1 & 2 are answered in favour of appellant and against the respondent.

23. In view of above, the part of the judgment and decree of the lower appellate court by which maintenance under Section 25 of the Hindu Marriage Act has been granted by the first appellate court in Civil Appeal No.44/2010 and 45/2010 is hereby set aside. The second appeal stands allowed. No order as to costs.

(2023) 4 ILRA 182
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 14.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ASHUTOSH SRIVASTAVA, J.

Writ-A No. 2211 of 2023

Saroj Kumari ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Satyendra Chandra Tripathi

Counsel for the Respondents:

C.S.C., Sri Sanjay Kumar Srivastava

Civil Law - Maternity Benefit - Maternity Benefit Act, 1961 - Sections 5(1), (3) & (4) - Right to payment of maternity benefit - Every woman has the right to maternity benefits - Her employer is liable to pay her during the time she is absent from work due to maternity - Provisions of the Act of 1961 also permits maternity benefit even after the birth of the child - Denial of maternity leave to the petitioner on the ground that the child has already been born and relegating the petitioner to avail Child Care Leave is totally unwarranted - Maternity benefit and Child Care Leave operate in different fields and are mutually exclusive - Availability of Child Care Leave to the petitioner or grant of the same cannot disentitle the petitioner from grant of maternity benefit - Child Care Leave can be availed not only at the point when the child is born but at any subsequent period - Impugned order quashed - District Basic Education Officer further directed to release the arrears of salary and pay the salary (Para 20, 22)

Allowed. (E -5)

List of Cases cited:

1 Smt. Anupam Yadav Vs St. of U.P. & ors.; Writ (A) No. 9535 of 2022

2. Deepika Singh Vs Central Administrative Tribunal & ors., AIR 2022 SC 4108

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ashutosh Srivastava, J.)

1. Heard Sri Satyendra Chandra Tripathi, learned counsel for the petitioner, Shri Shailendra Singh, learned Standing Counsel for the State-Respondent Nos. 1 & 2 and Sri Sanjay Kumar Srivastava, learned counsel for the Respondent Nos. 3 to 6.

2. By means of the present writ petition, the petitioner has prayed for issuance of a writ of certiorari quashing the orders dated 14.11.2022 and 25.11.2022 passed by the Respondent No.4, District Basic Shiksha Adhikari, Etah whereby and whereunder the sanction of maternity leave has been turned down by stating that "after child birth ML is not allowed and now you are eligible for CLL according rule" and "for ML out of date. now you can apply for CCL."

3. At the very outset, Sri Satyendra Chandra Tripathi learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the similar controversy, as raised in the present petition, has already been allowed by this Court in a bunch of writ petition, leading amongst them being Writ (A) No. 9535 of 2022 (Smt. Anupam Yadav vs. State Of U.P. And 2 Others).

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner prays that the present writ petition may also be decided in terms of the aforesaid decision dated 21.10.2022 passed in Writ (A) No. 9535 of 2022 (Smt. Anupam Yadav vs. State Of U.P. And 2 Others).

5. Shri Shailendra Singh, learned Standing Counsel for the State Respondents as well as Sri Sanjay Kumar Srivastava, learned counsel for the Respondent Nos. 3 & 4, have vehemently opposed the prayer made in the petition and submits that ratio laid down by this Court in Smt. Anupam Yadav (supra) heavily relied upon by the counsel for the petitioner is not applicable to the case at hand.

6. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and have perused the record.

7. Before the Court proceeds to examine the case of the petitioner on merits, it deems it appropriate to clear the mist that has engulfed the parties regarding the applicability of the ratio laid down by this Court in the case of Smt. Anupam Yadav (supra).

8. In the case of Smt. Anupam Yadav (supra) and the connected petitions the challenge laid was to order passed by the competent authority/District Basic Education Officer whereby and whereunder the sanction of maternity leave for 180 days was turned down by stating that the same was not admissible or on the ground that the period of 02 years had not elapsed from the date of expiry of the last maternity leave granted to the petitioners under the proviso to Rule 153 (1) of Chapter XIII of the U.P. Fundamental Rules in Financial Handbook Volume-II, Part 2 to 4. The moot question was regarding the applicability of the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961. There was no dispute with regard to the applicability of Fundamental Rules i.e. Rule 153 (1) of Chapter XIII of U.P. Fundamental Rules in Financial Handbook Volume-II, Part 2 to 4. The parties were at variance only with regard to the applicability of Maternity Benefit Act, 1961. The Court after appreciating the respective contentions of the learned counsels for the parties and considering the provisions of the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961 as also the relevant provisions of the Financial Hand Book, particularly Rule 153 observed that the State Government exercising powers under Section 28 of the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961 had already adopted the provisions of the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961 for the benefits of its employees. Once the provisions of the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961 had been adopted by the State of U.P. then the Act of 1961 would apply with full force irrespective of the provisions contained in the Financial Handbook which were held to be merely executive instructions and subsidiary to the legislation made by the Parliament. The Court thus held that the provisions of the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961 would prevail over the provisions of the Financial Handbook and consequently, the provisions of Rule 153 (I) of the Financial Handbook Volume II to IV were to be read down with regard to the admissibility of leave to a woman with regard to second pregnancy which would be governed by the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961 and not Rule 153 (1) of the Financial Handbook Volume II to IV. The writ petitions were allowed accordingly.

9. In view of above, the Court finds substance in the stand taken by the learned counsel for the respondent. The only benefit the petitioner may derive from the ratio of the decision in Smt. Anupam Yadav (supra) is that the grant of maternity leave would be governed by the provisions of the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961.

10. Now, the Court proceeds to decide the lis on merits.

11. The undisputed facts are that the petitioner is posted as Headmistress at Primary School, Heerapur, Block Maarhara, District Etah on the institution run by the Board of Basic Education, U.P., Prayagraj. The service conditions of the petitioner are governed by the provisions of Uttar Pradesh Basic Education (Teachers) Service Rules, 1981.

12. Perusal of the record reveals that petitioner was admitted in the hospital on 15.10.2022 and gave birth to a girl child and after discharge from the hospital, she immediately applied for maternity leave through online for the period 18.10.2022 to 15.4.2023 (for 180 days). But the same was rejected on the ground that annexures in support of maternity leave were incomplete. Thereafter, petitioner again applied for maternity leave on 30.10.2022 on the prescribed proforma, but surprisingly the same has been rejected by the District Basic Education Officer, Etah on 4.11.2022 and 25.11.2022 with remarks that "after child birth ML is not allowed and now you are eligible for CLL according rule" and "for ML out of date. now you can apply for CCL," respectively. The above orders have been impugned in the instant writ petition.

13. Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961 has been enacted by the Parliament to regulate the employment of women in certain establishment for certain period before and after child birth and to provide for maternity leave benefit and certain other benefits. The provisions of the Act of 1961 permit maternity benefit even after the birth of the child and as such, the denial of the maternity leave to the petitioner on the ground that the child has already been born, the petitioner is not entitled to the maternity leave is per se illegal and erroneous. It is also contended that the Child Care Leave is distinct to the maternity benefit and operate in different fields and relegating the petitioner to avail Child Care Leave is totally unwarranted. It is also contended that the respondents have also stopped the salary of the petitioner since November and December, 2022 which is also unwarranted.

14. Learned counsel for the respondent have tried to justify the impugned orders by submitting that the orders are just and proper and do not suffer from any infirmity or illegality warranting any interference by this Court.

15. Having heard the learned counsel for the parties and having perused the record, the Court deems it appropriate to refer to certain provisions of the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961 which are being reproduced below:

Section 3(h) of 1961 Act defins "maternity benefit" to mean the payment referred to in sub section (1) of section 5.

Section 5 of 1961 Act reads as under:-

"5. Right to payment of maternity benefit.-

(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, every woman shall be entitled to, and her employer shall be liable for, the payment of maternity benefit at the rate of the average daily wage for the period of her actual absence, that is to say, the period immediately preceding the day of her delivery, the actual day of her delivery and any period immediately following that day.

(2) No woman shall be entitled to maternity benefit unless she has actually worked in an establishment of the employer from whom she claims maternity benefit, for a period of not less than [eighty days] in the twelve months immediately preceding the date of her expected delivery:

Provided that the qualifying period of [eighty days] aforesaid shall not apply to a woman who has immigrated into the State of Assam and was pregnant at the time of the immigration.

(3) The maximum period for which any woman shall be entitled to maternity benefit shall be [Twenty six weeks of which not more than eight weeks] shall precede the date of her expected delivery:-

Provided that the maximum period entitled to maternity benefit by a woman having two or more than two surviving children shall be twelve weeks of which not more than six weeks shall precede the date of her expected delivery:

[Provided further that] where a woman dies during this period, the maternity benefit shall be payable only for the days up to and including the day of her death: [Provided also that] where a woman, having been delivered of a child, dies during her delivery or during the period immediately following the date of her delivery for which she is entitled for the maternity benefit, leaving behind in either case the child, the employer shall be liable for the maternity benefit for that entire period but if the child also dies during the said period, then, for the days up to and including the date of the death of the child.

(4) A woman who legally adopts a child below the age of three months or a commissioning mother shall be entitled to maternity benefit for a period of twelve weeks from the date the child is handed over to the adopting mother or the commissioning mother, as the case may be]

(5) In case where the nature of work assigned to a woman is of such nature that she may work from home, the employer may allow her to do so after availing of the maternity benefit for such period an on such conditions as the employer and the woman may mutually agree]"

16. The preamble of the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961 (Act No. 53 of 1961) reads as under:-

"An Act to regulate the employment of women in certain establishment for certain periods before and after child-birth and to provide for maternity benefit and certain other benefits."

17. Sub-section (1) of Section 5 of the Act confers and entitlement on a woman to the payment of maternity benefits at a stipulated rate for the period of her actual absence beginning from the period immediately preceding the day of her delivery, the actual day of her delivery and any period immediately following that day. Sub-section (3) specifies the maximum period for which any woman shall be entitled to maternity benefit. These provisions have been made by Parliament to ensure that the absence of a woman away from the place of work occasioned by the delivery of a child does not hinder her entitlement to receive wages for that period or for that matter for the period during which she should be granted leave in order to look after her child after the birth takes place.

18. The Act of 1961 was enacted to secure women's right to pregnancy and maternity leave and to afford women with as much flexibility as possible to live an autonomous life, both as a mother and as a worker, if they so desire.

19. From the perusal of the Preamble of the Act, Section 5 (1), third proviso to sub-section 3 of Section 5, sub-section 4 of Section 5, it is more than apparent that the Maternity Benefit can be extended even after birth of a child. It can even be extended in a case of a legal adoption of a child or less than three months. The only restriction being that the maternity leave may not be granted for entire 180 days or 26 weeks. Further, in the opinion of the Court, availability of Child Care Leave to the petitioner or grant of the same cannot dis-entitle the petitioner for grant of maternity benefit. Maternity benefit and Child Care Leave both operate in different fields and are mutually exclusive. The Apex Court in a recent case reported in AIR 2022 SC 4108 (Deepika Singh versus Central Administrative Tribunal and others) held that independent of the grant of maternity leave, a women is also entitled to the grant of Child Care Leave for taking care of her two eldest surviving children whether for rearing or for looking after any of their needs, such as education, sickness and the like. Child Care Leave can be availed of not only at the point when the child is born but at any subsequent period. Both constitute distinct entitlements. A purposive interpretation is required to be adopted. The object and intent of the grant of maternity leave would stand defeated. The grant of maternity leave is intended to facilitate the continuance of women in the work place. It is a harsh reality that but for such provisions many women would be compelled by social circumstances to give up work on the birth of the child if they are not granted leave and other facilitative measures. No employer can perceive child birth as detracting from the purpose of employment. Child birth has to be construed in the context of employment as a natural incident of life and the provisions of the Maternity Benefit Act are required to be construed in that perspective.

20. This Court is of the opinion that the District Basic Education Officer, Etah while rejecting the claim of the petitioner has overlooked the provisions of Maternity Benefit Act, 1961. In view of above, the impugned orders dated 14.11.2022 and 25.11.2022 passed by the Respondent No.4, District Basic Shiksha Adhikari, Etah is not sustainable in the eyes of law and are set aside. The writ petition is allowed.

21. The District Basic Education Officer, Etah is directed to pass fresh orders keeping in mind the provisions of the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961, within a period of two weeks from the date of production of certified copy of this order.

22. The District Basic Education Officer, Etah is further directed to release the arrears of salary and pay the salary month to month to the petitioner as and when the same falls due.

(2023) 4 ILRA 187
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 17.02.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SUNEET KUMAR, J.
THE HON'BLE RAJENDRA KUMAR-IV, J.

Writ-A No. 2330 of 2023

Smt. Gopa Bahadur ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Kamlesh Kumar Yadav, Sri Vijay Kumar Srivastava, Sri Ashok Khare (Sr. Advocate)

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Sri Ashish Mishra, Sri Chandan Sharma

(A) Civil Law - Maintainability of second writ petition - Code of Civil Procedure , 1908 - Order 2 Rule 2 - Suit to include the whole claim - while filing a petition or a suit, whole of the claim, which the plaintiff or the petitioner is entitled to make in respect of a cause of action - shall be required to be added failing which he shall not afterwards be entitled to sue in respect of the portion of the omitted or relinquished claim - Explanation IV of Section 11 - any matter which might and ought to have been made a ground of defence or attack in such former suit or petition under Article 226 - shall be deemed to have been a matter directly or substantially in issue in such suit or proceedings.(Para - 6)

Petition filed for same cause of action - Petitioner foregone her claim and right - to challenge women reservation in earlier writ petition - issue and relief not claimed as an alternative. (Para - 5,10)

HELD:-C.P.C. is based on public policy and should be extended and made applicable in writ jurisdiction. Any relief not claimed in the earlier writ petition should be deemed to have been abandoned. Second writ petition for same cause of action not maintainable. (Para - 11)

Writ Petition dismissed. (E-7)

List of Cases cited:

1. Gramodyog Welfare Sanstha Vs St. of U.P. , (2008) 1 SCC 428

2. C.I.T., Bombay Vs T.P. Kumaran , (1996) 10 SCC 561

3. U.O.I. Vs Punnilal , (1996) 11 SCC 112

(Delivered by Hon'ble Suneet Kumar, J.
&
Hon'ble Rajendra Kumar-IV, J.)

1. Heard Shri Ashok Khare, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Shri Kamlesh Kumar Yadav and Shri Chandan Sharma, lerned counsel appearing for the respondent Nos. 2 and 3 and learned Standing Counsel for the State-respondent.

2. Petitioner by the instant writ petition, inter alia, seeks the following relief:

"To issue a writ, order or direction of a suitable nature commanding the respondent to forthwith recommend one additional candidate under the 20% reservation for women in pursuance to "Direct Recruitment" to the Uttar Pradesh Higher Judicial Service - 2018 (Part-II) within a period to be specified by this Hon'ble Court."

3. It is not in dispute that petitioner had earlier approached this Court by filing a writ petition being Writ - A No. 2650 of 2022 (Smt. Gopa Bahadur Vs. High Court of Judicature at Allahabad and Another). The aforesaid writ petition came to be dismissed vide order dated 4 April 2022.

4. On perusal of the aforenoted order, it appears that a direction was sought by the petitioner that the candidature of the petitioner be considered under Scheduled Caste category. The Court rejected the contention as in the application form, petitioner applied under the "General/Unreserved Category". Petitioner in the present writ petition has raised the correctness of twenty percent women reservation under horizontal quota.

5. Learned counsel appearing for the respondent Nos. 2 and 3 submit that the second writ petition would not be maintainable as the petitioner admittedly had foregone her claim and right to challenge the women reservation in the earlier writ petition. They submit that the principle enshrined under Order 2 Rule 2 of the Civil Procedure Code, 1908(for short "C.P.C.'), would apply in the matter.

6. Order 2, Rule 2 of C.P.C., provides that while filing a petition or a suit, whole of the claim, which the plaintiff or the petitioner is entitled to make in respect of a cause of action, shall be required to be added failing which he shall not afterwards be entitled to sue in respect of the portion of the omitted or relinquished claim. Similarly, Explanation IV of Section 11 of the C.P.C., also provides that any matter which might and ought to have been made a ground of defence or attack in such former suit or petition under Article 226, shall be deemed to have been a matter directly or substantially in issue in such suit or proceedings.

7. The Hon'ble Supreme Court has also, on more than one occasion deprecated the practice of filing multiple writ petitions on same or similar cause of action. Reference in this regard can be made to the judgment rendered in the case of Udyami Evam Khadi Gramodyog Welfare Sanstha Vs. State of U.P. The question is "Whether this Court should entertain second petition particularly in view of the defects pointed out above? The answer to the aforesaid question, in the considered view of this Court, has to be negative."

8. Supreme Court in Commissioner of Income Tax, Bombay Vs. T.P. Kumaran2; Union of India Vs. Punnilal, observed as under:

"..... It is why the rule of judicial practice and procedure that a second writ petition shall not be entertained by the High Court on the subject matter respecting that the writ petition of the same person was dismissed by the same Court even if the order of such dismissal was in limine, be it on the ground of latches or on the ground of non-exhaustion of alternative remedy, has come to be accepted and followed as salutary rule in exercise of writ jurisdiction of the Court."

9. Therefore, in view of the above referred authorities, it is abundantly clear that even if the provisions of the C.P.C. are not applicable in writ jurisdiction, the principle enshrined therein can be resorted to for the reason that the principles, on which the C.P.C. is based, are founded on public policy and, therefore, require to be extended and made applicable in writ jurisdiction also in the interest of administration of justice. Any relief not claimed in the earlier writ petition should be deemed to have been abandoned by the petitioner to the extent of the cause of action claimed in the subsequent writ petition and in order to restrain the person from abusing the process of the Court, such an order/course requires not only to be resorted to but to be enforced.

10. On specific query, learned counsel for the petitioner does not dispute that the writ petition arises from the same cause of action and the issue and relief being claimed in the present writ petition could have been raised in the alternative in the earlier writ petition.

11. In view thereof, the second writ petition for the same cause of action is not maintainable, accordingly, dismissed.

(2023) 4 ILRA 189
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 28.02.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SUNEET KUMAR, J.
THE HON'BLE RAJENDRA KUMAR-IV, J.

Writ-A No. 2805 of 2023

Union of India & Ors. ...Petitioners
Versus
Amit Kumar Mishra ...Respondent

Counsel for the Petitioners:
Sri Pranay Krishna

Counsel for the Respondent:
Sri Mohan Upadhyay, Sri Babu Nandan Singh

Suspension-Tribunal directly set aside the order of suspension-allegations pertaining fraud and embezzlement of money of depositors-guidelines provide review of put off duty to be considered in the first instance by Superior Authority-revocation of suspension not automatic after lapse of a stipulated time-Tribunal committed an error in setting aside the order of suspension-should have remitted it to Superior Authority to take decision.

W.P. allowed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

Ajay Kumar Choudhary Vs U.O.I. through Secretary,2015 (7) SCC 291

(Delivered by Hon'ble Suneet Kumar, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for the respective parties.

2. The present writ petition has been filed by the Union of India / Senior Superintendent of Post Offices, Varanasi, assailing the order dated 01 August, 2022, whereby, the suspension / put off duty of the respondent-original applicant, has been set aside. Aggrieved petitioners filed a review petition, which came to be dismissed by order dated 21 September, 2022.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners has raised a short question that the Tribunal instead of directly setting aside the order of suspension / put off duty, should have remanded the matter to the authority to review the put off duty as the allegations against the respondent-original applicant was serious pertaining fraud and embezzlement of money of the depositors. In other words, it was not open to the Tribunal to have substituted itself for the competent authority.

4. It is not in dispute, inter se, parties that the provisions of the Department of Posts, Gramin Dak Sevaks (Conduct and Engagement) Rules, 2011, is applicable. In exercise of powers conferred under Rule 12, the respondent / original applicant came to be suspended / put off duty, by the appointing authority vide order dated 7 December, 2020.

5. The respondent / original applicant raised challenge to the order, inter alia, on the ground that the respondent / original applicant could not have continued under suspension / put off duty, as the order was not reviewed as per rule / directions issued by the Director General and in support of his submission, reliance was placed on the decision rendered by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Ajay Kumar Choudhary vs. Union of India through Secretary reported in 2015 (7) SCC 291.

6. The reasoning assigned by the learned Tribunal, allowing the original application of the respondent reads thus :-

"6. It is not disputed that the applicant was placed under suspension on 03.01.2020. There is nothing on record to establish that his suspension was reviewed from time to time as prescribed under the rules. It is not understood as to what purpose will be served by keeping the applicant under further suspension. It is also a fact that almost 18 months have elapsed since the applicant had been placed under suspension without conducting a review as prescribed under the rules. Moreover, the said suspension order is in contravention of the judgement *of the Hon'ble Apex Court in Ajay Kumar Chaudhary's case (supra).

9. For the forgoing reasons, the OA is allowed and the impugned orders dated 03.01.2020 and 07.12.2020 are hereby quashed. The respondents are directed to reinstate the applicant in service within a period of two weeks from the date a copy of this order is produced before them by the applicant. The applicant shall be entitled for the arrears of TRCA as per rules."

7. The original applicant came to be suspended / placed under put off duty, on allegations of fraud and embezzlement of the deposits made by the depositors. It is further alleged that the respondent manipulated the mobile numbers of the account holders and substituting it with his own mobile number and that of his relatives. On complaints received from the depositors, respondent / original applicant came to be placed under suspension / put off duty pending inquiry.

8. Rule 12 provides for put off duty which reads thus :-

"12. Put Off duty

(1) The recruiting Authority or any authority to which the Recruiting Authority is subordinate or any other authority empowered in that behalf by the Government, by general or special order, may put a Sevak Off duty;

(a) Where a disciplinary proceedings against him is contemplated or is pending ; or

(b) Where a case against him in respect of any criminal offence is under investigation, enquiry or trial;

Provided that in cases involving fraud or embezzlement, the Sevak holding any post specified in the Schedule to these rules may be put off duty by the Inspector of Post Offices or the Assistant Superintendent of Post Offices of the Sub-Division, as the case may be, under immediate intimation to the Recruiting Authority."

9. In other words, the employee can be placed under put off duty by the Recruiting Authority, that the disciplinary proceedings against the employee is contemplated or pending.

10. The proviso to the rule mandates that in the case of fraud or embezzlement, the employee holding any post specified in the Schedule to the Rules may be put off duty by the Inspector of Post Offices or the Assistant Superintendent of Post Offices from the Sub-Division, as the case may be, under immediate intimation to the Recruiting Authority.

11. Sub-Clause (2) of the Rule mandates that the order passed by the Officers noted herein above being subordinate to the Recruiting Authority shall cease to be effective on the expiry of the fifteen days unless earlier confirmed or cancelled by the Recruiting Authority.

12. Reliance has been placed by the respective counsels for the parties on the Director General instructions, the guidelines governing putting off duty, which mandates that putting an Extra Departmental Agent off duty may cause a lasting damage to his reputation, if he is ultimately exonerated. The competent authority is, therefore, expected to exercise his discretion with proper care and due caution while ordering an Extra Departmental Agent to be put off duty, generally speaking, put off duty cases fall under two categories, namely, cases relating to frauds or cases relating to minor incidents of indiscipline.

13. The guidelines further mandates that having regard to the allegations of fraud that may take some time, in the pending disciplinary proceedings, as against the cases of the second category involving administrative lapses should not remain pending for long. The relevant portion of the guidelines for the purposes of case is extracted :-

"2. Putting an Extra-Departmental Agent off duty may cause a lasting damage to his reputation if he is ultimately exonerated. The competent authority is, therefore, expected to exercise his discretion with proper care and due caution while ordering an Extra-Departmental Agent to be put off duty. Generally speaking, put off duty cases fall under two categories, vis., -

(i) cases relating to frauds; and

(ii) cases relating to unauthorized absence, leave without sanctioned complaints from the public, etc.

While the inquiry into the first type of cases may take some time, there is no reason why the type of cases in the second category involving administrative lapses should remain pending for long. The following guidelines by way of precaution may, therefore, be strictly followed by the competent authority before putting an Extra-Departmental Agent off duty :-

(a) .....

(b) the offence should be of such a srious nature that removal from service would be probable ultimate punishment and it would therefore be inadvisable that the offender should be allowed to continue to perform his duties pending finalization of the disciplinary case against him.

(c) .....

(d) .....

(e) .....

3. It is also necessary that the disciplinary authority makes every efforts to finalize the disciplinary proceedings and pass final orders so that an EDA does not remain on put off duty for a period exceeding 45 days and not 120 days as ordered previously. The Divisional Superintendent should draw up a time table for ensuring finalization of disciplinary cases within this period. If, due to unavoidable reasons, it is not possible to finalize a case within this period, the matter should be reported immediately to the next superior authority giving full justification why the EDA cannot be taken back to duty pending finalization of the case. The superior authority should on receipt of the repot immediately review the case and consider -

(i) whether there is justification to continue the EDA concerned off duty for a further period; and

(ii) what steps should be taken by the disciplinary authority to eliminate all avoidable delay in finalizing the case.

The superior authority will then make an order accordingly.

14. Having regard to the guidelines, it is categorically provided that the disciplinary authority should in the event that inquiry cannot be concluded within 120 days should report immediately to the next Superior Authority giving full justification why the employee cannot be taken back on duty pending finalization of the case. The Superior Authority should on receipt of the report immediately review the case and consider, inter alia, whether there is justification to continue the employee on put off duty for further period.

15. In view thereof, it is evident that the review of put off duty of an employee in the first instance has to be considered by the Superior Authority, after lapse of the stipulated time upon a report. The revocation of suspension / put off duty of an employee is not automatic after lapse of a stipulated time.

16. On specific query, learned counsel for the respondent is unable to show from either the Rules or the guidelines that after expiry of 120 days there is automatic cessation of put off duty. Rather, the guidelines mandate review of the order on merit by a Superior Authority.

17. In the circumstances, in our opinion, the learned Tribunal committed an error in usurping upon itself the power of a Superior Authority, thereby, setting aside the impugned orders placing the respondent on put off duty. The reasonable course open to the Tribunal was that it should have remitted the matter to the concerned Superior Authority to take a decision having regard to the charge against the respondent / original applicant pertaining to fraud and embezzlement of deposits of the depositors.

18. Learned Tribunal also committed an error in mechanically applying the ratio of the judgement rendered in Ajay Kumar Chaudhary (supra). On perusal of the authority, it transpires that the employee therein was placed under suspension and the suspension continued for a prolonged period for several years due to pendency of C.B.I. Inquiry. The facts arising therein are altogether in a different context and are not applicable to the facts of the present case.

19. For the reason stated herein, we are unable to persuade ourselves to accept the opinion rendered by the learned Tribunal. Accordingly, the writ petition succeeds and is allowed. The impugned order dated 01 August, 2022 is set aside and quashed.

20. The matter is remitted to the competent Superior Authority to review the put off duty / suspension of the respondent / original applicant in the light of the guidelines. It is expected that an appropriate order shall be passed expeditiously preferably within six weeks from the date of filing certified copy of this order, provided there is no other impediment.

21. It is clarified that we have not expressed any opinion on the rival contentions and merit of the pending disciplinary proceedings against the original applicant.

(2023) 4 ILRA 193
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 13.04.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE DEVENDRA KUMAR UPADHYAYA, J.
THE HON'BLE OM PRAKASH SHUKLA, J.

Writ-A No. 9347 of 2021

S. Sunanda ...Petitioner
Versus
Chairman, Indira Gandhi Rashtriya Uran Akademi, New Delhi & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Anupam Verma, Capt. Pramod Kumar Bajaj

Counsel for the Respondents:
Yogesh Chandra Bhatt, Anurag Srivastava

Service Law-Constitution of India, 1950-Article 226-Writ petition challenging disengagement & non extension of contract of the petitioner working on contractual basis-Challenge premised on letter dated 25.05.2016 or 26.12.2016, does not take the case of the petitioner anywhere as these letters neither have created any right nor extinguished any right of the petitioner-Engagement only on contractual basis-There was no termination of the service of the petitioner rather it was a case of not giving any further extension-Even a series of extension given to a contractual employee does not change the status of the said employee-High Courts in exercising power u/Art. 226 would not issue directions for regularization, absorption or permanent continuance, unless the employees claiming regularization had been appointed in pursuance of a regular recruitment in accordance with relevant rules in an open competitive process, against sanctioned vacant posts. (Para 24, 27, 28, 33)

Writ petition dismissed. (E-15)

List of Cases cited:

1. St. of Karn. & ors. Vs Uma Devi reported in (2006) 4 SCC 1

2. St. of Har. & ors. Vs Piara Singh and Ors. AIR 1992 SC 2130

3. St. of Kar. Vs M.L. Kesari : (2010) 9 SCC 247

4. Narender Kumar Tiwari Vs St. of Jharkhand : (2018) 8 SCC 238

5. St. of West Bengal Vs Minimum wages Inspector : (2010) 2 SCC 425

6. Karnataka Handloom Development Corporation Ltd. Vs Sri Mahadeva Laxman Raval: (2006) 13 SCC 15

7. Mohd. Abdul Kadir Vs DGP : (2009) 6 SCC 611

8. St. of Rajasthan & ors. Vs Daya Lal & ors.: AIR 2011 SC 1193

9. University of Delhi Vs Delhi University Contract Employees Union & ors.: 2021 SCC Online SC 256

(Delivered by Hon'ble Om Prakash Shukla, J.)

1. Heard Shri Anupam Verma and Shri Pramod Kumar Bajaj, learned Counsel for the petitioner and Shri Anurag Srivastava and Shri Yogesh Chandra Bhatt, learned Counsel for the respondents.

2. Petitioner is aggrieved by the judgment and order dated 25.02.2020 passed in Original Application No. 485 of 2018 and the order dated 21.07.2020 passed in Review Application No. 4 of 2020 by the Central Administrative Tribunal, Lucknow Bench, Lucknow (hereinafter referred to as the 'Tribunal'), whereby both, Original Application (O.A.) No. 485/2018 as well as the Review Application No. 04/2020 filed by the petitioner, have been dismissed.

A. The case before the Tribunal

3. The petitioner claimed to be appointed as a Telephone Operator with effect from 06.08.2008 on contractual basis with the "Indira Gandhi Rashtriya Uran Akademi" (hereinafter referred to as "IGRUA") vide letter dated 05.08.2008. As per the case of the petitioner, the term of the contract was extended from time to time and the last such extension was granted to the petitioner vide letter dated 26.05.2016, which provided the contractual term of employment till 31.12.2016.

4. The petitioner alleged that her services were discontinued in an arbitrary manner on and from 01.01.2017, while another employee similarly circumstanced, namely, Smt. Vidya was retained as a Telephone Operator although she had been earlier engaged to work as an Assistant Librarian. Thus, the petitioner claimed that since she had been working for more than 10 years as a Telephone Operator with the respondent-IGRUA and as such she was entitled to be regularized and, thus, claimed the following relief in the original Application filed before the Tribunal; to quote :-

"i. To quash letter No. IGRUA:PF: 2016- 17:238 dated 26 May 16 (Annexure no. 1, page 35) vide which the services of the applicant has not been regularized even after continuous service of more than 10 years and meeting all conditions of para 53 of case of Umadevi (supra).

ii. To direct respondents to regularise services of the applicant as per the law laid down by Hon'ble Supreme Court in Uma Devi (supra 2006), M.L. Kesari (supra 2010) and Shiv Narayan Nagar (supra 2017) as applicant meeting all the requirements of Para 53 of Umadevi (supra) with all consequential benefits.

iii. To direct respondents to permit applicant to continue her services and to pay salary and all other allowance etc. as applicable for the period connecting from Jan 2017 (date of discontinuation of service) to date of joining consequent to the order passed by this Hon'ble Court.

iv. To issue any other order or direction which this Hon'ble Court may deem, just and proper in the nature & circumstances of the case as the applicant had to face irreparable personal/professional/social/ financial loss due to acts to respondents through incompetent authority on the dignity of the applicant.

v. To pass any such other order or direction which is just in the present circumstances of the case.

vi. Allow the cost of this application to the applicant."

5. Obviously the aforesaid prayers were contested by the respondents, who also filed their reply stating that the discontinuation of the service was as per the engagement letter issued to the petitioner and they also raised the issue relating to limitation as is applicable under Section 21 of the Administrative Tribunal Act, 1985. The Tribunal after recording the submission of the parties, vide paragraph 9 of the impugned judgment, enumerated the following key issues for consideration; to quote :-

"i. Whether or not the services of the applicant have been discontinued as per terms and conditions of engagement;

ii. That whether the OA is liable to be dismissed on grounds of being at variance with the liberty granted in the OA 33/2018 by this Tribunal vide order dated 18.09.2018;

iii. That whether the OA is liable to be dismissed on grounds of lack of addressing the delay in filing of the OA itself qua the impugned order/letter;

iv. That whether the services of the applicant ought to have been regularised as prayed in the O.A moreso, can any regularization prayer be considered by this Tribunal without submission of any application by the applicant in this regard before the authorities concerned/respondents earlier."

6. The Tribunal examining the material facts of records, returned a finding that the challenge to the disengagement of the petitioner could not stand the legal scrutiny as far as the first issue was concerned. Similarly, as far as the second issue was concerned, the Tribunal found the prayer of the petitioner seeking quashing of the letter dated 26.05.2016 to be at variance with the liberty granted to her in earlier round of application filed before the Tribunal and held that the OA was barred by limitation.

7. The Tribunal on merits of the case, found that the petitioner was not able to demonstrate any letter/representation sent to the respondents claiming regularization, which was mandatory before making a prayer to the Tribunal as per the rules. As far as the applicability of paragraph-53 of the judgment rendered by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of State of Karnataka and Others Vs. Uma Devi reported in (2006) 4 SCC 1, the Tribunal found that the said judgment provided for only one time measure for regularizing the services of those who were on roll in the year 2006 and who had put in 10 years of service as on 10.04.2006, which was not the case of the petitioner. The Tribunal also held that the petitioner was not a regular employee of IGRAU, nor was there any claim of she having been replaced by another fresh contractual employee. Thus, the OA filed by the petitioner was found to be without any merit and as such was dismissed vide the impugned order dated 25.02.2020.

8. The petitioner thereafter preferred a review application seeking review of the impugned order (supra), wherein the Tribunal found that by the time, the OA was filed or the writ petition was filed, the petitioner was not continuing on contractual basis and as such it was held that the judgment of State of Haryana and others vs Piara Singh and Ors. reported in AIR 1992 SC 2130 to be not applicable to the facts of the case. The Tribunal also distinguished the judgment of Uma Devi (supra) on facts of the present case and dismissed the review application vide an order dated 21.07.2020.

B. Submission of the Petitioner

9. Shri Anupam Verma, learned counsel for the petitioner sought to challenge both the impugned orders passed by the Tribunal on various grounds. Additionally, the learned Counsel also sought to challenge order/letter dated 26.12.2016 before this court, on the ground that the same was issued by a person holding a post, which was never created by IGRAU or approved by the Government. The learned counsel vociferously contended that the judgment passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Piara Singh (supra) although referred by him before the Tribunal was not considered and was left out in the final impugned judgment. The learned Counsel sought to justify that there was no delay in filing the OA as apparently this court had relegated the parties before the Tribunal and although this court had granted some interim relief in favour of the petitioner, however, the Tribunal did not consider the same. It was further contended that inspite of direction passed by this court to decide the case on merits, the Tribunal has not decided the same and has considered irrelevant submission of the respondents, while the petitioner claimed for regularization of her service as per the settled proposition of law as laid down in para-53 of the Apex Court judgment in the case of Uma Devi (supra) had not been considered and followed by the Tribunal.

10. On facts, the learned counsel highlighted that the petitioner was rendering her service to the respondent since 1998 as "Telephone Operator" on daily wages basis and subsequently on contractual basis since 2008. It was submitted that although the service of the petitioner was unblemished and she had been continuously working for more than 10 years and the case of the petitioner was a fit case for regularization, however, her services were abruptly brought to an end on 31.12.2016. Blaming the respondent for inordinate delay in filing the counter and thereafter being relegated to the Tribunal, the learned Counsel has sought to rely on a chart incorporated in the writ petition itself to demonstrate that she had been a victim of vexatious proceedings, although she had been diligently pursuing her grievances, since December 2016.

11. The learned counsel, on merits, sought to agitate that reinstatement of another contractual employee in place of the petitioner (contractual employee) was in the teeth of the judgment in the case of Piara Singh (supra). Further, since the petitioner had been continuously working for the last 10 years without any order of the Court on a sanctioned post, her service ought to have been regularized as per law laid down in para-53 of the Uma Devi (supra) and clarified in State of Karnatka Vs. M.L. Kesari : (2010) 9 SCC 247 and Narender Kumar Tiwari Vs. State of Jharkhand : (2018) 8 SCC 238. The learned Counsel also relied on the case of State of West Bengal Vs. Minimum wages Inspector : (2010) 2 SCC 425 to buttress his submission that the petitioner had worked on sanctioned post having qualification for that post and she carried all the functions and responsibilities of that post continuously for 10 years or more and, therefore, the petitioner was entitled for emoluments of the said post of telephone operator as per law.

12. The fulcrum of the argument of the learned counsel for the petitioner is that the Tribunal has expressed its inability in reviewing the impugned order on the basis of the judgment of Piara Singh (Supra) and Uma Devi (Supra) and as such this court is being persuaded to exercise its power of judicial review to consider both the said judgments to the facts of the present case and grant reliefs accordingly.

C. Submission of the Respondents

13. On facts, the respondents controverted the arguments made on behalf of the petitioner by submitting that the petitioner was engaged as daily wager as "Telephone Operator" during the period from 15.08.1998 to 30.04.2001. However, in view of the intermittent nature of the work, the petitioner was again engaged after a gap of four years for the period from 01.6.2005 to 05.08.2008 on daily wage basis and on contractual basis with effect from 06.08.2008, which was extended periodically from time to time for a period of six months at a time and ultimately the same came to an end on 31.12.2016. The respondents denied having engaged the petitioner on a regular post and relied on the letter dated 05.08.2008 to refer to the terms & conditions of engagement.

14. Shri Anurag Srivastava, learned counsel elaborating further on facts submitted that vide letter dated 06.08.2005, three persons were engaged on contractual basis on the post of "Telephone Operator", in which the petitioner secured third position and in the said three cases, the respondent had been extending the term of appointment after expiry of six months. He submits that during the process of diversification of activities in the aftermath of the EPABX automation, Mrs. Vidya V, one of the Telephone Operator's amongst the three, was transferred from Telephone Operator's job to work in Library vide office order dated 13.10.2009. The learned Counsel also referred to a letter dated 25.10.2016 issued by the Chief Engineer of the respondent relating to man power planning, wherein the Chief Engineer had recommended for requirement of one Telephone Operator in place of three Telephone Operators, pursuant to the modernization and upgrading of the EPABX system. It is the case of the respondent that pursuant to complete automation and there being requirement of only one Telephone Operator, the three available contractual Telephone Operators were assessed for their comparative performance, wherein the petitioner was found to be last. The respondent, thus, retained one Mrs. Indu Jain as Telephone Operator on the basis of merit in performance and who, thereafter, had been allocated the clerical work in Dak Dispatch Section with the reduced work of Telephone Operator. It was in this background that the Manager-HR based on the appraisal of the three operators, communicated vide letter dated 26.12.2016 to the petitioner about her forthcoming expiry of contract on 31.12.2016. The respondents have contended that only one manpower was required for the work of Telephone Operator, which was being performed by two till 31.12.2016 and later on, by the end of 2017, no manpower was required as Telephone Operator and even the said Mrs. Indu Jain has been re-designated as Assistant to perform clerical job in 2018 and presently there is no Telephone Operator working in IGRAU.

15. Explaining the journey of the present lis before this Court, the learned counsel has submitted that in the first round of litigation, the petitioner had challenged the letter dated 26.12.2016 before this Court vide Writ Petition No. 2817 of 2017, wherein this Court vide an order dated 08.02.2017 had directed that no fresh recruitment on the post of Telephone Operator shall be made by the respondents, however, later the said writ petition was disposed on 10.10.2018 on the ground of alternate remedy and parties were relegated to the Tribunal. Before the Tribunal, the petitioner, initially filed OA No. 33/2018, however, the same was withdrawn and thereafter another OA No. 485 of 2018 was filed, which initially although was reserved for interim relief, but the same was dismissed finally on the ground of limitation and merits vide an order dated 24.01.2019. On review being filed by the petitioner, the same was allowed by the Tribunal vide an order dated 20.08.2019. The respondents were not happy with the said order of review by the Tribunal and approached this Court by filing Writ Petition No. 25332/2019, which was dismissed by this Court vide an order dated 06.01.2020 with a direction to the Tribunal to decide the pending OA after providing proper opportunity to the parties in an expeditious manner.

16. On merits, the learned counsel has supported the impugned judgment passed by the Tribunal to be perfectly valid and in accordance with law. It has been submitted that the letter dated 26.12.2016, which has been sought to be challenged by the petitioner is not an order, which intends to terminate the service of the petitioner. According to him, the said letter merely is an intimation that the contract period was expiring on 31.12.2016 and the challenge as such to the said letter was wholly improper. It has been contended that frivolous grounds are being adopted by the petitioner, aimed at pushing the administration into accepting her continuation of contractual appointment. It has also been submitted that the letter dated 26.12.2016 was issued with an advice to obtain clearance from the department at the earliest and submit the same to the finance department, which would enable the respondent to clear the petitioner's dues. It has also been contended that the post of Manager-HR is already approved by the steering committee and ratified by the Government of India.

17. The learned Counsel has emphatically tried to drive home the point that the petitioner had not been replaced by any other contractual employee, hence the judgment of Piara Singh (Supra) is not applicable to the facts of the present case and as such the contention of the petitioner was misleading to that extent. In any case, it was a case of non-renewal of term of a contractual employee due to reduced manpower requirement owing to automation of EPABX system and not a case of replacement by another contractual employee. No fresh recruitment on the post of Telephone Operator was made by the respondent ever after due to abolishment of the post of Telephone Operator.

18. The learned Counsel for the respondent has repelled the argument of the petitioner for regularization on the basis of Uma Devi (Supra) on the ground that the Tribunal has given a specific finding that the same was not applicable to the facts of the present case. He further submits that even an OM dated 07.10.2020 was issued by the Ministry of Personnel, PG & Pensions, Department of Personnel & Training, wherein it has been clarified that regularization of qualified workers appointed against sanctioned post as per Uma Devi (Supra) was only a one time exercise and it was only applicable to those employee who had put 10 years of continuous service as on 10.04.2006, which is not the present case. The respondent has also tried to refute the contention of entitlement of emoluments as a regular employee by the petitioner on the ground that the work of telephone operator was intermittent in nature and her services were engaged only in the exigency of work. The learned Counsel referring to paragraph-44 of the Uma Devi (Supra), has submitted that the petitioner had only joined as a contractual employee on 06.08.2008, whereas the cut-off date as per the said judgment was atleast 10 years of contractual service till 10.04.2006 to be applicable.

19. The learned Counsel has also submitted that while the petitioner was engaged by the respondent on contract, there was no order issued by the Ministry of Civil Aviation, the administrative ministry, to regularize the services of employees engaged on contractual basis in IGRAU after having been continuously engaged for a specific period of time. The Ld. Counsel has reiterated that the findings and observation of non-applicability of Piara Singh (Supra) and Uma Devi (Supra) by the Tribunal was a correct view. Further, he supported the findings of the Tribunal on limitation and submitted assertively that the Tribunal did not overrule any decision of the Apex Court, rather the Tribunal on the basis of material on records returned a finding that the judgments cited by the petitioner before the Tribunal were not relevant to the context and even on merits the petitioner was not entitled for any relief. Thus, he has prayed for dismissal of the present writ petition.

D. Discussion and Findings

20. Having heard the learned counsel for the parties at length and after perusal of material on records, this Court is of the view that the facts of the case lie in a narrow compass. Undisputedly, the petitioner was appointed as a Telephone Operator with effect from 06.08.2008 on contractual basis with IGRUA vide a letter dated 05.08.2008. The said letter mentions that the contractual appointment would be valid for a period of six months and would automatically lapse on completion of six months. The petitioner had continued to be employed on contractual basis by the respondent and the last extension was granted by the respondent vide letter/order dated 26.05.2016, extending the contractual duration of employment till 31.12.2016.

21. This Court finds that it is the aforesaid extension letter dated 26.05.2016, which had been sought to be challenged by the petitioner before the Tribunal in the OA leading to the instant impugned order. It is rather absurd as to how the petitioner could have challenged the said extension letter, which merely tends to extend the contractual term of the petitioner till 31.12.2016. The petitioner neither before this court nor before the Tribunal could explain as to which part of the said letter is unsustainable or as to how the petitioner is aggrieved by the issuance of the said impugned letter. Further, it seems the petitioner herself is not clear as to what is her grievance or her right under the prevailing law as apparently in the first round of litigation, wherein she was relegated to the Tribunal by this court, the petitioner had filed an OA No. 33/2018 challenging the order dated 26.12.2016 issued by the Manager-HR intimating her about the expiry of her contractual employment on 31.12.2016, although the said letter dated 26.12.2016 was merely relating to obtaining clearances from all department/ section, so as to enable the petitioner for timely clear her dues.

22. As per records, the OA No. 33/2018, filed in the first round of ligation was dismissed as withdrawn by the petitioner, with a liberty to file a fresh OA on the same cause of action. However, the petitioner, while filing fresh OA No. 485/2018, did not impugned/challenge order dated 26.12.2016 and some other letter; being letter dated 26.05.2016 granting extension to the petitioner was sought to be challenged. It was in this background that the Tribunal found the prayer of the petitioner seeking quashing of the letter dated 26.05.2016 to be at variance with the liberty granted to her in earlier round of litigation/application filed before the Tribunal. Thus, the impugning the letter dated 26.05.2016 was not found appropriate by the Tribunal and moreover, the Tribunal also returned a finding that the OA filed by the petitioner was delayed, for the reason of having filed after the limitation period and since there was no condonation of delay application in terms of Section 21(3) of the Administrative Tribunal Act, inspite of an earlier order dated 24.01.2019 passed by the Tribunal dismissing the OA. Thus, the Tribunal in the impugned order also held that the OA was not under limitation.

23. This Court finds the reasoning of the Tribunal was apt in the given facts & circumstances for dismissing the Application on limitation, however, this court could not be held back any further with the said observation on limitation as pertinently the Tribunal had also dealt in detail on the merits of the present case and has even dismissed the OA on merits.

24. The Tribunal on merits of the case, found that the petitioner was not able to demonstrate any letter/representation sent to the respondents claiming regularization, which was mandatory before making a prayer to the Tribunal as per the rules. This court also finds that the petitioner in the absence of any such representation, had been seeking to challenge various letters, which merely were issued either in the nature of granting extension of contractual engagement or intimating that the contractual engagement was coming to an end on a particular date. In any case, a challenge premised on letter dated 25.05.2016 or 26.12.2016, does not take the case of the petitioner anywhere as these letters neither have created any right nor extinguished any right of the petitioner.

25. However, it is seen that the petitioner, dehors the representation has also claimed regularization by citing various judgments including State of Karnataka & Ors. Vs Uma Devi (supra), State of Karnatka Vs M.L. Kesari (supra) and Narender Kumar Tiwari Vs State of Jharkhand (supra).

26. This Court finds it profitable to note that the Tribunal after analysing the contents of the appointment letter as well as the letter of extension, arrived at a decision that the engagement of the petitioner was purely contractual. The Tribunal has returned a categorical finding that vide a letter dated 26.05.2016, it was informed to the petitioner that her extension would be only uptill 31.12.2016 and finally vide letter dated 26.12.2016, she was informed about the forthcoming expiry of the contract period on 31.12.2016 and thus it was concluded that the petitioner was engaged only on contractual basis. The Tribunal also returned a finding that the claim of the petitioner to have been appointed on a regular post was not adequately substantiated. Even before this Court, there has been no argument on the part of the petitioner as to whether the petitioner was at all appointed on a regular sanctioned post.

27. On the contrary, this Court finds that (i) the appointment of the petitioner was on fixed term basis; (ii) each extension was covered under a specific written order, which prescribed a date of coming to end of the said extension; (iii) after completion of period envisaged in the order of appointment, unless there was extension, the engagement would come to an end; and (iv) The term of employment of the petitioner came to end on 31.12.2016. Thus, from the facts it seems that there was no termination of the service of the petitioner rather it was a case of not giving any further extension of the period of engagement to the petitioner. Now, therefore the question would arise as to whether the petitioner was entitled for her extension of engagement in the peculiar facts of this case, wherein it has come on record that the post of "Telephone Operator" came to an end in a phased manner due to advancement of technology. The answer would be in negative. However, it has been pleaded by the petitioner that she had been engaged for the said employment for the last more than ten years. This courts finds that even a series of extension given to a contractual employee does not change the status of the said employee. The Apex Court in the case of Karnataka Handloom Development Corporation Ltd. v. Sri Mahadeva Laxman Raval: (2006) 13 SCC 15, although has considered the issue of retrenchment under the Industrial Dispute Act, wherein for availing retrenchment compensation a continuous engagement of 240 days has been prescribed under law, the Hon'ble Apex court recorded its reasoning at paragraph 18 as follows:

"We have perused all the appointment letters dated 14.01.1991, 24.02.1992, 10.02.1993, 03.03.1993 and 30.11.1993 produced by the respondent as annexures which consistently and categorically state that the respondent's appointment with the Corporation was purely contractual for a fixed period. The respondent was engaged only under the Vishwa programme scheme which is not in existence. Now the scheme came to an end during August, 1994 the respondent was also not governed by any service rules of the Corporation. The Corporation put an end to the contract w.e.f. 31.08.1993 which, in our opinion, cannot be termed as dismissal from service. Even assuming that the respondent had worked 240 days continuously he, in our opinion, cannot claim that his services should be continued because the number of 240 days does not apply to the respondent inasmuch as his services were purely contractual. The termination of his contract, in our view, does not amount to retrenchment and, therefore, it does not attract compliance of Section 25F of the I.D. Act at all."

(Emphasis Supplied)

28. This court has already perused the terms and conditions of appointment of the petitioner. Further, in all the orders of engagement specific periods and the amount of honorarium also has been mentioned. Although, the petitioner had been engaged for a considerable period of time, her status of being in contractual engagement does not change. This court cannot be oblivious to the fact that it is settled law that even if a Scheme has been in operation for some decades or that the employee concerned has continued on ad hoc basis for decades, it would not entitle the employee to seek permanency or regularisation. In Mohd. Abdul Kadir v. DGP : (2009) 6 SCC 611, the Hon'ble Supreme Court observed as under :-

"15. On completion of the project or discontinuance of the scheme, those who were engaged with reference to or in connection with such project or scheme cannot claim any right to continue in service, nor seek regularisation in some other project or service."

29. However, the point being sought to be agitated by the petitioner is as to whether such contractual appointment made periodically over a period would entitle the petitioner for regularization in view of the judgment passed by the Apex Court in Uma Devi's case (supra). The learned counsel has assertively relied on paragraph-53 of the Judgment. This Court before considering paragraph-53 of the Uma Devi's case (supra) would like to refer to paras-47 and 49 of the judgment along with the said paragraph-53, wherein the Constitutional Bench observed as follows :-

"47. When a person enters a temporary employment or gets engagement as a contractual or casual worker and the engagement is not based on a proper selection as recognized by the relevant rules or procedure, he is aware of the consequences of the appointment being temporary, casual or contractual in nature. Such a person cannot invoke the theory of legitimate expectation for being confirmed in the post when an appointment to the post could be made only by following a proper procedure for selection and in cases concerned, in consultation with the Public Service Commission. Therefore, the theory of legitimate expectation cannot be successfully advanced by temporary, contractual or casual employees. It cannot also be held that the State has held out any promise while engaging these persons either to continue them where they are or to make them permanent. The State cannot constitutionally make such a promise. It is also obvious that the theory cannot be invoked to seek a positive relief of being made permanent in the post."

49. It is contended that the State action in not regularising the employees was not fair within the framework of the rule of law. The rule of law compels the State to make appointments as envisaged by the Constitution and in the manner we have indicated earlier. In most of these cases, no doubt, the employees had worked for some length of time but this has also been brought about by the pendency of proceedings in tribunals and courts initiated at the instance of the employees. Moreover, accepting an argument of this nature would mean that the State would be permitted to perpetuate an illegality in the matter of public employment and that would be a negation of the constitutional scheme adopted by us, the people of India. It is therefore not possible to accept the argument that there must be a direction to make permanent all the persons employed on daily wages. When the court is approached for relief by way of a writ, the court has necessarily to ask itself whether the person before it had any legal right to be enforced. Considered in the light of the very clear constitutional scheme, it cannot be said that the employees have been able to establish a legal right to be made permanent even though they have never been appointed in terms of the relevant rules or in adherence of Articles 14 and 16 of the Constitution.

53. One aspect needs to be clarified. There may be cases where irregular appointments (not illegal appointments) as explained in S.V. Narayanappa, R.N. Nanjundappa and B.N. Nagarajan and referred to in para 15 above, of duly qualified persons in duly sanctioned vacant posts might have been made and the employees have continued to work for ten years or more but without the intervention of orders of the courts or of tribunals. The question of regularisation of the services of such employees may have to be considered on merits in the light of the principles settled by this Court in the cases abovereferred to and in the light of this judgment. In that context, the Union of India, the State Governments and their instrumentalities should take steps to regularise as a one-time measure, the services of such irregularly appointed, who have worked for ten years or more in duly sanctioned posts but not under cover of orders of the courts or of tribunals and should further ensure that regular recruitments are undertaken to fill those vacant sanctioned posts that require to be filled up, in cases where temporary employees or daily wagers are being now employed. The process must be set in motion within six months from this date. We also clarify that regularisation, if any already made, but not sub judice, need not be reopened based on this judgment, but there should be no further bypassing of the constitutional requirement and regularising or making permanent, those not duly appointed as per the constitutional scheme."

(Emphasis added)

30. Apparently, it is not the dictum of the Hon'ble Supreme Court to regularise the irregular or illegal appointment. Thus, picking up one sentence from one judgment or picking up some observation from one judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, benefit of regularisation or permanent absorption cannot be granted in violation of the letter, spirit and the intention of the judgment of the Constitutional Bench of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in Uma Devi's case (Supra). Moreover, it goes without saying that, judgment of a Constitution Bench of Apex Court laying down the law within the meaning of Article 141 of the Constitution of India must be read in its entirely for the purpose of finding out the ratio laid down therein. The Constitution Bench, in no uncertain terms, based its decision on the touchstone of the "equality clause' contained in Articles 14 and 16 of the Constitution of India. Emphasis has been laid at more than one places for making appointments only upon giving an opportunity to all concerned and as per the constitutional scheme, appointment through back-door has been held to be constitutionally impermissible.

31. This Court finds that even if the petitioner had been engaged on contractual basis for over ten years, the petitioner would still not have any claim for regularization, in case the contractual appointment was not made as per the constitutional scheme. The case of the petitioner would also not come within the exception as prescribed by Uma Devi's case (supra) in paragraph 53 of the judgment, inasmuch as, the petitioner was not in service for the required period before the said decision. In the present case, the earliest contractual engagement of the petitioner was on 06.08.2008 and the Constitutional Bench judgment of Apex Court in Uma Devi's case (supra) was pronounced on 10.04.2006, by which time, the petitioner would not have completed the ten years services as mandated in the said judgment. Further, Uma Devi's case (supra) was a one-time measure propounded by the Hon'ble Supreme Court. Moreover, on the application of the Uma Devi's Judgment, it will not be out of place to refer to the judgment rendered by the Apex Court in the case of State of Karnataka and others v. M.L. Kesari and others (supra). In M.L. Kesari's Case (Supra), the exception as carved out by para-53 of Uma Devi's case (supra) as also to the circumstances under which such persons were to be considered, the position of law was clarified. The Apex Court clarifying Uma Devi's case (supra) held in paragraphs-6, 7 & 8 of the judgment which are relevant to the context :-

"6. This Court in Umadevi further held that a temporary, contractual, casual or a daily-wage employee does not have a legal right to be made permanent unless he had been appointed in terms of the relevant rules or in adherence of Articles 14 and 16 of the Constitution. This Court however made one exception to the above position and the same is extracted below: (SCC p. 42, para 53)

"53. One aspect needs to be clarified. There may be cases where irregular appointments (not illegal appointments) as explained in State of Mysore v. S.V. Narayanappa, AIR (1967) SC 1071, R.N. Nanjundappa v. T. Thimmiah, (1972) 1 SCC 409 and B.N. Nagarajan v. State of Karnataka, (1979) 4 SCC 507 and referred to in para 15 above, of duly qualified persons in duly sanctioned vacant posts might have been made and the employees have continued to work fourteen years or more but without the intervention of orders of the courts or of tribunals. The question of regularisation of the services of such employees may have to be considered on merits in the light of the principles settled by this Court in the cases above referred to and in the light of this judgment. In that context, the Union of India, the State Governments and their instrumentalities should take steps to regularise as a one-time measure, the services of such irregularly appointed, who have worked fourteen years or more in duly sanctioned posts but not under cover of orders of the courts or of tribunals and should further ensure that regular recruitments are undertaken to fill those vacant sanctioned posts that require to be filled up, in cases where temporary employees or daily wagers are being now employed. The process must be set in motion within six months from this date."

7. It is evident from the above that there is an exception to the general principles against "regularisation" enunciated in Umadevi, if the following conditions are fulfilled:

(i) The employee concerned should have worked for 10 years or more in duly sanctioned post without the benefit or protection of the interim order of any court or tribunal. In other words, the State Government or its instrumentality should have employed the employee and continued him in service voluntarily and continuously for more than ten years.

(ii) The appointment of such employee should not be illegal, even if irregular. Where the appointments are not made or continued against sanctioned posts or where the persons appointed do not possess the prescribed minimum qualifications, the appointments will be considered to be illegal. But where the person employed possessed the prescribed qualifications and was working against sanctioned posts, but had been selected without undergoing the process of open competitive selection, such appointments are considered to be irregular.

8. Umadevi casts a duty upon the concerned Government or instrumentality concerned, to take steps to regularize the services of those irregularly appointed employees who had served for more than ten years without the benefit or protection of any interim orders of courts or tribunals, as a one-time measure. Umadevi directed that such one-time measure must be set in motion within six months from the date of its decision (rendered on 10-4-2006)."

(Emphasis Supplied)

32. In any case, the Hon'ble Apex Court in State of Rajasthan & Ors. v. Daya Lal & Ors.: AIR 2011 SC 1193 was considering the scope of regularisation of irregular or part-time appointments in all possible eventualities and laid down well-settled principles relating to regularisation after noting various judgments including Uma Devi (Supra) in the following manner :-

"6. We may at the outset refer to the following well settled principles relating to regularization and parity in pay, relevant in the context of these appeals:

(i) High Courts, in exercising power under Article 226 of the Constitution will not issue directions for regularization, absorption or permanent continuance, unless the employees claiming regularization had been appointed in pursuance of a regular recruitment in accordance with relevant rules in an open competitive process, against sanctioned vacant posts. The equality clause contained in Articles 14 and 16 should be scrupulously followed and courts should not issue a direction for regularization of services of an employee which would be violative of constitutional scheme. While something that is irregular for want of compliance with one of the elements in the process of selection which does not go to the root of the process, can be regularized, back door entries, appointments contrary to the constitutional scheme and/or appointment of ineligible candidates cannot be regularized.

(ii) Mere continuation of service by an temporary or ad hoc or daily-wage employee, under cover of some interim orders of the court, would not confer upon him any right to be absorbed into service, as such service would be `litigious employment'. Even temporary, ad hoc or daily- wage service for a long number of years, let alone service for one or two years, will not entitle such employee to claim regularization, if he is not working against a sanctioned post. Sympathy and sentiment cannot be grounds for passing any order of regularization in the absence of a legal right.

(iii) Even where a scheme is formulated for regularization with a cut off date (that is a scheme providing that persons who had put in a specified number of years of service and continuing in employment as on the cut off date), it is not possible to others who were appointed subsequent to the cut off date, to claim or contend that the scheme should be applied to them by extending the cut off date or seek a direction for framing of fresh schemes providing for successive cut off dates.

(iv) Part-time employees are not entitled to seek regularization as they are not working against any sanctioned posts. There cannot be a direction for absorption, regularization or permanent continuance of part time temporary employees.

(v) Part time temporary employees in government run institutions cannot claim parity in salary with regular employees of the government on the principle of equal pay for equal work. Nor can employees in private employment, even if serving full time, seek parity in salary with government employees. The right to claim a particular salary against the State must arise under a contract or under a statute.

(See : Secretary, State of Karnataka vs. Uma Devi - 2006 (4) SCC 1, M. Raja vs. CEERI Educational Society, Pilani - 2006 (12) SCC 636, S.C. Chandra vs. State of Jharkhand - 2007 (8) SCC 279, Kurukshetra Central Co-operative Bank Ltd vs. Mehar Chand - 2007 (15) SCC 680, and Official Liquidator vs. Dayanand - 2008 (10 SCC 1)"

33. Thus, it can be safely concluded that the law is no more res integra relating to regularization, inasmuch as, it is clear that the High Courts, in exercising power under Article 226 of the Constitution would not issue directions for regularization, absorption or permanent continuance, unless the employees claiming regularization had been appointed in pursuance of a regular recruitment in accordance with relevant rules in an open competitive process, against sanctioned vacant posts. In the present case, the petitioner has failed to show that she had been appointed pursuant to a regular recruitment process or against a sanctioned post.

34. The other judgments as relied by the learned Counsel for the petitioner are easily distinguishable from the present case, more particularly the judgment of Narendra Kumar Tiwari and others v. State of Jharkhand and others (supra) as in the said case, the Apex Court while taking note of the fact that the State of Jharkhand came into existence only on 15.11.2000, held that the Regularization Rules must be given a pragmatic interpretation, and if the candidates had completed 10 years of service on the date of promulgation of the Regularization Rules, they ought to be given the benefit of service rendered by them. In the opinion of this court, the ratio of the said decision cannot be made applicable in the present case, first & foremost there are no Regularization Rules of the IGRAU and accordingly, there is no question of completion of 10 years of service on promulgation of such rules. The applicant cannot escape the criteria laid down in Uma Devi (Supra), wherein it has been categorically held that a temporary employee could not claim to be made permanent on the expiry of his term of appointment. It was also clarified in the said judgment that merely because a temporary employee or a casual wage worker is continued for a time beyond the term of his appointment, he would not be entitled to be absorbed in regular service or made permanent, merely on the strength of such continuance, if the original appointment was not made by following a due process of selection as envisaged by the relevant rules. Further, the Apex Court went on to hold in clear and unequivocal terms that High Courts acting under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, should not ordinarily issue directions for absorption, regularization, or permanent continuance unless the recruitment itself was made regularly and in terms of the constitutional scheme.

35. Thus, the case of the petitioner falls short of the exceptions as prescribed by Uma Devi's case (supra) or liable for consideration by the application of the judgment of M.L. Kesari (supra), as the petitioner has attained no vested right for the claim of regularization, nor can a direction be sought from this Court for consideration of the same. In any case, there was no order or scheme issued by the Ministry of Civil Aviation, the administrative ministry of the respondent, to regularize the services of employees engaged on contractual basis in IGRAU after having been continuously engaged for a specific period. In any case, the learned Counsel for the respondent is right in placing reliance on the OM dated 07.10.2020, which was issued by the Ministry of Personnel, PG & Pensions, Department of Personnel & Training, wherein it has been clarified that regularization of qualified workers appointed against sanctioned post as per Uma Devi (Supra) judgment was only a one time exercise and it was only applicable to those employee who had put 10 years of continuous service as on 10.04.2006, which is not the present case.

36. Therefore, such regularization, if granted would fall foul of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of State of Karnataka v. Uma Devi (supra).

37. The learned Counsel for the petitioner has also relied on the judgment passed by the Apex Court in State of West Bengal & another v. West Bengal Minimum Wages Inspectors Association & others (supra), wherein it was held that evaluation of duties and responsibilities of different posts and determination of the pay scales applicable to such posts and determination of parity in duties and responsibilities are complex Executive functions, to be carried out by expert bodies. In that case, it was held that granting parity in pay scale depends upon comparative job evaluation and equation of posts and the burden to prove disparity is on the employee's claiming parity. It was held by the Apex Courts, that court should approach such matters with restraint and interfere only if they are satisfied that the decision of the Government is patently irrational, unjust and prejudicial to any particular section of employees. Even this judgment does not come to the rescue of the petitioner.

38. Further, it is available on record that the petitioner was not only the one who had been dis-engaged and apparently the non-extension of contractual engagement was for other cogent reasons, including that of non-requirement of three telephone operators in the wake of technological advancement in telecom division and as such the engagement of the petitioner was discontinued on the basis of comparable merits/performance amongst the three operators, wherein the petitioner stood at the third position. This Court is in agreement with the finding of the Tribunal, which has noted the factum of letter dated 25.10.2016 written by Chief Engineer of the respondent relating to the requirement of only one Telephone Operator in place of three due to the modernisation of the telecom division of the respondent. Thus, the petitioner was not replaced by another contractual employee and in any case, there was no need for replacement of the petitioner as the work of Telephone Operator due to the advancement of technology had lost requirement. Automated EPABX and extensive use of own mobile phones by officials/flying cadets was also one of the reasons of loss of need of Telephone Operators as contended by the respondents. Hence, in our considered view, the petitioner had been working on contract basis extendable from time to time which was extended time to time on need basis. As the respondents felt that the work load is decreased by way of development of technology and only one person is sufficient to work as a Telephone Operator, hence, they decided to discontinue the services of the petitioner on comparable basis. Thus, the present case is not a case, wherein any contractual employee has been sought to be replaced by another contractual employee and as such the judgment of the Apex Court in State of Haryana & Ors Vs Piara Singh & Ors. (supra), also does not come to any rescue to the petitioner.

39. The petitioner had earlier filed an OA No. 33/2018 challenging the order dated 26.12.2016 issued by the Manager-HR intimating her about the expiry of her contractual employment on 31.12.2016 and obtaining clearances from all department/ section, so as to enable her to clear her dues. The said OA was dismissed as withdrawn by the Tribunal, with a liberty to file a fresh OA on the same cause of action. However, while filing fresh OA No. 485/2018, apparently the aforesaid order dated 26.12.2016 was not challenged by the petitioner. The petitioner sought to challenge the said order dated 26.12.2016 before this Court yet again, which cannot be allowed as a Court for first instance as this Court is exercising its power of judicial review of the order of the Tribunal.

40. As a sequel to the above discussion, this Court holds that impugned orders passed by the Tribunal do not suffer from any infirmity.

E. Conclusion

41. Thus, for all the aforesaid reasons, this Court finds that the instant writ petition is devoid of merit and as such, is, accordingly, dismissed.

42. Recently, the Hon'ble Supreme Court was considering the issue of regularizing contractual employees of Delhi University and for that reason a special examination was to be conducted for these contractual employees only, which was allowed by the Delhi High Court. However, on appeal, the Hon'ble Supreme Court finding fault in the said process in regularising the contractual employee held in paragraph-12 of the judgment passed in University of Delhi Vs Delhi University Contract Employees Union & Ors.: 2021 SCC Online SC 256, as follows :-

12. It is true that, as on the day when the judgment in Umadevi was delivered by this Court, the contract employees had put in just about 3 to 4 years of service. But, as of now, most of them have completed more than 10 years of service on contract basis. Though the benefit of regularization cannot be granted, a window of opportunity must be given to them to compete with the available talent through public advertisement. A separate and exclusive test meant only for the contract employees will not be an answer as that would confine the zone of consideration to contract employees themselves. The modality suggested by the University, on the other hand, will give them adequate chance and benefit to appear in the ensuing selection."

(Emphasis Supplied)

43. Thus, before parting with the records, this Court observes that in the event, the said post or any post commensurate to the qualification and skill as currently borne by the petitioner is advertised, the respondents may allow the petitioner to participate in the regular selection process by relaxing her age as one-time measure in the interest of justice.

44. In the facts of the present case, there shall be no order as to cost.

(2023) 4 ILRA 209
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 27.04.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE PANKAJ BHATIA, J.

Writ-A No. 14919 of 2021

Anuj Singh ...Petitioner
Versus
Union of India & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Rajat Gangwar, Ashmita Singh, Gaurav Mehrotra, Rahul Agarwal

Counsel for the Respondents:
A.S.G., Ajay Kumar Singh, Satish Kumar Rai

Service Law-Constitution of India, 1950-Article 226-Writ petition challenging order imposing punishment of dismissal from service and the appellate order modifying the dismissal of service to compulsory retirement- Inquiry Officer proceeded to hold the charges proved against the petitioner based upon virtually no evidence-Disciplinary authority while has not even dealt with any of the submissions made by the petitioner-Appellate authority completely erred in holding the petitioner guilty by taking recourse to the dictionary meaning of the word 'supervise' and 'to supervise' completely ignoring the office memorandums which specified the nature of duties in respect of charges leveled-None of the witnesses either before the Inquiry Officer or in any of the documents given alongwith the charge-sheet, in any way incarcerate the petitioner with regard to not following any of the duties-Only charge leveled and established was that the petitioner took 14 days in forwarding the report of the unauthorized construction to the Chief Executive Officer which can in the worst case be called as

'negligence' and does not qualify to be a 'misconduct' warranting such extreme punishment as has been imposed - Punishment order set aside with direction to reinSt. the petitioner in the services alongwith all consequential benefits on the post on which he was working at the time of removal. (Para 90, 91, 92, 93, 94)

Petition allowed. (E-15)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Pankaj Bhatia, J.)

1. Present petition has been filed challenging the Punishment Order No.85 dated 14.08.2019 passed by Respondent No.2, Cantonment Board Resolution No.188 dated 14.08.2019 passed by Respondent No.3 imposing a major punishment of dismissal from service as well as the appellate order dated 01.06.2021 passed by Respondent No.4 modifying the dismissal of service to compulsory retirement (Annexure - 29).

2. The facts, in brief, are that the petitioner was appointed as Assistant Engineer in the Cantonment Board and was promoted to the post of Cantonment Executive Engineer on 17.08.2002. The petitioner claims that during his service tenure, various awards and commendation certificates were received by the petitioner. It is brought on record that on 27.08.2007, the Cantonment Board, Meerut resolved that the building plan showing cinema hall and shops was sanctioned in the year 1957 and thus, any fresh sanction for a similar venture will not amount to change of purpose.

3. The entire dispute started with respect of Bungalow No.167, Chappel Street Meerut Cantt. Meerut. The Ministry of Defense sought a reply in respect of the resolution passed by the Cantonment Board, Meerut on 27.08.2007 as to why the decision of the Board sanctioning the building may not be modified or revoked. The Cantonment Board vide Resolution No.93 dated 02.03.2009, in view of the notices issued by the Ministry of Defense, resolved that the decision of the government setting aside Resolution No.330 dated 04.01.2008 be communicated to the owner of the Bungalow No.167 and further directions were issued that the Chief Executive Officer should ensure that no unauthorised constructions takes place. The said resolution of the Board was challenged before the Delhi High Court in Writ Petition (C) No.1808 of 2011 (Rajesh Agarwal v. Union of India & Ors.). Learned Single Judge vide order dated 26.07.2011 restored the Cantonment Board Resolution No.330 dated 04.01.2008 and passed orders for approving the building sanction plan in respect of the said Bungalow No.167. However, in respect of the same very bungalow, a letter was written by the General Officer Commanding-in-Chief granting approval to the President, Cantonment Board to initiate disciplinary proceedings against the petitioner as well as one Mr. Piyush Gautam; the said sanction in on record as Annexure - 2.

4. In terms of the approval granted, the Board Resolution No.91 was passed initiating disciplinary proceeding against the petitioner on 26.11.2013. The petitioner challenged the said Resolution No.91 dated 226.11.2013 by filing Writ - A No.70147 of 2013 (Anuj Singh v. Union of India & Ors.). The said writ petition was disposed off by the Allahabad High Court vide order dated 20.12.2013 directing that a charge-sheet be issued to the petitioner and disciplinary proceeding be finalised in accordance with law, preferably within a period of three months from the date of receipt of a certified copy of the order subject to full cooperation by the petitioner.

5. On 20.12.2013, a charge-sheet was served upon the petitioner levelling as many as seven charges against the petitioner; the charge-sheet is on record as Annexure - 4. In the said charge-sheet, apart from the allegations levelled pertaining to Bungalow No.167, six other charges were also levelled against the petitioner. On 27.01.2014, the petitioner filed a reply to the charge-sheet denying the charges levelled against the petitioner. Similar to the petitioner, charge-sheets were also issued to one Piyush Gautam, A.E. and K.A. Gupta, J.E. All the seven charges as levelled against the petitioner are being reproduced herein below:

"STATEMENT OF IMPUTATION OF MISCONDUCT/ARTICLE OF CHARGE FRAMED AGAINST SHRI ANUJ SINGH, EXECUTIVE ENGINEER, CANTT BOARD MEERUT.

Article of Charge I:-

Shri Anuj Singh while working as Executive Engineer and illegally facilitated sanctioning of a building plan for cinema theatre and several shops in respect of B. No. 167, Chappel Street, Meerut Cantt on several numbers of defence land described in the G.L.R. for residential purpose as well as open plots meant for passage, amalgamating land under several separate survey numbers as well as facilitated change of purpose without obtaining sanction of the Govt of India. There was difference in area too as per report dated 30.07.2004 submitted by him in respect of Sy. No. 357/1742 thus by giving misleading report on docket form of building plan to the Cantonment Board, surruptiously allowed of passing of the building plan for cinema building vide Cantt Board Resolution No. 330 dated 04.01.2008. The Govt of India, Ministry of Defence set aside the above decision of the Board holding that the action of the Board is against the interest of the Govt of India being old grant property. The HOR challenged the decision of the Govt before the Hon'ble High Court of Delh where the Govt of India/Cantt Board lost the case. Thus the proprietory interest of the Govt and the policy instructions has been jeopardized due to his incorrect/illegal report.

This action of Shri Anuj Singh was with the intent and motive to cause wrongful gain/benefit to the applicant HOR and causing loss to the Govt of India, as well as defeating the provisions of Cantonments Act & Land Policy of the Govt of India and thus amounts to gross misconduct which is violative of Rules 3 (1) (i) and 3(1)(ii) of CCS (Conduct) Rules, 1964.

Article of Charge II:-

Shri Anuj Singh while working as Executive Engineer facilitated illegal & unauthorized construction of hotel and resort in old grant residential bungalow No. 22-B, Boundary Road, Meerut Cantt comprising survey No. 302 in violation of Old Grant terms under Governor General's order No. 179 dated 12.09.1836 and the Govt's land policy issued by the Ministry of Defence on 24.03.2012 the unauthorized construction were sealed under orders of the CEO u/s 249 of CA, 2006. Inspite of this fact the unauthorized construction of hotel/resort in the said bungalow continued unabated and completed. After lodging FIR on 04.07.2012 and 19.07.2012 with Police Station Lal Kurti no action for re-seal of the premises and to stop unauthorized construction were taken by him. In fact all the exercise of getting notices issued and sealing was just an eye wash. In August 2013 effective action was taken by the CEO personally in the matter and got stopped the functions in the premises as well as cancellation of application under Sarai Act moved by the offenders.

Thus Shri Anuj Singh failed to perform his dutics as CEE of the Board by not taking any fruitfull & effective action/initiative to stop the unauthorized construction as well as to remove the unauthorized constructions at initial stage. This action of Shri Anuj Singh was with the Intent and motive to cause wrongful gain/benefit to the applicant and loss to the Govt of India as well defeating the provisions of Cantonments Act and Land Policy of the Govt of India and thus amounts to gross misconduct which is violative of Rules 3 (1) (i) and 3 (1) (ii) of CCS (Conduct) Rules, 1964.

Article of Charge III:-

Shri Anuj Singh while working as Executive Engineer and during the period 15.02.1995 to Jan 2012 illegally facilitated illegal construction in building No. 340 A-C, Rangsaz Mohalla, Sadar Bazar, Meerut Cantt comprising survey No. 357/6 in violation of order dated 08.05.2001 passed by the Hon'ble High Court, Allahabad as well as order dated 29.11.2002 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court restraining construction over and above the ground floor raised unauthorisedly i.e. no further unauthorized construction on first floor was permitted by the High Court/Supreme Court of India, but inspite of that a report of construction of 14 pillers on first floor only was submitted by him on which order dated 14.12.2001 was passed by the Estate Officer for demolition but on inspection in August 2013 it is found that entire first floor has been completely constructed during past years. But he did not submit any report of unauthorized constructions after submitting report of 14 pillers having an intention of facilitating the builder and in lieu of getting undue benefit and gratification for himself.

This action of Shri Anuj Singh was with the intent and motive to cause wrongful gain/benefit to the applicant and loss to the Govt of India as well defeating the provisions of Cantonments Act and Land Policy of the Govt of India which amounts to gross misconduct which is violative of Rules 3 (1) (i) and 3 (1)(ii) of CCS (Conduct) Rules, 1964.

Article of Charge IV:-

Shri Anuj Singh while working as Executive Engineer and during the period 15.02.1995 to Nov 2013 illegally facilitated the builders to construct huge unauthorized constructions in bungalow No. 198, 199, 202, 209, 210-A, 210-B, 210- C, 213, 220, 222, 223, 227, 233 West End Road, 176, 340, Rangsaz Mohalla, Sadar Bazar, 193 Naya Bazar, 182, 184, 185, 185/A, 187, 188 and 190, Abu Lane, 305 Circular Road, 182/183 Dalmandi Sadar Bazar and other illegal constructions for commercial exploitation as well as committing change of purpose from residential to commercial in several parts of Cantt area. It is notable that such construction do not match with the construction on ground and the construction shown in reports submitted to the office. Even no complete report that unauthorized constructions have been submitted though it had been stated in reports that work was going on at site. Moreover, no effective steps have been taken to prevent unauthorized constructions as provided under the law i.e. confiscation of building material and sealing of unauthorized construction. Further it is severe negligence in duty that even after dismissal of the appeals in unauthorized constructions by the GOC-in-C as well as the Director, DE he has not initiated appropriate action within the stipulated time pericd for demolition of the unauthorized constructions involved in appeals. It evidently shows involvement in not taking action for demolition of such unauthorized constructions.

This action of Shri Anuj Singh was with the intent and motive to cause wrongful gain/benefit to the builders/offenders and loss to the Govt of India as well defeating the provisions of Cantonments Act and Land Policy of the Govt of India and thus amounts to gross misconduct which is violative of Rules 3(1) (i) and 3 (1) (ii) of CCS (Conduct) Rules, 1964.

Article of Charge V:-

Shri Anuj Singh while working as Executive Engineer illegally facilitated to continue illegally erected mobile tower in bungalow No. 177-177/A Chappel street, Meerut Cantt inspite of removal order passed by the Estate Officer vide order dated 06.03.2012 and dismissal of Writ petition No. 56971 of 2012 by the Hon'ble High Court, Allahabad on 09.11.2012 till when the offender obtained stay order on 12.12.2012 in special appeal before Hon'ble High Court, Allahabad, in breach of instructions issued by the Govt of India, Ministry of Defence as well jeopardizing the security of the Defence/Army installations. As well as illegally facilitated installation of illegal mobile towers in Cantt area in RA' Bazar and Rangsaz Mohalla, Sadar Bazar" Meerut Cantt during the period of temporary absence of CEO from the station between 25.09.2013 and 06.10.2013 in breach of instructions issued by the Govt of India, Ministry of Defence as well jeopardizing the security of the Defence/Army installation: under Meerut Cantt inspite of express instructions issued by the competent authority i.e. CEO and he deliberately mislead the competent authority by giving false report of removal of illegal towers by him and facilitated them to approach the Court by giving sufficient time while not taking prompt action on the instructions given to him by the competent authority.

This action of Shri Anuj Singh was with the intent and motive to cause wrongful, gain/benefit to the applicant and loss to the Govt of India as well defeating the provisions of Cantonments Act and Policy of the Govt of India and thus amounts to gross misconduct which is violative of Rules 3(1)(i) and 3(1)(ii) of CCS (Conduct) Rules, 1964.

Article of Charge VI:-

Shri Anuj Singh while working as Executive Engineer and during the period 15.02.1995 to Nov 2013 illegally facilitated to continue illegal occupation by way of high class fertile cultivation since long back on approximately 15 acres out of 20.997 acres 'C' class land situated at Trenching ground comprising GLR Sy. No. 307/1 belonging to and vested in the Cantonment Board, Meerut. Earlier being the AE and after that promoted/upgraded to CEE the illegal occupation & cultivation was neither reported by him to the CEO/CB nor he tried to get the land vacated from illegal cultivation. He did not give any heed to the direction of the CEO by not erecting boundary pillers for 3-4 months since July 2013 inspite of repeated instructions of the CEO after joint survey and demarcation of boundaries between 05.07.2013 to 10.07.2013 carried out in the presence of CEO's rep and DEO representatives Ultimately, the land has been got vacated by the CEO was informed secretly from reliable sources that the illegal occupant has arranged all legal process to get stay from the court of law. During the period of illegal occupation of approx 20 years illegal gain of more than one crore was awarded to the illegal occupant/occupants.

Thus Shri Anuj Singh failed to perform his duties with undoubtful integrity by not reporting the illegal occupation and cultivation over approx 15 acres of 'C' class land as well as by not making any effort to get the subject land vacated. This action of Shri Anuj Singh was with the intent and motive to cause wrongful gain/benefit to the illegal occupants and loss to the Govt of India/Cantt Board and thus amounts to gross misconduct which is violative of Rules 3 (1) (i) and 3 (1) (ii) of CCS (Conduct) Rules, 1964.

Article of Charge VII:-

Shri Anuj Singh while working as Executive Engineer facilitated issuance of permission for cutting of total 14 green and dry trees in favour of one Shri Rajeev Kumar on his application dated 13.07.2012 and 30.10.2012 in old grant residential bungalow No. 195/1, Delhi Road, Meerut Cantt comprising survey No. 357/1758. Such act on the part of Shri Anuj Singh was totally illegal being in favour of a person. who is not recorded holder of occupancy rights in GLR maintained by the Cantt Board which is in violation of Old Grant terms under Governor General's order No. 179 dated 12.09.1836 and the Govt's land policy issued by the Ministry of Defence. For such illegal act he submitted incorrect report and recommendation in June 2013 for cutting of trees.

Thus Shri Anuj Singh failed to perform his duties as CEE of the Board by not taking any fruitful and effective action/initiative to stop unauthorized construction as well as to remove the unauthorized construction at initial stage. This action of Shri Anuj Singh was with the intent and motive to cause wrongful gain/benefit to the applicant and loss to the Govt of India as well defeating the provisions of Cantonment Act and Land Policy of the Govt of India and thus amounts to gross misconduct which is violative of Rules 3(1) (i) and 3(1)(ii) of CCS (Conduct) Rules, 1964.

LIST OF DOCUMENTS BY WHICH THE ARTICLES OF CHARGE FRAMED AGAINST SHRI ANUJ SINGH, EXECUTIVE ENGINEER, CANTT BOARD, MEERUT IS PROPOSED TO BE SUSTAINED.

Article of Charge No. 1:-

(i) CBR No. 330 dated 04.01.2008.

(ii) Building application dated 07 Dec 2007 of Shri RK Aggarwal

(iii) Cantt Board Meerut letter No. 93/167/L/511 dated 20.03.2006.

(iv) HQ Central Command letter No. 260506/Q3B dated 18.01.2000 enclosing. MoD ID No. 718/20/L/DE/97/1517/DO(V)/D/(L) dated 13.12.1999.

(V) DG DE letter No. 718/20/L/DE/97 dated 17.05.2000.

(vi) Dte DE, CC, Lucknow letter No. 67147/LC2/2 dated 27.12.2006.

(vii) Cantt Board Meerut letter No. 93/167/L/425 dated 12.03.2007.

(viii) Govt of India, Ministry of Defence letter No. 11013/1/87/D(Lands) Vol-I dated 09.02.1995.

(ix) Scrutiny report of Cantt Board Meerut staff as endorsed on the Building Application of Shri RK Aggarwal.

(x) Mutation application dated 14.01.2003.

(xi) Scrutiny report dated 30.07.2004 & 14.12.2004 on the mutation application dated 14.01.2003.

(xii) Ministry of Defence letter No. 10(68)/2008/D(Q&C) dated 21.11.2008.

(xiii) Ministry of Defence letter No. 10 (68)/2008/D(Q&C) dated 20.02.2009.

(xiv) Building plan sanctioned by the Cantt Board vide CBR No. 330 dated 04.01.2008 of B. No. 167, Chappel Street, Meerut and subsequently set aside by Govt of India vide Ministry of Defence Order No. 10 (68)/2008/D(Q&C) dated 20.02.2009.

(xv) CBR No. 227 dated 27.08.2007.

(xvi) GLR Extract of Sy No. 357/1742, 357/1742/1, 357/1742/2, 357/1742/3, 357/1742/4, 357/1742/5, 357/1742/6, 357/1742/7 & 357/1742/8.

(xvii) GLR Plan of Sy No. 357/1742.

(xviii) Cantonment Board, Meerut Bye Laws.

(xix) Cantonments Act, 2006 relevant section 234 & 235.

(xx) Application dated 22.02.2006 and 07.05.2007 of Shri RK Aggarwal.

(xxi) DG DE letter No. 707/1/L/DE/CC/1/2007 dated 01.03.2007.

Article of Charge No. II:-

(i) GLR extract of bungalow No. 22-B, Boundary Road.

(ii) Report dated 14.10.2011 regarding detection of u/a construction.

(iii) Report dated 29.11.2011 regarding detection of u/a construction.

(iv) Report dated 31.01.2012 regarding detection of u/a construction.

(v) Report dated 06.03.2012 regarding detection of u/a construction.

(vi) Report dated 22.05.2013 regarding detection of u/a construction.

(vii) Notice u/s 248 bearing No. Misc/4007/E7A dated 23.11.2011 regarding demolition of u/a construction.

(viii) Notice u/s 248 bearing No. Misc/4190/E7A dated 22.12.2011 regarding demolition of u/a construction.

(ix) Notice u/s 248 bearing No. 93/22-B/524/E7A dated 28.03.2012 regarding demolition of u/a construction.

(x) Notice u/s 248 bearing No. Misc/695/E7A dated 01.05.2012 regarding demolition of u/a construction.

(xi) Notice u/s 248 bearing No. MCB/Bldg/Engg/190 dated 22.06.2013 regarding demolition of u/a construction.

(xii) Copy of letter No. Misc/G/943 dated 25.09.2013.

(xiii) Letter No. 93/22-B/L/348 dated 09.07.2013.

(xiv) Letter No. 93/22/L/569 dated 12.08.2013.

(xv) Letter No. 93/22/L/613 dated 19.08.2013.

(xvi) Order u/s 249 passed by the CEO bearing No. Misc/xxx/E7A dated 23.03.2012.

(xvii) Copy of general CBR dated 18.06.2012.

(xviii) Copy of report dated 04.07.2012 & FIR dated 04.07.2012.

(xix) Copy of report dated 18.07.2012& FIR dated 19.07.2012.

(xx) Criminal writ Petition No. 8346 of 2013, Cantt Board Meerut V/s Pankaj Jolly & others.

Article of Charge No. III:-

(i) 1st report of u/a constructions dated 30.11.2000 in premises No. 340 A-C, Rangsaz Moh.

(ii) II nd report of u/a constructions dated 07.12.2000 in premises No. 340 A-C, Rangsaz Moh.

(iii) Order dated 13.12.2000 regarding sealing passed by the Estate Officer.

(iv) Order dated 28.04.2001 passed by ADJ Meerut.

(v) Order dated 08.05.2001 passed by Hon'ble High Court passed in W.P. No. 17434 of 2001.

(vi) Order dated 14.12.2001 passed by the Estate Officer for demolition.

(vii) Order dated 03.02.2003 passed by Distt Judge Meerut in M.A. No. 314 and 315 of 2001.

(viii) Order dated 28.04.2001 passed by the Hon'ble High Court, Allahabad in Civil Misc Writ Petition No. 17434 of 2001, Rajiv Anand V/s Estate Officer & another.

(ix) Order dated 29.11.2012 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in SLP (C) No. 22499 of 2001.

(x) Detection report dated 04.03.2005 of 1st floor containing 14 pillars.

(xi) Order dated 20.09.2006 passed by the Estate Officer for demolition.

Article of Charge No. IV:-

(i) Detection reports (as per Appendix-A) of unauthorized constructions in respect of bungalow No. 198, 199, 202, 209, 210-A, 210-B, 210-C, 213, 220, 222, 223, 227, 233 West End Road, 176 Rangsaz Mohalla, Sadar Bazar, 193 Naya Bazar, 182, 184, 185, 185/A, 187, 188, 190, Abu Lane, 22-Boundry Road & 305, Circular Road.

(ii) Report of Advocate Commissioner passed by the Hon'ble High Court, Allahabad in Contempt Petition No. 380 of 2001, Executive Officer V/s Pushpa Devi & Others.

(iii) Survey map prepared by the Advocate Commissioner in respect of u/s constructions in bungalow No. 210-B, West End Road.

(iv) Demolition orders (as per Appendix-B & C) passed by the GOC-in-C/Director DE w.e.f 1995 till date.

(v) Application dated 20.07.2013 from Shri S.D. Tripathi for repair of house no.182/183 Sadar Dalmandi.

(vi) Application dated 02.08.2013 from Smt Maya Devi for repair of house no. 182/183 Sadar Dalmandi.

(vii) Detection report dated 24.10.2013 in r/o house no. 182/183 Dalmanci Sadar.

(viii) Copy of GLR extract in r/o house no. 182/183 Dalmandi Sadar.

Article of Charge No. V:-

(i) GLR extract of B. No. 177-177/A, Chappel Street, Meerut Cantt.

(ii) Detection report regarding u/a mobile tower.

(iii) Order dated 06.03.2012 passed by the Estate Officer for removal of tower.

(iv) Order dated 16.10.2012 passed by the District Judge, Meerut.

(v) Order dated 09.11.2012 passed by the Hon'ble High Court, Allahabad.

(vi) Office note/order of CEO dated 07.12.2012.

(vii) Order dated 12.12.2012 passed by the Hon'ble High Court, Allahabad.

(viii) Policy instructions dated 12.09.2008 regarding mobile towers issued by the Min of Defence.

(ix) GLR extract of bungalow No. 292, RA Bazar.

(x) GLR extract of house No. 32, 32/A, Rangsaz Mohalla, Sadar, Meerut Cantt.

(xi) Copy of plaint in suit No. 1234 of 2013, Himanshu Jain V/s Cantonmen: Board, in the Court of Civil Judge (Sr. Div.) Meerut.

(xii) Copy of plaint in suit No. 1233 of 2013, Manjeet Singh V/s Cantonment Board, in the Court of Civil Judge (Sr. Div.) Meerut.

(xiii) Copy of writ petition No.64191 of 2013, Himanshu Jain V/s Cantonment Board and others.

(xiv) Copy of writ petition No.64900 of 2013, Manjeet Singh V/s Cantonment Board and others.

(xv) Copy of detection report dated 09.10.2013 regarding mobile tower in B. No. 292, RA Bazar.

(xvi) Copy of detection report dated 09.10.2013 regarding mobile tower in H No. 32, 32/A, Rangsaz Mohalla, Sadar Bazar, Meerut Cantt.

Article of Charge No. VI:-

(i) GLR extract 'C' class land of trenching ground of Cantt Board.

(ii) Report dated 01.07.2013 by Sanitary Supdt and Sanitary Inspector.

(iii) Report dated 10.07.2013 of Joint survey and demarcation.

(iv) Order of the CEO dated 18.07.2013 for erecting pillars.

(v) Estimate dated 05.04.2005 and sketch of trenching ground.

(vi) Calculation sheet, site plan of trenching ground and comparative statement dated 10.12.2010.

(vii) Comparative statement dated 21.02.2011.

Article of Charge No. VII:-

(i) Copy of GLR of bungalow No. 195, Delhi Road, Meerut Cantt.

(ii) Application dated 13.07.2012 from Rajeev Kumar for cutting trees.

(iii) Another application dated 03.10.2012 from Rajeev Kumar for cutting trees.

(iv) Report 21.06.2013 recommending issue of permission.

(v) ID Note No. 66 dated 22.06.2013 of the CEO.

(vi) ID Note No. 75 dated 11.07.2013 of the CEO.

(vii) Letter No. R/108/Sale of Tree/269 dated 22.07.2013.

(viii) Show Cause letter No. Vividh/G/22 dated 31.08.2013.

(ix) Reply to show cause dated 06.09.2013 received from Shri Anuj Singh."

6. During the pendency of the proceedings, the judgment and order of the Delhi High Court dated 26.07.2011 was challenged by filing L.P.A. No.1051 of 2011. The Division Bench rejected the appeal filed by the Union of India and upheld the order dated 26.07.2011. In the meanwhile, as steps were being taken for demolition of constructions, unfortunately certain labourers died during the process of demolition, as such, an FIR came to be lodged as Case Crime No.309 of 2016 under Section, 147, 302/34 IPC. In the said FIR, six officers/officials including the petitioner were named as accused. In pursuance to the said FIR pertaining to demolition being carried in Bungalow

No.210-B, the petitioner was arrested and sent to District Jail on 10.07.2016. As the petitioner was detained in custody for more than 48 hours, the petitioner was placed under deemed suspension in terms of the provisions of Rule 10A(2) of the Cantonment Fund Servants Rules, 1937 (hereinafter referred to as "the CFS Rules').

7. The petitioner after being released from the custody again submitted his reply to the charges levelled against him on 30.06.2017 and supported the said averments by means of the documents.

8. The petitioner challenged the deemed suspension order by preferring Writ - A No.61673 of 2017 (Anuj Singh v. Cantt. Board and Ors.). This Court vide order dated 22.12.2017 passed an interim order staying the suspension order dated 27.07.2016. In the meanwhile, an order came to be passed on 05.06.2017 and 31.07.2017 exonerating the Assistant Engineer and Junior Engineer by the Board vide Resolution No.586 dated 05.06.2017 and D.O. Part II Order dated 31.07.2017 (Annexure - 7) respectively. In view of the exoneration of the said two persons, a letter was written by the Chief Executive Officer, the Disciplinary Authority to the Principal Director seeking advice in respect of the disciplinary proceeding against the petitioner on 03.01.2018 and 08.01.2018; the Principal Director wrote a letter to the Chief Executive Officer, Meerut advising that the disciplinary proceeding can be continued against the petitioner.

9. On 11.01.2018, a fresh order came to be passed revoking the earlier deemed suspension order and simultaneously a resolution was passed placing the petitioner under suspension once again on account of alleged illegal sanction of building plan in respect of Bungalow No.167, Chappel Street Meerut Cantt. Meerut till the completion of the inquiry. The said suspension order dated 30.01.2018 was challenged by the petitioner in Writ - A No.5445 of 2018 and an interim order dated 12.02.2018 (Annexure - 14) came to be passed staying the suspension order dated 30.01.2018. In the meanwhile, the judgment and order of the Delhi High Court was challenged by the Union of India by preferring an SLP which came to be dismissed on 14.05.2018. Thereafter, the inquiry proceedings continued against the petitioner and the petitioner cross-examined the witnesses adduced against him. After the examination and cross-examination, a written brief was filed on behalf of the petitioner by Defence Assistant on 18.08.2018. After conclusion of the inquiry, the Inquiry Officer submitted its report holding that five charges stood proved against the petitioner and one charge was partly proved (Annexure - 17). The petitioner submitted his reply to the Inquiry Officer on 17.06.2019. On the one hand the inquiry was continuing against the petitioner and on the other hand, a resolution was passed by the Board sanctioning the building plan in respect of Bungalow No.167 Chappel Street Meerut Cantt. Meerut in favour of its owner (Annexure - 19).

10. Ignoring the said fact that in respect of the main charge, the Delhi High Court had adjudicated the issue and the plan was also sanctioned on 18.07.2019, the impugned punishment order came to be passed on 14.08.2019 imposing the punishment of dismissal from service on the petitioner. The petitioner challenged the punishment order by filing Writ - A No.14027 of 2019 which was disposed off on 05.10.2020 directing the petitioner to avail the alternative remedy of appeal under Rule 14 of the CFS Rules. The petitioner preferred an appeal on 22.10.2020. After hearing, the appellate order came to be passed on 01.06.2021 modifying the punishment order of dismissal to compulsory retirement. The appellate authority held that Charge No.1, which was the main charge in respect of the allegations levelled for sanction of building plan in relation to Bungalow No.167 as not proved. The said orders are now under challenge before this Court.

11. Heard Shri Gaurav Mehrotra, learned counsel for the petitioner who has also submitted his written submission.

12. The first submission of learned counsel for the petitioner is that the orders impugned are unsustainable as the inquiry has not been conducted following the due process of law. He argues that in the charge-sheet as many as seven charges were levelled. He argues that in respect off the first charge, the petitioner's contentions have been accepted by the appellate authority and thus, to that extent, the same loses relevance in the present writ petition.

13. He argues that in respect of Charges No.2 to 5 pertaining to the allegation of unauthorized constructions having come up, on the perusal of the charges levelled, the same can be segregated into two parts; firstly, that the petitioner failed to perform his duties as Executive Engineer of the Board without taking any effective action to stop the unauthorized constructions as well as for removal of the unauthorized constructions at the initial stage and second limb of the charge was that the said action of the petitioner was with the intent and motive to cause wrongful gain/benefit to the applicant and loss to the Government of India as well as defeating the provisions of the Cantonment Act.

14. In respect of Charges No.2 to 5, he further argues that although the Inquiry Officer has recorded the entire charge to be proved, in the entire report there was no material whatsoever to even prima-facie form a view that the negligence of the petitioner was with an intent to cause any wrongful gain/undue benefit to the petitioner or that any loss was caused to the Government. He argues that the Inquiry Officer while holding the said charge to be proved selectively relied upon the documentary evidence to suggest that in the supervisory role, the petitioner was negligent in not stopping the unauthorized constructions. He reiterates that there was no material or even document or any oral evidence to prove the second limb of the charge that any unlawful gain was caused to the petitioner or that any loss was caused to the Government of India.

15. In respect of Charge No.6, he argues that the Inquiry Officer did not consider the documentary and oral evidence, including that of the Chief Executive Officer to the effect that the illegal occupation caused was not within the purview of the duties assigned to the petitioner and was with the Sanitation Department, Junior Engineer and Assistant Engineer. He further argues that even in the appellate order it has been held that the petitioner was merely a supervisory authority and was neither the reporting authority for any unauthorized construction and nor was a part of the final decision making authority. He argues that the duty with regard to reporting of unauthorized construction was assigned through various duty orders issued by the Chief Executive Officer and contained in Annexure No.20 to the writ petition. In terms of the said orders, it is clear that the files were only to be routed through the petitioner to the Chief Executive Officer, who was the final authority. He further argues that there is no charge, that the petitioner who was assigned the role of routing the files, failed to do so.

16. He draws my attention to the appellate authorities order which reflects that although the petitioner did not perform his supervisory duties, others were also responsible for not reporting the unauthorized constructions and it is on record that no disciplinary proceedings have been initiated either against the persons who were empowered to report the unauthorized constructions or against the Chief Executive Officer, who was the final authority to take the decision.

17. He next argues that on the one hand proceedings have been initiated only against the petitioner and against nobody else, an extreme punishment of compulsory retirement has been passed against the petitioner without there being any iota of evidence to prove the first limb or the second limb of the charges levelled against the petitioner.

18. He argues that it is well settled that the role of the disciplinary inquiry is a quasi-judicial one and should not be done causally. All the charges levelled should be properly proved and the disciplinary authority is to act in an independent manner while exercising the quasi-judicial functions. In support of the said, he places reliance on the judgment of the State of U.P. & Ors. v. Saroj Kumar Sinha; (2010) 2 SCC 772, Roop Singh Negi v. Punjab National Bank; (2009) 2 SCC 570, Chamoli District Cooperative Bank Ltd. v. Raghunath Singh Rana; (2016) 12 SCC 204, M.V. Bijlani v. Union of India; (2006) 5 SCC 88 and Radhey Kant Khare v. U.P. Cooperative Sugar Factory Federation Ltd.; 2002 SCC OnLine All 1575.

19. He next submits that no proceedings have been initiated either against the persons who were responsible for reporting the unauthorized constructions or against the Chief Executive Officer, who was the final authority to pass the order and thus, the action of the respondents against the petitioner is malicious and is also discriminatory. To press on the said point, learned counsel for the petitioner takes me to the duty allocation orders (Annexure - 20) issued from time to time by the Chief Executive Officer wherein it is clear that the responsibility of reporting unauthorized construction was on the Junior Engineer/Assistant Engineer and the sanitation department and the final decision making authority was the Chief Executive Officer.

20. He also argues that in the appellate order itself, finding has been recorded that certain other employees/officials and the technical staff are responsible for reporting any illegality in the cantonment area. He argues that there is no material to demonstrate that why the respondents have not taken any action against any of the said persons who were responsible for reporting and against the Chief Executive Officer. He argues that on the one hand the appellate authority formed an opinion that the petitioner was not the reporting authority, however, the appellate authority failed to take into consideration that the petitioner is being selectively prosecuted. He argues that it is well settled that parity among co-delinquents must be maintained, especially when the charges are similar and ignoring the same, the action would clearly be discriminatory. He relies on the following judgments:

Rajendra Yadav v. State of Madhya Pradesh and Ors.; (2013) 3 SCC 73

Man Singh v. State of Haryana and Ors.; (2008) 12 SCC 331

State of U.P. and Ors. v. Raj Pal Singh; (2010) 5 SCC 783

21. He then argues that the action against the petitioner is malice in law. He argues that the petitioner is being victimised for oblique purposes by the respondents and thus, on that count, the malice in law is apparent. He places reliance on the following judgments in support of his arguments:

A.P. v. Goverdhanlal Pitti; AIR 2003 SC 1941

RS Garg v. State of U.P. & Ors.; (2006) 6 SCC 430

Punjab State Electricity Board Ltd. v. Zora Singh & Anr.; (2005) 6 SC 776

22. He next argues that the charges levelled against the petitioner pertain to negligence in holding the supervisory role in respect of the constructions for the period 1995 to 2013, which are stale. He draws my attention to the Charges No.3 to 6 which pertain to the year 1995 and the charge-sheet whereof was served on 20.12.2013. He argues that it is well settled that inordinate delay in initiating disciplinary proceedings would render the proceedings vitiated in the absence of any explanation for inordinate delay. In support of the said, he relies upon the judgment in the case of P.V. Mahadevan v. M.D. T.N. Housing Board; (2005) 6 SCC 636 and State of Madhya Pradesh v. Bani Singh and Anr.; 1990 (Supp) SCC 738.

23. He next argues that even if for the sake of argument it is presumed that there was a lack of efficiency on the part of petitioner in performing the supervisory duties, the same cannot constitute to be a "misconduct' inviting the extreme punishment of compulsory retirement, more so, when the second limb of all the charges was neither proved nor was it substantiated by any of the evidences on record. He places reliance on the judgment in the case of Union of India v. J. Ahmed; (1979) 2 SCC 286 and the judgment dated 08.08.2019 passed in Writ - A No.10365 of 2019 (Arvind Kumar Sharma v. State of U.P. & Ors.).

24. He next argues that the disciplinary proceedings have been concluded beyond the time frame fixed for conclusion of the inquiry by the Division Bench of the High Court in judgment and order dated 20.11.2013 passed in Writ - A No.70147 of 2013 wherein certain directions were issued for concluding the proceedings, preferably within a period of three months. In support of the same, he places reliance on the judgment of this Court in the case Abhishek Prabhakar Awasthi v. The New India Assurance Company Ltd. & Ors.; 2013 SCC OnLine All 14267.

25. He lastly argues on the quantum of punishment, which according to the petitioner is grossly disproportionate keeping in view the gravity of the allegations levelled. In support of the said submission, he reiterates that the petitioner was neither the reporting authority who have been exonerated nor the decision making authority, who have not even been served with the charge-sheet. He argues that disproportionality of the punishment of compulsory retirement granted to the petitioner should be decided, keeping in view the fact, that the second limb of the charge has neither been established nor proved and thus, even if the allegations are presumed, for the sake of arguments, to be established, they would not attract the extreme punishment. He argues that disproportionality of the punishment is in violation of Article 14 of the Constitution of India. For the said, he places reliance on the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Bhagat Ram v. State of H.P. & Ors.; (1983) 2 SCC 44, S.R. Tewari v. Union of India & Anr.; (2013) 6 SCC 602, Union of India v. Bodupalli Gopalaswami; (2011) 13 CC 553, Charanjit Lamba v. Commanding Officer, Army Southern Command and Ors.; (2010) 11 SCC 314, B.C. Chaturvedi v. Union of India & Ors.; (1995) 6 SCC 749, Ranjit Thakur v. Union of India & Ors.; (1987) 4 SCC 611 and Chairman-cum-Managing Director Coal India Limited and Anr. v. Mukul Kumar Choudhuri and Ors.; (2009) 15 SCC 620.

26. On the basis of the aforesaid submission, learned counsel for the petitioner argues that the writ petition deserves to be allowed.

27. Shri Ashok Mehta, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Shri S.K. Rai and Shri Ajay Kumar Singh, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the respondents have elaborately denied the arguments raised by the petitioner.

28. In support of the said, he argues that although the petitioner has argued that he alone was not responsible for the infractions, however, the petitioner himself had argued that it was collective responsibility for which he draws my attention to the reply of the petitioner dated 27.01.2014 and the memo of appeal dated 22.10.2020.

29. Learned counsel for the respondents takes me through the counter affidavit filed on behalf of the respondents and draws my attention to Paras - 16 to 24, which are quoted herein below:

"16. That it is established beyond doubt Shri Anuj Singh limited the any discharge of duty mostly to submitting the recommendation instead of taking concrete action. It is exceptionally rare occasion that a demolition is carried out.

17. That as a matter of fact a definite positional and legal action in respect of all unauthorized is found lacking on Shri Anuj Singh part.

18. That the offence of unauthorized construction are grave involving grabbing of defence land and inaction of dealing with the transgressions suitably and legally and in a manner consistent with legal procedure gives credence to involvement in and facilitation of such offences. The offender clearly benefitted financially by facilitation of unauthorized construction in Cantt. area by Shri Anuj Sigh.

19. That Shri Anuj Singh was head of technical section as Assistant Engineer and thereafter upgraded as Executive Engineer, was responsible for taking a whole gamut of actions against unauthorized construction in Cantt. area, and therefore he had an overall responsibility of the actions being taken or not been taken by his section.

20. That being supervisory head he was also responsible of commissions and omissions of his office subordinates.

21. That there have been established Shri Anuj Singh had neither monitoring nor supervising on the functioning of subordinate staff due to which unauthorized construction went on unabated resulting in unauthorized construction of huge proportion in Cantt. Area, Meerut.

22. That the appellate authority has reaffirmed the finding of the inquiry report and the disciplinary authority to the effect specifically bringing out unauthorized constructions in various bungalows in other parts of Cantt. area with example of categorically the cases of omission and committal of offences with regards to illegal unauthorized constructions.

23. That the appellate authority has specially reaffirmed and held that Shri Anuj Singh appellant has failed to check and stop/ demolish these unauthorized constructions in the bungalows and in the cantt area during his tenure as Cantt. Executive Engineer and further failed to perform to duties as supervisor.

24. That appellate authority re-affirms Shri Anuj Singh the appellant is blameworthy of negligence even in the matter of illegal unauthorized cultivation over a huge area of trenching ground."

30. Learned counsel for the respondents take my through the judgment of this Court dated 29.01.2014 wherein strong observations were made against the Cantonment Board to the following effect:

"Before closing the Court would like to record that the Cantonment Board had utterly failed to protect its property by not taking the steps and appropriate action which it should have taken under the provisions of the Cantonment Act, 1924 for dispossession and demolition of not only the opposite parties but all other vendees and trespassers who had entered into possession over parts of the land in dispute. It also failed to prosecute the contempt application in a manner reasonably expected by an institution of the level of Cantonment Board when it had all the infrastructure and the support of the State/Central Government in carrying out its objective. The Cantonment Board should be more vigilant and should not only act strictly but also timely in accordance to law. Once party is allowed to violate the law and continue violating the same it may result into trespass, illegal constructions, obstructions to public way and violation of the bye- laws governing the Cantonment areas. It indicates the weakness of the Cantonment Board being an extended organ of the Defence Ministry in permitting tress- pass and illegal activities within the Cantonment area. The Central Government must take notice and issue appropriate directions to the Cantonment Boards and whenever it is found that Board has been lacking in timely action and discharging its duties of supervision and maintenance of the Cantonment area in accordance to law, the Central Government/Ministry of Defence must take appropriate action against the erring officials so that further violations of the trespass is checked and controlled. A copy of this order be forwarded to the Secretary, Ministry of Defence, Government of India, New Delhi for necessary action. The records be consigned."

31. In response to the argument of learned counsel for the petitioner in respect of alleged wrongful gain to the petitioner, it is argued that in second part of each and every charges, it starts with words "this action of the petitioner was with the intent/motive to cause wrongful gain/benefits to the applicant". He argues that the "applicant' used in the second part of each and every charge refers to the holder of occupancy right and not to the petitioner. It is, thus, argued by learned counsel for the respondent that the second part of the charge does not denote wrongful gain to the petitioner.

32. He further argues that an inference can be drawn with regard to the inaction by the petitioner, that it was with an intent and motive to cause a wrongful gain and or benefit to the builder/offenders/illegal occupant and the owners of the properties. He argues that it has to be strongly presumed that the inaction on the part of the petitioner was apparently for illegitimate considerations. In sum and substance, the argument is that the inaction would lead to preponderance of probability and a presumption that the said inaction was for the illegal gain.

33. In respect of the delay in conclusion of the inquiry, a stand has been taken that the delay was not attributable to the respondents. In response to the other arguments, it is argued that merely because there was a collective responsibility, it cannot be a ground to exonerate the petitioner merely because proceedings have not been initiated against the others.

34. It is further argued that the judicial review should not interfere with the administrative decision, including the quantum of punishment as there is no concept of negative equality and the argument of the petitioner on the ground of parity is ill-founded.

35. Respondents draw my attention to the judgments in the cases of Cantonment Exec. Officer, Cantonment Board, Meerut and Anr. v. Smt. Puspa Devi & Ors.; Contempt Application (Civil) No.380 of 2021 decided on 29.01.2014, Friends Colony Development Committee v. State of Orissa and Ors.; (2004) 8 SCC 733 and Dipak Kumar Mukherjee v. Kolkata Municipal Corporation; (2013) 5 SCC 353.

36. No other arguments have been raised at the Bar by either the petitioner or respondents.

37. Before proceeding to analyse the arguments as raised above, it is necessary to note that the services of the petitioner are governed by the CFS Rules. Relevant rules for the purposes of the present case are Rule 10-A, Rule 11, Rule 12 & Rule 12-A to 12-F.

38. Before analzying the arguments as raised across the Bar, it is essential to note that the law with regard to scope of judicial review in disciplinary proceedings matters is fairly well settled and is confined to the decision making process and to see whether the same is perverse, illegal and if it fails to satisfy the test of Article 14 of the Constitution of India.

39. In view of the settled position of law, I proceed to consider the manner in which the Inquiry Officer has proceeded to hold the charges as proved and partly proved against the petitioner, particularly Charge Nos.2 to 6.

40. I am not going into the question of Charge No.1, which has been decided in favour of the petitioner in the appellate order.

ANALYSIS OF REPORT OF INQUIRY OFFICER:

41. To analyze the report of the Inquiry Officer, it is essential that Charge No.2 as levelled against the petitioner in terms of the charge-sheet pertain to illegal constructions in the old grant bungalow No.22-B, Meerut Cantt. comprising survey No.302, allegedly constructed in violation of Old Grant terms.

42. To prove the said charge, the respondents had mentioned as many as 20 written documents needed for substantiating Charge No.2 as levelled against the petitioner. In the report of the Inquiry Officer, which is on record, while dealing with Charge No.2, the Prosecuting Officer in addition to the documents referred to in the charge-sheet proposed to produce the Prosecution Witnesses namely Shri Piyush Gautam, AE; Shri Brijesh Kumar Singhal, SGC; Smt. Sunita Dutta, SGC; and Shri Kamal Singh Yadav, Tracer.

43. It is on record that their deposition was recorded and they were permitted to be cross-examined by the charge-sheeted officer. The Inquiry Officer further records that the charge-sheeted officer also adduced the witnesses namely Shri JS Mahi, Shri Parshotam Lal, Shri Rajesh John and Shri Arun Kanwal. Although the Inquiry Officer records that the Prosecution Witnesses namely Shri Piyush Gautam, Smt. Sunita Dutta, Shri Kamal Singh Yadav and Shri KA Gupta (although not mentioned in the list of Prosecution Witnesses) were permitted to be cross-examined.

44. The Inquiry Officer proceeded to deal with the submissions made on behalf of the Presenting Officer as well as the submissions made by the charge-sheeted officer, however, there is no iota of mention as to what was the deposition by the witnesses examined as Prosecution Witnesses. There is nothing on record to demonstrate as to why these Prosecution Witnesses were permitted in support of the charge-sheet when their names were not even mentioned in the list of witnesses in the charge-sheet. There is no mention as to what was stated by the said Prosecution Witnesses and how they proved the charges levelled in Charge No.2 against the petitioner.

45. The Inquiry Officer although records the submission of the charge-sheeted officer to state that the petitioner was neither responsible for reporting the alleged illegal constructions nor was he authorized to pass orders for demolition, in fact, the Inquiry Officer himself records that there was a delay of about 14 days from the report of the illegal constructions to the recommendation made by the petitioner for taking action against the unauthorized constructions. There is no iota of finding that the petitioner was either empowered to report the constructions or was he empowered to pass orders for removal of the alleged unauthorized constructions. There is nothing on record in the report of the Inquiry Officer to demonstrate as to who substantiated the written documents which were a part of the list of documents mentioned for substantiating Charge No.2. The manner in which the Inquiry Officer proceeded by recording the submission made by the Presenting Officer and on behalf of the charge-sheeted officer alone cannot be termed as a proper inquiry as is contemplated.

46. The Inquiry Officer although records the second part of Charge no.2 to be proved, gives absolutely no reason or evidence to substantiate the second part of Charge No.2 and only concludes on the basis of CEOs letter dated 09.07.2012 to ADM (City) Meerut to the effect that the offender has caused a loss of Rs.3,03,08,000/- to the Government of India and on the basis of the said letter alone, he concluded the second part of Charge No.2 to be proved against the petitioner.

47. There is nothing on record to demonstrate in the report of the Inquiry Officer as to who proved the CEOs letter dated 09.07.2013. It is relevant to note that the CEO was not a part of the Prosecution Witnesses. Clearly the second part of the charge, as recorded to be proved against the petitioner, was without any evidence whatsoever.

48. Coming to Charge No.3, the allegation levelled was that the petitioner while working as Executive Engineer during the period 15.02.1995 to January, 2012, illegally facilitated illegal construction in Building No.340 Meerut Cantt. in violation of the order dated 08.05.2001 passed by the Hon'ble High Court as well as the order dated 29.11.2002 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court which had restrained construction over and above the ground floor.

49. To substantiate the charge as levelled in Charge No.3 in the charge-sheet, as many as 11 documents were proposed to be relied upon. In addition to the documents proposed to be relied upon, the Inquiry Officer allowed four Prosecution Witnesses namely Shri Piyush Gautam, Shri Brijesh Singhal, Smt. Sunita Dutta and Shri Kamal Singh Yadav. He also permitted the charge-sheeted officer to submit 18 documents in his defense and also permitted Prosecution Witnesses to be cross-examined. He thereafter proceeded to record the submission made by the Presenting Officer and the charge-sheeted officer in their written briefs.

50. There is no iota of any deposition of the Prosecution Witnesses nor did the Inquiry Officer recorded as to how the documents proposed to be relied upon in the charge-sheet were substantiated either by Prosecution Witnesses or by anyone. In the finding with regard to Charge No.3, the Inquiry Officer has relied upon the statement of Shri Piyush Gautam who only stated that the unauthorized construction in the form of pillars were apparently casted by the offender prior to January, 2014. There is no iota or whisper of the deposition made by the Prosecution Witnesses against the petitioner as to how he was responsible for the unauthorized constructions contrary to the orders passed by the High Court and the Supreme Court.

51. While recording the finding of the second part of Charge No.3, the Inquiry Officer records that the conversion of constructions from residential premises to commercial purposes resulted in financial benefit to the petitioner, which according to the Inquiry Officer can be presumed by the facts and happenings as recorded while returning the finding of Charge No.3.

52. There is no mention of any witnesses or any documents before the Inquiry Officer which can be said to allege or prove the second part of Charge No.3.

53. Coming to Charge No.4, which allege against the petitioner that for the period 15.02.1995 to November, 2013, the petitioner facilitated constructions in Bungalow No.198, 199, 202, 209, 210-A, 210-B, 210-C, 213, 220, 222, 223, 227 & 233 of the West End Road; Bungalow No.176, 340, Rangsz Mohalla; Bungalow No.193, Naya Bazar; Bunglow No.182, 184, 185, 185/A, 187, 188 and 190, Abu Lane; Bunglow No.305 Circular Road, including Bungalow No.182/183 Dalmandi Sadar Bazar for commercial exploitation.

54. In support of Charge No.4, as many as 8 documents were proposed to be relied upon in the charge-sheet. The Inquiry Officer permitted five Prosecution Witnesses to sustain the charges namely Shri Piyush Gautam, Shri Brijesh Singhal, Smt. Sunita Dutta and Shri Kamal Singh Yadav. The petitioner permitted cross-examination of the said witnesses as is clear from the Inquiry Report on record. The Inquiry Officer thereafter considered the written briefs of the Presenting Officer as well as the written briefs of the charge-sheeted officer. He has referred to the examination-in-chief of Shri Piyush Gautam who only confirmed that the plotting was done and unauthorized constructions had taken place in Bungalow No.210-B, Westend Road. Shri Brihesh Singhal in his examination-in-chief had only sated that unauthorized construction had taken place in a number of bungalows during the past several years. Shri Kamal Singh Yadav, the Prosecution Witness, only stated that detection reports were submitted and further action was taken according to the provisions of Cantonment Act. None of them made any statement against the petitioner.

55. In the inquiry report, there is no mention of the examination-in-chief of Shri K.A. Gupta and as to what did the said statement of Shri K.A. Gupta establishes to substantiate the charge. The cross-examination of Shri K.A. Gupta referred to in the report of the Inquiry Officer only establishes that CO being head of section had full responsibility.

56. The Inquiry Officer refers to cross-examination of Shri Brijesh Singhal to record that he had stated in his cross-examination that the CO recommended the report of the technical subordinate staff of CEO and was responsible for inspection of the sites. He also recorded that the some properties were sealed due to unauthorized constructions. He also recorded that the report with regard to unauthorized construction and change of purpose was placed before the CEO and the action was taken by the CEO. He also stated that the responsibility of giving the completion report lies with the CO.

57. Similarly, the cross-examination of Shri Kamal Singh Yadav and Shri Piyush Singhal are on record, which even as per the inquiry report do not implicate the petitioner to substantiate the said charge levelled against the petitioner.

58. While proceeding to record the finding on the second part of Charge No.4, the Inquiry Officer records "that there can be no doubt that the CO extended such facilitation to the officers with an intent to extract benefit to them and to gain himself'. There is no whisper of any evidence to substantiate the second part of Charge No.4.

59. Now coming to Charge No.5, in the charge-sheet as many as 16 documents were referred to be the relied upon documents in support of the said charge. In addition to the said documents, four Prosecution Witnesses namely Shri Piyush Gautam, Shri Brijesh Singhal, Shri KA

Gupta and Shri Kamal Singh Yadav were adduced. The Inquiry officer referred to the submissions made by the Presenting Officer as well as the charge-sheeted officer, referred to the examination-in-chief of Shri Brijesh Singhal who only deposed to the effect that the file was put up before the CEO to execute the demolition order but the same was not executed. Similarly, the Prosecution Witnesses Shri Kamal Singh Yadav referred to the displeasure expressed by the CEO with regard to non-removal of illegal mobile towers by the petitioner. The Inquiry Officer does not record anywhere any statement of the Prosecution Witnesses or any statement to substantiate the documents proposed to be relied upon and despite there being evidence to the contrary by the Prosecution Witnesses, concluded the Charge No.5 as proved.

60. Coming to Charge No.6, which pertained to the continuation of illegal occupation of a part or the land situated at Trenching ground in the cantonment board for the period 1995 to 2013 for which the petitioner was charged of not performing his duties in not vacating the illegal occupation or cultivation over the lands in question.

61. In support of the said Charge No.6, as many as seven documents were proposed to be relied upon. In addition to the said documents, the Inquiry officer permitted, three Prosecution Witnesses and also permitted the petitioner to adduce the documents as well as Defense Witnesses in support of his contention.

62. In the entire findings returned for recording that Charge No.6 was partly proved, he referred to the statement of the Prosecution Witnesses namely Shri V.K. Tyagi who did not give any statement against the petitioner. There is no reference to the Prosecution Witnesses Shri K.A. Gupta, although his cross-examination has been referred to. Thus, in the findings of the Inquiry Officer, there was no reference as to how and who substantiated the documents relied upon to substantiate the said charge and as to which part of the statement of Prosecution Witnesses substantiated the charge levelled against the petitioner.

63. The Inquiry Officer does not even consider what was the nature of the duties of the petitioner and whether he was responsible for preventing the illegal encroachment. In the entire findings returned by the Inquiry Officer, there is no whisper of any evidence either documentary or oral to substantiate the second part of Charge No.6 of causing benefit to illegal occupants and causing loss to the Cantonment Board.

64. Charge No.7 levelled against the petitioner was held to be not proved.

65. It is relevant to mention that two of the Prosecution Witnesses namely Shri Piyush Gautam and Shri K.A. Gupta were the persons who were earlier proceeded against but were subsequently exonerated from the charges by the Inquiry Officer vide order dated 05.06.2017 and 31.07.2017.

PROCEEDINGS BEFORE DISCIPLINARY AUTHORITY:

66. After the inquiry report was submitted to the disciplinary authority, the petitioner was given a liberty to file his reply; the petitioner in terms of the said liberty filed his reply denying the allegations levelled against the petitioner and highlighting the manner in which the inquiry has been conducted. The disciplinary authority passed an order which is contained in Resolution No.188 dated 14.08.2019. The disciplinary authority referred to each of the articles of charge and in respect of each of the charges recorded that the Investigating Officer has gone through the submission of the charge-sheeted officer and has given the conclusion. He further recorded that the charge is of a serious nature and abruptly concluded that the finding of the Investigating Officer are sustained and called for no interference. A similar finding was recorded in respect of each of the seven charges. In respect of the judgments cited by the charge-sheeted officer, the disciplinary authority recorded that the judgments cited by the charge-sheeted officer have been considered and the same are not relevant to the facts of the present case and are of no help to the charged official, and recommended the dismissal of the petitioner with immediate effect. In terms of the said recommendation, an order came to be passed on 14.08.2019 whereby an order of punishment of dismissal was passed against the petitioner with immediate effect.

67. It is clear from the order passed by the disciplinary authority that the conclusion was drawn only on the basis of the submission of the Inquiry Officer and there is no application of mind in respect of the defences taken by the petitioner before the disciplinary authority and the recording of the fact that the judgments cited by the petitioner are of no avail, clearly reflects the lack of application of mind. The same by any stretch of logic cannot be held to be a reasoned order containing reasons and after due application of mind by the disciplinary authority.

PROCEEDINGS BEFORE APPELLATE AUTHORITY:

68. The petitioner preferred an appeal taking all the grounds and highlighting the manner in which the inquiry has been concluded. He gave detailed submissions in respect of each of the charges held to be proved on the basis of which the ultimate punishment order was passed. He also took ground that the order of disciplinary authority was a mechanical order without any application of mind.

69. The appellate authority vide its decision in respect of first charge held that the same does not stand a scrutiny of law as the allegation in respect of Bungalow No.167, Chappel Street Meerut Cantt. Meerut stood concluded by the order of the Delhi High Court dated 26.07.2011 and upheld by the Supreme Court vide its order dated 14.05.2018.

70. Dealing with the arguments raised by the petitioner before the appellate authority, while interpreting the contention of the appellant that he was in a supervisory post, the appellate authority referred to the dictionary meaning of the word "supervisor' and "to supervise' and based upon the said dictionary meaning concluded that the supervisory capacity includes the responsibility of necessary technical check and reporting works in respect of cantonment land.

71. While dealing with second to fifth charge based upon the definition of "supervisor' and "to supervise' as explained in the dictionary, the appellate authority concluded that any kind of minor deviation from the said duty is to be viewed seriously and the ineffective execution of the duties by the team of the concerned technical staff who are responsible for the first reporting of any illegal activity in the cantonment area does not exculpate the appellant for non-performance of his duties. The appellate authority further recorded that although the appellant is not the only person who is answerable for the illegal constructions, however, failure on the part of the Sanitation Staff alongwith JE and AE to timely report the unauthorized constructions clearly depicts the failure of the appellant to exercise his powers of supervisory capacity. It further recorded that the failure of the appellant to exercise his powers in the supervisory capacity caused loss to the government.

72. While dealing with the fourth charge, the appellate authority recorded that the appellant joined as AE and thereafter as Chief Executive Officer, hence the appellant was not responsible for any illegality committed prior to 1995. The appellate authority further goes to record that the constructions as contained in the list before the IO clearly establish that the appellant did not take timely and effective action to curtail the trend of unauthorized activity going on in the area under the management of the Cantonment Board.

73. As regards the illegal erection of mobile towers contained in fifth charge, it records that the appellant had adequate time of approximately nine months in between the orders given by the Estate Officer for removal of the tower and the stay granted by the High Court, however, the appellant provided undue advantage to the offender and facilitated the time to obtain the stay order from the Hob'ble Court, hence, the appellant failed to implement the orders for removal of illegal erection of mobile tower on the roof of B No.177-177-A, Chappel Street and the said conduct of the appellant classifies as the act of deliberate omission on part of the appellant. He rejected the argument of the appellant that no action has been taken against the other persons responsible.

74. While dealing with the sixth charge, the appellate authority placing reliance on the Defense Witness No.4 concluded that the Investigating Officer has rightly held the charge as partially proven as the allegation of collusion with the occupants was not substantiated. It further records that on the basis of oral testimony as well as the documentary evidence, it was rightly held that the appellant was negligent in monitoring and curbing the illegal cultivation activity on the Trenching Ground.

75. In view of the fact that the first charge was decided in favour of the appellant, the appellate authority held that the second to fifth charge with regard to the negligence on the part of the appellant thereby causing monetary loss to the Government of India are found proven and he is guilty in respect of the said charges.

76. In respect of the sixth charge, the appellate authority held the finding of partially guilty recorded by the Investigating Officer and proceeded to impose major punishment by way of "compulsory retirement' from the date of dismissal in accordance with Rule 11(2)(vi) of the CFS Rules, 1937.

77. A perusal of the order reveals that the appellate authority concluded the findings and substantiated the same on the basis of the dictionary meaning of the word "supervisor' and "to supervise'. In the entire appellate order, he does not hold that the petitioner was in any way actively involved in either the illegal constructions or illegal cultivation. Based upon the dictionary meaning of the word "to supervise', the appellate authority concluded that the petitioner in terms of the said definition failed to carry out the supervisory duties. The said finding of the appellate authority is clearly erroneous inasmuch as the dictionary meaning of the word "supervise' or "to supervise' can be resorted to only when the supervisory role and the supervisory duties are not specified, whereas, in the present case, the nature of duties in respect of the working was clearly specified and elaborated in the office memorandums as contained in Annexure No.20 to the writ petition wherein no role of reporting the illegal construction is assigned to the petitioner and in fact, the role of reporting was specifically assigned to the JE, Shri. K.A. Gupta and Piyush Gautam and one Shri Vinod Gupta, JE and one Shri Roshan Zamir., Draftsman. Out of the said persons who were assigned the duties of reporting illegal constructions, the proceeding against Shri Piyush Gautam and Shri K.A. Gupta were dropped. The order of the appellate authority based upon the dictionary meaning of the word "supervise' and ignoring the specific office memorandums assigning specific roles to various persons is clearly erroneous and perverse.

78. The argument of Shri Ashok Mehta that the second limb of each charge refers to the benefit of the holder of occupancy rights and not to the petitioner deserves to be rejected as the Inquiry Officer has concluded that the petitioner was a beneficiary as discussed in Para 46, 47, 51 and 58 of this judgment.

79. Coming to the judgments cited by the learned counsel for the petitioner, it would be correct to refer to the judgment of the Supreme Court in the case of Saroj Kumar Sinha (supra) wherein the role of the Inquiry Officer was clarified in respect of the evidence and the manner of decision making and are contained in Para - 28 which reads as under:

"28. An inquiry officer acting in a quasi-judicial authority is in the position of an independent adjudicator. He is not supposed to be a representative of the department/disciplinary authority/Government. His function is to examine the evidence presented by the Department, even in the absence of the delinquent official to see as to whether the unrebutted evidence is sufficient to hold that the charges are proved. In the present case the aforesaid procedure has not been observed. Since no oral evidence has been examined the documents have not been proved, and could not have been taken into consideration to conclude that the charges have been proved against the respondents."

80. It is relevant to mention that in respect of the manner in which the departmental inquiry is to be held, the Supreme Court in the case of Roop Singh Negi (supra) had the occasion to consider in Para - 14 & 15 as under:

"14. Indisputably, a departmental proceeding is a quasi-judicial proceeding. The enquiry officer performs a quasi-judicial function. The charges levelled against the delinquent officer must be found to have been proved. The enquiry officer has a duty to arrive at a finding upon taking into consideration the materials brought on record by the parties. The purported evidence collected during investigation by the investigating officer against all the accused by itself could not be treated to be evidence in the disciplinary proceeding. No witness was examined to prove the said documents. The management witnesses merely tendered the documents and did not prove the contents thereof. Reliance, inter alia, was placed by the enquiry officer on the FIR which could not have been treated as evidence.

15. We have noticed hereinbefore that the only basic evidence whereupon reliance has been placed by the enquiry officer was the purported confession made by the appellant before the police. According to the appellant, he was forced to sign on the said confession, as he was tortured in the police station. The appellant being an employee of the Bank, the said confession should have been proved. Some evidence should have been brought on record to show that he had indulged in stealing the bank draft book. Admittedly, there was no direct evidence. Even there was no indirect evidence. The tenor of the report demonstrates that the enquiry officer had made up his mind to find him guilty as otherwise he would not have proceeded on the basis that the offence was committed in such a manner that no evidence was left."

And in Para - 23 while dealing with the necessity of reasoning held as under:

"23. Furthermore, the order of the disciplinary authority as also the appellate authority are not supported by any reason. As the orders passed by them have severe civil consequences, appropriate reasons should have been assigned. If the enquiry officer had relied upon the confession made by the appellant, there was no reason as to why the order of discharge passed by the criminal court on the basis of selfsame evidence should not have been taken into consideration. The materials brought on record pointing out the guilt are required to be proved. A decision must be arrived at on some evidence, which is legally admissible. The provisions of the Evidence Act may not be applicable in a departmental proceeding but the principles of natural justice are. As the report of the enquiry officer was based on merely ipse dixit as also surmises and conjectures, the same could not have been sustained. The inferences drawn by the enquiry officer apparently were not supported by any evidence. Suspicion, as is well known, however high may be, can under no circumstances be held to be a substitute for legal proof."

81. In yet another case of M.V. Bijlani (supra), the Supreme Court while dealing with the manner in which the departmental inquiry is to be concluded has held in Para - 25 as under:

"25. It is true that the jurisdiction of the court in judicial review is limited. Disciplinary proceedings, however, being quasi-criminal in nature, there should be some evidence to prove the charge. Although the charges in a departmental proceeding are not required to be proved like a criminal trial i.e. beyond all reasonable doubt, we cannot lose sight of the fact that the enquiry officer performs a quasi-judicial function, who upon analysing the documents must arrive at a conclusion that there had been a preponderance of probability to prove the charges on the basis of materials on record. While doing so, he cannot take into consideration any irrelevant fact. He cannot refuse to consider the relevant facts. He cannot shift the burden of proof. He cannot reject the relevant testimony of the witnesses only on the basis of surmises and conjectures. He cannot enquire into the allegations with which the delinquent officer had not been charged with."

In the same very case, the Supreme Court had the occasion to consider the effect of initiation of an inquiry after delay and the Supreme Court recorded his view in Para - 16 & 17 as under:

"16. So far as the second charge is concerned, it has not been shown as to what were the duties of the appellant in terms of the prescribed rules or otherwise. Furthermore, it has not been shown either by the disciplinary authority or the Appellate Authority as to how and in what manner the maintenance of ACE-8 Register by way of sheets which were found attached to the estimate file were not appropriate so as to arrive at the culpability or otherwise of the appellant. The Appellate Authority in its order stated that the appellant was not required to prepare ACE-8 Register twice. The appellant might have prepared another set of register presumably keeping in view the fact that he was asked to account for the same on the basis of the materials placed on records. The Tribunal as also the High Court failed to take into consideration that the disciplinary proceedings were initiated after six years and they continued for a period of seven years and, thus, initiation of the disciplinary proceedings as also continuance thereof after such a long time evidently prejudiced the delinquent officer.

17. In State of M.P. v. Bani Singh [1990 Supp SCC 738 : 1991 SCC (L&S) 638 : (1991) 16 ATC 514] this Court has clearly held: (SCC p. 740, para 4)

"The irregularities which were the subject-matter of the enquiry are said to have taken place between the years 1975-77. It is not the case of the department that they were not aware of the said irregularities, if any, and came to know it only in 1987. According to them even in April 1977 there was doubt about the involvement of the officer in the said irregularities and the investigations were going on since then. If that is so, it is unreasonable to think that they would have taken more than 12 years to initiate the disciplinary proceedings as stated by the Tribunal. There is no satisfactory explanation for the inordinate delay in issuing the charge memo and we are also of the view that it will be unfair to permit the departmental enquiry to be proceeded with at this stage."

82. Coming to the parity in terms of the punishment of the co-delinquents, the Supreme Court in the case of Rajendra Yadav (supra) had the occasion to consider the aspect of parity in co-delinquents and the proportionality of punishment, and held as under:

"9. The doctrine of equality applies to all who are equally placed; even among persons who are found guilty. The persons who have been found guilty can also claim equality of treatment, if they can establish discrimination while imposing punishment when all of them are involved in the same incident. Parity among co-delinquents has also to be maintained when punishment is being imposed. Punishment should not be disproportionate while comparing the involvement of co-delinquents who are parties to the same transaction or incident. The disciplinary authority cannot impose punishment which is disproportionate i.e. lesser punishment for serious offences and stringent punishment for lesser offences.

10. The principle stated above is seen applied in a few judgments of this Court. The earliest one is DG of Police v. G. Dasayan [(1998) 2 SCC 407 : 1998 SCC (L&S) 557] wherein one Dasayan, a police constable, along with two other constables and one Head Constable were charged for the same acts of misconduct. The disciplinary authority exonerated two other constables, but imposed the punishment of dismissal from service on Dasayan and that of compulsory retirement on the Head Constable. This Court, in order to meet the ends of justice, substituted the order of compulsory retirement in place of the order of dismissal from service on Dasayan, applying the principle of parity in punishment among co-delinquents. This Court held that it may, otherwise, violate Article 14 of the Constitution of India.

11. In Shaileshkumar Harshadbhai Shah case [(2006) 6 SCC 548 : 2006 SCC (L&S) 1486] the workman was dismissed from service for proved misconduct. However, few other workmen, against whom there were identical allegations, were allowed to avail of the benefit of voluntary retirement scheme. In such circumstances, this Court directed that the workman also be treated on the same footing and be given the benefit of voluntary retirement from service from the month on which the others were given the benefit.

12. We are of the view that the principle laid down in the abovementioned judgments would also apply to the facts of the present case. We have already indicated that the action of the disciplinary authority imposing a comparatively lighter punishment on the co-delinquent Arjun Pathak and at the same time, harsher punishment on the appellant cannot be permitted in law, since they were all involved in the same incident. Consequently, we are inclined to allow the appeal by setting aside the punishment of dismissal from service imposed on the appellant and order that he be reinstated in service forthwith. The appellant is, therefore, to be reinstated from the date on which Arjun Pathak was reinstated and be given all consequential benefits as were given to Arjun Pathak. Ordered accordingly. However, there will be no order as to costs."

83. In the present case, the said judgment applies with all vigour as the two persons who were assigned the role of reporting the unauthorized constructions have been exonerated whereas the petitioner who was not assigned any of the roles except that of forwarding the report of illegal construction to the CEO has been saddled with a major punishment of compulsory retirement.

84. A similar view was taken by the Supreme Court in the case of Man Singh (supra) where the Supreme Court held as under:

"20. We may reiterate the settled position of law for the benefit of the administrative authorities that any act of the repository of power whether legislative or administrative or quasi-judicial is open to challenge if it is so arbitrary or unreasonable that no fair-minded authority could ever have made it. The concept of equality as enshrined in Article 14 of the Constitution of India embraces the entire realm of State action. It would extend to an individual as well not only when he is discriminated against in the matter of exercise of right, but also in the matter of imposing liability upon him. Equals have to be treated equally even in the matter of executive or administrative action. As a matter of fact, the doctrine of equality is now turned as a synonym of fairness in the concept of justice and stands as the most accepted methodology of a governmental action. The administrative action is to be just on the test of "fair play" and reasonableness."

85. The Supreme Court reiterated the said view in the case of State of U.P. and Ors. v. Raj Pal (supra) and held in Para - 5 & 6 as under:

5. Though, on principle the ratio in aforesaid cases would ordinarily apply, but in the case in hand, the High Court appears to have considered the nature of charges levelled against the five employees who stood charged on account of the incident that happened on the same day and then the High Court came to the conclusion that since the gravity of charges was the same, it was not open for the disciplinary authority to impose different punishments for different delinquents. The reasoning given by the High Court cannot be faulted with since the State is not able to indicate as to any difference in the delinquency of these employees.

6. It is undoubtedly open for the disciplinary authority to deal with the delinquency and once charges are established to award appropriate punishment. But when the charges are same and identical in relation to one and the same incident, then to deal with the delinquents differently in the award of punishment, would be discriminatory. In this view of the matter, we see no infirmity with the impugned order requiring our interference under Article 136 of the Constitution.

86. It is necessary to note that the Supreme Court in the case of Union of India v. J. Ahmed (supra) had the occasion to consider the difference between misconduct and negligence in performance of duty and held in Para - 9, 11 & 13 as under:

"9. The five charges listed above at a glance would convey the impression that the respondent was not a very efficient officer. Some negligence is being attributed to him and some lack of qualities expected of an officer of the rank of Deputy Commissioner are listed as charges. To wit, Charge 2 refers to the quality of lack of leadership and Charge 5 enumerates ineptitude, lack of foresight, lack of firmness and indecisiveness. These are qualities undoubtedly expected of a superior officer and they may be very relevant while considering whether a person should be promoted to the higher post or not or having been promoted, whether he should be retained in the higher post or not, or they may be relevant for deciding the competence of the person to hold the post, but they cannot be elevated to the level of acts of omission or commission as contemplated by Rule 4 of the Discipline and Appeal Rules so as to incur penalty under Rule 3. Competence for the post, capability to hold the same, efficiency requisite for a post, ability to discharge function attached to the post, are things different from some act or omission of the holder of the post which may be styled as misconduct so as to incur the penalty under the rules. The words "act or omission" contemplated by Rule 4 of the Discipline and Appeal Rules have to be understood in the context of the All India Services (Conduct) Rules, 1954 ("Conduct Rules" for short). The Government has prescribed by Conduct Rules a code of conduct for the members of All India Services. Rule 3 is of a general nature which provides that every member of the service shall at all times maintain absolute integrity and devotion to duty. Lack of integrity, if proved, would undoubtedly entail penalty. Failure to come up to the highest expectations of an officer holding responsible post or lack of aptitude or qualities of leadership would not constitute as failure to maintain devotion to duty. The expression "devotion to duty" appears to have been used as something opposed to indifference to duty or easy-going or light-hearted approach to duty. If Rule 3 were the only rule in the Conduct Rules it would have been rather difficult to ascertain what constitutes misconduct in a given situation. But Rules 4 to 18 of the Conduct Rules prescribe code of conduct for members of service and it can be safely stated that an act or omission contrary to or in breach of prescribed rules of conduct would constitute misconduct for disciplinary proceedings. This code of conduct being not exhaustive it would not be prudent to say that only that act or omission would constitute misconduct for the purpose of Discipline and Appeal Rules which is contrary to the various provisions in the Conduct Rules. The inhibitions in the Conduct Rules clearly provide that an act or omission contrary thereto so as to run counter to the expected code of conduct would certainly constitute misconduct. Some other act or omission may as well constitute misconduct. Allegations in the various charges do not specify any act or omission in derogation of or contrary to Conduct Rules save the general Rule 3 prescribing devotion to duty. It is, however, difficult to believe that lack of efficiency, failure to attain the highest standard of administrative ability while holding a high post would themselves constitute misconduct. If it is so, every officer rated average would be guilty of misconduct. Charges in this case as stated earlier clearly indicate lack of efficiency, lack of foresight and indecisiveness as serious lapses on the part of the respondent. These deficiencies in personal character or personal ability would not constitute misconduct for the purpose of disciplinary proceedings.

11. Code of conduct as set out in the Conduct Rules clearly indicates the conduct expected of a member of the service. It would follow that conduct which is blameworthy for the government servant in the context of Conduct Rules would be misconduct. If a servant conducts himself in a way inconsistent with due and faithful discharge of his duty in service, it is misconduct (see Pierce v. Foster [17 QB 536, 542]). A disregard of an essential condition of the contract of service may constitute misconduct [see Laws v. London Chronicle (Indicator Newspapers [(1959) 1 WLR 698)]. This view was adopted in Shardaprasad Onkarprasad Tiwari v. Divisional Superintendent, Central Railway, Nagpur Division, Nagpur [61 Bom LR 1596], and Satubha K. Vaghela v. Moosa Raza [10 Guj LR 23] . The High Court has noted the definition of misconduct in Stroud's Judicial Dictionary which runs as under:

"Misconduct means, misconduct arising from ill motive; acts of negligence, errors of judgment, or innocent mistake, do not constitute such misconduct."

In industrial jurisprudence amongst others, habitual or gross negligence constitute misconduct but in Utkal Machinery Ltd. v. Workmen, Miss Shanti Patnaik [AIR 1966 SC 1051 : (1966) 2 SCR 434 : (1966) 1 LLJ 398 : 28 FJR 131] in the absence of standing orders governing the employee's undertaking, unsatisfactory work was treated as misconduct in the context of discharge being assailed as punitive. In S. Govinda Menon v.Union of India [(1967) 2 SCR 566 : AIR 1967 SC 1274 : (1967) 2 LLJ 249] the manner in which a member of the service discharged his quasi judicial function disclosing abuse of power was treated as constituting misconduct for initiating disciplinary proceedings. A single act of omission or error of judgment would ordinarily not constitute misconduct though if such error or omission results in serious or atrocious consequences the same may amount to misconduct as was held by this Court in P.H. Kalyani v. Air France, Calcutta [AIR 1963 SC 1756 : (1964) 2 SCR 104 : (1963) 1 LLJ 679 : 24 FJR 464] wherein it was found that the two mistakes committed by the employee while checking the load-sheets and balance charts would involve possible accident to the aircraft and possible loss of human life and, therefore, the negligence in work in the context of serious consequences was treated as misconduct. It is, however, difficult to believe that lack of efficiency or attainment of highest standards in discharge of duty attached to public office would ipso facto constitute misconduct. There may be negligence in performance of duty and a lapse in performance of duty or error of judgment in evaluating the developing situation may be negligence in discharge of duty but would not constitute misconduct unless the consequences directly attributable to negligence would be such as to be irreparable or the resultant damage would be so heavy that the degree of culpability would be very high. An error can be indicative of negligence and the degree of culpability may indicate the grossness of the negligence. Carelessness can often be productive of more harm than deliberate wickedness or malevolence. Leaving aside the classic example of the sentry who sleeps at his post and allows the enemy to slip through, there are other more familiar instances of which a railway cabinman signals in a train on the same track where there is a stationery train causing head-on collision; a nurse giving intravenous injection which ought to be given intramuscular causing instantaneous death; a pilot overlooking an instrument showing snag in engine and the aircraft crashes causing heavy loss of life. Misplaced sympathy can be a great evil (see Navinchandra Shakerchand Shah v. Manager, Ahmedabad Coop. Department Stores Ltd. [(1978) 19 Guj LR 108, 120]). But in any case, failure to attain the highest standard of efficiency in performance of duty permitting an inference of negligence would not constitute misconduct nor for the purpose of Rule 3 of the Conduct Rules as would indicate lack of devotion to duty.

13. Having cleared the ground of what would constitute misconduct for the purpose of disciplinary proceeding, a look at the charges framed against the respondent would affirmatively show that the charge inter alia alleged failure to take any effective preventive measures meaning thereby error in judgment in evaluating developing situation. Similarly, failure to visit the scenes of disturbance is another failure to perform the duty in a certain manner. Charges 2 and 5 clearly indicate the shortcomings in the personal capacity or degree of efficiency of the respondent. It is alleged that respondent showed complete lack of leadership when disturbances broke out and he disclosed complete ineptitude, lack of foresight, lack of firmness and capacity to take firm decision. These are personal qualities which a man holding a post of Deputy Commissioner would be expected to possess. They may be relevant considerations on the question of retaining him in the post or for promotion, but such lack of personal quality cannot constitute misconduct for the purpose of disciplinary proceedings. In fact, Charges 2, 3 and 6 are clear surmises on account of the failure of the respondent to take effective preventive measures to arrest or to nip in the bud the ensuing disturbances. We do not take any notice of Charge 4 because even the Enquiry Officer has noted that there are number of extenuating circumstances which may exonerate the respondent in respect of that charge. What was styled as Charge 6 is the conclusion viz. because of what transpired in the inquiry, the Enquiry Officer was of the view that the respondent was unfit to hold any responsible position. Somehow or other, the Enquiry Officer completely failed to take note of what was alleged in Charges 2, 5 and 6 which was neither misconduct nor even negligence but conclusions about the absence or lack of personal qualities in the respondent. It would thus transpire that the allegations made against the respondent may indicate that he is not fit to hold the post of Deputy Commissioner and that if it was possible he may be reverted or he may be compulsorily retired, not by way of punishment. But when the respondent is sought to be removed as a disciplinary measure and by way of penalty, there should have been clear case of misconduct viz. such acts and omissions which would render him liable for any of the punishments set out in Rule 3 of the Discipline and Appeal Rules, 1955. No such case has been made out."

87. In respect of the inordinate delay in initiation of the inquiry, the Supreme Court had the occasion to consider the same in the case of P.V. Mahadevan (supra) and recorded in Para - 10 & 11 as under:

"10. Section 118 specifically provides for submission of the abstracts of the accounts at the end of every year and Section 119 relates to annual audit of accounts. These two statutory provisions have not been complied with at all. In the instant case the transaction took place in the year 1990. The expenditure ought to have been considered in the accounts of the succeeding year. In the instant case the audit report was ultimately released in 1994-95. The explanation offered for the delay in finalising the audit account cannot stand scrutiny in view of the above two provisions of the Tamil Nadu Act 17 of 1961. It is now stated that the appellant has retired from service. There is also no acceptable explanation on the side of the respondent explaining the inordinate delay in initiating departmental disciplinary proceedings. Mr R. Venkataramani, learned Senior Counsel is appearing for the respondent. His submission that the period from the date of commission of the irregularities by the appellant to the date on which it came to the knowledge of the Housing Board cannot be reckoned for the purpose of ascertaining whether there was any delay on the part of the Board in initiating disciplinary proceedings against the appellant has no merit and force. The stand now taken by the respondent in this Court in the counter-affidavit is not convincing and is only an afterthought to give some explanation for the delay.

11. Under the circumstances, we are of the opinion that allowing the respondent to proceed further with the departmental proceedings at this distance of time will be very prejudicial to the appellant. Keeping a higher government official under charges of corruption and disputed integrity would cause unbearable mental agony and distress to the officer concerned. The protracted disciplinary enquiry against a government employee should, therefore, be avoided not only in the interests of the government employee but in public interest and also in the interests of inspiring confidence in the minds of the government employees. At this stage, it is necessary to draw the curtain and to put an end to the enquiry. The appellant had already suffered enough and more on account of the disciplinary proceedings. As a matter of fact, the mental agony and sufferings of the appellant due to the protracted disciplinary proceedings would be much more than the punishment. For the mistakes committed by the department in the procedure for initiating the disciplinary proceedings, the appellant should not be made to suffer."

88. The Supreme Court also considered the effect of delay in the case of State of Madhya Pradesh v. Bani Singh & Anr. (supra) and recorded in Para - 4 as under:

"4. The appeal against the order dated December 16, 1987 has been filed on the ground that the Tribunal should not have quashed the proceedings merely on the ground of delay and laches and should have allowed the enquiry to go on to decide the matter on merits. We are unable to agree with this contention of the learned counsel. The irregularities which were the subject matter of the enquiry is said to have taken place between the years 1975-77. It is not the case of the department that they were not aware of the said irregularities, if any, and came to know it only in 1987. According to them even in April 1977 there was doubt about the involvement of the officer in the said irregularities and the investigations were going on since then. If that is so, it is unreasonable to think that they would have taken more than 12 years to initiate the disciplinary proceedings as stated by the Tribunal. There is no satisfactory explanation for the inordinate delay in issuing the charge memo and we are also of the view that it will be unfair to permit the departmental enquiry to be proceeded with at this stage. In any case there are no grounds to interfere with the Tribunal's orders and accordingly we dismiss this appeal."

89. In respect of the conclusion of the inquiry within a reasonable time, learned counsel for the petitioner has placed reliance in the case of Abhishek Prabhakar Awasthi (supra) wherein the Full Bench held in Para - 5 & 6 as under:

"5. In the context of disciplinary proceedings, me High Court in the exercise of its writ jurisdiction under Article. 226 of the Constitution may in appropriate cases fix a stipulation inregard to the conclusion of an enquiry within a stipulated period. Such an order may be passed in several situations, such as when an employee moves a petition challenging an order of suspension and the Court considers it appropriate, in the interests of justice, to direct that the disciplinary proceeding should be expeditiously disposed of Such directions are issued in other appropriate instances to obviate a delay in disposing of disciplinary proceedings. The basis and rationale for these orders is to ensure that an employee is not prejudiced by an undue delay in the conclusion of a disciplinary proceeding. Where the Court stipulates a period of time during which an enquiry must be completed, such a stipulation has to be observed. Clearly, it is not open to the employer to act in disregard of the orders of the Court and it cannot possibly be asserted that notwithstanding the time fixed by the Court, the employer is at liberty to conclude the enquiry at its own whims and fancy disregarding the stipulation of time.

6. Having said this, it is equally true that there may be a variety of circumstances which may arise in the course of a disciplinary proceeding and despite all reasonable efforts, a disciplinary proceeding is not completed within the time fixed by a court. We do not intend to make an exhaustive enumeration of those circumstances but set out only some by way of illustration. Some times, it may well happen that the complexity of the case may result in prolongation of the enquiry. Besides the nature of the case, the number of witnesses to be examined may be so large that it may not be possible to conclude the enquuiry despite genuine and bona fide efforts within the stipulation so fixed. However, it may well happen that the delay in the conclusion of the enquiry is due to the conduct of one of the two parties. When the employee himself is guilty of a delay which has resulted in a protraction of the enquiry, it would be manifestly contrary to the interests of justice to assert that notwithstanding the conduct of the employee, the jurisdiction to hold an enquiry has come to an end upon the expiry of the period fixed by the Court. On the contrary, it is not open to the employer to use the enquiry as a measure of harassment and to hold a hanging sword on the head of the employee indefinitely. All these aspects assume significance when the issue arises asto whether there were justifiable reasons as to why the enquiry could not be concluded within the period which has been stipulated by the Court. The seriousness of the charge is of vital importance when it falls for determination by a court as to whether there were valid and cogent reasons on the basis of which the enquiry could not be concluded within the time stipulated. But, in either view of the matter, it is necessary that the court, which has fixed the stipulation of time, should be moved for an extension of time which has been so fixed. The Court, which has fixed the time for conclusion of the enquiry, also has the inherent jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India ex debito justitiae to exercise the power to extend time in appropriate cases. In this background, it would now be necessary to consider the precedents emanating from this Court on the subject."

90. In the light of the law as summarised above and the facts as recorded above, this Court is of the view that the Inquiry Officer had proceeded to hold the charges proved against the petitioner based upon virtually no evidence to substantiate either the documents in the charge-sheet and further there is no mention of any of the deposition of the oral witnesses to substantiate the charges as are levelled against the petitioner.

91. The disciplinary authority in its order has not given any reasoning and has not even dealt with any of the submissions made by the petitioner before the disciplinary authority while passing the order. The appellate authority has completely erred in holding the petitioner guilty by taking recourse to the dictionary meaning of the word "supervise' and "to supervise' completely ignoring the office memorandums which specified the nature of duties in respect of charges levelled against the petitioner. None of the witnesses either before the Inquiry Officer or in any of the documents given alongwith the charge-sheet, in any way incarcerate the petitioner with regard to not following any of the duties, which were assigned to the petitioner in terms of the office memorandums; the only material on record against the petitioner is that the petitioner delayed in forwarding of the illegal unauthorized construction with a gap of 14 days in respect of one of the charges. Other than the said, there is no material to substantiate the charges levelled against the petitioner and thus, realizing the limited scope of powers under Article 226 of Constitution of India, this Court is of the firm view that the charges levelled against the petitioner have not been substantiated by any evidence whatsoever and to that extent, the same are perverse.

92. The order of the disciplinary authority is completely non-speaking order and does not satisfy the test of Article 14 of the Constitution of India. The appellate order has gone on a complete tangent proceeding to hold the petitioner guilty placing reliance on the definition of the word "supervisor' or "to supervise' given in the dictionary in complete ignorance of the office memorandums and thus, the same is wholly perverse and arbitrary. There is no finding in respect of the second limb of each of the charges as against the petitioner and I have already held and rejected the argument of the respondents that the charges levelled in the second limb of each of the charge does not relate to the petitioner and relates to the property owner, thus, on all the grounds as referred above, the only charge levelled against the petitioner and established was that the petitioner took a time of 14 days in forwarding the report of the unauthorized construction to the Chief Executive Officer which can in the worst case be called as "negligence' and in any way does not qualify to be a "misconduct' warranting such extreme punishment as has been imposed against the petitioner.

93. Thus, for all the reasons recorded above, the writ petition deserves to be allowed and is accordingly allowed.

94. Order of appeal dated 01.06.2021, punishment order dated 14.08.2019 and the Board resolution dated 14.08.2019 are set aside with direction to reinstate the petitioner in the services alongwith all consequential benefits on the post on which he was working at the time of removal.

(2023) 4 ILRA 241
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 16.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE VIVEK CHAUDHARY, J.

Writ-A No. 31507 of 2014

Shailja Tripathi ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Siddharth Khare, Sri Ashok Khare (Sr. Advocate)

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Sri Mrigraj Singh, Sri Santosh Kumar Yadav

A. An Assistant Teacher of the institution had expired while in service-on the approval of BSA an advertisement was issued and the petitioner was selected-Later, referring to G.O. dated 20.01.2003, BSA placed all the appointment/approval in abeyance-Since the procedure for selection is provided under the statutory rules of U.P. Recognized Basic Schools (Junior High School Recruitment and Conditions of Service of Teachers) Rules, 1978-Once the power is exercised by the State for framing statutory rules, it cannot exercise any executive power, therefore, the Government Order dated 20.01.2003 as non-est being contrary to the statutory rules-Thus, once an approval is duly granted by BSA by his communication dated 20/21.02.2004, no power to review the said order on merits is vested in later BSA, the executive authorities do not have any power to review an order passed by an earlier authority, except for one limited ground of fraud etc. -The matter is decided by BSA after a gap of around 10 years-Such a dispute was required to be settled when earlier approval was granted –Such an irregularity cannot cost an appointment which is approved around 10 years back- Thus, the impugned order is illegal.(Para 1 to 14)

The writ petition is allowed. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

1. UOI Vs Soma Vishwanath (1988) AIR SC 2255
2. Anurag Mehrotra Vs St. of U.P. & ors. W.P. No. 3425 of 2019

(Delivered by Hon'ble Vivek Chaudhary, J.)

1. Heard Sri Ashok Khare, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Sri Siddharth Khare, learned counsel for the petitioner, Sri Mrigraj Singh, learned counsel for respondent no.2 and the learned Standing Counsel for the State.

2. The petitioner has approached this Court challenging the order dated 12.03.2014 passed by Basic Shiksha Adhikari, Jaunpur whereby the B.S.A., Jaunpur has refused to provide approval to the appointment of the petitioner.

3. The facts of the case are that on 03.12.2003 an Assistant Teacher of the institution had expired while in service. On the approval of Basic Shiksha Adhikari, an advertisement was issued on 29.01.2004 inviting applications from eligible persons. The Basic Shiksha Adhikari has passed an order on 15.02.2004 authorizing the Assistant Basic Shiksha Adhikari, Maharajganj/Badlapur to participate as a member of Selection Committee in the selection process held on 18.02.2004. After selection of the petitioner, all papers were submitted to the B.S.A. for approval, who accorded approval on 20/21.02.2004, making it effective from date of joining. On 22.02.2004 appointment letter was issued to petitioner who joined on 25.02.2004. However, salary bills submitted by the management with regard to petitioner remained pending.

4. On 11.06.2004, Basic Shiksha Adhikari, referring to Government Order dated 20.01.2003, sent letter to all the Managemnt/Head of all recognized and aided Junior High Schools, whereby he placed all the appointments/approval in abeyance. It also refers to circular letter dated 21.05.2004 of Regional Assistant Director of Education prohibiting payment of salary to appointments made without sanctioned post and further required every institution to submit all papers pertaining to selection/appointment made subsequent to Government Order dated 20.01.2003 for inquiry. The Government Order dated 20.01.2003 required prior permission of the State Government for making appointment for vacancies caused by the retirement. After giving an opportunity of hearing an order was ultimately passed by the B.S.A. on 12.03.2014 revoking the approval of B.S.A. dated 20/21.01.2004. It further held that petitioner was not entitled to receive any salary from the government grants. The said order, though, was passed on 12.03.2014 but was dispensed by registered post on 18.08.2014 and is now under challenge in the present writ petition.

5. Learned counsel for the petitioner challenges the order on facts as well as on short legal submission. The legal submission of learned Senior Advocate is that since the procedure for selection is provided under the statutory rules of U.P. Recognized Basic Schools (Junior High School Recruitment and Conditions of Service of Teachers) Rules, 1978. Therefore, once the power is exercised by the State for framing statutory rules, it cannot exercise any executive power with regard to the same subject by issuing executive order. Therefore, the Government Order dated 20.01.2003 as non-est being contrary to the statutory rules.

6. On merits, learned Senior Advocate for the petitioner submits that once an approval is duly granted by B.S.A. by his communication dated 20/21.02.2004, no power to review the said order on merits is vested in later B.S.A. The executive authorities do not have any power to review an order passed by an earlier authority, except for on limited ground of fraud etc. Next submission of learned Senior Advocate is that the impugned order even on merits is illegal as the defects pointed out in the same are presumptive.

7. On the other hand, learned counsels for the respondents support the impugned order and state that the impugned order rightly refuses to grant approval to the appointment of the petitioner.

8. So far as the Government Order dated 20.01.2003 is concerned, the law is well settled that once the State has exercised its legislative power with regard to any subject by framing statutory rules, it cannot exercise its executive power. Suffice is to refer to judgment passed in case of 'Union of India Vs. S.S. Soma Vishwanath' reported in AIR 1988 SC 2255 in which the Supreme Court held:-

"It is well settled that the norms regarding recruitment and promotion of the officer belong to the Civil Service can be laid down either by a law made by the appropriate Legislature or by the rules made under the proviso to Article 309 of the Constitution of India or by means of executive instructions issued in Article 73 of the Constitution of India in the case of Civil Services in the Government of India and under Article 162 of the Constitution of India in the case of Civil Services in the State Governments , if there is a conflict between the executive Instructions and the rules made under the proviso to Article 309 of the Constitution of India the rule made under the proviso to Article 309 of the Constitution of India prevail and if there is a conflict between the rules made under the proviso to Article 309 of the Constitution of India and the law made by the appropriate Legislature, the latter prevails." (emphasis added)

9. The aforesaid judgment is later also followed by this Court in case of 'Anurag Mehrotra Vs. State of U.P. and Others'; Writ Petition No.3425 (S/S) of 2019. In view of the aforesaid, the Government Order dated 20.01.2003 is directly in teeth of statutory rules. The State cannot usurp the power already vested in the authority by statutory rules. Therefore, there was no occasion to revisit the approval of the B.S.A. dated 20/21.02.2004 which granted appointment to the petitioner.

10. Now, coming to the merits of the case, the impugned order states that the vacancy is said to have arisen on account of death of late Sabhajeet Pathak, Assistant Teacher while in service on 31.12.2003. In judgment of the High Court dated 07.08.2013 passed in Writ Petition No. 41896 of 2005, it is noted that with the approval of the District Basic Education Officer the post was advertised on 11.07.2002 and it found that the appointment was illegal. The said fact appears to be wrongly noted in the earlier judgment of this Court as the newspaper 'Tarun Mitra' dated 01.02.2004 is filed along with present writ petition and the same was also submitted before the B.S.A. Ignoring the actual document, the B.S.A. was not supposed to refer to a date in the order. Further in the impugned order it is claimed that the management/head master was asked to provide notarized affidavit along with all the documents. There is no reason for initiating a different procedure in the present case which is not followed in other matters. All the documents were in the office of B.S.A. since the initial stage when the earlier B.S.A. had granted approval by order dated 20/21.02.2004. Even otherwise, it is not in dispute that all the documents were present before the B.S.A. while considering the present matter. Hence, there was no occasion to ask for an affidavit and to refuse to believe the document only on the said ground. Next ground taken in the impugned order for rejecting the case of petitioner is that in furtherance of order dated 22.07.2013 passed in Writ Petition No.46110 of 2005 one Sevantak Pathak was granted appointment under Dying in Harness Rules, 1974. Thus, there are no further vacancy available to accommodate the petitioner.

11. It goes without saying that right of petitioner on the basis of her initial appointment since 20/21.02.2004 when earlier B.S.A. granted approval to the petitioner and in furtherance of which petitioner joined on 25.02.2004. Her rights cannot be disturbed by any appointment or order passed with regard to any other person. Even otherwise, an appointment under Dying in Harness Rules, 1974 can also be accommodated on a supernumerary post. The same cannot impact rights of petitioner. The last ground is that the publication was made only in one newspaper. Along with the record only one newspaper was submitted. The matter is decided by B.S.A. after a gap of around 10 years. Such a dispute was required to be settled when earlier approval was granted on 20/21.02.2004. Such an irregularity cannot cost an appointment which is approved around 10 years back.

12. Thus, the impugned order dated 12.03.2004 cannot stand and is set aside.

13. Respondents are directed to pay salary of the petitioner from the date of his initial joining 25.02.2004 along with interest of 6% within a period of three months from the date a certified copy of this order is placed before it. They are also directed to ensure regular salary to petitioner in future.

14. With the aforesaid, the writ petition stands allowed.

(2023) 4 ILRA 244
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 19.04.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ABDUL MOIN, J.

Writ-A No. 31682 of 2018

Vishal Kumar Balmiki ...Petitioner
Versus
Punjab National Bank & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sangam Lal Pandey

Counsel for the Respondents:
Prashant Kumar, Gopal Kr. Srivastava

A. Civil Law - Compassionate appointment-petitioner's father died in harness –petitioner submitted an application for compassionate appointment which was rejected by respondent/Bank-the petitioner is a graduate and the respondents are excluding the candidature of the petitioner for being considered on a Class IV post in sub staff cadre solely on the ground that the recruitment rules carry the legend of graduate candidate not being eligible-the said condition in the recruitment rules would only be applicable with respect to where the respondents are making direct recruitment and not on compassionate grounds-directions issued for fresh consideration as the petitioner would not be rejected only on the ground of he being a graduate otherwise the object of the scheme for compassionate appointment would fail as it helps the deceased's family to tide over the sudden financial crisis.(Para 1 to 20)

The writ petition is disposed of. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

1. Endra Narayan Rajpoot & ors. Vs St. of U.P. & ors., W.P. No. 1709 of 2017

2. Kartikey Vs St. of U.P. & ors. , Spl. Appeal No. 229 of 2016

3. Alok Kumar Misra Vs St. of U.P. W.P. No. 6655 of 2016

4. Punj. & ors. Vs Anita & ors. (2015) 2 SCC 170

(Delivered by Hon'ble Abdul Moin, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri Gopal Kumar Srivastava, learned counsel appearing for the respondent- Bank.

2. Instant writ petition has been filed praying for the following main reliefs:-

"(i) a writ, order or direction in the nature of certiorari quashing the order dated 02.05.2018 passed by the opposite party no. 1 as communicated by the opposite party no. 2, contained in Annexure No. 1 to the writ petition with consequential benefits;

(ii) a writ, order or direction in the nature of mandamus commanding the opposite parties and directing them particularly the opposite party no. 1 to consider the claim of the petitioner for appointment on compassionate ground on the post of Clerical Cadre, as submitted vide application dated 14.08.2017, contained in Annexure No. 4 to the writ petition and issue necessary orders in this regard."

3. At the very outset, learned counsel for the petitioner states that he is confining his claim for compassionate appointment to a Class IV post. The aforesaid statement is recorded.

4. The case set forth by the petitioner is that his father who was employed as a Sweeper in the respondent- Bank died in harness on 03.07.2017. The petitioner claims to have submitted an application for grant of compassionate appointment in August, 2017 which was processed but subsequently the same has been rejected vide order dated 02.05.2018, a copy of which is annexure 1 to the writ petition. The ground which emerges from the order of rejection dated 02.05.2018 is that the petitioner had been called for the brief interface for the job in clerical cadre as SWO (Single Window Operator-A) but he was not found suitable for the said post. The detailed grounds as to why the petitioner has not been found suitable have been indicated in the counter affidavit filed by the Bank by annexing an order dated 27.04.2018, a copy of which is annexure C3 to the counter affidavit from which it emerges that upon conduct of the brief interface in order to assess the suitability of the petitioner for the proposed job it was found that the candidate/ petitioner is not having any knowledge of computer and thus it was opined that the petitioner was not suitable for the job in clerical cadre and hence his claim has been rejected vide order impugned dated 02.05.2018.

5. The contention of learned counsel for the petitioner is that when he applied for compassionate appointment under the respondents, his claim should have been considered sympathetically by the respondents and his candidature should not have been rejected in a pedantic manner on the ground that he was not found suitable in an interface having no knowledge of computer. The other argument of learned counsel for the petitioner is that when the petitioner is seeking compassionate appointment as such, even though the respondents have rejected his claim for a Class III post but his candidature could also be considered on a Class IV post on which he may be found suitable and eligible.

6. On the other hand, Sri Gopal Kumar Srivastava, learned counsel appearing for the respondent Bank argues that a circular dated 25.09.2014, a copy of which is annexure C1 to the counter affidavit, is a scheme for compassionate appointment for a dependent family member of deceased employee. It is argued that the case of the petitioner was considered for a Class III post but he was not found suitable and hence his claim was rejected vide the order dated 2.5.2018. It is further contended that as per clause 7 of the scheme, the posts to which the appointment can be made are both clerical and sub staff cadre. As per Sri Srivastava, Sub Staff cadre are the posts in the category of Class IV which include peon/sweeper etc. Placing reliance on Clause 8 of the said policy, it is contended that Clause 8.2 categorically provides that an applicant for compassionate appointment should be eligible and suitable for the post in all respect under the provisions of the relevant recruitment rules.

7. Reliance has also been placed on the relevant recruitment rules, a copy of which has been passed to the Court and has been kept on record, the High Court being a Court of record, to contend that for peons in subordinate cadre, the qualification prescribed is class tenth and twelfth standard and the graduate candidates are not eligible to be selected and the petitioner being a graduate is not eligible for a Class IV post/peon/sub staff.

8. The argument of Sri Srivastava is that admittedly the petitioner is a graduate and thus keeping in view the recruitment rules, a graduate is not eligible for a Class IV post as such, there is no infirmity in the respondent-Bank in not having considered the petitioner against the Class IV post and the petitioner not having been found suitable for a Class III post, his candidature has consequently been rejected.

9. In this regard, Sri Srivastava has placed reliance on the judgments of this Court in the cases of Endra Naryan Rajpoot and 11 Ors Vs. State of U.P and ors passed in Writ Petition No. 1709 (SS) of 2017, Kartikey Vs. State of U.P and Ors passed in Special Appeal No. 229 of 2016, Alok Kumar Misra Vs. State of U.P passed in Writ Petition No. 6655 (SS) of 2016 as well as the judgment of the Apex Court in the case of State of Punjab and ors VS. Anita and Ors reported in (2015) 2 SCC 170.

10. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the contesting parties and perused the records.

11. From a perusal of records it emerges that the petitioner's father was working as a Sweeper in the respondent-Bank who died in harness on 03.07.2017. The petitioner staked his claim for compassionate appointment under the relevant rules and policy of the bank. The petitioner being a graduate was called for an interface by the bank but the bank did not find the petitioner suitable for being appointed in the clerical cadre and thus his claim for compassionate appointment has been rejected, vide order dated 2.5.2018.

12. After perusal of records and the reasons as have been assigned by the respondents in the impugned order dated 02.05.2018 read with the order dated 27.04.2018 it emerges that in the brief interface in order to assess the suitability of the petitioner, it was found that the petitioner is not having any knowledge of computer and thus his claim was rejected. The Court does not find any reason to interfere with the order by which the claim of the petitioner has been rejected in the clerical cadre more particularly when the prospective employer i.e Bank has itself not found the petitioner suitable for appointment.

13. Whether the petitioner can also be considered for appointment in the sub staff cadre which pertains to Class IV post is next the question to be decided by the Court.

14. The respondent- Bank has issued a policy for compassionate appointment dated 25.09.2014. The relevant provisions of the policy are reproduced below :

*"1. NAME OF SCHEME:

The Scheme is to be called the "Scheme for compassionate appointment to a dependent family member of a deceased employee/ employee retired on medical grounds due to incapacitation before reaching the age of 55 years.

2. OBJECT OF THE SCHEME:

To enable family of a deceased employee/employee retired on medical grounds due to incapacitation before reaching the age of 55 years, tide over the sudden financial crisis.

4. COVERAGE

4.1 To a dependent family member of a permanent employee of the Bank who-

(a) dies while in service (including death by suicide)

(b) is retired on medical grounds due to incapacitation before reaching the age of 55 years. (Incapacitation is to be certified by a duly appointed Medical Board in a Government Medical College/ Government District Head Quarter Hospitals/ Panel of Doctors nominated by the Bank for the purpose).

(4.2) For the purpose of the Scheme "employee" would mean and include only a confirmed regular employee who was serving full time or part-time on scale wages, at the time of death/retirement on medical grounds, before reaching age of 55 years and does not include any one engaged on contract/temporary/casual or any person who is paid on commission basis.

7. POSTS TO WHICH APPOINTMENTS CAN BE MADE

7.1 The appointment shall be made in the clerical and sub-staff cadre only.

8. ELIGIBILITY

8.1 The family is indigent and deserves immediate assistance for relief from financial destitution; and

8.2 Applicant for compassionate appointment should be eligible and suitable for the post in all respects under the provisions of the relevant Recruitment Rules."

15. Perusal of the said policy which is called Scheme for compassionate appointment would indicate that the scheme is titled as " Scheme for compassionate appointment to a dependent family member of a deceased employee/employee retired on medical grounds". Clause 2 of the object of the scheme is to enable family of a deceased employee/employee retired on medical grounds due to incapacitation before reaching the age of 55 years, tide over the sudden financial crisis. The coverage of the policy, as per Clause 4, includes dependent family member of a permanent employee of the Bank who dies while in service. Clause 7 of the Policy indicates the posts in which appointment can be made which is both clerical and sub staff cadre. The eligibility as per Clause 8. 2 is that the applicant for compassionate appointment should be eligible and suitable for the post in all respects under the provisions of the relevant recruitment rules.

16. Once the object of the scheme itself is to enable the family of the deceased employee to tide over the sudden financial crisis on account of the death, consequently, Clause 8 of the scheme would have to be understood in the context of the scheme for compassionate appointment itself i.e to tide over the sudden financial crisis. Once the petitioner is admittedly a graduate obviously he would be Class X and Class XII pass and consequently, he would be eligible for appointment as a peon in the subordinate cadre or the sub staff cadre.

17. The argument of Sri Srivastava while not considering the claim of the petitioner for a sub staff cadre is that as per Clause 8.2, the petitioner should be eligible and suitable for the post in all respect under the provisions of the relevant recruitment rules and the relevant recruitment rules specifically provide that the graduate candidates are not eligible. As already indicated above, the scheme contemplates appointment on compassionate grounds in order to tide over the sudden financial crisis. Obviously, the recruitment rules are to be followed whereby a higher qualification is not be taken into account while making direct recruitment. Here, the case is not one of direct recruitment but is of compassionate appointment. The petitioner is a graduate and the respondents, as per their argument, are excluding the candidature of the petitioner for being considered on a Class IV post/peon in subordinate cadre/sub staff cadre solely on the ground that the recruitment rules carry the legend of graduate candidate not being eligible. In the view of the Court the said condition in the recruitment rules would only be applicable with respect to where the respondents are making direct recruitment and not on compassionate grounds. This would be apparent from the fact that Clause 8.2 of the policy provides that the person should be eligible and suitable for the post and when seen in the context of the scheme being applicable for the purpose of compassionate appointment, the same would obviously entail the petitioner to be eligible as per the recruitment rules for a Class IV post meaning thereby that he would have to have the qualification of Class Xth or Class XIIth or equivalent and by no stretch of imagination can the respondents be allowed exclude a graduate candidate for the purpose of compassionate appointment on sub-staff cadre as the same would run against the policy of providing compassionate appointment to tide over sudden financial crisis.

18. So far as the judgments over which Sri Gopal Kumar Srivastava, learned counsel appearing for the respondent- Bank has placed reliance, suffice it to say that the judgments of Endraa Narayan Rajpoot (supra) & Alok Kumar Mishra (supra) pertain to cases where the persons were staking their claim on the basis of an advertisement issued by the Commission i.e for the purpose of direct recruitment and the said cases did not pertain to compassionate appointment. So far as the Division Bench judgment in the case of Kartikey (supra) is concerned, the same also does not pertain to compassionate appointment and thus in the view of the Court none of the three judgments would have any applicability or would be attracted to the facts of the present facts case. So far as the judgment of the Apex Court in the case of Anita (supra) is concerned the same again pertains to a case of direct recruitment and not to compassionate appointment. Accordingly, none of the aforesaid judgment have any applicability in the facts of the instant case.

19. Keeping in view the aforesaid discussion, the writ petition is disposed of with the direction to the respondent no. 3 i.e Zonal Manager, Punjab National Bank, HRD Section, Zonal Office, Gomti Nagar, Lucknow who is said to be competent authority or any other competent authority to consider the case of the petitioner for compassionate appointment in the sub staff cadre or against any Class IV post. The case of the petitioner would not be rejected only on the ground of he being a graduate.

20. Let such a consideration be done within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt of a certified copy of this order.

(2023) 4 ILRA 249
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 16.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAJIV JOSHI, J.

Writ-A No. 37062 of 2014

Suneel Kumar & Anr. ...Petitioners
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
Sri Ashish Jaiswal

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C.

A. Civil Law - Chandra Mohan Jha University, Meghalaya, Act, 2009-Section 48-Education-degree-validity-Bachelor degree obtained by from CMJ University are valid in view of judgment of Meghalaya High Court passed in Writ(C) No. 177 of 2014 and Amendment in Section 48 of Amendment Act 2019-the verification of both the students are completed according to the records of the University and the degree of both the aforesaid students are valid.

The petition is allowed. (E-6)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Rajiv Joshi, J.)

1. Heard Sri Ashish Jaiswal, learned counsel for the petitioners and Ms. Shivi Mishra, learned Standing counsel for the respondent.

2. The present writ petition has been filed by two persons namely Sunil Kumar and Desh Deepak both sons of Sri Rameshwar Dayal with the prayer for direction to the respondent no.2 Principal, District Institute of Education Training, Bhogoan, Mainpuri to permit the petitioners to appear in the IInd and IIIrd Semester Examinations of B.T.C. Training Course-2012 and to continue their studies for the said course.

3. The record reflects that the petitioners passed their High School and Intermediate Examinations in Ist Division from the U.P. Board and subsequently obtained their Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) Degree in Ist Division from Chandra Mohan Jha University, Meghalya (for short 'CMJ University Meghalaya') which was duly recognized as per Section 2(f) of University Grants Commission Act, 1956.

4. On the strength of the aforesaid qualification, the petitioners have applied online for B.T.C. Training, 2012 from District Institute of Education Training, Mainpuri (for short ' DIET') in which, both of them are selected and sent for training. The petitioners have passed their Ist semester examination and the examination of IInd semester was going to commence from 22.1.2014, in the meantime, the respondent No. 2 Principal DIET, Mainpuri passed an order dated 13.1.2014 whereby the training of the petitioner has been discontinued as per the judgment of this Court dated 19.11.2013 passed in Writ-A No. 36180 of 2013 (Satyesh Kumar & Ors. Vs. State of U.P. & Ors), which follows that the degree obtained from the CMJ University, Meghalaya from the Academic Year 2009-2013 are invalid. The said letter of the Principal, DIET, Mainpuri has been appended at page no. 27 to 28 of the writ petition. Subsequently, the petitioners challenged the order dated 13.1.2014 passed by the Principal DIET, Mainpuri by way of Writ-A No. 3775 of 2014, which was dismissed vide judgment dated 21.1.2014 and the said order was affirmed by the Division Bench of this Court in Special Appeal No. 154 of 2014 vide order dated 11.2.2014 with the liberty to the petitioners to file appropriate representation in view of the direction issued by the Hon'ble Apex Court in Special Leave Petition [petition (s) for Special Leave to Appeal (Civil) No(s). 19617 of 2013 CMJ Foundation & Ors. Vs. State of Meghalaya & Ors].

5. It further reflects from the record that the CMJ Foundation, Meghalaya filed Special Leave to Appeal (Civil) No(s). 19617 of 2013 against the judgment and order dated 31.5.2013 passed in Writ- A No. 16 of 2013 by the High Court of Meghalaya at Shilong, the said Special Leave to Appeal is disposed of vide order dated 13.9.2013 with the direction to the State Government, Mehghalaya to take appropriate action under Section 48 of CMJ University Act, 2009 after giving notice and reasonable opportunity of hearing to the Institution. The order dated 13.9.2013 passed in Special Leave to Appeal (Civil) No(s). 19617 of 2013 is quoted as under:-

"The petitioners in the connected petition are permitted to file the special leave petition. These petitions are directed against judgment dated 31.5.2013 of the Division Bench of the Meghalaya High Court whereby the appeal filed against the order of the learned Single Judge refusing to quash order dated 30.4.2013 passed by Principal Secretary to the Governor of Meghalaya under Section 13(3)(b) of the CMJ University Act,2009 (for short, 'the 2009 Act') was dismissed.

During the pendency of the special leave petitions, the Visitor-cum-Governor, Meghalaya made comprehensive recommendations on 12.6.2013 for dissolution of the University on the grounds of mismanagement, maladministration, indiscipline and failure in the enforcement of the objectives of the University, apart from criminal liability. The note containing the decision of the Visitor including the recommendations made by him reads as under:

"1. I have perused the letter dated 10th June, 2013 from Shri S.P Sharma, Advocate for CMJ Foundation with reference to the Directives issued by this office vide letter no. GSMG/CMJU/82/2009/311 dated 24th May, 2013. It is observed that the CMJ Foundation/University has moved the Court of Chief Judicial Magistrate seeking copies of documents for the purpose of compliance of the Directives, after much delay, on 10th June, 2013 the last date fixed for compliance of the Directives. It thus appears that the CMJ Foundation is not sincere about compliance with the Directives. Moreover, all the Directives that were issued vide this office letter No. GSMG/CMJU/82/2009/143 dated 30th April, 2013 could have been complied by the CMJ Foundation without recourse to the documents seized by the State Police. The Directives issued on 30th April, 2013 are stated below:

i) The CMJ University shall recall/withdraw all the degrees awarded so far and publish this fact in national and local newspapers at their own cost.

ii) The CMJ Foundation shall submit a fresh proposal for appointment of the Chancellor along with the correct bio-data of the candidate recommended and supporting documents.

iii) The CMJ University shall frame rules and procedures for admission into the M.Phil and Ph.D degree programmes, allocation of supervisor, course work/ evaluation, assessment and further related methods in accordance with the UGC (Minimum Standards and Procedure for Awards of M.Phil/Ph.D degree) Regulation, 2009.

v) No fresh admission of students shall be undertaken by the CMJ University till compliance of the above instructions and till the appointment of the Chancellor in accordance with Section 14 (1) of the CMJ University Act, 2009.

2. It is unfortunate that the Chairman of CMJ Foundation has remained incommunicado all these days and chosen to communicate only through his counsel. According to media reports his counsel says he is in Bihar attending on his sick parent. Even if it is true it cannot be the reason for not addressing the issues for so long.

3. It is worth mentioning that immediately after the first directives were issued the University alleged that the students had vandalized the office and equipment in the University which subsequently was found to be false by police. According to police it was engineered by the university staff at the instance of one of the Directors. It was a deliberate attempt to destroy evidence and the case is under police investigation.

4. All these cast a shadow on the sincerity of the University to adhere to the requirement of law, initiate corrective actions and uphold the standards of higher education.

5. The commissions and omissions of University are in two parts; i) It started functioning without the Chancellor whose appointment has not been approved by the Visitor, and ii) it functioned in gross violation of the standards and norms set by the University Grants Commission and other regulatory bodies, CMJU Act 2009, and Meghalaya Private Universities (Regulations of Establishment and Maintenance of Standards) Act 2012. This is even more serious an offence; it constitutes a breach of trust in addition. Even with the legally appointed Chancellor no university can be allowed to function with such fraudulent intent and vitiate the academic environment, disgrace the institution of higher learning and bring disrepute to the state where it is established.

6. On the basis of facts and circumstances available it is concluded that the university committed the following grave irregularities:

i) The University functioned from 17/10/2010 with the self- appointed Chancellor without the approval of the Visitor in terms of Section 14(1) of the CMJ University Act, 2009 on the presumption of "deemed approval" of the Visitor. This is not legally valid and the position has been affirmed by the order dated 16th May, 2013 of the Hon'ble High Court of Meghalaya which has further been upheld by the Division Bench of the Hon'ble High Court of Meghalaya in their order dated 31st May, 2013.

(ii) It awarded B.Ed degree through Distance Mode without the requisite approval of the regulatory bodies and without affiliation. The B.Ed degrees awarded by the CMJ University were held to be invalid in the eye of Law by the order dated 24th May, 2013 of the Hon'ble High Court of Gauhati.

(iii) The Shillong Engineering and Management College was de-affiliated by NEHU from academic session 2011-2012. This College, which was in existence prior to the sanction for establishment of the CMJ University, cannot be affiliated with the CMJ University. While the fate of the students of this College was already uncertain in view of the said deaffiliation, the College continued to make admissions by misleading the students that the degrees will be issued by the CMJ University.

iv) The University had reported that during 2012-2013 it had awarded PhD degrees to 434 students and enrolled another 490 students. These figures though extraordinarily high do not reflect the correct position. Information is available with us that another 29 students have also received PhD degree from the University and more information is coming on a daily basis. So it is obvious that the actual number of award of and enrolment for, PhD and other programs will be much higher than was reported. The University awarded PhD even in subjects like the Bodo and Punjabi languages where the guides/faculty are not easily available. These constitute gross abuse of the university's power and violation of the UGC (Minimum Standards and Procedure for Awards of M.Phil/ Ph.D Degree) Regulation, 2009.

v) The University furnished a list of 10 faculty members with PhD which is inaccurate. One of the faculty members is only a research scholar at NEHU. The list includes the Vice- Chancellor, Registrar and other functionaries of the University as faculty which is quite misleading. In fact the University does not have adequate teachers to introduce courses which it had been doing.

vi) The University is running several off campus centres outside Meghalaya which is not permissible under the UGC (Establishment of and Maintenance of Standards of Private University) Regulations, 2003 and the decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court (2005) in the case of Prof. Yashpal & Anr. Versus State of Chhattisgarh & Ors.

vii) It is offering distance education programme outside the boundaries of Meghalaya and outside India. These actions are in gross violation of UGC Regulations and guidelines.

viii) Total students enrolled by CMJ University as per information submitted by the University in 2010-11:176, 2011-12: 469, 2012-13: 2734. All these admissions are illegal as all its actions are db initio void in absence of a legally appointed Chancellor.

x) The University has violated Section 45(3) and Section 46(4) of the CMJ University Act, 2009 by not submitting the Annual Report and the Annual Accounts / Balance Sheet and the Audit Report to Visitor.

xi) Even after the initiation of actions by the Visitor the University continued to mislead the students and public by press statements. It issued a news paper advertisement in the Shillong Times on 22nd April, 2013 claiming it has not yet awarded any PhD degree to any of the students enrolled from the State of Assam which is false. Again it issued advertisement in newspaper on 2nd May and 16th May, 2013 in matters of holding Convocation and Award of PhD Degree knowing full well that there can be no Convocation without the legally appointed Chancellor and that the admissions of the courses and award of the degrees were illegal.

x) The University has violated Section 41(1) of the CMJ University Act relating to establishment of Endowment Fund and indulged in cheating by withdrawing the deposit of Rs.210 lakhs within days of making the deposit.

xi) The University repeatedly acted in contravention of Section 52 of the CMJ University Act 2009 in respect of maintenance of standards and other related matters applicable to private universities.

7. All these established facts clearly indicate mismanagement, mal-administration, indiscipline and failure in the accomplishment of the objectives of the University, apart from criminal liability. In the interest of maintaining proper standards of higher education it would be desirable that the CMJ University be wound up. The state government is accordingly being addressed to consider Dissolution of the CMJ University in terms of Section 48 of the CMJ University Act, 2009."

(emphasis supplied)

In terms of the recommendations made by the Visitor-cum- Governor, the State Government is required to take action under Section 48of the 2009 Act.

Shri Ranjan Mukherjee, learned counsel appearing for the Government of Meghalaya says that he is not in a position to make a statement whether the State Government has taken action in furtherance of the recommendations made by the Visitor-cum- Governor.

In view of the above, we feel that ends of justice will be served by directing the State Government to take an appropriate action under Section 48 of the 2009 Act after giving notice and reasonable opportunity of hearing to the petitioners.

The special leave petitions are accordingly disposed of with a direction that within three months from today the State Government shall, after giving an opportunity to the petitioners to show cause against the action proposed to be taken, pass a speaking order under Section 48 of the 2009 Act.

The students whose admissions and degrees were declared illegal may also make representation to the State Government and seek an opportunity of hearing from it. The request made by them shall be sympathetically considered by the State Government."

6. Pursuant to the direction issued by the Hon'ble Apex Court, as well as direction made in Special Appeal No. 154 of 2014, petitioners filed their representations on 18.3.2014 in the office of Director Higher and Technical Education, Meghalaya at Shilong whereupon, the petitioners were directed to appear in person on 23.3.2014, in compliance of the said direction, the petitioners were appeared before the authority concerned but no decision was communicated to the petitioners by the Director Higher and Technical Education, Meghalaya at Shilong.

7. In the meantime, Writ(c) No. 177 of 2014 was filed by the CMJ Foundation along with the CMJ University in High Court of Meghalaya on the ground that Mehgalaya Legislative Assembly enacted the CMJ University Act, 2009 (Act No.4 of 2009) to establish and incorporate an University in the State, with emphasis on providing high quality and industry-relevant education in the areas of Physical Sciences, Life Sciences, Technology, Medical Science and Paramedical, Management, Finance & Accounting, Commerce, Humanities, Languages & Communication, applied and Performing Arts, Education, Law Social Science and related areas sponsored by CMJ Foundation and to provide for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

8. As the questions call for the decision in the said writ petition are to be decided taking into consideration of the provisions of CMJ University Act, 2009 (for short 'Act' 2009') which was decided finally by the High Court of Meghayala vide order dated 16.7.2015 with the direction to the State Government, Meghalaya to take steps in strict compliance with the provisions of the Act, 2009, Meghalaya Private Universities, Regulation of Establishment and Maintenance of Standards) Act, 2012 (Act No. 8 of 2012), principles of natural justice and the concept of obligation of the administrative authorities to act fairly in interest of justice from the stage of Hon'ble Apex Court.

The relevant paragraph nos. 29 to 31 are quoted as under:-

"29.For the foregoing discussions, this Court is of the considered view that there was non-compliance with or breach of the fundamental procedural requirements as provided under Section 48 of the said Act of 2009 as well as principles of natural justice and the concept of the obligation of the administrative authorities to act fairly in issuing the show cause notices dated 12.11.2013 and 24.01.2014 and passing the impugned order dated 31.03.2014 which would lead to many facets injustice. Thus, the impugned order dated 31.03.2014 and the show cause notices dated 11.12.2013 and 24.01.2014 are hereby quashed and set aside.

30. In the result, the State Govt. may take steps in strict compliance with the provisions of the CMJ University Act, 2009 (Act 4 of 2009), the Meghalaya Private Universities (Regulation of Establishment and Maintenance of Standards) Act, 2012 (Act No.8 of 2012), principles of natural justice and the concept of the obligation of the administrative authorities to act fairly in interest of justice from the stage where the Apex Court passed the said judgment and order dated 13.09.2013.

31. Writ petition is allowed to the extent indicated above."

9. Subsequently, vide notification 16th October of 2019, the CMJ University Amendment Act, 2019 (Act No. 14 of 2019) was passed by the Meghalaya Legislative Assembly which received the assent of the Governor on 9th October, 2019 published in Gazette of Meghalaya Extraordinary Issue dated 16th October, 2019 whereby, the amendment of Section 48 was made by inserting the following provisions. The Amendment of Section 48 is quoted as under:-

"Provided if the University is dissolved at the instance of the Sponsor as provided in sub-section (1), making arrangement for the affected students of the University, until the last batch of regular courses of studies of University are completed, shall be the responsibility of the University in consultation with the UGC, AICTE and other Regulatory Bodies"

10. After the judmgnet of Meghayala High Court dated 16.7.2015 passed in Writ(c) No. 177 of 2014 as well as amendment in Section 48 of Amendment Act 2019, the CMJ University informed the petitioners, the petitioner no. 2 under the RTI Act, 2005 to the effect that the students named Desh Deepak Registration No. 10111010119125 and Sunil Kumar, Registration No. 10111010119126 of Bachelor of Arts Degree has completed their verification and therefore, the verification of both the students are complete according to the records of the University and the Degree of both the aforesaid students are valid.

11. The information supplied in this regard vide letter dated 2.5.2022 is quoted as under:-

"Date- 02.05.2022

Subject: Information under RTI Act 2005.

with reference to the letter cited above, we would like to inform you that, the university was closed by an impugned office order of Government of Meghalaya dated 31.03.2014 Subsequently. The Meghalay High Court vide WPC No. 177/2014 has quashed and set aside, the office order dated aside, the office order dated 31.03.2014 After the University reopened in November 2015, Student verification process started with orginal documents due to the official documents seized by the Govt. of Meghalaya. As per the record, the Student named Desh Deepak Registration No. 10111010119125 and Suneel Kumar Registration No. 10111010119126 of Bechelor of Arts Degree , has completed their verification, therefore, the verification of both the above student is compete according to the records of the university and the degree of both the above students is valid."

12. In view of the aforesaid, the B.A. Degrees obtained by the petitioners from the CMJ University, Meghalaya are valid in view of the judgment of Meghalaya High Court passed in Writ (c) No. 177 of 2014 and Amendment in Section 48 vide Amendment dated 16th October, 2019.

13. In the facts and circumstances, the Degrees obtained by the petitioners from the CMJ University, Meghalaya in the year -2012 are treated to be valid one.

14. Accordingly, the writ petition is allowed with the direction to the State Government of U.P. to continue the petitioners with the B.T.C. Training Course- 2012, if the same is surviving.

(2023) 4 ILRA 256
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 15.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAJIV JOSHI, J.

Writ-A No. 38165 of 2011

Sushil Kumar Bajpai ...Petitioner
Versus
Union of India & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Satya Prakash Pandey, Sri Rajeev Trivedi, Sri Shashi Kant Shukla

Counsel for the Respondents:
A.S.G.I., C.S.C. (2011/33987), Sri Praveen Shukla, Sri Saumitra Singh

A. Civil Law - Public Accountant Default Act, 1850-Sections 2 & 4-Central Civil Services (Conduct) Rules, 1964-Rules 3(I)(ii)-Central Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, 1965-Rules 14 & 16-Recovery of amount-the petitioner had given a cash advance of Rs. 8,01,000 even without taking any initial of Assistant Post Master-At relevant time petitioner was working as Postal Assistant-He is not a public accountant as defined in section 2 of the Act of 1850-Proceeding of recovery cannot be initiated against petitioner unless and until a liability to that effect of the loss of Government amount is fixed upon him-Act of 1850 also has been repealed by Central Government on 02.09.2019-Impugned order quashed.(Para 1 to 27)

The petition is allowed. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

1. Smt. Madhubala Bharti Vs St. of U.P. & ors., W.P. No. 40574 of 2001

2. Girija Dayal Srivastava Vs St. of U.P. (1987) UPLBEC 1121

(Delivered by Hon'ble Rajiv Joshi, J.)

1. Heard Shri Shashi Kant Shukla, learned Counsel for the petitioner and Shri Saumitra Singh, Senior Panel Counsel for Union of India/respondents.

2. The instant writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India has been filed against the impugned order dated 06.05.2011 passed by the respondent no.4, Chief Post Master, Kanpur, District Kanpur Nagar whereby a sum of Rs.7,57,500/- has been directed to be recovered from the petitioner as an arrears of land revenue in exercise of power under Public Accountant Default Act, 1850.

3. It reflects from the record that the petitioner joined on the post of Postal Assistant at Head Post Office, Banda on 24.09.1983. Subsequently, he was transferred to Kanpur on the same post. On 17.03.2003 while he was performing his duties as Postal Assistant in the office of Treasurer, a loss of Rs.8,00,000/- occurred in the department due to the irresponsibility committed by one Shailendra Kumar Dixit, who was working at that time as Postal Assistant N.S.C., Discharge Counter, Head Post Office, Kanpur Nagar.

4. A first information report was lodged against unknown persons on 17.03.2003, thereafter, the departmental proceeding was initiated against the petitioner and he was served with a charge-sheet on 18.07.2003 issued by the respondent no.4 with the allegation that the petitioner has given a cash advance of

Rs.8,01,000/- to Shailendra Kumar Dixit, Postal Assistant N.S.C. Discharge Counter, Kanpur Nagar without taking any initial of the Assistant Post Master namely Sri S.S. Trivedi and as such he acted in contravention of Rule 3 (I) (ii) of CCS (Conduct) Rules, 1964.

5. The petitioner submitted his reply on 13.08.2003 denying the charges levelled against him and further stated that the amount in dispute was given to Shailendra Kumar Dixit with the consent of Assistant Post Master, Shri S.S. Trivedi, who made his initial on the cash register certifying therein that the amount has been received by Shailenra Kumar Dixit and as such two charges made against the petitioner are frivolous and are liable to be dropped.

6. Subsequently, the statement of Shri S.S. Trivedi, Assistant Post Master was recorded by the inquiry officer and the disciplinary authority, respondent no.4 passed the order dated 15.11.2003 whereby imposed recovery of Rs.88,032/- against the petitioner with immediate effect in 42 equal installments @ Rs.2,096/- per month from his salary.

7. Being aggrieved by order dated 15.11.2003, the petitioner filed an appeal before the respondent no.3, Director Postal Services, Kanpur Region, Kanpur on 29.11.2003, which was not decided by the appellate authority despite several reminders given by the petitioner. Ultimately, the petitioner filed an Original Application being Original Application No.92 of 2004 (S.K. Bajpai Vs. Union of India and others) against the order dated 15.11.2003 before the Central Administrative Tribunal, and the Central Administrative Tribunal vide order dated 09.02.2004 stayed the operation of the said order till disposal of the appeal.

8. The respondent no.3 during pendency of the Original Application before the Central Administrative Tribunal had allowed the appeal filed by the petitioner vide order dated 18/29.06.2004 by setting aside the recovery of Rs.88,032/- with the direction that a fresh charge-sheet be issued by the disciplinary authority against the petitioner.

9. The disciplinary authority neither issued any charge-sheet nor initiated disciplinary proceeding as per Rule 16 of C.C.S.(C.A.A.) Rules, 1965 (hereinafter referred as "Rules of 1965") in pursuance of the direction of appellate authority dated 18/29.06.2004.

10. Subsequently, the respondent no.4 issued the order dated 09.04.2005 directing recovery of Rs.8,00,000/- from the petitioner as arrears of land revenue. The respondent no.4 has also passed two separate orders dated 08.04.2005 and 8/9.04.2005 against Shailendra Kumar Dixit and Shri S.S. Trivedi for recovery of Rs.8,00,000/- each meaning thereby the respondent no.4 had issued recovery of Rs.24,00,000 against the petitioner and two other persons working in the Post Office.

11. The petitioner was again compelled to file the Original Application being Original Application No.511 of 2005 challenging the order dated 09.04.2005 before the Central Administrative Tribunal and the Central Administrative Tribunal while entertaining the Original Application vide order dated 04.05.2005 stayed the recovery proceeding against the petitioner. Thereafter, a fresh charge-sheet was issued by the disciplinary authority against the petitioner under Rule 14 of Rules of 1965 with regard to the earlier charges on 07.05.2005, which was replied by the petitioner on the same day i.e 07.05.2005 denying the entire charges.

12. The inquiry officer was appointed, who submitted his report on 26.05.2008 with the finding that the charges levelled against the petitioner were not proved. The disciplinary authority i.e. respondent no.4 did not agree with the conclusion of inquiry officer, issued a letter dated 09.06.2008 regarding disagreement with the inquiry report and invited representation from the petitioner.

13. In reply thereto, the petitioner filed his representation dated 12.07.2008, the respondent no.4 without considering the representation as well as finding recorded by the inquiry officer passed the order dated 19.07.2008 imposing the recovery of Rs.2,50,000/- from the salary of the petitioner in 100 equal monthly installments.

14. The petitioner aggrieved by the order dated 19.07.2008, filed an appeal under Rule 23 of Rules of 1965 before the respondent no.3, which was rejected vide order dated 20.11.2008 affirming the punishment order dated 19.07.2008.

15. Being aggrieved by the order dated 20.11.2008 the petitioner filed Original Application No.1314 of 2008 (Sushil Kumar Bajpai Vs. Union of India and others) before the Central Administrative Tribunal for quashing the order dated 19.07.2008 and 20.11.2008 passed by the respondent nos.4 & 3 respectively, which was disposed of finally vide order dated 23.12.2008 setting aside the order dated 20.11.2008 passed by the respondent no.3 and the petitioner was directed to file complete copy of the Original Application with all annexures and additional appeal, the respondent no.3 was also directed to decide the the appeal by a reasoned and speaking order in accordance with land and relevant rules on the subject and stayed the recovery proceeding against the petitioner till disposal of the appeal.

16. Thereafter, the appellate authority vide order dated 23.03.2009 modified the punishment of recovery of Rs.2,50,000/- as imposed vide order dated 19.07.2008 to Rs.1,50,000/-. The petitioner again challenged the said order dated 23.03.2009 passed by the appellate authority vide Original Application No.474 of 2009 before the Central Administrative Tribunal, which was finally disposed of vide order dated 15.05.2009 setting aside the order dated 23.03.2009 passed by the appellate authority and remitted the matter back to reconsider the entire case in accordance with law and pass a reasoned and speaking order within a period of three months and further stayed the recovery against the petitioner during the pendency of the appeal.

17. The appellate authority, thereafter, rejected the appeal vide order dated 14.07.2009 and affirmed the order dated 19.07.2008 directing recovery of Rs.1, 50,000/- as the petitioner was held responsible for the loss to the extent of Rs.1,50,000/- and the said amount is being recovered from the salary of the petitioner.

18. The petitioner again filed Original Application No.881 of 2009 before the Central Administrative Tribunal challenging the order dated 19.07.2008 as well as the order dated 14.07.2009 passed by the appellate/disciplinary authority, which is pending before the Tribunal.

19. From the record, it is apparent that the amount, which was directed to be recovered from the salary of the petitioner to the extent of Rs.1,50,000/- has been recovered and the Original Application No.511 of 2005 was dismissed as withdrawn vide order dated 22.12.2010 and during pendency of the Original Application No.881 of 2009 the impugned order dated 06.05.2011 has been passed while exercising the power under the provisions of Section 2 & 4 of Public Accountant Default Act, 1850 (Act No.12 of 1850) whereby an amount of Rs.7,57,500/- has been directed to be recovered from the petitioner as an arrears of land revenue after deducting the amount of Rs.1,50,000/- which has already been recovered from the total loss to the extent of Rs.8,00,000/-. The order dated 06.05.2011 passed by the respondent no.4 is impugned in the writ petition.

20. Learned Counsel for the petitioner submits that the disciplinary proceeding against the petitioner was initiated and departmental inquiry was held in which the charges against the petitioner has not been substantiated, thereafter, the fresh inquiry has not been initiated by the department in pursuance of the order of Central Administrative Tribunal and an amount of Rs.7,57,500/- is sought to be recovered from the petitioner by the impugned order.

21. Learned Counsel for the petitioner further submits that the amount in question, which is directed to be recovered is not an amount and kind of security as per Section 2 of the Public Accountant Default Act, 1850 and the petitioner is neither a Official Assignee or Trustee, or as Sarbarakar, is entrusted with the receipt, custody or control of any moneys or securities for money. The impugned recovery under the Public Accountant Default Act, 1850 is absolutely illegal and the said amount cannot be recovered from the petitioner as an arrears of land revenue.

22. Learned Counsel for the petitioner again submits that before passing of the impugned order no opportunity of any hearing has been afforded to the petitioner.

23. In support of his argument learned Counsel for the petitioner placed reliance upon the division Bench judgement of this Court in the case of Smt. Madhubala Bharti Vs. State of U.P. and others passed in Writ Petition No.40574 of 2001 and Girija Dayal Srivastava Vs. State of U.P. reported in 1987 UPLBEC 1121. The relevant portion of the judgement in the case of Smt. Madhubala Bharti (supra) is quoted as under:-

"The another factor which is to be considered by this Court that whether the recovery of loss caused by a public servant to the government can be recovered as arrears of land revenue. In case of Girja Dayal Srivastava (Supra) the Division Bench of this Court has clearly held that process of recovery arrears of land revenue is an exception to the oral process. The right of recovery as arrears of land revenue must be shown to be permitted by statutory provision including the statutory rules in respect of government servant. In respect of the government servant, loss caused to the government may be recovered from the salary under section 40 of the Civil Services Classification (Appeal) Rules, 1930 as applicable in U.P. But under Public Account Default Act, 1850 it cannot be recovered as arrears of land revenue. In case of Titoo Singh Vs. District Magistrate,(Supra) the provision of Sections 173 A and 21 was being considered and the Division Bench of this Court has held that it cannot be recovered as arrears of land revenue. It can adopt other modes of recovery.

In view of the aforesaid fact, we are satisfied that the recovery cannot be made against the petitioner unless and until a liability to that effect of the loss of government amount is fixed upon the petitioner. "

24. Learned Counsel for the Union of India on the other hand states that the impugned order has rightly been passed but he failed to substantiate the fact as to why fresh disciplinary proceeding has not been initiated as per direction of the Central Administrative Tribunal.

25. After considering the rival submissions made by both side as well as perusing the record of the case, it is apparent that no fresh disciplinary proceeding was initiated as per direction of Central Administrative Tribunal and the petitioner is not a Public Accountant as defined in Section 2 of the Public Accountant Default Act, 1850 and as per Division Bench judgment of this Court in the case of Smt. Madhubala Bharti (supra) the proceeding of recovery cannot be initiated against the petitioner unless and until a liability to that effect of the loss of government amount is fixed upon him and even the Public Accountant Default Act, 1850 (Act No.12 of 1850) has been repealed by the Central Government on 02.09.2019 through a bill called as Repealing and Amending Bill, 2019 as the said Act has become obsolete.

26. In view of the aforesaid, this Court is of the opinion that the recovery cannot be made against the petitioner unless and until a liability to that effect of the loss of government amount is fixed upon the petitioner. Therefore, the impugned order dated 06.05.2011 passed by the respondent no.4, Chief Post Master, Kanpur, District Kanpur Nagar is quashed.

27. The Writ Petition is allowed. No order as to cost.

(2023) 4 ILRA 260
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 16.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SUNEET KUMAR, J.
THE HON'BLE RAJENDRA KUMAR-IV, J.

Writ-A No. 47099 of 2012

Union of India & Ors. ...Petitioners
Versus
Smt. Kamla Pandey & Anr. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
Sri M.K. Sharma, Sri Rajnish Kumar Rai, S.C., Sri Rajesh Tripathi

Counsel for the Respondents:
Sri J.P. Pandey, Sri Pramod Kumar (Saxena), Sri Pramod Kumar Saxena, S.C., Sri Vijay Kumar Singh, Sri Ramesh Narain Pandey

A. Service Law - Railway Service (Pension) Rules, 1993-Section 18 Sub-Rule (3)-pension to casual labour-deceased was a casual labour-his wife approached the Tribunal by filing OA seeking family pension for herself and for her minor son under the pension rules applicable to the employees of the railways-For entitlement of pension minimum 10 years of employment is mandated under the Rules-However the deceased rendered services for less than 10 years-More so, he was not appointed as a temporary railway servant, nor was he regularized on a regular Group D post, accordingly, as per Pension Rules a casual labour is not entitled to pension-The reasoning assigned by the Tribunal is based on wrong assumption that the deceased employee was a 'temporary railway servant', whereas, under the Pension Rules 'casual labour with temporary status', is ineligible and excluded from the definition of 'temporary railway servant'.(Para 1 to 34)

The writ petition is allowed. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

Inder Pal Yadav & ors. Vs U.O.I. & ors.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Suneet Kumar, J.)

1. Heard Sri Rajesh Tripathi, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner-Union of India-Railways and Sri Pramod Kumar (Saxena) assisted by Sri Ramesh Narain Pandey, learned counsel for the respondent.

2. The writ petition is directed against the order dated 22 May 2012, passed by the Central Administrative Tribunal, Allahabad Bench, Allahabad (for short "Tribunal"), in Original Application No. 1144 of 2006 (for short "OA"), whereby, allowing the family pension to the first respondent/original applicant.

3. During pendency of the writ petition, the original applicant died, the legal heirs have been substituted.

4. The original applicant, a widow, of R.R. Pandey, who was employed as casual labour with the Railways from 8 August 1977. He was given temporary status w.e.f. 1 January 1985, vide order dated 25 November 1985. The employee died on 12 July 1988. On the death, the widow/original applicant came to be engaged as fresh casual labour, vide order dated 22 August 1988. In 2012, she approached the Tribunal by filing OA seeking family pension for herself and for her minor son under the pension Rules applicable to the employees of the Railways. The OA was contested by the petitioners/respondents, inter alia, contending that for entitlement of pension minimum 10 years of employment is mandated under the Rules. The husband of the respondent was engaged as a casual labour from 29 August 1979 to 1 September 1980, and thereafter with breaks until his death, according to the petitioner the total length of service rendered by the deceased employee was 8 years 9 months and 9 days. In other words, having rendered less than 10 years of service, family pension was not admissible to the respondent, since the deceased employee was a casual labour.

5. The learned Tribunal relying on Rule 18 of the Railway Service (Pension) Rules, 1993 (for short "Pension Rules') in particular sub-Rule (3) of Rule 18, allowed the OA. The petitioner/respondents were directed to grant family pension to the respondent/original applicant from the date of eligibility and also to pay arrears.

6. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the Pension Rules, in particular Rule 18, would not apply in the case of casual labour, therefore, the respondent/original applicant was not entitled to family pension. It is further submitted that at no point of time the husband of the respondent-original applicant came to be appointed as a temporary railway servant, nor, was he regularized on a regular Group D post, accordingly, as per Pension Rules a casual labour is not entitled to pension.

7. Per contra, the learned counsel appearing for the respondent/original applicant submits that the employee, admittedly, came to be engaged as a casual labour but subsequently, was given temporary status w.e.f. 1 January 1985, after granting age relaxation of 1 year 3 months and 16 days. Accordingly, it is urged that the employee was conferred temporary status/regularized against a Group D post. It is further submitted that it is noted in the impugned judgment of the learned Tribunal that the respondent/original applicant came to be given compassionate appointment on the death of the employee, meaning thereby, that had the employee not been a temporary railway servant or a regular employee, compassionate appointment would not have been given to the respondent.

8. Further, it is submitted that the case of the respondent/original applicant would be governed as per Section (a) non-gazetted staff (1) Temporary Railway Servants Rule 2301 under Chapter XXIII of the Railway Establishment Manual, which was applicable on the date of death of employee i.e. 1988. He further submits that the Rule defining "temporary railway servant' subsequently, came to be amended/modified, as reflected in Chapter XV Volume (1) (revised addition 1989) and in the terms and conditions applicable to railway servants and substitutes in temporary servants non-gazetted staff Rule (1501). It is sought to be urged that the expression "casual labour with temporary status', was subsequently incorporated in the defination in 1989, which was not excluded in the earlier Rule. It is, therefore, submitted that earlier "casual labour' was excluded from the definition of "temporary railway servant', and since the employee was conferred "casual labour with temporary status', prior to 1989, his spouse/widow would be entitled to family pension. In other words, it is sought to be urged that the Rule excluding "casual labour with temporary status', which came to be incorporated in 1989 cannot be given effect retrospectively so as to non-suit the respondent and deprive her family pension.

9. It is urged that the learned Tribunal has not committed any illegality or perversity in granting family pension, the writ petition being devoid of merit is liable to be dismissed.

10. Rival submissions fall for consideration.

11. The sole question that arises for consideration is, as to whether, the respondent/original applicant was eligible and entitled to family pension under the Pension Rules, or in the alternative is "casual labour with temporary status' entitled to pension.

12. Rule 18(1) of Pension Rules provides for pension, inter alia, to temporary railway servant. The Rule reads thus:

Rule-18: Pensionary, terminal or death benefits to temporary railway servant. -

(1) A temporary railway servant who retires on superannuation or on being declared permanently incapacitated for further railway service by the appropriate medical authority after having rendered temporary service not less than ten years shall be eligible for grant of superannuation, invalid pension, retirement gratuity and family pension at the same scale as admissible to permanent railway servant under these rules.

13. On plain reading of rule it provides that a temporary railway servant, who retires on superannuation or being declared permanently incapacitated for further railway service after having rendered temporary service not less than 10 years, shall be eligible for grant of superannuation, retirement gratuity and family pension, as admissible to permanent railway servant. In other words, the rule mandates two conditions for earning family pension: (i) the employee must have been a "temporary railway servant'; (ii) must have rendered service for not less than 10 years.

14. Sub-rule (3) of Rule 18 provides for family pension in the event of death in harness of a temporary railway servant. Sub-rule (3) of Rule 18 is extracted:

In the event of death in harness of a temporary railway servant his family shall be eligible to family pension and death gratuity on the same scale as admissible to families to permanent railway servants under these rules

15. In other words, the rule mandates that in the event of death of a "temporary railway servant', his family shall be eligible for the family pension as admissible to families of permanent railway servant under the Rules. It does not mandate 10 years of service, which is required to be satisfied in respect of temporary railway servant, who retires on attaining the age of superannuation or being declared permanently incapacitated. The Rule does not employ the expression, "casual labour with temporary status'.

16. The entitlement to family pension to the respondent/original applicant is dependent upon the fact that whether the employee was conferred/appointed "temporary railway servant'. It is not being disputed that the employee came to be appointed as a casual labour and on having put in the requisite number of days/ years, mandated in terms of Railway Board Circular dated 1 June 1985, temporary status would be conferred upon the casual labour. The employee was conferred the status of "casual labour with temporary status', w.e.f. 1 January 1985 vide order dated 25 November 1985. The order reads ''..... under noted project casual labour working on this sub-division, having more than 3 years but less than 5 years (1551 days) service including 360 days continuous working days as on 1.1.84 on being declared medically fit in classes as shown against each are are being given temporary status w.e.f. 1.1.84 in grade and scale indicated against each: .....' It appears that the employee was granted age relaxation while conferring upon him status of "casual labour with temporary status'. The employee thereafter died in 1988. Admittedly, on the death of the employee he was not working/engaged as "temporary railway servant'. Rule 18 of Pension Rules was, therefore, not applicable upon him.

17. Under Railway Establishment Manual Rule 2301, a casual labour has been excluded from the definition of temporary railway servant. The rule reads thus:

"Temporary Railway Servant' means a railway servant without a lien on a permanent post on a Railway or any other administration or office under the Railway Board. The term does not include ''casual labour', a ''contract' or ''part time' employee or an ''apprentice'.

18. The question that arises is as to whether "casual labour with temporary status' is entitled to pension/family pension.

19. Subsequently, it appears that the Rule came to be amended/modified being Rule 1501 in the Railway Establishment Manual (revised addition 1989) which is extracted:

"Temporary railway servant' means a railway servant without a lien on a permanent post on a Railway or any other administration or office under the Railway Board. The term does not include ''casual labour', including ''casual labour with temporary status' a ''contract' or ''part-time' employee or an ''apprentice'.

20. The Rule is pari materia with the earlier Rule, except the expression "casual labour with temporary status" was added excluding such category/class of casual labour from the definition of "temporary railway servant'. The modification was incorporated by Railways after the decision rendered by the Supreme Court in Inder Pal Yadav and others vs. Union of India and others. It is thereafter category of "casual labour with temporary status' was created from amongst the casual labour. It would be relevant at this stage to notice the definition of "casual labour'. Rule 2501 is extracted:

Casual labour refers to labour whose employment is seasonal, intermittent, sporadic or extends over short period. Labour of this kind is normally recruited form the nearest available source. It is not liable to transfer, and the conditions applicable to permanent and temporary staff do not apply to such labour.

21. The submission of the learned counsel appearing for the respondent/original applicant is that since the expression "casual labour with temporary status', was not part and parcel of the earlier definition of "temporary railway servant', therefore, the same would not be applicable in the case of respondent as the employee had died in 1988 prior to the amendment. The temporary status was conferred upon the employee prior to the amendment which cannot be read retrospectively to have been excluded in the earlier definition of "temporary railway servant', therefore, it is urged that the respondent/original applicant is entitled to family pension being admissible to her under the Rules on the death of the employee.

22. In our opinion the submission of the learned counsel for the respondent/original applicant is misconceived and based upon misreading of the Rule.

23. The definition of "temporary railway servant' excludes, casual labour, Railways in compliance of the decision of the Supreme Court in Inder Pal Yadav (supra) upgraded the status of casual labour, who had put in a requisite number of days/years of service with the Railways. The category being "casual labour with temporary status', were conferred higher wages in the pay-scale and was also entitled to gratuity. But the ordinary "casual labour', as well as, "casual labour with temporary status', i.e. a class within a class of casual labour continued to be excluded from the definition of "temporary railway servant'. By no stretch of imagination, it can be said that the definition of "temporary railway servant' as defined earlier did not exclude "casual labour with temporary status', therefore, a casual labour with temporary status is entitled to pension. The occasion to exclude "casual labour with temporary status' from the definition of "temporary railway servant' arose after such a class came to be created after the decision in Inder Pal Yadav (supra). Accordingly, Railways, in their wisdom, clarified by amending the definition of "temporary railway servant' to exclude the "casual labour with temporary status'.

24. On reading of the definitions of "temporary railway servant', as it stood earlier and prior to amendment, casual labour, be it ordinary casual labour or with temporary status, are excluded from the definition of "temporary railway servant'. The submission of the learned counsel for the respondent/original applicant that since the authorities had granted age relaxation while conferring the "temporary status' upon the casual employee, it would be deemed that the employee came to be regularized on the establishment of the Railways. Further, on the death of the employee the Railways had given respondent/original applicant compassionate appointment which could not have been given in the case had the deceased employee been of a casual labour. The argument is misconceived and not borne from the material placed on record. Age relaxation while conferring temporary status on a casual labour would not tantamount to regularization as the order nowhere states that the deceased employee came to be conferred status of a "temporary railway servant'.

25. The order dated 25 November 1985, clearly notes that the casual labour working in the sub division and having completed the requisite number of years/days of service or continuous work, as on 1 January 1984, are being given temporary status. The order dated 22 August 1988, relied upon by the respondent while conferring compassionate appointment to the respondent/original applicant reads as follows:

"GM has accorded his approval for the engagement of Smt. Kamla Pandey widow of Late Ram Raj Pandey, Ex. Casual Record Sorter as a fresh Casual Labour under F.A. & C.A.O./CORE/Allahabad."

26. From bare perusal of the order, it is evident that the respondent/original applicant came to be engaged as a casual labour. It is not a compassionate appointment on the regular establishment of the Railways against any post. The status of the respondent/original applicant and her husband was that of a casual labour or casual labour with temporary status.

27. Such casual labour who acquire temporary status, will not, however, be brought on the permanent or regular establishment or treated in regular employment of Railways until and unless they are selected through regular Selection Board for Group D Posts in the manner laid down from time to time.

28. On specific query, it is informed that the respondent/original applicant subsequently came to be regularized on a Group-D Post in 2005 by the Railways. Until then, she worked as a "casual labour with temporary status'.

29. In the backdrop of the facts noted herein above, it is categorically evident that at no stage the deceased employee was engaged or appointed as ''temporary railway servant', nor, was he regularized against the post on the regular establishment by the Railways. In the circumstances, having regard to Rule 18 of Pension Rules, the deceased employee was not entitled to pension being ineligible under the Rules. Accordingly, the respondent/original applicant was not entitled to pension on the death of her husband being ineligible.

30. The learned Tribunal misdirected itself without adverting to the categorical stand taken by the petitioners before the Tribunal that the deceased employee was neither eligible nor entitled to pension. The learned Tribunal committed an error in relying on Section 18 of the Pension Rules to direct grant of family pension merely for the reason that the employee had put in 10 years of temporary service since 1977, further, in the opinion of the Tribunal, as per sub-Rule (3) of Rule 18, in the case of death in harness the mandate of 10 years is not provided under the Rules. The opinion so formed is on misreading of Rule 18 as a whole.

31. Casual labour as per circular shall be eligible to count only half the period of service rendered by them after attaining temporary status on completion of prescribed days of continuous employment and before regular absorption, as qualifying service for the purpose of pensionary benefits. This benefit will be admissible only after their absorption in regular employment.

32. In our opinion, the reasoning assigned by the learned Tribunal is on a wrong premise based on an assumption that the deceased employee was a ''temporary railway servant', whereas, under the Pension Rules ''casual labour with temporary status', is ineligible and excluded from the definition of ''temporary railway servant'.

33. The Supreme Court in General Manager, North West Railway and others vs. Chanda Devi, held that the Railway Rules made a distinction between casual labour having temporary status and temporary railway servant. The Pension Rules under which Railway employees are granted pension do not apply to casual employees conferred with temporary status which merely protects a casual employee's service. In the given facts, the employee, therein, came to expire on 29 December 1988, prior to his death the employee was conferred substitute temporary status, the claim of the widow of the employee for family pension came to be rejected as it was not admissible to substitute employees. Para-32 is extracted:

"What was protected by conferring temporary status upon a casual employee was his service and by reason thereof the pension rules were not made applicable. A workman had not been and could not have been given a status to which he was not entitled to."

34. In the circumstances, the writ petition is allowed. The impugned order dated 22 May 2012, passed by the Central Administrative Tribunal, Allahabad Bench, Allahabad, is hereby set aside and quashed.

(2023) 4 ILRA 267
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 22.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE NEERAJ TIWARI, J.

Writ-A No. 53237 of 2014

Sahajanand Rai ...Petitioner
Versus
Union of India & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Sanjay Kumar Rai, Sri Ashok Khare (Sr. Advocate)

Counsel for the Respondents:
A.S.G.I. Sri C.S. Chaturvedi, S.C. Sri Sanjeev Singh, Ms. Vatsala

A. Civil Law - Bank Clerk-cum-Cashier - Pension - Memorandum of Settlement dated 10.04.2002 - Clause 6(b) of Settlement, 2002 provided that an employee found guilty of gross misconduct may be removed from service with superannuation benefits, i.e., Pension and/or Provident Fund and Gratuity, and without disqualification from future employment - On 27.04.2010, another Memorandum of Settlement, 2010 was arrived at with regard to introducing the Pension Scheme - Under the Settlement, 2010, an option was made available for opting for the Pension Scheme - Later, a circular letter dated 24.08.2010 was issued by the Bank, which provided that employees who have ceased to be in the service of the Bank on account of penalty proceedings are not eligible to opt for joining the pension scheme - Held: once a settlement has been arrived at between the parties on 27.04.2010, which provides pensionary benefits to all categories of employees whose services were ceased, they cannot be deprived by a circular that creates a clause between the employees whose services are ceased for different reasons - any provision contrary to the Settlement, 2010, cannot be inserted by way of a circular, which is against the employees (Para 12).

B. Petitioner was removed from service in terms of Clause 6(b) of the Settlement, 2002, which provides removal from service with superannuation benefits, i.e., Pension and/or Provident Fund and Gratuity - Petitioner submitted his option for the Pension Scheme in terms of the Settlement, 2010, which was denied - Held - In light of Clause 6(b) of the Settlement, 2002, as well as the judgment of the Apex Court in the case of Bank of Baroda, the petitioner is fully entitled to retiral benefits, and the same cannot be taken away by way of a circular, which is in violation of the Settlement, 2010 (Para 14).

Allowed. (E-5)

List of Cases cited:

Bank of Baroda Vs S.K. Kool (Dead) through Legal Representatives & anr.; (2014) 2 SCC 715
2. S.B.I. Vs Golam Jilani M.A.T. -1053 of 2018

(Delivered by Hon'ble Neeraj Tiwari, J.)

1. Heard Sri Ashok Khare, learned Senior Counsel assisted by Sri Sanjay Kumar Rai, learned counsel for petitioner and Ms. Vatsala, learned counsel for respondent Nos. 2 to 5 (respondent-Bank).

2. By way of present petition, petitioner is challenging the orders dated 13.10.2010 and 11.08.2014 passed by Deputy Regional Manager, Bank of India, Regional Office, Varanasi, by which, petitioner has been denied the pension and leave encashment as well as para 3 of circular dated 24.08.2010.

3. Learned Senior Counsel submitted that petitioner was appointed on 13.08.1988 as Clerk-cum-Cashier under the respondent-Bank of India (hereinafter referred to as "Bank') at district Bhadohi, which is a nationalized bank and comes within the purview of Article 12 of Constitution of India. Petitioner was posted at different places and lastly, he was posted at district Jaunpur in October, 2001 where disciplinary proceedings were initiated against him. He was issued departmental charge sheet dated 05.01.2002, upon which, Inquiry Officer has submitted inquiry report dated 11.02.2002. The inquiry report was supplied to the petitioner alongwith show cause notice dated 14.06.2002. Petitioner has submitted reply to the show cause notice and ultimately, vide order dated 19.09.2002 passed by the Chief Manager/Disciplinary Authority, petitioner was punished imposing penalty of removal from service in terms of clause 6(b) of Memorandum of Settlement dated 10.04.2002 (hereinafter referred to as "Settlement, 2002'). Against that order, petitioner has filed an appeal before the Zonal Manager, Varanasi Zone, Varanasi. The appeal so filed by the petitioner was rejected vide order dated 28.03.2003. Aggrieved by the orders dated 19.09.2002 and 28.03.2003, petitioner has filed Writ Petition No. 17841 of 2003 (Sahajanand Rai vs. Bank of India & others) before this Court, which was also dismissed vide order dated 24.01.2007. Against that order, petitioner has filed Special Appeal No. 251 of 2007 (Sahajanand Rai vs. Bank of India & others), which was also dismissed vide order dated 09.12.2009. Lastly, petitioner has filed Special Leave to Appeal (Civil) No. 9596 of 2010, which was dismissed as withdrawn vide order dated 09.04.2010 with liberty to the appellant to approach the High Court by way of a review petition. Subsequent thereto, petitioner has filed review petition seeking review of the Division Bench judgment dated 09.12.2009 passed in Special Appeal No. 251 of 2007. The review petition has been dismissed by a Division Bench of this Court vide order dated 30.07.2010. Against the aforesaid judgment, petitioner has again preferred Special Leave to Appeal (Civil) No. 30627 of 2010, which has also been dismissed vide order dated 15.11.2010. He next submitted that as a consequence of aforesaid litigations, the penalty imposed upon the petitioner by order dated 19.09.2002 has attained finality.

4. He next submitted that vide impugned order, petitioner was removed from service in terms of Clause 6(b) Settlement, 2002, which provides removal from service with superannuation benefits i.e. Pension and/or Provident Fund and Gratuity etc. As petitioner was not paid pension, therefore, he has moved application under Right To Information Act, 2005, which was replied to the petitioner vide communication dated 26.12.2010 that the total amount due to the petitioner under the head of Provident Fund and Gratuity had been adjusted towards loans advanced to the petitioner from the said bank as also from Bank of India Employees Cooperative Credit Society Ltd. He further submitted that on 27.04.2010, a Memorandum of Settlement (hereinafter referred to as "Settlement, 2010') has been arrived between the Indian Banks Association and the Workmen Association with regard to introducing Pension Scheme in the banking industry as a second retiral benefit in lieu of Contributory Provident Fund. Under the Settlement, 2010, an option was made available for opting for the Pension Scheme and it was also available to employees who had ceased to be in service in the concerned bank. Petitioner has submitted his option for opting Pension Scheme in terms of the aforesaid Settlement, which was denied vide impugned order having reference of circular letter dated 24.08.2010 (hereinafter referred to as "Circular') issued by the Bank, which provides that option for Pension Scheme shall not be available to the employees whose services stood ceased as a consequence of the disciplinary proceedings. Impugned order dated 11.08.2014 has also been passed rejecting the application of the petitioner for sanction of pension.

5. He firmly submitted that the Settlement, 2010 made available an option to all members of the Contributory Provident Fund irrespective of their current status of being an employee of the Bank or having ceased to be an employee of the bank. There exists no such clause in the Settlement, 2010, which may preclude the petitioner from exercising his option for pension. Further, Clause 3 of the Circular, which has been relied upon by the respondents in rejecting the application of the petitioner is a clause contrary to the Settlement, 2010, which is having no such provisions. Binding terms of the Settlement, 2010 cannot be subject to any alteration by means of a circular letter issued by the respondent-bank. He next submitted that entitlement for pension/leave encashment under respondent-bank is based upon a qualifying service of 10 years towards credit and petitioner is fulfilling such requirements as he was continuous in service from 13.08.1988 to September, 2002. Petitioner is having no objection for adjustment of amount of Contributory Provident Fund towards loans of the petitioner, as mentioned in the communication of Deputy Regional Manager dated 26.12.2010, but after deduction of same, amount of pension/leave encashment should have been paid to the petitioner. It is next submitted that similar issue was before the Apex Court in the matter of Bank of Baroda vs. S.K. Kool (Dead) through Legal Representatives and another; (2014) 2 SCC 715 (Civil Appeal No. 10956 of 2013) decided on 11.12.2013, in which Apex Court with detail finding has held that in case of penalty of removal from service with superannuation benefits, employee shall be entitled for those benefits arising out of bipartite Settlement. He firmly submitted that no inclusion can be made in bipartite Settlement by a circular and definition of retirement is very well considered in the matter of Bank of Baroda (Supra) which provides that even the employees, who have been terminated along with superannuation benefits in terms of Clause 6(b) of Settlement, 2002, are entitled for pensionary benefits, which includes such employees also who have been awarded penalty.

6. Per contra, Ms. Vatsala has vehemently opposed the submissions of counsel for petitioner, but could not dispute the facts so argued by learned Senior Counsel. She only submitted that similar issue was before Calcutta High Court in the matter of State Bank of India v. Golam Jilani (M.A.T. -1053 of 2018) decided on 18.02.2019. In the said case, after termination under Clause 6(b) of Settlement, 2002, pension was denied and the Court has finally held that after punishment, he has rightly been denied for the pension.

7. I have considered the submissions of counsel for parties and perused the records as well as judgments cited above.

8. It is undisputed that petitioner was awarded punishment of removal from service in terms of Clause 6(b) of Settlement, 2002, against which, petitioner has contested up to the Apex Court, but could not succeed.

Clause 6(b) of Settlement, 2002 is quoted below:-

"6. An employee found guilty of gross misconduct may;

(a).....

(b) be removed from service with superannuation benefits i.e. Pension and /or Provident Fund and Gratuity as would be due otherwise under the Rules or Regulations prevailing at the relevant time and without disqualification from future employment, or"

9. From the perusal of clause 6(b) of the Settlement, 2002, there is no dispute that petitioner was removed from service, but not precluded from superannuation benefits i.e. pension and/or provident fund and gratuity as would be due otherwise under the Rules or Regulations prevailing at the relevant time. Petitioner was also not disqualified for future employment.

10. Later on, another Settlement, 2010 arrived between the Indian Banks' Association and the Banks' workmen's Union regarding introducing pension scheme in the banking industries as second retiral benefits in lieu of contributory funds. The Settlement, 2010 provides for an option for opting the pension scheme and it was available to the employees who had ceased to be in service in employment of the concerned-bank. Relevant paragraph of the Settlement, 2010 is quoted below:-

"4. Employees who ceased to be in service on or after 29th September 1995 in case of Nationalized Banks/26th March 1996 in case of Associate Banks of State Bank of India on account of voluntary retirement under special scheme after rendering service service for a minimum period of 15 years, shall be eligible to exercise an option to join the Pension Scheme subject to the terms and conditions mentioned for retiring employees opting for joining the Scheme."

11. From the perusal of same, it is apparently clear that every employee, for any reason, ceased to be in service on or after 29th September 1995 in case of Nationalized Banks/26th March 1996 in case of Associate Banks of State Bank of India, shall be eligible to opt the scheme. Later on, Circular has been issued depriving such employees to take pensionary benefits on account of resignation/voluntarily retirement under Officers Service Regulation 19/incapacitation/on medical grounds/any other type of cessation on account of penalty proceedings are not eligible to opt for joining the pension scheme. Relevant paragraph of Circular is quoted below:-

"3. It also may be noted that the employees who have ceased to be in the service of Bank account of Resignation/Voluntarily retired under Officers Service Regulation 19/incapacitation/on medical grounds/any other type of cessation on account of penalty proceedings are not eligible to opt for joining the pension scheme. Also existing Pension optees cannot revoke their option from pension to CPF."

12. The contention of counsel for petitioner is correct for the reasons that once a settlement has arrived between the parties on 27.04.2010 which provides pensionary benefits to all category of employees whose services were ceased, they cannot be deprived by a circular which creates a clause between the employees whose services are ceased for different reasons. In fact, once Settlement, 2010 arrived between the parties, any provision contrary to that cannot be inserted by the way of Circular which is against the employees. The very same issue was subject matter of Apex Court in the matter of Bank of Baroda (Supra) in which, Apex Court has taken specific view that employees, who have been removed from service in terms of Clause 6(b) of Settlement, 2002, shall be entitled for superannuation benefits. Relevant paragraph Nos. 14, 15 & 16 of the judgment are quoted below:-

"14. The Regulation does not entitle every employee to pensionary benefits. Its application and eligibility is provided under Chapter II of the Regulation whereas Chapter IV deals with qualifying service. An employee who has rendered a minimum of ten years of service and fulfils other conditions only can qualify for pension in terms of Article 14 of the Regulation. Therefore, the expression "as would be due otherwise" would mean only such employees who are eligible and have put in minimum number of years of service to qualify for pension. However, such of the employees who are not eligible and have not put in required number of years of qualifying service shall not be entitled to the superannuation benefit though removed from service in terms of clause 6(b) of the Bipartite Settlement. Clause 6(b) came to be inserted as one of the punishments on account of the Bipartite Settlement. It provides for payment of superannuation benefits as would be due otherwise.

15. The Bipartite Settlement tends to provide a punishment which gives superannuation benefits otherwise due. The construction canvassed by the employer shall give nothing to the employees in any event. Will it not be a fraud Bipartite Settlement? Obviously it would be. From the conspectus of what we have observed we have no doubt that such of the employees who are otherwise eligible for superannuation benefit are removed from service in terms of clause 6(b) of the Bipartite Settlement shall be entitled to superannuation benefits. This is the only construction which would harmonise the two provisions. It is well settled rule of construction that in case of apparent conflict between the two provisions, they should be so interpreted that the effect is given to both. Hence, we are of the opinion that such of the employees who are otherwise entitled to superannuation benefits under the Regulation if visited with the penalty of removal from service with superannuation benefits shall be entitled for those benefits and such of the employees though visited with the same penalty but are not eligible for superannuation benefits under the Regulation shall not be entitled to that.

16. Accordingly, we hold that the employee's heirs are entitled to superannuation benefits. The entire amount that the respondent is found entitled to along with interest at the rate of 6% per annum should be disbursed within 6 weeks from the date of receipt/communication of this Order."

13. Learned counsel for respondents have also placed reliance upon the judgment of Calcutta High Court in the matter of State Bank of India (Supra). The said case was about interpretation of Rule 14 of State Bank of India Employees Pension Fund Rules, 1955. In that case, petitioner was not entitled under the provisions of Rule 14 of Rules, 1955 to get pensionary benefits as he was not fulfilling the requirement of Rule, 14. Further, in that case, minimum requirement for grant of pension was 20 years of qualifying service whereas in the present case, minimum requirement of qualifying service for pension as well as leave encashment is 10 years. It is the case of petitioner that he is having qualifying service of 10 years, which was not denied in the counter affidavit. Learned counsel for respondent-Bank has also not produced any Rules which prohibits for payment of pension and other retiral benefits as in the case of State Bank of India (Supra).

14. In the light of Clause 6(b) of Settlement, 2002 as well as judgment of Apex Court passed in Bank of Baroda (Supra), petitioner is fully entitled for retiral benefits and the same cannot be taken away by the way of Circular, which is in violation of Settlement, 2010.

15. Therefore, under such facts of the case as well as law laid down by the Apex Court, let a writ of certiorari is issued quashing paragraph-3 of Circular dated 24.08.2010 as well as impugned orders dated 13.10.2010 & 11.08.2014.

16. Accordingly, writ petition is allowed.

17. No order as to costs.

18. Respondents-authorities are directed to pay all retiral benefits including pension/leave encashment provided petitioner fulfils all other requirements required under the Rules of Bank.

19. Liberty is given to the Bank to adjust the amount of loan advanced to the petitioner from the Bank and also from Bank of India Employees Cooperative Credit Society Ltd., if already not adjusted.

(2023) 4 ILRA 272
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 03.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE J.J. MUNIR, J.

Writ-B No. 14278 of 1986

Smt. Dhanraji & Ors. ...Petitioners
Versus
Dy. Director of Consolidation, Varanasi & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
Sri Shashi Kumar Dwivedi, Sri Hanuman Kinkar, Sri V.K.S. Chaudhary, Sri R.S. Maurya, Sri Manoj Kumar Singh

Counsel for the Respondents:
Sri Triveni Shanker, Sri Awadhesh Kumar, Sri R.K. Pandey, Sri S. Rai, Sri A.R. Dubey, Sri L.P. Singh, Sri Manish Pandey

Civil Law-Constitution of India, 1950-Article 226-Uttar Pradesh Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953-Sections 5(c) (ii) & 12- Writ petition against the orders rejecting the petitioners' claim for mutation- Absolutely no requirement of a previous written permission from the Settlement Officer of Consolidation in transferring the entire holding by a bhumidhar during time that a consolidation scheme is in force- Authorities below have committed a manifest error of law in holding the sale deed to be void for violation of Section 5(c)(ii)- It is not this Court's province to re appreciate evidence but to ensure that the Authorities of fact below do not omit relevant evidence by basing their findings on stray St.ments here and there.(Para 46, 47, 50)

Evidence Act, 1872-Sections 107 & 108-Section 107 raises a presumption that a person is alive if it is shown that he/ she was alive within thirty years, and the burden of proving that he/ she is dead is on the person who asserts the fact- Section 108 is in the nature of a proviso to Section 107, though an independent Section, it opens with words 'Provided that when". Harmoniously construed, Sections 107 and 108 form an integral scheme on the question, who in the normal course of events is to be presumed alive and who can be presumed dead- A presumption of civil death under Section 108 cannot be drawn merely because some persons of acquaintance have not heard of the missing person in the span of seven years last Impugned orders quashed-Matter remitted to The Consolidation Officer. (Para 55, 57, 74)

Petition Allowed. (E-15)

List of Cases cited:

1. E. Mahboob Saheb Vs N. Sabbarayan Chowdhary & ors., (1982) 1 SCC 180

2. Narayanan Rajendran & anr. Vs Lekshmy Sarojini & ors., (2009) 5 SCC 264

3. Kondiba Dagadu Kadam Vs Savitribai Sopan Gujar & ors., (1999) 3 SCC 722

4. Smt. Ram Rati & ors. Vs Gram Samaj, Jehwa and Ors., AIR 1974 All 106

5. Foran Singh & ors. Vs Deputy Director of Consolidation & ors., 1993 (1) AWC 192

6. East Punjab Province Vs Bachan Singh & ors., AIR 1957 Punj 316

7. LIC of India Vs Anuradha (2004) 10 SCC 131

8. Fani Bhusan Banerjee Vs Surja Kant Roy Chowdhury & anr., 1907 SCC OnLine Cal 20 : (1906- 07) 11 CWN 883

9. Jeshankar Revashankar Vs Bai Divali, AIR 1920 Bom 85 (2)

10. Muhammad Sharif & anr. Vs Bande Ali & ors., (1911) 8 ALJ 1052

11. Narayana Pillai Vs Velayuthan Pillai, AIR 1963 Mad 385

12. Saroop Singh Vs Banto & ors., (2005) 8 SCC 330

(Delivered by Hon'ble J.J. Munir, J.)

1. The petitioners, who are eight in number, impugn the validity of the orders dated 05.06.1986, 05.09.1985 and 02.11.1979 passed by the Deputy Director of Consolidation, Varanasi, Camp Gyanpur, the Assistant Settlement Officer of Consolidation, Varanasi (West) and the Consolidation Officer, Gyanpur, District Varanasi (now Bhadohi), respectively, rejecting the petitioners' claim for mutation of their rights over land, which shall be hereinafter morefully described.

2. The facts giving rise to this petition are required to be noticed about their salient features, which are these:

One Balraji, widow of Chandra Shekhar, was the recorded tenure holder of the following plot numbers, which are shown below in tabular form indicating the old numbers and the new:

Old Number	New Number	Chak Number
292, 293/1, 293/2, 345, 346, 347, 348/1, 349, 363, 364, 521, 1161/347, 1162/346	366	68
196, 197, 198, 199, 200, 201, 202, 203	331
457, 475, 476, 479, 480 (mi.), 481	306अ
482/1, 482/2, 483, 484, 485, 488/1, 569, 570, 571, 572, 573/2, 474, 475,	306ब

481 (mi.)

3. Apart from the land, above mentioned, that was agricultural and, therefore, consolidated into a chak in Smt. Balraji's name, bearing Chak No.68, Smt. Balraji also owned certain plot numbers that did not qualify as land under the Act of 1953 and were, therefore, excluded from the consolidation scheme. Plots of land, that were not included as part of Chak No.68, belonging to Balraji, are shown below, also in tabular form:

Land excluded fron consolidation operations
Old Number	New Number
102	799
167ङ	899
150ङ	847
156ग	879
212क	53(min.)
218ई.	66(min.)
378ख	382

4. The dispute is with regard to land recorded in the basic year in the name of Smt. Balraji, comprising Chak No.68. It is the petitioners' case that the land in dispute was sold in favour of petitioner Nos.1 to 7 by petitioner No.8, Smt. Balraji vide registered sale deed dated 29.05.1974. Later on, a deed of rectification dated 12.07.1974 was excuted by Smt. Balraji, inasmuch as in the sale deed dated 29.05.1974, one of the plots transferred in favour of petitioner Nos.1 to 7 was mentioned as Plot No.161/347, admeasuring 2 biswa 17 dhoor by an inadvertent clerical error, whereas the correct number of the plot sold was 1161/347 for the same area.

5. It is the petitioners' further case that by time the sale deed dated 29.05.1974 came to be executed, the chak carved out had been confirmed and the tenure holders delivered possession over their respective chak. Through the sale deed dated 29.05.1974, therefore, the entire area of Chak No.68 was transferred by Balraji to petitioner Nos.1 to 7. In addition, the sale deed also transferred certain other plots of land, that were outside the consolidation scheme. The old plot numbers no longer remained in existence and Chak No.68 had become identifiable in terms of the four new numbers as renumbered during the consolidation operations. Therefore, it is the petitioners' case that a typographical error in the mention of one of the plots, comprising the chak with reference to its old number would not affect the identity of the property transferred through the sale deed dated 29.05.1974 (for short, 'the sale deed').

6. It is also the petitioners' case that though in the basic year Smt. Balraji was recorded over a large tract of land, one Smt. Devraji, a half sister of Balraji's deceased husband, Chandra Shekhar and another Ram Jag, an uncle of the late Chandra Shekhar, filed objections during the consolidation operations much before the sale deed was executed, claiming a share in Chandra Shekhar's land, that had come to be recorded in Balraji's name. The said objections were compromised and Smt. Devraji given a share in the holding inherited by Smt. Balraji from Chandra Shekhar. It is the petitioners' case that nobody else filed objections under Section 9-A of the Act of 1953.

7. At the end of the consolidation, Chak No.68 was carved out in the name of Smt. Balraji out of land comprising plots, which were already recorded in Balraji's name. The petitioners' Chak No.68 largely comprised of land that was held as bhumidhari and some of it comprised sirdari holding also. The sale deed under reference, apart from transferring all that comprised Chak No.68, also conveyed Balraji's land, that was excluded from consolidation operation, and shown as excluded plots, detailed in the sale deed. The dispute in this petition is with regard to land comprising Chak No.68, which shall hereinafter be referred to as 'the land in dispute'.

8. It is also the petitioners' case that petitioner Nos.1 to 6 are members of one family, whereas petitioner No.7, Rudra Prasad son of Khilodhar Pandey is Balraji's brother. All of them having acquired interest in the land in dispute through the sale deed executed by Smt. Balraji, filed an application under Section 12 of the Act of 1953, seeking mutation of their name on the basis of the sale deed. The application for mutation was filed before the Consolidation Authorities under Section 12 of the Act last mentioned, because at the relevant time, consolidation operations in the Village had still not been denotified. The petitioners' application under Section 12 was registered as Case No.611.

9. It is the petitioners' case that proclamation was issued, but no objections filed. At the hearing of the application, Smt. Balraji, petitioner No.8, gave testimony before the Assistant Consolidation Officer supporting transfer of title in favour of petitioner Nos.1 to 7 through the sale deed that she had executed. The Assistant Consolidation Officer allowed the application by his order dated 16.07.1974. The order of mutation was carried out in the consolidation records on 07.08.1974.

10. It appears that one Kamla Shankar, who was the Village Pradhan, filed an appeal on 12.09.1974 against the order dated 16.07.1974 passed by the Assistant Consolidation Officer, granting the mutation application made by petitioner Nos.1 to 7. No appeal was carried by any other person aggrieved. The Assistant Settlement Officer of Consolidation allowed the appeal vide his order dated 12.09.1974 and remanded the case to the Consolidation Officer for decision afresh. The petitioners appeared before the Consolidation Officer, but they say that the case was adjourned at the instance of Kamla Shankar, the Village Pradhan, who was inimically disposed towards them.

11. On 24.11.1975 another set of objections were filed by Asharam under Section 12 of the Act of 1953 claiming bhumidhari rights on the basis of some kind of an agreement to sell between him and Smt. Balraji. In the alternate, Asharam claimed sirdari rights to the land in dispute on the basis of possession. It must be remarked here that in the objections filed by Asharam, a copy of which is annexed as Annexure No.4 to the writ petition, there is no case of an heirship pleaded by him, entitling him to inherit the land in dispute from Balraji upon the latter's demise intestate. Though, Asharam has said that Balraji was issueless and an aunt of his, it is not indicated by any precise description of relationship through bloodline or marriage, how Asharam was an heir of Balraji's, entitling him to inherit the land in dispute. There is no pedigree also propounded by Asharam in his objections/ application under Section 12 filed before the Consolidation Officer, connecting him to Balraji as an heir. All that Asharam says in his objection is that about 7 or 8 years ago, Smt. Balraji expressed her wish to go on a pilgrimage. Asharam thereupon paid her a sum of Rs.5000/- in order to enable her to perform the pilgrimage. Smt. Balraji in lieu of aforesaid money that she received, put Asharam in ownership possession of the land in dispute and said that once back from pilgrimage, she would execute a sale deed in Asharam's favour, after receiving a further consideration of Rs.10,000/-. The objections proceed that Smt. Balraji never returned from her pilgrimage to Village Duhia.

12. It is also pleaded in the application/ objections filed by Asharam that he had come to know that some persons had set up an imposter for Balraji and got a forged sale deed executed on her behalf relating to the land in dispute (in order to cause wrongful loss to Asharam). The further objection is that Asharam is in possession of the land in dispute and no one else has any right, title or interest therein.

13. In substance, as already remarked, the application for mutation or objection to the petitioners' claim for mutation on behalf of Asharam, is based on a right arising from an oral agreement of sorts between Balraji and Asharam, and in the alternate, upon possession of the land in dispute being given to the latter, entitling him to sirdari rights under the U.P. Z.A. & L.R. Act.

14. Apart from the objections/ application moved by Asharam, objections were also filed on behalf of the Gaon Sabha by the Pradhan, Kamla Shankar, saying that Balraji went to pilgrimage 10 years ago and has not returned till date nor has she been heard of. It was also the Gaon Sabha's case that she has no heir entitled to inherit, and, therefore, her land would vest in the Gaon Sabha. The Gaon Sabha, therefore, prayed that after expunging Smt. Balraji's name from the revenue records, the said land be recorded in the Gaon Sabha's Khata.

15. On the pleaded case of parties, the Consolidation Officer framed the following issues (translated into English from Hindi):

"1. Whether Dhan Raji and others, on the basis of the sale deed executed by Mst. Balraji, are bhumidhars in possession of the land in dispute?

2. Whether Smt. Balraji went to pilgrimage and until the present time has not returned; and, she has not executed the sale deed? If yes, its effect?

3. Whether the sale deed in favour of Dhan Raji and others is valid?

4. Whether Mst. Balraji has died issueless and the land is vested in the Gram Sabha?

5. Whether the objections filed by the Gram Sabha are valid?

6. Whether Asharam is bhumidhar in possession over the land in dispute in accordance with his objections?"

16. The Consolidation Officer has dealt with Issues Nos.1, 2 and 3 together. The Consolidation Officer has remarked that the sale deed has been executed in favour of seven persons by Smt. Balraji or the woman claimed to be her, and all these persons are residents of different districts, to wit, Varanasi, Mirzapur and Jaunpur. In her testimony, Balraji, who has appeared, has said that she does not know the vendees and that she has not executed any sale deed in their favour. It has also been remarked that none of the vendees has been produced as a witness. It is then observed by the Consolidation Officer that the sale deed shows payment of a sale consideration of Rs.35,808/-, out of which Rs.17,200/- are shown to be paid to some creditor on a pronote, but no pronote or receipt has been produced. Rs.3700/- are said to have been paid earlier, but no witness about this transaction has been produced. It is then remarked that witness, Surendra Nath has identified his signatures on the sale deed, but has not identified Smt. Balraji's thumb mark.

17. It is then noticed by the Consolidation Officer that Smt. Balraji, who has been produced, has been called an imposter by Asharam and not the real Balraji. Smt. Balraji, who has testified, has said that her eyesight is weak, and has further said that two years ago when she executed the sale deed, her eyesight was weak at the time. Balraji has been noted to have said in her testimony that no permission for execution of the sale deed had been secured by her. She has said that she came once to the Registrar's office. Coming once to the Registrar's office has been frowned upon by the Consolidation Officer, because there is also a deed of rectification said to be executed by Smt. Balraji.

18. The Consolidation Officer has picked up disjunct pieces of evidence from the testimony of Balraji's father, Khilodhar to say that Khilodhar has stated that Balraji's brother did not attend the Registrar's office on the date the sale deed was executed, whereas Balraji says that all the seven vendees were present in the Registrar's office when the deed was executed and registered. It has also been noticed that Balraji says that she had received Rs.35,000-36,000/- before the Registrar and had affixed her thumb mark twice.

19. It is also noticed that Balraji has testified that she had spoken to the vendees about the proposed sale, but has said at the same time that she had not executed the sale deed in favour of Visheshwar Barhai's son or in favour of Kaluram Barhai. She has also said that she does not know Jai Shankar or Vinod Kumar (petitioner Nos.4 and 5) and had not executed any sale deed in their favour. From these facts, the Consolidation Officer has opined that the sale deed is not one executed by Balraji.

20. About a certain witness, Rama Shankar, the Consolidation Officer has observed that though this witness is one, who has identified Smt. Balraji, but Smt. Balraji has testified that she does not know him, nor has the said witness witnessed the sale deed. It is then observed that Khilodhar in his testimony has testified that he is Balraji's father and further said that he did not know that Balraji, who had executed a sale deed in favour of Dhan Raji and others, was the same person, who had executed a sale deed in his son Rudra Prasad's favour. He has also said that on the date of execution of the sale deed, he was accompanying Balraji. It is then remarked by the Consolidation Officer that there is no reason why he has not identified Balraji. It is observed that this gives rise to suspicion about the petitioners' case.

21. There is a reference to the testimony of the petitioners' witness, Doodhnath, who has said that on the date of the sale deed, the petitioners were in possession. The witness has further been noticed to have said that none of the vendees was present, whereas Balraji has said that on the date of execution of the sale deed, all the vendees were present in the Registrar's office. It is remarked by the Consolidation Officer that there is no sale deed executed in favour of Doodhnath and, therefore, there is no question of possession being delivered to him. His testimony has been discarded as untrustworthy. It is remarked that no evidence has been led on behalf of Smt. Dhan Raji and others (the petitioners), which may prove that they are in possession of the land in dispute. It is also observed that some of the plots comprising the land in dispute were held as sirdari by Smt. Balraji, about which it is said that she paid 20 times the land revenue on the date she executed the sale deed, but no bhumidhari sanad has been placed on record. On the basis of the aforesaid findings, it is concluded that the sale deed executed by Smt. Balraji is not valid.

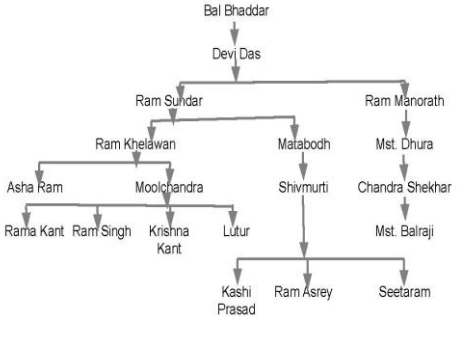
22. The Consolidation Officer then proceeded to observe that on behalf of Asharam, Jagdamba, Sabhajeet, Girdhari Yadav and Mahendra Nath, the Panchayat Secretary, Village Duhia have testified. They have produced the Family Register relating to the Village and in the said register, Balraji's name is not entered. The Consolidation Officer has drawn an inference that the absence of Balraji's name in the Family Register of the Village shows for the 10 years past, she did not live in Village Duhia. It is then noticed that Jagdamba Prasad, Vijay Nath and Sabhajeet in their testimony have said that Smt. Balraji had proceeded on pilgrimage, but never returned. It is held by the Consolidation Officer that there is no reason to disbelieve the testimony of these witnesses. There is then an abrupt remark by the Consolidation Officer that from these facts, it is proved that Smt. Balraji is missing (laapata) for more than seven years and her civil death has to be presumed. On 29.07.1974, the presence of Balraji is not established. The said fact has also been acknowledged by Kamla Shankar, Pradhan that Smt. Balraji had proceeded on a pilgrimage and her whereabouts are not known since. The conclusion reached by the Consolidation Officer from these facts is that Smt. Balraji was not alive on 29.05.1974, and, therefore, could not have executed the sale deed in favour of Dhan Raji. Smt. Dhan Raji does not, therefore, derive any title under the sale deed. It is in this manner that Issues Nos.1, 2 and 3 were answered by the Consolidation Officer.

23. Issues Nos.4 and 6 were dealt with together by the Consolidation Officer with the opening remark that the two issues being inter-related, were being answered at once. It is noticed by the Consolidation Officer that Kamla Shankar, the Village Pradhan, Village Duhia has said that Smt. Balraji had proceeded on a pilgrimage 10 years ago and her whereabouts are not known since. As such, her civil death has to be presumed. It is further noticed that the Village Pradhan has said that Smt. Balraji has left no heir. Therefore, according to the Pradhan, the land in dispute would vest in the Gaon Sabha. The Consolidation Officer has noticed on the other hand, that Asharam, respondent No.4 here, has claimed himself to be Balraji's lawful heir, entitled to inherit the land in dispute. In his objections, he has propounded a pedigree, that has been set out by the Consolidation Officer in his findings on Issues Nos.4 and 6. The said pedigree is to the following effect:



24. It has then been observed that Asharam saying that Chandra Shekhar pre-deceased his father, Ram Manorath and further that at the time of Ram Manorath's demise, his brother, Ram Sundar was alive, the pedigree propounded being proved by Jagdamba Prasad, a native of Village Duhia as well as by Kamla Shankar, the Pradhan, there is no reason to disbelieve the pedigree. It is also observed that Sabhajeet and Girdhari Yadav, witnesses for respondent No.4, Asharam, have said that Asharam is in possession of the land in dispute and further that Smt. Balraji is Asharam's aunt (Chachi). This assertion has also been read in aid of believing the pedigree. It is then held on the basis of the pedigree that by virtue of Section 171 of the U.P. Z.A. & L.R. Act, Asharam would be Smt. Balraji's heir, entitled to inherit. The Gaon Sabha's claim based on escheat and that of the petitioners founded on the sale deed, has been discarded by the Consolidation Officer. At the same time, the claim of Asharam, respondent No.4, based on heirship founded on the pedigree, entitling him to inherit the land in dispute, presuming a civil death for Balraji, has been accepted by the Consolidation Officer. He has, therefore, ordered that name of Balraji be expunged from the land in dispute and that of Asharam, respondent No.4, be recorded in her stead as her heir. The objections of the Gaon Sabha and those of petitioners Nos.1 to 7 were ordered to be rejected.

25. The order passed by the Consolidation Officer was questioned by petitioner Nos.1 to 6 by means of Appeal No.319, under Section 11(1) of the Act of 1953. Another appeal was preferred by Gaon Sabha from the same order, which was numbered as Appeal No.329.

26. The petitioners filed an application for additional evidence at the stage of appeal, seeking to bring on record the following documents:

(i) A copy of the Patwari's report in connection with deaths and mutations relating to Village Duhia for the year 1288 Fasli;

(ii) A copy of the Dakhal Dehani in Case No.12 of Village Duhia, decided on 12.06.1901; and,

(iii) A certificate dated 05.08.1985 issued by the Union Bank of India, Branch Koirauna, certifying that there was a deposit of Rs.15,000/- in the name of Smt. Balraji, the certificate being one dated 28.01.1981.

27. The first of the two documents were produced in additional evidence to show that the name of Ram Sundar's father was not Devi Das, but Jai Mangal, a fact incorrectly testified to on behalf of the respondents; also, incorrectly introduced through a pedigree, that was mentioned in the testimony on behalf of Asharam. The certificate from the Bank was produced to show that the money held in deposit in Smt. Balraji's account by the Bank were proceeds of the sale that she had received after paying off her creditor. These documents if considered could prove many other things regarding the petitioners' case. The Assistant Settlement Officer of Consolidation, who heard the two appeals, treating Appeal No.319 by the petitioners as the leading case, proceeded to dismiss both by his order dated 05.09.1985, affirming the Consolidation Officer. Amongst many others, the petitioners make a grievance that the documents that were produced and admitted in additional evidence by the Assistant Settlement Officer of Consolidation were not at all considered by him while rendering judgment in the appeal.

28. The petitioners and the Gaon Sabha, both preferred revisions from the orders of the Consolidation Officer and the Assistant Settlement Officer of Consolidation under Section 48(1) of the Act of 1953. The petitioners' revision was numbered as Revision No.795/874, whereas that of the Gaon Sabha as Revision No.892. Here, again the petitioners' revision was heard by the Deputy Director of Consolidation as the leading case and decided by means of a common judgment and order dated 05.06.1986. The Deputy Director of Consolidation dismissed both the revisions, affirming the Authorities below.

29. Aggrieved, this writ petition has been preferred.

30. Pending the writ petition, the first petitioner, Smt. Dhan Raji has passed away and was represented on record by her sons, Chandu Lal and Dudhnath, petitioner Nos.1/1 and 1/2, respectively. Further on, during the long pendency of the writ petition, Dudhnath also passed away and is represented on record by his seven sons, Anoop, Raj Kumar, Prem Kumar Chaurasiya, Vijay Chaurasiya, Ashish Kumar, Ravi Shankar Chaurasiya and Nand Kumar Chaurasiya, petitioner Nos.1/2/1, 1/2/2, 1/2/3, 1/2/4, 1/2/5, 1/2/6 and 1/2/7, respectively. The fourth respondent, Asharam also passed away pending the writ petition and his heirs too were brought on record, to wit, Karta Ram Shukla and Ram Abhilash Shukla, both sons of Asharam. Ram Abhilash Shukla also passed away meanwhile and, therefore, Ram Abhilash's interest and ultimately that of Asharam was represented by the latter's sons, Jai Prakash Shukla, Sada Nand Shukla, Shailesh Shukla, Rajesh Kumar Shukla and Pawan Kumar Shukla. Karta Ram Shukla has been substituted as respondent Nos.4/1, whereas the late Ram Abhilash Shukla is shown in the array as deceased respondent Nos.4/2, represented by his five heirs and LRs, numbered as respondent Nos.4/2/1 to 4/2/5.

31. Heard Mr. Shashi Kumar Dwivedi, learned Counsel appearing for petitioner Nos. 1/1, 1/2/1, 1/2/2, 1/2/3, 1/2/4, 1/2/5, 1/2/6, 1/2/7, 2, 3 and 5, Mr. Hanuman Kinkar, learned Counsel appearing on behalf of petitioner No.4 and Mr. Triveni Shanker, Advocate along with Mr. Awadesh Kumar and Mr. R.K. Pandey, learned Counsel appearing on behalf of respondent nos. 4/1, 4/2/1, 4/2/2, 4/2/3, 4/2/4 and 4/2/5.

32. It is argued by Mr. Shashi Kumar Dwivedi and Mr. Hanuman Kinkar, learned Counsel appearing for the petitioners that Asharam in his objections under Section 12 never came up with a case of inheritance as an heir of Balraji's. It was after the petitioners' evidence had closed in support of their case based on the sale deed that Asharam in his evidence in support of a case that was never about heirship, propounded a pedigree for the first time and laid claim on its basis. It is urged that the Consolidation Officer committed a manifest error in holding Asharam to be Balraji's heir while Smt. Balraji was alive and testified before the Consolidation Officer. It is also argued that the finding of the Consolidation Officer that Balraji was an imposter is perverse, because there is overwhelming testimony on record by Balraji's father, whose identity has not been doubted, identifying Balraji as his daughter, testifying in Court.

33. It is urged on behalf of the petitioners that the sale deed has not been cancelled till date by a Court of competent jurisdiction and no one has challenged the deed of rectification. It is, particularly, argued that the Consolidation Authorities have concurrently erred in holding it to be a case of transfer of a part of the holding by Smt. Balraji, attracting the consequences under Section 5(c)(ii) of the Act of 1953 as the transfer embodied in the sale deed was one made without permission from the Settlement Officer of Consolidation. It is argued that the deed of rectification is not about a plot that was left out in the sale deed, but about the incorrect mention of a plot number, going by the old numbering. The sale deed conveyed the whole of Chak No.68, which would include every part and all plots therein, including the one that was rectified from one mentioned as Plot Nos.161/347 to 1161/347, both of which bear reference to the same plot with an identical area of 2 biswa 17 dhur. According to the learned Counsel, there is, thus, no case of part transfer of the holding so as to render the sale deed executed by Smt. Balraji, admittedly without permission from the Settlement Officer, void under Section 5(c)(ii) of the Act of 1953.

34. It is also argued that the Authorities below have perversely concluded that Smt. Balraji, who appeared before the Consolidation Officer was an imposter, inasmuch as she was identified, amongst other witnesses by Khilodhar, her father and Rudra Prasad, her brother, both of whom testified in support of the petitioners' case. Their identity was not doubted.

35. It is also submitted that the Deputy Director of Consolidation has incorrectly remarked that Balraji had not affixed her thumb impression on all pages of the sale deed, which runs into a number of seven. It is submitted that Balraji's testimony has been perversely read by the Authorities below to conclude that she affixed her thumb impression on two pages alone, whereas what Balraji said in her evidence was that she twice thumb marked the sale deed. The only inference from Balraji's testimony is that she once thumb marked the document at the time of execution, and a second time, before the Sub-Registrar, when it was registered. It is urged that every page of the sale deed is thumb marked.

36. It is also argued that Surendra Nath Srivastava, who is the Scribe of the sale deed as well as the deed of rectification, was examined on behalf of the petitioners as PW-1. The witness has said that he knew the parties well before hand and testified to the fact that the deed was executed by Balraji. It is also argued that the presumption about Balraji's death has been wrongly drawn, because she was admitted to be alive within 30 years and no one had seen her die. There is absolutely no evidence of her reputed or acknowledged death, and the presumption about the death of a person, who has not been heard of for seven years would only arise, if it is proved that he/ she has not been heard of for the period of seven years by those who would have naturally heard of him/ her, if alive. It is argued that Balraji's father and brother, who have testified, are persons, who would have naturally heard of her and they have said that Balraji, who was before the Court, was the same person. There is evidence of witnesses that Balraji was staying with her father at Gopalpur. Asharam or his witnesses in Village Duhia are not men, who would naturally hear of Balraji, if she was staying with her father at Gopalpur. The submission of the learned Counsel for the petitioners is that no presumption about Balraji's death under the circumstances can arise. Rather, there is a presumption of her being alive in view of Section 107 of the Evidence Act. It is argued that all the Authorities below have committed a manifest error in raising a presumption about Balraji's death and then accepting it. The findings on the state of evidence, according to the learned Counsel for the petitioners, is perverse.

37. The learned Counsel for respondent No.4, Mr. Triveni Shanker has argued that the Consolidation Officer has recorded findings to the effect that the sale deed was not in respect of the entire holding owned by Balraji and, therefore, void under Section 5(c)(ii) of the Act of 1953. It is pointed out that the sale deed is void, because admittedly no permission was secured from the Settlement Officer of Consolidation to transfer a part of the holding. It is further argued that the Consolidation Officer has held that the woman, who appeared before the Consolidation Officer, was not Balraji, but an imposter. It was observed by the Consolidation Officer that the woman, who appeared for Balraji, stated that she had not executed the sale deed in the petitioners' favour nor were the petitioners known to her. The further finding, according to the learned Counsel for respondent No.4 recorded by the Consolidation Officer, is that payment of sale consideration was not proved. Also, Surendra Nath could not prove Smt. Balraji's thumb impression, supporting the inference that the Balraji produced to prove the sale deed, was indeed an imposter. The most crucial finding that has been emphasized by the learned Counsel for respondent No.4 is that the Consolidation Officer, the Assistant Settlement Officer of Consolidation and the Deputy Director of Consolidation have unanimously held the sale deed relied upon by the petitioners to be one not executed by Balraji.

38. It is also pointed out that the Consolidation Officer has observed that Ram Chandra, who was the sole attesting witness of the sale deed and the one who had identified Smt. Balraji at the time of execution of the said deed, was not identified by Balraji before the Consolidation Officer. Balraji, who was produced before the Consolidation Officer, stated that she did not know Ram Chandra. There is much contradiction, according to the Consolidation Officer, between the statements of witnesses, who appeared for the petitioners regarding the execution of the sale deed. It is also a finding recorded by the Consolidation Officer that no reliable evidence was produced by Smt. Dhan Raji and others, to wit, the petitioners to prove that they were in possession of the land in dispute. No bhumidhari certificate was obtained for the plots that were sirdari. As such, the sale deed was void. Much emphasis has been laid on the fact that Balraji was unheard of for more than seven years, and, therefore, her civil death has to be presumed.

39. The Consolidation Officer has recorded the fact that in the Family Register of the Gaon Sabha Duhia since Balraji's name was not there, it has to be inferred that Smt. Balraji was not present on 29.05.1974 in the village. It is most importantly emphasized by the learned Counsel for respondent No.4 that the Consolidation Officer has recorded a finding that the person, who appeared in the witness-box impostering as Balraji, stated that she did not know any of the purchasers nor had she executed any sale deed in their favour. None of the purchasers were examined in support of the sale deed. The sale deed does not mention the manner of payment of consideration, where it is not said that a part of the sale consideration was paid to the creditor to discharge Balraji's liability on the alleged pronote. No receipt about payment to the creditor has been filed. It is emphasized that the Consolidation Officer has observed that Surendra Nath, one of the witnesses for the petitioners, identified his signatures on the sale deed, but did not identify Smt. Balraji's thumb impression.

40. About Asharam's claims, it is pointed out by the learned Counsel that the Consolidation Officer has held that he had proved his pedigree. The pedigree propounded by Asharam was also proved by the testimony of his witnesses, Jagdamba as also that of Kamla Shankar, the Pradhan of the Village, who testified to the fact that Asharam belongs to Balraji's family. It was also held, according to the learned Counsel, by the Consolidation Officer that Asharam was proved by the testimony of Sabhajeet and Girdhari to be in possession of the land in dispute. It has also been held by the Consolidation Officer that Asharam was Balraji's heir under Section 171 of the U.P. Z.A. & L.R. Act and the Gaon Sabha had no right therein.

41. Most of these findings have been affirmed by the Settlement Officer of Consolidation and the Deputy Director of Consolidation. Learned Counsel for the respondent, Mr. Triveni Shanker, submits that these findings recorded by the three Authorities below consistently are pure findings of fact, which cannot be disturbed by this Court in exercise of our jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution. In support of his contention, learned Counsel for respondent No.4 has relied upon the decisions in E. Mahboob Saheb v. N. Sabbarayan Chowdhary and others, (1982) 1 SCC 180, Narayanan Rajendran and another v. Lekshmy Sarojini and others, (2009) 5 SCC 264 and also on the decision of the Supreme Court in Kondiba Dagadu Kadam v. Savitribai Sopan Gujar and others, (1999) 3 SCC 722.

42. It is also urged with much emphasis that execution of the sale deed on 29.05.1974 and a later deed of rectification dated 12.07.1974 make both a case of transfer of a part of Balraji's holding, which being done admittedly without a permission by the Settlement Officer of Consolidation, brings the transfer within the mischief of Section Section 5(c)(ii) of the Act of 1953. In support of this contention of his, Mr. Triveni Shanker has placed reliance upon the Full Bench Decision of this Court in Smt. Ram Rati and Ors. v. Gram Samaj, Jehwa and Ors., AIR 1974 All 106. Reliance has also been placed upon the decision of this Court in Foran Singh and others vs. Deputy Director of Consolidation and others, 1993 (1) AWC 192.

43. I have carefully considered very detailed submissions advanced by the learned Counsel on both sides and perused the record.

44. The foremost point that was mooted was that Balraji having transferred a part of her holding by means of the sale deed, and later on, transferred another part of it, albeit a single plot, in the garb of the deed of rectification, all the Authorities below have construed in manifest error the sale deed and the deed of rectification to constitute two different transactions, each transferring a part of Balraji's holding and, therefore, void under Section Section 5(c)(ii) of the Act of 1953. The consequence of the transfer being void has been inferred in view of the admitted fact of the absence of previous permission obtained by Balraji from the Settlement Officer of Consolidation. In this case, there is no quarrel about the fact that on the date the sale deed was executed, the provisions of the Act of 1953, as they stood, were those as amended by U.P. Act No.38 of 1958, where it was provided by Section 5 as under:

"4. Amendment of Section 5 of the U. P. Act V of 1954.-For Section 5 of the Principal Act, the following shall be substituted:

"5. Effect of Declarations.-Upon the publication of the notification under Section 4 in the official Gazette, the consequences, as hereinafter set forth; shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, from the date specified thereunder till the publication of notification under Section 52 or Sub-section (1) of Section 6 as the case may be. ensure in the area to which the declaration relates; namely-

(a) the district or part thereof, as the case may be/ shall be deemed to be under consolidation operations and the duty of maintaining the record-of-rights and preparing the village map, the field book and the annual register of each village shall be performed by the District Deputy Director of Consolidation, who shall maintain or prepare them, as the case may be, in the manner prescribed;

(b) (i) all proceedings for correction of the records, and all suits for declaration of rights and interests over land, or for possession of land, or for partition, pending before any authority or court, whether of first instance, appeal, or reference or revision, shall stand stayed, but without prejudice to the right of the persons affected to agitate the right or interests in dispute in the said proceedings or suits before the consolidation authorities under and in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the Rules made interest :

(ii) the findings of consolidation authorities in proceedings under this Act in respect of such right or interest in the land, shall be acceptable to the authority or court before whom the proceeding or suit was pending which may, on communication thereof by the parties concerned, proceed with the proceeding or suit, as the case may be;

(c) notwithstanding anything contained in the U.P. Zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Act, 1950 (U. P. Act I of 1951), no tenure-holder, except with the permission in writing of the Settlement Officer, Consolidation, previously obtained shall-

(i) use his holding or any part thereof for purposes not connected with agriculture, horticulture or animal husbandry including pisciculture and poultry farming: or

(ii) transfer by way of sale, gift or exchange any part of his holding in the consolidation area :

Provided that a tenure-holder may continue to use his holding or any part thereof, for any purpose for which it was in use prior to the date specified in the notification issued under Section 4."

(emphasis by Court)

45. There is little quarrel about the law obtaining at the point of time when the sale deed was executed. The law as then stood forbade any transfer of a part of the bhumidhar's holding without the previous permission in writing of the Settlement Officer of Consolidation in a consolidation area, that is to say, an area where a notification under Section 4 of the Act of 1953 was in force. There is also no issue about the fact that the land at the relevant time fell in a consolidation area. The issue is whether Smt. Balraji by the sale deed transferred a part of her holding; and another part of it by the deed of rectification. A perusal of the sale deed shows that Balraji transferred the whole of her Chak No.68 by the sale deed and also transferred some land that was placed outside the consolidation scheme. The deed of rectification was executed to correct an apparent clerical error in the sale deed, where for the old Plot No.1161/347, Plot No.161/347 was mentioned. It is equally true that at the time when the sale deed was executed, the old plot numbers had been renumbered and their old numbers obliterated. The old numbers were mentioned in the sale deed ex abundati cautela. The mention in the sale deed of old Plot No.1161/347 as 161/347 was, therefore, a matter of no consequence.

46. There were already new numbers assigned and the sale deed was explicit about the vendor's intent that by her conveyance, she intended to transfer the whole of Chak No.68 in favour of the petitioners; not any part of it. The deed of rectification was nothing more than a correction of a clerical error in the sale deed, which would relate back to the sale deed. The deed of rectification can by no means be regarded as an independent conveyance in itself or a transfer of a different plot of land, not mentioned in the sale deed. The deed of rectification did not transfer anything that was not part of the sale deed. It only removed through rectification a clerical error about the quondam number of one of the plots transferred by the sale deed. There is absolutely no requirement of a previous written permission from the Settlement Officer of Consolidation in transferring the entire holding by a bhumidhar during time that a consolidation scheme is in force. That is the clear purport of Section 5(c)(ii) of the Act of 1953. This has been eloquently held in the Full Bench decision in Smt. Ram Rati (supra), where it has been observed:

"11. This being the position we are clearly of the opinion that in the present case it is the English text which shall prevail over the Hindi version and according to the English text the expression "any holding" occurring in clause (ii) of Section 5(1)(c) of the Act does not include the "Whole holding" so that it is not necessary to obtain the permission of the Settlement Officer (Consolidation) for the transfer of the holding as a whole."

47. In the opinion of this Court, the Authorities below have, therefore, committed a manifest error of law in holding the sale deed to be void for violation of Section 5(c)(ii) of the Act of 1953.

48. The Authorities below have prima facie wrongly held that Smt. Balraji who was produced before the Consolidation Officer in support of the sale deed was an imposter, or the person who executed the sale deed was an imposter. The witnesses who appeared along with Balraji in support of the petitioners' case was Khilodhar, PW-6, Balraji's father and her brother, Rudra Prasad, besides Pradhan of Village Gopalpur, Sharda Prasad. He is also an attesting witness of the sale deed executed in favour of the petitioners. These witnesses have stated that the person who executed the sale was Smt. Balraji. Smt. Balraji in her testimony also stated that she sold her property. At this stage, it would be important to notice Balraji's examination-in-chief recorded on 14.07.1976 before the Consolidation Officer, where she testified as PW-2. It reads:

"वहलफ बयान किया कि मैं डुहिया में चन्द्रशेखर की वेवा हूँ मेरा नाम वलिराजी है। हमारी जमीन जो डुहिया में थी सब हमारे नाम चक कटा है। चक कटने के पहले मैं अपनी सम्पूर्ण जमीन कास्त करती थी। चक कटने के बाद भी सम्पूर्ण जमीन पर हमारा कब्जा है। चकबंदी में मैंने अपनी जमीन के बारे में मुकदमा लड़ाया। सब मुकदमा जीतने के बाद हमारे नाम चक कटा। चकबंदी में हमारी ननद को खड़ा करके आशाराम ने हमारे खिलाफ लड़ाया था। आशाराम शुक्ल डुहिया के है। ननद हार गयी थी। ननद का नाम देवराजी था। हमारी उस ननद देवरानी के लड़के के साथ आशाराम ने अपने लड़की की शादी किया है। चक कटने के बाद हमने अपने भाई और चन्दू, दूधनाथ के औरत व लड़के के हक में बैनामा लिखा दिया। बैनामा रजिस्ट्री में आकर मैंने लिखवाया था। बैनामा लिखाने के बाद लिखाने वाले ने हमें पढ़कर सुनवाया था। तब मैंने शारदा प्रसाद व सूरज प्रसाद के सामने निशान अंगूठा बनाया। मेरे सामने शारदा प्रसाद व सूरज प्रसाद ने दस्तावेज की गवाही किया। तब मैंने रजिस्ट्रार साहब के सामने दस्तावेज पेश किया तब दस्तावेज की रजिस्ट्री हुई गवाह ने दस्तावेज बैनामा इक्स क-2 को देखकर अपने निशान की पुष्टि की।

दस्तावेज का एक नम्बर गलत लिखा गया था। फिर उसको ठीक करने के लिए दूसरा दस्तावेज टिटिम्मा उसके दो माह के बाद लिखा गया मुझे बैनामा में नकद रूपया भी दिया जिसका रूपया लिया उसका हवाला भी दिया था। रजिस्ट्री के समय रूपया लिया था। एक वीघा अपने भाई को लिखा था उसका रूपया पहले पा गयी थी। मुझको ऑख से कम दिखाई देता है। करीब दो साल से बैनामा लिखने के बाद नैहर में रहती हूँ। बैनामा इसलिए लिख दिया क्योंकि कम दिखाई देता है। अपने नैहर में रहने लगी थी। पहले मैं यही रहती थी। आशाराम से पैसा न कभी लिया और न ही जमीन जोतने को दिया। और न ही आशाराम को हमने लिखा पढ़ा है। आशाराम ने हमारी ननद को उभार कर लडाया था। उसी के कारण आशाराम से दुश्मनी भी थी।

यह कहना गलत है कि चन्द्रशेखर की वेवा वलिराजी तीर्थ करने गयी। और लौट कर नहीं आयी। मैं कभी तीर्थ करने नहीं गयी थी। बराबर अपने घर पर और नैहर में रहती हूँ। मेरे भाई रूद्र प्रसाद है। मेरे पिता का नाम विलोधर ग्राम गोपालापुर है।

यह कहना गलत है कि बनावटी बलिराजी बनकर बैनामा लिखा है। यह कहना गलत है कि मैं चन्द्रशेखर की स्त्री बलिराजी नहीं हूँ। और वनावटी बलिराजी बनकर बयान कर रही हूँ। बैनामा की भूमि पर बैदारान चन्दू, दूधनाथ की औरत और लड़के तथा मॉ का कब्जा है। हमारा नाम काट कर उनका नाम दर्ज किया जाय। जो पैसा बैनामा से पाया था वह मैंने कोईरौना बैंक में जमा कर दिया है। एक विघा जो भाई को लिखा है। वह हमारा नाम काटकर हमारे भाई को दर्ज किया जाय।

x x x x x x x

(जिरह)

बैनामा लिखने के दो वर्ष पहले से हमें कम दिखाई देता है, बैनामा मैंने अपनी मर्जी से लिखा था। बैनामा मैंने दूधनाथ व चन्दू और दूधनाथ, चन्दू के औरत व लड़के को लिखा है। बैनामा ज्ञानपुर में लिखा गया था। रजिस्ट्रार साहब के सामने वारह बजे दस्तावेज पेश हुआ था मैं कातिव को पहचानती हूँ। नाम नहीं जानती हूँ। डूहिया का मकान मेरा मौजूद है वह चार पॉच घर की वखरी है। जब मैं डुहिया में रहती थी तो खुद खेती करती थी, हमारे हरवाह गिरधारी अहिर थे जो जिन्दा हैं। ग्राम डुहिया के रहने वाले है। हमारे पास एक हल की खेती तथा एक जोड़ा वैल था। ग्राम सिहपुर में मेरे सास का मैहर है। पं० राजजग मुख्तार के यहॉ। मेरी सगी सास का नाम सुभवत्री है। मेरी सौतेली सास का नाम घूरा था। सुभवन्ती को एक लड़की थी। व एक लड़का था। लड़की का नाम देवराजी था। इसी देवराजी से चकबंदी में मुकदमा चला था। देवराजी व मेरा चक अलग-2 हो गया है। चकबंदी से पहले मुझसे व देवाजी से एक मुकदमा चला था। इसे राजजग मुख्तार ने सुलह करा दिया था, देवराजी पं० रामजगमुख्तार की भॉजी लगती थी। बैनामा लिखने के लिए मैंने चकबंदी विभाग से मैंने परमीशन नहीं लिया था। रजिस्ट्री में मुझे एक बार आना पड़ा था। एक बार बैनामा करने नैहर से आयी थी बैनामा का नं० गाटा नहीं बता सकती हूँ। चक नं० कागज में होगा मैं नहीं बता सकती हूँ जिसका मैंने बैनामा किया है, बैनामें वाले भूमि की चौहददी हमें नहीं मालूम।

जिसके-2 नाम लिखा था वे व शारदा प्रसाद, सूरज और हमारे भाई रजिस्ट्री में आये थे। जिसके-2 नाम बैनामा हुआ है वे लोग भी रजिस्ट्री के समय मौजूद थे, रजिस्टार साहब के सामने नगद रूपया 3500/-3600/-मिला था दस्तावेज बैनामा पर मैंने दो जगह निशान दिया है। इसके अलावा मुझसे कही भी किसी ने निशान अंगूठा नहीं लिया है। जिसके नाम बैनामा हुआ है। उसी से हमारी बातचीत हुई थी। बैनामा लिखाने के एक माह पूर्व बात तय हुई थी। बातचीत के समय रूपये का लेन देन नहीं हुआ था। सब रूपये का लेन रजिस्टार साहब के सामने हुआ था।

बयान गवाही के समय चन्दू, दूधनाथ जिसको मैंने बैनामा लिखा है। ले आये थे। मैं विशेषर चौरसिया को नहीं जानती हूँ। क्यों कि मैंने नहीं देखा है। विशेषर के लड़की लड़का के हक में मैंने बैनामा नहीं किया है। राम सरन चौरसिया के हक में मैंने बैनामा नहीं लिखा है।

कालूराम के लड़की के हक में मैंने बैनामा नहीं किया है मैं कालूराम बरई को नहीं जानती हूँ। अनूप कुमार को नहीं जानती हूँ। अनूपकुमार के हक में कोई बैनामा नहीं लिखा है। जयशंकर बरई को नहीं जानती हूँ और न उनको बैनामा लिखा है। विनोद कुमार को नहीं जानती और न बैनामा लिखा है। चन्दू दूधनाथ ने कहा था कि चलकर बयान दे दों। इस मुकदमें में मैंने कोई दरख्वास्त नहीं दी है। यह जमीन टॅयूबेल से सीची जाती है। टॅयूबेल के सिंचाई की रसीद मेरे पास जरूर होगी। वह रसीद मैंने चन्दू दूधनाथ को नहीं दिया है। डुहिया के प्रधान कमला शंकर है। आशाराम को मैं जानती हूँ वे मेरे गॉव के है। मैं नहीं जानती की आशाराम और मेरे सौहर की कुर्सीनामा एक है। आशाराम पहले चाची कहते थे अब नहीं कहते।

यह कहना गलत है कि मेरी सेवा करते थे। मैं कहीं तीर्थ करने नहीं गयी थी। कभी-2 प्रयाग राज गयी हूँ। मैं बेचने के बाद जमीन के पास नहीं गयी हूँ। यह कहना गलत है कि बैनामे वाले जमीन पर आशाराम का कब्जा है। चन्दू हमकों बताये थे कि आशाराम इस मुकदमें में लड़ रहे है। मुझसे गवाही के लिए चन्दू ने 10 दिन पहले से कहा था। आज चन्दू मुझको लाने नहीं गये है। मैं खुद ही आयी हूँ। आज की तारीख चन्दू ने बताया था आज 14 तारीख है। यही बताया था। चन्दू ने यह नहीं बताया था कि कमला शंकर प्रधान लड़ रहे है।

यह कहना गलत है कि बलिराजी तीर्थ यात्रा को गयी है। यह कहना गलत है कि बलिराजी वेवा चन्द्रशेखर सा० डुहिया नहीं हूँ। यह भी कहना गलत है कि जमीन निजाई पर आशाराम का कब्जा है। मैं राम चन्द्र राय सा० चक हर वंशपुर को नहीं जानती हूँ। उन्होंने मेरे बैनामा या टिटिम्मा दस्तावेज पर गवाही नहीं किया है।

जिरहः- ग्राम सभाः- शारदा प्रसाद द्विवेदी एडवोकेट

यह कहना गलत है कि मु० बलिराजी नहीं हूँ और यह भी कहना गलत है कि मुसम्मात बलिराजी तीर्थ को गयी और लौट कर नहीं आयी और यह भी कहना गलत है कि आराजी निजाई ग्राम सभा की हो गयी है। यह भी कहना गलत है कि आराजी निजाई को मैं जोते वोये नहीं हूँ। बयान सुनकर तस्दीक किया।"

49. In her cross-examination, Balraji has supported the factum of executing the sale deed and its registration by the Registrar in her presence. She has also spoken about the name of her mother-in-law and her step mother-in-law, as well as her step mother-in-law's daughter. She has also mentioned about the case that her step mother-in-law's daughter, Devraji instituted against her relating to her holding and claimed a share therein. She has largely supported the execution of the sale deed except in one aspect of her cross-examination, where she has suddenly said that she did not know the vendees, Anoop Kumar, Vinod Kumar, Jai Shankar and had not executed any sale deed in their favour. Apparently, the said discordant utterance in her cross-examination has been given too much of credence by the Authorities below.

50. The evidence of a witness has to be read as a whole, and if Balraji's testimony in her examination-in-chief is read along with her cross-examination, it is largely consistent. This aspect of the matter has not at all been considered by the Authorities below, who have read the evidence torn out of context, doing a truncated appraisal of it. It is not this Court's province to reappreciate evidence, but to ensure that the Authorities of fact below do not omit relevant evidence by basing their findings on stray statements here and there. It is also to be borne in mind that Balraji was identified by her blood relatives, who were none else, but her father and brother. They were before the Consolidation Officer. Their evidence carries great weight about Balraji's identity and cannot be trifled with. The evidence on the point may have to be reconsidered by the Authorities below in the right perspective.

51. The Authorities below have also faltered in doubting the execution of the sale deed by Balraji and attributing it to an imposter by finding flaws in the manner of passage of consideration. The recitals in the sale deed clearly state that she had received a sum of Rs.15,000/- in cash before the Sub-Registrar, whereas Rs.17,200/- were paid to Surya Narain Mishra to discharge her liability on a pronote dated 25.05.1971 that Surya Narain held. There is also a description of receipt of the sum of Rs.1005 towards consideration from her brother, Rudra Prasad, petitioner No.7 and a further sum of Rs.2603/-, also received from her brother, Rudra Prasad. This makes for a total consideration of Rs.35,808/-. The Authorities below have ignored from consideration the testimony of Surya Narain, PW-2, Balraji's creditor, besides ignoring the endorsement of the Sub-Registrar and a certificate by the Bank, that is to say, Union Bank of India, Koirauna Branch, where Balraji was certified to hold a sum of Rs.15,000/- in her account. The said sum of money was the consideration of Rs.15,000/- that Balraji received in cash at the time of registration of the sale deed before the Sub-Registrar or as she asserts. All this evidence, that was duly admitted, particularly the bank certificate, was ignored from consideration both by the Settlement Officer and the Deputy Director of Consolidation. Thus, the findings of doubt about passage of consideration recorded by the Authorities below, in the opinion of this Court, are based on ignorance of material evidence on record.

52. There are some other very important issues that have been approached from a manifestly erroneous vantage by the Authorities below. The chief amongst these is the finding holding Balraji, who appeared before the Consolidation Officer, to be a imposter raising a presumption about her civil death. The entire presumption about her civil death is based on the assertion in the objections filed by Asharam, respondent No.4 that Balraji went on a pilgrimage 7-8 years ante-dating the date of the objections, that is to say, 22.11.1975 and ever since not returned to Village Duhia; and, her whereabouts are not known. A case of civil death has been built on the edifice of Balraji going on a pilgrimage 6-7 years before the objections were heard by the Consolidation Officer and some evidence about 10 years before that date, and not being heard of ever since at Duhia or by respondent No.4. The case about Balraji's civil death has been too readily accepted by all the Authorities below; and accepted on manifestly illegal premises. The Consolidation Officer has recorded the following finding about Balraji's civil death based on a presumption, under Section 108 of the Indian Evidence Act:

"द्वितीय पक्ष की तरफ से आशाराम, जगदम्बा, सभाजीत, गिरधारी यादव तथा महेन्द्र नाथ

पंचायत सचिव और उन्होंने ग्राम डुहिया के कुटुम्ब रजिस्टर को सावित किया है इस रजिस्टर में मु० बलिराजी का नाम दर्ज नहीं है इससे यह सिद्ध होता है कि श्रीमती वलिराजी कम से कम10 साल से ग्राम डुहिया में नहीं रहती है जगदम्बा प्रसाद विजय नाथ तथा सभाजीत गवाहो ने अपने बयानों में कहा है कि मु० बलिराजी तीर्थ करने गयी थी किन्तु लौटकर नहीं आयी है गवाहो के बयान पर अविश्वास करने का कोई कारण नहीं है अतः तथ्य सिद्ध हो जाता है कि बलिराजी सात साल से अधिक समय से लापता है और उनकी मृत्यु कानूनी तौर पर मानी जायेगी दिनांक 29.7.74 को मु० बलिराजी का रहना सिद्ध नहीं होता इस तथ्य को कमलाशंकर प्रधान ने भी स्वीकार किया है कि मु० बलिराजी का तीर्थयात्रा जाने के बाद से उनका पता नहीं चला।""

53. The Assistant Settlement Officer of Consolidation has written a outrageously cryptic finding accepting the Smt. Balraji's civil death in the following few words:

"बलिराजी तीर्थयात्रा करने गयी और वहां से वापिस नहीं आयी इसलिए उसकी सिविल डेथ हो गयी है।"

54. The Deputy Director of Consolidation has not written any finding of his own on the said issue. Since he has affirmed the judgments of the two Authorities below in toto, it has to be held that if the view of the two Authorities below is erroneous, the Deputy Director of Consolidation has failed to exercise his jurisdiction and rectify it about this finding. The cryptic findings inferring Balraji's civil death are manifestly illegal and vitiated. Sections 107 and 108 of the Evidence Act, which are relevant to the issue, are extracted hereinbelow:

"107. Burden of proving death of person known to have been alive within thirty years.--When the question is whether a man is alive or dead, and it is shown that he was alive within thirty years, the burden of proving that he is dead is on the person who affirms it.

108. Burden of proving that person is alive who has not been heard of for seven years.--Provided that when the question is whether a man is alive or dead, and it is proved that he has not been heard of for seven years by those who would naturally have heard of him if he had been alive, the burden of proving that he is alive is shifted to the person who affirms it."

55. Section 107 raises a presumption that a person is alive if it is shown that he/ she was alive within thirty years, and the burden of proving that he/ she is dead is on the person who asserts the fact. Balraji was admittedly alive, even according to respondent No.4, Asharam 6-7 years ago when she proceeded on pilgrimage. Therefore, if the presumption under Section 108 is not attracted, the burden would lie upon respondent No.4 to show by positive evidence that Balraji was dead on the date of execution of the sale deed. Here, however, the fourth respondent has invoked the provisions of Section 108 to plead a case of Balraji's whereabouts not being known within the last seven years. Section 108 is in the nature of a proviso to Section 107. Though an independent Section, it opens with words 'Provided that when". Harmoneously construed, Sections 107 and 108 form an integral scheme on the question, who in the normal course of events is to be presumed alive and who can be presumed dead, that is to say, at the time when this question arises. The general rule is that a person, who is shown to be alive within thirty years from the date when the question arises, the presumption would be that the person lives. Section 107, therefore, raises a presumption about life, whereas Section 108 as a proviso engrafts a rule of presumption about death. It would be noticed that Section 107 is based on the sound experience of life that given the life span of a human being, a person who is shown to be alive within thirty years of the date when the question arises, can be presumed to be alive with burden on the person, who asserts that he/ she is dead, to prove it by affirmative evidence.

56. The fourth respondent has invoked the presumption under Section 108 on the foot of facts and evidence that 7-8 years ante-dating the filing of his objections before the Consolidation Officer, Smt. Balraji borrowed a sum of Rs.5000/- from Asharam, respondent No.4 and proceeded on pilgrimage. He has then said that she has not been heard of in Village Duhia eversince. The Consolidation Officer, as already remarked, has readily accepted a case of civil death by holding that witnesses Jagdamba Prasad and Sabhajeet in their testimony have said that Balraji proceeded on pilgrimage, but never returned. From this testimony, an inference has been readily drawn by the Consolidation Officer that looking to the evidence of these witnesses, there is no reason to disbelieve it.

57. The inference drawn is that it is proven that Balraji is missing for the past 7 years and would be presumed to be dead under the law on 29.05.1974, that is to say, the date of the sale deed. Also taken into account is the fact that the Family Register of Village Duhia produced by Mahendra Nath, the Panchayat Secretary, does not show Balraji's name recorded therein. The Consolidation Officer has concluded that absence of Balraji's name in the Family Register of Village Duhia would show that Balraji does not live in Duhia for the last 10 years. It is almost impossible on these facts or state of evidence to invoke the provisions of Section 108 of the Indian Evidence Act. The facts and evidence noticed by the Consolidation Officer at best can lead to the inference that the whereabouts of Balraji are not known in Village Duhia and nothing more. A presumption of civil death under Section 108 cannot be drawn merely because some persons of acquaintance have not heard of the missing person in the span of seven years last. The sine qua non to attract the presumption under Section 108 is: "proved that he has not been heard of for seven years by those who would naturally have heard of him if he had been alive", to borrow the phraseology of the Statute.

58. Balraji in this case was married into a family in Village Duhia, where her husband, Chandra Shekhar passed away long ago. She inherited the land in dispute from her husband, wherein her step sister-in-law, Devraji laid a claim before the Consolidation Authorities and secured a share for herself in a compromise with Smt. Balraji. This happened in 1966. Thereafter, if Balraji went away and settled in her father's Village Gopalpur, where her father was still alive, it can hardly be said that anyone in Duhia would have "naturally heard of her". There is positive evidence to show that Balraji was living with her father at Gopalpur. There is no one in Duhia, entitled to say that he or she ought to have naturally heard of Balraji during the past seven years, ante-dating 1974, if she were alive. The presumption under Section 108 about Balraji being dead cannot be raised, because she was not heard of by anyone in Duhia. It would arise only if those persons did not hear of her, who ought to have naturally heard of her. Asharam, Jagdamba Prasad, Sabhajeet, all natives of Village Duhia are not persons, who would have naturally heard of Balraji, if she had gone and settled with her father at Gopalpur. It is a case, where the Authorities below have completely misapplied the presumption under Section 108 of the Indian Evidence Act to infer a civil death for Balraji.

59. The issue as to how important it is to the rule in Section 108 of the Evidence Act that who are the persons who would naturally have heard of the person during the period of seven years if he had been alive, fell for consideration of the Punjab High Court in East Punjab Province v. Bachan Singh and others, AIR 1957 Punj 316. In that case, the issue arose in the context of extreme facts which present a remarkable situation to bring out the rule in its fullest effect. In Bachan Singh (supra), a man called Mal Singh was to be charged with murder. He absconded. His property was attached and possession taken under Sections 87 and 88 of the Criminal Procedure Code then in force. The facts as disclosed in the report of the case show that all this happened several years ago before action commenced at the instance of Mal Singh's reversioners. In 1946, Bachan Singh and Tara Singh, claiming to be reversioners of Mal Singh, brought a suit for possession of the attached property on the ground that Mal Singh must be presumed dead and they being his heirs were entitled to succeed to his estate. The two plaintiffs aforesaid also impleaded Mal Singh's widow, who had remarried in the meantime, as a party to the suit. The sole question before the Court was whether Mal Singh could be presumed dead. And if so, its effect. The suit was decreed by both the Courts below, accepting the absconder dead on a presumption raised under Section 108 of the Evidence Act. Speaking for the Division Bench on a second appeal carried by the Government, which was allowed and the reversioners' suit dismissed, it was held by Khosla, J.:

"4. Section 108 is nothing more than a proviso to Section 107 and the two sections must, therefore, be read together in order to appreciate their full import. The sections read :

"107. When the question is whether a man is alive or dead, and it is shown that he was alive within thirty years, the burden of proving that he is dead is on the person who affirms it.

108. Provided that when the question is whether a man is alive or dead, and it is proved that he has not been heard of for seven years by those who would naturally have heard of him if he had been alive, the burden of proving that he is alive is shifted to the person who affirms it."

5. The important phrase in Section 108 is "those who would naturally have heard of him if he had been alive." In the present case Mal Singh was absconding from justice in order to evade a trial upon a charge of murder. He would, therefore, not communicate with any relation in the natural course of events because to do so would reveal his whereabouts and he might be apprehended by the police and prosecuted. It is in evidence that after the alleged commission of the murders he ran away and remained in hiding. In a case of this nature no presumption, therefore, can arise because it is Section 107 and not S. 108 which would apply.

Shifting of the onus under Section 108 would have taken place only if the plaintiffs "would naturally have heard of him if he had been alive." Now, the plaintiffs being the reversioners, Mal Singh would not communicate with them. Indeed, he would not communicate with anyone in the village. One of the witnesses examined by the plaintiffs is the father of the two men who are alleged to have been murdered by Mal Singh, and this man would be the last person to whom Mal Singh would reveal his whereabouts or with whom he would communicate."

60. The principles regarding invocation of the presumption under Sections 107 and 108 of the Evidence Act has been enunciated by the Supreme Court in LIC of India v. Anuradha, (2004) 10 SCC 131. In Anuradha (supra), their Lordships have held:

"14. On the basis of the abovesaid authorities, we unhesitatingly arrive at a conclusion which we sum up in the following words: the law as to presumption of death remains the same whether in the common law of England or in the statutory provisions contained in Sections 107 and 108 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872. In the scheme of the Evidence Act, though Sections 107 and 108 are drafted as two sections, in effect, Section 108 is an exception to the rule enacted in Section 107. The human life shown to be in existence, at a given point of time which according to Section 107 ought to be a point within 30 years calculated backwards from the date when the question arises, is presumed to continue to be living. The rule is subject to a proviso or exception as contained in Section 108. If the persons, who would have naturally and in the ordinary course of human affairs heard of the person in question, have not so heard of him for seven years, the presumption raised under Section 107 ceases to operate. Section 107 has the effect of shifting the burden of proving that the person is dead on him who affirms the fact. Section 108, subject to its applicability being attracted, has the effect of shifting the burden of proof back on the one who asserts the fact of that person being alive. The presumption raised under Section 108 is a limited presumption confined only to presuming the factum of death of the person whose life or death is in issue. Though it will be presumed that the person is dead but there is no presumption as to the date or time of death. There is no presumption as to the facts and circumstances under which the person may have died. The presumption as to death by reference to Section 108 would arise only on lapse of seven years and would not by applying any logic or reasoning be permitted to be raised on expiry of 6 years and 364 days or at any time short of it. An occasion for raising the presumption would arise only when the question is raised in a court, tribunal or before an authority who is called upon to decide as to whether a person is alive or dead. So long as the dispute is not raised before any forum and in any legal proceedings, the occasion for raising the presumption does not arise."

61. There is another facet about raising the presumption of death under Section 108 of the Evidence Act, which has been misunderstood by the Authorities below. The presumption under Sections 108 arises at the time when action commences and the issue raised in the suit whether a particular person can be presumed dead on account of him/ her not being heard of in the past seven years by those, who would have naturally heard of him/ her. The rule does not foster a presumption about the time of the presumed death, precise or approximate. It cannot, therefore, be presumed that a person, who has not been heard of for the past seven years, or even more when action commences, can be presumed dead at the beginning of the period of seven years or at a particular point of time. If a party desires to prove that a person was dead on a particular date in the past, may be unheard of for seven years or more, it has to be proved by the person so claiming by affirmative evidence. The only presumption that can be raised in this case, if at all, and subject to the other things that have been said, is that on the date when action commenced before the Consolidation Officer, Balraji was dead. There can be no presumption that she was dead seven years prior to the year 1974 or on the date she executed the sale deed.

62. There is a wealth of authorities on the point that the presumption under Section 108 of the Evidence Act cannot be invoked to prove the death of a person at a particular point of time or period of time in the past. One of the early authorities on the point is Fani Bhusan Banerjee v. Surja Kant Roy Chowdhury and another, 1907 SCC OnLine Cal 20 : (1906-07) 11 CWN 883, where their Lordships of the Division Bench wrote concurring opinions. The more eloquent expression of the rule in Fani Bhusan (supra) is to be found in the concurring opinion of Geidt, J., where His Lordship held:

"..... The question for which provision is made in that section is the question whether a man is alive or dead, that is, whether he is alive or dead when the question is raised, not whether he was alive or dead at some antecedent date, and the presumption that may, in certain circumstances, be raised is a presumption that the man is dead when the question is raised, and not a presumption that he was dead at some antecedent date....."

63. The rule was again reiterated by the Bombay High Court in Jeshankar Revashankar v. Bai Divali, AIR 1920 Bom 85 (2), where also their Lordships, constituting the Division Bench, wrote concurring judgments. The rule in Jeshankar Revashankar (supra) was stated thus by Macleod, C.J.:

"..... But the earliest date to which the death can be presumed can only be the date when the suit was filed. It cannot have a further retrospective effect..." (emphasis by Court)

64. The principle was eloquently discussed in a Full Bench decision of this Court in Muhammad Sharif and another v. Bande Ali and others, (1911) 8 ALJ 1052, where Richards, C.J. held:

"The plaintiffs rely on the case of Dharup Nath v. Gobind Saran [(1886) I.L.R., 8 All., 614.]. It was decided in that case that the presumption which the plaintiffs contend for did arise. With all respect to the learned judge who delivered the judgement in the case, I think that he misinterpreted and misunderstood the passage from Taylor on Evidence, which he quotes. The period of seven years which the learned author there speaks of, is in my opinion, the minimum period during which it is necessary for the plaintiff to show that the person whose life or death is in question has not been heard of, and that if the evidence shows the person had not been heard of for 14 or 15 years instead of seven, the presumption would not be carried one bit farther. There would be merely the presumption that the man was dead; but there would be no presumption that he died at any particular moment of the period during which he has not been heard of. In the last edition of Taylor on Evidence the passage is as follows:--"although, however, a person who has not been heard of for 7 years is presumed to be dead, the law raises no presumption as to the time of his death, and if any one who seeks to establish the precise period during those seven years at which some person died, he must do so by actual evidence." It is said that the anomalous position is created that if Dildar had sued during his lifetime, he would have succeeded, and that now his heir is not entitled to succeed. It seems to me that this argument proceeds upon the assumption that if Dildar had sued during his lifetime, the evidence as to the disappearance of Madad Ali would have been exactly the same. This would be a very rash assumption. Seven or eight years ago there must have been many persons who might have heard of the existence of Madad Ali who are now dead and gone.

X x x x x

The view I take in the case of Narayan Bhagwant v. Shriniwaa Trimbak [(1905) L.R., 8 Bom., 226.] and in the case of Fani Bhushan Banerji v. Surjya Kanta Roy Chowdhry [(1907) I.L.R., 35 Calc., 25.]. This last ruling was cited with approval in the case of Srinath Das v. Probodh Chunder Das [(1910) 11 C.L.J. 580.] . Mookerjee, J., says at page 585:--

"The only presumption which is enacted by section 107 of the Indian Evidence Act, is, that the party is dead at the time of the suit, but there is no presumption as to the precise time of his death.""

65. In Muhammad Sharif (supra), the short and concurring opinion of Banerji, J. reads:

"I am of the same opinion. The case turns upon the construction of section 108 of the Indian Evidence Act. Under that section there is no doubt a presumption that a person who has not been heard of for seven years should be deemed to be dead, but there is no presumption as to the time of his death. The true construction of the section has, in my opinion, been correctly laid down in the note to section 108 in Ameer Ali and Woodroffe's edition of the Evidence Act. The learned authors say:--

"The rule is the same whether only seven years or more than seven years have elapsed. There is no presumption either as to the time of death within the period of seven years, or that the person died at conclusion of the period. * * * The only presumption enacted by the section is that the party is dead at the time of suit, but there is no presumption in any case as to the time of his death.""

66. There is to be found in Narayana Pillai v. Velayuthan Pillai, AIR 1963 Mad 385 valuable guidance about the presumption postulated under Section 108 of the Evidence Act. In Narayana Pillai (supra), it has been observed:

"Section 108 lays down a presumption when the question as to a person's existence is raised in issue before the Court. If the question is raised before the Court at a particular point of time, and more than seven years had elapsed by that time from the time when a man was last heard of, the presumption will be that he had died before the date when the question was raised. That is not the same thing as saying that when such a question is raised long after the seven years period is over there is a further presumption that he had died at any particular time during that period or at the end of seven years from the date of disappearance. In Halsbury's Laws of England, 3rd Edn., Vol. 15, dealing with this question, it is stated (at page 345):

"There is no legal presumption either that the person concerned was alive up to the end of the period of not less than seven years, or that he died at any particular point of time during such period, the only presumption being that he was dead at the time the question arose if he has not been heard of during the preceeding seven years. If it is necessary to establish that a person died at any particular date within the period of seven years, this must be proved as a fact by evidence raising that inference....."(the italics are mine).

This question is put beyond doubt by the Privy Council in Lalchand Marwari v. Ramrup Gir, 50 Mad LJ 289: (AIR 1926 PC 9):

"Now upon this question there is, their Lordships are satisfied, no difference between the law of India as declared in the Evidence Act and the Law of England.....and, searching for an explanation of this very persistent heresy their Lordships find it in the words in which the rule both in India and in England is usually expressed. These words taken originally from In re Phene's Trusts, 1870-5 Ch. A-139 runs as follows: "If a person has not been heard of for seven years, there is a presumption of law that he is dead; but at what time within that period he died is not a matter of presumption but of evidence and the onus of proving that the death took place at any particular time within the seven years lies upon the person who claims a right to the establishment of which that fact is essential.' Following these words, it is constantly assumed--not perhaps unnaturally--that where the period of disappearance exceeds seven years, death, which may not be presumed at any time during the period of seven years, may be presumed to have taken place at its close. This of course is not so. The presumption is the same if the period exceeds seven years. The period is one and continuous; though it may be divisible into three or even four periods of seven years. Probably the true rule would be less liable to be missed, and would itself be stated more accurately, if instead of speaking of a person who had not been heard of for seven years, it described the period of disappearance as one "of not less than seven years'."

It is implicit in the observations stated above that the presumption can arise only when the question for determination, whether a man or woman is alive or dead, is raised.

In re Seshi Ammal, 1958-2 Mad LJ 53: (AIR 1958 Mad 463), Subrahmanyam J. referred to the presumption under Sec. 108 and stated that it would extend to the fact of death and not to the time of death at any particular period. The learned Judge observed that the exact time of death was not a matter for presumption but of proof by evidence by a person who claims a right for the establishment of which the fact is essential. In a more recent case Gnanamuthu v. Anthoni, AIR 1960 Mad 430, Ramaswami J. after a full analysis of the provisions of Ss. 107 and 108 observed that the presumption under S. 108 would only be as to the fact of death at the time the question is raised and not at any particular antecedent time."

67. The question fell for consideration of the Supreme Court in Anuradha, where it has been held by their Lordships:

"12. Neither Section 108 of the Evidence Act nor logic, reason or sense permit a presumption or assumption being drawn or made that the person not heard of for seven years was dead on the date of his disappearance or soon after the date and time on which he was last seen. The only inference permissible to be drawn and based on the presumption is that the man was dead at the time when the question arose subject to a period of seven years' absence and being unheard of having elapsed before that time. The presumption stands unrebutted for failure of the contesting party to prove that such man was alive either on the date on which the dispute arose or at any time before that so as to break the period of seven years counted backwards from the date on which the question arose for determination. At what point of time the person was dead is not a matter of presumption but of evidence, factual or circumstantial, and the onus of proving that the death had taken place at any given point of time or date since the disappearance or within the period of seven years lies on the person who stakes the claim, the establishment of which will depend on proof of the date or time of death."

68. Of particular relevance to the issue that arises in this are the observations of the Supreme Court in Saroop Singh v. Banto and others, (2005) 8 SCC 330. In Saroop Singh (supra), it has been observed:

"22. There is neither any doubt nor dispute that the date of death of Indira Devi is not certain. By reason of the aforementioned provision, a presumption of death can be raised. In this case, however, death of Indira Devi is not in question, the date of death is. In the instant case, both the parties have failed to prove the date of death of Indira Devi. However, having regard to the presumption contained in Section 108 of the Evidence Act, the Court shall presume that she was dead having not been heard of for a period of seven years by those who would naturally have heard of her, if she had been alive, but that by itself would not be a ground to presume that she had died seven years prior to the date of institution of the suit."

69. There is, thus, not the slightest of doubt that the presumption under Section 108 of the Evidence Act is not available to Asharam to prove that Smt. Balraji was dead in the year 1974, when she executed the sale deed.

70. In the circumstances, it is for the Authority, before whom the matter now comes up to determine on the basis of evidence led by the party, who affirmatively asserts the fact of Balraji's death on the date that the sale deed was executed, whether Balraji was in fact dead on the said date. This question has to be gone into while examining the wider issue if Balraji, who executed the sale deed and proved it in Court, was in fact an imposter.

71. Considering the next submission advanced on behalf of the petitioners, this Court finds that it is true that in the objections filed by Asharam under Section 12 of the Act of 1953, there does not appear to be a case of heirship to Balraji's estate pleaded by him. No pedigree of the family is pleaded in the objections filed under Section 12 before the Consolidation Officer. Instead, the case there appears to be about an oral agreement to sell by Balraji taking an earnest from Asharam in the sum of Rs.5000/- before proceeding on pilgrimage and delivering possession of the land in dispute to him. There is no case of inheritance even remotely pleaded.

72. The pedigree, which the Authorities below have taken into consideration in accepting Asharam's case, has figured for the first time in his evidence led after the petitioners had closed their evidence. It would indeed be impermissible to look into a case, even for a Consolidation Authority trying a title matter, which is never pleaded, but figures for the first time in the parties' dock evidence. This is again a matter, which may require some further examination by the Consolidation Officer, if indeed apart from the objections annexed to the writ petition as Annexure No.4, there is no other pleading before the Consolidation Officer putting forward a claim based on heirship, about which evidence has been led at the trial by Asharam.

73. This Court must also notice that some additional evidence in these proceedings was admitted before the Assistant Settlement Officer of Consolidation and is part of the record. That evidence was also required to be looked into by the Authority, which determines the case under Section 12 of the Act of 1953 afresh. The submissions of Mr. Triveni Shanker, all of which are directed to say that the findings of the three Authorities below are concluded by the findings of fact, cannot be accepted because there are manifest illegalities, vitiating the approach of all the three Authorities below in judging the parties' case. Since findings purely of fact would have to be recorded on issues arising between parties on a correct perspective of the law, this Court does not consider it appropriate to enter those findings here in a writ petition, where all the three Authorities below have held otherwise, may be on an approach erroneous in law. The findings in the correct legal perspective have to be recorded by the Authorities of fact below. It is unfortunate indeed that there is no option with this Court, despite the long lapse of time that this litigation has consumed, but to remand the matter to the Consolidation Officer for hearing and determination afresh in accordance with the guidance in this judgment.

74. In the result, this petition succeeds and is allowed in part. The impugned order dated 05.06.1986 passed by the Deputy Director of Consolidation, Varanasi, Camp Gyanpur, the order dated 05.09.1985 passed by the Assistant Settlement Officer of Consolidation, Varanasi (West) and the order 02.11.1979 passed by the Consolidation Officer, Gyanpur, District Varanasi are hereby quashed and the matter is remitted to the Consolidation Officer with a direction to decide afresh. The Consolidation Officer shall proceed to hear and decide the application/ objections under Section 12 of the Act of 1953 on the existing evidence of parties and such other evidence which the parties may wish to lead bearing in mind the guidance in this judgment.

75. It is further directed that the Consolidation Officer shall hear the case afresh in the manner that two dates of effective hearing shall be fixed every week and the case decided, as far as possible, within a period of six months of the date of receipt of a copy of this order by the Consolidation Officer.

76. Let a copy of this order be communicated to the Consolidation Officer, who would now have jurisdiction through the Collector/ District Deputy Director of Consolidation, Bhadohi by the Registrar (Compliance). A copy of this order will also be communicated to the Collector/ District Deputy Director of Consolidation, Varanasi, who formerly had jurisdiction for the purpose of transmission of records etc., if any, available at Varanasi.

(2023) 4 ILRA 298
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 04.04.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MANISH MATHUR, J.

Matter Under Article 227 No. 1271 of 2023

Deepak & Anr. ...Petitioners
Versus
Distt. Judge Hardoi & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
Anujrag Narain Srivastava, Sudhanshu Tripathi

Counsel for the Respondents:

A. Civil Law – Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 - Order XXI Rule 29 - Section 37 - Invoking the provision contained in Order 21 Rule 29 CPC is discretionary and should be exercised judiciously and not mechanically as a matter of course. Mere satisfaction of the pre-conditions stipulated in Order 21 Rule 29 CPC is not sufficient for execution proceedings to be stayed and the power under this Rule has to be exercised only in exceptional cases where the interest of justice requires it and the fundamental consideration should be that the decree holder should not be deprived of the fruits of the decree, except for compelling reasons and unless an extraordinary case is made out, no stay should be granted and the decree should be allowed to be continued. (Para 19)

(i) Order 21 Rule 29 CPC is applicable only if the suit and the execution proceedings referred to in the said provisions are pending before the very same Court and not before two different courts which are not of co-ordinate jurisdiction.

(ii) In the event the execution proceedings have already been instituted, mere institution of suit subsequently and its pendency cannot be made the basis to invoke Order 21 Rule 29 CPC. The said provisions will not apply if the suit is instituted subsequent to institution of the execution proceedings.

(iii) The power and jurisdiction to stay its own proceeding pending before itself by the executing Court has to be exercised only under extraordinary and exceptional circumstances and not as a matter of course and care/caution has to be taken by the executing Court to find out if staying its own proceedings would result in abuse of process of law and in that event, the executing Court would not stay further proceedings under these provisions. (Para 19)

In the present case, the application preferred by the petitioner u/Order XXI Rule 29 r/w Section 151 of the Code is also required to be adverted to in which the only ground taken is that in the Suit filed by the petitioner subsequently, the issue of title over the Suit property is also required to be adjudicated and therefore prayer has been made for stay of execution proceedings pertaining to aforesaid Suit property. (Para 20)

A reading of the application makes it evident that the application has been drafted in a very cursory manner. No specific reason has been indicated for invocation of provisions of Order XXI Rule 29 of the Code particularly the fact that no explanation has been furnished as to how the petitioner was unaware of the initial Suit proceedings pending since the year 1988 and that too when the petitioner has staked a claim in Suit property on the basis of co-ownership. It is also a relevant factor to be considered that the real brother of petitioner was party to the initial Suit proceedings in Regular Suit No. 355 of 1988 and in case petitioner was claiming co-ownership of the Suit premises, it does not stand to reason that he was or could have been unaware of the aforesaid Suit proceedings which culminated in proceedings right up-till this Court in Second Appellate Jurisdiction. (Para 21)

The provisions of Order XXI Rule 29 of the Code being inapplicable in the present facts and circumstances of the case, no exception can be taken to the orders impugned. (Para 28)

B. Words & Phrases – (i) 'such court' - The words 'such court' means, the Court in which Suit is pending. In other words, the Suit instituted against the decree holder and execution proceedings should simultaneously be pending in the same Court.

This implies that one Court cannot stay proceedings of another Co-ordinate Court. Even in case where a decree is transferred for execution to another Court, provisions of Order XXI Rule 29 of the Code would be inapplicable. The provisions of Section 37 of the Code have also been adverted to explain the expression 'Court which passed a decree'. (Para 12, 13)

In the present case, it is admitted between the parties that while Regular Suit proceedings are pending in the Court of Additional Civil Judge, Senior Division, Hardoi, the execution case is pending consideration before Civil Judge, Senior Division, Hardoi. Obviously both the Courts are different and cannot be construed to be same Court to come within the definition of 'such court' as envisaged in Order XXI Rule 29 of the Code. (Para 14)

At the time of filing of application u/Order XXI Rule 29 of the Code, the Suit as well as execution proceedings were pending in the same Court of Additional Civil Judge, Senior Division, Hardoi but at the time of final adjudication of the application by means of impugned order, they were pending in separate Courts. (Para 15, 16)

(ii) 'where the suit is pending' – It connotes that a Suit filed against holder of a decree of such Court should be pending as on the date when decree is sought to be executed. (Para 17)

(iii) 'simultaneous proceedings' - In case execution proceedings were filed prior to institution of Regular Suit against the decree holder, the same would not come within the definition of 'simultaneous proceedings' so as to invoke provisions of Order XXI Rule 29 of the Code. (Para 18)

(iv) 'pending' - The meaning of the word 'pending' is that the Suit against the judgment decree holder should be pending as on the date of institution of execution. (Para 22)

C. Uttar Pradesh Judicial Service Rules, 2001 - Rule 4(o) - With regard to reliance placed upon Rules, 2001 is concerned, it is quite evident that the same pertains to service regulation of judicial officers, which would be administrative in nature and by no stretch of imagination can be deemed to include judicial proceedings as has been submitted. (Para 25)

Writ petition dismissed. (E-4)

Precedent followed:

1. Satyawati Vs Rajinder Singh, (2013) 9 SCC 491 (Para 9)

2. Shaukat Hussain @ Ali Akram & ors. Vs Smt. Bhuneshwari Devi (Dead) by L.R.S. & ors., (1972) 2 SCC 731 (Para 9)

3. Krishna Singh Vs Mathura Ahir & ors., AIR 1982 Supreme Court 686 (Para 9)

4. Balammal & ors. Vs Muthiar Begum & anr., 2013-5-L.W. 9 (Para 9)

5. Sikandar Mohammad Ali Dalal & anr. Vs Babu Hanumanth Mindolkar deceased by hi Lrs & ors., Writ Petition No. 103071 of 2017 (in the High Court of Karnataka, Dharwad Bench) (Para 9)

6. Inayat Beg Vs Umrao Beg, AIR 1930 AHD 121 (Para 12)

Precedent distinguished:

1. Bansraj & anr. Vs Jeet Narayan & ors., 2017 (35) LCD 1708 (Para 8, 26)

2. Guru Dayal Vs Vedmati, 2015 (1) ARC 869 (Para 8, 26)

Present petition challenges the order dated 10.02.2023, passed in Civil Revision No. 6 of 2023 as well as order dated 21.12.2022, passed by the trial Court u/Order XXI Rule 29 of the CPC, 1908, as well as revisional order dated 06.03.2023 affirming the same.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Manish Mathur, J.)

1. Heard Mr. Anurag Narain Srivastava, learned counsel for the petitioners and Mr. Sharad Dwivedi, learned counsel for opposite party no.3.

2. Vide earlier order dated 24th March, 2023, notices to opposite party nos.2, 4 and 9, being proforma in nature, were dispensed with.

3. Counter and rejoinder affidavits filed on behalf of parties today are taken on record.

4. Petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India has been filed raising challenge to the order dated 10th February, 2023 passed in Civil Revision No.6 of 2023 as well as order dated 21st December, 2022 passed by the trial Court under Order XXI Rule 29 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (hereinafter referred to as "the Code") as well as revisional order dated 06th March, 2023 affirming the same.

5. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that initially Regular Suit No.355 of 1988 was filed by the opposite party no.3 against late Suresh Chandra initially seeking relief of permanent injunction and subsequently by amendment, the relief of possession. The said Suit although was initially dismissed on 08th May, 1996 but Appeal No.115 of 1996 was allowed by means of judgement and order dated 25th September, 2001. Said Appellate Order was thereafter challenged in Second Appeal No.422 of 2001 and was dismissed on merits on 23th November, 2001 where after Execution Application No.1 of 2002 was filed by the opposite party no.3. It is relevant to indicate that the present petitioner was not a party to any of the proceedings.

6. During pendency of the execution proceedings, the present petitioner filed Regular Suit No.474 of 2005 against the opposite party no.3 for permanent injunction which is still pending consideration. During pendency of the said Suit proceedings, an Application under Order XXI Rule 29 of the Code was filed by the petitioner on 19th October, 2005 in the execution proceedings. The said application was rejected vide order dated 18th August, 2009 but Civil Revision No.79 of 2009 filed therein was allowed vide judgment and order dated 16th November, 2010 and the issue was remanded for consideration afresh. After remand, the said application for stay of execution proceedings was rejected vide order dated 21st December, 2022 which was challenged in Revision No.6 of 2023 and which has been rejected by means of impugned order dated 10th February, 2023.

7. Learned counsel for petitioner submits that the Regular Suit No.355 of 1988 was filed behind the back of petitioner who also had a titular interest in the Suit property. It is submitted that the petitioner did not have any notice of either the Suit or subsequent proceedings and had therefore filed the Regular Suit No.474 of 2005 against opposite party no.3 claiming relief of permanent injunction. It is further submitted that when petitioner came to know about the execution proceedings pending at the instance of opposite party no.3, the said application under Order XXI Rule 29 of the Code was filed. It is submitted that the petitioner has not filed any objection under Section 47 of the Code in execution proceedings.

8. It is submitted that the trial Court has rejected the application without considering the impact of Suit filed by petitioner in execution proceedings particularly to the effect that petitioner also had an interest in the Suit property and therefore in case of completion of execution proceedings, he would naturally be aggrieved by the said order and therefore it was incumbent upon the trial Court to have stayed execution proceedings till adjudication of Regular Suit instituted by petitioner. It has been further submitted that the trial Court as well as Revisional Court has lost sight of the purpose of Order XXI Rule 29 of the Code. He has also placed reliance upon the Uttar Pradesh Judicial Service Rules, 2001 to submit that Civil Judge, Senior Division means and includes various other judicial authorities including any member of the service posted under any other nomenclature in terms of Rule 4 (o) of the aforesaid Rules. In keeping with the aforesaid statement, it is further submitted that the terminology used under Order XXI of Rule 29 of the Code would include not only the Civil Judge, Senior Division but also the Additional Civil Judge, Senior Division since Regular Suit No.474 of 2005 is pending consideration in the Court of Additional Civil Judge, Senior Division, Hardoi and execution proceedings are pending in the Court of Civil Judge, Senior Division, Hardoi. He has also placed reliance on the judgments rendered by Co-ordinate Benches of this Court in the case of Bansraj and Anr. vs. Jeet Narayan and Ors. reported in 2017 (35) LCD 1708 and Guru Dayal vs. Vedmati reported in 2015(1) ARC 869 to buttress his submissions.

9. Mr. Sharad Dwivedi, learned counsel appearing on behalf of opposite party no.3 as refuted submissions advanced by learned counsel for the petitioner with the submission that the provisions of Order XXI Rule 29 of the Code will be inapplicable in present facts and circumstances particularly when the Suit instituted by petitioner was filed subsequent to institution of execution proceedings and therefore cannot be said to be simultaneous proceedings. It is also submitted that since the execution and Regular Suit are pending in separate Courts, then the provision of Order XXI Rule 29 of the Code would be inapplicable. It is further submitted that even otherwise the aforesaid provisions are not to be made applicable in a mechanical manner, otherwise no decree can ever be satisfied and therefore the word 'pending' in Order XXI Rule 29 of the Code would be of particular importance. It has also been submitted that the application has been rightly rejected. Learned counsel has placed reliance on the following judgments:-

1. Satyawati vs. Rajinder Singh reported in (2013) 9 SCC 491

2. Shaukat Hussain @ Ali Akram and Others vs. Smt. Bhuneshwari Devi (Dead) by L.RS. and Others reported in 1972 2 SCC 731

3. Krishna Singh vs. Mathura Ahir and Others reported in AIR 1982 Supreme Court 686

4. Balammal & Others vs. Muthiar Begum & Another reported in 2013-5-L.W. 9

5. Sikandar Mohammad Ali Dalal and another vs. Babu Hanumanth Mindolkar deceased by his Lrs and Others in Writ Petition No.103071 of 2017 (in the High Court of Karnataka, Dharwad Bench)

For the purposes of determination of present Lis, the applicability of Order XXI Rule 29 of the Code is required to be analyzed as per applicable provision which is as follows:-

"29. Stay of execution pending suit between decree-holder and judgment-debtor.- Where a suit is pending in any Court against the holder of a decree of such Court [or of a decree which is being executed by such Court], on the part of the person against whom the decree was passed, the Court may, on such terms as to security or otherwise, as it thinks fit, stay execution of the decree until the pending suit has been decided:

[Provided that if the decree is one for payment of money, the Court shall, if it grants stay without requiring security, record its reasons for so doing]."

The aforesaid provision has subsequently been amended as applicable to Allahabad High Court and is in the following manner:-

"ALLAHABAD.- In Rule 29-

(1) insert the comma and thereafter the words "or any person whose interests are affected by the decree, or by any order made in execution thereof" after the words "was passed ind before the words "the Court may";

(2) delete the words "on such terms as to security or otherwise occurring in the rule;

(3) substitute "if" for "as" before the words "it thinks fit"; and

(4) add the following as proviso to the said rule, namely:

"Provided that in all cases where execution of the decree is stayed under this ne the Court shall require the person seeking such stay to furnish such security as it may deem fit." (1-6-1957)."

10. A perusal of Order XXI Rule 29 of the Code makes it evident that the same would be applicable in case a Suit is pending in any Court against the holder of a decree of such Court or of a decree which is being executed by such Court on the part of a person against whom the decree is passed or any person whose interest is affected by the decree or any order made in execution thereof (as per Allahabad amendment).

11. The aforesaid aspects of 'such Court' has been defined by Hon'ble the Supreme Court in the case of Shaukat Hussain (supra) in the following manner:-

"It is obvious from a mere perusal of the rule that there should be simultaneously two proceedings in one court. One is the proceeding in execution at the instance of the decree-holder against the judgment-debtor and the other a suit at the, instance of the judgment-debtor against the decree-holder. That is a condition under which the court in which the suit is pending may stay the execution before it. If that was the only condition, Mr. Chagla would be right in his contention, because admittedly there was a proceeding in execution by the decree-holder against the judgment-debtor in the court of Munsif 1st Gaya and there was also a suit at the instance of the judgment-debtor against the decreeholder in that court. But there is a snag in that rule. It is not enough that there is a suit pending by the judgment-debtor, it is further necessary that the suit must be against the holder of a decree of such court. The words "such court" are important. "Such court" means in the context of that rule the court in which the suit is pending. In other words, the suit must be one not only pending in that court but also one against the holder of a decree of that court.T hat appears to be the plain meaning of the rule.

It is true that in appropriate cases a court may grant an injunction against a party not to prosecute a proceeding in some other court. But ordinarily courts, unless they exercise appellate or revisional jurisdiction, do not have the power to stop proceedings in other courts by an order directed to such courts. For this specific provisions of law are necessary. Rule 29 clearly shows that the power of the court to stay execution before it flows directly from the fact that the execution is at the instance of the decree- holder whose decree had been passed by that court only. If the decree in execution was not passed by it, it had no jurisdiction to stay the execution. In fact this is emphasised by rule 26 already referred to. In the case before us the decree sought to be executed was not the decree of Munsif 1st Court Gaya but the decree of the Subordinate Judge, Gaya passed by him in exercise of his Small Cause Court jurisdiction. It is, therefore, obvious that the Order staying execution passed by the Munsif, Gaya would be incompetent and without jurisdiction."

12. From reading of aforesaid judgment it transpires that the principal consideration of Hon'ble the Supreme Court with regard to the words 'such court' means in the context of that rule, the Court in which Suit is pending. In other words, the Suit instituted against the decree holder and execution proceedings should simultaneously be pending in the same Court. Obviously, the proposition which would be basis of aforesaid judgment is that one Court cannot stay proceedings of another Co-ordinate Court. Hon'ble the Supreme Court in the aforesaid judgment has also referred to judgment rendered by this Court in the case of Inayat Beg vs. Umrao Beg reported in AIR 1930 AHD 121 to hold that even in case where a decree is transferred for execution to another Court, provisions of Order XXI Rule 29 of the Code would be inapplicable. The dissenting view of Calcutta High Court was overruled.

13. The provisions of Section 37 of the Code have also been adverted to explain the expression 'Court which passed a decree' in the following manner:-

"Section 37. Definition of Court which passed a decree.- The expression "Court which passed a decree," or words to that effect, shall, in relation to the execution of decrees, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context, be deemed to include,-

(a) where the decree to be executed has been passed in the exercise of appellate jurisdiction, the Court of first instance, and

(b) where the Court of first instance has ceased to exist or to have jurisdiction to execute it, the Court which, if the suit wherein the decree was passed was instituted at the time of making the application for the execution of the decree, would have jurisdiction to try such suit."

14. In the present case, it is admitted between the parties that while Regular Suit proceedings are pending in the Court of Additional Civil Judge, Senior Division, Hardoi, the execution case is pending consideration before Civil Judge, Senior Division, Hardoi. Obviously both the Courts are different and cannot be construed to be same Court to come within the definition of 'such court' as envisaged in Order XXI Rule 29 of the Code.

15. At this stage, learned counsel for the petitioner has drawn attention to the fact that at the time of filing of application under Order XXI Rule 29 of the Code, the Suit as well as execution proceedings were pending in the same Court of Additional Civil Judge, Senior Division, Hardoi but at the time of final adjudication of the application by means of impugned order, they were pending in separate Courts. The aspect of proceedings having been transferred has already been considered by Hon'ble the Supreme Court in the case of Shaukat Hussain (supra) in the following manner:-

"In Inayat Beg v. Umrao Beg AIR 1930 All 121 (1) the Allahabad High Court had held that where a decree was transferred for execution to a court, the latter could not, under Order 21 rule 29 C.P.C., stay execution of that decree in a suit at the instance of the judgment-debtor, the reason being that the decree sought to be executed was not the decree of 'such court', that is, the court in which the suit was pending. That view was dissented from by the Calcutta High Court in Sarada Kripa v. The Comilla Union Bank(2). The reasoning was that the Privy Council had held in Maharajah of Bobbili v. Narasarajupeda Srinhulu (3) that on transfer of a decree, the original court had ceased to have jurisdiction by virtue of section 37 C.P.C. The holder of a decree of 'such court' will include the court to which the decree has been transferred, the latter having the same powers in executing the decree as if it had been passed by it under section 42 C.P.C.

The above reasoning in the Calcutta case is based upon erro- neous assumptions. The Privy Council was not concerned in Maharajah of Bobbili v. Narasarajupeda Srinbulu(3) with the impact of sections 37 & 42 on Order 21 rule 29 C.P.C. It was only concerned to see whether the District Court was the 'proper court' within the meaning of Art. 182(5) of the 1st Schedule of the Limitation Act, 1908 in which to apply 'for execution or to take same step in aid of execution'."

16. Upon applicability of aforesaid judgment, it is evident that even where a decree is transferred for execution, stay of that decree cannot be sought under Order XXI Rule 29 of the Code since it would not come within the definition of 'such court' i.e. the Court in which the Suit is pending. In view of the aforesaid, even after transfer of execution proceedings, in the considered opinion of this Court the said judgment will apply with full vigour. The aforesaid judgment of Shaukat Hussain (supra) has thereafter been followed with approval in the subsequent judgment of Krishna (supra) in the following manner:-

"We are fortified in our view by a decision of this Court in Shaukat Hussain @ Ali Akram and Ors. v. Smt. Bhuneshwari Devi (1973) 1 SCR 1022 : (AIR 1973 SC 528), where this Court observed as follows :

"Rule 29 clearly shows that the power of the Court to stay execution before it flows directly from the fact that the execution is at the instance of the decree-holder whose decree had been passed by that court only. If the decree in execution was not passed by it, it had no jurisdiction to stay the execution."(Emphasis supplied)"

17. The aspect of the word 'where the Suit is pending' is also of particular importance since the same connotes that a Suit filed against holder of a decree of such Court should be pending as on the date when decree is sought to be executed which has also been considered by High Court of Madras in the case of Balamnal and others (supra) in the following manner:-

"21.Further, under Order XXI Rule 29 CPC, to stay the execution of the decree, the following conditions must be satisfied viz.:

a)there must be simultaneous proceedings;

b)an execution by the decree holder must be pending against the judgment debtor;

c)the judgment debtor must have filed a suit against the decree holder; and d)the suit must be pending.

22.In so far as this case is concerned, the first condition viz., there must be simultaneous proceedings, is not at all satisfied by the revision petitioners herein. The suit in O.S.No.270/2004 was filed in the year 2004 and the suit was decreed on 22.06.2005. The appeal was filed in the year 2005 and the same was dismissed on 10.10.2006. The second appeal was filed in the year 2006 and the same was also dismissed on 27.01.2011. The suit in O.S.No.104/2012 was filed on 20.04.2012 whereas the execution petition in E.P.No.107/2011 was filed on 02.11.2011. In such circumstances, it cannot be said that simultaneous proceedings are pending so as to invoke Order XXI Rule 29 CPC.

23.Even assuming that simultaneous proceedings are pending and even all the conditions of Order XXI Rule 29 CPC get satisfied, still staying the execution of the decree is not automatic, as the Execution Court has to exercise its discretion whether by staying the decree, great injustice would be caused to the decree holder or not."

18. In the aforesaid case also it is evident that execution proceedings were filed prior to institution of Regular Suit against the decree holder and in such circumstances, High Court at Madras has held that the same would not come within the definition of 'simultaneous proceedings' so as to invoke provisions of Order XXI Rule 29 of the Code.

19. In another judgment rendered by the High Court of Karnataka in the case of Sikandar Mohammad Ali Dalal (supra), the applicability of Order XXI Rule 29 of the Code has been defined as follows:-

"13. The issue regarding applicability of Order 21 Rule 29 CPC can be examined from yet another angle. It is an undisputed fact that the instant execution proceedings were instituted by the petitioners/ decreeholders against the respondent/ judgment debtor in the year 2012 while the suit in O.S. No. 22/2016 was instituted by the respondent/ judgment debtor subsequently , i.e., in the year 2016. It is relevant to state that Order 21 Rule 29 CPC to be applicable, it is also essential that the suit ought to be pending as on the date of institution of the execution proceedings and Order 21 Rule 29 CPC will not apply to suits which are instituted subsequent to institution of the execution proceedings. To put it differently, the power of the executing Court to stay its own proceedings can be invoked only in cases where a suit has already been instituted by the judgment debtor prior to institution of the execution proceedings and the same will not apply to suits which are instituted subsequent to institution of the execution proceedings. Any another interpretation or construction placed on Order 21 Rule 29 CPC will lead to disastrous consequence since every judgment debtor would be in a position to scuttle, stall and obstruct the execution proceedings by filing a suit after institution of the execution proceedings seeking to enforce the decrees which have attained finality and become conclusive and binding upon judgment debtor. Viewed from this angle also, in the undisputed facts of the instant case which disclose that the execution proceedings were instituted prior to institution of the suit in O.S. No. 22/2016 filed by the respondent/ judgment debtor, Order 21 Rule 29 CPC would be inapplicable to the facts of the instant case and on this score also, the application I.A. No. 12 was liable to be dismissed.

14. It is well settled that invoking the provision contained in Order 21 Rule 29 CPC is discretionary and should be exercised judiciously and not mechanically as a matter of course. It is equally well settled that mere satisfaction of the pre-conditions stipulated in Order 21 Rule 29 CPC is not sufficient for execution proceedings to be stayed and the power under this Rule has to be exercised only in exceptional cases where the interest of justice requires it and the fundamental consideration should be that the decreeholder should not be deprived of the fruits of the decree, except for compelling reasons and unless an extraordinary case is made out, no stay should be granted and the decree should be allowed to be continued.

17. As can be seen from the aforesaid judgments, the principles underlying Order 21 Rule 29 CPC can be summarized as under:

a) That, Order 21 Rule 29 CPC is applicable only if the suit and the execution proceedings referred to in the said provisions are pending before the very same Court and not before two different courts which are not of co-ordinate jurisdiction;

b) That the said provisions will not apply if the suit is instituted subsequent to institution of the execution proceedings: In other words, the said provision would apply only if the suit is instituted prior to institution of the execution proceedings and in the event the execution proceedings have already been instituted, mere institution of suit subsequently and its pendency cannot be made the basis to invoke Order 21 Rule 29 CPC;

C) The power and jurisdiction to stay its own proceeding pending before itself by the executing Court has to be exercised only under extraordinary and exceptional circumstances and not as a matter of course and care/ caution has to be taken by the executing Court to find out if staying its own proceedings would result in abuse of process of law and in that event, the executing Court would not stay further proceedings under these provisions."

20. In the present case, for the purpose of applicability of aforesaid judgment, the application preferred by the petitioner under Order XXI Rule 29 read with Section 151 of the Code is also required to be adverted to in which the only ground taken is that in the Suit filed by the petitioner subsequently, the issue of title over the Suit property is also required to be adjudicated and therefore prayer has been made for stay of execution proceedings pertaining to aforesaid Suit property.

21. A reading of the aforesaid application makes it evident that the application has been drafted in a very cursory manner. No specific reason has been indicated for invocation of provisions of Order XXI Rule 29 of the Code particularly the fact that no explanation has been furnished as to how the petitioner was unaware of the initial Suit proceedings pending since the year 1988 and that too when the petitioner has staked a claim in Suit property on the basis of co-ownership. It is also a relevant factor to be considered that the real brother of petitioner was party to the initial Suit proceedings in Regular Suit No.355 of 1988 and in case petitioner was claiming co-ownership of the Suit premises, it does not stand to reason that he was or could have been unaware of the aforesaid Suit proceedings which culminated in proceedings right up-till this Court in Second Appellate Jurisdiction.

22. Although the provisions of Order XXI Rule 29 of the Code empower the Executing Court to stay the execution of decree, at the same time, it is evident that such a power is not to be exercised in a cursory or mechanical manner but in exceptional circumstances only when a Suit against the decree holder is pending consideration at the time of filing of execution. Applying the aforesaid provisions to Suits filed subsequent to execution proceedings would lead to absurd results whereby no decree of any Court of competent jurisdiction can ever be satisfied. This cannot be the meaning and purpose of Order XXI Rule 29 of the Code particularly keeping in view the specific provisions of Rule 29 of the Code itself which indicates that a Suit should be pending against the holder of a decree or of a decree which has been executed. The obvious conclusion of the word 'pending' is that the Suit against the judgment decree holder should be pending as on the date of institution of execution. This Court is in respectful agreement with the judgments rendered by the High Courts of Madras and Karnataka.

23. Another aspect to be considered is that Hon'ble the Supreme Court in the case of Satyawati (supra) deprecated unreasonable delays in execution of decrees rendered by Courts of competent jurisdiction in the following manner:-

"14. This Court, again in the case of Marshall Sons & Co. (I) Ltd. vs. Sahi Oretrans (P) Ltd. & Anr. [(1999) 2 SCC 325] was constrained to observe in para 4 of the said judgment that

?4. ?..it appears to us, prima facie, that a decree in favour of the appellant is not being executed for some reason or the other, we do not think it proper at this stage to direct the respondent to deliver the possession to the appellant since the suit filed by the respondent is still pending. It is true that proceedings are dragged for a long time on one count or the other and on occasion, become highly technical accompanied by unending prolixity at every stage providing a legal trap to the unwary. Because of the delay, unscrupulous parties to the proceedings take undue advantage and person who is in wrongful possession draws delight in delay in disposal of the cases by taking undue advantage of procedural complications. It is also a known fact that after obtaining a decree for possession of immovable property, its execution takes long time?..?

16. As stated by us hereinabove, the position has not been improved till today. We strongly feel that there should not be unreasonable delay in execution of a decree because if the decree holder is unable to enjoy the fruits of his success by getting the decree executed, the entire effort of successful litigant would be in vain."

24. It is also relevant to indicate that any person having an interest in the Suit property with regard to which a decree has been passed has a remedy not only under Section 47 but also under Rule XXI Rules 97 to 104 of the Code due to which also the provisions of Order XXI Rule 29 of the Code are required to be used only in exceptional circumstances.

25. With regard to reliance placed upon U.P.Judicial Services Rules, 2001 is concerned, it is quite evident that the same pertains to service regulation of judicial officers, which would be administrative in nature and by no stretch of imagination can be deemed to include judicial proceedings as has been submitted.

26. So far as the judgments relied upon by learned counsel for the petitioner are concerned, reading of the same makes it evident that the same have been passed only on the ground that the trial Court had passed orders impugned therein without considering the provisions of Order XXI Rule 29 of the Code and therefore the petition had been allowed remanding the cases for fresh consideration in terms of the said provision. A reading of the aforesaid judgments makes it evident that no proposition of law nor any ratio decidendi is evident in the aforesaid judgments and as such in the considered opinion of this Court would not have any binding nature.

27. This Court as such is in respectful agreement with the summary of principles pertaining to Order XXI Rule 29 of the Code as indicated herein-above in the case of Sikandar Mohammad Ali Dalal (supra) by the High Court of Karnatka.

28. In view of the aforesaid discussion, the provisions of Order XXI Rule 29 of the Code being inapplicable in the present facts and circumstances of the case, no exception can be taken to the orders impugned.

29. Resultantly, the petition being devoid of merits is dismissed.

(2023) 4 ILRA 308
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 29.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE NEERAJ TIWARI, J.

Matter Under Article 227 No. 2393 of 2023

Mohd. Usman ...Petitioner
Versus
Smt. Shagupta Begum ...Respondent

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Ashish Kumar Singh, Sri Ajay Kumar Singh

Counsel for the Respondents:
Sri Prashant Rai, Sri Krishna Nand Rai

A. Civil Law – Striking off of the defence - Code of Civil Procedure,1908 - Order XV, Rule 5 - Under sub-rule (2) of Rule 5 of Order XV C.P.C., striking off of the defence is in the nature of penalty leading to serious consequences, therefore, a serious liability rests upon the Court in the matter and power is not to be exercised mechanically while passing the order under sub-rule (2) of Rule 5 of Order XV C.P.C. Even in case, representation has not been filed under sub-rule (2) of Rule 5 of Order XV C.P.C, it is required on the part of Court to consider the facts and circumstances already existing on record. (Para 19)

Impugned order dated 14.11.2022 allowed the application 65-C and struck off the defence of the petitioner-defendant only on the ground that an earlier application Paper No. 41-Ga has been rejected vide order dated 29.08.2018 and also affirmed by High Court vide order dated 07.02.2019.

In fact, Judge, Small Causes Court has wrongly interpreted the order of High Court dated 07.02.2019. Once the Court has granted liberty to petitioner-defendant to challenge the order of striking off of the defence, the implied meaning would be that, while considering the application to strike off the defence, it is mandatory on the part of the court below to decide the issue afresh, including the application Paper No. 41-Ga on merits again. The order of High Court dated 07.02.2019 has annulled the effect of order dated 29.08.2018 passed by Judge, Small Causes Court, with liberty to petitioner to raise this issue again after, in case, any order has been passed for striking off of the defence.

The spirit of the order of High Court is that, in case of passing of fresh order for striking off of the defence, petitioner would have full liberty to challenge the same and court below is required to decide the same on merits, without being impressed with the its earlier order dated 29.08.2018. (Para 23, 24)

While passing the order considering all the evidence u/Order XV Rule 5, C.P.C. Court must have been very conscious, as passing of such order would take away the liberty of petitioner-defendant to lead the evidence and all other consequences, certainly resulting into allowing of suit without any protest. (Para 25)

Writ petition allowed. (E-4)

Precedent followed:

1. Bimal Chand Jain Vs Sri Gopal Agarwal, (1981) 3 SCC 486, decided on 27.07.1981 (Para 13)

2. Asha Rani Gupta Vs Vineet Kumar, 2022 SCC Online SC 829 (Para 13)

3. Gulshan Pahwa & ors. Vs Dargah Peer Dariyanath Ji Shrawannath Nagar, Haridwar & anr., (2022) 157 RD 573 (Para 13)

Present petition challenges the order dated 14.11.2022, passed by Judge, Small Causes Court, Saharanpur, by which defence of petitioner-defendant was struck off under provision of Order XV, Rule 5, C.P.C. and order dated 31.01.2023 passed by District Judge, Saharanpur dismissing the SCC Revision, which was filed by the petitioner-defendant challenging the previous order.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Neeraj Tiwari, J.)

1. Heard Sri Ashish Kumar Singh, learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri Krishna Nand Rai alongwith Sri Prashant Rai, learned counsel for opposite party.

2. Present petition has been filed challenging the order dated 14.11.2022, passed by Judge, Small Causes Court, Saharanpur in SCC Suit No. 25 of 2014, by which defence of petitioner-defendant was struck off under provision of Order XV, Rule 5, C.P.C. and order dated 31.01.2023 passed by District Judge, Saharanpur dismissing the SCC Revision No. 132 of 2022, which was filed by the petitioner-defendant challenging the order dated 14.11.2022.

3. Since, only legal question is involved in this petition, therefore, with the consent of parties without inviting for affidavits, the matter is being decided at the admission stage itself.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner-defendant submitted that plaintiff-respondent had filed SCC Suit No. 25 of 2014 before the Judge, Small Causes Court, Saharanpur for arrears of rent and ejectment on the ground of default in payment of rent. On service of summons, petitioner-defendant has filed application Paper No. 12-Ga dated 14.10.2014 to deposit the rent as provided under Order XV, Rule 5, C.P.C. The aforesaid application was allowed vide order dated 27.10.2014 and petitioner-defendant had deposited rent alongwith interest on 14.10.2014 for the period from 01.08.2011 to 05.08.2014 and also filed written statement.

5. He next submitted that suit is being contested, but due to illness of petitioner, he could not deposit monthly rent, as provided under Order XV, Rule 5, C.P.C., therefore, he has filed application Paper No. 41-Ga dated 31.05.2017 for permission to deposit the entire amount for the period from 30.09.2015 to 30.10.2017 and also presented tender for the same. Against the said application, objection paper No. 44-Ga dated 27.02.2018 has been filed by plaintiff-respondent and ultimately, application Paper No. 41-Ga has been rejected by Judge, Small Causes Court vide order dated 29.08.2018.

6. He further submitted that petitioner-defendant subjected to challenge the order dated 29.08.2018 before the District Judge, Sharanpur vide SCC Revision No. 31 of 2018, which was rejected vide order dated 07.01.2019 with the finding that Trial Court has rightly rejected the application Paper No. 41-Ga and also rightly struck off the defence of the petitioner-defendant. Petitioner-defendant has challenged both the orders dated 29.08.2018 and 07.01.2019 before this Court by filing Civil Misc. Writ Petition No. 805 of 2019, which was disposed of vide order dated 07.02.2019. This Court, while disposing of the said writ petition, has clarified that order impugned dated 29.08.2018 would not amount to order of striking off of the defence with liberty to petitioner-defendant to challenge the order, in case defence is struck off.

7. He next submitted that vide order dated 24.11.2021, Judge, Small Causes Court has suo moto struck off the defence of petitioner-defendant, upon which, he has filed application Paper No. 62-C-2 for recalling the order dated 24.11.2021. The said application was allowed vide order dated 12.07.2022. On 10.12.2021, plaintiff-respondent has also filed application Paper No. 65-C under Order XV, Rule 5, C.P.C. to strike off the defence of the petitioner-defendant, upon which, petitioner-defendant has filed objection Paper No. 67-C dated 18.05.2022 with specific plea that all amount due, as provided under Order XV, Rule 5, C.P.C. has been deposited by him and tenders have also been annexed, therefore, the application to strike off the defence is not maintainable.

8. He next submitted that by the impugned order dated 24.11.2021, Judge, Small Causes Court, after going through the application of plaintiff-respondent and reply of petitioner-defendant, has struck off the defence of the petitioner-defendant only on the ground of earlier order passed on 29.08.2018.

9. Learned counsel for the petitioner has assailed the order dated 24.11.2021 only on the ground that once the High Court vide order dated 07.02.2019 has granted liberty to petitioner-defendant to challenge the striking off of the defence at later stage, it is required on the part of the Judge, Small Causes Court to decide the issue afresh and not in light of earlier order dated 29.08.2018, which was subject matter of Civil Misc. Writ Petition No. 805 of 2019.

10. He firmly submitted that the finding of the Trial Court is perverse and also ignoring the order of the High Court dated 07.02.2019, which has given liberty to petitioner to challenge the order of striking off of the defence. In fact, once the Court has given liberty to petitioner-defendant to challenge the striking off of the defence as and when the defence is struck off, principle of merger shall be applicable and, while entertaining the application Paper No. 65-C and objection Paper No. 67-C, it is required on the part of Judge, Small Causes Court to decide the applications 41-Ga and 44-Ga also afresh, considering the circumstances prevailing on the date of filing of applications, ignoring the earlier order dated 29.08.2018, as the same has lost the effect in light of order of High Court dated 07.02.2019.

11. It is also petitioner's case that Order XV, Rule 5, C.P.C. provides for filing of representation and even in case of absence of representation, it is required on the part of the Small Causes Court to consider all materials available on record while passing the order for striking off the defence.

12. He next submitted that this fact is undisputed that on the date of filing of application Paper No. 65-C, all amount as required under Order XV, Rule 5, C.P.C. had already been deposited and available with the Court. Therefore, while passing the impugned order 14.11.2022, the same cannot be ignored.

13. In support of his contention, learned counsel for the petitioner has placed reliance upon the judgment of the Apex Court in matter of Bimal Chand Jain Vs. Sri Gopal Agarwal: (1981) 3 Supreme Court Cases 486, decided on 27.07.1981, judgment of Apex Court in the matter of Asha Rani Gupta Vs. Vineet Kumar: 2022 SCC Online SC 829 and judgment of High Court of Uttarakhand at Nainital in the matter of Gulshan Pahwa and Others Vs. Dargah Peer Dariyanath Ji Shrawannath Nagar, Haridwar and Another: (2022) 157 RD 573.

14. Sri Krishna Nand Rai, learned counsel for the opposite party has raised preliminary objection to the submission of learned counsel for the petitioner and submitted that High Court while passing the order dated 07.02.2019, has affirmed the order dated 29.08.2018 passed by Judge, Small Causes Court, by which application of petitioner 41-Ga has been rejected to deposit the arrears of rent as required under Order XV, Rule 5, C.P.C. Thereafter, District Judge has rightly rejected SCC Revision No. 31 of 2018 filed by petitioner-defendant vide order dated 07.01.2019, relying upon the earlier order dated 29.08.2018. But, he could not dispute the fact that while disposing of the writ petition No. 805 of 2019, this Court vide order dated 07.02.2019 has given liberty to petitioner to challenge, if any specific order is passed for striking off the defence of the petitioner.

15. I have considered the rival submissions made by the counsel for the parties, perused the records and also judgments relied upon.

16. Facts of the case are undisputed. The only issue before the Court is about interpretation of order dated 07.02.2019 passed by the High Court in Civil Misc. Writ Petition No. 805 of 2019. Once this Court has given liberty to petitioner-defendant to challenge the order of striking off of the defence, what would be the effect of the order of High Court and fate of earlier order dated 29.08.2018 pass by Judge, Small Causes Court.

17. Order dated 07.02.2019 passed by the High Court in Writ Petition No. 805 of 2019 is not very lengthy and the same is being reproduced hereinbelow:

"By impugned order dated 29.8.2018, the trial Court in SCC Suit No. 25/2014 had rejected the application 41Ga filed by the petitioner seeking permission to deposit rent from 30.9.2015 to 30.6.2017. The order has been affirmed in revision.

Counsel for the petitioner submitted that certain observations have been made by the Revisional Court that defence of the petitioner has been struck off by the trial Court, while there is no such order in existence.

It is true that in the penultimate paragraph of the order of the Revisional Court, an observation has been made that the trial Court has rightly rejected the application 41Ga and has also rightly struck off the defence of the petitioner. A perusal of the order of the trial Court reveals that it had simply rejected the application 41Ga without their being any specific order for striking off the defence.

It is noteworthy that the Revisional Court has simply dismissed the revision and has upheld the order of the trial Court, without itself recording any independent finding for striking off the defence.

In such view of the matter, this Court is of the opinion that as and when any specific order is passed by the trial Court striking off the defence, it shall be open to the petitioner to challenge the same, but at the present moment, it cannot be said that its defence stands struck off, as sought to be urged. Consequently, this Court is not inclined to interfere with the impugned orders.

The petition is disposed of, subject to the above clarification."

18. From the perusal of order of High Court dated 07.02.2019, it is apparently clear that the Court has not entered into merits of the impugned order 29.08.2018, but disposed of the petition with liberty to petitioner-defendant to challenge any specific order, if any, passed for striking off of the defence, meaning thereby, petitioner was given liberty to raise all issues while challenging the order of striking off of the defence, which is the subject matter of earlier order dated 29.08.2018, otherwise, order of High Court dated 07.02.2019 would be of no effect. While declining to interfere with the impugned order dated 29.08.2018, High Court has not given a word in favour of order dated 29.08.2018 except liberty to petitioner to challenge the striking off of the defence. Therefore, it is required on the part of the Judge, Small Causes Court to decide the application Paper No. 65-C on merits and not relying upon the earlier order dated 29.08.2018.

19. The Apex Court while dealing with the matter of Bimal Chand Jain(Supra), has taken a firm view that under sub-rule (2) of Rule 5 of Order XV C.P.C., striking off of the defence is in the nature of penalty leading to serious consequences, therefore, a serious liability rests upon the Court in the matter and power is not to be exercised mechanically while passing the order under sub-rule (2) of Rule 5 of Order XV C.P.C. The Court went to the extent that even in case, representation has not been filed under sub-rule (2) of Rule 5 of Order XV C.P.C, it is required on the part of Court to consider the facts and circumstances already existing on record. Relevant paragraphs of the said judgment is quoted hereinbelow:

"5. It appears on the facts in this case that no representation under sub-rule (2) was made by the appellant. The only question raised before us is whether, in the absence of such representation, the court was obliged to strike off the defence of the appellant.

6. It seems to us on a comprehensive understanding of Rule 5 of Order 15 that the true construction of the Rule should be thus. Sub-rule (1) obliges the defendant to deposit, at or before the first hearing of the suit, the entire amount admitted by him to be due together with interest thereon at the rate of nine per cent per annum and further, whether or not he admits any amount to be due, to deposit regularly throughout the continuation of the suit the monthly amount due within a week from the date of its accrual. In the event of any default in making any deposit, "the court may subject to the provisions of sub-rule (2) strike off his defence". We shall presently come to what this means. Sub-rule (2) obliges the court, before making an order for striking off the defence to consider any representation made by the defendant in that behalf. In other words, the defendant has been vested with a statutory right to make a representation to the court against his defence being struck off. If a representation is made the court must consider it on its merits, and then decide whether the defence should or should not be struck off. This is a right expressly vested in the defendant and enables him to show by bringing material on the record that he has not been guilty of the default alleged or if the default has occurred, there is good reason for it. Now, it is not impossible that the record may contain such material already. In that event, can it be said that sub-rule (1) obliges the court to strike off the defence? We must remember that an order under sub-rule (1) striking off the defence is in the nature of a penalty. A serious responsibility rests on the court in the matter and the power is not to be exercised mechanically. There is a reserve of discretion vested in the court entitling it not to strike off the defence if on the facts and circumstances already existing on the record it finds good reason for not doing so. It will always be a matter for the judgment of the court to decide whether on the material before it, notwithstanding the absence of a representation under sub-rule (2), the defence should or should not be struck off. The word "may" in sub-rule (1) merely vests power in the court to strike off the defence. It does not oblige it to do so in every case of default. To that extent, we are unable to agree with the view taken by the High Court in Puran Chand (supra). We are of opinion that the High Court has placed an unduly narrow construction on the provisions of clause (1) of Rule 5 of Order 15."

20. Again, Apex Court in the matter of Asha Rani Gupta(Supra) has taken the same view. Relevant paragraphs of the said judgment are quoted hereinbelow:

"37. Though the aforesaid decisions in cases of Miss Santosh Mehta, Smt. Kamla Devi and Manik Lal Majumdar related to the respective rent control legislations applicable to the respective jurisdictions, which may not be of direct application to the present case but and yet, the relevant propositions to be culled out for the present purpose are that any such provision depriving the tenant of defence because of default in payment of the due amount of rent/arrears have been construed liberally; and the expression "may' in regard to the power of the Court to strike out defence has been construed as directory and not mandatory. In other words, the Courts have leaned in favour of not assigning a mandatory character to such provisions of drastic consequence and have held that a discretion is indeed reserved with the Court concerned whether to penalise the tenant or not. However, and even while reserving such discretion, this Court has recognised the use of such discretion against the defendant-tenant in case of wilful failure or deliberate default or volitional non-performance. This Court has also explained the principles in different expressions by observing that if the mood of defiance or gross neglect is discerned, the tenant may forfeit his right to be heard in defence. The sum and substance of the matter is that the power to strike off defence is considered to be discretionary, which is to be exercised with circumspection but, relaxation is reserved for a bonafide tenant like those in the cases of Miss Santosh Mehta and Smt. Kamla Devi (supra) and not as a matter of course. The case of Bimal Chand Jain (supra) directly related with Order XV Rule 5 CPC where the tenant had deposited the arrears admitted to be due but, failed to make regular deposits of monthly rent and failed to submit representation in terms of sub-rule (2) of Rule 5 of Order XV. The defence was struck off in that matter with the Trial Court and the High Court taking the said provisions of Order XV Rule 5 CPC as being mandatory in character. Such an approach was not approved by this Court while indicating the reserve of discretion in not striking off defence if, on the facts and circumstances existing on record, there be good reason for not doing so. The common thread running through the aforesaid decisions of this Court is that the power to strike off the defence is held to be a matter of discretion where, despite default, defence may not be struck off, for some good and adequate reason.

38. The question of good and adequate reason for not striking off the defence despite default would directly relate with such facts, factors and circumstances where full and punctual compliance had not been made for any bonafide cause, as contradistinguished from an approach of defiance or volitional/elective non-performance."

21. High Court of Uttarakhand at Nainital has also followed the same ratio of law in the matter of Gulshan Pahwa and Others(Supra). Relevant paragraphs of the said judgment are quoted hereinbelow:

"6. Thus, it can be seen that power to strike off defence is not to be exercised by treating it to be a statutory mandate. Since exercise of such power inflicts severe penal consequences, the court has discretion not to strike off, if on facts it finds good reason for not doing so, therefore, the power should be exercised after considering the facts and circumstances appearing on the record and in the event of their being a representation, after considering the representation.

9. In the humble opinion of this Court, revisional court's interference with the order passed by learned trial court was not warranted in the facts of the case, as it is not obligatory for the court in every case to strike off defence because of some delay in deposit of admitted rent. Since learned trial court has discretion in the matter, which was exercised well within jurisdiction, therefore, learned revisional court fell into error in interfering with the order passed by learned trial court."

22. In the present case, impugned order has been passed upon the application Paper No. 65-C filed by plaintiff-respondent and objection Paper No. 67-C dated 18.05.2022, filed by the petitioner-defendant. In the objection, petitioner has made a clear cut averment that all amount due has already been deposited. While passing the impugned order, Judge, Small Causes Court has not returned any finding upon that, but allowed the application 65-C and struck off the defence of the petitioner-defendant only on the ground that earlier application Paper No. 41-Ga has been rejected vide order dated 29.08.2018 and also affirmed by High Court.

23. In fact, Judge, Small Causes Court has wrongly interpreted the order of High Court dated 07.02.2019. Once the Court has granted liberty to petitioner-defendant to challenge the order of striking off of the defence, the implied meaning would be that, while considering the application to strike off the defence, it is mandatory on the part of the court below to decide the issue afresh, including the application Paper No. 41-Ga on merits again, but due to incorrect interpretation, application Paper No. 65-C was allowed only on the ground of earlier order dated 29.08.2018, taking away the mandate of order of the High Court dated 07.02.2019.

24. The order of High Court dated 07.02.2019 has annulled the effect of order dated 29.08.2018 passed by Judge, Small Causes Court, Saharanpur, with liberty to petitioner to raise this issue again after, in case, any order has been passed for striking off of the defence. The spirit of the order of High Court is that, in case of passing of fresh order for striking off of the defence, petitioner would have full liberty to challenge the same and court below is required to decide the same on merits, without being impressed with the its earlier order dated 29.08.2018.

25. Even otherwise, while passing the order considering all the evidence under Order XV Rule 5, C.P.C. Court must have been very conscious, as passing of such order would take away the liberty of petitioner-defendant to lead the evidence and all other consequences, certainly resulting into allowing of suit without any protest.

26. Therefore, under such facts and circumstances of the case, the petition is allowed. The impugned order dated 14.11.2022, passed by Judge, Small Causes Court, Saharanpur in SCC Suit No. 25 of 2014, and order dated 31.01.2023 passed by District Judge, Saharanpur in SCC Revision No. 132 of 2022 are hereby quashed.

27. Matter is remanded back to Judge Small Causes Court, Saharanpur to decide afresh the application Paper No. 41-Ga, objection paper No. 44-Ga, application Paper No. 65-C and objection Paper No. 67-C maximum within two months from the production of certified copy of this order in light of observation made herein above.

28. It is made clear that petitioner-defendant is not granted liberty to file any fresh paper except judgments of courts.

(2023) 4 ILRA 315
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 31.01.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAM MANOHAR NARAYAN MISHRA, J.

Matter Under Article 227 No. 10928 of 2022

Satyabhan Singh ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondent

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Ashutosh Singh

Counsel for the Respondents:
G.A.

A. Criminal Law – Confiscation of truck - Delhi Excise Act, 2009 - Section 61 - U.P. Excise Act, 1910 - Sections 5(A)(2), 60, 61 & 72 - N.D.P.S. Act,1985 - Section 21/22 - Collector is sole authority under the Act to pass an order for confiscation/release of vehicle so seized under the law.

Collector is vested with exclusive jurisdiction to confiscate any such thing like animal cart or other conveyance, if he is of opinion that this is subject to speedy wear and tear or natural decay or it is otherwise expedient in public interest, whether or not prosecution charges has been instituted or concluded while exercising powers of confiscation provided u/s 2 and 3 of the Act. The collector has not to wait for conclusion of trial relating to criminal offence under the Act and while confiscation order, he has to record his satisfaction that the offence under the Act has been committed and the vehicle has been seized by competent official under provisions of the Act after giving opportunity of hearing to the person who claims to be owner of the vehicle. (Para 17)

In present case, this is admitted fact that no application was filed by the applicant before Court of Judicial Magistrate concerned for release of seized truck, the confiscation proceedings were initiated by Collector (ADM F&R) and on report of S.S.P, Mathura and after giving opportunity of hearing to the applicant/petitioner, learned ADM (F&R)/ collector passed impugned order of confiscation of the vehicle as such. Confiscation proceedings are not pending and are already decided by competent authority. (Para 16)

B. Once a vehicle is seized in violation of the provisions of U.P. Excise Act by competent police or Excise officer, a heavy burden is lied upon the owner of the vehicle which he has to discharge before the authorities concerned that firstly, he had no knowledge that an illegal act (carrying the illegal liquors) was being done with said vehicle and secondly, that he applied all the necessary safety and precautions to see that such an Act may not be committed by the said vehicle. The petitioner, in fact, failed to discharge his burden before ADM, as well as before the District Judge, that is the appellate authority.

The learned Additional District Magistrate while passing confiscation order stated that due to transportation of illicit liquor in the State of U.P., the vehicle is found to be involved in smuggling of liquor and its seizure, therefore its confiscation is found proper and therefore, it has to be disposed of in terms of Section 72 U.P. Excise Act. (Para 19)

C. Principle of Vicarious Liability - Even if the owner/petitioner was not found on the spot along with when the vehicle was seized in presence of co-accused, the principle of vicarious liability will apply to this police case as the vehicle was operated by the driver at the time of incident who was not the owner. The petitioner has failed to prove the fact before the Court below that the vehicle was transported with illicit liquor without knowledge or connivance except the stand taken by him that he was not aware about day to day movement of the vehicle as the same was operated by the driver on a fix rate paid to him on monthly basis. (Para 20)

D. An option has been given to the petitioner to pay the market value of the vehicle as ascertained by ARTO in lieu of its confiscation and therefore, it cannot be said that the petitioner has become entirely deprived of his vehicle by the impugned order and if the vehicle has not been auctioned yet, the collector will afford him an opportunity to deposit the market price of the vehicle as determined by ARTO concerned in lieu of confiscation and if he does so, the vehicle will be released in his favour and the amount deposited by him in lieu of confiscation will lie in the custody of Government subject to provisions of Section 72(8). (Para 21)

Writ petition dismissed. (E-4)

Precedent followed:

1. Ved Prakash Vs Uttar Pradesh, 1987 AWC 167

2. Virendra Gupta Vs State, Criminal Revision No. 2177 of 2018 (Para 6)

3. State (NCT of Delhi) Vs Narender, 2014 (13) SCC 100 (Para 6, 13)

4. Mustafa Vs St. of U.P. & anr., Civil Appeal No. 6418 of 2019, SCC online Web edn p. 1 (Para 6, 16)

Precedent cited:

1. Sunder Bhai Ambalal Desai Vs St. of Guj., 2003 (46) A.C.C. 223 (Para 8)

2. Chadra Pal Vs St. of U.P. & anr., Judgment of this Hon'ble Court dated 12.02.2021 in Application u/s 482 No. 1325 of 2021 (Para 9)

3. Pappu Yadav @ Bhoo Prakash Yadav Vs St. of U.P., (2014) AILJ 50 (Para 10)

Present petition challenges the order dated 30.05.2022, passed by learned

District Judge, Mathura in Civil Appeal No. 25 of 2020 (Satyabhan Vs. District Magistrate and another) as well as order dated 17.01.2019 passed by Additional District Magistrate (F&R), Mathura in Case No. 01798 of 2018 (Satyabhan Vs. State State).

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ram Manohar Narayan Mishra, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner Shri Ashutosh Singh and learned A.G.A. for the State.

2. Instant criminal Misc. petition under Article 227 of the Constitution of India has been filed by the petitioner to set aside the order dated 30.05.2022 passed by learned District Judge, Mathura in Civil Appeal No. 25 of 2020 (Satyabhan Vs. District Magistrate and another) as well as order dated 17.01.2019 passed by Additional District Magistrate (F&R), Mathura in Case No. 01798 of 2018 (Satyabhan Vs. State State) under Section 72 U.P. Excise Act, 1910 otherwise petitioner shall suffer irreparable loss. By the impugned order dated 17.01.2019, learned A.D.M (F&R) has passed an order of confiscation of the truck bearing registration No. HR 67 B 1888 seized by police under Sections 60/72 Excise Act under Crime No. 382/2017 under Sections 420, 120B I.P.C.

3. Learned ADM (F&R) has directed auction of said vehicle and sale proceeds be deposited with Government treasury in criminal head, and also given an option to vehicle owner to deposit the current price of vehicle as ascertained by R.T.O.

4. Feeling aggrieved by the said confiscation order passed by learned ADM (F&R), the petitioner/owner of vehicle preferred a civil appeal under Section 72 Excise Act, before District Judge, Mathura who dismissed the appeal and affirmed the impugned order passed by learned ADM (F&R). The factual matrix of the case in brief are that the informant Excise Inspector, during his course of duty received an information on 22.09.2017 that a truck of Ashok Leyland bearing registration No. HR 67 B 1888 was likely to pass through Laxminagar crossing Mathura which is loaded with cartons of illicit liquor. The informant laid a trap placing reliance on said information with assistance of his colleagues and intercepted the said truck, however, the truck driver tried to run away by stepping down from the truck, but he was caught by one Excise Constable at around 1900 hours and another person who was sitting beside the driver in the cabin of the truck was also caught by team of excise officials in the process of escape. The arrested person disclosed their name as Vinod (Driver) and Parmendra. On searching the truck 100 cartons of Royal Stag brand classic whisky bottles and 40 half bottles of Royal Stag were found. The wrappers of said bottles displayed that "For Sale in Haryana Only". The papers of the truck were seized from dashboard of the vehicle which revealed that Satyawan s/o Ram Singh resident of Risalu, Panipat was registered as owner of the vehicle. The intensity of the seized liquor was tested on spot by breaking open the seal of three bottles which were separately sealed as sample. The cartons consisted 1200 full and 960 half bottles of whisky.

5. As said truck was caught on the charge of in the inter-state smuggling of the liquor, a report was made by S.S.P. Mathura on 31.10.2017 to District Magistrate for initiating confiscation proceedings under Section 72 Excise Act, according to rules, a suo moto notice was issued on 6.11.2017 to the petitioner and service of notice on petitioner was held to be sufficient and an ex-parte confiscation order was passed on 22.11.2017. However, same was recalled on application of petitioner and after affording him an opportunity of hearing the impugned order for confiscation of vehicle was passed by ADM(F&R) on 17.01.2019 and civil appeal against that order was dismissed by District Judge on 30.05.2022.

6. Learned District Judge placing reliance on observations of Apex Court in Mustafa Vs. State of Uttar Pradesh and others, C.A. No. 6418/ 2019 (SC), (GNTC of Delhi) Vs. Narender (2014) 13 SCC, 100 and Ved Prakash Vs. Uttar Pradesh 1987 AWC 167, Virendra Gupta Vs. State Criminal Revision No. 2177 of 2018 decided by this Court that the case law cited by learned counsel for the appellant is not applicable to the facts of the case as the alleged vehicle was carrying the illegal liquors seized by Excise officials and was involved in inter-state transportation of the same against rules. No fault could be found in impugned order passed by learned ADM (F&R) Mathura, while issuing confiscation order in regard to said truck. He finally concluded that there is no perversity, illegality, impropriety, material irregularity or jurisdictional error in order passed by learned Additional District Magistrate concerned and thus, affirmed the impugned order and dismissed the civil appeal preferred by the petitioner.

7. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the said truck was hired by Vinod son of Ramphal for Rs. 45,000/- rent on oral agreement as he was known to the petitioner for last 4 to 5 years. However, on 22.09.2017 said truck was seized by excise officials within jurisdiction of P.S. Jamunapur, District- Mathura on charges of inter-state smuggling of liquor and was lodged by Excise Inspector in this regard. There is no dispute regarding ownership of the petitioner regarding the vehicle, he is registered owner of the said truck and wrongly added as an accused in said criminal case only due to the fact that he is owner of the said truck. The police filed a charge-sheet against him in said offence and cognizance has been taken against him by the Court. The petitioner had prayed for bail before the Court below and he has been released on bail. The order passed by learned Additional District Magistrate dated 22.11.2017 was an ex-parte order in which the vehicle is directed to be confiscated, the petitioner filed an restoration application for reviewing the said ex-parte order before learned ADM and same was recalled vide order dated 27.10.2018 and matter was reheard by him, however, confiscation order with regard to said vehicle was passed on 17.01.2019 and he did not consider the fact that said truck was used by driver Vinod on condition of paying Rs. 45,000/- per month as rent to the owner. The petitioner was not present at the time of the incident on the spot and he is not supposed to be aware of the day to day commercial activities of the driver in whose custody the truck was lying. Learned District Judge also failed to appreciate the facts of the case in proper manner and dismissed his civil appeal preferred against order of learned ADM. The said liquor was not obtained from possession of the petitioner, therefore the petitioner had to seek constitutional remedy before this Hon'ble Court. He further submitted that the vehicle has been kept idle since long resulting in wear and tear of the vehicle and its efficacy is deteriorating day by day, he earns his livelihood from this vehicle. This is admitted position that he was not arrested on the spot.

8. Learned counsel for the appellant placed reliance on pronouncement of Hon'ble Apex Court in Sunder Bhai AmbalaI Desai Vs. State of Gujarat 2003 (46) A.C.C.223 wherein Hon'ble Apex Court observed that it is of no use to keep such-seized vehicles at the police stations for a long period. It is for the Magistrate to pass appropriate orders immediately by taking appropriate bond and guarantee as well as security for return of the said vehicles, if required at any point of time. This can be done pending hearing of the applications for return of such vehicles. In case where the vehicle is not claimed by the accused, owner, or the insurance company or by third person, then such vehicle may be ordered to be auctioned by the Court.

9. Learned counsel for the appellant also placed reliance on an AFR judgment of this court dated 12.02.2021 in Application under Section 482 No.1325 of 2021 Chadra Pal Vs. State of U.P. and Another, wherein it is held in view of law laid down by Apex Court as well as this Court as cited in judgment, Magistrate as well as Revisional Court ought to have decided the issue regarding their own jurisdiction for releasing seized vehicle in exercise of powers under the Code in respect of vehicle which has been seized and confiscation proceedings with regard to which are pending consideration before District Magistrate under Section 72 of Act, 1910. However, the said issue remains unanswered by both the courts below. Thus, the order impugned in present application cannot be sustained on account of erroneous reasoning and therefore, liable to be quashed and matter is remitted to concerned Magistrate to decide release application of the applicant afresh in the light of observations made herein above within a period of one month.

10. Learned counsel for the appellant further placed reliance on judgment of this Court in Paapu Yadav alias Bhoo Prakash Yadav Vs. State of U.P.(2014) AIILJ 50,the fact of the case were somewhat similar to present case as S.H.O Sikandrarau, District-Hathras intercepted an Indica car which was loaded with illicit liquor and intoxicating power, acting on a secret information. The petitioner was sole occupant of the vehicle, the intoxicating power appeared diazapam powder weighing 110 gms, he was apprehended under Section 60 of United Provinces Excise Act, 1910under Section 21/22 of N.D.P.S. Act. He was released on bail in due course and applied for release of vehicle before Judicial Magistrate who rejected the application on ground that confiscation proceedings with regard to said vehicle were under way before District Magistrate. He made a representation before District Magistrate under Section 5(A)(2) of Section 72 but same was rejected and confiscation order was passed and the vehicle was directed to be sold by public auction. The appeal preferred against order of District Magistrate was also dismissed by learned Additional Sessions Judge, Hathras. This Court observed that the appeal against confiscation order passed by District Magistrate will be heard as civil appeal not criminal appeal by District Judge. The word 'District Judge' is defined in Section 3(17) of the General Clauses Act as follows:-

"(17) "District Judge" shall mean the Judge of a principal Civil Court of original jurisdiction, but shall not include a High Court in the exercise of its ordinary or extraordinary original civil jurisdiction." It is evident from the It is evident from the Notification that the appointed Appellate Judicial Authority is District Judge. An appeal to the District Judge should not have been heard or registered as Criminal Appeal. It should have been registered as Civil Appeal and should have been disposed of by the District Judge himself. Whenever a Judicial Authority is appointed as persona designata, hearing should be done by that Authority and as far as possible benefit of other Acts should not be taken." Endeavour should be made to decide the appeal by the District Judge himself. In Pappu Yadav's case this Court quashed impugned order of District Magistrate confiscating the vehicle of the petitioner and the order passed by the lower appellate court being erroneous and illegal and the respondents were directed to release the said Car in favour of the petitioner immediately in the same condition as it was on the date of its seizure. However, aforesaid case appears to be decided on ground that the Additional District Judge had decided the appeal as a criminal appeal instead of civil appeal and the same should have been decided by District Judge himself instead of transferring the same to concurrent of Additional District Judge. The Collector while exercising powers of confiscation under Section 72 of said Act is not a criminal court rather the Collector exercises its powers as a revenue authority. This Court also observed that the lower appellate court, thus, has not applied his mind to the facts of the case and the law applicable thereto and dismissed the appeal on the same ground as taken by the Collector for his satisfaction to confiscate the vehicle. It further observed in para 11that there is even not a single word in the confiscation order to meet out the objections made as above by the petitioner. This clearly indicates that the Collector while passing the impugned order of confiscation of the vehicle of the petitioner has not applied his mind to satisfy himself that the petitioner has committed any offence under any provisions of the U.P. Act No. IV of 1910. Thus, the impugned order is in the sheer violation of the legislative mandate as mentioned in sub-section (2) of Section 72 of the Act. The reason recorded by the Collector in his satisfaction that the petitioner has committed an offence due to which his car has become liable to confiscation simply because he disclosed his name as Pappu Yadav while in fact his name was Bhoo Prakash. In this regard, on inquiry made by the Collector itself, it was found that Pappu and Bhoo Prakash are one and the same person and Pappu Yadav is his nick name. Thus, the reason recorded for his satisfaction by the Collector that the petitioner has committed offence due to which his car has became liable to confiscation, is baseless. The Collector while exercising its discretionary power under Section 72 of U.P. Act No. IV of 1910 is not supposed to pass an order in a routine manner. The Collector has to apply his mind after going through the record or material of his own and record independent reasons for satisfaction that an offence under the said Act has been committed due to which the said vehicle is liable to be confiscation in sub-section (1) of Section 72 of the Act."

11. Provisions of Section 72 of the Act is reproduced as follows:-

72. What things are liable to confiscation - (1) Whenever an offence punishable under this Act has been committed-

(a) every [intoxicant] in respect of which such offence has been committed ;

(b) every still, utensil, implement or apparatus and all materials by means of which such offence has been committed ;

(c) every [intoxicant] lawfully imported, transported, manufactured, held in possession or sold along with or in addition to any [intoxicant] liable to confiscation under clause (a) ;

(d) every receptacle, package and covering in which any [intoxicant] as aforesaid or any materials, still, utensil, implement or apparatus is or are found, together with the other contents (if any) of such receptacle or package ;

(e) every animal, cart, vessel or other conveyance used in carrying such receptacle or package shall be liable to confiscation.

(2) Where anything or animal is seized under any provision of this Act and the Collector is satisfied for reasons to be recorded that an offence has been committed due to which such thing or animal has become liable to confiscation under sub-section (1), he may order confiscation of such thing or animal whether or not a prosecution for such offence has been instituted :

Provided that in the case of anything (except an intoxicant)or animal referred to in sub-section (1), the owner thereof shall be given an option to pay in lieu of its confiscation such fine as the Collector thinks adequate not exceeding its market value on the date of its seizure.

(3) Where the Collector on receiving report of seizure or on inspection of the seized thing, including any animal, cart, vessel or other conveyance, is of the opinion that any such thing or animal is subject to speedy wear and tear or natural decay or it is otherwise expedient in the public interest so to do, he may order such thing (except an intoxicant) or animal to be sold at the market price by auction or otherwise.

(4) Where any such thing or animal is sold as aforesaid, and -

(a) no order of confiscation is ultimately passed or maintained by the Collector under sub-section (2) or on review under sub-section (6) ; or

(b) an order passed on appeal under sub-section (7) so requires ; or

(c) in the case of a prosecution being instituted for the offence in respect of which the thing or the animal seized, the order of the Court so requires ;

the sale proceeds after deducting the expenses of the sale shall be paid to the person found entitled thereto ;

(5) (a) No order of confiscation under this section shall be made unless the owner thereof or the person from whom it is seized is given -

(i) a notice in writing informing him of the grounds on which such confiscation is proposed ;

(ii) an opportunity of making a representation in writing within such reasonable time as may be specified in the notice ; and

(iii) a reasonable opportunity of being heard in the matter.

(b) Without prejudice to the provisions of clause (a), no order confiscating any animal, cart, vessel, or other conveyance shall be made if the owner thereof proves to the satisfaction of the Collector that it was used in carrying the contraband goods without the knowledge or connivance of the owner, his agent, if any, and the person-in-charge of the animal, cart, vessel or other conveyance and that each of them had taken all reasonable and necessary precautions against such use.

(6) Where on an application in that behalf being made to Collector within one month from any order of confiscation made under sub-section (2), or as the case may be, after issuing notice on his own motion within one month from the order under that sub-section refusing confiscation to the owner of the thing or animal seized or to the person from whose possession it was seized, to show cause why the order should not be reviewed, and after giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard, the Collector is satisfied that the order suffers from a mistake apparent on the face of the record including any mistake of law, he may pass such order on review as he thinks fit.

(7) Any person aggrieved by an order of confiscation under sub-section(2) or sub-section (6) may, within one month from the date of the communication to him of such order, appeal to judicial authority as the State Government may appoint in this behalf and the judicial authority shall, after giving an opportunity to the appellant to be heard, pass such order as it may think fit, confirming, modifying or annulling the order appealed against.

(8) Where a prosecution is instituted for the offence in relation to which such confiscation was ordered the thing or animal shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (4), be disposed of in accordance with the order of the Court.

(9) No order of confiscation made by the Collector under this section shall prevent the infliction of any punishment to which the person affected thereby may be liable under this Act. "

12. On a meticulous analysis of Section 72 of U.P. Act No. IV of 1910, it emerges out that the Collector is empowered to confiscate anything described under Section 72(1) of the Actwhere the conditions prescribed in sub Section(1)(a) to (e) is satisfied and he has to afford a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the owner of the vehicle after issuing a notice in writing informing him of the grounds on which such confiscation is proposed and an opportunity of making a representation in writing against such proposed confiscation.

13. Per contra, learned A.G.A. submitted that there is no illegality, irregularity or perversity in impugned orders passed by learned confiscating authority, Additional District Magistrate (F&R) who has confiscated the vehicle in question, in exercise of powers under Section 72 of U.P. Excise Act, 1910 conferred on collector as well as order passed by learned District Judge, Mathura. The impugned orders are well within jurisdiction of both the statutory authorities and in consonance with provisions of Section 72 of the Act. So far as the judgment of this Court in Chandra Pal Vs. State of U.P. and Another (supra) is concerned, this case was decided on its own facts as in that case the release application of the vehicle seized under provisions of Section 62, 63, 72 U.P. Excise Act was moved before learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate who had rejected the application for release of the vehicle by placing reliance upon judgment of Apex Court in State (NCT of Delhi) Vs. Narender 2014 (13) SCC 100 without deciding his jurisdiction to entertain the release application filed by the applicant seeking release of seized vehicle in terms of Section 457 Cr.P.C. and the same was affirmed by learned Sessions Judge in criminal revision filed by the applicant against the order of learned Magistrate.

14. This Court observed that orders impugned could not be sustained on account of erroneous reasoning and therefore, liable to be quashed.

15. This Court also observed that upon comparison of provisions in Delhi Excise Act 2009 as well as U.P. Excise Act, 1910, the Court finds that there is no provision in Act of 1910 similar to the provisions contained in Section 61 of U.P. Excise Act accordingly, ratio laid down in Section 61 of the Delhi Excise Act, 2009 bars the jurisdiction of all Courts but, even in the absence of similar provisions in the State (NCT of Delhi) Vs Narender (supra) is confined to matters arising out of Delhi Excise Act as such, aforesaid judgement is distinguishable and the ratio laid down therein cannot be applied ipso facto for deciding release application in respect of seized vehicle regarding which confiscation proceedings are pending in terms of Section 72 of Act, 1910.

16. In present case, this is admitted fact that no application was filed by the applicant before Court of Judicial Magistrate concerned for release of seized truck, the confiscation proceedings were initiated by Collector (ADM F&R) and in present case on report of S.S.P, Mathura and after giving opportunity of hearing to the applicant/petitioner, learned ADM (F&R)/ collector passed impugned order of confiscation of the vehicle as such. In present case, confiscation proceedings are not pending and are already decided by competent authority. It is not in dispute that collector is sole authority under the Act to pass an order for confiscation/release of vehicle so seized under the law. In this regard has been stated by Hon'ble Apex Court in Civil Appeal No. 6418 of 2019 Mustafa Vs. State of U.P. and Anothers reported in SCC online Web edn p.1, wherein Hon'ble Apex Court observed that Section 61 of the Delhi Excise Act, 2009 bars the jurisdiction of all Courts but, even in the absence of similar provisions in the Act, the principle laid down in State(NCT of Delhi) Vs. Narender 2014, is applicable in the present case as the Act is inconsistent with the provisions of the Code. The Court held that Collector has exclusive jurisdiction to confiscate the vehicles and in case the seized things are subject to speedy wear and tear or natural decay, he may order to sell the same in the manner prescribed under sub-section (3) of Section 72 of the Act. Sub- section (4) deals with distribution of sale proceeds when the seized thing is sold which is subject to wear and tear and natural decay or when it is expedient in public interest to do so. Sub-section (8) of Section 72 of the Act deals with a situation where a prosecution of an offence is instituted in relation to which confiscation was ordered, the thing or animal shall be disposed of subject to the provisions of sub-section (4) of Section 72 of the Act in accordance with the order of the Court. The order of the Court in sub-section (8) of Section 72 of the Act is after conclusion of the prosecution which is different from the seized things which are subject to speedy wear and tear or natural decay as contemplated by sub-section (3) of Section 72 of the Act.

17. On perusal of aforesaid dictum of Hon'ble Apex Court together with the statutory provisions under Section 72 of the Act, it can be held that collector is vested with exclusive jurisdiction to confiscate any such thing like animal cart or other conveyance, if he is of opinion that this is subject to speedy wear and tear or natural decay or it is otherwise expedient in public interest, whether or not prosecution charges has been instituted or concluded while exercising powers of confiscation provided under Section 2 and 3 of the Act. The collector has not to wait for conclusion of trial relating to criminal offence under the Act and while confiscation order, he has to record his satisfaction that the offence under the Act has been committed and the vehicle has been seized by competent official under provisions of the Act after giving opportunity of hearing to the person who claims to be owner of the vehicle.

18. On perusal of Section 72 of the Act, it appears that in Section 72(V)(b) it is provided that "Without prejudice to the provisions of clause (a), no order confiscating any animal, cart, vessel, or other conveyance shall be made if the owner thereof proves to the satisfaction of the Collector that it was used in carrying the contraband goods without the knowledge or connivance of the owner, his agent, if any, and the person incharge of the animal cart, vessel or other conveyance and that each of them had taken all reasonable and necessary precautions against such use."

19. Now, it is absolutely clear that once a vehicle is seized in violation of the provisions of U.P. Excise Act by competent police or Excise officer, a heavy burden is lied upon the owner of the vehicle which he has to discharge before the authorities concerned that firstly, he had no knowledge that such an act was being done with said vehicle and secondly, that he applied all the necessary safety and precautions to see that such an Act may not be committed by the said vehicle. The petitioner, in fact, failed to discharge his burden before Addl. District Magistrate, as well as before the District Judge, that is the appellate authority. The learned Additional District Magistrate while passing confiscation order with regard to the vehicle has dealt with the case of petitioner with prayer to release the vehicle in his favour and after arriving at a conclusion that the said vehicle has been used in illegal smuggling of illicit liquor which consists of 140 cartons of Royal Stag brand manufactured in Haryana against U.P. Excise, which is a serious offence against State revenue and a conspiracy to defeat the U.P. Excise policy and for that reason an F.I.R lodged under Section 60/72 Excise Act along with Section 420, 120B I.P.C. He also stated that due to transportation of illicit liquor in the State of U.P., the vehicle is found to be involved in smuggling of liquor and its seizure, therefore its confiscation is found proper and therefore, it has to be disposed of in terms of Section 72 U.P. Excise Act.

20. Learned District Judge has also not found any infirmity, illegality or perversity in appeal preferred against the confiscation order which is by learned Collector/ADM (F&R). Even if the owner/petitioner was not found on the spot along with when the vehicle was seized in presence of co-accused, the principle of vicarious liability will apply to this police case as the vehicle was operated by the driver at the time of incident who was not the owner. The petitioner has failed to prove the fact before the Court below that the vehicle was transported with illicit liquor without knowledge or connivance except the stand taken by him that he was not aware about day to day movement of the vehicle as the same was operated by the driver on a fix rate paid to him on monthly basis.

21. Learned Collector has also given an option in impugned order to owner of the vehicle(present petitioner) to deposit the current price of vehicle as ascertained by ARTO and in that case, the vehicle will not be auctioned, otherwise same will be auctioned and the sale proceeds will be deposited in Government treasury and this order is in consonance with the provisions of Section 72(2) proviso which provided that in the case of anything (except an *intoxicant) or animal referred to in sub-section (1), the owner thereof shall be given an option to pay in lieu of its confiscation such f*ine as the Collector thinks adequate, not exceeding its market value on the date of its seizure. Therefore, the option given to the petitioner to pay the market value of the vehicle as ascertained by ARTO in lieu of its confiscation and therefore, it cannot be said that the petitioner has become entirely deprived of his vehicle by the impugned order and if the vehicle has not been auctioned yet, the collector will afford him an opportunity to deposit the market price of the vehicle as determined by ARTO concerned in lieu of confiscation and if he does so, the vehicle will be released in his favour and the amount deposited by him in lieu of confiscation will lie in the custody of Government subject to provisions of sub-Section 8 of Section 72.

22. In view of the foregoing discussions, I find no illegality, irregularity or perversity in impugned orders passed by learned District Judge as well as Collector/ADM (F&R) concerned and the appeal is liable to be dismissed.

23. With above observations, the present writ petition stands dismissed.

(2023) 4 ILRA 325
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 28.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE UMESH CHANDRA SHARMA, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 706 of 2021

Manoj Gupta @ Manoj Kumar Gupta
...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Sri Shashank Tripathi, Sri Atharva Dixit, Sri Manish Tiwary (Senior Adv.)

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A., Sri Manish Tandon, Sri Rakesh Dubey, Sri Sayed Imran Ibrahim

A. Criminal Law - Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973-Section 482 & Indian Penal Code, 1860-Sections 147, 148, 149,302, 34, 307, 120B and Section 7 of Criminal Law (Amendment) Act-The applicant was arrested at Chindwara, Madhya Pradesh by U.P. Police-No transit remand was obtained by the U.P. Police from the concerned Magistrate at Chindwara-applicant was produced before the remand Magistrate Kanpur Nagar, much after the expiry of 24 hours from the date and time of his arrest.-the detention of applicant by police after expiry of a period of 24 hours from the time of his arrest is manifestly illegal, the order of remand passed by the Magistrate Kanpur Nagar will not wipe out the aforesaid illegality-Thus, the fact that the charge sheet has been submitted against the applicant within 90 days from the date subsequent to the order of remand is wholly misconceived and is of no help to the state or the opposite party.(Para 1 to 38)

The application is allowed. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

1. Madhu Limaye & ors. Vs St. of Bih. (1969) AIR SC 1014

2. Manoj Vs St. of M.P. (1999) 3 SCC 715

(Delivered by Hon'ble Umesh Chandra Sharma, J.)

1. Heard Mr. Anoop Trivedi, the learned senior counsel assisted by Mr. Ramesh Chandra Agrahari, the learned counsel for applicant-Asim @ Pappu Smart, Mr. Sayed Imran Ibrahim, the learned counsel for applicant- Manoj Gupta @ Manoj Kumar Gupta, Mr. Manuraj Singh along with Mr. Prashant Kumar, the learned A.G.A. for State and Mr. Rakesh Dubey, the learned counsel representing first informant/opposite party-2 in both the applications.

2. Perused the record.

3. Mr. Sayed Imran Ibrahim, the learned counsel for applicant- Manoj Gupta @ Manoj Kumar Gupta submits that the application filed by aforesaid applicant has been rendered infructuous by efflux of time. As such, on instructions received by him, he does not wish to press the application.

4. Learned A.G.A. for state and Mr. Rakesh Dubey, the learned counsel representing first informant/opposite party-2 have no objection to the prayer made by learned counsel for applicant-Manoj Gupta @ Manoj Kumar Gupta.

5. Consequently, Application under 482 Cr.P.C. No. 706 of 2021 (Manoj Gupta @ Manoj Kumar Gupta Vs. State of U.P. and another) is dismissed as having rendered infructuous.

6. Criminal Misc. Application under section 482 Cr.PC No. 19101 of 2020 (Asim @ Pappu Smart Vs. State of U.P. and another) has been filed by applicant Asim @ Pappu Smart challenging the order dated 01.10.2020 passed by Chief Metropolitan Magistrate, Kanpur Nagar in Criminal Case No. 15681 of 2020 (State Vs. Mohd. Asif @ Pappu Smart and Others) under Sections 147, 148, 149, 307, 302, 34, 120B IPC and Section 7 Criminal Law Amendment Act, Police Station-Chakeri, District-Kanpur Nagar, arising out of Case Crime No. 425 of 2020 (State Vs. Mohd. Asim @ Pappu Smart) under Sections 147, 148, 149, 302, 34, 307, 120-B I.P.C. and Section 7 Criminal Law (Amendment) Act, Police Station Chakeri, District-Kanpur Nagar, whereby the application for default bail filed by applicant has been rejected. Consequently, applicant, who is in custody, has been denied default bail.

7. Record shows that in respect of an incident, which is alleged to have occurred on 20.06.2020, a prompt F.I.R. dated 20.06.2020 was lodged by first informant/opposite party-2, Dharmendra Singh Sengar and was registered as Case Crime No. 425 of 2020 (State Vs. Mohd. Asim @ Pappu Smart) under Sections 147, 148, 149, 302, 34 I.P.C. and Section 7 Criminal Law (Amendment) Act, Police Station Chakeri, District-Kanpur Nagar. In the aforesaid F.I.R., six persons, namely, Mohd. Asif @ Pappu Smart, Saud Akhtar, Deenoo Upadhyay, Aridaman Singh, Mahfooz Akhtar and Manoj Gupta have been nominated as named accused, whereas certain unknown persons have also been arraigned as accused.

8. The gravamen of the allegations made in the F.I.R is to the effect that named accused alongwith their associates conspired/committed the crime in question by using firearm on account of which, one Pintoo Sengar sustained firearm injury and died on the spot.

9. After registration of aforesaid F.I.R., Investigating Officer proceeded with statutory investigation of above-mentioned case crime number in terms of Chapter XII Cr.P.C. He first took possession of the dead body of the deceased and accomplished the preliminary formality. Thereafter, a detailed police scroll was prepared and the dead body of the deceased was dispatched for postmortem on 20.06.2020. Accordingly, post-mortem of the body of deceased was conducted on the same day i.e. on 20.06.2020. In the opinion of Autopsy Surgeon, the cause of death of deceased was shock and hemorrhage as a result of ante-mortem firearm injuries

10. Subsequent to above, Investigating Officer proceeded to undertake other formalities. Attempts were made to secure the arrest of named accused. Information appears to have been received by Investigating Officer that applicant, who is a named accused in concerned case crime number, is residing at Chindwara, Madhya Pradesh, Accordingly, Commissioner of Police, Commissionerate Kanpur Nagar constituted a police team, which went to Chhindwara, Madhya Pradesh to secure the arrest of accused-applicant. On 01.07.2020 applicant was arrested by U.P. Police at Chhindwara, Madhya Pradesh but produced before remand Magistrate at Kanpur Nagar on 03.07.2020 i.e. after an expiry of a period of 24 hours from the time of his arrest.

11. In the aforesaid background, applicant filed his bail application in terms of Section 167 (2) Cr.PC. claiming default bail before the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Kanpur Nagar primarily on the grounds that since the charge-sheet has been submitted beyond the period of 90 days from the date of the arrest of applicant i.e. 01.07.2020, therefore, he is liable to be enlarged on bail by default. In support of above, it was further stated that the applicant was arrested on 01.07.2020 at Chindwara, Madhya Pradesh. However, applicant was produced before the remand Magistrate on 03.07.2022 at Kanpur Nagar i.e. after an expiry of more than 24 hours from the time of his arrest which is illegal. Consequently, the detention of applicant after expiry of 24 hours from the time of his arrest is illegal. As the detention of applicant beyond 24 hours is illegal his subsequent detention after the order of remand passed by concerned Magistrate is also illegal. The remand order passed by concerned Magistrate on 03.07.2022 will not wipe out the aforesaid illegality which came into existence on account of the failure of the prosecution to act diligently by producing the applicant before the remand Magistrate within aforesaid period. The prosecution cannot be permitted to derive benefit from it's own wrong by placing reliance upon the order of remand passed by remand Magistrate and on basis thereof contend that the irregularity, if any, in the detention of applicant shall be wiped out with the passing of the remand order by the remand Magistrate. Consequently, applicant is entitled to be released on bail by default.

12. Prayer made by applicant did not find favour with the court below. Concerned Magistrate concluded that since applicant was produced before remand Magistrate on 03.07.2022, the period of 90 days shall be counted from the next date i.e. 04.07.2020. Since the charge sheet has been submitted against applicant on 01.10.2020 which is before the expiry of a period of 90 days from the date subsequent to the order of remand, therefore, applicant is not entitled to be enlarged on default bail. Consequently, concerned Magistrate declined bail by default to applicant by means of impugned order dated 01.10.2020.

13. Thus feeling aggrieved by above, applicant has now approached this Court by means of present application under Section 482 Cr.P.C.

14. Present application was vehemently opposed by Mr. Rakesh Dubey, the learned counsel for first informant and the learned A.G.A.. Referring to the material on record, the learned counsel for first informant submits that it is clearly recorded in the case diary that applicant was arrested at Kanpur on 03.07.2020 and thereafter produced before remand Magistrate on 03.07.2020. Since the charge-sheet has been submitted against applicant on 01.10.2020 i.e. before expiry of a period of 90 days from the date succeeding 03.04.2020, therefore, applicant is not entitled to claim default bail.

15. Learned A.G.A. has also opposed the present application.

16. After hearing the respective counsel for the parties on 17.01.2023, this Court came to the conclusion that there is a serious dispute between the parties regarding the date and place of arrest of applicant. Accordingly, Court passed the following order:

"Supplementary affidavit filed by Mr. Rakesh Dubey, learned counsel representing opposite party no.2 in court today is taken on record.

Heard Mr. Anoop Trivedi, the learned Senior Counsel assisted by Sri Ramesh Chandra Agrahari, the learned counsel for applicant, the learned A.G.A. for State and Mr. Rakesh Dubey, the learned counsel representing first informant-opposite party no.2.

This is an application for default bail. One of the issue that has cropped up during the course of hearing for default bail is regarding the date of arrest of the accused-applicant. According to the learned Senior Counsel, the accused was arrested on 01.07.2020 at District Chindwara, Madhya Pradesh. The document evidencing the aforesaid fact are on record as Annexures 4, 5, 6 and 7 to the affidavit as well as the information received under the RTI Act, copy of which is on record as Annexure RA-1 to the rejoinder affidavit to the counter affidavit filed by State.

In the counter affidavit filed by the State with reference to the case diary, it has been averred in paragraph 10 that the applicant was arrested on 03.07.2020 at Kanpur. However, there is no document accompanying the counter affidavit filed by the State regarding above.

From perusal and evaluation of the material on record as noted hereinabove, there is a serious dispute between the parties regarding the date of arrest of the accused-applicant. Since the right to default bail is being canvassed before this Court, therefore the date of arrest has to be categorical and specific by this Court. In view of the conflicting claims and counter claims of the parties, it is hereby directed that the Commissioner of Police Commissionerate, Kanpur shall file his personal affidavit with regard to the actual date and place of arrest of the applicant with reference to the material on record that is Annexures 4, 5, 6 and 7 to the affidavit as well as Annexure RA-1 to the rejoinder affidavit filed by applicant to the counter affidavit filed by State.

Let the requisite supplementary affidavit be filed on or before 24.01.2023.

Matter shall reappear as unlisted on 30.01.2023 at 2:00 PM.

Copy of the order be supplied to the learned A.G.A. for compliance during course of the day.

Order Date :- 17.1.2023 "

17. Pursuant to above order dated 17.01.2023, Commissioner of Police, Police Commissionarate, Kanpur Nagar constituted a three member Special Investigating Team i.e. SIT to examine the matter and submit its report. The SIT so constituted submitted its report dated 03.02.2023. The copy of same has been brought on record by means of a compliance affidavit on behalf of Commissioner of Police, Police Commissionerate, Kanpur Nagar filed by the learned A.G.A in Court.

18. Perusal of the aforesaid report submitted by the SIT clearly goes to show that the applicant was arrested at Chhindwara, Madhya Pradesh on 01.07.2020 but produced before the remand Magistrate at Kanpur Nagar on 03.07.2020 i.e. beyond 24 hours of his arrest.

19. In view of the above noted factual position, that has emerged before this Court, Mr. Anoop Trivedi, the learned senior counsel for applicant has urged that since arrest of applicant was made on 01.07.2020 but applicant was produced before remand Magistrate after expiry of 24 hours i.e. on 03.07.2020, which is manifestly illegal in view of Section 57 Cr.P.C. He, therefore, submits that police custody of applicant after expiry of 24 hours from the date and time of arrest of applicant is illegal. The order of remand passed by remand Magistrate dated 03.07.2020 purported to be in exercise of jurisdiction under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C. will not wipe out the illegality in the detention of applicant beyond 24 hours which has emerged on account of the failure of prosecution to produce the applicant before remand Magistrate within 24 hours from the date and time of his arrest. On the above premise, the learned senior counsel for applicant submits that applicant is thus clearly entitled to default bail in terms of Section 167(2) Cr.P.C. To buttress his submission, he has relied upon the following judgements of Supreme Court Madhu Limaye and others Vs. State of Bihar AIR 1969 Supreme Court 1014 and Manoj Vs. State of Madhya Pradesh 1999 (3) SCC 715.

20. He also submits that the Apex Court in the case of Madhu Liimaye (Supra) examined the right of a detenue to be produced before remand Magistrate within 24 hours of his arrest, in the light of the constitutional provision and the provisions of the Code (Cr.P.C.) and on basis thereof came to the conclusion that in no circumstance the detenue can be deprived of his right to be produced before the remand Magistrate within 24 hours of his arrest. According to the learned senior counsel, paragraphs 11 and 12 of the report are relevant for the issue in hand. He has thus laid much emphasis upon same.

21. According to the learned senior counsel, the issue that has cropped up for consideration before this Court in present application was incidentally, directly considered by the Supreme Court in Manoj (supra). Paragraph 9 of the report re-capitulates the issue involved herein as well as the view delineated by the Court. Accordingly, the same has been relied upon by the learned senior counsel.

22. Ratio laid down in both the judgments is to the effect that in case an accused, who has been taken into custody but has not been produced before remand Magistrate within 24 hours of his arrest as required under the constitutional mandate i.e. Article 22(1) of the Constitution of India, then the detention of such an accused beyond the period of 24 hours from the time of his arrest shall be rendered illegal and the same cannot get cured as legal with the passing of an order of remand by the remand Magistrate in exercise of power under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C.

23. On the above premise, it is thus vehemently urged by the learned senior counsel for applicant that the impugned order denying default bail to the applicant cannot be sustained. The same is, therefore, liable to be quashed by this Court and applicant is entitled to be enlarged on bail.

24. Per contra, the learned A.G.A. for State has opposed the present application. He submits that it is an undisputed fact that applicant is involved in a heinous offence which is punishable under Section 302 I.P.C. Applicant is involved in a crime which is not private in nature but a crime against society. Applicant has been avoiding the judicial process. He was arrested by U.P. Police and thereafter produced before the remand Magistrate on 03.07.2022. Once the order of remand has been passed by concerned Magistrate, the irregularity, if any, in the detention of applicant beyond 24 hours from the time of his arrest stands cured. As such, the claim of applicant for default bail on the ground as noted herein above is wholly misconceived. No illegality has been committed by court below in passing the impugned order. It is thus strenuously urged by the learned counsel for first informant that no indulgence be granted by this Court in favour of applicant.

25. Mr. Rakesh Dubey, the learned counsel representing first informant/opposite party-2 has adopted the arguments raised by learned A.G.A.

26. In addition to above, the learned counsel representing first informant-opposite party 2 submits that once the order of remand has been passed by the remand Magistrate in exercise of jurisdiction under Section 167 (2) Cr.P.C., the right to claim default bail will be available only if the charge sheet has not been submitted within a period of 90 days from the date subsequent to the order of remand. In the present case, the police report under Section 173(2) Cr.P.C.(charge-sheet) has been submitted on 01.10.2020 which is within a period of 90 days from the date subsequent to the date of remand order itself. As such, the claim of applicant for grant of default bail is misconceived and therefore, present application is liable to be dismissed.

27. Having heard Mr. Anoop Trivedi, the learned Senior Counsel for applicant, Mr. Manuraj Singh and Mr. Prashant Kumar, the learned A.G.A. for State and Mr. Rakesh Dubey, the learned counsel representing first informant/opposite party-2, this Court finds that following issues need to be answered before considering the claim of applicant for grant of default bail.

I. What is the actual date and place of arrest of the applicant.

II. On what date the applicant was produced before remand Magistrate after his arrest. In case, the applicant was produced before remand Magistrate after expiry of a period of 24 hours from the date and time of his arrest then the detention of applicant subsequent to the order of remand passed by concerned Magistrate shall be rendered legal or irrespective of above shall continue to be illegal.

III. If the detention of applicant beyond 24 hours is proved to be illegal then whether applicant is entitled to claim default bail or the remand order passed by the remand Magistrate even after expiry of a period of 24 hours from the date and time of arrest of applicant will wipe out the irregularity, if any, in the detention of the applicant beyond 24 hours of his arrest Or the remand order passed by the remand Magistrate after expiry of a period of 24 hours from the date and time of arrest of applicant will not wipe out the right of the applicant as guaranteed by Article 22(1) of the Constitution and the applicant, is entitled to default bail.

28. All the issues are interlinked and intertwined and therefore incapable of being dealt with, in isolation of each other. Accordingly, they are taken up together.

29. The Court takes notice of the fact that upon the rival submissions being urged before this Court regarding the actual date, time and place of arrest of applicant, this Court in order to ascertain the factual position regarding the day, date, time and place of arrest of applicant, passed the order dated 17.01.2023 which has already been quoted herein above. Pursuant to above order dated 17.01.2023, the Commissioner of Police, Police Commissionerate, Kanpur Nagar constituted a three member team i.e. SIT. The said SIT team has examined the documents and also verified the documents relied upon by the learned senior counsel for applicant in support of his contention that applicant was arrested on 01.07.2020 at Chindwara, Madhya Pradesh by conducting a fact finding enquiry. Thereafter, the SIT submitted its report dated 03.02.2023. Aforesaid report has been brought on record as Annexure-1 to the affidavit of compliance filed by the Commissioner of Police, Police Commissionerate, Kanpur before this Court through the learned A.G.A. The said report clearly goes to show that the accused-applicant was arrested at Chhindwara, Madhya Pradesh on 01.07.2020 and was thereafter produced by the UP police before the remand Magistrate, at Kanpur Nagar on 03.07.2020. Accused-applicant was handed in the Supurdagi of U.P. Police also. Thus the stand of the State before this Court is that the applicant was arrested on 01.07.2020 at Chindwara, Madhya Pradesh but was produced before the remand Magistrate at Kanpur Nagar on 03.07.2020 i.e. after expiry of a period of 24 hours from the date and time of his arrest.

30. The right of an accused to be produced before the remand Magistrate within 24 hours of his arrest is a fundamental right of the accused by virtue of Article 22 (1) of the Constitution of India. The said Article has been enshrined for protecting the life and liberty of citizens. It is like a safeguard against the might of the State. It manifests the principle of Rule of law. For ready reference, Article 22 (1) of the Constitution of India is reproduced herein-under:

" Article 22(1)

(1) No person who is arrested shall be detained in custody without being informed, as soon as may be, of the grounds for such arrest nor shall he be denied the right to consult, and to be defended by, a legal practitioner of his choice.

31. The scope of Article 22(1) of the Constitution of India and the nature and scope of the right which flows in favour of a detenue by reason of the said Article came to be examined by the Supreme Court in the case of Madhu Limaye (Supra). The Apex Court examined the said question in the light of the provisions of the Constitution the Code i.e. (Cr.P.C.) and the submissions urged before it. The Court ultimately delineated its views in paragraphs 11 and 14 of the report, which read as under:

"11 Article 22(1)embodies a rule which has always been regarded as vital and fundamental for safeguarding personal liberty in all legal systems where the rule of law prevails. For example, the 6th amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America contains similar provisions and so does Article XXXIV of the Japanese Constitution of 1946. In England whenever an arrest is made without a warrant, the arrested person has a right to be informed not only that he is being arrested but also of the reasons or grounds for the arrest. The House of Lords in Christie & Another v. Leachinsky ((1947) 1 All EER 567) went into the origin and development of this rule. In the words of Viscount Simon if a policeman who entertained a reasonable suspicion that X had committed a felony were at liberty to arrest him and march him off to a police station without giving any explanation of why he was doing this, the prima facie right of personal liberty would be gravely infringed. Viscount Simon laid down several propositions which were not meant to be exhaustive. For our purposes we may refer to the first and the third :

"1. If a policeman arrests without warrant upon reasonable suspicion of felony, or of other crime of a sort which does not require a warrant, he must in ordinary circumstances inform the person arrested of the true ground of arrest. He is not entitled to keep the reason to himself or to give a reason which is not the true reason. In other words, a citizen is entitled to know on what charge or on suspicion of what crime he is seized.

2. X X X X

3. The requirement that the person arrested should be informed of the reason why he is seized naturally does not exist if the circumstances are such that he must know the general nature of the alleged offence for which he is detained."

Lord Simonds gave an illustration of the circumstances where the accused must know why he is being arrested.

"There is no need to explain the reasons of arrest if the arrested man is caught red-handed and the crime is patent to high Heaven."

The two requirements of clause (1) ofArticle 22are meant to afford the earliest opportunity to the arrested person to remove any mistake, misapprehension or misunderstanding in the minds of the arresting authority and, also, to know exactly what the accusation against him is so that he can exercise the second right, namely, of consulting a legal practitioner of his choice and to be defended by him. Clause (2) ofArticle 22provides the next and most material safeguard that the arrested person must be produced before a Magistrate within 24 hours of such arrest so that an independent authority exercising judicial powers may without delay apply is mind to his case. TheCriminal Procedure Codecontains analogous provisions inSection 60and340but out Constitution-makers were anxious to make these safeguards an integral part of fundamental rights. This is what Dr. B. R. Ambedkar said while moving for insertion ofArticle 15-A (as numbered in the Draft Bill of the Constitution)which corresponded to presentArticle 22 :

"Article 15-Amerely lifts from the provisionsof the Criminal Procedure Codetwo of the most fundamental principles which every civilised country follows as principles of international justice. It is quite true that these two provisions contained in clause (1) and clause (2) are already to be found inthe Criminal Procedure Codeand thereby probably it might be said that we are really not making any very fundamental change. But we are, as I contend, making a fundamental change because what we are doing by the introduction ofArticle 15-Ais to put a limitation upon the authority both of Parliament as well as of the Provincial Legislature not to abrogate the two provisions, because they are now introduced in our Constitution itself."

"14.Once it is shown that the arrests made by the police officers were illegal, it was necessary for the State to establish that at the stage of remand the Magistrate directed detention in jail custody after applying his mind to all relevant matters. This the State has failed to do. The remand orders are patently routine and appear to have been made mechanically. All that Mr. Chagla has said is that if the arrested persons wanted to challenge their legality the High Court should have been moved under appropriate provisionsof the Criminal Procedure Code. But it must be remembered that Madhu Limaye and others have, by moving this court underArt. 32of the Constitution, complained of detention or confinement in jail without compliance with the constitutional and legal provisions. If their detention in custody could not continue after their arrest because of the violation ofArt. 22(1)of the Constitution they were entitled to be released forthwith. The orders of remand are not such as would cure the constitutional infirmities. This disposes of the third contention of Madhu Limaye."

32. The same issue came up for consideration again before the Supreme Court in Manoj (supra), weherein Court concluded in paragraph 9 of the report, as follows:-

"Here the prayer for bail is opposed on the ground that detention is without such authorisation. Can the benefit of bail be denied on such a ground?Section 167(1)of the Code is relevant in this context as it enjoins on the police officer concerned a legal obligation to forward the arrested accused to the nearest magistrate. That sub-section reads thus.

"Whenever any person is arrested and detained in custody, and it appears that the investigation cannot be completed within the period of twenty-four hours fixed bysection 57, and there are grounds for believing that the accusation or information is well-founded, the officer in charge of the police station or the police officer making the investigation, if he is not below the rank of subb-inspector, shall forthwith transmit to the nearest judicial Magistrate a copy of the entries in the diary hereinafter prescribed relating to the case, and shall at the same time forward the accused to such Magistrate." .

33. On the above premise, Mr. Anoop Trivedi, the learned Senior counsel submits that it is now a proved fact that the applicant was arrested on 01.07.2020 at Chindwara, Madhya Pradesh but was produced before the remand Magistrate at Kanpur Nagar on 03.07.2020 i.e. after expiry of a period of 24 hours which is in clear derogation of Section 57 Cr.P.C. As a result, the right of the applicant as guaranteed under Article 22(1) of the Constitution of India stood clearly infringed. The detention of the applicant after expiry of a period of 24 hours from the date and time of his arrest is, therefore, clearly illegal The order of remand dated 03.07.2020 passed by the remand Magistrate at Kanpur Nagar, whereby applicant was sent to judicial remand will not wipe out the illegality in the detention of the applicant beyond 24 hours from the time of his arrest and therefore, applicant is clearly entitled to default bail.

34. Learned A.G.A for State and Mr. Rakesh Dubey, the learned counsel for first informant have opposed this application. They have reiterated their submissions as already noted above. It is again urged that applicant is a named accused and involved in a heinous offence punishable under Section 302 I.P.C. Criminality committed by applicant is a crime against society. Applicant has been avoiding the process of the Court. Applicant could be arrested only on 01.07.2020 i.e. after 11 days from the date of the FIR and was produced before the remand Magistrate on 03.07.2020. However with the passing of the order of remand by the remand Magistrate on 03.07.2020, whereby applicant was sent to judicial remand the irregularity, if any, in the detention of applicant beyond 24 hours from the time of his arrest gets wiped out and the procedural defect shall stand cured. In view of above and coupled with the fact that the charge sheet was submitted against applicant before expiry of 90 days from the date subsequent to the date on which applicant was remanded to judicial custody, no ground exists to enlarge the applicant on bail by default. As such, no interference is warranted by this Court in present applications

35. Having heard, the learned Senior counsel for applicant, the learned A.G.A. for State, Mr. Rakesh Dubey, the learned counsel for first informant-opposite party 2 and upon perusal of record, the position that has emerged is that applicant is a named accused in Case Crime No. 425 of 2020 (State Vs. Mohd. Asim @ Pappu Smart) under Sections 147, 148, 149, 302, 34, 307, 120-B I.P.C. and Section 7 Criminal Law (Amendment) Act, Police Station Chakeri, District-Kanpur Nagar. The FIR regarding same was lodged on 23.08.2018. Applicant has been avoiding the process of Court. He did not surrender before the Court, but was arrested by the U.P. Police at Chindwara, Madhya Pradesh on 01.07.2020. The police report dated 30.09.2020 under Section 173(2) Cr.P.C. (charge-sheet) has been submitted against applicant on 01.10.2020 As such, on date, the applicant is a named/charge sheeted accused.

36. However, as noted above, the applicant was arrested on 01.07.2020 at Chindwara, Madhya Pradesh by U.P. Police. No transit remand was obtained by the U.P. Police from the concerned Magistrate at Chindwara. Applicant was handed in the Supurdagi of U.P. Police. He was produced before the remand Magistrate at Kanpur Nagar on 03.07.2020 i.e. much after the expiry of 24 hours from the date and time of his arrest. As such, the detention of applicant by police after expiry of a period of 24 hours from the time of his arrest is manifestly illegal. The order of remand dated 03.07.2020 passed by the remand Magistrate will not wipe out the aforesaid illegality. Therefore, the fact which has been strenuously urged before this Court on behalf of first informant that the charge sheet dated 30.09.2020 has been submitted against applicant within 90 days from the date subsequent to the order of remand i.e. 03.07.2020 is wholly misconceived and is of no help to the state or the opposite party 2. In the aforesaid circumstance, the law laid down by Supreme Court in Madhu Limaye and others Vs. State of Bihar AIR 1969 Supreme Court 1014 and Manoj Vs. State of Madhya Pradesh 1999 (3) SCC 715. is clearly applicable to the present case.

37. In view of the discussion made above, the present application succeeds and is liable to be allowed.

38. It is accordingly allowed.

39. The impugned order dated 01.10.2020 passed by Chief Metropolitan Magistrate, Kanpur Nagar in Criminal Case No. 15681 of 2020 (State Vs. Mohd. Asif @ Pappu Smart and Others) under Sections 147, 148, 149, 307, 302, 34, 120B IPC and Section 7 Criminal Law Amendment Act, Police Station-Chakeri, District-Kanpur Nagar, arising out of Case Crime No. 425 of 2020 (State Vs. Mohd. Asim @ Pappu Smart) under Sections 147, 148, 149, 302, 34, 307, 120-B I.P.C. and Section 7 Criminal Law (Amendment) Act, Police Station Chakeri, District-Kanpur Nagar is hereby quashed.

40. The applicant shall be released on bail in aforesaid case crime number on his furnishing a personal bond and two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of the court concerned with the following conditions which are being imposed in the interest of justice:-

(i) THE APPLICANT SHALL FILE AN UNDERTAKING TO THE EFFECT THAT HE/SHE SHALL NOT SEEK ANY ADJOURNMENT ON THE DATE FIXED FOR EVIDENCE WHEN THE WITNESSES ARE PRESENT IN COURT. IN CASE OF DEFAULT OF THIS CONDITION, IT SHALL BE OPEN FOR THE TRIAL COURT TO TREAT IT AS ABUSE OF LIBERTY OF BAIL AND PASS ORDERS IN ACCORDANCE WITH LAW.

(ii) THE APPLICANT SHALL REMAIN PRESENT BEFORE THE TRIAL COURT ON EACH DATE FIXED, EITHER PERSONALLY OR THROUGH HIS/HER COUNSEL. IN CASE OF HIS/HER ABSENCE, WITHOUT SUFFICIENT CAUSE, THE TRIAL COURT MAY PROCEED AGAINST HIM/HER UNDER SECTION 229-A IPC.

(iii) IN CASE, THE APPLICANT MISUSES THE LIBERTY OF BAIL DURING TRIAL AND IN ORDER TO SECURE HIS/HER PRESENCE PROCLAMATION UNDER SECTION 82 CR.P.C., MAY BE ISSUED AND IF APPLICANT FAILS TO APPEAR BEFORE THE COURT ON THE DATE FIXED IN SUCH PROCLAMATION, THEN, THE TRIAL COURT SHALL INITIATE PROCEEDINGS AGAINST HIM/HER, IN ACCORDANCE WITH LAW, UNDER SECTION 174-A IPC.

(iv) THE APPLICANT SHALL REMAIN PRESENT, IN PERSON, BEFORE THE TRIAL COURT ON DATES FIXED FOR (1) OPENING OF THE CASE, (2) FRAMING OF CHARGE AND (3) RECORDING OF STATEMENT UNDER SECTION 313 CR.P.C. IF IN THE OPINION OF THE TRIAL COURT ABSENCE OF THE APPLICANT IS DELIBERATE OR WITHOUT SUFFICIENT CAUSE, THEN IT SHALL BE OPEN FOR THE TRIAL COURT TO TREAT SUCH DEFAULT AS ABUSE OF LIBERTY OF BAIL AND PROCEED AGAINST THE HIM/HER IN ACCORDANCE WITH LAW.

(v) THE TRIAL COURT MAY MAKE ALL POSSIBLE EFFORTS/ENDEAVOUR AND TRY TO CONCLUDE THE TRIAL WITHIN A PERIOD OF ONE YEAR AFTER THE RELEASE OF THE APPLICANT.

(2023) 4 ILRA 336
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 27.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SHIV SHANKER PRASAD, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 727 of 2023
with
Application u/s 482 No. 27887 of 2022

Nasir Khan ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Sri Satyendra Narayan Singh, Sri Saurabh Mishra

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A., Sri Rakesh Kumar Mishra

(A) Criminal Law - Code of Criminal procedure, 1973 - Section 482 - Inherent power - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections - 323, 417, 420, 452, 467, 468, 471, 504, 506 & 447 - The Code of criminal procedure, 1973 - Section 161, 156 (2) , 200 & 202 - ex debito justitiae (as a debt of justice ; as a matter of right) - Every High Court has inherent power to act ex debito justitiae to do real and substantial justice, for the administration of which alone it exists, or to prevent abuse of the process of the court - correctness or otherwise of any deed like will-deed, power of attorney, sale-deed etc., which is registered by a public/government authority - can be more appropriately adjudicated by a Civil Judge on the basis of oral as well as documentary evidence to be led by the parties - unless or until the same is not decided that the same is false and fabricated deed - criminality cannot come into picture for making such deed.(Para - 24,46)

Applicant summoned in two cases - Quashing of - charge sheet, cognizance/summoning order as well as entire proceedings - Civil suit filed by opposite party no.2 - questioning - power of attorney executed in favour of applicant - various sale-deeds executed in respect of 14 bighas' of land in dispute for permanent injunction qua the said land - cancellation of power of attorney and sale-deeds - filed criminal cases after one by one against applicant - to exert pressure and to harass him.(Para -2,45)

HELD:-None of the offences for which the applicant is summoned in both the cases, is made out from the FIR and the complaint and material on record. Complainant/opposite party no.2 abuses process of law to implicate the applicant in criminal cases. Section 482 is designed to achieve the purpose of ensuring that criminal proceedings are not permitted to generate into weapons of harassment. Summoning orders impugned in both the applications as well as entire proceedings quashed. (Para - 45,47)

Application u/s 482 Cr.P.C. allowed. (E-7)

List of Cases cited:

1. Mitesh Kumar Vs St. of Karn. & ors. , 2021 AIR (S.C.) 5298

2. St. of Karn. Vs L. Muniswamy & ors., (1977) 2 SCC 699

3. Madhavrao Jiwajirao Scindia & ors. Vs Sambhajirao Chandrojirao Angre & ors. (1988) 1 SCC 692

4. Janata Dal Vs H.S. Chowdhary , (992) 4 SCC 305

5. G. Sagar Suri & anr. Vs St. of U.P. & ors. , (2000) 2 SCC 636

6. Roy V.D. Vs St. of Kerala , (2000) 8 SCC 590

7. Zandu Pharmaceutical Works Ltd. & ors. Vs Mohd. Sharaful Haque & anr. , (2005) 1 SCC 122

8. I.O.C. Vs NEPC India Ltd. & ors. , (2006) 6 SCC 736

9. Inder Mohan Goswami Vs St. of Uttaranchal , (2007) 12 SCC 1

10. Paramjeet Batra Vs St. Uttarakhand , (2013) 11 SCC 673

11. Parbatbhai Aahir @ Parbatbhai Bhimsinbhai Karmur & ors. Vs St. of Guj. & anr. , (2017) 9 SCC 641

12. Sardar Ali Khan Vs St. of U.P. Through Principal Secretary, Home Department & anr., (2020) 12 SCC 51

13. Kapil Agarwal Vs Sanjay Sharma , (2021) 5 SCC 524

14. Randheer Singh Vs St. of U.P. & ors. , 2021 SCC OnLine SC 942

15. Syed Yaseer Ibrahim Vs St. of U. P. & anr. , 2022 SCC OnLine SC 271

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shiv Shanker Prasad, J.)

1. Heard Mr. Satendra Narayan Singh, learned counsel for the applicant, Mr. Rakesh Kumar Mishra, learned counsel for opposite party no.2 and learned A.G.A. for the State.

2. The application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. No. 727 of 2023 has been filed on behalf of the applicant to quash the charge-sheet No. 58 of 2022 dated 10.04.2022, cognizance/ summoning order dated 14.04.2022 as well as entire proceedings of Case No. 517 of 2022 (State Vs. Nasir Khan), arising out of Case Crime No. 130 of 2021, under Sections 420, 467, 468, 471, 504, 506, 447 I.P.C., Police Station Kotwali, District Rampur, pending in the court of Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Court No.1, Rampur.

AND

The application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. No. 27887 of 2022 has been filed for quashing the summoning order dated 16th July, 2022 as well as the entire proceedings of Complaint Case No. 2537 of 2022 (Nihaluddin Vs. Nasir Khan & Others), under Sections 417, 452, 323 and 504 I.P.C., Police Station- Kotwali, District Rampur, pending in the court of Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Court No.1, Rampur.

3. Since the issue and laws on the subject are similar and identical, both the applications have been clubbed together and are finally decided by means of this common judgment. The application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. No. 727 of 2023 is being treated to be the leading case in which affidavits have been exchanged between the parties.

Version as unfolded in the FIR

4. The present criminal case borne out from a first information report lodged by Nihal-uddin Khan i.e. opposite party no.2 on 4th July, 2021 at 2357 hours against as many as 23 accused persons including the applicants. In the said FIR, it has been alleged that mother of the informant namely Raees Jahan Begum was having 14 Bigha land situated at Mohalla Culcutta, Police Station Kotwali, District Rampur, which was obtained by her through registered sale deed dated 25.06.1966. She died on 01.11.2015 and after her death her sons namely Alauddin, Haseemuddin and Nihaluddin (informant) have become the owners of the said land. It is alleged that taking advantage of the helplessness of the informant, the applicant after committing criminal conspiracy with the help of others obtained forged and fabricated power of attorney by one Sabir Khan but the applicants and their mother had not sold the said land. Sabir Khan died on 17.09.2004 and after his death the Power of Attorney became invalid. But the applicant has executed sale deeds on 25.07.2018, 28.02.2011, 13.05.2013, 26.07.2016, 17.01.2017, 28.03.2013, 17.02.2016 and the same are illegal and the persons concerned are trying to get possessions for which an application was given to the District Magistrate and an F.I.R. as Case Crime No. 39 of 2020, under Sections 323, 504, 506, 307 I.P.C. was lodged against the applicant. The applicant has threatened the informant hence the present F.I.R. has been lodged.

Case of the Applicant

5. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the alleged incident was occurred on 18.05.2021, whereas the first information report has been lodged after two months of the incident i.e. 04.07.2021 and there is no plausible explanation about the delay in lodging of the F.I.R.

6. After lodging of the aforesaid FIR, the investigation proceeded and the Investigating Officer has recorded the statement of the informant under Section 161 Cr.P.C. in which he has reiterated same version as unfolded in the F.I.R. The Investigating Officer also recorded the statements of formal witnesses, namely, Constable Sushil Kumar, S.I. Raees Ahmad, S.I. Vishwabandhu, S.I. Dharmendra Singh, Dr. Vivekanand (Executive Officer), Premendra Singh (Lekhpal) and Kaushal Dixit (Sub Registrar) under Section 161 Cr.P.C. and they have not supported the allegations made in the F.I.R. After conclusion of the statutory investigation under Chapter XII Cr.P.C., the Investigating Officer on 10.04.2022 submitted the charge-sheet No. 58 of 2022 against the applicant under Section 420, 467, 468, 471, 504, 506, 447 I.P.C. and upon submission of the same, on 14.04.2022 learned A.C.J.M.-I has taken cognizance. upon the same.

7. Earlier with regard to the same allegation, opposite party no.2 has moved an application under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C. and the same has been registered as Misc. Case No. 181/11 of 2019 (Nihaluddin Vs. Mohd. Akbar and others), which was rejected by the court below vide order dated 14th August, 2019 on the ground that since opposite party no.2 has not produced any document from which can be ascertained as to whose name has been recorded in the records of Nagar Palika over the land in dispute. It has also been recorded by the court below that in the police record it has been mentioned that a civil suit is pending between the parties and such fact has also been accepted by opposite party no.2 during the course of argument. On the basis of the aforesaid finding, the court below has opined that the application under Section 156 (3) has only been made to exert pressure upon the applicant. The court below has not found any merit in the said application filed by opposite party no.2 and ultimately rejected the same.

8. After dismissal of the aforesaid application filed by opposite party no.2 under Section 156 (3), an FIR being Case Crime No. 39 of 2020 under Section 323, 504, 506, 307 I.P.C. was lodged by opposite party no.2 against the applicant wherein nearly same allegations have been made against him due to land in question. In the said case, after investigation, final report has been submitted against the applicant and no protest petition was filed till date.

9. After failing twice in initiating false and frivolous criminal cases against the applicant, opposite party no.2 lodged the present FIR and thereafter he has also filed a complaint being Complaint Case No. 2537 of 2021 (Nihaluddin Vs. Nasir Khan), under Section 417, 452, 323, 504 I.P.C. on false and frivolous allegations. The proceedings of the aforesaid complaint case were challenged by the applicant before this Court by means of connected application being Application U/s 482 No. 27887 of 2022 (Nasir Khan Vs. State of U.P. and another), wherein this Court vide order dated 20.10.2022 has stayed the further proceeding against the applicant.

10. For ready reference, order of this Court dated 20th October, 2022 is being quoted herein-below:

"Sri Satendra Narayan Singh, learned counsel for the applicant submits that opposite party no.2 is successful to initiate the criminal proceedings against the applicant despite earlier two attempts were rejected that is an application under Section 156 Cr.P.C. submitted by the opposite party no.2 was rejected by an order dated 14.8.2019 where allegations were made of committing forgery. Thereafter, an FIR was lodged by the opposite party no.2 for offence under Section 323, 504, 506 and 307 IPC in regard to an alleged incident occurred on 25.9.2019 and after investigation final report was submitted and as per instruction, till date no protest petition has been filed. Thereafter the present proceedings were initiated by way of filing a criminal complaint on 19.3.2020 making an allegation in the incident occurred on 13.9.2021 wherein after recording the statements under Section 200 and 202 Cr.P.C. applicants are summoned.

Learned counsel for the applicant further submits that the facts of the present case squarely fall under paragraph no.102 Sub Paragraph No.7 of State of Haryana and others vs. Ch. Bhajan Lal and others reported in 1992 AIR 604 SC.

Issue notice to opposite party no.2 returnable at an early date. Steps of service be taken within ten days.

Put up this case as fresh on the date fixed in the notice.

Further proceedings pursuant to Complaint Case No.2537 of 2021 (Nihaluddin vs. Nasir Khan and others) under Section 417, 452, 323, 504 IPC, Police Station Kotwali, District Rampur, pending in the court of learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Court No.1, Rampur shall remain stayed for a period of four weeks only."

11. It is submitted that under the Right to Information Act, an information was sought by the applicant from the Nagar Palika Parishad, Rampur whether the name of mother of opposite party no.2, namely, Raees Jahan or opposite party no.2 Nihaluddin has ever been recorded over the land in question in the relevant records or not, he has been informed by the Nagar Palika Parishad, Rampur that no such name has been recorded over the land in question.

12. The land in question was belonging to one Hakeem Nabi Ahmad, who has given the said land to Sabir Khan in the year 1957, therefore, he became the owner of the said land. Sabir Khan has executed Power of Attorney in favour of the applicant on 12.03.1997 authorizing him to deliver all rights, a copy of the Hindi translation from Urdu deed executed by Hakeem Nabi Ahmad in favour of Sabir Ali has been enclosed as Annexure-11 to the affidavit accompanying the present application whereas the copy of the registration of the said power of attorney has been enclosed as Annexure No.9 to the affidavit accompanying the present application.

13. On 3rd February, 2019 for the same land dispute, opposite party no.2 and his brothers, namely, Allah-uddin, Haseen-uddin have a civil suit against as many as 185 persons including the applicant in the Court of Civil Judge (Senior Division), Rampur bearing Original Suit No. 72 of 2019 (Nihal-uddin & Others Vs. Mohd. Ahmad Khan & Others), for permanent injunction restraining the defendants to the said suit from interfering in peaceful possession of the plaintiffs of the said suit over the land in question, a copy of the plaint of the said suit has been enclosed as Annexure No.10 to the affidavit accompanying the present application. The said suit is still pending.

The case of opposite party no.2 as per the counter affidavit filed on his behalf:

14. Mrs. Sarvari Begum wife of Mohd. Ali Khan, who was the maternal grand-mother (Nani) of opposite party no.2 executed a registered sale-deed in favour of mother of opposite party no.2, namely Mrs. Raees Jahan Begum on 27th June, 1966, a copy of which has been enclosed as Annexure-C.A.-3 to the counter affidavit filed on behalf of opposite party no.2. After the death of his mother, names of opposite party no.2 and his two brothers were entered into the records of Nagar Palika Parishad, Rampur.

15. Submission of the learned counsel for the Applicant

(i) There is delay of nearly two months in lodging of FIR for the alleged incident but no plausible explanation has been given.

(ii) This is case of no injury nor any medical examination report qua any injured or the part of the case diary has been bought on record.

(iii) On being unsuccessful twice in initiating criminal proceedings against the applicant, Opposite party no.2 has lodged the present FIR only in order to exert pressure upon him on false and frivolous allegations, when as a matter of fact for the dispute of same land, he has already filed a civil suit in the year 2019 against the applicants and others.

(iv) The alleged incident dated 18th May, 2021 as has been mentioned in the FIR has never occurred and all the allegations mentioned therein are wholly false and concocted.

(v) The present criminal case initiated by opposite party no.2 against the applicant is nothing but a bundle of lie and the same has been lodged only for exploiting the applicant by indulging his name in a fake, false and frivolous case. The entire prosecution story as unfolded in the first information report is absolutely a self-made story projected by opposite party no.2.

(vi) The case in hand is purely civil nature and by the present F.I.R. an attempt has been made to enforce the memorandum of understanding by giving criminal colour. In support of his submission he has drawn the attention of the Court to paragraph-47 of the Judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Mitesh Kumar Vs. State of Karnataka & Ors. reported in 2021 AIR (Supreme Court) 5298.

(vii) The applicant has not committed any forgery nor he has cheated anyone nor he has manufactured any forged documents.

(viii) The Investigating Officer has not recorded statement of any family member of opposite party no.2 and only recording the statement of opposite party no.2 he has submitted the impugned charge-sheet against the applicant without collecting any material evidence against the applicant.

(ix) The judgment of the Hon'ble Surpeme Court in the case of State of Haryana & Others Vs. Bhajan Lal & Others reported in 1992 Suppl. (1) SCC 335 has been referred for drawing the attention of the Court to the issue that in several categories of cases, power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. can be exercised by this Court for quashing the malicious proceedings. The case of the applicant is covered with the seventh category mentioned in the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Bhajan Lal (Supra).

(x) The averments made in paragraph-6 of the counter affidavit filed on behalf of opposite party no.2 that the applicant has four criminal antecedents to his credit except the present one is absolutely incorrect. Only three cases are against the applicant, which have been initiated by opposite party no.2 in order to exert pressure upon him for resolving the dispute giving rise to the civil proceedings initiated by him. In case crime no. 39 of 2020 lodged by opposite party no.2 against the applicant, final report has been submitted by the police before the court concerned and opposite party no.2 has not filed any protest petition against the same, the further proceedings of Complaint Case No. 2537 of 2022 initiated by opposite party no.2 have already been stayed by this Court vide order dated 20th October, 2022 in connected application being Application No. 27887 of 2022, whereas case crime no. 130 of 2021 is present one, proceedings of which are under challenge in the leading application under Section 482 Cr.P.C.

16. Learned counsel for the applicants, therefore, submitted that the present criminal proceedings initiated against the applicants are not only malicious but also amount to an abuse of the process of the Court.

On the cumulative strength of the aforesaid submissions, it is submitted by learned counsel for the applicants that the proceedings of the above mentioned complaint case are liable to be quashed by this Court.

17. Per contra, learned A.G.A. and the learned counsel for opposite party no.2 have submitted that from the perusal of the material on record and looking into the facts of the case at this stage it cannot be said that no offence is made out against the applicants. All the submissions made relate to the disputed questions of fact, which cannot be adjudicated upon by this Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C. He also submits that it is settled law that the evidence produced by the accused in his defence cannot be looked into by the Court, except in very exceptional circumstances, at the initial stage of the criminal proceedings.

18. Learned counsel for opposite party no.2 further submits that the applicant has four criminal antecedents to his credit except the present one and he is habitual offender in grabbing various properties.

19. He also submits that the alleged power of attorney dated 12th March, 1997 executed in favour of applicant, namely, Nasir Khan by Sabir Khan is a forged and fabricated document. In order to grab the property the applicant has got prepared the same. Neither the name of Sabir Khan nor the name of the applicant has ever recorded in the records of the Nagar Palika Parishad, Rampur over the land in dispute.

On the cumulative strength of the aforesaid, learned A.G.A. and the learned counsel for opposite party no.2 urge that offence under Sections 420, 467, 468, 471, 504, 506, 447 I.P.C. is made out against the applicant. The present application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. is devoid of merit and the same is liable to be dismissed by this Court.

20. I have considered the submissions made by the learned counsel for the parties and have gone through the records of both the applications.

21. It is not in dispute that the dispute arose between the parties is for 14 bighas land situated at Mohalla-Culcutta, Police Station-Kotwali, District-Rampur. It is also an admitted position that for permanent injunction and proclamation over the said land, opposite party no.2 and his two brothers have filed civil suit on 3rd February, 2019 before the court being Original Suit No. 72 of 2019 (Nihal-uddin & Others Vs. Mohd. Ahmad Khan & Others), which is pending consideration. It is therefore, necessary for this Court to refer the averments and the prayer made by opposite party no.2 along with his two brothers in the plaint, which are being quoted herein-below:

उपरोक्त वाद में वादीगण निम्नलिखित निवेदन करते हैं-

"1. यहकि वादीगण आपस में सगे भाई है तथा वादपत्र के अन्त में वर्णित भूमि स्थित मौ० कलकत्ता तहसील सदर जिला रामपुर, जिसे वादपत्र के साथ संलग्न नक्शे में लाल रंग, हरे रंग तथा पीले रंग से प्रदर्शित किया गया है, के मालिक व काबिज है।

2. यहकि वादीगण की माता श्रीमति रईस जहॉ बेगम पत्नी श्री जमालुद्दीन निवासनी मौ० कलकत्ता तहसील सदर जिला रामपुर में स्थित भूमि जिसे वाद पत्र के साथ संलग्न मानाचित्र में प्रदर्शित किया गया है, की मालिक व काबिज थी। उक्त सम्पत्ति में से 14 बीघा पुख्ता भूमि श्रीमति रईस जहॉ बेगम ने श्रीमति सरवरी बेगम से विक्रय पत्र दिनॉकी 25.0.1966के द्वारा खरीदी थी। श्रीमति सरवरी बेगम श्रीमति रईस जहाँ बेगम की माता थी। श्रीमति सरवरी बेगम ने अपनी बेटी के हक में जिस 14 पुख्ता भूमि का वयनामा दिनॉक 25.06.1966 को निष्पादित किया था वह भूमि श्रीमति सरवरी बेगम ने विक्रय पत्र दिनॉक 6.11.1931 के द्वारा मकबूल हुसैन खा आदि से खरीदी थी। इस 1931 के विक्रय पत्र का उपनिबंधक कार्यालय में आग लगने के बाद पुनः इन्द्राज भी हुआ है। इस विक्रय पत्र द्वारा क्रय की गयी भूमि से उत्तर में भी श्रीमति सरवरी बेगम की अन्य भूमि लगभग 50 बीघा खाम थी। यह भूमि भी सरवरी बेगम की मृत्यु के उपरान्त श्रीमति रईस जहाँ बेगम को विरासत में मिली। सरवरी बेगम को उक्त 50 बीघा खाम भूमि उनके पति श्री दूल्हा खाँ से विरासत में मिली थी, जोकि दूल्हा खां की दादालाही भूमि थी।

3. यहकि उपरोक्त वर्णित प्रकार से श्रीमति रईस जहाँ बेगम को 14 बीघा पुख्ता अर्थात 70 बीघा खाम विक्रय पत्र दिनॉक 27.06.1966 के आधार पर तथा 50 बीघा खाम विरासत में प्राप्त हुयी। इस प्रकार श्रीमति रईस जहाँ बेगम की मो० कलकत्ता में कुल 120 बीघा खाम भूमि थी। मो० कलकत्ता में अधिकतर भूमि श्रीमति रईस जहाँ की ही थी। यह भूमि श्रीमति रईस जहाँ के स्वर्गवास पर उनके पुत्रों वादीगण को विरासतन प्राप्त हुयी ।

4. यहकि वर्ष 1931 के विक्रय पत्र के द्वारा सरवरी बेगम द्वारा खरीदी गयी सम्पत्ति की सीमायें उक्त विक्रयपत्र में निम्नप्रकार लिखी है-

1. पूर्व - रास्ता व आराजी अर्जुन मिल्कीयत जोजा हकीम फखरूददीन व खेत अली खाँ

पश्चिम - तालाब व खेत सरवरी फखरूद्दीन अली जान

उत्तर - आराजी व कब्जा फखरुद्दीन

दक्षिण - कब्रस्तान व खेत बुद्धन खा

2. पूर्व - खेत अम्मन खाँ

पश्चिम - रास्ता व खेत सरवरी

उत्तर - कब्रस्तान

दक्षिण - नाला सरकारी

5. यहकि वर्ष 1966 के जिस विक्रय पत्र से श्रीमति रईस जहाँ न सम्पत्तिःखरीदी उस बयनामें के समय मौके पर हुये परिवर्तनों के कारण विक्रय पत्र में निम्नलिखित सीमाओं का उल्लेख है-

क. पूर्व - रास्ता व आराजी खेत अर्जुन।

पश्चिम - नाला संरकारी

उत्तर - आराजी अर्जुन मकानात बागवान

दक्षिण - कब्रस्तान

ख. पूर्व - आराजी खेत अर्जुन

पश्चिम - नाला

उत्तर - आराजी खेत

दक्षिण - आराजी सरवरी

6. यहकि लम्बी अवधि में परिवर्तन होता रहा कुल विवादित भूमि की वर्तमान स्थिति वाद पत्र के साथ संलग्न नक्शे में प्रदर्शित है। विवादित भूमि का रोमपुर नगर पालिका परिषद रामपुर के अभिलेखों में प्लॉट स० 1808, 1809, 1010, 1811 1812, 1813, 286, 287, 288, 289, 290, 291, 292, 293 294 295, 296, 297, 298, 326, 1687, 1688, 1651,1653,1654अंकित है।

7. यहकि वर्ष 1931 के विक्रय पत्र व 1966 के विक्रय पत्र में सम्पत्ति की दो सीमाये दी गयी है। एक सीमा की सम्पत्ति को मानचित्र में हरे रंग तथा दूसरी सीमा की सम्पत्ति को पीले रंग से तथा सरवरी बेगम से राईस जहाँ को विरासत में मिली सम्पति को लाल रंग से प्रदर्शित किया गया है।

8. यहकि रईस जहाँ बेगम को ही कुछ भूमि को सम्मिलित करते हुये सरकार द्वारा आसरा कॉलोनी, पानी की टंकी का निर्माण कर लिया गया तथा कुछ भाग पर मन्दिर व स्कूल बन गया। उक्त सम्पत्ति के सम्बन्ध मैं प्रस्तुत बाद में वादीगण कोई विवाद नही कर रहे है तथा उसे सलग्न मानचित्र में प्रदर्शित किया गया है। यह सम्पत्ति प्रस्तुत बाद में विवादित नहीं है। इस सम्पत्ति के सम्बन्ध मे वादीगण सम्बन्धित व्यक्तियों / सरकार के विरूद्ध अलग से कार्यवाही करेंगे।

9. यह कि श्रीमति रईस जहाँ ने अपने जीवनकाल में अपनी सम्मति में से कुछ सम्पत्ति विक्रय पत्रों के द्वारा बेच दी। उनकी मृत्यु पर विरासतन प्राप्त हुयी सम्पत्ति में से एक भूखण्ड वादी स० 1 व 2 द्वारा विक्रय किया गया बेची गयी सम्पत्ति का विवरण वाद पत्र के साथ संलग्न अनुसूची क 't' मे वर्णित है तथा बेची गयी सम्पत्ति को वाद पत्र के साथ सलग्न नक्शे में नीले रंग से प्रदर्शित किया गया है- -

10. यहकि श्रीमति रईस जहाँ की उक्त सम्पत्ति के सम्बन्ध में उनके जीवनकाल में काफी विवाद भी चला। तुलाराम, रोशनलाल व छोलीराम ने श्रीमति रईस जहाँ बेगम से 919 वर्ग मीटर आराजी खरीदने का इकरारनामा मुआयदावय प्रदर्शित करते हुये एक वाद मूलवाद स० 26/198 तुलाराम आदि प्रति श्रीमति रईस जहाँ योजित किया, जिसमें श्रीमति रईस जहाँ द्वारा उक्त इकरारनामें को घोखाधड़ी के आधार पर निष्पादित होना कहा गया तथा यह भी उल्लेख किया कि श्रीमति रईस जहाँ ने तीन विक्रय पत्रों दिनॉकी 13.11.1986 के द्वारा मसरूर फाल्ना बेगम को 100 गज आराजी ,नन्ही बेगम को 100 वर्गगज आराजी तथा विक्रय पत्र दिनॉकी: 23.11.1986 के द्वारा श्रीमति रहमत जहाँ बेगम को 100 वर्गगज भूमि बेच दी है अन्त में उक्त दावा खारिज हो गया।

11. यहकि श्रीमति रईस जहॉ बहुत सम्पन्न महिला थी। इस कारण विभिन्न व्यक्ति समय-समय पर उनकी सम्पत्ति हडपने का प्रयास करते रहते थे। श्रीमति रईस जहाँ ने विवादित सम्पत्ति पर समय-समय पर मकानात आदि का निर्माण भी किया था।

12. यहकि श्रीमति रईस जहाँ का दिनांक 1.11.2015 को स्वर्गवास हो गया। वादी स० 1 निहालुद्दीन श्रीनगर में कारोबार करते है जबकि वादी स० 2 व 3 दिल्ली में कारोबार करते हैं तथा वादीगण की माता अधिकतर अपने पुत्रों के साथ दिल्ली में रहती थी इसी बात का अबैध लाभ उठाते हुये प्रतिवादीगण स० 1 ता 4 व 10 ने आपस में साजिश करके वादीगण की सम्पत्ति को धोखाधडी व चार सौ बीसी के आधार पर विभिन्न व्यक्तियों के नाम विक्रय पत्र करना प्रारम्भ कर दिये जबकि प्रतिवादीगण स० 1 ता 4 व 10 का विवादित सम्पत्ति के स्वामित्व व कब्जे से कोई सम्बन्ध नही था। प्रतिवादी स० 10 ने स्वयं को साबिर खाँ का मुख्यार प्रदर्शित करते हुये वयनामे किये गये। जबकि साबिर खाँ का भी विवादित सम्पत्ति के कब्जे व स्वामित्व से कोई सम्बन्ध नही था। यह महत्वपूर्ण है कि प्रश्नगत वयनामो में भी यह उल्लेख नही है कि प्रतिवादीगण स० 1 व साबिर खाँ तथा प्रतिवादी सo 10 के पास उक्त सम्पत्ति किस आधार पर आयी है। मौके पर वादीगण का ही कब्जा व दखल है। वादीगण द्वारा कराया गया कुछ निर्माण मौके पर मौजूद है। वादीगण की माँ ने अपने जीवनकाल में विवादित भूमि की प्लॉटिंग करने हेतु कुछ रास्ते बनाये थे जोकि मौके पर मौजूद हैं। श्रीमति रईस जहाँ ने कुछ सम्पत्ति अपने जीवनकाल में बेच दी थी जिसका विवरण पूर्व में दिया जा चुका है। शेष सम्पत्ति वादीगण की है तथा किसी अन्य का उक्त सम्पत्ति पर कोई कब्जा व अधिकार नही है।

13यहकि वादीगण की सम्पत्ति में नये नाले का निर्माण नगरपालिका परिषद रामपुर द्वारा कुछ वर्ष पूर्व किया गया। उक्त नालों से वादीगण को भी लाभ था इस कारण वादीगण ने उक्त नालों के निर्माण में कोई आपत्ति नही की।

14 . यहकि वादीगण ने उपनिबन्धक कार्यालय, तहसील सदर जिला रामपुर में निरीक्षण कराया तो पता लगा कि वादीगण की अनुपस्थिति में तथा श्रीमति रईस जहाँ की वृद्धावस्था व अशिक्षित होने का प्रतिवादीगण ने लाभ उठाया है तथा वास्तविक स्वामियों की बिना सहमति व जानकारी के सम्पत्ति के बयनामें करा दिये, जिसका प्रतिवादीगण को कोई अधिकार नही था।

15 यहकि निरीक्षण से वादीगण को विवादित भूमि के जो विक्रय पत्र प्राप्त हुये उनका विवरण वाद पत्र के साथ संलग्न अनुसूची "ख" में वर्णित है। यह सभी विक्रय पत्र वादीगण की विवादित सम्पत्ति से सम्बन्धित है तथा शून्य व निष्प्रभावी है। विक्रय पत्रों का ज्ञान वादीगण को लगभग । वर्ष पूर्व हुआ है। मुआयना करने व

नकले प्राप्त करने में तथा विवादित भूमि का नक्शा बनवाने में वादीगण को काफी समय लग गया वादीगण अपनी ओर से कोई देर किये बिना प्रस्तुत वाद वास्ते उद् घोषणा व स्थाई निषेधाज्ञा दायर कर रहे है।

16. यहकि वाद पत्र के साथ संलग्न अनुसूची 'ख' में वर्णित सभी बयनामें निःशून्य व निष्प्रभावी एंव अवैध है। उक्त विक्रय पत्रों के आधार पर प्रतिवादीगण को विवादित सम्पत्ति में कोई हक व अधिकार प्राप्त नही होते है। प्रश्नगत विक्रय पत्रों के अस्तित्व में रहने से वादीगण के अधिकारों पर प्रतिकूल प्रभाव पड़ने का खतरा है।

17. यहकि प्रतिवादीगण मौके पर विवादित सम्पत्ति पर कब्जा करके निर्माण कर लेने हेतु प्रयासरत है पिछले 3 माह से प्रतिवादीगण व वादीगण का इस सम्बन्ध में विवाद चल रहा है। वादीगण ने पुलिस की सहायता से प्रतिवादीगण को मौके पर कब्जा कर निर्माण करने से रोका है किन्तु वादीगण की उपस्थिति में दिनांक 22.03.2019 को कुछ प्रतिवादीगण मौके पर आ गये तथा उन्होने कहा कि जैसे ही तुम लोग रामपुर से अपने काम पर वापस जाओगे तो हम मौके पर जाकर कब्जा कर लेगे ऐसी स्थिति में वादीगण के पास प्रस्तुत वाद वास्ते उद्घोषणा व निषेधाज्ञा "दायर करने के अतिरिक्त अन्य कोई विकल्प नही है।

18. यहकि प्रतिवादी सईद अहमद द्वारा विवादित सम्पत्ति के एक भाग को शौकत अली से प्राप्त होना कहकर एक निषेधाज्ञा का वाद मूलवाद स० 96 / 2018 सईद अहमद प्रति अलाउद्दीन आदि वादीगण के विरूद्ध योजित किया गया वाद में प्रतिवादीगण (प्रस्तुत वाद के वादी) द्वारा प्रतिवाद पत्र प्रस्तुत किया गया तथा सिविल जज (कनिष्ठ खण्ड) रामपुर द्वारा आदेश दिनॉकी 1.10.2018 से उक्त सईद अहमद का स्वामित्व ना मानते हुये उनका निषेधाज्ञा प्रार्थना पत्र निरस्त कर दिया गया।

19 यह यदि प्रतिवादीगण को मौके पर कब्जा करने से व निर्माण करने से नही रोका गया तो वादीगण की अपूर्णनीय क्षति होगी तथा मौके की स्थिति परिवर्तित हो जायेगी एवं अनावश्यक मुकदमेबाजी भी प्रारम्भ हो जायेगी।

20. यहकि प्रतिवादीगण स० 10 द्वारा स्वयं को साबिर खां का मुख्तारेआम प्रदर्शित करते हुये विक्रय पत्र निष्पादित किये गये हैं जबकि साबिर अली का नासिर खां से कोई रिश्ता नही था कथित मुख्तारनामा भी जाली व फर्जी अभिलेख है। प्रतिवादीगण स० 5 ता 7 साबिर खॉ के वारिसान है। साबिर खाँ का विवादित सम्पत्ति में कोई स्वामीत्व हक व अधिकार व कब्जा नहीं था इस कारण उन्हें विवादित सम्पत्ति के सम्बन्ध में किसी को अपना मुख्तार बनाने का कोई अधिकार नही था।

21 यहकि मौ० शाकिर के पक्ष में एक विक्रय पत्र निष्पादित हुआ किन्तु उनका स्वर्गवास हो चुका है और प्रतिवादीगण स. 49 ता 54 उनके वारिसान है।

22 यहकि वाद के लिये वाद कारण उपरोक्त तथ्यों से तथा अन्त में दिनांक 22. 03.2019 को प्रतिवादीगण द्वारा मौके पर आकर जबरदस्ती कब्जा कर निर्माण कर लेने की धमकी देने से वादीगण को प्रतिवादीगण के विरुद्ध न्यायालय के क्षेत्राधिकार में हासिल व पैदा हुआ तथा श्रीमान जी को प्रस्तुत वाद सुनने व निर्णीत करने का विचाराधिकार प्राप्त है।

23 यहकि वाद का मूल्याकन वास्ते विचाराधिकार वाबतअनुतोष क व ख ● विवादित सम्पत्ति की अनुमानित बाजारू कीमत 3,00,000/- रूपये, 3,00,000/- तथा बाबत अनुतोष ग विवादित सम्पत्ति की अनुमानित बाजारू कीमत 3,00,000/- कुल 9,00,000/- किया जाता है तथा न्याय शुल्क बावत अनुतोष क एंव ख उदघोषणा के लिये निर्धारित अधिकतम न्याय शुल्क 200/- रूपये, 200/- रूपये तथा न्याय शुल्क यावत अनुतोष ग निषेधाज्ञा के लिये निर्धारित अधिकतम न्याय शुल्क 500/- कुल 900 / - का अदा किया जाता है जोकि पर्याप्त है।

24. यहकि वादीगण निम्नलिखित अनुतोष प्राप्त करने के अधिकारी है-

क. यहकि उदघोषणा की आज्ञप्ति के द्वारा यह घोषित किया जाये कि वादीगण विवादित सम्पत्ति स्थित मो० कलकत्ता तहसील सदर जिला रामपुर, जिसको वाद पत्र के साथ संलग्न मानचित्र में लाल रंग हरे रंग तथा पीले रंग से प्रदर्शित किया गया है, के तन्हा मालिक व काविज है तथा प्रतिवादीगण का उक्त सम्पत्ति के स्वामित्व व कब्जे से कोई सम्बन्ध नही है।

ख . यहकि उदघोषणा की आज्ञप्ति के द्वारा यह घोषित किया जाये कि वाद पत्र के साथ संलग्न अनुसूची ख में वर्णित सभी विक्रय पत्र निशून्य व निष्प्रभावी है तथा उनके आधार पर प्रतिवादीगण को 'विवादित सम्पत्ति में कोई हक व अधिकार प्राप्त नहीं होते है।

ग . यहकि स्थाई निषेधाज्ञा की आज्ञप्ति के द्वारा प्रतिवादीगण को स्वयं ,अपने रिश्तेदारान, ऐजेन्टान कारकुनान व नौकरान आदि के द्वारा वादीगण की विवादित सम्पत्ति स्थित मौ० कलकत्ता तहसील सदर जिला रामपुर, जिसको वाद पत्र के साथ सलग्न मानचित्र मे पीले रंग, हरे रंग तथा लाल रंग से प्रदर्शित किया गया है. में वादीगण के कब्जे में किसी भी प्रकार से से हस्तक्षेप करने से तथा सम्पत्ति को विक्रय द्वारा या अन्य किसी प्रकार से अन्तरित करने से सदैव के लिये निषिद्ध कर दिया जाये।

घ. यहकि वाद की वाद व्यय व हर्जा खर्चा मुकदमा भी वादीगण को प्रतिवादीगण से दिलवाया जाये।

ड. यहकि अन्य अनुतोष, जो न्यायालय वादीगण के पक्ष में उचित समझे वह भी वादीगण को प्रतिवादीगण से दिलवाया जाये।

सत्यापन:- उपरोक्त वाद पत्र के पैरा स० 1 ता 21 व 24 वादीगण हमारे निजी ज्ञान व विश्वास के आधार पर तथा प्रस्तर स०

23 के अभिकथन विधिक परामर्श के आधार पर सही व सत्य है, जिसमें ना कुछ झूठ है और नाही कुछ छिपाया गया है, जिसकी तस्दीक आज दिनांक 03.04.2019 को रामपुर में की गई।"

22. It is also not in dispute that nearly for the same dispute, the present criminal case is the fourth which has been lodged by opposite party no.2 against the applicant. Earlier opposite party no.2 has moved an application under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C. and the same has been registered as Misc. Case No. 181/11 of 2019 (Nihaluddin Vs. Mohd. Akbar and others), which was rejected by the court below vide order dated 14th August, 2019. After dismissal of the aforesaid application filed by opposite party no.2 under Section 156 (3), an FIR being Case Crime No. 39 of 2020 under Section 323, 504, 506, 307 I.P.C. was lodged by opposite party no.2 against the applicant wherein after investigation, final report has been submitted against the applicant and no protest petition was filed till date. After that opposite party no.2 lodged the present FIR and thereafter he has also filed a complaint being Complaint Case No. 2537 of 2021 (Nihaluddin Vs. Nasir Khan), under Section 417, 452, 323, 504 I.P.C. The proceedings of the aforesaid complaint case have been stayed by this Court vide order dated 20th October, 2022 passed in Application U/s 482 No. 27887 of 2022 (Nasir Khan Vs. State of U.P. and another).

Legal Issues, which emerge in both the applications

23. The veracity of the facts alleged by the applicant and the opposite party no.2 can only be ascertained on the basis of evidence and documents by a civil court of competent jurisdiction. The dispute in question is purely of civil nature and opposite party no.2 has already instituted a civil suit in the court of Civil Judge. In the facts and circumstances of this case, initiating criminal proceedings by opposite party no.2 against the applicant is clearly an abuse of the process of the court. Scope and ambit of courts powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C.

24. The Apex Court in a number of cases has laid down the scope and ambit of court's power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. Every High Court has inherent power to act ex debito justitiae to do real and substantial justice, for the administration of which alone it exists, or to prevent abuse of the process of the court. Inherent power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. can be exercised:

(i) to give effect to an order under the Code;

(ii) to prevent abuse of the process of court; and

(iii) to otherwise secure the ends of justice.

25. Inherent powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C. though having wide scope is to be exercised sparingly, carefully and with great caution and only when such exercise is justified by the tests specifically laid down in this section itself. Authority of the court exists for the advancement of justice. If any abuse of the process leading to injustice is brought to the notice of the court, then the Court would be justified in preventing injustice by invoking inherent powers in absence of specific provisions in the Statute.

26. It is also important for this Court to notice that the powers possessed by the High Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C. are very wide and the very plenitude of the power requires great caution in its exercise. The court must be careful to see that its decision in exercise of this power is based on sound principles. The inherent power should not be exercised to stifle a legitimate prosecution. The High Court should normally refrain from giving a prima facie decision in a case where all the facts are incomplete and hazy; more so, when the evidence has not been collected and produced before the court and the issues involved, whether factual or legal, are of such magnitude that they cannot be seen in their true perspective without sufficient material. Of course, no hard and fast rule can be laid down in regard to cases in which the High Court will exercise its extraordinary jurisdiction of quashing the proceedings at any stage.

CASE LAWS ON THE SUBJECT

27. In the case of State of Haryana Vs. Bhajan Lal (Supra), the Apex Court for exercising powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C. has framed following guidelines:

(1) Where the allegations made in the first information report or the complaint, even if they are taken at their face value and accepted in their entirety do not prima facie constitute any offence or make out a case against the accused.

(2) Where the allegations in the first information report and other materials, if any, accompanying the FIR do not disclose a cognizable offence, justifying an investigation by police officers under Section 156 (1) of the Code except under an order of a Magistrate within the purview of Section 155 (2) of the Code.

(3) Where the uncontroverted allegations made in the FIR or complaint and the evidence collected in support of the same do not disclose the commission of any offence and make out a case against the accused.

(4) Where, the allegations in the FIR do not constitute a cognizable offence but constitute only a non-cognizable offence, no investigation is permitted by a police officer without an order of a Magistrate as contemplated under Section 155(2) of the Code.

(5) Where the allegations made in the FIR or complaint are so absurd and inherently improbable on the basis of which no prudent person can ever reach a just conclusion that there is sufficient ground for proceeding against the accused.

(6) Where there is an express legal bar engrafted in any of the provisions of the Code or the concerned Act (under which a criminal proceeding is instituted) to the institution and continuance of the proceedings and/or where there is a specific provision in the Code or the concerned Act, providing efficacious redress for the grievance of the aggrieved party.

(7) Where a criminal proceeding is manifestly attended with mala fide and/or where the proceeding is maliciously instituted with an ulterior motive for wreaking vengeance on the accused and with a view to spite him due to private and personal grudge."

28. The Apex Court in the case of State of Karnataka Vs. L. Muniswamy & Others, reported in (1977) 2 SCC 699 has observed that the wholesome power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. entitles the High Court to quash a proceeding when it comes to the conclusion that allowing the proceeding to continue would be an abuse of the process of the court or that the ends of justice require that the proceeding ought to be quashed. The High Courts have been invested with inherent powers, both in civil and criminal matters, to achieve a salutary public purpose. A court proceeding ought not to be permitted to degenerate into a weapon of harassment or persecution. The court observed in this case that ends of justice are higher than the ends of mere law though justice must be administered according to laws made by the legislature. This case has been followed in a large number of subsequent cases of this court and other courts.

29. The Apex Court in the case of Madhavrao Jiwajirao Scindia & Others Vs. Sambhajirao Chandrojirao Angre & Others reported in (1988) 1 SCC 692 has observed that the legal position is well settled that when a prosecution at the initial stage is asked to be quashed, the test to be applied by the court is as to whether the uncontroverted allegations as made prima facie establish the offence. It is also for the court to take into consideration any special features which appear in a particular case to consider whether it is expedient and in the interest of justice to permit a prosecution to continue. This is so on the basis that the court cannot be utilized for any oblique purpose and where in the opinion of the court chances of an ultimate conviction is bleak and, therefore, no useful purpose is likely to be served by allowing a criminal prosecution to continue, the court may while taking into consideration the special facts of a case also quash the proceeding even though it may be at a preliminary stage.

30. Similarly in Janata Dal Vs. H.S. Chowdhary reported in (992) 4 SCC 305, the Apex Court in paragraph-132 has opined as follows:

"132. The criminal courts are clothed with inherent power to make such orders as may be necessary for the ends of justice. Such power though unrestricted and undefined should not be capriciously or arbitrarily exercised, but should be exercised in appropriate cases, ex debito justitiae to do real and substantial justice for the administration of which alone the courts exist. The powers possessed by the High Court under Section 482 of the Code are very wide and the very plentitude of the power requires great caution in its exercise. Courts must be careful to see that its decision in exercise of this power is based on sound principles."

31. In the case of G. Sagar Suri & Another Vs. State of U.P. & Others reported in (2000) 2 SCC 636, the Apex Court has observed that it is the duty and obligation of the criminal court to exercise a great deal of caution in issuing the process particularly when matters are essentially of civil nature.

32. In the case of Roy V.D. Vs. State of Kerala reported in (2000) 8 SCC 590 the Apex Court in paragraph-18 has observed as under:-

"18. It is well settled that the power under Section 482 Cr.P.C has to be exercised by the High Court, inter alia, to prevent abuse of the process of any court or otherwise to secure the ends of justice. Where criminal proceedings are initiated based on illicit material collected on search and arrest which are per se illegal and vitiate not only a conviction and sentence based on such material but also the trial itself, the proceedings cannot be allowed to go on as it cannot but amount to abuse of the process of the court; in such a case not quashing the proceedings would perpetuate abuse of the process of the court resulting in great hardship and injustice to the accused. In our opinion, exercise of power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. to quash proceedings in a case like the one on hand, would indeed secure the ends of justice."

33. The Apex Court in the case of Zandu Pharmaceutical Works Ltd. & Others VS. Mohd. Sharaful Haque & Another reported in (2005) 1 SCC 122 has opined that it would be an abuse of process of the court to allow any action which would result in injustice and prevent promotion of justice. In exercise of the powers, court would be justified to quash any proceeding if it finds that initiation/continuance of it amounts to abuse of the process of court or quashing of these proceedings would otherwise serve the ends of justice. When no offence is disclosed by the complaint, the court may examine the question of fact. When a complaint is sought to be quashed, it is permissible to look into the materials to assess what the complainant has alleged and whether any offence is made out even if the allegations are accepted in toto.

34. In the case of Indian Oil Corporation Vs. NEPC India Ltd. & Others reported in (2006) 6 SCC 736, the Apex Court has again cautioned about a growing tendency in business circles to convert purely civil disputes into criminal cases. The court noticed the prevalent impression that civil law remedies are time consuming and do not adequately protect the interests of lenders/creditors. The court further observed that any effort to settle civil disputes and claims, which do not involve any criminal offence, by applying pressure through criminal prosecution should be deprecated and discouraged.

35. Further in the case of Inder Mohan Goswami Vs. State of Uttaranchal reported in (2007) 12 SCC 1, has observed as under:

"25. Reference to the following cases would reveal that the courts have consistently taken the view that they must use this extraordinary power to prevent injustice and secure the ends of justice. The English courts have also used inherent power to achieve the same objective. It is generally agreed that the Crown Court has inherent power to protect its process from abuse. In Connelly v. DPP [1964] AC 1254, Lord Devlin stated that where particular criminal proceedings constitute an abuse of process, the court is empowered to refuse to allow the indictment to proceed to trial. Lord Salmon in DPP v. Humphrys [1977] AC 1 stressed the importance of the inherent power when he observed that it is only if the prosecution amounts to an abuse of the process of the court and is oppressive and vexatious that the judge has the power to intervene. He further mentioned that the courts power to prevent such abuse is of great constitutional importance and should be jealously preserved.

46. The court must ensure that criminal prosecution is not used as an instrument of harassment or for seeking private vendetta or with an ulterior motive to pressure the accused. On analysis of the aforementioned cases, we are of the opinion that it is neither possible nor desirable to lay down an inflexible rule that would govern the exercise of inherent jurisdiction. Inherent jurisdiction of the High Courts under Section 482 Cr.P.C. though wide has to be exercised sparingly, carefully and with caution and only when it is justified by the tests specifically laid down in the Statute itself and in the aforementioned cases. In view of the settled legal position, the impugned judgment cannot be sustained."

36. In Paramjeet Batra Vs. State Uttarakhand reported in (2013) 11 SCC 673, the Apex Court has opined that while exercising its jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code the High Court has to be cautious. This power is to be used sparingly and only for the purpose of preventing abuse of the process of any court or otherwise to secure ends of justice. Whether a complaint discloses a criminal offence or not depends upon the nature of facts alleged therein. Whether essential ingredients of criminal offence are present or not has to be judged by the High Court. A complaint disclosing civil transactions may also have a criminal texture. But the High Court must see whether a dispute which is essentially of a civil nature is given a cloak of criminal offence. In such a situation, if a civil remedy is available and is, in fact, adopted as has happened in this case, the High Court should not hesitate to quash criminal proceedings to prevent abuse of process of court. The Apex Court on the basis of such finding has held that as we have already noted, here the dispute is essentially about the profit of the hotel business and its ownership. The pending civil suit will take care of all those issues. The allegation that forged and fabricated documents are used by the appellant can also be dealt with in the said suit. Respondent 2's attempt to file similar complaint against the appellant having failed, he has filed the present complaint. The appellant has been acquitted in another case filed by respondent 2 against him alleging offence under Section 406 I.P.C. Possession of the shop in question has also been handed over by the appellant to respondent 2. In such a situation, in our opinion, continuation of the pending criminal proceedings would be abuse of the process of law. The High Court was wrong in holding otherwise.

37. After the judgment of Apex Court in the case of Bhajan Lal (Supra), a Three Judges' Bench of the Apex Court in the case of Parbatbhai Aahir @ Parbatbhai Bhimsinbhai Karmur & Others Vs. State of Gujarat & Another reported in (2017) 9 SCC 641 has framed principles for deciding application under Section 482 Cr.P.C., which are as follows:

"16. The broad principles which emerge from the precedents on the subject, may be summarised in the following propositions:

16.1. Section 482 preserves the inherent powers of the High Court to prevent an abuse of the process of any court or to secure the ends of justice. The provision does not confer new powers. It only recognises and preserves powers which inhere in the High Court;

16.2. The invocation of the jurisdiction of the High Court to quash a First Information Report or a criminal proceeding on the ground that a settlement has been arrived at between the offender and the victim is not the same as the invocation of jurisdiction for the purpose of compounding an offence. While compounding an offence, the power of the court is governed by the provisions of Section 320 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973. The power to quash under Section 482 is attracted even if the offence is non-compoundable;

16.3. In forming an opinion whether a criminal proceeding or complaint should be quashed in exercise of its jurisdiction under Section 482, the High Court must evaluate whether the ends of justice would justify the exercise of the inherent power;

16.4. While the inherent power of the High Court has a wide ambit and plenitude it has to be exercised; (i) to secure the ends of justice or (ii) to prevent an abuse of the process of any court;

16.5. The decision as to whether a complaint or First Information Report should be quashed on the ground that the offender and victim have settled the dispute, revolves ultimately on the facts and circumstances of each case and no exhaustive elaboration of principles can be formulated;

16.6. In the exercise of the power under Section 482 and while dealing with a plea that the dispute has been settled, the High Court must have due regard to the nature and gravity of the offence. Heinous and serious offences involving mental depravity or offences such as murder, rape and dacoity cannot appropriately be quashed though the victim or the family of the victim have settled the dispute. Such offences are, truly speaking, not private in nature but have a serious impact upon society. The decision to continue with the trial in such cases is founded on the overriding element of public interest in punishing persons for serious offences;

16.7. As distinguished from serious offences, there may be criminal cases which have an overwhelming or predominant element of a civil dispute. They stand on a distinct footing in so far as the exercise of the inherent power to quash is concerned;

16.8. Criminal cases involving offences which arise from commercial, financial, mercantile, partnership or similar transactions with an essentially civil flavour may in appropriate situations fall for quashing where parties have settled the dispute;

16.9. In such a case, the High Court may quash the criminal proceeding if in view of the compromise between the disputants, the possibility of a conviction is remote and the continuation of a criminal proceeding would cause oppression and prejudice; and 16.10. There is yet an exception to the principle set out in propositions set out in propositions 16.8 and 16.9 above. Economic offences involving the financial and economic well-being of the state have implications which lie beyond the domain of a mere dispute between private disputants. The High Court would be justified in declining to quash where the offender is involved in an activity akin to a financial or economic fraud or misdemeanour. The consequences of the act complained of upon the financial or economic system will weigh in the balance."

38. In Sardar Ali Khan Vs. State of Uttar Pradesh Through Principal Secretary, Home Department & Another reported in (2020) 12 SCC 51, the Apex Court has held as follows:

"It is to be noted that there is no allegation of impersonation and forgery of the signatures in the suit filed by the 2nd respondent. In any event, when the suit filed by the 2nd respondent for cancellation of sale deed, is pending consideration before the competent court of law, the 2nd respondent cannot pursue his complaint in criminal proceedings by improving his case. Having regard to serious factual disputes which are of civil nature, for which civil suits are pending, allowing the 2nd respondent to pursue his complaint in criminal proceedings is nothing but abuse of the process of law. For the aforesaid reasons we are of the considered view that the criminal proceedings are fit to be quashed by allowing this appeal."

39. In Kapil Agarwal Vs. Sanjay Sharma reported in (2021) 5 SCC 524, the Apex Court has held as follows:

"As observed and held by this Court in catena of decisions, inherent jurisdiction under Section 482 Cr.P.C. and/or under Article 226 of the Constitution is designed to achieve salutary purpose that criminal proceedings ought not to be permitted to degenerate into weapon of harassment. When the Court is satisfied that criminal proceedings amount to an abuse of process of law or that it amounts to bringing pressure upon accused, in exercise of inherent powers, such proceedings can be quashed."

40. The Apex Court in the case of Randheer Singh Vs. State of U.P. & Others reported in 2021 SCC OnLine SC 942, referring the case of Kapil Agarwal (Supra) has observed and held as follows:

"32. In Kapil Agarwal (supra), this Court observed that Section 482 is designed to achieve the purpose of ensuring that criminal proceedings are not permitted to generate into weapons of harassment.

33. In this case, it appears that criminal proceedings are being taken recourse to as a weapon of harassment against a purchaser. It is reiterated at the cost of repetition that the FIR does not disclose any offence so far as the Appellant is concerned. There is no whisper of how and in what manner, this Appellant is involved in any criminal offence and the charge sheet, the relevant part whereof has been extracted above, is absolutely vague. There can be no doubt that jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Cr.P.C. should be used sparingly for the purpose of preventing abuse of the process of any court or otherwise to secure the ends of justice. Whether a complaint discloses criminal offence or not depends on the nature of the allegation and whether the essential ingredients of a criminal offence are present or not has to be judged by the High Court. There can be no doubt that a complaint disclosing civil transactions may also have a criminal texture. The High Court has, however, to see whether the dispute of a civil nature has been given colour of criminal offence. In such a situation, the High Court should not hesitate to quash the criminal proceedings as held by this Court in Paramjeet Batra (supra) extracted above.

34. The given set of facts may make out a civil wrong as also a criminal offence. Only because a civil remedy is available may not be a ground to quash criminal proceedings. But as observed above, in this case, no criminal offence has been made out in the FIR read with the Charge-Sheet so far as this Appellant is concerned. The other accused Rajan Kumar has died."

41. In its latest judgment the Apex Court in the case of Syed Yaseer Ibrahim Vs. State of Uttar Pradesh & Another reported in 2022 SCC OnLine SC 271, has opined as follows:

"9. Insofar as the appellant is concerned, none of the ingredients of the offence punishable under Section 420 of the IPC have been found to exist after the investigation was complete. Neither the FIR nor the charge-sheet contain any reference to the essential requirements underlying Section 420. In this backdrop, the continuation of the prosecution against the appellant would amount to an abuse of the process where a civil dispute is sought to be given the colour of a criminal wrong doing."

42. The Apex Court in the case of Mitesh Kumar (Supra), which has been heavily relied upon by the learned counsel for the applicant, has held as follows:

"Having considered the relevant arguments of the parties and decisions of this court we are of the considered view that existence of dishonest or fraudulent intention has not been made out against the Appellants. Though the instant dispute certainly involves determination of issues which are of civil nature, pursuant to which Respondent No. 2 has even instituted multiple civil suits, one can by no means stretch the dispute to an extent, so as to impart it a criminal colour. As has been rightly emphasised upon by this court, by way of an observation rendered in the case of M/s Indian Oil Corporation Vs. M/s. NEPC India Ltd & Ors.7, as under :-

"14. While no one with a legitimate cause or grievance should be prevented from seeking remedies available in criminal law, a complainant who initiates or persists with a prosecution, being fully aware that the criminal proceedings are unwarranted and his remedy lies only in civil law, should himself be made accountable, at the end of such misconceived criminal proceedings, in accordance with law."

(Emphasis supplied)

43. The question before this Court is as to whether the case of the applicant comes under any of the categories enumerated in Bhajan Lal (supra) and Parbatbahi Aahir (Supra)? Is it a case where the allegations made in the first information report or the complaint, even if they are taken at their face value and accepted in entirety, do not make out a case against the accused under Sections 420, 467, 468, 471, 504, 506, 447 I.P.C.? For determination of the question it becomes relevant to note the nature of the offences alleged against the applicant, the ingredients of the offences and the averments made in the FIR/complaint.

44. The court must ensure that criminal prosecution is not used as an instrument of harassment or for seeking private vendetta or with an ulterior motive to pressure the accused. On analysis of the aforementioned cases, this Court is of the opinion that it is neither possible nor desirable to lay down an inflexible rule that would govern the exercise of inherent jurisdiction. Inherent jurisdiction of the High Courts under Section 482 Cr.P.C. though having wide scope is to be exercised sparingly, carefully and with caution and only when it is justified by the tests specifically laid down in the Statute itself and in the aforementioned cases.

45. From deeper scrutiny of the FIR, charge-sheet submitted in Case No. 517 of 2022 (State Vs. Nasir Khan) including the evidence collected by the Investigating Officer during the course of investigation, the summoning order dated 16th July, 2022, complaint and statements recoded by the court below under Section 200 and 202 Cr.P.C., plaint of the civil suit filed by opposite party no.2, this Court is of the view that in all cases the allegations made by opposite party no.2 are nearly similar and identical and in respect of the same issue in committing forgery for making power of attorney of the land in dispute. All four cases including the present cases initiated by opposite party no.2 by lodging FIR and making complaint giving rise to both the applications under Section 482 Cr.P.C. not only appears to be malicious but also civil in nature. Firstly opposite party no.2 filed a civil suit being Original Suit No. 72 of 2019 (Nihal-uddin & Others Vs. Mohd. Ahmad Khan & Others) questioning the power of attorney executed in favour of the applicant and the various sale-deeds executed in respect of 14 bighas' of land in dispute for permanent injunction qua the said land as also for cancellation of power of attorney and the sale-deeds and thereafter he filed criminal cases after one by one against the applicant in order to exert pressure and to harass him.

46. This Court is of the view that the correctness or otherwise of any deed like will-deed, power of attorney, sale-deed etc., which is registered by a public/government authority can be more appropriately adjudicated by a Civil Judge on the basis of oral as well as documentary evidence to be led by the parties and unless or until the same is not decided that the same is false and fabricated deed, the criminality cannot come into picture for making such deed. Such stage in the present case has yet to come.

47. In view of the deeper scrutiny of laws laid by the Apex Court referred to herein--above and its discussion and the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is of the opinion that none of the offences for which the applicant is summoned in both the cases, is made out from the FIR and the complaint and material on record. This Court further finds that it is nothing but abuse of process of law on the part of the complainant/opposite party no.2 to implicate the applicant in such criminal cases. As already settled by the Apex Court that Section 482 is designed to achieve the purpose of ensuring that criminal proceedings are not permitted to generate into weapons of harassment, this Court while exercising its inherent power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. allows both the applications.

48. Consequently, summoning orders impugned in both the applications as well as entire proceedings of the Case No. 517 of 2022 (State Vs. Nasir Khan), arising out of Case Crime No. 130 of 2021, under Sections 420, 467, 468, 471, 504, 506, 447 I.P.C., Police Station Kotwali, District Rampur, pending in the court of Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Court No.1, Rampur as also entire proceedings of Complaint Case No. 2537 of 2022 (Nihaluddin Vs. Nasir Khan & Others), under Sections 417, 452, 323 and 504 I.P.C., Police Station- Kotwali, District Rampur, pending in the court of Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Court No.1, Rampur are quashed.

48. There shall be no order as to costs.

(2023) 4 ILRA 353
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 04.04.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE UMESH CHANDRA SHARMA, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 2903 of 2023

Sunil Kumar ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Sri Anil Kumar Mishra

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A.

A. Criminal Law -Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881-Section 138-maintainability-complaint rejected when the complainant did not appear before the court, and the accused was acquitted-if an order of acquittal has been passed under section 256 Cr.PC, the complainant has a remedy to file an appeal against the acquittal in High Court after grant of special leave to appeal-where under the code an appeal lies and no appeal is brought, no proceeding by way of revision shall be entertained at the instance of the party who would have appealed-If a remedy of appeal is available the petitioner cannot be permitted to invoke inherent jurisdiction u/s 482 CrPC-Hence the petition is not maintainable.(Para 1 to 9)

The application is dismissed. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

H.P. in HIM Advances & Savings Pvt. Ltd. Vs Ravinder Kumar Gupta (2002) CrLJ 4741

(Delivered by Hon'ble Umesh Chandra Sharma, J.)

1. Heard Sri Anil Kumar Mishra, learned counsel for the applicant, Sri Pankaj Kumar Tripathi, learned AGA for the State and perused the record.

2. This petition has been filed to quash the order dated 10.11.2022 passed by the Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Court No.6, Meerut in Complaint Case No.6600 of 2016 (Sunil Kumar Vs. Amit Kumar), under Section 138 NI Act, Police Station Lalkurti, District Meerut.

3. In the above noted criminal complaint case under Section 138 NI Act when applicant complainant did not appear on 10.11.2022 the trial court considering the fact that the complaint was pending since 02.09.2016, the statement of the accused had been recorded on 08.10.2021 but since then complainant had not filed any affidavit as evidence and was not attending the court from the past several dates, even last opportunity was provided to him even then he neither appeared nor moved any application, the trial court dismissed the complaint under Section 256 CrPC and acquitted the accused.

4. Being aggrieved, this application under Section 482 CrPC has been filed.

5. Learned AGA raised objection regarding maintainability of the application.

6. In this regard, in course of search of relevant judicial citation this Court finds the judgement of the High Court of Himachal Pradesh in HIM Advances and Savings Pvt. Ltd. Vs. Ravinder Kumar Gupta, 2002 CrLJ 4741 in which similar facts were involved. For ready reference relevant portion of the aforesaid judgment is reproduced herein below:-

"2. The undisputed facts are that the petitioner filed a complaint against the respondent in the Court of the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Shimla, under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881. The complaint was listed for hearing on 18.6.2001 for evidence of the complainant. The complainant, however, applied for exemption, but after hearing the parties, the Court declined the exemption, and rejected the application. Thus, the Court observed that the complainant is not present nor he has taken steps for summoning the witnesses, though three opportunities had already been granted to him, but he has failed to take steps to summon the witnesses and acquitted the respondent under Section 256 of the Code.

4. Section 256 of the Code clearly and unambiguously contemplates that on failure of the complainant to appear on the day appointed for the appearance of the accused or any day subsequent thereto, to which the hearing may be adjourned the Magistrate shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the Code, acquit the accused, unless for some reason he thinks the hearing of the case to some other date in the edge in hand, the impugned order acquitting the respondent has been passed by the learned trial Magistrate because of the absence of the complainant, who was to lead evidence on the date fixed for hearing. Therefore, by virtue of the provisions of Section 256 of the Code, for all intents and purposes the impugned order is an order of acquittal.

5. Sub-section (4) of Section 378 of the Code provides that against an order of acquittal passed in any case instituted upon complaint, the complainant, after grant of special leave to appeal from the order of acquittal may present an appeal to the High Court. Thus, a complainant has a right of appeal against an order of acquittal.

6. Sub-section (1) of Section 410 of the Code provides that where under the Code, an appeal lies and no appeal is brought, no proceedings by way of revision shall be entertained at the instance of the party who would have appealed.

8. Since the remedy of the petitioner was by way of appeal against the impugned order of acquittal, therefore, there being specific grievance, the petitioner cannot be permitted to invoke the inherent jurisdiction of this Court under Section 482 of the Code."

7. In the cited case the complainant had filed a complaint under Section 138 NI Act and when he did not appear before the court, the accused was acquitted which was challenged by the complainant in the High Court by way of a criminal revision and under Section 482 CrPC as well. The High Court of Himachal Pradesh concluded that if an order of acquittal has been passed under Section 256 CrPC, the complainant has a remedy to file an appeal against the acquittal in High Court after grant of special leave to appeal. The Court had also referred Section 410(1) CrPC that where under the Code an appeal lies and no appeal is brought, no proceeding byway of revision shall be entertained at the instance of the party who would have appealed.

8. Whether a petition under Section 482 CrPC lies, has also been discussed by the court that if a remedy of appeal is available the petitioner cannot be permitted to invoke inherent jurisdiction of High Court under Section 482 CrPC.

9. In view of the above discussion, the present petition is not maintainable and is accordingly dismissed without prejudice to any other legal remedy available to the petitioner.

(2023) 4 ILRA 355
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 29.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MRS. MANJU RANI CHAUHAN, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 3473 of 2023

Rinku Singh ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Sri Kripa Kant Pandey, Sri Rajiv Lochan Shukla

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A.

A. Criminal Law -Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973-Section 482 & 91-Narcotics Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985-Sections 18/20-applicant arrested and was produced before the court allowing the remand-the court below directed the Superintendent of Police to conduct an inquiry regarding the reality and correctness of the First Information Report-present applicant appeared before the court and moved an application u/s 91 Cr.P.C. for considering the enquiry report before framing charge - the court below rejected the same stating that allowing the application u/s 91 Cr.P.C. would mean to interfere in the investigation/trial, Section 91 Cr.P.C. does not confer any right on the accused to produce documents in order to prove his defence-It is settled law that at the stage of summoning or framing of charge, the accused cannot ordinarily invoke section 91 Cr.P.C., however the court being under obligation to impart justice and to uphold the law, is not debarred from exercising its power, if the interest of justice in a given case is so require, even if the accused may have no right to invoke section 91 Cr.PC and the court is satisfied that the material available with the investigator, not made part of the charge sheet, has crucial bearing on the issue of summoning or framing of charge, it can always direct the investigator/ prosecutor/ trial court to place the same before the court concerned for proper adjudication of the matter-when the initial order taking cognizance is bad, therefore, the consequential order framing charges against the applicant has to be set aside-It is settled legal proposition that if initial action is not in consonance with law, all subsequent and consequential proceedings would fall through for the reason that illegality strikes at the root of the order.(Para 1 to 20)

The application is allowed. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

1. Nitya Dharmananda @ K. Lenin Vs Gopal Sheelum Reddy (2018) 102 ACC 635

2. St. of Punj, Vs Davinder Pal Singh Bhullar & ors. (2011) 14 SCC 770

3. Mangal Prasad Tamoli Vs Narvadeshwar Mishra (2005) 3 SCC 422

(Delivered by Hon'ble Mrs. Manju Rani Chauhan, J)

1. Heard Mr. Rajiv Lochan Shukla, learned counsel for the applicant and Mr. Amit Singh Chauhan, learned A.G.A. for the State.

2. The Present case has been filed assailing the order dated 03.12.2022 passed by learned Additional District and Sessions Judge, Fast Track Court, Second, District-Hapur in Special Session Trial No.159 of 14 (New No.78 of 2015) vide which the applicant's application under Section 91 Cr.P.C. has been rejected.

3. Brief facts of the case are that an FIR was lodged by opposite party no.2, S.I. Sanjay Tyagi, against the applicant and co-accused Gaurav Tyagi on 03.07.2014, which was registered as Case Crime No.297 of 2014, under Section 18/20 of N.D.P.S. Act, at Police Station- Pilakhua, District- Hapur. The applicant was arrested, after which, he was produced before the Court concerned on 04.07.2014 in police custody and remand was sought by the Police/Investigating Officer and the learned Court below allowed the remand of the applicant till 18.07.2014 vide order dated 04.07.2014. The Court concerned while allowing the remand has recorded the statement of the present applicant on oath. Considering the aforesaid natural and trustworthy statement of the present applicant as well as the provisions of Section 58 N.D.P.S. Act, the Court below directed the Superintendent of Police, Hapur to conduct an inquiry regarding the reality and correctness of the First Information Report dated 03.07.2014 and further directed that the said inquiry report be placed before the learned Court below. The Investigating Officer was directed to give a copy of the aforesaid order to Superintendent of Police, Hapur, DIG, Meerut Range, Meerut by order dated 05.07.2014 and submit a report before the Court concerned. The DIG, Meerut was directed to be given a copy of the aforesaid order with the observation that he may direct Superintendent of Police, Hapur to place the enquiry report before the Court concerned and shall also supervise the enquiry.

4. Pursuant to the order dated 04.7.2014 passed by the learned Additional District and Sessions Judge, Ghaziabad, the Superintendent of Police, Hapur, placed the letter before the learned Court below dated 05.07.2014 whereby one week's further time was sought by him to submit the aforesaid inquiry report as directed by order dated 04.07.2014. On the aforesaid application, the learned Court below vide order dated 07.07.2014 directed that the said enquiry report may be submitted before the learned Court below prior to 17.07.2014.

5. After completing the investigation, charge sheet was submitted against the present applicant on 30.08.2014 and accordingly, the learned Court of Sessions Judge, Ghaziabad took cognizance on the aforesaid charge sheet vide order dated 13.10.2014 and the applicant was summoned to face the trial, registering the case as Special Session Trial No.159 of 2014 (State Vs. Rinku).

6. In the meantime, the present session case was transferred to District Hapur from the Court of District Judge, Ghaziabad on 23.11.2015 by order of District Judge Ghaziabad dated 21.11.2015 in view of order passed by the Hon'ble High Court and the same was received by the District Court Hapur. Thereafter, the aforesaid case was registered before the Sessions Judge, Hapur as Special Session Trial No.78 of 2015 (State Vs. Rinku).

7. The present applicant appeared before the aforesaid Court and moved an application under Section 91 Cr.P.C. on 25.08.2017, whereby he prayed that the enquiry report as directed by Court below vide order dated 04.07.2014 may be considered before framing charge. The aforesaid application has been rejected vide order dated 03.12.2022 and charges have been framed on 02.03.2023, hence, the present application has been filed.

8. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that if the Court is satisfied that the material of sterling quality has been withheld by the Investigator/Prosecutor, it can summon or rely upon the same, even if, such document is not part of the charge sheet, hence, the Court has committed illegality in not considering the fact, though, the enquiry report which was important for proper adjudication of the matter was not placed before the concerned Court. The Court should not have proceeded to take cognizance of the matter. In support of his submission, learned counsel for the applicant has relied upon a judgement of Hon'ble Apex Court, passed in case of Nitya Dharmananda @ K. Lenin Vs. Gopal Sheelum Reddy also known as Nithya Bhaktananda, reported in 2018 (102) ACC 635.

9. He further submits that as per Section 91 of Cr.P.C., documents necessary and desirable for proper adjudication of the matter was to be placed before the Court concerned prior to taking cognizance on the charge sheet so submitted and in the present case when such an enquiry report was directed to be placed before the Court below by order dated 04.07.2014, therefore, the same could not have been ignored.

10. Learned A.G.A. opposing the submission as placed by learned counsel for the applicant, submits that Section 91 of Cr.P.C. does not confer any right on the accused to produce documents in order to prove his defence. He further submits that allowing the application under Section 91 Cr.P.C. would mean to interfere in the investigation/trial.

11. Before appreciating the legal submission as made by learned counsel for the parties, it would be appropriate to place Section 91 of Cr.P.C., which is as follows:

"'Section 91 of Cr.P.C. Summons to produce document or other thing:- (1) Whenever any Court or any officer in charge of a police station considers that the production of any document or other thing is necessary or desirable for the purposes of any investigation, inquiry, trial or other proceeding under this Code by or before such Court or officer, such Court may issue a summons, or such officer a written order, to the person in whose possession or power such document or thing is believed to be, requiring him to attend and produce it or to produce it, at the time and place stated in the summons or order.

(2) Any person required under this section merely to produce a document or other thing shall be deemed to have complied with the requisition if he causes such document or thing to be produced instead of attending personally to produce the same.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be deemed-

(a) to affect, sections 123 and 124 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 (1 1872), or the Bankers' Books Evidence Act, 1891 (13 of 1891), or

(b) to apply to a letter, postcard, telegram or other document or any parcel or thing in the custody of the postal or telegraph authority."

12. This Court feels that the Court below vide order dated 04.07.2014 directed for an enquiry to be conducted and the same be placed before the Court concerned, however, without realizing the fact that the Court had passed the aforesaid order being satisfied that an inquiry was required to find out the reality and save an innocent person from being punished, the inquiry report was a material of sterling quality, which was to be placed before the Court concerned prior to taking cognizance.

13. Section 91 of Cr.P.C. also requires that in case any Court or any officer in charge of a police station considers that the production of any document or other thing is necessary and desirable for the purposes of any investigation, inquiry, trial or any other proceeding under this Code by or before such Court or officer, such Court is required to issue summons, or such officer a written order, to the person in whose possession or power such document or thing is believed to be, requiring him to attend and produce it prior to summoning the accused.

14. In the present case, it was by order of the Court below, the inquiry was directed to be conducted and the report to be placed before the Court below and even after the same was pointed out by means of an application being moved by the applicant under Section 91 Cr.P.C., the Court ignoring the aforesaid fact has committed illegality in rejecting the aforesaid application.

15. It is settled law that at the stage of summoning or framing of charge, the accused cannot ordinarily invoke section 91 Cr.P.C. However, the Court being under the obligation to impart justice and to uphold the law, is not debarred from exercising its power, if the interest of justice in a given case is so require, even if the accused may have no right to invoke section 91 and the Court is satisfied that the material available with the investigator, not made part of the charge sheet, has crucial bearing on the issue of summoning or framing of charge, it can always direct the investigator/prosecutor/trial Court to place the same before the Court concerned for proper adjudication of the matter.

16. This Court also feels that when the initial order taking cognizance is bad, therefore, consequential order framing charges against the applicant has to be set aside.

17. It is a settled legal proposition that if initial action is not in consonance with law, all subsequent and consequential proceedings would fall through for the reason that illegality strikes at the root of the order. The aforesaid has been held by the Apex Court in the case of State of Punjab vs. Davinder Pal Singh Bhullar and others reported in (2011) 14 SCC 770.

18. Similarly, the Apex Court in the case of Mangal Prasad Tamoli vs. Narvadeshwar Mishra reported in (2005) 3 SCC 422, has held that if an order at the initial stage is bad in law, then all further proceedings, consequent thereto, will be non est and have to be necessarily set aside.

19. In view of the above discussion, the impugned order dated 03.12.2022 and consequential order dated 02.03.2022 framing charges against the applicant, cannot be legally sustained and are hereby set aside. Matter is remitted back to Additional District and Sessions Judge, Fast Track Court, Second, District Hapur for decision afresh. While deciding the matter, he shall pass a reasoned and speaking order, keeping in mind the relevant provisions of Section 91 of Cr.P.C. and the observation made by this Court, preferably within a period of one month from the date of production of certified copy of this order, if there is no legal impediment.

20. With the aforesaid observation and direction, the application u/s 482 Cr.P.C. is allowed.

21. Office is directed to communicate this order to the Court concerned forthwith.

(2023) 4 ILRA 359
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 15.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SHIV SHANKER PRASAD, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 5260 of 2023

Rajesh Kumar Giri ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Sri Dipak Srivastava

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A.

A. Criminal Law -Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973-Section 482 - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 354-A, 504, 506 & 7/8 -The Protection of Children from Sexual offences Act, 2012-Quashing of entire criminal proceedings-counterblast case-complainant lodge the FIR against the applicant after six years as the applicant filed PIL against the complainant for embezzlement of money when he was village Pradhan-It is impossible that first person harboured enmity with second person for a long period of more than six years-More so, delay in lodging the FIR is not relevant in a case where defamation of a victim who is alleged to be 13 years old is involved-Exercise of power u/s 482 to quash a criminal proceeding is only when an allegation made in FIR or charge-sheet does not constitute ingredients of offence alleged-No mini trial can be conducted by High Court-on the basis of investigation and material collected there appear to be sufficient ground for proceeding against the accused.(Para 1 to 26)

The application is dismissed. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

1. M/s Eicher Tractor Ltd. & ors. Vs Harihar Singh & anr.(2009) 1 JIC 245 SC

2. St. of Haryana & ors. Vs Bhajan Lal & ors. (1992) Suppl. 1 SCC 335

3. R.P. Kapur Vs St. of Punj. (1960) AIR SC 866

4. St. of Haryana Vs Bhajan Lal (1992) SCC (Cr.) 426

5. St. of Bih. Vs P.P. Sharma (1992) SCC (Cr.) 192

6. Zandu Pharmaceuticals Works Ltd. Vs Md. Saraful Haq & anr. (2005) SCC (Cr.) 283, Para 10

7. Md. Allauddin Khan Vs St. of Bih. & ors. (2019) 0 Supreme SC 454

8. Nallapareddy Sridhar Reddy Vs St. of A.P. & ors. (2020) 0 Supreme SC 45

9. Rajeev Kaurav Vs Balasahab & ors. (2020) 0 Supreme SC 143

10. St. of U.P. Vs Akhil Sharda & ors. (2022) SCC OnLine SC 820

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shiv Shanker Prasad, J.)

1. This application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. has been filed by the applicant with a prayer to quash the charge-sheet no. 40 of 2022 dated 28th September, 2022, cognizance taking order dated 15th November, 2022 as well as entire proceedings of Special Trial No. 1191 of 2022 (State VS. Rajesh Kumar Giri), arising out of Case Crime No. 166 of 2021, under SectionS 354-A, 504, 506 I.P.C. as also under Sections 7/8 POCSO Act, Police Station-Khakheru, District-Fatehpur, pending in the Court of Additional Sessions/Special Judge (POSCO Act), Fatehpur.

2. Heard Mr. Dipak Srivastava, learned counsel for the applicant and the learned A.G.A. for the State.

Case of the Applicant

3. Father of the applicant, namely, Bholi Giri is a farmer and social person in his locality. The complainant was village pradhan of the applicant's village for the period between 2011 to 2015. When the complainant was village pradhan he embezzled public money qua development work of village against which the father of the applicant, namely, Bholi Giri has made complaint against him before the administrative authority of the district. When no action has been taken on the said complaint, Bholi Giri filed a PIL before this Court bearing P.I.L. No. 29962 of 2015 in which this Court has passed order on 21.05.2015 directing Bholi Giri to make an application before the District Magistrate, Fatehpur, who inturn was directed to pass such orders in accordance with law thereon. Pursuant to the above order of this Court

Bholi Giri filed an application before the District Magistrate Fatehpur for its compliance, but no action has been taken due to political power of complainant/opposite party, namely, Dhram Singh Pal. On 29th June, 2015, Bholi Giri preferred an application under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C before concerned court below qua development work in the village against complainant, who was holding the post of pradhan. The complainant had harboured enmity with applicant' family because he has been defeated in the election of 2015 as Bholi Giri has strongly opposed his candidature as Pradhan and supported his opponent.

4. The Complainant himself went into house of applicant on 08.07.2021 for taking revenge along with his companions, when he did not find any male person, he disrobed the sister of applicant forcefully. Just after knowing such incident with her daughter, applicant's father went to the Police Station on the same day i.e. 8th July, 2021 for lodging the FIR against the complainant and his companions but the Police has not lodged the report. After that, Bholi Giri made an application before the higher Police Officers through registered post on 16th July, 2021, on which again nothing has been done. On one hand the report of Bholi Giri has not been lodged whereas on the other hand under the pressure of present village Pradhan, namely, Lal @ Durga Paswan, the FIR of complainant has been lodged against the applicant i.e. son of Bholi Giri with false and frivolous allegations, as he has concerned with the allegations made in the FIR.

5. Version as unfolded in the FIR is that on 8th July, 2021 at 06:00 p.m. (evening) when the daughter of the complainant (for short "victim") aged about 13 years was returning her home with buffaloes from the field, then on the way, he caught her hand and started bad talking and molesting her with bad intentions. When she protested he abused her by saying as to why she did not talk with him. When the victim came to her house and disclosed entire incident to the complainant and his wife, he went to the house of the applicant along with his wife, where the applicant also abused and threatened them.

6. Initially the Police has deliberately lodged the FIR in wrong sections of the provisions POCSO Act but on the notice being issued by the Additional District Judge/Special Judge (POCSO Act), Fatehpur, the FIR has been lodged under Sections 7/8 POCSO Act also along with other charging sections.

7. During the course of investigation the statement of first informant is recorded by the investigating officer under section 161 of Cr.P.C, in which he supported the prosecution version as narrated in the first information report. In the statement recorded under Section 161 Cr.P.C. the victim has improved the version as unfolded in the FIR and the statement of the complainant under Section 161 Cr.P.C. by stating that the applicant has beaten her by slaps twice. The victim has also been examined by Doctor, Community Health Centre, Khakharau, District Fatehpur and in his report dated 12th July, 2021, the Doctor has opined that no external injury has been found on the victim. On 18th August, 2021, the statement of the victim has been recorded under Section 164 Cr.P.C. in which he has changed her version. The date of birth of the victim is 1st June, 2008 which has been confirmed by the Principal of School concerned. Since the Police was continuously harassing the applicant and his family, father of the applicant Bholi Giri made an application 20.01.2022 before the Superintendent of Police and concerned Station House Officer for fair and partial investigation. In this regard Bholi Giri has also preferred Criminal Misc. Writ petition No.2368 of 2022 before this Court which is pending. The Police has deliberately submitted charge-sheet. After being aggrieved from the harassment done by the Police, the applicant has approached this Court for seeking anticipatory bail under Section 41-A by means of Criminal Misc. Anticipatory Bail Application No. 1796 of 2022, which has been disposed by this Court vide order dated 10th March, 2022 by observing that there is no need for anticipatory bail as the applicant cannot be arrested without complying with the provisions of Section 41 and 41-A Cr.P.C. This has refused the prayer of the applicant for grant of anticipatory bail. The concerned police is continuously harassing family of Bholi Giri including the applicant and his female members. When applicant has approached this Court for getting relief, the Investigating officer has deliberately filed the charge-sheet on 28.09.2022 and he has failed to consider the evidence on record. On submission of the charge-sheet, the concerned Magistrate has taken cognizance on 15.11.2022.

8. Submissions advanced on behalf of the applicant

(i) the applicant is preparing for selection in Indian Force. As a counter blast to the complaint as well as public interest litigation filed by the father of the applicant, namely, Bholi Giri and the complainant has been defeated in the election of village Pradhan in the year 2015 due to opposition of Bholi Giri, the present case has been engineered by the complainant to wreak vengeance, which is not permissible in view of the law laid down by M/s Eicher Tractor Ltd. and others Vs. Harihar Singh and another, 2009(1) JIC 245 (SC).

(ii) The applicant has nothing to do with victim as the applicant was not present in the village on 8.7.2021.

(iii) From the perusal of entire prosecution case no offence is made out against the applicant which is narrated in aforesaid FIR and the charges as levelled against the applicant is absolutely incorrect and concocted., as allegations made in the first information report against the applicant are without any substance and no such incident has taken place.

(iv) The applicant is 22 years son of poor farmer and he has no previous criminal History to his credit nor he has convicted by any competent court of law.

(v) There is inordinate delay in lodging the said first information report which creates a serious shadow of doubt on the veracity of first information report.

(vi) The judgment of the Hon'ble Surpeme Court in the case of State of Haryana & Others Vs. Bhajan Lal & Others reported in 1992 Suppl. (1) SCC 335 has been referred for drawing the attention of the Court to the issue that in sever categories of cases, power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. can be exercised by this Court for quashing the malicious proceedings. The case of the applicant is covered with the seventh category mentioned in the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Bhajan Lal (Supra).

Learned counsel for the applicants, therefore, submitted that the present criminal proceedings initiated against the applicants are not only malicious but also amount to an abuse of the process of the Court.

On the cumulative strength of the aforesaid submissions, it is submitted by learned counsel for the applicants that the proceedings of the above mentioned complaint case are liable to be quashed by this Court.

9. Per contra, learned A.G.A. has submitted that from the perusal of the material on record and looking into the facts of the case at this stage it cannot be said that no offence is made out against the applicants. All the submissions made relate to the disputed questions of fact, which cannot be adjudicated upon by this Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C. He also submits that it is settled law that the evidence produced by the accused in his defence cannot be looked into by the Court, except in very exceptional circumstances, at the initial stage of the criminal proceedings. It is trite law that the High Court cannot embark upon the appreciation of evidence while considering the petition filed under Section 482 CrPC for quashing criminal proceedings. It is clear from the law laid down by the Apex Court as well as by this Court in catena of judgments that if a prima facie case is made out disclosing the ingredients of the offence alleged against the accused, the Court cannot quash a criminal proceeding. On the cumulative strength of the aforesaid, learned A.G.A. urges that offence under Sections 354-A, 504, 506 I.P.C. as also under Sections 7/8 POCSO Act is made out against the applicants. The present application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. is devoid of merit and the same is liable to be dismissed by this Court.

10. I have considered the submissions made by the learned counsel for the parties and have gone through the records of the present application.

11. From the perusal of the entire material available on record, this Court finds that the case set up by the learned counsel for the applicant is that as a counter blast to the complaint and PIL filed by the father of the applicant, namely, Bholi Giri in the year 2015 against the complainant, when he was holding the post of Village Pradhan qua embezzlement of public money being made by him, has no legs to stand on the ground that the present FIR has been lodged by the complainant against the applicant on 9th July, 2021 for the alleged incident dated 8th July, 2021 i.e. after more than six years of the aforesaid complaint and PIL. It is impossible to believe for any common man of this country that a person against whom a complaint was filed by another person and for that reason the first person harboured enmity with second person, will take for a long period of more than six years to take revenge by implicating his son in a false and frivolous case. For example: Person-A will take revenge from Person-B in the year 2021 by implicating his son in a false and frivolous case as Person-B has filed complaint against Person-A in the year 2015. This court respects the decision of the highest court i.e. Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case M/s. Eicher Tractor (Supra) relied upon by the learned counsel for the applicant but the said case will not apply in the present case, as this is not the case of counter blast.

12. The submission made by the learned counsel for the applicant that the present proceedings initiated by the complainant/opposite party no.2 against the applicant are malicious proceedings has only been stated to be rejected on the ground that the reason assigned for the same that in the year 2015 when the complainant was holding the post of Village Pradhan, the father of the applicant, namely, Bholi Giri made complaint against him qua embezzlement of public money before the authorities concerned and also opposed his candidature in the election of village pradhan is too weak. This Court may reiterate again that a person for taking revenge cannot wait seven years by implicating his enemy mala fide in a criminal case. Hence, the judgment of the Apex Court in the case of Bhajan Lal (Supra) relied upon by the learned counsel for the applicant is not applicable in the facts of the present case. No other reasons have been brought on record for establishing his submission that the applicant has been implicated mala fidely in the present case by the complainant.

13. This Court also does not accept the case of the applicant that on 8th July, 2021 the applicant has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and on the same date it was the complainant that he entered into the house of the applicant along with his companions where there was no male members of family of the applicant, he molested his sister and also abused her along with his companions as no such complaint has been brought on record along with the present application, which is said to be filed by the father of the applicant before Police Station or before any court of law.

14. Now this Court comes to the submission made by the learned counsel for the applicant that there is a delay in lodging of the first information report implicating the applicant for which there is no plausible explanation.

15. It is no doubt true that for the alleged incident dated 8th July, 2021 at about 06:00 p.m. (evening), the first information report has been lodged against the applicant on 9th July, 2021 i.e. after 19 hours and 14 minutes from the time of alleged incident. In the opinion of the Court, such delay is not relevant in a case where defamation of a victim who is alleged to be 13 years old is involved. In our country, society has a very big place, where a man or a woman or a family gives importance to the honour of himself/herself/itself. Whenever there is some wrong with a woman or girl or female child, like rape or molestation, most of the master of the family hesitate to lodge report against the accused because of defamation in the society and that is why such delay occurs in lodgment of reports.

16. It is case of such heinous crime where the social ramification of such crimes are very dishonourable to the victim, who suffers social stigma. The offences of this nature which involves social defamation, there is always a general tendency to suppress such events at the initial stage in order to avoid the victim being stigmatized. The offence committed by the applicant is egregious in nature and it speaks about depravity of the applicant's character, who had no moral qualms in violating modesty and honour of a victim.

17. Now this Court comes on the submission made by the learned A.G.A. for the State that all the submissions made relate to the disputed questions of fact, which cannot be adjudicated upon by this Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C.

18. At the pre-trial stage only prima facie case is to be seen in the light of the law laid down by Supreme Court in cases of R.P. Kapur Vs. State of Punjab, A.I.R. 1960 S.C. 866, State of Haryana Vs. Bhajan Lal, 1992 SCC (Cr.) 426, State of Bihar Vs. P.P.Sharma, 1992 SCC (Cr.) 192 and lastly Zandu Pharmaceutical Works Ltd. Vs. Mohd. Saraful Haq and another (Para-10) 2005 SCC (Cr.) 283.

19. The Apex Court in the case of Mohd. Allauddin Khan Vs. The State of Bihar & Others reported in 2019 0 Supreme (SC) 454, has held that the High Court had no jurisdiction to appreciate the evidence of the proceedings under Section 482 Cr.P.C. because whether there are contradictions or/and inconsistencies in the statements of the witnesses is an essential issue relating to appreciation of evidence and the same can be gone into by the Judicial Magistrate during trial when the entire evidence is adduced by the parties. However, in the present case the said state is yet to come. The relevant paragraph nos. 15 to 17 are being quoted herein below:

"15. The High Court should have seen that when a specific grievance of the appellant in his complaint was that respondent Nos. 2 and 3 have committed the offences punishable under Sections 323, 379read with Section 34 IPC, then the question to be examined is as to whether there are allegations of commission of these two offences in the complaint or not. In other words, in order to see whether any prima facie case against the accused for taking its cognizable is made out or not, the Court is only required to see the allegations made in the complaint. In the absence of any finding recorded by the High Court on this material question, the impugned order is legally unsustainable.

16. The second error is that the High Court in para 6 held that there are contradictions in the statements of the witnesses on the point of occurrence.

17. In our view, the High Court had no jurisdiction to appreciate the evidence of the proceedings under Section 482 of the Code Of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (for short "Cr.P.C.") because whether there are contradictions or/and inconsistencies in the statements of the witnesses is essentially an issue relating to appreciation of evidence and the same can be gone into by the Judicial Magistrate during trial when the entire evidence is adduced by the parties. That stage is yet to come in this case."

(Emphasis added)

20. The Apex Court in its another judgment in the case of Nallapareddy Sridhar Reddy Vs. The State of Andhra Pradesh & Ors. reported in 2020 0 Supreme (SC) 45, dealing with a case under Sections 406 and 420 I.P.C. has observed that the Court does not have to delve deep into probative value of evidence regarding the charge. It has only to see if a prima facie case has been made out. Veracity of deposition/material is a matter of trial and not required to be examined while framing charge. The Apex Court further observed that the veracity of the depositions made by the witnesses is a question of trial and need not be determined at the time of framing of charge. Appreciation of evidence on merit is to be done by the court only after the charges have been framed and the trial has commenced. However, for the purpose of framing of charge the court needs to prima facie determine that there exists sufficient material for the commencement of trial. The Apex Court in paragraph nos. 21, 22 and 24 has observed as follows:

"21 The appellant has relied upon a two-judge Bench decision of this Court in Onkar Nath Mishra v The State, (2008) 2 SCC 561 to substantiate the point that the ingredients of Sections 406 and 420 of the IPC have not been established. This Court while dealing with the nature of evaluation by a court at the stage of framing of charge, held thus:

"11. It is trite that at the stage of framing of charge the court is required to evaluate the material and documents on record with a view to finding out if the facts emerging therefrom, taken at their face value, disclosed the existence of all the ingredients constituting the alleged offence. At that stage, the court is not expected to go deep into the probative value of the material on record. What needs to be considered is whether there is a ground for presuming that the offence has been committed and not a ground for convicting the accused has been made out. At that stage, even strong suspicion founded on material which leads the court to form a presumptive opinion as to the existence of the factual ingredients constituting the offence alleged would justify the framing of charge against the accused in respect of the commission of that offence."

(Emphasis supplied)

22 In the present case, the High Court while directing the framing the additional charges has evaluated the material and evidence brought on record after investigation and held:

"LW1 is the father of the de facto complainant, who states that his son in law i.e., the first accused promised that he would look after his daughter at United Kingdom (UK) and promised to provide Doctor job at UK and claimed Rs.5 lakhs for the said purpose and received the same and he took his daughter to the UK. He states that his son-in-law made him believe and received Rs.5 lakhs in the presence of elders. He states that he could not mention about the cheating done by his son-in- law, when he was examined earlier. LW13, who is an independent witness, also supports the version of LW1 and states that Rs.5 lakhs were received by A1 with a promise that he would secure doctor job to the complainant's daughter. He states that A1 cheated LW1, stating that he would provide job and received Rs.5 lakhs. LW14, also is an independent witness and he supported the version of LW13. He further states that A1 left his wife and child in India and went away after receiving Rs.5 lakhs.

Hence, from the above facts, stated by LWs. 13 and 14, prima facie, the version of LW1 that he gave Rs.5 lakhs to A1 on a promise that he would provide a job to his daughter and that A1 did not provide any job and cheated him, receives support from LWs. 13 and 14. When the amount is entrusted to A1, with a promise to provide a job and when he fails to provide the job and does not return the amount, it can be made out that A1 did not have any intention to provide job to his wife and that he utilised the amount for a purpose other than the purpose for which he collected the amount from LW1, which would suffice to attract the offences under Sections 406 and 420 IPC. Whether there is truth in the improved version of LW.1 and what have been the reasons for his lapse in not stating the same in his earlier statement, can be adjudicated at the time of trial.

It is also evidence from the record that the additional charge sheet filed by the investigating officer, missed the attention of the lower court due to which the additional charges could not be framed."

(Emphasis supplied)

24 The veracity of the depositions made by the witnesses is a question of trial and need not be determined at the time of framing of charge. Appreciation of evidence on merit is to be done by the court only after the charges have been framed and the trial has commenced.

However, for the purpose of framing of charge the court needs to prima facie determine that there exists sufficient material for the commencement of trial. The High Court has relied upon the materials on record and concluded that the ingredients of the offences under Sections 406 and 420 of the IPC are attracted. The High Court has spelt out the reasons that have necessitated the addition of the charge and hence, the impugned order does not warrant any interference."

(Emphasis added)

21. Again in the case of Rajeev Kaurav Vs. Balasahab & Others reported in 2020 0 Supreme (SC) 143, the Apex Court has held that it is no more res integra that exercise of power under Section 482 CrPC to quash a criminal proceeding is only when an allegation made in the FIR or the charge sheet constitutes the ingredients of the offence/offences alleged. Interference by the High Court under Section 482 CrPC is to prevent the abuse of process of any law or Court or otherwise to secure the ends of justice.

22. In the latest judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of State of U.P. Vs. Akhil Sharda & Others reported in 2022 SCC OnLine SC 820 has held that while deciding the application under Section 482 Cr.P.C., the High Court has conducted mini trial which is not permissible at that stage. The relevant portion whereof reads as follows:

"28. Having gone through the impugned judgment and order passed by the High Court by which the High Court has set aside the criminal proceedings in exercise of powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C., it appears that the High Court has virtually conducted a mini trial, which as such is not permissible at this stage and while deciding the application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. As observed and held by this Court in a catena of decisions no mini trial can be conducted by the High Court in exercise of powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C. jurisdiction and at the stage of deciding the application under Section 482 Cr.P.C., the High Court cannot get into appreciation of evidence of the particular case being considered. (See Pratima (supra); Thom (supra); Rajiv (supra) and Niharika (supra).

29. Applying the law laid down by this Court in the aforesaid decisions to the facts of the case on hand and the manner in which the High Court has allowed the petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C., we are of the opinion that the impugned judgment and order passed by the High Court quashing the criminal proceedings is unsustainable. The High Court has exceeded in its jurisdiction in quashing the criminal proceedings in exercise of powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C.

30. It is also required to be noted that even the High Court itself has opined that the allegations are very serious and it requires further investigation and that is why the High Court has directed to conduct the investigation by CBCID with respect to the FIR No.227 of 2019. However, while directing the CBCID to conduct further investigation, the High Court has restricted the scope of investigation. The High Court has not appreciated and considered the fact that both the FIRs namely FIR Nos.260 of 2018 and 227 of 2019 can be said to be interconnected and the allegations of a larger conspiracy are required to be investigated. It is alleged that the overall allegations are disappearance of the trucks transporting the beer/contraband goods which are subject to the rules and regulations of the Excise Department and Excise Law.

31 The High Court has quashed the criminal proceedings by observing that there was no loss to the Excise Department. However, the High Court has not at all appreciated the allegations of the larger conspiracy. The FIR need not be an encyclopedia (See Satpal Vs. Haryana, (2018) 6 SCC 110 Para 7).

32 Even otherwise, it is required to be noted that the allegation of missing of two trucks was the beginning of the investigation and when during the investigation it was alleged that earlier also a number of trucks were missing transporting contraband goods, the FIR should not have been restricted to missing of the two trucks only and return of on the goods thereafter. The High Court has not at all appreciated and/or considered the allegation of the larger conspiracy and that both the FIRs/criminal cases are interconnected and part of the main conspiracy which is very serious if found to be true. We however refrain from making any further observations as at this stage of proceedings as we are at the stage of deciding the application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. only and as the trial of both the cases have yet to take place. Therefore, we refrain from making any further observations which may affect the case of the either of the parties. Suffice it to say and mention that in the facts and circumstances of the case the High Court has committed a grave/serious error in quashing and setting aside the criminal proceedings arising out of Criminal Case No.5694 of 2019 and Case Crime No.260 of 2018 PS lodged under Section 406, registered at PS - Husainganj, District - Lucknow.

(Emphasis supplied)

23. It is clear from the law laid down by the Apex Court that if a prima facie case is made out disclosing the ingredients of the offence alleged against the accused, the Court cannot quash a criminal proceeding.

24. From the discussions and deliberations held above, this Court is of the view that the submissions made by the applicant's learned counsel call for adjudication on pure questions of fact which may adequately be adjudicated upon only by the trial court and while doing so even the submissions made on points of law can also be more appropriately gone into by the trial court in this case. This Court does not deem it proper, and therefore cannot be persuaded to have a pre-trial before the actual trial begins. A threadbare discussion of various facts and circumstances, as they emerge from the allegations made against the accused, is being purposely avoided by the Court for the reason, lest the same might cause any prejudice to either side during trial. But it shall suffice to observe that the perusal of the F.I.R. and the material collected by the Investigating Officer on the basis of which the charge sheet has been submitted makes out a prima facie case against the accused at this stage and there appear to be sufficient ground for proceeding against the accused. I do not find any justification to quash the charge sheet or the proceedings against the applicants arising out of them as the case does not fall in any of the categories recognized by the Apex Court which may justify their quashing.

25. The prayer for quashing the impugned charge-sheet as well as the entire proceedings of the aforesaid State case are refused as I do not see any abuse of the court's process at this pre-trial stage.

26. This application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. devoid of merits and is accordingly rejected.

(2023) 4 ILRA 369
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 06.04.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE UMESH CHANDRA SHARMA, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 13132 of 2022

Gopal Shriwas & Ors. ...Applicants
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Sri Umesh Kumar

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A., Sri Mahabir Yadav

A. Criminal Law -Indian Penal Code, 1860-Sections 498-A, 323, 504 & 506 & ¾ Dowry Prohibition, 1961 Act-Quashing of entire criminal proceeding-mediation failed-victim was physically and mentally tortured on the pretext of payment of additional dowry-her mother-in law and sister in law snatched her jewellery and her husband and father-in law left her at her parental house until the said demand was fulfilled- victim has specifically made allegations against the applicants-two witnesses corroborated the allegations and evidence of the victim-plea of alibi of father-in law that he was on duty is immaterial as the complaint is not filed on the basis of single incident occurred on particular date-she was physically and mentally tortured continuously since long-Hence,it cannot be said that mere general allegations have been leveled against the applicants-No ground to quash the proceedings.(Para 1 to 13)

The application is dismissed. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

Kahkashan Kausar @ Sonam & ors. Vs St. of Bih. & ors. (2022) 0 Supreme SC 117

(Delivered by Hon'ble Umesh Chandra Sharma, J.)

1. Heard Sri Umesh Kumar, learned counsel for the applicants, Sri Pankaj Kumar Tripathi, learned AGA for the State and perused the record.

2. This application has been moved to quash the entire criminal proceedings of Complaint Case No.476 of 2020 (Smt. Jyoti Vs. Gopal Shriwas and others), under Sections 498-A, 323, 504, 506 IPC and Section 3/4 DP Act to the extent of applicant no.1 and under Sections 498-A, 323 IPC and Section 3/4 DP Act to the extent of applicant nos.2 to 4, Police Station Charkhari, District Mahoba pending before the Civil Judge (JD)/Judicial Magistrate, Charkhari, Mahoba and also the order dated 06.03.2021 passed by the Sessions Judge, Mahoba in Criminal Revision No.48 of 2020 (Smt. Jyoti Vs. Ramsevak and others) alongwith summoning order dated 11.03.2022 passed by the Civil Judge (JD)/Judicial Magistrate, Charkhari, Mahoba.

3. In brief, facts of the case are that applicant no.1 was married with opposite party no.2 with full love and affection and out of the wedlock a son Naman was born. After one year from the marriage opposite party no.2 demanded to live separately from his family at her parental house which was denied by applicant no.1 thereafter opposite party no.2 left the marital house on 04.04.2020 with her all belongings purchased by applicant no.1. On 29.09.2020 opposite party no.2 filed a complaint stating allegation of demand of dowry of Rs.1,00,000/- and one motorcycle and deposed falsely under Section 200

CrPC. PW-1, Kallu of her caste and PW-2 brother of opposite party no.2 deposed a false and fabricated story under Section 202 CrPC and on the basis of that, the Judicial Magistrate summoned applicants accordingly.

4. Learned counsel for the applicants submitted that applicant no.2 is father-in-law, applicant no.3 is mother-in-law and applicant no.4 is the unmarried sister-in-law (nanad) of opposite party no.2 who reside separately. Applicant no.2 being father-in-law has no concern with the alleged offence. He is driver in PWD Department and was on duty on 02.07.2020. Applicants are neither previously convicted nor wanted in any other criminal case and have no criminal history. They belong to a respectable family. Hence, the present application be allowed and the entire proceedings of the criminal complaint case and the order passed by the Sessions Judge in revision be set aside.

5. From the order sheet it is not known as to whether opposite party no.2 was served sufficiently or not. On 25.07.2022 an order for mediation was passed. It is not known to the Court as to whether in compliance of the said order Rs.25,000/- was deposited by the applicants or not. However, as per office report dated 02.11.2022 the Mediation Centre report was awaited and till now no report had been submitted. It appears that either the fee was not deposited by the applicants or the mediation or attempt to mediation remained failed. Hence, on 11.01.2023 learned counsel for the applicants argued the case at length.

6. The proceedings of the case in question was stayed on the assurance of the learned counsel for the applicants that the matter between the parties would be amicably settled and since 25.07.2022 the applicants are availing the stay order.

7. According to the victim, she was physically and mentally tortured on the pretext of payment of additional dowry of Rs.1,00,000/- and a motorcycle. Her mother-in-law and sister-in-law snatched her jewellery after birth of a son in 2019. After six months her father-in-law and husband left her at her parental house and since then they did not take her back until the said demand of dowry was fulfilled. Opposite party no.2 has further deposed that on 02.07.2020 her husband had come but abused and threatened to kill her. Rest two witnesses have also corroborated the allegations and evidence of opposite party no.2. The trial Magistrate has passed an exhaustive and speaking summoning order discussing all the facts and evidences available on record. Initially the Magistrate had summoned only husband but the criminal revision preferred by opposite party no.2 was allowed by the Sessions Judge and in compliance of the order of the revisional court dated 06.03.2021, rest of the accused persons were also summoned. So far as the alibi in respect of the accused applicant no.2, Ramsevak is concerned that on 02.07.2020 he was with the officer, this Court is of the view that the impugned complaint has not been filed only on the basis of single incident occurred on a particular date. As per version of the complaint and the evidence thereon it is the case of the complainant that she was physically and mentally tortured by the accused persons since long. It was a continuous process hence the certificate that on 02.07.2020 accused applicant Ramsevak was on duty is immaterial. Though a case under Section 9 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 has been filed by applicant no.1, Gopal Shriwas, husband of opposite party no.2 but in this regard no order sheet have been filed to know as to whether opposite party no.2 appeared there or not and as to whether the matter was referred to the Mediation Centre, Mahoba in order to settle the dispute or not. Sometimes husband files a petition under Section 9 of the Hindu Marriage Act only to show his bona fide.

8. Learned counsel for the applicant relied on the judgment Kahkashan Kausar @ Sonam and others Vs. State of Bihar and others, 2022 0 Supreme (SC) 117, in which it has been laid down that if general and omnibus allegations are levelled against the accused persons in respect of matrimonial dispute and no specific and distinct allegations have been made and it appears that the case is example of misuse of Section 498-A IPC which was aimed to prevent cruelty committed upon a woman by herself and her in-laws, the court would intervene. The Apex Court held in the recent matter matrimonial litigation in the country has also increased significantly and there is a greater disaffection and friction surrounding the institution of marriage, now, more than ever which has been resulted in an increased tendency to employ provisions such as 498-A IPC as instruments to settle personal scores against the husband and his relatives and if false implication by way of general omnibus allegations made in the course of matrimonial dispute, if left unchecked would result in misuse of the process of law.

9. The Apex Court found that on that case none of the appellants had been attributed any specific role in furtherance of the general allegations made against them. In the cited case since no appeal was preferred by the husband hence the veracity of allegations made against him was not examined.

10. In this case opposite party no.2 has specifically alleged and has made allegations against applicant no.3 mother-in-law and applicant no.4, sister-in-law (nanad) that they had taken her jewellery. She has specifically deposed that though all the applicants were demanding additional amount of Rs.1,00,000/- as dowry and one motorcycle but her husband had again visited her parental house on 02.07.2020 and had abused and threatened to kill her for that. It is nowhere mentioned that on 02.07.2020 her father-in-law Ramsevak had also visited her parental house. He might have been made accused for the offence committed by him when the complainant was at her matrimonial house with the applicants. So far as the role of father-in-law is concerned it has been argued by the learned AGA that Ramsevak, father-in-law of opposite party no.2 is a government employee. He is elder and responsible person of the family. It was his duty to solve the problem and to ensure that opposite party no.2 is not physically and mentally tortured. The victim has deposed that her father-in-law had attended the panchayat at her parental house and had assured to keep her quietly but he and her husband had left her at her parental house.

11. On the basis of above discussion, this Court is of the view that it cannot be said that mere general and omnibus allegations have been levelled against the applicants. Applicants are not remote relatives and were not living separately. Facts of this case is quite different from the facts and evidence of the cited case. Hence, this Court is of the view that there is no ground to quash the proceedings.

12. The application under Section 482 CrPC is devoid of merit and is liable to dismissed.

13. Accordingly, this application is dismissed.

(2023) 4 ILRA 372
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 14.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE DINESH KUMAR SINGH, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 13242 of 2019
with
Application u/s 482 NO. 30345 of 2021

Sh. Mohd. Ali Zafar ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Sri Mehul Khare, Sri Pradeep Singh, Shri Umakant Uniyal (Sr. Advocate), Sri Ashok Mehta (Sr. Advocate)

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A., A.S.G.I., Sri Gyan Prakash, Sri Satish Kumar Rai, Sri Sudarshan Singh, Sri Sanjay Kumar Yadav

(A) Criminal Law - Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Section 482 - Inherent power - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 21, 120B, 409, 420, 468, 471 & 477A- The Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 - Sections 2(C), 13(2)/13(1)(d) , The Cantonment Fund Servants Rules, 1937 and CCS Rules , The Cantonment Act, 2006 - Section 38 , The Delhi Special Police Establishment Act, 1946 - Section 5, 6, 6A , The Cantonment Board Employees Service Rules, 2021 , The Cantonment Funds Service Rules, 1937 - unless the State Government gives its consent, the C.B.I. would not have the power for investigation of an offence in any area of the State Government .(Para - 27)

(B) Criminal Law - Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Section 197 - Prosecution of Judges and Public Servants , The Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 - Section 19 - Taking cognizance under Section 19 of PC Act - incriminating material should be placed before sanctioning authority in order to apply its mind and take a decision for grant of sanction - Distinction between - absence of sanction (entertained at the threshold) and alleged invalidity on account of non-application of mind (entertained during trial). (Para - 34)

Petitioner, a Veterinary Inspector, was officiating as Office Superintendent at Cantonment Board - another petitioner was a Pharmacist/Compounder-cum-Store Keeper at Central Government Hospital – joint surprise check conducted- gross irregularities found - Charges levelled against accused officials - corruption and forging and manipulating the records - resulted wrongful loss to Central Government - possible corresponding gain to accused - Charge-sheet, summoning order & entire proceedings of Special Case under challenge .(Para - 2,18)

HELD:- Board granted a sanction for the petitioners' prosecution. Trial court will decide whether the material and evidence were placed before the authority to grant the sanction, which was refused earlier. Court does not find it appropriate to decide on affidavits in these proceedings. (Para - 34)

Petitions dismissed. (E-7)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Dinesh Kumar Singh, J.)

1. Heard Sri Ashok Mehta, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Sri Pradeep S.

Sisodia, learned counsel for the petitioners, Sri Sudarshan Singh, learned counsel appearing on behalf of Union of India, Sri Sanjay Kumar Yadav, learned counsel for C.B.I. and Sri Satish Kumar Rai, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the Cantonment Board.

2. Present petitions under Section 482 Cr.P.C. have been instituted before this Court challenging the Charge-sheet No.1 of 2001 dated 07.02.2009 and summoning order dated 11.03.2019 passed by Special Judge (Anti-Corruption), C.B.I. Court No.3, Ghaziabad in Special Case No.2 of 2019 (C.B.I. vs Sukhjeevan Singh Chahal and Ors) under Sections 120B, 420, 468, 471 IPC and entire proceedings of Special Case No.2 of 2019 pending in the Court of Special Judge (Anti-Corruption), C.B.I.

3. Petitioner, Mohd Ali Zafar was posted as Veterinary Inspector and petitioner-Sushil Kumar was posted as Pharmacist/Compounder-cum-Store Keeper, Central Government Hospital, Meerut Cantt. The petitioner, Mohd Ali Zafar was also officiating on the post of Office Superintendent, Cantonment Board, Meerut at the relevant time.

4. On the basis of a source information, a joint surprise check was conducted on 12.05.2015 and 13.05.2015 by a team of C.B.I., Ghaziabad, Ministry of Defence, Director General (Vigilance), Defence Estates, New Delhi and Drug Inspector, Central Drugs Standard Control Organization (C.D.S.C.O.) in the Cantonment General Hospital, Cantt Board, Meerut.

5. C.B.I. in the year 2015 had carried out a inspection of the Cantonment General Hospital, Meerut Cantt and finding gross irregularities registered a Regular Case No.RC1202016A0003 on 16.03.2016 at C.B.I./A.C.B., Ghaziabad under Sections 13(2)/13(1)(d) of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 (hereinafter referred to as "the PC Act') against one Dr Aradhana Pathak, then Resident Medical Officer, posted at Cantonment General Hospital, Meerut Cantt and others on the allegation that during years 2011-14 said Dr Aradhana Pathak entered into criminal conspiracy with the petitioners and one Gaurav Arora, Prop. M/s Arora Pharma, Meerut, U.P. and other unknown persons and in furtherance of the said criminal conspiracy, she dishonestly and fraudulently purchased medicines at exorbitant rates in violation of prescribed procedure and norms and falsified the accounts (medicine stock books) and fabricated the relevant record.

6. During the investigation, role of one Sukhjeevan Singh Chahal, the then Chief Executive Officer (C.E.O.) Cantonment Board, Meerut Cantt. (since retired), petitioner- Mohd. Ali Zafar, the then Officiating Office Superintendent, Office of C.E.O., Cantonment Board, Meerut Cantt. came into light.

7. The C.B.I. after investigating the offence and collecting evidence and material, prepared impugned the charge-sheet under Sections 120B, 409, 420, 468, 471, 477A IPC, 13(2)/13(1)(d) of the PC Act,1988 for causing wrongful loss to the tune of Rs.23,46,436/- to the Cantonment Board Meerut and corresponding wrongful gain to themselves.

8. After carrying out a detailed investigation, the C.B.I. submitted a report and subsequently vide letter dated 23.08.2018 sought sanction for the prosecution of Dr. Aradhana Pathak, R.M.O. Cantt General Hospital, petitioner-Mohd. Ali Zafar, officiating Office Superintendent of Cantt. Board (both supervisory posts) and petitioner-Sushil Kumar Compounder cum Store Keeper of Cantt. General Hospital (non-supervisory staff).

9. Cantonment Board vide C.B.R. No.169 dated 15.11.2018 resolved by majority of vote that no sanction for prosecution of charged officials be given to the C.B.I., and the Board further resolved that departmental proceedings under the provisions of the Cantonment Fund Servants Rules, 1937 and CCS Rules be initiated against the charged officials namely Dr. Aradhana Pathak and Mohd Ali Zafar, for which a committee was constituted, and it was conveyed to the higher authorities of the Cantonment Board as well as C.B.I./A.C.B. Ghaziabad. The C.B.I. thereafter submitted a charge-sheet against the accused persons on 17.03.2019.

10. Cantonment Board thereafter reviewed its earlier decision after considering the confidential letter dated 27.02.2019 of the Head of Branch C.B.I./A.C.B., Ghaziabad addressed to the D.D.G. (Vigilance), D.E., New Delhi, copy whereof endorsed to the President, Cantt. Board, Meerut and O.S.D. of C.V.C. New Delhi, Directorate of Defence Estate CC letter dated 03.04.2019 addressed to the President, Cantt Board of Cantt Board Meerut, passed Resolution No.139 dated 29.05.2019 granting sanction for prosecution of charged officials after detailed deliberation and discussion in the Board.

11. Charges levelled against the accused officials are of corruption attracting the relevant sections of the Indian Penal Code and provisions of PC Act,1988. Charges against the officials are of criminal conspiracy and mala fide intentions of the officials resulting into monetary loss to the Government of Indian and possible wrongful gain to the officials concerned with other accused persons.

12. Initially, this Court vide order dated 11.04.2019 dismissed the petition for prayers to quash the proceedings of Special Case No.2 of 2019 pending before Special Judge Anti Corruption/C.B.I., Court No.3, Ghaziabad. However, the Court granted three weeks' time to the petitioners to surrender before the trial court and for a period of three weeks, no coercive measure was to be taken against them.

Order dated 11.04.2019 would read as under:-

"Heard Sri Umakant Uniyal, Senior Advocate assisted by Sri Mehul Khare, learned counsel for the applicant, Sri Gyan Prakash, learned counsel for respondent no.2/CBI, Sri R.P.S. Chauhan, learned counsel for respondent no.3 and 4 and Sri Satish Kumar Rai, learned counsel for respondent no.5.

This application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. has been filed for quashing the chargesheet no.1 dated 07.03.2019 and the summoning order dated 11.03.2019 passed by Special Judge (Anti-Corruption), C.B.I., Court No.3, Ghaziabad in Special Case No. 2 of 2019 under sections 120B, 420, 468, 471 IPC as well as entire proceedings of the aforesaid case.

Learned counsel for the applicant has confined his argument to the extent that the order taking cognizance by which the petitioner has been summoned, learned trial court has straightaway issued NBW against the applicant and though he is ready to appear before the court concerned and further submits that some interim protection may be granted to the applicant for the said purpose.

Learned counsel for the respondents state that as the applicant is ready to appear before the trial court as has been argued by learned counsel for the applicant, hence, they have no objection to it.

After having considered the submissions made by learned counsel for the parties and perused the material on record, I do not find any good ground for quashing the proceedings of the aforesaid case based on the charge-sheet as well as summoning order dated 11.03.2049 passed by the court concerned.The prayer to that extent is hereby refused.

However, for a period of three weeks from today, non-bailable warrant issued against the applicant shall be kept in abeyance.

In case the applicant does not appear before the Court below within the aforesaid period, trial Court is free to take coercive action against him.

It is made clear that the applicant will not be granted any further time by this Court for surrendering before the Court below as directed above.

With the aforesaid observations, the application stands disposed of."

13. The petitioners thereafter challenged the said order passed by this Court before the Supreme Court by filing S.L.P. (Criminal) No.4029 of 2019 converted to Criminal Appeal No.1166 of 2019. The Supreme Court vide order dated 31.07.2019 finding that this Court did not explicate the contentions raised by the petitioners, set aside the order dated 11.04.2019 and remitted the matter back to this Court for consideration afresh on its own merit leaving open all the contentions available to the parties, which should be decided on its merit and in accordance with law.

14. The Supreme Court also recorded a finding that grievance of the petitioners that there was no sanction order against them, did not survive for consideration as C.B.I. had placed on record sanction order dated 29.05.2019 issued by Cantonment Board. Whether that sanction order was just and proper was a matter, could be deliberated before this Court. The Supreme Court observed that it would be open to this court to decline to examine the challenge to sanction order on merits as it would be a triable issue.

Judgment and order dated 31.07.2019 passed by Supreme Court in Criminal Appeal No.1166 of 2019 would read as under:-

"Leave granted.

This appeal takes exception to the judgment and order dated 11.04.2019 passed by the High Court of Judicature at Allahabad in Application under Section 482 No.13242 of 2019, whereby the application for quashing of chargesheet No.1 dated 07.03.2019 and the summoning order dated 11.03.2019 passed by the Special Judge (Anti-Corruption), C.B.I., Court No.3, Ghaziabad in Special Case No.2 of 2019 under Sections 120B, 420, 468, 471 IPC came to be rejected.

From the impugned order, it appears that the High Court essentially dealt with the apprehension of the appellant that he may be arrested pursuant to non-bailable warrant issued against him. The High Court did not explicate on the other contentions raised by the appellant. To wit, there was no sanction order in place qua the appellant at the relevant time when the application was filed; and that inquiry under Section 6 of the Delhi Special Police Act cannot proceed without a prior permission of the State Government.

As regards the grievance about no sanction order against the appellant that does not survive for consideration. For, the C.B.I. has now placed on record a sanction order dated 29.05.2019 issued against the appellant by the Board, which it is stated is the competent authority to issue such orders. Whether that sanction order is just and proper is a matter also to be deliberated and can be so done before the High Court. We make it clear that it will be open to the High Court to decline to examine the challenge to the sanction order on merits, if the same is a triable issue.

In view of the above, we set aside the impugned order and instead the quashing application under Section 482 of Criminal Procedure Code, filed by the appellant, is restored to its original number for consideration thereof afresh by the High Court on its own merits. All contentions available to the parties are left open, to be decided on its own merits and in accordance with law.

The appellant shall appear before the High Court on 06.08.2019 to enable the High Court to proceed in the matter expeditiously as per law.

The criminal appeal is disposed of in the above terms.

Pending applications, if any, stand disposed of."

15. Sri Ashok Mehta, learned Senior Advocate has submitted that Cantonment Board is an autonomous statutory body under the Cantonment Act, 2006. Employees of the Cantonment Board are neither the employees of the Central Government nor the State Government. Though they are public servants under Section 38 of the Cantonments Act, 2006. It has been submitted that C.B.I. could not have proceeded against the petitioners without there being consent of the State of U.P. under Section 6 of the Delhi Special Police Establishment Act, 1946 and, therefore, the whole investigation was void ab initio and was without jurisdiction and liable to be quashed.

16. It has been further submitted that general consent given by the State Government vide notification dated 15.06.1989 for investigation by the C.B.I. of offences under the provisions of PC Act,1988 would be of no relevance as the petitioners are neither the Central Government employees nor the State Government employees nor they are private individuals but they are employees of statutory body i.e. Cantonment Board under the provisions of Cantonments Act, 2006. Even there is no post facto consent of the State under Section 6 of the Delhi Special Police Establishment Act, 1946, and thus in absence of the consent for investigation by the C.B.I. in respect of the alleged offence committed by the petitioners, whole investigation was without jurisdiction and, therefore, charge-sheet is also invalid and is liable to be quashed. .

17. In respect of petitioner-Mohd. Ali Zafar, Sri Ashok Mehta, learned Senior Advocate has submitted that no sanction for prosecution was given to the C.B.I. by Meerut Cantt Board vide its Resolution dated 15.11.2018. However, during the pendency of said S.L.P. (Criminal) No.4029 of 2019, on 29.05.2019 decision of refusal to grant sanction for prosecution was reviewed, and sanction order was issued. It has been submitted that there was no fresh material available for consideration to grant sanction for prosecution of the petitioner-Mohd Ali Zafar. In absence of fresh material, the Cantonment Board could not have reviewed its earlier decision refusing sanction for prosecution of the petitioner-Mohd. Ali Zafar. He, therefore, has submitted that the order of granting sanction for prosecution dated 29.05.2019 is bad in law and is liable to be quashed.

18. Sri S.K. Rai, learned counsel appearing for the Cantonment Board has submitted that charges levelled against the accused officials are of corruption and forging and manipulating the records, which has resulted wrongful loss to the Central Government and possible corresponding gain to the accused. Central Government has power to control and regulate the entire functioning of the Cantonment Board, and its employees as per the provisions of Cantonments Act and rules made thereunder. The Central Government has power to revise the penalty imposed by the Board or General Officer-in-Command and thus, ultimate power is vested with the Central Government in respect of functioning of the Board and its employees. It has been therefore, submitted that since Central Government has authority and power to supervise, control and regulate entire functioning of the Cantonment Board and its employees. There is no requirement of taking prior consent for investigation of the offences allegedly committed by the employees of the Cantonment Board by the C.B.I. from the State Government inasmuch as employees of the Cantonment Board are not under the control of the State Government directly or indirectly. The competent authority has already granted sanction for prosecution of the petitioners under Section 19 of the PC Act and, therefore, there is no ground for interference by this Court in the impugned proceedings, and the petitions being devoid of merit and substance are liable to be dismissed.

19. Sri Gyan Prakash Srivastava, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Sri Sanjay Kumar Yadav, learned counsel appearing for the C.B.I. has submitted that the Cantonment Board is an autonomous body under the Cantonments Act, 2006 functioning under the overall control of the Ministry of Defence, Government of India. Supervision and control over the working of the Cantonment Board is exercised by the Principal Director, Defence Estates, and by the Central Government through the Director General, Defence Estates, Delhi Cantt., Ministry of Defence at the highest level. It has been submitted that there is no requirement of any permission from the State Government under the Delhi Special Police Establishment Act for investigation of an offence against the employees of the Cantonment Board by the C.B.I. It is also submitted that the legislative competence over the cantonment are is of the Union Government as subject matter is provided in Entry 3 of the Union List of the VIIth Schedule of the Constitution of India.

20. It has been further submitted that valid general consent of the State Government of Uttar Pradesh under Section 5 of DSPE Act with respect to C.B.I. exists vide Notification dated 15th June, 1989 issued by Government of Uttar Pradesh. The C.B.I. is competent to lodge FIR and undertake the investigation of the case against employees of the Cantonment Board and no special permission/consent is required from the State Government. State Government itself issued a letter dated 03.05.2019 and clarified that employees of the Cantonment Board are not under the control and supervision of the State Government, and the Cantonment Board falls under the control of Central Government.

21. In respect of the submissions that earlier sanction for prosecution was refused by the Board on 15.11.2018 and on the very same material the sanction was granted vide resolution dated 29.05.2019, he has submitted that the Board has raised the issue of non-jurisdiction of the C.B.I. in the matter of Cantonment Board, Meerut and the Board therefore, passed a resolution dated 15.09.2018 itself and based on the views of the Members of the Board resolved by the majority of the vote, no sanction for the prosecution against petitioner-Mohd. M.A. Zafar was given to the C.B.I. and further resolved that departmental proceedings under the provisions of Cantonment Funds Service Rules, 1937 and CCS Rules be initiated against the charged employees in respect of allegations levelled against the accused but the accused failed to appear before the Board (Enquiry Member). Decision of the competent authority of refusing sanction and to take up a parallel investigation was not in line with law as in the opinion of the Board, CBI did not have jurisdiction over the employees of the Board. As mentioned above, when the entire material was again placed before the Board and the legal position got clarified, the Board reconsidered its view on the issue and accorded sanction for prosecution on 29.05.2019 against the petitioner.

22. It has also been submitted that trial court had taken cognizance under the Indian Penal Code, and not under the provisions of PC Act,1988 against petitioner- Mohd Ali Zafar and therefore, even otherwise the issue of sanction under section 19 of the PC Act before cognizance would not survive as sanction under Section 19 of the PC Act is in respect of the offences under the PC Act, 1988 and for any other penal offence. Employees of the Cantonment Board do not fall under the category of Government Servant who are removable by the Central/State Government, therefore, no prior sanction under Section 197 Cr.P.C. is required.

23. Facts are not much in dispute. The Cantonment Board is the local authority which performs municipal functions in the Cantonment area under the provisions of Cantonments Act, 2006. The State Government does not have any power, control and authority to supervise and regulate the functioning of the Cantonment Board or its employees or over the area under the jurisdiction and control of a Cantonment Board.

24. Section 38 of the Cantonment Act, 2006 provides "Every officer or employee, permanent or direct shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of Section 21 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 2(c) of the PC Act." Service conditions of the employees of the Cantonment Board are governed under the Cantonment Board Employees Service Rules, 2021 which came into force with effect from 13.10.2021 after repealing the Cantonment Funds Service Rules, 1937.

25. The question which is primarily involved in these petitions is whether without consent of the State Government, the C.B.I. would be empowered to exercise powers and jurisdiction in respect of an area under the control of Cantonment Board.

26. Sections 5, 6 and 6A of the Delhi Special Police Establishment Act, 1946, which are relevant for decision on issue in question, are extracted hereunder:-

"5. Extension of powers and jurisdiction of special police establishment to other areas.--

(1)The Central Government may by order extend to any area (including Railway areas), 1[in 2[a State, not being a Union territory]] the powers and jurisdiction of members of the Delhi Special Police Establishment for the investigation of any offences or classes of offences specified in a notification under section 3.

(2)When by an order under sub-section (1) the powers and jurisdiction of members of the said police establishment are extended to any such area, a member thereof may, subject of any orders which the Central Government may make in this behalf, discharge the functions of a police officer in that area and shall, while so discharging such functions, be deemed to be a member of a police force of that area and be vested with the powers, functions and privileges and be subject to the liabilities of a police officer belonging to that police force. 3[(3) where any such order under sub-section (1) is made in relation to any area, then, without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (2) any member of the Delhi Special Police Establishment of or above the rank of Sub-Inspector may subject to any orders which the Central Government may make in this behalf, exercise the powers of the officer in charge of a police station in that area and when so exercising such powers, shall be deemed to be an officer in charge of a police station discharging the functions of such an officer within the limits of his station.]

6. Consent of State Government to exercise of powers and jurisdiction.-- Nothing contained in section 5 shall be deemed to enable any member of the Delhi Special Police Establishment to exercise powers and jurisdiction in any area in 2[a State, not being a Union territory or railway area], without the consent of the Government of that State.]

6A. Approval of Central Government to conduct inquiry or investigation.--

(1)The Delhi Special Police Establishment shall not conduct any inquiry or investigation into any offence alleged to have been committed under the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 (49 of 1988) except with the previous approval of the Central Government where such allegation relates to--

(a) the employees of the Central Government of the Level of Joint Secretary and above; and

(b) such officers as are appointed by the Central Government in corporations established by or under any Central Act, Government companies, societies and local authorities owned or controlled by that Government.

(2)Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), no such approval shall be necessary for cases involving arrest of a person on the spot on the charge of accepting or attempting to accept any gratification other than legal remuneration referred to in clause (c) of the Explanation to section 7 of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 (49 of 1988).]"

27. From perusal of the aforesaid provisions, it is evident that unless the State Government gives its consent, the C.B.I. would not have the power for investigation of an offence in any area of the State Government. Similarly, under Section 6A of the Delhi Special Police Establishment Act, 1946 without the previous approval of the Central Government, the C.B.I. would not have jurisdiction to investigate the offence under the PC Act against the employees of the Central Government of the level of Joint Secretary and above and such officers as are appointed by the Central Government in corporations established by or under any Central Act, Government companies, societies and local authorities owned and controlled by that Government.

28. There can be no dispute that an area falling under the Cantonment is not an area under the State Government and nor the petitioners are employees of the Central Government or appointed by the Central Government in the Cantonment Board. Thus, there is no applicability of Section 6 or 6A of the Delhi Special Police Establishment Act, 1946 in the present case. The petitioners are neither employees of the State Government nor Central Government nor the area of Cantonment Board, Meerut falls within the jurisdiction or control of the State Government.

29. The State Government has issued notification dated 15.6.1989 in pursuance of the provisions of Section 6 of the DPSE Act. The notification is extracted herein below :-

"Government of Uttar Pradesh Home(Police) Section-1
No.3442/VIII-1-84/88
Lucknow, dated : June 15, 1989
Notification

In pursuance of the Provisions of Section 6 of the Delhi Special Police Establishment Act, 1946 (25 of 1946) the Governor of the State of Uttar Pradesh is pleased to accord consent to the extension of powers and jurisdiction of the members of the Delhi Special Police establishment in whole of the State of Uttar Pradesh, for investigation of offences punishable under the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 (49 of 1988), and attempts, abetments and conspiracies in relation to all or any of the offence or offences mentioned above and any other offence or offences committed in the course of the transaction and arising out of the same facts, subject however to the condition that no such investigation shall be taken up in cases relating to the public servants, under the control of the State Government except with the prior permission of the State Government.

BY ORDER IN THE NAME OF THE GOVERNOR.
Sd/-
(S.K. TRIPATHI)
HOME SECRETARY TO THE GOVT OF UTTAR PRADESH"

30. The State Government vide Government Order dated 03.05.2019 has clarified that there is no requirement of any consent in respect of employees of the Cantonment Board as they are not the employees of the State Government and the area of Cantonment does not fall within the area of jurisdiction of the State Government.

31. In view thereof, in respect of the investigation of the offences committed by an employee of the Cantonment Board or an offence committed within the area of Cantonment Board, no consent of the State Government or the Central Government is mandatory for undertaking the investigation by the C.B.I. I, therefore, I find no substance in the submissions of Sri Ashok Mehta, learned Senior Advocate that without prior consent of the State Government in respect of the offence committed under the PC Act,1988 by an employee of the Cantonment Board, Meerut, investigation was without jurisdiction and charge-sheet filed was illegal being without jurisdiction.

32. So far as question of sanction accorded by cantonment Board vide order dated 29.05.2019 for prosecution of the petitioners is concerned, resolution dated 15.11.2018 had been resolved by majority of vote that no sanction for prosecution of Dr Aradhana Pathak and petitioner Mohd Ali Zafar to be given to the C.B.I. and departmental proceedings under the provisions of Cantonment Funds Service Rules, 1937 and CSS Rules be initiated against the charged employees for which a committee was constituted. However, after other material was placed before the Board, it has been resolved vide order dated 29.05.2019 to grant sanction for prosecution. The Supreme Court itself in its order dated 31.07.2019 has held that this Court may decline to examine the challenge to the sanction order on merit as it is a triable issue. The earlier resolution appears to have been granted in ignorance of correct legal position and when the correct legal position was brought to the notice of Board, it did grant sanction for prosecution. I find no illegality in sanction order for prosecution of the petitioner.

33. Valid sanction by the competent authority under Section 19 of the PC Act is sine qua non for taking cognizance of an offence against a public servant under PC Act, 1988. If the sanction is held to be invalid, entire proceedings undertaken by the trial court would be void. Section 19 of the PC Act forbids taking of cognizance by the court against a public servant for an offence except previous sanction of the competent authority. Competence of the Court tyring the accused depends upon the existence of a valid sanction. In case, the sanction is found to be invalid, the court can discharge the accused, relegating the parties to a stage where the competent authority may grant a fresh sanction for the prosecution in accordance with law. If the trial court proceeds, despite the invalidity attached to the sanction order, the same shall be deemed to be non est in the eyes of law and shall not forbid a second trial for the same offence upon grant of a valid sanction for such prosecution. Sanction order may be challenged on two grounds namely; sanction granted by an authority not competent to accord sanction. Such an order would be without jurisdiction and nullity. However, if there is an error, omission or irregularity in sanction order, the same would not be fatal unless it has resulted in violation of justice.

34. For taking cognizance under Section 19 of the PC Act, incriminating material should be placed before sanctioning authority in order to apply its mind and take a decision for grant of sanction. Whether there is an application of mind would depend on the facts and circumstances of each case. There is a distinction between the absence of sanction and the alleged invalidity on account of non-application of mind. Former question can be entertained at the threshold but the latter is a question which has to be entertained during trial. It is not in dispute that in the present case there is a sanction for prosecution of the petitioners which has been granted by the Board vide order dated 29.05.2019. Whether there was the material and evidence placed before the authority to grant sanction which was refused earlier by the order dated 15.11.2018 is a question which can be decided by the trial court after leading evidence by the prosecution and the defence. This court, therefore, does not find it appropriate to decide the said issue on affidavits in these proceedings.

35. In view thereof, these petitions being devoid of merit and substance are hereby dismissed.

(2023) 4 ILRA 382
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 24.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE UMESH CHANDRA SHARMA, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 13699 of 2016

Gyan Chandra & Ors. ...Applicants
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Sri Jay Babu Kesharwani, Sri Mohammad Mustafa, Mohammad Firoz Khan

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A., Sri Ajay Vikram Yadav, Sri Satya Prakash

A. Criminal Law - Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Section 482 - Indian Penal Code,1860 - Sections 363, 366, 376(2)(H) & 504 - ¾ POCSO Act-Challenge to-rejection order u/s 311 Cr.PC for summoning the victim-victim could not be cross-examined by the accused persons who are facing the trial-Trial court closed the cross-examination without giving proper opportunity and equal protection of law to the defence side-Since the Victim PW-2 was the material witness, it was the duty of the trial court to provide full opportunity to cross-examine such witness-Thus, where for the some reason or the other, accused could not cross-examine the prosecution witnesses, the concerned court may re-call such witnesses for cross-examination exercising the power u/s 311 Cr.P.C.(Para 1 to 28)

The application is allowed. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

1. Raja Ram Prasad Yadav Vs St. of Bih. & anr., (2013) AIR SC 3081

2. Natasha Singh Vs C.B.I. (St.) (2013) Cr.L.J. 3346 SC

3. Dalveer Singh Vs St. of Raj. (2013) Cr.L.J. 3064

4. Sankat Mohan Prasad Vs St. of U.P. (2004) ACC 933 (Alld.)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Umesh Chandra Sharma, J.)

1. Heard Sri Mohammad Firoz Khan, learned counsel for the applicants, Sri Pankaj Kumar Tripathi, learned Additional Government Advocate for the State and perused the record.

2. This application u/s 482 Cr.P.C has been filed by all three accused persons Gyan Chandra, Deshraj and Gopi @ Ashok Kumar, for quashing the impugned order dated 28th January, 2016 passed by the Additional District & Sessions Judge / F.T.C, Kaushambi in S.T No. 07 of 2015 - State Vs. Gyan Chandra and others, under Sections 363, 366, 376 (2) (H), 504 I.P.C and ¾ POCSO Act, Police Station - Sarai Akil, Distrit Kaushambi, arising out Case Crime No. 257 of 2013, by which the Trial Court rejected the application under Section 311 Cr.P.C for summoning the victim P.W. 2 for cross-examination.

3. The brief facts of the case are that the first informant Smt. Rampati W/o Lavkush, lodged an F.I.R on 07.09.2013, regarding the incident dated 05.09.2013 that on the fateful day she had gone to the field for work leaving the victim (her daughter) aged about 14 years, student of Class-VIII alone in her house and when she returned back she found that her daughter was not present and the household articles were disordered. Accused-applicant Gyan Chandra S/o Roshan Lal of the neighbourhood was also missing. Cash amount Rs.10,000/-, a golden chain, golden Mangalsutra, two silver anklet, and a bank A.T.M Card of her husband of Union Bank of India were also missing. She apprehended that accused- Gyan Chandra, Deshraj and Gopi @ Ashok Kumar have lured her daughter and have taken her away. A few days back there was a dispute with Gyan Chandra, who had threatened to look into it and to insult her in the society. She searched out her daughter but could not find, hence report/information was lodged.

4. Contrary to the allegations levelled in the F.I.R, it is averred by the applicants that applicant no. 1 and the victim were consenting party and had fallen in love to each other and in this way both passed about two months eleven days with each other, they also got married and had also prepared marriage agreement (Annexure No. 2) on 25.11.2012 at Kaushambi.

5. The I.O. has submitted charge-sheet wrongly. During the trial all the relevant witnesses have been examined, but the applicants were provided only a single date for cross-examination of the victim, on the said date due to illness of the counsel was not in a position to cross-examine, hence an adjournment application was moved, but the learned trial court without giving any opportunity for cross-examination, rejected the application on 03.02.2015. Certified copy of the relevant order-sheet since 13.01.2015 to 10.03.2016 is being annexed as Annexure no. 3 to the affidavit.

6. An application under Section 311 Cr.P.C. was moved on 24.12.2015 before the trial court for providing opportunity to cross-examination of the victim P.W. 2, which is annexed as Annexure no. 4 to this affidavit, but it was rejected on 28th January, 2016 without considering the facts and circumstances of the case and without giving any weight to the application. The applicants are not willing to delay the trial, but as they are behind the bar and the co-accused applicant no. 3 was in Haryana Jail, since the victim P.W 2 is the main witness, hence her cross-examination is necessary for a fair trial and proper adjudication. Applicant no. 1 and victim are major and they have solemnized their marriage at their own sweet-will. After recovery and arrest the victim was sent to their parents and applicant no. 1 was sent to Jail. The order dated 28.01.2016 passed by the trial court is arbitrary and perverse and is liable to be quashed. Hence, the application be allowed and an opportunity be provided to cross examine the victim P.W. 2.

7. The State has filed counter affidavit no. 02 of 2016 and has alleged that the contents of the application are not correct, the victim was a minor girl aged about 15 years, hence no question arises to give consent to the applicant no. 1, he had abducted the victim minor daughter of opposite party no. 2 and committed the alleged offence. The I.O. has rightly submitted the charge-sheet. The Applicants were provided an opportunity to cross-examination, but they are continuously lingering on the trial and are also threatening to the O.P and the victim, they had surrendered/arrested by the police. On the direction of the Hon'ble Court on the application of O.P. no. 2 with regard to fair investigation, the charge-sheet had been submitted.

8. Applicants have political background, two accused person are still absconding, the trial court has rightly rejected the application as the applicants were applying delay tactic to delay the trial inspite of specific direction of the Apex Court for speedy trial of an offence under Section 376 (2) (H) I.P.C, hence the application be rejected.

9. No rejoinder affidavit has been filed by the applicants, hence heard both the parties and perused the record.

10. From perusal of the record, it transpires that on 13th January, 2015 only accused Gyan Chandra and Deshraj were present, accused - Gopi @ Ashok Kumar was not present in the court, even then evidence of P.W 1 was recorded.

11. On 03rd February, 2015, only in presence of Gyan Chandra and Deshraj and in absence of accused Gopi @ Ashok Kumar, (languishing in Gurgaon Jail Haryana), examination-in-chief and evidence of the prosecutrix was recorded and when the adjournment application 29 - B was produced, the same was rejected by the then Presiding Officer. According to this Court in absence of one co-accused - Gopy @ Ashok Kumar and if no exemption application on his behalf was moved, the trial court was not competent enough to record the evidence of the prosecutrix. In the aforesaid circumstances, it was duty of the trial court to ensure the presence of all the three accused persons first and only in present of all the accused persons or in case if they are exempted through counsel, evidence of the prosecutrix or any other witness could be recorded, but the learned trial court besides applying the Rules of examination enumerated in Cr.P.C and the Indian Evidence Act, not only recorded the evidence of prosecutrix, but also closed her cross-examination.

12. From perusal of the order-sheet, it also reveals that when the witnesses were not present, the learned trial court adjourned the case easily without seeking any adjournment and on 21.04.2015, he recorded statements of P.W. Nos. 3 and 4 only in present of accused Gyan Chandra and Deshraj and in absence of co-accused Ashok Kumar.

13. This Court is of the view that the learned trial court has acted with manifest error in recording the evidence. Further on 16.06.2015, the learned trial court has recorded the statements of P.W 6 and 7 in absence of co-accused - Gopi @ Ashok Kumar. It was also improper exercise of the power by the trial court.

14. It transpires that on 16.06.2015 an application 36 - B was moved by the prosecution under Section 319 Cr.P.C, which would have been in respect of summoning of some so called left accused persons. On 09.7.2015, the application 36-B has been disposed of, but it is not known as to whether it was allowed or rejected, however on 05.11.2015 in presence of all the accused persons, the statement of P.W. 1 was again recorded (if there is no clerical mistake regarding number of witnesses). On 03.12.2015 when the accused persons moved 42-B application for recalling of witness P.W. 2, the prosecutrix, the same was rejected on 28th January, 2016, which has been challenged before this Court.

15. Statement of P.W. 2 is not before this Court, hence this Court does not know as to whether the witness has supported the prosecution version or not. As per Chapter X of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, if an examination-in-chief of the witnesses have been recorded, according to Section 138 so examined witnesses would be cross-examined (if the adverse party so desires) and the witnesses may be re-examined (if the party calling him, so desires).

16. From the above discussions, it is very much clear that the victim no. 2 could not be cross-examined by the accused persons, who are facing the trial. The application had been moved during the course of examination of the witnesses. It has already been pointed out that the learned trial court has illegally recorded the evidence of the witnesses in absence of co-accused - Gopi @ Ashok Kumar. It could not be established that on the said dates any exemption application on behalf of co-accused Gopy @ Ashok Kumar was produced and the same was allowed by the trial court. It is also observed that the trial of all the three accused persons were cumulatively going on and the case/file of accused - Gopi @ Ashok Kumar had not been separated.

17. The impugned order discloses the incorporation of rulings by the Presiding Officer of his choice, without considering that it was a matter of examination of the witnesses rather the matter of Section 311 Cr.P.C. It is crystal clear that the trial court has not provided proper opportunity and equal protection of law to the defence side while several dates have been given to the prosecution for examination of the witnesses without any adjournment, the learned trial court closed the cross-examination same day, rejecting the adjournment application of the defence, and did not bother that the evidence of victim P.W. 2 has been recorded in absence of co-accused Gopi @ Ashok Kumar. It is duty of the trial court to record the demenure of the victim and the accused, during the trial. This court is of the view that at the time of recording of the evidence of the prosecutrix the presence of the accused persons was very much necessary.

18. It is also duty of the public prosecutor to ensure as to whether the accused is present in the court or not during the examination of the witness. It appears that neither the trial judge nor the public prosecutor performed their duties well.

Learned trial judge could not understand the abstracts behind the section in which the accused persons had moved application to recall the witness for cross examination. He also could not consider that two accused persons were in District Jail and one accused Gopi @ Ashok Kumar was in Gurgaon Jail and for a accused, who is languishing in jail, it becomes very problematic and tedious job to prosecute or defend the case. Generally they are unable to pay fee and draw proper attention of the counsel and the Court.

19. When all the three accused persons gathered together, they moved re-call application during the course of trial and before the closer of the prosecution evidence. The trial court referring some rulings of his choice, rejected the application in the aforesaid circumstances for which he was responsible.

20. From the above discussion, it has been established that the trial court was not doing fair trial in accordance with the code of criminal procedure and the Indian Evidence Act.

Section 311 Cr.P.C, 1973, is as under : -

"Section 311 in The Code Of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

311. Power to summon material witness, or examine person present. Any Court may, at any stage of any inquiry, trial or other proceeding under this Code, summon any person as a witness, or examine any person in attendance, though not summoned as a witness, or. recall and re- examine any person already examined; and the Court shall summon and examine or recall and re- examine any such person if his evidence appears to it to be essential to the just decision of the case."

21. From the above, it is very much clear that there are two part of this Section. According to first part of the Section, the Court can exercise the power :-

(1) to summon any person as a witness, or.

(2) to examine any persons in attendance, though not summoned as a witness, or,

(3) to recall and re-examine any person already examined.

The second part, which is mandatory and imposes an obligation on the Court:-

(1) to summon and examine, or

(2) to recall and re-examine any such person, if his evidence appears to be essential to the just decision of the case.

22. Since the victim P.W. 2 was the material witness, therefore to provide full opportunity to cross-examine such witness was the duty of the trial court.

23. In Raja Ram Prasad Yadav Vs. State of Bihar and Anr. A.I.R 2013 (SC) 3081, it has been held that it is, therefore imperative that invocation of Section 311 Cr.P.C and its application in a particular case can be ordered by the Court, only by bearing in mind the object and purport of the said provisions, namely, for achieving a just decision of the case. The power vested under the said provisions is made available to any court at any stage in any inquiry or trial or other proceedings initiated under the code for the purpose of summoning any person as a witness or for examining any persons in attendance, even though not summoned as witnesses or to re-call or re-examine any person in attendance. In so far as recalling and re-examining of any person already examined, the court must necessarily consider and ensure that such re-call and re-examination of any person, appears in the view of the court to be essential for the just decision of the case.

24. In Natasha Singh Vs. C.B.I. (State) 2013 Cr.L.J. 3346 (SC), it has been held that fair trial entails the interest of the accused, the victim and of the society, and therefore, fair trial includes the grant of fair and proper opportunity to the persons concerned. To adduce evidence in support of the defence is a valuable right. Denial of such right would amount to denial of a fair trial.

25. In Dalveer Singh Vs. State of Rajasthan 2013 Cr.L.J 3064, it is held that where the counsel of the accused failed to cross-examine the prosecution witness, the accused could not be made to suffer because of mistake of his counsel in not cross examining the said witness, hence application for re-calling of the witnesses was allowed.

26. In Sankat Mohan Prasad Vs. State of U.P. 2004 ACC 933 (Alld.) this Court held that where for the some reason or the other, counsel for the accused could not cross-examine the prosecution witnesses, the concerned court may re-call such witnesses for cross-examination exercising the power under Section 311 Cr.P.C.

27. On the basis of above discussions it is concluded that the accused persons have been illegally denied the opportunity of cross-examination by the then trial judge. It is the duty of the court to examine the essential material witness in due course of law. The cause of justice would only be served after examining the material witnesses in right perspective after giving due opportunity of cross-examination to the defence.

28. On the above discussion, this Court comes to the conclusion that the learned trial court had committed manifest error during the course of trial in recording the evidence and has proceeded with the case in harried manner in violation of the principles of natural justice and fair trial. The impugned order is not sustainable in the eye of law and deserves to be quashed.

O R D E R

(a) This Application U/s 482 Cr.P.C is allowed.

(b) The impugned order dated 28th January, 2016, passed by the concerned trial court is hereby quashed.

(c) The learned trial court is directed to re-call the victim P.W. 2 for her cross-examination on behalf of all the three accused persons.

(d) Let a certified copy of this order be sent to the concerned court for its compliance immediately.

(2023) 4 ILRA 387

ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 17.04.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE UMESH CHANDRA SHARMA, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 16161 of 2022

Ajay Kumar ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Sri Umesh Kumar

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A.

A. Criminal Law -Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Section 482 - U.P. Excise Act,1910 -Sections 60, 63 & 72-Challenge to-rejection order regarding release of vehicle-applicant is the owner of vehicle and the three relatives had taken the applicant's vehicle on rent-When the applicant came to knowledge about the incident after two months he lodged FIR against his relative-When the release application and the revision against the rejection order of CJM were pending, the impugned vehicle was under the process of confiscation-Later confiscation proceeding has become final at the end of District Magistrate and the vehicle had been auctioned-In this case, since no corpus is into existence for release hence this application has also become infructuous-Thus, the impugned order passed by the learned CJM and revisional court is factually and legally correct-Section 72 of the Act does not contain any provision indicating that such seized property may be released by the magistrate in exercise of his power u/s 457 CrPC as sub section (1) to (4) of Section 72 clearly denudes the magistrate of his power to pass any order u/s 457 CrPC for release of anything seized in connection of an offence purporting to have been confiscated under the Act.(Para 1 to 18)

The application is dismissed. (E-6)

List of cases cited:

1. Mustafa Vs St. of U.P. (2019) AIR SC 3949

2. Virendra Gupta Vs St. of U.P. (2019) 108 ACC 438

3. Sundar Bhai Ambalal Desai Vs St. of Guj. (2002) law suit SC 1346

4. Chandrapal Vs St. of U.P. (2021) 0 Supreme All 92

(Delivered by Hon'ble Umesh Chandra Sharma, J.)

1. Heard Sri Umesh Kumar, learned counsel for the applicant and Sri Pankaj Kumar Tripathi, learned A.G.A. for the State and perused the material available on record.

2. This application has been made by the accused -applicant to quash the order dated 19.07.2021 passed by Chief Judicial Magistrate, Etah, in criminal case no. 781 of 2020 and order dated 16.10.2021 passed by Learned Sessions Judge in criminal revision no.76 of 2021 rejecting the application of applicant for releasing his vehicle no. (U.P 80 CT 3283), in case crime no. 594 of 2019, U/s 60, 63, 72 of UP. Excise Act, Police Station Kotwali, District Etah.

3. In brief, facts of the case are that an FIR was lodged in case crime no. 594 of 2019, at Police Station Kotwali Dehat, U/s 60, 63, 72 of Excise Act, District Etah. A copy of the FIR dated 21.12.2019 has been filed as annexure no.1 to the affidavit. The applicant is not involved in the said crime and he never gave consent for the purpose of the alleged illegal work. The relatives use the vehicle of the applicant for own purposes.

4. The applicant filed an application for the release of his vehicle no. UP 80 CT 3283 on 4.8.2020 before the C.J.M, Etah which is in the custody of police station Kotwali Dehat, u/s 60, 63, 72 of Excise Act, District Etah. The application dated 4.8.2020 is annexure no.2 to the affidavit.

5. The learned C.J.M rejected the applicant's application without considering the fact on 19.7.2021, the certified copy of the order has been filed herewith as annexure no. 3. The applicant filed criminal revision on 16.10.2021 in which he had disclosed the entire facts but the same was also rejected by Learned District and Sessions Judge on the same day.

6. The FIR was not lodged against the applicant Ajay Kumar but against Surendra Singh, Satish Chandra and Devendra Singh in case crime no. 367 of 2020, at police station Iglas, u/s 406, 452, 323, 504 of IPC., District Aligarh which is annexure no. 5 to the affidavit.

7. Devendra Singh, Surendra Singh and Satish Chand had taken the applicant's vehicle on rent in the month of august 2019. The vehicle was run by the aforesaid persons till the incident and when the applicant inquired after two months from the aforesaid persons/relatives regarding the vehicle, then matter came into the knowledge that the vehicle is being kept in police station Kotwali Dehat, Etah. Since the aforesaid persons are relatives of the applicant, no suspicion arose and when the matter came into the knowledge of the applicant, he started his effort to release the vehicle. The vehicle was not used by the applicant in the alleged crime and has no concern with the alleged persons. The applicant has also lodged an FIR against his relatives because they were not giving information about the vehicle. The aforesaid relatives cheated to the applicant and used the applicants vehicle in the said crime that was not in the knowledge of the applicant. The applicant is not involved in the aforesaid crime and the vehicle is in the name of the applicant and he is owner of the vehicle. The applicant was ready to pay the security before the learned court imposed by the court at the time of the release of vehicle. The applicant has completed all the legal formalities regarding the vehicle through the documents which is annexure no. 6 to the affidavit.

8. The learned court did not consider the facts and circumstances available on records and passed the impugned order in a routine manner without applying judicial mind. The vehicle of the applicant is confined since 21.12.2019 and is standing in worst position as such if it is not released, he will suffer irreparable loss and injury. The trial court ignoring all the facts and circumstances of the case, rejected the release application which is bad in the eyes of law. The learned court has passed the impugned order in mechanical way without perusing the record. Hence, the application be allowed and order of the CJM and the revisional Court be set aside.

9. All the relevant papers referred in the application have been annexed with the affidavit..

10. From the side of State opposite party no. 1 Ashwini Kumar SI, PS Kotwali Etah has filed counter affidavit and has deposed that the order of rejection passed by the CJM and the learned revisional court are legal, perfect and the same are always sustainable in the eyes of law. The impugned vehicle has been auctioned for a sum of RS 98500/-.

11. The applicant has filed rejoinder affidavit in which a simple prayer has been made to allow the petition and no avernments have been made against Para 11 of the Counter Affidavit and the same has not been denied which discloses that in furtherance of confiscation, the impugned vehicle has been auctioned. From the perusal of both the impugned order it transpires that when the release application and the revision against the rejection order of CJM were pending, the impugned vehicle was under the process of confiscation. Learned CJM relying on Mustafa Vs. State of UP AIR 2019 SC 3949 and Virendra Gupta Vs. State of UP 2019 (108) ACC 438 rejected the release application observing that when any proceeding for confiscation of a vehicle u/s 72 (2) of the UP Excise Act is pending, the district magistrate would only be entitled to deal with such vehicle and in that case the concerned judicial magistrate would not be competent to release the vehicle or to entertain the release application u/s 451, 452 and 457 of Cr.P.C.

12. It would be appropriate to mention Section 72 of the U.P. Excise Act, which reads as follows:

Section 72. What things are liable to confiscation

(1) Whenever an offence punishable under this Act has been committed --

(a) every [intoxicant] in respect of which such offence has been committed;

(b) every still, utensil, implement or apparatus and all materials by means of which such offence has been committed;

(c) every [intoxicant] lawfully imported, transported, manufactured, held in possession or sold along with or in addition to any [intoxicant] liable to confiscation under clause (a) ;

(d) every receptacle, package and covering in which any [intoxicant] as aforesaid or any materials, still, utensil, implement or apparatus is or are found, together with the other contents (if any) of such receptacle or package ;and

(e) every animal, cart, vessel or other conveyance used in carrying such receptacle or package; shall be liable to confiscation.

(2) Where anything or animal is seized under any provision of this Act, the officer seizing and detaining such property shall, within three working days from the date of such seizure and detention ; produce a detailed report for confiscation along with such seized property, seizure memo and other relevant documents before the Collector. The Collector shall, upon receiving the said report along with seizure memo and seized property, immediately order for safe custody and storage of goods as he may deem fit. The Collector, if satisfied for reasons to be recorded that an offence has been committed due to which such thing or animal has become liable to confiscation under sub-section (1), he may order confiscation of such thing or animal whether or not a prosecution for such offence has been instituted ;

Provided that in the case of anything (except an intoxicant) or animal referred to in sub-section (1), the owner thereof shall be given an option to pay in lieu of its confiscation such fine as the Collector thinks adequate, not exceeding its market value on the date of its seizure.

(3) Where the Collector on receiving report of seizure or on inspection of the seized thing, including any animal, cart, vessel or other conveyance, is of the opinion that any such thing or animal is subject to speedy wear and tear or natural decay or it is otherwise expedient in the public interest so to do he may order such thing (except an intoxicant) or animal to be sold at the market price by auction or otherwise.

(4) Where any such thing or animal is sold as aforesaid, and--

(a) no order of confiscation is ultimately passed or maintained by the Collector under sub-section (2) or on review under sub-section(6) ; or

(b) an order passed on appeal under sub-section (7) so requires;or

(c) in the case of a prosecution being instituted for the offence in respect of which the thing or the animal is seized, the order of the Court so requires ; the sale proceeds after deducting the expenses of the sale shall be paid to the person found entitles thereto.

(5) (a) No order of confiscation under this section shall be made unless the owner thereof or the person from whom it is seized is given--

(i) a notice in writing informing him of the grounds on which such confiscation is proposed; (ii) an opportunity of making a representation in writing within such reasonable time as may be specified in the notice; and (iii) a reasonable opportunity of being heard in the matter.

(b) Without prejudice to the provisions of clause (a), no order confiscating any animal, cart, vessel, or other conveyance shall be made if the owner thereof proves to the satisfaction of the Collector that it was used in carrying the contraband goods without the knowledge or connivance of the owner, his agent, if any, and the person in-charge of the animal cart, vessel or other conveyance and that each of them had taken all reasonable and necessary precautions against such use.

(6) Where on an application in that behalf being made to the Collector within one month from any order of confiscation made under sub-section (2), or as the case may be, after issuing notice on his own motion within one month from the order under the sub-section refusing confiscation to the owner of the thing or animal seized or to the person from whose possession it was seized, to show cause why the order should not be reviewed, and after giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard, the Collector is satisfied that the order suffers from a mistake apparent on the face of the record including anymistake of law, he may pass such order on review as he thinks fit.

(7) Any person aggrieved by an order of the confiscation under sub-section (2) or sub-section (6) may, within one month from the date of the communication to him of such order, appeal to such judicial authority as the State Government may appoint in this behalf and the judicial authority shall, after giving an opportunity to the appellant to be heard pass such order as it may think fit, confirming, modifying or annulling the order appealed against.

(8) Where a prosecution is instituted for the offence in relation to which such confis*cation was ordered the thing or animal shall subject to the provisions of sub-section (4) be disposed of in accordance the order of the Court.*

(9) No order of confiscation made by the Collector under this section shall prevent the infliction of any punishment to which the person affected thereby may be liable under this Act."

13. Learned revisional court has quoted Section 72 of U.P. Excise Act and has also analysed the judgment Virendra Gupta (supra) and has concluded that in Virendra Gupta (supra) the case of Govt. of NCT of Delhi vs. Narendra (2014) 13 SCC 100 has been considered according to which in case of confiscation, the seized property shall be dealt with by section 72 of the Act which does not contain any provision indicating that such seized property may be released by the magistrate in the exercise of his power u/s 457 CrPC as sub section (1) to (4) of Section 72 clearly denudes the magistrate of his power to pass any order u/s 457 Cr.P.C for release of anything sized in connection of an offense purporting to have been confiscated under the Act.

14. The District Magistrate, Etah had informed CJM vide report dated 5.9.2020 that the confiscation proceedings regarding the impugned vehicle is pending before him. It appears that later on the confiscation proceeding has become final at the end of District Magistrate, Etah hence, the impugned vehicle had been auctioned for a consideration of Rs 98,500/-.

15. Learned counsel for the applicant has relied on Sundar Bhai Ambalal Desai Vs. State of Gujarat 2002 lawsuit (SC) 1346 which is in respect of 451 Cr.P.C and is inapplicable about the vehicle which are subject to the confisccation and not the subject matter of general law, hence Chapter XXXIV of the Cr.P.C has no applicability.

16. Learned counsel for the applicant has further relied upon Chandrapal Vs. State of UP 2021 0 Supreme All 92 in which the application u/s 482 Cr.P.C was allowed and the matters were remitted back to the concerned magistrate to decide first as to whether the Civil Court had jurisdiction or not. In this case since no corpus is into existence for release hence this application has also become infructuous. Now the only remedy remains available to the applicant is to challenge the validity of confiscation proceeding conducted by the District Magistrate, Etah.

17. On the basis of above discussion this court is of conclusion that the impugned order passed by the learned CJM and learned revisional court is factually and legally correct. When the impugned vehicle was under the confiscation proceeding before the district magistrate Etah, it was open to the applicant to appear and contest there.

18. In view of the above judgments and Section 72 of the UP Excise Act both the courts at district level were not competent to entertain and allow the release application. At present there is no property remains as subject matter for decision by the civil court or the High Court. Hence this application deserves to be dismissed.

ORDER

This application is, accordingly, dismissed.

(2023) 4 ILRA 392
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 18.04.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE UMESH CHANDRA SHARMA, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 19835 of 2019

Nazim & Ors. ...Applicants
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Sri Devendra Dahma, Sri Sanjay Mishra

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A., Sri Ravi Prakash Singh

(A) Criminal Law - Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Section 482 - Inherent power - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 147, 323, 324, 504, 506 & 326 - If an stick is used in causing hurt or grievous hurt on the ear of a victim - Section 326 I.P.C would not be attracted - if such injury would have been caused by knife, or by other means mentioned in Section 326 I.P.C - such injury would be covered under Section 326 I.P.C - provided there is hundred percent loss of hearing capacity of the concerned ear , Power of taking cognizance - Magistrates have limited power to add or alter sections, considering case diary and charge-sheet - if left by the I.O. - they can add or alter sections during charge framing, but not during cognizance.(Para - 29,32,)

Opposition party lodged N.C.R - against applicants 2 to 5 - later converted into F.I.R. - Medical examination was conducted - supplementary reports prepared - Evidence recorded - charge-sheet submitted - both parties have lodged F.I.R against each other - during investigation dispute over addition of Section 326 I.P.C. - opposite party 2 failed to appear for re-medical examination - conclusion of trial and Revisional Courts - victim's right ear drum injury was considered grievous hurt under Section 320 I.P.C. (Para -3,14,16,19)

HELD:-Victim's right ear stick injury is not a grievous hurt, as there is no medical report of permanent hearing loss and is not covered under Section 326 I.P.C.. Lower court failed to appreciate facts, medical reports, and law, leading to incorrect conclusions about grievous hurt and punishable under Section 326 I.P.C. . Taking cognizance and summoning accused applicants under Section 326 I.P.C bad in law. Revisional court's judgment incorrect.(Para – 30,31,33)

Application u/s 482 Cr.P.C. allowed. (E-7)

List of Cases cited:

1. Dhanai Mahto & anr. Vs St. of Bihar , 2000 AIR SCW 3966-1

2. Joseph Vs St. of Kerala , 1995 SCC (Cri) 165

3. Phool Chand Yadav Vs St. of U.P. , 2022 (4) ALJ 56

4. Ram Singh & ors. Vs St. of M.P., Gwalior Branch , MCRR No 5920 of 2018

(Delivered by Hon'ble Umesh Chandra Sharma, J.)

1. Heard Sri Sanjay Mishra, learned counsel for the applicant, Sri Pankaj Kumar Tripathi, learned A.G.A for the State as none appeared for opposite party no. 2 and perused the material available on record.

2. This application under Section 482 Cr.P.C has been moved by the applicant-accused persons to quash the order dated 26th July, 2018 passed by A.C.J.M Ist, Aligarh in Criminal Case no. 1021 of 2018 arising out of Criminal Case No. 222 of 2017 and order dated 16.04.2019 passed by the learned Sessions Judge, Aligarh in Criminal Revision No. 331 of 2018 - Shahnawaz and others Vs. State of U.P. under Section 147, 323, 324, 504, 506 and 326 I.P.C, Police Station Kotwali City, District Aligarh, pending in the Court of A.C.J.M Ist, Aligarh, by which both the courts below have passed the order against the applicant and the learned A.C.J.M Ist, Aligarh took the cognizance under the aforesaid Sections and the learned Sessions Judge dismissed the criminal revision against such order on 16.04.2019.

3. In brief, facts of the case are that opposite party no. 2 lodged N.C.R No. 58 of 2017, under Sections 323 and 506 I.P.C on 15.05.2017 at 11:40 p.m. against the applicant nos. 2 to 5, later on, which was converted into F.I.R on 26.05.2017 under Sections 323, 324 and 506 I.P.C as Crime No. 222 of 2017 against them. The opposite party No. 2 was medically examined on 16.05.2017 and supplementary medical report was prepared on 09.06.2017. Evidences were recorded under Section 161 Cr.P.C and a charge-sheet no. 194 of 2018 dated 29.06.2018 under Sections 147, 323, 324, 326, 504 & 506 I.P.C was submitted in the Court of A.C.J.M Ist Aligarh, who took cognizance by the order dated 26th July, 2018.

4. The petitioner no. 1 was married with opposite party no. 2 as per Muslim rites and ritual on 22.04.2014 and she left her matrimonial house without any sufficient cause and started living separately with her parents whereupon applicant no. 1 filed a petition for restitution of conjugal rights being case no. 873 of 2014 - Naazim Vs. Smt. Rukhsana in the Court of Principle Judge Family Court, Aligarh, but opposite party no. 2 did not appear and the petition was later on dismissed as withdrawn. The divorce petition between the petitioner no. 1 and opposite party no. 2 took place on 13.06.2017 and the petitioner no. 1 was again married on 11.05.2017 with Allia D/o Shamshad as per Muslim rites and rituals.

5. It appears that the opposite party no. 2 got annoyed after hearing the news of second marriage of the petitioner with Allia and therefore lodged a false report. The petitioner no. 1 is the husband of opposite party no. 2 (as per para 8 of the affidavit, she was divorced on 13.06.2017). The petitioner nos. 2 and 3 are Dewar, petitioner no. 4 is mother-in-law and petitioner no. 5 is sister-in-law (nanad) of opposite party no. 2. The petitioner no. 1 lodged a report against opposite party no. 2, Ayyub and Kaisar sons of Saeed, Parvez and Belal sons of Abrar Ahmad on 15.05.2017 in Case Crime No. 207 of 2017 under Sections 147, 148, 307, 452 and 504 I.P.C at P.S Kotwali Nagar, Aligarh. In the aforesaid incident Sharfaraz petitioner no. 2 sustained grievous injury and was medically examined on 15th May, 2017 and an x-ray report was also prepared on 16.05.2017.

6. The J.M Ist, Aligarh, summoned the accused persons including opposite party no. 2 by order dated 09.04.2018 as well as one Sultan for facing trial in the aforesaid Sections and rejected the final report no. 13 of 2017 dated 20th November, 2017. The opposite party no. 2 and other accused persons filed criminal revision no. 230 of 2018 - Rukhsana and others Vs. State of U.P and others which was dismissed on 17.09.2018.

7. Opposite party no. 2 and three others filed criminal misc. application no. 37751 of 2018 in the High Court, challenging both the above orders passed by A.C.J.M. Ist and the Revisional Court and further proceedings of the aforesaid case has been stayed vide order dated 22.10.2018.

8. The petitioner preferred criminal revision no. 331 of 2018 - Shahnawaz Vs. State of U.P in the Court of Sessions Judge, Aligarh, challenging the order dated 26.07.2018, passed by the learned Magistrate, and the dismissal order passed by the revisional court / Sessions Judge, Aligarh, vide order dated 16th April, 2019. Both the orders are illegal, arbitrary, without jurisdiction and are the abuse of process of the court and deserve to be quashed to secure the ends of justice.

9. The medical and supplementary report of opposite party no. 2 do not make out any offence under Section 326 I.P.C, therefore, the orders passed by the learned Magistrate and the revisional court are wholly illegal, arbitrary and are liable to be quashed.

10. The opposite party no. 2 did not appear for re-medical examination before the Medical Board despite the order dated 23.04.2018 of the S.S.P. Aligarh. The C.M.O, Aligarh by letter dated 04.05.2018 informed the S.S.P. regarding her non-appearance before the medical board for re-examination to ascertain the gravity and nature of injury sustained by her and lastly the C.M.O. by letter dated 21.05.2018 informed the S.S.P, Aligarh, that no useful purpose would be served by re-medical examination of opposite party no. 2 after a lapse of more than a year from the date of sustaining the alleged injury by her. The District Magistrate, by letter dated 30.05.2018 forwarded the aforesaid report of C.M.O to the S.S.P. Aligarh, therefore, nature of injury sustained by the opposite party no. 2 does not come within the purview of grievous injury under Sections 320 I.P.C and therefore, no offence is made out under Section 326 I.P.C.

11. Otherwise also entire proceeding initiated against the petitioners are malicious and is counterblast to the F.I.R. and summoning of opposite party nos. 2 and 3 and others on the basis of report lodged by the applicant no. 1. The petitioners are peace loving and law abiding person and have no criminal history to their credit. They are apprehending their arrest in pursuance of N.B.Ws issued against them in the present case, therefore, it is prayed that further proceedings of the present case lodged by the opposite party no. 2 described above and N.B.Ws be stayed.

12. The opposite party no. 2 has filed counter affidaivt (though it is not available on record), denying the contentions and allegations of the petition, and has said that the F.I.R lodged by her is true and correct and it is not a counterblast to the report lodged by the applicant and has said that a correct F.I.R has been lodged by the applicants and the impugned order passed by A.C.J.M. Ist and the learned Sessions Judge in revisional capacity are not liable to be quashed and the proceedings of the present case is not liable to be quashed.

13. Contrary to that the petitioners have filed rejoinder affidavit denying the para-wise contents of the counter affidavit and have reiterated the facts already mentioned in the petition. Heard and perused the record.

14. It transpires that both the parties have lodged the F.I.R against each other.

15 The F.I.R lodged by the applicant no. 1 against the opposite party no. 2 and others for an offence alleged to be committed on 15.05.2017 as per Crime No. 207 of 2017, under Sections 147, 148, 307, 452 & 504 I.P.C, P.S. Kotwali Nagar, Aligarh, has been stayed by this Court vide order dated 22.10.2018 passed in Criminal Application Nos. 37751 and 377 of 2018 under Section 482 Cr.P.C - Smt. Rukhsana and three others vs. State of U.P and another.

16. It also transpires that a N.C.R No. 58 of 2017 under Sections 323 and 506 I.P.C, has also been lodged for an offence alleged to be committed on 15.05.2017 against the applicants, which was later on converted into F.I.R as Crime No. 245 of 2017, considering the medical report of opposite party no. 2 and after investigation a charge-sheet under Sections 147, 323, 324, 325, 506 and 506 I.P.C had been submitted against the applicants of the present petition. It also transpires that there was discussion and dispute about the addition / non-addition of Section 326 I.P.C. during the investigation. Since the opposite party no. 2 did not appear for her re-medical examination as required by the C.M.O, District Magistrate, and the S.S.P, the I.O. had not submitted the charge-sheet under Section 326 I.P.C.

17. At the time of taking cognizance an exhaustive order has been passed by the learned A.C.J.M, Ist, Aligarh on 26.07.2018, concluding that there was hole in the drum of the left ear of the injured opposite party no. 2 Smt. Rukhsana, hence, it is also a case of Section 326 I.P.C and accordingly took cognizance against the applicants adding Section 326 I.PC alongwith rest of the Sections under which the charge-sheet had been submitted. This order had been challenged by the applicants through criminal revision no. 331 of 2018 - Shahnawaz & 4 Ors. Vs. State of U.P. in which the first informant had not been arrayed as opposite party. According to this Court, the opposite party no. 2 was the necessary party to the aforesaid revision and an opportunity of hearing was required to be provided to her also. However, the learned Sessions Judge dismissed the criminal revision affirming the order passed by A.C.J.M Ist Aligarh, on 16.04.2019 and concluded that it was not necessary for the Magistrate to be in consonance with the result of the I.O. The Magistrate has discretion to see as to which offence is made out against the accused persons at the time of taking cognizance and when the learned A.C.J.M Ist came to the conclusion that on the basis of material available on record, the accused should also be summoned under Section 326 I.P.C, he took cognizance against the accused persons under Section 326 I.P.C also, which cannot be said to be bad in the eye of law.

18. Being aggrieved, this petition has been preferred by the accused-applicants on the grounds that firstly, it is counter blast case lodged by the applicants against the opposite party no. 2 and other accused persons. Secondly, the medical report and the supplementary medical report of opposite party no. 2 did not make out any offence under Section 326 I.P.C as opposite party no. 2 did not appear for her re-medical examination before the medical board despite the order of the S.S.P and C.M.O, for the ascertainment of the nature of injury, therefore, the C.M.O Aligarh, informed the S.S.P. that after a lapse of more than a year from the date of occurrence if the injured is re-examined by the medical board, no useful purposes would be served. It has also been contended by the learned counsel for the applicants that the learned A.C.J.M Ist, Aligarh, was not competent enough to take the cognizance under Section 326 I.P.C, when no charge-sheet had been submitted under this Section. The learned counsel for the applicants contended that such an addition or alteration can be made only at the time of framing of charges and not at the stage of taking cognizance. The learned A.C.J.M. Ist has discussed Section 320 and Section 326 I.P.C and was of the opinion that the right ear injury sustained by the opposite party no. 2 falls under the category of grievous hurt under the third ingredient of Section 320 I.P.C according to which if there is permanent privation of hearing of either ear, the injury would be called to be grievous hurt.

19. The trial Court and the Revisional Court concluded that the victim's injury in the drum of the right ear as a hole would be caused to be grievous hurt under Section 320 I.P.C and according to Section 325 I.P.C if grievous hurt is caused voluntarily by means of any instrument for shooting, stabbing or cutting, or any instrument, which used as a weapon of offence is likely cause death, or by means of fire or any heated substance, or by means of any poison or any corrosive substance, or by means of any explosive substance, or by means of any substance, which it is deleterious to the human body to inhale, to swallow, or to receive into blood, or by means by any animal, shall be punishable with imprisonment for life, or with imprisonment of either description for a term, which may extend to ten years and shall also be liable to be fine and would be punishable under Section 326 I.P.C.

20. As per the F.I.R dated 15.05.2017 at about 5:30 p.m when opposite party no. 2 went to her matrimonial house, her relatives did not permit her to enter into the house and Dewar Sarfaraz, mother-in-law Anisha, and sister-in-law Farha beat her by their legs and fists and Dewar Shahnawaz attacked with knife, due to which she received injuries.

21. The last I.O. Dinesh Kumar, concluded that since no injury had been caused by any dangerous weapon in the drum of the right ear of the victim (opposite party no.2) and there is no loss of complete hearing capacity of her right ear, hence, Section 326 I.P.C would not be attracted and accordingly added Section 325 I.P.C.

22. Learned A.C.J.M Ist discussed Sections 320 and 326 I.P.C, pointed out the statements of the Doctor and opined that the injuries caused to the victim is grievous in nature and in the opinion of E.N.T Surgeon there was a hole in the right ear drum, hence, it was a grievous hurt. In respect of Section 326 I.P.C, the learned A.C.J.M.Ist was of the opinion that by the attack of stick and lathi, grievous fetal injury may be caused, but this Court is not inconsonance to the finding recorded by the learned A.C.J.M.Ist because in several other cases, it has been held by the Apex Court and the High Courts that stick and lathi are not the deadly weapons and it is nowhere mentioned, under Section 326 I.P.C that if any injury has been caused by stick or lathi, it would be covered under Section 326 I.P.C.

23. In paras 3 & 4 of the judgment passed in case of Dhanai Mahto and Anr. Vs. State of Bihar 2000 AIR SCW 3966-1, the Apex Court has held that bamboo-stick and lathies are not lethal or deadly weapons.

24. In para 3 of the judgment passed in the case of Joseph Vs. State of Kerala 1995 SCC (Cri) 165, it has been held that lathi is not a deadly weapon.

25. In paras 10 & 11 of the judgment passed in the case of Phool Chand Yadav Vs. State of U.P. 2022 (4) ALJ 56, it has been held that stick or lathi is not a deadly weapons.

26. In para 13 of the judgment passed in the case of Ram Singh and other Vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, Gwalior Branch, MCRR No 5920 of 2018 Section 320 and Section 326 I.P.C have been discussed, in which it has been held that lathi is not a dangerous weapons and if any injuries has been caused by lathi, it would not be covered under Sections 320 and 326 I.P.C.

27. According to this Court, only an injury in the nature of a hole in the right ear drum of opposite party no. 2 is not covered under Section 320 (thirdly) I.P.C. as there is no medical evidence to establish that there was a permanent privation of hearing of the right ear. It has been seen that if a hole has been made in the ear drum, there would not be permanent privation of the hearing capacity of the ear. In that case, certainly there would be some loss in hearing capacity, but it cannot be said that there would be complete loss of hearing capacity. If there is hundred percent loss of hearing capacity on account of such hole injury, certainly Section 320 I.P.C would attract and if any dangerous weapon or means mentioned under Section 326 I.P.C has been used in commission of crime only in that case, Section 326 I.P.C would apply.

28. Opposite party no. 2 Rukhsana has stated to the I.O under Section 161 Cr.P.C that Naazim hit on her right ear due to which blood started flowing from the ear.

29. This Court is of the considered view that if an stick is used in causing hurt or grievous hurt on the ear of a victim, Section 326 I.P.C would not be attracted, if such injury would have been caused by knife, or by other means mentioned in Section 326 I.P.C, such injury would be covered under Section 326 I.P.C provided there is hundred percent loss of hearing capacity of the concerned ear.

30. On the basis of above discussions, this Court is of the considered view that the injuries caused by stick in the right ear of the victim by Naazim can not be said to be a grievous hurt as there is no medical report that there has been permanent loss of hearing capacity of her right ear and also it can not be said that such injury is covered under Section 326 I.P.C.

31. From the above discussions, this Court is of the considered view that the learned A.C.J.M. Ist Aligarh and the then learned Sessions Judge, have been failed in appreciating the facts, the medical reports and the law in right perspective and have wrongly concluded that there was a grievous hurt defined under Section 320 (3) I.P.C to the opposite party no. 2, and punishable under Section 326 I.P.C.

32. The power of taking cognizance regarding taking cognizance has been considered by the Apex Court and the High Courts, and it has been concluded that at the time of taking cognizance, the concerned Magistrate has limited power and at this stage the learned Magistrate or the concerned Court can not add or alter Section(s), considering the case diary and the charge-sheet. If the concerned Magistrate or the Sessions Judge are of the view that some Section(s) have been left by the I.O, it has power to add or alter the Section(s) at the time of framing the charge, but not at the stage of taking cognizance.

33. On the basis of above, discussion this Court is of the considered view that taking cognizance and summoning the accused applicants under Section 326 I.P.C is bad in the eye of law and the judgment of the Revisional court is also not the correct preposition of law. Hence this application succeeds and is liable to be allowed.

O R D E R

This application under Section 482 Cr.P.C, is allowed with regard to taking cognizance and summoning t he applicants under Section 326 I.P.C by the learned A.C.J.M Ist, Aligarh, affirmed by the Revisional Court are accordingly quashed.

(2023) 4 ILRA 398
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 30.01.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE UMESH CHANDRA SHARMA, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 23506 of 2022

Vijay Gupta ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Sri Sandeep Kumar Dubey

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
A.S.G.I., G.A., Sri Rahul Anand Gaur

A. Criminal Law - Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973-Section 482 - Indian Penal Code,1860 - Sections 325, 323, & 504-Cross-case-In the present case the applicant seeks passport to pursue his studies within India-In both the cases, the police filed charge-sheet but till date charges have not been framed-The police has submitted wrong and contradictory report but the Passport Authority even without going through the report has refused to issue passport to the applicant for pursuing his educational course within India-Hence, the impugned order passed by ACJM that he has no jurisdiction to give 'No Objection Certificate' is against the law-Directions given.(Para 1 to 18)

The application is disposed of. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

Ravindra Nath Bhargav Vs St. of U.P. (2019) 0 Supreme (All) 194

(Delivered by Hon'ble Umesh Chandra Sharma, J.)

1. Heard Shri Sandeep Kumar Dubey, learned counsel for the applicant, Shri Rahul Anand Gaur, learned counsel for opposite party no.1 as well as learned A.G.A. for the State.

2. This application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. has been filed with the prayer to direct the opposite party no.3 to issue a passport to the applicant to pursue his Technical Course (Seafarer Course) in Maritime Training Institute (MTI), Howrah. Further prayer to quash the order dated 30.5.2022 passed by Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Bhadohi in Case No. 7253 of 2021 (State Vs. Guddu and Others) and to issue a 'No Objection Certificate' for issuing a passport to the applicant for pursuing the aforesaid course.

3. In brief, facts of the case are that one Pappu Gupta lodged an F.I.R. on 17..2021 at P.S.- Aurai, under Section 325, 323, 504 I.P.C. against the applicant and his two brothers. The father of the applicant has also filed a criminal case against the informant Pappu Gupta and his sons. In both the cases, the police filed a charge-sheet but till date charges have not been framed. After submission of the charge-sheet the trial Court has taken cognizance and the applicant was granted bail as the offences are bailable and triable by the Magistrate. Presently, the applicant is a student of B.Com IIIrd year. The MTI conducts seafarer training which is approved by the Director General of Shipping, Government of India, Mumbai which is for a period of six months and is held twice a year. The applicant applied for the said course. Under clause 9.1.(1) certain conditions for registration for admission in Maritime Training School have been prescribed. One of the conditions is 'The candidate must have a valid passport'. The copy of the brochure issued by MTI has been annexed as Annexure No. 2 to the petition. Since the applicant was not having passport, therefore, he applied for the same before opposite party no.3 and the application is annexed as Annexure No.3. On the application of the applicant, the opposite party no. 3 called for a police verification report and it appears that the police submitted report that the applicant is accused in Case No. 7253 of 2021 (State Vs. Guddu and Others) pending in the Court of Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Bhadohi at Gyanpur. The applicant having no alternative moved an application duly supported by affidavit in the aforesaid case before the Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Bhadohi for issuance of 'No Objection Certificate' for the purpose of issuing passport in favour of the applicant, copy of the application dated 27.4.2022 is annexed as Annexure No. 4. The learned Magistrate vide order dated 30.5.2022 held that the issue is not within his jurisdiction and hence 'No Objection Certificate' can not be issued in favour of the applicant and the application was disposed of. It is stated that the issue of passport is governed by Passports Act, 1967 and it comes under the jurisdiction of opposite party nos. 1 and 3. Under the Passports Act certain conditions have been prescribed under which the Passport Authority can refuse to issue the passport. The applicant has applied for the passport as the same is condition precedent for admission in MTI. The Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that under Article 19(1)(d) of Constitution of India the applicant is entitled to go throughout territory of India.

Further, non-issuance of Passport to the applicant to pursue his studies within India is an unreasonable restriction which is violative of Article 14, 19(1) (d) and 21 of the Constitution of India. In the case of Ravindra Nath Bhargava Vs. State of U.P. this Court had elaborately dealt with the circumstances under which the passport can be issued. In the present case the applicant seeks passport to pursue his studies within India due to the condition imposed by the government of India and, therefore, the opposite parties can not refuse to issue passport to the applicant.

4. A counter affidavit has been filed on behalf of opposite party no.3-Regional Passport Officer, Passport Office, Varanasi, alongwith affidavit of Kanishk Sharma, Regional Passport Officer, Lucknow, with the averments that on the adverse police verification report received on 14.12.2021, the passport facilities have been denied by the Authority.

5. The applicant has filed rejoinder affidavit with the averments that the police has submitted wrong and contradictory remark/report in which column no. 3 specifically provides that where the applicant has been convicted in any crime during the preceding 5 years and sentenced to imprisonment for 2 years or more than 2 years. However, respondent no. 3 even without going through the report has refused to issue passport to the applicant for pursuing his educational course within India.

6. The applicant has filed relevant papers as annexures with the petition. From the perusal of the papers, it is revealed that the applicant has passed High School in year 2016 and Intermediate in the Year 2018, he has also annexed mark-sheet of B.Com IInd year. The applicant has filed brochure as annexure no. 2 wherein as per clause 9.1. the first condition is that the candidate must have a valid passport. The applicant has filed application form as annexure no. 3. Copies of application and affidavit moved before the trial Court for issuance of 'No Objection Certificate' and order passed thereon have also been filed. The learned Magistrate has rejected the application on the ground that the issuance of 'No Objection Certificate' is not within his jurisdiction.

7. Certainly under Article 19(1)(d) and Article 21 of the Constitution of India, the citizens of the country are entitled for passport. In Maneka Gandhi Vs. Union of India (1978) AIR SC 597 the Apex Court has held that having passport is a fundamental right of the citizen of India and a citizen can not be deprived of such fundamental right. From the perusal of brochure it is established that having a valid passport is a condition precedent for admission in MTI. A citizen has right to education in India provided that they qualify for the admission in the concerned course.

8. For issuance of passport there is a declaration form in which at serial no. 5 following declaration has to be made by the applicant which is as under:

"I have not been charged with criminal proceedings nor is there any arrest warrant or summon pending before any Court of Law in India against me."

9. This condition is also in respect of criminal proceeding according to which a declaration has to be made that the applicant has not been convicted by any Court of Law in India for any criminal offence and has not been sentenced to imprisonment for two years or more than two years.

10. Learned A.G.A. concedes that the applicant is not convicted in any case by any Court of Law in India but certainly the impugned criminal case is pending against him.

11. The question arises as to whether the declaration at serial no. 5 regarding pendency of criminal proceeding is mandatory or directory in nature.

12. In this respect some relevant notifications issued by Ministry of External Affairs of Government of India are noted herein below:

"Ministry of External Affairs, Noti. No. G.S.R. 570(E), dated August 25, 1993, published in the Gazette of India, Extra., Part II, Section 3(i), dated 25th August, 1993, pp. 2-3, Sl. No. 289 [No. VI/401/37/79]

In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (a) of Section 22 of the Passports Act, 1967 (15 of 1967) and in suppression of the notification of the Government of India in the Ministry of External Affairs No. G.S.R. 298(E), dated the 14th April, 1976, the Central Government, being of the opinion that it is necessary in public interest to do so, hereby exempts citizens of India against whom proceedings in respect of an offence alleged to have been committed by them are pending before a criminal court in India and who produce orders from the court concerned permitting them to depart from India, from the operation of the provisions of clause (f) of sub-section (2) of Section 6 of the said Act, subject to the following conditions, namely :-

(a) the passport to be issued to every such citizen shall be issued -

(i) for the period specified in order of the court referred to above, if the court specified a period for which the passport has to be issued; or

(ii) if no period either for the issue of the passport for the travel abroad is specified in such order, the passport shall be issued for a period of one year;

(iii) if such order gives permission to travel abroad for a period less than one year, but does not specify the period of validity of the passport, the passport shall be issued for one year; or

(iv) if such order gives permission to travel abroad for a period exceeding one year, and does not specify the validity of the passport, then the passport shall be issued for the period of travel abroad specified in the order;

(b) any passport issued in terms of (a)(ii) and (a)(iii) above can be further renewed fr one year at a time, provided the applicant has not travelled abroad for the period sanctioned by the court; and provided further that, in the meantime, the order of the court is not cancelled or modified.

(c) any passport issued in terms of (a)(i) above can be further renewed only on the basis f a fresh court order specifying a further period of validity of the passport or specifying a period for travel abroad;

(d) the said citizen shall give an undertaking in writing to the passport-issuing authority that he shall, if required by the court concerned, appear before it at any time during the continuance in force of the passport so issued."

13. From the aforesaid notifications the Central Government has exempted those citizens against whom any criminal proceedings is pending in any Court of law in India on the pre condition that if the Court permits them to deport from India, the passport should be issued. It is noteworthy that in this case the applicant is not seeking issuance of passport for going abroad.

14. In Ravindra Nath Bhargav Vs. State of U.P. 2019 0 Supreme (All) 194, a coordinate Bench of this Court has held that :

"15. A careful reading of aforesaid provisions of the Passport Act and notification dated 25.08.1993 in the light of it's legislative backgrounds as mentioned above, it is clear that passport or travel document of a person, who is facing trial can be refused by the authority concerned during pendency of his criminal case, but there is no statutory bar for giving no objection by the court concerned. No hard and fast straight jacket formula can be laid down regarding issuance of permission or giving no objection by the court concerned. It is always discretion of the court concerned and depend upon the facts and circumstances of each case, act and conduct of the accused as well as nature of alleged offence committed by him and stage of trial, etc. Some time on account of enmity or ill will one party enmesh the other party in a frivolous criminal case to settle his personal score, therefore, in the interest of justice, it is necessary to consider all aspects of the matter and surrounding circumstances while granting or refusing the no objection for renewal or reissue of passport or travel documents by the court concerned."

15. In this case, the allegations against the applicant are not heinous in nature and are not triable by the Court of Sessions. A cross-case has also been lodged by the father of the applicant against the informant. The applicant does not seek the issuance of passport for visiting abroad but for admission in MTI which would help in building his personality. The purpose of obtaining passport is not for pleasure or picnic.

16. The applicant has been enlarged on bail on the execution of personal surety bonds. In case, he remains occupied in his training the proceeding of the case may go on through counsel. From the perusal of records it transpires that there is no need of the applicant for identification during trial as both the parties are well known to each other.

17. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the impugned order dated 30.5.2022 passed by learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Bhadohi, that he has no jurisdiction to give 'No Objection Certificate' is against the law and the same is liable to be quashed.

18. Accordingly, the application is disposed of with the following directions :-

(i) Applicant shall submit his undertaking along with his affidavit within a period of one month from the date of this order before the trial court concerned clearly mentioning that he will not leave India during pendency of his trial without prior permission of the trial court and he shall appear on each dates in the trial before the trial court.

(ii) In case the aforesaid undertaking is filed by the applicant as directed above, the trial court on demand by the applicant shall issue certified copy of undertaking given by the applicant within a week to him.

(iii) The applicant shall move a fresh application along with certified copy of this order and his aforesaid undertaking before the Passport Officer/authority concerned for renewal or reissue of his passport, as the case may be.

(iv) In case such application is moved by the applicant, the Passport Officer/authority concerned considering the case of the applicant afresh in the light of observation made by this Court in this order as well as contents of undertaking of the applicant, shall decide the application of the applicant in accordance with law within three weeks from the date of moving application by the applicant before him.

(2023) 4 ILRA 403
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 18.01.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE UMESH CHANDRA SHARMA, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 29856 of 2022

Riyazuddin & Ors. ...Applicants
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Sri Shams Tabrez Alam Ansari

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A.

A. Criminal Law - Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973- Section 482 - Indian Penal Code, 1860- Sections 498-A, 323, 504, 506 & ¾ D.P. Act-Challenge to-cognizance as well as summoning order-marriage performed 18 years before the alleged incident-no medical report in support of the prosecution version no date, time and place of the alleged incident has been given by the opposite party and the witnesses-no specific role has been assigned-no allegation of additional dowry-Learned Magistrate has not assigned the reason regarding not taking the cognizance under the impugned all sections-While taking cognizance only file was provided to the concerned Stenographer and he transcribed the order and thereafter without applying judicial mind, it was signed by the Judicial Magistrate-the learned Magistrate has not even thought to follow the relevant judicial precedents while passing the order-No prima facie case is made out-the impugned order is liable to be set aside.(Para 1 to 20)

The application is allowed. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

1. Kahkashan Kausar @ Sonam & ors. Vs St. of Bih. & ors. (2022) 0 Supreme (SC) 117

2. Lalita Kumari Vs St. of U.P. & ors. (2014) 2 SCC 1

3. Social Action forum for Manav Adhikar & anr. Vs UOI, Ministry of Law & Justice & ors. (2018) 10 SCC 443

4. Rajesh Sharma & ors. Vs St. of U.P. & anr.(2018) 10 SCC 472

5. Arnesh Kumar Vs St. of Bih. & anr. (2014) 8 SCC 273

6. Preeti Gupta & anr. Vs St. of Jharkhand & anr. (2010) 7 SCC 667

7. Geeta Mehrotra & anr. Vs St. of U.P. & anr. (2012) 10 SCC 741

8. K. Subba Rao Vs St. of Telangana (2018) 14 SCC 452

9. St. of Guj. Vs Girish Radhakrishnan Varde (2014) 1 JIC 595 SC

(Delivered by Hon'ble Umesh Chandra Sharma, J.)

1. Heard Shri Shams Tabrez Alam Ansari, learned counsel for the applicants and Shri Pankaj Kumar Tripathi, learned A.G.A for the State- opposite parties.

2. This application has been filed to quash the proceeding of Criminal Case No. 5150 of 2022 arising out of Crime No. 86 of 2021 under Sections 498-A, 323, 504, 506 I.P.C and Section ¾ Dowry Prohibition Act and Section ¾ of Muslim Women (Protection of Rights on Marriage) Act, 2020, Police Station Dohari-Ghat, District Mau, and the charge sheet dated 11.05.2019 as well as cognizance and summoning order dated 18.04.2022 passed by Judicial Magistrate F.T.C (Crime against Women), District Mau.

3. In brief, fact of the case are that the applicants lodged the aforesaid F.I.R in P.S. Madhuban, District- Mau, in which after investigation a charge-sheet has been submitted in the aforementioned Sections against the applicants upon which on 18.04.2022 cognizance has been taken and applicants are summoned as accused.

4. In the application and the affidavit the applicant has averred that the marriage of the applicant no. 1 and the opposite party no. 2 was solemnized on 03.03.2019 as per Muslim Rites & Rituals. The I.O had given notice under Section 41-A of the Cr.P.C to the applicants, they appeared and their statements were recorded by the I.O but he did not arrest them as they fully cooperated with the investigation.

5. From perusal of the F.I.R and the statements of the witnesses, no prima-facie offences under the aforesaid Sections are made out. There is no evidence to prosecute them. The marriage between the applicant nos. 5 and 6 (both are the wife and husband) was performed 18 years before the alleged incident; they are living in Village : Banzari, P.S. Ghosi, District Mau. There is 40 k.m. distance between both the village. The applicant no. 4 is also a married woman and lives in her matrimonial house with her husband, whereas applicant nos. 2 and 3 unmarried brother and sister are living with applicant no. 1, hence they had been falsely implicated in the present case.

6. The I.O. recorded the statement of Head Muharrir and added Section ¾ of Muslim Women (Protection of Rights of Marriage) Act, 2020. There is no medical report in support of the prosecution version no date, time and place of the alleged incident has been given by the Opposite party no. 2 and the witnesses, no specific role has been assigned except general role against all the applicants. There is no allegation of additional demand of dowry, learned Magistrate neither perused the charge-sheet nor applied his judicial mind and has taken cognizance under Sections 498-A, 323, 504 & 506, I.P.C and Section 4 of D.P. Act; while the charge-sheet was submitted under aforesaid Sections and also under Section ¾ D.P. Act and ¾ Muslim Women (Protection of Rights on Marriage) Act, 2020. The learned Magistrate has not assigned the reason regarding not taking the cognizance under the impugned all Sections.

7. Prior to the F.I.R, the opposite party had also filed a petition under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act, which was rejected by the concerned Court, thereafter, she filed an application under Section 125 Cr.P.C, which has also been rejected thereafter she filed second application under Section 125 Cr.P.C, which is still pending.

8. The applicants are wholly innocent and they have falsely been implicated in the present case. Opposite party no. 2 wanted to live separately, therefore the disputes arose with her husband, who refused her request thereafter she went to her parental house and never came back.

9. Learned counsel has annexed all the referred documents as annexures to the application; notice was personally served upon opposite party no. 2, but she did not turn up. However, the State has filed counter affidavit no. 1/22, in which State has denied all the allegations leveled in the application.

10. The applicants have filed rejoinder affidavit against the counter affidavit on 09.12.2022 and has reiterated and reaffirmed all the facts already narrated in the petition, denying the facts averred in the counter affidavit, but could not deny the allegation regarding triple Talak.

11. Heard and perused the record.

12. As per F.I.R, when the opposite party no. 2 refused to lift the case, the applicant no. 1 - Riyazuddin given her triple Talak on telephone at about 3:50 p.m on 04th January, 2021, thereafter she visited the house of Riyazuddin then he abused her and said that without Halala she cannot live/reside in the house. All the accused persons threatened to kill her if she comes again. Any untoward incident may occur at any time. This fact has also been affirmed by the informant in her statement. The informant's father Badruddin and mother Jolekha have also given similar statements in support of this allegations (regarding allegation of triple Talaak); the Head Constable Nasim Farukhi has stated that by mistake Section ¾ the Muslim Women (Protection of Rights on Marriage), Act, 2020 had been left, thereafter according to his statement Section ¾ Muslim Women (Protection of Rights on Marriage) Act, 2020 was also added; this fact has also been mentioned in the application moved under Section 125 Cr.P.C.

13. Learned counsel for the applicants has relied on the judgment Kahkashan Kaussar @ Sonam and Ors. Vs. State of Bihar & Ors. 2022 0 Supreme (SC) 117, in which, niece, mother-in-law, sister-in-law and brother-in-law were made accused and general allegations were levelled against them.

14. Earlier, the informant had also lodged F.I.R on 11.12.2017; the present F.I.R was lodged on 01.04.2019; seven accused persons including the husband were implicated, however, only five accused persons had challenged the F.I.R; the Apex Court has also relied on the citation Lalita Kumari Vs State of U.P. & Ors. (2014) 2 SCC 1 and Social Action Forum for Manav Adhikar & Another Vs. Union of India, Ministry of Law & Justice and Ors. (2018) 10 SCC 443.

15. The Apex Court held that now-a-days, a tendency is increased to apply provisions such as Section 498-A I.P.C as instrument to settle personal spores against the husband and his relatives. The Apex Court cited the previous judgment of Rajesh Sharma and others vs. State of U.P. & Anr. (2018) 10 SCC 472; Arnesh Kumar Vs. State of Bihar & Anr. (2014) 8 SCC 273, Preeti Gupta & Anr. Vs. State of Jharkhand & Anr., (2010) 7 SCC 667, Geeta Mehrotra & Anr. Vs. State of U.P & Anr. (2012) 10 SCC 741 and K. Subba Rao Vs. State of Telengana, (2018) 14 SCC 452 and observed that false implication by way of General and Ominibus allegations made in the course of matrimonial dispute, if left unchecked would result in misuse of process of law. Therefore, this Court by way of this judgment has warned the courts from proceedings against the relatives and in-laws of the husband if no prima-facie case is made out against them.

16. The Apex Court found that no specific and distinct allegations have been made against either of appellants herein. They have not been attributed any specific role in the cited case; the order of High Court Patna and the F.I.R was set aside.

17. Learned counsel for the applicants has relied on the Precedence State of Gujrat Vs. Girish Radhakrishnan Varde 2014 (1) J.I.C 595 (Supreme Court). In paragraph 13 of the judgment, it is held that the Magistrate cannot hold inquiry if any F.I.R is registered by the Police and charge-sheet has been submitted. The Magistrate cannot exclude or include any Section or any charge after submission of the charge-sheet.

18. In this case, the F.I.R had been lodged in the aforementioned Sections and the Charge-sheet has also been submitted under the same Sections, but while taking cognizance without assigning any reason only noting that there is sufficient ground for taking cognizance, the accused persons have been summoned under Sections 498-A, 323, 504, 506 I.P.C and Section 4 of the D.P. Act, why the cognizance was not taken under Section 3 D.P. Act, and under Section 3/4 the Muslim Women (Protection of Rights on Marriage), Act, 2020, no reason has been assigned. Even in the first para of the order, it is not written that the charge-sheet has been submitted under Section 3/4 D.P. Act and Section ¾ of the Muslim Women (Protection of Rights on Marriage), Act, 2020. It clearly shows and establishes that at the time of taking cognizance only file was provided to the concerned Stenographer that let the order be transcribed and thereafter without applying judicial mind, it was signed by the Judicial Magistrate F.T.C (Offence against Women), District Mau. It is matter of concern that when the officer is specially deputed for trial for offence against women, he did not pay attention as to why he was not taking cognizance under Section 3 D.P. Act and Section ¾ of the Muslim Women (Protection of Rights on Marriage), Act, 2020; so far as the applicability of the principles laid down in Kahkashan Kausar @ Sonam (supra) concerned, the learned Magistrate has not even thought to follow the relevant judicial precedents while passing the order.

19. In the aforesaid circumstances, this Court is of the view that to prevent the abuse of process of the Court and to secure the ends of justice there is no any alternative remedy except to exercise the inherent power under Section 482 Cr.P.C.

20. On the basis of the above discussions, the impugned order regarding cognizance is liable to be set aside.

O R D E R

21. In view of above, this application under Section 482 Cr.P.C is allowed.

22. The impinged order dated 18.04.2022, regarding taking cognizance by Judicial Magistrate F.T.C (Crime against Women), District Mau. is hereby set aside.

23. The learned Judicial Magistrate F.T.C (Offence against Women), District

Mau, is directed to go through the Case Diary and the Charge-sheet and thereafter pass afresh order in light of the observations made above.

24. The District Judge Mau, is directed to guide the concerned Judicial Officer.

(2023) 4 ILRA 407
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 10.04.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE UMESH CHANDRA SHARMA, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 32841 of 2008

Harish Chandra & Ors. ...Applicants
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Brijendra Kumar Ojha, Sri B.D. Sharma, Sri P.K. Dubey, Sri Suresh Dhar Dwivedi

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A., Sri Anupam Tripathi

A. Criminal Law - Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Section 482 & 311 - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 304, 323 & 504-Challenge to-Summoning order u/s 311 Cr.P.C-allowed-injured eye witnesses were medically examined and the original injury reports had been taken by the police-Police did not made them witness under the connivance of the accused persons while the proposed witnesses had received injuries with the deceased at the time of incident-Inspite of getting their medical report, their statement had not been recorded by the IO nor the same has not been annexed with the charge sheet-Mentioning the name of all witnesses in FIR or in statements u/s 161 Cr.P.C. is not a requirement of law-Such witnesses can also be examined by prosecution with the permission of the court-Non-mentioning of the name of any witness in the FIR would not justify rejection of evidence of eye-witnesses-Thus, the trial court rightly allowed the application.(Para 1 to 20)

B. The object underlying Section 311 CrPC is that there may not be failure of justice on account of mistake of either party in bringing the valuable evidence on record or leaving ambiguity in the statements of the witnesses examined from either side. The determinative factor is whether it is essential to the just decision of the case. It is, however, to be borne in mind that the discretionary power conferred u/s 311 Cr.PC has to be exercised judiciously.(Para 16)

The application is dismissed. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

1. Raja Ram Prasad Yadav Vs St. of Bih. & anr., (2013) AIR SC 3081

2. R.B. Mithani Vs St. of Mah. (1971) AIR SC1630

3. St. of Har. Vs Ram Prasad (2006) Cr.L.J. 1001

4. Shailendra Kumar Vs St. of Bih. (2002) SC 270

5. Ramasami Vs Sriniwasan (1987) 3 Crimes 89 Madras

6. Rama Paswan Vs St. of Jharkhand (2007) Crl. L.J. 2750

7. Popat Lal & ors. Vs St. of Mah. (2002) Crl L.J. 794

8. V.N. Patil Vs Niranjan Kumar & ors. (2021) 3 SCC 661

9. Bhagwan Singh Vs St. of M.P. (2002) 44 ACC 1112 SC

10. Raj Kishor Jha Vs St. of Bih. (2003) 47 ACC 1068 SC

11. Chittarlal Vs St. of Raj. (2003) 6 SCC 397

12. Shri Bhagwan Vs St. of Raj. (2001) 6 SCC 296

13. Satnam Singh Vs St. of Raj. (2000) 1 SCC 662

(Delivered by Hon'ble Umesh Chandra Sharma, J.)

1. This application has been made by the accused applicant to quash the order dated 31/10/2008 passed by Additional Sessions Judge, Court No. 02, Shahjanpur in S.T. No. 799 of 2007 - State Vs. Harish Chandra and others, under Sections 304, 323 and 504 IPC. Police Station Pobayan, District Shahjahanpur, by which the learned Trial Court allowed the Application 13-B U/s 311 Cr.PC and summoned Maina Devi and Usha Devi as witnesses.

2. Heard Sri Pawan Kumar Dubey, learned counsel for the applicants, Sri Pankaj Kumar Tripathi, learned A.G.A for the State and perused the record.

3. In brief, facts of the case are that complainant Ramesh Chandra lodged NCR No. 62 of 2007; against Harish Chandra, Matadeen, Sangam and ram Kumar and after death of injured Pankaj, the NCR was converted into FIR U/s 304, 323 and 504 IPC. IO recorded the statements of the informant and so called eye witness Babu Ram and after investigation submitted Charge sheet against the applicant under the aforesaid sections on 05/05/2007. from the bare perusal of the charge sheet it is crystal clear that the statement of the Maina Devi and Smt Usha Devi were neither recorded U/S 161 Cr.P.C nor a single word is mentioned in the case diary regarding their presence at the alleged place of incident that's why their name have not been mentioned in the list of witnesses. During the trial statements of PW1 Ramesh Chandra, PW-2 Babu Ram and PW-3 Sukhlal have been recorded.

4. On 06/05/2008 both the proposed witnesses moved an application U/s 311 Cr.PC before ASJ Court no. 02 Shahjahanpur with the prayer that on 02/04/2007 at the time of the incident they were with Pankaj and they received injuries during the course of saving the deceased, they are the injured eye witnesses and were medically examined on 05/04/2007 in PHC. Original injury reports had been taken by the police. They are annexing its photocopies. Police did not made them (injured) witness under the connivance of the accused persons. Accused are influential persons who have got all the witnesses hostile. Therefore for the just decision of the case the applicants be summoned as witness.

5. An objection was invited and considered and thereafter by the impugned order, application 13-B has been allowed by the trial court concluding that there is injury report in support of the application under section 311 CrPC. For just decision of the case any witness can be examined or re-examined at any stage U/s 311 CrPC and any person can be summoned for evidence.

6. Learned ASJ has wrongly and illegally allowed the application and summoned them as witness which is highly unjust, improper and against the correct provision of the law. Hence, the application be allowed and the impugned order be quashed.

7. For Connivance section 311 CrPC is produced as under :-

"Section 311 in The Code Of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

311. Power to summon material witness, or examine person present. Any Court may, at any stage of any inquiry, trial or other proceeding under this Code, summon any person as a witness, or examine any person in attendance, though not summoned as a witness, or. recall and re- examine any person already examined; and the Court shall summon and examine or recall and re- examine any such person if his evidence appears to it to be essential to the just decision of the case."

8. From the above, it is very much clear that there are two part of this Section. According to first part of the Section, the Court can exercise the power :-

(1) to summon any person as a witness, or.

(2) to examine any persons in attendance, though not summoned as a witness, or,

(3) to recall and re-examine any person already examined.

The second part, which is mandatory and imposes an obligation on the Court:-

(1) to summon and examine, or

(2) to recall and re-examine any such person, if his evidence appears to be essential to the just decision of the case.

9. In Raja Ram Prasad Yadav Vs. State of Bihar and Anr. A.I.R 2013 (SC) 3081, it has been held that it is, therefore imperative that invocation of Section 311 Cr.P.C and its application in a particular case can be ordered by the Court, only by bearing in mind the object and purport of the said provisions, namely, for achieving a just decision of the case. The power vested under the said provisions is made available to any court at any stage in any inquiry or trial or other proceedings initiated under the code for the purpose of summoning any person as a witness or for examining any persons in attendance, even though not summoned as witnesses or to re-call or re-examine any person in attendance. In so far as recalling and re-examining of any person already examined, the court must necessarily consider and ensure that such re-call and re-examination of any person, appears in the view of the court to be essential for the just decision of the case.

10. In R.B. Mithani Vs. State of Maharashtra, A.I.R. 1971, Supreme Court 1630, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that additional evidence summoned must be necessary not because, it would be impossible to pronounce judgement but also because there would be failure of justice without it. Though the power must be exercised sparingly and only in suitable case but once such action is justified, there is no restriction on the kinds of evidence, which may be received. It may be formal or substantial in nature.

11. In State of Haryana Vs. Ram Prasad 2006 Cr.L.J. 1001, the Punjab & Haryana High Court held that where the examination and re-examination of the witness is essential for the just decision of the case, it is obligatory of the Court to summon such a witness.

12. In Shailendra Kumar Vs. State of Bihar, A.I.R 2002 (Supreme Court) 270, it is held that if there is any negligence, latches or mistake by not examining material witness, the Courts function to render just decision by examining such witness at any stage is not, in any way impaired.

13. In Ramasami Vs. Sriniwasan 1987 (3) Crimes 89 Madras, it is held that the criminal court is not just umpire to deal only the material brought by the parties before it. The court has to play an active role in the administration of criminal jurisprudence. Though, it is not normal duty of the court to collect evidence, in cases where justice requires, the Court has power to further inquire into the matter in order to ascertain the truth.

14. In Rama Paswan Vs. State of Jhharkhand, 2007 Crl. L.J. 2750, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that it would not be improper, the exercise of the power of the Court to summon a witness under the Section merely because the evidence supports the case of the prosecution and not that of the accused. The Section is a general Section, which applies to all proceedings, inquiries and trials under the Court and empowers the Magistrate to issue summons to any witness at any stage of such proceedings, trial or inquiry.

15. The applicant-accused is of the view that by allowing the application under Section 311 Cr.P.C and by summoning the witnesses and keeping the documentary evidence on record, the accused-applicant have been prejudiced. In this respect in Popat Lal & Ors. Vs. State of Maharashtra, 2002, Crl.L.J. 794, the Bombay High Court has held that Section 311 Cr.P.C. is not granted only for the benefit of the accused and it will not be improper exercise of power of the Court, if the Court summons a witness only because the evidence will support the prosecution case and not the defence case.

16. In averment of para 14 to 17 in V.N Patil Vs. Niranjan Kumar and others, (2021) 3 SCC 661; are relevant hence they are reproduced as under :-

"14. The object underlying Section 311 CrPC is that there may not be failure of justice on account of mistake of either party in bringing the valuable evidence on record or leaving ambiguity in the statements of the witnesses examined from either side. The determinative factor is whether it is essential to the just decision of the case. The significant expression that occurs is "at any stage of any inquiry or trial or other proceeding under this Code". It is, however, to be borne in mind that the discretionary power conferred under Section 311 CrPC has to be exercised judiciously, as it is always said "wider the power, greater is the necessity of caution while exercise of judicious discretion".

15. The principles related to the exercise of the power under Section 311 CrPC have been well settled by this Court in Vijay Kumar v. State of U.P., (2011) 8 SCC 136 : (2011) 3 SCC (Cri) 371 : (2012) 1 SCC (L&S) 240 : (SCC p. 141, para 17)

"17. Though Section 311 confers vast discretion upon the court and is expressed in the widest possible terms, the discretionary power under the said section can be invoked only for the ends of justice. Discretionary power should be exercised consistently with the provisions of the Code and the principles of criminal law. The discretionary power conferred under Section 311 has to be exercised judicially for reasons stated by the court and not arbitrarily or capriciously. Before directing the learned Special Judge to examine Smt Ruchi Saxena as a court witness, the High Court did not examine the reasons assigned by the learned Special Judge as to why it was not necessary to examine her as a court witness and has given the impugned direction without assigning any reason."

16. This principle has been further reiterated in Mannan Shaikh v. State of W.B., (2014) 13 SCC 59 : (2014) 5 SCC (Cri) 547 and thereafter in Ratanlal v. Prahlad Jat, (2017) 9 SCC 340 : (2017) 3

SCC (Cri) 729 and Swapan Kumar Chatterjee v. CBI, (2019) 14 SCC 328 : (2019) 4 SCC (Cri) 839 . The relevant paragraphs of Swapan Kumar Chatterjee v. CBI, (2019) 14 SCC 328 : (2019) 4 SCC (Cri) 839 are as under: Swapan Kumar Chatterjee v. CBI, (2019) 14 SCC 328 : (2019) 4 SCC (Cri) 839, SCC p. 331, paras 10-11)

"10. The first part of this section which is permissive gives purely discretionary authority to the criminal court and enables it at any stage of inquiry, trial or other proceedings under the Code to act in one of the three ways, namely, (i) to summon any person as a witness; or (ii) to examine any person in attendance, though not summoned as a witness; or (iii) to recall and re-examine any person already examined. The second part, which is mandatory, imposes an obligation on the court (i) to summon and examine, or (ii) to recall and re-examine any such person if his evidence appears to be essential to the just decision of the case.

11. It is well settled that the power conferred under Section 311 should be invoked by the court only to meet the ends of justice. The power is to be exercised only for strong and valid reasons and it should be exercised with great caution and circumspection. The court has vide power under this section to even recall witnesses for re-examination or further examination, necessary in the interest of justice, but the same has to be exercised after taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of each case. The power under this provision shall not be exercised if the court is of the view that the application has been filed as an abuse of the process of law."

17. The aim of every court is to discover the truth. Section 311 CrPC is one of many such provisions which strengthen the arms of a court in its effort to unearth the truth by procedure sanctioned by law. At the same time, the discretionary power vested under Section 311 CrPC has to be exercised judiciously for strong and valid reasons and with caution and circumspection to meet the ends of justice.

In the aforesaid case, the appeal was allowed by the apex court and the order of High Court was set aside and order of the trial court regarding summoning of the witnesses and production of document was restored.

17. Mentioning the name of all witnesses in FIR or in statements u/s 161 CrPC is not a requirement of law. Such witnesses can also be examined by prosecution with the permission of the court. Non-mentioning of the name of any witness in the FIR would not justify rejection of evidence of the eye-witness. In para 13 of Bhagwan Singh Vs. State of M.P, 2002 (44) ACC 1112 (SC) it was held that that there is no requirement of law for mentioning the names of all the witnesses in the FIR, the object of which is only to set the criminal law in motion. In the cited case Kiran (PW 7) herself was injured and being the niece of Hari Ram (deceased), had no reason to involve innocent persons in the commission of the crime.

Instead of the above citation in Raj Kishor Jha Vs. State of Bihar, 2003 (47) ACC 1068 (SC), Chittarlal Vs. State of Rajasthan, (2003) 6 SCC 397, Shri Bhagwan Vs. State of Rajasthan, (2001) 6 SCC 296, Satnam Singh Vs. State of Rajasthan, (2000) 1 SCC 662, the apex court has held similar principles of law.

18. The trial court has ample power to summon any person as witness for the just decision of the case. In this case when according to the proposed witnesses they had received injuries with the deceased on and at the time of the incident and they had also been medically examined even then their statements had not been recorded by the IO and in spite of getting their medical report, the same has not been annexed with the charge sheet and when there is serious allegation against the IO that he was under the connivance with the accused persons that's why they (the alleged injured eye witnesses) had not been mentioned as witnesses to weaken the prosecution case, this court is of the view that in the aforesaid circumstances it was bounden duty of the court to summon and examine the aforesaid witnesses. In the aforesaid circumstances the trail court has rightly allowed the application and ordered to examine the applicants for just decision of the case.

19. Thus, it cannot be said that by passing such order the trial court is trying to fill up the lacuna of the prosecution. The impugned order is based on sound and cogent reason. The applicants could not establish any ground on which basis this court may exercise its inherent jurisdiction as the impugned order is not the abuse of the process of the court. Hence the application is liable to be rejected.

O R D E R

20. The application u/s 482 Cr.P.C is accordingly dismissed.

Let the copy of this judgement be sent to the court concerned.

(2023) 4 ILRA 412
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 11.04.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE UMESH CHANDRA SHARMA, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 34664 of 2022

Saurabh ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Ms. Manju Pandey

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A., Sri M.P.S. Chauhan

A. Criminal Law - Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Section 482 - Indian Penal Code,1860 - Sections 363, 366& 376 & ¾ POCSO Act, 2012-Quashing of Chargesheet as well as Cognizance order-victim being minor girl cannot give her consent with regard to conversion of her religion-if a physical relation is established with or without consent of girl below the age of 18 years, it would not be a valid consent-More so, there is no record of the proceedings of Habeas Corpus Writ Petition to strengthen the version of the applicant that the victim had stated in favour of the applicant in High Court-Therefore, it may be said that such person had been kidnapped from her lawful guardianship-Hence, the ongoing criminal proceedings cannot be concluded the abuse of process of court.(Para 1 to 16)

The application is rejected. (E-6)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Umesh Chandra Sharma, J.)

1. Learned A.G.A has filed counter affidavit in Court, which is taken on record.

2. No rejoinder affidavit has been filed by the applicant.

3. Heard Ms. Manju Pandey, learned counsel for the applicant, Sri M.P.S. Chauhan, learned counsel for opposite party no. 2 and Sri Pankaj Kumar Tripathi, learned A.G.A for the State and perused the record.

4. Opposite party no. 2 is personally served, but he has not came forward to oppose the applicant and has also not filed any objection/counter affidavit, but on the date of hearing Sri M.P.S. Chauhan, learned counsel for the opposite party no. 2. is present.

5. The present application under Section 482 Cr.P.C has been instituted by the applicant to quash the Charge-Sheet No. 93 of 2022 date 16.05.2022 as well as cognizance order dated 02.06.2022 passed by Additional District Judge / Special Judge (POCSO Act), Bulandshahr, in Case No. 2488 of 2022 - State Vs. Saurabh, arising out of Crime No. 82 of 2022 under Sections 363, 366, 376 I.P.C and ¾ POCSO Act, Police Station Araniya, District Bulandshahr, pending in the aforesaid court.

6. In brief, the facts of the case are that opposite party no. 2, lodged F.I.R on 12.03.2022 against the applicant stating therein that on 11.03.2022 applicant's minor daughter Nargis aged about 17 years had gone to the filed from the house to preserve the wheat crops from the Neel Gai (Boselaphus Tragocamelus) (blue bull). After some time his wife Sabnam and nephew Liyaquat reached there and saw that neighbour Saurav S/o Devi Lal was taking away his minor daughter alluring on a black motorcycle on the road to village Ghatal. They returned the home and informed him, they search them but could not find, hence his F.I.R be lodged and necessary action be taken. After investigation the charge-sheet has been submitted in the aforesaid Sections against the applicant and a charge-sheet has also been submitted against accused Waris S/o Nanhey Khan, under Sections 363 and 366 I.P.C.

7. The applicant has taken ground that the I.O. has submitted the charge-sheet without proper investigation, virtually the applicant and the informant's daughter loved each other and solemnized marriage on 15.03.2022 in Naini Arya Samaj Mandir. Copy of the marriage certificate has been annexed as Annexure no. 3 to the affidavit. Since the daughter of opposite party no. 2 was Muslim by religion, therefore before the marriage she converted herself as Hindu and changed her name from Nargis to Soni Arya and thereafter she approached the Hon'ble High Court by way of Habeas Corpus Writ Petition No. 604 of 2022, which is Annexure No. 4 to the affidavit. During the course of hearing, the Hon'ble High Court summoned his wife with opposite party no. 2. The victim (daughter of the informant) expressed her wish in the Court to go with the applicant at her freewill and without any pressure. Therefore, the allegations against the applicant are baseless and fabricated.

8. There is no criminal history of the applicant and there is no likelihood of his abscondance, hence the application be allowed and the aforesaid criminal proceeding and cognizance order be quashed.

9. The applicant has filed a supplementary affidavit to the effect that at the time of incident, the applicant's daughter was 17 years and eight months of age and she has stated in her statement to the I.O. that at the time of the incident she was 18 years old, she was in love with Suresh, she wanted to with marry him. When she was produced for medical examination, she denied internal and external examination and also stated that she married with the applicant on 10th March, 2022 at her own will and wish and wanted to live with him. Even, in the statement under Section 164 Cr.P.C. the victim has stated to the concerned Magistrate that her age was 18 years, she had gone with the applicant at her own will and wishes. She wanted to marry and live with the applicant without any pressure. The applicant has not committed any illegal act with her. Due to evil intention the informant obtained age certificate from the concerned Nagar Nigam, in which the age of the victim has wrongly been mentioned as 14th July, 2004 only to harass the applicant. She has also stated in the Hon'ble Court that the applicant has not committed any illegal act with her.

10. Opposite party no. 2 has filed counter affidavit dated 29th January, 2023, that no cause of action has arisen to the applicant to file the present application. The I.O. has submitted charge-sheet after proper investigation and the concerned Judge has taken cognizance on the basis of the facts and evidences available on record. At the time of commission of crime the victim was a minor girl and her date of birth was 14th July, 2004, therefore, at the time of incident she was 17th years and 07 months and 27 days old. There is no relevancy of marriage certificate issued by Aarya Samaj Krishna Nagar, Prayagraj. The victim had neither converted her religion, nor she went with the accused at her sweet will. The victim never married the applicant, she never wished to go with the applicant, virtually she refused to go with the applicant and their habeas corpus writ petition was dismissed by the Hon'ble Court. prima-facie a case under Sections 363, 366, 376 I.P.C and 3/4 POCSO Act is made out against the applicant.

11. The applicant could not make any prima-facie case for interference by this Hon'ble Court for exercising jurisdiction under Section 482 Cr.P.C. The victim has given statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C under the pressure of the applicant and the Police. Under the Police pressure she refused to conduct the medical examination. She has given statement under Section 164 Cr.P.C in present of Police. At the time of incidence and alleged conversion she was minor, therefore there is no relevancy of the aforesaid conversion certificate. Therefore the application be rejected on heavy cost.

12. Heard and perused the record.

13. According to the applicant, at the time of alleged occurrence, the victim was a major girl and she was able to contact physical relation/cohabitation with the accused. She was also able to convert her religion. She was in love with the accused and after converting her religion, she married with the applicant in Arya Samaj Temple, Naini, Allahabad. She also admitted the above facts in High Court in Habeas Corpus Writ Petition No. 604 of 2022. She was neither kidnapped nor abducted nor she was raped. She was not below the age of 18 years, hence there is no applicability of Sections 363, 366, 376 I.P.C and ¾ POCSO Act. Hence the entire proceedings be quashed.

14. Contrary to that from perusal of record, it transpires that as per school leaving certificate of Class-IV, the date of birth of the victim is 14.07.2004, hence, she was below the age of 18 years at the time of alleged commission of crime. It is common principle of law that a person below the age of 18 years cannot give consent with regard to conversion of his or her religion and such person cannot give consent with regard to Section 376 I.P.C as Section 375 I.P.C provides that if a physical relation is being established with or without consent of a lady below 18 years of age, it would not be a valid consent and in that case physical relation with such minor girl would be deemed to be raped under the definition of Section 375 I.P.C. There is no record of the proceedings of Habeas Corpus Writ Petition No. 604 of 2022 to strengthen the version of the applicant that the victim had stated in favour of the applicant in High Court. There is no proof that father of the victim had changed her actual date of birth. If a person is below the age of 18 years and he/she is taken away from his/her lawful guardianship, it may be said that such person had been kidnapped. After due investigation a charge-sheet has been submitted against the accused under Section 363, 366, 376 I.P.C and ¾ POCSO Act, hence, on the basis of evidence on record, it cannot be concluded that ongoing criminal proceeding is the abuse of process of Court and to prevent such abuse or to secure the ends of justice, this Court should exercise its inherent jurisdiction to quash the entire criminal proceeding in question .

15. Hence, the proceedings under Section 482 Cr.P.C is not tenable and is liable to be rejected.

O R D E R

16. The application under Section 482 Cr.P.C is accordingly rejected.

(2023) 4 ILRA 415

ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 07.02.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE UMESH CHANDRA SHARMA, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 35720 of 2022

Sudesh Pal ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Sri Ayank Mishra

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A.

A. Criminal Law - Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Section 482 - Indian Penal Code,1860-Sections 498-A, 504, 304-B, 306 & ¾ D.P. Act-demand of dowry-unnatural death-wife committed suicide after institution of divorce petition by the applicant/husband-chargesheet was filed against the accused/applicant u/s 304B, 306 alongwith Section 498-As per the postmortem report, the cause of death was shock and haemorrhage as a result of anti-mortem injury-The evidence is not clear that she committed suicide or she was killed-At the stage of charge, benefit of doubt cannot be given to the accused and in such cases alternative charge u/s 304B and 302 IPC could be framed along with charge u/s 498-A IPC-When a charge is framed u/s 302 IPC, it does not mean that the trial court is determined to convict the accused u/s 302 IPC-It is only as a matter of abundant caution and to give respect to the directions given in this respect by Apex Court, charge u/s 302 IPC is only alternative-Sections 304B and 306 IPC are two different sections, which cannot sail together-An alternative charge may be framed u/s 302 IPC, but no alternative charge should be framed u/s 306 IPC-Thus, the trial court has wrongly framed an alternative charge u/s 306 IPC.(Para 1 to 13)

The application is partly allowed. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

1. K. Prema S. Rao Vs Yadla Srinivas Rao, (2003) AIR SC 11

2. Balool Vs St. of Raj. (2003) Cr.L.J. 3286

3. Rajbir Vs St. of Har. (2011) AIR SC 568

(Delivered by Hon'ble Umesh Chandra Sharma, J.)

1. Heard Sri Ayank Mishra, learned counsel for the applicant, Sri Pankaj Kumar Tripathi, learned A.G.A for the State and perused the record.

2. The applicant has filed the present Application U/s 482 Cr.P.C to quash the entire proceeding under Sections 498-A, 504, 304-B, 306 I.P.C and Section ¾ Dowry Prohibition Act, arising out of Crime No. 45 of 2021, Police Station Daurala, District Meerut, pending in the Court of C.J.M. Meerut on the ground that the daughter of the informant opposite party no. 2, who was the wife of the applicant committed suicide after institution of divorce petition by the applicant. According to the F.I.R, the marriage of the daughter of opposite party no. 2 was solemnized with the applicant on 19.11.2018. The family members were not satisfied with the dowry and they were pressurising the deceased (Mohini) for providing a car in dowry, which could not be fulfilled, hence she was ousted from her matrimonial house on 04.06.2020 and when she came to know about the divorce petition, she committed suicide. According to the applicant, the F.I.R has been lodged after a lapse of a week without any explanation for the delay in lodging the F.I.R, thereafter the I.O. started investigation and recorded the statement of the informant and prepared site plan. As per the postmortem report, the cause of death was shock and haemorrhage as a result of anti-mortem injury. In the F.I.R, the complainant has specifically averred that his daughter has committed suicide. The I.O. recorded the statement of the witnesses - Kushal Pal, Sattya Pal and Shyamveer. From the version of the prosecution story, only Section 306 I.P.C is attracted. But after the investigation, the I.O. submitted the charge-sheet under Sections 498-A, 323, 504, 506, 304-B I.PC and ¾ Dowry Prohibition Act.

3. The I.O has overlooked the guidelines issued by the Apex Court in several judgments, wherein the implication of the entire family had been forbidden. The I.O. has investigated the case in a very casual manner. Sections 306 and 304-B I.P.C are two different Sections, which cannot sail together.

4. The present case is the best example of misuse of the procedure. The Sessions Court has framed an alternative charge under Section 306 I.P.C alongwith Section 304-B I.P.C. From the bare perusal of the F.I.R, no offence under the aforesaid Sections are made out. The applicant is wholly innocent and has been falsely implicated in the aforesaid case. He did not demand any dowry and did not commit any cruelty or assault against the deceased. The prosecution is based on malicious intentions and is not sustainable in the eye of law. The applicant has good moral character and has no criminal history, if the present proceeding is not quashed, he would suffer irreparable loss and injury, hence the proceeding of the S.T NO 105 of 2022 mentioned above be set aside.

5. The applicant has annexed all the relevant papers with the application.

6. Heard and perused the record.

7. During the argument, the learned counsel for the applicant did not argue on all of the aspects and facts mentioned in the application, but has argued only on the point that if a charge is framed under Section 304-B I.P.C, then no alternative charge under Section 306 I.P.C could be framed.

8. This Court is of the view that if the charge-sheet has submitted under Section 304-B of the I.P.C an alternative charge under Section 302 I.P.C alongwith the main charge under Section 304-B I.P.C, shall be framed but no alternative charge should be framed under Section 306 I.P.C. The reason behind this is that if in a criminal case a charge under Section 304-B I.P.C is being framed and the prosecution succeeds in proving the case beyond reasonable doubt, the accused may be convicted under Section 304-B and if the trial court comes to the conclusion that it is a case of abatement to commit suicide, the court can very well punish the accused under Section 306 I.P.C even in the absence of charge under Section 306 I.P.C as the punishment under Section 306 I.P.C is lesser than the punishment provided under Section 304-B I.P.C. In K. Prema S. Rao Vs. Yadla Srinivas Rao, A.I.R 2003 S.C 11 and in Balool Vs. State of Rajasthan (2003) Cr.L.J. 3286, it is held that the accused persons charged under Sections 498-A, 304-B and 120-B I.P.C, can be convicted under Section 306 I.P.C, if evidence proves the same, even if no charge under Section 306 I.P.C has been framed.

9. The Apex Court has held in Rajbir Vs. State of Haryana, AIR 2011 SC 568 that if a charge-sheet has been submitted under Section 304-B I.P.C, an alternative charge under Section 302 should be framed; and if the court comes to the conclusion that the accused is guilty under Section 302 I.P.C, in that case the accused may be convicted and punished under Section 302 I.P.C because the sentence provided under Section 302 I.P.C is more severe than the punishment provided under Section 304-B I.P.C. The Apex Court in Rajbir (supra) has directed all the trial courts in India to ordinarily add Section 302 I.P.C to the charge of Section 304-B I.P.C. In this regard Registrar Generals of all the High Courts have been directed to circulate this judgment to all the trial courts in India.

10. Thus this Court is of the considered view that an alternative charge may be framed under Section 302 I.P.C, but no alternative charge should be framed under Section 306 I.P.C.

11. So far as the innocence or guilt of the accused is concerned, at the very outset a charge-sheet under Section 304-B I.P.C. has been filed and there is an unnatural death of the deceased during the subsistence of the marital relation between the applicant and the deceased and there was a matrimonial dispute between the wife and the husband and a divorce petition was also filed by the applicant. This Court is not competent to decide the fact and evaluate the evidence under Section 482 Cr.P.C, therefore no case is made out to quash the entire proceeding of the concerned sessions trial.

12. On the basis the aforesaid discussions, the Court comes to the conclusion that the trial court has wrongly framed an alternative Charge under Section 306 I.P.C, therefore this Application U/s 482 Cr.P.C is liable to be allowed partly.

O R D E R

13. The application is partly allowed in respect of framing of alternative charge under Section 306 I.P.C on 01.08.2022 and the alternative charge framed under Section 306 I.P.C is set aside. The learned trial court is directed to frame the charge afresh. The charges so framed may also be altered exercising the power conferred under Section 216 Cr.P.C. instead of framing the fresh charges.

A copy of this order be sent to the concerned court for compliance. O

(2023) 4 ILRA 418
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 12.01.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE UMESH CHANDRA SHARMA, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 35979 of 2022

Nadeem Salmani ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Sri A.C. Srivastava

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A.

A. Criminal Law - Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Section 482 - Indian Penal Code, 1860-Sections 392, & 413/34-Quashing of Non-bailable Warrant-I-Phone mobile was looted and 20 mobile phones were recovered from the possession of accused persons-In the present case, the applicant having full knowledge that he was wanted in this case as accused, neither made him available for interrogation to the I.O. nor moved any form of bail application-the Impugned order was passed by the custody of the I.O. for the aid in investigation-There is no bar for issuance of non-bailable against any accused during the investigation in order to bring the accused before the Magistrate within twenty four hours from the time of his arrest, After arrest he may be sent either to judicial or the police custody as the case may be-Therefore the order passed by the concerned Magistrate being in accordance with law is not liable to be set aside.(Para 1 to 21)

The application is dismissed. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

1. Ekta @ Bulbul Vs St. of U.P. & anr. Appl. u/s 482 No. 30391 of 2016

2. St. thru CBI Vs Dawood Ibrahim Kaskar & ors. (1997) AIR SC 2494

3. D.K. Basu Vs St. of W.B. (1997) 1 SCC 416

4. Harendra Vs St. of U.P. & ors., CRLR No. 3468 of 2013

5. Smt. Pragati Chaudhary @ Pragati Singhal Vs St. of U.P. & anr.,Appl. u/s 482 No. 2994 of 2018

6. Manoj @ Ase & ors. Vs St. of U.P., CRLR No. 2827 of 2010

(Delivered by Hon'ble Umesh Chandra Sharma, J.)

1. Heard Sri A.C. Srivastava, learned counsel for the applicant, Sri Pankaj Kumar Tripathi, learned A.G.A for the State, and perused the material available on record.

2. This Criminal Misc. Application has been moved by the applicant under Section 482 Cr.P.C against the order dated 02.09.2022 passed by the Special Chief Judicial Magistrate, Meerut in Case Crime No. 303 of 2021 under Sections 392, 413/34 I.P.C Police Station Delhi Gate, district Meerut, by which non-bailable warrant was issued against the accused-applicant on the application of Investigating Officer of the case.

3. In brief, facts of the case are that one Ramesh Katiyar, R/o Lucknow had come to Meerut to attend the Samajwaadi Rally on 07.12.2021 and had been stayed in Meerut. On 08.12.2021 when he was going towards Ghantaghar and was talking with someone familiar near the ladies hospital, an unknown person fled away taking his red colour Apple I phone mobile at about 5:00 p.m. towards Chhatripeer.

4. On 08.12.2021 five accused persons were arrested near the Town Hall at Gandhi Park and four accused persons succeeded in fleeing. Total 20 mobiles were recovered from their possession. On asking, they informed that the red colour I Phone mobile was also looted by them, they informed that accused Irfan and Sharad Goswami had succeeded in fleeing. They also informed that their gang leader is Inaam the and the Boss is Sharad Goswami and two others are Irfan and Mahfooz, who had succeeded in escaping, it appears that during the course of investigation the name of the applicant also came into picture and the I.O. came to the conclusion that the informant Nadeem Saqulani is also one of the gang member and the accused. It appears that when the accused could not be arrested, an application was moved by the I.O. Mahendra Singh on 01.09.2022 submitted by the competent authority upon which the Special Chief Judicial Magistrate, Meerut called for a report from the office, who reported that the applicant accused Nadeem Saqulani has not moved any application in the concerned crime no. 303 of 2021 under Sections 392, 413/34 I.P.C. After investigation a charge-sheet under Section 392/34 I.P.C was submitted against the accused persons in which cognizance has been taken by the concerned Court.

5. On 01.09.2022 an application was submitted by the I.O. Gajendra Singh, S.I, Police Station Delhi Gate, Meerut that the wanted accused-applicant Nadeem Salmani is absconding and hiding his identity and is in the process of disbursing his immovable property, therefore a non bailable warrant was issued against him by the Special Chief Judicial Magistrate, Meerut on 02.09.2022. The application and the impugned order are as under:-

"रिपोर्ट थाना देहलीगेट जनपद मेरठ।

सेवा में,

माननीय न्यायालय श्रीमान स्पेशल सीजे०एम महोदय

जनपद मेरठ।

विषयः- मु०अ०सं० 303/21 धारा 392/413/34 भादवि में प्रकाश में आये वांछित अभियुक्त नदीम सलमानी पुत्र सलीम सलमानी निवासी 242 कुएं वाली गली कोटला थाना देहलीगेट मेरठ के गैर जमानती वारण्ट जारी करने के सम्बन्ध में।

महोदय,

सादर निवेदन है कि मु०अ०सं० 303/21 धारा 392/413/34 भादवि में प्रकाश में आये वांछित अभियुक्त नदीम सलमानी पुत्र सलीम सलमानी निवासी 242 कुएं वाली गली कोटला थाना देहलीगेट मेरठ के विरुद्ध गिरफ्तारी के सम्बन्ध में काफी प्रयास किये गये है किन्तु अभियुक्त नदीम सलमानी उपरोक्त अपने मसकन से फरार है और अपनी पहचान छिपाये हुये है तथा चोरी छिपे अपनी अचल सम्पत्ति को खुर्द बुर्द कर फरार होने की फिराक में है। माननीय न्यायालय से अनुरोध है कि अभियुक्त नदीम सलमानी उपरोक्त के विरुद्ध गैर जमानती वारण्ट जारी करने की कृपा करें।

रिपोर्ट सादर सेवा मे प्रेषित है।

(गजेन्द्र सिंह)

उ०नि०

थाना देहलीगेट मेरठ।"

x x x

"न्यायालय विशेष मुख्य न्यायिक मजिस्ट्रेट, मेरठ।

मु०अ०सं० 303/2021

धारा 392,413,34 भा०द०सं०,

थाना देहली गेट, जिला मेरठ।

02.09.2022-

मु०अ०सं० 303/2021, धारा 392,413,34 भा०द०सं० थाना देहली गेट, जिला मेरठ के अभियोग में विवेचक गजेन्द्र सिंह के द्वारा अभियुक्त नदीम सलमानी पुत्र सलीम सलमानी, निवासी 242 कुए वाली गली, कोटला, मेरठ के विरुद्ध गैर जमानती वारन्ट निर्गत किये जाने हेतु प्रस्तुत किया गया है।

विवेचक द्वारा अपने प्रार्थना पत्र में कहा गया है कि अभियुक्त की गिरफ्तारी हेतु कई बार दबिश दी गयी, परन्तु वे फरार चल रहे हैं।

अभियोजन प्रपत्रों का अवलोकन किया। विवेचक के अनुसार अभियुक्त की गिरफ्तारी हेतु कई बार दबिश दी गयी, परन्तु वह फरार चल रहा है।

कार्यालय रिपोर्ट के अनुसार अभियुक्त उपरोक्त की ओर से कोई आत्म समर्पण प्रार्थना पत्र न्यायालय में लम्बित नहीं है और न ही माननीय उच्च न्यायालय का कोई स्थगन आदेश प्राप्त है। चूंकि अभियुक्त उपरोक्त मामले में वांछित है और उसके निकट भविष्य में न्यायालय में उपस्थित होने की सम्भावना नहीं है। अतः विवेचक की तरफ से प्रस्तुत प्रार्थना पत्र स्वीकार किये जाने योग्य है।

आ दे श

विवेचक की तरफ से प्रस्तुत प्रार्थना पत्र स्वीकार किया जाता है । अभियुक्त नदीम सलमानी पुत्र सलीम सलमानी, निवासी 242 कुए वाली गली, कोटला, मेरठ के विरुद्ध गैर जमानती वारन्ट दिनांक 03.10.2022 के लिए जारी हो।

विशेष मुख्य न्यायिक मजि०

मेरठ।"

6 . The accused applicant- Nadeem Salmani has challenged the order on the basis of judicial pronouncements in the cases of Ekta @ Bulbul Vs. State of U.P. and another, pronounced in Application U/s 482 No. 30931 of 2016 dated 17.11.2016, order passed in Criminal Revision No. 3468 of 2013 dated 12.12.2013 passed by Court No. 22 of this Court, Application U/s 482 No. 29924 of 2018 dated 29.08.2018 passed by Court No. 53, Criminal Revision No. 2827 of 2010 dated 27.07.2010 passed by Court No. 50 - (Manoj @ Ase & Others Vs. State of U.P.) and in State through C.B.I Vs. Dawood Ibrahim Kaskar & Ors. 1997 (4) Supreme 490 and argued that on the basis of aforesaid pronouncements a court of Magistrate cannot issue N.B.W against the accused-applicant to facilitate the Investigating Officer during the investigation.

7. Learned A.G.A opposed the application, but he is not willing to file counter affidavit as all the materials have already been produced by the applicant, hence heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the material available on record.

8. According to Section 73 Cr.P.C, a Magistrate is empowered to issue a warrant for the arrest of any escaped convict, proclaimed offender or any person who is accused of a non-bailable offence and is evading arrest. Such warrant may be given to any person to execute the same under Section 73 (3), it has also been mentioned that when the wanted accused is arrested, he shall be made over with the warrant to the nearest police officer, who shall cause him to be taken before the Magistrate having jurisdiction in the case, unless security is taken under Section 71.

9. The applicant has filed a copy of the charge-sheet, submitted against the accused persons namely Inam, Anas, Arshad Gaddi, Naazim Shaikh and Mehtab.

Mahfuz, Irfaan and Sharad Goswami are shown as absconder.

10. Learned counsel for the applicant relied on the judgment of State through C.B.I Vs. Dawood Ibrahim Kaskar & Ors. A.I.R 1997 SC 2494, in which the scope of Section 73 Cr.P.C has been discussed. In the cited case the accused was wanted for commission of various offences punishable under the I.P.C and under the TADA Act, 1987, Arms Act 1959, Explosive Substance Act, 1908 and other Acts. This case is known as BBC No. 1/93 (Bomb-blast case). Learned counsel for the applicant is solely relying on this case, therefore it would be proper to quote the relevant paras of this judgement, which are is as under:-

"6. From the impugned order we find that before the Designated Court it was submitted on behalf of CBI that since it was making further investigation into the offences in respect of which chargesheet has earlier been submitted and since the presence of the respondents, who were absconding, was absolutely necessary for ascertainment of their roles, if any, in commission of the offences, it was felt necessary to file the applications. It was further submitted that only after warrants and/or proclamations as prayed for were issued, that it (CBI) would be able to take further coercive measure to compel them to appear before the Investigating Agency for the purpose of intended further investigation. According to CBI under Section 78 of the Code and Section (3)(a) of TADA the Designated Court was fully empowered to issue warrants of arrest and proclamations. In rejecting the above contention the Designated Court held that after cognizance was taken in respect of an offence process could be issued to the persons accused thereof only to compel them to face the trial but no such process could be issued by the Court in aid of investigation under Section 73 of the Code. According to the Designated Court, though under code further investigation was not barred there was no provision therein which entitled the Investigating Agency to seek for and obtain aid from the Court for the same. Since the above findings were recorded by the Designated Court relying solely upon the judgment of the Bombay High Court in Mohammad Yasin Mansuri vs. State of Maharastra. (1994) Crl.L.J. 1854, it will be necessary to refer to the same in some details. In that case investigation into an offence of murder and other related offences was taken up initially by the Officer-in-Charge of Byculla Police Station and thereafter by a Deputy Commissioner of Police (DCP) of CID. During the investigation the Designated Court, on the prayer of the DCP, issued non-bailable warrants for apprehension of some of the accused involved in those offences. Thereafter a charge-sheet came to be filed against several accused, some of whom were before the Court and some other including Mansuri (the petitioner before the High Court) were shown as absconding. In the very day the charge-sheet was filed Designated Court took cognizance of the offences mentioned therein. Few months later Mansuri came to be arrested by the CBI, Delhi in connection with some other offence. On receipt of that information the DCP filed an application before the Designated Court for warrants of arrest and production of Mansuri before it. The prayer was allowed and in due course Mansuri was brought to Bombay and handed over to DCP. On the following day Mansuri was produced before the Designated Court; and on such production the prosecution prayed for remand of Mansuri to police custody. The prayer was allowed and the Designated Court remanded him to police custody, but kept the order in abeyance for a few days to enable Mansuri to challenge the same in a superior court. Assailing the above order of the Designated Court, Mansuri moved the Bombay High Court. Before the High Court it was submitted on behalf of Mansuri that once investigation into an offence was complete and a charge-sheet was filed, the provisions of Section 309 of the Code came into operation and sub-section (2) of the said Section left no discretion to a Court. The only course open to the Court then was to remand the accused to judicial custody. It was further submitted that whereas Section 167 conferred a discretion upon the Court of authorising detention of an accused either in judicial custody or police custody such discretion was completely absent in Section 309 of the Code. Accordingly, it was submitted that the order passed by the Designated Court granting Mansuri to Police custody was without jurisdiction and liable to be set aside. In accepting the above contention and quashing the impugned order the High Court firstly observed:

"It would, therefore, follow that the warrants which were issued by the Designated Court for production of the petitioner could not have been in aid of investigation but could only have been by way of process issued under Section 204 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. Issue of warrants after cognizance of an offence is taken would be a process contemplated under Section 204(1)(b) of the Code, i.e. it would be a process to face trial. Indeed. We do not find any provision contained in the Code for issue of warrants of arrest and custody of accused for the purpose of, or in aid of, investigation. The process contemplated is a process to face trial."

(emphasis supplied)

8. In view of the provision of Chapter XII and those of Section 309(2) of the Code we are constrained to say that the above quoted observations have been made too sweepingly. Chapter XII relates to information to the police and their powers to investigate. Under Section 154 thereof whenever an Officer-in-Charge of a police station receives and information relating to the commission of a cognizable offence he is required to reduce the same in writing and enter the substance thereof in a prescribed book. Section 156 invests the Officer-in-Charge of a police station with the power to investigate into cognizable offences without the order of a Magistrate and Section 157 lays down the procedure for such investigation. In respect of an information given of the commission of a non-cognizable offence, the Office-in-charge required under Section 155(1) to enter the substance thereof in the book so prescribed but he has no power to investigate into the same without an order of the competent Magistrate. Armed with such an order the Officer-in-charge can however exercise all the power of investigation he has in respect of a cognizable offence except that he cannot arrested during investigation has to be dealt with by the investigation Agency, and by the Magistrate on his production before him, is provided in Section 167 of the Code. The said Section contemplates that when the investigation cannot be completed within 24 hours fixed by Section 57 and there are grounds to believe that the charge levelled against the person arrested is well founded it is obligatory on the part of the Investigation Officer to produce the accused before the nearest Magistrate. On such production the Magistrate may authorise the detention of the accused initially for a term not exceeding 15 days either in police custody, or in judicial custody. On expiry of the said period of 15 days the Magistrate may also authorise his further detention otherwise than in police custody if he is satisfied that adequate grounds exist for such detention. However, the total period of detention during investigation cannot be more than 90 days or 60 days, depending upon the nature of offences mentioned in the said Section. Under Sub-section (1) of Section 173 the Officer-in-charge is to complete the investigation without unnecessary delay and as soon as it is completed to forward, under Sub-section (2) thereof, to the competent Magistrate a report in the form prescribed setting forth the names of the parties, the nature of the information and the names of the persons who appears to be acquainted with the circumstances of the case. Sub-Section (8) entitles the Officer-in-Charges to made further investigation and it reads as under:

"Nothing in this section shall be deemed to preclude further investigation in respect of an offence after a report under Sub- section (2) has been forward to the Magistrate and, where upon such investigation, the officer in charge of the police station obtains further evidence, oral or documentary, he shall forward to the Magistrate a further report to the report regarding such evidence in the form prescribed, and the provisions of sub-section (2) to (6) shall, as far as may be, apply in relation to such report or reports as they apply in relation to a report forwarded under sub- section (2)."

10. Though under the old Code there was no express provision - like sub-section (8) of Section 173 of the Code - statutorily empowering in Police to further investigate into an offence in respect of which a charge-sheet has already been filed and cognizance taken under Section 190(1)(b), such a power was recognised by this Court in Ram Lal Narang vs. State [AIR 1979 SC 1791]. In exemplifying the situation which may prevail upon the police to take up further investigation and the procedure the Court may have to follow on receipt of the supplemental report of such investigation, this Court observed:

"It is easy to visualise a case where fresh material may come to light which would implicate persons not previously accused or absolve persons already accused. When it comes to the notice of the investigating agency that a person already accused of an offence has a good alibi, is it not the duty of that agency to investigate the genuineness of the plea of alibi and submit a report to the Magistrate? After all the investigating agency has greater resources at its command than a private individual. Similarly, where the involvement of persons who are not already accused comes to the notice of the investigating agency, the investigating agency cannot keep quiet and refuse to investigate the fresh information. It is their duty to investigate and submit a report to the Magistrate upon the involvement of the other persons. In either case, it is for the Magistrate to decide upon his future course of action depending upon the stage at which the case is before him. If he has already taken cognizance of the offence, but has not proceeded with the enquiry of not proceeded with the enquiry of trial, he may direct the issue of process to persons freshly discovered to be involved and deal with all the accused, in a single enquiry of trial. If the case of which he has already proceeded to some extent, he may take fresh cognizance of the offence disclosed against the newly involved accused and proceed with the case as a separate case. What action a Magistrate is to take in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure in such situations is a matter best left to the discretion of the Magistrate."

12. There cannot be any manner of doubt that the remand and the custody referred to in the first proviso to the above sub-section are different from detention in custody under Section 167. While remand under the former relates to a stage after cognizance and can only be to judicial custody, detention under the latter relates to the stage of investigation and can initially be either in police custody or judicial custody. Since, however, even after cognizance is taken of an offence the police has a power to investigate into it further, which can be exercised only in accordance with Chapter XII, we see no reason whatsoever why the provisions of Section 167 thereof would not apply to a person who comes to be later arrested by the police in course of such investigation. If Section 309(2) is to be interpreted - as has been interpreted by the Bombay High Court in Mansuri (supra) - to mean that after the Court takes cognizance of an offence it cannot exercise its power of detention in police custody under Section 167 of the Code, the Investigating Agency would be deprived of an opportunity to interrogate a person arrested during further investigation, even if it can on production of sufficient materials, convince the Court that his detention in its (police) custody was essential for that purpose. We are therefore of the opinion that the words "accused if in custody" appearing in Section 309(2) refer and relate to an accused who was before the Court when cognizance was taken or when enquiry or trial was being held in respect of him and not to an accused who is subsequently arrested in course of further investigation. So far as the accused in the first category is concerned he can be remanded to judicial custody only in view of Section 309(2), but he who comes under the second category will be governed by Section 167 so long as further investigation continues. That necessarily means that in respect of the latter the Court which had taken cognizance of the offence may exercise its power to detain him in police custody, subject to the fulfilment of the requirements and the limitation of Section 167.

13. The moot question that now requires to be answered is whether a Court can issue a warrant to apprehend a person during investigation for his production before police in aid of the Investigating Agency. While Mr. Ashok Desai, the learned Attorney General who appeared on behalf of CBI, submitted that Section 73 coupled with Section 167 of the Code bestowed upon the Court such power, Mr. Kapil Sibal, who appeared as amicus curie (the respondents did not appear inspite of publication of notice in newspaper) submitted that Court has no such power. To appreciate the steps of reasoning of the learned counsel for their respective stands it will be necessary to refer to the relevant provision of the Code and TADA relating to issuance of processes.

14. Chapter VI of the Code which is captioned as `processes to compel appearance' consists of four parts part A relates to Summons; part B to warrant of arrest; part C to proclamation and attachment and part D to other rules regarding processes. Part B, with which we are primarily concerned in these appeals, has in its fold Section 70 to 81. Section 70 speaks of the form in which the warrant to arrest a person is to be issued by the Court and of its durational validity. Section 71 empowers the Court issuing the warrant to direct the officer who is to execute the warrant, to release that person on terms and condition as provided therein. Section 72 provides that a warrant shall ordinarily be directed to one or more police officers but if its immediate execution in necessary and no police officer is immediate available it may be directed to any other person for execution. Section 73 which is required to be interpreted in these appeals, read as under:

"73(1) The Chief Judicial Magistrate of a Magistrate of the first class may direct a warrant to an person within his local jurisdiction for the arrest of any escaped convict, proclaimed offender or of any person who is accused of a non-bailable offence and is evading arrest.

(2) Such person shall acknowledge in writing the receipt of the warrant, and shall execute it if the person for whose arrest it was issued, is in, or enter on, any land or other property under his charge."

x x x

20. At this stage it is pertinent to mention that under the old Code the corresponding provision was Section 78; and while recommending its amendment the Law Commission in its 41st report stated, inter alia:

"6.8 Section 78 at present confers a power on the District Magistrate or Sub-Divisional Magistrate to issue a special type of "warrant to a land-holder, farmer or manager of land within the district of sub-division for the arrest of an escaped convict, proclaimed offender or person who has been accused of a non-bailable offence and who has eluded pursuit". Although the power is infrequently exercised, there appear to be no objection to conferring it on all Magistrates of the first class and all...

(emphasis supplied)

21. Apart from the above observations of the Law Commission, from a bare perusal of the Section (quoted earlier) it is manifest that it confers a power upon the class of Magistrates mentioned therein to issue warrant for arrest of three classes of person, namely, i) escaped convict, ii) a proclaimed offender and iii) a person who is accused of a non-bailable offence and is evading arrest. If the contention of Mr. Sibal that Section 204 of the Code is the sole repository of the Magistrate's power to issue warrant and the various Sections of part `B' of Chapter VI including Section 73 only lay down the mode and manner of execution of such warrant a Magistrate referred to under Section 73 could not - and would not - have been empowered to issue warrant of arrest for apprehension of an escaped convict, for such a person can not come within the purview of Section 204 as it relates to the initiation of the proceeding and not to a stage after a person has been convicted on conclusion thereof.

23. Another factor which clearly indicates that Section 73 of the Code gives a power to the Magistrate to issue warrant of arrest and that too during investigation is evident from the provisions of part `C' of Chapter VI of the Code, which we have earlier adverted to. Needless to say the provisions of proclamation and attachment as envisaged therein is to compel the appearance of a person who is evading arrest. Now, the power of issuing a proclamation under Section 82 (quoted earlier) can be exercised by a Court only in respect of a person `against whom a warrant has been issued by it'. In other words, unless the Court issues a warrant the provisions of Section 82, and the other Sections that follow in that part, cannot be invoked in a situation where inspite of its best effects the police cannot arrest a person under Section 41. Resultantly, if it has to take the coercive measures for the apprehension of such a person it has to approach the Court to issue warrant of arrest under Section 73; and if need be to invoke the provisions of part `C' of Chapter VI. (Section 8 (3) in case the person is accused of an offence under TADA)."

11. From the perusal of the aforesaid judgment, it is very much clear that under Section 73 of the Code, the Magistrate is empowered to issue warrant of arrest even during the investigation, if such power is withdrawn, the procedure under Sections 82 & 83 Cr.P.C which are essential to ensure the attendance of the accused would be redundant and of no use. In the cited case the Apex Court has averred that a non-bailable warrant may be issued by the Magistrate even during the investigation. Issuance of non-bailable warrant during the investigation by the Court is not forbidden.

12. In the case of D.K. Basu Vs. State of West Bengal 1997 (1) SCC 416 riders and guidelines have been laid down by the Apex Court, that when an accused is arrested he shall be produced in the court within 24 hours and thereafter the concerned Magistrate may send him either in judicial custody or in Police Custody for a period not exceeding fifteen days on the application of the I.O.

13. In this case application moved by the I.O was allowed and N.B.W was issued by the concerned Magistrate to produce the accused in the Court on 03.10.2022. Generally in cognizable and non-bailable cases as precautionary measure, I.O. move application for issuance of non-bailable warrant against the accused and when they are arrested, they are generally produced within twenty four hours before the concerned Magistrate as per the mandate of Section 57 of the Cr.P.C. and Article 22 (2) of the Constitution of India. Even if the courts hours are over, they are produced before the concerned Magistrate at their houses or before the Remand Magistrate.

14. From the perusal of the application moved by the I.O. and the impugned order, it transpires that the applicant is wanted as accused in the concerned case and the I.O. raided at his residence several times but he was found absconding. The learned Special Chief Judicial Magistrate has also mentioned this fact that since the accused is wanted in the concerned case and there is no likelihood of his appearance in the Court, he allowed the application and issued non-bailable warrant for his production on 03.10.2022. From the impugned order it is very much clear that the non-bailable warrant was issued for production of the accused in the Court. It has already been mentioned by the Apex Court that there is no bar regarding issuance of non-bailable warrant during the course of investigation. The Apex Court has clearly observed that the provisions of proclamation and attachment as envisaged therein is to compel the appearance of a person, who is evading arrest. The power of issuing a proclamation and attachment under Sections 82 and 83 can be exercised by a court only in respect of a person against whom a warrant has been issued by it. Therefore, the I.O. has to approach the court to issue warrant of arrest under Section 73.

15. In para 20, the Apex Court has again opined that Section 73 of the Code is of general obligation and that in the course of investigation a court can issue a warrant in exercise of power thereunder to present, inter-alias a person, who is accused of a non-bailable offence and is evading arrest. The Apex Court has put only a rider that such warrant cannot be issued for production of the accused before the court in aid of investigation.

16. The Apex Court has made it clear that even a Non Bailable Warrant can be issued against the accused on the application of I.O or the police, but if he is arrested, he shall be brought before the Magistrate and after perusing the case diary, if he finds sufficient material to remand the accused he shall send the accused either in judicial custody or on in police custody on the application of the I.O.

17. Learned counsel for the applicant Sri A.C. Srivastava has filed several orders of this Court, in which the matters relating to Districts Meerut, Ghaziabad and Gautam Budh Nagar, have been stayed from the Court, which are as under:-

(A). In Application U/s 482 No. 30931 of 2016 - Ekta @ Bulbul Vs. State of U.P. & Ors. Court No. 24, of this Court on 17.11.2016, has passed an order not to take coercive action against the accused in a Case under Sections 302, 201 I.P.C, Police Station Pallavpuram, District Meerut.

(B). In Criminal Revision No. 3468 of 2013 Harendra Vs. State of U.P. & Ors. Court No. 22 of this Court on 12.12.2013, in a case under Section 302 / 34 and 120-B I.P.C granted relief that till the next date of listing no coercive steps shall be taken against the revisionist.

(C). In Application U/s 482 No. 2994 of 2018 - Smt. Pragati Chaudhary @ Pragati Singhal Vs. State of U.P. & Another, Court No. 52 of this Court granted relief on 29.08.2018 that until the date of next listing, operation of the impugned order issuing the non-bailable warrant passed by the C.J.M Ghaziabad, in Case Crime No. 1439 of 2014, under Section 468 I.P.C, P.s. Kavi Nagar, District Ghaziabad, shall remain stayed.

(D). In Criminal Revision No. 2827 of 2010 - Manoj @ Ase & Ors. Vs. State of U.P, in which Court No. 50 of this Court on 27.07.2010, has passed an order not to take coercive steps against the revisionist in Case Crime No. 211 of 2010, in pursuance of the order passed under Section 73 Cr.P.C. but also added that however the investigation shall go on.

(E). In Application U/s 482 No. 36036 of 2022 - the present accused (Nadeem Salmani Vs. State of U.P. and another) the Court No. 64 has set aside the N.B.W order dated 02.09.2022, but directed that applicant shall remain available at the address disclosed in the present application and cooperation would be provided to the I.O in the pending proceedings and in the event of failure to cooperate, he may be dealt with in accordance with law.

18. This Court has some what different opinion as there is no bar for issuance of non-bailable against any accused during the investigation, if such non-bailable warrant has been issued, for bringing the accused before the concerned Magistrate/Judge within twenty four hours from the time of his/her arrest. After arrest he/she may be sent either to judicial or the police custody as the case may be or he may be enlarged on bail and the I.O is at liberty to obtain a permission regarding recording of his/her evidence from the court visiting the jail or if he/she has made any disclosure statement regarding recovery of any incriminating material, on the application of the I.O. accused may be remanded to the police custody remained for a limited period for the purpose of investigation.

19. It is noteworthy that in this case the applicant having full knowledge that he was wanted in this case as accused, neither made him available for interrogation to the I.O nor moved any form of bail application. In another similar matter he had approached this Court taking shelter of the verdict State through C.B.I. (supra) and has been granted some relief.

20. In this case, it does not appear that the application was moved by the I.O or the the impugned order was passed by the concerned Magistrate / Judge to provide the accused in the custody of the I.O for the aid in investigation. The Magistrate has issued the non-bailable warrant for presentation of the accused in the Court for 03.10.2022, therefore the order passed by the concerned Magistrate being in accordance with law is not liable to be set aside. According to this Court, the impugned order is correct in the eye of law and the application is liable to be rejected.

O R D E R

21. The Application U/s 482 is dismissed accordingly.

22. A copy of this order be sent to learned Special Chief Judicial Magistrate, Meerut for information and necessary action.

(2023) 4 ILRA 428
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 18.04.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE UMESH CHANDRA SHARMA, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 37387 of 2022

Azeem Husain ...Applicant

Versus

State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Sri Manoj Kumar Gupta

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A.

A. Criminal Law-Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973- Section 482 - Narcotics Drugs & Substance Act,1985 -Sections 8-C/20-b - 8-A/28-Quashing of-rejection order passed by Trial Court to release the truck-3 quintal 96 kg. Ganja was recovered from the truck-a report for confiscation had been forwarded by the S.H.O. to D.M. but till date DM has not started the proceedings of confiscation, even after a lapse of one year- In absence of initiation of any confiscation proceeding or order, it is open to the concerned Court to exercise its jurisdiction under Chapter XXXIV of the Code of Criminal Procedure,1973-Thus, the impugned order is liable to be quashed.(Para 1 to 16)

The application is allowed. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

Manak Lal Vs Central Bureau of Narcotics (2019) JCC Online M.P. 2031

(Delivered by Hon'ble Umesh Chandra Sharma, J.)

1. Heard Sri Manoj Kumar Gupta, learned counsel for the applicant, Sri Pankaj Kumar Tripathi, learned A.G.A for the State and perused the material available on record.

2. This application under Section 482 Cr.P.C has been moved on behalf of the applicant to quash the order dated 08.09.2022 passed by Special Judge (N.D.P.S Act) / A.S.J. F.T.C (Crime Against Women) in Case Crime No. 163 of 2022 - State Vs. Zubair and Others, under Section

8-C/20-b (ii) (e) and 8-A/28 of N.D.P.S. Act, Police Station Ujhani, District Budaun, by which the release application of Truck No. U.P.22-T-3585 has been rejected and also for prayer to direct the Trial Court to release the aforesaid truck.

3. In brief, facts of the case are that the applicant is the recorded owner of the impugned vehicle insured by the O.I.C, which was searched and captured by the Police on 26.03.2022 and three quintal 96 K.G. Ganja was recovered in 198 packets and hence the vehicle was ceased under Section 207 M.V. Act and was also taken to the Police Station. The applicant moved an application for release of the impugned vehicle, which was rejected by the learned Trial Judge, on the ground that a report has been forwarded by the concerned Police Station for confiscation of the impugned vehicle in favour of the State.

4. Being aggrieved, this application under Section 482 Cr.P.C has been filed by the applicant.

5. On behalf of the State, S.I. Harpal Singh has filed counter affidavit that the aforesaid Truck was used in illegal trafficking of contraband narcotic substances and for confiscation of the same, a report dated 20.04.2022 has been sent to the District Magistrate, Budaun. The learned Trial Court has rightly rejected the release application. The application is not maintainable, hence the same be rejected.

6. A rejoinder affidavit has been filed by the applicant, denying the contends of the counter affidavit with contention that applicant is the owner of the vehicle and if any contraband is received/recovered from the vehicle, the truck driver will be responsible as it is not possible for the applicant to monitor the transportation of his vehicle all the time.

7. The condition of the vehicle is deteriorating day-by-day. The applicant is ready to give undertaking that he will produce the vehicle as and when it would be required or ordered by the court. Though, a report has been sent for confiscation of the vehicle on 22.04.2022, but till date no notice with regard to the proceeding of confiscation of the vehicle has been received. Even an application under the Right to Information Act was moved by the applicant on 14.10.2022, but there is no reply to that as to whether any proceeding was initiated in pursuant to the report dated 20.4.2022 or not. The applicant was neither present when the vehicle was taken into possession by the police nor he was accused as per F.I.R and it is the driver, who is responsible and who has been released on bail. The applicant is not a person of criminal in nature, he is a businessman and does business very fairly. It is the first time when his vehicle has been ceased by the Police with contraband substances. Hence the application be allowed and the impugned truck be released in favour of the applicant during the pendency of the trial.

8. Learned counsel of either of the parties has relied on Manak Lal Vs. Central Bureau of Narcotics, 2019 JCC Online M.P. 2031, without showing name of the party which has no relevancy in the matter.

9. It would be proper to reproduce Section 60 of the N.D.P.S Act, which is as under : -

"60. Liability of illicit drugs, substances, plants, articles and conveyances to confiscation.

(1). Whenever any offence punishable under this Act has been committed, the narcotic drug, psychotropic substance, controlled substance, opium poppy, coca plant, cannabis plant, materials, apparatus and utensils in respect of which or by means of which such offence has been committed, shall be liable to confiscation.

(2). Any narcotic drug or psychotropic substance 2[or controlled substances] lawfully produced, imported inter-State, exported inter-State, imported into India, transported, manufactured, possessed, used, purchased or sold along with, or in addition to, any narcotic drug or psychotropic substance 2[or controlled substances] which is liable to confiscation under sub-section (1) and there receptacles, packages and coverings in which any narcotic drug or psychotropic substance 2[or controlled substances], materials, apparatus or utensils liable to confiscation under sub-section (1) is found, and the other contents, if any, of such receptacles or packages shall likewise be liable to confiscation.

(3). Any animal or conveyance used in carrying any narcotic drug or psychotropic substance 2[or controlled substance], or any article liable to confiscation under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall be liable to confiscation, unless the owner of the animal or conveyance proves that it was so used without the knowledge or connivance of the owner himself, his agent, if any, and the person-in-charge of the animal or conveyance and that each of them had taken all reasonable precautions against such use."

10. According to the Sub Section (1), if any offence has been committed under the N.D.P.S Act, the Plants Articles and Conveyances shall be liable for confiscation. As per Sub Section (3), any animal or conveyance used in carrying any narcotic and drug or psychotropic substance or controlled substance or any article liable to be confiscated under Sub-Section (1) or Sub Section (2) shall be liable to confiscation, unless the owner of the animal or conveyance proves that it was so used without the knowledge of the owner himself, his agent, if any, and the person in-charge of animal or conveyance and the each of them had taken all reasonable precaution against such use.

11. In this case, it is the case of the applicant that he was a businessman and he cannot supervise all time his vehicle. No F.I.R. has been lodged against him. He was not present on the spot or with the vehicle. It was not in his knowledge that the driver is carrying the contraband narcotics substances. Therefore, an opportunity is available to the applicant to prove that this case is covered under the later part of Sub Section (3).

12. So far as the confiscation proceeding is concerned, it is very much clear from the evidence on record that though a report for confiscation had been forwarded by the S.H.O. to D.M. Budaun, on 20.04.2022, but till date the District Magistrate, Budaun has not started the proceedings of confiscation with regard to the impugned vehicle. If the vehicle has not been confiscated and no proceeding of confiscation could be started, even after a laps of one year, it is open to the concerned Court to exercise its jurisdiction under Chapter XXXIV of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

13. This Court is of the considered view that in such a situation the concerned court has right to dispose of the aforesaid release application considering all the facts and circumstances of the case and also as to whether the applicant has been able to establish the circumstances and grounds enumerated in the later part of the Sub Section (3) of Section 60 of the N.D.P.S Act or not.

14. There is also a reference of Section 207 of the M.V. Act that the vehicle has been ceased under Section 207 of the M.V. Act, for which the reports may be obtained and a release application may be moved before the concerned court or before the concerned R.T.O and the fine amount imposed (if any) under Section 207 of the M.V. Act, may be deposited. So far as the release of this vehicle as case property of the related criminal case is concerned, in absence of initiation of any confiscation proceeding or order, the release application can be dealt with under Chapter XXXIV of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

15. On the basis of the above discussion, this court is of the considered view that the impugned order is liable to be quashed.

O R D E R

16. This application under Section 482 Cr.P.C is allowed and the impugned order dated 08.08.2022 is hereby quashed. The learned Special Judge / A.S.J. (F.T.C) / Special Judge (N.D.P.S Act) (Crime against women), Budaun, is directed to decide the release application moved by the applicant earlier, afresh.

17. In view of this judgment, the learned trial Court shall receive a recent report as to whether any confiscation proceeding has been started by the District Magistrate, Budaun, or not or any order in this regard has been passed or not. In case, a report is submitted to the learned trial court that a confiscation proceeding has been started or any order with regard to confiscation has been passed by the District Magistrate, Budaun, this order for deciding the release application afresh would not be effective, otherwise the learned trial Court shall decide the release application exercising its power under Chapter XXXIV of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

(2023) 4 ILRA 431
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 05.01.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE UMESH CHANDRA SHARMA, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 39616 of 2022

Sanjeev Kumar & Ors. ...Applicants
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Sri Atharva Dixit, Sri Pranav Tiwary

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A.

A. Criminal Law - Indian Penal Code, 1860-Sections 498A, 304B, & 302 - Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961-Section ¾-homicidal death-applicant no. 3 is in hospital and due to this reason the applicants were unable to lead defence evidence-application moved to provide an opportunity to lead the evidence was rejected-the burden lies on the accused-applicants to discharge their duty that they have not committed dowry death, therefore, the production of defence evidence is must and essential-Therefore, only on this ground that the defence has taken few dates for adducing the evidence, it would not be appropriate to close the defence evidence-Learned trial court started directing the defence to make haste while there were some compelling circumstances due to which the accused persons could not produce the defence evidence-Hence, there is no reason to bypass the provisions of Ss. 232 and 233 Cr.PC and conviction recorded in violation of this procedure renders the conviction illegal.(Para 1 to 22)

The application is allowed. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

1. Sivamani @ Sivan Vs St. of Ker. (1993) CrLJ 23 DB

2. Parameswara Kurup Janardhanan Pillai Vs St. of Ker. (1982) CrLJ 899 Ker-DB

3. N. Pishak Singh Vs St. of Manipur (2006) CrLJ NOC 197

4. Manoj Kumar Swami Vs St. of U.P. (2006) CrLJ 1781 (1782)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Umesh Chandra Sharma, J.)

1. Heard Shri Atharva Dixit, learned counsel for the applicants and Shri Pankaj Kumar Tripathi, learned A.GA. for the State. Perused the material available on record.

2. By this application, the applicants have challenged the order dated 21.11.2022 passed in Session Trial No. 392 of 2009 (Stae Vs. Sanjeef Kumar and others) arising out of Case Crime No. 142 of 2009 under Section 498A, 304 B I.P.C. and Section 3/4 of the D.P. Act, with an alternative charge under Section 302 IPC Police Station-Lanka, District- Varanasi and grant an opportunity to the applicants to lead their defence evidence.

3. In brief facts of the case are that the aforesaid trial is going on in the Court of Additional District Judge/ FTC Court No. 14th Finance Commission, Varanasi, on the allegations that the daughter of the first informant had solemnized her marriage with the applicant no. 1 on 18.4.2006. The applicants demanded dowry and administered poison to her due to which she was hospitalised and ultimately died on 27.3.2009. After submission of charge-sheet, the charges were framed and the trial commenced. It is contended that seeing the deteriorating condition of applicant no.3 Kusum Devi, she was kept under medical observation and had been hospitalized for treatment on 10.11.2022 and since then she is in hospital and due to this reason the applicants were unable to lead defence evidence. The matter was lastly listed on 15.11.2022 for the defence evidence but due to ill health of the applicant's counsel an adjournment application before the Court below was moved.

4. On 21.11.2022 an application was moved to provide an opportunity to lead the evidence of examining the defence witness. However, the said application was rejected in a mechanical and arbitrary manner by order dated 21.11.2022 which is under challenge before this Court on the ground that the order has been passed in a very perfunctory and malafide manner which is against the principles of natural justice and the right to fair trial. The trial is pending since 2009 and the prosecution has completed its evidence only in the year 2022. The prosecution has led its evidence in a period of over 13 years. It is a case under Section 304 B I.P.C. where statutory presumption under Section 113B of the Indian Evidence Act exists against the accused persons which is rebuttable in nature and it can be rebutted only by leading defence evidence. In absence of any opportunity to lead the defence witnesses, the defence would be deprived of its right to rebut such presumption. The learned Court below under undue haste is not granting opportunity of defence and is adopting two different parameters with respect to the prosecution and the defence. It has already been upheld in various cases by the Apex court as well as different High Courts that any person can be summoned or recalled as a witness for examination at any stage of the proceedings where it is essential. All the applicants are on bail pending trial, therefore, impugned order be set-aside and an opportunity be granted to the applicants to lead their defence evidence.

5. The copy of the impugned order and relevant papers have been annexed with the petition.

6. By way of supplementary affidavit dated 28.11.2022, the applicants have produced the certified copy of the chick FIR and the impugned order. By way of supplementary affidavit no. 1/2022 copy of the order-sheet and the questionnaire have been filed.

7. Heard learned counsel for the applicants and learned A.G.A. Perused the record.

8. From perusal of the order-sheet it transpires that the prosecution could not conclude its evidence for a decade but after recording statement under Section 313 Cr.PC., the case was fixed for production of defence evidence. The learned Trial Court started taking defence evidence. On 15.10.2022 and 19.10.2022, the learned Trial Court awarded Rs. 500/- cost on the adjournment of the accused-applicants and granted opportunity to produce the defence evidence on 5.11.2022 and 8.11.2022 and lastly on 15.11.2022, he closed the defence evidence and when recall application was moved, the same was rejected on 21.11.2022.

9. The learned counsel for the applicants contends that under Section 113 B of the Evidence, the burden lies on the accused-applicants to discharge their duty that they have not committed the dowry death, therefore, the production of defence evidence is must and essential for ends of justice.

Section 233 Cr.PC. is as under:

233. Entering upon defence. (1) Where the accused is not acquitted under section 232, he shall be called upon to enter on his defence and adduce any evidence he may have in support thereof. (2) If the accused puts in any written statement, the Judge shall file it with the record.

10. In Several judicial precedence, it has been held that proper opportunity for adducing defence evidence must be provided by the Court. The word 'shall' has been used everywhere in section 233 Cr.P.C.

11. In Sivamani alias Sivan V. State of Kerala, 1993 CrLJ 23 (DB), it has been held that "there is no reason to bypass the provisions of Ss. 232 and 233 Cr.P.C. and conviction recorded in violation of this procedure renders the conviction illegal."

12. In Parameswara Kurup Janardhanan Pillai V. State of Kerala, 1982 CrLJ 899 (Ker-DB), it has been held that "an accused who was not acquitted under S. 232 and not called upon to enter upon his defence under this section, the trial is in violation of the latter part of the mandatory provision and is liable to be set aside."

13. In N. Pishak Singh V. State of Manipur, 2006 CrLJ (NOC) 197, it has been held that "where the accused had defence to make and wanted to examine defence witness, failure on the part of the Court to call upon the accused to enter upon the defence caused prejudice to him in his defence, his conviction on the charge of murder was set aside."

14. As per the (Sub-sec. (3) of the aforesaid Section, the accused may apply for issue of process to compel attendance of witnesses or production of documents or things and the Judge, unless he considers the application to be vexatious or made for the purpose of delay or defeating the ends of justice, shall issue such process. The Judge should record his reasons for refusal.

15. In this case, the trial Judge has not concluded that the defence evidence is not necessary or without adducing the defence witnesses, the accused persons would be in capacity to rebut the presumption under Section 113 (b) of the Evidence Act. Therefore, only on this ground that the defence has taken few dates for adducing the evidence, it would not be appropriate to close the defence evidence. At least proper opportunity must be provided to the accused persons to adduce the evidence in their defence.

16. In Manoj Kumar Swami V. State of U.P., 2006 CrLJ 1781 (1782), it has been held that "At the stage of defence the accused has a right to summon any evidence which may be relevant for proper appreciation of the prosecution evidence and to substantiate his defence".

17. From the perusal of impugned order it appears that the learned trial Court has passed the order in hurried manner. The defence should have been provided at least sufficient opportunity without counting the dates. It is further revealed that the Trial Judge had also taken note that the prosecution was not taking the case seriously otherwise it would have not taken twelve years at the stage of prosecution evidence.

18. On 11.10.2022 the statement of the accused persons have been recorded under Section 313 Cr.PC and from 15.10.2022 to 15.11.2022 the opportunity to produce the defence evidence was provided and just within a month the defence evidence has been closed. If we compare the time given to the prosecution and the defence, the picture is very much clear that just after recording the statement under Section 313 Cr.P.C., the learned trial Court started directing the defence to make haste. From the perusal of grounds taken in the recall application and in the present application, it transpires that certainly there were some compelling circumstances due to which the accused persons could not produce the defence evidence.

19. In the judicial precedents referred to above, where the trial Court passed the orders in a haste manner and did not provide proper opportunity to adduce the evidence in defence and convicted the accused persons, such orders of conviction have been set aside.

20. Considering the overall circumstances of the case and time consumed by the prosecution this Court concludes that the trial Court ought to have adopted more liberal view towards defence and they should have been provided sufficient time for production of defence evidence.

21. On the basis of above discussion this Court is of the view that to prevent the abuse of process and to secure the ends to justice it is imperative for this Court to intervene with the impugned order and to allow the application.

Order

22. The application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. is allowed and the order dated 21.11.2022 passed in S.T. No. 392 of 2009 (State Vs. Sanjeet Kumar and Others) arising out of Case Crime No. 142 of 2009 under Section 498A, 304 B I.P.C. and Section D.P. Act, with an alternative charge under Section 302 I.P.C. Police Station- Lanka, District- Varanasi, is hereby set aside. The learned Trial Court is directed to provide sufficient opportunity to adduce the defence evidence to the accused-applicants for which this Court thinks proper to provide at least 5 dates for production of prosecution evidence. It is further directed that the applicants shall not move any unnecessary adjournments. Further, if any application for summoning of the record or witnesses is moved, the same shall be considered in view of the above observations.

23. A copy of this order be sent to the trial Court for compliance.

(2023) 4 ILRA 435
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 29.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MRS. MANJU RANI CHAUHAN, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 42663 of 2022

Shiv Kumar Sharma ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Sri Omar Zamin, Sri Rohit Nandan Pandey

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A.

(A) Criminal Law - Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Sections 202 & 482 - Inherent power - The Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 - Section 118 - Presumptions as to negotiable instruments - Section 138 - Dishonor of cheque for insufficiency, etc., of funds in the accounts - Section 139 - Presumption in favour of holder , The general clauses act, 1897 - section 27 - meaning of service by post - service of notice has been effected when it is sent to the correct address by registered post, Indian Evidence Act, 1872 - Section 114 - Court to presume that in the common course of natural events, the communication would have been delivered at the address of the addressee - when a notice is sent by registered post and is returned with a postal endorsement refused or not available in the house or house locked or shop closed or addressee not in station, due service has to be presumed. (Para - 15, 16)

Complaint filed under Section 138 N.I. Act - against applicant - alleging a demand for Rs. 1,25,000 for a partnership - opposite party provided the same amount - but applicant showed profit in 2014-15 - returned balance - opposite party refused to pay - legal notice through registered post – alleged to be not accepted by applicant - applicant did not return amount - Magistrate summoned - Cheque was issued by applicant - towards payments of debt or liability from an account - blocked - complainant was not aware.(Para -2, 19)

HELD:- Only a prima facie case is to be seen, and the factum of disputed notice requires adjudication based on evidence, which can only be done by trial court. All are disputed questions of fact. When the facts have to be established by way of evidence, Court while exercising the powers under section 482 of Cr.P.C., cannot interfere with such proceedings. No grounds made out for quashing of the proceedings under section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act.(Para -20, 21)

Application u/s 482 Cr.P.C. dismissed. (E-7)

List of Cases cited:

1. Rajesh Meena Vs St. of Har. & ors.. , CRM - M- 14537 - 2018

2. M/s Ceasefire Industries Ltd. Vs St. & ors.. , Crl L.P. 51/2017

3. C.C. Alavi Haji Vs Palapetty Muhammed & anr. , (2007) 6 SCC 555

4. Jagdish Singh Vs Natthu Singh, (1992) 1 SCC 647 : AIR 1992 SC 1604

5. St. of M.P. Vs Hiralal , (1996) 7 SCC 523

6. V. Raja Kumari Vs P. Subbarama Naidu , (2004) 8 SCC 774 : 2005 SCC (Cri) 393

7. Bhaskaran case, (1999) 7 SCC 510 : 1999 SCC (Cri) 1284

8. Ajeet Seeds Ltd. Vs K. Gopala Krishnaiah , (2014) 12 SCC 685

9. C.C. Alavi Haji Vs Palapetty Muhammed , (2007) 6 SCC 555 , (2007) 3 SCC (Cri) 236

10. D.Vinod Shivappa Vs Nanda Belliappa , (2006) 6 SCC 456 : (2006) 3 SCC (Cri) 114

11. Bharat Barrel & Drum Manufacturing Company Vs Amin Chand Pyarelal , (1999) 3 SCC 35

12. Basalingappa Vs Mudibasappa, (2019) 5 SCC 418

13. Kishan Rao Vs Shankargouda , (2018) 8 SCC 165: (2018) 4 SCC (Civ) 685 : (2018) 3 SCC (Civ) 544

14. Kishan Rao Vs Shankargouda , (2018) 8 SCC 165: (2018) 4 SCC (Civ) 37 : (2018) 3 SCC (Cri) 544

15. Ranjit Vs St. of U.P. & anr., (2020)03 - 05ILR A1752 : Application U/S 482 No. 47282 of 2019,

(Delivered by Hon'ble Mrs. Manju Rani Chauhan, J.)

1. By means of instant application the applicant has approached this Court challenging the proceedings of Complaint Case No. 2233 of 20211, under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 18812, Police Station Phase-2, District Gautam Buddh Nagar and summoning order dated 05.04.2022 passed by Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate-III, Gautam Buddh Nagar.

2. Brief facts of the case are; a complaint under Section 138 of the N.I. Act was filed against the applicant with the allegation that the applicant having good relations with opposite party no. 2 demanded an amount of Rs. 1,25,00,000/- requesting him to become a partner in his business, which was being run by him since 2013. The opposite party no. 2, on the assurance of the applicant, gave an amount of Rs. 1,25,00,000/-. It has further been alleged that the applicant, having the intention of cheating, showed profit in the Firm for the year 2014-15 and returned an amount of Rs. 8,00,000/- to the opposite party no. 2. On being asked to return the balance amount, the applicant gave Cheque No. 097414 dated 24.03.2021 of Rs.

20,00,000/-. The said cheque was presented by the complainant in the Bank on 05.04.2021 which was returned with the remark "Bank Blocked". Thereafter, the opposite party no. 2 approached the applicant informing him about return of the cheque by the Bank with the aforesaid remark and requested him to pay the amount as was taken by him, on which the applicant misbehaved with the opposite party no. 2 and used abusive language, threatening for dire consequences and abruptly refused to return the amount. Thus, a legal notice dated 17.04.2021 was given by the opposite party no. 2 through registered post, however, the same was alleged to be not accepted by the applicant. The applicant did not return the amount nor submitted reply to the legal notice given by opposite party no. 2, therefore, the present complaint was filed on 27.07.2021. Subsequently, the learned Magistrate, after recording statements under Section 202 Cr.P.C. summoned the applicant vide order dated 05.04.2022 under Section 138 of the N.I. Act.

3. On earlier occasion i.e. 15.02.2023 Sri Omar Zamin, learned Advocate argued the matter at length, however, to respond some specific queries, the case was posted for 21.03.2023 for further hearing, though this Court had expressed its view of not being convinced to grant any relief in favour of the applicant. To utter surprise, on the next date, Sri Rohit Nandan Pandey, learned Advocate stepped in by filing his memo of appearance on behalf of the applicant, whereas he was not in a position to assist the Court even to a tad bit as he appeared to be in oblivion state regarding the facts of the case as also incognizant of the exhaustive and strenuous arguments advanced by Mr. Omar on the previous date. On being insisted to render assistance, Mr. Pandey summed up his arguments in very cavalier and unvirtuous manner. Such practice not only impedes early conclusion of a case but also disparages the profession and is execrated as infelicitous.

4. Appearance of a subsequent counsel at the concluding stage of arguments, that too, after disclosure of the view by the Court towards its result, emanates an undesired situation inimical to highly dignified profession of Advocacy regarded by all stratums of society. An advocate is considered as an Officer of the Court, thus, he or she is expected to adhere to the canon and criterion of etiquettes towards professionalism. Advocate is expected to perform his functions amenable to honored and dignified profession as also he or she is duty bound to maintain decorum of the court discharging his or her functions properly not only with colleagues but even with his opponents.

5. Conduct of accepting the brief by a subsequent counsel at the stage of conclusion of arguments by previous counsel and that too before the very date of pronouncement of the judgement, permeates unsolicited impression and does not fetch appreciation rather it spots a stigmatic mole over the person who being a lawyer is believed to follow the traditional decorum in the field of legal profession. Mr. Pandey who carries respectful position for his professional etiquettes is advised to refrain himself from being introduced as a subsequent engagement in a case where arguments have already been concluded by some other previous counsel, so as to secure faith and regard to his credit. The Court always commends the fairness and never thinks of subverting or demolition of professional principles and ethics at the end of a lawyer. In case of ineluctable request of the client, nevertheless Sri Pandey should have been conversant with the status of arguments advanced by Mr. Omar Zamin before accepting the brief.

6. Emergence of present incident constrains me to request the luminaries of the Bar Council as well as Bar Association, namely, (i) Chairman, Bar Council of Uttar Pradesh, Allahabad; (ii) President, High Court Bar Association, Allahabad and (iii) Secretary, High Court Bar Association, Allahabad to assign space for consideration of such inappropriate situations, in a joint meeting which may cast a stone to the frequently rising wretched conditions affecting the noble profession of Advocacy, which resultantly becomes one of the reasons for delayed justice and jolts the faith of a litigant over the system.

Arguments advanced by Sri Omar Zamin, earlier learned Counsel appeared for the applicant

7. Earlier learned counsel for the applicant Mr. Omar Zamin had argued that the applicant lodged a first information report dated 04.09.2017, wherein he complained about an incident that his bag was stolen from his car wherein signed and unsigned documents were placed. It appears that the aforesaid cheque came in the hands of opposite party no. 2, after using which the present complaint has been filed hence the complaint against the applicant is not maintainable on this ground.

8. Learned counsel for the applicant next submitted that as per Section 138 of the N.I. Act, the cheque issued, should be drawn by a person "for discharge, in whole or in part, of any debt or other liability" that is to say, the cheque should have been drawn for the discharge of any debt or other liability of a drawer towards the payee. In the present case, it cannot be presumed in any way that the cheque has been issued for a debt or liability. He further submits that the cheque drawn by a person should be from an account maintained by him with a banker for payment of any amount of money to another person out of that account for discharge of his debt or liability. In the present case, the applicant had already lodged a first information report dated 04.09.2017 alleging therein about an incident where his bag containing signed and unsigned documents along with other cheques, was lost. It appears that the aforesaid cheque came in the hands of opposite party no. 2, after using which the present complaint has been filed hence the complaint is not maintainable on this ground itself.

9. The learned counsel had further contended that financial irregularities by office bearers is of Mahamedha Urban Cooperative Bank Ltd.3 as well as regarding misappropriation of money, a first information report was lodged, which led to cancellation of licence of the aforesaid Bank and hence the accounts there were blocked in the year 2017 itself. Thus, the accounts from which the cheque was issued was not in operation and was not being maintained by the applicant, thus, the complaint under Section 138 of the N.I. Act could not be lodged in such a case where a cheque for payment of liability or debt is being issued from the account which is not being maintained at the relevant point of time. Relying on a judgement of Punjab and Haryana High Court in the case of Rajesh Meena v. State of Haryana and others4, learned counsel for the applicant submitted that on the date when the cheque was dishonored, the account holder was not maintaining the said account, therefore, in the absence of this material condition it cannot be said that the offence punishable under Section 138 of the N.I. Act is made out as is one of the necessary ingredients required for lodging of complaint under the relevant Act.

10. Learned counsel for the applicant further relied upon a judgement of Delhi High Court in the case of M/s Ceasefire Industries Ltd. v. State & Ors.5. He submitted that as the accounts had been frozen in terms of the first information report lodged against the Bank and accordingly the licence has been cancelled, therefore, the accounts had been blocked and the Bank which returned the cheques unpaid had done the same by making a remark of "Bank Block', thus, the reason for return of cheque unpaid being in contravention with the provisions of Section 138 of the N.I. Act, the complaint thus is not maintainable.

Arguments of State

11. Per contra, Mr. K.P. Pathak, learned AGA for the State, has submitted that the summoning order passed by the concerned Magistrate is legal and just in the eyes of the law and at this stage, only a prima facie case is to be seen and the complaint cannot be thrown at the threshold. He further submits that lodging of FIR with regard to missing of bag containing signed and unsigned documents including cheques, the check issued is not mentioned in FIR, therefore, the arguments as placed by learned counsel for the applicant cannot be accepted. Regarding other submissions of maintainability of complaint, it is clear that it was well known to the applicant that the Bank account was blocked in the year 2017 itself and he issued the cheque on 24.03.2021 having knowledge that the account was not being maintained by the applicant, thus he cannot turn around and take a stand that the reasons for return of cheque "unpaid' is not in consonance with the provisions of Section 138 of the N.I. Act, for the complaint to be maintainable.

12. I have heard learned counsel for the applicant, learned A.G.A. for the State and perused the record.

13. It is apposite to quote the provisions of Section 138 of the Act, which read as under:

"138. Dishonor of cheque for insufficiency, etc., of funds in the accounts:- Where any cheque drawn by a person on an account maintained by him with a banker for payment of any amount of money to another person from out of that account for the discharge, in whole or in part, of any debt or other liability, is returned by the bank unpaid, either because of the amount of money standing to the credit of that account is insufficient to honor the cheque or that it exceeds the amount arranged to be paid from that account by an agreement made with that bank, such person shall be deemed to have committed an offence and shall without prejudice to any other provisions of this Act, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine which may extend to twice the amount of the cheque, or with both:

PROVIDED that nothing contained in this section shall apply unless-

(a) the cheque has been presented to the bank within a period of six months from the date on which it is drawn or within the period of its validity, whichever is earlier.

(b) the payee or the holder in due course of the cheque, as the case may be, makes a demand for the payment of the said amount of money by giving a notice, in writing, to the drawer of the cheque, within fifteen days of the receipt of information by him from the bank regarding the return of the cheque as unpaid, and

(c) the drawer of such cheque fails to make the payment of the said amount of money to the payee or, as the case may be, to the holder in due course of the cheque, within fifteen days of the receipt of the said notice.

Explanation: For the purpose of this section, "debt or other liability" means a legally enforceable debt or other liability."

14. Section 138 deals with a cheque drawn by a person "for the discharge, in whole or in part, of any debt or other liability." The section does not say that the cheque should have been drawn for the discharge of any debt or other liability of the drawer towards the payee. Thus in complaint under Section 138 of N.I. Act, the Court has to presume that the cheque had been issued for a debt or liability. This presumption is rebuttable. However, the burden of proving that a cheque had not been issued for a debt or liability, is on the accused. The applicant being holder of cheque and the signature appended on the cheque having not been denied by the Bank, presumption shall be drawn that cheque was issued for the discharge of any debt or other liability. The presumption under Section 139 is a rebuttable presumption. Before this Court refers to various judgments of the Apex Court considering Sections 118 and 139, it is relevant to notice the general principles pertaining to burden of proof on an accused especially in a case where some statutory presumption regarding guilt of the accused has to be drawn.

15. A Three Judges' Bench of the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of C.C. Alavi Haji v. Palapetty Muhammed and Another6 has held as under:-

"14. Section 27 gives rise to a presumption that service of notice has been effected when it is sent to the correct address by registered post. In view of the said presumption, when stating that a notice has been sent by registered post to the address of the drawer, it is unnecessary to further aver in the complaint that in spite of the return of the notice unserved, it is deemed to have been served or that the addressee is deemed to have knowledge of the notice. Unless and until the contrary is proved by the addressee, service of notice is deemed to have been effected at the time at which the letter would have been delivered in the ordinary course of business. This Court has already held that when a notice is sent by registered post and is returned with a postal endorsement refused or not available in the house or house locked or shop closed or addressee not in station, due service has to be presumed. (Vide Jagdish Singh Vs. Natthu Singh7; State of M.P. v. Hiralal8, and V. Raja Kumari v. P. Subbarama Naidu9. It is, therefore, manifest that in view of the presumption available under Section 27 of the Act, it is not necessary to aver in the complaint under Section 138 of the Act that service of notice was evaded by the accused or that the accused had a role to play in the return of the notice unserved.

*** *** ***

*** *** ***

17. It is also to be borne in mind that the requirement of giving of notice is a clear departure from the rule of criminal law, where there is no stipulation of giving of a notice before filing a complaint. Any drawer who claims that he did not receive the notice sent by post, can, within 15 days of receipt of summons from the court in respect of the complaint under Section 138 of the Act, make payment of the cheque amount and submit to the Court that he had made payment within 15 days of receipt of summons (by receiving a copy of complaint with the summons) and, therefore, the complaint is liable to be rejected. A person who does not pay within 15 days of receipt of the summons from the Court along with the copy of the complaint under Section 138 of the Act, cannot obviously contend that there was no proper service of notice as required under Section 138, by ignoring statutory presumption to the contrary under Section 27 of the G.C. Act and Section 114 of the Evidence Act. In our view, any other interpretation of the proviso would defeat the very object of the legislation. As observed in Bhaskaran case10, if the "giving of notice" in the context of Clause (b) of the proviso was the same as the "receipt of notice" a trickster cheque drawer would get the premium to avoid receiving the notice by adopting different strategies and escape from legal consequences of Section 138 of the Act."

16. It is not necessary to aver in the complaint that in spite of the return of the notice unserved, it is deemed to have been served or that the addressee is deemed to have knowledge of the notice. Unless and until the contrary is proved by the addressee, the service of notice is deemed to have been effected at the time, at which the letter would have been delivered in the ordinary course of business. In the case of Ajeet Seeds Ltd. vs. K. Gopala Krishnaiah11, the Apex Court has held that absence of averments in the complaint about service of notice upon the accused is the matter of evidence. The paragraph nos. 10 and 11 of the said judgement are reproduced herein below:-

"10. It is thus clear that Section 114 of the Evidence Act enables the Court to presume that in the common course of natural events, the communication would have been delivered at the address of the addressee. Section 27 of the GC Act gives rise to a presumption that service of notice has been effected when it is sent to the correct address by registered post. It is not necessary to aver in the complaint that in spite of the return of the notice unserved, it is deemed to have been served or that the addressee is deemed to have knowledge of the notice. Unless and until the contrary is proved by the addressee, service of notice is deemed to have been effected at the time at which the letter would have been delivered in the ordinary course of business.

11. Applying the above conclusions to the facts of this case, it must be held that the High Court clearly erred in quashing the complaint on the ground that there was no recital in the complaint that the notice under Section 138 of the NI Act was served upon the accused. The High Court also erred in quashing the complaint on the ground that there was no proof either that the notice was served or it was returned unserved/unclaimed. That is a matter of evidence. We must mention that in C.C. Alavi Haji12, this Court did not deviate from the view taken in Vinod Shivappa13, but reiterated the view expressed therein with certain clarification. We have already quoted the relevant paragraphs from Vinod Shivappa where this Court has held that service of notice is a matter of evidence and proof and it would be premature at the stage of issuance of process to move the High Court for quashing of the proceeding under Section 482 of the Cr.P.C. These observations are squarely attracted to the present case. The High Court's reliance on an order passed by a two-Judge Bench in Shakti Travel & Tours is misplaced. The order in Shakti Travel & Tours does not give any idea about the factual matrix of that case. It does not advert to rival submissions. It cannot be said therefore that it lays down any law. In any case in C.C. Alavi Haji, to which we have made a reference, the three-Judge Bench has conclusively decided the issue. In our opinion, the judgment of the two-Judge Bench in Shakti Travel & Tours does not hold the field any more."

17. Further the Apex Court in the matter of Bharat Barrel & Drum Manufacturing Company v. Amin Chand Pyarelal14, had considered Section 118(a) of the Act and held that once execution of the promissory note is admitted, the presumption under Section 118(a) would arise that it is supported by a consideration. Such a presumption is rebuttable and defendant can prove the non-existence of a consideration by raising a probable defence. In paragraph No.12 following has been laid down:-

"12. Upon consideration of various judgments as noted hereinabove, the position of law which emerges is that once execution of the promissory note is admitted, the presumption under Section 118(a) would arise that it is supported by a consideration. Such a presumption is rebuttable. The defendant can prove the non-existence of a consideration by raising a probable defence. If the defendant is proved to have discharged the initial onus of proof showing that the existence of consideration was improbable or doubtful or the same was illegal, the onus would shift to the plaintiff who will be obliged to prove it as a matter of fact and upon its failure to prove would disentitle him to the grant of relief on the basis of the negotiable instrument. The burden upon the defendant of proving the non-existence of the consideration can be either direct or by bringing on record the preponderance of probabilities by reference to the circumstances upon which he relies. In such an event, the plaintiff is entitled under law to rely upon all the evidence led in the case including that of the plaintiff as well. In case, where the defendant fails to discharge the initial onus of proof by showing the non-existence of the consideration, the plaintiff would invariably be held entitled to the benefit of presumption arising under Section 118(a) in his favour. The court may not insist upon the defendant to disprove the existence of consideration by leading direct evidence as the existence of negative evidence is neither possible nor contemplated and even if led, is to be seen with a doubt. The bare denial of the passing of the consideration apparently does not appear to be any defence. Something which is probable has to be brought on record for getting the benefit of shifting the onus of proving to the plaintiff. To disprove the presumption, the defendant has to bring on record such facts and circumstances upon consideration of which the court may either believe that the consideration did not exist or its non-existence was so probable that a prudent man would, under the circumstances of the case, shall act upon the plea that it did not exist."

18. In its recent judgment, the Apex Court in the matter of Basalingappa v. Mudibasappa15 specifically in paragraph nos. 23 and 24 has noticed as follows:-

"23. We may now notice the judgement relied on by the learned counsel for the complainant i.e. judgment of this Court in *Kishan Rao v. Shankargouda*16. This Court in the above case has examined Section 139 of the Act. In the above case, the only defence which was taken by the accused was that cheque was stolen by the appellant. The said defence was rejected by the trial court. In paras 21 to 23, the following was laid down: (SCC pp. 173-74)

21. ....

22. ....

27. Section 139 of the Act is an example of a reverse onus clause that has been included in furtherance of the legislative objective of improving the credibility of negotiable instruments. While Section 138 of the Act specifies a strong criminal remedy in relation to the dishonour of cheques, the rebuttable presumption under Section 139 is a device to prevent undue delay in the course of litigation. However, it must be remembered that the offence made punishable by Section 138 can be better described as a regulatory offence since the bouncing of a cheque is largely in the nature of a civil wrong whose impact is usually confined to the private parties involved in commercial transactions. In such a scenario, the test of proportionality should guide the construction and interpretation of reverse onus clauses and the defendant-accused cannot be expected to discharge an unduly high standard of proof."

23. No evidence was led by the accused. The defence taken in the reply to the notice that cheque was stolen having been rejected by the two courts below, we do not see any basis for the High Court coming to the conclusion that the accused has been successful in creating doubt in the mind of the Court with regard to the existence of the debt or liability. How the presumption under Section 139 can be rebutted on the evidence of PW 1, himself has not been explained by the High Court.

24. The above Kishan Rao17 case was a case where this Court did not find the defence raised by the accused probable. The only defence raised was that cheque was stolen having been rejected by the trial court and no contrary opinion having been expressed by the High Court, this Court reversed the judgment of the High Court restoring the conviction. The respondent cannot take any benefit of the said judgment, which was on its own facts."

(Emphasis added)

19. The matter regarding stolen cheque has been elaborately dealt with by this Court in the case of Ranjit v. State of U.P. and another18, wherein the plea taken on behalf of the applicant regarding non-maintainability of the complaint on the ground of stolen of cheques has been rejected. As regards the judgements placed on by learned counsel for the applicant are not applicable in the facts of the present case as the applicant was well aware of the fact that he is issuing a cheque towards payments of debt or liability from an account, which is blocked, of which the complainant was not aware.

20. In view of the settled legal position, as noticed above, it is clear that at this stage, only a prima facie case is to be seen and the complaint cannot be thrown at the threshold and the factum of disputed service of notice requires adjudication on the basis of evidence and the same can only be done and appreciated by the trial court.

21. All the submissions made by learned counsel for the applicant are disputed questions of fact. Therefore, when the facts have to be established by way of evidence, this Court while exercising the powers under section 482 of Cr.P.C., cannot interfere with such proceedings. Hence, no grounds are made out for quashing of the proceedings under section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act.

22. On the basis of discussions made herein above, this Court finds that there is no illegality or infirmity in the summoning order dated 05.04.2022 passed by the concerned court below. Therefore, no interference is required at this stage.

23. In view of the aforesaid, the application is, accordingly, dismissed.

24. The Registrar General of this Court shall communicate this order to the Chairman, Bar Council of Uttar Prdesh, Allahabad; President, High Court Bar Association, Allahabad and Secretary, High Court Bar Association, Allahabad, apprising them of the suggestions expressed in paragraph nos. 3 to 6 of this order.

(2023) 4 ILRA 444
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 21.04.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SAURABH SHYAM SHAMSHERY, J.

Crl. Misc. Bail Application No. 833 of 2023

Rajendra Agarwal urf Bablu ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Sri Vijit Saxena, Sri Rakesh Kumar Pandey

Counsel for the Respondent:
G.A.

(A) Criminal Law - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 354, 376(D)(B), 323, 328, 506, 366A & 120B , The Protection of Children From Sexual Offences Act, 2012 - Section 5/6, The Code of criminal procedure, 1973 - Sections 161 and 164 - The Juvenile Justice (Care And Protection Of Children) Act, 2000 - "Child in Need of Care and Protection" - Section 29, 30, 31 , The Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2015 - Section 27 , Section 110(1) , Uttar Pradesh Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Rules, 2019 - Rules 16 , 17 & 35 .

Serious allegations against applicant (father of victim) - betrayed a pious relationship of father and daughter (victim, minor girl) - Victim's narration of prosecution story exaggerated - Victim's facts were consistent in FIR and statements - unable to point out a single place of occurrence and date/month of occurrence - Victim's mother's failure to protest or lodge FIR suggests improbability - Co-accuseds granted bail for serious rape allegation. (Para - 11,12,13)

HELD:-All the co-accused granted bail against whom very serious allegation of rape was levelled. Court inclined to grant bail to applicant also. (Para -13)

Bail application allowed. (E-7)

List of Cases cited:

1. Manoj Kumar Khokhar Vs St. of Raj. & anr. , (2022)3 SCC 501

2. Brijmani Devi Vs Pappu Kumar , (2022) 4 SCC 497

(Delivered by Hon'ble Saurabh Shyam Shamshery, J.)

1. Applicant-Rajendra Agarwal alias Bablu has approached this Court by way of filing present bail application seeking enlargement on bail in Case Crime No. 860 of 2021, under Sections 354, 376(D)(B), 323, 328, 506, 366A, 120B IPC and 5/6

POCSO Act, Police Station Kotwali Lalitpur, District Lalitpur, after rejection of his bail application vide order dated 07.01.2022 passed by Additional Sessions/Special Judge (POCSO Act), Lalitpur.

2. In the present case an FIR was lodged by victim, a minor girl, aged about 17 years. She has narrated how she suffered sexual ordeal for many years which was commenced, when she was a student of Class-VI. First perpetrator who ravished her was her father (applicant), who not only thereafter repeatedly raped her, but put her in a prostitution racket also.

3. In the FIR, victim has narrated how her father himself presented her before other men, who raped her. Victim also described that even her relatives (uncles) also raped her and women of her family helped them in committing act of rape. Victim and her mother were subjected to sedatives. In all victim, has named 25 accused persons including her father, close relatives, her family friends and other persons and women of her family, who helped in crime. She was not able to disclose earlier about above referred offences since there were repeated threats to cause harm to her mother, younger brother and sister.

4. Sri Vijit Saxena, learned counsel for applicant, submitted that story of victim, on the face of it, appears to be not only concocted but improbable also. It would be beyond imagination that victim was repeatedly raped by her father, her close relatives and applicant has put her in prostitution and it continued for many years. Victim has never raised any alarm or called police or reported matter before police authorities. Learned counsel further submitted that contents of FIR remained consistent in the statements of victim recorded under Sections 161 and 164 Cr.P.C. as well as statement made before Medical Officer and Members of Child Welfare Committee, however, she has not mentioned a single date in her statements though she was allegedly subjected to rape repeatedly on many days during long duration of atleast 6-7 years.

5. Learned counsel further submitted that except applicant, this Court has granted bail to all other co-accused by different Coordinate Benches. Medical examination has not supported case of victim. Applicant was falsely implicated and reason for false implication is that the mother of victim is interested in family property. Learned counsel further submitted that some of accused persons have approached this Court challenging charge sheet, cognizance order and summoning order by filing respective applications under Section 482 Cr.P.C. and this Court has granted interim protection that no coercive measures shall be taken against applicants therein.

6. Learned counsel also submitted that subsequently mother of victim has lodged an FIR against applicant (her husband) that many years ago she was kidnapped and forced to marry him.

7. Above submissions are opposed by Sri Paritosh Malviya, learned AGA appearing for State. He submitted that a minor girl was subjected to sexual assault by many persons for several years. A conspiracy was hatched to put victim in prostitution. For a minor girl, who has gone through such a traumatic ordeal, it is possible that she may not be able to narrate the date and time of offence but this will not dilute the seriousness of crime. There are other factors also that she was always given sedatives and threat was also given to her that in case of any report damage would be caused to her mother, younger brother and sister. Learned AGA, however, has not disputed that other co-accused have been granted bail however he has submitted that the reasons given in bail orders are not in terms of judgements passed by Supreme Court in Manoj Kumar Khokhar vs. State of Rajasthan and Anr. (2022)3 SCC 501 and Brijmani Devi vs. Pappu Kumar (2022) 4 SCC 497.

8. During hearing of this case, Court has called Chairperson, Child Welfare Committee, Lalitpur, to get first hand information about victim. Sri Raj Kumar Jain, Chairperson, Child Welfare Committee, Lalitpur has appeared before this Court and stated that victim was given an option for psychological counselling, however, she refused as well as she has refused for support persons also though her statement was recorded. She was provided financial assistance also and presently she is a student of Graduation.

9. Aforesaid exercise was done with the object that on the basis of above referred allegations, which are very serious, victim must have suffered mental trauma for number of years and for that she requires a proper counselling. In the present case it was provided but she has not accepted the request of support person. The documents submitted by Child Welfare Committee include a statement given by victim before Child Welfare Committee, wherein allegations made in FIR, statements recorded under Sections 161 and 164 Cr.P.C. were completely supported, therefore, Court proceed to consider this bail application on premise that victim's version still remain same, despite she now being a major girl.

10. It is not in dispute that number of co-accused have been granted bail and some of accused persons have also approached this Court for quashing of criminal proceedings, wherein interim protection qua to applicants therein have been granted. I have also perused the bail orders passed by Coordinate Benches of this Court whereby co-accused have been granted bail. Though some of the orders appear to be very detail however no reason, as required by judgments passed by Supreme Court in Manoj Kumar Khokhar (supra) and Brijmani Devi (supra), has been given. Therefore, plea of parity cannot be accepted and Court proceed to consider this bail application on its own merit.

11. Applicant's relationship with victim is not in dispute that he is the father of victim. According to statement of victim, which remained consistent in FIR and statements under Sections 161 and 164 Cr.P.C., the first alleged perpetrator was her father (applicant), when she was a student of Class VI and she repeated the offence thereafter also and further that he allegedly put victim to have physical relationship with other persons. The co-accused have allegedly raped her with consent of her father and even she was raped by her close relatives and other persons also. The allegations, therefore, are very serious against applicant as allegedly he has betrayed a pious relationship of father and daughter.

12. Still there is merit in the argument of learned counsel for applicant that narration of prosecution story by victim appears to be exaggerated. Victim has narrated number of incidents of rape by number of persons during a period of many years. However, she was not able to point out a single place of occurrence as well as a single date or month of occurrence. Court is conscious that narration of facts of victim remained consistent in FIR lodged by her and in her statements recorded under Sections 161 and 164 Cr.P.C., however, a factor of improbability also comes into picture, when conduct of victim's mother is considered that she has not make any attempt to protest or lodge any FIR despite she was aware that her daughter was undergoing sexual assault for several years.

13. In addition to above, there is another factor which requires consideration that all the co-accused have been granted bail by this Court against whom very serious allegation of rape was levelled. In these circumstances, Court is inclined to grant bail to applicant also.

14. However, applicant is directed to remain present on each and every date as and when required by Trial Court during trial and in case any application for exemption on vague ground is filed, the same shall be a ground for Trial Court to cancel bail immediately.

15. Let the applicant-Rajendra Agarwal alias Bablu be released on bail in the aforesaid case crime number on furnishing a personal bond and two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of the Court concerned with the following conditions which are being imposed in the interest of justice:-

(i) The applicant will not tamper with prosecution evidence and will not harm or harass the victim/complainant in any manner whatsoever.

(ii) The applicant shall file an undertaking to the effect that he shall not seek any adjournment or exemption from appearance on the date fixed in trial. In case of default of this condition, it shall be open for the Trial Court to treat it as abuse of liberty of bail and pass orders in accordance with law.

(iii) The applicant will not misuse the liberty of bail in any manner whatsoever. In case, the applicant misuses the liberty of bail during trial and in order to secure his presence proclamation under Section 82 Cr.P.C., may be issued and if applicant fails to appear before the Court on the date fixed in such proclamation, then, the Trial Court shall initiate proceedings against him, in accordance with law, under section 174-A I.P.C.

(iv) The Trial Court may make all possible efforts/endeavour and try to conclude the trial expeditiously, preferably within a period of six months after release of applicant, if there is no other legal impediment.

(v) The applicant will not enter in the area of District Lalitpur for a period of six months from today, except for the purpose of present case with prior information to Trial Court and meanwhile, Trial Court is directed to record statement of victim.

16. The identity, status and residential proof of sureties will be verified by Court concerned and in case of breach of any of the conditions mentioned above, Court concerned will be at liberty to cancel the bail and send the applicant to prison.

17. The bail application is allowed.

18. It is made clear that the observations made hereinabove are only for the purpose of adjudicating the present bail application.

19. Before parting with this judgment, I propose to deal with the duties, responsibilities and statutory status of Child Welfare Committee.

20. Under Chapter III of the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2000 (hereinafter referred to as "JJ Act, 2000") under the heading of "Child in Need of Care and Protection", concept of Child Welfare Committee was introduced.

21. Section 29 of JJ Act, 2000 describes formation of Child Welfare Committee. Section 30 provides procedure etc. in relation to Committee. Section 31 provides powers of Committee that Committee shall have the final authority to dispose of cases for the care, protection, treatment, development and rehabilitation of children as well as to provide for their basic needs and protection of human rights. These provisions are almost reiterated in Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2015 (hereinafter referred to as "JJ Act, 2015") under Chapter V from Section 27 onwards.

22. In exercise of powers conferred by proviso to sub-section (1) of Section 110 of JJ Act, 2015 State of U.P. has framed Uttar Pradesh Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Rules, 2019 (hereinafter referred to as "JJ Rules, 2019") with conforms to Model Rules made by Government of India.

23. Rules with regard to Child Welfare Committee are mentioned in Chapter IV of JJ Rules, 2019. Rule 16 provides rules and procedure of Committee and Rule 17 provides additional functions and responsibilities of Committee. Said rules are reproduced hereinafter:

"16. Rules and Procedures of Committee.-(1) The Chairperson and members of the Committee shall be paid such sitting allowance, travel allowance and any other allowance, as the State Government may prescribe but not less than Rs. 1500 (One Thousand and Five Hundred) per sitting.

(2) A visit to an existing Child Care Institution by the Committee shall be considered as a sitting of the Committee.

(3) The Committee shall hold its sittings in the premises of a children's home or at a place in proximity to the children's home or, at a suitable premises in any institution run under the Act for children in need of care and protection.

(4) The Committee shall ensure that no person(s) un-connected with the case remains present in the room when the session is in progress.

(5) The Committee shall ensure that only those person(s), in the presence of whom the child feels comfortable, shall be allowed to remain present during the sitting.

(6) At least one member of the Committee shall always be available or accessible to take cognizance of any matter of emergency and issue necessary directions to the Special Juvenile Police Unit or local police of the district. For this purpose the Chairperson of the Committee shall draw up a monthly duty roster of the Committee members who shall be available and accessible every day, including on Sundays and holidays.

The roster shall be circulated in advance to all the police stations, the Chief Judicial Magistrate/Chief Metropolitan Magistrate, the District Judge. the District Magistrate, the Board, the District Child Protection Unit and the Special Juvenile Police Unit.

(7) The Committee shall sit on all working days for a minimum of six hours commensurate with the working hours of a Magistrate Court, unless the case pendency is less in a particular district and the State Government concerned issues an order in this regard:

Provided that the State Government may. by notification in the Official Gazette constitute more than one Committee in a district after giving due consideration to the pendency of the cases, area or terrain of the district. population density or any other consideration.

(8) On receiving information about a child or children in need of care and protection, who cannot be produced before the Committee, the Committee shall reach out to the child or children and hold its sitting at a place that is convenient for such child or children.

(9) While communicating with the child, the Committee members shall use child friendly techniques through their conduct.

(10) The Committee shall hold its sittings in a child-friendly premises which shall not look like a court room in any manner and the sitting arrangement should be such to enable the Committee to interact with the child face to face.

(11) The Committee shall not sit on a raised platform and there shall be no barriers, such as witness boxes or bars between the Committee and the children.

(12) The Committee shall be provided infrastructure and staff by the State Government."

"17. Additional Functions and Responsibilities of the Committee.-In addition to the functions and responsibilities of the Committee under Section 30 of the Act, the Committee shall perform the following functions to achieve the objectives of the Act, namely:

(i) document and maintain detailed case record along with a case summary of every case dealt by the Committee in Form 15;

(ii) maintain a suggestion box or grievance redressal box at a prominent place in the premises of the Committee to encourage inputs from children and adults alike which shall be operated by the District Magistrate or his nominee;

(iii) ensure smooth functioning of Children's Committees in the Child Care Institutions for children in need of care and protection within its jurisdiction, for realising children's participation in the affairs and management of the said Child Care Institutions;

(iv) review the Children's Suggestion Book at least once a month;

(v) send quarterly information in Form 16 about children in need of care and protection received by it to the District Magistrate with all relevant details on nature of disposal of cases, pending cases and reasons for such pendency:

(vi) wherever required, issue rehabilitation card in Form 14 to children in need of care and protection to monitor their progress;

(vii) maintain the following records in a register:

(a) entries of the cases listed in a day and next date and the Committee shall prepare a daily cause list of the cases before it;

(b) entries and particulars of children brought before the Committee and details of the Child Care Institution where the children are placed or the address where the children are sent;

(c) execution of bonds;

(d) movement including visits to institutions;

(e) children declared legally free for adoption;

(f) children recommended for or placed in sponsorship;

(g) children placed in individual or group foster care;

(h) children transferred to or received from another Committee;

(i) children for whom follow up is to be done;

(j) children placed in aftercare:

(k) inspection record of the Committee;

(l) record of Minutes of the meetings of the Committee:

(m) correspondence received and sent;

(n) any other record or register which the Committee may require.

(viii) all information listed in clause (vii) of this rule may be digitized and a software may be developed by the State Government."

24. Later on there were certain amendments w.e.f. 01.09.2022 in Rule 15 of Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Model Rules, 2016, which still to be incorporated in in JJ Rules, 2019.

25. The above referred procedure of Committee and additional functions and responsibilities of Committee entrusted a great responsibility to Child Welfare Committee that it shall hold its sittings in the premises of a children's home or, at a place in proximity of children's home or, at a suitable premises in any institution run under the Act for children in need of care and protection. It further provides that it shall be ensured that no person or persons unconnected with case remains present in room when session is in progress and only those persons shall be allowed to remain present, in presence of whom child feels comfortable. Committee shall hold its sittings in a child friendly premises which shall not look like a Court Room in any manner. Committee has to review the Children's Suggestion Book atleast once in a month.

26. Concept of Child Welfare Committee has important factor in implementation of JJ Act, 2015 and JJ Rules, 2019. In the present case considering gravity of allegations, victim does require a very special and effective counselling by an experienced counsellor.

27. In the backdrop of above referred statutory provisions it is clear that Child Welfare Committee has a great responsibility when it is dealing with a case of minor girl victim, as the case in hand, who has suffered mental and physical trauma of repeated assault for many years. In such cases it would not be a mere formality of Child Welfare Committee to comply with above referred statutory provisions but it would require more cautious approach. In such cases victim should be dealt with extra care and responsibility and for that members of Child Welfare Committee required a trained support system, who can undertake counselling of such victims keeping in view their sufferings.

28. National Commission for Protection of Child Rights (NCPCR) has launched a training module for Child Welfare Committee. The module will be more beneficiary if it includes a requisite training to deal with minor victims of sexual assault.

29. Effect of act/ offence of rape is not momentary but it got pasted on mind, heart, body and soul of the victim and the object of Child Welfare Committee is to undertake such endeavours to erase such memories by counselling and it should be done by well trained counsellors who have experience of treating such minor victims under proper guidance.

30. In view of above, Ministry of Women and Child Development, Government of U.P., Lucknow through its Secretary is directed to ponder on above referred issue by initiating process of interaction with all stakeholders in order to make Child Welfare Committee and its Members more competent, more responsible, more generous and more compassionate to deal with such cases, as the case in hand.

31. While undertaking above exercise it shall also take note the provisions of Rule 35 of JJ Rules, 2019 which provides mental health for children at Child Care Institution. Sub-rule (5) thereof provides that every Institution shall have the services of trained counsellors or collaboration with external agencies such as child guidance centres, psychology and psychiatric departments or similar Government and non-Governmental agencies, for specialized and regular individual therapy for child.

32. The object of above exercise is to provide sincere and appropriate counselling to minor victim and exercise shall not be limited to above observations. It is up to the senior officers of Department to come up with a concrete plan in order to achieve the above referred observations of this Court.

33. Registrar (Compliance) is directed to send a copy of this order to Secretary, Ministry of Women and Child Development, Government of U.P., Lucknow who shall undertake above exercise and submit report thereof before this Court.

34. List this matter after six months before appropriate Bench only for perusal of report submitted by Secretary, Ministry of Women and Child Development, Government of U.P., Lucknow.

(2023) 4 ILRA 451
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 18.04.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SAURABH SHYAM SHAMSHERY, J.

Crl. Misc. IInd Bail Application No. 51332 of 2022

Ankit Kumar Yadav ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. ...Respondent

Counsel for the Applicant:
Dr. D.B. Singh

Counsel for the Respondent:
Sri Sunil Srivastava, A.G.A.

(A) Criminal Law - Second Bail - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 302 & 201 - First bail application rejected by reasoned order - co-accused granted bail - subsequent event - applicant in jail since 03.03.2022 - charges not framed till date - Suppression of a material fact by not disclosing application for discharge - Applicant and co-accused were arrested on the spot - hammer and phones recovered from their motorcycle -9 c.m. long with head of diameter of 4 c.m- Observation of Coordinate Bench - "recovery of vivo mobile phone" from applicant - false and planted.(Para -2 to 12 ,16)

HELD:- Observation without consideration of any material on record has no legal consequence. No subsequent event of fact or law which requires consideration of Court in the present second bail application.(Para - 16,17)

Second Bail application rejected. (E-7)

List of Cases cited:

Ramanand @ Nandlal Bharti Vs St. of U.P., 2022 SCC OnLine SC 1396

(Delivered by Hon'ble Saurabh Shyam Shamshery, J.)

1. This is second bail application filed on behalf of applicant who is facing trial in Case Crime No. 36 of 2022 under Sections 302, 201 I.P.C., Police Station- Chilh, District- Mirzapur.

2. The first bail application of applicant was rejected by this Court on 14.09.2022 by a reasoned order. In the order, it was taken note that co-accused Radhey Shyam Yadav was granted bail by an order dated 08.07.2022. For reference, reasons given therein are mentioned hereinafter :-

"I have given thoughtful consideration to the contentions raised by learned counsel for the parties. At the very outset, it is clarified that the role played by the accused-applicant is distinct from co-accused Radhe Shyam. From the possession of the accused-applicant, the mobile phone of the deceased was recovered and on his alleged disclosure statement a hammer from dickey of his motorcycle was also recovered. The accused has disclosed that by playing deceitful means he took the accused at lonely place near old railway track on the promise that he will provide him drink and a girl will also come there. The blood was also found on the lower part of the hammer. On his disclosure, the bloodstained water bottle was also recovered.

Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the case and the evidence available on record as well as severity of punishment and the manner in which murder of Sunil Yadav close relative as alleged was committed by accused,

I do not find it fit for bail. Accordingly, the bail application of the applicant is rejected."

3. Present bail application was filed on 03.11.2022 i.e. within less than 2 months after the first bail application was rejected.

4. In the application, averments are mostly on merit of the case and only subsequent event is that the applicant is in jail since 03.03.2022, however, till date even charges are not framed.

5. On direction of this Court, the Trial Court has submitted a status report that the case was referred to Additional Sessions Judge on 04.06.2022. Applicant and co-accused have filed applications for discharge which were dismissed on 02.03.2023 and thereafter charges were framed under Sections 302/34 and 201 I.P.C. on same day.

6. Applicant has not disclosed that he has filed an application for discharge, therefore, the Trial Court could not be blamed for that no charge was framed. This is a suppression of a material fact.

7. It transpires from above referred facts that after the first bail application was rejected on 14.09.2022 and till the second bail application was filed on 03.11.2022, the trial could not proceed due to discharge applications filed by applicant and co-accused, therefore, there is no subsequent event to consider this bail application.

8. Dr. S.B. Singh, learned counsel for applicant has argued on merit that first bail application was rejected that many incriminating materials were recovered on pointing out of applicant, whereas co-accused was granted bail. Recovery was false and planted. Learned counsel has placed reliance upon a judgment passed by Supreme Court in Ramanand alias Nandlal Bharti vs. State of Uttar Pradesh, 2022 SCC OnLine SC 1396 and particularly its paragraph 53, that recovery panchnama in present case was deficient in all the relevant objects described in said paragraph. Paragraph 53 of said judgment is quoted hereinafter :-

"53. If, it is say of the investigating officer that the accused appellant while in custody on his own free will and volition made a statement that he would lead to the place where he had hidden the weapon of offence along with his blood stained clothes then the first thing that the investigating officer should have done was to call for two independent witnesses at the police station itself. Once the two independent witnesses arrive at the police station thereafter in their presence the accused should be asked to make an appropriate statement as he may desire in regard to pointing out the place where he is said to have hidden the weapon of offence. When the accused while in custody makes such statement before the two independent witnesses (panch witnesses) the exact statement or rather the exact words uttered by the accused should be incorporated in the first part of the panchnama that the investigating officer may draw in accordance with law. This first part of the panchnama for the purpose of Section 27 of the Evidence Act is always drawn at the police station in the presence of the independent witnesses so as to lend credence that a particular statement was made by the accused expressing his willingness on his own free will and volition to point out the place where the weapon of offence or any other article used in the commission of the offence had been hidden. Once the first part of the panchnama is completed thereafter the police party along with the accused and the two independent witnesses (panch witnesses) would proceed to the particular place as may be led by the accused. If from that particular place anything like the weapon of offence or blood stained clothes or any other article is discovered then that part of the entire process would form the second part of the panchnama. This is how the law expects the investigating officer to draw the discovery panchnama as contemplated under Section 27 of the Evidence Act. If we read the entire oral evidence of the investigating officer then it is clear that the same is deficient in all the aforesaid relevant aspects of the matter."

9. Learned counsel has submitted that aforesaid judgment is a subsequent event and if the recovery memo is tested with aforesaid law of preparation of a memo of recovery, the memo of present case shall have no legal bearing.

10. Sri Sunil Srivastava, learned A.G.A. for State submitted that since first bail application was dismissed on merit, therefore, consideration of a judgment would be akin to review the order which is not permissible and for that applicant has to challenge the order before Supreme Court and since there is no subsequent event for consideration, therefore, this second bail application may be rejected.

11. Learned counsel for applicant has raised a point of law, therefore, I have carefully perused the arrest and recovery memo, a part of record.

12. According to arrest memo/recovery, the applicant and co-accused were intercepted on a road and were arrested on spot. Both accused persons have narrated manner of crime and a hammer and phones were recovered from their motorcycle and on personal search, therefore, in present case the procedure that statement of accused be recorded in presence of two witnesses at police station that they wanted to show the incriminating material does not require. They are not taken to police station.

13. The memo has disclosed the informant Arvind Yadav and uncle of deceased Vijay Kumar also reached at the place of arrest as well as on the spot of arrest the accused have stated that they can point out other incriminating items and the police party along with witnesses and accused persons went the place and incriminating items were recovered on their pointing out. The names of independent witness as mentioned in memo are Skand Verma and Avesh Yadav, therefore, even the relevant aspects mentioned in paragraph 53 of Ramanand (supra) are prima facie satisfied.

14. The Supreme Court in Ramanand (supra) has considered the testimony of I.O. therein as well as of punch witnesses and only thereafter held that recovery memo was not proved and proceeded to consider other aspects of said case also. However, in the present case, testimony of I.O. and witnesses of panch are still to be led before Trial Court, therefore, at this stage, it cannot be held that memo of recovery is not proved or it was prepared contrary to procedure prescribed if any, as well as I have already mentioned that prima facie, there is no illegality in the arrest memo/recovery memo even in view of judgment of Ramanand (supra) and other aspects will be considered by Trial Court on basis of evidence.

15. The hammer recovered from applicant is 9 c.m. long with head of diameter of 4 c.m. An argument is raised that nature of injuries could not be caused by a hammer and size of lacerated wounds are 4cm x 1.5cm, 3cm x 1cm, 4cm x 1.5cm, 3cm x 1cm, 5cm x 4cm, 8cm x 3cm occipital region #fracture and Lw on Rt. parietal region with #fracture, which prima facie corroborate the size of hammer. 4 laceration is a tear produced by blunt trauma. The force and direction determine appearance, depth and associated injuries are such as fractures. Injuries caused by hammer blows are example of laceration, therefore, prima facie above argument has also no force.

16. It is also relevant to mention here that coordinate Bench has observed that "recovery of vivo mobile phone" from applicant is false and planted and the same does not belong to deceased. However, it appears that it was an observation without consideration of any material on record, therefore, it has no legal consequence as well as role assigned to co-accused is of providing a hammer to applicant and causing disappearance of dead body, whereas role assigned to present applicant to cause multiple injuries to deceased.

17. In view of above, there is no subsequent event of fact or law which requires consideration of this Court in the present second bail application.

18. The second bail application is hereby rejected.

(2023) 4 ILRA 455
REVISIONAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 13.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE J.J. MUNIR, J.

Civil Revision No. 80 of 2022

Smt. Jyoti ...Revisionist
Versus
Ankit Dubey ...Opp. Party

Counsel for the Revisionist:
Sri Gaurav Tripathi

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
Sri Puneet Bhadauriya

A. Family Law – Family Court Act, 1984 – Sections 10(1), 19(1) & 19(5) – Civil Procedure Code – S. 115 – Revision – Maintainability – Order passed on amendment application – Interlocutory order having the trapping of 'Judgment' is appealable u/s 19 or not – Held, upon a reading of Sections 10(1) and 19(5) of the Act of 1984 together, the position that emerges is that no revision from an order of the Family Court is competent except one that arises from a final order passed under Chapter IX of the Code of Criminal Procedure – The party, therefore, aggrieved by an interlocutory order may question it in appeal, if it has the trappings of a judgment, or so to speak is an order of moment pronouncing upon rights of parties – There is no avenue of a revision under Section 115 of the Code open to a party aggrieved by an order of the Family Court – High Court held revision not maintainable. (Para 20, 23 and 24)

Revision dismissed. (E-1)

List of Cases cited:

1. Sudhanshu Gupta Vs Komal Gupta; 2019 (5) AWC 4434

2. Smt. Raj Shri Agarwal @ Ram Shri Agarwal & anr. Vs Sudheer Mohan & ors.; 2022 (5) AWC 4192

3. Major Raja P. Singh Vs Smt. Surendra Kumari; AIR 1991 Raj 133

4. Kanupriya Vs Ashutosh Agrawal; AIR 2017 Utt 166

5. Smt. Kiran Bala Srivastava Vs Jai Prakash Srivastava; 2005 (23) LCD 1

6. Yogish Arora Vs Smt. Jennette Yogish Arora @ Miss Jennettee Dsouza; 2018 (9) ADJ 379

7. Sana Afrin Vs Zohaib Khan; AIR 2021 All 40

(Delivered by Hon'ble J.J. Munir, J.)

This civil revision is directed against an order of Smt. Renu Singh, Additional Principal Judge, Family Court, Etawah dated May the 31st, 2022, allowing the respondent's application, seeking amendment to his petition for divorce under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 (for short, 'the HMA').

2. A petition under Section 13 of HMA was instituted by the sole respondent, Ankit Dubey against the revisionist, Smt. Jyoti Dubey before the Principal Judge, Family Court, Agra, which was numbered on the file of the Principal Judge, Family Court, aforesaid as HM Petition No.291 of 2017. A decree for divorce was sought on the ground of cruelty.

3. It appears that the wife, who is a resident of Etawah, has secured a transfer of proceedings from the Principal Judge, Family Court, Agra to the Family Court at Etawah. The petition for divorce as aforesaid is pending before the Additional Principal Judge, Family Court, Etawah. This fact is not stated on record, but that is the only logical conclusion to be drawn considering that the proceedings commenced before the Family Court, Agra and are now pending at Etawah, where the revisionist-wife resides.

4. Pending the divorce petition, the respondent moved to amend it on the basis of certain supervening events that he sought to plead in order to establish his case of actionable cruelty. The aforesaid amendment application was made on 06.04.2022, which was assigned paper No. 57-Ka on the file of the Trial Court, that is to say, the Court of the Additional Principal Judge, Family Court, Etawah. An objection to the amendment application was filed on behalf of the revisionist which was marked as paper No.65-Ga.

5. The thrust of the revisionist's objection before the Trial Court was that the amendment application being one made seeking to plead facts based on events that had occurred five years ago, the proposed amendment is highly belated which ought to be refused on that ground. Those events, even if true, would give rise to a cause of action to institute and pursue a criminal prosecution. Otherwise too, the facts sought to be pleaded were incorrect. The Trial Court by the order impugned has granted the amendment subject to payment of Rs.3000/- in costs by the respondent to the revisionist. The Trial Court has reasoned that cruelty is already a cause of action which the respondent has pleaded to found his claim for a decree of divorce, besides others. Since cruelty is already a ground pleaded in the petition, the facts sought to be brought in through amendment do not change the nature of the respondent's case. It was also remarked that issues have not been framed as yet, and, therefore, permitting the amendment would not prejudice the revisionist's case. It was also remarked that since the amendment has been sought after a long delay, it would be appropriate to compensate the other side by awarding costs.

6. Heard Mr. Gaurav Tripathi, learned Counsel for the revisionist in support of the motion to admit this Revision to hearing and Mr. Puneet Bhadauriya, Advocate who has opposed the motion on the question of maintainability.

7. Mr. Puneet Bhadauriya, learned Counsel for the respondent has raised an objection about the maintainability of this civil revision under Section 115 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (for short, 'the Code') urging that in the case of proceedings before the Family Court, governed by the Family Courts Act, 1984 (for short, 'the Act of 1984'), no revision lies from any of its orders under Section 115 of the Code, which may otherwise be maintainable on the ground that the order is a "case decided' within the meaning of that provision in the Code, as amended in its application to the State of Uttar Pradesh. He submits elaborating that even if a civil revision be competent against the kind of the order impugned here, if passed by a Civil Court, it would not be maintainable since the order has been made by the Family Court governed by the provisions of the Act of 1984. The learned Counsel for the respondent in aid of his submissions has relied upon the decision of this Court in Sudhanshu Gupta v. Komal Gupta, 2019 (5) AWC 4434. It is urged that the said decision holds that an order rejecting an amendment application, where it is made by a Family Court, is not revisable but appealable.

8. Refuting the above submission advanced by Mr. Bhadauriya, Mr. Gaurav Tripathi, learned Counsel for the revisionist has relied upon a later decision of this Court in Smt. Raj Shri Agarwal @ Ram Shri Agarwal and another v. Sudheer Mohan and others, 2022 (5) AWC 4192. Learned Counsel for the revisionist submits that in Smt. Raj Shri Agarwal (supra), this Court has clearly held that against an order rejecting an application seeking amendment to the petition filed before the Court, the remedy of a revision under Section 115 of the Code is open, and a petition under Article 227 of the Constitution to challenge that order is not maintainable.

9. This Court has considered the rival submissions advanced on behalf of parties about the maintainability of this revision under Section 115 of the Code.

10. The Act of 1984, under which the Family Courts are established and function, is a special statute, which sets up a special class of courts for the trial and decision of a very specific and different kind of causes, to wit, matrimonial causes. Matrimonial causes are reputed to be very different about everything from other classes of litigation. This is so because matrimonial causes are concerned about resolving conflicts arising out of the relationship between a husband and wife, and, what is known to the contemporary society as the nuclear family. A nuclear family comprises the husband, the wife and their minor children. This family in contemporary times is the mainstay of society, in the absence of which the society itself may disintegrate or go irremediably wayward. Therefore, it is the pious duty of the Family Court to carefully and expeditiously resolve disputes relating to marriage and family affairs. The enacting clause of the Act of 1984 reads:

"An Act to provide for the establishment of Family Courts with a view to promote conciliation in, and secure speedy settlement of, disputes relating to marriage and family affairs and for matters connected therewith."

11. The statement of objects and reasons of the Act of 1984 are of much relevance here and, therefore, being quoted below:

"Statement of Objects and Reasons.--Several associations of women, other organisations and individuals have urged, from time to time, that Family Courts be set up for the settlement of family disputes, where emphasis should be laid on conciliation and achieving socially desirable results and adherence to rigid rules of procedure and evidence should be eliminated. The Law Commission in its 59th report (1974) had also stressed that in dealing with disputes concerning the family the court ought to adopt an approach radically different from that adopted in ordinary civil proceedings and that it should make reasonable efforts at settlement before the commencement of the trial. The Code of Civil Procedure was amended in 1976 to provide for a special procedure to be adopted in suits or proceedings relating to matters concerning the family. However, not much use has been made by the courts in adopting this conciliatory procedure and the courts continue to deal with family disputes in the same manner as other civil matters and the same adversary approach prevails. The need was, therefore, felt, in the public interest, to establish Family Courts for speedy settlement of family disputes.

2. The Bill inter alia, seeks to:--

(a) provide for establishment of Family Courts by the State Governments;

(b) make it obligatory on the State Governments to set up a Family Court in every city or town with a population exceeding one million;

(c) enable the State Governments to set up, such courts in areas other than those specified in (b) above;

(d) exclusively provide within the jurisdiction of the family Courts the matters relating to:--

(i) matrimonial relief, including nullity of marriage, judicial separation, divorce, restitution of conjugal rights, or declaration as to the validity of a marriage or as to the matrimonial status of any person;

(ii) the property of the spouses or of either of them;

(iii) declaration as to the legitimacy of any person;

(iv) guardianship of a person or the custody of any minor;

(v) maintenance, including proceedings under Chapter IX of the Code of Criminal Procedure;

(e) make it obligatory on the part of the Family Court to endeavour, in the first instance to effect a reconciliation or a settlement between the parties to a family dispute. During this stage, the proceedings will be informal and the rigid rules of procedure shall not apply;

(f) provide for the association of social welfare agencies, counsellors, etc., during conciliation stage and also to secure the services of medical and welfare experts;

(g) provide that the parties to a dispute before a Family Court shall not be entitled, as of right, to be represented by legal practitioner. However, the Court may, in the interest of justice, seek assistance of a legal expert as amicus curiae;

(h) simplify the rules of evidence and procedure so as to enable a Family Court to deal effectually with a dispute;

(i) provide for only one right of appeal which shall lie to the High Court.

3. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objects."

12. The Family Courts though no doubt Courts in the sense understood in law as fora established for the hearing and determination of disputes between parties, are not Courts that are part of the general civil judicature. As already remarked, these are special courts established to decide a special class of disputes, that is to say, disputes relating to marriage and family affairs. These Courts are required to be established by the State Government by virtue of Section 3 of the Act of 1984 after consultation with the High Court by notification. The local limits of the territorial jurisdiction of a Family Court is also required to be specified by notification to be made by the State Government, also in consultation with the High Court. Judges to the Courts so established by the State Government are again required to be appointed by the State Government with the concurrence of the High Court. Section 4 provides for the appointment of the Judges to Family Courts, their qualifications and other matters. The provisions of Sections 3 and 4 if read together would remove every iota of doubt that Family Courts established under the Act of 1984 are not part of the general civil judicature, the latter being Courts which exist for the determination of every civil cause, where a civil right is affected, unless their jurisdiction is expressly or impliedly barred by statute. The Code applies to the established Civil Courts proprio vigore and all procedure to be followed in these Courts is exhaustively governed by it. In the case of the Family Courts, however, since these exercise a facet of the jurisdiction, which otherwise by its character was earlier vested in the established Civil Courts, the Statute (Act of 1984) in its wisdom provides vide Section 10 thus :

"10. Procedure generally.--(1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act and the rules, the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908) and of any other law for the time being in force shall apply to the suits and proceedings (other than the proceedings under Chapter IX of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973) (2 of 1974), before a Family Court and for the purposes of the said provisions of the Code, Family Court shall be deemed to be a civil court and shall have all the powers of such court.

(2) Subject to the other provisions of this Act and the rules, the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974) or the rules made thereunder, shall apply to the proceedings under Chapter IX of that Code before a Family Court.

(3) Nothing in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall prevent a Family Court from laying down its own procedure with a view to arrive at a settlement in respect of the subject-matter of the suit or proceedings or at the truth of the facts alleged by the one Party and denied by the other."

(emphasis by Court)

13. Chapter V of the Act of 1984 is also of immense importance to the understanding of the issue that arises here. The Chapter is titled: "Appeals and Revisions". It comprises a single section, to wit, Section 19. Section 19 and Chapter V of the Act of 1984 is a complete code about the remedies available to a party aggrieved by an order made by the Family Court. It would profit to reproduce in extenso the provisions of Chapter V of the Act of 1984. These read:

"Chapter V

APPEALS AND REVISIONS

19. Appeal.--(1) Save as provided in sub-section (2) and notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908) or in the Code or Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974), or in any other law, an appeal shall lie from every judgement or order, not being an interlocutory order, of a Family Court to the High Court both on facts and on law.

(2) No appeal shall lie from a decree or order passed by the Family Court with the consent of the parties or from an order passed under Chapter IX of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974):

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall apply to any appeal pending before a High Court or any order passed under Chapter IX of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974) before the commencement of the Family Courts (Amendment) Act, 1991.

(3) Every appeal under this section shall be preferred within a period of thirty days from the date of the judgement or order of a Family Court.

(4) The High Court may, of its own motion or otherwise, call for an examine the record of any proceeding in which the Family Court situate within its jurisdiction passed an order under Chapter IX of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974) for the purpose of satisfying itself as to the correctness, legality or propriety of the order, not being an interlocutory order, and as to the regularity of such proceeding.

(5) Except as aforesaid, no appeal or revision shall lie to any court from any judgment, order or decree of a Family Court.

(6) An appeal preferred under sub-section (1) shall be heard by a Bench consisting of two or more Judges."

(emphasis by Court)

14. Sudhanshu Gupta *(supra), upon which Mr. Puneet Bhadauriya has relied to say that a civil revision from an order of the Family Court, allowing an amendment application is not maintainable, holds:

"11. From a bare perusal of Section 10, it emerges that the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure are applicable to the proceedings under the Family Courts Act. However, the provisions of CPC are subject to other provisions of this Act and the Rules framed, thereunder. Therefore, the provisions of the CPC are applicable to the proceedings before the Family Court but these provisions are subject to and circumcised by the provisions of the Family Courts Act itself as also the rules framed thereunder.

12. Section 19 on the other hand starts with a non-obstante clause, namely, "notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Civil Procedure." It therefore necessarily follows that an appeal lies against every order passed by the Family Court, which is not an interlocutory order, despite any provision of the CPC to the contrary.

13. The Full Bench decision cited by counsel for the revisionist, namely Rama Shanker Tiwari Vs. Mahadeo and Ors., 1968 (38) AWR 103, holds that an order under Order 6 Rule 17 CPC, either allowing or refusing to allow an amendment, is a "case decided".

14. Although, this judgment has been relied upon by counsel for the revisionist to submit that the revision is maintainable, in my considered opinion, this judgment necessarily holds against the revisionist. Once it is accepted that an order rejecting an amendment application is a case decided, it necessarily follows that it is not an interlocutory order and is therefore, appealable under Section 19 of the Family Courts Act.

15. The revision is not maintainable also because sub-section 3 of Section 115 CPC as applicable in U.P. provides that the Superior Court shall not, under this section, vary or reverse any order made, except where the order, if it had been made in favour of the party applying for revision, would have finally disposed of the suit or other proceedings. Even if the order impugned is set-aside and the amendment application of the revisionist is allowed, the proceedings before the Family Court shall not stand finally disposed of.

16. Under the circumstances, the order impugned in this revision being a final order and not an interlocutory order, it is clearly appealable under Section 19 of the Family Courts Act and for this reason alone, the revision is necessarily not maintainable. This is so because no revision lies against an order which is appealable."

15. In Sudhanshu Gupta, this Court has taken the view that a civil revision does not lie from an order of the Family Court rejecting an amendment application under Order VI Rule 17 of the Code, because it amounts to a case decided and, therefore, not an interlocutory order within the meaning of Section 19 of the Act of 1984, making it appealable. It, therefore, excludes a revision. While agreeing with the conclusion in Sudhanshu Gupta, I am of opinion that there could be added or very different reasons to reach the same conclusion.

16. On the other hand, the decision relied upon by Mr. Gaurav Tripathi, learned Counsel for the revisionist in Smt. Raj Shri Agarwal (supra) shows that the said decision has no bearing at all on the point involved in this case. The reason is that the petition under Article 227 of the Constitution, that was filed from an order of the Trial Court rejecting the amendment application in the aforesaid case, was an order made by the Civil Court, that is to say, the Additional District Judge, Agra in an original suit. The principles, therefore, laid down in Smt. Raj Shri Agarwal, do not have the remotest application to the issue that has arisen here.

17. A similar issue, though not identical to the one that arises here, fell for consideration before a Division Bench of the Rajasthan High Court in Major Raja P. Singh v. Smt. Surendra Kumari, AIR 1991 Raj 133. In Major Raja P. Singh (supra), the Family Court, Jodhpur had passed an order rejecting two separate applications made by the appellant in that case. The first was an application where the appellant, who was the petitioner before the Family Court, prayed that his signatures be compared with those on documents Exhibits 2, 15 and 52. By the other application, relief was sought to add new grounds to the divorce petition. Both the applications were rejected by the Family Court. As facts appear in the report, the order rejecting amendment application was impugned in appeal before the High Court under Section 19 of the Act of 1984. The issue precisely in the appeal before the Division Bench was whether the order of the Family Court could be regarded as final and amenable to appeal under Section 19. It was in that context that the Division Bench held:

"11. The object of this Special Law of the Family Courts Act is to decide the matrimonial cases in a speedy manner. If, the order rejecting or allowing an amendment application will be termed as the case decided for the purpose of this Act and is appealable then, in ordinary course of law the decision of such cases would take years to come to reach the finality of the matter. In order to achieve the object of the Act i.e. speedy settlement of dispute relating to marriage, the purpose of expeditious trial is frustrated. That apart if the legislature intended that all interlocutory order be appealable, it should not have used the word in S. 19 of the Act "not being an interlocutory order" and that is why no appeal or revision has been provided. This Court in D.B. Civil Misc. Appeal No. 107/90 Smt. Vijay Kaur v. Radhey Shyam decided on 1-8-1990 has held that the order relating to adjournment cost is an interlocutory order and appeal is not maintainable u/Sec. 19 of the Act. In this view of the matter, the order dated 6-4-1989 cannot be termed finally deciding the case i.e. the controversy being settled. The parties can agitate the point in appeal after final disposal of the case by the trial court. In our considered opinion, the allowing or refusing an amendment is an interlocutory order against which no appeal u/sec. 19 of Act is provided. In conclusion the preliminary objection is sustained and it is held that the order dated 6-4-1989 is an interlocutory order and no appeal lies to this Court." (emphasis by Court)

18. The issue whether an order by the Family Court allowing amendment to the plaint is appealable under Section 19 of the Act of 1984 came up for decision before a Division Bench of Uttarakhand High Court in Kanupriya v. Ashutosh Agrawal, AIR 2017 Utt 166. In Kanupriya (supra) after an extensive review of the authority on the point, it was held :

"16. Therefore, it can be seen that there is no uniform understanding of the word "interlocutory order". The word assumes the meaning from the context of the statute and the purpose of the statute. We have already noticed that the Apex Court in (1974) 2 SCC 387 took the view that an order of amendment can, in certain situations, be treated as a judgment. The court took the view that, if the amendment merely allows the plaintiff to state a new cause of action or ask a new relief or include a new ground of relief, all that happens is that it is possible for the plaintiff to make further contentions. The court does not decide the correctness of the contentions at that stage. It was found that such amendment merely regulates the procedure applicable. It does not decide any question touching the merit of the controversy. In a case, where, however, the defence of immunity available to the defendant is taken away in the matter of limitation, it becomes a judgment. That case, as already noticed, related to an intra-court appeal. Here, we are concerned with the Family Courts Act. Amendments of pleadings are of different kinds. If an appeal is allowed against amendments ordered, one way to look at it is that the matter would be decided at that stage and he does not have to wait for an opportunity, which he, undoubtedly, has to challenge the order of amendment in the course of the appeal against the final order, which would be passed. It could be that, at that stage, if the appellate court finds that the amendment was wholly unjustifiably allowed, the matter may merit a remand. If the intention of the Legislature in excluding interlocutory orders is to expedite the proceedings in the matrimonial causes, will not such a view hamper the object sought to be achieved by the Legislature? Even when a court allows an application for amendment, it is settled law that the court does not sit in judgment over the correctness or the merit of the pleadings. The amended proceedings only will provide the framework within which the trial would proceed, evidence adduced, arguments canvassed and decision rendered. Further, the party has always a right to challenge the order of amendment in the appeal from the main judgment. Also, it is not irrelevant to notice that the party can, in appropriate cases, invoke the jurisdiction under Article 226 of 227. The advantage of taking the view that an order of amendment will not be treated as a judgment and will be treated only as interlocutory order is that the purpose of the Family Courts would, in one sense, be advanced, inasmuch as, the delay which attends the challenge of proceedings and before the appellate court would stand obviated. Ordinarily, amendments are to be allowed liberally. Therefore, an order allowing an amendment is rarely interfered with.

17. Coming to the facts, this is not a case, where any vested right by way of limitation or any other right as such, which is accrued to the defendant, is being taken away. Two paragraphs are added by way of amendment. In fact, in the original plaint itself, it is stated that the marriage took place on 21.05.2013 and that the appellant left on 28.05.2013 for her paternal house. English translation of paragraph 4 of the original plaint reads as follows:

"4. That the intention of the respondent was always to stay away from the petitioner and, on one pretext or the other, she never gave matrimonial pleasure to the petitioner and always tried to escape from cohabitation and, after one week, on 28.05.2013, she went to her paternal house along with her jewelry and clothes."

18. The amended paragraphs appear to suggest that the marriage was not consummated. As already noticed, the court does not sit in judgment over the correctness of the pleadings at the stage when amendment is allowed. Certainly, the burden is on the petitioner to establish his case with convincing evidence. We cannot even treat this as a case, even applying the tests applied in (1981) 4 SCC 8 or (1974) 2 SCC 387, which would qualify as a decision, which is amenable to appellate jurisdiction under Section 19 of the Act."

19. It must be noticed that both in Major Raja P. Singh and Kanupriya, the Court had before it the issue whether an application seeking amendment, rejected in one case by the Family Court and allowed in the other, would constitute a judgment within the meaning of Section 19 so as to be amenable to appeal under the aforesaid provision. The Rajasthan High Court and the Uttarakhand High Court both have laid down law mindful of the fact that the object of the Family Court is to provide speedy justice in causes matrimonial or those relating to the family. Their Lordships have been conscious that permitting interlocutory challenge to orders granting or refusing amendment, would work to place fetters on the fast-tracked procedure contemplated by the Statute. It has also been noticed that the person who is aggrieved by the order granting amendment can in the appeal from the final judgment, if the event goes against him/ her, assail that order too. No doubt, their Lordships of the Division Bench of the Uttarakhand High Court have found a dichotomy between classes of amendments, which may or may not constitute a judgment within the meaning of Section 19. This Court need not dilate much on the subtlety of principle about orders granting or refusing amendment being amenable to an appeal under Section 19 of the Act of 1984. This is so because in the present case that is not the point. The point here is whether from an order granting or refusing an amendment application by the Family Court, a revision lies to this Court under Section 115 of the Code. In the Rajasthan decision, there is a remark that the legislature did not intend all interlocutory orders passed by the Family Court to be appealable under Section 19 and that is why no appeal or revision has been provided under the Act of 1984.

20. The moot question, therefore, is whether that kind of a power can be inferred to be available to this Court under Section 115 of the Code. A reading of Section 10 of the Act of 1984 shows that the provisions of the Code are generally made applicable, but subject to other provisions of the Act of 1984 and the Rules. A juxtaposition of this provision with sub-Section (5) of Section 19 shows that sub-Section (5) expressly says that except as provided under sub-Sections (1) to (4) of Section 19, no appeal or revision would lie to any Court from any judgment or decree of a Family Court. The aforesaid provision expressly bars all kinds of revisions except an appeal envisaged under Section 19(1) of the Act of 1984 or a revision from a final order passed under Chapter IX of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973. No other kind of revision is envisaged by the Act of 1984. Thus, upon a reading of Sections 10(1) and 19(5) of the Act of 1984 together, the position that emerges is that no revision from an order of the Family Court is competent except one that arises from a final order passed under Chapter IX of the Code of Criminal Procedure. The party, therefore, aggrieved by an interlocutory order may question it in appeal, if it has the trappings of a judgment, or so to speak is an order of moment pronouncing upon rights of parties. It is dwelling on that principle that the Full Bench of this Court in Smt. Kiran Bala Srivastava v. Jai Prakash Srivastava, 2005 (23) LCD 1 held that an order under Section 24 of the HMA granting maintenance pendente lite is a judgment, which is appealable under Section 19 of the Act of 1984.

21. Likewise, a learned Single Judge of this Court in Yogish Arora v. Smt. Jennette Yogish Arora @ Miss Jennettee Dsouza, 2018 (9) ADJ 379 held that an order of temporary injunction passed by a Family Court under Order XXXIX of the Code falls in the category of an intermediate order, to which finality is attached. It has been observed that finality has been attached at a particular stage of proceedings to such an order of temporary injunction, which would render it appealable under Section 19(1) of the Act of 1984.

22. By contrast, in Sana Afrin v. Zohaib Khan, AIR 2021 All 40, an order passed under Section 12 of the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890 pending custody proceedings under Section 25 of the last mentioned Act, granting visitation rights to enable the father to meet his child, was held to be purely interlocutory and not amenable to an appeal under Section 19(1) of the Act of 1984.

23. In summation, therefore, orders passed by the Family Court, if interlocutory, have to be established to be ones that have trappings of a judgment in order to enable a party to avail the remedy of an appeal under Section 19(1) of the Act of 1984. And, that is the only remedy available by way of appellate procedures under the Act of 1984. There is no avenue of a revision under Section 115 of the Code open to a party aggrieved by an order of the Family Court. The provisions of the Code though generally applicable, stand excluded as regards the remedy of a revision under Section 115 of the Code in view of the provisions of Sections 10(1) and 19(5) of the Act of 1984.

24. In view of what has been said above, this Court finds this revision to be not maintainable. It is, accordingly, dismissed as not maintainable. It is made clear that this order will not prejudice the revisionist's right to seek such remedy against the order impugned at the appropriate stage as advised.

25. Interim order dated 14.09.2022 is hereby vacated.

(2023) 4 ILRA 464
REVISIONAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 14.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE AJAI KUMAR SRIVASTAVA-I, J.

Criminal Revision No. 167 of 2020

Anwar @ Shanu ...Revisionist
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Revisionist:
Anurag Narayan, Shailendra Kumar Mishra

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A., Farhan Alam Osmani

Criminal Law – Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Sections 125 & 125(B) - The Muslim Women (Protection of Rights on Divorce) Act, 1986 - Sections 3, 4 & 7 - Criminal Revision - revisionist is the husband of wife (opposite party no. 2) and father of opposite party no. 3 - revisionist challenged the impugned order by which Trial court ordered to revisionist to pay the maintenance to his wife and daughter while accepting the application of the wife preferred u/s 125 of Cr.P.C. - revisionist opposing the application on the ground that, he has already divorced her as per the personal law in front of witnesses and paid a cash of Rs. 1,55,000/- as mehar and also returned the jewelry & other items which was received as dowry and also paid the expenses for the period of Iddat including 80gm. gold for towards maintenance of daughter, as such she is not entitled for any maintenance - maintainability of application - Court observed that, revisionist has failed to prove the fact of divorce and termination of their status as husband and wife between them due to divorce - held, in the light of the legal principle pronounced in 'Daniel Latif & Shamima Farooqui' cases, a Muslim wife, after divorce from her husband is also fully capable of submitting an application u/s 125 of Cr.P.C. for the period till she does not remarry - therefore, application in question submitted by the opposite party no. 2 is maintainable and the order, under review is completely based on evidence on record, in which no illegality, material error or jurisdictional error is reflected - resulted criminal revision stands dismissed. (Para – 18, 28, 29)

Criminal Revision is dismissed. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. Secretary, Tamilnadu Waqf Board Vs Saiyad Fatima Nachi (AIR 1996 SC 2423),

2. Smt. Azmerilushan Vs Moin Ahmad (1983 ALJ 1332),

3. Danial Latifi & ors. Vs U.O.I.(2001 vol. 7 SCC 740),

4. Shamim Aara Vs St. of UP & ors. (2002 vol. 7 SCC 518),

5. Vimla Vs Veera Swami (1991 vol. SCC 375),

6. Manak Chand Vs Chandra Kishore (AIR 1970 SC 446),

7. Mithlesh Kumari VS Vindhyavashini (1990 CRLJ 830),

8. Chaturbhuj Vs Seeta Ram (2007 CRLJ 727 SC),

9. Ashok Kumar Singh Vs Additional Session Judge Varanasi (1991 CRLJ 2357 (Alld.),

10. Shamima Farooqui Vs Shaheed Khan (2015 vol. 5 SCC 705),

11. Rajthi Vs C. Nageshan (AIR 1999 SC 2374),

12. St. of Rajasthan Vs Guru Charan Das Chadha (AIR 1979 SC 1895),

13. Vinay Tyagi Vs Irshad Ali (2013 vol. 5 SCC 762),

14. Amit Kapoor VS Ramesh Chandra (2012 vol. 9 SCC 460).

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ajai Kumar Srivastava-I, J.)

1. पुनरीक्षणकर्ता द्वारा प्रस्तुत दाण्डिक पुनरीक्षण, दाण्डिक प्रकीर्ण वाद संख्या 553/2016 श्रीमती जेबा खानम आदि बनाम अनवर उर्फ शानू में पारित निर्णय दिनांकित 26.10.2019 से क्षुब्ध होकर योजित किया गया है। जिसके माध्यम से विद्वान विचारण न्यायालय ने विपक्षी सं०- 2 द्वारा धारा 125 दण्ड प्रक्रिया संहिता, जिसे अग्रेतर विवेचना में संहिता शब्द से सम्बोधित किया जायेगा के अंतर्गत प्रस्तुत आवेदन पत्र स्वीकृत करते हुए पुनरीक्षणकर्ता को यह आदेशित किया है कि वह विपक्षी सं०- 2 जैबा खानम को अंकन 3,000/- रुपये प्रतिमाह एवं विपक्षी सं०- 3 कुमारी आलिया को उनके वयस्क होने तक अंकन 2,000/- रुपये प्रतिमाह भरण-पोषण हेतु प्रदान करना सुनिश्चित करें।

2. सर्व श्री अनुराग नरायण एवं फरहान आलम ओस्मानी जो क्रमशः पुनरीक्षणकर्ता एवं विपक्षी संख्या 2 के सुयोग्य अधिवक्तागण हैं, उनके

तर्कों को विस्तारपूर्वक सुना गया। राज्य के पक्ष से श्री आलोक शरण सुयोग्य सहायक शासकीय अधिवक्ता के तर्कों को भी विस्तारपूर्वक सुना एवं पत्रावली का परिशीलन किया।

तथ्यात्मक पृष्ठभूमि

3. प्रस्तुत दाण्डिक पुनरीक्षण हेतु सुसंगत तथ्य इस प्रकार हैं कि विपक्षी संख्या 2 श्रीमती जेबा खानम का निकाह पुनरीक्षणकर्ता से मुस्लिम रीति-रिवाज के अनुसार 27.11.2014 को संपन्न हुआ था। पक्षों के वैवाहिक संसर्ग से एक पुत्री कुमारी आलिया का जन्म हुआ। निकाह के पश्चात से ही पुनरीक्षणकर्ता एवं उसके परिवार के सदस्यगण विपक्षी संख्या 2 को विवाह में कम दहेज लाने के कारण प्रताड़ित करते थे। पुनरीक्षणकर्ता भी विपक्षी संख्या 2 को शारीरिक एवं मानसिक यातनाएँ देते थे। विपक्षी संख्या 2 को अंततः पुनरीक्षणकर्ता द्वारा अवयस्क पुत्री आलिया सहित अपने आवास से निष्कासित कर दिया गया। विपक्षी संख्या 2 निराश्रित होने के कारण वर्तमान में अपने मायके में निवास कर रहीं हैं। पुनरीक्षणकर्ता एक स्वस्थ व्यक्ति हैं जो जनपद हरदोई में विक्रय कर कार्यालय में शासकीय सेवारत हैं, जिनकी मासिक आय 30,000/- रुपये है। विपक्षी संख्या 2 स्वयं का भरण-पोषण करने में असमर्थ है। वह किसी घरेलू कार्य यथा सिलाई, कढ़ाई अथवा बुनाई आदि हेतु भी प्रशिक्षित एवं दक्ष नहीं है इस कारण वह स्वयं एवं अपनी अवयस्क पुत्री का भरण-पोषण करने में असमर्थ हैं। उपरोक्त वर्णित तथ्यों के आधार पर विपक्षी संख्या 2 द्वारा स्वयं के भरण-पोषण हेतु 5,000/- रुपये प्रतिमाह तथा अवयस्क पुत्री आलिया के भरण-पोषण हेतु 7,000/- रुपये तथा संयुक्त रूप से अंकन 12,000/- रुपये मासिक भरण-पोषण स्वीकृत करने की प्रार्थना किया गया।

4. पुनरीक्षणकर्ता द्वारा आपत्ति प्रस्तुत कर पुनरीक्षणकर्ता का निकाह विपक्षी संख्या 2 के साथ होना स्वीकार किया गया तथा पक्षों के वैवाहिक संबंध से अवयस्क पुत्री कुमारी आलिया के जन्म के तथ्य को भी स्वीकार किया गया। शेष तथ्यों से इंकार करते हुए इस आशय का कथन किया गया है कि निकाह के पश्चात से विपक्षी संख्या 2 का विपक्षी एवं उसके परिवार के सदस्यों के प्रति व्यवहार उचित नहीं था। वह दुर्व्यवहार करती थीं। विपक्षी के अनुसार दिनांक 16.08.2016 को विपक्षी ने साक्षीगण के सम्मुख स्वीय विधि के अनुसार विपक्षी संख्या 2 को तलाक़ दे दिया एवं अंकन 1,55,000/- रुपये नकद मेहर अदा कर दिया। समस्त आभूषण एवं दहेज में प्राप्त सभी समान भी उन्हें वापस कर इद्दत की अवधि का व्यय भी प्रदान कर दिया गया। इस कारण विपक्षी संख्या 2 पुनरीक्षणकर्ता से स्वयं अथवा विपक्षी संख्या 2 के लिए किसी धनराशि को प्राप्त करने की अधिकारिणी नहीं है। यह भी कथन किया गया है कि विपक्षी संख्या 3 कुमारी आलिया के भरण-पोषण के लिए विपक्षी संख्या 2 ने 80 ग्राम सोना भी प्राप्त कर लिया है।

5. उपरोक्त वर्णित समस्त आधारों पर भरण-पोषण हेतु प्रस्तुत आवेदन पत्र निरस्त करने की प्रार्थना किया गया।

6. विपक्षी संख्या 2 द्वारा आवेदन कथानक के समर्थन में ए०पी०डब्लू०1 के रुप में स्वंय को, ए०पी०डब्लू०2 के रूप में नवी खाँ एवं ए०पी०डब्लू०3 के रुप में इमरान को परीक्षित कराया गया है।

7. वर्तमान पुनरीक्षणकर्ता द्वारा ओ०पी०डब्लू०1 के रूप में स्वयं को एवं ओ०पी०डब्लू०2 हसन अख्तर एवं ओ०पी०डब्लू०3 अख्तर को विद्वान विचारण न्यायालय के समक्ष परीक्षित कराया गया है तथा प्रलेखीय साक्ष्य के रूप में विलेख दिनांकित 16.08.2016 का मूल एवं नोटरी द्वारा सत्यापित प्रति, रजिस्ट्री की रसीद दिनांकित 12.01.2019, तलाक़ से संबंधित नोटिस दिनांकित 11.01.2019 एवं मूल वाद संख्या 54/2017 अनवर उर्फ शानू बनाम जेबा खानम में न्यायालय द्वारा पारित आदेश दिनांकित 16.08.2019 की प्रति प्रस्तुत की गयी है।

8. विद्वान विचारण न्यायालय द्वारा अधोलिखित अवधार्य बिन्दु विरचित किये गयेः-

(i) क्या प्रार्थिनी श्रीमती जेबा खानम, विपक्षी अनवर उर्फ शानू की विधिक रूप से ब्याहता पत्नी एवं कु० आलिया उसकी पुत्री हैं?

(ii) क्या प्रार्थिनी, विपक्षी से युक्तियुक्त कारण से अलग रह रही हैं?

(iii) क्या प्रार्थिनी स्वयं का भरण-पोषण करने में सक्षम नहीं है और विपक्षी के पास आय का पर्याप्त साधन है?

9. आक्षेपित निर्णय दिनांकित 26.10.2019 के माध्यम से विद्वान विचारण न्यायालय ने इस आशय का निष्कर्ष अवधारित किया कि विपक्षी संख्या 2 श्रीमती जेबा खानम पुनरीक्षणकर्ता की विवाहिता पत्नी हैं। न्यायालय ने इस आशय का भी निष्कर्ष अवधारित किया कि विपक्षी संख्या 2 श्रीमती जेबा खानम का तलाक़ नहीं हुआ है। अन्यथा भी विद्वान अवर न्यायालय के अनुसार यदि विपक्षी संख्या 2 श्रीमती जेबा खानम पुनरीक्षणकर्ता की तलाक़शुदा पत्नी भी होतीं तो भी वह संहिता की धारा 125 के स्पष्टीकरण (ख) में किये गये उपबंध के अनुसार स्वयं के पुनर्विवाह तक पुनरीक्षणकर्ता से भरण-पोषण की धनराशि प्राप्त करने की अधिकारिणी हैं। इसी प्रकार आवेदिका संख्या 2 कुमारी आलिया आयु 1 वर्ष, जो पुनरीक्षणकर्ता की स्वीकृत रूप से अवयस्क पुत्री हैं, वह भी पुनरीक्षणकर्ता से भरण-पोषण प्राप्त करने की अधिकारिणी हैं। इसी प्रकार विद्वान अवर न्यायालय ने उभय पक्षों द्वारा प्रस्तुत साक्ष्य के सम्यक विश्लेषण के उपरान्त इस आशय का निष्कर्ष अभिलिखित किया कि विपक्षी संख्या 2 श्रीमती जेबा खानम पुनरीक्षणकर्ता से युक्तियुक्त कारणों से पृथक रह रही हैं एवं वह स्वयं का भरण-पोषण करने में असमर्थ हैं। विपक्षी द्वारा आवेदकगण के भरण-पोषण के प्रति आर्थिक रूप से समर्थ होने के पश्चात भी उपेक्षा की गयी है। परिणामस्वरूप विद्वान अवर न्यायालय ने आक्षेपित निर्णय दिनांकित 26.10.2019 उपरोक्त वर्णित आशय से पारित किया।

उभयपक्षों के तर्कः-

10. पुनरीक्षणकर्ता के सुयोग्य अधिवक्ता द्वारा यह तर्क प्रस्तुत किया गया है कि विद्वान विचारण न्यायालय द्वारा पारित आलोच्य निर्णय दिनांकित 26.10.2019 अविधिक एवं पक्षों द्वारा प्रस्तुत साक्ष्य के प्रतिकूल होने के कारण अर्धाय है। पुनरीक्षणकर्ता के सुयोग्य अधिवक्ता का यह तर्क भी है कि यद्यपि पुनरीक्षणकर्ता ने विपक्षी संख्या 2 श्रीमती जेबा खानम से अपने विवाह तथा वैवाहिक संबंधों से एक पुत्री कुमारी आलिया के जन्म के तथ्य को स्वीकार किया है किन्तु पुनरीक्षणकर्ता ने विपक्षी संख्या 2 श्रीमती जेबा खानम को स्वीय

विधि के अनुसार तलाक़ दे दिया जिससे पुनरीक्षणकर्ता एवं विपक्षी के मध्य वैवाहिक संबंधों का विच्छेद हो गया। उनका तर्क है कि इसी कारण पंचायत में विपक्षी संख्या 2 श्रीमती जेबा खानम को मेहर की धनराशि अंकन 1,55,000/- एवं दहेज में प्राप्त अन्य सामग्रियाँ, आभूषण एवं कपड़े इत्यादि भी वापस कर दिया गया तथा इद्दत की अवधि की धनराशि भी प्रदान कर दी गई। इस कारण न्यायालय द्वारा विपक्षी संख्या 2 श्रीमती जेबा खानम एवं उनकी अवयस्क पुत्री के भरण-पोषण की धनराशि प्रदान करने का आलोच्य आदेश अविधिक है तथा मुस्लिम स्त्री (विवाह विच्छेद पर अधिकार संरक्षण) अधिनियम, 1986 के प्रावधान के प्रतिकूल होने के कारण भी अर्धाय है। पुनरीक्षणकर्ता के सुयोग्य अधिवक्ता के अनुसार विपक्षी संख्या 2 श्रीमती जेबा खानम स्वयं पर्याप्त शिक्षित हैं एवं पारिणामिक रूप से स्वयं एवं अपनी पुत्री हेतु भरण-पोषण की धनराशि अर्जित करने में पूर्णतः समर्थ हैं। ऐसी दशा में पुनरीक्षणकर्ता के विरुद्ध विपक्षी संख्या 2 श्रीमती जेबा खानम हेतु 3,000 रुपये मासिक तथा अवयस्क पुत्री हेतु 2,000/- रुपये मासिक की धनराशि आलोच्य निर्णय के माध्यम से स्वीकृत किया जाना पत्रावली पर उपलब्ध साक्ष्य के प्रतिकूल होने के साथ-साथ पुनरीक्षणकर्ता की सीमित आय तथा उनके अन्य वित्तीय दायित्वों के आलोक में अत्यधिक है एवं पारिणामिक रूप से अपास्त किये जाने योग्य है।

11. अपने उपरोक्त वर्णित तर्कों के समर्थन में पुनरीक्षणकर्ता द्वारा मुस्लिम स्त्री (विवाह विच्छेद पर अधिकार संरक्षण) अधिनियम, 1986 की धारा 3 एवं 5 में उल्लिखित प्राविधानों पर बल देते हुए माननीय उच्चतम न्यायालय द्वारा सेक्रेटरी, तमिलनाडु वक्फ बोर्ड बनाम सैय्यद फातिमा नाची1 के प्रस्तर 6 लगायत 9 में प्रतिपादित सिद्धान्त के आधार पर यह तर्क भी प्रस्तुत किया गया है कि विपक्षी संख्या 2 श्रीमती जेबा खानम प्रस्तुत मामले के तथ्य एवं परिस्थितियों के आलोक में संबंधित वक्फ बोर्ड से भरण-पोषण की धनराशि प्राप्त कर सकती हैं साथ ही उन्होंने श्रीमती अजमेरीलुसान बनाम बनाम मो० अहमद2 में माननीय इलाहाबाद उच्च न्यायालय द्वारा प्रतिपादित विधि सिद्धान्त के आलोक में यह तर्क प्रस्तुत किया कि यदि पति ने स्वयं द्वारा प्रस्तुत लिखित कथन में पत्नी को तलाक़ दे दिये जाने का कथन किया है तब ऐसी दशा में तलाक़ का तथ्य अन्यथा साबित नहीं होने की दशा में भी पक्षों के मध्य तलाक़ लिखित कथन की तिथि से स्वतः प्रभावी हो जायेगा। इस विधिक स्थिति को विद्वान विचारण न्यायालय ने दृष्टिगत नहीं रखा है।

12. उपरोक्त वर्णित समस्त तर्कों के आधार पर पुनरीक्षणकर्ता का यह तर्क है कि आलोच्य आदेश अविधिक होने के कारण अर्धाय है एवं पारिणामिक रूप से अपास्त किये जाने योग्य है।

13. विपक्षी संख्या 1 राज्य हेतु श्री आलोक शरण एवं विपक्षी संख्या 2 श्रीमती जेबा खानम के सुयोग्य अधिवक्ता श्री फरहान आलम ओस्मानी ने उपरोक्त वर्णित तर्कों का बलपूर्वक खण्डन करते हुए यह तर्क प्रस्तुत किया है कि आलोच्य आदेश उभयपक्षों के अभिकथनों एवं पक्षों द्वारा प्रस्तुत साक्ष्य के सम्यक विश्लेषण के उपरान्त पारित किया गया सकारण निर्णय है, जो किसी भी प्रकार अविधिक नहीं है एवं पारिणामिक रूप से आलोच्य निर्णय एवं आदेश में हस्तक्षेप किया जाना अपेक्षित नहीं है।

14. यह तर्क भी प्रस्तुत किया गया है कि पुनरीक्षणकर्ता का विपक्षी संख्या 2 श्रीमती जेबा

खानम से विवाह का स्वीकृत तथ्य है। विपक्षी संख्या 2 श्रीमती जेबा खानम ने विद्वान विचारण न्यायालय के समक्ष ए०पी०डब्लू०1 के रूप में अपने सशपथ साक्ष्य में पुनरीक्षणकर्ता द्वारा तलाक़ दिये जाने के तथ्य का खण्डन किया है। विपक्षी संख्या 2 श्रीमती जेबा खानम द्वारा यह भी सिद्ध किया गया है कि यद्यपि वह शिक्षित हैं किन्तु वह स्वयं एवं अपने 1 वर्षीय अवयस्क पुत्री का भरण-पोषण करने में असमर्थ हैं। साक्ष्य के सम्यक विश्लेषण के आधार पर विद्वान विचारण न्यायालय ने यह उचित निष्कर्ष अभिलिखित किया है कि पुनरीक्षणकर्ता द्वारा साधन सम्पन्न होने के पश्चात भी विपक्षी संख्या 2 श्रीमती जेबा खानम एवं अपनी अवयस्क पुत्री कुमारी आलिया के भरण-पोषण के प्रति उपेक्षा किया गया एवं विपक्षी संख्या 2 श्रीमती जेबा खानम अपनी अवयस्क पुत्री के साथ उचित कारण से पुनरीक्षणकर्ता से पृथक रह रही हैं। ऐसी दशा में आलोच्य आदेश पूर्णतः सकारण है तथा साक्ष्य एवं विधि के सम्यक विश्लेषण पर आधारित है। अतः पारिणामिक रूप से इसमें किसी हस्तक्षेप की आवश्यकता नहीं है।

15. विपक्षीगण के सुयोग्य अधिवक्तागण ने अपने तर्कों को विराम देने के पूर्व न्यायालय का ध्यान इस तथ्य की ओर भी आकृष्ट किया है कि मुस्लिम स्त्री (विवाह विच्छेद पर अधिकार संरक्षण) अधिनियम, 1986 की धारा 3, 4 एवं 7 तथा संहिता की धारा 125 के समेकित अवलोकन से यह पूर्णतः स्पष्ट हो जायेगा कि विपक्षी संख्या 2 श्रीमती जेबा खानम द्वारा संहिता की धारा 125 के अंतर्गत दिया गया आवेदन पत्र पोषणीय है तथा इस निष्कर्ष को माननीय उच्चतम न्यायालय द्वारा डैनियल लतीफी एवं अन्य बनाम यूनियन ऑफ इण्डिया3 में प्रतिपादित विधि सिद्धान्त से भी बल प्राप्त होता है।

निष्कर्ष

16. उभय पक्षों के तर्कों के आलोक में पत्रावली के सम्यक परिशीलन से यह विदित होता है कि पुनरीक्षणकर्ता ने यह तथ्य स्वतः स्वीकार किया है कि पुनरीक्षणकर्ता एवं विपक्षी संख्या 2 श्रीमती जेबा खानम का निकाह मुस्लिम रीति-रिवाज से दिनांक 27.11.2014 को संपन्न हुआ था। पक्षों के वैवाहिक संबंध से एक अवयस्क पुत्री कुमारी आलिया, आयु 1 वर्ष के जन्म के तथ्य को भी पुनरीक्षणकर्ता द्वारा स्वीकार किया गया है।

17. पुनरीक्षणकर्ता के सुयोग्य अधिवक्ता द्वारा मुख्य रूप से इस तथ्य पर बल दिया गया है कि पुनरीक्षणकर्ता ने विद्वान विचारण न्यायालय में स्वयं द्वारा प्रस्तुत लिखित उत्तर में इस तथ्य का उल्लेख किया था कि पुनरीक्षणकर्ता ने दिनांक 16.08.2016 को साक्षीगण के सम्मुख स्वीय विधि के अनुसार विपक्षी संख्या 2 श्रीमती जेबा खानम को तलाक़ दे दिया था। इस तथ्य के लिखित उत्तर में उनके द्वारा उल्लेख कर दिये जाने के पश्चात इस न्यायालय की खण्डपीठ द्वारा श्रीमती अजमेरीलुसान बनाम मोईन अहमद, उपरोक्त वर्णित के प्रस्तर8 एवं 9 में प्रतिपादित विधि सिद्धान्त के अनुसार ऐसा उल्लेख लिखित कथन प्रस्तुत किये जाने की तिथि से पुनरीक्षणकर्ता द्वारा विपक्षी संख्या 2 श्रीमती जेबा खानम को तलाक़ दे दिये जाने की उद्घोषणा का प्रभाव रखेगा। अतः पारिणामिक रूप से विपक्षी संख्या 2 श्रीमती जेबा खानम पुनरीक्षणकर्ता की तलाक़शुदा पत्नी होने के कारण संहिता की धारा 125 के अंतर्गत भरण-

पोषण हेतु आवेदन प्रस्तुत करने हेतु समर्थ नहीं थीं तथा ऐसा आवेदन पत्र दिनांक 16.08.2016 के पश्चात पोषणीय भी नहीं है। किन्तु पुनरीक्षणकर्ता के सुयोग्य अधिवक्ता का यह तर्क माननीय उच्चतम न्यायालय द्वारा शमीम आरा बनाम स्टेट ऑफ उत्तर प्रदेश एवं अन्य4 में प्रतिपादित विधि सिद्धान्त के आलोक में कदापि स्वीकार्य नहीं है। माननीय उच्चतम न्यायालय द्वारा शमीम आरा, उपरोक्त में यह विधि सिद्धान्त स्पष्ट रूप से प्रतिपादित किया गया है कि तलाक़ के तथ्य प्रभावी होने हेतु यह एक पूर्ववर्ती शर्त है कि तलाक़ दिये जाने का तथ्य साक्ष्य के आधार पर सिद्ध किये जाने चाहिए। मात्र तलाक़ दे दिये जाने का तथ्य लिखित कथन में अभिलिखित करने से अथवा अन्य किसी कार्यवाही में अभिकथित किये जाने से तलाक़ स्वतः प्रभावी हो जाने की अवधारणा नहीं किया जा सकता है।

18. यह अविवादित है कि यद्यपि पुनरीक्षणकर्ता ने विपक्षी सं०- 2 से तलाक़ हो जाने के तथ्य की उद्घोषणा हेतु पृथक वाद योजित किया था किन्तु स्वतः उनके द्वारा ही ऐसा वाद वापस ले लिया गया। अतः विद्वान अवर न्यायालय ने पक्षों द्वारा प्रस्तुत साक्ष्य के सम्यक विश्लेषण के उपरान्त उचित रूप से निष्कर्ष अवधारित किया है कि पुनरीक्षणकर्ता विपक्षी संख्या 2 श्रीमती जेबा खानम को तलाक़ देने एवं तलाक़ दे दिये जाने के कारण उनके मध्य पति-पत्नी की प्रास्थिति समाप्त होने के तथ्य को सिद्ध करने में असफल रहे हैं। अतः विपक्षी संख्या 2 श्रीमती जेबा खानम द्वारा संहिता की धारा 125 के अंतर्गत भरण-पोषण हेतु प्रस्तुत आवेदन पत्र सर्वथा उचित रूप से पोषणीय होना अवधारित किया गया है।

19. माननीय उच्चतम न्यायालय द्वारा संहिता की धारा 125 दं०प्र०सं० के उद्देश्यों का निर्वचन करने के क्रम में विमला बनाम वीरा स्वामी5 में यह विधि सिद्धान्त प्रतिपादित किया गया है कि संहिता की धारा 125 का उद्देश्य परित्यक्त एवं उपेक्षित पत्नी एवं बच्चों को भुखमरी से बचाने हेतु एक त्वरित एवं सुलभ उपचार प्रदान करना है। यह उपचार संक्षिप्त प्रकृति का है जैसा कि माननीय उच्चतम न्यायालय द्वारा मानक चंद बनाम चन्द्र किशोर6 में कहा गया है।

20. यह अविवादित तथ्य है कि विद्वान विचारण न्यायालय के समक्ष प्रस्तुत लिखित कथन में पुनरीक्षकर्ता द्वारा यह उल्लेख किया गया कि उन्होंने विपक्षी संख्या 2 को तलाक़ दे दिया है। यद्यपि वह साक्ष्य के आधार पर यह तथ्य सिद्ध करने में पूर्णतः असफल रहे हैं अतः ऐसी स्वीकृत परिस्थितियों में विपक्षी संख्या 2 का पुनरीक्षकर्ता से पृथक रहना स्वतः एक पर्याप्त कारण है।

21. इसी क्रम में माननीय इलाहाबाद उच्च न्यायालय द्वारा मिथिलेश कुमारी बनाम विन्ध्यवासिनी7 में प्रतिपादित विधि सिद्धान्त का उल्लेख भी सुसंगत है, जिसके अनुसार पुनरीक्षणकर्ता द्वारा विपक्षी संख्या 2 के भरण-पोषण के प्रति उपेक्षा अथवा इससे इन्कार किए जाने का अनुमान वाद के तथ्य एवं परिस्थितियों से भी निकाला जा सकता है। यह अनुमान विपक्षी/पति के आचरण से भी निकाला जा सकता है। विद्वान खंडपीठ द्वारा यह सिद्धान्त भी प्रतिपादित किया गया कि यदि पत्नी के पक्ष में यह निष्कर्ष अवधारित किया जाता है कि उनका पति से पृथक रहने का आधार उचित एवं पर्याप्त है, तब ऐसी परिस्थिति में पति द्वारा उनके भरण-पोषण करने

से विरत रहने के तथ्य का अनुमान स्वतः निकाला जा सकता है।

22. प्रस्तुत मामले में भी ऐसा कोई साक्ष्य विद्वान विचारण न्यायालय के समक्ष विपक्षी/पुनरीक्षणकर्ता द्वारा नहीं प्रस्तुत किया गया जिससे यह विदित होता हो कि उन्होंने विपक्षी संख्या 2 एवं अपनी अवयस्क पुत्री के पृथक रहने की अवधि में उनके भरण-पोषण हेतु कोई आर्थिक सहायता की हो।

23. विद्वान विचारण न्यायालय का यह निष्कर्ष भी पत्रावली पर उपलब्ध साक्ष्य पर ही आधारित है कि विपक्षी एक साधन सम्पन्न व्यक्ति हैं, उनके पास विपक्षी एवं उसकी अवयस्क पुत्री के भरण-पोषण हेतु आदेशित धनराशि अदा करने हेतु पर्याप्त साधन हैं, इसके प्रतिकूल विपक्षी संख्या 2, यद्यपि वह शिक्षित हैं किन्तु वह स्वयं आय अर्जित करने में असमर्थ हैं। पत्रावली पर ऐसा कोई साक्ष्य उपलब्ध नहीं है जिसके आधार पर यह निष्कर्ष दिया जा सके कि विपक्षी स्वयं एवं अपनी अवयस्क पुत्री के भरण-पोषण हेतु आय अर्जित करने में समर्थ हैं। माननीय उच्चतम न्यायालय द्वारा चतुर्भुज बनाम सीताराम8 में इस आशय का विधि सिद्धान्त प्रतिपादित किया गया है कि यदि पत्नी कुछ आय अर्जित भी कर रही हो, तथापि वह अपने पति से भरण-पोषण प्राप्त कर सकती है, क्योंकि "स्वयं का भरण-पोषण कर पाने में असमर्थ" का आशय यह है कि वह ऐसे स्तर का भरण-पोषण करने में असमर्थ हैं जैसा कि वह अपने पति के साथ रहकर प्राप्त करती थीं।

24. इसी क्रम में इस न्यायालय की खंडपीठ द्वारा अशोक कुमार सिंह बनाम एडिशनल सेशन जज वाराणसी9 का उल्लेख भी सुसंगत है, जिसमें यह अवधारित किया गया है कि यदि पत्नी शिक्षित है किन्तु सेवारत नहीं है, तो भी वह पति से भरण-पोषण प्राप्त करने की अधिकारिणी हैं।

25. विद्वान विचारण न्यायालय ने इस आशय का उचित निष्कर्ष अभिलिखित किया है कि पुनरीक्षणकर्ता स्वयं विपक्षी संख्या 2 एवं अवयस्क पुत्री के भरण-पोषण हेतु पर्याप्त साधन सम्पन्न व्यक्ति हैं, क्योंकि सुस्थापित विधि सिद्धान्तों के अनुसार एक स्वस्थ शरीर के व्यक्ति का यह वैधानिक दायित्व है कि वह अपनी पत्नी एवं अवयस्क पुत्री का भरण-पोषण यथा योग्य करें। इस आशय के निष्कर्ष को माननीय उच्चतम न्यायालय द्वारा शमीमा फारुकी बनाम शाहिद खान10 में प्रतिपादित विधि सिद्धान्त से भी बल प्राप्त होता है।

26. इसी क्रम में माननीय उच्चतम न्यायालय द्वारा रजथी बनाम सी. गनेशन11 का उल्लेख भी पूर्णतः सुसंगत है, जिसके अनुसार स्वयं के भरण-पोषण में असमर्थ होने का आशय यह है कि परित्यक्त पत्नी अथवा पृथक रह रही पत्नी, पति से पृथक रहने की अवधि के उस स्तर के भरण-पोषण की अधिकारिणी हैं जिस स्तर का जीवन-यापन वह अपने पति के साथ रहकर कर रही थीं।

27. यह सुस्थापित विधि सिद्धान्त है कि पुनरीक्षण क्षेत्राधिकार अत्यंत सीमित होता है। तथ्य सम्बंधित निष्कर्ष में हस्तक्षेप मात्र उसी दशा में अनुमन्य होता है, जब आलोच्य आदेश अनुचित एवं क्षेत्राधिकार विहीन हो। इस सम्बंध में माननीय उच्चतम न्यायालय द्वारा स्टेट ऑफ राजस्थान बनाम गुरु चरण दास चढ्ढा12, विनय त्यागी

बनाम इरशाद अली13 एवं अमित कपूर बनाम रमेश चन्दर14 का उल्लेख किया जाना सुसंगत है।

28. अतः उपरोक्त वर्णित विवेचना के आलोक में आलोच्य निर्णय एवं आदेश दिनांकित 26.10.2019 पूर्णतः साक्ष्य सम्मत एवं पक्षों द्वारा प्रस्तुत साक्ष्य के सम्यक विश्लेषण पर आधारित है, जिसमें कोई अवैधानिकता, तात्विक त्रुटि अथवा क्षेत्राधिकारिता संबंधी त्रुटि परिलक्षित नहीं होता है।

29. निर्णय पूर्ण करने के पूर्व यह उल्लेख किया जाना भी सुसंगत प्रतीत होता है कि यद्यपि प्रश्नगत प्रकरण में विद्वान विचारण न्यायालय ने इस आशय का स्पष्ट निष्कर्ष अवधारित किया है कि विपक्षी संख्या 2 पुनरीक्षणकर्ता की विवाहित पत्नी हैं एवं पुनरीक्षणकर्ता यह सिद्ध करने में पूर्णतः असफल रहे हैं कि उनके द्वारा विपक्षी संख्या 2 को तलाक़ दे दिया गया है। तथापि इस न्यायालय का यह सुविचारित मत है कि डैनियल लतीफी (उपरोक्त वर्णित) एवं शमीमा फारुकी बनाम शाहिद खान (उपरोक्त वर्णित) में प्रतिपादित विधि सिद्धान्त के आलोक में यह अब कदापि अनिर्णित विषय नहीं है कि एक मुस्लिम पत्नी अपने पूर्व पति से तलाक़ के उपरान्त भी पुनर्विवाह न करने तक की अवधि हेतु भरण-पोषण की धनराशि प्राप्त करने हेतु संहिता की धारा 125 के अन्तर्गत आवेदन पत्र प्रस्तुत करने हेतु सर्वथा समर्थ है।

30. उपर्युक्त वर्णित समस्त विचार-विमर्श का सार यह है कि प्रस्तुत दाण्डिक पुनरीक्षण बलहीन है एवं पारिणामिक रूप से निरस्त किए जाने योग्य है।

आदेश

31. पारिणामिक रूप से दाण्डिक पुनरीक्षण निरस्त किया जाता है।

32. निर्णय की एक प्रति विद्वान अवर न्यायालय को सूचनार्थ एवं अनुपालनार्थ अविलंब प्रेषित की जाए।

(2023) 4 ILRA 472
REVISIONAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 17.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ARUN KUMAR SINGH DESHWAL, J.

Criminal Revision No. 339 of 2020

Lallan Kumar ...Revisionist
Versus
Union of India & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Revisionist:
Sri Pradeep Kumar Singh, Sri Afshan Shafaut, Sri Ashish Kumar Singh, Sri Sunil Kumar Singh, Sri Sushil Kumar Yadav, Sri Amit Singh

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
A.S.G.I., Sri Sudarshan Singh, Sri Ashish Pandey

Criminal Law – Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Sections 451 & 457(1) - Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985 – Sections 8, 20, 27-A, 29, 51, 60 & 60(3) - Criminal Revision - Challenging the order impugned - by which the application of revisionist for released the vehicle in question, alleged to be recovered, was rejected - court finds that, vehicle in question was purchased on load for which he is paying EMI - after confiscation vehicle was laying in the concerned police station since 2019 - plea taken that same was not released it will be damaged and revisionist has been paying the EMI of the bank - there would be no useful purpose to keep the vehicle in police station - held, impugned order is absolutely erroneous being in contrary to law laid down by Apex Court in 'Sunder Bhai Ambala Desai Case' - hence, impugned order deserve to be set aside and it is directed that interim custody of vehicle be given to revisionist on producing Registration Certificate of concerned vehicle during pendency of trial and also furnishing security of to the satisfaction of concerned Court - Revision Allowed. (Para – 4, 5, 7)

Criminal Revision Allowed. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. Kapil Jha Vs The St. of M. P. (MCRC No.4636 of 2022),

2. Sunderbhai Ambalal Desai Vs St. of Guj., 2002 (10) SCC 283.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Arun Kumar Singh Deshwal, J.)

1. Heard Sri Sunil Kumar Singh, learned counsel for the revisionist.

2. No one appears on behalf of Union of India despite the fact that counter affidavit has been filed by the special public prosecutor (NCB).

3. By the present criminal revision, revisionist has challenged the order dated 16.12.2019 passed by the Additional Sessions Judge, Court No.-16, Varanasi in Case No.10 of 2019, under Sections-8, 20, 27-A, 29, 60 (III) of NDPS Act, Police Station-N.C.B. Mahanagar, Lucknow was rejected on the ground that the applicant could not brought on record any evidence that this fact was not in his knowledge that his vehicle was used in the aforesaid crime. Therefore, on the ground of Section 60(3) of The Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985 (hereinafter referred to as the 'Act'), the aforesaid application was rejected.

4. As per against the case of the prosecution itself, only five packet containing ganja was alleged to be recovered from his vehicle though, there was no independent witness in the aforesaid recovery and ganja was recovered from the truck standing behind his vehicle. It is further stated that vehicle in question was purchased on loan for which he is paying EMI. His vehicle, after confiscation, were lying in the concerned Police Station and will be damaged, if not released. In support of his contention, learned counsel for the revisionist has placed reliance upon a judgement of Madhya Pradesh High Court in MCRC No.4636 of 2022 (Kapil Jha Vs. The State of Madhya Pradesh) in which the Hon'ble Court after relying upon the judgement of the Apex Court in Sunderbhai Ambalal Desai Vs. State of Gujarat 2002 (10) SCC 283 observed that the vehicle confiscated under Section 60 of the N.D.P.S. Act but by virtue of Section 36-C as well as Section 51 of N.D.P.S. Act, it is clear that the provision of Section 451 or 457(1) of Cr.P.C. also applicable which provides that during pendency of the trial, property should be released in the interim custody of the owner so as to save it from damage.

5. I am of the view since the vehicle in question was lying in the concerned police station since 2019 and the revisionist has been paying the installment of bank and there would be no useful purpose to keep the vehicle in police station under the confiscation because trial may take time, in the meantime, vehicle in question may be damaged. Therefore, the impugned order is absolutely erroneous being in contrary to law laid down by the Apex Court in Sunderbhai Ambala Desai (supra), therefore deserve to be set aside and it is directed that interim custody of Scorpio Car bearing Registration No.BR-10-PA-9743 be given to the revisionist on producing Registration Certificate of the concerned vehicle during the pendency of trial and also furnishing the security of Rs.2,00,000/- to the satisfaction of the concerned Court.

6. With the aforesaid observations, the revision is allowed.

7. In view of the above, the finding of the Court below that since the vehicle is liable to be confiscated, interim custody cannot be granted, is liable to be set aside and accordingly, the impugned order dated 16.12.2019 passed by the Additional Sessions Judge, Court No.-16, Varanasi is hereby set aside. Accordingly, by allowing the application, the vehicle is ordered to be released on following conditions:-

(i) It is ordered that on furnishing personal bond of Rs.2,00,000/- (Rupees Two Lacs Only) with one solvent surety in the like amount to the satisfaction of the trial Court by the revisionist, the aforesaid vehicle (Scorpio bearing registration No. BR-10-PA-9743) shall be handed over to the respective revisionist on Supurdginama on proving ownership of the same;

(ii) whenever it would be required by the competent Court the same will be produced on petitioner's own expenses at the place as would be directed in this regard;

(iii) at the time of release of the vehicle on Supurdginama, the aforesaid Authority shall ensure to take note of chassis number, engine number and registration number of the aforesaid vehicle and keep on record;

(iv) the petitioner shall neither alter or change the condition of the aforesaid vehicle in any manner whatsoever during pendency of the litigation;

(v) the petitioner shall not create any third party rights over the aforesaid vehicle;

(vi) the petitioner shall not fiddle with or scratch or erase numbers engraved in the chassis and engine of the vehicle;

(vii) in the event, all or any of the aforesaid conditions are found to have been violated, the respondent / State is at liberty to move this Court to such modification / variation of the order passed by this Court today.

(2023) 4 ILRA 474
REVISIONAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 24.01.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE NALIN KUMAR SRIVASTAVA, J.

Criminal Revision No. 2213 of 2018

Vinod Kumar ...Revisionist
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Revisionist:
Sri M.P.S. Chauhan

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A., Sri S.P.S. Chauhan, Smt. Meenakshi Chauhan

Criminal Law- Code of Criminal Procedure,1973-Sections 154,156 & 397-Application u/s 156 (3) CrPC moved by the revisionist was rejected by the learned Court below-Magistrate u/s 156 (3) CrPC is legally authorized to order for registration of F.I.R. , investigate into the matter or to treat such application as a complaint, as the case may be and he is fully empowered even to reject the application moved before it-Before taking recourse of the Court the complainant ought to move to the police station for registration of the F.I.R. and if unattended there, move an application to the Superintendent of Police and this fact also be deposed clearly in his application u/s 156(3) CrPC moved before the Magistrate-If no affidavit was filed in support of the application u/s 156(3) CrPC the same could not have been entertained by the court concerned. (Para 9-15, 25-28, 35-41)

Revision dismissed. (E-15)

List of Cases cited:

1. Jagannath Verma & Others Vs St. of U.P. & anr., AIR 2014 Allahabad 214 (Lucknow Bench) (F.B.)

2. Father Thomas Vs St. of U.P. & anr. 2011 Criminal Law Journal 2278 (Allahabad) (F.B.)

3. Lalita Kumari Vs St. of U.P., (2014) 2 SCC 1

4. Priyanka Srivastava Vs St. of U.P., (2015) 6 Supreme Court Cases 287

5. Sukhwasi Vs St. of U.P., 2008 Cri LJ 472 (Allahabad) (D.B.)

6. Suresh Chandra Jain Vs St. of M.P., A.I.R. 2001 Supreme Court 571,

7. Gopal Das Sindhi Vs St. of Assam, A.I.R. 1961 Supreme Court 986,

8. Madhu Bala Vs Suresh Kumar, A.I.R. 1997 Supreme Court 3104,

9. Ramesh Kumari Vs St. (N.C.T. of Delhi), A.I.R. 2006 Supreme Court 1322

10. Babu Venkatesh & ors. Vs St. of Karn. & anr., (2022) 5 Supreme Court Cases 639

(Delivered by Hon'ble Nalin Kumar Srivastava, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for the revisionist, learned A.G.A. for the State and learned counsel for the opposite party no.2.

2. An application under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. moved by the revisionist / applicant registered as Misc. Case No.136 of 2018, Vinod Kumar Vs. Aidal Singh, P.S. Gabhana, Aligarh was rejected by the Court of Additional Sessions Judge, Court No.5, Aligarh vide order dated 26.05.2018, feeling aggrieved of which, the present revision has been filed.

3. The submissions of learned counsel for the revisionist, in brief, are that the impugned order has been passed without considering the facts of the case and evidence on record. It is against the provisions of law and suffers from the jurisdictional error as the jurisdiction vested in the Court has not been exercised properly. The observations made by the learned Sessions Court are perverse and arbitrary in nature. From a bare perusal of the application moved by the revisionist under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C., a cognizable offence was clearly made out and the Court ought to have ordered for the registration of F.I.R. and investigation into the matter, but the same was rejected in an illegal manner. Hence, a prayer has been made to set-aside the impugned order by allowing the present revision.

4. The learned A.G.A. appearing on behalf of the State as well as learned counsel for the opposite party no.2 have vehemently opposed the present revision and it has been submitted that the impugned order has been passed in accordance with the legal principles governing the matter. The application under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. moved by the revisionist was not sustainable in law and the learned Sessions Court committed no legal or jurisdictional error in passing the impugned order. Hence, the revision is liable to be dismissed.

5. The factual scenario, as reveals from the perusal of the application under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. is that on 09.03.2018, the victim, daughter of the applicant, aged about 14 years, had gone to some outer place alongwith other women of the village. In the night at 11:00 P.M., the accused seduced her minor daughter and taking her into a Car, committed rape upon her and pressed her mouth so that she could not make any shriek. She was also threatened for her life. The incident was informed by the victim to her mother and when the informant, who was not present in the village, came back, his wife told him the incident. He searched for the accused, but could not find. Subsequently, on 27.03.2018, the accused again made an attempt to drag the victim when she was coming with her mother and when the wife of the informant and other witnesses tried to hold him, he fled away. Several applications were moved by the informant to the S.S.P. and other Police Officers and Human Rights Commission and he also went to P.S. Gabhana, but no report was lodged. Hence, application under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. was moved before the concerned Magistrate.

6. Applications given to Station Officer, P.S. Gabhana, Aligarh dated 27.03.2018 and to S.S.P., Aligarh dated 28.03.2018 with Registry receipts were made annexures to the application. The learned Sessions Judge considering the allegations made therein false, frivolous and unnatural and also finding that no medical examination of the victim was performed, rejected the said application vide impugned order dated 26.05.2018.

7. From the rival contentions of both the sides, some relevant points for determination emerge out.

Point for determination no.1

8. At the very outset, it is desirable to elucidate whether the present revision is maintainable as such or not.

9. The learned State counsel and learned counsel for opposite party no.2 have made it a point of assailment that since the order rejecting an application under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. falls into the category of interlocutory order, criminal revision against the same is not maintainable.

10. Further, the prospective accused persons were necessary parties before the revisional court and since they were not afforded with an opportunity of hearing, their valuable rights were going to be affected by the order, which was eventually passed by the revisional court, is the second ground of contention taken by the learned counsel for the State and the opposite party no.2.

11. The question raised by the learned State counsel has already found its answer in a Full Bench case of this Court, Jagannath Verma & Others Vs. State of U.P. & another, AIR 2014 Allahabad 214 (Lucknow Bench) (F.B.). In this Full Bench case, another Full Bench case of this Court Father Thomas Vs. State of U.P. & Another 2011 Criminal Law Journal 2278 (Allahabad) (F.B.) was also discussed. In that matter, the Court of Chief Judicial Magistrate, Ambedkar Nagar rejected an application under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. considering the contents of the complaint and coming to the conclusion that there was no ground for directing the police to register and investigate the case. The aggrieved party preferred a revision before the Session Judge, which was allowed and the order of the Chief Judicial Magistrate was set-aside and the latter was directed to decide the said application afresh. It was against that revisional order aggrieved by which the petitioners moved to the High Court.

12. The Hon'ble Full Bench in Jagannath Verma case (supra) held like this -

"The power of the magistrate under Section 202 to postpone the issuance of process and to direct an investigation to be made by a police officer for the purpose of deciding whether or not there is sufficient ground for proceeding, is distinct from an order under Section 156 (3). Hence, where an order is passed by the magistrate declining to order an investigation under Section 156 (3), such an order affects the valuable rights of the complainant and is a matter of moment. Access to the remedy of a revision under Section 397 (1) is not barred since such an order is not an interlocutory order under sub-section (2) nor can access to the statutory remedy of a revision under Section 397 (1) be defeated on the ground that the complainant may avail of the procedure prescribed in Chapter XV of the Code."

13. Hon'ble Full Bench specifically laid down that in a revision petition against the order of the Magistrate rejecting the application under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. for registration of F.I.R. and investigation of case, the prospective accused has right to be heard. It was also said that - "But a right to be heard in revision is not excluded because a person who claims such a right was not entitled to be heard before the original order, which is assailed, was passed in the first instance or merely because a right of a hearing will not be available in the original proceedings on remand.....".

It was further explained that - "Natural justice in our jurisprudence is not merely a matter of statutory entitlement but is an emanation or recognition of the constitutional right to fair procedure, fair treatment and objective decision making. Hence, a prospective accused is entitled to be heard in revision under Section 397 when an order rejecting an application under Section 156 (3) is assailed."

14. The connotative pronouncement of the Full Bench of this Court makes the legal position discernible and clarifies all the doubts regarding the maintainability of the present revision and accordingly it is held to be maintainable.

15. It is also apparent from the perusal of the record that the prospective accused has been impleaded as opposite party no.2 in the present revision by the revisionist and he has participated in the proceedings of the present revision.

Point for determination no.2.

This point relates to the extent of power of a Magistrate while dealing with an application under Section 156 (3) of Cr.P.C.

16. Before going into the discussion, a perusal of the relevant provisions of law appears to be necessary.

The provisions of Section 154 of the Criminal Procedure Code read like this -

"Sec. 154. Information in cognizable cases. - (1) Every information relating to the commission of a cognizable offence, if given orally to an officer in charge of a police station, shall be reduced to writing by him or under his direction, and be read over to the informant; and every such information, whether given in writing or reduced to writing as aforesaid, shall be signed by the person giving it, and the substance thereof shall be entered in a book to be kept by such officer in such form as the State Government may prescribe in this behalf.

(2) A copy of the information as recorded under sub- section (1) shall be given forthwith, free of cost, to the informant.

(3) Any person aggrieved by a refusal on the part of an officer in charge of a police station to record the information referred to in sub-section (1) may send the substance of such information, in writing and by post, to the Superintendent of Police concerned who, if satisfied that such information discloses the commission of a cognizable offence, shall either investigate the case himself or direct an investigation to be made by any police officer subordinate to him, in the manner provided by this Code, and such officer shall have all the powers of an officer in charge of the police station in relation to that offence."

17. The provision given under Section 154 (1) Cr.P.C. clearly indicates that if a cognizable offence is made out from the very perusal of the information given to an officer in charge of a police station, the police is thereby apprised about the alleged criminal activity and then it is the duty of the police to take suitable steps and to set the criminal law into motion and first step in this regard is the lodging of the F.I.R. and at that stage, as held in Lalita Kumari Vs. State of U.P., (2014) 2 SCC 1, "'reasonableness' or 'credibility' of the information is not a condition precedent for the registration of a case under Section 154 Cr.P.C."

18. Having an exhaustive account of incident or containing every minute details of the occurrence is never supposed to be a pre-requisite of an F.I.R. Thus, we find that it is unequivocally clear that in case of information of any cognizable offence, the registration of F.I.R. is mandatory. Although, in some cases, it may be required to have a preliminary inquiry and the requirement of preliminary inquiry was emphasized by the Apex Court in Priyanka Srivastava Vs. State of U.P., (2015) 6 Supreme Court Cases 287, wherein the Constitutional Bench of Lalita Kumari case (supra) has been referred like this -

"115. Although, we, in unequivocal terms, hold that Section 154 of the Code postulates the mandatory registration of FIRs on receipt of all cognizable offences, yet, there may be instances where preliminary inquiry may be required owing to the change in genesis and novelty of crimes with the passage of time. One such instance is in the case of allegations relating to medical negligence on the part of doctors. It will be unfair and inequitable to prosecute a medical professional only on the basis of the allegations in the complaint."

19. Further, the Constitutional Bench proceeded to hold that where a preliminary enquiry is necessary, it is not for the purpose for verification or otherwise of the information received but only to ascertain whether the information reveals any cognizable offence.

20. The question arises as to the remedy of the person who is victim or aggrieved, if the police denies to fulfill its constitutional and legal duty and F.I.R. is not lodged ignoring the mandatory provisions of law. Section 154 (3) is provisioned by the legislature in its wisdom and farsightness to provide a remedy to such an aggrieved person and that is why under the aforesaid provision the S.P.

concerned was made empowered to proceed into the matter as referred hereinabove.

21. Situation arises when the crime on a victim remains unheard despite approaching the Superintendent of Police and this leaves him in a state of disgust and distress. This takes the victim / informant to the Magistrate, who may order for registration of F.I.R. and investigation into the matter under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C.,which provides as under.

"Sec. 156. Police officer' s power to investigate cognizable case. - (1) Any officer in charge of a police station may, without the order of a Magistrate, investigate any cognizable case which a Court having jurisdiction over the local area within the limits of such station would have power to inquire into or try under the provisions of Chapter XIII. (2) No proceeding of a police officer in any such case shall at any stage be called in question on the ground that the case was one which such officer was not empowered under this section to investigate.

(3) Any Magistrate empowered under section 190 may order such an investigation as above- mentioned."

22. Since investigation in a criminal matter may be initiated after lodging of the F.I.R., hence needless to say that the power of the Magistrate to order for investigation implies his power to order for registration of the F.I.R. in any cognizable case.

23. Hence, sufficient provisions have been embodied in the Criminal Procedure Code to safeguard the rights of the victims / informants. On the one hand, it is incumbent upon the police to lodge an F.I.R. on receiving information regarding a cognizable case and at the same time the duty has been cast upon the Superintendent of Police that in case there is a refusal on the part of the officer in charge of the police station to record the information of a cognizable offence as an F.I.R., to either investigate such case himself or through any other subordinate police officer.

24. Inspite of such requisite safeguards for the victim / informant and obligatory provisions for the police, there may be several instances when F.I.R. is not lodged despite invocation of provisions of Section 154 Cr.P.C. and that is why the Magistrate was equipped with the power to make an order for lodging of the F.I.R. and to investigate the matter.

25. Now the point to be tackled at this juncture is that whether the Magistrate after receiving an application under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. for registration of F.I.R. is bound to accept it or any other course is available to him.

26. The answer to it we find in Sukhwasi Vs. State of U.P., 2008 Cri LJ 472 (Allahabad) (D.B.), wherein the Division Bench firstly quoted the question referred before it as - "The, following question, has been referred, for consideration;

Whether the Magistrate is bound to pass an order on each and every application under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. containing allegations of commission of a cognizable offence for registration of the F.I.R. and its investigation by the police even if those allegations, prima-facie, do not appear to be genuine and do not appeal to reason, or he can exercise judicial discretion in the matter and can pass order for treating it as 'complaint' or to reject it in suitable cases?"

Answering to the question, it was held that - "For the reasons mentioned above, I am of the opinion that the Magistrate is not always bound to pass an order for register of the case and investigation after receipt of the application under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. disclosing a cognizable offence. The Magistrate may use his discretion judiciously and if he is of the opinion that in the circumstances of the case, it will be proper to treat the application as a complaint case then he may proceed according to the procedure provided under Chapter XV of Cr.P.C. I am also of the opinion that it is not always mandatory in each and every case for the Magistrate to pass an order to register and investigate on receipt of the application under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. In the present case, the Magistrate is perfectly within the judicial power to treat the application under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. as a complaint case. There is no illegality or impropriety in the order. The revision is devoid of merit and is liable to be dismissed."

It was also held that - "It will not be proper to deal with this hypothetical position that if the Magistrate is of opinion that false and frivolous allegation has been made in application then he may reject the application or it is for the investigating officer to decide the truthfulness of the story and if found false then launch prosecution against the applicant But it is discretion of the Magistrate to be used judiciously while disposing of the application."

27. It will be apposite to note here that in Sukhwasi (supra), the cases of Suresh Chandra Jain Vs. State of M.P., A.I.R. 2001 Supreme Court 571, Gopal Das Sindhi Vs. State of Assam, A.I.R. 1961 Supreme Court 986, Madhu Bala Vs. Suresh Kumar, A.I.R. 1997 Supreme Court 3104, Ramesh Kumari Vs. State (N.C.T. of Delhi), A.I.R. 2006 Supreme Court 1322 have been discussed and followed in its true spirit.

28. From the above, it is clear that the Magistrate dealing with an application under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C., is legally authorized to make an order for registration of F.I.R. and investigate into the matter or to treat such application as a complaint, as the case may be and he is fully empowered even to reject the application moved before it under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C.

Point for determination no.3.

This point relates to the question as to whether application under section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. necessitates the filing of an affidavit in support thereof -

29. As the legal pronouncements delivered by the Courts in India on several occasions are the result of the constant study of developing Society and swiftly changing socio-economic conditions, they always stand in conformity with the need of the hour and requirement of the Society.

30. At one point of time, it was gathered by the Hon'ble Apex Court that the provisions of Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. are being misused on several occasions by some deviant, unscrupulous and unprincipled litigants, as the required sense of responsibility on the part of the applicants / victims in moving such applications even on flimsy and false grounds, is lacking and resulting into the unnecessary and deceitful hardships and agony caused to the prospective accused persons.

31. In this backdrop, the legal principles enumerated by the Hon'ble Apex

Court and directions issued in the case of Priyanka Srivastava (supra) are relevant and must be kept into mind.

32. In the factual scenario of the aforesaid case of Priyanka Srivastava, an application under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. was moved against the bank authorities of the Punjab National Bank Housing Finance Limited with an intent to avoid bank loan and the order passed on that application gave rise to an F.I.R. under Sections 465, 467, 468, 471, 386, 506, 34 and 120-B IPC against the bank authorities. When the appellants being aggrieved therewith moved to the High Court, the High Court declined to interfere with the order passed by the Magistrate opining that from the perusal of the F.I.R., it could not be said that no cognizable offence was made out.

33. The Hon'ble Supreme Court while quashing the impugned F.I.R. made several relevant observations and issued specific directions to the Courts dealing with the application under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. It was held that -

"30. In our considered opinion, a stage has come in this country where Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. applications are to be supported by an affidavit duly sworn by the applicant who seeks the invocation of the jurisdiction of the Magistrate. That apart, in an appropriate case, the learned Magistrate would be well advised to verify the truth and also can verify the veracity of the allegations. This affidavit can make the applicant more responsible. We are compelled to say so as such kind of applications are being filed in a routine manner without taking any responsibility whatsoever only to harass certain persons. That apart, it becomes more disturbing and alarming when one tries to pick up people who are passing orders under a statutory provision which can be challenged under the framework of said Act or under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. But it cannot be done to take undue advantage in a criminal court as if somebody is determined to settle the scores.

31.We have already indicated that there has to be prior applications under Section 154 (1) and 154 (3) while filing a petition under Section 156 (3). Both the aspects should be clearly spelt out in the application and necessary documents to that effect shall be filed. The warrant for giving a direction that an the application under Section 156 (3) be supported by an affidavit so that the person making the application should be conscious and also endeavour to see that no false affidavit is made. It is because once an affidavit is found to be false, he will be liable for prosecution in accordance with law. This will deter him to casually invoke the authority of the Magistrate under Section 156 (3). That apart, we have already stated that the veracity of the same can also be verified by the learned Magistrate, regard being had to the nature of allegations of the case. We are compelled to say so as a number of cases pertaining to fiscal sphere, matrimonial dispute/family disputes, commercial offences, medical negligence cases, corruption cases and the cases where there is abnormal delay/laches in initiating criminal prosecution, as are illustrated in Lalita Kumari are being filed. That apart, the learned Magistrate would also be aware of the delay in lodging of the FIR."

Thus we find the answer to this point in affirmative.

34. Now the question arises whether the application under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C., which is in question before the Court, was entertainable by the concerned court or not.

35. Recently in Babu Venkatesh and Others Vs. State of Karnataka and another, (2022) 5 Supreme Court Cases 639, the Hon'ble Apex Court reiterated the prerequisites for exercise of the power of Magistrate under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. and the manner in which it is to be exercised. In that case, order passed by the Magistrate under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. led to registration of FIRs under Sections 420, 471, 468, 465 and 120-B IPC against the appellants and petitions filed by appellants under Section 482 Cr.P.C. before High Court for quashing aforesaid criminal proceedings were dismissed on ground that serious allegations of cheating and forgery were shown in complaints and as such no case was made out for quashing FIRs.

36. Clarifying the principles governing the scope and power of Magistrate under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. and reiterating the principles laid down in Priyanka Srivastava case (supra), it was observed that -

"This court has clearly held that, a stage has come where applications under Section 156 (3) of Cr.P.C. are to be supported by an affidavit duly sworn by the complainant who seeks the invocation of the jurisdiction of the Magistrate....."

"This court has further held that prior to the filing of a petition under Section 156 (3) of the Cr.P.C., there have to be applications under Section 154 (1) and 154 (3) of the Cr.P.C. This court emphasizes the necessity to file an affidavit so that the persons making the application should be conscious and not make false affidavit. With such a requirement, the persons would be deterred from causally invoking authority of the Magistrate, under Section 156 (3) of the Cr.P.C. In as much as if the affidavit is found to be false, the person would be liable for prosecution in accordance with law."

37. The Hon'ble Apex Court found that no affidavit in support of the application under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. was filed by the complainant, hence it was observed that -

"In any case, when the complaint was not supported by an affidavit, the Magistrate ought not to have entertained the application under Section 156 (3) of the Cr.P.C."

38. Principle has been thus laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court for the Courts dealing with the application under section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. that if such an application is not supported with the affidavit duly sworn by the complainant, such application cannot be entertained by Magistrate.

39. From the perusal of record, this Court finds that nowhere it has been mentioned in the memo of revision that any affidavit in support of the aforesaid application under section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. duly sworn by the complainant was filed before the court concerned. Nothing in this regard can be found in the impugned order passed by the Additional Sessions Judge, Court No.5, Aligarh. The copy of application under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. also goes to show that nowhere it has been asserted therein that any affidavit is being filed by the applicant in support of the aforesaid application. As a matter of fact, the Court finds not even a whisper to this effect from the perusal of the whole record that any affidavit in support of the allegations made in the application under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. has ever been filed by the applicant.

40. From the above discussion, it is explicit that before taking recourse of the Court, the complainant ought to move to the police station for registration of the F.I.R. and if unattended there, move an application to the Superintendent of Police and this fact also be deposed clearly in his application under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. moved before the Magistrate. In the matter in hand, copies of the applications moved by the applicant to the police station Gabhana, District Aligarh and to the S.S.P., Aligarh have been filed on record, but this fact has not been deposed anywhere by the informant by way of affidavit, which was a necessary compliance of the law governing the subject. Although the learned Court has not paid any attention to this legal omission and the impugned order has been passed on factual aspect, but this Court can, in no circumstance, ignore legal principles governing the present matter. If no affidavit was filed in support of the application under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C., it even, could not have been entertained by the court concerned. The application itself suffers from a serious legal flaw and was not entertainable as such.

41. It is not required for this Court to examine the facts of the case and to draw a conclusion whether the learned Sessions Court analyzed the factual scenario of the matter in proper manner or not because it has been already held that the application in itself was not entertainable for want of affidavit and rejection of the same was a right consequence.

42. On the basis of the aforesaid discussion, I am of the considered view that the revision is devoid of merit and deserves to be dismissed.

43. The revision is accordingly dismissed.

(2023) 4 ILRA 483
REVISIONAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 07.04.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MRS. SADHNA RANI (THAKUR), J.

Criminal Revision No. 2913 of 2019

Nadeem @ Kalia ...Revisionist
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Revisionist:
Sri Bhavya Sahai, Sri Brijesh Sahai (Sr. Advocate)

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A., Sri Avnish Kumar Srivastava, Sri Anoop Trivedi (Sr. Advocate)

Criminal Law-Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2000-Sections 7A, 49-Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Rules, 2007-Rule 12)- Revision against the judgment and order passed in Juvenile Criminal Appeal-A person can move an application claiming himself to be juvenile at any stage of the case and even after the judgment of the case-The word 'any court in Section 7A(1)' means the trial court/High Court/Apex Court and does not mean that any court in U.P. wherever a person wants an application to be moved-Medical report does not bear the thumb impression/signature of the accused thereby the presence of the revisionist at the time of medical examination cannot be ascertained-St.ment of the revisionist u/s 313 CrPC and license of DBBL gun issued in the name of revisionist before the date of incident an admission on the part of the accused revisionist of being major on the date of incident-Two agreement to sale and one power of attorney have been placed which bear the thumb impression of the revisionist this again indicates that the revisionist was major before the date of incident. (Para 10, 33, 38)

Revision dismissed. (E-15)

List of Cases cited:

1. Ram Vijay Singh Vs St. of U. P., LL 2021 SC 117

2. Mukarrab & ors. Vs St. of U. P. (2017) 2 SCC 210

(Delivered by Hon'ble Mrs. Sadhna Rani (Thakur), J.)

1. Heard Sri Brijesh Sahai, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Sri Bhavya Sahai, learned counsel for the revisionist and Sri Anoop Trivedi, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Sri Avnish Kumar Srivastava, learned counsel for the opposite party no. 2.

2. This revision has been preferred against the judgement and order dated 04.07.2019 passed in Juvenile Criminal Appeal No. 08 of 2019 arising out of Case Crime No. 131 of 2003 under Sections 147, 148, 149, 307 and 302 IPC, Police Station Kotwali, District Meerut.

3. As per facts of the case Sessions Trial Nos. 668, 669 and 671 of 2003, Case Crime No. 131 of 2003 and 134 of 2003 respectively under Sections 147, 148, 149, 307, 302 IPC and 25/27 Arms Act, Police Station Kotwali, District Meerut were decided by the trial court vide judgement dated 04.08.2007 and all the four accused persons were found guilty. The case was decided into capital punishment. Criminal Reference No. 21 of 2007 - State Vs. Khalid and others, was made to this court to confirm the capital punishment. The accused persons also filed Criminal Appeal No. 5169 of 2007 - Khalid and others Vs. State of U.P. before this court. Both the reference and criminal appeal were heard together by the Division Bench of this court. The reference was dismissed and the appeal was partly allowed vide judgment and order dated 05.09.2008. The death sentence was set aside and was commuted to life imprisonment i.e. imprisonment for whole life with the provision that the accused persons shall not be entitled to be considered for remission of sentence, unless they have undergone an actual term of 20 years imprisonment including the period already undergone by them. The sentence of fine awarded to the appellants under Sections 302/149 IPC as well as sentence of imprisonment and fine awarded to them under Section 307/149 and 148 IPC and the conviction of accused appellants Tahir and Moinuddin and the sentence awarded to them under Section 25 Arms Act were upheld. All the sentences of imprisonment were to run concurrently. The convict/revisionist along with other co-accused persons was thereafter transferred to Central Jail, Agra to serve the sentence.

4. One Sister Sheeba Jose, a lawyer and human right activist, filed a Public Interest Litigation No. 855 of 2012 (Sister Sheeba Jose Vs. State of U.P. and others) before this Court for release of the prisoners, who may have been below 18 years of age at the time of incident and were detained in various district or Central Jail. For Agra, Central Jail a list of 18 prisoners was made for grant of such relief. This writ petition was decided by the division bench of this Court vide order dated 24.05.2012 and directions were issued to the District Judges, who were also the Chairpersons of their Legal Services Authorities to see that the efficient lawyers were appointed for the purpose of providing legal aid to the prisoners, who were unable to engage private lawyers and who were mentioned in the list furnished by the State Government and described to be below 18 years in age on the date of commission of offence. The present applicant applied (through Jail Superintendent, Central Jail, Agra) before the Secretary, District Legal Services Authority for providing him legal aid. On his application, the District Legal Services Authority appointed an advocate for providing him legal aid and thereafter on 22.03.2017 an application was moved on behalf of the revisionist before the Juvenile Justice Board, Agra claiming therein that he was juvenile at the time of incident and as he was not literate and having no documentary evidence regarding his age, as such by constituting a medical board his age may be determined. His medical was done by the medical board and on the basis of report of medical board dated 19.04.2017 the Principal Magistrate, Juvenile Justice Board, Agra vide order dated 22.04.2017 declared the revisionist juvenile on the date of incident.

5. On various grounds and vide order dated 03.05.2017 of Juvenile Justice Board, Agra the revisionist, who was said to had served incarceration of more than 13 years 10 months, was ordered to be released from the jail. Against these orders dated 22.04.2017 and 03.05.2017 Application U/S 482 No. 18718 of 2017 was filed by Dr. Mohd Iqbal Gaji, which was withdrawn by him on 11.10.2017 with the version that against these orders the remedy of appeal has been provided in the statute and the application had been filed in the wrong court, hence, with liberty to avail proper legal remedy against the orders, the permission to withdraw this application was seeked, which was allowed accordingly. Then an appeal was filed by Haji Baseeruddin, opposite party no. 2 against the orders dated 22.04.2017 and 03.05.2017, which was allowed vide order dated 04.07.2019 of the Sessions Judge, Agra. The orders dated 22.04.2017 and 03.05.2017 were set aside and the revisionist/accused was ordered to be arrested by issuing non bailable warrant against him.

6. Admittedly, the revisionist remained absconding and the processes were issued by the concerned court for his arrest. At last vide order dated 17.05.2022 in Writ Petition (Criminal) No. 155 of 2022 the revisionist was directed to be released on bail subject to the conditions to be imposed by the trial court until further orders and vide order dated 06.09.2022 in the same writ petition the Apex Court disposed of the writ petition with the request to this court to dispose of the Criminal Misc. Application No. 20368 of 2017 of the co-accused and Criminal Revision No. 2913 of 2019 (present revision) as expeditiously as possible not later than six months.

7. This revision was placed before this court along with Application U/S 482 No. 20368 of 2017 of the co-accused on 22.03.2023 for the first time and the learned counsel for the applicant in application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. seeked time so that he may inform the counsel for the revisionist and accordingly 28.03.2023 was fixed and on 28.03.2023 the arguments were heard in Application U/S 482 No. 20368 of 2017 and due to paucity of time on next date i.e. 29.03.2023 the arguments on present revision were heard.

8. The present revision has been preferred against the order dated 04.07.2019 of the Sessions Judge, Agra in Criminal Appeal No. 08 of 2019 related to Case Crime No. 131 of 2003.

9. The judgment is assailed on the ground that the impugned judgment is against the settled principles of law. It is based on surmises and conjectures. The District Judge, Agra misread the record, thus, the order is arbitrary and against the principle of natural justice and not sustainable. The provisions of Section 94 of the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act have not been followed, whereby the educational certificate/birth certificate by a corporation or municipality or panchayat/ ossification test are relevant for the purpose of determination of age. As per provisions of Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, the voter ID, statement under Section 313 Cr.P.C. and arms license are irrelevant for the purpose of determination of age. No admissible evidence could be attributed by the appellant regarding the age of the accused revisionist. The order has been passed mechanically and without application of mind, which needs to be quashed.

10. Admittedly, a person can move an application claiming himself to be juvenile at any stage of the case and even after the judgement of the case. As in the present case, the judgement in S.T. No. 668, 669 and 671 of 2003 was passed on 04.08.2017 and the application for declaring him to be juvenile was moved by the revisionist in the year 2017 and on his medical examination by the medical board, report was submitted on 19.04.2017 and vide order dated 22.04.2017 the revisionist was declared juvenile. On 03.05.2017 he was ordered to be released from the Central Jail.

11. The only law question involved in this revision is whether in the presence of report of medical examination by the medical board the appellate court could find the revisionist major on the date of incident on the basis of other evidence on record?

12. Admittedly, this appeal was decided in the absence of revisionist finding sufficient service by refusal on him.

13. The incident is dated 07.06.2003. Admittedly, at that time Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2000 (hereinafter referred to as the 'Act') was prevalent and later on in 2007, Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Rules, 2007 (hereinafter referred to as the 'Rules 2007') were framed. Regarding procedure for a claim of juvenility Section 7A and Section 49 of the Act are apposite to mention here:-

[7A. Procedure to be followed when claim of juvenility is raised before any court.- (1) Whenever a claim of juvenility is raised before any court or a court is of the opinion that an accused person was a juvenile on the date of commission of the offence, the court shall make an inquiry, take such evidence as may be necessary (but not an affidavit) so as to determine the age of such person, and shall record a finding whether the person is a juvenile or a child or not, stating his age as nearly as may be:

Provided that a claim of juvenility may be raised before any court and it shall be recognised at any stage, even after final disposal of the case, and such claim shall be determined in terms of the provisions contained in this Act and the rules made thereunder, even if the juvenile has ceased to be so on or before the date of commencement of this Act.

(2) If the court finds a person to be a juvenile on the date of commission of the offence under sub-section (1), it shall forward the juvenile to the Board for passing appropriate orders and the sentence, if any, passed by a court shall be deemed to have no effect.]

49. Presumption and determination of age.--(1) Where it appears to a competent authority that person brought before it under any of the provisions of this Act (otherwise than for the purpose of giving evidence) is a juvenile or the child, the competent authority shall make due inquiry so as to the age of that person and for that purpose shall take such evidence as may be necessary (but not an affidavit) and shall record a finding whether the person is a juvenile or the child or not, stating his age as nearly as may be.

(2) No order of a competent authority shall be deemed to have become invalid merely by any subsequent proof that the person in respect of whom the order has been made is not a juvenile or the child, and the age recorded by the competent authority to be the age of person so brought before it, shall for the purpose of this Act, be deemed to be the true age of that person.

14. A reading of Section 7A of the Act makes it clear that as per Section 7A (1) claim of juvenility shall be determined in terms of provisions contained in the Act and the Rules made therein even if the juvenile ceased to be so on or before commencement of this act.

15. In the case in hand, an application for declaring him juvenile was moved by the present revisionist in the year 2017, till then the above Rules, 2007 had been framed, hence, regarding determination of age of the revisionist Rule 12 of the Rules, 2007 shall be applied.

16. Rule 12 of the Rules, 2007 runs as under:-

12 Procedure to be followed in determination of Age.

(1) In every case concerning a child or a juvenile in conflict with law, the court or the Board or as the case may be the Committee referred to in rule 19 of these rules shall determine the age of such juvenile or child or a juvenile in conflict with law within a period of thirty days from the date of making of the application for that purpose.

(2) The Court or the Board or as the case may be the Committee shall decide the juvenility or otherwise of the juvenile or the child or as the case may be the juvenile in conflict with law, prima facie on the basis of physical appearance or documents, if available, and send him to the observation home or in jail.

(3) In every case concerning a child or juvenile in conflict with law, the age determination inquiry shall be conducted by the court or the Board or, as the case may be, the Committee by seeking evidence by obtaining

(a) (i) the matriculation or equivalent certificates, if available; and in the absence whereof;

(ii) the date of birth certificate from the school (other than a play school) first attended; and in the absence whereof;

(iii) the birth certificate given by a corporation or a municipal authority or a panchayat;

(b) and only in the absence of either (i), (ii) or (iii) of clause (a) above, the medical opinion will be sought from a duly constituted Medical Board, which will declare the age of the juvenile or child. In case exact assessment of the age cannot be done, the Court or the Board or, as the case may be, the Committee, for the reasons to be recorded by them, may, if considered necessary, give benefit to the child or juvenile by considering his/her age on lower side within the margin of one year.

and, while passing orders in such case shall, after taking into consideration such evidence as may be available, or the medical opinion, as the case may be, record a finding in respect of his age and either of the evidence specified in any of the clauses (a)(i), (ii), (iii) or in the absence whereof, clause (b) shall be the conclusive proof of the age as regards such child or Ihe juvenile in conflict with law.

(4) If the age of a juvenile or child or the juvenile in conflict with law is found to be below 18 years on the date of offence, on the basis of any of the conclusive proof specified in sub-rule (3), the Court or the Board or as the case may be the Committee shall in writing pass an order stating the age and declaring the status of juvenility or otherwise, for the purpose of the Act and these rules and a copy of the order shall be given to such juvenile or the person concerned.

(5) Save and except where, further inquiry or otherwise is required, inter alia, in terms of section 7A, section 64 of the Act and these rules, no further inquiry shall be conducted by the court or the Board after examining and obtaining the certificate or any other documentary proof referred to in sub-rule (3) of this rule.

(6) The provisions contained in this rule shall also apply to those disposed of cases, where the status of juvenility has not been determined in accordance with the provisions contained in sub-rule (3) and the Act, requiring dispensation of the sentence under the Act for passing appropriate order in the interest of the juvenile in conflict with law.

17. Thus, as per learned counsel for the revisionist for declaration of a person to be juvenile in conflict with law, the court or the board shall determine the age of the child by inquiry and seeking evidence by obtaining (1) the matriculation or equivalent certificates available and in the absence whereof (2) the date of birth certificate from the school (other than a play school) first attended and in the absence whereof (3) the birth certificate given by a corporation or a municipal authority or a panchayat and in the absence of above three, the medical opinion will be sought from a duly constituted Medical Board, that would declare the age of the juvenile or child. In case exact assessment of the age could not be done, the Court or the Board, for the reasons to be recorded, give benefit to the child/juvenile by considering his/her age on lower side within the margin of one year.

18. It is the version of the learned counsel for the revisionist that as in the present case the revisionist was illiterate person so his matriculation or equivalent certificate or the date of birth certificate from any school were not available and the certificate of any corporation or municipal authority or panchayat was also not available, so the Juvenile Justice Board rightly relied upon the report of medical examination done by the medical board and declared the revisionist juvenile.

19. This argument of the revisionist counsel is assailed on various grounds.

20. It is submitted by the learned counsel for the opposite party no. 2 that the medical examination report submitted by the medical board dated 19.04.2017 does not bear the thumb impression/ signature of the revisionist so in the absence of thumb impression/signature of the revisionist this certificate has no legal sanctity and is a bare piece of paper and when there was neither any educational certificate nor any certificate issued by the municipal board or panchayat nor any reliable medical report, the court was free to collect other evidence which could be available before the court and pass an order accordingly.

21. Learned counsel for the opposite party no. 2 placed before the court judgement in Ram Vijay Singh Vs. State of Uttar Pradesh, LL 2021 SC 117 wherein the apex court held that the medical evidence as to the age of a person, though a very useful guiding factor, is not conclusive and has to be considered along with other circumstances. Paragraphs 26, 27 and 28 of the judgement in Mukarrab & others Vs. State of Uttar Pradesh (2017) 2 SCC 210 were referred in that judgement. These paragraphs run as under:-

"26. Having regard to the circumstances of this case, a blind and mechanical view regarding the age of a person cannot be adopted solely on the basis of the medical opinion by the radiological examination. At p. 31 of Modi's Textbook of Medical Jurisprudence and Toxicology, 20th Edn., it has been stated as follows:

"In ascertaining the age of young persons radiograms of any of the main joints of the upper or the lower extremity of both sides of the body should be taken, an opinion should be given according to the following Table, but it must be remembered that too much reliance should not be placed on this Table as it merely indicates an average and is likely to vary in individual cases even of the same province owing to the eccentricities of development."

Courts have taken judicial notice of this fact and have always held that the evidence afforded by radiological examination is no doubt a useful guiding factor for determining the age of a person but the evidence is not of a conclusive and incontrovertible nature and it is subject to a margin of error. Medical evidence as to the age of a person though a very useful guiding factor is not conclusive and has to be considered along with other circumstances.

27. In a recent judgment, State of M.P. v. Anoop Singh, (2015) 7 SCC 773 : (2015) 4 SCC (Cri) 208], it was held that the ossification test is not the sole criteria for age determination. Following Babloo Pasi [Babloo Pasi v. State of Jharkhand, (2008) 13 SCC 133 : (2009) 3 SCC (Cri) 266] and Anoop Singh cases [State of M.P. v. Anoop Singh, (2015) 7 SCC 773 : (2015) 4 SCC (Cri) 208], we hold that ossification test cannot be regarded as conclusive when it comes to ascertaining the age of a person. More so, the appellants herein have certainly crossed the age of thirty years which is an important factor to be taken into account as age cannot be determined with precision. In fact in the medical report of the appellants, it is stated that there was no indication for dental x-rays since both the accused were beyond 25 years of age.

28. At this juncture, we may usefully refer to an article "A study of wrist ossification for age estimation in paediatric group in Central Rajasthan", which reads as under:

"There are various criteria for age determination of an individual, of which eruption of teeth and ossification activities of bones are important. Nevertheless age can usually be assessed more accurately in younger age group by dentition and ossification along with epiphyseal fusion.

[Ref.: Gray H. Gray's Anatomy, 37th Edn., Churchill Livingstone Edinburgh London Melbourne and New York: 1996; 341-342];

A careful examination of teeth and ossification at wrist joint provide valuable data for age estimation in children.

[Ref.: Parikh C.K. Parikh's Textbook of Medical Jurisprudence and Toxicology, 5th Edn., Mumbai Medico- Legal Centre Colaba: 1990; 44-45];

Variations in the appearance of centre of ossification at wrist joint shows influence of race, climate, diet and regional factors. Ossification centres for the distal ends of radius and ulna consistent with present study vide article "A study of wrist ossification for age estimation in paediatric group in Central Rajasthan" by Dr Ashutosh Srivastav, Senior Demonstrator and a team of other doctors, Journal of Indian Academy of Forensic Medicine (JIAFM), 2004; 26(4). ISSN 0971-0973].

22. It was argued on the basis of this finding of the Apex Court that no dental x-ray of the revisionist was done. It was also argued that examination of teeth and ossification, wrist and joint would be considered for age estimation in children and as per medical report itself the revisionist is found to be 29 years of age presently, hence, his age cannot be said to be assessed more accurately.

23. This argument of the learned counsel for the opposite party no. 2 was opposed by the learned counsel for the revisionist on the ground that as per findings of this judgement no medical reprot was available before the court and in absence of medical report, when High School certificate or the certificate of first school or Nagar Nigam or Panchayat were already not available then only on the basis of admission of the accused revisionist made in the arm license, the age of the accused was determined.

24. If we go through the provisions of the Act in this regard in Section 7A itself speaks that "whenever a claim is made by the accused in the court and the court is of the opinion that an accused person was a juvenile on the date of commission of the offence, the court shall make an inquiry," which clearly indicates that from the physical appearance of the accused if the court finds prima-facie that the inquiry is must in the matter to determine the age of the person only then the inquiry shall be held. As is opined by the Apex Court in para-15 of the judgement Ram Vijay Singh (supra), which is as under:-

15. As per the Scheme of the Act, when it is obvious to the Committee or the Board, based on the appearance of the person, that the said person is a child, the Board or Committee shall record observations stating the age of the Child as nearly as may be without waiting for further confirmation of the age. Therefore, the first attempt to determine the age is by assessing the physical appearance of the person when brought before the Board or the Committee. It is only in case of doubt, the process of age determination by seeking evidence becomes necessary. At that stage, when a person is around 18 years of age, the ossification test can be said to be relevant for determining the approximate age of a person in conflict with law. However, when the person is around 40-55 years of age, the structure of bones cannot be helpful in determining the age. This Court in Arjun Panditrao Khotkar v. Kailash Kushanrao Gorantyal and Ors. (2020)7SCC 1 held, in the context of certificate required under Section 65B of the Evidence Act, 1872, that as per the Latin maxim, lex non cogit ad impossibilia, law does not demand the impossible. Thus, when the ossification test cannot yield trustworthy and reliable results, such test cannot be made a basis to determine the age of the person concerned on the date of incident. Therefore, in the absence of any reliable trustworthy medical evidence to find out age of the appellant, the ossification test conducted in year 2020 when the appellant was 55 years of age cannot be conclusive to declare him as a juvenile on the date of the incident.

25. Thus, first attempt of the court to determine the age of the accused is by assessing the physical appearance of the person when brought before the medical board or the committee and it is only in the case of doubt that the process of age determination by seeking other evidence becomes necessary.

26. If we go through the order of the medical board dated 22.04.2017 wherein on the date of incident the age of the revisionist is determined to be 15 years, 01 month and 18 days, while in his statement under Section 313 Cr.P.C. the accused has disclosed himself to be of 26 years. Thus, he was about 23 years old on the date of incident. Had the accused been 15 years of age on the date of incident it could have very well be assessed by the court by his physical appearance when he used to appear in the trial court at the time of hearing of the trial. Admittedly during complete trial the revisionist remained in jail and he might have appeared from the jail in the court. Thus, in compliance of Section 7A of the Act, the trial court never assessed the accused to be juvenile on his appearance from the jail, so no process of age determination by seeking any evidence was adopted by the trial court. The revisionist himself from the year 2003 till 2017 when he remained in jail for about 13-14 years, he never claimed himself to be a juvenile and its reason has not been disclosed by the revisionist anywhere.

27. It is argued by the learned counsel for the revisionist that the appeal was heard in the absence of the accused. In the judgment of the appeal itself it has been mentioned that the process was send to the revisionist and the service on him was found to be sufficient by refusal. Admittedly, since the release of the revisionist from the jail after 2017 till today he has not appeared before the court. He is absconding. Even in the revision the affidavit of Subhan Jamal, the nephew of the revisionist, has been filed in support of the prayer in the revision. Thus, it can be said that revisionist has not come in the revisional court with clean hands.

28. It is also argued by the learned counsel for the opposite party no. 2 that the medical report of the medical board, which was relied upon by the Juvenile Justice Board, does not bear the thumb impression/signature of the revisionist, which makes the report unreliable and in the absence of any medical report the court was bound to decide the age of the accused on the basis of other evidence present on record. A perusal of the medical report submitted by medical board clearly shows that it does not bear the thumb impression or signatures of the accused and this report is of no importance in the absence of the thumb impression or signatures of the convict/revisionist.

29. In compliance of court's order dated 24.05.2012 passed in Criminal Writ -

Public Interest Litigation No. 855 of 2012, the list of 18 persons was prepared in the Central Jail Agra and the age of these 18 persons was to be determined to be below 18 years by the Principal Judge, Juvenile Justice Board. As per the learned counsel for the opposite party no. 2 this list did not include the name of the present revisionist and he, with the ill intention against the order of this court, moved an application through Jail Superintendent before the Juvenile Justice Board to declare him juvenile. As the list of 18 persons prepared in the Central Jail, Agra, for assessing those persons to be juvenile on the date of the incident, is not placed before the court, so this argument of the learned counsel for the opposite party no. 2 has no force.

30. However, this is admitted fact that the division bench of this court vide order dated 24.05.2012 in Criminal Writ - Public Interest Litigation No. 855 of 2012, held for determination of age of the persons, who may be below 18 years of age on the date of commission of offence and who appear to be wrongly lodged in the regular prisons for adults. It was clearly opined by the division bench that the prosecution and the complainant will also, of course, be given an opportunity to examine their own witnesses and to cross-examine the witnesses, who have been got examined on behalf of the accused and for that purpose notice of the proceedings before the J.J. Board shall be served on the complainant/ prosecution. Admittedly and also from perusal of the impugned order dated 22.04.2017 the presence of the complainant or his counsel is not noted therein. However, learned ADGC is shown to be heard while passing order dated 22.04.2017, but in compliance of this court's order dated 24.05.2012 the complainant was neither heard nor given a notice before being heard. This is not the version of the revisionist also that the complaint was served or his counsel was heard at the time of passing order dated 22.04.2017. There is nothing on record to show that before determination of age of the accused the complainant/opposite party no. 2 was ever heard. Thus, order dated 22.04.2017 was clearly an exparte order wherein the complainant was never given an opportunity of appearing or being heard, wherein in the present appeal it is clear finding of the appellate court that the service on revisionist was found sufficient by refusal.

31. It is also argued by the learned counsel for the opposite party no. 2 that the Juvenile Justice Board, Agra had no jurisdiction to determine the age of the accused as the matter belonged to District Meerut and it was after conviction from Meerut District Court only that the accused was lodged in Central Jail, Agra. This fact does not give authority to Juvenile Justice Board, Agra to hear the application of age determination of the accused/convict.

32. In this regard, para-2 of Section 7A(1) is apposite to mention here as under:-

[7A. Procedure to be followed when claim of juvenility is raised before any court.- (1) .....

Provided that a claim of juvenility may be raised before any court and it shall be recognised at any stage, even after final disposal of the case, and such claim shall be determined in terms of the provisions contained in this Act and the rules made thereunder, even if the juvenile has ceased to be so on or before the date of commencement of this Act.

33. From the above provision, the word 'any court' means the trial court/High Court/Apex Court. It does not mean that any court in U.P. wherever a person wants an application to be moved he could move the same. As the case belonged to District Meerut and it was decided by the District Court Meerut, the District Court, Meerut/Principal Magistrate, Juvenile Justice Board, Meerut only had jurisdiction to decide the question of juvenility of the applicant. Thus, the order dated 22.04.2017 passed by the Principal Magistrate, Juvenile Justice Board, Agra was an order passed without jurisdiction.

34. It is however further argued by the learned counsel for the opposite party no. 2 that as per the statement under Section 313 Cr.P.C. of the accused he disclosed himself to be 26 years old on 16.05.2006, thus, according to his own admission his age on the date of incident becomes about 22 years and 11 months. In the voter list also in the year 2017, his age is shown to be 40 years, thus, his age becomes 26 years on the date of incident. As per the judgment of the trial court, the revisionist was acquitted for the offence under Section 25 of Arms Act on the ground that he was having a valid gun license in his name. This fact is not opposed by the learned counsel for the revisionist. As gun license is issued in favour of a major person so on this basis also accused was claimed to be major on the date of incident.

35. Again the attention of the court is drawn that the present revisionist by the name Gulam Shahjad @ Kaliya s/o Jamiluddin has put his thumb impression on agreements to sale dated 20.09.2000 and 15.09.2000 and on a revocable power of attorney dated 27.08.1998. All these documents on record show that on the respective dates the revisionist was major and only then he put his signatures as a major person on the dates mentioned therein on the agreements to sale and the power of attorney. Thus, it was argued by the learned counsel for the opposite party no. 2 that in his statement under Section 313 Cr.P.C., in his valid gun license, on two agreement to sale and power of attorney, the revisionist by putting his thumb impression/signatures himself has admitted to be major on the date of incident.

36. Learned counsel for the revisionist, however, opposed these arguments and submitted that as the revisionist was minor on the date of incident, so he was not prudent enough to make an admission about his age.

37. However, the court is not convinced with this argument of the learned counsel for the revisionist.

38. In compliance of Rule 12 of the Rules, 2007, the revisionist was not having any matriculation or equivalent certificate or birth certificate from any school, corporation, municipal board or panchayat. In absence of these documents his medical was done by the medical board and that medical report does not bear the thumb impression/signature of the accused thereby the presence of the revisionist at the time of medical examination by the medical board cannot be ascertained. Otherwise also, as per above discussion, the age of a person by medical examination can be accurately determined only if he is about 18 years of age and a person, who is shown to be 29 years of age at the time of examination by the medical board, his age cannot be determined by precision. In the light of Section 7A of the Act, on his appearance in the trial court the court never assessed him to be a juvenile to make an inquiry for determination of his age. As per Section 7A of the Act at the time of enquiry the court may take such evidence as it thinks necessary, so as to determine the age of such person and shall record a finding whether the person is juvenile or not. In the present case also, the Appellate Court has clearly reached at a conclusion that at the time of determination of age the complainant was not given a notice while at the time of appeal the revisionist intentionally did not appear before the court even after service by refusal and kept absconding after the non bailable warrants were issued against him by the court concerned. The appellant court found the statement of the revisionist under Section 313 Cr.P.C. and license of DBBL gun issued in the name of revisionist before the date of incident, to be an admission on the part of the accused revisionist of being major on the date of incident. Apart from this, in this court again two agreement to sale and one power of attorney have been placed which bear the thumb impression of the revisionist this again indicates that the revisionist was major before the date of incident as he was putting his thumb impression on the above mentioned documents independently and not under the guardianship of any other person claiming to be minor.

39. Thus, on the basis of judgement in Ram Vijay Singh (supra) and in absence of any document mentioned in Rule 12 (3a) of Rules, 2007, the only document before the trial court was the report of medical board that was also found to be suspicious not bearing the thumb impression of the revisionist and in the absence of all documents mentioned in Rule 12 above, in the light of Section 7A of the Act, on the basis of evidence produced before the appellate court, the appellate court, in the opinion of this court, has rightly reached at a conclusion that the revisionist was not a juvenile on the date of incident.

40. In the opinion of this court, the appellate court has rightly placed reliance on the evidence on record other than the medical examination report of the accused and has reached at a right conclusion.

41. The question whether in the presence of the report of medical examination by the medical board the appellate court could find the revisionist major on the date of incident on the basis of other evidence on record, is decided in affirmative.

42. There is no illegality, irregularity or improprietary in impugned judgment/order.

43. The revision having no force is liable to be dismissed.

44. The revision is hereby dismissed.

(2023) 4 ILRA 494
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 29.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ANJANI KUMAR MISHRA, J.
THE HON'BLE GAJENDRA KUMAR, J.

Criminal Misc. Writ Petition No. 3238 of 2023

M/s Balmokand Faqir Chand ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Ram Prakash Dwivedi, Sri Pranshu Dwivedi, Sri H.N. Singh, Sr. Advocate

Counsel for the Respondents:
G.A.

(A) Criminal Law – Constitution of India,1950 - Article - 226 - U.P. Gangsters and Anti Social Activities Prevention Act, 1986 - Sections 14, 14(3), 15, 15(1), 15(2), 16 & 17 - Writ Petition – for quashing the order by which district magistrate directed to appoint an Administrator under Gangster Act, - sale deed - petitioner claims to be the statutory tenant of the shop - interest in the shop in question has been claimed - on the basis of Police report and recommended by the Senior Superintendent of Police - shop has been attached by DM - Respondent no.6 was reported to be a criminal, who had amassed huge property by indulging in cheating hapless persons and was also indulging in anti-social activities – petitioner moved representation for appointment of the administrator, but same was declined by the district magistrate - held, Court shall fix a date for enquiry and give notices thereof and also to any other person whose interest appears to be involved in said property after due enquiry under Act - Court shall also make delivery to any other person entitled to possession thereof or otherwise - hence, Order passed by District Magistrate to be correct and does not warrant any interference - Petitioner avails the statutory remedy available to him, same should have been considered by the concerned District Magistrate and will pass the order in light of provisions contained in Section 14(3) of the aforesaid Act – in above terms, Petition dismissed.

Writ Petition Dismissed. (E-11)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Gajendra Kumar, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned AGA for the State-respondents.

2. The instant writ petition has been filed with the following prayer:-

"(a) Issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of certiorari quashing the impugned order dated 20.01.2023 passed by the District Magistrate, Agra in Case No.11270 of 2022 (State Vs. Mohd. Shan alias Sanno) (Annexure No.11 to the writ petition).

(b) Issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of Mandamus commanding the District Magistrate, Agra to appoint an Administrator under Section 14(3) of the U.P. Gangsters and Anti-Social Activities (Prevention) Act, 1986 in respect of the shop in the name of M/s. Balmokand Faqir Chand, 3/43-A, Kacheri Ghat, Police Station-Chhatta, District-Agra within a period of time specified by this Hon'ble Court.

(c) Issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of Mandamus commanding the respondents to direct the Administrator appointed to realize the rent of the shop in question from the petitioner month to month and deposit the same in the public exchequer.

(d) Issue any other writ, order or direction which this Hon'ble Court may deem fit in the facts and circumstances of the case.

(e) To award the cost of the writ petition to be paid to the petitioner.

3. The facts of the case as emerging from the impugned order are that on the basis of police report of SHO, P.S.-Mantola, District-Agra dated 27.9.2022 which was forwarded and recommended by the Senior Superintendent of Police, Agra vide order dated 03.10.2022, the respondent no.6 was reported to be a criminal, who had amassed huge property by indulging in cheating hapless persons and was also indulging in anti-social activities. Petitioner is a partnership firm in the name and style of M/s. Balmokand Faqir Chand, 3/43-A, Kacheri Ghat, duly registered under the Partnership Act, 1932 and is dealing the business of Edible Oils. Counsel for the petitioner has contended that the District Magistrate has passed the impugned order on the report prepared by respondent no.4 and approved by the Senior Superintendent of Police, Agra (respondent no.3) on 20.01.2023. The said property has been attached on the ground that the same was acquired by money earned out of criminal activity, whereas the petitioner or its partner is not the accused in the Gangster Act and the First Information Report has been registered against respondent no.6 (Mohd. Shan), who has purchased the building in question, in which, shop is situated from successors of Gopi Nath Agarwal on 11.02.2019, whereas the tenancy is from 1948. It is further contended that there is rent receipts in favour of the Firm available on record. It is further contended that successor of Late Gopi Nath Agarwal by sale deed dated 11.02.2019, has transferred the aforesaid House/shop Nos.3/43, 3/43-A, 3/43-A/1 in favour of respondent no.6 (Mohd. Shan) having total area of 161.62 sq. meters, out of which, 17.82 sq. meter is commercial shop, for which, petitioner is continuously paying rent to respondent no.6 @ Rs.2000/- per month, copies of receipts issued by respondent no.6 have been annexed as Annexure-6 to the writ petition. Thereafter, petitioner had moved a representation claiming himself to be the bona fide tenant before the District Magistrate, Agra, but the same was rejected by the District Magistrate, Agra considering the fact that petitioner is not a bona fide tenant and he does not come within the purview of Section 15(1) of the Act. It is further submitted that finding recorded by the District Magistrate, Agra that petitioner is not a bona fide tenant is misconceived as the District Magistrate has omitted to consider the affidavit as well as the license granted by the Department which is renewed from time to time and also payment of GST regularly paid by the petitioner's firm, which clearly proves that the petitioner-firm is the tenant of the shop in question and the business was being run therein. Under such circumstances, the impugned order is liable to be quashed.

4. On the other hand, learned A.G.A. opposed the contention aforesaid and submitted that petitioner is neither owner nor claimant of the aforesaid property and as a tenant he is not entitled to get the property released in his favour or to get the Administrator appointed for the said purpose as on the satisfaction of the District Magistrate, Agra that attached properties had been acquired as a result of commission of an offence triable under the Act. Therefore, order passed by the District Magistrate, Agra is in accordance with law and does not suffer from any infirmity.

5. In order to appreciate the rival submissions, it seems to be just and expedient to refer to the relevant provisions i.e. sections 14, 15, 16 and 17 of the Act.

"14. (1) If the District Magistrate has reason to believe that any property , whether moveable or immoveable, in possession of any person has been acquired by a gangster as a result of the commission of an offence triable under this Act, he may order attachment of such property whether or not cognizance of such offence has been taken by any Court.

(2) The provisions of the Code shall, mutatis mutandis apply to every such attachment.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of the Code the District Magistrate may appoint an Administrator of any property attached under sub-section (1) and the Administrator shall have all the powers to administer such property in the best interest thereof.

(4) The District Magistrate may provide police help to the Administrator for proper and effective administration of such property.

15. (1) Where any property is attached under section 14, the claimant thereof may within three months from the date of knowledge of such attachment make a representation to the District Magistrate showing the circumstances in and the sources by which such property was acquired by him.

(2) If the District Magistrate is satisfied about the genuineness of the claim made under sub-section (1) he shall forthwith release the property from attachment and thereupon such property shall be made over to the claimant.

16. (1) Where no representation is made within the period specified in sub-section (1) of section 15 or the District Magistrate does not release the property under sub-section (2) of section 15 he shall refer the matter with his report to the Court having jurisdiction to try an offence under this Act.

(2) Where the District Magistrate has refused to attach any property under sub-section (1) of section 14 or has ordered for release of any property under sub-section (2) of section 15, the State Government or any person aggrieved by such refusal or release may make an application to the Court referred to in sub-section (1) for inquiry as to whether the property was acquired by or as a result of the commission of an offence triable under this Act. Such Court may, if it considers necessary or expedient in the interest of justice so to do, order attachment of such property.

(3) (a) On receipt of the reference under sub-section (1) or an application under sub-section (2), the Court shall fix a date for inquiry and give notices thereof to the person making the application under sub-section (2) or, as the case may be, to the person making the representation under section 15 and to the State Government, and also to any other person whose interest appears to be involved in the case.

(b) On the date so fixed or any subsequent date to which the inquiry may be adjourned, the Court shall hear the parties, receive evidence produced by them, take such further evidence as it considers necessary, decide whether the property was acquired by a gangster as a result of the commission of an offence triable under this Act and shall pass such order under section 17 as may be just and necessary in the circumstances of the case.

(4) for the purpose of inquiry under sub-section (3) the Court, shall have the power of a Civil Court while trying a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act No. 5 of 1908), in respect of the following matters, namely:-

(a) summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath;

(b) requiring the discovery and production of documents;

(C) receiving evidence on affidavits;

(d) requisitioning any public record or copy thereof from any Court orj office;

(e) issuing commission or examination of witness or documents;

(f) dismissing a reference for default or deciding it ex parte;

(g) setting aside an order of dismissal for default or ex parte decision.

(5) In any proceedings under this section, the burden of proving that the property in question or any part thereof was not acquired by a gangster as a result of the commission of any offence triable under this Act,shall be on the person claiming the property, anything to the contrary contained in the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 (Act No.1 of 1872) notwithstanding.

17. If upon such inquiry the Court finds that the property was not acquired by a gangster as a result of the commission of any offence triable under this Act it shall order for release of the property of the person from whose possession it was attached. In any other case the Court may make such order as it thinks fit for the disposal of the property by attachment, confiscation or delivery to any person entitled to the possession thereof, or otherwise. "

6. It is now well settled that the property being made subject matter of an attachment under section 14 of the Act must have been acquired by a gangster and that too by commission of an offence triable under the Act. The District Magistrate has to record his satisfaction on this point. The satisfaction of the District Magistrate is not open to challenge in any appeal. Only a representation is provided for before the District Magistrate himself under section 15 of the Act and in case he refuses to release the property on such representation, he is to make a reference to the court having jurisdiction to try an offence under the Act. The Court, while dealing with the reference made under sub-section (2) of Section 15 of the Act has to see whether the property was acquired by a gangster as a result of commission of an offence triable under the Act and has to enter into the question and record his own finding on the basis of the inquiry held by him under section 16 of the Act. If the court comes to the conclusion that the property was not acquired by the gangster as a result of commission of an offence triable under the Act, the court shall order for release of the property in favour of the person from whose possession it was attached. If the conclusion of the court is otherwise, it may pass such order as it thinks fit for the disposal of the property by attachment, confiscation or delivery to any person entitled to the possession thereof or otherwise. This power has been conferred on the Court under section 17 of the Act. In other words, the attachment made under section 14 of the Act can be upset by the court after an inquiry under section 16 of the Act and in that situation the court has power to release the attached property in favour of the person from whose possession the property was attached.

7. The power of the Court to hold an inquiry under section 16 on the reference made by the District Magistrate is not an empty formality, which has a purpose behind it. The object behind providing the power of judicial scrutiny under section 16 of the Code is to check arbitrary exercise of the power by the District Magistrate in depriving a person of his properties and to restore the rule of law. Therefore, a heavy duty lies on the court to hold a thorough inquiry to find out the truth with regard to the question, whether the property was acquired by or as a result of the commission of an offence triable under the Act. This order to be passed under section 17 of the Act must disclose reasons and the evidence in support of the finding of the court. The Court is not expected to act as a post office or mouthpiece of the State or the District Magistrate. If a person has no criminal history during the period the property was acquired by him, how the property can be held to be a property acquired by or as a result of commission of an offence triable under the Act is a pivotal question which has to be answered by the Court. Besides the aforesaid question, the other important question to be considered by the Court is whether the property which was acquired prior to the registration of the case against the accused under the Act or prior to the registration of the first case of the gang chart, can be attached by the District Magistrate under section 14 of the Act.

8. In the instant case, the petitioner claims itself to be the statutory tenant of the shop since 1948, therefore, interest in the shop in question has been claimed. The aforesaid shop has been attached by the District Magistrate, Agra, thereafter, a representation was made by the petitioner for appointment of the Administrator, but the same was declined by the District Magistrate, Agra holding that petitioner is neither owner nor the claimant of the aforesaid shop. From the above provisions mentioned under sections 14 to 17 of the Act, it is apparent that on receipt of the reference, the Court shall fix a date for enquiry and give notices thereof and also to any other person whose interest appears to be involved in the said property after due enquiry under the Act. The Court shall make delivery to any other person entitled to the possession thereof or otherwise. As such, the order dated 20.01.2023 passed by the District Magistrate, Agra appears to be correct and does not warrant any interference by this Court.

9. So far as prayer made by the counsel for the petitioner regarding appointment of Administrator in respect of aforesaid property is concerned, this aspect has not been dealt with by the District Magistrate, Agra in his order dated 20.01.2023. In case, the petitioner avails the aforesaid statutory remedy available to him, the same should have been considered by the concerned District Magistrate and will pass the order in the light of the provisions contained in Section 14(3) of the aforesaid Act.

10. In above terms, as statutory remedy is available to him, the present petition deserves to be dismissed on this ground alone and it is accordingly dismissed.

(2023) 4 ILRA 499
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 27.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ANJANI KUMAR MISHRA, J.
THE HON'BLE RAJIV GUPTA, J.

Criminal Misc. Writ Petition No. 11743 of 2022

Satya Prakash Tiwari ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri V.K. Baranwal, Sri Akhilesh Chandra Shukla, Sri Saurabh Chaturvedi, Sri I.K. Chaturvedi (Sr. Advocate)

Counsel for the Respondents:
G.A., Sri Akhilesh Chandra Shukla

(A) Criminal Law – Constitution of India, 1950 - Article 14, 226 - Prisons Act, 1894 - Section 55, Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 34, 223, 224, 302 & 307 - Writ Petition – filed by petitioner who is a closed relative of the deceased and the nephew of the one of the informant and he has doing pairavi in the criminal cases upto High Court - challenging the impugned order of remission by which Governor remitted the remaining part of sentence of 8th respondent, on the ground that, 8th respondent is a hardened criminal and a history-sheet was also opened in his name and 9 other cases were pending against him - court hold that, remission has been granted to the contesting respondent on the basis of incomplete and false information provided by the various jail authorities - hence, the impugned order granting remission/commutation cannot be sustained - petition allowed.(Para - 31, 32, 33, 34, 37)

(B) Criminal Law – Constitution of India, 1950 - Article - 14, 226 - Prisons Act, 1894 - Section - 55 - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 34, 223, 224, 302 & 307 - Writ Petition – for quashing the impugned order of remission/commutation passed by the St. Government - on the basis of wrong and incomplete information which was provided by the Jail authorities, on the basis whereof, remission was granted to the contesting respondent, although he was not entitled for the same - court finds that, this act of concealment and falsehood appears to be manifestly purposive - hence, court direct to the respondent no. 1 to institute an enquiry to indentify and to take appropriate action against the responsible person(s). - Directions issued, accordingly.(Para - 41, 42)

Writ Petition Allowed. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

Ram Chander Vs St. of Chhattisgarh & anr., AIR 2022 SC 2017.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Anjani Kumar Mishra, J. & Hon'ble Rajiv Gupta, J.)

1. Heard Shri I. K. Chaturvedi, assisted by Shri V. K. Baranwal, for the petitioner, Shri Akhilesh Chandra Shukla, learned counsel for the respondent No. 8 and Mr. Pankaj Saxena, learned A.G.A. for the State.

2. The instant writ petition seeks a writ of certiorari for quashing of the order dated 28.05.2022 passed by respondent no.2, which has granted remission to respondent no.8 and has ordered for his release.

3. The 8th respondent, a life convict, was convicted in Sessions Trial No. 807 of 2000 under Section 304/34 and 307/34 IPC arising out of Case Crime No. 158 of 2000, Police Station-Sarai Inayat, District-Allahabad and was sentenced to life imprisonment for the offence under Section 302/34 IPC and for three years rigorous imprisonment for the offence under Section 307/34 IPC.

4. The remission granted to the 8th respondent has been challenged by the petitioner on the ground that the respondent is a hardened criminal and that a history-sheet was opened in his name being No. 7A at Police Station-Sarai Inayat, District-Allahabad.

5. It is also contended that the 8th respondent was brought from Fatehgarh Central Jail, District-Farrukhabad on 26.07.2010 for being produced in Court. He, however, fled from custody and a First Information Report was lodged on the same day at Police Station- Colonelganj, District-Allahabad, giving rise to Case Crime No. 319 of 2010 under Sections 223/224 of IPC. He was, arrested on the same day from Prayag Railway Station. After investigation, a charge-sheet was filed by the Police.

6. It is next contended that apart from the fact that the 8th respondent is a hardened criminal, he has been repeatedly transferred from one jail to another on account of his bad behaviour. It is averred in the writ petition that initially he was lodged in Central Jail Naini, from where he was transferred to Central Jail Fatehgarh, District Farrukhabad and from there to District Jail Bareilly and finally he was transferred to District Jail, Rampur.

7. The next contention is that remission/premature release has been obtained by the 8th respondent by concealing material facts in connivance with his brothers. One brother, namely Pawan Mishra is Head Jail Warden, in District-Bagpat while another brother, Vimal Mishra, is a Jail Warden in District Agra.

8. It is lastly submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that remission has been granted to the 8th respondent placing reliance upon a Government Order 564/218/1106/22.02.2018-07G/2018 dated 01.08.2018. In view of Clauses 2(b) and 3(ix) of the GO, the 8th respondent could not have been granted remission. Clause 3(ix) provides that a convict who has absconded from custody is not entitled to remission. The order dated 28.05.2022, whereby the Governor is stated to have granted remission/commutation in exercise of power under Section 160 of Constitution of India is, therefore, clearly vitiated and is liable to be set aside.

9. The contention of Shri Akhilesh Chandra Shukla, learned counsel appearing for the 8th respondent is that the writ petition itself is not maintainable and that the petitioner has no locus to challenge the order impugned. He is not the first informant and is only the nephew of the first informant and a practising lawyer. The immediate relatives of first informant and the deceased in the crime for which the 8th respondent has been convicted have not come forward. The writ petition is based on mala fides. After the 8th respondent was released, illegal gratification to the tune of Rs. 5,00,000/- was demanded by the petitioner and on non-payment of the same, the instant writ petition has been filed.

10. On the merits of the writ petition, it has been stated that the remission granted to the 8th respondent is not hit by Clause 3(ix) of the policy framed by the Government for granting premature release/remission as he did not abscond from jail. He has at best absconded from judicial custody, even if the case of the petitioner is to be accepted in toto. Therefore, the guidelines framed by the Supreme Court and the State Government have been followed fully.

11. Moreover, the 8th respondent has already undergone 16 years of incarceration without remission which period with remission comes to almost 21 years.

12. It is next contended that there is no material on record to show that the contesting respondent was transferred from one jail to the other on account of bad conduct or behaviour. It is reiterated that the conduct of the 8th respondent has always been above board.

13. It is lastly submitted that the case of the petitioner having absconded when he was brought to the Civil Court Allahabad to be produced before the Court is a false and fabricated case which has been manipulated by the petitioner in connivance with the police. The contesting respondent did not abscond. On the contrary, the police personnel accompanying him left him unattended and thereafter, filed the false FIR against him.

14. In the counter affidavit filed, it has additionally been averred that the criminal appeal filed by the petitioner against his conviction and sentence was rendered infructuous after remission/ commutation was granted to the contesting respondent.

15. In rejoinder, the contention of the learned counsel for the petitioner is that the petitioner is the nephew of the first informant. After the death of the first informant, it is the petitioner who has been doing pairavi in all the cases pertaining to the murder of the Jay Prakash Tiwari, the deceased in Case Crime No. 158 of 2000 and has continued to do pairavi even in the criminal appeals filed by the convicts against their conviction. It is also stated that the son of the deceased was a minor at the time of incident.

16. In any case, the rejoinder affidavit in the instant writ petition has been sworn by the son of the first informant and therefore, the objection regarding the maintainability of the writ petition is liable to be rejected.

17. It is additionally submitted that the relevant material regarding at least 09 other cases having been registered against the contesting respondent and the fact that he absconded from judicial custody have not been mentioned in the records that were placed before the concerned authority while the application for the remission/commutation was being considered.

18. He has also placed reliance upon paragraph 138 of the Jail Manual which provides for transfer of a prisoner from one Jail to another. The said paragraph provides that the reason for transfer should always be communicated to the District Magistrate and the Superintendent of the District Jail to which the prisoner is transferred and should also be recorded on the history ticket of the prisoner concerned. Relying upon this provision, it has been submitted that no history ticket was prepared in the case of the petitioner which also shows the mala fides and the connivance of the brothers of the 8th respondent who are themselves Jail Wardens.

19. Learned AGA has produced the original record of the proceedings wherein remission/commutation has been granted to the 8th respondent, pursuant to the direction issued by this Court vide order dated 20.09.2022.

20. We have considered the submissions of the learned counsel for the parties and have perused the record and also perused the original record produced by the learned AGA.

21. Perusal of the GO of 2018, where under remission has been granted, provides that all prisoners who do not fall within the prohibited categories, as provided under Clause 3 and its sub-clauses, and who have completed 16 years of incarceration without remission, and 20 years of incarceration including remission are liable to be granted remission.

22. Clause 3(ix) provides that prisoners who are life convicts or are convicts and have absconded during their period of incarceration fall under the prohibited category meaning thereby, that they are not entitled for remission/commutation.

23. The issue which arises for consideration is whether 8th respondent absconded from Jail or whether the term jail would also include within it, the period when a prisoner is being transported for whatever reason.

24. It is not in dispute that the contesting respondent at the relevant point of time was a life convict and was serving out his sentence. He was brought to Allahabad from Fatehgarh Central Jail, Farrukhabad to be produced in Court in a case, where-from he is alleged to have absconded. In this regard, it is relevant to refer to Section 55 of the Prisons Act, 1894, which reads as follows:-

"55. Extramural custody, control and employment of prisoners. - A prisoner, when being taken to or from any prison in which he may be lawfully confined, or whenever he is working outside or is otherwise beyond the limits of any such prison in or under the lawful custody or control of a prison officer belonging to such prison, shall be deemed to be in prison and shall be subject to all the same incidents as if he were actually in prison."

25. This provision is a complete answer to the submission made by learned counsel for the respondents as according to it, the 8th respondent would still to be deemed to be in jail at the moment he absconded. The submission of learned counsel for the petitioner is, therefore, without substance and is specifically repelled.

26. We have closely examined the original record produced by learned AGA.

27. The fact which emerges from the perusal of this original record is that the Jail Report, signed by the Medical Officer, District Jail, Rampur and the Chairman of the District Prisoners Committee, in column 10, mentions that that no other case is pending against the contesting respondent. The information provided in column 10 is, therefore, patently incorrect because it is admitted by the 8th respondent that as many as 09 other cases are registered against him and are pending before various Courts. In his counter affidavit, the 8th respondent has averred that these cases are fabricated and have remained pending over a long period as no one has come forward to depose in favour of the prosecution.

28. It would also be relevant to note that no history ticket appears to have been prepared, as is provided under Paragraph 138 of the Jail Manual. There is also no mention thereof in the original record produced before us. In fact, the Jail Report on record states that the contesting respondent is entitled to remission in view of para 2(b) of the Government Order dated 01.08.2018.

29. There is yet another report in Tabular form which purports to be a list of convicts entitled to be released on the occasion of Republic Day in pursuance of Government Order 564/218/1106/22.02.2018-07G/2018 dated 01.08.2018. Even this report states that the contesting respondent is entitled for remission in view of Clause 2(b) of the GO concerned. This report requires signature of 04 persons including the Deputy Inspector General of Prisons apart from junior officials. However, this document has not been signed by the Deputy Inspector General of Prisons.

30. There is also a certificate issued by the Superintendent District Jail Rampur in the original record produced which is undated. Column 6 of this Certificate is revealing. This column, in effect, seeks information regarding the restriction contained in Clause 3(ix) of the GO. The certificate states that the prisoner Kamal Mishra did not abscond during the period of his incarceration. The facts available on the record of this petition render this report, patently false.

31. Therefore, remission has been granted to 8th respondent, a life convict, on the basis of incomplete and false material having been placed for consideration. The fact that as many as 09 other cases were pending against the contesting respondent and also the fact that he has been charge-sheeted in a case under Section 223/224 of IPC, do not find mention in the jail reports. The failure to report these two aspects in the Jail reports can only be said to be purposive concealment.

32. There is yet another aspect of this issue. As already observed, the remission/commutation has been granted by the State Government on account of false information insofar as the 8th respondent having absconded is concerned and also the fact that report states that no criminal case is pending against the contesting respondent, contrary to the averment in the writ petition and admitted in the counter affidavit and also because information which was relevant had been withheld by the jail authorities. At least one of the documents that has been relied upon for granting remission to the contesting respondent has not been signed by the Deputy Inspector General of Prisons, although, the form in which the information has been submitted clearly requires him to be one of the co-signatories. It cannot be said that the Deputy Inspector General of Prisons was not required to sign the document. The Jail Certificate which has been relied upon to grant remission to the contesting respondent also furnishes false information insofar as it mentions that the contesting respondent, the convict, never absconded during the period of his incarceration.

33. Under the circumstances, we are constrained to hold that remission has been granted to the contesting respondent on the basis of incomplete and false information provided by the various jail authorities. The State Government has manifestly granted remission/commutation to the 8th respondent relying upon the reports which state that the 8th respondent is entitled to said release under Clause 2(b) of the relevant GO of 2018.

34. We would also like to refer to the decision of the Apex Court in Ram Chander Vs. State of Chhattisgarh & Another, AIR 2022 SC 2017. Paragraph 12 of this judgmet reads as follows:-

"12. While a discretion vests with the government to suspend or remit the sentence, the executive power cannot be exercised arbitrarily. The prerogative of the executive is subject to the rule of law and fairness in state action embodied in Article 14 of the Constitution. In Mohinder Singh (supra), this Court has held that the power of remission cannot be exercised arbitrarily. The decision to grant remission should be informed, fair and reasonable. The Court held thus:

"9. The circular granting remission is authorized under the law. It prescribes limitations both as regards the prisoners who are eligible and those who have been excluded. Conditions for remission of sentence to the prisoners who are eligible are also prescribed by the circular. Prisoners have no absolute right for remission of their sentence unless except what is prescribed by law and the circular issued thereunder. That special remission shall not apply to a prisoner convicted of a particular offence can certainly be a relevant consideration for the State Government not to exercise power of remission in that case. Power of remission, however, cannot be exercised arbitrarily. Decision to grant remission has to be well informed, reasonable and fair to all concerned."

35. We also do not find any substance in the submission made by counsel for the respondent on the question of locus of the petitioner to maintain the writ petition. The petitioner is definitely a close relative of the deceased and the nephew of the first informant in Case Crime No. 158 of 2000. He has also appeared in the witness box as PW No.2 during trial. He is also said to have been doing pairavi in the criminal cases even up to the High Court even in pending appeal which fact is not denied.

36. There is substance in the contention of learned counsel for the petitioner that it cannot be said that the petitioner alone is challenging the impugned order because even the son of the deceased who was minor at the time of incident has supported the writ petition having sworn the rejoinder affidavit which is filed on record.

37. For the foregoing reasons, in our considered opinion, the impugned order granting remission/commutation to the 8th respondent cannot be sustained.

38. The writ petition is liable to be allowed and is hereby allowed. The impugned order dated 28.05.2022 is hereby set aside.

39. No order as to costs.

40. The original record produced by learned AGA be returned to him forthwith after obtaining his signatures on the order-sheet evidencing receipt thereof.

41. In the body of the judgment, we have observed that wrong and incomplete information was provided by the jail authorities, on the basis whereof, remission was granted to the contesting respondent, Kamal Mishra, although he was not entitled for the same, and this act of concealment and falsehood appears to be manifestly purposive.

42. It, therefore, appears fit and proper to direct the respondent no.1, Principal Secretary, Prison Administration and Reform, Section 2, U.P. Government, Lucknow, to institute an enquiry to identify and to take appropriate action against the person(s) responsible for such falsehood and concealment. This is being directed as the Apex Court has held that: "Decision to grant remission has to be well-informed, reasonable and fair to all concerned."

(2023) 4 ILRA 505
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 21.11.2022

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SUNEET KUMAR, J.
THE HON'BLE SYED WAIZ MIAN, J.

Criminal Misc. Writ Petition No. 14644 of 2019

Zaved Akhtar ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Ashok Kumar Mishra, Sri Akhilesh Kumar Mishra

Counsel for the Respondents:
G.A.

(i) Criminal Law – Constitution of India,1950 - Article 19(1)(a), 19(1)(d), 21, 226, - Criminal Procedure Code,1973 - 110-G, - Indian Penal Code,1860 - Sections 147, 324, 325, 504 & 506 – U.P. Police Regulations,1861 - Para 228, 238 -

Writ Petition - to quash the history-sheet issued against petitioner in class B Category - the act of opening Class B history-sheet against the petitioner was erroneous without the facts being verified and without reasonable satisfaction being reached by the respondents - court finds that, in the give facts and circumstances and having regard to the nature of the cases lodged against the petitioner would not fall within the ambit of Regulations 228 to have persuaded the St. Authorities to open Class B history sheet against the petitioner - hence, impugned charge-sheet is quashed, direction accordingly.(Para – 10, 11, 12)

Writ Petition Allowed. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

Munna Lal Gupta Vs St. of UP & ors. (2016 vol. 4 ADJ (NOC) 46).

(Delivered by Hon'ble Suneet Kumar, J. & Hon'ble Syed Waiz Mian, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for the parties.

2. This is the third writ petition filed by the petitioner seeking to quash the history-sheet No. 18/B, P. S.-Kotwali Dehat, district-Bijnor opened against the petitioner.

3. The history-sheet has been prepared in Class-B category noting therein the following cases:

(i) Case Crime No. 74A/1995, under Sections-324, 325, 504, 506 and 147 I. P. C.

(ii) Case Crime No. 160 of 2015, under Section-110G Cr. P. C.

4. It is submitted that the history-sheet in Class B category could not have been opened against the petitioner as the history-sheet is not in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 228 of the U. P. Police Regulations, which read as under:

"Para 228. History sheet and surveillance: Part V consists of history sheets. These are the personal records of criminals under surveillance. History-sheet should be opened only for persons who are or likely to become habitual criminal or abettors of such criminals. There will be two classes of history-sheets.:

(1) Class A history-sheets for dacoits, burglars, cattle-thieves, railway-goods wagon thieves, and abettors thereof.

(2) Class B history-sheets for confirmed and professional criminals who commit crimes other than dacoity, burglary, cattle-theft, and theft from railway goods wagons, e. g., professional cheats and other experts for whom criminal personal files are maintained by the Criminal Investigation Department, poisoners, cattle poisoners, railway passenger thieves, bicycle thieves, expert pick-pockets, forgers, coiners cocaine and opium smugglers, hired ruffians and goondas, telegraph wire-cutters, habitual illicit distillers and abettors thereof.

5. History-sheets of both classes will be maintained in similar form, but those for class B will be distinguished by a red bar marked at the top of the first page. No history-sheet of class B may be converted into a history-sheet of class A, though should be the subject of a history-sheet of class B be found to be also addicted to dacoity, burglary, cattle-theft or theft from railway goods wagons. A class, as well as B Class, surveillance may under paragraph 238 be applied to him. In the event of a class A history-sheet man becoming addicted to miscellaneous crime his history-sheet may be converted into a class

B history-sheet with the sanction of the Superintendent.

6. Further Regulation 228 provides that Class-B history-sheet can be opened only against the confirmed and professional criminal, who had committed a crime of dacoity, burglary, cattle theft or theft from railway goods, wagons etc. or who is expert or habitual offender in other crimes as mentioned in this paragraph.

7. In this backdrop, it is submitted that in the sole criminal case, petitioner came to be acquitted by the competent Court. Further it is submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated due to village party bandi at the behest of Gram Pradhan. In the counter affidavit filed by the State Government, it is not in dispute that the petitioner came to be acquitted and at present there is no case pending against him.

8. It is stated that the history-sheet in Class-B could not have been opened as the petitioner is neither a habitual or professional criminal indulging in criminal activities. It is not the case of the respondent-State that the petitioner was found guilty in any of the offences. In the past seven years, no criminal activity of the petitioner was ever been reported or any other anti-social activities. It is further submitted that opening of the Class-B history-sheet against the provisions of Regulation 228 violates the provisions of Article 19 (1) (a) of the Constitution of India that protects the fundamental right to freedom of speech and expression of a citizen. Further Article 19 (1) (d) of the Constitution which confers right to move freely throughout the territory of India and Article 21 of the Constitution of India that 'no person shall be deprived of his life or personal liberty except according to procedure established by law'

9. It is specifically pleaded that the petitioner and his family members are being deprived of character certificates only for the reason that the petitioner's name is recorded in Class-B history-sheet. In this backdrop, it is submitted that petitioner is being deprived of his right to freedom. Reliance has been placed on a Division Bench decision of this Court rendered in Munna Lal Gupta Versus State of U. P. and others; 2016 4 ADJ (NOC) 46.

10. Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case and stand of the respondent-State, we are of the opinion, that the act of opening Class B history-sheet against the petitioner was erroneous without the facts being verified and without reasonable satisfaction being reached by the State-respondent. The history-sheet was never reviewed because rules provide that Class B history-sheet shall continue till death.

11. We are of the view that in the given facts and circumstances and having regard to the nature of the cases lodged against the petitioner, he would not fall within the ambit of Regulation 228 to have persuaded the State authorities to open Class B history-sheet against the petitioner.

12. Hence, history-sheet No. 18/B, P. S.-Kotwali Dehat, district-Bijnor opened against the petitioner is quashed. The State respondents are directed to close the present history-sheet of the petitioner and not to keep surveillance on the petitioner in pursuance of the said history-sheet.

13. Writ petition is allowed.

(2023) 4 ILRA 508
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 20.04.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE JASPREET SINGH, J.

First Appeal From Order No. 189 of 1993
alongwith
First Appeal From Order Nos. 190 of 1993, 191 of 1993, 193 of 1993, 196 of 1993 & 198 of 1993

Radhey Shyam Jawarani & Ors.
...Appellants
Versus
Walliguru Khan & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Appellants:
S.P. Shukla, Abhishek Dhaon, Sankalp Mehrotra

Counsel for the Respondents:
M.S. Kotwal

A. Civil Law - Motor Vehicles Act, 1989- Section 173-enhancement of award- Tribunal without any basis awarded a sum of Rs. 1,78,000/- towards non-pecuniary benefits which is contrary to the settled principles as laid down by the Apex Court-the claimants shall be entitled to a total compensation of Rs. 7, 53, 835 which shall carry interest @ of 9% per annum from the date of application till the date of its actual payment-the claimants shall be entitled to recover the total compensation from either of the two joint tortfeasor and any of the two joint tortfeasor who satisfies the award shall be entitled to recover the 50% of the award from the other joint tortfeasor in accordance with law as settled by the Apex Court in Khenyei.(Para 1 to 71)

The writ petition is partly allowed. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

1. Khenyei Vs New India Ass. Co. Ltd. & ors. (2015) 9 SCC 273

2. Smt. Suman & ors. Vs Smt. Anisa Begum & Another, FAFO No. 126 of 2010

3. National Ins. Co. Ltd. Vs Pranay Sethi (2017) 16 SCC 680

(Delivered by Hon'ble Jaspreet Singh, J.)

1. This is a bunch of six appeals preferred under section 173 of the Motor Vehicles Act 1989. Three appeals have been preferred by the claimants seeking enhancement of the award whereas the other three appeals have been instituted by the insurance company assailing the award. Since the issue of enhancement shall come subsequent as it first has to be determined whether the award passed by the Tribunal is in order. In case if the award survives only then the issue of enhancement shall be considered and in view thereof this Court proposes to take up the three appeals first which have been preferred by the insurance company.

2. The record would indicate that in the appeals filed by the Insurance Company, an application for substitution has been moved as the respondent no. 3 Sri Kungoo Mal had expired and he is survived by his son Radhey Shyam Jawarani. Significantly, despite the applications having been moved by the Insurance Company in the appeals filed by them yet the appellants of the other three appeals which have been filed by the claimants have not moved similar application for substitution.

3. Be that as it may, considering that the application for amendment is on record in few appeals which are being allowed as there is no issue of abatement as the legal heir is already on record, consequently, the said application shall also enure to the benefit of three other appeals filed by the claimants. The learned counsel for the appellant Sri I.P.S. Chaddha is permitted to carry out the necessary amendment in all the six appeals during the course of the day.

4. To put the controversy in a perspective, certain brief facts giving rise to the instant appeals are being noticed hereinafter: -

5. On 02.01.1992, Sri Radheshyam Jawarani was driving a Fiat car bearing number UGC 2184 and was returning from Lucknow to Sitapur. The said car belonged to Sri Kungoo Mal, the private respondent no 3 in the claim petition. Shri Kungoo Mal is the father of Radheshyam Jawarani. Radheshyam Jawarani was travelling along with his wife Janki and his two daughters and a son. It is also the case that on the fateful day that is 02.01.1992 when the car being driven by Radheshyam Jawarani had reached near Village Barabhari P.S. Kairabad on Lucknow Sitapur Road at the relevant time a truck bearing number UP 77/9256 was parked in the center of the road. The truck did not have any of its indicators or any reflectors to caution that the truck was stationary on the road. However, a small boy suddenly dashed across the road from one side to another and in order to save the said boy, the car of Radheshyam Jawarani dashed with the stationary truck. It is in this accident that Radheshyam and his son Gaurav sustained injuries whereas his wife Janki sustained grievous injuries and while she was taken to the district hospital at Sitapur, where she was declared dead.

6. It is in respect of this accident that three claim petitions came to be filed before the Motor Accidents Claims Tribunal/4th ADJ, Sitapur, (I) Claim petition No. 66/92 was filed by Radheshyam along with his daughters and sons for the compensation on account of death of Smt. Janki. (II) Claim petition bearing No. 67/92 was filed by Radheshyam for the injuries sustained by him. (III) Claim petition bearing No. 68/92 was filed by Gaurav for the injuries sustained by him.

7. After due contest, claim petition No. 66/1992 was allowed and the Tribunal awarded a sum of ₹ 5,36,100/-along with interest at the rate of 15% per annum. This award dated 25.05.1983 has been challenged by the Insurance Company in F.A.F.O. No. 193 of 1993 whereas the said award is under challenge seeking enhancement in F.A.F.O. No. 189 of 1993 filed by the claimants.

8. The claim petition No. 67/92 filed by Radheshyam for the injuries sustained by him was allowed and a sum of Rs. 40,000/- was awarded by the Tribunal along with interest at the rate of 15% per annum and this award dated 25.05.1993 is challenged by the Insurance Company in F.A.F.O. No. 190 of 1993 whereas the said award is challenged by the claimant seeking enhancement in F.A.F.O. No. 198 of 1993.

9. The Claim petition No. 68/92 filed by Sri Gaurav Zawrani for the injuries sustained by him was also allowed for a sum of Rs. 40,000/- along with interest at the rate of 15% per annum and this award dated 25.05.1993 challenged by the Insurance Company in F.A.F.O. No. 191 of 1993 whereas the said award dated 25.05.1993 is challenged by the claimant seeking enhancement in F.A.F.O. No. 196 of 1993.

10. Thus, it would be seen that F.A.F.O. Nos. 189 of 1993, 198 of 1993 and 196 of 1993 are the three appeals which have been filed by the claimants for seeking enhancement of the awarded sum vide award dated 25.05.1993. On the other hand three appeals have been filed by the insurance company bearing number 193 of 1993 which assails the award passed in claim petition No. 66 of 1992. The F.A.F.O. 191 of 1993 arises out of the award passed in Claim Petition No. 68 of 1992 relating to the award passed in favour of Gaurav and the appeal bearing number 190 of 1993 challenges the award passed in Claim Petition No. 67 of 1992 relating to the award in favour of Radheshyam for the injuries sustained by him.

11. It is in the aforesaid backdrop, as all the six appeals arise out of the same accident relating to the same parties in question and involving similar questions of both law and fact therefore this court has clubbed together all the six appeals which have been heard together and are being decided by this common judgment.

12. The court for the sake of convenience is taking up the three appeals preferred by the insurance company that is bearing F.A.F.O. No. 193 of 1993, F.A.F.O. No. 191 of 1993 and F.A.F.O. No. 190 of 1993 first.

13. Shri IPS Chaddha learned counsel appearing for the insurance company has assailed the award dated 25.05.1993 in the three appeals on primarily two grounds. It is urged by the learned counsel that the Tribunal fell in error in passing the award in Claim Petition No. 66 of 1992 which related to the compensation on account of death of Smt. Janki. It is submitted that Smt. Janki was travelling in the car which belonged to Sri Kungoo Mal and as the insurance policy did not cover any other person other than the driver, hence, no compensation could have been awarded on account of death of Smt. Janki. It is also submitted that there is a clear finding that the accident had occurred wherein the driver of the car which is insured by the insurance company was not negligent even then the award has been passed against insurance company which is not sustainable.

14. It is submitted that as per the version in the claim petition ,the Fiat car was being driven by Radheshyam and in order to save a boy who suddenly crossed the road, Radheshyam dashed with the stationary truck. The Tribunal has also returned a finding that in the said accident Radheshyam was not negligent rather it was the offending truck which was parked in the centre of the road which caused the accident and for the said reason without fastening the entire liability on the truck owner and in absence of impleading the insurer of the said truck, the award passed against the appellant insurance company is bad in the eyes of law.

15. It is also urged that if at all the award is to be satisfied the same was the liability of the insurer of the truck or its owner and it could not be fastened on the insurance company who had insured the Fiat car bearing No. UGC 2184.

16. It is also submitted that where no negligence has been attributed to the car owner which is insured with the appellant and it is also not a case of contributory negligence yet apportioning half of the awarded sum on the appellant and the other half on the owner of the offending truck is erroneous and by doing this the Tribunal has completely misdirected itself which has resulted in miscarriage of justice.

17. In so far as the award passed in the case of Smt. Janki is concerned, it is submitted by Sri Chaddha that the Tribunal has awarded a total sum of Rs. 5,36,100/- but from a bare perusal of the award, it would indicate that the Tribunal has arrived at the aforesaid sum by resorting to surmises and conjectures. There is no proper consideration and even otherwise on the given facts and the material on record there was no question of any enhancement, inasmuch, as it would indicate that the Tribunal has erroneously awarded a sum of Rs. 1,78,100/- towards non-pecuniary benefits but has disclosed no reason as to how the aforesaid amount has been arrived at.

18. The ground upon which the award passed in the claim petitions filed by Radheshyam and Gaurav is concerned, it is urged that Radheshyam and Gaurav could not establish any injury sustained by them nor did they lead any evidence regarding their injuries, treatment and in absence of any documentary evidence to establish the same, the amount which has been awarded is not appropriate and is hugely excessive rather the claim petitions ought to have been dismissed for want of evidence.

19. It is further urged that a mere statement was recorded in evidence that Sri Radheyshyam had spent a sum of Rs. 60,000/- on his treatment and on the treatment of his son Gaurav. It is also urged that it is alleged that the said treatment was made in the nursing home at Lucknow but there is no document to indicate whether the claimant Radheshyam and Gaurav were ever admitted or treated in the said nursing home as there is no evidence oral or documentary to indicate the date upon which they were admitted or were under treatment. There is no prescription nor there is any receipt for the medicines bought. It is alleged that Radhey Shyam had six broken teeth but there is nothing to substantiate it, accordingly, there is no question of enhancement of the award rather the amount which has been awarded also deserves to be set aside as without establishing the injuries as well as the amount spent on the treatment, the award could not have been passed.

20. Thus, it is submitted that the Tribunal has erred in fastening the liability of the award on the appellant company. it is urged that the award cannot be enhanced and in light of the submissions made in context with the appeals preferred by the insurance company wherein the award has been challenged, the award itself deserves to be set aside and the appeals of the insurance company deserves to be allowed whereas the three appeals preferred by the claimant respondents deserves to be dismissed.

21. Shri Sankalp Mehrotra, learned counsel appearing for the claimant-respondents has submitted that the submission of the counsel for the insurance company is not tenable for the reason that it was a clear case of composite negligence and in the aforesaid circumstances it is open for the claimants to seek the awarded sum from either the truck owner or the car owner. It is urged that insofar as the claim petition relating to death of Smt. Janki is concerned, since she was travelling in the car and was a third party and there is a clear finding that she had not contributed to the accident in any manner as the car was being driven by Radheshyam, thus, it being a case of composite negligence as a result of which Smt. Janki expired leaving behind her legal heirs who are the claimants and they are entitled to claim the compensation and also recover the same from the insurance company as the car involved bearing No. UGC 2184, in question, was insured and involved in the mishap.

22. It is also submitted that the car was badly damaged and the appellant company has already cleared the claim for the damage and loss occurred to the car and as such at this stage it is not open for the insurance company to allege that the insurance company is not going to honour the award. It is further submitted that insofar as the injuries sustained by Radheshyam and Gaurav was concerned, their claim petition have been rightly allowed as it was clearly established by the evidence on record that they had sustained injuries and for the aforesaid reasons the appeals filed by the insurance company deserve to be dismissed.

23. Shri Mehrotra learned counsel for the claimants while pressing his appeals for enhancement submits that the Tribunal has erred in directing 50% of the amount awarded to be recovered from the appellant insurance company and though it was a case of composite negligence and apportioning the liability inter-se between the truck owner and the insurance company of the car could have been done but the rights of the claimant-appellants could not be limited to 50% rather the claimants are entitled to receive the entire sum from either the insurance company or the truck owner or both and it would be open for the insurance company or the truck owner to recover the apportioned part from the other, as the case may be, after satisfying the award in full to the claimants and to the aforesaid extent, the award requires to be modified.

24. It is also submitted that Smt. Janki was an income tax payee and she had her own income and considering her age, while awarding compensation future prospects have not been provided nor the Tribunal has awarded appropriate sum towards non-pecuniary benefits, thus the award deserves to be enhanced for non-pecuniary benefits after factoring her future prospects.

25. It is also submitted that the Tribunal has erred in not awarding appropriate compensation towards injuries sustained by Radhey Shyam and Gaurav and though a sum of Rs. 60,000/- was claimed in respect of the two claim petitions but only a sum of Rs.40,000/- each awarded which is on the lower side and accordingly the award deserves to be enhanced in this respect as well.

26. The Court has heard the learned counsel for the parties and also perused the material on record.

27. In order to resolve the controversy, the facts as pleaded by the parties, require to be noticed.

28. To recapitulate, it is the case of the claimants-appellants that on the fateful day i.e. 02.01.1992 Sri Radhey Shyam Jawarani was driving his Fiat Car bearing No. UGC 2184 and in the said Car his wife Smt. Janki, his son Sri Gaurav Jawarani and his two daughters and a servant were returning from Lucknow to Sitapur. As soon as the car neared Village Barabhari, P.S. Khairabad on Lucknow Sitapur road, a small boy suddenly rushed to cross the road and in order to save the said boy, Sri Radhey Shyam Jawarani hit the stationary truck which was parked in the centre of the road and that too without any indicators or any reflector to put the people to notice that the truck was stationary.

29. It is also the case of the claimants that the accident was an outcome of negligence of the truck driver as there was no occasion for the truck driver to park the truck in the centre of the road and noticing that the accident occurred on 02.01.1992 i.e. during winter time when the sun sets early and at the relevant time i.e. 06:30-07:00 PM, it was dark and without proper indicators or reflector, the driver of the car could not contemplate that the truck was stationary and since he was attempting to save the boy who suddenly crossed the road, he hit the truck instead. It was the duty of the truck driver to have ensured that the truck was not left unattended in the centre of the road without adequate precautions.

30. The Tribunal has also returned a finding that there was no negligence on the part of the car driver rather the negligence has been found to be that of the truck driver/owner. In this regard, it will also be relevant to notice that no appeal has been preferred by the truck owner nor any cross objections has been filed by him.

31. The effect of non-filing of a cross appeal or cross objections is that the finding returned by the Motor Accident Claim Tribunal in so far as the negligence of the truck owner/driver is concerned remains intact and is liable to be accepted by this Court in absence of any challenge or material to the contrary.

32. Now, in the aforesaid backdrop if the contention of the learned counsel for the Insurance-company is examined, it reveals that the thrust of the submission lies in the fact that where the negligence has been attributed to the offending truck and no negligence has been attributed to the Fiat car which is insured with the Insurance-company, hence, under these circumstances, the Insurance-company cannot be fastened with the liability to honour half of the awarded sum leaving the other half to be recovered from the truck owner rather if the award survives then the entire liability of the award ought to be fastened on the truck owner.

33. In order to meet the aforesaid argument, it has been urged by the learned counsel for the claimant-respondents that it was a case of composite negligence and not contributory negligence and thus in so far as the claimants are concerned, they are entitled to recover the same from the Insurance Company or the truck owner as their liability is both joint and several.

34. In order to explore the aforesaid dissenting arguments, it will be first necessary to notice the difference between contributory negligence and composite negligence. In case of contributory negligence, a person who has himself contributed to the accident cannot claim compensation for the loss, injury or damage sustained by him in the accident to the extent of his negligence. Whereas in composite negligence, a person who has suffered has not contributed to the accident but has suffered due to the combination of outcome of negligence of two or more wrong doers.

35. The difference between the two type of negligence in context with a motor accident has been very well explained by the Apex Court in Khenyei Vs. New India Assurance Company Limited and others; (2015) 9 SCC 273 and the relevant paragraphs reads as under:-

"15. There is a difference between contributory and composite negligence. In the case of contributory negligence, a person who has himself contributed to the accident cannot claim compensation for the injuries sustained by him in the accident to the extent of his own negligence; whereas in the case of composite negligence, a person who has suffered has not contributed to the accident but due to the outcome of combination of negligence of two or more other persons. This Court in T.O. Anthony v. Karvarnan [(2008) 3 SCC 748 : (2008) 1 SCC (Civ) 832 : (2008) 2 SCC (Cri) 738] has held that in case of contributory negligence, the injured need not establish the extent of responsibility of each wrongdoer separately, nor is it necessary for the court to determine the extent of liability of each wrongdoer separately. It is only in the case of contributory negligence that the injured himself has contributed by his negligence in the accident. Extent of his negligence is required to be determined as damages recoverable by him in respect of the injuries have to be reduced in proportion to his contributory negligence. The relevant portion is extracted hereunder : (SCC pp. 750-51, paras 6-7)

"6. "Composite negligence' refers to the negligence on the part of two or more persons. Where a person is injured as a result of negligence on the part of two or more wrongdoers, it is said that the person was injured on account of the composite negligence of those wrongdoers. In such a case, each wrongdoer, is jointly and severally liable to the injured for payment of the entire damages and the injured person has the choice of proceeding against all or any of them. In such a case, the injured need not establish the extent of responsibility of each wrongdoer separately, nor is it necessary for the court to determine the extent of liability of each wrongdoer separately. On the other hand where a person suffers injury, partly due to the negligence on the part of another person or persons, and partly as a result of his own negligence, then the negligence on the part of the injured which contributed to the accident is referred to as his contributory negligence. Where the injured is guilty of some negligence, his claim for damages is not defeated merely by reason of the negligence on his part but the damages recoverable by him in respect of the injuries stand reduced in proportion to his contributory negligence.

*36. 7. Therefore, when two vehicles are involved in an accident, and one of the drivers claims compensation from the other driver alleging negligence, and the other driver denies negligence or claims that the injured claimant himself was negligent, then it becomes necessary to consider whether the injured claimant was negligent and if so, whether he was solely or partly responsible for the accident and the extent of his responsibility, that is his contributory negligence. Therefore where the injured is himself partly liable, the principle of "composite negligence' will not apply nor can there be an automatic inference that the negligence was 50 : 50 as has been assumed in this case. The Tribunal ought to have examined the extent of contributory negligence of the appellant and thereby avoided confusion between composite negligence and contribut*ory negligence. The High Court has failed to correct the said error."

The decision in T.O. Anthony v. Karvarnan [(2008) 3 SCC 748 : (2008) 1 SCC (Civ) 832 : (2008) 2 SCC (Cri) 738] has been relied upon in A.P. SRTC v. K. Hemlatha [(2008) 6 SCC 767 : (2008) 3 SCC (Cri) 34] .

16. In Pawan Kumar v. Harkishan Dass Mohan Lal [(2014) 3 SCC 590 : (2014) 2 SCC (Civ) 303 : (2014) 4 SCC (Cri) 639] , the decisions in T.O. Anthony [(2008) 3 SCC 748 : (2008) 1 SCC (Civ) 832 : (2008) 2 SCC (Cri) 738] and Hemlatha [(2008) 6 SCC 767 : (2008) 3 SCC (Cri) 34] have been affirmed, and this Court has laid down that where the plaintiff/claimant himself is found to be negligent jointly and severally, liability cannot arise and the plaintiff's claim to the extent of his own negligence, as may be quantified, will have to be severed. He is entitled to damages not attributable to his own negligence. The law/distinction with respect to contributory as well as composite negligence has been considered by this Court in Machindranath Kernath Kasar v. D.S. Mylarappa [(2008) 13 SCC 198 : (2009) 3 SCC (Cri) 519] and also as to joint tortfeasors. This Court has referred to Charlesworth and Percy on Negligence as to cause of action in regard to joint tortfeasors thus : (Machindranath Kernath Kasar case [(2008) 13 SCC 198 : (2009) 3 SCC (Cri) 519] , SCC p. 212, para 42)

"42. Joint tortfeasors, as per 10th Edn. of Charlesworth & Percy on Negligence, have been described as under:

"Wrongdoers are deemed to be joint tortfeasors, within the meaning of the rule, where the cause of action against each of them is the same, namely, that the same evidence would support an action against them, individually.... Accordingly, they will be jointly liable for a tort which they both commit or for which they are responsible because the law imputes the commission of the same wrongful act to two or more persons at the same time. This occurs in cases of (a) agency; (b) vicarious liability; and (c) where a tort is committed in the course of a joint act, whilst pursuing a common purpose agreed between them.'"

17. The question also arises as to the remedies available to one of the joint tortfeasors from whom compensation has been recovered. When the other joint tortfeasor has not been impleaded, obviously question of negligence of non-impleaded driver could not be decided. Apportionment of composite negligence cannot be made in the absence of impleadment of joint tortfeasor. Thus, it would be open to the impleaded joint tortfeasors after making payment of compensation, so as to sue the other joint tortfeasor and to recover from him the contribution to the extent of his negligence. However, in case when both the tortfeasors are before the court/Tribunal, if evidence is sufficient, it may determine the extent of their negligence so that one joint tortfeasor can recover the amount so determined from the other joint tortfeasor in the execution proceedings, whereas the claimant has right to recover the compensation from both or any one of them.

18. This Court in National Insurance Co. Ltd. v. Challa Upendra Rao [(2004) 8 SCC 517 : 2005 SCC (Cri) 357] with respect to mode of recovery has laid down thus : (SCC p. 523, para 13)

"13. The residual question is what would be the appropriate direction. Considering the beneficial object of the Act, it would be proper for the insurer to satisfy the award, though in law it has no liability. In some cases the insurer has been given the option and liberty to recover the amount from the insured. For the purpose of recovering the amount paid from the owner, the insurer shall not be required to file a suit. It may initiate a proceeding before the executing court concerned as if the dispute between the insurer and the owner was the subject-matter of determination before the Tribunal and the issue is decided against the owner and in favour of the insurer. Before release of the amount to the claimants, owner of the offending vehicle shall furnish security for the entire amount which the insurer will pay to the claimants. The offending vehicle shall be attached, as a part of the security. If necessity arises the executing court shall take assistance of the Regional Transport Authority concerned. The executing court shall pass appropriate orders in accordance with law as to the manner in which the owner of the vehicle shall make payment to the insurer. In case there is any default it shall be open to the executing court to direct realisation by disposal of the securities to be furnished or from any other property or properties of the owner of the vehicle i.e. the insured. In the instant case, considering the quantum involved, we leave it to the discretion of the insurer to decide whether it would take steps for recovery of the amount from the insured."

22. What emerges from the aforesaid discussion is as follows:

22.1. In the case of composite negligence, the plaintiff/claimant is entitled to sue both or any one of the joint tortfeasors and to recover the entire compensation as liability of joint tortfeasors is joint and several.

22.2. In the case of composite negligence, apportionment of compensation between two tortfeasors vis-à-vis the plaintiff/claimant is not permissible. He can recover at his option whole damages from any of them.

22.3. In case all the joint tortfeasors have been impleaded and evidence is sufficient, it is open to the court/Tribunal to determine inter se extent of composite negligence of the drivers. However, determination of the extent of negligence between the joint tortfeasors is only for the purpose of their inter se liability so that one may recover the sum from the other after making whole of the payment to the plaintiff/claimant to the extent it has satisfied the liability of the other. In case both of them have been impleaded and the apportionment/extent of their negligence has been determined by the court/Tribunal, in the main case one joint tortfeasor can recover the amount from the other in the execution proceedings.

22.4. It would not be appropriate for the court/Tribunal to determine the extent of composite negligence of the drivers of two vehicles in the absence of impleadment of other joint tortfeasors. In such a case, impleaded joint tortfeasor should be left, in case he so desires, to sue the other joint tortfeasor in independent proceedings after passing of the decree or award."

37. The aforesaid decision of Khenyei (supra) was followed by this Court in F.A.F.O. No. 126 of 2010 (Smt. Suman and Others Vs. Smt. Anisa Begam and Another) along with other connected matters which was decided on 22.02.2019.

38. Having noticed the settled legal position regarding the contributory and composite negligence and applying it to the present case, it would indicate that in so far as the case of Smt. Janki is concerned, it can be a case of composite negligence so also the case of Gaurav Jawrani but in so far as the case of Radhey Shyam Jawrani is concerned, it cannot be treated to be a case of composite negligence.

39. As noticed above where a person contributes to the wrong doing then it is a case of contributory negligence and in the instant case, the Fiat Car bearing No. UGC 2184 was being driven by Sri Radhey Shyam Jawrani and as such the manner in which the accident has occurred which has been noticed in the previous paragraphs, it was a case where the car being driven by Sri Radhey Shyam Jawrani hit a stationary truck and the only two vehicles involved was the Fiat Car and the stationary truck.

40. In this scenario, after going through the evidence which was led by Sri Radhey Shyam Jawrani, it would indicate that he had deposed that around 06:30-07:00 PM on 02.01.1992 while a boy suddenly crossed the road and also the lights from an oncoming truck from the opposite directions had blinded Radhey Shyam Jawrani, hence, in order to avoid a collision with the oncoming truck as well as save the boy, he could not see the stationary truck and he dashed against it. The manner in which the accident has occurred and explained in the deposition, it cannot be said that there was no role of the car driver at all. It may be true that the truck ought not have been parked on the road without reflectors/indicators but nevertheless in case if the deposition of Sri Radhey Shyam Jawrani is believed in its entirety, it would indicate that he had stated that his speed was about 40 to 50 Kms. per hour and he failed to see the said truck. This also indicates a degree of negligence on the part of the car driver as even from a distance, the driver could have seen the stationary truck from the lights of his own car itself. Another reason why the car driver was also negligent is of the fact that while driving on a highway, it is but natural that all sorts of vehicles including trucks ply and it cannot be said that because of the oncoming lights from a truck, Sri Radhey Shyam Jawrani was blinded and in order to avoid the collision, he dashed in the stationary truck which could not be seen.

41. In view thereof, the negligence of Sri Radhey Shyam Jawrani cannot be ruled out and in the aforesaid facts and circumstances, the Tribunal, though, without recording any finding on contributory negligence in so far as the case of Sri Radhey Shyam Jawrani has yet apportioned the liability 50% on the car as well as 50% on the truck and this apportionment is affirmed by this Court and it is held that Sri Radhey Shyam Jawrani was also responsible and contributed to the accident and the Tribunal has erred in coming to the conclusion that the negligence was solely of the truck owner and it also indicates that the Tribunal has not sifted through the evidence available on record in the right perspective keeping the concept of negligence in mind which the Tribunal is required to inquire in a petition under Section 166 of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988.

42. In light of the aforesaid, the Court finds substance in the submission of learned counsel for the Insurance Company that the car driver was also negligent and had contributed to the accident.

43. Having said that, it will also be seen that this contributory negligence can only be attributed to the case of Sri Radhey Shyam Jawrani and cannot be extended to the other two namely Smt. Janki and Sri Gaurav. Accordingly, while considering the respective submissions of the parties, the case of Smt. Janki and Sri Gaurav will be considered as a case of composite negligence where the accident is the outcome of wrong doing of two persons namely the car driver and the truck driver/owner and as far as the case of Sri Radhey Shyam Jawrani is concerned that would be treated to be a case of contributory negligence.

44. Now, the stage is set to examine the matter in respect of the claim petitions in context to the submissions advanced by the learned counsel for the respective parties.

A:- Claim of Radhey Shyam Jawarani:-

45. Considering the respective submissions and from the perusal of the material on record, it would be seen that the main contention of the learned counsel for the Insurance Company is that it was a case of contributory negligence and treating the same as such 50% of the award has been apportioned on the Insurance Company whereas the remaining 50% has been apportioned on the truck owner but while dealing with the issue, the Tribunal has held that the negligence was solely of the truck owner. This finding of the Tribunal, noticed above in the preceding paragraphs has been held to be fallacious and accordingly it cannot be said that Sri Radhey Shyam Jawrani did not contribute to the accident. Thus, the case of Radhey Shyam Jawrani is treated as a case of contributory negligence and in this light it will further have to be seen as to how much many injuries and quantum of damages has been sustained and how the amount as granted by the Tribunal can be sustained or enhanced since a contention has been raised by the learned counsel for the Insurance Company that there was no material or evidence to indicate the injuries sustained as well as the amount spent and without considering the material on record a sum of Rs. 40,000/- has been awarded in a mechanical manner.

46. In this context, if the material on record is seen, it would reveal that Sri Radhey Shyam Jawrani deposed before the Tribunal that he had sustained injuries. He further deposed that he was admitted in the District Hospital, Sitapur for few days and thereafter he was even admitted to Krishna Medical Center at Lucknow where he had undergone his treatment which included for even loss of few teeth and on the aforesaid he had to spend about Rs. 60,000/- on his treatment as well on the treatment of his son Gaurav.

47. During his cross-examination, Sri Radhey Shyam Jawrani admitted that he had not filed any document regarding his treatment or regarding the medication. Thus, since there was no material on record to establish the nature of injuries as sustained by Sri Radhey Shyam Jawrani, it is very difficult to fathom as to how the Tribunal arrived at a conclusion to award a sum of Rs. 40,000/- to Sri Radhey Shyam Jawarani. Apparently, the findings returned by the Tribunal in this regard is based on pure surmise and conjecture. If at all, Sri Radhey Shyam Jawrani had sustained injuries as was stated by him in his examination-in-chief then surely he would have adequate documents including his admission and discharge from the District Hospital, Sitapur as well as from Krishna Medical Center at Lucknow. If he had broken few teeth then naturally, he would have consulted a dentist and there ought to have been some x-ray plates but none of this was available or produced before the Court.

48. Even leaving all these facts behind the screen for the time being yet the record reflects that there is not a single prescription by any doctor or any Medication Practitioner. No medicine prescribed nor any receipt for any medical consultation, radiological assistance or medicine purchased and in absence of such vital and important documents, the contention that the claimant Sri Radhey

Shyam Jawarani received serious injuries does not find corroboration or support from the material on record. Sri Radhey Shyam Jawrani is admittedly an income tax payee and is having a separate business and being a person well acquainted in business and worldly affairs despite the same he did not file such documents on record to substantiate his contentions which leads to an inference against Sri Radhey Shyam Jawarani.

49. This Court thus finds that the amount as awarded by the Tribunal in case of Sri Radhey Shyam Jawrani is excessive and not based on any evidence. Having said that it will also be relevant to notice that on the record, there is a Insurance Surveyor's Report which also annexes certain photographs of the damaged and mangled Fiat Car and looking into the manner in which the accident occurred and that one of the co-traveller/passenger expired as well as the condition of the car definitely some injuries may have occurred to the driver of the car and taking note of the aforesaid facts and on account of absence of evidence on behalf of the claimants, this Court awards a notional amount of Rs. 5,000/- in favour of the claimant Sri Radhey Shyam Jawrani and also noticing that he contributed to the accident, hence, 50% thereof being attributable to his negligence thus he shall be entitled to recover only 50% of the awarded amount from the truck owner i.e. Walliguru Khan.

50. Thus, in view of the aforesaid F.A.F.O. No. 190 of 1993 is partially allowed and a total sum of Rs. 5,000/- is awarded to the claimant Sri Radhey Shyam Jawrani of which only 50% shall be recoverable from the truck owner Walliguru Khan along with interest at the rate of 9% per annum from the date of the application till the date of its actual payment. Accordingly, the award dated 25.05.1993 passed in Claim Petition No. 67 of 1992 shall stand modified to the aforesaid extent and the appellant company shall not be liable to pay in this regard.

51. In light of the findings given herein, there is no question of enhancing the awarded amount and for the aforesaid reasons the F.A.F.O. No. 198 of 1993 filed by Sri Radhey Shyam Jawrani shall stand dismissed.

B:- Claim of Sri Gaurav Jawarani:-

52. Now coming to the case of Sri Gaurav Jawrani again it would be seen that the Tribunal in this claim, as well, has awarded Rs. 40,000/- and apportioning 50% liability on the truck owner and 50% on the Insurance Company, payable along with interest at the rate of 15% per annum and this has been challenged by the Insurance Company on grounds which have been noticed earlier while noticing the contentions of learned counsel for the respective parties.

53. In this regard, this Court finds that the case of Sri Gaurav Jawrani is one of the composite negligence. At the outset, it may noticed that any apportionment made by the Tribunal is only to determine the inter-se liability between the two joint tortfeasor i.e. the car owner as well as the truck owner. Since it is a case of composite negligence, it is open for the appellant to claim or recover the aforesaid full amount from either of the two joint tortfeasor as their liability is joint and several as has been noticed in the former part of this judgment.

54. It will also be relevant to notice that in the preceding paragraphs it has been held that the car driver was also negligent and was also responsible to the accident to the tune of 50% and also the truck owner for 50% and this Court has also concluded that the findings returned by the Tribunal that it was the sole negligence of the truck owner is not correct. Hence, the case of Sri Gaurav Jawrani being a case of composite negligence and the liability of 50% as ascertained by the Tribunal shall be treated to be the determination of inter-se liability between the two joint tortfeasor.

55. In so far as the contention regarding the quantum awarded is concerned, this Court again finds that there was no material on record to indicate that any injuries was suffered by Sri Gaurav Jawrani. This Court further finds that no reasons have been recorded nor any material has been discussed upon which the Tribunal came to the conclusion that a sum of Rs. 40,000/- is to be paid as compensation to Sri Gaurav Jawarani. For the same reasons, as have been noticed while considering the claim of Sri Radhey Shyam Jawarani in the preceding paragraphs, this Court in the case of Gaurav Jawarani also finds that there is no material to support the amount as awarded. Since he was also travelling in the car and may have sustained some injuries, accordingly, in absence of any documentary evidence or trustworthy evidence of any witness in support of the claim of compensation for injuries suffered to him, this Court grants a notional sum of Rs. 5,000/- to be awarded along with interest at the rate of 9% per annum from the date of the claim application till the date of its recovery. Being a case of composite negligence, Sri Gaurav Jawrani shall be entitled to recover the same from either of the two joint tortfeasor and any of the two joint tortfeasor after satisfying the award shall be entitled to recover 50% from the other in accordance with law as settled by the Apex Court in the case of Khenyei (Supra).

56. In light of the aforesaid discussions and for the reasons aforesaid, the F.A.F.O. No. 191 of 1993 filed by the Insurance Company arising out of Claim Petition No. 68 of 1992 shall stand partly allowed whereas F.A.F.O. No. 196 of 1993 filed by the claimant Sri Gaurav Jawrani for seeking enhancement of the award dated 25.05.1993 shall stand dismissed. The award passed by the Tribunal in Claim Petition No. 68/1992 shall stand modified to the extent as provided herein.

C:- Claim for death of Smt. Janki:-

57. Now, considering the case of Smt. Janki, again it will be seen that it is a case of composite negligence which occurred on account of wrong doing of two joint tortfeasor. It is the case of death which is not disputed and for the reasons as noticed in the preceding paragraphs it has already been held that the car driver was responsible for the accident to the extent of 50% and the Tribunal has erred in not returning a finding of contributory negligence to the above extent.

58. It cannot be disputed by the appellants insurance company that there is nothing to indicate that the deceased had contributed to the accident and as such it was apparently not a case of contributory negligence but is a case of composite negligence.

59. In this context, it would be seen that the claimants had impleaded both Sri Kungoo Mal, the owner of the Fiat Car as well as Waliguru Khan the owner of the truck as the respondents and the Insurance Company with whom the Fiat Car No. UGC 2184 was insured.

60. It is also found that the purpose of apportioning the liability by the Tribunal between the Insurance Company with whom the Fiat Car was insured and the truck owner was for the purposes of inter-se settlement and apportionment of awarded sum between the insurer of the car and the truck owner.

61. It will also be relevant to notice that Sri Kungoo Mal had filed his written statement and admitted the accident. The Insurance Company has also paid Sri Kungoo Mal the amount towards the damage caused to the car. The surveyor of the Insurance Company had made a detailed report which was also placed on record and thus there can be no doubt that in so far as the manner in which the accident occurred, the damage caused to the vehicle and the death of Smt. Janki is not in dispute and the same has been accepted by the Insurance Company.

62. Now, the only issue that remains to be seen is regarding the claim of the heirs of Smt. Janki regarding the enhancement of the award passed in Claim Petition No. 66 of 1992 which has given rise to F.A.F.O. No. 189 of 1993.

63. Though, it was urged by the Insurance Company that the Tribunal without any basis has awarded a sum of Rs. 1,78,000/ towards non-pecuniary benefits which is contrary to the settled principles as laid down by the Apex Court in the case of National Insurance Company Limited vs Pranay Sethi (2017) 16 Supreme Court Cases 680.On the other hand, the claimants state that the Tribunal has not factored for the future prospects.

64. It is taking note of the aforesaid as well as the dictum of the Apex Court in National Insurance Company Ltd. (supra) as well as noticing the material available on record, this Court finds that Smt. Janki was an income tax payee. The record further indicates that her last income tax return was also filed. In the evidence led on behalf of the claimants of Smt. Janki, it was stated that Smt. Janki was having her separate business. It was also stated that the income of Smt. Janki was spent on her children and amongst them, one daughter is differently abled.

65. It is also not disputed that Smt. Janki is survived by her husband, three daughters and two sons. She had her income of about Rs. 5,000/- per month from agriculture and business and she also was paying income tax and was about 40 years of age at the time of her death.

66. It will also be relevant to notice that since in a petition under Section 166 of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988, the Court has to hold an inquiry to determine the just and proper compensation. It is keeping the aforesaid principles in mind also noticing that the accident occurred in the year 1992 and the appeals have been pending and apparently, the Tribunal did not record appropriate findings and did not appreciate the case in its correct perspective, hence, the Court has taken upon itself to consider the case of the claimants of Smt. Janki being the Appellate Court.

67. It is in this regard the Court considering the material on record and the evidence which indicates that Smt. Janki had her separate income and from business and agriculture and Radhey Shyam Jawarani one of the claimants in Claim Petition No. 66 of 1992, Radhey Shyam

Jawarani was not her dependent and one daughter was also married and one was differently abled and thus primarily the income of Smt. Janki was spent on her two daughters out of three and her two sons. Thus, the compensation payable to the legal heirs of Smt. Janki is re-determined as under:-

Income [As per Income Tax Returns]
35,740/- (business)
Add:-20,000/- (agricultural)

55,740/-
Less:-(1,033) Income Tax payable = Rs. 54,707/-annual Add: Towards Future Prospect @ 25% = Rs. 13,676/-annual Total Income(54,740+13676/-) = Rs. 68,383 per annum.
Less:- (Since children alone dependents, hence 1/3rd deducted) = Rs. 45,589 annual Age = 40 years
Multiplier = 15
Thus compensation payable = Rs. 45,589/- x 15 = 6,83,835/-

Add:- For consortium :- 40,000/-
Loss of Estate :- 15,000/-
Funeral Expenses :-15,000/-
= Rs. 70,000/-

Thus, total compensation payable shall be = Rs. 7,53,835/-
---

68. Thus, the claimants of Claim Petition No. 66 of 1992 shall be entitled to a total compensation of Rs. 7,53,835/- which shall carry interest @ of 9% per annum from the date of application till the date of its actual payment. The claimants of Claim Petition No. 66 of 1992 shall be entitled to recover the total compensation from either of the two joint tortfeasor and any of the two joint tortfeasor who satisfies the award shall be entitled to recover the 50% of the award from the other joint tortfeasor in accordance with law as settled by the Apex Court in Khenyei (supra).

69. Thus, F.A.F.O. No. 189 of 1993 seeking enhancement of the award passed in Claim Petition No. 66 of 1992 is allowed and F.A.F.O. No. 193 of 1993 filed by the Insurance Company is dismissed subject to above modification. The award dated 25.05.1993 passed in Claim Petition No. 66 of 1992 shall stand modified and enhanced to the aforesaid extent.

70. It is also provided that in case any amount paid to Sri Radhey Shyam Jawarani and Sri Gaurav Jawarani by the Insurance Company which is in excess to the amount now determined in their respective claims for injuries, it becomes recoverable, the same can be adjusted from their share as payable to them in terms of compensation payable to them as legal heirs and dependents of Smt. Janki in Claim Petition No. 66 of 1992.

Conclusions:-

71. In light of the detailed discussions:-

A. F.A.F.O. No. 190 of 1993 of the Insurance Company is partially allowed to the extent as detailed hereinabove and F.A.F.O. No. 198 of 1993 filed by Sri Radhey Shyam Jawarani for enhancement of award is dismissed.

B. F.A.F.O. No. 191 of 1993 of the Insurance Company is partly allowed to the extent as detailed hereinabove and F.A.F.O. No. 196 of 1993 filed by Gaurav Jawarani for enhancement of award is dismissed.

C. F.A.F.O. No. 193 of 1993 of the Insurance Company is dismissed in light of the observations made hereinabove and F.A.F.O. No. 189 of 1993 filed by legal heirs and claimants of Claim Petition No. 66 of 1992 is allowed.

The parties shall bear the respective costs. The records of the Tribunal shall be returned expeditiously.

(2023) 4 ILRA 523
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 23.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE PANKAJ BHATIA, J.

Writ Tax No. 31 of 2021

M/s Maa Mahamaya Alloys Pvt. Ltd.
...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Aloke Kumar

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C.

A. Tax Law – Seizure - GST Act,2017 - Sections 67(1), 67(2), 75(13), 130(4) & 169 - The demand for tax can be quantified and raised only in the manner prescribed in Section 73 or Section 74 of the Act, as the case may be. (Para 11)

As the entire tax has been determined and the penalty has been levied only on the basis of a survey by taking recourse u/s 130 of the GST Act and not taking a recourse to Section 74, the order impugned is clearly unsustainable. (Para 12, 13)

B.(1) The scope of Clause (ii) of sub-section (1) of Section 130 is that any assessee who is liable to pay tax and does not account for such goods, after the time of supply is occasioned, would be liable to penalty under Clause (ii). The liability to pay the tax arises at the time of point of supply, and not at any point earlier than that.

Section 130 of the GST Act contemplates and provides for levy of the penalty, in the event, any of the conditions so mentioned in Section 130(1) are made out. (Para 14)

On a plain reading of the allegations levelled against the petitioner w.r.t. the improper accounting of goods, the only stipulation contained in Clauses (ii) and (iv) of sub-section (1) of Section 130 can at best be invoked by the department, however, in the present case, even assuming for the sake of argument, that the goods were lying in excess of the goods in record, the case against the petitioner would not fall under Clause (ii) of sub-section (1) of Section 130.

B.(2) Penalty can be levied by invoking Clause (iv) only when the department establishes that there was contravention of any provision of the Act or the Rules coupled with the 'intent to evade payment of tax'.

There is no such allegation in the show cause notice or any of the orders. Clause (iv) of sub-section (1) of Section 130 would not be attracted in the present case. (Para 15)

C. Manner of service of notice in certain circumstances - In terms of Clause (a) of Section 169(1), a service would be completed only when it is tendered to the taxable person or on his Manager or authorized representative. (Para 17)

Serving on the Accountant of the firm is neither contemplated nor provided for u/s 169(1)(a) and thus, the service as claimed by the respondent on the Accountant cannot be held to be a valid service, thus, the entire proceedings are liable to be quashed. (Para 18)

D. Determination of value of the goods – In Section 15 or the Rules framed thereunder, there is no prescriptions for valuation of the goods on the basis of eye estimation as has been done by the department and has been repelled by the appellate authority. (Para 19)

Section 15 of the GST Act provides for valuation of the taxable supply. In furtherance of the provisions contained in the Act, Rules have been framed and Rule 27 of the said Rules provides for the manner of valuation of supply of goods or services.

In the present case, the valuation of the goods is required to be done in terms of the mandate of Section 15(1) r/w Section 15(2) and Section 15(3). The appellate authority has erred in repelling the valuation done on the basis of eye estimation, however, has proceeded to value the goods (although differently) at the appellate stage without resorting to the mandate and manner prescribed in Section 15 r/w the Rules. (Para 19)

Writ petition allowed. The amount deposited by the petitioner shall be refunded subject to the outcome of the demand quantified u/s 74 of the Act in accordance with law. (E-4)

Precedent followed:

M/s Metenere Ltd. Vs U.O.I. & anr., Writ Tax No. 360 of 2020 (Para 6)

Present petition challenges the order dated 29.01.2019, whereby tax of Rs. 26,10,000/-, penalty of Rs. 26,10,000/- and further fine of Rs. 25,000/-, total Rs. 52,54,000/- has been assessed against the petitioner as well as the appellate order dated 15.06.2020 whereby the appeal preferred by the petitioner was partly allowed.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Pankaj Bhatia, J.)

1. Heard Sri Aloke Kumar, learned Counsel for the petitioner and learned Standing Counsel.

2. The present petition has been filed challenging the order dated 29.01.2019 whereby tax of Rs.26,10,000/- has been assessed to be payable by the petitioner and penalty of Rs.26,10,000/- and further fine of Rs.25,000/-, total Rs.52,54,000/- has been assessed against the petitioner as well as the appellate order dated 15.06.2020 whereby the appeal preferred by the petitioner was partly allowed.

3. The facts in brief are that the petitioner is a Company duly registered under the GST Act. It is stated that the material purchased by the petitioner are duly reflected on the portal of the department including the GSTR-3B. It is alleged that on 29.09.2018, the Deputy Commissioner, (SIB), Commercial Tax, Mirzapur Division, Mirzapur in purported exercise of powers under Section 67(1) and 67(2) of the GST Act inspected the registered business premises and drew a Panchanama on 29.09.2018 (Annexure No.1). On the same day, a seizure memo was also prepared, which is contained as Annexure No.2 to the writ petition.

4. It is argued that the petitioner was compelled to deposit an amount of Rs.52,20,000/- for getting the seized goods released. Thereafter, the petitioner was served with summons on 29.09.2018 and the petitioner was called upon to produce the records relating to the purchase for the year 2017-18 and 2018-19. The petitioner was once again issued summons under Section 70 of the Act on 27.12.2018 whereby certain documents were called from the petitioner. The petitioner claims to have produced the documents on the date fixed, however, an order came to be passed thereafter without issuance of any show cause notice to the petitioner levying the tax liability of Rs.26,10,000/- and further an amount of Rs.26,10,000/- was determined as penalty to be paid by the petitioner and further a fine of Rs.25,000/- was also imposed, thus, a total liability of Rs.52,45,000/- was determined to be payable under Section 130(3) of the GST Act. As the petitioner had paid an amount of Rs.52,20,000/-, the total balance amount payable by the petitioner came to Rs.25,000/-. The said order was challenged by the petitioner by preferring an appeal. The said appeal was partly allowed by means of the order dated 15.06.2020 and an amount of tax assessed against the petitioner was quantified at Rs.7,92,405/- on which a like penalty of Rs.7,92,405/- was imposed and thus, in terms of the appellate order, the petitioner was required to pay a total amount of Rs.15,84,810/-. The amount paid by the petitioner in excess was directed to be refunded in accordance with law.

5. The contention of the Counsel for the petitioner is that the order impugned as well as the appellate order is bad in law for the reasons more than one. He argues that in terms of the mandate of the GST Act, although a power of search and seizure is conferred upon the authorities, the manner in which the goods were held to be in excess of the recorded goods, is wholly arbitrary. He argues that the goods were quantified only on the basis of the eye estimation, which argument of the petitioner was also accepted by the appellate authority, as is clear from the perusal of the appellate order. In the light of the same, he argues that once the appellate authority accepted the contention of the petitioner that the valuation of the goods on the basis of eye estimation was not possible, the entire proceedings ought to have been declared as null and void. He further argues that even otherwise the manner in which the appellate authority has quantified (although reduced), the demand against the petitioner has no foundation whatsoever.

6. The Counsel for the petitioner further argues that in any event while proceeding to pass an order under Section 130 of the GST Act, no power is vested in the authority to undertake the determination of liability of tax, which can only be done by taking recourse to Section 73 or Section 74 of the Act, as the case may be. He draws my attention to the statutory provisions contained in the GST Act and emphasises on the provisions contained and elaborated in Sections 67, 73, 74, 122 and Section 130 of the Act. He places reliance on the judgment of this Court in the case of M/s Metenere Limited vs Union of India and another; Writ Tax No.360 of 2020, decided on 17.12.2020. He further argues that after the passing of the orders, on the same grounds, proceedings have been initiated under Section 74 of the Act and an order has already been passed against the petitioner, against which, the petitioner is availing the remedies. He argues that the same is not the subject matter of the present writ petition and has been brought to the notice of this Court only to apprise that no penalty could have levied in view of the mandatory provisions contained in Section 75 (13) of the GST Act.

7. During the course of the hearing, this Court vide order dated 21.03.2023 had called upon the Counsel for the respondent to inform whether a show cause notice was issued under Section 130(4) of the GST Act or not? In response to the said order, the learned Standing Counsel has produced the instructions and argues that prior to passing of the impugned order, a show cause notice dated 27.12.2018 was issued to the petitioner, which was served upon the accountant of the firm/ company on 29.12.2018. Learned Standing Counsel has also produced a copy of the show cause notice. The said instruction and show cause notice are taken on record.

8. The learned Standing Counsel argues that the estimation of various goods was done in the manner prescribed. He further argues that at the appellate stage, the contention of the Counsel for the petitioner was partly accepted and with regard to the demand quantified at the appellate stage, the appellate authority had applied its mind and arrived at a conclusion with regard to the goods available and on the said basis, the demand was quantified and substantially released. He thus argues that the writ petition is liable to be dismissed, more particularly because no reply to the show cause notice was given.

9. Considering the rival submissions made at the bar, the following questions which arise for determination;

(I). Whether tax can be assessed/ determined in exercise of powers under Section 130 of the GST Act?

(II). Whether penalty can be levied only on the allegations that at the time of verification of goods, the goods in excess were found at the premises?

(III). Whether the service of notice as claimed by the respondent satisfies the requirement contemplated under Section 169 of the GST Act?

(IV). Whether the valuation of goods can be done on the basis of eye estimation alone and on the basis of production capacity and/ or the consumption of electricity etc?

10. The issue raised in the present writ petition is being decided in view of the fact that the appellate tribunal contemplated under the Act has not yet been constituted.

11. The issue raised herein in Issue no.I is marked resemblance to facts referred in the judgment of this Court in the case M/s Metenere Limited (supra) wherein on the basis of a similar search conducted, the demand was quantified. This Court after analysing the provisions of the Act and the Rules applicable held that for the infractions as contained in Section 122 of the GST Act and specified in Column "A' of paragraph 35 of the said judgment M/s Metenere Limited (Supra) held that penalty has to be Rs.10,000/- or the amount of tax evaded whichever is higher, whereas for the infractions specified in Column "B' of paragraph 35, the penalty that can be imposed is Rs.10,000/- only. This Court also held that the demand for tax can be quantified and raised only in the manner prescribed in Section 73 or Section 74 of the Act, as the case may be.

12. In the light of what has been decided by this Court in the case of M/s Metenere Limited (Supra), it is clear that the entire exercise resorted to under Section 130 of the GST Act for assessment/ determination of the tax and the penalty is neither stipulated under the Act, nor can be done in the manner in which it has been done, more so, in view of the fact that the department itself had undertaken the exercise of quantifying the tax due, by taking recourse under Section 74.

13. As the entire tax has been determined and the penalty has been levied only on the basis of a survey by taking recourse under Section 130 of the GST Act and not taking a recourse to Section 74, the order impugned is clearly unsustainable.

14. Coming to the Issue no.2, Section 130 of the GST Act contemplates and provides for levy of the penalty, in the event, any of the conditions so mentioned in Section 130(1) are made out. Section 130(1) reads as under:

"Section 130. Confiscation of goods or conveyances and levy of penalty-

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, if any person -

(i) supplies or receives any goods in contravention of any of the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder with intent to evade payment of tax; or

(ii) does not account for any goods on which he is liable to pay tax under this Act; or

(iii) supplies any goods liable to tax under this Act without having applied for registration; or

(iv) contravenes any of the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder with intent to evade payment of tax; or

(v) uses any conveyance as a means of transport for carriage of goods in contravention of the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder unless the owner of the conveyance proves that it was so used without the knowledge or connivance of the owner himself, his agent, if any, and the person in charge of the conveyance, *then, all such goods or conveyances shall be liable to confiscation and the person shall b*e liable to penalty under section 122."

15. On a plain reading of the allegations levelled against the petitioner with regard to the improper accounting of goods, the only stipulation contained in Clauses (ii) and (iv) of sub-section (1) of Section 130 can at best be invoked by the department, however, in the present case, even assuming for the sake of argument, that the goods were lying in excess of the goods in record, the case against the petitioner would not fall under Clause (ii) of sub-section (1) of Section 130 for the simple reason that the liability to pay the tax arises at the time of point of supply, and not at any point earlier than that. On a plain reading, the scope of Clause (ii) of sub-section (1) of Section 130 is that any assessee who is liable to pay tax and does not account for such goods, after the time of supply is occasioned, would be liable to penalty under Clause (ii). Analyzing Clause (iv) of sub-section (1) of Section 130, the contravention of any provision of the Act or the Rules should be in conjunction with an intent to evade payment tax and penalty can be levied by invoking Clause (iv) only when the department establishes that there were a contravention of the Act and Rules coupled with the "intent to make payment of tax'. There is no such allegation in the show cause notice or any of the orders, I have no hesitation in holding that even the Clause (iv) of sub-section (1) of Section 130 would not be attracted in the present case.

16. Coming to the Issue no.3 of determination, Section 169 of the Act provides for manner of service of notice in certain circumstances. Section 169 is quoted hereinbelow:

"Section 169. Service of notice in certain circumstances.-

(1) Any decision, order, summons, notice or other communication under this Act or the rules made there under shall be served by any one of the following methods, namely:-

(a) by giving or tendering it directly or by a messenger including a courier to the addressee or the taxable person or to his manager or authorised representative or an advocate or a tax practitioner holding authority to appear in the proceedings on behalf of the taxable person or to a person regularly employed by him in connection with the business, or to any adult member of family residing with the taxable person; or

(b) by registered post or speed post or courier with acknowledgment due, to the person for whom it is intended or his authorised representative, if any, at his last known place of business or residence; or

(c) by sending a communication to his e-mail address provided at the time of registration or as amended from time to time; or

(d) by making it available on the common portal; or

(e) by publication in a newspaper circulating in the locality in which the taxable person or the person to whom it is issued is last known to have resided, carried on business or personally worked for gain; or

(f) if none of the modes aforesaid is practicable, by affixing it in some conspicuous place at his last known place of business or residence and if such mode is not practicable for any reason, then by affixing a copy thereof on the notice board of the office of the concerned officer or authority who or which passed such decision or order or issued such summons or notice.

(2) Every decision, order, summons, notice or any communication shall be deemed to have been served on the date on which it is tendered or published or a copy thereof is affixed in the manner provided in sub-section (1).

(3) When such decision, order, summons, notice or any communication is sent by registered post or speed post, it shall be deemed to have been received by the addressee at the expiry of the period normally taken by such post in transit unless the contrary is proved."

17. In terms of Clause (a) of Section 169(1), a service would be completed only when it is tendered to the taxable person or on his Manager or authorized representative.

18. Serving on the Accountant of the firm is neither contemplated nor provided for under Section 169(1)(a) and thus, the service as claimed by the Counsel for the respondent on the Accountant cannot be held to be a valid service, thus, on that count also, the entire proceedings are liable to be quashed.

19. Coming to the Issue no.IV with regard to the determination of value of the goods. Section 15 of the GST Act provides for valuation of the taxable supply. In furtherance of the provisions contained in the Act, Rules have been framed and Rule 27 of the said Rules provides for the manner of valuation of supply of goods or services, however, in the present case, the valuation of the goods is required to be done in terms of the mandate of Section 15(1) read with Section 15(2) and read with Section 15(3). In the said Section 15 or the Rules framed thereunder, there is no prescriptions for valuation of the goods on the basis of eye estimation as has been done by the department and has been repelled by the appellate authority. The appellate authority has erred in repelling the valuation done on the basis of eye estimation, however, has proceeded to value the goods (although differently) at the appellate stage without resorting to the mandate and manner prescribed in Section 15 read with the Rules, thus, on that count also, the impugned order is not sustainable.

20. For all the reasons recorded above, the writ petition deserves to be allowed. Accordingly, the impugned order dated 29.01.2019 is set aside and the writ petition is allowed.

21. The amount deposited by the petitioner shall be refunded subject to the outcome of the demand quantified under Section 74 of the Act in accordance with law.

(2023) 4 ILRA 529
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 23.02.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MAHESH CHANDRA TRIPATHI, J.
THE HON'BLE SAURABH SRIVASTAVA, J.

Special Appeal No. 109 of 2023

Kumari Deepti ...Appellant
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Appellant:
Sri Yogesh Kumar Saxena, Sri Ram Sajivan

Counsel for the Respondent:
C.S.C.

A. Service Law – Selection/Appointment – Reservation – Format of Caste Certificate - Public Service (Reservation for Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and Other Backward Classes) Act, 1994 - Certificate produced by a candidate claiming the benefit of reservation available to O.B.C. category candidate should evidence and facts (1) that the candidate who belongs to a group identified, as such, by the State Government and (2) that the candidate is not excluded as per the criteria for the Creamy layer prescribed by the State government of Uttar Pradesh. (Para 22, 30)

Issue before this Court is as to whether by not submitting the caste certificate in the format as prescribed in the advertisement rather submitting the same in the format which has been prescribed by the State of U.P. itself for the purposes of issuing the caste certificate for claiming the benefit of reservation available to O.B.C. category candidates for appointment to the post under the GOI, the Appellant-Petitioner dis-entitled herself for claiming such benefit. (Para 15)

The certificate relied upon and submitted by the Appellant-Petitioner dated 06.03.2021 was issued by the Tehsildar sufficiently certifies and evidences that the Appellant-Petitioner belongs to an O.B.C. group identified and recognised by the State government of Uttar Pradesh and further that she as per the criteria prescribed by the State government of Uttar Pradesh for exclusion under creamy layer does not fall in the creamy layer and hence, she is eligible and entitled to claim reservation available to O.B.C. category candidate. (Para 31)

B. Benefit of the reservation in public employment to different disadvantaged section of the society is permissible under the Constitution of India as an affirmative action. It is not in dispute that the Appellant-Petitioner was given appointment while she claimed the benefit of reservation available to O.B.C. candidates in her selection to the post of Constable (Civil Police) Uttar Pradesh Police Services, merely because the certificate produced by her was not in (Praroop-1) though the certificate produced by her, clearly evidences that she belongs to an O.B.C. category as identified by the State Government of Uttar Pradesh and also that she does not get excluded as a person belonging to creamy layer in terms of the criteria laid down by the State Government of Uttar Pradesh. For the said purpose, it should not be taken aid of by the State authorities for denying her otherwise constitutionally guaranteed right of affirmative action. (Para 32)

The order passed by the learned Single Judge cannot be sustained neither on the ground that the caste certificate as submitted by the Appellant-Petitioner was not within the time as stipulated and extended by the recruitment Board, nor the same was not on prescribed format. (Para 35)

Special appeal allowed. (E-4)

Precedent followed:

1. Gaurav Sharma Vs St of U.P. & ors., Special Appeal No. 156 of 2017, 2017 AIR (Allahabad) 116 (Para 3)

2. Rinki Yadav Vs St. of U.P. & ors., Writ-A No. 4689 of 2022 (Para 4)

3. St. of U.P. Vs Rinki Yadav, Special Appeal Defective No. 274 of 2022, 2022 Law Suit (All) 1900 (Para 5)

4. Surendra Mohan Yadav Vs St. of U. P. & ors., Special Appeal No. 823 of 2018, decided on 05.09.2018 (Para 14)

5. Gaurav Sharma Vs St. of U. P. & ors., 2017 5 ADJ 495; 2017 [35] LCD 1720 (Para 14)

Present special appeal assails the judgment and order dated 04.01.2023, passed by learned Single Judge in Civil Misc. Writ Petition No.17259 of 2022.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Saurabh Srivastava, J.)

Order on Civil Misc. Delay Condonation Application No. 1 of 2023.

The delay in filing the appeal has been explained in the affidavit.

Cause shown is found sufficient.
Delay is condoned.
Application is allowed.

Order on Appeal.

1. Heard Shri Y.K. Saxena, learned counsel for the appellant, Shri Mohan Srivastava, learned Standing Counsel for the State respondents.

2. The Special Appeal is questioning the validity of the impugned judgment and order dated 04.01.2023 passed by the learned Single Judge in Civl Misc. Writ Petition No. 17259 of 2022 (Kumari Deepti versus State of U.P. and others) and further prayed that the respondent be directed to accept the claim of the petitioner for appointment in the O.B.C. category in accordance with law during the pendency of this Special Appeal.

3. Learned counsel for the appellant in support of his submission states that while passing the order learned Single Judge has erred and has not considered the Full Bench Judgement of this Court rendered in a bunch of matters, leading being Special Appeal No. 156 of 2017-Gaurav Sharma versus State of U.P. Thru Secy. and 3 Others, 2017 AIR (Allahabad) 116.

4. He submits that in the similar facts and circumstances, the learned Single Judge in Writ A No. 4689 of 2022 (Rinki Yadav versus State of U.P. Thru. Addl Chief Secy. Home (Police) Anubhag-6 Lko. And 3 Others) wherein she was working on the post of Constable and was a candidate for selection to the post of Sub Inspector (Civil Police) Platoon Commander (PAC) and Second Officer in Fire Brigade in pursuance to the Advertisement issued in February, 2021 her candidature was rejected by the respondent that the selection mode is considering the candidature of the petitioner under the General Category rather than treating her under O.B.C. Category, allowed the similar prayer of the petitioner as prayed in the instant petition.

5. The Rinki Yadav (supra) has challenged the said action in the aforementioned Writ Petition where the learned Single Judge vide order dated 09.09.2022 had allowed the writ petition and directed the respondents to accept the O.B.C. Certificate submitted by the petitioner and proceeded with the process of selection of the petitioner on the post of Sub Inspector (Civil Police). He submits that the said order was subject matter of the Special Appeal Defective No. 274 of 2022 (State of U.P. versus Rinki Yadav 2022 Law Suit (All) 1900.

6. The present Intra Court Appeal has been filed under Chapter VIII Rule 5 of Court with the prayer to quash & set aside the judgment dated 04.01.2023 passed by learned Single Judge and further direct the State authorities, specifically Uttar Pradesh Police Recruitment and Promotion Board (hereinafter referred as the "Recruitment and Promotion Board") to declare her result treating her candidature belonging to Other Backward Class category, The cause of action arises in favour of the Appellant-Petitioner for filing the writ petition when her result has not been declared in the select list even after securing higher marks than the lowest cut-off marks in the O.B.C. category. The Appellant-Petitioner preferred representation dated 21.08.2022 for seeking declaration of her result under O.B.C. category and the same has not been responded in any manner whatsoever. The learned Single Judge while deciding the petition preferred by the Appellant-Petitioner dismissed the same on the ground that firstly she could not produce the O.B.C. certificate on prescribed format within the time as specified in the advertisement, and thereafter he warranted O.B.C. certificate submitted by the Appellant-Petitioner at highly belated stage.

7. The Recruitment and Promotion Board issued an advertisement in the month of February, 2021 for direct recruitment to the post of Sub-Inspector Civil Police, Platoon Commander P.A.C. and Second Fire Officer. The number of vacancies advertised through the said advertisement were 9534. The Appellant-Petitioner is presently rendering her service as Constable (Civil Police) Uttar Pradesh Police Services and was recruited on the said post under the reserved category of Other Backward Classes. Pursuant to the advertisement in question, she submitted her online application along with other required documents, she also furnished a certificate issued by the Tehsildar Chhibramau, District Kannauj, on 06.03.2021 which is available at page 29 appended to the Appeal as Annexure No.1. By furnishing the said certificate, the petitioner claimed that her candidature for recruitment to the post in question has been considered as a reserve category candidate belonging to Other Backward Class.

8. The Appellant-Petitioner participated in the written examination and also in the physical efficiency test. The final marks obtained by the petitioner on the basis of written examination/physical efficiency test are 291. 32, whereas the last candidate belonging to O.B.C. category selected had secured 285.03 marks. The last candidate in the open category i.e. under the General category selected, has secured 296.5 marks. These marks in different categories are in respect of the female candidates.

9. Due to non-declaration of result related to the Appellant-Petitioner as selected candidate it is the apprehension of the Appellant-Petitioner that at the time of verification of documents, it was discovered that the Certificate submitted by the Appellant-Petitioner for seeking benefit of reservation for appointment in question was not as per the advertisement pursuant to which selections were made.

10. Accordingly, she has been denied recruitment/appointment on the post of Sub-Inspector or any other equivalent post by treating her to be an open category candidate and also for the reason that since the last open category candidates selected had secured 296.5 marks, whereas the marks obtained by the Appellant-Petitioner were 291.32 hence, she could not get selected in the open category on the basis of merit. It is not denied by the respondents-State Authorities that the only reason for not treating the Appellant-Petitioner's candidature as a reserved category candidate belonging to Other Backward Class is that she did not submit the caste certificate as per the format (Praroop-1) appended with the advertisement.

11. Mr. PK Giri, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel appearing for the State respondents vehemently argued that as per the notes appended to clause 5.4 of the advertisement, the benefit of reservation to those candidate who belong to Other Backward Classes, but fall in the creamy layer will not be available. Drawing out attention to note 3 appended to clause 5.4 of the advertisement, it has been argued by Ld. Additional Chief Standing Counsel that the said provision in the advertisement which provides that the candidates belonging to Other Backward Classes as mentioned in Schedule-1 of the Public Service (Reservation for Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and Other Backward Classes) Act, 1994 (hereinafter referred to as the Reservation Act, 1994) will not be entitled to the benefit of reservation if they fall in the creamy layer Category. He has also stated that as per the stipulation made in note 3, caste certificate to be submitted by the candidates claiming the benefit of reservation available to Other Backward Classes shall be in format (Praroop-1) and should have been issued on or after 1 April 2020, but before the last date of making the application. That is to say, the caste certificate to be submitted by the candidate concerned should have been issued between 1.04.2020- 30.04.2021 for the reasons that 30.04.2021 was the last date as per the advertisement to make the application.

12. Caste certificate issued on 06.03.2021 by the Tehsildar certifies that the Appellant-Petitioner daughter of Vimal Kishore, whose mother's name is Aadesh Kumari belongs to Lodhi community which is recognised as the backward class under the Government of India resolution dated 10 September 1993 published in the Gazette dated 13 September 1993. It also certifies that she does not belong to the persons/sections of creamy layer mentioned in the office memorandum issued by the Government of India, Department of Personnel & Training, dated 08.09.1993 as modified by office memorandum dated 09.03.2004 and 14.10.2008 or the latest notification of the Government of India.

13. The sole submission of the Ld. Additional Chief Standing Counsel appearing for the State authorities is that since the Appellant-Petitioner did not furnish the caste certificate as per the requirement of note 3 appended to clause 5.4 of the advertisement and also that since the caste certificate furnished by her was not in the format (Praroop-1) appended to the advertisement as such she has dis-entitled herself to be given the benefit of being considered for the benefit of reservation available to O.B.C. category candidates.

14. Ld. Additional Chief Standing Counsel also relied upon a Judgment rendered by the Division Bench of this Court in the case of Surendra Mohan Yadav Vs. State of Uttar Pradesh and others decided on 05.09.2018 in Special Appeal No. 823 of 2018, wherein, according to him, it has been held that if a candidate fails to submit O.B.C. certificate as per the format prescribed in the advertisement and rather furnishes the certificate which related to the appointments to the post under the Government of India and not under the State of Uttar Pradesh, then candidature of such a candidate cannot be considered in O.B.C. category. The Division Bench judgement dated 05.09.2018 places reliance on the Full Bench judgement of this Court in the case of Gaurav Sharma Vs. State of Uttar Pradesh and others 2017 5 ADJ 495, equivalent citation of which is 2017 [35] LCD 1720.

15. Issue which has been emerged to be answered by this Court in this case is as to whether by not submitting the caste certificate in the format as prescribed in the advertisement rather submitting the same in the format which has been prescribed by the State of U.P. itself for the purposes of issuing the caste certificate for claiming the benefit of reservation available to O.B.C. category candidates for appointment to the post under the Government of India, the Appellant-Petitioner dis-entitled herself for claiming such benefit.

16. As per clause 5.4 of the advertisement, a candidate claiming the benefit of reservation available to O.B.C. category candidates was required to submit the caste certificate with certification to the facts, (1) that the candidate does not fall foul of creamy layer and (2) that the certificate ought to have been issued by the competent authority between the period 1.04.2020-30.04.2021, whereas, the caste certificate furnished by the Appellant-Petitioner is concerned, it was issued by the competent authority i.e. the Tehsildar concerned on 06.03.2021, which date falls within the period prescribed for obtaining the certificate as per the stipulation made in the advertisement itself i.e. between 1.04.2020-30.04.2021. The certificate relied upon by the Appellant-Petitioner also clearly certifies that she does not fall foul of creamy layer as per the notification issued by the Government of India, Department of Personnel & Training by means of the Office Memorandum dated 08.09.1993 or/and at the latest notifications including the notifications dated 09.03.2004 and 14.10.2008.

17. One of the issues which was considered by the Full Bench in the case of Gaurav Sharma (Supra) was as to whether there exists any irreconcilable difference or repugnancy between the norms fixed by the Union and State Governments with regard to certification of creamy layer? if not, its effect, it is also given to point out that the petitioner in the Gaurav Sharma case had also submitted the certificate certifying that he belonged to the O.B.C. category in the same format in which the appellant-Petitioner obtained the certificate and submitted the same for seeking benefit of the reservation available to O.B.C. category candidates. The format in which the Appellant-Petitioner obtained the said certificate is prescribed by the State of Uttar Pradesh. This fact is not in dispute, however, as stated by the learned Additional Chief standing Counsel, the said format is for claiming benefit of reservation available to O.B.C. category candidates in relation to employment under the Government of India and not in relation to employment under the State of Uttar Pradesh.

18. The caste certificate relied upon by the candidate in the case of Gaurav Sharma is the same in which the Appellant-Petitioner was issued the certificate by the Tehsildar. The Full Bench in the case of Gaurav Sharma (Supra) has opined that, while it is true that caste certificate is only recognition of an existing status, and O.B.C. candidate necessarily must establish the twin conditions of belonging to an O.B.C. group recognised by the State and also that he does not fall within the creamy layer. In para-26 of the judgement in the case of Gaurav Sharma, the Full Bench has further observed that while it is true that O.B.C. candidate even she produces a certificate which evidences that she does not stand excluded from the benefit of reservation in terms of Office Memorandum dated 14.10.2008, that issue still remain as to whether she is an OBC, as are specified and identified by the State Government of Uttar Pradesh.

19. The Full Bench further observes that although the certificate initially submitted by the OBC, candidates before court did not stand excluded by virtue of his standards fixed by the Office Memorandum dated 14.10.2008, the certificate did not evidence them belonging to an O.B.C., as identified in the State Government of Uttar Pradesh. The Court further goes on to the observation that for the purposes of seeking the benefit of the reservation it is imperative for a candidate to establish that he/she belongs to O.B.C., as recognised and identified by the State concerned and further that he/she does not within the field of exclusion.

20. Finally, answering the issue (C) it has been said by the Full Bench in para-27 of the report that we accordingly answered question number one in the negative and hold that an O.B.C. candidate is not exempt from the rigours of a cut-off or last date prescribed in an advertisement or recruitment notice. We further declared that Arvind Kumar Yadav correctly articulates the law on the issue and over rule Pravesh Kumar and Shubham Gupta. In so far as question No. 3 is concerned, we hold that although, there is no repugnancy the norms fixed by the Union and the State Government, the same would have no favourable impact upon the ability of a candidate unless he/she does not furnish a certificate evidence of her as belonging to O.B.C. category as recognised and identified by the State.

21. Thus, the Full Bench in the case of Gaurav Sharma (Supra) has found that so far as the certification of creamy layer is concerned, there is no repugnancy in the norms fixed by the Union and the State Government. Accordingly, we have no hesitation to hold that insofar as the exclusion under the creamy layer is concerned, the Appellant-Petitioner could not be excluded for the reasons that the certificate furnished by her theory states that she does not stand excluded from the rigours of creamy layer in terms of the notification issued by the Central Government. The Full Bench has already held that so far as the criteria of exclusion under the creamy layer component is concerned there does not exist any repugnancy between the criteria laid down by the State Government and the Central government.

22. We however also notice that the Full Bench has categorically held that even if a candidate produces a certificate evidencing that he/she does not get excluded from the rigours of creamy layer there he/she would still have to possess a certificate evidencing that he/she belongs to an O.B.C. group as identified and recognised by the State Government of Uttar Pradesh. For considering the aforesaid aspect, what we find is that the certificate furnished by the Appellant-Petitioner on 06.03.2021 which was issued by the competent authority i.e. the Tehsildar clearly certifies that she belongs to Lodhi community there does not exist any repugnancy between the specification made for the said purpose by the Government of India as also by the State Government of Uttar Pradesh.

23. We are very clear in our mind that the certificate furnished by the Appellant-Petitioner will clearly suffice to certify that the Appellant-Petitioner belongs to a community identified by the State Government of Uttar Pradesh is an O.B.C. group and accordingly she will be entitled to seek the benefit of reservation available to an O.B.C. category candidate even while seeking employment under the State Government of Uttar Pradesh.

24. By bare perusal of Schedule-1 appended to 1994 Reservation Act which clearly reveals that Entry-8 therein mentions the community Lodhi. Accordingly, as per the identification recognition made by the State Government of Uttar Pradesh for a particular community belonging to Other Backward Class, the entries in Schedule-1 is the only source for determination of such an issue. Admittedly, Lodhi community are identified and recognised for the said purpose.

25. If we examine the notification published in the Gazette of India, extraordinary dated 13.09.1993 which publishes the resolution of the Government of India dated 10.09.1993 what we find is that in the State of Uttar Pradesh Lodhi community is listed at serial No. 8. Accordingly, on examination of the identification made by the Government of India as also by the State Government of Uttar Pradesh for the purposes of inclusion of a particular group or community amongst the Other Backward Classes or Sections entitled to seek benefit of reservation available to them, we find that there does not exist any repugnancy as far as Lodhi community is concerned. The reasons for us to observe that there is no such repugnancy is that Lodhi community finds mention in the notification of the Government of India dated 13.09.1993 which published the resolution of the Government of India dated 10.09.1993 and it is also included at entry 8 of Schedule 1 appended to 1994 Reservation Act passed by the Legislature of the State Government of Uttar Pradesh.

26. Ld. Additional Chief Standing Counsel has also made his submission based on the provisions contained in Section 9 of the Reservation Act, 1984 which provides that for the purpose of reservation provided under the said Act caste certificate shall be issued by such authority or officer in such manner or form as the State Government may by order provide.

27. Ld. Additional Chief Standing Counsel representing the State authorities has not dispute that the authority was issued because certificate dated 06.03.2021 which was furnished by the Appellant-Petitioner claiming the benefit of the reservation available to O.B.C. category candidates has been issued by the Tehsildar with the competent authority as provided by the State Government for the purpose of issuing certificate. The Schedule appended to the Uttar Pradesh Janhit Guarantee Act of 2011 also prescribes the Tehsildar to be the authority competent to issue a certificate.

28. The only reservation expressed by the Ld. Additional Chief Standing Counsel to the caste certificate issued on 06.03.2021 is that it is not issued in the manner prescribed by the State Government. The basis for such an arguments as advanced by the Ld. Additional Chief Standing Counsel is that the certificate dated 06.03.2021 which had been issued by the Tehsildar clearly mentioned therein that it is a certificate to be produced by Other Backward Classes applying for appointment to the post under the Government of India. His submission is that the information as appended to the advertisement (Praroop-1) is a form prescribed by the Government for issuance of caste certificate to those who apply for appointment to the post under the State Government of Uttar Pradesh.

29. It is also not in dispute that both the formats i.e. the format in which the Appellant-Petitioner had obtained the certificate which was issued to her by the State of the place itself. The first format is for a certificate to be produced by O.B.C. category candidate applying for appointment to the post under Government of India, whereas the format as appended to the advertisement has been prescribed by the State to be produced by the Other Backward Classes candidates who apply for appointment to the post under the State of Uttar Pradesh. The Full Bench of this Court in the case of Gaurav Sharma (Supra) as discussed above, has already found that so far as the criteria for exclusion on account of person belonging to creamy layer is concerned there does not exist any repugnancy between the descriptions made for the said purpose by the Government of India and by the State government of Uttar Pradesh. The issue as to whether there is any repugnancy, so far any person belonging to Lodhi community claiming his/her status as O.B.C., as prescribed by the State of Uttar Pradesh and the Government of India was not an issue before the Full Bench neither has it been discussed and considered. However, if we examine the reasoning given by the Full Bench for recording that no repugnancy exist, so far as the criteria for exclusion of candidate on account of creamy layer is concerned and apply the same for examining as to whether there is any repugnancy between the identification of a particular, category as O.B.C. by the State of Uttar Pradesh and by the Government of India. We find that as far as Lodhi community is concerned, there does not exist any repugnancy. Lodhi community is included as O.B.C., in the notification issued on 15.09.1993 published in the Gazette dated 13.9.1993. Similarly Lodhi community is mentioned at entry 8 of schedule 1 of the 1994 Resolution Act. As there is no discrepancy in inclusion of Lodhi community amongst the Other Backward Class exists in case any person belonging to Lodhi community reservation available to O.B.C. category candidates for appointment or post either under the Government of India or under the State of Uttar Pradesh.

30. We may recreate the basic principle which runs as a common thread throughout the judgement of the Full Bench of this Court in case of Gaurav Sharma and Others is that certificate produced by a candidate claiming the benefit of reservation available to O.B.C. category candidate should evidence and facts (1) that the candidate who belongs to a group identified, as such, by the State Government and (2) that the candidate is not excluded as per the criteria for the Creamy layer prescribed by the State government of Uttar Pradesh.

31. Applying the reasoning as given by the Full Bench in the case of Gaurav Sharma (supra) we are of the opinion that the certificate relied upon and submitted by the Appellant-Petitioner dated 06.03.2021 was issued by the Tehsildar sufficiently certifies and evidences that the Appellant-Petitioner belongs to an O.B.C. group identified and recognised by the State government of Uttar Pradesh and further that she as per the criteria prescribed by the State government of Uttar Pradesh for exclusion under creamy layer does not fall in the creamy layer and hence, she is eligible and entitled to claim reservation available to O.B.C. category candidate.

32. Before parting with this case, we may observe that benefit of the reservation in public employment to different disadvantaged section of the society is permissible under the Constitution of India as an affirmative action. It is not in dispute that the Appellant-Petitioner was given appointment while she claimed the benefit of reservation available to O.B.C. candidates in her selection to the post of Constable (Civil Police) Uttar Pradesh Police Services, merely because the certificate produced by her was not in (Praroop-1) though the certificate produced by her, clearly evidences that she belongs to an O.B.C. category as identified by the State Government of Uttar Pradesh and also that she does not get excluded as a person belonging to creamy layer in terms of the criteria laid down by the State Government of Uttar Pradesh. For the said purpose, it should not be taken aid of by the State authorities for denying her otherwise constitutionally guaranteed right of affirmative action.

33. The law enunciated in Special Appeal Defective No. 274 of 2022 State of UP versus Rinki And other 2022 lawsuit (All) 1900 relied by the counsel for the Appellant-Petitioner is fully applicable in the instant matter and as such, we are in full agreement of the same. Nothing has been brought to our notice that the judgement of Rinki & others (supra) is being given any indulgence by the Hon'ble Apex Court and as such, the same is confirmed at this stage.

34. The Additional Chief Standing Counsel so far the factual and legal aspect of the matter, the same is not disputed that the order and direction passed in the judgement of Rinki and Other (supra) is not in his knowledge.

35. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, we find that the case of the petitioner is on similar footings. The order passed by the learned Single Judge cannot be sustained neither on the ground that the caste certificate as submitted by the Appellant-Petitioner was not within the time as stipulated and extended by the recruitment Board, nor the same was not on prescribed format. Accordingly order dated 04.01.2023 is hereby quashed and set-aside.

36. It has been intimated by the learned counsels for the rival parties that the selection process is going on, and as such, it is hereby directed to the competent authorities to accept the candidature of the Appellant-Petitioner being the candidate of O.B.C. category. After considering her merit points which falls under the cut-off as secured by the lowest merit holder of O.B.C. Category.

37. In the light of above, the instant intra court appeal is hereby allowed. The respondents are directed to accept the O.B.C. certificate submitted by the Appellant-Petitioner and proceed with the process of selection of the Appellant-Petitioner for the post Suitable to the Appellant-Petitioner under the advertisement.

38. Let aforesaid exercise be completed within three weeks from the date of production of certified copy of this order before the competent authority.

(2023) 4 ILRA 538
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 10.04.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE OM PRAKASH SHUKLA, J.

Writ-A No. 126 of 2022
alongwith other connected cases

Awadhesh Kumar Singh & Ors.
...Petitioners
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
Rakesh Chandra Tewari

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C.

Service Law - Constitution of India, 1950-Article 226 - Uttar Pradesh Industrial Disputes Act, 1947-Bunch of writ petitions filed, the first category of writ petitions have erupted due to the re-fixation of the pay-scale from 31.03.1989 to 18.05.1994, which has resulted in issuance of the impugned notice/order by the respondents/St., second category of writ petition against notice for recovery of this excess salary paid during the period from this part-time tube well operators and coercive steps for recovery like attachment/with-holding of gratuity payment etc.-Impugned order is in violation of the principles of natural justice as no opportunity of hearing been given to the petitioners, before the pay-scale was re-fixed/reduced giving rise to civil consequences-Impugned orders/ notice quashed-Matters remitted to the competent authority to evaluate the claims of the petitioners bearing in mind the various competing factors & observation of the Hon'ble Court-Competent Authority shall give an opportunity of explanation and/or hearing to the writ petitioners before passing a speaking order in the matter. (Para 13, 14, 58, 59, 60)

Petition disposed of. (E-15)

List of Cases cited:

1. (Sanjeevan Lal & ors. Vs Sate of U.P, through Principal Secretary Irrigation Lucknow & ors.) Writ-A- 22586 of 2019

2. Engineer-in-Chief, Irrigation Department, U.P. & ors. Vs Makrand Singh & ors. Writ Petition No. 1502 (S/S) of 1992:

3. Suresh Chandra Tiwari & ors. Vs St. of U.P. & ors.: Writ Petition No.3558 (S/S) of 1992

4. St. of U.P. Vs Mangra Pd. Verma & ors. Special Leave Petition (C) No. 16219 of 1994

5. Rajendra Kumar Tewari & ors. Vs St. of U.P & ors. Writ petition No. 1820/2002

6. St. of U.P Vs Roshan lal & ors. Review petition No. 26/2012 and SLP (C) No. 5283/2011

7. (St. of U.P & ors. Vs Munna Lal Trivedi & ors.) SLP No. 883/2016

8. (Rakesh Kumar & ors. Vs St. of U.P & ors.) SLP(C) No. 348612015

9. (Kamlesh kumar Singh & ors. Vs St. of U.P & ors.) SLP(C) No. 1696-1697/2016

10. (St. of Uttar Pradesh & ors. Vs Irfan Ali & ors.) SLP (CC) No. 1066/2016

11. (Ramesh Chandra Vs St. of U.P. & ors.) Writ Petition No. 31262/2017

12. Babloo Singh & ors. Vs St. of U.P : (2019) 12 SCC 403

13. Pradeep Kumar Maskara Vs St. of U.P. (2015) 2 SCC 653

14. Kalinga Mining Corporation Vs U.O.I., (2013) 5 SCC 252

15. St. of Pun. & ors. Vs Rafiq Masih reported in 2014 (8) SCC 883

16. Jaswant Singh Gill Vs Bharat Coking Coal Ltd. & ors., (2007) 1 SCC 663

17. Netram Sahu Vs St. of Chhattisgarh & anr., (2018) 5 SCC 430.

18. Kunhayammed & ors. Vs St. Of Kerala & anr.: (2000) 6 SCC 359.

19. (Jai Karan Singh & ors. Vs St. of U.P. & ors.) Writ Petition No. 103/1996

20. (St. of U.P & ors. Vs Vinod Kumar & ors.) Special Appeal No. 548 of 2000

21. Kunhayammed & ors. Vs St. of Ker. & anr.(2000(6) SCC 359)

22. Mekha Ram & ors. Vs St. of Raj. & ors. decided on 29/03/2022

23. Smt. Maneka Gandhi Vs U.I.O. & anr., AIR 1978 SC 597

(Delivered by Hon'ble Om Prakash Shukla, J.)

(1) Heard Mr. A.M. Tripathi, Mr. R.C. Tiwari, Mr. Y.K. Mishra, learned Counsel for the writ petitioners and Shri Ramesh Kumar Singh, learned Additional Advocate General, assisted by Shri Sanjay Sarin, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel and Shri Tushar Verma, learned Counsel for the respondents/State.

A. Introduction

(2) The present bunch of writ petitions is a classic example of litigious employment, in as much as the Hon'ble Apex Court and this Court had been flooded with numerous petitions from "Tube Well Operators' in the past on several occasion raising several issues relating to their service conditions. This Court also had an opportunity to deal with an issue relating to regularization of these part time Tube Well Operators and has passed a detailed judgment on 23.01.2023 passed in Writ-A- 22586 of 2019 (Sanjeevan Lal & 26 Ors. Vs Sate of U.P, through Principal Secretary Irrigation Lucknow and Ors.) and other connected matters.

(3) Although, the issue engaging the attention of this Court in the present bunch of writ petitions is altogether a different issue as juxtaposed to the issue decided by this court in its earlier judgment (supra), however both the cases have a common history. Broadly, stating, the writ petitioners in this bunch of writ petitions were initially appointed as part time Tube Well Operator between the year 1980 to 1990 and subsequently were regularized in due course and most of them as of now have also been superannuated.

B. Brief Background

(4) The issue raised and agitated in the above-captioned petitions had its beginning in the year 1992, wherein the State of Uttar Pradesh issued a Government Order dated 20.2.1992, whereby the nomenclature of "Part Time Tube Well Operator" was changed to "Tube Well Assistant" and their honorarium was enhanced from Rs. 299/- per month to Rs. 550/- per month. The other precipitating issue at that point of time had been the decision of the Labour Court in two cases, bearing Case No. 256 of 1988 and Case No. 20 of 1989, which were filed by some "Part Time Tube Well Operators", before the Labour Court claiming pay parity with regular Tube Well Operators under the provisions of U.P. Industrial Disputes Act 1947.

(5) As far as the aforesaid Labour Court cases were concerned, both the aforesaid cases were decided in favour of the "Part Time Tube Well Operators" vide award dated 15.7.1989 and 1.2.1991, respectively, wherein the Labour Court returned a finding that since "Part Time Tube Well Operators" worked just as hard as regular Tube Well Operator, they were entitled to pay parity with regular Tube Well Operators.

(6) Not satisfied with the aforesaid award of the Labour Court, the State of Uttar Pradesh challenged the same by filing Writ Petition No. 1502 (S/S) of 1992: Engineer-in-Chief, Irrigation Department, U.P. and others Vs. Makrand Singh and others. Simultaneously, other writ petitions, leading writ petition no. 3558 (S/S) of 1992 : Suresh Chandra Tiwari and others Vs. State of U.P. and others, were also filed before this Court, challenging the aforesaid notification dated 20.2.1992, by which nomenclature of Tube Well Operators was changed to Tubewell Assistants and an honoraria of Rs.500/- per month has been fixed in lieu of pay. A Co-ordinate Bench of this Court has decided the aforesaid writ petitions by a common judgment and order dated 18.5.1994. The operative portion of the order dated 18.5.1994 reads as under :-

"In the result, I allow all the writ petitions except Writ Petition No. 1502 (S/S) of 1992 and quash the Notification dated 20.2.1992 (as contained in Annexure-I to the Writ Petition No. 3558 (S/S) of 1992) by which nomenclature of the petitioners has been changed to that of tubewell assistants and honoraria of Rs.550/- per month has been fixed. The opposite parties are directed to pay all the petitioners the same emoluments i.e. in the same scale of pay in which other regularly appointed tubewell operators are being paid.

Writ Petition No. 1502 (S/S) of 1992 filed by the State, Engineer-in-Chief, Irrigation Department, U.P. and others Vs. Makrand Singh and others, is dismissed."

(7) The aforesaid judgment and order dated 18.05.1994 was challenged by the State of U.P. by filing Special Leave Petition (C) No. 16219 of 19994 : State of U.P. Vs. Mangra Pd. Verma and others, before the Hon'ble Supreme Court, which was dismissed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court on 22.03.1995, observing therein that the duties, qualifications, and hours of working of the "Part Time Tube Well Operators" are similar to that of regular Tube Well Operators and thus based on the principal of "equal pay for equal work', the Apex Court dismissed the SLP of the State. Even, the Review Petitions No. 1894 to 1897 of 1992 filed by the State seeking review of the aforesaid judgment and order dated 22.03.1995, was dismissed on 18.10.1995.

(8) In compliance of the aforesaid order of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, the State of U.P, issued an order on 27.10.1995, followed by another order on 10.11.1995, providing the same emoluments of pay, which were given to the regular Tube Well Operators to a "Part Time Tube Well Operators", who were covered by the said judgment and order dated 18.5.1994 and other similarly situated petitioners. It may be noted that the Government Order dated 27.10.1995 was issued for all those persons who were covered by the judgment and order dated 18.05.1994, whereas Government Order dated 10.11.1995 was issued for persons covered by the order of the Labour Court.

(9) Apparently, Part Time Tube Well Operators, who were covered by the judgment passed in Suresh Chandra Tewari's case, were given regular pay scale as that of a regular part time Tube Well Operator with effect from 18.05.1994, however, as far as the part time Tube Well Operators, who had the award of Labour Court in their favour, were given regular pay scale as that of the regular part time Tube Well Operator from 31.03.1989 or from the date of their respective appointment.

(10) There had been a controversy related to the date from which the regular pay-scale as that of the regular Tube Well Operator was applicable to the part time Tube Well Operators. Some of the part time Tube Well Operators claimed that they were entitled from 31.03.1989 and as such filed writ petition before this court, which was allowed by a Co-ordinate Benche of this Court. Although, the State has filed a review, however during the pendency of the said review petition, these part-time tube well operators filed Contempt petition for compliance of pay-fixation from 31.03.1989, which the contempt court allowed subject to the outcome of the review petition or subsequent appeal of the State Government. Subsequently, the record reveals that, both the review petition as well as the SLP filed by the State against this pay-fixation from 31.03.1989 to this part-time tube well operators failed. Thus, the State Government was obliged to give the pay-fixation of these part time tube well operators similar to that of a regular tube well operators since 31.03.1989 under the orders of this court.

(11) The whole issue relating to the date of applicability of the regular pay scale or pay-parity of part-time tube well operators with regular tube well operators was convoluted with the passing of incongruous judgments by this court over a passage of time and ultimately vide an order dated 22.01.2016, the Hon'ble Apex Court clarified that all the part-time tube well operators (except those who were parties in the labour court proceedings which culminated in award dated 15/07/1989), shall be entitled to regular pay scale only with effect from 18.05.1994 in the light of the decision of the High Court in Suresh Chandra Tiwari versus State of UP. (supra).

(12) In view of the aforesaid observation and clarity of the Hon'ble Apex Court, the State Government had started sending notice for re-fixing the pay-scale with effect from 18.05.1994 in place of the earlier date of 31.03.1989, which has triggered various consequences, including filing of the present bunch of writ petitions before this Court. Further, there is a second leg to the issue, wherein the State Government has in furtherance to the aforesaid re-fixing of the pay-scale has sought recovery of salary paid between 31.03.1989 to 18.05.1994 and has also initiated steps to recover the said amount, including withholding retiral benefits, like gratuity etc.

C. The controversy

(13) Apparently, the controversy in the present bunch of writ petitions can be divided into two categories. The second category being the consequence of the first category. The first category of writ petitions have erupted due to the re-fixation of the pay-scale from 31.03.1989 to 18.05.1994, which has resulted in issuance of the impugned notice/order by the respondents/State. The following writ petitions would come within the "first category":

Sr. No.	Details of Writ Petitions	Date of Impugned Order sought to be challenged
(i)	Writ Petition-A-No. 5188/2017 (Rajender Kr. Tiwari & 56 others vs. State of U.P. and others)	02.02.2017
(ii)	Writ Petition-A-No. 13913/2017 (Ramesh Chandra & 5 others vs. State of U.P. and others)	02.02.2017
(iii)	Writ Petition-A-No. 13982/2017 (Vijay Shankar & 69 others vs. State of U.P. and others)	19.05.2017 & 26.05.2017
(iv)	Writ Petition-A-No. 14929/2017 (Mithilesh Chandra Pandey & 6 others vs. State of U.P. and others)	08.05.2017
(v)	Writ Petition-A-No. 16920/2017 (Radhey Lal & 11 others vs. State of U.P. and others)	19.05.2017 & 26.05.2017
(vi)	Writ Petition-A-No. 17658/2017 (Shiv Kumar Yadav & 8 others vs. State of U.P. and others)	02.02.2017 & 19.05.2017
(vii)	Writ Petition-A-No. 28446/2017 (Vijay Kr. Singh & 16 others vs. State of U.P. and others)	08.05.2017 & 19.05.2017
(viii)	Writ Petition-A-No.28793/2017 (Mukhu Singh & 12 others vs. State of U.P. and others)	19.05.2017 & 26.05.2017
(ix)	Writ Petition-A-No. 29077/2017 (Ram Achal & 5 others vs. State of U.P. and others)	19.05.2017 & 26.05.2017 & 08.11.2017
(x)	Writ Petition-A-No. 29933/2017 (Anuradha vs. State of U.P. and others)	19.05.2017 & 26.05.2017 & 08.11.2017
(xi)	Writ Petition-A-No. 30199/2017 (Bharat Singh & 23 Others vs. State of U.P. and others)	30.05.2017
(xii)	Writ Petition-A-No.	08.05.2017

	431/2018 (Aas Mohammad & 7 others vs. State of U.P. and others)	& 19.05.2017 & 27.05.2017

(14) Further, since salary had been already disbursed to these part-time tube well operators on a pay-scale as was applicable to regular tube well operator during the duration from 31.03.1989 to 18.05.1994, the State Government after re-fixing the pay-scale as aforesaid and as a consequence to its earlier order (which are impugned in the "first category' of writ petitions) has also sent a further notice for recovery of this excess salary paid during the period from this part-time tube well operators and coercive steps for recovery like attachment/with-holding of gratuity payment etc. has been taken by the Respondent-state. The following writ petitions would come within the "Second Category" :-

Sr. No.	Details of Writ petitions	Date of Impugned Order sought to be challenged
(i)	Writ Petition-A-No. 744/2020 (Wazid Ali & 3 others vs. State of U.P. and others)	11.02.2019
(ii)	Writ Petition-A-No. 126/2022 (Awadhesh Kr. Singh & 3 others vs. State of U.P. and others)	01.10.2021
(iii)	Writ Petition-A-No. 2377/2022 (Bharat Singh & 6 others vs. State of U.P. and others)	18.08.2021

D. Contention of the parties

(15) Since common issue has been raised as far as the "first category" of writ petitions are concerned, the facts of the writ petition, bearing Writ-A No. 5188 of 2017 (Rajender Kr. Tiwari & 56 others and others), is being taken for proper appreciation of the facts in these petitions as this writ petition is the earliest petition filed in this bunch of matters. Apparently, it is available from records that the petitioners in this writ petition have challenged the impugned order dated 02.02.2017, wherein the pay-fixation with effect from 31.12.1989 was cancelled without providing any opportunity of hearing to them.

(16) As per the petitioners, the effect of the said cancellation had led the salary of the petitioners to be reduced by re-fixing the same with effect from 18.05.1994, which has civil consequences and could not had been passed ex parte. The petitioners giving a brief background of the case, contended that they were initially appointed as "part time Tube Well Operators" and vide notification dated 20.02.1992, they were re-designated as "Tube Well Assistant" with a fixed honorarium of Rs. 550/- per month and presently all of them were working in a pay scale, which is Class-III non-gazetted post.

(17) It is the case of the petitioner that some of the part time Tube Well Operators raised an industrial dispute in connection with the payment of wages, which was awarded in favour of the part time Tube Well Operator by the Labour Court, leading to challenge the same before this Court in Writ No. 1502 (S/S) 1992 by the respondents/State. Number of similar cases came to be filed by other Tube Well Operators before this Court also, challenging the aforesaid notification dated 20.02.1992 and the fixed honorarium and claiming equal pay as that of the regularly appointed Tube Well Operators. These bunch of writ petitions was decided by means of an order dated 18.05.1994 passed in writ petition no. 3558/1992 : Suresh Chandra Tewai and Others Vs State of U.P & Ors., wherein this Court held that part time Tube Well Operators were entitled for equal pay as that of regularly appointed Tube Well Operators and the notification dated 20.02.1992 was also quashed. The respondent/State, although filed special appeal and special leave petition against the said order, however, the same was dismissed.

(18) In the meantime, some part time tube well operators approached this Court and claimed regular pay scale with effect from the date of the Labour Court award and as such claimed the benefit from 31.03.1989 as had been given to some part time tube well operators, which was allowed by a Co-ordinate Bench of this Court.

(19) The petitioners also approached this Court vide writ petition No. 1820/2002 (Rajendra Kumar Tewari & 88 others V/s State of U.P & Others) claiming payment of arrears of salary with effect from 31.03.1989 on the same pay scale as applicable to regular pay scale tube well operators, which was disposed of vide order dated 23.02.2010 on the basis of another order dated 21.12.2000 passed in Writ Petition no. 7489 (S/S)/2000 (Awadhesh Kr. Singh Case) (hereinafter to be referred as "secondary order"), which in turn was decided on the basis of another order dated 18.05.1994 passed in Writ No. 3558/1992 (SS) (hereinafter to be referred as "Primary order").

(20) Since, the order passed by this court was not complied, the petitioner invoked the contempt jurisdiction of this court, wherein the competent authority vide an order dated 06.08.2012 complied with the judgment & order passed by the Hon'ble Court, thereby providing pay scale to the petitioner with effect from 31.03.1989, however the same was subject to final decision of review petition and other similar matters pending before the Hon'ble Supreme Court being review petition No. 26/2012 and SLP (C) No. 5283/2011 (State of U.P Vs Roshan lal & Ors.), filed in similarly circumstanced matter. It is reported that both the review as well as the SLP was dismissed vide order dated 19.11.2013 and 11.08.2014 respectively.

(21) Further, it has been stated by the petitioners that SLP (c) No. 1170/2016, preferred by the State, against order dated 23.02.2010 in Writ Petition No.1820 (S/S) of 2002 (Rajendra Kr. Tiwari vs. State of U.P. and others) was also dismissed vide order dated 22.01.2016, wherein it has been clarified that except for 73 Tube Well Operators covered by the Labour Court award, all other Tube Well Operators shall be entitled for regular pay scale with effect from 18.05.1994 i.e the passing of the order by a Co-ordinate Bench of this Court in Suresh Chandra Tiwari Vs State of U.P. (supra). Thus, it has been submitted by the petitioners that service benefits had been granted with effect from 31.03.1989 in the aforesaid background.

(22) It has been claimed that the impugned letter dated 12.02.2017 has led to reduction of salary of the petitioners between 2000/- to 3,000/- and are of civil consequences and ought not to have been passed by the respondents without affording an opportunity of hearing. Thus, they claim that the impugned order is in violation of the principles of natural justice.

(23) Counter-affidavit was filed by the State, enumerating the facts leading to the passing of the impugned order. According to them, after the passing of order dated 18.05.1994 in the Suresh Chandra Tewari's case by a Co-ordinate Bench of this Court, the State filed SLP No. 16219/1994, which was dismissed vide order dated 22.03.995, against which a review was also preferred, which was also dismissed vide order dated18.10.1995. Thus, the State, in compliance of the order passed by this Court, issued an order dated 27.10.1995 providing pay scale of tube well operators to all the petitioners covered by judgment and order dated 18.5.1994 from the said date of judgment. Subsequently, another Government Order was issued on 10.11.1995, wherein those persons, who were covered by the award of the Labour Court dated 15.07.1988 were given benefit of regular pay scale of tube well operator w.e.f. 31.03.1989. It is the submission of the respondents/State in their counter-affidavit that subsequently, several litigation came to be filed by various tube well operators, claiming benefit of pay scale of regular tube well operators w.e.f. 31.03.1989 or from the date of their initial appointment, which was allowed by this Court and pursuant to contempt petition filed by some tube well operators, the benefit was given of pay-scale w.e.f. 31.03.1989, subject to the outcome of review and appeal before the Hon'ble Supreme Court.

(24) It has been stated, further by the State that in some cases, appeal filed before the Hon'ble Supreme Court was also dismissed, however, vide order dated 22.01.2016, the Hon'ble Supreme Court, while deciding a bunch of SLP's tagged along with SLP No. 883/2016 (State of U.P & Ors. V/s Munna Lal Trivedi & Ors.), the Apex Court clarified that except for the tube well operators, who are covered by the order of Labour Court, the other tube well operators shall be entitled for regular pay scale with effect from 18.05.1994 only. To the similar effect is the Order dated 04.01.2016 passed in SLP(C) No. 348612015 (Rakesh Kumar & Ors V/s State of U.P & Ors.); Order dated 29.01.2016 passed in SLP(C) No. 1696-1697/2016 (Kamlesh kumar Singh & Ors. V/s State of U.P & Ors.); and Order dated 201.07.2016 passed in SLP (CC) No. 1066/2016 (State of Uttar Pradesh & Ors. V/s Irfan Ali & Ors.).

(25) It is the case of the respondents/State that the payments of the petitioners were made conditionally as per the order of the Court and as such, after passing the judgment and order by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, when the issue stood clarified, their order relating to re-fixing of the pay-scale and consequent recovery is well justified. It was stated that in case recovery was not made from the petitioners, the other similarly situated persons about 14990, would demand payment of salary from the date when the salary was paid to the petitioners and the burden of which would come on the State for about 600 Crores.

(26) In the second set of writ petition, it has been alleged that although the aforesaid interim order was made over to the respondents, however, they ignored the same and passed the impugned order of recovery from pension/gratuity. It is common ground that the said order of recovery has been passed ex parte and without providing any opportunity of hearing to the petitioners in breach of principles of natural justice. It is also alleged that these petitioners are low paid employee and if the aforesaid amount is allowed to be recovered, they would suffer great financial constraint and hardship. They also relied on the order of this Court dated 08.01.2018 passed in Writ Petition No. 31262/2017 (Ramesh Chandra Vs. State of U.P. and others), whereby similar impugned order was set-aside and it was left open to the respondents to pass fresh orders.

(27) Counter-Affidavit was filed on 06.03.2020 by the respondents, narrating the admitted facts and the litigation between the parties. It has been submitted by the respondents that after having been regularized on the post of tube well operators and on attaining the age of superannuation, the petitioners have retired from the services and as such just in order to protect the money of the public exchequer the amount as mentioned in the impugned order has been withheld from the gratuity, although the remaining dues as well as pension was being paid to the petitioners regularly. It has been submitted that the amount has been withheld subject to the decision of the writ petition No. 5188 (S/S) of 2017.

E. Arguments of the parties

(28) Mr. A.M. Tripathi, Mr. R.C. Tiwari, Mr. Y.K. Mishra, Advocates appearing for the writ petitioners in their usual erudite manner submitted that the petitioners were getting their salary in the said pay scale in accordance with the judgments and in compliance of this Hon'ble Court. The petitioners were not heard before any re-fixing of the pay scale by the respondent and since the re-fixing of the salary resulted in civil consequences of reduction of salary and proposed recovery, a chance of hearing was obligatory on the part of the Respondent/state. They have also submitted that in the present cases not only the petitioners have been getting salary from 31-03-1989 to 18-05-1994 under Court's order, but also the Hon'ble Apex Court has not directed recovery of such payments. Further, they were not a party to the Supreme Court order dated 04.01.2016, in which the Hon'ble Apex Court had given clarification relating to the date of applicability of the pay-scale. According to them, the order granting the pay scale with effect from 31.03.1989 by the High Court has merged with the Hon'ble Apex Court in view of the doctrine of merger and in their own case and in any case, the issue relating to the applicability of the pay scale stands settled and the same cannot be re-opened again as the same would be barred by the principles of res judicata. They also relied on the judgment of Babloo Singh & Ors V/s State of U.P : (2019) 12 SCC 403 for doctrine of merger and Judgment passed by Apex Court in (i) Pradeep Kumar Maskara Vs State of U.P. (2015) 2 SCC 653 & (ii) Kalinga Mining Corporation Vs. Union of India, (2013) 5 SCC 252 for principle of res judicata.

(29) A second line of argument has also been taken by the learned Counsel for the petitioners that as a consequence to the revision of the pay-scale, the salary of the petitioners have not only reduced but now the Government has issued notices for recovery of the excess payment made during the period of 31.03.1989 to 18.05.1994 and in that directions has also illegally withheld the gratuity amount payable to them. They have relied on the case of State of Punjab and others Versus Rafiq Masih reported in 2014 (8) SCC 883 to submit that since tube well operators are Class-III employees, the salary paid is not recoverable. Further, according to the learned Counsel, withholding of amount of gratuity is absolutely in violation of provisions of payment of Gratuity Act and even otherwise the gratuity of petitioners cannot be withheld except in accordance with the provisions of Regulation 351A of Civil Services Regulations as the gratuity is treated to be the part of post retiral dues. According to them the respondent has not proceeded to take any action against them as per the said regulations and as such the same was illegal. Thus, the petitioners have relied on the judgment of Jaswant Singh Gill Vs. Bharat Coking Coal Ltd. & Others, (2007) 1 SCC 663 and Netram Sahu Versus State of Chhattisgarh and another, (2018) 5 SCC 430.

(30) On the other hand, Shri Ramesh Kumar Singh, learned Additional Advocate General, assisted by Shri Sanjay Sarin, Additional Chief Standing Counsel and Shri Tushar Verma, learned Special Counsel led the arguments on the side of the respondent-State. Written submissions, have been also filed by the respondents. In nutshell, it has been submitted that numerous litigations which also includes the litigation of the petitioners in the present bunch of writ petitions have been concluded by the orders passed in the leading SLP no. 186 of 2014 by order dated 22/01/2016 by which the Hon'ble Supreme Court while considering the bunch of SLP's has settled after looking into the entire history of litigation with regard to the dispute being every now and then raised by the part-time tube well operators with regard to the grant of regular pay scale in pursuance of the judgment rendered in the case of Suresh Chandra Tiwari (Supra).

(31) The doctrine of merger as argued by the learned Counsel for the petitioners, have been refuted by the learned Additional Advocate General by referring to the judgment of the Hon'ble Apex Court passed in the case of Kunhayammed & Ors vs State Of Kerala & Anr : (2000) 6 SCC 359. It has been argued by him that the doctrine of merger is neither a doctrine of constitutional law nor a doctrine of statutorily recognized as the same could be founded on the principles of proprietary in the hierarchy of justice delivery system. The learned Senior Counsel referred and argued that the SLP filed by the state challenging in the petitioner's case had been dismissed in limine and as such the same does not merge with the order of the Single Judge. He vividly relied on the conclusion part of the said judgment. Thus, it has been argued by the learned Senior Counsel that since the order passed on SLP and relied by the petitioners in their own case had been dismissed in limine without any findings, the doctrine of merger would not apply.

(32) It has been further argued that the reliance of the petitioners on certain dismissal order passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in similarly situated writ petitioners would apply with equal force to them is also not correct as it is a settled legal proposition that Article 14 of the Constitution is not meant to perpetuate illegality or fraud, even by extending the wrong decisions made in other cases. The said provision does not envisage negative equality but has only a positive aspect. Thus, if some other similarly situated persons have been granted some relief/ benefit inadvertently or by mistake, such an order does not confer any legal right on others to get the same relief as well.

(33) The learned Additional Advocate General has emphatically tried to bring home the point that since the petitioners have got the benefit of pay scale w.e.f. 31/3/1989 and have now superannuated, thus the respondent/State has withheld the gratuity amount, as it was found that excess payment had been made to the petitioners after passing of the re-fixation/revision order, which was duly intimated to the petitioners. Thus, as such just in order to protect the money of the public exchequer the amount as mentioned in in the impugned orders has been withheld from the gratuity and further whatever the remaining dues were there they have been paid and the regular pension is also being paid to the petitioners.

(34) Further, as to the reliance of the petitioners on regulation 351-A of the Civil Service Regulations relating to the only provisions under the regulations wherein gratuity payable to a retired government servant could be withheld is concerned, the learned Senior Counsel referred to Regulation 922 of the Civil Service Regulations, which entailed that any government dues which can be ascertained can also be recovered from the death cum retirement gratuity and as such it has been argued that withholding of gratuity is legally permissible and in accordance with law.

(35) As to the applicability of the judgment of the Apex Court in the case of State of Punjab vs Rafiq Masih (supra) referred by the petitioners, the learned Senior Counsel submitted that the case of the petitioners is distinguishable and the aforesaid judgment is not applicable in the present cases in view of the judgment recently rendered in Civil Appeal no. 2229 of 2022 (Mekha Ram & Others v/s State of Rajasthan & Others decided on 29/03/2022). Thus, it has been argued that these petitions are devoid of any merits and should be dismissed.

(36) This court while issuing notice to the respondents in the lead matter had passed an Interim order dated 08.03.2017, wherein the current salary of the petitioners was made payable in terms of the impugned order, however, no recovery pursuant to thereto of the amount already paid to the petitioner was directed by this court. It was also directed that the said interim order would be subject to further outcome of the writ petition.

F. Discussion & Findings

(37) Having heard the learned counsels for the parties at length, this court is of the view that the main controversy revolves around the factum of applicability and consequences of order dated 04.01.2016 and 22.01.2016 passed by the Hon'ble Apex Court to the present set of petitioners. The issue is no longer res integra that with the passing of the judgment and order dated 18.05.1994 in writ petition No. 3558 (S/S) of 1992(Suresh Chandra Tewari and others Vs. State of U.P. and others) and 49 others similar writ petitions, the issue relating to pay parity of part time tube well operators with that of regular part time tube well operators, garnered an impetus and the issue was finally set at rest with the dismissal of the Appeal filed by the Respondent/State before the Division bench of this Court as well as the Hon'ble Apex Court vide SLP(C) No. 16219/1994 decided on 22.03.1995. Further, even the review petition filed against the said order of the Hon'ble Apex Court stands dismissed vide an order dated 18.10.1995 with the observation of the principal of "Equal pay for Equal Work".

(38) Apparently, the Government of U.P issued an order on 27.10.1995 providing the same pay-scale, which were given to the regular Tube well operators, to all the petitioners (part time tube-well operators) covered by judgment and order dated 18.5.1994 passed by this Hon'ble Court from the date of judgment i.e. 18.5.1994 only. A separate Government order dated 10.11.1995 was also issued, giving same pay-scale, for all those persons, who were covered by the labour court Award.

(39) Further, after the issuance of aforesaid Government orders, several writ petitions including Writ Petition No. 103/1996 (Jai Karan Singh & Others Vs State of U.P. & Others), came to be filed before this court by similarly situated part time tube well operators and their associations, which were all allowed vide an Order dated 25.04.1996 by a single Bench of this court, granting the benefit of pay-parity as that of the Suresh Chand Tiwari case with prospective effect. However, it seemed this part time tube well operators (as well as the association) were not happy with the said judgment of the Single Judge as far as it held the benefit of regular pay-parity prospectively and as such filed appeals before a division bench of this court. The Division bench of this court vide an order 04.12.1998 acceded to the request of these tube well operators and modified the order of the Single Judge to the extent that the benefit of pay-parity would be available from the date of passing of the judgment of the Suresh Chand Tewari Case. Thus, regular pay came to be paid to all the similarly situated tube well operators with effect from 18.05.1994 only.

The conundrum relating to the effective date

(40) In view of the Judgment of the Division Bench (mentioned supra), prima-facie it seemed by the year 1999-2000 the issue with regard to the date of applicability of the benefit arising out of the Suresh Chand Tewari Case stood settled. However, apparently, the whole confusion started, after some six years, with the filing of a writ petition No. 7489 (S/S) of 2000 (Awadhesh Kumar Singh & Ors Vs State of U.P & Ors.) before this court ("Secondary Order"). The said writ petition was decided on the very first date on 21.12.2000, wherein a Single Judge of this court granted the benefit of regular pay scale to the petitioners of the said writ petition with effect from 31.03.1989 and not from 18.05.1994, although the order mentioned that the relief was granted in terms of Suresh Chand Tewari Case. The confusion was further aggravated, when the special appeal filed by the State of U.P against the said order of the Single Judge was dismissed vide order dated 22.05.2009 by the Division Bench of this court and even the review order was also dismissed vide order dated 20.07.2010.

(41) Although the State of U.P filed an SLP (Civil) No. 17690/2010 against the orders of Division Bench, however the same was dismissed by the Hon'ble Apex Court vide an order dated 29.11.2010 on the ground of delay. Even the review preferred before the Apex court was dismissed vide order dated 13.10.2011.

(42) Thus, the confusion which started with the passing of order dated 21.12.2000 in the Awadhesh Kumar Singh case reached its zenith with the dismissal of the review order by the Hon'ble Apex Court, however it is apparent from the records that in Awadhesh Kumar Singh Case, the Single Bench noted & referred to order/judgment dated 30.05.1997 modified vide order dated 23.03.1999 passed by the Hon'ble High Court at Allahabad in Writ petition No. 2679/1993 (Rajeshwar Prasad Shukla & 47 others V/s State of U.P) ("primary order"). In the Rajeshwar Prasad Shukla case, it was directed that the payment would be made with effect from the date of payment of similarly situated next junior to the petitioners, however in modification application it was mentioned that in Suresh Chand Tewari Case the benefit of grant of regular pay scale had been given with effect from 31.03.1989 and as such in view of the said the Single Bench modified its earlier order to give effect of pay-parity from 31.03.1989 vide its modification order dated 23.03.1999.

(43) Apparently, the order dated 04.12.1998 passed by a division bench of this court in Jai Karan's Case (supra) was not brought to the notice of the Ld. Single Judge, which led to the passing of the order dated 23.03.1999 (Rajeshwar Prasad Shukla case), which had a chain reaction as Awadhesh Sigh Case was decided on the basis of the said modified order passed in Rajeshwar Prasad Shukla's case. Further, the issue got more complicated as eventually Awadhesh Singh Case went to the Supreme Court and was dismissed in limine due to delay, although the fact remained that the basis on which Awadhesh Sigh Case was decided was itself overturned subsequently as the State of U.P preferred a special Appeal against the order dated 30.05.1997 & 23.03.1999(passed in Rajeshwar Prasad Shukla's case) before the Division Bench of this court vide Special Appeal No. 548 of 2000(State of U.P & Others V/s Vinod Kumar & Others) and other connected matters which were all allowed vide an order dated 14.07.2000, thereby modifying the order of the Single Judge to the extent that pay parity was given with effect from the date of judgment passed in Suresh Chand Tewari Case.

(44) Thus, the very basis of Awadhesh Kumar Singh's case stood modified vide an order dated 14.07.2000 by a Division bench of this court and the said fact was not brought to the notice of the Ld. Single Judge of this court, which went on to pass an order dated 21.12.2000, which was in per curium. Since, Awadhesh Kumar Singh's case was decided in per curium, the earlier writ petition being Writ Petition (SS) No. 1820 of 2002 (Rajendra Kumar Tewari V/s Sate of U.P) decided on the basis of Awadhesh Kumar Singh's case is also in per curium.

(45) To the same effect would be the other two writ petition being No. 2936(S/S) of 2001 (Roshan lal & Others V/s State of U.P) and Writ Petition No. 4383 (S/S) of 2010 (Aas Mohd. & Others Vs State of U.P. & Others), which came to be decided on the very first date i.e 22/06/2001 and 10/08/2010 respectively. Interestingly, both these writ petitions were disposed of on the basis and in terms of order dated 21.12.2000 passed in Awadhesh Sigh Case. Even in this both matters, like the earlier Awadhesh Singh Case, the respondent/state preferred special Appeals before the Division bench, which was dismissed vide order dated 18.08.2010 (Roshan Lal) and 15.03.2011(Aas Mohd.) and even the SLP filed against this orders vide SLP (C) No. 5283/2011 & SLP (C) No. 13692-93/2012 were dismissed vide order dated 13.08.2014. The review filed by the State also met the same fate of dismissal vide order dated 18.03.2015 and 01.12.2014 respectively and not to mention the curative preferred by the state in both the matters, which also met with the same result vide order dated 06.08.2015.

(46) If the aforesaid matters were relating to cases, wherein part time tube well operators were granted regular pay-fixation benefit with effect from 31.03.1989, there were several matters wherein the claim of petitioner were declined by this court in the past; to illustrate:

"Writ Petition No. 155 (S/S) of 2001 (Rajendra Prasad Mishra V/s State of U.P. & Others) was filed before this Hon'ble High Court by which the learned single Judge while dismissing the writ petition vide judgment and order dated 26/04/2001 declined to grant the regular pay scale wef. 31/03/1989. The Special Appeal filed by the petitioners in that case was also dismissed by the Division Bench on 23.04.2014.

Although, Writ Petition No. 1818 (S/S) of 2002 (Kamlesh Kumar Singh & Others Vs State of U.P. & Others) came to be decided vide order dated 16/03/2010 along with other writ petitions in favour of granting regular pay-sale with effect from 31.03.1989 and even the review filed by the state was dismissed vide an order dated 23/07/2013. However, on Appeal before the Division bench by the state, the Appeal was allowed vide order dated 12.10.2015 along with 19 other special Appeals.

Apparently, some of the writ petitioners aggrieved by the order of the Division bench preferred various individual SLPS's, which all were dismissed vide order dated 04.01.2016 and even the review filed against the said order was dismissed vide order dated 21.04.2016. Further, identical SLP's including SLP(C) No. 186/2014 came up for hearing before the Hon'ble Apex Court on 22.01.2014, wherein the Hon'ble Apex Court while dismissing the SLP's filed by writ petitioners specifically clarified the entire gamut of confusion and concluded that regular pay scale was liable to be granted only to 73 workmen who initiated proceedings under the Industrial Disputes Act which culminated in award dated 15/07/1989. In the cases of all others, regular pay scale was effective only wef. 18/05/1994 in the light of the decision of the High Court in Suresh Chandra Tiwari versus State of UP. Further, the State was directed to bring this order to the notice of the High Court in the pending cases so that at least in future the High Court be conscientious in such cases."

(47) Pertinently, in the interregnum three more writ petition came to be filed, wherein the Single Judge directed for regular pay-scale with effect from 31.03.1989, which was also upheld by the Division bench, however on Appeal, the Hon'ble Apex Court allowed the Appeal of the respondent/State. These matters being:

Writ No. & details	Single Judge Order	Division Bench order	Hon'ble Apex Cour t

Writ Petition No. 1820 (S/S) of 2002	23/02/2010	Special Appeal Defective No. 12 of 2012 Dismissed vide order dated 19.12.2013	SLP no. 1170 of 2016 Allowed vide order dated 22/01/2016
Writ Petition No. 9138 (S/S) of 2011	20/12/2011	Special Appeal Defective No. 778 of 2012 Dismissed vide order dated 11.09.2014	SLP no. 1069 of 2016 Allowed vide order dated 22/01/2016
Writ Petition No. 631 (S/S) of 2012	02/02/2012	Special Appeal Defective No. 704 of 2012 Dismissed vide order dated 24/03/2015	SLP no. 83 of 2016 Allowed vide order dated 22/01/2016

(48) Thus, this court is of the view that the conundrum relating to the effective date on which a tube well operator would become entitled for regular pay scale i.e whether 31.03.1989 as claimed by the petitioners or 18.05.1994 i.e the date of passing of Suresh Chand Tewari Case, came to be settled as on 04.01.2016 and 22.01.2016 by the Hon'ble Apex Court. The Apex Court while dismissing the Appeal categorically held that those tube well operators, who were not a part of the labour court order, shall be entitled to regular pay scale with effect from 18/05/1994 in the light of the decision of the High Court in Suresh Chand Tewari Case. Further, the Hon'ble Apex Court clearing the entire air and considering the confusion created in the issue before the High Court, directs the state to bring the said order dated 22.01.2016 to the notice of the High court in all pending cases, so that at least in future the High court be conscientious in such cases.

(49) Apparently, since the confusion created has been settled only on 04.01.2016 and 22.01.2016 by the Apex court, prima-facie the writ petitioners who had enjoyed the fruits of earlier litigation cannot be faulted with, especially when the pay-scale having been granted from an anterior date i.e 31.03.1989 was by virtue of a court order. However, the said proposition has a caveat, in as much as this court cannot be oblivious to the fact that the court order by virtue of which Awadhesh Sigh Case came to be decided by the Single Judge and upheld till the supreme court, which has resulted in a chain-reaction and had been the basis of various writ petitions thereafter, was passed on the basis of an order which itself was set-aside by the Hon'ble Division Bench of this court as mentioned supra. Thus, the balance of equity has to be understood and weighed in the aforesaid competing proposition of facts.

(50) However, this court finds that the mere reliance of the writ petitioners on doctrine of merger, to argue that the Respondent/ State could not re-fix the pay-scale on the basis of the clarification order dated 04.01.2016 or 22.01.2016 is not wholly correct, as firstly clarification is always of a proposition which always existed and remained intact. Clarification seems to merely express a view point & meaning thereof in the context of the matter. Secondly, the doctrine of merger would not squarely apply to all those cases decided on the basis of Awadhesh Singh Case, as the SLP'S in each of these cases have been either been dismissed in limine or on the ground of limitation. The Apex Court in Kunhayammed & Ors vs State Of Kerala & Anr (2000(6) SCC 359), in unequivocal terms held that an order refusing special leave to appeal may be a non- speaking order or a speaking one. In either case it does not attract the doctrine of merger and it is only when leave to appeal has been granted and appellate jurisdiction of Supreme Court has been invoked the order passed in appeal would attract the doctrine of merger; the order may be of reversal, modification or merely affirmation.

(51) The writ petitioners have vehemently argued that even if some wrong fixation of pay was made while the petitioners were in service, they being Class-III/ IV employees, the same may not be deductible from their post-retirement dues in view of the judgment of Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of State of Punjab v. Rafiq Masih : (2015) 4 SCC 334 may also be not correct, because any judgment is an authority on the point it decides. Further, in Rafiq Masih case, the respondents (employees) were given monetary benefits, which were in excess of their entitlement. These benefits flowed to them, consequent upon a mistake committed by the concerned competent authority, in determining the emoluments payable to them. In the present case, in hand, there is no mistake committed by the concerned competent authority, but the excess monetary benefits have been given under a court order or rather under a threat of contempt proceedings. It would be refer to a recent judgment of the Hon'ble Apex Court passed in Mekha Ram & Others Vs State of Rajasthan & Others decided on 29/03/2022, wherein the Hon'ble Apex Court vividly held that in case any monetary benefit has been given in view of any court order, the same has to be made good on the principle of restitution as no one shall suffer by an act of the court. The Hon'ble Apex Court in view of the facts & circumstances of that case, granted permission to recovery the monetary benefits accrued due to a court order, however, again there is a Caveat, in as much as in that case the private respondent were still in service and were working in the said organization and the deduction were allowed to be paid in installments. However, in the present case, the petitioners have superannuated and their retiral benefits are sought to be withheld on the name of recovery and protecting public funds. Thus, again a competing proposition has to be determined in the facts of each case, wherein the petitioners although may have superannuated and they belong to class III/IV category, still as to whether the government can go ahead with the recovery of excess payments made to them.

(52) This Court has also considered the fact from a different angle by taking into consideration a holistic view of the notices/orders impugned in these writ petition. It is noted that the Respondent/State, in the first instance issued notice informing the writ petitioners that the excess amount paid to them would be recovered in terms of order dated 22.01.2016 and on the heels of the said information, the Respondent/State pursuant to its aspirations to recover/adjust the excess amount has issued a second notices informing the writ petitioners about withholding the retiral benefits, inspite of interim orders passed by this court. Further, the tearing hurry of the Respondent/state to withhold the gratuity amount cannot be understood in common parlance, especially when the only provision to withhold a gratuity is under regulation 351A of the Civil Services Regulations as applicable to the state of Uttar Pradesh, which prescribes certain stringent conditions, which are not to be found in the present case. Although, the respondent/state has argued that regulation 922 of the civil Service regulations, empowers them to withhold gratuity, however, it appears from the record that the order of recovery/adjustment of the amount from the retiral dues has been passed without resorting to any such rule and in any case, the impugned order of withholding the gratuity amount has not been passed keeping in view the aforesaid regulations as well as the provisions of payment of Gratuity Act.

(53) Thus, the impugned orders passed by the respondent/state has to be tested by this court on the anvil of the aforesaid analysis. However, this court finds that the impugned orders/notice has been passed merely on the basis of order dated 22.01.2016 passed by the Hon'ble Apex Court as mentioned supra.

(54) It is evident from the impugned orders that the very decision of the competent authority to reduce and re-fix the pay-scale of the petitioners have civil consequences as the same has the effect of not only reducing the pay-scale, but also contemplate recovery of any excess amount paid by the respondent. Apparently, these impugned orders have been passed without issuing any notice or seeking any explanation from the writ petitioners. The fact about non-observance of the principle of natural justice cannot be disputed by the learned counsel for the State since no such opportunity of providing hearing to the writ petitions have been appended to the counter affidavits filed on behalf of the respondent State in the writ petition.

(55) It is settled position of law that when a decision is taken which has a civil consequence and would adversely affect the rights of the other party, the bare requirement to follow the principle of natural justice is mandatorily to be followed, but here no such opportunity of seeking explanation or hearing has been provided to the writ petitioners. The opportunity to provide hearing before making any decision was considered to be a basic requirement in the court proceeding. Later on this principle was applied to other quasi-judicial and other tribunals and ultimately it is now clearly laid down that even in the administrative actions, where the decision of the authority may result in civil consequences, a hearing before taking a decision is necessary.

(56) Time and again the Hon'ble Supreme Court has observed that the rules of natural justice operate only in areas not covered by any law validly made. These principles thus supplement the law of the land. In the celebrated case of Smt. Maneka Gandhi v. Union of India and another, AIR 1978 SC 597, it has been observed that even where there is no specific provision for showing cause, yet in a proposed action which affects the rights of an individual it is the duty of the authority to give reasonable opportunity to be heard. This duty is said to be implied by nature of function to be performed by the authority having power to take punitive or damaging action. The writ petitioners obviously have been visited with civil consequences but they had been granted no opportunity to show cause against the reduction of their basic pay. They were not, even put on notice before their pay was reduced by the Authority and the order came to be made behind their back without following any procedure known to law. There, has, thus, been a flagrant violation of the principles of natural justice and the writ petitioners have been made to suffer financial loss without being heard. Fair play in action warrants that no such order which has the effect of an employee suffering civil consequences should be passed without putting the concerned to notice and giving him a hearing in the matter.

(57) Therefore, this court is of the opinion that the impugned notice/order issued/passed by the Authority for re-fixing the pay-scale fails on the ground of non-compliance of principle of natural justice. Consequently, any decision for recovery of the excess amount re-worked by re-fixing the pay-scale and any action taken by the respondent for withholding the reiral benefits has also to fail.

G. Conclusion

(58) In light of the aforesaid discussion, this Court is of the considered view that since the principle of natural justice has not been followed by the respondent/state as no opportunity of hearing has been given by them to the writ petitioners, before the pay-scale was re-fixed/reduced giving rise to civil consequences, the impugned order/notice issued by the respondent in the first category of writ petitions cannot be sustainable in the eyes of law and as such the same are hereby quashed. Consequently, all orders of recovery impugned in second category of cases also stands quashed as being an off-shoot of the impugned order/notice in the first category of writ petitions. However, it shall be open to the respondent/State to issue fresh notice/order to the writ petitioners and take a decision in accordance with law.

(59) Further, it goes without saying that since all the issues which are noticed and enunciated above would merit consideration before the competent Authority, who shall have to evaluate the claims of the petitioners herein, bearing in mind the various competing factors & observation as has been mentioned herein above, it is directed that the competent Authority shall give an opportunity of explanation and/or hearing to the writ petitioners, before passing a speaking order in the matter.

(60) For the aforesaid purpose, the matters shall stand remitted to the competent authority. The exercise of reconsideration may be concluded as expeditiously as possible, preferably within a period of 3 months of the date of presentation of a duly authenticated copy of this order, keeping in mind that most of the petitioners have already superannuated.

(61) The writ petitions stand disposed of in the above terms. There shall be no orders as to cost.

(2023) 4 ILRA 556
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 19.04.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE DEVENDRA KUMAR UPADHYAYA, J.
THE HON'BLE OM PRAKASH SHUKLA, J.

Writ-A No. 2754 of 2023

Union of India & Ors. ...Petitioners
Versus
Jitendra Kumar Bajpai & Anr. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
Varun Pandey, Devrishi Kumar

Counsel for the Respondents:
Praveen Kumar

A. Service Law – Appointment – Eligibility educational qualification - U.P. Board of Secondary Sanskrit Education Act, 2000 (U.P. Act No. 32 of 2000) - U.P. State Universities Act, 1973 - U.P. Madhyamik Sanskrit Shiksha Parishad is a statutory board/body created under the State enactment which clearly empowers the Board to conduct examinations and also grant certificates. To term a statutory Board created under a State enactment to be a Body not recognized, in this case is incorrect. (Para 19, 20)

In view of the scheme of U.P. Act No.32 of 2000, U.P. Madhyamik Sanskrit Shiksha Parishad is not only a body corporate but is clearly empowered by the State Legislature to grant diplomas and certificates to the persons who have pursued the course of study in an institution recognized by the Board or admitted to its privilege by the Board. U.P. Madhyamik Sanskrit Shiksha Parishad is thus statutorily empowered not only to admit the institutions imparting Sanskrit education to the privileges of the Board but also to conduct examinations and grant certificates and diplomas. (Para 17)

Respondent no.1-claimant has to his credit certificate by the U.P. Madhyamik Sanskrit Shiksha Parishad certifying that he had passed U.P. Madhyama Examination conducted by the said Board. Therefore, respondent no.1-claimant fulfills the eligibility educational qualification for appointment to the post in question. (Para 18)

Writ petition dismissed. (E-4)

Present petition challenges judgment and order dated 07.11.2022 whereby application filed by the respondent no.1-claimant has been allowed and the petitioners have been directed to declare the result of respondent no.1-claimant. It has further been directed that in case respondent no.1-claimant is successful in the examination/selection held for appointment to the post of Postal Assistant/Sorting Assistant in the Postal Department, he shall be offered appointment to the post in question.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Devendra Kumar Upadhyaya, J. & Hon'ble Om Prakash Shukla, J.)

1. Heard Ms. Alina Masoodi, holding brief of Sri Varun Pandey, learned counsel for the petitioners and Sri Praveen Kumar, learned counsel for respondent no.1-claimant.

2. By instituting these proceedings under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, challenge has been made by the petitioners to the judgment and order dated 07.11.2022 whereby Original Application No. 451 of 2019 filed by the respondent no.1-claimant has been allowed and the petitioners have been directed to declare the result of respondent no.1-claimant. It has further been directed that in case respondent no.1-claimant is successful in the examination/selection held for appointment to the post of Postal Assistant/Sorting Assistant in the Postal Department, he shall be offered appointment to the post in question.

3. The issue involved in this petition is in a very narrow compass.

4. A notification from the office of the Chief Postmaster General, U.P. was issued on 04.06.2019 whereby limited competitive examination for recruitment to the post of Postal Assistant/Sorting Assistant from amongst Gramin Daak Sewaks was notified for the vacancies pertaining to the years 2015-16, 2016-17, 2017-18 and for some period of the year 2018 as well.

5. Clause 3.4 of the advertisement/notification dated 04.06.2019 prescribed the eligibility conditions, according to which Gramin Daak Sewaks possessed of 10+2 standard educational qualification having passed from a recognized University/Board as on 01.04.2018 were eligible. Gramin Daak Sewaks to be eligible for selection to the post in question for the vacancies of the year 2017-18 ought to be within 30 years of age as on 01.04.2018 if he was a general category candidate and if he was a candidate belonging to reserved category of Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes, he ought to have been within 35 years of age whereas in case of Other Backward Classes, the candidate concerned should have been within 33 years of age. As per provision contained in Clause 3.4 of the said notification, Gramin Daak Sewak having put in minimum five years of service as on 01.04.2016 were eligible for being considered for appointment to the post of Postal Assistant/Sorting Assistant. Clause 3.4 of the notification dated 04.06.2019 is extracted herein below:-

"3.4 Eligibility conditions for the vacancies of year 2018 (01-04-2018 to 31-12-2018)

(i) Educational Qualification : 10+2 standard or 12th Class pass from a recognized University/Board as on 01.04.2018.

(ii) Age : GDS should be within 30 years of age (35 years for SC and ST communities and 33 years for OBC community) as on 01.04.2018.

(iii) Service eligibility : Must have put in a minimum service of 5 years as on 01.04.2018".

6. Similar eligibility conditions were provided for the vacancies of other years as well.

7. Respondent no.1-claimant accordingly considering himself to be eligible made his application, however, when he did not receive admit card for appearing in the written examination, he came to know that he is not being treated to be eligible for making his application for appointment to the post in question which led him to file an Original Application. During pendency of the said Original Application, an interim order was passed by the Central Administrative Tribunal on 11.07.2019 whereby respondent no.1-claimant was permitted to appear in the examination provisionally. In compliance of the said order passed by the Tribunal on 11.07.2019, respondent no.1-claimant was permitted to appear in the examination, however, his result was kept in sealed cover and was not declared.

8. By means of the order under challenge in this petition the Original Application has been allowed by the Central Administrative Tribunal with the directions already noticed above.

9. The sole reason why the Department-petitioners were not treating the respondent no.1-claimant to be eligible for appointment to the post in question according to them is that he was not having requisite eligibility qualification in terms of Clause 3.4 of the notification dated 04.06.2019. As already noted above, so far as the educational qualification for appointment to the post in question is concerned, in terms of Clause 3.4 of the notification dated 04.06.2019, Gramin Daak Sewak, who had 10+2 standard qualification to his credit from a recognized University/Board as on 01.04.2018, was to be treated to be possessed of requisite eligibility qualification. Thus, the only requirement was that the candidate concerned should have passed 10+2 examination as on 01.04.2018 from the recognized University/Board.

10. It is not a case of the petitioners-Department that the respondent no.1-claimant did not have educational qualification of 10+2 pass on 01.04.2018; rather the entire objection of and the exception taken by the Department is that the respondent no.1-claimant has 10+2 examination pass qualification to his credit from the U.P. Madhyamik Sanskrit Shiksha Parishad, Lucknow which was not a recognized qualification.

11. The Central Administrative Tribunal has, however, held by passing the impugned judgment and order that the respondent no.1-claimant did fulfill the requisite qualification.

12. It has been argued by learned counsel for petitioners that U.P. Madhyamik Sanskrit Shiksha Parishad, Lucknow is not a recognized body and as such it cannot be said that the respondent no.1-claimant was possessed of the requisite educational qualification for appointment to the post in question.

13. The aforesaid submission made by learned counsel for the petitioners is highly misconceived.

14. U.P. Madhyamik Sanskrit Shiksha Parishad, Lucknow has been created by a State Legislation known as "U.P. Board of Secondary Sanskrit Education Act, 2000 (U.P. Act No.32 of 2000)". The said enactment received the assent of the Governor of State of U.P on 31.10.2000 and was accordingly published in U.P. Gazette Extraordinary on 01.11.2000. Sub-section (2) of Section 1 of U.P. Act No.32 of 2000 provides that the Act shall be deemed to have come into force on September 30, 2000. Accordingly, in view of operation of the provision contained in Section 1 (2) of U.P. Act No.32 of 2000, the said Act came into force w.e.f. 30.09.2000.

15. Section 2 (a) defines the Board to mean U.P. Board of Secondary Sanskrit Education to be established under Section 3. U.P. Board of Secondary Sanskrit Education if translated into Hindi is Uttar Pradesh Madhyamik Sanskrit Shiksha Parishad. Section 3 of the Act provides that with effect from such date as the State Government may by notification appoint, there shall be established a Board to be known as the Uttar Pradesh Board of Secondary Sanskrit Education. Section 3 (2) of U.P. Act No.32 of 2000, clearly provides that the Board shall be a body corporate and shall consist of various members with a Director who shall be Chairman of the Board. Notification constituting the Board was issued on 17.02.2001 which has been made effective w.e.f. 01.03.2001.

16. Section 9 of the Act prescribes the functions of the Board which inter-alia are to prescribe course of instructions, text books and other instructional material for Prathama, Madhyama and Uttar Madhyama classes in Sanskrit education. Section 9 (c) empowers the Board to grant diplomas or certificates to persons who have pursued a course of study in an institution admitted to the privileges or recognition by the Board and even to those who have studied privately under conditions laid down in the regulations and have passed an examination of the Board. It also empowers the Board to conduct examinations at the end of Prathama, Purva Madhyama and Uttar Madhyama courses. The Board also exercises certain powers to recognize institutions for the purposes of its examination.

17. Accordingly, in view of the scheme of U.P. Act No.32 of 2000, U.P. Madhyamik Sanskrit Shiksha Parishad is not only a body corporate but is clearly empowered by the State Legislature to grant diplomas and certificates to the persons who have pursued the course of study in an institution recognized by the Board or admitted to its privilege by the Board. U.P. Madhyamik Sanskrit Shiksha Parishad is thus statutorily empowered not only to admit the institutions imparting Sanskrit education to the privileges of the Board but also to conduct examinations and grant certificates and diplomas.

18. It is not in dispute that the respondent no.1-claimant has to his credit certificate by the U.P. Madhyamik Sanskrit Shiksha Parishad certifying that he had passed U.P. Madhyama Examination conducted by the said Board.

19. To term a statutory Board created under a State enactment to be a Body not recognized, thus, in this case is incorrect.

20. As already observed above, U.P. Madhyamik Sanskrit Shiksha Parishad is a statutory board/body created under the State enactment which clearly empowers the Board to conduct examinations and also grant certificates.

21. For the aforesaid reasons, we have no doubt in our mind that the respondent no.1-claimant fulfills the eligibility educational qualification for appointment to the post in question.

22. Learned Tribunal while passing the impugned judgment and order has also made a mention of Circular dated 06/10.02.1970, according to which the examinations of Purva Madhyama, Uttar Madhyama and Shastri conducted by Varanaseya Sanskrit Vishwa Vidyalaya, Varanasi have been recognized for the purpose of employment under the Central Government.

23. We may, at this juncture, indicate that prior to creation of U.P. Madhyamik Sanskrit Shiksha Parishad (U.P. Board of Secondary Sanskrit Education), Sanskrit institutions in the State of U.P. used to be affiliated to its privileges by Varanaseya Sanskrit Vishwa Vidyalaya, Varanasi which is a State University formed under the U.P. State Universities Act, 1973. However, after creation of U.P. Madhyamik Sanskrit Shiksha Parishad, all the Sanskrit institutions are now affiliated with this Board and as already observed above, the Board is not only statutory in character but also is clearly empowered (i) to admit Sanskrit institutions to its privileges, (ii) to conduct examinations and (iii) to grant certificate or diploma to the candidates who successful pass the examination conducted by the Board.

24. For the aforesaid reasons, we are not inclined to take any view other than the view taken by learned Central Administrative Tribunal while passing the judgment and order.

25. The writ petition, in our opinion, lacks merit which is hereby dismissed.

26. We have been informed that the result of respondent no.1-claimant has been declared wherein he has been declared passed, however, he is not being offered appointment to the post in question. Thus we direct that in case there is no other legal impediment, the respondent no.1-claimant shall be offered appointment to the post in question within a period of three weeks from the date of production of a certified copy of this order.

(2023) 4 ILRA 560
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 11.04.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE DEVENDRA KUMAR UPADHYAYA, J.
THE HON'BLE OM PRAKASH SHUKLA, J.

Writ-A No. 2755 of 2023

Sachin Kumar Singh ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Gaurav Mehrotra, Anant Khanna, Harsh Vardhan Mehrotra

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Atul Kumar Dwivedi, Lalta Prasad Misra, Rajesh Tewari

Service Law- Constitution of India, 1950- Article 226-Uttar Pradesh Technical University Act, 2000- Sections 7, 8-Writ petition against order of suspension of petitioner who was appointed as Registrar as well order passed by the Chancellor constituting inquiry committee for inquiring into the alleged misconduct of the petitioner- The Chancellor has been vested with the authority to place the officer of the University concerned, in certain circumstances, under suspension and the Chancellor also empowered to order an inquiry which may be thought proper for ascertaining as to whether the officer has misconducted himself within the meaning of 'misconduct' as given in Regulation 2.03 - The proceeding as contemplated in Regulation 2.03 read with Regulation 2.04 are in relation to removal of an officer of the University as defined in Section 7 and that would mean that Chancellor can initiate the proceedings only in respect of his removal from the office of Registrar of the University and not for his removal or for effecting any punishment as a Government servant for which it is only the appointing authority of the petitioner as a Government servant, i.e. the St. Government who can take action and pass appropriate orders-No interference with the order of suspension and the order appointing enquiry committee which are impugned in the writ petition. (Para 2, 11, 15, 16, 17, 28)

Petition dismissed. (E-15)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Devendra Kumar Upadhyaya, J. & Hon'ble Om Prakash Shukla, J.)

1. Heard Shri Gaurav Mehrotra, learned counsel representing the petitioner, learned State Counsel representing the respondent nos.1 and 4, Shri S.K. Kalia, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Shri Rajesh Tiwari for the respondent no.2, Shri L.P. Misra, leaned counsel representing the respondent no.3 and Shri Atul Dwivedi, learned counsel representing the respondent no.5.

2. Proceedings of this petition have been instituted under Article 226 of the Constitution of India assailing the order dated 24.03.2022 passed by the Chancellor of Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam Technical University, Uttar Pradesh, Lucknow (hereinafter referred to as ' the Chancellor'), whereby the petitioner, who was appointed as Registrar of the said University, has been placed under suspension.

Another order which is under challenge in this writ petition is dated 31.03.2023 passed by the Chancellor constituting a three member inquiry committee for inquiring into the alleged misconduct of the petitioner while working as Registrar of the University.

3. It has been argued by Shri Gaurav Mehrotra that the petitioner is a member of Provincial Civil Services and the conditions of his service including disciplinary matters are governed by the provisions contained in the rules made under Article 309 of the Constitution of India, namely, the Uttar Pradesh Civil Service (Executive Branch) Rules, 1982 (hereinafter referred to as 'Rules 1982') and Uttar Pradesh Government Servant (Discipline and Appeal) Rules, 1999 (hereinafter referred to 'Rules 1999'). It has been argued further by Shri Mehrotra that under the Rules 1982, the appointing authority of the petitioner is Hon'ble the Governor and in terms of the Uttar Pradesh Rules of Business, 1975 framed under Article 166 (3) of the Constitution of India, matters relating to disciplinary action etc. of the members of Provincial Civil Service has to go up to Hon'ble the Chief Minister for approval and, accordingly, the Chancellor, not being his appointing authority, is not empowered either to place him under suspension or to constitute any inquiry committee.

4. It has also been argued by the learned counsel for the petitioner that suspension of a government servant can be resorted to in accordance with the provisions contained in Rule 4 of Rules 1999, according to which a government servant can be placed under suspension only at the discretion of the appointing authority and not at the instance of any other authority. His further submission is that disciplinary proceedings under Rules 1999 can be instituted only by the disciplinary authority and not by any other authority. His submission, thus, is that since the Chancellor of the University is not the appointing authority or the disciplinary authority of the petitioner, the order of suspension and the order constituting the inquiry committee, which are under challenge in this writ petition, are completely without jurisdiction.

5. It has further been argued by Shri Mehrotra that the petitioner's appointment as Registrar in the University was made on deputation and as per well settled service jurisprudence governing the disciplinary action against a deputationist, it is the parent department which is empowered to initiate disciplinary proceeding even in a case where the deputationist is said to have misconducted himself while working with the borrowing department. In this view, the submission is that even if the petitioner, who has been working as Registrar in the University which is the borrowing department, was found to have misconducted himself while discharging his functions as Registrar of the University, the authorities of the University including the Chancellor could have apprised the said alleged misconduct on the part of the petitioner to the State Government which is the parent department of the petitioner and it is only in the discretion of the State Government any disciplinary proceeding could have been instituted. In such a view, the submission is that both the orders, i.e. the order of suspension and the order constituting the disciplinary inquiry committee passed by the Chancellor are completely without jurisdiction and, hence are not sustainable.

6. Per contra, Shri S.K. Kalia, learned Senior Advocate representing the Chancellor has submitted that as a matter of fact though the appointment of the petitioner is on deputation in the University as Registrar, however, such appointment on deputation is not to be construed as appointment on deputation in the usual sense of the phrase "appointment on deputation" for the reason that appointment of Registrar in the University is contemplated under the Uttar Pradesh Technical University Act, 2000 (hereinafter referred to as 'University Act 2000') and accordingly his appointment is to be governed by the provisions of the said Act. Drawing our attention to the provisions contained in Section 7 of the University Act 2000, it has been argued by learned Senior Advocate that the Registrar of the University is an officer of the University in terms of Section 7 (e) and further that the Chancellor, in respect of the University, exercises his authority and power as vested in him under Section 8.

7. According to the learned Senior Advocate sub-section (4) of Section 8 of the University Act, 2000 provides that the Chancellor shall have such other powers as may be conferred on him by or under the Act or the Regulations framed under the said enactment. Our attention has also been drawn to Regulation 2.03 and 2.04 of the Regulations of the University, 2010 which fall in Chapter 2 and deal with the officers of the University. According to the Senior Advocate, Regulation 2.03 clearly empowers the Chancellor to remove any officer (as defined and enlisted in Section 7 of the University Act, 2000) after forming an opinion that the officer concerned has either willfully omitted or has refused to carry out the provisions of University Act, 2000 or he has abused the power vested in him. The emphasis by learned Senior Advocate is on the words "after making such inquiry" occurring in Regulation 2.03 and accordingly it has been stated that removal of an officer of the University by the Chancellor can be made after such inquiry as is thought proper by the Chancellor. He has further stated that in a situation where the appointing authority of such an officer as defined in Section 7 of the University Act, 2000 is Chancellor himself, he can remove the officer by passing an order to that effect and in a situation where the appointing authority of an officer of the University is the State Government, the Chancellor can direct the State Government to remove the officer concerned.

8. We have also been taken to the provisions contained in Regulation 2.04 of the Regulations, according to which the Chancellor possesses the power to suspend such an officer of the University during pendency or in contemplation of any inquiry referred to in Regulation 2.03. On the aforesaid submissions, it has been argued by the learned Senior Advocate representing Hon'ble the Chancellor that the submission of learned counsel for the petitioner that the Chancellor does not have any jurisdiction or authority or power to place the petitioner under suspension or to constitute an inquiry committee is absolutely misconceived for the reason that Chancellor has been vested with adequate authority not only to pass an order of suspension but also to constitute an inquiry committee in relation to an officer of the University as defined in Section 7 of the University Act, 2000.

9. The arguments made by learned Senior Advocate on behalf of the Chancellor has been reiterated by Dr. L.P. Misra representing the respondent no.3 and Shri Atul Dwivedi learned counsel representing the respondent no.5.

10. We have considered the rival submissions made by learned counsel representing the respective parties and have also perused the records available before us on this writ petition. We have also extensively gone through various statutory provisions contained in Act 2000, the Regulation framed under Act 2000, Rules 1982 and Rules, 1999.

11. The question which falls for our consideration in this case is as to whether Chancellor has been vested with any lawful authority to place an officer of the University under suspension and to constitute an inquiry committee for inquiring into the alleged misconduct on the part of the officer of the University concerned.

12. It is not in dispute that in terms of provisions contained in Section 7(e) of the University Act, 2000, Registrar is one of the officers of the University along with the Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor, the Pro-Vice-Chancellor, the Finance Officer and the Controller of Examination. Section 7 of the University Act, 2000 is extracted hereinbelow :-

"7. The following shall be the officers of the University-

(a) the Chancellor;
(b) the Vice-Chancellor;
(c) the Pro-Vice-Chancellor;
(d) the Finance Officer;
(e) the Registrar;
(f) the Controller of Examination;
(g) such other officers of the University as may be declared by the regulations to be the officers of the University."

13. The Chancellor, under the University Act, 2000 has been defined in Section 8, according to which the Hon'ble Governor of the State is the Chancellor of the University. It further provides that the Chancellor by virtue of his office shall be the Head of the University. Certain powers have been vested in the Chancellor by Section 8 of the University Act, 2000. Section 8 of the University Act, 2000 reads as under :-

"8. (1) The Governor shall be the Chancellor of the University. He shall by virtue of his office, be the head of the University and shall, when present, preside at any convocation of the University.

(2) Every proposal for the conferment of an honorary degree shall be subject to the confirmation of the Chancellor.

(3) It shall be the duty of the Vice-Chancellor to furnish such information or records relating to the administration of the affairs of the University as the Chancellor may call for.

(4) The Chancellor shall have such other powers as may be conferred on him by or under this Act or the Regulations."

14. As per the aforequoted provision contained in sub-section (4) of Section 8, Chancellor exercises such powers as are conferred on him by or under the University Act, 2000 or by the Regulations framed under the said enactment. So far as conferment of powers under the Act is concerned, the Chancellor has been vested with the authority for confirming every proposal for conferment of an honorary degree and to call for records and information from the office of the Vice Chancellor of the University. In terms of sub regulation (4) of Regulation 8, Chancellor, as observed above, can exercise such powers which are conferred on him by or under the Regulations. Regulations 2.03 and 2.04 of the Regulations framed under the Gautam Buddh Technical University, 2010 are relevant which are extracted hereinbelow :-

"2.03 If in the opinion of the Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor or any other Officer of the University willfully omits or refuses to carry out the provisions of the Act, or abuses the powers vested in him and if it appears to the Chancellor that the continuance of such officer in the office is detrimental to the interests of the University, the Chancellor may, after making such inquiry as he deems proper, by order, remove the said Officer in cases where he himself is the appointing authority or where the State Government is the appointing authority, direct such authority to remove the Officers.

2.04 The Chancellor shall have power to suspend such Officer during the pendency or in contemplation of any enquiry referred to in regulation 2.03."

15. When we peruse the aforequoted provisions contained in Regulation 2.03 what we find is that in a situation where the Vice Chancellor or any other officer of the University (including the Registrar of the University as well) is found willfully omitting or refusing to carry out the provisions of University Act, 2000 or he is found to have misused the powers vested in him or if it appears to the Chancellor that continuance of such officer in the University is detrimental to the interests of the University, the Chancellor has been vested with ample powers to remove such an officer. In a case where the Chancellor himself is the appointing authority he can pass the order removing the officer concerned himself, however, where the State Government is the appointing authority, the Chancellor can direct such authority to remove the officer concerned.

16. Regulation 2.04 provides that the Chancellor will have power to suspend such officer during the pendency or in contemplation of inquiry under Regulation 2.03. We may notice at this juncture that any removal of an officer of the University is permissible under Regulation 2.03 only after making an inquiry as may be thought proper by the Chancellor and only once the Chancellor forms an opinion about the misconduct, as detailed in Regulation 2.03, of the officer concerned. Thus, removal of an officer of the University is not permissible without an inquiry which may be thought appropriate to be conducted by the Chancellor. Regulation 2.04 has to be read in conjunction with Regulation 2.03 which provides that in a situation where any inquiry envisaged under regulation 2.03 is either pending or is in contemplation, the Chancellor in his discretion can suspend the officer of the University against whom the inquiry is pending or is in contemplation.

17. Accordingly, we are of the opinion that in respect of an officer of the University as defined in Section 7 of the University Act, 2000, the Chancellor has been vested with the authority to place the officer of the University concerned, in certain circumstances, under suspension and the Chancellor is also empowered to order for an inquiry which may be thought proper for ascertaining as to whether the officer of the University concerned has misconducted himself within the meaning of 'misconduct' as given in Regulation 2.03 of the Regulations.

18. We may further notice that the Registrar of the University is appointed by the State Government on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed. Section 13 of the University Act, 2000 clearly states that Registrar shall be a full time officer of the University and shall be appointed by the State Government. Section 13 of the University Act, 2000 is extracted hereinbelow:-

"13. (1) The Registrar shall be a whole-time officer of the University.

(2) The Registrar shall be appointed by the State Government such terms and conditions as may be prescribed.

(3) The Registrar shall have the power to authenticate records on behalf of the University.

(4) The Registrar shall be responsible for the due custody of the records and the common seal of the University. He shall be ex-officio Secretary of the Executive Council and shall be bound to place before the Executive Council all such information as may be necessary for transaction of its business. He shall also perform such other duties as may be prescribed or required from time to time, by the Executive Council or the Vice-Chancellor but he shall not, by virtue of this sub-section, be entitled to vote.

(5) The Registrar shall not be offered nor shall he accept any remuneration for any work in the University save such as may be provided by the Regulations."

19. Apart from Section 13 of the University Act, 2000, we may also extract Regulation 2.21 of the Regulations, according to which the Registrar is to be appointed by the State Government on deputation from amongst the members of the Uttar Pradesh Civil Service (Executive Branch). It further provides that in case the office of Registrar is vacant and Registrar is on leave or in a certain other circumstances, the duties of the office of Registrar shall be performed by such person as the Vice Chancellor may appoint for the purpose. The amended Regulation 2.21 of the Regulations is quoted hereinunder:-

"Registrar will be appointed by the State Government on deputation from Uttar Pradesh Civil (Executive Branch) Service. When the office of the Registrar is vacant or when the Registrar is on leave by reasons of illness, absence or due to any other cause is unable to perform the duties of his office, the duties of the office of Registrar shall be performed by such person as the Vice-Chancellor may appoint for the purpose."

20. We may also refer to the provisions contained in Regulation 14.03 which provides that government servants serving the University on deputation shall remain subject to the Government leave rules.

21. Accordingly, as per the scheme of the Act 2000 and the Regulations framed thereunder, though appointment of the Registrar in the University is on deputation, however, this deputation cannot be termed to be a "deputation" in the traditional sense of the word in which it is generally understood inasmuch as the consent of the University, that of the deputationist and the State Government for placing a member of Provincial Civil Service as Registrar in the University is not required. It is the authority available to the State Government under Section 13 to appoint a member of Provincial Civil Service as Registrar of the University. Accordingly, the general rules or law relating to a deputationist in the matter of disciplinary proceedings will have no application in this case. The State Government under Section 13 places its officer on deputation with a University, however, while he remains posted or placed in the University, he is subject to certain supervision and control of the Chancellor under the Act 2000. One of the supervisions as envisaged under the Regulations read with section 8 of the University Act, 2000 is the proceeding which may be initiated for removal of the Registrar from the University.

22. As already discussed above, we are of the considered opinion that Regulation 2.03 read with Regulation 2.04 empowers the Chancellor to initiate action for removal of the Registrar from his office from the University and in that process, it is not only that Chancellor can order for any inquiry, but he can also place the Registrar under suspension.

23. In the aforesaid view of the matter, we are not convinced by the submissions made by learned Counsel for the petitioner that the order of suspension and the order constituting the inquiry against the petitioner in this case is without jurisdiction.

24. However, we may clarify certain aspects which have cropped up during the course of arguments. As already discussed above, the proceeding as contemplated in Regulation 2.03 read with Regulation 2.04 are in relation to removal of an officer of the University as defined in Section 7 and that would mean that Chancellor can initiate the proceedings only in respect of his removal from the office of Registrar of the University and not for his removal or for effecting any punishment as a Government servant for which it is only the appointing authority of the petitioner as a Government servant, i.e. the State Government who can take action and pass appropriate orders.

25. Having observed as above, we also find that there may be a situation where a Registrar appointed in the University by the State Government is found indulging in gross misconduct and in such a situation it is not that he shall be immune for any such misconduct, however, it is not the Chancellor rather the State Government which is empowered and which will have jurisdiction to take action if it is so warranted in the facts of particular case.

26. Learned counsel for the petitioner at this juncture submits that the petitioner does not have desire any more to continue to remain posted in the University and once the order of suspension was passed and charge of the post of Registrar of the University, by means of an order dated 25.03.2023 passed by Vice Chancellor, was taken over from him and handed over to another officer, he approached the State Government with the prayer to treat the order dated 25.03.2023 as the order of his repatriation to the State Government and accordingly it has been prayed that he may be ordered to be placed at the disposal of the State Government.

27. So far as the aforesaid submission and prayer made by the learned counsel for the petitioner is concerned, we at this juncture are not in a position to deal with any such prayer for the reason that in the writ petition no such prayer has been made. It is, in fact a matter between the petitioner and the State Government. We thus observe that we have not considered this prayer on merits at this juncture.

28. For the reasons aforesaid, we do not find ourselves to be in agreement with the submissions and arguments made by the learned counsel for the petitioner and thus are not persuaded to interfere with the order of suspension and the order appointing enquiry committee which are impugned in the writ petition.

29. The writ petition is, thus, dismissed.

30. However, we may direct that the time period as contemplated in the order passed by Hon'ble the Chancellor for completion of the inquiry against the petitioner, i.e. period of three months shall be strictly adhered to. In case the inquiry is not completed within the aforesaid period, it will be open to the petitioner to approach the Court. The petitioner shall, however, co-operate with the inquiry.

31. No order as to costs.

(2023) 4 ILRA 567
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 04.04.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE IRSHAD ALI, J.

Writ-A No. 4856 of 2006

Chandra Prakash Tripathi ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Anurag Srivastava, R.V. Singh, Sanjay Kumar

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., H.S. Jain, Om Prakash Mani Tripathi, Raj Kr Singh Suryavanshi

A. Education/Service Law – Direct recruitment – Promotion - U.P. Intermediate Education Act, 1921 - In view of the schedule of the act and the rules, it is evident that the intention of the legislature is not to give freehand to the Management. It has to send only information to the Inspector and it does not have any authority either in the Principal Act or in the Rules for promotion of a teacher. It is simply duty to send all the information of the teachers who are eligible for promotion irrespective of the fact whether they have applied or not. (Para 18)

The District Inspector of Schools vide letter dated 5.7.2003 asked the Manager of the Institution in regard to position of the sanctioned post of Lecturer in the college in question. Vide letter dated 3.1.2005 the Principal of the institution sent information to the effect that in the college there are five sanctioned post of Lecturer and further the post of Lecturer (Civics) which has fallen vacant is to be filled up by way of promotion by promoting the petitioner. The Manager of the College has sent a letter to the DIOS along with relevant documents as required for purpose of promoting the petitioner. Vide order dated 19.1.2005, the D.I.O.S. Unnao had granted the selection grade to the petitioner on the post of Assistant Teacher. (Para 15)

When the claim of the petitioner was processed and forwarded to the District Inspector of Schools for promotion on the post of Lecturer (Civics) on the recommendation of U.P. Secondary Selection Board, the post was filled by direct recruitment in the year 2006 ignoring the claim of the petitioner for promotion, learned Standing Counsel did not show any documents to establish that claim of the petitioner has been considered. (Para 16)

B. If any vacancy occurs in the promotion quota and any teacher in the institution is eligible for promotion in terms of Rule 14, then he has to be considered for promotion. In case the Management does not send the requisition, there are two options open to the Inspector (i) he can ask the Management to send the information and (ii) in the case it does not send, he can forward the name of the eligible candidates to the Committee u/s 12 of the Act on the basis of the records of the institution as mentioned in Sub-rule (6) of Rule 4 of the Rules, 1998. (Para 19)

Neither the Committee of Management nor the District Inspector of Schools took any decision on the claim of the petitioner. Once the post under 50% promotion quota was vacant, it should have been filled up by promotion. The impugned order passed without considering the claim for promotion under 50% promotion quota is bad in law. (Para 20)

The appointment by way of direct recruitment is devoid of merits in view of the fact that the post of Lecturer in Civics was to be filled up by way of grant of 50 % promotion quota to the petitioner. The promotion is made under the statutory provisions of law u/Rule 14 of the 1998 Rules. Therefore, the direct recruitment to the post in question cannot be made till a candidate for the grant of promotion is available in the institution. (Para 21)

Writ petition allowed. (E-4)

Present petition challenges the order dated 22.04.2006, passed by the Selection Board, letter of the District Inspector of Schools dated 11.05.2006 and resolution of Managing Committee dated 14.05.2006.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Irshad Ali, J.)

1. Heard Shri Sanjay Kumar, learned counsel for the petitioner, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel appearing for respondent nos.1, 3 and 4, Shri R.K.S. Suryvanshi, learned counsel for respondent no.2 and Shri O.P.M. Tripathi, learned counsel for respondent nos.5 and 6.

2. By means of the present writ petition, the petitioner is challenging the selection of respondent no.6 on the post of Lecturer (Civic) treating the same to be filled up by way of direct recruitment, inasmuch as consequential orders passed by the District Inspector of Schools and Committee of Management. It has further been prayed that a writ of Mandamus be issued to the respondents to permit the petitioner on the post of Lecturer (Civics) in the College known as P.L.K.P. Inter College, Kalu Khera, Unnao by way of promotion as the same falls under 50 % promotion quota with effect from session 2001-02 with consequential benefits. It has further been prayed that a writ of Mandamus be issued to respondent nos.4 and 5 to restrain the respondent no.6 from functioning and discharging his duties on the post of Lecturer (Civics).

3. Facts of the case are that at Kalu Khera in District Unnao, there is a society registered under Society Registration Act, 1860 which runs and manages as educational institution in the name of P.K.L.P. Inter College. The institution is recognized under the provisions of U.P. Intermediate Education Act, 1921. The provisions of U.P. Highschool and Intermediate (Collage's Payment of Salaries Act of the Teachers and others Employees) Act, 1971, inasmuch as the provisions of U.P. Secondary Education Services Selection Board Act as amended uptodate are applicable to the said institution.

It is the case of the petitioner that there are five sanctioned post of Lecturer in the instutition. Shri Chandra Prakash Tiwari, on attaining the age of superannuation retired from the post of Lecturer (Civics) creating a substantive vacancy on the post of Lecturer. In view of the fact that the post which came into existence coming under 50% promotion quota, the Principal of the institution sent papers to the District Inspector of Schools for grant of promotion to place the matter before the Regional Level Committee of the petitioner. The District Inspector of Schools vide letter dated 5.7.2003 asked the Manager of the Institution in regard to position of sanctioned post of Lecturer in the college in question. No action whatsoever has been taken on the letter of the District Inspector of Schools by the Committee of Management.

The Principal of the institution vide letter dated 3.1.2005 sent information to the effect that in the college there are five sanctioned post of Lecturer and further the post of Lecturer (Civics) which has fallen vacant is to be filled up by way of promotion by promoting the petitioner.

The Manager of the College has sent a letter to the D.I.O.S. along with relevant documents as required for the purposes of promoting the petitioner to the post of Lecturer (Civics) as the same is to be filled in by way of promotion under promotional quota post.

Vide order dated 19.1.2005, the D.I.O.S., Unnao had granted the selection grade to the petitioner on the post of Assistant Teacher, L.T. Grade. When no action was taken by the D.I.O.S. in the matter of the petitioner for the grant of promotion then the petitioner filed a representation to the D.I.O.S. praying that the petitioner's promotion on the post of Lecturer (Civics) may be kindly considered and necessary order be passed, failing which the present writ petition has been filed challenging the selection and appointment of respondent no.6 by way of direct recruitment.

4. Submission of learned counsel for the petitioner is that the post of Lecturer in Civics comes under 50% promotional quota and it is statutory binding, effect upon the Committee of Management, District Inspector of Schools, Regional Level Selection Committee to fill up the vacancy by granting promotion of the Assistant Teacher in L.T. Grade qualified in the lower pay scale. Requisition if any sent for direct recruitment to the Selection Board through District Inspector of Schools is illegal and contrary to the statutory provisions provided under Rule 14 of the Rules of 1998.

5. He next submits that it is the District Inspector of Schools who has created chaos in the college by sending requisition of the post of Lecturer to the U.P. Secondary Services Selection Board and treating the post of Lecturer in English to be 6 posts sanctioned of the Lecturer.

6. Learned counsel for the petitioner next submitted that there are five sanctioned posts in the institution and at the relevant point of time, three posts were filled by way of 50% promotion and two vacancies were filled by the direct recruitment. He next submitted that the Committee of Management, on consideration of claim of the petitioner, sent papers through District Inspector of Schools to the Regional Level Selection Committee under Rule 14 of the 1998 Rules for the grant of promotion under 50% promotion quota. The consideration of the claim of the petitioner for regular promotion was pending consideration and on requisition sent by the Committee of Management and District Inspector of Schools, the Board selected respondent no.6 as Lecturer in Civics and made recommendation for appointment to the institution.

7. Learned counsel for the petitioner next submitted that once the post is coming from 50% promotional quota and the claim of the petitioner was pending consideration, the recommendation of respondent no.6 was bad in law and being contrary to Rule 14 of the 1998 Rules.

8. Learned counsel for the petitioner next submitted that there are five posts of Lecturer in the Institution namely, P.L.K.P. Inter College, Kalu Khera, Unnao out of which three posts are fell vacant under the category of promotion and two posts are fell vacant under the category of direct recruitment.

9. Learned counsel for the petitioner next submitted on 30.6.2001 the post of Lecturer (Geography) which was under the quota of direct recruitment, fell vacant on account of superannuation of Sri Siddhi Nath Misra but apparently no action was taken for filling up the said post through direct recruitment. In the meantime, on 30.6.2002 another post of Lecturer under the category of promotion quota fell vacant on account of retirement of Sri Chandra Prakash Tiwari.

10. Learned counsel for the petitioner next submitted that when the claim of the petitioner was processed and forwarded to the District Inspector of Schools for promotion on the post of Lecturer (Civics) on the recommendation of U.P. Secondary Selection Board, both posts were filled by direct recruitment in the year 2006 ignoring the claim of the petitioner for promotion.

11. Per contra, learned Standing Counsel submitted that under the 50% quota for direct recruitment only 01 teacher namely Sri Ravindra Nath Bajpai, Lecturer (Sanskrti) was working under the general category and under 50% promotional quota 3 Lecturers were working as such the promotional quota was fulfilled and therefore, the requisition has been submitted by the Manager for filing up 01 post in reserved category of Scheduled Caste and 01 post in reserved category of O.B.C Class, total 02 of posts of Lecturer under direct recruitment of 50% quota and out of actual created 5 posts of Lecturer 01 post falls under reserved category of Scheduled Caste and 01 post falls under reserved category of O.B.C. Class.

12. Learned Standing Counsel next submitted that the aforesaid requisition submitted by the Manager has been forwarded to Secretary, Secondary Education Service Selection Board, Allahabad by then then District Inspector of Schools and in pursuance of the panel receives from the selection Board the Manager has been directed to allow the joining of the selected candidates. Therefore, the action of the respondents is neither arbitrary nor irrational.

13. I have considered the submissions advanced by learned counsel for the parties and perused the material available on record.

14. Vide order dated 8.2.2021, this Court granted time to learned Standing Counsel to apprise this Court that whether there are six posts of Lecturer or five post of Lecturer. In compliance of the order dated 8.2.2021, learned Standing Counsel filed confidential letter dated 13.9.2022 before this Court, wherein, it has been stated that there are five sanctioned posts of Lecturer.

15. Perusal of the record reveals that there are five sanctioned posts of Lecturer in the institution. On attaining the age of superannuation, Shri Chandra Prakash Tiwari retired from the post of Lecturer (Civics) creating a substantive vacancy on the post of Lecturer. In view of the fact that the post which came into existence coming under 50% promotion quota, the Principal of the institution sent papers to the District Inspector of Schools for grant of promotion to place the matter before the Regional Level Committee of the petitioner. The District Inspector of Schools vide letter dated 5.7.2003 asked the Manager of the Institution in regard to position of the sanctioned post of Lecturer in the college in question.

Vide letter dated 3.1.2005 the Principal of the institution sent information to the effect that in the college there are five sanctioned post of Lecturer and further the post of Lecturer (Civics) which has fallen vacant is to be filled up by way of promotion by promoting the petitioner. The Manager of the College has sent a letter to the DIOS along with relevant documents as required for purpose of promoting the petitioner. Vide order dated 19.1.2005, the D.I.O.S. Unnao had granted the selection grade to the petitioner on the post of Assistant Teacher.

16. In regard to submission advanced by the learned counsel for the petitioner that when the claim of the petitioner was processed and forwarded to the District Inspector of Schools for promotion on the post of Lecturer (Civics) on the recommendation of U.P. Secondary Selection Board, the post was filled by direct recruitment in the year 2006 ignoring the claim of the petitioner for promotion, learned Standing Counsel did not show any documents to establish that claim of the petitioner has been considered.

17. It is pertinent to note that almost all the information are with the inspector of the schools. The Inspector from his records can easily find out about the eligibility of the teachers for promotion, date of vacancy and the vacancies likely to fall in a recruitment year. In additional to above, the Board in respect of the direct recruitment and the joint Director of Education for promotion have the power under the provisions of the Act and the Rules to ask the Inspector of submit additional information, which they need in respect of the direct recruitment and promotion.

18. In view of the schedule of the act and the rules, it is evident that the intention of the legislature is not to give freehand to the Management. It has to send only information to the Inspector and it does not have any authority either in the Principal Act or in the Rules for promotion of a teacher. It is simply duty to send all the information of the teachers who are eligible for promotion irrespective of the fact whether they have applied or not.

19. If any vacancy occurs in the promotion quota and any teacher in the institution is eligible for promotion in terms of Rule 14, then he has to be considered for promotion. In case the Management does not send the requisition, there are two options open to the Inspector (i) he can ask the Management to send the information and (ii) in the case it does not send, he can forward the name of the eligible candidates to the Committee Under Section 12 of the Act on the basis of the records of the institution as mentioned in Sub-rule (6) of Rule 4 of the Rules, 1998.

20. Neither the Committee of Management nor the District Inspector of Schools took any decision on the claim of the petitioner. Once the post under 50% promotion quota was vacant, it should have been filled up by promotion. The impugned order passed without considering the claim for promotion under 50% promotion quota is bad in law.

21. The appointment by way of direct recruitment is devoid of merits in view of the fact that the post of Lecturer in Civics was to be filled up by way of grant of 50 % promotion quota to the petitioner. The promotion is made under the statutory provisions of law under Rule 14 of the 1998 Rules. Therefore, the direct recruitment to the post in question cannot be made till a candidate for the grant of promotion is available in the institution.

22. In view of the above, the writ petition is allowed. Order dated 22.4.2006 passed by the Selection Board, letter of the District Inspector of Schools dated 11.5.2006 and resolution of the Managing Committee dated 14.5.2006 are hereby quashed.

23. However, the Regional Level Selection Committee is directed to consider the claim of the promotion of the petitioner under 50% promotion quota within a period of six weeks from the date of production of a certified copy of this order.

24. It is further clarified that the promotion of the petitioner shall be considered from the first day of the year of recruitment and consequential benefits shall also be provided to him.

(2023) 4 ILRA 572
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION

CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 31.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE IRSHAD ALI, J.

Writ-A No. 4952 of 2007

Rajesh Kumar Dwivedi ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
G.C. Verma

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Ashish Mishra, P.K. Khare, R.C. Singh, Raj Deepak Chaudhary

A. Service Law – Promotion/Reservation – Salary – Reservation quota of Scheduled Castes is not applicable against three vacancies available in the institution and in case it is permitted, it will exceed 21% quota of reservation. (Para 14)

In the present case, the committee of management passed a resolution on 19.12.2006 for grant of promotion to the petitioner on the post of Lecturer in Hindi. The papers were duly submitted before the DIOS for its transmission to the Regional Selection Committee constituted u/s 12 of the Relevant Rules. The Regional Level Committee took decision in the matter, which was communicated by the Regional Joint Director of Education vide order dated 25.06.2007, whereby it has been held that the post against which the petitioner has been granted promotion, comes under reserved category of Scheduled caste, as per roster. (Para 4)

The DIOS vide letter dated 05.07.2007 communicated the decision of the Regional Level Committee /Regional Joint Director of Education dated 25.06.2007 and returned the papers of the petitioner for grant of promotion. (Para 5)

The present situation has been dealt with in detail in the Full Bench decision of Heera Lal Vs

St. of U.P. & ors. - There may be cases where there is a rule making provision for different sources of recruitment within the same cadre, then reservation has to be applied to the posts available for being filled up in accordance with the source of recruitment. This issue may arise in the context where a candidate is not available for filling up the post by way of promotion and the same has to be diverted to be filled up by direct recruitment. Such a situation will arrive in cases where the number of posts may be five or more so as to make the rule of reservation applicable. Taking for instance where there are say 8 posts in a cadre and the rule is, as presently involved, namely that 50% posts have to be filled up by way of promotion, in that event four posts have to be filled up by promotion and four by direct recruitment. The rule of reservation for appointment by way of promotion is available only to scheduled castes in the St. of U.P. and no such rule is available for other backward categories. They are entitled to the benefit of reservation only in the process of direct recruitment.

In the example given above where four posts out of eight are to be filled up by direct recruitment one post will have to be given to the other backward category keeping in view the 27% mandate of reservation in favour of such category under the 1994 Act. Against four posts of promotion quota, reservation to a scheduled caste category cannot be granted as there has to be a minimum of five posts for applying the 21% reservation for promotion. In a given situation where no other candidate of any category is available for promotion against the four posts, then such a vacancy to be filled up by promotion may have to be carried over for direct recruitment. This would bring about a change of strength in the source of recruitment thus fluctuating the strength of the post available by direct recruitment. A scheduled caste candidate would therefore, get the benefit of reservation if the cadre strength is increased to five for direct recruitment, even though the same candidate would not get the benefit of reservation if the promotion quota of 50% is adhered to. It would be appropriate to point out that taking a case where there are five posts for being filled up by promotion and five by direct recruitment in the cadre then in such an event the rule of reservation to the extent of 21% in both the sources can be conveniently made applicable without disturbing the ratio in either of the sources. (Para 13)

In the present case, there are six posts, three posts comes under direct recruitment quota and three posts comes under promotional quota. The quota of reservation shall apply separately to direct recruitment as well as to promotional quota. There is promotional quota against three posts only, therefore, roster for reservation of Scheduled Castes will not be made applicable. (Para 7, 16)

Writ petition allowed. The impugned orders dated 25.06.2007 and 05.07.2007 are hereby set aside. The respondents are directed to pay salary to the petitioner w.e.f. 19.12.2006 till date within a period of one month from the date of production of a certified copy of this order. Consequential benefits shall also be provided to the petitioner. (Para 17 to 19) (E-4)

Precedent followed:

Heera Lal Vs St. of U.P. & ors.; (2010) 3 UPLBEC 1761 (Para 7)

Present petition challenge the orders dated 25.06.2007 and 05.07.2007 passed by respondent No.2 & 3 respectively as well as decision dated 23.06.2007 as mentioned in impugned order dated 25.06.2007 with a further prayer to issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of mandamus commanding the respondents to grant approval for promotion of the petitioner w.e.f. 19.12.2006 and to pay salary for the post of Lecturer regularly along with arrears w.e.f. 19.12.2006.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Irshad Ali, J.)

1. Heard Sri G.C. Verma, learned counsel for the petitioner, learned Standing Counsel for respondent - State and Sri Raj Deepak Chaudhary, learned counsel for respondent No.5.

2. By means of present writ petition, the petitioner is challenging the orders dated 25.06.2007 and 05.07.2007 passed by respondent No.2 & 3 contained as annexure Nos.1&2 respectively as well as decision dated 23.06.2007 as mentioned in impugned order dated 25.06.2007 with a further prayer to issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of mandamus commanding the respondents to grant approval for promotion of the petitioner w.e.f. 19.12.2006 and to pay salary for the post of Lecturer regularly along with arrears w.e.f. 19.12.2006.

3. Factual matrix of the case is that a post of Hindi Lecturer fallen vacant due to retirement of one Mr. K.K. Misra under under 50% promotion quota. In the institution, there are six sanctioned posts of Lecturers out of which, three posts of Lecturers are to be filled up by way of direct recruitment and three posts are to be filled up by way of promotion. Out of six posts, one post of Lecturer was already filled up from Scheduled Caste Category and one Mr. Parmeshwar Deen Chaudhary was working on the said post.

4. The committee of management passed a resolution on 19.12.2006 for grant of promotion to the petitioner on the post of Lecturer in Hindi. The papers were duly submitted before the District Inspector of Schools (DIOS) for its transmission to the Regional Selection Committee constituted under Section 12 of the Relevant Rules. The Regional Level Committee took decision in the matter, which was communicated by the Regional Joint Director of Education vide order dated 25.06.2007, whereby it has been held that the post against which the petitioner has been granted promotion, comes under reserved category of Scheduled caste, as per roster.

5. The DIOS vide letter dated 05.07.2007 communicated the decision of the Regional Level Committee / Regional Joint Director of Education dated 25.06.2007 and returned the papers of the petitioner for grant of promotion. The petitioner, feeling aggrieved, filed the present writ petition before this Court, wherein following interim order was passed on 20.08.2007:

"Notice on behalf of opposite parties no.1 to 3 has been accepted by the learned Standing Counsel, who prays for and is granted four weeks time to file counter affidavit. Two weeks thereafter is allowed to the counsel for the petitioner to file rejoinder affidavit. List thereafter.

In the meantime, operation of the impugned orders dated 25.6.2007 and 5.7.2007, contained in Annexure nos. 1 and 2 to the writ petition, shall remain stayed so far as it related to the petitioner and with respect to the post of Lecturer in Hindi in R.B.S.B., Singh Inter College Kamlapur, Sitapur."

6. In pursuance to the order passed by this Court, the petitioner was permitted to continue on the post of Lecturer in Hindi and operation of the impugned orders dated 25.06.2007 & 05.07.2007 was stayed.

7. Submission of learned counsel for the petitioner is that there are six posts of Lecturers duly sanctioned in the institution and under 50% promotion quota, there are only three posts, which is less than 5, therefore, in view of decision of the Full Bench in the case of Heera Lal Vs. State of U.P. and others;(2010) 3 UPLBEC 1761, there shall be no reservation against three vacancies in existence. His next submission is that in case reservation to the scheduled castes is permitted, which is 21%, it will exceed 25%. In support of his submissions, he placed reliance upon paragraph 32 of the judgment in the case of Heera Lal (Supra).

9. On the other hand, learned counsel for the respondents submitted that there are six posts and roster will apply against them. In view of above, one post shall be reserved for Scheduled Castes Category. Their next submission is that the impugned orders passed by Regional Level Committee as well as by the DIOS do not suffer from any infirmity or illegality and are just and valid.

10. I have considered the submissions advanced by learned counsel for the parties and perused the material on record.

11. To resolve the controversy involved in regard to applicability of roster of reservation against three vacancies available in the institution, relevant paragraph of the judgment in the case of Heera Lal (Supra) is being quoted below:

"12. The main plank of the argument on behalf of those opposing the application of the roster, rests on the ratio of the Division Bench decision in the case of Dr. Vishwajeet Singh (supra), contending that there is no occasion for the applicability of the rule of reservation with the help of any roster for scheduled caste candidates, as the percentage of reservation for scheduled castes which is 21%, envisages the existence of a minimum of total number of five posts in the cadre strength for calculating and applying the said percentage. It is urged by them that 21% can be calculated only if there are a minimum number of five posts for offering 21% reservation as it is only then that one post can be reserved for scheduled castes. It is submitted that if the posts are less than five, as in the present case which is three, the mathematical percentage as prescribed i.e. 21% is beyond calculation and there cannot be a fraction available amongst three posts for applying the said percentage."

12. The question referred to the larger Bench in the case of Heera Lal (Supra) is also being quoted below:

"9.....A perusal of the said two Division Bench judgements in the case of Vishwajeet Singh (Supra) and Smt Pholpati (Supra) indicate that the applicability of the roster can be implemented wherever there are five or more than five posts to be filled up where reservation is being claimed under the Uttar Pradesh Public Services (Reservation for Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and Other Backward Classes) Act, 1994.

The said decision clearly lays down : that there has to be existence of more than five posts for the purpose of applying roster otherwise it would violate the law in Indira Sahani's Case as reservation will then be in excess of 50%. Having perused the ratio of the two division Bench judgements it appears that the same has not been noticed in the decision in Mahendra Kumar Gond's case. The decision in the case of Dr. Vishwajeet was rendered on 20th April 09 whereas decision in the case of Pholpati Devi was rendered prior to that.

10. Both these decisions appear to have escaped the notice of the court and the applicability of the roster in the situation where there are only three posts available.

11. In this view of the ratio laid down in the two judgements of Dr Vishwajeet Singh and Smt. Pholpati Devi(Supra) there appears to be a contradictory position indicated in Mahendra Kumar Gond's case and as such the same deserves to be resolved by reference to a larger Bench.

12. Accordingly, in exercise of the powers conferred under Chapter 5 Rule 6 of the Allahabad High Court Rules, the following questions deserve to be referred to a larger Bench, in view of the position indicated above.

1. Whether the roster in respect of reservation can be applied with regard to the promotion in respect of class class III posts in Intermediate College, where the number of posts is less than five?

2. Whether there is a conflict between the ratio of the two Division Bench judgements of Mahendra Kumar Gond (Supra) and Dr.Vishwajeet Singh (Supra) as referred to herein above, and if so, then which of the decisions lay down the law correctly ?"

13. The question, which was considered by the Full Bench in the case of Heera Lal (Supra) is also being quoted below:

"32. There may be cases where there is a rule making provision for different sources of recruitment within the same cadre, then reservation has to be applied to the posts available for being filled up in accordance with the source of recruitment. This issue may arise in the context where a candidate is not available for filling up the post by way of promotion and the same has to be diverted to be filled up by direct recruitment. Such a situation will arrive in cases where the number of posts may be five or more so as to make the rule of reservation applicable. Taking for instance were there are say 8 posts in a cadre and the rule is, as presently involved, namely that 50% posts have to be filled up by way of promotion, in that event four posts have to be filled up by promotion and four by direct recruitment. The rule of reservation for appointment by way of promotion is availably only to scheduled castes in the State of U.P. and no such rule is available for other backward categories. They are entitled to the benefit of reservation only in the process of direct recruitment. In the example given above where four posts out of eight are to be filled up by direct recruitment one post will have to be given to the other backward category keeping in view the 27% mandate of reservation in favour of such category under the 1994 Act. Against four posts of promotion quota, reservation to a scheduled caste category cannot be granted as there as to be a minimum of five posts for applying the 21% reservation for promotion. In a given situation where no other candidate of any category is available for promotion against the four posts, then such a vacancy to be filled up by promotion may have to be carried over for direct recruitment. This would bring about a change of strength in the source of recruitment thus fluctuating the strength of the post available by direct recruitment. A scheduled caste candidate would therefore, get the benefit of reservation if the cadre strength is increased to five for direct recruitment, even though the same candidate would not get the benefit of reservation if the promotion quota of 50% is adhered to. It would be appropriate to point out that taking a case where there are five posts for being filled up by promotion and five by direct recruitment in the cadre then in such an event the rule of reservation to the extent of 21% in both the sources can be conveniently made applicable without disturbing the ratio in either of the sources."

14. On perusal of the Full Bench judgment, it is evidently clear that reservation quota of Scheduled Castes is not applicable against three vacancies available in the institution and in case it is permitted, it will exceed 21% quota of reservation.

15. The argument advanced by learned counsel for the petitioner has merit and the writ petition deserves to be allowed, however, the arguments advanced by learned counsel for the respondents that the quota of reservation will apply against six available vacancies is erroneous in nature under Rule 10 of Rules of 1998. In the case in hand, 50% posts are to be filled up by way of direct recruitment and 50% posts shall be filled up by grant of promotion.

16. In view of the fact that there are six posts, three posts comes under direct recruitment quota and three posts comes under promotional quota. The quota of reservation shall apply separately to direct recruitment as well as to promotional quota. There is promotional quota against three posts only, therefore, roster for reservation of Scheduled Castes will not be made applicable.

17. In view of the reasons recorded above, the writ petition succeeds and is allowed.

18. The impugned orders dated 25.06.2007 and 05.07.2007 are hereby set aside.

19. The respondents are directed to pay salary to the petitioner w.e.f. 19.12.2006 till date within a period of one month from the date of production of a certified copy of this order. Consequential benefits shall also be provided to the petitioner.

20. Parties shall bear their own costs.

(2023) 4 ILRA 577
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 12.04.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SAURABH SRIVASTAVA, J.

Writ-A No. 5335 of 2023

Smt. Pinki Devi ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Sheikh Mozzam Inam, Sri S.C. Dwivedi

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C.

A. Service Law – Inquiry – Loss, misappropriation and misuse of funds - Uttar Pradesh Panchayati Raj Act, 1947: Section 27(2); Panchayat Raj Rules, 1947: Rules 256 and 257.

Jurisdiction - A perusal of Section 27 of the Act of 1947 r/w Rule 256 of the Rules of 1947 clearly shows that surcharge was leviable on an enquiry which was conducted by the Chief Audit Officer and which had to be forwarded to the District Magistrate in the case of Pradhan, Up-Pradhan and Members of Gram Panchayat and to the District Panchayat Raj Officer in the cases of officers and servants of the Gaon Sabha. (Para 9)

Therefore, it was the Chief Audit Officer of the Cooperative Societies and Panchayat who was the officer authorized to conduct the enquiry for the purposes of the imposition of surcharge. If the enquiry was not conducted by the Chief Audit Officer then the enquiry as had been done in this case by the Deputy Director (Agriculture) Basti, was without jurisdiction. When there was no Prescribed Authority as has been referred to in Section 27(2) of the Panchayat Raj Act then the District Magistrate had no jurisdiction to impose the surcharge. (Para 10, 12)

It is undisputed fact that the inquiry as conducted which initiated the entire proceedings against the petitioner whereupon the District Magistrate (respondent no. 3) relied upon and the entire determination has been fastened against the petitioner has been conducted by the authorities other than the Chief Audit Officer or by the District Audit Officers, and as such, the respondent no. 3 exceeded its jurisdiction specifically w.r.t. determining the liability against the petitioner. (Para 18)

It is apparent from the order which impugned the present petition that in spite of taking the specific grounds at the time of preferring the Appeal before the Commissioner Basti, Region Basti (respondent no. 2) there is hardly any discussion available w.r.t. the competency of the respondent no. 3 while determining the loss which has been attributed to the petitioner and as such, the same is liable to be set aside. (Para 19)

The instant matter is hereby decided without calling the counter affidavit from the respondents since the action of the responding authorities are contrary to the settled provisions of the U.P. Panchayati Raj Act, 1947 which have been broadly discussed in the judgment dated 16.12.2022 passed in Writ C No. 28230 of 2022 (Dinesh Kumar And 4 Others versus St. of U.P. And 3 Others). (Para 20)

Orders dated 29.08.2022 and 06.03.2023 passed by the respondent Nos. 3 and 2 respectively is hereby quashed and set aside.

Writ petition allowed. (E-4)

Precedent followed:

1. Smt. Shyam Wati Vs St. of U.P. & ors., 2013 (6) AWC 6339 (Para 12)

2. Uday Pratap Singh @ Harikesh Vs St. of U.P. & ors., 2019 (10) ADJ 443 (Para 12)

3. Ram Vilas Vs Commissioner Devi Patan Mandal Gonda & ors., 2022 (1) ADJ 1 (Para 15)

4. Dinesh Kumar & ors. Vs St. of U.P. & ors., Writ-C No. 28230 of 2022 (Para 16)

Present petition challenges order dated 29.08.2022 passed by respondent no. 3 (District Magistrate, Basti) as well as order dated 06.03.2023 passed by the respondent no. 2 (Commissioner Basti, Region Basti).

(Delivered by Hon'ble Saurabh Srivastava, J.)

1. Heard Shri S.C. Dwivedi assisted by Shri Sheikh Moazzam Inam, learned counsel for the petitioner and Shri Satyendra Kumar Tripathi, learned Standing Counsel appearing on behalf of the respondents.

2. Present petition has been filed seeking the following reliefs:-

"i) Issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of certiorari to quash the order dated 29.08.2022 passed by respondent no. 3 as well as order dated 06.03.2023 passed by the respondent no. 2.

ii) Issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of mandamus commanding/directing the respondent no. 3 not to take any action in pursuance of the impugned orders."

3. It is the case of the petitioner that inquiry has been conducted with regard to certain loss, misappropriation and misuse of the funds which has to be utilized for the public cause under the supervision of Gram Vikas Adhikari, Block Bahadurpur,

District-Basti and the petitioner was rendering her services over the same post.

4. The said inquiry has been conducted by the Committee comprises of District Horticulture Officer, Tehsildar, Sadar, District Basti and Assistant Engineer, D.R.D.A. for ascertaining the fact which is specifically with regard to the irregularities while performing the public work under the supervision of the petitioner as well as Gram Pradhan of the concerned Village.

5. On the basis of inquiry report as submitted by the Inquiry Committee, the District Magistrate i.e. respondent no. 3, determined the loss of Rs. 3,52,083/- and the same has been fastened in equal proportion to be recovered from the petitioner, Ex-Gram Pradhan along with Assistant Engineer, Bahadurpur, District-Basti vide order dated 29.08.2022.

6. Having being aggrieved by the order dated 29.08.2022 passed by the respondent no. 3, the petitioner challenged the same before the respondent no. 2 who has been designated as Appellate Authority in pursuance to the judgment and order dated 06.12.2022 and as such, the same has been adjudicated by the respondent no. 2 under the strict compliance of the directions passed in Civil Misc. Writ Petition No. 18959 of 2022 (Smt. Pinki Devi versus State of U.P. and Others).

7. While preferring the Appeal before the respondent no. 2, the specific stand taken up by the petitioner regarding the competency of the Committee constituted by the District Magistrate for Enquiry as well as the respondent no. 3 being the District Magistrate which is contrary to the Section 27(2) wherein the prescribed authority who is competent to fix the amount of the surcharge according to the procedure has been defined only in the case where the responsibility is fastened against the Pradhan or other member of the Gram Panchayat or Joint Committee or any other Committee constituted under this Act and as such, being the Village Development Officer/Village Secretary, the respondent no. 3 proceeded against the petitioner under the statutory provisions as defined under the Uttar Pradesh Panchayati Raj Act, 1947, for better appreciation of legal issues defined under Section 27 of the Act of 1947 and the Rules 256 and 257 of the U.P. Panchayat Raj Rules, 1947 (hereinafter referred to as "the Rules of 1947") the same are being reproduced hereinbelow:-

"27. Surcharge. - (1) Every Pradhan or [] of a [Gram Panchayat], every member of a [Gram Panchayat] or of a Joint Committee or any other committee constituted under this Act [shall be liable to surcharge for the loss, waste or misapplication of money or property belonging to the Gram Panchayat, if such loss, waste or misapplication is direct consequence of his neglect or misconduct while he was such Pradhan or Member].

Provided that such liability shall cease to exist after the expiration of ten years from the occurrence of such loss, waste or misapplication, or five years from the date on which the person liable ceases to hold his office, whichever is later.

(2) The prescribed authority shall fix the amount of the surcharge according to the procedure that may be prescribed and shall certify the amount to the Collector who shall, on being satisfied that the amount is due, realise it as if it were an arrear of land revenue.

(3) Any person aggrieved by the order of the prescribed authority fixing the amount of surcharge may, within thirty days of such order, appeal against the order of the State Government or such other appellate authority as may be prescribed.

(4) Where no proceeding for fixation and realization of surcharge as specified in sub-section (2) is taken the State Government may institute suit for compensation for such loss, waste or misapplication, against the person liable for the same."

CHAPTER XIII
SURCHARGE RULES

"256. (1) In any case where the Chief Audit Officer, Co-operative Societies and Panchayats, considers that there has been a loss, waste or misuse of any money or other property belonging to a Gaon Sabha as a direct consequence of the negligence or misconduct of a Pradhan, he may call upon the Pradhan, Up-Pradhan, Member, Officer or servant should not be required to pay the amount misused or the amount which represents the loss or waste caused to the Gaon Sabha or to its property and such explanation shall be furnished within a period not exceeding two months from the date such requisition is communicated to the person concerned.

Provided that an explanation from the Pradhan, Up-Pradhan or member of the Gaon Panchayat shall be called for through the District Magistrate and from the officer or servant through the Panchayat Raj Officer:

Provided also that no explanation shall be called for from any member who is recorded in the minutes of the Gaon Panchayats or any of its committee as having been absent from the meeting at which the expenditure objected to was sanctioned or who voted against such expenditure.

Note. - Any information required by the Chief Audit Officer, Co-operative Societies and Panchayats or any officer subordinate to him not below the rank of auditor, Panchayats for preliminary enquiry, shall be furnished and shall be connected papers and records shall be shown to him by the Pradhan immediately on demand.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality or the provisions contained in sub-rule (1) the Chief Audit Officer, Co-operative Societies and Panchayats, may call for the explanation in the following cases:

(a) where expenditure has been incurred in contravention of the provisions of the Act or of the rules or regulations made thereunder;

(b) where loss has been caused to the Gaon Sabha by acceptance of a higher tender without sufficient reasons in writing;

(c) where any sum due to the Gaon Sabha has been remitted in contravention of the provisions of the Act or the rules or regulations made thereunder;

(d) where the loss has been caused to the funds or other property of the Gaon Sabha on account of want of reasonable care for the custody of such money or property.

(3) On the written request of the Pradhan, Up-Pradhan, Member, Officer or servant from who an explanation has been called for, the Gaon Panchayat shall give his necessary facilities for inspection of the records connected with the requisition for surcharge. The Chief Audit Officer may, on application from the person surcharged allow a reasonable extension of time for submission of his explanation if he is satisfied that the person charged has been unable, for reasons, beyond his control, to consult the record for the purpose of furnishing his explanation.

Explanation. - Making of an appointment in contravention of the Act, the rules or the regulations, made thereunder shall amount to misconduct or negligence and payments to employees of salaries and other dues on account of such irregular appointments shall be deemed to be a loss, waste or misuse of Gaon Fund.

257.(1) After the expiry of the period prescribed in sub-rule (1) or (3) of Rule 256, as the case may be, and after examining the explanation, if any, received within time, the Chief Audit Officer shall submit the papers along with his recommendations to the District Magistrate of the district in which the Gaon Sabha is situated in case of Pradhan, Up-Pradhan and Members and to the District Panchayat Raj Officer of the district in which the Gaon Sabha is situated in case of officers and servants.

(2) The District Magistrate or the District Panchayat Raj Officer as the case may be, after examining and after considering the explanation, if any, shall require the Pradhan, Up-Pradhan, Member, Officer or servant of the Gaon Panchayat to pay the whole or part of the sum to which such Pradhan, Up-Pradhan, Member, Officer or servant is found liable:

Provided, firstly, that no Pradhan, Up-Pradhan, Member, Officer or servant of a Gaon Panchayat would be required to make good the loss, if from the explanation of the Pradhan, Up-Pradhan, Member, Officer or servant concerned or otherwise the District Magistrate of the District Panchayat Raj Officer, as the case may be, is satisfied that the loss was caused by an act of the Pradhan, Up-Pradhan, Member, Officer or servant in the bona fide discharge of his duties.

Provided, secondly, that in case of loss, waste or misuse occurring as a result of a resolution of the Gaon Panchayat or any of its committees the amount of loss to be recovered shall be divided equally among all the members including Pradhan and Up-Pradhan, who are reported in the minutes of the Gaon Panchayat or any of its committee as having voted for or who remained neutral in respect of such resolution:

Provided, thirdly, that no Pradhan, Up-Pradhan, Member, Officer or servant shall be liable for any loss, waste or misuse after the expiry of four years from the occurrence of such loss, waste or misuse or after the expiry of three years from the date of his ceasing to be a Pradhan, Up-Pradhan, Member, Officer or servant of the Gaon Panchayat whichever is later."

8. After considering the grounds as taken up by the petitioner in the memo of Appeal presented before the respondent no. 2 for challenging the order dated 29.08.2022 passed by the respondent no. 3 the vital submission in shape of legal issues has never ever been discussed or determined by the Appellate Authority who was exercising power under the orders passed by Coordinate Bench in Civil Misc. Writ Petition No. 18959 of 2022 (Smt. Pinki Devi versus State of U.P. and Others).

9. Learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that a perusal of Section 27 of the Act of 1947 read with Rule 256 of the Rules of 1947 clearly shows that surcharge was leviable on an enquiry which was conducted by the Chief Audit Officer and which had to be forwarded to the District Magistrate in the case of Pradhan, Up-Pradhan and Members of Gram Panchayat and to the District Panchayat Raj Officer in the cases of officers and servants of the Gaon Sabha.

10. Learned counsel for the petitioners, therefore, submitted that it was the Chief Audit Officer of the Cooperative Societies and Panchayat who was the officer authorized to conduct the enquiry for the purposes of the imposition of surcharge.

11. He further submitted that after the report was submitted to the District Magistrate, the order ought to have been passed by the Competent Authority and the learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that since there was yet no competent authority appointed, the order of the District Magistrate was also beyond jurisdiction.

12. To bolster his argument, learned counsel for the petitioners relied upon the judgement of this Court in Smt. Shyam Wati vs. State of U.P and others reported in 2013 (6) AWC 6339. This judgement was cited to show that if the enquiry was not conducted by the Chief Audit Officer then the enquiry as had been done in this case by the Deputy Director (Agriculture) Basti, was without jurisdiction. He further submitted that when there was no Prescribed Authority as has been referred to in Section 27(2) of the Panchayat Raj Act then the District Magistrate had no jurisdiction to impose the surcharge. For this purpose, learned counsel for the petitioner relied upon Uday Pratap Singh @ Harikesh vs. State of U.P. and others reported in 2019 (10) ADJ 443.

13. Per contra, learned Standing Counsel vehemently opposed the prayer as made in the petition and supported the order dated 06.03.2023 passed by the respondent no. 2 by way of raising his argument that the prescribed authority as defined under the Act of 1947 is not defined, but the same has been answered in the verdict pronounced by this Hon'ble Court.

14. Learned counsel for the petitioner while making the submissions very fairly conceded that as far as the jurisdiction with the Deputy Director (Agriculture), Basti, was concerned, it was only the Chief Audit Officer who was authorized to conduct the enquiry. He, however, submitted and also placed a written submission that now when the Panchayat had attained constitutional status and as per Article 243, 243(A) to 243(O) of the Constitution of India there were provisions in the Constitution to provide for a three tier Panchayat system such as the Village Panchayat, Kshetra Panchayat and the District Panchayat instead of the Chief Audit Officer, some more powerful body should be brought into existence. He submitted that further since as per Article 243(I) of the Constitution, a Finance Commission to review the financial position of Panchayats had been formed, on which there was the duty to enquire into the financial deals of the Panchayat then the finances of a gram panchayat should be monitored by a much more powerful body. While making his submissions, he also submitted that under Article 243 (G), there were various powers, authorities and responsibilities bestowed upon the Panchayat, so much so that under Article 243 (H) even powers to impose taxes had been given to the panchayats. He submits that though various amendments had been made in the Panchayat Raj Act, the provision for enquiry for the purposes of surcharge had remained only with the Chief Audit Officer. He submits that the various Panchayat work had to be supervised and had to be audited and there were times that even before the audit could take place after the completion of work, the responsibilities had to be fixed for the works which had commenced and which were not being done properly.

15. Learned Standing Counsel for the respondents however, submitted that so far as the jurisdiction under Section 27(2) of the 1947 Act for imposing the surcharge with the District Magistrate had been questioned, the question was no longer res intergra as now a Division Bench of this Court in the case of Ram Vilas vs. Commissioner Devi Patan Mandal Gonda and others reported in 2022 (1) ADJ 1 had decided that the District Magistrate could impose the surcharge.

16. For substantiating the arguments as raised above, the learned counsel for the petitioner has relied upon the judgment and order dated 16.12.2022 passed in Writ C No. 28230 of 2022 (Dinesh Kumar And 4 Others versus State of U.P. And 3 Others), wherein it is crystal clearly defined and discussed while arriving over the issue with regard to the competency of the District Magistrate to specifically proceed against the officer or servant as prescribed under the U.P. Panchayati Raj Act, 1947.

17. The operative portion of the judgment is reproduced hereinbelow:-

"Having heard the learned counsel for the parties, there is not an iota of doubt that the enquiry which was conducted by the Deputy Director (Agriculture), Basti, was an enquiry which was without jurisdiction. In fact, as per Rules 256 and 257 of the 1947 Rules, the enquiry ought to have been conducted by the Chief Audit Officer and now as per the order of delegation made by the Chief Audit Officer by the District Audit Officers.

Under such circumstances, the impugned order dated 29.8.2022 passed by the District Magistrate, Basti, is quashed and is set aside.

However, the Court suggests that the Law Commission may take up the matter and as per the conditions prevailing now i.e. as per the various powers which have been bestowed upon the Panchayats after the amendment of the Constitution of India by the 73rd Amendment by which Articles 243(A) to 243 (O) have been added in the Constitution of India and the Panchayats have attained constitutional status, a body which has powers to supervise the working of the Pradhans and its officials should be constituted for monitoring of the Panchayats and for supervising the work which is being done by them.

For the reasons stated above, the writ petition stands allowed.

A copy of this order be sent by the Registrar General of this Court to the State Law Commission."

18. It is undisputed fact that the inquiry as conducted which initiated the entire proceedings against the petitioner whereupon the respondent no. 3 relied upon and the entire determination has been fastened against the petitioner has been conducted by the authorities other than the Chief Audit Officer or by the District Audit Officers, and as such, the respondent no. 3 exceeded its jurisdiction specifically with regard to determining the liability against the petitioner.

19. It is apparent from the order which impugned the present petition that inspite of taking the specific grounds at the time of preferring the Appeal before the respondent no. 2 there is hardly any discussion available with regard to the competency of the respondent no. 3 while determining the loss which has been attributed to the petitioner and as such, the same is liable to be set aside.

20. The instant matter is hereby decided without calling the counter affidavit from the respondents since the action of the responding authorities are contrary to the settled provisions of the U.P. Panchayati Raj Act, 1947 which has been broadly discussed in the judgment dated 16.12.2022 passed in Writ C No. 28230 of 2022 (Dinesh Kumar And 4 Others versus State of U.P. And 3 Others) and after footing the action of the respondents in the litmus of the judgment as mentioned above, the same seems to be illegal.

21. In the above mentioned facts and circumstances, the orders dated 29.08.2022 and 06.03.2023 passed by the respondent nos. 3 and 2 respectively is hereby quashed and set aside.

22. The writ petition stands allowed accordingly.

(2023) 4 ILRA 584
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 24.04.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SUNEET KUMAR, J.
THE HON'BLE RAJENDRA KUMAR-IV, J.

Writ-A No. 6585 of 2021

Divakar Dwivedi ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Indra Raj Singh, Sri Adarsh Singh

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C.

A. Service Law – House Rent Allowance – A judicial officer who is not provided residential accommodation is obliged to go in for rented accommodation. In view of the prevailing rate of rent, the smallest accommodation that can be taken may often cost 75 per cent to 100 per cent of the monthly salary, a situation which cannot be countenanced by any logic. It is absolutely necessary that appropriate conditions should be provided for the judicial officer and he should have reasonable mental peace in order that he may perform his duties satisfactorily. Rendering justice is a difficult job. It is actually a divine act. Unless the judicial officer has a reasonably worry free mental condition, it would be difficult to expect unsoiled justice from his hands. (Para 16)

Provision of an official residence for every Judicial Officer should be made mandatory. A Judicial Officer to work in a manner expected of him has to free himself from undue obligations of others, particularly owners of buildings within his jurisdiction who ordinarily may have litigation before him. This is mostly the case in rural areas where outstation judicial courts are located. (Para 16)

Supreme Court has directed that until adequate government accommodation is available, it should be the obligation of the State at the instance of the High Court to provide requisite accommodation for every judicial officer. (Para 17)

B. As per GO dated 27 July 2006, in case of non-availability of government accommodation, the concerned judicial officer may himself/herself arrange for an accommodation on rent, in accordance with law, stature/class of the post held by him/her. The difference of money beyond the prescribed H.R.A. shall be borne by the State Government. It is further stated that issuance of Rent Justification Certificate is for non-residential buildings and not for residential houses/accommodations. (Para 11)

The conduct and approach of the State-respondents in withholding the rent and compelling the judicial officer from repeatedly approaching the district authorities for accommodation not only tantamounts to harassment, but also makes a serious dent upon the constitutional principle of separation of powers between the executive and judiciary. (Para 12)

C. Shetty Commission Report dated 11 November 1999, while dealing with house rent allowance and other related issues observed that housing is a basic need, next only to food and clothing. (Para 16)

D. The State Government vide GO dated 5 October 2020, issued directions to all the District Magistrates w.r.t. allotment of government accommodation to the judicial officer by granting them first preference as against the Executive Officers/Magistrates. (Para 18)

Accordingly, as per GO dated 27 July 2006, petitioner is entitled to actual rent of the rented accommodation. In any case, by the subsequent GO dated 5 October 2020, a judicial officer posted at Allahabad (Prayagraj) is entitled to minimum Rs. 20,000/-over and above the admissible H.R.A. or 18 percent of his basic/level of pay whichever is higher. The arrears claimed by the petitioner would also be covered by the subsequent Government Order. The case of the petitioner, however, is covered by the earlier GO dated 27 July 2006, i.e., actual rent of the rented accommodation minus the H.R.A. (Para 19)

Writ petition allowed. Rent Justification Certificate is set aside and quashed. (E-4)

Precedent followed:

All India Judges Association Vs U.O.I. (2002) 4 SCC 247 (Para 11)

Present petition challenges the Rent Justification Certificate (of the flat rented by the petitioner) dated 21.06.2019, issued by fifth respondent (Additional District Magistrate (Civil Supply), Prayagraj, at Rs. 6,820/-arbitrarily treating the rate of rent at Rs. 10 per square feet.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Suneet Kumar, J.)

1. Heard Shri Adarsh Singh, learned counsel for the petitioner and Learned Standing Counsel for the State.

2. Petitioner is a judicial officer of the Higher Judicial Services of the rank of Additional District Judge.

3. On 4 June 2018, petitioner was sent as Legal Advisor to the Excise Commissioner, U.P. Allahabad (Prayagraj).

4. Petitioner applied to the second respondent-District Magistrate, Prayagraj, for allotment of a suitable residential quarter commensurate to his position, rank and post. The second respondent vide communication dated 13 July, 2018, expressed his inability to provide residential government quarter to the petitioner. Accordingly, petitioner was compelled to rent a three bedroom accommodation (flat) at Rs. 26,000/- per month.

5. The fifth respondent-Additional District Magistrate (Civil Supply, Prayagraj), vide communication dated 14 March 2019, directed the petitioner to obtain Rent Justification Certificate of the rented flat.

6. Aggrieved, petitioner submitted an application against the aforenoted communication, further, an application dated 26 April 2019, was submitted before the Chief Secretary, Government of Uttar Pradesh.

7. It appears that a government quarter being No. 469/4, Park Road Colony, Prayagraj, was allotted to the petitioner, but, the earlier allottee refused to vacate the accommodation which was duly informed to the respondent by the petitioner. Similar was the case with government quarter No. 199/4, Mission Road, Prayagraj, the previous allottee also declined to vacate the government quarter. Thereafter, it appears that the fifth respondent issued the impugned Rent Justification Certificate of the flat rented by the petitioner at Rs. 6,820/- arbitrarily treating the rate of rent at Rs. 10 per square feet.

8. It appears that a complaint came to be filed before the Lokayukt, Uttar Pradesh, thereafter, government quarter No. 199/4, Mission Road Prayagraj, came to be allotted to the petitioner in May 2020.

9. Grievance of the petitioner is that he has not been paid the rent of the flat at Rs. 26,000/- per month from July 2018 till 15 November 2019, thereafter, enhanced rent at Rs. 27,300/- from November, 2019 till March 2020, aggregating at Rs. 5,28,850/-. Petitioner was paid at Rs. 9,018 per month towards House Rent Allowance (HRA), totaling at Rs. 1,89,378/-. In other words, petitioner had to bear Rs. 3,39,472/- from his pocket being the arrears of rent of the rented accommodation. Petitioner claims refund of the amount.

10. In this backdrop, it is submitted that petitioner being a Senior Judicial Officer, was subjected to harassment and had to suffer monitory loss at the hands of the State-respondent. The conduct of the State-respondent is in contravention of the Government Order dated 27 July, 2006, as well as, the judgment rendered by the Supreme Court in All India Judges Association Vs. Union of India1, as the respondents failed to pay the actual rent paid by the petitioner for the rented accommodation.

11. In the counter affidavit, filed on behalf of the second to sixth respondents by the Additional City Magistrate (II), District Prayagraj, it has been admitted that as per Government Order dated 27 July 2006, in case of nonavailability of government accommodation, the concerned judicial officer may himself/herself arrange for an accommodation on rent, in accordance with law, stature/class of the post held by him/her. The difference of money beyond the prescribed H.R.A. shall be borne by the State Government. It is further stated in paragraph 8 of the counter affidavit that issuance of Rent Justification Certificate is for non-residential buildings and not for residential houses/accommodations.

12. In the earlier counter affidavit, district authorities have justified their conduct, when, admittedly, as per the Government Order, judicial officer was entitled to the entire rent of the rented accommodation in the event government accommodation was not available. The conduct and approach of the State-respondents in withholding the rent and compelling the judicial officer from repeatedly approaching the district authorities for accommodation not only tantamounts to harassment, but also makes a serious dent upon the constitutional principle of separation of powers between the executive and judiciary.

13. The State Government issued a Government Order dated 7 July 2006, addressed to the Registrar General, High Court, Allahabad, in compliance of the recommendations made by the Shetty Commission, modifying the earlier Government Order dated 27 January 2006. The Government Order, inter alia, provided that in the event the State is unable to provide government accommodation to the judicial officer commensurate to his status and the officer rents an accommodation, the additional expenses towards the rent would be borne by the State Government. The subject and the amendment reads thus:

"नियुक्ति अनुभाग-4 लखनऊः दिनांकः 27 जुलाई, 2006

विषयः- प्रथम राष्ट्रीय न्यायिक वेतन आयोग (शेट्टी आयोग) की संस्तुति के अन्तर्गत राज्य की न्यायिक सेवा/उच्चतर न्यायिक सेवा के सदस्यों को भत्ते एवं सुविधाएं प्रदान किये जाने विषयक शासनादेश दिनांक 27 जनवरी, 2006 में आवास/मकान किराया भत्ते की उल्लिखित व्यवस्था का आंशिक संशोधन।

संशोधित व्यवस्था

समस्त न्यायिक अधिकारी अपनी पात्रता के आधार पर निःशुल्क सरकारी अथवा सरकार द्वारा लीज पर लिया गया आवास आवंटित करवाने के हकदार होंगे। सरकार द्वारा आवास उपलब्ध न करवा पाने की स्थिति मे शासन के संगत आदेशों के अनुसार सम्बन्धित न्यायिक अधिकारी को मकान किराया भत्ता देय होगा, परन्तु यदि न्यायिक अधिकारी द्वारा स्वयं के प्रयास से अपनी पात्रता के अनुसार किराये पर लिये गये आवास का वाजिब प्रमाणित किराया, उसे अनुमन्य मकान किराया भत्ता से अधिक है, तो अन्तर की धनराशि का व्यय भी राज्य सरकार द्वारा सुसंगत लेखा शीर्ष के अन्तर्गत वहन किया जायेगा।

14. Subsequently, the aforenoted Government Order came to be amended/modified vide Government Order dated 31 August 2021, wherein, the provision of providing Rent Justification Certificate was done away with.

15. Further, upper limit was prescribed towards maximum rent admissible to the judicial officer on renting accommodation in the event government accommodation was not available. The Government Order provides for determining actual rent admissible on the basic/level salary of the judicial officer which would vary from region to region. The relevant portion of the Government Order dated 31 August 2021, is extracted :

"3(1)(ग) उपर्युक्त मूल वेतन के आधार पर किसी न्यायिक अधिकारी को लखनऊ, मुरादाबाद, मेरठ, गाजियाबाद, अलीगढ़, आगरा, बरेली, कानपुर, इलाहाबाद, गोरखपुर, वाराणसी, सहारनपुर, फिरोजाबाद एवं झांसी शहर में तैनाती की स्थिति में उसे सरकारी आवास उपलब्ध न कराये जा सकने की स्थिति में उसके स्वयं के प्रयास से लिये गये आवास के वाजिब किराये की अधिकतम सीमा उसके मूल वेतन का 18 प्रतिशत होगी।

3(1)(घ) लखनऊ, मुरादाबाद, मेरठ, गाजियाबाद, अलीगढ़, आगरा, बरेली, कानपुर, इलाहाबाद, गोरखपुर, वाराणसी, सहारनपुर, फिरोजाबाद एवं झांसी शहर के अतिरिक्त राज्य के अन्य किसी भी नगर में तैनाती की स्थिति में किसी न्यायिक अधिकारी को सरकारी आवास उपलब्ध न कराये जा सकने की स्थिति में उसके स्वयं के प्रयास से लिये गये आवास के वाजिब किराये की अधिकतम सीमा वह धनराशि होगी जो उसके मूल वेतन का 09 प्रतिशत एवं उसे राज्य सरकार के नियमों के अनुसार अनुमन्य मकान किराये भत्ते के योग के बराबर हो। नोएडा में तैनाती की स्थिति में किसी न्यायिक अधिकारी को सरकारी आवास उपलब्ध न कराये जा सकने की स्थिति में उसके स्वयं के प्रयास से लिये गये आवास के वाजिब किराये की अधिकतम सीमा वह धनराशि होगी जो उसके मूल वेतन का 18 प्रतिशत एवं उसे राज्य सरकार के नियमों के अनुसार अनुमन्य मकान किराये भत्ते के योग के बराबर हो।

3(1)(च) उक्तवत (ग) एवं (घ) की निर्धारित सीमा के अन्तर्गत किसी न्यायिक अधिकारी के किराये के मकान का जो वाजिब किराया निर्धारित होगा एवं जिसका वास्तविक रूप में भुगतान किया जायेगा उसमें से उसे राज्य सरकार के नियमों के अनुसार अनुमन्य हो रहे मकान किराये भत्ते की धनराशि को घटाकर शेष धनराशि की प्रतिपूर्ति कर दी जायेगी।

3(1)(छ) यह भी निर्देशित किया जाता है कि किसी भी न्यायिक अधिकारी जिनको सरकारी आवास न उपलब्ध कराये जाने के स्थिति में किराये का मकान लेकर आवासित होना पड़ रहा है उनके लिये वाजिब किराया नोएडा, लखनऊ, मुरादाबाद, मेरठ, गाजियाबाद, अलीगढ़, आगरा, बरेली, कानपुर, इलाहाबाद, गोरखपुर, वाराणसी, सहारनपुर, फिरोजाबाद एवं झांसी शहर में रू०

20,000 की सीमा के अधीन एवं अन्य शहरों में रू० 15,000 की सीमा के अधीन अथवा उपर्युक्त प्रस्तरों में निर्धारित अधिकतम सीमा के अधीन, दोनों में जो अधिक हो, निर्धारित किया जा सकेगा।"

16. Shetty Commission Report dated 11 November 1999, while dealing with house rent allowance and other related issues observed that housing is a basic need, next only to food and clothing. Supreme Court in "All India Judges' case2, in paragraph 33 and 34, observed that provision of an official accommodation for every judicial officer should be made mandatory. The relevant portion of paragraph 33 and 34 is extracted:

"33. Provision of an official residence for every Judicial Officer should be made mandatory. A Judicial Officer to work in a manner expected of him has to free himself from undue obligations of others, particularly owners of buildings within his jurisdiction who ordinarily may have litigation before him. This is mostly the case in rural areas where outstation judicial courts are located.

34. ....A judicial officer who is not provided residential accommodation is obliged to go in for rented accommodation. In view of the prevailing rate of rent, the smallest accommodation that can be taken may often cost 75 per cent to 100 per cent of the monthly salary, a situation which cannot be countenanced by any logic. It is absolutely necessary that appropriate conditions should be provided for the judicial officer and he should have reasonable mental peace in order that he may perform his duties satisfactorily. Rendering justice is a difficult job. It is actually a divine act. Unless the judicial officer has a reasonably worry free mental condition, it would be difficult to expect unsoiled justice from his hands."

17. Further in paragraph 36, Supreme Court directed that until adequate government accommodation is available, it should be the obligation of the State at the instance of the High Court to provide requisite accommodation for every judicial officer.

18. The State Government vide Government Order dated 5 October 2020, issued directions to all the District Magistrates with regard to allotment of government accommodation to the judicial officer by granting them first preference as against the Executive Officers/Magistrates. The relevant portion of the Government Order reads thus:

"3- अतः इस सम्बन्ध में पुनः मुझे यह कहने का निदेश हुआ है कि जिन न्यायिक अधिकारियों को उनकी कॉलोनियों में आवास उपलब्ध नहीं हो पा रहे , उन न्यायिक अधिकारियों को जनपद में जिलाधिकारी के नियंत्रणाधीन उपलब्ध कॉलोनियों में से उनकी पात्रता के अनुरूप आवास प्रथम वरीयता के आधार पर आवंटित करने का कष्ट करें।"

19. Accordingly, as per Government Order dated 27 July 2006, petitioner is entitled to actual rent of the rented accommodation. In any case, by the subsequent Government Order dated 5 October 2020, a judicial officer posted at Allahabad (Prayagraj) is entitled to minimum Rs. 20,000/- over and above the admissible H.R.A. or 18 percent of his basic/level of pay whichever is higher. The arrears claimed by the petitioner would also be covered by the subsequent Government Order. The case of the petitioner, however, is covered by the earlier Government Order dated 27 July 2006, i.e., actual rent of the rented accommodation minus the H.R.A.

20. In the circumstances, the writ petition is allowed.

21. The impugned Rent Justification Certificate dated 21 June, 2019, is set aside and quashed.

22. The respondents are directed to pay/refund Rs. 3,39,472/-, towards the arrears of rent paid by the petitioner along with interest at the rate of 7% per annum from the due date till the date of payment. The amount shall be released by the competent authority of the State within four weeks from the date of service of this order upon the second respondent-District Magistrate, District Prayagraj.

23. Registry to ensure compliance.

24. No cost.

(2023) 4 ILRA 589
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 10.04.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE IRSHAD ALI, J.

Writ-A No. 6907 of 2004

Brijendra Pal Singh ...Petitioner
Versus
U.P. Sahkari Gram Vikas Bank & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
R.B.S. Rathore, D.K. Singh Chauhan, Surendra Pratap Singh

Counsel for the Respondents:
Balram Yadav, N N Jaiswal, Rakesh Chaudhary, S.N. Shukla

A. Civil Law - Disciplinary proceedings - Rules of Natural Justice - Rules of natural justice require that a party must be given the opportunity to adduce all relevant evidence upon which he relies - the evidence of the opposite party should be taken in his presence and that he should be given the opportunity of cross-examining the witnesses examined by that party - Not providing the opportunity to cross-examine the witnesses, would violate the principles of natural justice - Reasoned and Speaking order - an order passed by an authority should be a reasonable one and the objection taken by a person should be dealt with - If no reasons are given in the impugned order then it will not be possible to know as what was going in the mind of the decision making authority on the basis of which he come to the conclusion and passed the impugned order - Disciplinary proceedings after retirement - there is no provision for conducting a disciplinary enquiry after retirement nor any provision stating that in case misconduct is established, a deduction could be made from the retiral benefits (Para 23, 24)

B. Petitioner was initially appointed as Accountant in U.P. Sahkari Gram Vikas Bank - While working at Jhinjhak Branch, he committed certain irregularities - petitioner was issued charge sheet - Enquiry officer prepared the enquiry report without giving any opportunity of personal hearing to the petitioner and without giving him any opportunity to prove his innocence by means of various documents as also to cross examine the witnesses which were sought to be relied upon in support of the charges - Reply submitted by the petitioner was not considered by the respondent before passing the impugned order - Respondent fixed 28.7.2004 as the date for personal hearing and for cross examination by the petitioner, which was sent by letter dated 13.7.2004 – the said letter was not conveyed to the petitioner prior to the date fixed i.e. 28.7.2004 and it was conveyed only on 9.8.2004 through registered letter dated 4.8.20224 much after date fixed for personal hearing and for cross examination - Held - impugned order passed by the respondent in utter disregard of principles of natural justice - As the Petitioner retired from service on 29.7.2004 and that there was no provision for conducting disciplinary enquiry after retirement - respondents directed to release all post retiral benefits to the petitioner (Para 21, 23, 24)

Allowed. (E-5)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Irshad Ali, J.)

1. Heard Shri D.K. Singh Chauhan, learned counsel for the petitioner and Shri Balram Yadav, learned counsel for the respondents.

2. By means of the present writ petition, the petitioner has prayed for issuance of a writ, order or direction in the nature of Certiorari quashing the impugned order dated 29.9.2004 as contained in Annexure No.1 to the writ petition with further prayer to issue a writ in the nature of Mandamus commanding the respondents to release all post retiral benefits to the petitioner, admissible to him as per law.

3. Factual matrix of the case is that the petitioner was initially appointed in the year 1969 as Accountant in U.P. Sahkari Gram Vikas Bank (hereinafter referred to as 'Bank'), joined the said post and continued to work on the post and thereafter, from time to time he was transferred at various places. In the year 1973, the petitioner was promoted to the post of Field Officer. Since 1973, the petitioner is continuously working on the post of Field Officer and at the relevant time the disciplinary proceedings were initiated against the petitioner while working on the post of Officiating Manager in the aforesaid Bank at Jhinjhak Branch. The petitioner worked in the said Branch as officiating Manager from June, 2003 to January, 2004.

While working at Jhinjhak Branch, it is said that certain irregularities were deducted against the petitioner on which the petitioner had been placed under suspension inter alia on frivolous charges vide order dated 14.5.2004. After passing of the suspension order, the petitioner was issued a charge sheet on 25.6.2004 which was received by the petitioner on 9.7.2004. The charge-sheet contained six charges. With every charges certain amount of evidence in the form of documentary evidence was also mentioned in the charge-sheet. The charge-sheet inter-alia stated six charges with respect to various irregularities being committed by the petitioner.

The petitioner was asked to give reply to the said charge-sheet latest by 10.7.2004 although the petitioner received the charge sheet on 9.7.2004. The petitioner by means of letter dated 12.7.2004 demanded time from the respondents for inspecting the documents which were relevant and genuinely needed for submitting an effective reply in order to establish his innocence. The documents of various nature were voluminous also and the petitioner also wanted to see various objections raised by the Jhinjhak Branch for justification of alleged charges and to what extent the petitioner was liable and reasonable in the matter.

By means of letter dated 14.7.2004, the petitioner was informed that he was being supplied Annexures 2,3 and 4 of the preliminary report of the Regional Manager and in addition thereto the petitioner was asked to inspect the documents at Jhinjhak Branch and to obtain the certified copies of the required documents and after doing all this exercise the petitioner was asked to submit his reply to the chargesheet latest by 25.7.2004.

Although the time was granted to the petitioner to inspect the documents by means of letter dated 14.7.2004 and the said permission was granted in pursuance of the letter of the petitioner dated 12.7.2004 and knowingfully well that the documents are to be supplied to the petitioner and that the petitioner has also not filed reply to the charge sheet uptil now and had demanded time for missing documents alongwith the charge sheet, the Bank proceeded to fix the date for personal hearing and for cross examination by the petitioner by means of letter dated 13.7.204.

In the said letter the date for personal hearing and examination and cross examination was fixed as 28.7.2004 but this letter dated 13.7.2004 was never conveyed to the petitioner at any point of time and false averment has been made in the dismissal order to the said effect that the said letter was shown to the petitioner on 14.7.2004 and that he refused to receive the same. The above averment has been made in the dismissal order only with a view to fill in the lacuna in the enquiry proceedings with oral averment, although the letter dated 13.7.2004 was never shown to the petitioner.

The letter dated 13th July, 2004 was conveyed to the petitioner by means of registered letter dated 4.8.2004 and the said letter was dispatched by the Regional Office. The letter dated 13th July, 2004 was received by the petitioner through registered post on 9th August, 2004. On 14.7.2004, the petitioner has been supplied certain documents and in addition thereto he was asked to inspect the documents at Jhinjhak Branch to obtain certified copies of the documents asked for submitting reply by the petitioner.

On 28.7.2004, the respondents fixed the date for personal hearing and cross examination through the aforesaid letter dated 13.7.2004, but the said letter has never been conveyed to the petitioner at any point of time and false averment has been made in the dismissal order that the said letter was shown to the petitioner on 14.7.2004 but he refused to receive the same and the petitioner filed reply to the charge sheet which was received by the office of the respondents on 2nd August, 2004.

The letter dated 13.7.2004 was conveyed to the petitioner by means of registered letter dated 4.8.2004 which was dispatched by the Regional office and received by the petitioner on 9th August, 2004. The petitioner by means of the letter dated 22.7.2004 asked from the respondents the time upto 10.8.2004 for submitting reply to the charge-sheet and for personal hearing as well as to cross examine the witnesses said to have been replied upon by the respondents.

The petitioner waited for opportunity of personal hearing but the respondents without fixing any date, time and place for enquiry proceeded exparte and concluded the entire enquiry knowingfully well that the petitioner is to retire on 30th September, 2004. On 20.9.2004, the petitioner received a show cause notice along with the copy of the enquiry report and the proposed punishment of dismissal from service which was received by the petitioner on 25th September, 2004 giving time to the petitioner to submit his reply to the said show cause notice upto 28th September, 2004.

The petitioner any how submitted reply to the show cause notice by 28.9.2004 denying all the allegations made against him inter alia stating that the petitioner was not given reasonable and proper opportunity nor the enquiry has been conducted in its true sense even he was not permitted to cross examine the witnesses said to have been relied upon by the respondents, thus the entire proceedings vitiated for non-observance of the principles of natural justice.

The respondent vide impugned order dated 29.9.2004 proceeded to dismiss the petitioner only a day before his retirement without considering the reply given by the petitioner in which to the charge sheet, with a view to satisfy their whims and capricious in a most illegal and arbitrary and also without application of mind as the dismissal order itself indicated that the petitioner did not submit any reply to the show cause, whereas the said reply has been filed by the petitioner in the Camp Office of the Managing Director, on 28.9.2004 in a routine and mechanical manner, thus the impugned order against the petitioner suffers from the vice malice and non-observance of the principle of natural justice, as such the same is not tenable in the eye of law and deserves to be quashed.

The petitioner has been retired from service and because of the dismissal from service vide impugned order dated 29th September, 2004, the petitioner has not paid his post retiral dues admissible to him under law and the petitioner is suffering without there any fault on his part as none of the charges levelled against the petitioner are of such nature which causes any loss to the Bank in question.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the respondents have not fixed any date, time or place for holding enquiry and nor any date for personal hearing was fixed as demanded by the petitioner in the reply to the charge sheet itself, thus the entire enquiry initiated against the petitioner is vitiated and is no enquiry in the eye of law, as such the same deserves to be ignored and rejected.

5. Learned counsel for the petitioner next submitted that the enquiry officer, suo mottu, prepared the enquiry report without giving any opportunity of personal hearing to the petitioner and without giving him any opportunity to prove his innocence by means of various documents as also to cross examine the witnesses which were sought to be relied upon in support of the charges, thus the enquiry is vitiated and is a nullity in the eye of law.

6. Learned counsel for the petitioner next submitted that in spite of submission of reply to show cause notice, in the dismissal order a specific finding has been recorded to the effect that the petitioner has not submitted reply to the show cause and the dismissal order has been passed on 29th September, 2004 whereas the petitioner has submitted his reply to the show cause notice on 28th September, 2004, thus the impugned order has been passed without application of mind and without giving any weightage to the reply to the petitioner.

7. Learned counsel for the petitioner next submitted that the petitioner received show cause notice of proposed dismissal only on 25th September, 2004 from the Region Office and he submitted reply to the show cause notice in the Camp Office of the Managing Director on 28th September, 2004 but the same has not been considered at all while passing the impugned order, thus the impugned order is illegal, invalid and has been passed without application of mind.

8. Learned counsel for the petitioner next submitted that the Disciplinary Authority in a hurried manner and rather in a mechanical manner and without considering the reply of the petitioner to the show cause notice as well as the charge-sheet proceeded to dismiss the petitioner agreeing with the finding of the Enquiry Officer with regard to the five charges and with respect to one charge the petitioner was not found guilty or responsible with a view to satisfy his whims to punish the petitioner any how before a day of his retirement i.e. 29.9.2004.

9. Learned counsel for the petitioner next submitted that all the charges which have been levelled against the petitioner are in the nature of supervisory jurisdiction and it has been stated in the charge-sheet as well as in the dismissal order of that the petitioner has not supervised and performed his duties well as required under the Rules.

10. Learned counsel for the petitioner next submitted that the dismissal order has been passed in hurried manner and the reply of the petitioner to the show cause notice has not been considered and denied to have been received by the respondents is a sheer violation of the principle of natural justice and also established the malice of the authority concerned.

11. Learned counsel for the petitioner next submitted that the enquiry held in the case of the petitioner is no enquiry in the eye of law and is a nullity and a sham enquiry and is liable to be ignored and rejected in the interest of justice.

12. Learned counsel for the petitioner lastly submitted there has been total non-application of mind and without observing the principle of natural justice the impugned order has been passed in a most illegal, arbitrary and malafide manner which is not sustainable in the eye of law.

13. On the other hand, learned Standing Counsel submitted that the inquiry officer directed to the petitioner to present himself on 28.7.2004 at 11.00a.m. in the Headquarter of the U.P. Sahakari Gram Vikas Bank Ltd, Lukcnow for personal hearing as well as for examination/ cross examination of the evidences. The inquiry officer provided him the said letter on 14.7.2004 at Headquarter of the Bank and after reading the same, the petitioner refused to receive the same. Thereafter, the inquiry officer sent the said letter dated 13.7.2004 at the relevant place where the petitioner was attached. He received the letter but on 28.7.2004 he had not appeared before the inquiry officer concerned.

14. Learned Standing Counsel next submitted that the petitioner has been provided due opportunity of hearing to place his facts before the competent authority, but intentionally he failed to choose to submit the reply at the relevant time after having proper notice, as well as choose not to appear, and at the later stage he cannot be permitted to say that he had not been given a fair opportunity of hearing.

15. Learned Standing Counsel next submitted that all the proceedings against the petitioner have been initiated under the provisions of law and there has been no question of any biaseness against him.

16. Learned Standing Counsel next submitted that the principles of natural justice cannot be put into a straitjacket formula. Its application will depend upon the facts and circumstances of each case. It is also well settled that if a party having proper notice choose not to appear, he at a later stage cannot be permitted to say that he had not been given a fair opportunity of hearing.

17. I have considered the submissions advanced by learned counsel for the parties and perused the material available on record.

18. Perusal of the material reveals that the petitioner was initially appointed in the year 1969 as Accountant in the Bank and joined the said post. In the year 1973 the petitioner was promoted to the post of Field Officer. The petitioner worked in the said Branch as officiating Manager from June, 2003 to January, 2004. During the said period, certain allegations had been levelled against the petitioner on which the petitioner had been placed under suspension. Thereafter, a charge sheet mentioning six charges was issued on 25.6.2004 and received by the petitioner on 9.7.2004 wherein the petitioner was directed to file reply to the said charge sheet latest by 10.7.2004.

19. It is also evident that the petitioner demanded time for inspecting the documents. Vide letter dated 14.7.2004 the petitioner was informed that he was being supplied Annexures 2,3 and 4 of the preliminary report of the Regional Manager. Thereafter, the petitioner was asked to submit his reply to the charge-sheet latest by 25.7.2004. The Bank proceeded to fix 28.7.2004 as the date for personal hearing and for cross examination by the petitioner by means of letter dated 13.7.2004.

The letter dated 13th July, 2004 was conveyed to the petitioner by means of registered letter dated 4.8.2004 and the said letter was dispatched by the Regional Office. The said letter was received by the petitioner through registered post on 9th August, 2004. The petitioner by means of the letter dated 22.7.2004 asked from the respondents the time upto 10.8.2004 for submitting reply to the chargesheet and for personal hearing as well as cross examine the witness. On 20.9.2004 the petitioner received show cause notice along with the copy of the enquiry report and the proposed punishment of dismissal from service which was received by the petitioner on 25th September, 2004 giving time to the petitioner to submit his reply to the said show cause notice upto 28th September, 2004.

The petitioner submitted reply to the show cause notice by 28.9.2004 denying all the asllegations made against him inter alia stating that the petitioner was not given reasonable opportunity of hearing. Vide order dated 29.9.2004 the respondent proceeded to dismiss the petitioner.

20. It is well settled that the disciplinary proceedings breaks into two stages. The first stage commences when the disciplinary authority arrives at its conclusion on the basis of evidence, the enquiry officer's report and the delinquent employee relied to it. The second stage begins when the disciplinary authority decides to impose penalty on the basis of its conclusion.

It is also well settled that an order passed by an authority should be a reasonable one and the objection taken by a person should be dealt with because reasons are like a live wire which connects the mind of the decision making authority and the decision given by him and if this wire/ link is broken i.e. to say no reasons are given in the impugned order then it will not be possible to know as what was going in the mind of the decision making authority on the basis of which he has come to the conclusion and passed the impugned order.

21. But in the present case, letter of the respondent dated 13.7.2004 regarding fixing of a date as 28.7.2004 for personal hearing and for cross examination by the petitioner, was not conveyed to the petitioner prior to the date fixed i.e. 28.7.2004 and it was conveyed only on 9.8.2004 through registered letter dated 4.8.20224 much after date fixed for personal hearing and for cross examination.

Thereafter, the enquiry officer prepared the enquiry report without giving any opportunity of personal hearing to the petitioner and without giving him any opportunity to prove his innocence by means of various documents as also to cross examine the witnesses which were sought to be relied upon in support of the charges. Even the reply submitted by the petitioner has not been considered by the respondent before passing the impugned order. Perusal of the record produced before this Court on 30.10.2022 establishes that no documentary evidence is available in regard to service of notice dated 13.7.2004 to the petitioner. In this view of the matter, there is utter disregard of principles of natural justice in the matter and the impugned order passed by the respondent is bad in law and is in violation of principles of natural justice.

22. The rules of natural justice require that a party must be given the opportunity to adduce all relevant evidence upon which he relies, and further that the evidence of the opposite party should be taken in his presence and that he should be given the opportunity of cross-examining the witnesses examined by that party. Not providing the said opportunity to cross-examine the witnesses, would violate the principles of natural justice.

23. It is admitted position that the petitioner retired from service on 29.7.2004 and therefore, there is no provision for conducting a disciplinary enquiry after his retirement nor any provision stating that in case misconduct is established, a deduction could be made from the retiral benefits.

24. Considering in totalities of facts and circumstances of the case as also the fact that after retirement of an employee, no disciplinary proceeding can be continued, the order dated 29.9.2004 is quashed. The respondents are directed to release all post retiral benefits to the petitioner admissible to him as per law within a period of of six weeks from the date of production of a certified copy of this order.

25. In the result, the writ petition is allowed.

(2023) 4 ILRA 595
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 09.01.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAJESH BINDAL, C.J.
THE HON'BLE J.J. MUNIR, J.

Writ A No. 10004 of 2021
with other connected cases

Mohd. Mustaqueem ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Sanjay Kumar Pundir

Counsel for the Respondents:
Sri M.C. Chaturvedi, Addl. Advocate General, with Sri Ramanand Pandey and Sri Ankit Gaur, Standing Counsel

A. Service Law- U.P. Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk Service Rules, 1994-Rule 5-Transfer-Validity- Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk /Petitioner was appointed to a service, where is the District Magistrate was the appointing authority-The Medical Service Rules, 1994 which govern the service of the petitioner by virtue of the Rules, 1994 , provides that service under the Medical Service Rules, 1994 means the Uttar Pradesh Medical Health and Family Welfare Department (Subordinate Office) Clerical Cadre Service-The Rules clearly make the petitioner part of a State Level Service and not a District Cadre Service-Thus, there is no impediment in transferring the petitioners in terms of the orders impugned dated 15 July 2021 under challenge.(Para 1 to 61)

The petition is disposed of. (E-6)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Rajesh Bindal, C.J., & Hon'ble J.J. Munir, J.)

ORDER

1. This order will answer the question referred to us by the learned Single Judge in Writ-A Nos. 11430 of 2021, 10004 of 2021 and 10365 of 2021 vide order dated October 26, 2021. In Writ-A No. 11378 of 2022, the same question arises as that in the above writ petitions, which the learned Single Judge has adjourned awaiting our answer vide order dated August 4, 2022. The answer to the question in the three writ petitions, first mentioned, would also serve the purpose of Writ-A No. 11378 of 2022. After answering the question posited to us by the learned Single Judge, the writ petitions would have been placed on board before the learned Single Judge, holding determination over writ petitions of this nature along with our answer. But, what we find is that there are also under challenge before us judgments of the two learned Single Judges of this Court deciding the same issue, with reference to which the question has been referred to us in the three writ petitions, already mentioned. A challenge to the judgments of the learned Single Judge in two writ petitions has been laid by the unsuccessful writ petitioners vide Special Appeal No. 52 of 2022 and Special Appeal Defective No. 97 of 2022. Since we would be required to decide those writ petitions finally, the result whereof would depend upon the answer to the question referred to us in the writ petitions by the learned Single Judge, we are of opinion that no useful purpose would be served by sending our answer to the learned Single Judge, pursuant to the order of reference in the three writ petitions. It would only entail avoidable wastage of time and resource.

2. We, therefore, propose to dispose of writ petitions as well by this judgment, in accordance with our answer to the question referred. Special Appeal Nos. 522 of 2022 and 523 of 2022 arise out of orders of the learned Single Judge proposing to frame charges for violation of the orders passed by the Single Judge on the writ side. Those appeals too would be disposed of recording our reasons by this common judgment and order.

3. Since common questions of fact and law are involved in all the four writ petitions and the four special appeals, we proceed to notice relevant facts and the essence of lis between parties giving rise to all these matters from the records of Writ-A

No. 10004 of 2021. This course of action has been adopted because parties have copiously exchanged affidavits in the said petition. Accordingly, Writ-A No.10004 of 2021, which has indeed been heard as the leading case, shall be treated as such. Nevertheless, in order to appreciate the individual facts leading to the writ petitions and the appeals, arising out of judgments of the learned Single Judges on the writ side and in the exercise of contempt jurisdiction, a summary of the nature of proceedings involved in each cause, the grievance and the relief sought are being shown in tabular form:

Sr. No.	Case Details	Arises out of
1	Writ-A No. 10004 of 2021	Transfer order dated 15.07.2021 passed by the Director (Administration), Medical & Health Services, U.P. at Lucknow
2	Writ-A No. 10365 of 2021	Transfer order dated 15.07.2021 passed by the Director (Administration), Medical & Health Services, U.P. at Lucknow
3	Writ-A No. 11430 of 2021	Transfer order dated 15.07.2021 passed by the Director (Administration), Medical & Health Services, U.P. at Lucknow
4	Writ-A No. 11378 of 2022	Transfer order dated 28.06.2022 passed by the Additional Director of Education (Basic), U.P. Prayagraj and the relieving order dated 25.07.2022 passed by the District Basic Education Officer, Basti
5	Special Appeal (D) No. 97 of 2022	Writ-A No. 11560 of 2021 filed against the transfer order dated 15.07.2021 passed by the Director (Administration), Medical & Health Services, U.P. at Lucknow
6	Special Appeal No. 52 of 2022	Writ-A No. 10088 of 2021 filed against the transfer order dated 15.07.2021 passed by the Director (Administration), Medical & Health Services, U.P. at Lucknow
7	Special Appeal No. 522 of 2022	Contempt Application (Civil) No. 1452 of 2022 filed for non-compliance of orders dated 07.09.2021, 14.09.2021 and 08.10.2021 passed in Writ-A No. 10004 of 2021, which has been filed against the transfer order dated 15.07.2021 passed by the Director (Administration), Medical & Health Services, U.P. at Lucknow
8	Special Appeal No.	Contempt Application (Civil) No. 1453 of

	523 of 2022	2022 filed for non-compliance of orders dated 18.08.2021, 14.09.2021 and 08.10.2021 passed in Writ-A No. 10365 of 2021, which has been filed against the transfer order dated 15.07.2021 passed by the Director (Administration), Medical & Health Services, U.P. at Lucknow

The Question Referred

4. In the leading case and in connected Writ-A Nos. 10365 of 2021, 11430 of 2021 and 11378 of 2022, by an order recorded in Writ-A No. 11430 of 2021, the following question of law has been referred to us by the learned Single Judge:

"Whether the post of Urdu Translator-cum-Assistant Clerk is a District Level Cadre Post and, therefore, its incumbent can not be transferred out side the District?"

Submissions on behalf of the petitioner

5. The petitioner is an Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk posted in the office of Chief Medical Officer, Muzaffar Nagar. Vide the order impugned dated July 15, 2021 passed by the Director (Administration), Medical and Health Services, U.P., Lucknow, the petitioner was transferred from the office of the Chief Medical Officer, Muzaffar Nagar to the office of the Chief Medical Officer, Shahjahanpur. The order dated July 15, 2021 (Annexure No. 1) to the writ petition, orders transfer of various employees, such as Store Keepers, Stenographers, Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks, from one district to another. The total number of employees transferred by the said order were 984. The petitioner's name figures at serial No. 980 of the impugned order dated July 15, 2021.

6. The short case of the petitioner is that he holds a District Level Cadre Post and, therefore, cannot be transferred outside the district, where he has been selected and appointed. The posts of Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks were created by Government Order No. 80सीएम/47-का-4-94-15-10-1994 dated August 20, 1994, issued in the name of the Governor by a Secretary to the State Government. Service rules were made by the Governor for these Urdu Translators under the proviso to Article 309 of the Constitution, known as The Uttar Pradesh Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk Service Rules, 1994 (for short, 'the Rules of 1994'). The petitioner has drawn the attention of the Court to the Government Order dated August 20, 1994, which created a total of 5061 posts of Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks at three levels i.e. the State Headquarters, the Commissionerate and the District Headquarters. Para No. 4 of the Government Order indicates that the appointing authority for the newly created post of Urdu Translators shall be the same at the relevant level as that for a Junior Clerk. Para No. 5 of the Government Order shows that for appointments made at the State Headquarters, the appointing authority would be the Secretary to the Government in the Department of Personnel. The appointments at the level of the Commissionerate would be made by the Commissioner as the appointing authority, and at the level of District Headquarters, by the District Magistrate.

7. Along with the Government Order, there are lists, appended as Annexures I, II, III and IV, describing the Head of the Department/ Head of Office together with their Establishment, where posts of Urdu Translators were sanctioned. At the State Headquarters, the Establishments along with Head of the Department/ Office are detailed in a list carried in Annexures I and II to the Government Order. Likewise, at the Commissionerate, the Establishments, where posts of Urdu Translators have been created, have been detailed in Annexure III to the Government Order. In Annexure IV to the Government Order, the Establishments at District Level, where posts of Urdu Translators were created, have been mentioned. At the District Headquarters, there is a list of 37 such Establishments and offices, besides the Collector's office, the Tehsil, the Block and each Police Station. It is one or the other Establishment or office detailed in the three lists appended to the Government Order that an Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk can be appointed. After creation of posts of Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks by the Government Order dated August 20, 1994, the Governor made the Rules of 1994, that were published in the Official Gazette on September 9, 1994.

8. It is the petitioner's case that an Advertisement No. 309 dated September 25, 1994 was issued by the District Magistrate, Muzaffar Nagar inviting applications from eligible persons for appointment to posts of Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk with the number of posts being specified as 79. The petitioner applied in response to the said Advertisement and appeared in the written examination held for the purpose. He was selected by the Selection Committee headed by the District Magistrate, Muzaffar Nagar as envisaged under Rule 17 of the Rules of 1994. The petitioner being found fit for selection, a Memo No. 487/ Samanya Sahayak, dated April 3, 1995 was issued by the office of the District Magistrate, which the petitioner says gave him appointment on the post of an Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk in the office of the Chief Medical Officer, Muzaffar Nagar. The said appointment order, according to the petitioner, directed him to join services at the office of the Chief Medical Officer, Muzaffar Nagar.

9. It is argued on behalf of the petitioner that the procedure prescribed for filling up vacancies under the Rules of 1994 shows that the post held by the petitioner is a Group-C post, of which the District Magistrate, where the petitioner was selected, is the appointing authority. The service to which the petitioner has been appointed is a District Level Cadre and members of the said service, according to the strength of the Cadre, are to be allocated to different offices and Establishments mentioned in Annexure 3 to the Government Order dated August 20, 1994. The petitioner, therefore, cannot be transferred outside the district.

10. The learned Counsel for the petitioner has emphasized on the definition of the term 'service' defined under Clause (f) of Rule 5 of the Rules of 1994, which says that "service" means the service of Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk in a Government Department or office, constituted under relevant service rules or executive instructions, as the case may be. The submission of the learned Counsel is that by appointment to a particular Government Department or office, the Urdu Translators do not become part of the Cadre of Junior Clerks in that office. They do not get the benefit of promotion under the relevant service rules applicable to the Department or office, to which they are appointed as Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks. It is emphasized that the identity of the service of Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks is distinct and different from the other Junior Clerks, who may be part of that Cadre in a Government Department or office. The service of the petitioner is that of Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerk, but not a Junior Clerk in the office or the Government Department, where he/ she has been appointed. This, he submits, is evident from the definition of service, found in Clause (f) of Rule 5 of the Rules of 1994. It is also emphasized that Rule 6 shows that the strength of service, that is to say, of Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks in each Department or office, has to be determined by the State Government from time to time under the relevant service rules or executive instructions. This is a clear indicator, according to the learned Counsel for the petitioner, that the petitioner or for that matter any Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk is very different from a Junior Clerk in the regular Cadre in a Government Department or office. The submission, therefore, is that the petitioner's appointment being one made to a District Level Cadre post by the District Magistrate, Muzaffar Nagar, he cannot be transferred to any other district. He may be transferred to any Establishment of the Chief Medical Officer within the district. In support of his contention, the learned Counsel for the petitioner has placed reliance on the decision of a learned Single Judge in Trabuddin and others v. Chief Secretary, U.P. Shasan Secretariat and others 2014 (11) ADJ 318, where this Court, after noticing the Rules of 1994 and the Government Order dated August 20, 1994, held as under:

"17. With respect to transferability of post, it is not disputed that Rules, 1994 do not contemplate any such thing. State Government has clarified vide order dated 25.8.2006 that neither the posts nor the personnels, working as Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerk, are transferable or should normally be transferred. In view of this specific stand taken by respondent State of U.P., I do not find as to how Police Headquarters can take upon itself the task of laying down conditions of service or policy decision with respect to service matters of petitioners, contrary to the decision taken by State Government, who is principal body having legislative power to lay down conditions of service of these personnel. A transfer policy with respect to Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerk, no doubt is within the realm of State Government. If it decides to make it non transferable, U.P. Police Headquarters, in my view, does not possess any power and none has been shown by respondents-learned Standing Counsel whereby it can take a contrary policy decision. The decision taken in respect of Police personnel, is by virtue of power specifically conferred under Act, 1861 and rules and regulations framed thereunder but no such power has been conferred with respect to civilian staffs and unless such power is vested with them (U.P. Police Headquarter), I do not find that such a policy decision can be taken by it (Police Headquarters) in respect of transfer of persons working as Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerk. The Police Headquarters' circular dated 28.7.1997 is clearly unauthorised, without jurisdiction and illegal, particularly when State Government has already made it clear that posts and personnels making as Urdu Translator cum Junior Clerk are not transferable."

11. The learned Counsel for the petitioner has further placed reliance upon a decision of the Uttarakhand High Court in Ramesh Chandra Joshi & another v. Iqbal Ahmad & others, 2016 SCC OnLine Utt 1943. Attention of the Court has been drawn to Paragraph Nos. 26 and 27, which read as under:

"26. Now, we may notice some of the Government Orders, which came to be passed. Before the 1994 Rules were framed, order dated 20.08.1994 was passed. Reliance is placed on the said order by the writ petitioners and the intervener. We have already extracted the said order. The order was passed at a time when the Rules were not enacted. The order, apparently, came to be passed in the context of the decision of the Government to link Urdu with the livelihood and to create a post of Urdu Translator in the offices at the district level inter alia as per the details, which were mentioned. Number of posts were created. Further one post was created in each of the offices mentioned in the enclosed list. In short, it contemplated appointments being made in vacant posts of Junior Clerks by converting the same to the posts of Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk in the mentioned pay-scale. This is seized upon by the writ petitioners and the intervener to contend that the persons were appointed as Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk in the vacant posts of Junior Clerk and, from this, an inference is sought to be drawn that they were inseparably interconnected. It is true that a question may arise that, when the vacant post of Junior Clerk is not filled-up by appointing a Junior Clerk but by appointing an Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk, who would discharge the functions of the Junior Clerk. Could it not be said that the Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk would be expected to carry out the work of Junior Clerk besides, of course, doing translation work and, therefore, he should be treated as a Junior Clerk? At first blush, the argument appears to be impressive; but, there is another way of looking at it. What was intended by the Government having regard to its declared intention to provide for Urdu Translators, it was sought to be done by converting the vacant posts of Junior Clerk and by appointing Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks, as provided in the enclosed list, in each of the offices. This could be treated as a method of making the appointments. That is to say, instead of creating new posts for Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks, Government decided to convert the vacant posts and to appoint them as Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks. Had it been the intention of the Government that the post of Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk would be treated as Junior Clerk, nothing stood in the way of the Government amending the 1980 Rules and providing for the post of Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk also within its ambit. This not being done, it let the state of the law remain unamended, under which law, only the Junior Clerks and other ministerial staff could be considered for promotion to the post of Senior Clerk. The mere fact that the vacancies held by Junior Clerks were made use of for appointing Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks cannot be the basis for treating them as part of the same cadre. Equally bereft of merit is the argument based on clause (2) of the order dated 20.08.1994, which also contemplates appointment of Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk being made to the first vacancy, where the post of Junior Clerk is not vacant. It is also contemplated, no doubt, that the appointing authority for the post of Junior Clerk will be the appointing authority for the post of Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk; but, we have already noticed that, even in the Rules, the same provision has been incorporated and it may not advance the case of the writ petitioners and the intervener. We find from Clause (7) of the said order that the rules to be enforced regarding conditions of service/selection procedure for the posts of Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk was to be issued separately. It is, thereafter, that the 1994 Rules, which we have already noticed, came into being.

27. The next order, which is produced, is order dated 30.09.1995. It is an office order. It indicates certain candidates being selected and being appointed to the posts of Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk and the same being filled-up, apparently, in terms of order dated 20.08.1994."

12. Reliance has next been placed on behalf of the petitioner on the decision of the Supreme Court in Som Raj and others v. State of Haryana and others, (1990) 2 SCC 653. Attention of this Court has been drawn to Paragraph No. 5, which reads as under:

"6. A resume of these rules clearly shows that for the appointment of all the posts including Junior Clerks in the Head Office, the appointing authority is the Director. All appointments to the post of Junior Clerks other than Head Office shall be by the concerned Head Office. As per the appendix, the staffing pattern in the office of the Director of Agriculture and the Subordinate Offices is entirely different. The only common element is the Senior Clerks. The seniority is to be maintained on the basis of the substantive appointment to the respective cadres. The seniority of the members of the service shall, in each class of appointment shown in the appendix be determined by the date of their substantive appointments or promotion or otherwise to permanent vacancies in such a class. The method of appointment has been adumbrated under Rule 7(1)(I) to (L) by promotion from amongst the persons working in the respective subordinate posts in the respective offices in the first instance, or by selection from amongst persons working in the government offices including Subordinate Offices and in some cases by the direct recruitment. Thereby it is clear that for filling up the vacancies arising in the post of Superintendent, Assistants and Senior Clerks, the persons working in the Subordinate Offices or the government offices are the feeder channels, or in some case by direct recruitment. Sub-rule (2) of Rule 7 makes the matter clear that they have got right to be considered, but it is strictly by selection and they have no claim to the appointment as of right. It is open to the government to constitute different cadres in any particular service as it may choose according to its administrative convenience and expediency. The office of the Director is the apex office obviously to control and oversee the functioning of the Subordinate Offices and the other allied departments under his control monitoring the implementation of the government's agricultural programmes. It may not be necessary to maintain a common cadre of the employees of the Directorate and the Subordinate Offices. Each cadre is a separate service or a part of the service sanctioned for administrative expediency. Therefore, each may be a separate unit and the posts allocated to the cadre may be permanent or temporary. It is seen from the appendix that in the office of the Directorate there is one Superintendent, three Head Assistants, four Assistants, two Stenographers, seven Senior Clerks, and twelve Junior Clerks. In the Subordinate Offices, there is one Superintendent, seven Head Clerks and two Senior Clerks. This is obviously on the basis of administrative need. No doubt the office of the Directorate and the Subordinate Offices have been compendiously shown in Section 6 of the Appendix. That does not by itself mean that office of the Directorate and Subordinate Offices are treated under the Rules as one unit or at par, as contended for by Shri P.P. Rao. As pointed out in the beginning, the Director had committed some irregularities at the time of initial appointments in the year 1973 when he picked up five persons out of the select list of the candidates and appointed them in the Directorate of Haryana Government deviating from the order of merit prepared by the Board. They were selected at a common selection by the Recruitment Board along with other candidates who stood higher in the order of merit prepared by the Selection Board. But this was done in the year 1973 and the appointments have not been challenged till date of filing of the writ petition in 1979. Even in the writ petition no challenge was made. This is pressed into service only to show that the appellants are similarly situated with them. After the appointments were made and the candidates joined in the respective posts for consideration for promotion the Rules occupy the field and the claims are to be considered according to Rule 7. Therefore, though we may not agree with the learned counsel for the State that the Director had absolute discretion to pick and choose arbitrarily and make appointment of the posts, yet undoubtedly, he had power to appoint them. Normally the order of appointment would be in the order of merit of candidates from the list and must be in accordance with rules. His exercise of power should not be arbitrary. The absence of arbitrary power is the first postulate of rule of law upon which our whole constitutional edifice is based. In a system governed by Rule of Law, discretion when conferred upon an executive authority must be confined within clearly defined limits. The Rules provide the guidance for exercise of the discretion in making appointment from out of selection lists which was prepared on the basis of the performance and position obtained at the selection. The appointing authority is to make appointment in the order of gradation, subject to any other relevant rules like, rotation or reservation, if any, or any other valid and binding rules or instructions having force of law. If the discretion is exercised without any principle or without any rule, it is a situation amounting to the antithesis of Rule of Law. Discretion means sound discretion guided by law or governed by known principles of rules, not by whim or fancy or caprice of the authority. We refrain from going into the correctness of the choice made by the Director due to laches in not assailing the correctness of the appointment for well over six years. The validity of the rules have not been questioned. The only question is, as stated earlier, whether the employees working in the Head Office and the Subordinate Offices are entitled to common seniority. The Rules themselves made a distinction between the persons appointed in the Directorate and the Subordinate Offices as separate cadres and the subordinate cadre in some cases is the feeder cadre for promotion to the post in the Head Office. In this view, by no stretch of imagination, the appellants can be considered to be equally placed for treating them at par with the Directorate employees for being treated as being in a common cadre. There is reasonable nexus to differentiate the two cadres. Therefore, the classification cannot be said to be arbitrary violating Articles 14 and 16 of the Constitution."

13. It is submitted by the learned Counsel for the petitioner on the strength of the aforesaid decision in Som Raj (supra) that though Junior Clerks in that case for posts in the Head Office, that is, the Directorate of Agriculture and those in the subordinate offices of the Directorate were selected through a common selection by the Recruitment Board along with other candidates, but those appointed to the Head Office of the Directorate were held not to constitute a single cadre with the Clerks appointed to the subordinate offices. It was held that in the same service, it is open to the Government to constitute different cadres as it may choose according to its administrative convenience and expedience. It is urged on the basis of the said holding that here the definition of service to be found in the Rules of 1994 is with reference to each Government Department or office and where the Establishment to which an Urdu Translator has been appointed, is a District Level Establishment or office, the post held by the Urdu Translator is a District Level Cadre Post notwithstanding that the service of Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks, according to Rule 6 of the Rules of 1994, in each Government Department or office under the relevant service rules applicable to that Department or office, may be a State service permitting transfer from one district to another for other incumbents governed by the service rules in that Department or office. The Urdu Translators, according to the learned Counsel for the petitioner, are a distinct or different class and they are not entitled to many other benefits such as promotions, etc., as the other Junior Clerks in the regular Cadre of particular Government Departments or offices. It is in that context that the decision of the Division Bench of the Uttarakhand High Court in Ramesh Chandra Joshi (supra) has been emphasized.

Submissions on behalf of the respondents

14. Mr. M.C. Chaturvedi, learned Additional Advocate General assisted by Mr. Ramanand Pandey and Mr. Ankit Gaur, learned Standing Counsel appearing on behalf of the State, have submitted that the petitioner's case that he is a member of a District Level Cadre Post under the Rules of 1994, is based on a complete misreading and misunderstanding of the Rules of 1994. According to the learned Additional Advocate General, the District Magistrate, under the Rules of 1994, is not at all the petitioner's appointing authority. He is only the Chairman of the Selection Committee, comprising five Members, including the District Magistrate envisaged under Rule 17. It is argued that the appointing authority would be an authority in one Government Department or the other or one office or the other, where an Urdu Translator is appointed. The Government Departments and offices are varied and different under the Government Order dated August 20, 1994, whereby specified number of posts have been created for Government Departments and offices at the Headquarters, the Divisional Headquarters of the Commissionerate and the District Level. To each of such posts, according to the learned Additional Advocate General, selections have to be made by the Statutory Selection Committee constituted under Rule 17 of the Rules of 1994. Post selection by the Statutory Selection Committee, the appointing authority in a particular Government Department or office would offer appointment to the selected candidate and issue an appointment letter to him. The candidate once appointed in a particular Government Department or office as an Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk would be governed by the service rules applicable to the Cadre of Junior Clerks there. In the submission of Mr. Chaturvedi, if the Government Department or office happens to be governed by Rules, where employees holding a Group-C post in the Cadre of a Junior Clerk are transferable, an Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk appointed to such a Government Department or office, would be liable to be transferred like any other holder of a Group-C post, or more particularly, a Junior Clerk.

15. In the present case, the learned Additional Advocate General has submitted that the petitioner was appointed as an Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk vide order dated May 31, 1995 issued by the Director (Administration) in the office of the Director General, Medical Health and Family Welfare, Government of U.P. at Lucknow, acting on the recommendation of the Statutory Selection Committee as an Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk in the office of the Chief Medical Officer, Muzaffar Nagar. A copy of the said appointment letter is annexed to the Supplementary Affidavit-II dated September 28, 2021, filed on behalf of respondent No. 3. It is submitted by the Additional Advocate General that this appointment letter was deliberately not brought on record by the petitioner in the writ petition as it would indicate that the petitioner's appointing authority is the Director (Administration), Medical and Health Services, U.P., Lucknow and not the District Magistrate, Muzaffar Nagar. It is urged that the petitioner's appointment as an Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk is governed by Rule 3-Ka of the U.P. Medical Health and Family Welfare Department (Subordinate Office) Clerical Cadre Service Rules, 1994 (for short, 'the Medical Service Rules, 1994) read with Rule 5(a) of the Rules of 1994.

16. A third Supplementary Affidavit dated October 4, 2021 has also been filed on behalf of respondent No. 3, bringing on record a xerox copy of the petitioner's service-book, which shows that vide order dated August 18, 2008 passed by the Director General, Medical and Health Services, U.P., Lucknow, the petitioner has been promoted to the post of Urdu Translator-cum-Senior Clerk, with his post, in the pay scale of 4000-100-8000. It is urged on the basis of service rules applicable to the petitioner that he is an Urdu Translator-cum-Senior Clerk in the Establishment of the Director General, Medical and Health Services, U.P., Lucknow. His appointing authority is the Director (Administration), Medical and Health Services, U.P., Lucknow. The petitioner's service, which is a clerical cadre post governed by Medical Service Rules, 1994, cannot be said to be a District Level Cadre Post.

17. In support of his contention, the learned Additional Advocate General appearing for the respondents has placed reliance upon an unreported decision of the learned Single Judge in Akeel Ahmad v. State of U.P. and others, Writ - A No. 14945 of 2018, decided on July 17, 2018, where it has been held:

"6. Petitioner in the present case appears to be working in the office concerned for the last more than 10 years. His appointment is to the post of Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk and he has been transferred against a specific post of Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk existing in the same department i.e. the Transport Department of the State.

7. The order of transfer has been passed after obtaining approval from the State Government, which otherwise has jurisdiction in terms of Rules of 1994. There is nothing in the rules, which may prohibit a transfer of Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk to another post existing in the cadre itself. The petitioner cannot insist that he has to be posted in the same region where he was initially appointed. Argument advanced in that regard is not sustainable in terms of the specific provisions of the rules itself. It is otherwise settled that transfer is an exigency of service, and unless it is shown to be violative of any provisions of the statutory rules or is otherwise found to be mala fide, no interference with it is called for. Challenge laid to the order of transfer, therefore, fails."

The Rules applicable

18. It would be gainful to refer to Rules governing the conditions of service of the petitioner. The foremost to be noticed are the Rules of 1994. The Rules aforesaid, as already said, have been made by the Governor in exercise of powers under the proviso to Article 309 of the Constitution. Clauses (a), (e) and (f) of Rule 5 of the Rules of 1994 are relevant and quoted below:

"5. In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context-

(a) "appointing authority" means an authority empowered to make appointment to a post of Junior clerk in a Government Department or office, under relevant service rules or executive instructions, as the case may be;

(b)-(d) x x x x

(e) "member of the service" means a person substantively appointed under these rules or the rules or orders in force prior to the commencement of these rules to a post in the cadre of the service;

(f) "service" means the service of Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk in a Government Department or office, constituted under relevant service rules or executive instructions, as the case may be;"

(emphasis by Court)

19. Again, under Part-II of the Rules of 1994 vide Rule 6, the cadre of service or the strength of service has been defined as follows:

"6. The strength of the Service in each Government Department or office shall be such as may be determined by the Government from time to time under the relevant service rules or executive instructions, as the case may be."

(emphasis by Court)

20. It is further relevant to refer Rules 16, 17(1) and 18 of the Rules of 1994, which read as follows:

"16. The appointing authority shall determine and intimate to the District Magistrate the number of vacancies to be filled during the course of the year as also the number of vacancies to be reserved for candidates belonging to Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and other categories under Rule 8. The District Magistrate shall notify the vacancies to the Employment Exchange. He shall also invite applications directly from the persons who have their names registered with the Employment Exchange. For this purpose the District Magistrate shall issue an advertisement in daily newspapers of Hindi and Urdu language besides pasting the notice for the same on the notice board.

17. (1) For the purpose of recruitment, there shall be constituted a Selection Committee comprising-

(i) The District Magistrate — Chairman

(ii) An officer belonging to the Scheduled Castes or Scheduled Tribes nominated by the District Magistrate if the District Magistrate does not belong to Scheduled Caste or Scheduled tribe. If the District Magistrate belongs to the Scheduled Castes or Scheduled Tribes an officer other than belonging to Scheduled Castes or Schedule Tribes to be nominated by District Magistrate. — Member

(iii) two officers nominated by the District Magistrate of the whom shall be an officer belonging to the Minority Community and the other belonging to the other Backward Classes. — Member Member

(iv) An expert in Urdu Language nominated by the District Magistrate. — Member Member

(2) x x x x
(3) x x x x

18. The appointing authority shall make appointment by requisitioning the Appointment names of candidates from the District Magistrate who shall provide the names of candidates in order in which they stand in the list prepared under Rule 17."

21. The relevant part of the Medical Service Rules, 1994 are quoted below:

"(3) जब तक विषय या संदर्भ में कोई प्रतिकूल बात न हो इस नियमावली में:

(क) नियुक्त प्राधिकारी का तात्पर्य निदेशक, प्रशासन, चिकित्सा, स्वास्थ्य एवं परिवार कल्याण विभाग, उत्तर प्रदेश से है,

(ख) - (च) x x x x

(छ) "सेवा का सदस्य" का तात्पर्य सेवा के संवर्ग मे किसी पद पर इस नियमावली के प्रारम्भ होने के पूर्व प्रवृत्त नियमों या आदेशों के अधीन मौलिक रूप से नियुक्त व्यक्ति से है,

(ज) 'सेवा' का तात्पर्य उत्तर प्रदेश चिकित्सा स्वास्थ्य एवं परिवार कल्याण विभाग (अधीनस्थ कार्यालय) लिपिक वर्गीय सेवा से है,"

22. It must be mentioned here that the petitioner of Writ-A No. 11378 of 2022 after selection as an Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk in accordance with the Rules of 1994 has been appointed to the office of the District Basic Education Officer, Basti. A different set of rules would be applicable to him, to which allusion would be made later in this judgment.

Findings

23. Upon hearing learned Counsel for parties and carefully perusing the Rules of 1994 and the Medical Service Rules, 1994, in our opinion we need to look into the general scheme of the Rules of 1994 as well as the Medical Service Rules, 1994. The consideration of these two Rules would suffice, so far as all the Writ Petitions and the Special Sppeals being disposed of by this judgment are concerned, except Writ-A No. 11378 of 2022. In case of the writ petition last mentioned, the Rules of 1994 would have to be considered together with the Uttar Pradesh Adhinasth Shiksha Lipik Varg Sewa Niyamawali, 1985 (for short, 'the Rules of 1985').

24. A perusal of the Rules of 1994 shows that these have brought into existence a new class of employees called Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks. The posts have been created under the Government Order dated August 20, 1994. Shortly thereafter, the Rules of 1994 were made by the Governor in exercise of powers conferred by the proviso to Article 309 of the Constitution. The object of enacting the Rules is regulation of recruitment and conditions of service of persons appointed to the Uttar Pradesh Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks Service. Thus, these Rules do not constitute the service, but regulate recruitment and conditions of service to the post of Urdu Translators.

25. The posts of Urdu Translators have been created vide Government Order dated August 20, 1994 by the State Government in the exercise of its executive powers. The number of posts sanctioned, are clearly stipulated to be a figure of 5061. The pay scale is also specified by the Government Order under reference. The creation of posts, against which an Urdu Translator would be appointed, is also given out by the Government Order. The Government Order dated August 20, 1994 specifies as its object the making of Urdu Language a medium to secure one's livelihood and refers to an earlier Government Order dated March 24, 1994 on the subject. The order then proposes to create posts of Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks in the classes of offices that are eight in number, where one post each in the offices of the specified class stands created. Each of the eight classes of offices have been allocated a particular number of posts (class-wise) mentioned in the opening paragraph. There are three annexed lists of offices at the level of State Headquarters, the Commissionerate and the District Headquarters, which would each have an Urdu Translator.

26. The Government Order provides that the posts of Urdu Translators would be created in the manner that in the specified offices, where the post of a Junior Clerk in the pay-scale of 950-1500 is vacant, would be converted to that of Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk in the pay-scale of 950-1500 and an incumbent appointed thereagainst. In the event a post is not available, the Government Order specifies the manner in which the appointment has to be made. In Paragraph No. 4 of the Government Order, it is stipulated that the appointing authority of the newly created posts of Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk would be the same authority, who is competent to appoint Junior Clerks. The appointments are to be made at three levels of offices i.e. State Headquarters, the Commissionerate and the District Headquarters. The appointing authorities at the three levels have been indicated to be different in the Government Order. The Rules that have been enforced w.e.f. September 9, 1994, apparently do not create the posts, but override the Government Order as regards the definition of service of Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks, the Rule governing their service, their appointing authority, the mode of selection and prescribe a cadre strength in each Government Department or office that may be varied and determined by the Government.

27. The Rules of 1994 regulate recruitment and conditions of service of Urdu Translators. Since the Rules are ones made in exercise of the powers under Article 309 of the Constitution, anything to the contrary in the Government Order dated August 20, 1994 would stand effaced. It is evident from a perusal of the Government Order dated August 20, 1994 that to start with posts of Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks were to be created by utilizing in the specified offices, the one available post of Junior Clerk and converting it to an Urdu

Translator in the same grade and scale of pay. No fresh posts of Urdu Translators had been created in the sense that the posts have not been added to the existing strength of Junior Clerks in various Departments of the Government or offices, where the posts of Urdu Translators were created, but the existing posts of Junior Clerks in various Departments and offices, wherein Urdu Translators were to be appointed, have been created by converting existing posts of Junior Clerks.

28. The origin and creation of the post of Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks would show that though a new post is brought into existence by the Government Order dated August 20, 1994, it is not generically different from a Junior Clerk's post. The appendage in the designation 'cum-Junior Clerk' is no vestige of the post's origin, but shows Establishment of a specialized cadre amongst Junior Clerks, who are otherwise essentially the same as any Junior Clerk. Of course, they are to have special qualifications and knowledge in the Urdu language, which is to be employed in the translation work.

29. The Rules of 1994 have constituted the post of Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks vide Rule 2 into a non-Gazetted service comprising Group-C post. The scheme of the Rules of 1994 would, however, show that beyond the description of these Urdu Translators being members of the Uttar Pradesh Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks Service, they are not a centralized service, the incumbents whereof may be moved from one Government Department or office to another. Rule 5(a) defines the appointing authority to mean "the authority empowered to make appointment to a post of Junior Clerk in a Government Department or office, under relevant service rules or executive instructions. ....." Service has been defined under Rule 5(f) to mean "the service of Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk in a Government Department or office, constituted under relevant service rules or executive instructions, ...". Rule 6 of the Rules of 1994 deals with the cadre and stipulates that "strength of the Service in each Government Department or office shall be such as may be determined by the Government from time to time under the relevant service rules or executive instructions, ...".

30. Likewise, Rule 16, which occurs in Part V of the Rules of 1994, provides that "the appointing authority shall determine and intimate to the District Magistrate the number of vacancies to be filled during the course of the year". The District Magistrate has to invite applications through the Employment Exchange and also through advertisement in daily newspapers of Hindi and Urdu language. A Selection Committee headed by the District Magistrate has been provided under Rule 17(1). A competitive examination is envisaged under Rule 17(2), which is a written examination with three papers, marks whereof, including the papers, are specified under sub-Rule (3) of Rule 17. The Selection Committee is entrusted with the task of securing evaluation of the answer-books through persons well versed in Hindi and Urdu Languages. The Selection Committee has further been tasked with preparing a select list of candidates in order of merit going by the aggregate of marks secured by them in the written examination. The number of candidates selected is to be larger than the posts requisitioned, but not larger than by 25%. Under Rule 18, the appointing authority is obliged to make appointment out of the names received from the District Magistrate by adhering to the order in which they stand in the list prepared under Rule 17.

31. The Medical Service Rules, 1994 have also been made by the Governor under the proviso to Article 309 of the Constitution. Part I Rule 2 of the Medical Service Rules, 1994 stipulate that all Group-C posts in the clerical cadre in Uttar Pradesh Medical Health and Family Welfare Department governed by these Rules, would be Group-C Posts. Rule 3(a) of Part I of the Medical Service Rules, 1994 defines the appointing authority as the Director (Administration), Medical Health and Family Welfare, Uttar Pradesh. Part III spells out the various cadres of employees, who are part of the service created under the Medical Service Rules, 1994. There are 11 cadres of employees, amongst whom, Junior Clerks figure under Rule 8 of Part III. There, the nomenclature given to the Junior Clerks is Junior Division Clerks. In this cadre, 85% are to be selected through direct recruitment, whereas the remainder 15% are to be promoted from amongst Class IV employees, working with the Department of Medical Health and Family Welfare, who are Matriculates.

32. Other conditions of eligibility for appointment to the service governed by the Medical Service Rules, 1994 is given out by Part IV, Rule 7 and the educational qualifications in Rule 8 of Part IV. Rule 14, that is to be found in Part V, speaks about the determination of vacancies occurring during the course of a year. It obliges the appointing authority to determine the total number of vacancies occurring during the recruitment year and also those that are required to be filled up in the Reservation Categories of SC, ST and OBC. Those of the vacancies that are to be filled up through the Commission, would be notified to them. The Commission is defined under Rule 3-Ga of the Medical Service Rules, 1994 as the Uttar Pradesh Subordinate Services Selection Commission. Rule 15 of the Rules speaks about direct recruitment. The selections are to be made by the Commission through a written examination, who would draw up a merit list based on marks secured by candidates. The number of candidates in the list drawn up by the Commission would not be more than the 25% of the vacancies. The lists, thus, drawn up by the Commission would be forwarded to the appointing authority. Rule 18 of the Medical Service Rules, 1994 provides for appointment, probation, confirmation and seniority.

33. Shorn of much detail, it is evident that direct recruitment or for that matter promotion to the post of a Junior Clerk governed by the Medical Service Rules, 1994 is to be made by the specified appointing authority, who is the Director (Administration), Medical Health and Family Welfare, Uttar Pradesh. It is, thus, evident from a perusal of the Medical Service Rules that the Uttar Pradesh Medical Health and Family Welfare Subordinate Clerical Grade is a Group-C service, whose appointing authority is the Director. It is a State Level service with subordinate offices and Establishments under the Department of Medical Health and Family Welfare spread across the State.

34. By contrast, the Rules of 1994, under which Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks are appointed, define by Rule 5(a) the appointing authority as the authority empowered to make appointment to the post of Junior Clerk in a Government Department or office. Rule 5(f) of the Rules of 1994 defines the services of Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks as one in a Government Department or office, constituted under the relevant service rules or executive instructions. Under Rule 6 of the Rules of 1994, the strength of service of Urdu Translators has been specified with reference to each Government Department or office, which shall be determined by the Government from time to time under the relevant service rules or executive instructions.

35. The crux of the matter, therefore, is that Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks, though part of a service, called the Uttar Pradesh Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks created under the Rules of 1994, are in fact appointed to a particular Government Department or office by the appointing authority to the cadre of Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks in that Government Department or office. Their service conditions are to be governed by the Service Rules applicable to Junior Clerks working in that Government Department or office, except to the extent that the Rules of 1994 provide otherwise. The Rules of 1994 may be utilized to determine the number of posts of Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks in a Government Department or office by the Government and selection to the post by the Selection Committee, envisaged under those rules. To that extent, the procedure for recruitment may differ from other Clerks recruited under the Medical Service Rules, 1994. But, it is the appointing authority in the concerned Government Department or office, who would send a requisition in case of an Urdu Translator to the District Magistrate, who would make a selection through the Selection Committee envisaged under Rule 16 of the Rules of 1994 and forward the list of candidates in order of merit to the appointing authority.

36. In case of appointment of Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks in the Department of Medical Health and Family Welfare, the mode of recruitment and conditions of service would be governed generally by the Medical Service Rules, 1994, except to the extent that a different procedure or mode is prescribed by the Rules of 1994. So is the case with all other Government Departments or offices, wherein Urdu Translators are to be appointed. The same would be the case with Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks to be appointed to the service known as the Uttar Pradesh Adhinasth Shiksha Lipik Varg Sewa under the Rules of 1994, which is a service under the Department of Basic Education of the Government. This would be dealt with in some more detail a little later.

37. Thus, so far as Junior Clerks, functioning in the subordinate offices of the Department of Medical Health and Family Welfare are concerned, they are appointed by the Director (Administration), Medical Health and Family Welfare of the State. They are clearly a part of State Level Cadre and it does not matter to which subordinate office they are posted or even appointed initially. Their appointment initially made would be no more than posting to a particular subordinate office. Likewise, is the case with Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks. There might be some issue about whether the appointment is one made to an office or Establishment of a Government Department at the State Headquarters, the Divisional Headquarters at the Commissionerate or the District

Headquarters. But, that does not arise in this case. Assuming that the petitioner has been appointed to a District Level Office or a subordinate office in the Establishment of the Director General, Medical Health and Family Welfare, U.P., Lucknow, it does not mean that he has been appointed to a particular District or a District Level Cadre in that sense of the term. He can be transferred to any District Level Office across the State that is under the administrative control of the Director General, Medical Health and Family Welfare, U.P., Lucknow and has a sanctioned post.

38. Reverting to the facts of the petitioner's case, it is his stand that being found fit for selection, a Memo dated April 3, 1995 was issued to the petitioner by the office of the District Magistrate, which the petitioner asserts offered him appointment on the post Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk in the office of the Chief Medical Officer, Muzaffar Nagar. The said appointment order, according to the petitioner, directed him to join services at the office of the Chief Medical Officer, Muzaffar Nagar.

39. This Court must remark here that the aforesaid stand of the petitioner is incorrect. A perusal of Memo No. 487/ Samanya Sahayak, dated April 3, 1995 issued by the office of the District Magistrate, a copy whereof is annexed as Annexure No. 5 to the writ petition, shows that the memo is a certification of the fact that the Selection Committee constituted under the Rules of 1994, after selecting the petitioner to the post of Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk, recommended him for appointment. The petitioner was directed to contact the office of the Chief Medical Officer, Muzaffar Nagar for the purpose. There is no quarrel that the petitioner was appointed to the post of an Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk in the office of the Chief Medical Officer by the competent appointing authority.

40. A perusal of the appointment letter relating to Mohd. Mustaqueem indicates that he has been appointed by the Director (Administration), Medical Health and Family Welfare, U.P. vide order dated May 31, 1995 to the office of the Chief Medical Officer, Muzaffar Nagar, which is a subordinate office under the control of the Director General, Medical Health and Family Welfare, Uttar Pradesh, and ultimately, a part of the Department of the Medical Health and Family Welfare of the State. It is nobody's case that Junior Clerks in the office of the Chief Medical Officer, initially appointed to a particular CMO's office are appointed there for life. The Junior clerks governed by the Medical Service Rules, 1994 hold a transferable post and they can be transferred from one subordinate office in the State to another, wherever there is an office or establishment under the control of the Director General, Medical Health and Family Welfare, U.P., Lucknow.

41. There is no reason, therefore, to infer on the basis of the Rules of 1994 that Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks selected through a Selection Committee under the Chairmanship of the District Magistrate, Muzaffar Nagar and subsequently appointed to the office of the Chief Medical Officer, Muzaffar Nagar under orders of the Director (Administration), Medical Health and Family Welfare, U.P., hold a District Level Cadre Post. The appointing authority is a State Level Authority, that has got subordinate offices or Establishments all across the State. The posts of Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks have been created by the Government Order dated August 20, 1994, no doubt in the office of the Chief Medical Officer amongst others, but there is nothing to show that it is a District Level Cadre Post. The Urdu Translators, like any other Junior Clerk, are to be appointed by a State Level Authority, that is to say, the Director (Administration), Medical Health and Family Welfare, U.P., Lucknow, who is the appointing authority of Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks, in whichever Establishment or subordinate office of the Director (Administration), Medical Health and Family Welfare, U.P., they might be appointed. The fact, that Urdu Translators are not occupants of a District Level Cadre Post, is indicated by Rules 5(a), 5(f) and 6, amongst others, of the Rules 1994.

42. Rule 5(a) of the Rules of 1994 defines the appointing authority to mean the authority empowered to make appointment to a post of Junior Clerk in a Government Department or office, under relevant service rules or executive instructions, which clearly shows that the Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks, though governed for some purposes by the Rules of 1994, are not to be appointed under the Rules 1994, but under some other Rules, called "relevant service rules or executive instructions'. They are to be appointed by the appointing authority under those "relevant rules or executive instructions'. Again, Rule 5(f) of the Rules of 1994 defines the services of Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks in a Government Department or office as a service constituted under the relevant service rules or executive instructions.

43. Rule 6 of the Rules of 1994 stipulates that the strength of service in each Government Department or office, shall be such as may be determined by the Government from time to time under the relevant service rules or executive instructions. The common factor amongst all these provisions of the Rules of 1994 show that once selected under the said Rules, the nature of Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk's Cadre as a District Level Cadre or State Level Cadre, would depend upon the Government Department or office, to which he/ she is appointed after selection. If for example, after selection under the Rules of 1994, the Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk is appointed to a post in the Establishment of the Collectorate, governed by the Uttar Pradesh District Offices (Collectorate) Ministerial Service Rules, 1980 (for short, 'the Rules of 1980'), where the appointing authority is the District Magistrate, except in the case of Office Superintendent, for whom the appointing authority is the Commissioner of the Division, the Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk would be governed by the Rules of 1980. In that case, the incumbent would be a part of a District Level Cadre, like any other Junior Clerk in the Establishment of the Collectorate. But, if appointed to a Government Department or office, that has its Establishments and subordinate offices throughout the State, the conditions of service of such an Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk would be governed by the service rules of that Government Department or office referred to in the Rules of 1994 as the relevant service rules or executive instructions.

44. We are in respectful agreement with the opinion in this regard expressed by the learned Single Judge in Jahid Mohammad v. State of U.P. and others, Writ-A No. 10088 of 2021, decided on August 13, 2021.

45. The learned Counsel for the petitioner has particularly relied upon the decision of this Court of this Court in Trabuddin's case (supra) in support of the submission that the post of Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks are not transferable. Attention of this Court has been drawn to the holding in Trabuddin's case (supra), which together with the contextual background reads:

"16. From the pleadings of the parties, it is not in dispute that respondents themselves do not treat petitioners as members of U.P. Police Force enrolled under Section 2 of the Act, 1861. In the Government Order dated 17.4.1995 also, it was clearly stated that posts of Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerk are outside the police rank posts. It thus cannot be doubted that petitioners are not members of U.P. Police force. Therefore, provisions and special provisions, as the case may be, which are applicable to the members of U.P. Police Force, who are governed by Act, 1961 and rules and regulations and orders issued thereunder, would not be applicable to petitioners. They are simply civilian, non Police personnel staff, posted in Police Department. They would be governed by rules and regulations framed under proviso to Article 309 of the Constitution and executive orders issued by State Government in purported exercise of power under Section 162 read with 166 of the Constitution.

17. With respect to transferability of post, it is not disputed that Rules, 1994 do not contemplate any such thing. State Government has clarified vide order dated 25.8.2006 that neither the posts nor the personnels, working as Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerk, are transferable or should normally be transferred. In view of this specific stand taken by respondent State of U.P., I do not find as to how Police Headquarters can take upon itself the task of laying down conditions of service or policy decision with respect to service matters of petitioners, contrary to the decision taken by State Government, who is principal body having legislative power to lay down conditions of service of these personnel. A transfer policy with respect to Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerk, no doubt is within the realm of State Government. If it decides to make it non transferable, U.P. Police Headquarters, in my view, does not possess any power and none has been shown by respondents-learned Standing Counsel whereby it can take a contrary policy decision. The decision taken in respect of Police personnel, is by virtue of power specifically conferred under Act, 1861 and rules and regulations framed thereunder but no such power has been conferred with respect to civilian staffs and unless such power is vested with them (U.P. Police Headquarter), I do not find that such a policy decision can be taken by it (Police Headquarters) in respect of transfer of persons working as Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerk. The Police Headquarters' circular dated 28.7.1997 is clearly unauthorised, without jurisdiction and illegal, particularly when State Government has already made it clear that posts and personnels making as Urdu Translator cum Junior Clerk are not transferable."

46. We have carefully considered the rules that were under consideration in Trabuddin's case (supra) and the principles laid down there. For one, the decision was rendered in the context that the petitioner was transferred under some policy decision of the Police Headquarters, whereas Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks appointed by the Superintendent of Police, after selection by the District Magistrate in the Police Establishment, are not members of the U.P. Police Force. They are not governed by the Police Act, 1861 or the rules and regulations applicable to enrolled policemen. They are simply civilian, non-police personnel in the Police Department. It was opined that they would be governed by the rules framed under the proviso to Article 309 of the Constitution or an executive order issued by the State Government in the exercise of powers under Articles 162 and 166 of the Constitution. There is a further remark in Trabuddin's case (supra) to the effect that the Rules of 1994 do not contemplate any transfer. It is also observed that the State Government have clarified vide order dated August 25, 2006 that neither the post nor the personnel working as Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks are transferable or should be transferred. It is in view of the aforesaid Government Order dated August 25, 2006 that the Court ultimately concluded that the Police Headquarters could not assume the authority to lay down conditions of service or do policy making. It was remarked that a transfer policy with respect to Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks is within the domain of the State Government and if it had decided that these posts are non-transferable, the U.P. Police Headquarters had no power to take a contrary policy decision.

47. In the aforesaid judgment, the learned Single Judge has not noticed the various provisions of the Rules of 1994, which make it abundantly clear that service conditions, including the appointing authority, the strength of service in each Government Department or office relating to Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks would depend on the Government Department or office, to which an Urdu Translator is appointed, by the relevant service rules, that is to say, the service rules applicable to the Government Department or office, wherever an Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk is appointed. The Rules of 1994 would not govern it as the learned Single Judge has opined. Nor is it within the domain of the Government to issue a Government Order forbidding transfer of all Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks, when according to the relevant service rules applicable to the Government Department or office, where an Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk has been appointed, he holds a transferable post.

48. There are rules framed under the proviso to Article 309 of the Constitution governing the service conditions of Junior Clerks, that would be applicable to Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks by virtue of the Rules of 1994. We are, therefore, not in agreement with the learned Single Judge in Trabuddin that the Rules of 1994 do not contemplate a transfer, and further, that once the Government had forbidden the transfer of Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks by a Government Order, such Urdu Translators-cum-Junior Clerks cannot be transferred, unless the State Government takes a policy decision.

49. To our understanding, the subject is much governed by the Statutory Service Rules in different Departments of the Government and offices, where of course, some executive instructions to supplement the Statutory Rules can be issued, if the relevant rules permit.

Answer to the question referred

50. Our answer to the question referred by the learned Single Judge would, therefore, be that the post of an Urdu

Translator-cum-Assistant Clerk (sic Junior Clerk) may be a District Level Cadre Post or a State Level Cadre Post, depending on the Government Department or office, wherein the Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk is appointed and the service rules applicable to that Department or office.

Disposition of the Writ Petitions and Special Appeals

51. We now proceed to take up the Writ Petitions and Special Appeals as indicated in the opening part of this judgment for final determination, bearing in mind our answer to the question.

Writ-A Nos. 10004, 10365 and 11430 of 2021

52. The petitioner in the leading case was undisputedly appointed to a service, which is not a District Level Cadre Post. It is a post, whose appointing authority is the Director (Administration), Medical Health and Family Welfare, U.P., part of the office of the Director General, Medical Health and Family Welfare, Government of U.P. The Director (Administration), Medical Health and Family Welfare, U.P., or for that matter the Director General, Medical Health and Family Welfare, Government of U.P., functions under the control of the Department of Medical Health and Family Welfare of the State Government. The office of the Director General, Medical Health and Family Welfare, Government of U.P. has Establishments and offices throughout the State and the office of the Chief Medical Officer in any district is one such subordinate Establishment. The Medical Service Rules, 1994, which govern the service of the petitioner by virtue of the Rules of 1994, as these are the relevant rules, provide that service under the Medical Service Rules, 1994 means the Uttar Pradesh Medical Health and Family Welfare Department (Subordinate Office) Clerical Cadre Service. The Rules clearly make the petitioner part of a State Level Service and not a District Cadre Service. The same holds true of the petitioners in Writ-A No. 10365 of 2021 and Writ-A No. 11430 of 2021. Thus, there appears to be no impediment in transferring the petitioners in terms of the orders impugned dated July 15, 2021 under challenge in each of the three writ petitions under reference.

Writ-A No. 11378 of 2022

53. So far as this writ petition is concerned, the petitioner here was selected under the Rules of 1994 by a Selection Committee headed by the District Magistrate, Basti and appointed to the post of an Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk in the office of the District Basic Education Officer, Basti. By the impugned order dated June 28, 2022, he has been transferred from the office of the District Education Officer, Basti to the office of the District Basic Education Officer, Siddharth Nagar.

54. In case of an Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk appointed to the office of the District Basic Education Officer, the relevant service rules within the meaning of the Rules of 1994 would be the Rules of 1985. The service there is defined as Uttar Pradesh Adhinasth Shiksha Lipik Varg Sewa, under Rule 3(Chha) of the Rules of 1985. A "subordinate office' has been defined under Rule 3(Ja) as the office of the Regional Deputy Director/ Regional Inspectress of Girls Schools/ District Inspector of Schools/ District Basic Education Officer/ Rashtrakrit Vibhagiya Pariksha, Allahabad. Likewise, under Rule 3(Ka) of the Rules of 1985, the appointing authority for a post shown in Schedule (Ka) is the authority shown, as such, against the relative post. A perusal of Schedule (Ka) shows that for a post of Junior Clerk the appointing authority is Regional Deputy Director of Education, which the Court was informed during the hearing is now the Director of Education (Basic), Uttar Pradesh.

55. The fact that the appointing authority of a Junior Clerk in the office of the District Education Officer is either the Regional Deputy Director of Education or the Regional Joint Director of Education or the Director of Education (Basic), U.P. would show that the post of Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk in the office of the District Basic Education Officer is not a District Level Cadre post. It is either a Regional Cadre within the region of a Deputy or Joint Director of Education or a State Level Cadre post, if the appointing authority indeed has been upgraded and is the Director of Education (Basic), U.P. The petitioner here has not annexed his letter of appointment, except the recommendation dated February 28, 1995 issued in response to a requisition for appointment of an Urdu Translator under the Government Order. The District Basic Education Officer cannot be the appointing authority of a Junior Clerk in his office under the Rules of 1985 and a fortiori cannot be the appointing authority of an Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk. The transfer order impugned in this petition, transferring the petitioner from Basti to Siddharth Nagar on the ground that it is a District Basic Level Cadre post, cannot be questioned.

Special Appeal (D) No. 97 of 2022

56. Now, taking up this special appeal, we find that the learned Single Judge has declined to interfere with the transfer order dated July 15, 2021 passed by the Director (Administration), Medical Health and Family Welfare, U.P., transferring the writ petitioner from the office of the Chief Medical Officer, Firozabad to the office of the Chief Medical Officer, Etawah. In doing so, the learned Single Judge has followed the decision of the learned Single Judge in Jahid Mohammad, which we have already approved in the earlier part of this judgment, on principle, while answering the question referred. Even otherwise, in view of the answer that we have given to the question and the remarks in relation to an Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk governed by the Medical Service Rules, 1994, which are applicable in this case, we find no infirmity in the order impugned passed by the learned Single Judge.

Special Appeal No. 52 of 2022

57. In this appeal, the judgment of the learned Single Judge in Jahid Mohammad is under challenge. We have already expressed our agreement with the learned Judge's opinion on principle while answering the question referred to us, dealt with in the earlier part of this judgment. On facts, we find that the writ petitioner here was transferred from the office of the Chief Medical Officer, Meerut to the office of the Chief Medical Officer, Agra in the same capacity, that is to say, as an Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk. His conditions of service are governed by the Medical Service Rules, 1994, where there is no lack of jurisdiction in the appointing authority, that is to say, the Director (Administration), Medical & Health Services, U.P., Lucknow in transferring an Urdu Translator-cum-Junior Clerk from one subordinate office to another, located in different districts. We do not find any good ground to interfere with the order impugned.

Special Appeal No. 522 of 2022

58. So far as this appeal is concerned, it has been filed against the direction carried in the order dated July 20, 2022 passed by the learned Single Judge in Contempt Application (Civil) No. 1452 of 2022. The direction has been issued on the foot of the interim order dated September 7, 2021 and confirmed on September 14, 2021, passed by the learned Single Judge in Writ-A No. 10004 of 2021, Mohd. Mustaqueem v. State of U.P. and others. The contempt proceedings were initiated with a case that notwithstanding the order of the learned Single Judge in Mohd. Mustaqueem's case (supra) to the effect that till the next date fixed in the case, the petitioner shall not be relieved, unless he has already been relieved, the petitioner has been relieved in willful violation. A clarification of the order was made on September 14, 2021 and despite the further order dated October 8, 2021, the petitioner was relieved from his earlier posting pursuant to the impugned transfer order. The learned Single Judge by the order impugned dated July 20, 2022 has issued directions to the effect that if the order passed on the writ side is complied with by the next date fixed before the learned Single Judge in the contempt proceedings, an affidavit of the contemnor would suffice; else the officer in contempt shall remain present in Court and charge shall be framed.

59. The entire edifice of the proceedings in Contempt Application (Civil) No. 1452 of 2022 are the interim orders of the learned Single Judge passed in Mohd. Mustaqueem's case (supra), which by the present common judgment and order, insofar as it relates to the said writ petition, we have found no merit in and propose to dismiss it, which would bring to an end all interim orders passed therein. No useful purpose would, therefore, be served in proceeding with the contempt in terms of the order dated July 20, 2022, which, therefore, ought to be set aside.

Special Appeal No. 523 of 2022

60. In this appeal, the order impugned is the order dated July 20, 2022 passed by the learned Single Judge in Contempt Application (Civil) No. 1453 of 2022. By that order, the learned Single Judge has issued certain directions ordering the contemnor-opposite party to comply with the orders dated August 18, 2021 and September 14, 2021 passed in Writ-A No. 10365 of 2021, or else appear before the Court by the date fixed for framing of charges. Since by this common judgment and order, we propose to dismiss the aforesaid writ petition, which would bring an end all interim orders passed therein, no useful purpose would be served by permitting the directions made by the learned Single Judge in the contempt proceedings to survive.

Orders

61. In the result, Writ-A Nos. 10004 of 2021, 10365 of 2021, 11430 of 2021, 11378 of 2022, Special Appeal Defective No. 97 of 2022 and Special Appeal No. 52 of 2022 fail and are dismissed. All interim orders passed in the writ petitions, wherever operating, are hereby vacated. Special Appeal Nos. 522 of 2022 and 523 of 2022 are hereby allowed. The order of the learned Single Judge, impugned in each of the two appeals, are set aside. The Contempt Applications pending before the learned Single Judge are consigned to records.

(2023) 4 ILRA 619
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 17.03.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE VIVEK CHAUDHARY, J.

Writ-A No. 10405 of 2022

Jai Prakash Retired (Kar Samaharta) ...Petitioner

Versus

State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Pradip Kumar Srivastava

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Sri Jai Prakash Gupta

A. Service Law – Pension – Retirement Benefits - U.P. Nagarpalika Non-Centralized Services Retirement Benefits Regulation, 1984 (Rules of 1984) - U.P. Qualifying Service for Pension and Validation Act, 2021 - It is settled since long that daily wager employees are entitled to pensionary benefits counting their services from the date of their initial appointment and not from the date of their regularization. (Para 7)

The facts of the case are that the petitioner was appointed as daily wage employee on 01.01.1989. He continued to serve on Class IV Post as Clerk. He was treated as regular employee and was regularized on 03.05.2011 and thereafter, he retired on 31.01.2020. (Para 2)

B. Words and Phrases – 'post' - Section 2 of the Act of 2021 is read down and it is held that the word 'post' used in Section 2 of the Act of 2021, be it temporary or permanent, has to be read down as 'services rendered by a government employee, be it of temporary or permanent nature'. (Para 7)

The present Rules of 1984 are parallel to the Rules of St. Government which have been read down by the Supreme Court, being held in violation of Article 14 of the Constitution of India, as they create an artificial categorization of similarly situated employees. In the present case also an artificial classification is created as admittedly, as the daily wage employees perform the same duties as the regular employees and are throughout treated as the regular employee. They were also regularized in continuation of their services. Thus, the matter is squarely covered by the law settled in case of Prem Singh (Infra). (Para 8)

Respondent no.3-Commissioner, Gorakhpur Mandal, Gorakhpur is directed to ensure regular payment of pensionary and other benefits to the petitioner under/Rules of 1984 by counting past services rendered by petitioner before his regularization for the purpose of calculating post retiral benefits within a period of three months. (Para 10)

Writ petition allowed and impugned order dated 09.07.2020 is set aside. (E-4)

Precedent followed:

Dr. Shyam Kumar Vs St. of U.P. & ors., Writ-A No. 8968 of 2022 (Para 7)

Present petition challenges the order dated 09.07.2020, whereby the respondent authority has refused to grant him pension and other benefits on retirement which he claims to be entitled of.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Vivek Chaudhary, J.)

1. Heard counsel for the parties.

2. Petitioner has approached this Court challenging the order dated 09.07.2020 whereby the respondent authority has refused to grant him pension and other benefits on retirement which he claim to be entitled. The facts of the case are that the petitioner was appointed as daily wage employee on 01.01.1989. He continued to serve on Class IV Post as Clerk. He was treated as regular employee and was regularized on 03.05.2011 and thereafter, he retired on 31.01.2020.

