Case Arising From
Order dated 25.3.2010 passed by the District Judge Agra in Misc. Case No.454 of 2002 (Union of India Vs. M/S Bhular Construction Company) by which objections filed by the petitioner under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 for setting aside the award dated 27.5.2002 given by sole arbitrator has been rejected.

Appearances for Parties

Counsel for Respondent(s) : Bharat Bhushan Paul, Salil Kumar Rai, Saurabh Paul

(Delivered by Hon'ble Manish Kumar Nigam, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

2. This petition has been filed challenging the order dated 25.3.2010 passed by the District Judge Agra in Misc.

Case No.454 of 2002 (Union of India Vs. M/S Bhular Construction Company) by which objections filed by the petitioner under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 for setting aside the award dated 27.5.2002 given by sole arbitrator has been rejected. Initially, this petition was filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India being Writ C No.37880 of 2010. This court by order dated 3.7.2010 issued notices thereafter, it appears that the case was listed on 22.10.2021 wherein the counsel for respondent no.1 raised an objection with regard to maintainability of the petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. Later on, an amendment application was filed by counsel for the petitioner for converting this petition to a petition under Article 227 of Constitution of India. The said application was allowed by this Court by the order dated 21.7.2022 and the petition has been converted in a petition under Article 227 of the Constitution of India. When the matter was taken up, an objection was raised by learned counsel for the respondents that against an order passed under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, rejecting or allowing the objections filed against the arbitral award, an appeal lies under Section 37 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, and therefore, this petition cannot be entertained even under Article 227 of the Constitution of India.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner relied upon a case being Matter Under Article 227 No. 4762 of 2024 (U.P. Awas Vikas Parishad through Housing Commissioner, Lucknow and others Vs. M/S Universal Contractors and Engineers Ltd.) decided on 3.10.2024 wherein, this Court has taken a view that a petition filed under Article 227 of the Constitution of India challenging the order passed by the Arbitral Tribunal cannot be entertained.

4. It has been submitted by learned counsel for the respondents that since the petitioner has statutory alternative remedy under Section 37 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 this petition may not be entertained.

5. Confronted with the arguments raised by learned counsel for the respondents, learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that it is correct that petitioner has a remedy of filing an appeal under Section 37 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 but further submitted that since the petition has been entertained by this Court therefore he may be permitted to convert this petition into an appeal filed under Section 37 of the Act as the jurisdiction to entertain an appeal is also with the High Court.

6. Learned counsel for the respondents further submitted that such a permission cannot be granted and the proper course for the petitioner is to withdraw this petition and file an appeal wherein he may seek for condonation of delay in filing the appeal taking recourse under Section 5 read with Section 14 of the Limitation Act. Learned counsel for the respondents in this regard relied upon a judgment of this Court in case of Ram Mohan Lal Brij Bhushan Lal Vs. Union of India reported in 1980 SCC Online All 319 : (1980) 6 ALR 573 wherein relying upon a Supreme Court judgment in case of Vishesh Kumar Vs. Shanti Prasad reported in 1980 All. CJ 233, this Court has rejected the prayer for permission to convert the revision into the writ petition.

7. This Court in case of Kailash Chandra Vs. Ram Naresh Gupta reported in 1982 All. CJ 608 held that conversion of a revision into writ petition under Article 226/227 is permissible. The judgment in case of Vishesh Kumar (supra) was distinguished by this Court. Paragraph Nos.3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10 of judgment in case of Kailash Chandra Vs. Ram Naresh Gupta (supra) are quoted as under:

3. Counsel for the opposite party however, urged that this cannot be done, as revision and a writ petition are distinct proceedings. In support of this contention he has relied upon the obrervations of the Supreme Court in Vishesh Kumar's case, which are to the following effect :-

"It has been urged by the appellant in Vishesh Kumar v. Shanti Prasad (Civil Appeal No. 2844 of 1979 : 1980 All. CJ 233) that in case the court is of the opinion that a revision petition under section 115, Code of Civil Procedure, is not maintainable, the case should be remitted to the High Court for consideration as a petition under Article 227 of the a Constitution. We are unable to accept that prayer. A revision petition under section 115 is a separate and distinct proceedings from petition under Article 227 of the Constitution, and one cannot be identified with the other. I will consider the impact of these observations a little later, trom I am of the view that the question as to whether a revision can be converted into writ petition was not canvassed before the Supreme Court in Vishesh Kumar's case, and these observations do not lay down any such proposition.

4. To begin with, it will be convenient to consider as to whether it is possible to convert a revision into a writ petition under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India.

5. There is preponderance of judicial opinion that this can be done. In Naqshe Ali v. U. P. Sunni Central Waqf Board (1970 ALJ 815) , a revision had been filed against the order of the Civil Judge, constituted as a Tribunal under section 10 of the U. P. Muslim Waqfs Act, and the question arose as to whether a revision under section 115 of the C. P. C. lay against his order. It was held that no revision was maintainable against any order of the said Tribunal K. B. Asthana, J., as he then was, however, held that although a revision against the order of the Tribunal was not maintainable under section 115 of the C. P. C., powers under Article 227 of the Constitution can be exercised for quashing the order of the Tribunal. This is what he said:-

"Here I may dispose of an argument raised on behalf of the opposite party that I ought not to exercise my powers under Article 227 of Constitution as according to the Rules of the court, the application under Article 227 will not be in order, the procedure for its admission by a Bench of the judges having not been complied with. I do not think there is any substance in this ultra technical objection. The question that I am considering is of the exercise of power of this court under Article 227 of the Constitution. The Rules of the court permit a single judge of this court to give the necessary final directing under Article 227 of the Constitution. The learned counsel for the opposite party was not able to point out any prejudice being caused to the opposite party. The whole record is here and all the material on which the decision will turn is before the court. In these circumstances the filing of affidavits by the parties can be dispensed with without causing any hardship of prejudice to any of the parties.

6. My lord the Chief Justice in the case of Kirat Singh and another v. Madho Singh and others (19 9 AWC 296) exercised powers under Article 227 of the Constitution in a case where a revision was filed. Similarly in Smt. Abida Begam and others v. Rent Control & Eviction Officer, LucLuow (AIR 1958 Allahabad 675) a Division Bench exercised powers under Article 226 of the Constitution in special Appeal filed against the decision of a single judge, see page 681 of the report.

7. In Smt. Deepika Alizabath Couto v. Babriel Anthony Couto (AIR 1978 All. 27: 1978 All CJ 57 FB), an objection under section of the Divorce Act of 1869 was filed in this court for confirmation of the decree of dissolution of marriage passed by the District Judge under section 10 of the Act. The petition was held to be not maintainable; but never the less the court exercised powers under Article 227 of the Constitution and quashed the order.

8. That the courts have treated revision as appeals or permitted them to be converted into appeal is amply illustrated by the decisions in Bhori v. Vidya Ram (AIR 1978 All. 299: 1978 All. CJ 186), Akkanagamma and others v. R. Nagesworiah and another (AIR 1968 Mysore 226).

9. The conversion of one proceedings into another viz., an appeal into a revision has been approved by the Supreme Court in the Raliable Water Supply Service of India (Pvt.) Ltd. v. The Union of India and others (AIR 1971 Supreme Court 2083). These cases clearly establish that the power of converting a particular proceeding into another, exists in the Court. The principle appears to be founded on the consideration that when a cause is before the court and justice requires that the matter be decided finally, matters of procedure and technicalities should not be allowed to stand in the way of dispensation of justice. The conversion can also be justified on the principle of avoiding multiplicity of proceedings.

10. The decision in Phul Kumart v. State and another (AIR 1957 All. 495) does not strike a different note, for all that the case lays down is that a revision cannot be treated as an application under Article 227 of the Constitution of India. Now, the request for treating a revision as a petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, in my view is entirely different from a request for converting a revision into a petition under Article 227 of the Constitution. The reasons being that in one case the applicant wants, without any further do, that his application under section 115 of the C. P. C. should be treated as a petition under Article 226/ 227 of the Constitution, while in the other he wants to take further steps, viz., by paying the necessary court fee filing necessary affidavits etc., so as to comply with the Rules of the court relating to petitions under Article 226/ 227 of the Constitution of India, so that the revision is substituted by a proper petition under Article 226/227 of the Constitution. In the first case the request cannot obviously be allowed, for the revision petition would not comply with the formalities, of a petition under Article 226/ 227 of the Constitution, while in the other case after conversion is effected it would so. The observations of the Supreme Court relied upon by the counsel for the opposite party only negatived the first approach, viz., request for treating a revision as a petition under Article 226/227 of the Constitution. The Supreme Court while refusing such a request cannot be taken to have dissented from the established practice of the courts permitting conversion of one particular type of proceeding into another. I think, that while interpreting this decision of the Supreme Court, one should keep in mind the principle that unless a decision clearly intents so, it should not be read as up setting the law declared and the procedure followed by High Courts for a long number of years.

8. In case of R. Rajagopal @ R.R. Gopal and another Vs. State of T.N. and others reported in AIR 1995 SC 264 in paragraph No.27, the Hon'ble Supreme Court held as under :

27. Lastly, we must deal with the objection raised by the respondent as to the maintainability of the present writ petition. It is submitted that having filed a writ petition for similar reliefs in the Madras High Court, which was dismissed as not maintainable under a considered order, the petitioners could not have approached this Court under Article 32 of the Constitution. The petitioners, however, did disclose the above fact but they stated that on the date of their filing the writ petition, no orders were pronounced by the Madras High Court. It appears that the writ petition was filed at about the time the learned single Judge of the Madras High Court pronounced the orders on the office objections. Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, we are not inclined to throw out the writ petition on the said ground. The present writ petition can also be and is hereby treated as a Special Leave Petition against the orders of the learned single Judge of the High Court.

9. In view of the case law discussed above, I am of the opinion that there is no impediment in case a particular kind of proceeding is not maintainable and a different kind of proceeding lies in respect thereof, the Court has jurisdiction to convert one into other subject to limitation and court fees as the case may be. Thus, following the earlier decisions of this Court as well as of the Supreme Court and the established practice of permitting one particular type of proceedings to be converted into another, I permit the petitioner to convert this petition under Article 227 into an appeal under Section 37 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 and grant him three weeks time to do so.

10. After conversion, this petition be listed before appropriate Bench having jurisdiction in the matter.

Issue for consideration

Preliminary Objection as to maintainability of Application u/s 528 BNSS-

Headnotes

Default bail-Default bail application filed-rejected-impugned- on account of non-filing of complaint within ninety days-from the date of arrest-allegation against applicant being an employee of Ordnance Factory-was sharing confidential information and documents through WhatsApp to an agent of Pakistan-preliminary objection-Section 21(4) of the Act 2008-appeal shall lie to the High Court against an order of the Special Court granting or refusing bail-notwithstanding contained in Section 378 (3) Cr.P.C.- no otherwise definition can be given against the intent of the legislature. Application not maintainable-dismissed.

Held, apparent from the provision of Section 21(4) of the Act 2008 that an appeal shall lie to the High Court against an order of the Special Court granting or refusing bail, notwithstanding contained in Sub Section (3) of Section 378 of the Cr.P.C. This provision is overt in its mandate and while applying this provision in the present case, it is apparent that this does not speak regarding any difference of any kind of refusing or granting bail, meaning thereby that if the Special Court (NIA) grants or refuses the bail, the same is amenable to the provisions of the appeal, prescribed under Section 21 of the Act 2008 and, therefore, in presence of the obvious provisions, no otherwise definition can be given against the intent of the legislature. Appearances of parties

Counsel for Applicant(s) : Pranjal Jain, Nitin Mathur, Purnendu Chakravarty
Counsel for Opposite Party(s) : G.A.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shree Prakash Singh, J.)

1. Heard Sri Purnendu Chakravarty, learned counsel assisted by Ms. Aishwarya Saxena, Mr. Pranajal Jain and Mr. Rohit Kanaujia, learned counsels for the applicant and Sri Shiv Nath Tilhari, learned counsel for the State of U.P.

2. Present application is directed against the order dated 7.7.2025 passed by learned Additional Sessions Judge, Court No.3/Special Judge/NIA, Lucknow whereby the default bail application on account of non-filing of complaint, within ninety days, from the date of arrest, has been rejected.

3. At the very outset, a preliminary objection has been taken by Sri Shiv Nath Tilhari, learned counsel appearing for the State that the F.I.R. No.1/2025 dated 13.3.2025 was registered under Section 148 BNS and Section 3/4/5 of the Official Secrets Act, 2023 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Act 2023'), against the applicant, while alleging that the applicant being an employee of Ordnance Factory, Kanpur, was sharing confidential information and documents through WhatsApp to one Neha Sharma who is said to be an agent of Pakistan, compromising the safety and interest of the Country. He submits that the schedule as prescribed under the National Investigation Agency Act, 2008 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Act 2008') reveals that Chapter VI of the Indian Penal Code [Sections 121 to 130 (both inclusive)] are find mention and, therefore, this is amenable to the jurisdiction of Special Court designated/constituted under the scheme of the Act 2008 read with the Rules 2008 made thereunder. He submits that Section 121A of I.P.C. corresponds to Section 148 in Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 (hereinafter referred to as 'the BNS'). He further submits that the order impugned dated 7.7.2025 has admittedly been passed by the Special Court (NIA) wherein default bail application has been rejected. He argued that any order passed by the Special Court (NIA) is appealable as per the provisions given under Section 21 of the Act 2008.

4. For ready reference, Section 21 of the Act 2008 is reproduced hereinunder:-

"21. Appeals. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code, an appeal shall lie from any judgment sentence or order, not being an interlocutory order, of a Special Court to the High Court both on facts and on law.

(2) Every appeal under sub-section (1) shall be heard by a bench of two Judges of the High Court and shall, as far as possible, be disposed of within a period of three months from the date of admission of the appeal.

(3) Except as aforesaid, no appeal or revision shall lie to any court from any judgment, sentence or order including an interlocutory order of a Special Court.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (3) of Section 378 of the Code, an appeal shall lie to the High Court against an order of the Special Court granting or refusing bail.

(5) Every appeal under this section shall be preferred within a period of thirty days from the date of the judgment, sentence or order appealed from:

Provided that the High Court may entertain an appeal after the expiry of the said period of thirty days if it is satisfied that the appellant had sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal within the period of thirty days:

Provided further that no appeal shall be entertained after the expiry of period of ninety days."

5. Referring to Sub Section (4) of Section 21, he submits that an appeal shall lie to the High Court, against an order of the Special Court, granting or refusing bail and in the present case, the default bail application has been rejected, thus, he submits that the order impugned dated 7.7.2025 passed by the Special Court (NIA) is appealable under the provision of Act 2008 and therefore, being an efficacious and alternative statutory remedy available to the applicant, the present application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. is not maintainable, as such, this application may be dismissed on this ground alone.

6. Per contra, learned counsel for the applicant has opposed the contention aforesaid and submits that Section 167(2) Cr.P.C. (corresponding to Section 187(3) BNS, 2023) is a statutory provision which confers indefeasible right upon accused to be released on bail, on non-filing of charge sheet, within the prescribed time period whereas Section 439 Cr.P.C./Section 483 Bharatiya Nyaya Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (hereinafter referred to as 'the BNSS') is regular bail procedure and is wholly discretionary in nature. He also submits that Sub Section (1) (2) of Section 21 of Act 2008 provides right to appeal against the Judgment, sentence or order, not being an interlocutory order. Further submitted that Section 21(3) of the Act provides an exclusion clause, restricting appeals against interlocutory orders and Section 21(4) of the Act 2008 prescribes the right to appeal against an order granting or refusing bail which is to be construed with reference to Section 439 Cr.P.C./483 BNSS and does not apply to Section 167 (2) Cr.P.C./187(3) of BNSS 2023.

7. In support of his contention, he has placed reliance on a Judgement of this Court in the case of Harendra Vs. State of U.P. and another reported in 2020 SCC OnLine All 850 and has referred to para 13, which reads as under:-

"13. Thus, on the facts of the case that the applications for default bail were filed prior to the filing of the charge-sheet and following the law as laid down by the Supreme Court in the case of Union of India Through General Bureau of Investigation v. Nirala Yadav alias Raja Ram Yadav alias Deepak Yadav (Supra), I am of the view that the applicants were entitled to be enlarged on statutory bail and non-grant of statutory bail and the rejection of the application for grant of statutory bail was wholly untenable in law."

8. He also argued that non-filing of charge sheet within the prescribed time, mandates release of an accused under statutory remedy of default bail and such release is a deemed release under Chapter XXXIII of Cr.P.C., however, order for the bail can be cancelled under Section 439 (2) of Cr.P.C. which is subject to cancellation and, therefore, any order which is subject to cancellation, withdrawal or recession, would not be a final order. He also added that test of finality has to be seen in terms of Sub Section (2) which bars alteration or review of Judgment or final judgement except of clerical or arithmetical errors and since this Court possesses inherent power to give effect to any order under this Code empowers it to give effect to Section 167 (2) of Cr.P.C. while directing the release of an accused on statutory bail.

9. Concluding his arguments, he submits that the order passed under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C./187(3) BNSS is not passed, on the merits of this case, thus, the same cananot be treated as a final order. and, therefore, the instant application under Section 482 Cr.P.C./582 of BNSS is maintainable and, therefore, the preliminary objection may be rejected.

10. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and after perusal of the record, it transpires that at the very inception, the preliminary objection has been raised by the counsel appearing for the State, on the premises of Section 21 of the Act 2008, while submitting that the appeal is maintainable against any order passed by the Special Court constituted/designated under the provisions of Act 2008.

11. By way of the present application, the order passed under Section 187(3) of BNSS whereby the default bail has been rejected, is under challenge. The provision prescribed under Section 187(3) of BNSS contains the 'statutory bail', which in fact identifies the indefeasible right given to the accused person. In fact, the right of default bail can be exercised once and not likewise the other provision of bail as prescribed under Section 439 of the Cr.P.C. where at the subsequent stage ,more bail applications can be instituted, in form of second, third and fourth bail application and so on.

12. The provision of statutory bail under Section 187(3) BNSS/167(2) Cr.P.C.

is whether an interlocutory order or a final order. The test which could be applied, for an order, being interlocutory, intermediary or final, can be summarized in two folds; firstly that any such order, which substantially affects the right of the accused or parties, cannot be termed as an interlocutory order and secondly, any right, which accrue out of some statutory provisions, is also not an interlocutory order. Time and again, this issue has exhaustively been dealt with by the Apex Court starting from a three Judge Bench decision of the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Madhu Limaye Vs. the State of Maharashtra, reported in (1977) 4 SCC 551 wherein the ratio drawn in the case of Amar Nath and others Vs. State of Haryana and another, reported in (1977) 4 SCC 137 has partly been affirmed, holding that the term 'interlocutory order' as is used in Section 397 of the Cr.P.C. does not invariably mean the converse of the term of 'final order' and certain guidelines were provided to examine that a particular order is not an 'interlocutory order'.

13. Subsequently, the Apex Court in the case of V.C. Shukla Vs. State reported in 1980 Supp SCC 92, considering the ratio drawn in Amar Nath (supra) and Madhu Limaye (supra), has held that the intermediate, quasi final and final orders are revisable. In this view, the provision of statutory bail under Section 187(3) of BNSS is an intermediary order and the same is revisable, subject to any other provision provided in a special Act.

14. Coming to the crux of the issue of maintainability, it is apparent from the provision of Section 21(4) of the Act 2008 that an appeal shall lie to the High Court against an order of the Special Court granting or refusing bail, notwithstanding contained in Sub Section (3) of Section 378 of the Cr.P.C. This provision is overt in its mandate and while applying this provision in the present case, it is apparent that this does not speak regarding any difference of any kind of refusing or granting bail, meaning thereby that if the Special Court (NIA) grants or refuses the bail, the same is amenable to the provisions of the appeal, prescribed under Section 21 of the Act 2008 and, therefore, in presence of the obvious provisions, no otherwise definition can be given against the intent of the legislature. This Court is also aware of the trite law that a thing should be done in the manner prescribed under the statute, not otherwise. Admittedly, vide order dated 7.7.2025, the learned Special Judge (NIA) has rejected the default bail application of the applicant. Thus, against such order the remedy of appeal is provided under the Special Act, i.e., Act 2008.

15. Further this Court also noticed that the law referred by counsel for the applicant, which is rendered in case of Harendra Vs. State of U.P. and another (supra), is on different factual matrix and this will not apply to the facts and circumstances of the present case as the dispute in question in the above-said case was regarding completion of ninety days as the charge sheet was dispatched on the same day when the application for default bail was moved, therefore, this will not cover the field of the issue in the instant matter.

16. Ergo, this Court is of the considered opinion that the instant application challenging the order dated 7.7.2025 passed by the Special Court (NIA) is not maintainable, thus, preliminary objection taken by counsel for the State; sustains.

17. The present application is hereby dismissed as not maintainable.

18. However, it is open to the applicant to pursue the appropriate remedy, provided under law.

19. Consigned to the records.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shree Prakash Singh, J.)

1. Heard Mr. Satyendra Kumar Tewari and Mr. Rajesh Pandey, learned counsels for the applicant, Mr. Anirudh Kumar Singh, learned A.G.A.-I, Mr. Sushil Kumar Pandey and Mr. Nirmal Kumar Pandey, learned A.G.A.'s appearing for the State.

2. The instant application filed under section 482 Cr.P.C./528 of the B.N.S.S.,2023, is directed against the order dated 03-07-2025, passed by the learned Sessions Judge, Sultanpur, in Sessions Trial No. 208 of 2024, arising out of Case Crime No. 363 of 2023, under sections 323, 324, 342, 504, 506 readwith section 34 and section 120-B, 307 and 302 of I.P.C. whereby, the learned Sessions Judge has altered the charge u/s 302 I.P.C. to u/s 304 of I.P.C. and u/s 307 I.P.C. to u/s 308 I.P.C., thus the charges are framed under sections 323/34,342/34, 308/34,304/34,504,506,120-B of I.P.C.

3. The briefly stated facts are that the opposite parties no. 2 to 4 had an old enmity with the applicant, therefore, on 20-11-2023, in the morning, when the nephews of applicant namely, Vikas Yadav and Amit Yadav, were going for natural call, the opposite parties no. 2 to 4 tried to crush them by a vehicle namely, Bolero and when, an alarm was raised, the accused persons came out from their vehicle and started beating both the injured, with 'Lathi-Danda' and with sharp edged weapons and when the passersby intervened, the opposite parties no. 2 to 4 ran away from the place of occurrence. In the said incident, both the injured persons received serious injuries and they were taken to the hospital at Sultanpur, thereafter, they were referred to Trauma Centre, Lucknow. During the treatment, one of the nephew of the applicant namely, Amit Yadav died on 21-11-2023 and an information regarding his death was given at the police station on 22-11-2023.

4. The first information report bearing Case Crime No. 0363 of 2023, was initially lodged under sections 323, 324, 342, 504 & 506 of I.P.C. at Police Station-Motigarpur, District-Sultanpur and after the death of one of the injured, sections 302 & 307 of I.P.C. were added.

5. The post-mortem report, which was conducted at government hospital,Lucknow, finds mention of five injuries over the body of the deceased. The case was committed for trial before the learned Sessions Judge, Sultanpur and thereafter, an application under section 216 of Cr.P.C. for altering the charges was moved on behalf of the opposite parties no. 2 to 4, on 16-05-2024, whereafter, the applicant filed objection, on 21-05-2024 and the learned trial court vide order dated 17-01-2025, allowed the application under section 216 of Cr.P.C. moved by the accused persons and altered the charges from sections 302 & 307 of I.P.C. to sections 304 & 308 of I.P.C., respectively.

6. Being aggrieved with the order dated 17-01-2025, passed by the learned Sessions Judge, Sultanpur, the applicant moved an application under section 482 Cr.P.C./528 of B.N.S.S.,2023 bearing no. 2533 of 2025, wherein this court passed an order on 18-04-2025. This court vide aforesaid order, quashed the order dated 17.1.2025 and the learned trial court was given liberty to pass appropriate order keeping in view the provisions contained in Section 216 of Cr.P.C., on it's own instance, and also keeping in view the observations made in the order, after affording opportunity of hearing to all concerned.

7. After the aforesaid order was passed, the applicant again approached the learned trial court while moving an application with order dated 18-04-2025,wherein the order impugned dated 03-07-2025 is passed by the learned Sessions Judge, Sultanpur.

8. Having at a glace of the order impugned, it is apparent that the learned Sessions Judge, has observed that though the application No. 8-B, under section 216 of Cr.P.C. was moved on behalf of the opposite parties no. 2 to 4, but, when the objection was raised on it's admissibility, orally, the application was not pressed and after noting the oral admission for not pressing the application by the applicant, the order dated 17-01-2025 was passed, but, the same was concealed by the applicant while filing the application under section 482 Cr.P.C./528 of the B.N.S.S.,2023 bearing no. 2533 of 2025, before this court.

9. After recording the aforesaid facts, the trial court proceeded afresh, in the matter, in compliance of the directions made by this court, on 18-04-2025.

10. The questions cropped up before this court are in two folds :-

(1) That whether the charges can be altered on an application moved by either of the parties and secondly, at the stage of framing of charges, what material is to be looked into by the learned trial court.

11. When this court examines that whether on an application moved by either of the parties, charges could be altered or not, the content and intent of Section 216 of the Cr.P.C., is necessarily to be gone into. Section 216 of Cr.P.C. reads as under :-

216. Court may alter charge :- (1) Any Court may alter or add to any charge at any time before judgment is pronounced.

(2) Every such alteration or addition shall be read and explained to the accused.

(3) If the alteration or addition to a charge is such that proceeding immediately with the trial is not likely, in the opinion of the Court, to prejudice the accused in his defence or the prosecutor in the conduct of the case, the Court may, in its discretion, after such alteration or addition has been made, proceed with the trial as if the altered or added charge has been the original charge.

(4) If the alteration or addition is such that proceeding immediately with the trial is likely, in the opinion of the Court, to prejudice the accused or the prosecutor as aforesaid, the Court may, either direct a new trial or adjourn the trial for such period as may be necessary.

(5) If the offence stated in the altered or added charge is one for the prosecution of which previous sanction is necessary, the case shall not be proceeded with until such sanction is obtained, unless sanction has been already obtained for a prosecution on the same facts as those on which the altered or added charge is founded.

12. From a bare reading of the aforesaid provisions, it is abundantly clear that the court is empowered to alter the charge, which is apparent from the start wordings of the provision, which says that 'Any court may alter or add to any charge at any time before Judgment is pronounced' and further the aforesaid provision emphasizes from reading of the head-note (heading) of the provision, which says that the 'Court may alter charge'. The aforesaid provision is indicative of the intent of the legislature that there is no such provision that anyone other than the court, can have a right to alter the charge.

13. Time and again, this issue has been dealt with by the Hon'ble Apex Court and recently, reiterating the view earlier taken by it, this has been held in the case of Directorate of Revenue Intelligence Vs Raj Kumar Arora and Others, reported in 2025 SCC Online SC 819, in paragraph no. 144, as under :-

144. The Court may alter or add to any charge either upon its own motion or on an application by the parties concerned. Therefore, such a power can be invoked by the Court suo moto as well. This power under Section 216 CrPC is exclusive to the concerned Court and no party can seek such an addition or alteration of charge as a matter of right by filing an application. It would be the Trial Court which must decide whether a proper charge has been framed or not, at the appropriate stage of the trial. On a consideration of the broad probabilities of the case, the total effect of the evidence and documents adduced, the Trial Court must satisfy itself that the exercise of power under Section 216 is necessary. The provision has been enacted with the salutary object to ensure a fair and full trial to the accused person(s) in each case.

14. From the abovesaid ratio, it is abundantly clear that it has been a constant view of the Hon'ble Supreme Court that the court may alter or add any charge on it's own or on an application moved by the parties concerned, but, such powers can be invoked by the court suo-moto, meaning thereby that the power under section 216 of Cr.P.C. is exclusive to the wisdom of the court concerned and no party can claim the alteration in the charges, as a matter of right.

15. The Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of State of Rajasthan Vs Ashok Kumar Kashyap, reported in (2021) 11 Supreme Court Cases,191, has held in paragraph nos. 10,11 & 15 that at the stage of framing of the charges or rejecting the application of discharge, it is to be looked into that whether prima-facie, a case has been made out and whether the accused is required to be further tried or not, thus, the mini trial is not permitted. Paragraph nos. 10,11 & 15 of the Judgment are extracted as under :-

10. By the impugned judgment [Ashok Kumar Kashyap v. State of Rajasthan, 2018 SCC OnLine Raj 3468] and order, the High Court in exercise of its revisional jurisdiction has set aside the order passed by the learned Special Judge framing the charge against the accused under Section 7 of the PC Act and consequently has discharged the accused for the said offence. What has been weighed with the High Court while discharging the accused is stated in paras 10 and 11 of the impugned judgment [Ashok Kumar Kashyap v. State of Rajasthan, 2018 SCC OnLine Raj 3468] and order, which are reproduced hereinabove.

11.While considering the legality of the impugned judgment [Ashok Kumar Kashyap v. State of Rajasthan, 2018 SCC OnLine Raj 3468] and order passed by the High Court, the law on the subject and few decisions of this Court are required to be referred to.

11.1. In P. Vijayan [P. Vijayan v. State of Kerala, (2010) 2 SCC 398 : (2010) 1 SCC (Cri) 1488] , this Court had an occasion to consider Section 227 CrPC What is required to be considered at the time of framing of the charge and/or considering the discharge application has been considered elaborately in the said decision. It is observed and held that at the stage of Section 227, the Judge has merely to sift the evidence in order to find out whether or not there is sufficient ground for proceeding against the accused. It is observed that in other words, the sufficiency of grounds would take within its fold the nature of the evidence recorded by the police or the documents produced before the court which ex facie disclose that there are suspicious circumstances against the accused so as to frame a charge against him. It is further observed that if the Judge comes to a conclusion that there is sufficient ground to proceed, he will frame a charge under Section 228 CrPC, if not, he will discharge the accused. It is further observed that while exercising its judicial mind to the facts of the case in order to determine whether a case for trial has been made out by the prosecution, it is not necessary for the court to enter into the pros and cons of the matter or into a weighing and balancing of evidence and probabilities which is really the function of the court, after the trial starts.

11.2. In the recent decision of this Court in M.R. Hiremath [State of Karnataka v. M.R. Hiremath, (2019) 7 SCC 515 : (2019) 3 SCC (Cri) 109 : (2019) 2 SCC (L&S) 380] , one of us (D.Y. Chandrachud, J.) speaking for the Bench has observed and held in para 25 as under : (SCC p. 526)

"25. The High Court [M.R. Hiremath v.State, 2017 SCC OnLine Kar 4970] ought to have been cognizant of the fact that the trial court was dealing with an application for discharge under the provisions of Section 239 CrPC. The parameters which govern the exercise of this jurisdiction have found expression in several decisions of this Court. It is a settled principle of law that at the stage of considering an application for discharge the court must proceed on the assumption that the material which has been brought on the record by the prosecution is true and evaluate the material in order to determine whether the facts emerging from the material, taken on its face value, disclose the existence of the ingredients necessary to constitute the offence. In State of T.N.v.N. SureshRajan[State of T.N.v.N. Suresh Rajan, (2014) 11 SCC 709 : (2014) 3 SCC (Cri) 529 : (2014) 2 SCC (L&S) 721] , adverting to the earlier decisions on the subject, this Court held : (SCC pp. 721-22, para 29)

'29. ... At this stage, probative value of the materials has to be gone into and the court is not expected to go deep into the matter and hold that the materials would not warrant a conviction. In our opinion, what needs to be considered is whether there is a ground for presuming that the offence has been committed and not whether a ground for convicting the accused has been made out. To put it differently, if the court thinks that the accused might have committed the offence on the basis of the materials on record on its probative value, it can frame the charge; though for conviction, the court has to come to the conclusion that the accused has committed the offence. The law does not permit a mini trial at this stage.' "

15. As observed hereinabove, the High Court was required to consider whether a prima facie case has been made out or not and whether the accused is required to be further tried or not. At the stage of framing of the charge and/or considering the discharge application, the mini trial is not permissible. At this stage, it is to be noted that even as per Section 7 of the PC Act, even an attempt constitutes an offence. Therefore, the High Court has erred and/or exceeded in virtually holding a mini trial at the stage of discharge application."

16. This court has also passed an order on 09.05.2025, in Criminal Appeal No. 1014 of 2025, in the case of Radhey Lal Vs State of U.P. and Another, wherein paragraph no. 24, it has been held that the claim for alteration in the charge, cannot be raised as a matter of right, though, the application can be moved for bringing the omission or error in framing of the charges before the learned trial court, but, it is the exclusive domain of the learned trial court to alter the charges.

17. Applying the aforesaid ratio to the case in hand, it apt to say that the impugned order dated 03-07-2025, reveals that the learned trial court has gone into the records of the case i.e. the Chargesheet, Chik F.I.R., Tahrir, Injury Report, Inquest Report including the post-mortem report, Site plan and Case Diary etc. The nature of injuries which are reported in the post-mortem report has also been discussed and alongwith that, the first information report version has been co-related. Moreso, it is observed by the learned trial court in it's order dated 03-07-2025 that the application for alteration of charges moved by the applicant was not pressed orally and a note was also made for not pressing the same and there is no reason to disclose it, though the same was not disclosed by the applicant before the coordinate Bench of this court while challenging the order dated 17-01-2025, but, after noticing the aforesaid, the learned trial court proceeded in compliance of the order dated 18-04-2025 passed in application under section 482 Cr.P.C./528 of the B.N.S.S. No. 2533 of 2025 and while considering the material available on record, has passed the order, on 03-07-2025 and in this view of the matter, this court does not find any illegality or erroneousness in the order impugned dated 03-07-2025.

18. Coming to the next issue that while framing the charge, what material is to be looked into and discussed by the learned trial court, it is trite law on the issue that it is expected from a trial Judge to exercise his judicial mind to determine that as to whether a case for trial has been made out or not, and while undertaking such proceedings, the court is not supposed to hold a mini trial by marshalling the facts and evidence on record. Infact, if the material available before the court, gives subjective satisfaction of existence of prima-facie case of the alleged offence, it is sufficient enough to proceed with the case.

19. Ergo, this court is of the considered opinion that the order impugned dated 03-07-2025, does not assail any illegality or infirmity. Thus, there is no merit in this application and consequently, the application is hereby dismissed.

20. The trial court may proceed in accordance with law.

21. Consigned to record.

Issue for Consideration

Whether the proceedings under Sections 420 and 120-B I.P.C., arising out of a dispute that is "essentially of a civil nature", and where "nothing in the FIR or the prosecution papers" discloses deception or fraudulent inducement, amount to an "abuse of the process of law" so as to warrant quashing.

Headnotes

Indian Penal Code, 1860 - SS. 415, 420, 120-B - Cheating - Criminal Procedure - Application Under Section 528 BNNS - Quashing Of Proceedings - Where The Dispute Relates To Title, Authority Of Vendor, Earlier Sale Deeds, Entries In Revenue Records And Nature Of Property - Ingredients Not Made Out - FIR And Material Do Not Show Any "Representation Much Less A False Representation" Or "Fraudulent Or Dishonest Inducement" By Applicant - Informant Is Not Purchaser; Purchaser (Kajal) Is A Co-Accused - Civil Dispute Given Criminal Colour - Continuation Of Proceedings Where Allegations Disclose Only A Civil Dispute Constitutes "Abuse Of The Process Of Law" - Quashing Under Section 528 BNSS (482 Crpc).

Held: Matter is essentially of a civil nature - Opposite party No. 2 has wrongly invoked the jurisdiction - giving a criminal colour to a matter that is essentially civil - No material to show "any representation much less a false representation" or "fraudulent inducement" by the applicant; informant is not purchaser; purchaser herself is co-accused - Issues involved - title, authority, subsistence of land - are triable in a civil suit and not in a criminal prosecution - No case of cheating under S.420 IPC made out - prosecution is nothing but an abuse of the process of law - Application allowed - proceedings in Case and order quashed. 3. The pleadings have already been exchanged between the parties.

4. The instant application under Section 528 BNSS has been filed by the applicant for quashing further proceeding of Case No.17927 of 2024 (State vs. Irasad and Others), arising out of Case Crime No.64 of 2022, under Sections 420 and 120 B I.P.C., Police Station Civil Lines, District Meerut as well as order dated 23.10.2024 passed by the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Court No.5, Meerut.

5. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that according to the prosecution version, the informant, Shahid Ali, lodged an FIR against the applicant and six others at Police Station Civil Lines, District Meerut, on 23.02.2022 with the allegation that the disputed plot, i.e., Khasra No. 6293/1, area 1142.61 square meters @ 1366.57 square yards is situated in Village Shergadhi, Sai Colony, Tehsil and District Meerut. It is further alleged that the said plot was owned by Kanwar, Bhawar Singh, Bijendra Singh, Satendra Singh, Indraj Singh and others. Aase and others executed a sale deed for 1366.57 square yards of land from Khasra No. 6293/1 in favour of Siyaram Kasturi Devi Educational Society, Meerut, through its Secretary, Sudheer Sharma, on 30.05.2005. The sale deed further records that, after the previous transactions, 1366.57 square yards of land had remained with the vendors. Aase and others had created a society, namely, Anusuchit Jati Grah Nirman Sahkari Samiti Ltd. A sale deed was executed by Audesh Kumar as President of the said society, and the sale deed also bore the signatures of all the members of the Samiti. The said deed was duly registered on 30.05.2005, and possession of the sold land was handed over to the purchasers. Subsequently, the said land was purchased by the informant, applicant Mohammad Irasad, and others on 15.03.2018 from Siyaram Kasturi Devi Educational Society. At present, the said land is in the form of Abadi (residential area). On 28.03.2018, the purchasers executed a Power of Attorney in favour of the informant, which was duly registered before the Sub-Registrar. The accused persons were well aware of the said Power of Attorney. The informant executed several sale deeds and power of attorney in respect of the property purchased by the executors of the power of attorney holder. However, on 14.06.2019, Bijendra (son of Aase) and Nand Kishor had executed a sale deed for 180 square yards in favour of Irshad, Amit Sharma, and Lakshya Sharma without any authority. Bijendra and Nand Kishor had no right in the said property. On the basis of the sale deed dated 14.06.2019, the applicant executed a sale deed on 23.10.2020 in favour of Kajal, transferring 90 square yards (75.24 square meters) of the said property, without any legal right or authority. Both sale deeds dated 14.06.2019 and 23.10.2020 were executed without any legal authority. On the basis of said sale deeds, the accused persons, namely Mohd. Irshad, Kajal, Bijendra and others, are threatening the informant. The applicant is a land grabber, and an FIR has been lodged against him under Sections 420, 467, 468, 471 and 120-B IPC. However, after investigation, the police submitted a charge-sheet against the applicant under Sections 420 and 120-B of the IPC, and thereafter, the applicant was summoned by the court below on 23.10.2024 on the basis of the said charge-sheet.

6. Learned counsel for the applicant further submits that no case under Section 420 I.P.C. is made out against the applicant, as there is no allegation that he made any representation or played any deception upon the informant while purchasing the land from Bijendra and others or while selling the same to Kajal. If any cloud has been created on the title of Kajal with respect to the property purchased by her from the applicant, she ought to have approached the law enforcement agency to raise her grievance. He next submits that, in the rejoinder affidavit, an extract of the Khatauni for Fasli years 1429?1434 (from 01.07.2021 to 30.06.2027) has been annexed. In this extract, Khasra No. 6293/1m, area 0.3100 hectare is equivalent to a total area of 1366.57 square yards is recorded in the name of Aase, son of Govind. Out of the said 0.3100 hectare of land, the applicant had purchased 90 square yards from Bijendra, son of Aase, and subsequently transferred the same to Kajal. It is further submitted that both Aase and Bijendra had died over the course of time. He next submits that a civil suit was filed by the informant in respect of the said dispute, which was withdrawn with liberty to file afresh. He also submits that the dispute is essentially of civil nature, and criminal prosecution in respect of the said matter amounts to a gross misuse of the process of law. Therefore, the impugned charge-sheet as well as the summoning order are liable to be quashed.

7. Per contra, learned counsel for opposite party no. 2 submits that the applicant has criminal history, which has been disclosed in the counter-affidavit. Two criminal cases have been registered against the applicant i.e. Case Crime No. 114 of 2020, Police Station Lisadi Gate, District Meerut, under Sections 270, 269, and 188 I.P.C., at the instance of S.I. Ajay Sharma during the COVID period and Case Crime No. 346 of 2024, under Section 318(4) BNS, registered on 20.12.2024 at the instance of Birendra Kumar pursuant to the orders of the learned Magistrate. In this case, the informant has alleged that the accused, Irshad Ali, took Rs. 13,00,000 from him by practicing deception and fraud, and with the said amount, purchased a plot in his own name.

8. In reply to the criminal history alleged on behalf of opposite party no. 2, learned counsel for the applicant submits that the first case was lodged against the applicant for violation of COVID-19 guidelines, which has been withdrawn by the Government, and the second case was still under investigation at the time of filing the present petition, so its details were not available. However, both criminal cases have been duly explained in the rejoinder affidavit.

9. Learned counsel for opposite party No. 2 submits that the applicant is one of the persons who executed a power of attorney in favour of the informant. Once the applicant had executed the power of attorney, he was not entitled to execute a sale deed in favour of Kajal for land that was neither available nor in existence. After the sale deed dated 30.05.2005 executed by the society in favour of Siyaram Kasturi Devi Educational Society, no land remained with the vendors. Consequently, the subsequent sale deed executed by Bijendra in favour of the applicant, as well as the sale deed executed by the applicant in favour of Kajal, are fraudulent and devoid of any authority or legal right. Due to such sale deeds, the informant has suffered difficulty, as he had already sold several chunks of the said plot to other persons, who are now seeking possession of the property purchased by them. He lastly after withdrawing the suit for cancellation of sale deed, due to some formal defects, informant has filed a fresh suit for cancellation of sale deed dated 14.06.2019.

10. Learned counsel for the applicant has placed reliance the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in V.Y. Jose and Anr vs. State of Gujarat And Anr reported in AIR 2009 SC (SUPP) 59, wherein Hon'ble Court has considered the ingredients of offence of cheating as defined under Section 415 I.P.C. and observed that for the purpose of constituting an offence of cheating, the complainant is required to show that the accused had fraudulent or dishonest intention at the time of making promise or representation. Even in a case where allegations are made in regard to failure on the part of the accused to keep his promise, in absence of a culpable intention at the time of making initial promise being absent, no offence under Section 420 of the Indian Penal Code can be said to have been made out. The Hon'ble Court also observed that under Section 482 Cr.P.C., saves the inherent power of the court. It serves a salutary purpose viz. a person should not undergo harassment of litigation for a number of years although no case has been made out against him. It is one thing to say that a case has been made out for trial and as such the criminal proceedings should not be quashed but it is another thing to say that a persons should undergo a criminal trial despite the fact that no case has been made out at all. In Hira Lal Hari Lal Bhagwati vs CBI; (2003) 5 SCC 257, the Hon'ble Court has held that it is settled law, by a catena of decisions, that for establishing the offence of cheating, the complainant is required to show that the accused had fraudulent or dishonest intention at the time of making promise or representation. From his making failure to keep promise subsequently, such a culpable intention right at the beginning that is at the time when the promise was made cannot be presumed.

11. In another judgement, Vir Prakash Sharma vs. Anil Kumar Agarwal; (2007) 7 SCC 373, the Hon'ble Supreme Court held in para-13 that the ingredients of Section 420 of the Penal Code, which are as follows:-

"(i) Deception of any persons;

(ii) Fraudulently or dishonestly inducing any person to deliver any property;

(iii) To consent that any person shall retain any property and finally intentionally inducing that person to do or omit to do anything which he would not do or omit."

12. In another judgment relied upon by the learned counsel for the applicant in Md. Ibrahim And Ors vs. State of Bihar And Anr; 2010 AIR SCW 405, the Hon'ble Supreme Court held as under:-

"14. When a sale deed is executed conveying a property claiming ownership thereto, it may be possible for the purchaser under such sale deed, to allege that the vendor has cheated him by making a false representation of ownership and fraudulently induced him to part with the sale consideration. But in this case the complaint is not by the purchaser. On the other hand, the purchaser is made a co-accused. It is not the case of the complainant that any of the accused tried to deceive him either by making a false or misleading representation or by any other action or omission, nor is it his case that they offered him any fraudulent or dishonest inducement to deliver any property or to consent to the retention thereof by any person or to intentionally induce him to do or omit to do anything which he would not do or omit if he were not so deceived. Nor did the complainant allege that the first appellant pretended to be the complainant while executing the sale deeds. Therefore, it cannot be said that the first accused by the act of executing sale deeds in favour of the second accused or the second accused by reason of being the purchaser, or the third, fourth and fifth accused, by reason of being the witness, scribe and stamp vendor in regard to the sale deeds, deceived the complainant in any manner. As the ingredients of cheating as stated in section 415 are not found, it cannot be said that there was an offence punishable under sections 417, 418, 419 or 420 of the Code.

15. When we say that execution of a sale deed by a person, purporting to convey a property which is not his, as his property, is not making a false document and therefore not forgery, we should not be understood as holding that such an act can never be a criminal offence. If a person sells a property knowing that it does not belong to him, and thereby defrauds the person who purchased the property, the person defrauded, that is the purchaser, may complain that the vendor committed the fraudulent act of cheating. But a third party who is not the purchaser under the deed may not be able to make such complaint. The term `fraud' is not defined in the Code. The dictionary definition of `fraud' is "deliberate deception, treachery or cheating intended to gain advantage". Section 17 of the Contract Act, 1872 defines `fraud' with reference to a party to a contract. In Dr. Vimla vs. Delhi Administration - AIR 1963 SC 1572, this Court explained the meaning of the expression `defraud' thus "The expression "defraud" involves two elements, namely, deceit and injury to the person deceived. Injury is something other than economic loss that is, deprivation of property, whether movable or immovable, or of money, and it will include any harm whatever caused to any person in body, mind, reputation or such others. In short, it is a non-economic or non-pecuniary loss. A benefit or advantage to the deceiver will almost always cause loss or detriment to the deceived. Even in those rare cases where there is a benefit or advantage to the deceiver, but no corresponding loss to the deceived, the second condition is satisfied."

The above definition was in essence reiterated in State of UP vs. Ranjit Singh - 1999 (2) SCC 617: (1999 AIR SCW 863)"

13. In Rajiv Thapar And Ors vs. Madan Lal Kapoor; AIR 2013 SC (SUPP) 1056, the Hon'ble Supreme Court considered the ambit and scope of the exercise of powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C. In paragraph 23, the Court issued guidelines for invoking the power vested in the High Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C., which are reported as follows:

"23. Based on the factors canvassed in the foregoing paragraphs, we would delineate the following steps to determine the veracity of a prayer for quashing, raised by an accused by invoking the power vested in the High Court under Section 482 of the Cr.P.C.:-

(i) Step one, whether the material relied upon by the accused is sound, reasonable, and indubitable, i.e., the material is of sterling and impeccable quality?

(ii) Step two, whether the material relied upon by the accused, would rule out the assertions contained in the charges levelled against the accused, i.e., the material is sufficient to reject and overrule the factual assertions contained in the complaint, i.e., the material is such, as would persuade a reasonable person to dismiss and condemn the factual basis of the accusations as false.

(iii) Step three, whether the material relied upon by the accused, has not been refuted by the prosecution/complainant; and/or the material is such, that it cannot be justifiably refuted by the prosecution/complainant?

(iv) Step four, whether proceeding with the trial would result in an abuse of process of the court, and would not serve the ends of justice?

If the answer to all the steps is in the affirmative, judicial conscience of the High Court should persuade it to quash such criminal proceedings, in exercise of power vested in it under Section 482 of the Cr.P.C. Such exercise of power, besides doing justice to the accused, would save precious court time, which would otherwise be wasted in holding such a trial (as well as, proceedings arising therefrom) specially when, it is clear that the same would not conclude in the conviction of the accused."

14. In the present case, the main allegation against the applicant is that he obtained a registered sale deed dated 14.06.2019 from Bijendra Singh for 90 square yards of land from Khasra No. 6293/1, and subsequently sold the said land to Smt. Kajal by means of another registered sale deed dated 30.10.2020. According to the informant, neither the vendor of the applicant, late Bijendra Singh, had any legal right or authority to sell the said land to the applicant, nor did the applicant derive any valid title under the sale deed executed by Bijendra Singh in his favour, as the land in question did not remain in the share of Bijendra Singh. It is further alleged that the applicant and the co-accused have taken benefit of the revenue records, in which the name of father of Bijendra Singh continued to appear. Since no legal title was conveyed to the applicant through the said sale deed, he had no right to transfer the land to Smt. Kajal through a registered sale deed.

15. Counsel for the applicant admitted that two civil suits were already filed for annulment of cancellation of sale deed executed by Bijendra Singh in favour of applicant and sale deed executed by applicant in favour of Smt. Kajal. Both the civil suits had dismissed as withdrawn, but new civil suits have been filed with permission of the Court. Counsel for the applicant admitted that two civil suits had already been filed seeking annulment and cancellation of the sale deed executed by Bijendra Singh in favour of the applicant and the sale deed executed by the applicant in favour of Smt. Kajal. Both civil suits have been dismissed as withdrawn and fresh civil suits have been filed with the permission of the Court.

16. Upon thoughtful consideration, and in light of the legal position laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court regarding the essential ingredients of the offence of cheating punishable under Section 420 I.P.C. and its application to the facts of the present case, as well as the scope of interference by this Court under Section 482 CrPC, this Court is of the considered opinion that the matter is essentially of a civil nature.

17. The opposite party No. 2 has wrongly invoked the jurisdiction of this Court under Section 482 CrPC, which amounts to giving a criminal colour to a matter that is essentially civil. There is nothing in the FIR or the prosecution papers to suggest that the applicant made any representation much less a false representation to opposite party No. 2 regarding his ownership of the property in question, or that he fraudulently induced him to part with any money or property. It is also relevant to note that the informant is not a purchaser of the land. The purchaser, Smt. Kajal, has also been implicated as an accused.

18. The crux of the allegation is that the applicant sold a property, claiming himself to be the owner, to co-accused Smt. Kajal, whereas the said property is not in existence due to earlier sale deeds executed from Khasra No. 6293/1m. The complicated questions involved in the present case are whether the vendor, Bijendra Singh, whose father's name appears in the revenue records had the right to sell his share, if any, in favour of the applicant, whether the applicant had any right to execute a subsequent sale deed in respect of the same portion of land in favour of co-accused Smt. Kajal, and whether the informant, who claims to be the power of attorney holder of the applicant and other co-sharers of the land, has any right or interest in the said land. All these questions are triable in a civil suit and not in a criminal prosecution.

19. In view of the above discussion and the legal position emanating from the judgments of the Hon'ble Supreme Court cited above, no case of cheating punishable under Section 420 IPC appears to be made out against the applicant. The matter is essentially of civil nature and is liable to be settled on the basis of the evidence of the parties in civil proceedings.

20. The present prosecution is nothing but an abuse of the process of law, therefore, proceedings are liable to be quashed. Consequently, the application (under Section 528 of BNSS) is allowed. The proceedings of Case No.17927 of 2024 (State vs. Irasad and Others), arising out of Case Crime No.64 of 2022, under Sections 420 and 120 B I.P.C., Police Station Civil Lines, District Meerut as well as order dated 23.10.2024 passed by the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Court No.5, Meerut are hereby quashed in respect of applicant.

Issue for Consideration

Matter pertains to:
"The only issue before this Court in the instant application is that if without sanction charge-sheet has been filed within stipulated period even for the offences for which sanction was necessary for cognizance then whether charge-sheet can be said to be incomplete charge-sheet and whether in such scenario an accused can be released on compulsory bail under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C."

Indian Penal Code, 1860 – SS. 389, 406, 420, 506, 411, 120B - The Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 – S 13 - Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Section 167(2) - Default/Compulsory bail - Charge-sheet filed within stipulated period but without sanction under S. 13 P.C. Act - whether incomplete charge-sheet – S. 173(2) Cr.P.C. does not require sanction order to accompany police report – S. 173(5) Cr.P.C. documents do not include sanction - Filing charge-sheet completes investigation - Sanction - obtaining sanction not part of investigation Sanction is an enabling provision to prosecute, which is totally separate from the concept of investigation Default bail - right extinguishes once charge-sheet filed within stipulated time Cognizance without sanction - illegality irrelevant for S. 167(2) - Ritu Chhabaria - distinguished - Order in Ashok Kumar Srivastava held per incuriam for non-consideration of binding Supreme Court precedents.

Held: Charge-sheet filed within time, even without sanction, is not incomplete -Default bail cannot be granted once charge-sheet is filed within stipulated period - Sanction irrelevant for determining completion of investigation - Cognizance without sanction does not confer right to default bail - No illegality in the impugned order - Application stands dismissed accordingly. (Delivered by Hon'ble Sameer Jain, J.)

1. Heard Sri Amarnath Tripathi, learned counsel for applicant and Sri Imran Khan as well as Sri Rajeev Dhar Dwivedi, learned Additional Government Advocates for the State.

2. The instant application has been filed by the applicant with a prayer to quash the order dated 23.07.2025 passed by Additional Sessions Judge/Special Judge (P.C. Act) Court No.2 Gorakhpur whereby his application to release him on default bail has been rejected arising out of Case Crime No. 93 of 2024, under Sections 389, 406, 420, 506, 411, 120B IPC and Section 13 of The Prevention of Corruption Act, Police Station Kotwali, District Gorakhpur.

Brief facts of the case:-

3. FIR of the present case was lodged on 09.04.2024 against applicant and others under Sections 379, 406, 420, 506 IPC and Section 13 Prevention of Corruption Act (in short P.C. Act).

4. After registration of the FIR investigation was commenced and on 05.06.2024 charge-sheet has been filed against applicant for offences under Sections 389, 406, 420, 506 IPC and Section 13 P.C. Act and Section 411 IPC read with Section 120B IPC and on 07.06.2024, Magistrate concerned took the cognizance but it reflects, charge-sheet has been filed without sanction, which was obtained subsequently on 22.11.2024 and was forwarded to the court on 22.07.2025.

5. It reflects, according to applicant as charge-sheet against him was filed without sanction, therefore, the same was incomplete thus applicant moved an application under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C. with a prayer to release him on compulsory bail on the ground that charge-sheet was incomplete and cognizance was bad but vide order dated 23.07.2025 court concerned dismissed his application. Hence the instant application.

Submissions advanced on behalf of applicant:

6. Learned counsel for applicant submits, although charge-sheet in the present matter has been filed on 05.06.2024 which was within the prescribed time provided under Section 167 Cr.P.C. but as charge-sheet against applicant was also filed for offence under Section 13 P.C. Act, therefore, for cognizance sanction was necessary but without sanction charge-sheet has been filed against him thus charge-sheet dated 05.06.2024 filed against applicant was incomplete charge-sheet and it cannot be said in the instant matter investigation has been completed within prescribed time and therefore applicant was entitled to be released on default bail under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C.

7. He further submits, it appears, as prescribed time of 60 days was going to expire and sanction could not be obtained against applicant, therefore only with intention to defeat the indefeasible right of applicant to release him on compulsory bail provided under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C.

charge-sheet has been filed, which was not permissible.

8. He further submits, as per Section 167(2) Cr.P.C. if within prescribed time which was 60 days in the present case investigation has not been completed then an accused is entitled to be released on compulsory bail. He further submits, in present case, charge-sheet has also been filed for offence relates to P.C. Act, therefore, along with charge-sheet sanction order must also be filed but only to defeat the right of applicant provided under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C. charge-sheet has been filed without sanction. He next submits, as incomplete charge-sheet without sanction does not contemplate the police report provided under Section 173(2) Cr.P.C. and therefore applicant was entitled to be released on default bail under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C.

9. He further submits, right of an accused to release on default bail under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C. is his fundamental right under Article 21 of the Constitution of India if investigation has not been completed within prescribed time and this right cannot be extinguished if Investigating Officer filed incomplete charge-sheet only with intention to defeat his right of default bail under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C.

10. He further submits, the right of an accused to release him on compulsory bail under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C. is his indefeasible right and if charge-sheet within stipulated period of time has not been filed or incomplete charge-sheet has been filed then court has no other option except to release him on default bail if he makes prayer to release him on bail.

11. Learned counsel for applicant placed reliance on the judgment passed by the Apex Court in the case of Ritu Chhabaria Vs. Union of India (2024) 12 SCC 116 and submitted, in this case the Supreme Court categorically deprecated the practice of Investigating Officer to file incomplete charge-sheet with intention to defeat the indefeasible right of an accused to release him on default bail under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C.

12. He further submits, in the case of Ritu Chhabaria (supra) also Investigating Officer filed incomplete charge-sheet and Supreme Court after considering this fact observed that right of default bail under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C. is not merely statutory but a fundamental right which flows from Article 21 of Constitution of India and was pleased to release the accused on compulsory bail under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C.

13. Learned counsel for the applicant also placed reliance on the order dated 11.07.2025 passed by this Bench in Application U/S 528 BNSS No. 21254 of 2025 (Ashok Kumar Srivastava and another Vs. State of U.P.) and submitted that in that case also without sanction charge-sheet was filed but after considering the judgment of Ritu Chhabaria (supra) this Bench by observing that the charge-sheet against the accused was incomplete directed the accused to release on default bail.

14. He further submits, therefore, order dated 23.07.2025 passed by the court concerned is illegal and is liable to be set aside and applicant should be directed to release on compulsory bail under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C.

Submissions advanced on behalf of State:

15. Per contra, learned Additional Government Advocates opposed the prayer and submitted that admittedly in the present matter charge-sheet against applicant has been filed on 05.06.2024 i.e. within the stipulated time of 60 days and therefore applicant cannot claim to be released on default bail under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C.

16. They further submitted that law is by far now settled that as soon as charge-sheet is submitted the right of an accused to release him on compulsory bail under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C. is extinguished.

17. They next submitted that however from the record it reflects, while forwarding the charge-sheet to the court concerned on 05.06.2024 sanction till date could not be obtained against the applicant and without sanction charge-sheet has been filed against him also for offence under Section 13 P.C. Act and even without sanction court concerned took the cognizance but by virtue of provisions of Prevention of Corruption Act cognizance taken by the court though may be illegal but on this ground applicant cannot be released on default bail under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C.

18. They further submitted that obtaining sanction against an accused not the part of the investigation and investigation relates to the facts of the case investigated by the Investigating Officer and after completing investigation Investigating Officer forwards his report to the competent authority for sanction and as soon as he forwards his report the investigation stands completed and therefore even if sanction could not be obtained and without sanction if Investigating Officer forwarded the charge-sheet to the court then also it cannot be said that the charge-sheet filed by him was incomplete charge-sheet. They further submitted that as soon as charge-sheet arrived in the court the right of an accused to release him on default bail under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C. stands extinguished if said charge-sheet has been filed within stipulated period of time.

19. They further submitted that in the present matter admittedly charge-sheet has been filed without sanction but it has been filed within stipulated period and therefore court concerned rightly dismissed the application filed by the applicant to release him on default bail under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C.

20. They placed reliance on the judgment passed by the Apex Court in the case of Judgebir Singh @ Jasbir Singh Samra @ Jasbir and others Vs. National Investigation Agency (2023) 17 SCC 48. They further submitted that while passing the impugned order dated 23.07.2025 court concerned also considered this judgment of the Apex Court passed in the case of Judgebir Singh (supra).

21. They further submitted that therefore instant application filed by the applicant is devoid of merits and it should be dismissed.

Analysis:

22. I have heard both the parties and perused the record of the case.

23. The only issue before this Court in the instant application is that if without sanction charge-sheet has been filed within stipulated period even for the offences for which sanction was necessary for cognizance then whether charge-sheet can be said to be incomplete charge-sheet and whether in such scenario an accused can be released on compulsory bail under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C.

24. From perusal of Section 167(2) Cr.P.C. it reflects, if a person is arrested and detained in custody and investigation could not be concluded within stipulated period of time which was 60 days in the present matter then an accused shall be released on bail therefore section 167(2) Cr.P.C. contemplates default or compulsory bail.

25. The Constitution Bench of the Apex Court in the case of Sanjay Dutt Vs. State (1994) 5 SCC 410 held that in case of non completion of investigation within stipulated period of time the indefeasible right accrues to an accused to release him on bail under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C., however, in this case Apex Court further observed that if before making prayer to release him on bail charge-sheet has been submitted then right of an accused to release him on compulsory bail under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C. stands extinguished.

26. In case at hand, however admittedly within stipulated period of time charge-sheet has been filed but without sanction which was mandatory for taking cognizance for offence under Section 13 P.C. Act and therefore to analyse whether charge-sheet filed against applicant was incomplete it is necessary to go through Section 173(2) Cr.P.C. which describes the prescribed form of police report i.e. charge-sheet.

27. As per Section 173(2) Cr.P.C. a police report i.e. charge-sheet should be in the form prescribed by the State Government stating:-

(a) the names of the parties;

(b) the nature of the information;

(c) the names of the persons who appeare to be acquainted with the circumstances of the case;

(d) whether any offence appears to have been committed and, if so, by whom;

(e) whether the accused has been arrested;

(f) whether he has been released on his bond and if so whether with or without sureties;

(g) whether he has been forwarded in custody under Section 170; and

(h) whether the report of the medical examination of the woman has been attached where investigation relates to an offence under Sections 376, 376A, 376AB, 376B, 376C, 376D, 376DA, 376DB or Section 376E of the Indian Penal Code

28. Therefore, from the provisions of Section 173(2) Cr.P.C. it could not be reflected, obtaining sanction is also one of the requirement in forwarding the police report i.e. charge-sheet.

29. Further, however, Section 173(5) Cr.P.C. states that when such report i.e. police report is in respect of an accused to which Section 170 applies the police officer shall forward to the Magistrate along with the report:-

(a) all documents or relevant extracts thereof on which the prosecution proposes to rely other than those already sent to the Magistrate during investigation; and

(b) the statements recorded under Section 161 Cr.P.C. of all the persons whom the prosecution proposes to examine as its witnesses.

30. Therefore, from Section 173(5)(a) Cr.P.C. it reflects, in a case where accused is in custody under Section 170 Cr.P.C. then along with report all the documents on which prosecution proposes to rely should also be sent to the Court but it reflects, provisions of Section 173(5)(a) Cr.P.C. do not include the sanction order too.

31. The Apex Court in the case of Judgebir Singh (supra) was having occasion to discuss the issue and in this case also charge-sheet has been filed without sanction which was required but Apex Court after considering Section 173(5) Cr.P.C. held that Section 173(5) Cr.P.C. of course requires all the documents or all the extracts thereof on which prosecution proposes to rely, to accompany the final report but sanction order cannot be brought within the category of those documents contemplated under clause 5 of Section 173 Cr.P.C.

32. Therefore it reflects, even if along with the charge-sheet no sanction order has been forwarded then also it cannot be said that charge-sheet was incomplete and on this ground an accused cannot be released on default bail under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C.

33. Further, the Apex Court in the case of Narendra Kumar Amin Vs. Central Bureau of Investigation and others (2015) 3 SCC 417 in para-15 observed as:-

"The observation made at para 76 of the Constitution Bench judgment of this Court in the case of K. Veeraswamy Vs. Union of India (1991) 3 SCC 655 that the report is complete if it is accompanied by all documents and statement of witnesses as required under Section 173 (5) of Cr.P.C. cannot be construed as the statement of law, since it was not made in the context of the police report under Section 2 (r) read with Section 173 (2) (5) and (8) of Cr.P.C. On the contrary, the three Judge Bench of this Court in the decision in CBI Vs. R.S. Pai (2002) 5 SCC 82 case, after referring to the earlier judgment of the coordinate Bench in Narayan Rao Vs. State of A.P. AIR 1957 SC 737 case categorically held that the word "shall" used in sub- Section (5) cannot be interpreted as mandatory, but directory. The said statement of law is made after considering the provisions of Section 2(r) read with Section 173 (5) and (8) of Cr.P.C. Therefore, filing of police report containing the particulars as mentioned under Section 173 (2) amounted to completion of filing of the report before the learned ACJM, cognizance is taken and registered the same. The contention of the appellant that the police report filed in this case is not as per the legal requirement under Section 173 (2) and (5) Cr.P.C. which entitled him for default bail, was rightly rejected by the High Court and does not call for any interference by this Court."

34. Further, no doubt cognizance without sanction for offence under Section 13 P.C. Act should not be taken but even if on the report submitted by the police under Section 173(2) Cr.P.C. court concerned either wrongly took the cognizance or it could not take the cognizance, it is irrelevant for the purpose of section 167(2) Cr.P.C. to release the accused on default bail because taking of cognizance and investigation are two entirely different matters. Therefore even if after investigation without sanction charge-sheet has been filed within prescribed period and along with the charge-sheet all the required documents have been sent then an accused cannot be released on default bail under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C. by declaring the charge-sheet incomplete. This issue is also no more res-integra and it has been effectively addressed by the Apex Court in case of Suresh Kumar Bhikamchand Jain Vs. State of Maharashtra (2013) 3 SCC 77 delivered by Three Judges Bench of the Apex Court. In this case also without sanction charge-sheet has been filed and when accused applied for default bail under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C. then while dismissing his prayer the Apex Court in paragraph Nos. 18 and 19 observed as:-

"18. None of the said cases detract from the position that once a charge-sheet is filed within the stipulated time, the question of grant of default bail or statutory bail does not arise. As indicated hereinabove, in our view, the filing of charge-sheet is sufficient compliance with the provisions of Section 167(2)(a)(ii) in this case. Whether cognizance is taken or not is not material as far as Section 167 Cr.P.C. is concerned. The right which may have accrued to the petitioner, had charge-sheet not been filed, is not attracted to the facts of this case. Merely because sanction had not been obtained to prosecute the accused and to proceed to the stage of Section 309 Cr.P.C., it cannot be said that the accused is entitled to grant of statutory bail, as envisaged in Section 167 Cr.P.C. The scheme of the Cr.P.C. is such that once the investigation stage is completed, the Court proceeds to the next stage, which is the taking of cognizance and trial. An accused has to remain in custody of some court. During the period of investigation, the accused is under the custody of the Magistrate before whom he or she is first produced. During that stage, under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C., the Magistrate is vested with authority to remand the accused to custody, both police custody and/ or judicial custody, for 15 days at a time, up to a maximum period of 60 days in cases of offences punishable for less than 10 years and 90 days where the offences are punishable for over 10 years or even death sentence. In the event, an investigating authority fails to file the charge-sheet within the stipulated period, the accused is entitled to be released on statutory bail. In such a situation, the accused continues to remain in the custody of the Magistrate till such time as cognizance is taken by the Court trying the offence, when the said Court assumes custody of the accused for purposes of remand during the trial in terms of Section 309 Cr.P.C. The two stages are different, but one follows the other so as to maintain a continuity of the custody of the accused with a court.

19. Having regard to the above, we have no hesitation in holding that notwithstanding the fact that the prosecution had not been able to obtain sanction to prosecute the accused, the accused was not entitled to grant of statutory bail since the charge-sheet had been filed well within the period contemplated under Section 167(2)(a)(ii) Cr.P.C. Sanction is an enabling provision to prosecute, which is totally separate from the concept of investigation which is concluded by the filing of the charge-sheet. The two are on separate footings. In that view of the matter, the special leave petition deserves to be and is hereby dismissed."

35. Recently, the Apex Court in the case of Judgebir Singh (supra) after relying the judgment of Suresh Kumar Bhikamchand Jain (supra) held that filing of a charge-sheet is a sufficient compliance with the provisions of Section 167 Cr.P.C. and even if along with charge-sheet sanction order has not been forwarded then also an accused cannot claim to be released on statutory bail under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C. on the ground that as sanction has not been obtained therefore either cognizance is bad or it could not be taken.

36. Further, however, learned counsel for applicant placed reliance on the judgment of the Apex Court passed in the case of Ritu Chhabaria (supra) but it reflects, facts of the case of Ritu Chhabaria (supra) are quite distinguishable from the facts of the present case. In that case although charge-sheet was filed by the Investigating Officer but subsequently supplementary charge-sheet was also filed and therefore at the time of filing first charge-sheet investigation was still pending. In such circumstances the Apex Court took the view that there was no question of filing any supplementary charge-sheet taking the aid of Section 173(2) Cr.P.C. as sub section 8 of Section 173 Cr.P.C. comes into picture only after the investigation is completed and the charge-sheet has been filed. The Apex Court in the case of Judgebir Singh (supra) also distinguished the case of Ritu Chhabaria (supra) after considering this fact and therefore no benefit can be extended to the applicant in view of the observation made by the Apex Court in the case of Ritu Chhabaria (supra).

37. Further, however, in case of Ashok Kumar Srivastava (supra) on which reliance was placed by learned counsel for applicant this Court (this very Bench) after relying on the judgment of the Apex Court passed in the case of Ritu Chhabaria (supra) observed that as charge-sheet has been filed without sanction which was required for taking cognizance, therefore, charge-sheet is incomplete and accused of that case was directed to be released on default bail but from the order passed by this Bench dated 11.07.2025 it reflects, while passing the same this Bench could not take notice of the judgments of the Apex Court passed in case of Narendra Kumar Amin (supra), Suresh Kumar Bhikamchand Jain (supra) and Judgebir Singh (supra).

38. Further, it also reflects, while passing order in case of Ashok Kumar Srivastava (supra) this Court only relied upon the judgment of the Apex Court passed in case of Ritu Chhabaria (supra) and provisions of Section 173(2) and 173(5) Cr.P.C. could not be exhaustively dealt with.

39. Further, at the time of passing the order in case of Ashok Kumar Srivastava (supra), this Bench also could not consider the fact that facts of the case of Ritu Chhabaria (supra) were quite distinguishable from the facts of the case and in the case of Ritu Chhabaria (supra) it was not the issue before the Apex Court whether if charge-sheet has been filed within stipulated period of time but without sanction then also it can be considered incomplete.

40. Therefore, due to above reasons the decision given by this Bench in the case of Ashok Kumar Srivastava (supra) is per incuriam and therefore no benefit can be given to the applicant on the basis of the case of Ashok Kumar Srivastava (supra).

41. Therefore, from the discussion made above, I find no illegality in the impugned order dated 23.07.2025 passed by the court concerned by which application under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C. of the applicant to release him on default bail has been dismissed.

42. Therefore, considering the facts and circumstances of the case discussed above, in view of this Court, the instant application filed by the applicant is devoid of merits and stands dismissed accordingly.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Vikram D. Chauhan, J.)

1. Heard Sri Bhagwan Dutt Pandey, learned Counsel for Applicant and Sri O.P. Dwivedi, learned A.G.A. for the State-respondent.

2. This application is preferred by applicant for quashing the charge sheet dated 19.1.2021 as well as cognizance order dated 7.7.2023 and the entire proceeding of Case No. 9029 of 2023 (State Vs. Himanshu Yadav), arising out of Case Crime No.0382 of 2020, under Section 363 I.P.C., Police Station-Gauri Bazar, District Deoria pending in the court of Chief Judicial Magistrate, Court/Room No.17, Deoria.

3. Learned counsel for Applicant submits that as per version of first information report, the prosecution case is that on 24.12.2020 the Applicant had enticed away niece of first informant, who was aged about 16 years and thereafter, informant lodged first information report against the applicant under Section 363 I.P.C. at Police Station-Gauri Bazar, District Deoria on 25.12.2020 in Case Crime No.0382 of 2020. The alleged incident took place on 24.12.2020 at 7.30 p.m. while the first information report was registered belatedly on 25.12.2020 at 19.40 HRS. but there is no explanation of delay in the first information report, which itself show that the entire story is false, fabricated and concocted because of malafide intention to implicate the applicant in the aforesaid case.

4. Learned counsel for Applicant further submits that during investigation, statement of alleged victim was recorded under Section 161 Cr.P.C. on 26.12.2020 who has taken the name of applicant and only stated that her family members had beaten her and also given electric shock that is why on 23.12.2020 at 6.30 p.m. she left the house alone and went to Siwan by bus and remained there for two days and thereafter, she was carried to Police Station-Gauri Bazar on 26.12.2020. The statement of mother of victim under Section 161 Cr.P.C. was also recorded who has stated about the love affairs of victim and applicant. The Investigating Officer has also recorded the statement of first informant under Section 161 Cr.P.C. who has reiterated the version of first information report.

5. Learned counsel for applicant submits that victim was produced for medico legal examination on 28.12.2020 where she denied for her internal and external examination. For ascertaining the age of alleged victim she was referred for X-ray, which was conducted on 29.12.2020 and as per X-ray report the age of victim was determined about 18 years by Chief Medical Officer concerned.

6. It is further submitted that the statement of victim under Section 164 Cr.P.C. was recorded on 1.1.2021, in which she stated that she left the house and no one was with her and the name of Himanshu Dubey has been taken by her family members willingly. The victim came under custody of her family members and thereafter her medical was conducted on 28.12.2020 and X-ray was conducted on 29.12.2020 and thereafter, her restatement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. was recorded.

7. Learned counsel for Applicant urges that from perusal of statements under Sections 161 and 164 Cr.P.C. there is no involvement of applicant and the victim has not admitted the fact that she eloped with applicant, as such no offence under Section 363 I.P.C. is made out as there is no ingredient for constituting the offence under Section 363 I.P.C.

8. Learned counsel for Applicant further states that Investigating Officer without conducting the investigation properly and also against the evidence collected during investigation submitted charge sheet against applicant under Section 363 I.P.C. and the Magistrate took cognizance of offence vide order dated 7.7.2023.

9. Learned A.G.A. for the State submits that opposite party no. 2 lodged first information report against applicant under Section 363 I.P.C. with the allegation that daughter of complainant was abducted and victim who has been recovered and her statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. has been recorded and she refused to conduct her medical examination and formal medical examination has been conducted and the statement of victim under Section 164 Cr.P.C. has also been recorded and she made allegation against her family members regarding giving electric shock and she stated that she herself had gone to Siwan and her family members given the name of Himanshu Dubey and first information report has been registered and on the basis of evidence collected during investigation charge sheet under Section 363 I.P.C. has been submitted against accused-applicant on 19.01.2021 on which the learned Magistrate has taken cognizance on 7.7.2023.

10. The first information report is lodged by opposite party no. 2 on 25.12.2020 with the allegation that on 24.12.2020 at about 7:30 p.m. the niece of informant, who is minor, is enticed away by the Applicant. The aforesaid first information report was lodged against the Applicant under Section 363 of Indian Penal Code.

11. During investigation, statement of victim was recorded by Investigating Officer under Section 161 Cr.P.C. The victim in her statement has stated that her family members have beaten and electrocuted her and as a result of the same on 23.12.2020 at about 6:30 p.m. she left the home and went to Pandey Biswa, thereafter came to Gauri Baazar & thereafter by bus came to Salempur and subsequently to Siwan and thereafter she was brought to police station.

12. The victim was medically examined on 28.12.2020 where she has stated before the doctor who examined her that she had left the home voluntarily on account of harassment by family members. Further, doctor after examining the victim has specifically recorded that no opinion regarding sexual assault can be given.

13. The statement of victim under Section 164 of Criminal Procedure Code was recorded before the concerned court where the victim has stated that she is aged about 17 years and on 23.12.2020 at about 6:30 p.m. the uncle of victim has beaten her on account of talking to applicant and as a result of the same victim sustained injuries and he further electrocuted the victim and as such she left the home alone and went to Siwan. The victim in her statement has specifically stated that she went alone from the home and there was no one else along with her and the informant has incorrectly given the name of applicant as victim was in talking terms with applicant.

14. As per learned counsel for Applicant, victim was taken into custody by family members and thereafter in her second statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C., victim has stated that she and applicant were in talking terms over mobile phone which came to the knowledge of family members of victim and thereafter Applicant taken away victim on 23.12.2020 at 6:30 p.m. after victim leaving home alone and thereafter met the applicant at Pandey Biswa. Thereafter, applicant was with the victim till Salempur to Siwan and came back on 26.12.2020. The victim has specifically stated that during the said time victim was with the applicant, the applicant has not committed any sexual assault.

15. The Investigating Officer thereafter submitted chargesheet against applicant under Section 363 of Indian Penal Code and court concerned has taken cognizance on 7.7.2023. A perusal of the aforesaid chargesheet would go to show that victim has not been made a witness in the aforesaid chargesheet on behalf of prosecution and only the informant and Sandhya Devi has been made the witness of fact. It is further to be noted that no explanation has been offered by learned counsel for the opposite parties with regard to victim not being made witness to prosecution chargesheet. The chargesheet has been submitted under Section 363 of Indian Penal Code against applicant.

16. The offence under Section 363 of Indian Penal Code prescribes punishment for kidnapping. Section 359 of Indian Penal Code provides Kidnapping of two kinds: Kidnapping from India and Kidnapping from lawful guardianship. In the present case, the issue involved in respect of kidnapping from lawful guardianship. The offence with regard to kidnapping from lawful guardianship is prescribed under Section 361 of Indian Penal Code. Section 361 of Indian Penal Code is quoted as under :-

"361. Kidnapping from lawful guardianship.—Whoever takes or entices any minor under sixteen years of age if a male, or under eighteen years of age if a female, or any person of unsound mind, out of the keeping of the lawful guardian of such minor or person of unsound mind, without the consent of such guardian, is said to kidnap such minor or person from lawful guardianship.

Explanation.—The words "lawful guardian" in this section include any person lawfully entrusted with the care or custody of such minor or other person.

Exception.—This section does not extend to the act of any person who in good faith believes himself to be the father of an illegitimate child, or who in good faith believes himself to be entitled to lawful custody of such child, unless such act is committed for an immoral or unlawful purpose."

17. The provision of Section 361 of Indian Penal Code would stand attracted when a person takes or entices any minor under sixteen years of age if a male, or under eighteen years of age if a female, or any person of unsound mind, out of the keeping of lawful guardian of such minor or person of unsound mind, without the consent of such guardian. It is imperative for applicability of above mentioned section of Indian Penal Code that there must be any promise, offer, inducement or force, from the accused which resulted in the minor being taken away or enticed away from lawful guardianship.

18. In Thakorlal D. Yadgdama Vs. The State of Gujarat, AIR 1973 Supreme Court 2313, the Supreme Court while interpreting Section 361 of Indian Penal Code has observed as follows : -

"9*... The expression used in Section 361, I.P.C. is "whoever takes or entices any minor". The words "takes" does not necessarily connote taking by force and it is not confined only to use of force, actual or constructive. This word merely means, "to cause to go" ,"to escort" or "to get into possession". No doubt it does mean physical taking, but not necessarily by use of force or fraud. The word "entice" seems to involve the idea of inducement or allurement by giving rise to hope or desire in the other. This can take many forms, difficult to visualise and describe exhaustively; some of them may be quite subtle, depending for their success on the mental state of the person at the time when the inducement is intended to operate. This may work immediately or it may create continuous and gradual but imperceptible impression culminating after some time in achieving its ultimate purposes of successful inducement. The two words "takes" and "entices", as used in Section 361, I.P.C., are in our opinion, intended to be read together so that each takes to some extent its colour and content from the other. The statutory language suggests that if the minor leaves her parental home completely uninfluenced by any promise, offer or inducement emanating from the guilty party, then the latter cannot be considered to have committed the offence as defined in Section 361 I.P.C."*

19. It is further to be seen that the rigours of Section 361 of Indian Penal Code will have its effect where the minor is taken away from the lawful guardianship without the consent of guardian or she is allured or given any promise or inducement or offer which has resulted in enticing away the minor from the lawful guardianship. The element of non-voluntary leaving of minor from the lawful guardianship on the basis of force, promise or inducement or offer is an important aspect to attract the penal provision. An eventuality may arise where the minor voluntary and on his own accord, leaves the lawful guardianship then in such circumstances the applicability of Section 361 of Indian Penal Code may not arise. In this respect, the Supreme Court in S. Varadarajan Vs. State of Madras, AIR 1965 SC 942 has observed as under :-

"(9). It must, however, be borne in mind that there is a distinction between "taking" and allowing a minor to accompany a person. The two expressions are not synonymous though we would like to guard ourselves from laying down that in no conceivable circumstances can the two be regarded as meaning the same thing for the purposes of S. 361 of the Indian Penal Code. We would limit ourselves to a case like the present where the minor alleged to have been taken by the accused person left her father's protection knowing and having capacity to know the full import of what she was doing voluntarily joins the accused person. In such a case we do not think that the accused can be said to have taken her away from the keeping of her lawful guardian. Something more has to be shown in a case of this kind and that is some kind of inducement held out by the accused person or an active participation by him in the formation of the intention of the minor to leave the house of the guardian."

20. In the present case, as per allegation in first information report it is alleged that applicant has enticed away victim from the home of informant as the victim was in talking terms over mobile phone with applicant. The victim in her first statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C has not supported the prosecution case and has stated that she had voluntarily left the home as the family members of the victim have beaten her and electrocuted her. Further, the victim in her statement under Section 164 of Criminal Procedure Code before the court concerned has specifically stated that uncle of victim had seen the victim talking to applicant on phone and as a result of same she was beaten and given electric shock, as such she went out of house alone. She has also stated that family members of victim has deliberately given the name of applicant in criminal prosecution.

21. It is further to be seen that statement of mother of victim has also been recorded under Section 161 of Criminal Procedure Code where she has stated that victim was in talking terms with the applicant and wanted to marry applicant. However, when she was asked not to talk with applicant then the victim left the home. She has also stated that she is confident that the applicant has enticed away the victim.

22. The statement of father of victim (informant) was also recorded by Investigating Officer who has stated that applicant has enticed away the victim. The statement of informant does not disclose the manner in which the victim has been enticed away by applicant. The statement of informant only raises suspicion without there being any material particulars as to how the victim has been taken away by the applicant-accused. It is further relevant to note that in support of chargesheet only two witnesses of fact are cited by prosecution, the first being the informant and the second being Sandhya Devi, who is the mother of victim. Both the aforesaid witnesses have not given any material particulars or details as to how the victim has been enticed away. Mere being in talking terms with another person resulting in victim leaving home would not attract penal provisions. The statement of victim under Section 164 of Criminal Procedure Code is not being denied by the prosecution/opposite party before this Court. The victim in her statement has stated that she was in talking terms with applicant and she has stated that she has voluntary left the home.

23. The material particulars and circumstances with regard to enticing away the victim by the applicant has not been disclosed by prosecution. Mere talking to victim by itself cannot be a circumstance which would be treated as enticing away the victim. The victim in her statement has also alleged that family members of victim has beaten her and electrocuted her and as a result of same she has left the house.

24. The prosecution has failed to show that victim was enticed away by the applicant. The essential ingredients of offence under Section 363 of Indian Penal Code is not made out by learned counsel for opposite party before this Court. The cognizance order also does not disclose the material circumstances which were before the trial court.

25. In view of the aforesaid, the criminal proceedings against the applicant in the above mentioned case is not tenable under law as such the charge-sheet dated 19.1.2021, cognizance order dated 7.7.2023 and the entire criminal proceedings arising out of Case No. 9029 of 2023 (State Vs. Himanshu Dubey) arising out of Case Crime No. 0382 of 2020 under Section 363 of the Indian Penal Code, Police Station Gauri Bazar, District Deoria pending before the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Court/Room No. 17, Deoria are hereby quashed.

26. Accordingly, the present application filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. is allowed.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Jaspreet Singh, J.)

1. The respondent as claimant had initiated arbitral proceedings before an Arbitral Tribunal which culminated in a unanimous award dated 20th November 2018, in favour of the respondent. The appellant preferred a petition under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (in short, the Act of 1996) which was dismissed by the Commercial Court-I, Lucknow vide order and judgment dated 31.03.2023 and being aggrieved from the same, the appellant preferred this appeal before this Court under Section 37 of the Act of 1996.

Factual Matrix

2. In order to appreciate the controversy involved in the instant appeal, it will be worthwhile to take a glance at the facts, briefly.

3. The Ministry of Coal, Government of India in furtherance of Government Company Dispensation Scheme allocated Chhendipada and Chhendipada-II Coal Blocks jointly to Uttar Pradesh Rajya Vidyut Utpadan Nigam Ltd., Chhatisgarh Mineral Development Corporation and Maharashtra State Power Generation Corporation Limited who jointly ventured to explore and undertake mining operations from the allocated coal blocks.

4. The above three Government Corporations incorporated a Special Company for the purpose of development, exploration and mining of coal blocks namely UCM Coal Company Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as 'UCM/appellant')

5. The appellant for the purposes of development and exploration of the coal blocks as allocated, floated tenders through international competitive bidding process to select a mine developer and operator for the two Chhendipada Coal Blocks allocated to the appellant. Several bids were received and upon its examination, the bid of the respondent was found favourable and it was accepted.

6. A letter of award dated 27th October, 2010 was issued to the respondent which was followed by a formal mining contract which was signed on 05th February, 2011. In the said mining contract, the appellant was described as a 'mine owner' whereas the respondent was described as the 'mine operator'.

7. The mining contract broadly envisaged three stages; (i) approval and clearance stage (ii) development stage and (iii) operation stage.

8. The approval and clearance stage inter-alia required the respondent to prepare mining plans, seek clearances and approval required for starting mining activities, coal washery and other incidental infrastructural activities including preparing a railway siding.

9. It also required the respondent to obtain forest clearance, environmental clearance, clearances related to the drawl of power and water, license for explosives and clearance for land acquisition and resettlement as per requirement for 5 to 10 years of mining activities.

10. While, the said contract was still at the clearance stage, the coal block allocations came under the scrutiny of the Supreme Court of India in a Public Interest Litigation initiated by Shri Manohar Lal Sharma. The same came to be decided by the Supreme Court of India vide its judgment dated 25.08.2014 followed by an order dated 24.09.2014 and the coal allocations, including relating to Chhendipada and Chhendipada-II were cancelled.

11. It is in this context that disputes arose between the appellant and the respondent.

12. The matter was referred for Arbitration before an Arbitral Tribunal comprising of Hon'ble Mr. Justice K.A. Punj (Retd.), who was the party nominated Arbitrator for the respondent, Hon'ble Mr. Justice, N.K. Mehrotra (Retd.) who was the party-nominated arbitrator for the appellant and the two party-nominated arbitrators appointed Hon'ble Mr. Justice Deepak Verma, (Retd. Judge of the Apex Court) as the Presiding Arbitrator.

13. The respondent, who was the claimant before the Arbitral Tribunal, had laid its claims for recovering expenses incurred by the claimant in the process of acquisition of land in the coal block, expenses incurred towards setting up of mine infrastructure and for mobilizing movable and immovable assets, and such amount which was paid or committed as advances including for capital commitments.

14. The claims of the respondent were disputed by the appellant inter-alia taking a ground that the respondent had engaged sub-contractors without prior written consent of the appellant, which was prohibited in the mining contract. It was also contended that inflated claims had been made by the respondent which could not be substantiated.

15. Before the Tribunal, five issues were framed and after the parties were given an opportunity to lead evidence, the Tribunal after hearing the parties passed a unanimous award on 20th November, 2018 inter alia allowing the claims of the respondent to the tune of Rs. 126,63,21,44/- along with the interest at the rate of 11% per annum. The respondent was also awarded interest of 11% per annum on the amount allowed by the Tribunal through an interim award dated 31.01.2017. The Tribunal, however, deferred the payment of interest on the amount of Rs. 126 crores which was payable by the respondent to its consultant PMC, who had an award in its favour against the respondent till the decision on a petition filed by the respondent under Section 34 of the Act of 1996 challenging the award in favour of PMC Projects (India) Pvt. Ltd.

16. The appellant being aggrieved assailed the said award before the Commercial Court-I at Lucknow in a petition under Section 34 of the Act of 1996 which came to be registered as Arbitration Case no. 369 of 2019. The Commercial Court-I, Lucknow after hearing the parties dismissed the said petition by means of its judgment and order dated 31.03.2023 which is under challenge before this Court in appeal under Section 37 of the Act of 1996.

Submissions on behalf of the appellant:-

17. Mr. Pritish Kumar, learned Additional Advocate General for the State of U.P. assisted by Sri Suyash Manjul and Sri Vibhanshu Srivastava, has structured his submissions in three layers:-

(i) The Arbitral Tribunal has misconstrued the contractual clause and given an interpretation which amounts to re-writing the contract;

(ii) Certain claims have been allowed for which there was no evidence before the Tribunal; and

(iii) Claims were awarded on the basis of certain documents which could not be made the basis for granting and allowing such claims.

18. Elaborating his submissions, the learned counsel for the appellant submitted that the mining contract clearly prohibited engagement of a sub contractor without the prior written consent of the appellant. He referred to Clauses 12.2, 27.5 and 27.6 of the mining contract dated 05.02.2011.

19. It was further submitted that the respondent had engaged several entities such as PMC Projects (India) Pvt. Ltd. (in short 'PMC'), SPARC Pvt. Ltd. (in short 'SPARC'), G.V. Info-solutions Pvt. Ltd. (in short 'GVI'), Hydro Geo Survey Consultants Pvt. Ltd. (in short 'Hydro') and Vimta Labs Ltd. (in short 'Vimta') without the prior written approval, hence, there was a clear violation of the above noted provisions of the contract.

20. It was urged that the respondent had setup a claim that the entities aforesaid were not sub-contractors but were consultants, however, it was submitted that the mining contract did not envisage engagement of any consultant nor they were recognized as per the mining contract.

21. Any commitment made by the respondent to such entities who did not have the written approval of the appellant, and any amount paid or committed to be paid by the respondent to such entities could not be extended to be recoverable from the appellant.

22. It was also submitted that not only the above mentioned entities were engaged without the prior written consent of the appellant but they had been engaged much prior to the date of signing of the mining contract, hence, any obligation arising between the said entities and the respondent could not be made enforceable against the appellant.

23. Mr. Kumar submitted that primarily the major component of claims as raised by the respondent related to the payments said to have been made or committed to be paid to primarily the major sub contractors, namely the PMC and GVI, however, their engagements were never disclosed to the appellant. Even under the mining contract, the respondent was required to keep the appellant abreast with the developments and progress by submitting reports from time to time which was also not done which was a further breach made by the respondent.

24. Mr. Kumar emphasized that Clause 27.6 of the mining contract clearly indicated that there was no scope for any implied approval or consent. Thus, even if the respondent at some later point of time, in their progress reports had made a mention of such engaged entities yet the fact remains that in absence of any prior written consent, their engagement could not be ratified nor there could be a deemed approval from the side of the appellant. Thus, the engagement of such entities at the behest of the respondent stood vitiated from its inception, vis-a-vis the appellant who cannot be made, perforce to satisfy, or subrogate the contractual liability having arisen between the respondent and the said sub contracting entities.

25. It was further submitted that the mining contract had defined the relevant terminology so that no extended meaning could be ascribed to the words and expressions used in the said contract by any party. Hence, the respondent who as part of their claims had stated that the entities were not sub-contractors but were consultants and the said mining contract did not give any indication regarding engagement of any consultant and by mere usage of the word consultant, the respondent cannot camouflage the actual status of such entities who were none other than sub contractors.

27. The Arbitral Tribunal while dealing with the said issue went much ahead and ascribed its own interpretation to the scope of engagement of sub contractors in derogation of the provisions of the mining contract and treating the said entities to be consultants by referring to the meaning given to the word 'sub contractor' and 'consultant' in a Law Lexicon but ignoring the fact that in the mining contract, the terms were given certain specific meaning and as such the Tribunal committed a grave error in effectively re-writing the contract which was a patent illegality.

28. It was further urged that since the mining contract did not envisage engagement of consultants, hence, any consultant engaged by the respondent would be at its own peril. Alternatively, it was urged that the respondent could give any name to the engagement of such entities but since the said entities worked and performed such services which were part of the mining contract in terms of the Clause 8 and admittedly there was no prior written approval, hence, the work done by them would make their status to be a sub contractor and this aspect has not been considered by the Tribunal as well as the Commercial Court I, Lucknow.

29. In support of his aforesaid submissions, Mr. Kumar has relied upon the decision of the Apex Court in (i) PSA Sical Terminals (P) Ltd. v. V.O. Chidambranar Port Trust, (2023) 15 SCC 781 (ii) South East Asia Marine Engg. & Constructions Ltd. (SEAMEC LTD.) v. Oil India Ltd., (2020) 5 SCC 164 (iii) State of Chhattisgarh v. SAL Udyog (P) Ltd., (2022) 2 SCC 275.

30. Mr. Kumar further submitted that a huge sum has been awarded by the Tribunal as payments which were paid and committed to be paid by the respondent to the sub contracting entities without any evidence.

31. It was elaborated by Mr. Kumar that if any payments were made by the respondent to the said third party sub-contracting agencies, then the respondent should have brought the invoices raised by such entities on record but no such invoices were placed on record nor any corroborating evidence was placed on record of the Tribunal to substantiate the genuineness of the amount claimed and the details of any payment made to the said third party contractors, except certain amount which was admitted by the appellant and were cleared for payment.

32. It was also pointed out that the work order which was issued by the respondent to the third party sub-contracting entity clearly indicated that the said entity would raise an invoice. It is in this context, it was urged, that in absence of any invoice raised by the entity on the respondent, the amount could not have been said to be proved nor the liability could have been said to have crystallized, which would make the appellant liable to reimburse the respondent for it.

33. It was stated that primarily, the large part of the claim of the respondent was based on the reimbursement of the expenses and in absence of adequate evidence, the Tribunal as well as the Commercial Court-I, Lucknow committed an error in overlooking this crucial aspect. Accordingly, the findings returned by the Tribunal as well as the Commercial Court-I, Lucknow is rendered perverse as it is not supported by any evidence on record.

34. Mr. Kumar further submitted that in order to dress the claim with a cloak of legitimacy, the respondent had filed certificates issued by their Chartered Accountant, however, there were glaring discrepancies in the said certificates as well. The CA certificates up to June, 2014 indicated pre-cancellation expenses as 76.94 crores, however, upon the cancellation of the coal block allocations, suddenly the expenses and project costs escalated manifold and was shown to be Rs. 494 crores. Major claims relating to coal washery and capital commitments were apparently unsupported as no invoice or appropriate documentation or entries made in the books of accounts maintained by the respondent in their usual course of business were filed and in absence of any such cogent evidence, the amount claimed by the respondent under the aforesaid, claim could not have been mechanically awarded by the Tribunal and more so this issue was raised before the Commercial Court, however, it did not appropriately notice and deal with the said objection resulting in sheer miscarriage of justice.

35. In support of his aforesaid submissions, Mr. Kumar has relied upon a decision of the Apex Court in DMRC Ltd. v. Delhi Airport Metro Express (P) Ltd., (2024) 6 SCC 357 to urge that if any finding or claim has been allowed without evidence then the same is liable to be set aside.

Submissions on behalf of the respondent:-

36. Mr. Vikram Nankani, learned Senior Counsel, who had joined the proceedings through video conferencing, assisted by Mr. Pranjal Krishna and Mr. Abhishek Dwivedi, learned counsel for the respondent submitted that the scope of an appeal under Section 37 of the Act of 1996 is limited to whether an order passed by the Court in proceedings under Section 34 of the Act of 1996, to set aside the award, or refusing to set aside the award, is just and appropriate keeping in mind the limited grounds as envisaged in Section 34 of the Act of 1996 itself.

37. Since the proceedings of Section 34 of the Act of 1996 is not in the nature of an appeal as understood in context with regular civil litigation and unless the grounds as set out in Section 34 of the Act of 1996 itself is made out till then this Court would not interfere under Section 37 of the Act of 1996 as the scope of the appeal is even narrower than under Section 34 of the Act of 1996.

38. It was further submitted that the scheme of the Act of 1996 is such that the Arbitral Tribunal has been recognized as the exclusive authority to deal with the matter before it. The Tribunal has the power and jurisdiction to give its finding by construing the clauses of the contract. If the Tribunal upon assessing the evidence before it has taken a view by construing the clause of contract then unless the said view ascribed by the Tribunal is found to be so preposterous, that no fair minded person can arrive at such construction or interpretation till then the view of the Tribunal is to be respected and it is binding.

39. The Tribunal has also been given the exclusive authority to examine, sift and evaluate the evidence and its finding based on such evidence cannot be re-appreciated or re-examined both in terms of quality and quantity either by the court in exercise of powers under Section 34 of the Act of 1996 or by the Appellate Court in terms of Section 37 of the Act of 1996. It is in this context that the scope of the Appellate Court is said to be even narrower and in support of his aforesaid submissions, he has relied upon the decision of the Apex Court in (i) UHL Power Co. Ltd. v. State of H.P., (2022) 4 SCC 116 and (ii) AC Chokshi Share Broker (P) Ltd. v. Jatin Pratap Desai, (2025) 5 SCC 321.

40. Armed with the aforesaid decisions, Mr. Nankani further urged that no infirmity could be pointed out by the learned counsel for the appellant referable to the findings given in the order dated 31.03.2023 passed by the Commercial Court. He further argued that the Commercial Court being conscious of its limitations as prescribed by law in exercise of its powers under Section 34 of the Act of 1996 evaluated the submissions and found that the basis of the entire argument raised by learned counsel for the appellant rested on the premise relating to the interpretation of the clauses of the mining contract and the view formed by the Arbitral Tribunal thereon was based on evidence and it was well within the domain of the Tribunal to be so hence it refrained from interfering with the Award.

42. It is further urged that the Tribunal had not only noticed the submissions of the respective parties but also copiously referred to clauses of the contract and referred to the cross-examination of the witnesses to amplify the manner in which both the contracting parties understood the working of the said contract and thereupon gave its findings unanimously, which cannot be disturbed in a petition under Section 34 or in an appeal under Section 37 of the Act of 1996. Now, the attempt of the learned counsel for the appellant to suggest that the Commercial Court overstepped its jurisdiction, is nothing but to tempt this Court to enter an arena of re-appreciating of evidence which is not for this Court to do in terms of Section 37 of the Act of 1996.

44. The learned Senior Counsel for the respondent further submitted, without prejudice to his aforesaid submissions relating to the scope of interference in proceedings under Section 34 and 37 of the Act of 1996, that the mining contract is a hugely specialized contract. It is true that the contract was divided in three stages and it is also true that the instant contract did not move ahead beyond the first stage of approvals and clearance as it was cancelled by the Apex Court in the Public Interest Litigation instituted by Shri Manohar Lal Sharma, however, even the clearances and approvals were not mere simple clearances which were required to be obtained in a routine course, from the Government Agencies.

46. The approvals and clearances related to environmental clearance, also involved acquisition of land including a resettlement of the persons displaced. Complete mine plans had to be prepared which also involved laying of railway sidings. These clearances required a detailed specialized study and only thereafter such reports are prepared which are assessed by experts and only thereafter, if it is found that there is no negative impact on the environment, would such permissions be granted.

47. It was also submitted that the contract did not require the mine operator (i.e. the respondent) to have all in-house facilities so that no outside help could be engaged. For preparation of such specialized reports, specialists and consultants are engaged and it is for the very same reason that the contract did not put an embargo for the mine operator to not engage any consultant specifically.

48. It was further urged that there is essentially a marked difference between a consultant and a sub-contractor. Though, the engagement of a sub contractor without the prior written consent of the mine owner was envisioned in the contract but it did not prohibit the engagement of a consultant by the mine operator nor it required the prior written consent of the mine owner.

49. In the aforesaid backdrop, the respondent had clearly raised this issue before the Tribunal and led ample evidence to substantiate that the PMC, GVI, Hydro, Vimta Labs and SPRAC were consultants who were specialized entities having expertise in their respective fields and they were engaged only for the purposes of consultancy to guide the respondent in facilitating the procurement of the said clearances and approvals.

50. It was also pointed out that all such approvals and clearances were applied by the respondent as an agent of the appellant. The respondent followed the terms of the mining contract scrupulously and at each stage furnished the progress reports to the appellant to keep it well informed of the work undertaken by the respondent.

51. It was also submitted that alongwith the aforesaid progress statements, the necessary reports prepared by such expert entities were also submitted and the appellant was very well aware of the specialized work done by the aforesaid consultants and at no point of time, there was any objection or demur on the part of the appellant on this count.

52. It is only after the cancellation of the coal block allocation and upon claims raised by the respondent did this idea germinate within the appellant-corporation to create a ruse to deny the legitimate claims of the respondent.

53. Mr. Nankani, learned Senior counsel further submitted that the Tribunal has clearly drawn out the distinction between a sub contractor and a consultant and it also took note of the evidences of the respective parties and thereupon it gave its finding that the entities were consultants and not sub contractors. Accordingly, the Tribunal held that the claim of the respondent could not be refused on the ground that the entities were sub contractors and were engaged without prior consent of the appellant.

54. The learned Senior Counsel also breezed through the records to substantiate that ample evidence was filed by the respondent before the Tribunal to substantiate its claim for reimbursement relating to the money paid and committed to be paid to the third party entities. Work orders were placed on record and it was also pointed out that one of the consultants namely PMC had also instituted arbitral proceedings against the respondent and the pleadings relating to the said arbitration was also placed on record before the Arbitral Tribunal, dealing with the dispute between the appellant and the respondent.

55. It was also pointed out that as far as claims regarding the PMC made against the respondent is concerned, they related to payments which were to be made by the respondent to the PMC on milestone basis, arising out of this particular mining agreement. Moreover, the milestones were achieved which is not quite disputed, accordingly, now the appellant cannot take the plea that the claims raised by the third party, namely PMC, against the respondent appears to be collusive or inflated.

56. It was urged that the appellant had been the beneficiary of the said contract, inasmuch as, the matter relating to land acquisition and other clearances and the ancillary work done by the said third party agencies had been recognized by the appellant who relied upon the same while submitting the necessary document before the Ministry of Coal. This in itself, proved the fact that not only the appellant was aware of the working of these consultants but he was also aware of the fact that the milestones as set out had been achieved by the said third party consultant.

57. The learned Senior Counsel also submitted that certain discrepancies as sought to be pointed out by the learned counsel for the appellant, suggesting inflation in the claim amount as indicated in the certificates issued by the Chartered Accountants is not tenable. It was submitted that the respondent in its usual course of business prepared its books of account and being a company the said accounts are duly audited and are certified by a Chartered Accountant. It is not the case of the appellant that the certificates issued by the Chartered Accountant are false and fabricated rather the objection appears to be that up to the pre-cancellation stage of the coal allocation, the expenses were shown as Rs. 76.94 crores whereas post cancellation, the said amount was shown as Rs. 494 crores.

58. Explaining the same, it was stated that upon the cancellation of the coal block allocation, it was certain that no further activity would be done in furtherance of the said mining contract, hence, all the expenses or losses had to be accounted for at that point of time. Accordingly, the submission was that this aspect was also considered both by the Tribunal and the Commercial Court and it cannot be said that the view taken is bad in the eyes of law or there was no evidence in this regard or that the findings are based on inadmissible documents.

59. It was pointed out that the Tribunal also noted the standard accounting procedures on the basis of which such certificates were issued by the Chartered Accountant which were not shown to be false or patently against the settled accounting procedures, hence, on the basis of evidence, the Tribunal arrived at findings which cannot be said to be bad in the eyes of law. Thus the said findings are not amenable to any further re-appreciation by this Court especially once the award had been accepted by the Commercial Court, who refused to set it aside in proceedings under Section 34 of the Act of 1996.

60. It was also urged that evidence was filed in several volumes before the Arbitral Tribunal which has been duly noted and thereafter a unanimous award has been passed by the Tribunal. Thus, to suggest that there was no material or evidence before the Tribunal to support the findings is absolutely incorrect. Accordingly, the decision cited by learned counsel for the appellant in Delhi Metro (supra) is clearly distinguishable on facts, and in any case it is not applicable to the present case.

61. It was also submitted that the award clearly takes note of the claims and the defence including the counter claim of the appellant. On the basis of the respective pleadings, the Tribunal framed expressive issues upon which evidence was led and after considering the submissions specific findings have been recorded which are well reasoned and such findings cannot be said to be bad. Moreover, considering the award has been affirmed by the court in proceedings under Section 34 of the Act of 1996, in such circumstances, the attempt of the appellant to persuade this Court to re-appreciate the evidence and to act as an Appellate Court, as understood in regular civil proceedings, is not appropriate, hence, for all the aforesaid reasons, the appeal deserves to be dismissed.

Discussions and Analysis

62. The Court has heard the learned counsel for the parties and also perused the material on record.

63. At the outset, it will be appropriate to notice the contours of scope and jurisdiction of this Court while dealing with an appeal under Section 37 of the Act of 1996.

64. The Apex Court in MMTC Ltd. v. Vedanta Ltd., (2019) 4 SCC 163 has held as under:-

"11. As far as Section 34 is concerned, the position is well-settled by now that the Court does not sit in appeal over the arbitral award and may interfere on merits on the limited ground provided under Section 34(2)(b)(ii) i.e. if the award is against the public policy of India. As per the legal position clarified through decisions of this Court prior to the amendments to the 1996 Act in 2015, a violation of Indian public policy, in turn, includes a violation of the fundamental policy of Indian law, a violation of the interest of India, conflict with justice or morality, and the existence of patent illegality in the arbitral award. Additionally, the concept of the "fundamental policy of Indian law" would cover compliance with statutes and judicial precedents, adopting a judicial approach, compliance with the principles of natural justice, and Wednesbury [Associated Provincial Picture Houses v. Wednesbury Corpn., (1948) 1 KB 223 (CA)] reasonableness. Furthermore, "patent illegality" itself has been held to mean contravention of the substantive law of India, contravention of the 1996 Act, and contravention of the terms of the contract.

12. It is only if one of these conditions is met that the Court may interfere with an arbitral award in terms of Section 34(2)(b)(ii), but such interference does not entail a review of the merits of the dispute, and is limited to situations where the findings of the arbitrator are arbitrary, capricious or perverse, or when the conscience of the Court is shocked, or when the illegality is not trivial but goes to the root of the matter. An arbitral award may not be interfered with if the view taken by the arbitrator is a possible view based on facts. (See Associate Builders v. DDA [Associate Builders v. DDA, (2015) 3 SCC 49 : (2015) 2 SCC (Civ) 204] . Also see ONGC Ltd. v. Saw Pipes Ltd. [ONGC Ltd. v. Saw Pipes Ltd., (2003) 5 SCC 705] ; Hindustan Zinc Ltd. v. Friends Coal Carbonisation [Hindustan Zinc Ltd. v. Friends Coal Carbonisation, (2006) 4 SCC 445] ; and McDermott International Inc. v. Burn Standard Co. Ltd. [McDermott International Inc. v. Burn Standard Co. Ltd., (2006) 11 SCC 181])

13. It is relevant to note that after the 2015 Amendment to Section 34, the above position stands somewhat modified. Pursuant to the insertion of Explanation 1 to Section 34(2), the scope of contravention of Indian public policy has been modified to the extent that it now means fraud or corruption in the making of the award, violation of Section 75 or Section 81 of the Act, contravention of the fundamental policy of Indian law, and conflict with the most basic notions of justice or morality. Additionally, sub-section (2-A) has been inserted in Section 34, which provides that in case of domestic arbitrations, violation of Indian public policy also includes patent illegality appearing on the face of the award. The proviso to the same states that an award shall not be set aside merely on the ground of an erroneous application of the law or by reappreciation of evidence.

14. As far as interference with an order made under Section 34, as per Section 37, is concerned, it cannot be disputed that such interference under Section 37 cannot travel beyond the restrictions laid down under Section 34. In other words, the court cannot undertake an independent assessment of the merits of the award, and must only ascertain that the exercise of power by the court under Section 34 has not exceeded the scope of the provision. Thus, it is evident that in case an arbitral award has been confirmed by the court under Section 34 and by the court in an appeal under Section 37, this Court must be extremely cautious and slow to disturb such concurrent findings.

15. Having noted the above grounds for interference with an arbitral award, it must now be noted that the instant question pertains to determining whether the arbitral award deals with a dispute not contemplated by or not falling within the terms of the submission to arbitration, or contains decisions on matters beyond the scope of the submission to arbitration. However, this question has been addressed by the courts in terms of the construction of the contract between the parties, and as such it can be safely said that a review of such a construction cannot be made in terms of reassessment of the material on record, but only in terms of the principles governing interference with an award as discussed above.

16. It is equally important to observe at this juncture that while interpreting the terms of a contract, the conduct of parties and correspondences exchanged would also be relevant factors and it is within the arbitrator's jurisdiction to consider the same. [See McDermott International Inc. v. Burn Standard Co. Ltd. [McDermott International Inc. v. Burn Standard Co. Ltd., (2006) 11 SCC 181] ;

Pure Helium India (P) Ltd. v. ONGC [Pure Helium India (P) Ltd. v. ONGC, (2003) 8 SCC 593] and D.D. Sharma v. Union of India [D.D. Sharma v. Union of India, (2004) 5 SCC 325] .]"

65. Similarly, the Apex Court in UHL Power Co. Ltd. v. State of H.P., (2022) 4 SCC 116 has observed as under:-

"16. As it is, the jurisdiction conferred on courts under Section 34 of the Arbitration Act is fairly narrow, when it comes to the scope of an appeal under Section 37 of the Arbitration Act, the jurisdiction of an appellate court in examining an order, setting aside or refusing to set aside an award, is all the more circumscribed. In MMTC Ltd. v. Vedanta Ltd. [MMTC Ltd. v. Vedanta Ltd., (2019) 4 SCC 163 : (2019) 2 SCC (Civ) 293] , the reasons for vesting such a limited jurisdiction on the High Court in exercise of powers under Section 34 of the Arbitration Act have been explained in the following words : (SCC pp. 166-67, para 11)

"11. As far as Section 34 is concerned, the position is well-settled by now that the Court does not sit in appeal over the arbitral award and may interfere on merits on the limited ground provided under Section 34(2)(b)(ii) i.e. if the award is against the public policy of India. As per the legal position clarified through decisions of this Court prior to the amendments to the 1996 Act in 2015, a violation of Indian public policy, in turn, includes a violation of the fundamental policy of Indian law, a violation of the interest of India, conflict with justice or morality, and the existence of patent illegality in the arbitral award. Additionally, the concept of the "fundamental policy of Indian law" would cover compliance with statutes and judicial precedents, adopting a judicial approach, compliance with the principles of natural justice, and Wednesbury [Associated Provincial Picture Houses Ltd. v. Wednesbury Corpn., (1948) 1 KB 223 (CA)] reasonableness. Furthermore, "patent illegality" itself has been held to mean contravention of the substantive law of India, contravention of the 1996 Act, and contravention of the terms of the contract."

17. A similar view, as stated above, has been taken by this Court in K. Sugumar v. Hindustan Petroleum Corpn. Ltd. [K. Sugumar v. Hindustan Petroleum Corpn. Ltd., (2020) 12 SCC 539] , wherein it has been observed as follows : (SCC p. 540, para 2)

"2. The contours of the power of the Court under Section 34 of the Act are too well established to require any reiteration. Even a bare reading of Section 34 of the Act indicates the highly constricted power of the civil court to interfere with an arbitral award. The reason for this is obvious. When parties have chosen to avail an alternate mechanism for dispute resolution, they must be left to reconcile themselves to the wisdom of the decision of the arbitrator and the role of the court should be restricted to the bare minimum. Interference will be justified only in cases of commission of misconduct by the arbitrator which can find manifestation in different forms including exercise of legal perversity by the arbitrator."

18. It has also been held time and again by this Court that if there are two plausible interpretations of the terms and conditions of the contract, then no fault can be found, if the learned arbitrator proceeds to accept one interpretation as against the other. In Dyna Technologies (P) Ltd. v. Crompton Greaves Ltd. [Dyna Technologies (P) Ltd. v. Crompton Greaves Ltd., (2019) 20 SCC 1] , the limitations on the Court while exercising powers under Section 34 of the Arbitration Act has been highlighted thus : (SCC p. 12, para 24)

"24. There is no dispute that Section 34 of the Arbitration Act limits a challenge to an award only on the grounds provided therein or as interpreted by various Courts. We need to be cognizant of the fact that arbitral awards should not be interfered with in a casual and cavalier manner, unless the Court comes to a conclusion that the perversity of the award goes to the root of the matter without there being a possibility of alternative interpretation which may sustain the arbitral award. Section 34 is different in its approach and cannot be equated with a normal appellate jurisdiction. The mandate under Section 34 is to respect the finality of the arbitral award and the party autonomy to get their dispute adjudicated by an alternative forum as provided under the law. If the Courts were to interfere with the arbitral award in the usual course on factual aspects, then the commercial wisdom behind opting for alternate dispute resolution would stand frustrated."

19. In Parsa Kente Collieries Ltd. v. Rajasthan Rajya Vidyut Utpadan Nigam Ltd. [Parsa Kente Collieries Ltd. v. Rajasthan Rajya Vidyut Utpadan Nigam Ltd., (2019) 7 SCC 236 : (2019) 3 SCC (Civ) 552] , adverting to the previous decisions of this Court in McDermott International Inc. v. Burn Standard Co. Ltd. [McDermott International Inc. v. Burn Standard Co. Ltd., (2006) 11 SCC 181] and Rashtriya Ispat Nigam Ltd. v. Dewan Chand Ram Saran [Rashtriya Ispat Nigam Ltd. v. Dewan Chand Ram Saran, (2012) 5 SCC 306] , wherein it has been observed that an Arbitral Tribunal must decide in accordance with the terms of the contract, but if a term of the contract has been construed in a reasonable manner, then the award ought not to be set aside on this ground, it has been held thus : (Parsa Kente Collieries case [Parsa Kente Collieries Ltd. v. Rajasthan Rajya Vidyut Utpadan Nigam Ltd., (2019) 7 SCC 236 : (2019) 3 SCC (Civ) 552] , SCC pp. 244-45, para 9)

"9.1. … It is further observed and held that construction of the terms of a contract is primarily for an arbitrator to decide unless the arbitrator construes the contract in such a way that it could be said to be something that no fair-minded or reasonable person could do. It is further observed by this Court in the aforesaid decision in para 33 that when a court is applying the "public policy" test to an arbitration award, it does not act as a court of appeal and consequently errors of fact cannot be corrected. A possible view by the arbitrator on facts has necessarily to pass muster as the arbitrator is the ultimate master of the quantity and quality of evidence to be relied upon when he delivers his arbitral award. It is further observed that thus an award based on little evidence or on evidence which does not measure up in quality to a trained legal mind would not be held to be invalid on this score.

SCC 63 : (2009) 4 SCC (Civ) 16] , SCC para 29."

(emphasis supplied)

20. In Dyna Technologies [Dyna Technologies (P) Ltd. v. Crompton Greaves Ltd., (2019) 20 SCC 1] , the view taken above has been reiterated in the following words : (SCC p. 12, para 25)

"25. Moreover, umpteen number of judgments of this Court have categorically held that the courts should not interfere with an award merely because an alternative view on facts and interpretation of contract exists. The courts need to be cautious and should defer to the view taken by the Arbitral Tribunal even if the reasoning provided in the award is implied unless such award portrays perversity unpardonable under Section 34 of the Arbitration Act."

21. An identical line of reasoning has been adopted in South East Asia Marine Engg. & Constructions Ltd. (Seamec Ltd.) v. Oil India Ltd. [South East Asia Marine Engg. & Constructions Ltd. (Seamec Ltd.) v. Oil India Ltd., (2020) 5 SCC 164 : (2020) 3 SCC (Civ) 1] and it has been held as follows : (SCC p. 172, paras 12-13)

"12. It is a settled position that a court can set aside the award only on the grounds as provided in the Arbitration Act as interpreted by the courts. Recently, this Court in Dyna Technologies (P) Ltd. v. Crompton Greaves Ltd. [Dyna Technologies (P) Ltd. v. Crompton Greaves Ltd., (2019) 20 SCC 1] laid down the scope of such interference. This Court observed as follows : (SCC p. 12, para 24)

'24. There is no dispute that Section 34 of the Arbitration Act limits a challenge to an award only on the grounds provided therein or as interpreted by various Courts. We need to be cognizant of the fact that arbitral awards should not be interfered with in a casual and cavalier manner, unless the Court comes to a conclusion that the perversity of the award goes to the root of the matter without there being a possibility of alternative interpretation which may sustain the arbitral award. Section 34 is different in its approach and cannot be equated with a normal appellate jurisdiction. The mandate under Section 34 is to respect the finality of the arbitral award and the party autonomy to get their dispute adjudicated by an alternative forum as provided under the law. If the Courts were to interfere with the arbitral award in the usual course on factual aspects, then the commercial wisdom behind opting for alternate dispute resolution would stand frustrated.'

13. It is also settled law that where two views are possible, the Court cannot interfere in the plausible view taken by the arbitrator supported by reasoning. This Court in Dyna Technologies [Dyna Technologies (P) Ltd. v. Crompton Greaves Ltd., (2019) 20 SCC 1] observed as under : (SCC p. 12, para 25)

'25. Moreover, umpteen number of judgments of this Court have categorically held that the Court should not interfere with an award merely because an alternative view on facts and interpretation of contract exists. The Courts need to be cautious and should defer to the view taken by the Arbitral Tribunal even if the reasoning provided in the award is implied unless such award portrays perversity unpardonable under Section 34 of the Arbitration Act."

"32. Post award interference and the extent of the second look by the courts under Section 34 of the A&C Act has been a subject-matter of perennial parley. The foundation of arbitration is party autonomy. Parties have the freedom to enter into an agreement to settle their disputes/claims by an Arbitral Tribunal, whose decision is binding on the parties. [See Vidya Drolia v. Durga Trading Corpn., (2021) 2 SCC 1 : (2021) 1 SCC (Civ) 549, which examines arbitrability and non-arbitrability of subject-matters and claims, which aspect will not be examined in this case.] It is argued that the purpose of arbitration is fast and quick one-stop adjudication as an alternative to court adjudication, and therefore, post award interference by the courts is un-warranted, and an anathema that undermines the fundamental edifice of arbitration, which is consensual and voluntary departure from the right of a party to have its claim or dispute adjudicated by the judiciary. The process is informal, and need not be legalistic [The expression "judicially", does not equate arbitration with formal/court proceedings, and would include a just and fair decision.] . Per contra, it is argued that party autonomy should not be treated as an absolute defence, as a party despite agreeing to refer the disputes/claims to a private tribunal consensually, does not barter away the constitutional and basic human right to have a fair and just resolution of the disputes. The court must exercise its powers when the award is unfair, arbitrary, perverse, or otherwise infirm in law. While arbitration is a private form of dispute resolution, the conduct of arbitral proceedings must meet the juristic requirements of due process and procedural fairness and reasonableness, to achieve a "judicially" sound and objective outcome. If these requirements, which are equally fundamental to all forms of adjudication including arbitration, are not sufficiently accommodated in the arbitral proceedings and the outcome is marred, then the award should invite intervention by the court.

33. To disentangle and balance the competing principles, the degree and scope of intervention of courts when an award is challenged by one or both parties needs to be stated. Reconciliation as a statement of law and in particular application in a particular case has not been an easy exercise. We begin by first referring to the views expressed by this Court in interpreting the width and scope of the post award interference by the courts under Section 34 of the A&C Act.

37. Explanation to sub-clause (ii) to clause (b) to Section 34(2) of the A&C Act, as quoted above and before its substitution by Act 3 of 2016, had postulated and declared for avoidance of doubt that an award is "in conflict with the public policy of India", if the making of the award is induced or affected by fraud or corruption, or was in violation of Sections 75 or 81 of the A&C Act. Both Sections 75 and 81 of the A&C Act fall under Part III of the A&C Act, which deal with conciliation proceedings. Section 75 of the A&C Act relates to confidentiality of the settlement proceedings and Section 81 deals with admissibility of evidence in conciliation proceedings. Suffice it is to note at this stage that while "fraud" and "corruption" are two specific grounds under "public policy", these are not the sole and only grounds on which an award can be set aside on the ground of "public policy".

38. Act 3 of 2016 with retrospective effect from 23-10-2015 has substituted the Explanation referred to above, by two new Explanations that are differently worded. [Explanations 1 and 2 to sub-clause (ii) to clause (b) of Section 34(2) of the A&C Act substituted vide Act 3 of 2016 read as under:" Explanation 1.— For the avoidance of any doubt, it is clarified that an award is in conflict with the public policy of India, only if— (i) the making of the award was induced or affected by fraud or corruption or was in violation of Section 75 or Section 81; or(ii) it is in contravention with the fundamental policy of Indian law; or(iii) it is in conflict with the most basic notions of morality or justice.Explanation 2. — For the avoidance of doubt, the test as to whether there is a contravention with the fundamental policy of Indian law shall not entail a review on the merits of the dispute. Sub-section (2-A) of Section 34 of the A&C Act inserted vide Act 3 of 2016 reads as under: "34. (2-A) An arbitral award arising out of arbitrations other than international commercial arbitrations, may also be set aside by the court, if the court finds that the award is vitiated by patent illegality appearing on the face of the award:Provided that an award shall not be set aside merely on the ground of an erroneous application of the law or by reappreciation of evidence."] Sub-section (2-A) to Section 34 of the A&C Act, which was instituted by Act 3 of 2016 with retrospective effect from 23-10-2015, states that the arbitral award arising out of arbitrations other than international commercial arbitrations can be set aside by the court, if it is vitiated by patent illegality appearing on the face of the award. The proviso to sub-section (2-A) to Section 34 of the A&C Act also states that the award shall not be set aside merely on the ground of erroneous application of law or by reappreciation of evidence. The aforesaid sub-section need not be examined in the facts of the present case, as we are not required to interpret and apply the substituted Explanations to sub-clause (ii) to clause (b) to Section 34(2) of the A&C Act in the present case.

39. The expression "public policy" under Section 34 of the A&C Act is capable of both wide and narrow interpretation. Taking a broader interpretation, this Court in ONGC Ltd. v. Saw Pipes Ltd. [ONGC Ltd. v. Saw Pipes Ltd., (2003) 5 SCC 705] (for short Saw Pipes), held that the legislative intent was not to uphold an award if it is in contravention of provisions of an enactment, since it would be contrary to the basic concept of justice. The concept of "public policy" connotes a matter which concerns public good and public interest. An award which is patently in violation of statutory provisions cannot be held to be in public interest. Thus, expanding on the scope and expanse of the jurisdiction of the court under Section 34 of the A&C Act, it was held that an award can be set aside if it is contrary to:

(a) fundamental policy of Indian law; or

(b) the interest of India; or

(c) justice or morality, or

(d) in addition, if it is patently illegal.

40. Nevertheless, the decision in Saw Pipes case [ONGC Ltd. v. Saw Pipes Ltd., (2003) 5 SCC 705] holds that mere error of fact or law in reaching the conclusion on the disputed question will not give jurisdiction to the court to interfere. However, this will depend on three aspects:

(a) whether the reference was made in general terms for deciding the contractual dispute, in which case the award can be set aside if the award is based upon erroneous legal position;

(b) this proposition will also hold good in case of a reasoned award, which on the face of it is erroneous on the legal proposition of law and/or its application; and

(c) where a specific question of law is submitted to an arbitrator, erroneous decision on the point of law does not make the award bad, unless the court is satisfied that arbitrator had proceeded illegally.

In Saw Pipes case [ONGC Ltd. v. Saw Pipes Ltd., (2003) 5 SCC 705] , the Court set aside the award on the ground that the award had not taken into consideration the terms of the contract before arriving at the conclusion as to whether the party claiming the damages is entitled to the same. Reference was made to the provisions of Sections 73 and 74 of the Contract Act, which relate to liquidated damages, general damages and penalty stipulations. This view had held the field for a long time and was applied in subsequent judgments of this Court in Hindustan Zinc Ltd. v. Friends Coal Carbonisation [Hindustan Zinc Ltd. v. Friends Coal Carbonisation, (2006) 4 SCC 445] , Centrotrade Minerals & Metals Inc. v. Hindustan Copper Ltd. [Centrotrade Minerals & Metals Inc. v. Hindustan Copper Ltd., (2006) 11 SCC 245] , DDA v. R.S. Sharma & Co. [DDA v. R.S. Sharma & Co., (2008) 13 SCC 80] , J.G. Engineers (P) Ltd. v. Union of India [J.G. Engineers (P) Ltd. v. Union of India, (2011) 5 SCC 758 : (2011) 3 SCC (Civ) 128] , and Union of India v. L.S.N. Murthy [Union of India v. L.S.N. Murthy, (2012) 1 SCC 718 : (2012) 1 SCC (Civ) 368] .

41. In 2006, this Court in McDermott International Inc. [McDermott International Inc. v. Burn Standard Co. Ltd., (2006) 11 SCC 181] despite following the ratio of Saw Pipes [ONGC Ltd. v. Saw Pipes Ltd., (2003) 5 SCC 705] , made succinct observations regarding the restrictive role of courts in the post-award interference. In addition to the three grounds introduced in Renusagar Power Co. Ltd. v. General Electric Co. [Renusagar Power Co. Ltd. v. General Electric Co., 1994 Supp (1) SCC 644] , as noticed above, an additional ground of “patent illegality” was introduced in Saw Pipes Limited, for exercise of the court's jurisdiction in setting aside an arbitral award. This Court, in McDermott International Inc. [McDermott International Inc. v. Burn Standard Co. Ltd., (2006) 11 SCC 181] , held that patent illegality, must be such which goes to the root of the matter. The public policy violation should be so unfair and unreasonable as to shock the conscience of the court. Arbitrator where s/he acts contrary to or beyond the express law of contract or grants relief, such awards fall within the purview of Section 34 of the A&C Act. Further, what would constitute public policy is a matter dependent upon the nature of transaction and the statute. Pleadings of the party and material brought before the Court would be relevant to enable the Court to judge what is in public good or public interest, or what would otherwise be injurious to public good and interest at a relevant point. So, this must be distinguished from public policy of a particular government.

42. A similar view was expressed in Rashtriya Ispat Nigam Ltd. v. Dewan Chand Ram Saran [Rashtriya Ispat Nigam Ltd. v. Dewan Chand Ram Saran, (2012) 5 SCC 306] with the clarification that where a term of the contract is capable of two interpretations and the view taken by the arbitrator is a plausible one, it cannot be said that the arbitrator travelled outside the jurisdiction or the view taken the arbitrator is against the terms of the contract. The Court cannot interfere with the award and substitute its view with the award and interpretation accepted by the arbitrator, the reason being the Court does not sit in appeal over the findings and decision of the arbitrator, while deciding an application under Section 34 of the A&C Act. The arbitrator is legitimately entitled to take a view after considering the material before him/her and interpret the agreement. The judgment should be accepted as final and binding.

43. Subsequently, in ONGC Ltd. v. Western Geco International Ltd. [ONGC Ltd. v. Western Geco International Ltd., (2014) 9 SCC 263 : (2014) 5 SCC (Civ) 12] (for short Western Geco), a three-Judge Bench of this Court observed that the Court, in Saw Pipes [ONGC Ltd. v. Saw Pipes Ltd., (2003) 5 SCC 705] , did not examine what would constitute "fundamental policy of Indian law". The expression "fundamental policy of Indian law" in the opinion of this Court includes all fundamental principles providing as basis for administration of justice and enforcement of law in this country. There were three distinct and fundamental juristic principles which form a part and parcel of "fundamental policy of Indian law". The first and the foremost principle is that in every determination by a court or an authority that affects rights of a citizen or leads to civil consequences, the court or authority must adopt a judicial approach. Fidelity to judicial approach entails that the court or authority should not act in an arbitrary, capricious or whimsical manner. The court or authority should act in a bona fide manner and deal with the subject in a fair, reasonable and objective manner. Decision should not be actuated by extraneous considerations. Secondly, the principles of natural justice should be followed. This would include the requirement that the Arbitral Tribunal must apply its mind to the attending facts and circumstances while taking the view one way or the other. Non-application of mind is a defect that is fatal to any adjudication. Application of mind is best done by recording reasons in support of the decision. As noticed above, Section 31(3)(a) of the A&C Act ["31. Form and contents of arbitral award. — (1)-(2) * * *(3) The arbitral award shall state the reasons upon which it is based, unless— (a) the parties have agreed that no reasons are to be given, or(b) the award is an arbitral award on agreed terms under Section 30"] states that the arbitral award shall state the reasons on which it is based, unless the parties have agreed that no reasons are to be given. Sub-clauses (i) and (iii) to Section 34(2) also refer to different facets of natural justice. In a given case sub-clause to Section 34(2) and sub-clause (ii) to clause (b) to Section 34(2) may equally apply. Lastly, is the need to ensure that the decision is not perverse or irrational that no reasonable person would have arrived at the same or be sustained in a court of law. Perversity or irrationality of a decision is tested on the touchstone of Wednesbury principle of reasonableness [As expounded in Associated Provincial Picture Houses Ltd. v. Wednesbury Corpn., (1948) 1 KB 223 (CA).] . At the same time, it was cautioned that this Court was not attempting an exhaustive enumeration of what would constitute "fundamental policy of Indian law", as a straightjacket definition is not possible. If on facts proved before them, the arbitrators fail to draw an inference which ought to have been drawn or if they have drawn an inference which on the face of it, is untenable resulting in injustice, the adjudication made by an Arbitral Tribunal that enjoys considerable latitude and play at the joints in making awards, may be challenged and set aside.

44. The decision of this Court in Associate Builders [Associate Builders v. DDA, (2015) 3 SCC 49 : (2015) 2 SCC (Civ) 204] elaborately examined the question of public policy in the context of Section 34 of the A&C Act, specifically under the head "fundamental policy of Indian law". It was firstly held that the principle of judicial approach demands a decision to be fair, reasonable and objective. On the obverse side, anything arbitrary and whimsical would not satisfy the said requirement.

45. Referring to the third principle in Western Geco [ONGC Ltd. v. Western Geco International Ltd., (2014) 9 SCC 263 : (2014) 5 SCC (Civ) 12] , it was explained that the decision would be irrational and perverse if (a) it is based on no evidence; (b) if the Arbitral Tribunal takes into account something irrelevant to the decision which it arrives at; or (c) ignores vital evidence in arriving at its decision. The standards prescribed in State of Haryana v. Gopi Nath & Sons [State of Haryana v. Gopi Nath & Sons, 1992 Supp (2) SCC 312] (for short Gopi Nath & Sons) and Kuldeep Singh v. Delhi Police [Kuldeep Singh v. Delhi Police, (1999) 2 SCC 10 : 1999 SCC (L&S) 429] should be applied and relied upon, as good working tests of perversity. In Gopi Nath & Sons [State of Haryana v. Gopi Nath & Sons, 1992 Supp (2) SCC 312] it has been held that apart from the cases where a finding of fact is arrived at by ignoring or excluding relevant materials or taking into consideration irrelevant material, the finding is perverse and infirm in law when it outrageously defies logic as to suffer from vice of irrationality. Kuldeep Singh [Kuldeep Singh v. Delhi Police, (1999) 2 SCC 10 : 1999 SCC (L&S) 429] clarifies that a finding is perverse when it is based on no evidence or evidence which is thoroughly unreliable and no reasonable person would act upon it. If there is some evidence which can be acted and can be relied upon, however compendious it may be, the conclusion should not be treated as perverse. This Court in Associate Builders [Associate Builders v. DDA, (2015) 3 SCC 49 : (2015) 2 SCC (Civ) 204] emphasised that the public policy test to an arbitral award does not give jurisdiction to the court to act as a court of appeal and consequently errors of fact cannot be corrected. Arbitral Tribunal is the ultimate master of quality and quantity of evidence. An award based on little evidence or no evidence, which does not measure up in quality to a trained legal mind would not be held to be invalid on this score. Every arbitrator need not necessarily be a person trained in law as a Judge. At times, decisions are taken acting on equity and such decisions can be just and fair should not be overturned under Section 34 of the A&C Act on the ground that the arbitrator's approach was arbitrary or capricious. Referring to the third ground of public policy, justice or morality, it is observed that these are two different concepts. An award is against justice when it shocks the conscience of the court, as in an example where the claimant has restricted his claim but the Arbitral Tribunal has awarded a higher amount without any reasonable ground of justification. Morality would necessarily cover agreements that are illegal and also those which cannot be enforced given the prevailing mores of the day. Here again interference would be only if something shocks the court's conscience. Further, "patent illegality" refers to three sub-heads : (a) contravention of substantive law of India, which must be restricted and limited such that the illegality must go to the root of the matter and should not be of a trivial nature. Reference in this regard was made to clause (a) to Section 28(1) of the A&C Act, which states that the dispute submitted to arbitration under Part I shall be in accordance with the substantive law for the time being in force. The second sub-head would be when the arbitrator gives no reasons in the award in contravention with Section 31(3) of the A&C Act. The third sub-head deals with contravention of Section 28(3) of the A&C Act which states that the Arbitral Tribunal shall decide all cases in accordance with the terms of the contract and shall take into account the usage of the trade applicable to the transaction. This last sub-head should be understood with a caveat that the arbitrator has the right to construe and interpret the terms of the contract in a reasonable manner. Such interpretation should not be a ground to set aside the award, as the construction of the terms of the contract is finally for the arbitrator to decide. The award can be only set aside under this sub-head if the arbitrator construes the award in a way that no fair-minded or reasonable person would do."

67. Recently, the Apex Court in AC Chokshi Share Broker (P) Ltd. v. Jatin Pratap Desai, (2025) 5 SCC 321 has held as under:-

"29. The limited supervisory role of courts while reviewing an arbitral award is stipulated in Section 34 of the Act, beyond whose grounds courts cannot intervene and cannot correct errors in the arbitral award. [McDermott International Inc. v. Burn Standard Co. Ltd., (2006) 11 SCC 181, para 52] The appellate jurisdiction under Section 37 is also limited, as it is constrained by the grounds specified in Section 34 and the court cannot undertake an independent assessment of the merits of the award by reappreciating evidence or interfering with a reasonable interpretation of contractual terms by the Arbitral Tribunal. [MMTC Ltd. v. Vedanta Ltd., (2019) 4 SCC 163, para 14; Konkan Railway Corpn. Ltd. v. Chenab Bridge Project, (2023) 9 SCC 85, para 25] The court under Section 37 must only determine whether the Section 34 court has exercised its jurisdiction properly and rightly, without exceeding its scope. [MMTC Ltd. v. Vedanta Ltd., (2019) 4 SCC 163, para 14 : ; Bombay Slum Redevelopment Corpn. (P) Ltd. v. Samir Narain Bhojwani, (2024) 7 SCC 218, para 26.]

31. The term "public policy" in Section 34(2)(b)(ii) has been interpreted by this Court as meaning (a) the fundamental policy of Indian law, or (b) the interest of India, or (c) justice or morality. [Renusagar Power Co. Ltd. v. General Electric Co., 1994 Supp (1) SCC 644, para 66] In ONGC v. Saw Pipes Ltd. [ONGC v. Saw Pipes, (2003) 5 SCC 705] , this Court further held that an arbitral award can be set aside as being contrary to public policy if it is patently illegal. The illegality must go to the root of the matter and must be so unfair and unreasonable that it shocks the court's conscience; it cannot be of a trivial nature. [Id, para 31; McDermott International Inc. v. Burn Standard Co. Ltd., (2006) 11 SCC 181, para 59.] Such patent illegality includes a situation where the award is in contravention with substantive law. [ONGC v. Saw Pipes Ltd., (2003) 5 SCC 705, para 54; Associate Builders v. DDA, (2015) 3 SCC 49, para 42.1]

32. Further, an award can be set aside as being opposed to the "fundamental policy of India" if it is perverse, [ONGC v. Western Geco International Ltd., (2014) 9 SCC 263, para 39] i.e. the finding is not based on evidence, or the Arbitral Tribunal takes something irrelevant into account, or ignores vital evidence. [Associate Builders v. DDA, (2015) 3 SCC 49, para 31] However, an award is not perverse if the finding of fact is a possible view that is based on some reliable evidence. [Kuldeep Singh v. Delhi Police, (1999) 2 SCC 10, para 10 : as cited in Associate Builders v. DDA, (2015) 3 SCC 49, paras 32-33 : (2015) 2 SCC (Civ) 204.]"

68. Taking note of the perimeter set out by the Apex Court in the aforesaid decisions, it will now be apposite to consider the submissions of the respective parties.

69. The primary contention of the learned counsel for the appellant revolved around construction of clauses, rights and obligation flowing from the contract to submit that the third parties were sub contractors who had been engaged without the prior written consent of the appellant and not consultants. Hence, their engagement was de hors the contract. Consequently, any amount payable by the respondent to the said third parties were at the peril of the respondent and could not be extended or fastened on the appellant.

70. In order to appreciate the aforesaid contention, it will be apposite to reproduce Clauses 12.2, 27.5 and 27.6 of the mining contract and the same reads as under:-

"12.2 Subcontracting and Assignment

(a) The Mine Operator may, with the prior written approval of the Mine Owner's Representative, enter into subcontracts for the execution of any part of the Mining Services, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. However, subcontracting of "Overall Mine supervision and management" would not be allowed.

(b) The Mine Operator shall at all times remain solely responsible and ilable for all acts, omissions, and other failures of any of its employees, personnel, or other persons that it subcontracts any of its obligations hereunder and any actions on the part of such person shall be attributable to the Mine Operator. The Mine Owner shall interact only with the Mine Operator for all matters related to the performance of this Agreement.

(c) The Mine Operator shall at all times ensure that its subcontractors comply with all Applicable Laws including those related to industrial relations, sofety and environment. For the voidance of doubt, it is clarified that any and all subcontracting activities shall be in compliance with the Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Act, 1970. It is expressly clarified that for the purposes of the Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Act, 1970, the "principal employer" shall be deemed to be the Mine Manager and not the Mine Owner. In this regard, the Mine Operator agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Mine Owner against any claims, costs, expenses, damages and charges levied or incurred by the Mine Owner in relation to any non-compliance by the Mine Manager, the Mine Operator or any of its subcontractors, of any provision of the Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Act, 1970.

(d) In the event that the Mine Operator appoints a subcontractor with the approval of the Mine Owner, the Mine Operator shall continue to be solely responsible for all its obligations. The Mine Owner shall interact only with the Mine Operator for all matters related to the performance of this Agreement. The Mine Owner, if the situation so warrants, under emergency conditions, and in the event the Mine Owner, acting reasonably, belleves that any act or omission is a or potentially may result in (a) the commission of an illegal act; (b) safely or environmental issues relating to the Project; may interact, Instruct and direct the sub-contractors and the Mine Operator shall ensure that the sub-contractors are required to follow all such directions of the Mine Owner. The Mine Owner shall at all times keep the Mine Operator informed of any such direct interactions with the sub-contractors. It is clarified that such direct interactions will not absolve the Mine Operator from its responsibilities and obligations specified in the Agreement. Further any direction, instruction given to the sub-contractor shall be complied by the Mine Operator as if directly given to the Mine. Operator

(e) The Mine Operator shall, in the event of any industrial disputes, labour unresis etc involving the Mine Operator's workforce on the Site (but not the Mine Owner's employees), ensure that the Mine Operator is able to meet its delivery obligation in regard to the Monthly Contracted Quantity (MCQ). Further, under this clause the Mine Operator shall be responsible to maintain the MCQ only for those scenarios where the Industrial dispute, labour unrest has arisen on account of reasons attributable to the Mine Operator. For the purpose of this clause where the Mine Operator fails to maintain and achieve delivery obligations of MCQ leading to shortfall in delivery then the provisions for penally on account of shortfall in delivery shall be applicable.

The Mine Operator shall not, without the express prior written consent of the Mine Owner, assign to any third party, except in favour of Lenders for financing the Project, the Agreement or any part thereof, or any right, benefit, obligation or interest therein or thereunder.

Further, the Mine Owner shall also not assign any part of the scope of work which forms part of this agreement to any third party without the express consent of the Mine Operator.

---**-------*----

27.5 Approval or Consent requirements

Unless otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, where a Party's approval or consent to any act or matter is required under this Agreement:

(a) the approval or consent shall be in writing;

(b) the approval or consent shall be obtained prior to the act or matter to which it relates;

(c) the approval or consent may be refused, given unconditionally, or given subject to conditions in the discretion of the Party giving it; and

(d) the Parties shall not be unreasonable in refusing, delaying or Imposing conditions on its approval or consent.

27.6 No Implied approval by the Mine Owner

The Mine Operator acknowledges that no comment, review, representation, vatting, inspection. testing or approval by the Mine Owner or the Mine Owner's Representative in respect of the Mine Operator's obligations under this Agreement shall lessen or otherwise affect the Mine Operator's obligations under this Agreement."

(emphasis supplied)

71. As far as the aforesaid clauses are concerned, it leaves no doubt that in order to engage or employ a sub contractor, the respondent was required to take a prior written consent of the appellant.

72. It is also not in dispute that the contract did not envisage any system of deemed or implied consent rather it stipulated that the consent had to be expressed in writing.

73. The record would further indicate that the Tribunal had clearly delineated the differences between a 'contractor' in contradistinction, to a 'consultant'. It could not be disputed that the clearances which were required to be procured under the mining contract, entailed specialized and expert studies, preparation of complex reports, monitoring handling and execution of development work which inter alia required environmental impact studies and such specialized work could not be done by a sub-contractor as usually understood but could be done by specialized consultants who are domain experts.

74. It also could not be disputed that though the contract prohibited engagement of a sub-contractor but it did not create any embargo on hiring a consultant. It was a consistent case of the respondent that it did not engage any sub contractor rather it engaged consultants for carrying out specialized studies which were necessary to obtain the required approvals and clearances and only thereafter the development of the mine could commence.

75. The respondent during the evidence stage before the Arbitral proceedings had examined their witness who was cross-examined by the appellant and the said witness clearly stated that the third party agencies were consultants and not sub contractors.

76. The record would also indicate that the appellant had also sent a letter to the Ministry of Coal dated 04.02.2015 wherein it had referred to the progress made by the appellant with the aid of the respondent mine operator. The said letter clearly referred to the studies which had been made and submitted by M/s Vimta, M/s Hydro and PMC.

77. The witness who appeared on behalf of the appellant before the Arbitral Tribunal clearly admitted the fact that the claimants were aware of the reports submitted by the experts. The said witness also admitted the fact that even though the studies submitted by the Specialized Agencies were available with the appellant and were submitted by the respondent but at no point of time, the appellant objected to the same or flagged the issue with the respondent regarding engagement of these agencies (sub contractors as alleged by the appellant) without prior written consent of the appellant.

78. This Court finds that the Tribunal has referred to the oral as well as documentary evidence copiously to arrive at a finding that the contract did not prohibit the engagement of a consultant. It also recorded a finding that the third party entities were consultants and not sub-contractors and that the appellant was aware of their engagement and the work done by them which was filed and submitted by the respondent while submitting its progress report with the appellant, and the appellant did forward the said progress reports and studies to the Ministry of Coal.

79. In light of the said overwhelming evidence indicating the manner in which the contract was understood and acted upon by the parties, a view has been subscribed by the Tribunal which cannot be said to be without supporting evidence or it is a view which cannot be culled out from the terms of the contract by any prudent person.

80. Merely because another view may be possible it will not persuade this Court to overstep its jurisdiction to enter into the arena of re-appraisal and re-appreciation of evidence and interfere with a pure finding of fact, which relates to the construction of a contract entered between the parties, moreso when the oral evidence and the cross-examination of the witnesses clearly amplified the manner in which both the contracting parties understood and proceeded with the contract.

81. In the instant case, the Tribunal has taken note of the rival submissions, the material on record as well as the evidence to give a cogent construction to the terms of the contract which cannot be said to be perverse. For the said reasons, the decisions cited by learned counsel for the appellant in PSA, Sical Terminals Pvt. Ltd. (supra), SEAMAC Limited (supra) and Sal Udyog Pvt. Ltd. does not help the appellant in any manner.

82. In light of the aforesaid discussions, this Court does not find much credence in the submission of the learned counsel for the appellant that the Tribunal has re-written the contract ignoring the import of Clauses 12.2, 27.5 to 27.6 of the mining contract. The plea does not impress this Court, hence, it is turned down.

83. The next ground of attack made by the learned counsel for the appellant is based on the premise that there was no evidence at all worth its name before the Tribunal which could justify the grant of claims and thus the award suffers from the vice of being arbitrary and perverse.

84. In this regard, it will be significant to note that the respondent had filed a copy of an award dated 20th July, 2017 which was passed by a sole Arbitrator, relating to arbitral proceedings deciding the disputes between PMC against the respondent herein.

85. In terms of the said award, the said Arbitral Tribunal had awarded a sum of Rs. 125 crores in favour of PMC against the respondent. At the time when the instant award was made by then, the respondent had challenged the award in favour of the PMC before the Competent Court in Ahmedabad and it is for the said reason that in the instant proceedings, the Tribunal though awarded the reimbursement of a sum of Rs. 125 crores which was a liability crystallized in the arbitral proceedings between PMC and the respondent but since that was under challenge in proceedings under Section 34, at the behest of the respondent, accordingly, the payment of interest thereon was deferred while making the award, which is under challenge before this Court.

86. It will also be relevant to point out that even though the said award was placed on record of the instant arbitral proceedings and the respective parties had led their evidence while the respondent had connected the said award in their evidence through their witness, and it was noticed that the payment was to be made by the respondent to PMC, based on milestone achieved and the same has been considered by the Arbitral Tribunal in paragraphs 7.81 to 7.84 of the award dated 20th November, 2018.

87. The record also indicates that the respondent inter-alia had filed the work order given to PMC dated 04.11.2010 marked as Exbt. C-86, coupled with the fact that it was not the case of the appellant that PMC had not done the work rather the record would reflect that the appellant was very well aware of the work done by PMC and once the award passed in favour of the PMC was brought on record of the instant arbitral proceedings, this being a judicial determination was a credible piece of evidence to establish the liability of the respondent especially when there was no contrary evidence against it. Moreover, it could not be demonstrated as to how the said arbitral award would not be admissible or the findings recorded therein would not bind the respondent i.e. A.E.L.

88. The record clearly reflects that the respondent before the Arbitral Tribunal had filed the copy of the work order issued to PMC, several letters exchanged between PMC and A.E.L. The copy of the award was also produced on record bearing Exbt-C-92. Along with the award, the respondent had filed a copy of the statement of claim filed by PMC including the supporting documents filed by PMC in the arbitral proceedings. A copy of the affidavit of the Authorized Signatory of A.E.L which was filed in evidence in the arbitral proceedings between PMC and A.E.L. was also filed.

89. In light of the aforesaid documentary evidence, there was ample material before the Arbitral Tribunal which has been considered and it is not the case of the appellant that the aforesaid documents were not connected by the respondent in their evidence. It is also not the case of the appellant that they were not permitted to cross-examine the respondent-witness. Thus, in case if the opportunity was granted which was not availed or even if availed, nothing substantial could be elicited which could cast a doubt over the said documents, in such circumstances, it cannot be said that it is a case of no evidence.

90. An Arbitral Award, which is placed on record of another arbitral proceedings, can be a highly important piece of evidence. Though, its evidentiary value and weight given to such evidence may differ from case to case but the fact remains that it is not as if the said document does not have any evidentiary value at all. The said award passed in favour of the PMC against A.E.L., is relevant evidence and has presumption of its correctness unless it can be shown by a party to be false or incorrect.

91. As noted above, nothing could be demonstrated on behalf of the appellant to indicate that the findings recorded in the said award between PMC and A.E.L. suffered from any error in the sense that in light of the pleadings and evidence (which was filed by A.E.L. in the current arbitral proceedings including the statement of claims and other evidence as mentioned above) and moreover an award which has the backing of a statute and unless challenged attains a status of a decree, hence, becomes admissible and unless shown to be incorrect, the same would have high probative value.

92. In the aforesaid background this Court finds that the Arbitral Tribunal is vested with the power and discretion to deal with the evidence and it has been exercised correctly. The Arbitral Tribunal is not bound by strict rules of procedure or evidence, hence, by taking note of the aforesaid material, it has returned findings which per se are supported by the evidence and it cannot be said to be perverse.

93. It is also an undisputed fact that though the respondent had challenged the award passed in favour of PMC before the Commercial Court at Ahmedabad, however, the said petition filed by the respondent was dismissed by means of order dated 04.05.2023 and the same has attained finality.

94. In this backdrop, merely because the work order issued by the respondent to PMC indicated that the payments would be made against the invoices but the invoices were not placed on record it would not be sufficient to defeat the claim of the respondent especially when the award passed in the arbitral proceedings between PMC and the respondent was placed on record and this very basis was also used by the appellant to submit the claims before the Ministry of Coal and it clearly delineated that the payment to be made by respondent to PMC was based on milestones. Accordingly, it cannot be said that there was no evidence on record to support the findings returned by the Tribunal or that this aspect has been overlooked by the Commercial Court. It is one thing to say that the finding may not be supported by any evidence and it is another thing to urge that on the basis of the evidence, the inference drawn by the Tribunal is erroneous.

95. In light of the aforesaid, the submissions of the learned counsel for the appellant appears to be unsustainable as the thrust of the submission to attack the grant of claims was on the premise that there was no evidence on record whereas from the perusal of the record and the award it would reveal that the respondent had led sufficient evidence to support their claims.

96. Accordingly, the decision, cited by the learned counsel for the appellant, of Delhi Metro (supra) is not applicable as it is not a case where the finding of the Tribunal is based on no evidence or that the Tribunal has referred and based its findings on irrelevant material or that vital evidence has been omitted, thus, for the said reason, the aforesaid submissions does not find favour with this Court.

97. The last submission of learned counsel for the appellant relating to the discrepancies in the CA certificates may not detain this Court for long for the reason that the certificates issued by the Chartered Accountant was considered by the Arbitral Tribunal in paragraphs 7.90 of the award and having referred to the Exbt. C-50 filed with the statement of claims by the respondent. The reference to the oral evidence and cross-examination of the witness explaining the entries as well as the accounting standards in pursuance whereof the entries were made in the certificates also indicating that the rise in the amount was based on account of due cancellation of the allocation of the Chhendipada Coal Block by the Apex Court and the deposits made to the entities as security had turned bad and they had to be accounted for in the books of account and they were reflected in the CA certificates.

98. The record reflects that the respondent had supported its claims by furnishing CA certificates. The said CA certificates certified that they have been issued after verification of the relevant documents and books of accounts. The Tribunal has accepted the same and merely because the author of the said certificates may not have been examined it will not per se render the said CA certificates to be inadmissible especially when the same were not challenged nor an objection relating to the said CA certificates was raised and further the appellant could not demonstrate as to any discrepancy or incorrectness in the said certificates either during the cross-examination of the witness or otherwise.

99. Since, the Arbitral Tribunal is not bound by strict rules of evidence, it has the discretion to rely upon the said documents which has been done and there is nothing on record to show that the appellant ever objected to its admissibility or to its probative value. The genuineness of the CA certificate was not under cloud and it was also not demonstrated that the said certificates were not issued in context with standard accounting practice.

100. Thus it cannot be said that the Tribunal incorrectly relied upon the CA certificate and for the said reason, the findings of the Tribunal are perverse. Hence, this Court is not inclined to interfere with the award on this ground as well.

Conclusions:-

101. For the aforesaid detailed discussions, this Court is of the clear opinion that the award passed by the Tribunal dated 20.11.2018 and the order passed by the Commercial Court-I, Lucknow dated 31.03.2023 does not fall foul of the patent illegality or being against the public policy test, hence, the appeal is dismissed. There shall be no order as to costs.

Issue for Consideration

The key issue was whether the prosecution proved its case beyond reasonable doubt u/s 307 r/w 34 IPC, particularly the effect of the prosecution's failure to explain the serious, unexplained injuries on appellant which raised doubts about the genesis of the incident and the reliability of the prosecution witnesses.

Headnotes

A. Criminal matter-Criminal Procedure Code,1973-Section 374(2)-Indian Penal Code,1860-Sections 307 r/w 34-Challenge to-Conviction-Non-Explanation of Accused's injuries-Effect on Prosecution case-Appellant sustained serious injuries, the prosecution denied or failed to offer any explanation –Prosecution witnesses become unreliable-Thus, the appellants were entitled to the benefit of doubt-Appeal allowed.

Held

Appellant sustained injuries in the incident, including a fracture of the shaft of the ulna in lower one third portion of the forearm-The prosecution witnesses (PW-1) totally denied that the accused were assaulted or sustained injuries-The Doctor(PW-4) and X-Ray technician duly proved the injuries and fracture of the Appellant-the prosecution's complete failure to explain the serious injuries sustained by the accused renders the prosecution story doubtful-The prosecution has suppressed the genesis and origin of the occurrence and is not presenting the true version of the incident-In such case, the benefit of doubt must be accorded to the accused.(Para 19 to 26) (E-6)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Anish Kumar Gupta, J.)

1. Heard Sri Rajendra Prasad, learned counsel for the appellants and Sri Satyendra Nath Tiwari, learned AGA for the State.

2. Vide order dated 22.08.2025, the instant appeal on behalf of the appellant no.3 Munuwa has already been abated. Therefore, the instant appeal on behalf of the surviving appellants no.1 and 2 namely Illuwa alias Hari Shankar and Bilua alias Umashankar is being heard and decided.

3. The instant appeal has been filed by the appellants being aggrieved by judgment and order dated 16.01.1985 passed by the IInd Additional Sessions Judge, Banda in S.T. No. 343 of 1983 whereby the appellants herein were convicted for the offence under Section 307 read with Section 34 IPC and were sentenced to undergo five years rigorous imprisonment.

4. The brief facts as stated in the prosecution case are that on 28.11.1978 at 5:00 P.M., the informant- Chunni Lal lodged a report at police station Tindwari, alleging therein that he has gone to the agricultural land of Ram Avtar along with a villager Shiv Nandan to cultivate the land, which was taken on sharing. The accused persons namely Illuwa, Bilua and Munuwa armed with firearms came there at around 11:00 A.M. Illuwa came near the informant who was sitting there, Illuwa had fired upon him with a country made pistol due to which he sustained inury above the right eyebrow. At the same time, Bilua came there and started assaulting with lathi, due to which he sustained injuries on his head and legs. On the basis of the aforesaid allegation, the FIR was registered against the appellants Illuwa, Bilua and Munuwa for the offence under Section 307 IPC. The medical examination of the injured informant, who was conducted by Dr. V.P. Bhargava. During medical examination of the informant Chunni Lal, he found the following injuries :

"(i) Lacerated would 6.5 c.m, x 1 c.m. x 0.8 c.m. on middle of head 10 c.m. above the rest of nose.

(ii) Gunshot wound of entrance 0.3 c.m. x 0.3 c.m. x 0.2 c.m. on right side of forehead 2 c.m. above the middle of right eye brow.

(iii) Gunshot wound of entrance 0.3 c.m. x 0.3 c.m. x 0.4 c.m. on right side of forehead 0.5 c.m. above two outer side of eye brow.

(iv) Gunshot wound of entrance 0.3 c.m. x 0.3 c.m. x 0.3 c.m. on right side of face 1 c.m. above the upper lip.

(v) Gunshot wound of entrance 0.3 c.m. x 0.3 c.m. x 0.3 c.m. on right side of neck 5 c.m. below Loubule of right ear. Margin of injury to (ii) to (v) are inverted ± abraded collar.

(vi) Sub conjectival haemorrhage ± Ecchymosis of upper lid of right eye.

(vii) Red contusion 7 c.m. x 2 c.m. on left leg 2 c.m. inner to outer malleolus."

5. As per the opinion of the Doctor ? Injuries no. (i), (vi) and (vii) were simple in nature and caused by blunt object. Injuries no. (ii) to (v) were caused by fire arm and kept under observation X-ray advised.

6. With regard to the same incident, another FIR was lodged by Illuwa alias Harishankar alleging therein that he was having a previous enmity with Chunni Lal, the informant herein and he along with one

Shivnandan came to his tube well and all of sudden started beating him with lathis. When he shouted for help, the witness Bala came there and they were chased. The accused persons ran away due to the assault by the said Chunni Lal and Shivnandan. He had sustained injury on head and left hand. Dr. V.P. Varghava had also medically examined the injuries found on the body of appellant no.1, Illuwa alias Hari Shankar. During medical examination of Illuwa alias Hari Shankar, he found the following injuries:

"(i) Lacerated wound 2 c.m. x 1.5 c.m. x 0.3 c.m. on left side of head 83.5 c.m. above the root of left pinna.

(ii) Lacerated wound 0.5 c.m. x 0.3 c.m. x 0.3 c.m. on right side of forehead 2 c.m. above the outer side of right eye brow.

(iii) Red contusion 5 c.m. x 1.2 c.m. with swelling 7 c.m. x 6 c.m. on back of left forearm 4 c.m. above the wrist joint.

7. As per the report, three injuries were found. Injuries no. (i) and (ii) were simple injuries and injury no. (iii) was kept under observation. X-ray was advised and as per the X ray report, there was a fracture or shaft of ulna in lower one third portion of forearm.

8. In support of the prosecution case, the prosecution examined the informant Chunni Lal as P.W.1. B.D. Katiyar, S.I., P.W.2, Shivnandan Singh, P.W.3 and Dr. V.P. Bhargava, P.W.4.

9. In Section 313 Cr.P.C. statement, the appellants herein had denied the charges and submitted that the case has been lodged due to the enmity. The appellant no.1, Illuwa alias Hari Shankar has stated that Chunni Lal and Shivnandan came to his tube well and assaulted with lathis. He stopped the lathi and in self defence he also assaulted with lathi and also got fracture in his hand. When they were assaulting him, his father has fired from a country made pistol. He has also reported the case and cross case is also going on. The appellant Munuwa has stated that the informant Chunni Lal and Shivnandan had assaulted his son Illuwa alias Hari Shankar with lathis and to save him, he had fired from country made pistol.

10. Appellant no.2, Bilua alias Umashankar has stated that he was not on the spot. In support of their defence they had examined Rajdev Chaudhary as D.W.1 who was X ray technician.

11. P.W.1 has supported the prosecution case as stated in the FIR and in his statement, he has further categorically stated that the appellant no.1, Illuwa alias Hari Shankar was having a country made pistol, Bilua alias Umashankar was having lathi and a gun, appellant no.3, Munuwa was having a gun. The first fire was made by Illuwa alias Hari Shankar from country made pistol with intention to kill him, due to which, he sustained injuries above the right eye brow. In the meantime, Bilua alias Umashankar also came near him and assaulted him with lathi, due to which he also sustained the injuries on his head and legs. After he sustained the injuries since the blood was oozing out, he banded the same with a safi and went to his village and thereafter along with Shivnandan, Shivadhar and Subba, he came to Police Station- Tindwari. Thereupon, the report was registered and his medical examination was got conducted. His statement was recorded after one and half month of the incident by the Investigating Officer. He has denied that he is not aware that the appellant no.3 Munuwa lodged the report of the incident prior to lodging of report by him. He has also denied that he had assaulted any of the accused persons or any of his associates have assaulted any accused person. Appellant no.2, Bilua alias Umashankar has also stated that there was previous enmity between them. It is further stated by him that where he was assaulted, the said place was 25 lathis away from the tube well of the appellants. He has further denied the suggestions that they have assaulted the accused persons and thereupon in self defence the injuries were caused by the accused persons. P.W.2 is the Investigating Officer, who had conducted the investigation and having found the charges proved against the appellants herein, had submitted the charge sheet.

12. P.W.3, Shivnandan has denied the incident as such he has not witnessed the incident. He was declared hostile. He denied that any statement was recorded by the Investigating Officer.

13. P.W.4 is Dr. V.P.Bhargava who has supported his medical examination report as already noted herein above and proved the same. On his subsequent examination, he has admitted that on the date of incident i.e. 28.11.1978 at around 8:00 P.M. in the night, he had also examined P.W.1, Illuwa alias Hari Shankar and he has also proved the injuries sustained by the appellant no.1 as noted herein above. He submitted the medical examination report of Illuwa alias Hari Shankar, which was exhibited as Kha-2.

14. D.W.1, Rajdev Chaudhary who was the X ray technician, was examined as defence witness. He has proved the X ray report of the appellant no.1 Illuwa alias Hari Shankar. In his cross-examination, he has denied that the wrong X ray report was submitted or X ray report was changed. On the basis of the aforesaid evidence, the trial court has found that the appellants, who were armed with lathi and country made pistol, were the aggressor in the incident and thereby assaulted the informant and caused the injuries to the informant as has been noted.

15. The trial court has found that the offence under Section 307 read with Section 34 IPC is fully proved against all the appellants herein. Accordingly they were convicted under Section 307 read with Section 34 IPC and were sentenced for five years rigorous imprisonment, against which the instant appeal has been filed.

16. Learned counsel for the appellants submits that in the instant case, it is fully established that the appellant no.1, Illuwa alias Hari Shankar has also sustained injuries in the said incident and there was a fracture on his hand. However, there is a total denial on the part of the prosecution and injuries caused to appellant no.1. The injuries of appellant no.1 have been duly proved in the instant case. Therefore, there is no explanation on behalf of the prosecution with regard to the injuries sustained by the appellant no.1. Thus they are entitled for acquittal.

17. So far as the injuries caused to the informant are concerned, the same are categorically admitted by the appellants herein. However, they had properly explained how the injuries were caused and it is the case of the appellants that they have acted in self defence and thereby caused injuries on the informant. Therefore, any act done in self defence would not amount to any crime. Thus, they are entitled for acquittal.

18. Per contra, learned AGA submits that it is admitted case of the appellants no.1 and 3 that they have caused injuries to the informant Chunni Lal and the informant has categorically stated that it were all three appellant who had caused injuries. The manner of incident has already been explained by the informant. The trial court has categorically recorded the finding that when three persons armed with lathi and country made pistol had assaulted the informant on the vital part and the informant was alone assuming that the informant had caused the injuries upon the appellant no.1 itself, then there was no occasion for appellant no.1 to assault with a country made pistol. Therefore, the appellants herein were the aggressor in the incident and have caused the injury with lathi and also with country made pistol on the vital part of the informant. Therefore, he categorically stated that the offence under Section 307 read with Section 34 IPC proved against all the appellants herein. Thus they were rightly convicted. Learned AGA submits that the instant appeal filed by the appellants deserves to be dismissed.

19. Having heard the rival submissions made by learned counsel for the parties, this Court has carefully gone through the record of the case. From the record, it is apparent that the informant as well as the appellant no.1 had sustained injuries on their body. The informant has sustained two firearm injuries and three gun shot injuries. All gun shot injuries are on the vital part of the body. The appellant no.1 has also sustained injuries as has been duly proved in the instant case and due to such injury, there was a fracture on the left forearm of the appellant no.1. There is a total denial on the part of the prosecution with regard to the injuries sustained by the appellant no.1 whereas the defence has categorically stated that it were the appellant no.1 and 2 who had caused the injuries on informant in self defence as the informant has assaulted the appellant no.1 with lathi. However, no explanation with regard to the said injury sustained by appellant no.1 has been given by the prosecution.

20. In Mohar Rai vs. State of Bihar, (1968) 3 SCR 525, the Apex Court has observed as follows:

"The trial court as well as the High Court wholly ignored the significance of the injuries found on the appellants. Mohar Rai had sustained as many as 13 injuries and Bharath Rai 14. We get it from the evidence of P.W. 15 that he noticed injuries on the person of Mohar Rai when he was produced before him immediately after the occurrence. Therefore the version of the appellants that they sustained injuries at the time of the occurrence is highly probabilised. Under these circumstances the prosecution had a duty to explain those injuries.

..... In our judgment the failure of the prosecution to offer any explanation in that regard shows that evidence of the prosecution witnesses relating to the incident is not true or at any rate not wholly true. Further those injuries probabilise the plea taken by the appellants."

21. In State of Gujarat vs. Bai Fatima, (1975) 2 SCC 7, the Apex Court has observed as under:

"In a situation like this when the prosecution fails to explain the injuries on the person of an accused depending on the facts of each case, any of the three results may follow:

(1) That the accused had inflicted the injuries on the members of the prosecution party in exercise of the right of self - defence.

(2) It makes the proseution version of the occurrence doubtful and the charge against the accused cannot be held to have been proved beyond reasonable doubt.

(3) It dos not affect the prosecution case at all.

The facts of the present case clearly fall within the four corners of either of the first two principles laid down by this judgment. In the instant case, either the accused were fully justified in causing the death of the deceased and were protected by the right of private defence or that if the prosecution does not explain the injuries on the person of the deceased the entire prosecution case is doubtful and the genesis of the occurrence is shrouded in deep mystery, which is sufficient to demolish the entire prosecution case."

22. In Lakshmi Singh and others vs. State of Bihar, (1976) 4 SCC 394, the following observations have been made by the Apex Court :

" It seems to us that in a murder case, the non-explanation of the injuries sustained by the accused at about the time of the occurrence or in the course of altercation is a very important circumstance from which the Court can draw the following inferences:

(1) That the prosecution has sup- pressed the genesis and the origin of the occurrence and has thus not presented the true version:

(2) that the witnesses who have denied the presence of the injuries on the person of the accused are lying on a most material point and therefore their evidence is unreliable;

(3) that in case there is a defence version which explains the injuries on the person of the accused it is rendered probable so as to throw doubt on the prosecution case.

The omission on the part of the prosecution to explain the injuries on the person of the accused assumes much greater importance where the evidence consists of interested or inimical witnesses or where the defence gives a version which competes in probability with that of the prosedition one. In the instant case, when it is held, as it must be, that the appellant Dasrath Singh received serious injuries which have not been explained by the prosecution, then it will be difficult for the Court to rely on the evidence of PWs. 1 to 4 and 6 more particularly, when some of these witnesses have lied by stating that they did not see any injuries on the person of the accused. Thus neither the Sessions Judge nor the High Court appears to have given due consideration to this important lacuna or infirmity appearing in the prosecution case. We must hasten to add that as held by this Court in State of Gujarat v. Bai Fatima Criminal Appeal No. 67 of 1971 decided on March 19, 1975 : Reported in there may be cases where the non-explanation of the injuries by the prosecution may not affect the prosecution case. This principle would obviously apply to cases where the injuries sustained by the accused are minor and superficial or where the evidence is so clear and cogent, so independent and disinterested, so probable, consistent and credit-worthy, that it far outweighs the effect of the omission on the part of the prosecution to explain the injuries. The present, however, is certainly not such a case, and the High Court was, therefore, in error in brushing aside this serious infirmity in the prosecution case on unconvincing premises."

23. In Nand Lal and others vs. State of Chhattisgarh, (2023) 10 SCC 470, the Apex Court has relied upon the above observations made in Lakshmi Singh and others vs. State of Bihar, (1976) 4 SCC 394, the Apex Court has further placed reliance in State of Rajasthan vs. Madho (1991) Supp (2) SCC 396, State of M.P. vs. Mishri Lal (2003) 9 SCC 426 and Nagarathinam vs. State (2006)9 SCC 57, while acquitting the accused persons due to non explanation of injuries of accused by the prosecution.

24. Thus from the aforesaid judgments of the Apex Court, it can be safely concluded that non explanation of injuries sustained by the accused person by the prosecution, makes the prosecution story doubtful. That means the prosecution is not coming with clean hands and there is an attempt to suppress the real facts. Therefore, the prosecution witnesses becomes unreliable, and in case, the defence has given the explanation of the entire incident that becomes more reliable. Therefore, the benefit of doubt is to be accorded to the accused persons.

25. In the instant case, prosecution has completely failed to explain the injury sustained by the appellant no.1 and non-explanation of the injuries sustained by the accused persons by the prosecution creates a doubt about the prosecution story and it gives rise to the suspicion in the minds of the Court that the actual genesis of the incident is being suppressed by the prosecution and the prosecution is not coming forward with the actual story and is trying to suppress the actual incident. Therefore, the accused persons are entitled for benefit of doubt.

26. Accordingly, the instant appeal is allowed. The impugned judgment and order dated 16.01.1985 passed by the trial court convicting and sentencing the appellants no.1 and 2 herein is hereby set aside. The appellants no.1 and 2 are hereby acquitted of the charges.

27. The appellants no.1 and 2 are on bail. They need not surrender. Their bail bonds are cancelled and Sureties are discharged.

28. Office is directed to send a copy of this judgment along with the record to the trial court to be consigned.

Issue for Consideration

Accused persons were allegedly intending to commit the act of sodomy with the deceased. The court addressed the key issue related to the reliability of the prosecution's evidence, specifically the testimony of the eye-witnesses and doubt ful nature of the circumstantial evidence.

Headnotes

Criminal matter-Criminal Procedure Code,1973-Section 374(2), 164-Indian Penal Code,1860-Sections 147, 201, 302/149-Contradictory statements of the witnesses-Late disclosure of the two more accused-explanation for not reporting the incident to anyone deemed unnatural and unsatisfactory-no sign of unnatural sex was found on the deceased's body-The I.O. found no blood stains at the scene-Blood-stained knives were recovered but the doctor (PW-4) stated that all injuries were caused by batons- statement recorded a month after the incident but no provided by the I.O. for the delay-Prosecution failed to prove its case beyond reasonable doubt-Appeal allowed. (E-6)

Held

The testimony of the eyewitnesses (PW-2 and PW-3)was not consistent and did not inspire confidence due to material contradictions between their statements u/s 164 CrPC and their trial depositions, coupled with the unnatural nature of their conduct-Further more, The investigation was seriously doubted due to the absence of blood at the alleged place of occurrence and the contradiction between the recovered weapons(knives) and the medical evidence(injuries caused by batons)-The court held that the prosecution had miserably failed to prove its case beyond a reasonable doubt-The appellant was acquitted of the charges.(Para 16 to 28)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Anil Kumar-X, J.)

1. Heard Ms. Seema Pandey, learned Amicus Curiae for the appellants and Shri Amit Sinha, learned AGA for the State.

2. This criminal appeal has been preferred by the appellants Ravindra, Rishipal, Satendra and Brij Bhushan against the judgment dated 30.1.1984 passed in Sessions Trial No.257 of 1981 (State vs. Ravindra and Ors.). Appellants Ravindra and Rishipal were convicted and sentenced to six months' R.I. each under Section 147 IPC, two years R.I. under Section 201 IPC and imprisonment for life under Section 302/149 IPC. Appellants Satendra and Brij Bhushan were convicted and sentenced to one year's R.I. under Section 148 IPC, two years' R.I. under Section 201 IPC and imprisonment for life under Section 302/149 IPC. Sentences were made to run concurrently.

3. During pendency of this appeal, appellants Rishipal, Satendra and Brij Bhushan died. Accordingly, appeal filed by them was declared abated on 4.7.2025.

4. Prosecution story in nutshell is that Pitam Singh (PW-1) lodged a complaint (Ex. Ka-1) before Police Station-Kotwali, District Muzaffarnagar on 27.2.1981 wherein he stated that his son Harendra Kumar, student of Class XII (Science), aged about 18 years left his house on a Hero Cycle to Civil Lines, North at about 6:15 pm on 26.2.1981 for obtaining herbarium sheets from market but he did not return by the midnight. Informant started searching for him but could not trace him. He came to know on 27.2.1981 at about 6:00 am that dead body of a boy was lying near Kutcherry Post Office. When he reached there, he found that dead body was of Harendra Kumar and bleeding from his nose was present. On the said complaint, an FIR (Ex. Ka-15), being Case Crime No.164/1981, was lodged at 7:10 am on 27.2.1981 against unknown persons. Investigation was handed over to SI Om Prakash Tomar (PW-10) on the same date. Dead body of Harendra was recovered behind the Post Office of Kutcherry. Blood stained and plain soil (Ex. Ka-17) were collected from place of occurrence. Inquest (Ex. Ka-2) was conducted and dead body was sent for postmortem. After the postmortem, postmortem report (Ex. Ka-10) was prepared by Dr. S.C. Gupta (PW-4). During investigation on 27.2.1981, Investigating Officer came to know from Virendra that in the evening at about 7:00 pm, Harendra along with other accused Ravindra, Satendra, Rishipal, Santerpal, Brij Bhushan and other 2-3 boys were talking with each other. On next day, Investigating Officer was informed by police informer that one Mahadev, who also resides in the same rented house where deceased was residing, can give the details of the alleged offence. Thereafter, Investigating Officer recorded the statement of Mahadev (Madho) who told him that on the day of occurrence, he along with his brother had left for their village but other students namely Anil, Krishan Pal, Satendra and Vijendra, who were also tenants of the same house told him that after he returned, that Ravindra, Satendra, Rishipal and Brij Bhushan had came in the rented room of Mahadev and later on killed him. They also told that the aforesaid accused persons also carried away the dead body after wrapping it in a quilt.

5. Thereafter, Investigating Officer recorded statements of Anil and Krishan Pal. Statements of Satendra, Krishan Pal and Anil Kumar were also recorded under Section 164 Cr.P.C. PW-10 SI Om Prakash Tomar arrested four accused persons and illegal knife (Ex. Ka-11), blood stained knife (Ex. Ka-12) and bicycle of deceased was recovered from them. Relying upon statements made by Anil, Krishan Pal and Satendra Pal and from the recoveries made, charge-sheet against accused persons Ravindra, Satendra, Rishipal, Brij Bhushan and Santerpal was submitted by Investigating Officer under Section 302 and 120 IPC. Charge-sheet under Section 4/25 Arms Act was also submitted against accused Satendra.

6. Charges against Ravindra, Rishipal, Santerpal and Naresh were framed under Section 147, 302 read with Sections 149 and 201 of IPC. Charges against Satendra and Brij Bhushan were framed under Sections 148, 149, and 201 IPC. Accused denied the charges and claimed for trial. 11 prosecution witnesses were examined in support of prosecution story. PW-1 Pitam Singh, father of deceased has proved the contents of written report (Ex. Ka-1). He has identified clothes worn by the deceased at the time of occurrence and proved Exhibits 7 to 11. Apart from it, he has also proved the receipt (Ex. Ka-12) of bicycle he purchased for Harendra.

7. PW-2 Satendra Pal has deposed that both deceased Harendra and accused persons were known to him. He was also a tenant in the house of Jile Singh. Madho and Vijendra were also tenants in the said house. He has further stated that on 26.2.1981 at about 7:45 pm, when he alongwith Krishan Pal and Anil Kumar was cooking food, 6 accused Ravindra, Satendra, Brij Bhushan, Rishipal, Naresh and Santerpal came alongwith Harendra who was holding a cycle. After half an hour, he heard voices coming from the room of Madho. When he along with Krishan Pal and Anil Kumar approached near the room of Madho, they saw from the space through door that Brij Bhushan and Satendra were holding knives and Ravindra and Rishipal were holding clubs. He has also stated that they saw the incident as room was lit with bulb. They were threatening Harendra and were asking him to open his Nara in order to satisfy their unnatural lust. Harendra was offering resistance. Then this witness opened the door and tried to forbade them from doing so. But he too was threatened by accused persons who asked him and his companions to return back or they will kill them. When this witness along with other 2 boys retreated to their room, they were locked inside as accused bolted their door from outside. 15 to 20 minutes afterwards, he saw that all 6 accused persons were carrying away Harendra who was put on a cot and his body was wrapped in a quilt. After about half an hour, they saw a man in the adjacent house and called him to open the bolt of their door. He informed this incident to Madho on next day and returned back to his village. Again he returned to Muzaffarnagar on the very next day and he was interrogated by the Sub Inspector. He has also stated that all the accused persons frequently visited the rented room of Madho. PW-3 Anil Kumar has also deposed the same facts as stated by PW-2 Satendra Pal. Both witnesses have stated that Madho was not present in his room at the time of alleged incident.

8. PW-4 Dr. S.C. Gupta who has conducted postmortem has found following ante mortem injuries on body of deceased :-

"1. Lacerated wound 3" x 1/2" x bone on right side skull 3" above the ear placed transversely.

2. Lacerated wound 1/4" x 1/10" x muscle on right side front of scalp on the hair line.

26. Multiple abraded contusion in an area of 8" x 5" On left scapular region.

27. Contusion 4" x 2" on right gluted region."

PW-4 has stated that the deceased died due to shock and haemorrhage as a result of ante mortem injuries.

9. PW-5 Jile Singh was owner of the house where PW-2 Satendra and PW-3 Anil Kumar were tenants. He has stated that he had not rented any room to Madho. He has also stated that Dinesh s/o Daya Ram was also residing as a tenant in his room. PW-6 Ravindra Kumar has proved recovery of illegal knife (Ex. Ka-11), recovery of blood stained knife (Ex. Ka-12), recovery of blood stained quilt cover (Ex. Ka-13), and recovery memo of bicycle (Ex. Ka-14). PW-7 Head Constable Tayyab Hussain has proved chik report (Ex. Ka-15), PW-8 Constable Damber Singh has stated that sealed dead body was handed over to him by SI which was produced by him before the doctor for autopsy. PW-9 Iqbal Singh @ Dharam Pal was declared hostile. SI Om Prakash (PW-10) has given details of investigation and has proved Ex.

Ka-17, Ex. Ka-5 and Ka-6, site plan (Ex. Ka-18), inquest memo (Ex. Ka-2), Statement of Iqbal Singh (Ex. Ka-20), recoveries of knives (mat. Ex. Ka-2 & 3) and other connected documents/materials collected during investigation. PW-11 Mohd. Feyyaz who was the other investigating officer has also given statement before court. Statement of accused persons were recorded under Section 313 Cr.P.C. They have shown ignorance about alleged offence and have also denied their role. They have stated that he was falsely implicated by S.H.O. Om Prakash Tomar and Constable Om Pal due to enmity. False recoveries of knives etc. were made from them.

10. Upon the completion of the trial when the court of Special Additional District Judge, Muzaffar Nagar, by its judgement and order dated 30.1.1984 convicted Ravindra and Rishi Pal for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 201 and 302/149 and Satendra Brij Bhusan for the offences punishable under Sections 148, 201 and 302/149 IPC, the instant Appeal was filed. It may be stated that the accused Santer Pal and Naresh were acquitted of the charges levelled against them.

11. Upon being held guilty the accused persons were sentenced with life imprisonment under Sections 302 read with Section 149 IPC.

12. The convicted appellants Ravindra, Rishipal, Satendra and Brij Bhusan filed the instant Criminal Appeal No. 319 of 1981. During the pendency of the Appeal, the appellants Rishipal, Satendra and Brij Bhusan died. The appeal vis-a-vis them, therefore, abated. Vis-a-vis the appellant - Ravindra the appeal was argued by Ms. Seema Pandey learned amicus curiae.

13. Learned counsel for the appellant made the following submissions:-

I. The eye-witness account of P.W.-2 Satendra Pal and P.W.-3 Anil Kumar was absolutely unbelievable. In their statements they had mentioned that they had heard the accused asking the deceased to open his Nada so that they could commit the act of sodomy. However, from the evidence on record, specially from that of the Investigating Officer, it becomes clear that, in fact, the deceased was not wearing any Payjama but was wearing a bell bottom which does not have a Nada but in fact had buttons. He submits further that the presence of the two eye witnesses could not be established as their entire conduct was unbelievable. They had stated that when they had seen through the chink of the door of Madhav's room, six accused persons were intending to commit the act of sodomy with the deceased, yet they had dared to enter the room. Two of the accused, namely, Brij Bhusan and Satendra were having knives in their hands while Ravindra and Rishi Pal were having sticks in their hands and they were intimidating the deceased to open his Nada so that they could commit the act of sodomy. Learned counsel for the appellant submitted that if the accused were so heavily armed when they were seen by the P.W.-2 and his two friends, namely, Anil Kumar and Kishan Pal then either they would have assaulted them and would have tried to do away with them or they would have themselves run away. For the accused to just drive away, the three eye-witnesses who had seen them committing the crime was very unlikely. Furthermore, it was still more unlikely that they would just lock them in the neighbouring room by putting a latch from outside.

14. Learned counsel for the appellant further stated that the presence of the eyewitnesses also became unbelievable when they had stated that they had got the latch unlocked after the accused persons along with the deceased had gone away from the site by calling an unknown person in the neighborhood. Learned counsel submits that in the event the person who had been called had opened the latch for the eye witnesses to come out of the room then the first thing they would have done upon having seen such a serious offence being committed that they would have gone to the police to report the matter. Learned counsel further states that the eye witness accounts still further became unreliable as, though Satendra and Anil came to the witness box, Kishan Pal who was also staying in the same room never appeared in the Box. Learned counsel for the appellant submitted that even Madhav in whose room the incident had happened and Vijendra who was living in the neighbouring room never came in the witness box.

II. The case of the prosecution further gets falsified inasmuch as the P.W.-1 had nowhere stated that he had seen six persons, namely, Ravindra, Satendra, Rishi Pal, Brij Bhusan, Naresh and Santer pal committing the crime. In the statements under Sections 161 Cr.P.C. and 164 Cr.P.C., he had only stated that he had seen the accused Ravindra, Rishipal Satendra and Brij Bhusan. However, before the court he had taken the names of two more persons, namely, Santer Pal and Naresh. Learned counsel submits that how Santer Pal and Naresh were connected with the crime was not known at all to the prosecution. He submits that on this account also the testimony of the eye-witnesses of the P.W.-2 and P.W.-3 becomes unbelievable.

III. Learned counsel for the appellant further states that the recovery under Section 27 of the Evidence Act was not done as per the law. In this regard, learned counsel for the appellant relied upon two judgements of the Supreme Court in Ramanand @ Nandlal Bharti vs. State of Uttar Pradesh reported in AIR 2022 SC 5273 and in Subramanya vs. State of Karnataka reported in AIR 2022 SC 5110. No statements of the accused before the recovery was recorded in the presence of two independent witnesses.

IV. Learned counsel for the appellant states that there was no injury of a sharp edged weapon but the recovery had mentioned that knives with blood on them were recovered. Thus recovery also becomes absolutely unbelievable.

V. The entire case of the prosecution was that the six accused persons had taken the deceased to commit the offence of sodomy but nowhere on the body of the deceased any sign of unnatural sex was to be found.

VI. The dead body of the deceased was found in the plots on the southern side of the kutchery and post office. But the incident allegedly had taken place some distance away from the place where the dead body was discovered but no evidence was led as to whether there was blood in the room of Madhav where the incident allegedly took place.

VII. There was no blood at all found at the alleged place of occurrence namely the room of Madhav. If the incident had taken place in the room, the blood would have been found there.

VIII. Even the testimony of Jile Singh did not inspire confidence as he was not even aware if Madhav was a tenant in his house.

14. Learned AGA Sri Amit Sinha opposed the Appeal and submitted that P.W.-2 and P.W.-3 were giving eye witness accounts which could not be disbelieved lightly. He submitted that it mattered little that there was blood found on the edges of the knives which were recovered even if there was no injury of any sharp edged weapon on the body of the deceased. Learned AGA submitted that not always the accused could have reacted in the way the learned counsel for the appellant argued i.e. they would have definitely continued to commit the murder even when they were caught red hand. He also submitted that it mattered little if no blood was found at the place of incident.

15. Before embarking upon the discussions on evidence, it will be relevant to note that alleged incident which occurred on 26-2-1981 remained offscreen till dead body was recovered on next day and F.I.R was lodged against unknown by P.W.-1 Pitam Singh. Statement of three eye witnesses were recorded by I.O. on 28-02-81. All three witnesses were produced before Judicial Magistrate on 25-03-81 and their statements were recorded u/s 164 Cr.P.C. The prosecution asserts that the testimony of the witnesses is impeccable, and the appellants have failed to present any evidence to impeach them.Appellants contended that conduct of the witnesses, who left for their village on next day without disclosing the incident to anyone, and material inconsistencies in their statements, make them highly unreliable. Before delving into other evidence, it would be prudent to consider the testimony of eyewitnesses first.

16. It's important to note that only two eye witnesses, Satendra and Anil, were produced by the prosecution out of the three witnesses, namely Satendra ,Krishna Pal and Anil. When their statement was recorded under Section 164 Cr.P.C., both of them stated that they were residing in a rented room owned by Zile Singh. Madav,another tenant, was residing in adjacent room.On February 26, 1981, at approximately 7:45 pm, four boys?Ravindra, Satendra, Rishi Pal, and Brij Bhusan?arrived at Madav's room. They were accompanied by the deceased Harendra, who was holding his cycle.Said boys used to visit Madav's room frequently. They unlocked the door and entered Madav's room. At that time, witnesses were busy in cooking their food. They heard some noise of conversation coming from Madav's room. Five minutes later,they heard screams that I will not let do so. They came after hearing the screams and went to Madav's room.

17. They further stated that when they peeped from seam of door, they saw that Brij Bhusan and Satendra were wielding knives and Ravindra and Rishipal were beating Harendra with clubs . They were demanding from Harendra to open strings of his pyjamas to commit sodomy. Harendra was resisting and was crying for help. Braj Bhusan and Satendra were threatening to kill Harendra on knife point. Upon hearing screams, they reached there and entered into the room after getting it opened. However, all the accused pounced upon them and threatened to retreat. Satendra bolted their room from outside.

Twenty minutes later, they saw all the accused carrying Harendra away wrapped in a quilt. An unknown person came there to see Madav and he opened their bolt after they asked for it. They didn't disclose the incident to anyone out of fear except Madav on next day.Another witness, P.W.-3 Anil, has provided a slightly different version of the events in his statement under Section 164 of the Cr.P.C. He stated that the door in Madav's room was locked, and its lock was broken by the accused persons.

18. During trial,P.W.-2 Satendra in examination in chief said that six persons came along with Harendra. When he was confronted with his statement u/s 164 Cr.P.C.during cross examination , he admitted that he hadn't mentioned Santer Pal and Naresh's names to the Magistrate because they were merely strolling outside the room and were not involved in the incident. P.W.-3 Anil has made similar statement in his deposition on this point. P.W.-2 Satendra has stated u/s 164 Cr.P.C that lock of Madav room was opened by accused persons.Contrary to it,P.W.-3 Anil has stated u/s 164 Cr.P.C that it was forced open by accused.Both witnesses have stated u/ s 164 Cr.P.C that they got the door of room opened by accused persons and forbade them to do so. During cross-examination, P.W.-2 Satendra revealed he himself opened the door,doors of Madav's room were not bolted from inside but were left ajar. He said during cross examination that he had not stated before Magistrate that doors were bolted from inside.During cross-examination, P.W.-3 Anil admitted that he couldn't recall whether Madav's door was locked or not. He couldn't recall what he had said before the I.O or Magistrate regarding how the accused persons opened the lock.He also admitted that he couldn't recall his previous statement to the I.O. and Magistrate regarding the door's position. He has denied stating before Magistrate that they got the door opened by accused persons.

19. It seems from statements u/s Section 164 Cr.P.C. that deceased Harendra and other accused arrived at spot in a normal manner. Both witnesses have stated same fact during examination in chief. But during cross examination P.W.-2 Satendra stated that he and Krishna Pal were sitting in their room on a cot and saw from window that five accused were apprehending Harendra. Ravindra was holding Harendra's cycle. Harendra was silent. None had gagged his mouth. None of the accused was holding club or knife. Neither he nor Krishna Pal questioned the accused about there act of grabbing Harendra. On other hand, P.W.-3 Anil has stated during cross examination that none of accused had grabbed Harendra .

20. Both witnesses in their statements u/s 164 Cr.P.C have stated that accused were beating Harendra with clubs. But P.W.-2 Satendra has stated during examination in chief that accused were merely threatening Harendra. When confronted with this statement, he admitted to having made it. Soon he clarified and said that Ravindra and Rishi Pal were beating with clubs. Both of them had stated under Section 164 that the accused bolted their doors from outside before they left spot.They got it opened from an unknown person who arrived there to meet Madav. Both had stated in their examination in chief that accused left the spot after twenty minutes and carried Harendra away in wrapped quilt. P.W.-2 Satendra in his deposition stated that after half an hour, he saw a person strolling on adjacent roof. He called him who unbolted their latch. P.W.-3 had stated in his deposition that a person was strolling on roof of Bhanwar Singh whom they called. He descended and came there and then he opened the latch.

21. As elaborated in the preceding paragraphs, it is evident that the statements of witnesses u/s164 Cr.P.C and their testimony are contradictory. They have stated U/s 164 Cr.P.C that only four accused persons came with deceased. But when they were examined in court,they added names of two more accused persons i.e. Santer Pal and Naresh. When both were confronted on this issue, they stated they had not disclosed their names earlier because latter named accused were only walking outside the room and were not involved in incident. P.W.-2 Satendra has stated in cross examination that he was stopped by these two accused when he was peeping through seam of door. If said testimony of P.W.-2 Satendra along with the role assigned to both accused is relied upon, it will indicate involvement of latter added accused persons. But reasons put forward by the witnesses for not disclosing their names earlier is unacceptable.

22. P.W.-2 Satendra has stated u/s 164 Cr.P.C that accused opened the lock of door, whereas P.W.-3 Anil stated that it was broken by them. Even though P.W.-2 Satendra had said that Madav's room was locked,none of the witnesses have stated in their deposition about the mode of opening lock which reveals that neither they have corroborated nor contradicted their earlier statements u/s164 Cr.P.C. It is admitted fact that Madav was not present in his room where the alleged incident occurred.During cross examination P.W-3 Anil stated he had seen anybody opening the lock and he even doesn't remember whether door was locked or not. He didn't remember whether he had stated before I.O or U/s164 Cr.P.C that accused unlocked the door.In foregoing circumstances, it was imperative for prosecution to explain as how accused got access of the room. Whether they broke the lock or opened it?

23. Both witnesses had claimed in their earlier statements that they got the door opened by accused persons when they found them beating Harendra. However P.W.-2 Satendra had stated during cross examination that door was left ajar and he himself opened it.On other hand, P.W-3 Anil during cross examination stated he had not stated u/s 164 Cr.P.C that they entered room after getting the door opened. Witnesses had earlier stated that the deceased and accused arrived at the spot in a normal manner. However, during cross-examination, P.W.-2 Satendra revealed that the deceased Harendra was brought there in confinement by the accused persons. It's strange that none of the witnesses intervened at that stage but they did so when they heard screams from inside the room of Madav. Both witnesses have stated that the stranger from the neighbourhood's roof arrived at the spot to meet Madav and opened their door, as per Section 164 Cr.P.C. However, they have contradicted this in their depositions, claiming that he arrived there after being called by them.It is trite that Statement under Section 164, Cr. P.C. is not a substantive piece of evidence but can be used for the purpose of contradiction or corroboration as provided under Section 145 of the Evidence Act. The purpose of contradiction between evidence of a witness before the court and the statement recorded under section 164 of the Code is primarily to shake credit of the witness and to put the court on guard to scrutinize the evidence with great care. In this case ,bare comparison of statements made by witnesses u/s164 Cr.P.C and their deposition before court reflects that they are not consistent even on single point. There is no plausible explanation as to why names accused Santer Pal and Naresh were disclosed for first time during trial. Witnesses are not firm on any point like whether door of Madav was opened by the accused or lock was broken. Similarly they have made contradictory claims about the manner in which deceased Harendra and accused reached the spot. There statements under Section 164 Cr.P.C reflects that all arrived there in normal manner. Contrary to it, P.W.-2 Satendra has also stated that deceased was brought there in confinement. P.W.-2 Satendra had stated during examination in chief that accused were only threatening deceased which is entirely different from the prosecution story. Similarly both witnesses claimed in their earlier statements that they got the room opened when they heard screams. But they stated in their deposition that the door was left ajar. Like wise, they stated u/s 164 Cr.P.C, that a stranger from has himself came and opened their door,whereas they stated during deposition that they called him .

24. Minor and immaterial inconsistencies and/or discrepancies shall not harm the case of the prosecution. But if testimony of prosecution witnesses is in variance with his earlier statements,particularly statements made under Section 164 Cr.P.C, his testimony comes under cloud of suspicion. Testimony of either witness is not firm on manner of occurrence.

25. Every criminal act, especially those committed against the human body, involves preceding facts that occurred shortly before the act, along with the actual commission of the offence. Similarly, some acts occur shortly after the occurrence of the offence. It is expected that witnesses will be consistent in their testimony when they unfold aforesaid events. It is evident that both witnesses have made improvements in their testimony on each count. Such improvements can not be brushed aside by terming them as minor contradictions. These improvements are material improvements. Similarly, admission by witnesses that they did not inform about the incident to any one except Madav is strange and unnatural. Both had admitted in cross examination that they got information about recovery of dead body on next day at about 11:00AM when they were going to their college. Even P.W-2 Satendra has stated that he left for his village on next day. Both witnesses have stated that they did not inform the incident out of fear. Said explanation is unnatural and unsatisfactory. Hon'ble Supreme Court in Chanan Singh vs. State of Haryana, 1971 SC 1554 held in paragraph 13 that the conduct of witnesses in keeping away from the place of occurrence even though he was not chased or threatened and yet remained silent and did not report the incident even to the relatives of either of the two deceased person was abnormal behaviour. Similarly, Hon'ble Supreme Court in State of Orissa vs. Mr. Brahmananda Nanda AIR 1976 SC 2488 held that if a witness says that incident was not disclosed out of fear cannot be believe unless accused persons are known gangster or a confirmed criminal about whom people would be afraid.

26. Apart from that, statements recorded under Section 164 Cr.P.C were made a month after the incident.Such a long delay in recording the statements of the witnesses speaks much. Hon'ble

Supreme Court in Firoz Khan Akbarkhan vs. The State of Maharashtra, 2025 LiveLaw (SC) 349 has held," No doubt that Court has laid down that an inordinate delay in recording witness statements can prove to be fatal for the prosecution, as pointed out by three learned Judges in Ganesh Bhavan Patel v State of Maharashtra, (1978) 4 SCC 371?" it further held that," Thus, stricto sensu, delay in recording witness statements, moreso when the said delay is explained, will not aid an accused. Of course, no hard-and- fast principle in this regard ought to be or can be laid down, as delay, if any, in recording statements will have to be examined by the Court concerned in conjunction with the peculiar facts of the case before it. Our reading of the above shall apply on all fours to delays in the context of Section 164 of the Code." Here witnesses were accessible to I.O and he also recorded their testimony u/s 161 Cr.P.C. But neither the testimony of witnesses nor of I.O has come forward with any explanation from which inference as to cause of delay can be deduced. Such a long delay in recording the statement of witnesses speaks much.

27. From the foregoing circumstances, it is difficult to hold that alleged occurrence was witnessed by these witnesses. The manner in which investigation was carried out also casts serious doubts. Blood stained soil was collected from the place where dead body was recovered. Recovery of blood stained quilt cover was also made. But I.O has not found blood stains on place of occurrence. It is difficult to assume that no blood stain was found at the spot even when so much of blood has oozed in the occurrence. Similarly alleged cycle said to in possession of deceased Harendra was recovered on pointing of accused Braj Bhushan. Ravindra and Anang Pal were made recovery witnesses. Said cycle Mat. Ex-1 was produced before court and was identified by Ravindra and Anang Pal. Father of deceased, PW-1 Pitam Singh, was available on the next day when FIR was lodged by him and he was the best person to identify the said cycle. But identification of the said cycle by aforesaid witnesses itself makes the recovery doubtful. Blood stained knife was also recovered from two accused Ravindra and Satendra. This recovery itself is strange as P.W.-4 Dr S.C. Gupta has stated that all injuries were caused by batons. Testimony of eye-witnesses which does not inspire confidence, coupled with recoveries that contradict substantial evidence rather than corroborating it, cannot be relied upon for convicting appellants. Prosecution has miserably failed to prove its case beyond reasonable doubt.

28. Under such circumstances, we are of the definite opinion that the appeal deserves to be allowed. In this view of the matter, the judgement and order dated 30.1.1984 passed by the Special District Judge, Muzaffar Nagar is quashed and the appeal is allowed. The appellant no. 1 is acquitted of the charges who alone is now alive. The appellant no.1 is already on bail. Sureties and bail bonds are discharged. Further directed to furnish bail bond in compliance of Section 437-A Cr.P.C. to the satisfaction of the Court concerned within two month from today.

29. The learned Amicus Curiae, Ms. Seema Pandey, be paid a fee of Rs. 15,000/-. The Registrar General to oversee the payment.

30. The Trial Court's record be remitted back along with copy of this judgment.

31. Compliance report be submitted to this Court at the earliest. Office is directed to keep the compliance report on record.

Criminal Appeal No. 1359 of 2017

Surya Lal @ Shiv Lal ...Appellant
Versus
State of U.P. ...Respondent

Counsel for the Appellant:
Amjad Siddiqui, Amul Mani Tripathi, Mohemmed Amir Naqvi, Piyush Kumar Singh, Shreesh Kumar Mishra Alat, Shubham Gupta

Counsel for the Respondent:
Govt. Advocate

Issue for Consideration

The appeal revolves around the specific point challenging the conviction-(a) Whether the Trial court committed a manifest illegality by recording a finding of conviction based on surmises and conjectures-(b)Whether the recovered knives were capable of causing the fatal injuries-(c)Whether the recovery of clothes and weapons was doubtful.

Headnotes

A. Criminal matter-Criminal Procedure Code, 1973-Section 374(2)-Indian Penal Code,1860-Sections-Contradiction between Medical and Weapon Evidence-This contradiction created a fundamental doubt about the prosecution's story and recovered evidence-Doubtful recovery-The prosecution failed to produce any independent public witnesses to the recovery memo, making the recovery suspect-Unreliable Identification of the accused inside a dense reserve forest – The defective investigation and numerous contradictions led to the accused being given the benefit of the doubt-Appeal allowed.

Held

The court found The medical officer stated that the fatal injuries were likely caused by a heavy sharp-edged weapon-However the prosecution's case rested on the recovery of small knives with 7-8 inch blades from the accused-The police failed to produce any independent public witnesses to attest to the recovery of the alleged weapons and blood-stained clothes-non-production of independent witnesses was unexplained-The eyewitness (PW-1) claimed to have identified the accused but the time, location, and conditions made the identification of the accused by the sole eyewitness highly improbable and doubtful.(Para 47 to 86) (E-6)

1. Heard Sri Shreesh Kumar Mishra Atal, Advocate for the two appellants as Amicus appointed by the High Court and learned AGA for the State Respondents.

2. These two criminal appeals have been filed against judgement and order dated 07.08.2014 passed by Additional Sessions Judge, Bahraich in Session Trial No. 49 of 2002, State of U.P. Vs. Surya Lal and Another arising out of Case Crime No. 69 of 2001, Police Station, District Bahraich, where by the Trial Court has convicted and sentenced the appellants under Section 302/34 IPC for life imprisonment with fine of Rs.10,000/- in default of which for further imprisonment of one year, and under Section 353 IPC for two years imprisonment and under Section 201 IPC for three years, imprisonment and fine of Rs.5,000/- and additional imprisonment of six months in case of default in payment.

3. Case Crime No. 69 of 2001 was initially registered in Police Station – Sujauli, Bahraich on 06.08.2001 at 06:10 AM against three accused, all residents of Ishwari Ganj Nepal, the informant did not reveal any names. He only indicated that one of them belonged to the family of Ramswaroop Tharu, the other was a relative of Purinder Tharu and the third one was an unidentified fellow. It was stated in the written report dated 06.08.2001 that on 04.08.2001 Forest Guard Jitendra and Watcher Kallu were returning from their duty in Beat no.2 of Katarniya Ghat Range. Near No Man's Land Ishwari Ganj village, they found two boys reading a book. Forest Guard Jitendra questioned them and scolded them by saying that these people keep a watch on movement of Forest Guards by making an excuse of reading books, only to warn their accomplices who were indulging in illegal felling and selling of trees in the forest. The informant said that he, Nanmoon, was working as Forest Guard in Beat No.1 and on 05.08.2001 while returning from his Beat, he met Jitendra Lala Forest Guard and Kallu Watcher on the road also coming back to forest checkpost on their cycles. All three were then returning together when they were accosted by the accused, who were armed. They took them inside the jungle about two kilometres and then threatened and scolded Jitendra Lala for slapping them last evening. They forced him to take off his clothes and they tied his hands as well as there of Kallu Watcher and the informant. One of the accused then took Jitendra Lala aside and stabbed him repeatedly. Another accused then took Kallu Watcher aside and stabbed him to death, but let the informant go on his begging them to spare his life. He came back to his check post and told Nathuram Forest Guard about it and then both of them crossed the river and reached the Forest Range Office where he told everything to Dy. Range Officer Sri Abdullah who then came to the Police Station to lodge FIR.

4. The Investigating Officer did not try to find out the names of the accused till the night of 13.09.2001 when the three accused Surya Lal, Chankau and Harichanda and two others were arrested for illegally cutting down a tree. It was thereafter that weapons of assault were recovered and charge sheet was filed and the Sessions Trial commenced.

5. Harichanda was declared juvenile by order of the Sessions Court on 24.07.2012. His case file was separated. Surya Lal and Chankau were tried and convicted.

6. The Trial Court examined eleven prosecution witnesses. Three were officials belonging to the Forest Department, two were Medical Officers, and the rest were Policemen.

7. P.W.1 and P.W.2, Nanmoon and Dashrath Forest Watchers, have been treated as witnesses of fact alongwith P.W.3, Abdullah the Deputy Forest Ranger, who had written the FIR. Dr. Ajay Kumar Tiwari, P.W.4 was the Doctor on duty when the victim Jitendra Singh Srivastava was brought in for treatment. Dr. M.R. Mallik P.W.6 and P.W.8 Dr. Saiyyad Ashraf Hussain were Medical Officers, who had conducted the postmortem of the two deceased Jitendra Srivastava Forest Guard and Kallu Watcher. P.W.5 M.Z. Khan was in-charge of Special Operation Group Team, P.W.7 was Constable Moharir, S.I. Digvijay Singh as P.W.9, S.I. Sreenivas Chaudhary as P.W.10. and S.O. Jitendra Kumar Kaushal as P.W.11 were the three Investigating Officers.

8. Nanmoon, the first informant, stated that he was illiterate and therefore, he dictated the FIR to Abdullah Khan, the Deputy Ranger, who wrote it down on a piece of paper before it was submitted in Sujauli Thana on 06.08.2001 at 6:10 AM. Nanmoon P.W.1 stated that on 05.08.2001, while he was returning from his Beat No.2 Katarniya Ghat Range, he met Jitendra Lala Forest Guard and Kallu Watcher on the way as they were returning from Beat no.1. This was around 07:00 PM. When all of them were riding their bicycles towards their Check Posts they met three people on the way, two of them were carrying guns and the third had a knife. These three people caught hold of Jitendra Lala, Kallu and the informant Nanmoon and confronted Jitendra Lala saying that he had scolded them and slapped them last evening, that is on the evening of 04.08.2001, and he should not have done so. They pointed the gun in their hands towards the victims and they tied their hands with rope made of Baint (Rattan) and threw away their cycles, and then disrobed Jitendra Lala. Surya Lal took him aside and tried to shoot him down, but his gun malfunctioned, and he took out his knife and repeatedly attacked Jitendra Lala until he fell down. Surya Lal returned to the place where Kallu Watcher and Nanmoon were standing, and then Chankau took Kallu Watcher some distance away in the opposite direction and also attacked him repeatedly with his knife which resulted in instant death of Kallu Watcher. P.W.1, then stated that he begged the assailants to leave him, and they decided to untie his hands and left him and went their way towards the No Man's Land. P.W.1 took his cycle and came to the check post where he told the story to Nathuram Forest Guard and they decided to inform the Range Office across the River. They took a steamer to cross the river and reached the Range Office where P.W.1 told his ordeal to Abdullah Khan, Deputy Ranger, who wrote it down and it was given to the S.H.O. Sujauli on 06.08.2001 in the morning.

9. P.W.1 stated that there were two check posts near the No Man's Land. On each there were employees of the Forest Department, who had their service guns/12 Bore guns given to them by the Government. P.W.1 was posted in Beat No.1 check post with Forest Guard Nathuram Tripathi and Watcher Ghasite. In the check post on Beat No.2 Forest Guard Jitendra Lala, and Watcher Kallu along with Dashrath Watcher were posted. Jitendra Lala had kept one more Watcher Dashrath also with him.

10. On a specific query being made, P.W.1 stated that while going to inspect their Beat, they do not carry any weapons. It is only when they received information with regard to illegal felling of trees that they take their guns along with them. All weapons in the check post are under the control of Forest Guard. Being Watchers only they cannot take any guns without the permission of the Forest Guard. Only when Forest Guard and Forest Rangers move on Inspection, they take their weapons along with them. P.W.1 also admitted that in No Man's Land on the Indian side, there is a PAC outpost also with 20 persons posted. This PAC output also had facility of wireless at the time of the incident. The Forest Check Post is about 3 kms. away from the PAC outpost. Ishwari Ganj and Karmohini villages in Nepal are around 3 kms. away from No Man's Land.

11. P.W.1 in his cross-examination stated that he goes on Inspection every one or two weeks during which he meets wild animals and mafia and most of the times, the wild animals move away when he fires from his gun in the air. They used to fire guns in the air also when they came across forest mafia. P.W.1 further stated during his examination-in-chief that he had been working in the Forest Department for more than 20 years, but had not caught any person doing illegal felling and the only time he had been part of an operation for catching forest mafia was around one month after the incident, when S.H.O. and other Police persons had visited the Range Office at night on 13.09.2001 and were told by Nathu Ram Forest Guard about illegal felling being done near his Beat No.1. The Police personnel along with Forest Department officials in the Range Office at Katarnia Ghat, crossed the river in the dead of the night and reached the PAC outpost and took all persons from the PAC outpost also while laying ambush on persons illegally felling trees in the forest near Ishwari ganj. When they reached the spot at around 02:00 AM, the Police warned the mafia not to try to run away as they had been surrounded. Thereafter, five people were caught doing illegal felling, he recognised three of them as the assailants of Jitendra Lala and Kallu Watcher. It was then that P.W.1 came to know their names as Surya Lal, Chankau and Harichanda. P.W.1 also stated that he was witness of the recovery made by the Police of cycles and clothes of the deceased and weapons of assault i.e. two knives that were buried in the soil.

12. P.W.1 also stated that workers were often called by the Forest Department from Karmohini and Ishwari Ganj villages in Nepal and Dashrath Watcher had his second wife's parents living in Karmohini Village Nepal. Dashrath Watcher had been working since 1986–87, in Katarnia Ghat and he used to regularly visit his wife's village in Nepal. The Range Office has three Foresters, one Range Officer, one Deputy Ranger, one Forest Guard and four to five Watchers. The Range Office is equipped with firearms and as are all Forest Check posts where one Forest Guard and two Watchers are posted. All Watchers and Forest Guards/employees of the Forest Department are given training to how to use firearms. There is a wireless set available in the Range and one can talk to another Range on this wireless set. The D.F.O., Bahraich office also had a telephone connection.

13. On repeated cross-examination P.W.1 stated that, although Forest Check Posts in all Beats have 12 bore rifles, and the Range Office also has guns, they are not being carried by Forest Guards and Forest Watchers on routine Beat inspections. P.W.1 admitted that he had only caught one Sadhu Tharu some four years ago, committing theft of forest produce. Sadhu Tharu belonged to Nepal Ganj. No Man's Land is land between India and Nepal borders. Beat No.1 and Beat No.2 are inside the forest on the Indian side. The road between Beat No.1 and Beat No.2 is around 12 ft. wide and it leads to the Forest Check Post. P.W.1, along with Jitendra Lala and Kallu Watcher was stopped near Ghalghala Nala by three people/assailants. At that time, P.W.1, Jitendra Lala and Kallu Watcher had only Lathis/sticks in their hand, whereas the three assailants had two guns and a knife. Because of the gun barrel being pointed on Jitendra Lala's face they stopped, and the three assailants tied their hands behind their backs and made them sit under a tree. Surya Lal then took Jitendra Lala some 02 Km. away and then returned some 15 minutes later. Chankau thereafter took Kallu Watcher in the opposite direction and returned 15 minutes later.

14. P.W.2 Dashrath in his examination-in-chief had stated that on 04.08.2001, he was accompanying Forest Guard, Jitendra Singh Srivastava and Kallu Watcher during their inspection in Beat No.2. They found two boys sitting in forest land near Ishwari Ganj Village and reading books. The Forest Guard Jitendra Lala had asked them why they were sitting there and scolded them and made them go away. On walking a few paces they met another Forest Watcher, who told them that these boys were helping in illegal felling by keeping a watch and raising a warning on approach of Forest Guards. On coming to know of this, Jitendra Lala had called the two boys back, who told their names as Surya Lal and Harichanda and they were questioned and slapped by Jitendra. The very next day, Jitendra Lala and Kallu Watcher were killed in the forest. P.W.2 also stated that he had been working in Beat No.2 Katarnia Ghat since 1988 and his wife's name was Jayanti Devi and she belonged to Karmohini village, P.S. Rajapur Mandi, District Bardia in Nepal. Karmohini and Ishwari Ganj villages were situated next to No Man's Land.

15. P.W.2 denied any relation of his wife with the accused, who were also residents of Nepal. He also stated that his wife had not gone to her maternal home for nearly one year after the incident. P.W.2 however later during cross-examination denied having seen Jitendra Lala and Kallu Watcher scolding and slapping the accused Harichanda and Surya Lal on 04.08.2001. He denied the suggestion of Police having interrogated him with regard to the incident at any point of time.

16. P.W.3 Abdullah Khan, Deputy Ranger, Katarnia Ghat Range, stated in his deposition that on 13.09.2010, the S.H.O.

Sujauli Jitendra Kumar Kaushal along with Sub-Inspector Shreenivas Choudhary and Constables and S.O.G. In-charge M.Z. Khan along with other persons had reached the Range Office on a jeep. They told Range Officer, Rajendra Prasad that secret information had been received regarding illegal felling taking place on the other side of the river. All persons from the Range Office then accompanied the Police and S.O.G. team to PAC outpost on the banks of the Gerua River and then reached the place where they could hear the noise of felling of trees. There were around thirty persons in the team by the time they reached the place. They surrounded the place and caught five persons along with their saws and axes and they disclosed their names as Surya Lal, Harichanda, Chankau, Haule and Hariram. Nanmoon Watcher identified three of them as those who had attacked and killed Jitendra Singh Srivastava Forest Guard and Kallu Watcher on 05.08.2001. The three accused admitted to their crime. They also expressed the willingness to show the place where they had hidden the cycles, clothes of the victims and their knives. At dawn, two independent witnesses, Ameere and Ghasite, were taken along with the accused near Ghalghala Nala where the accused took out the cycles of the victims and their clothes from the bushes,as well as two knives, that they had buried under the ground.

17. P.W.3 also stated that Forest Guards have 12 bore guns with them and Foresters and Rangers have rifles. All of them are trained to handle such arms. However, P.W.3 could not tell the number of rifles and guns available in Katarnia Ghat Range Office. He further stated that there was no four wheeler in the Range Office at the time of the incident and they had to walk to the river bank. The Range Office is around 1 Km. away from the banks of the river Gerua. They had crossed the river by using boats. Nathuram Tripathi, Forest Guard had told them about illegal felling of trees in the Range Office. After crossing the river, they walked for around one to one and a half kms before they reached the place where the felling was being done. On crossing the river Gerua, there is a 10 feet wide forest road constructed up to No Man's Land on the border, which is used by people very often for coming to India and going to Nepal. P.W.3 admitted that before such raid on 13.09.2001, or even thereafter, no such raid was carried out in Katarnia Ghat Range to nab any forest mafia.

18. During cross-examination, P.W.3 stated that on 05.08.2001, and 06.08.2001, he was posted in Katarnia Ghat Range Office, but he was on leave some two to three days earlier to the incident and returned on duty one or two days later. He also stated that there was a road between Beat No.1 and Beat No.2, which led to Rajapur in Nepal. Ishwari Ganj Village was half a kilometre from No Man's Land, on Nepal border and was around 3 kms from the Forest Check Post. The team conducting the raid on 13.09.2001 had not been told about why they were going to Beat No.2. On reaching the place on foot where illegal felling was being carried out, they surrounded it and caught five persons of whom three were identified by Nanmoon Watcher as the ones who had attacked and killed Jitendra Lala and Kallu Watcher. These three were taken straightaway to the Police Station by the S.H.O. The other two persons, who were caught were taken to the Range Office as accused in forest offence. P.W.3 also stated that at the time of their arrest, no arrest memo was prepared by the Police.

19. P.W.4 Dr. Ajay Kumar Tiwari was the Medical Officer on duty in District Hospital - Bahraich where Jitendra Singh Srivastava was admitted at 09:00 AM on 06.08.2001 in a serious condition. He died soon thereafter at 09:15 AM. The news regarding death of Jitendra Singh Srivastava was sent to the Police Station through a Ward Boy.

20. P.W.5 M.Z. Khan Inspector, was In-charge of S.O.G. team he along with Jitendra Kumar Kaushal S.H.O. P.S. Sujauli had accompanied the Police and S.O.G. team to Katarnia Ghat Range Office, where they took Forest Guards and Forest Department Officials and reached the banks of River Gerua, which they crossed on a steamer to reach the other side. They found a PAC Check Post where there was one Subedar and four Constables. All of them then walked to the place where they found illegal felling being done. It was around 01:30 AM. He also stated the same story regarding P.W.1, recognising three out of the five persons caught as those who had attacked and killed Jitendra Lala and Kallu Watcher. He gave the names of two independent witnesses as Amir Hasan S/o Ghasite and Munnawar Ali S/o Kalute residents of Katarnia Ghat who accompanied them in the morning, when the recovery of assault weapons and belongings of the deceased were made.

21. While P.W.3, Abdullah Khan, Deputy Ranger, in his examination has stated that the S.O.G. team along with Police team had come to Katarnia Ghat Range office at around 9:00 PM on the night of 13.09.2001, the S.O.G. team In-charge P.W.5 M.Z. Khan stated that they had not gone to Katarnia Ghat Range Office. They had reached the banks of the Gerua River where they were met by the forest team led by Rajendra Srivastav Range Forest Officer, who told them regarding illegal felling. They then crossed the river together on the Forest Department steamer and reached the PAC outpost. The PAC Constables also joined them and a total of 29 to 30 people then walked stealthily to the place where the felling was taking place and surrounded the accused. They reached the place at around 01:30 AM in the morning. It is 2 kms. away from Ishwari Ganj Village on Nepal border. They could hear the accused talking and cutting down a tree from about a fifty to a hundred meters distance. He also stated that they remained in the forest with the accused after arrest for around four to five hours till dawn, and then the accused took them to the place where they had hidden the belongings of the deceased and the weapons of assault. After arrest, the accused were not taken to the Forest Range Office but to Sujauli Police Station at around 10:00 AM in the morning on 14.09.2001.

22. P.W.6 Dr. M. R. Mallik had conducted the postmortem of Jitendra Singh Srivastava on 06.08.2001. There were six incised wounds two on the face and neck, one on the collar bone and two in the abdomen and one incised wound on the left hand. Such wounds were caused by sharp edged weapons. He also stated that Injury No.1 and Injury No.2 could have been caused by a heavy sharp edged weapon like an axe/farsa or a Gandasa as they were deep and had cut through the bones as well.

23. P.W.7 Head Constable Mohit Yadav was posted as Head Moharrir. He verified the chik FIR lodged at P.S. Sujauli at 06:10 AM on 06.08.2001. The G.D. entry was done by Sub-Inspector, Srinivas

Chaudhary as he was In-charge of the Police Station at the time and the S.H.O. Digvijay Singh was on leave. After lodging of FIR, information was given on RT set to the higher officers. Special report to the Magistrate was sent at 06:15 AM on the same day. This witness has stated that Nanmoon P.W.1 and Abdullah Khan had both come to the Police Station on bicycles to lodge the FIR.

24. P.W.8 Dr. Syed Ashraf Hussain stated that he was Medical Officer on duty on 07.08.2001 when the body of Kallu Watcher was brought in for postmortem by Constable Ram Ratan Yadav and Constable Mahant Yadav. The death had occurred around one and a half days ago. The body was covered with maggots. It had decomposed and the skin had left the bone and disintegrated at some places. There were six incised wounds all on the face, around the neck, upper part of the body, on the thorax and cutting through trachea, vertebral column, carotid artery, jugular vein and food pipe.

25. P.W.8 was recalled for cross-examination, and he stated that the nature of the incised wounds on Kallu Watcher's body were such that they might have been caused by Farsa, Gandasa or Kanta, a heavy sharp edged weapon and not by a knife as a knife may cause a punctured wound.

26. P.W.9 Digvijai Singh Sub-Inspector was In-charge, Sujauli Police Station at the time of the incident, but he had gone on leave, and therefore, the investigation was initially carried out by S.I. Sreenivas Chaudhary. He took over investigation with effect from 09.08.2001. He was transferred out of Sujauli Police Station on 19.08.2001.

27. P.W. 10 Sreenivas Chaudhary took up investigation on 06.08.2001. He stated that he had accompanied Forest Department employees to the place of the incident and recovered the dead body of Kallu Watcher and conducted inquest. He also took blood stained soil and plain soil from where he had found the dead body of Kallu Watcher and made a site plan of the scene of crime. He also took blood stained soil and plain soil from the place where Jitendra Srivastava the injured had been lying, on the pointing out of Forest employees. However, he did not find Jitendra Srivastava at the scene of crime and he did not try to find out the whereabouts of Jitendra Srivastava, who perhaps was taken to the hospital by forest employees. He also did not collect any papers about the inquest and postmortem conducted on the body of Jitendra Srivastava. He handed over the investigation to Digvijai Singh on his return from leave on 09.08.2001.

28. P.W.10 stated the same story with regard to accompanying the SOG team and Forest Department Team and PAC personnel to the forest, where they discovered five persons illegally trying to cut a sheesham tree. It took the Police, the SOG Team, the Forest Officials and PAC personnel 5 to 6 hours to reach the place where illegal felling was being done. They reached the place at around 01:30 AM and surrounded the persons cutting the tree and caught five of them.

29. P.W.10 also admitted that he made no efforts to go to Ishwari Ganj Village to find out about the relatives of Ramswaroop Tharu and Purinder Tharu, whose mention had been made in the FIR by the first informant. He was in charge of the investigation only for three days. He, however, accompanied the Police Team that went on 13.09.2001 to Katarnia Ghat and found five persons, who were illegally cutting trees with their equipment. P.W. 10 stated that they had started in the evening of 13.09.2001 and reached the Range Office at around 09:00 to 10:00 PM from where they walked to the place where Nathuram Tripathi, Forest Guard had stated illegal felling to be taking place. P.W. 10 also stated that the Forest Department had made some noting with regard to recovery of axe and saw from the five people they had caught on the night of 13.09.2001. They reached the Forest Department Check Post at around 03:00 AM in the morning of 14.09.2001 and reached the Police Station at around 10:00 AM. Three of the accused, who had admitted their involvement in killing Jitendra Srivastava and Kallu Watcher, were taken to the Police lockup . The remaining two were handed over to the Forest Department employees to initiate proceedings against them for forest offence.

30. P.W.11 Jitendra Kumar Kaushal S.H.O. had taken over the investigation after Digvijai Singh on 26.08.2001. The Case Diary contained the statements of almost all witnesses. However, on 30.08.2001, D.W.11 recorded additional statements of the first informant, P.W.1 and of Dashrath P.W.2. He also recorded statements of Smt. Jayanti Devi and her husband Bhukali. He accompanied the Police Team along with SOG Team and Forest and PAC personnel on 13.09.2001 in the raid which led to arrest of three accused along with two others who were charged with forest offence later on for illegally felling trees in the reserved forest. P.W.11 stated the same story regarding the incident of 05.08.2001, and of 13.09.2001 as told by other prosecution witnesses. The recovery/arrest memo was dictated by P.W.11 and noted down by P.W. 10. The site plan of the place of arrest of the accused on 13.09.2001 was drawn up by P.W.11. He had also noted the statements of the accused, and of S.I. M. Z. Khan In-charge of SOG team, constables accompanying them, Range Forest Officer Rajendra Kumar and Deputy Range Officer Abdullah Khan on 14.09.2001 and 15.09.2001.

31. Charge sheet was submitted by P.W.11 on 07.10.2001 in the Trial Court. The two knives recovered as the weapons of assault was sent by him along with other material evidence to the Forensic Science Laboratory on 01.03.2002.

32. During cross examination by the counsel for defence, P.W. 11 admitted that the names of the three accused were revealed to him by Nanmoon and Dashrath and his wife, when he had recorded their additional statements on taking over the investigation. He, however, made no correspondence with his superiors to enable him to go to Ishwari Ganj and Karmohini villages in Nepal from where the accused had reportedly come. He did not make any effort to track the accused to their villages. It was only by chance that on 13.09.2001, while conducting inspection on Indo-Nepal Border along with SOG team, he came to know of illegal felling in Katarnia Ghat Beat No. 1 and then caught the three accused along with two others.

33. After conclusion of the evidence of prosecution, the statement of the accused was recorded under Section 313 of the Cr.P.C. wherein they denied all the evidence produced by the prosecution and claimed that they had been falsely implicated and that they were not present on the spot.

34. The defence Advocate had argued before the Trial Court that since the forest mafia had killed two Departmental officials there was huge public pressure and also from the authorities on them to somehow solve the case and the accused being innocent Nepali citizens had been called from their Village and locked up at the Police Station and the raid which took place on 13.09.2001 did not actually happen.

35. The learned Amicus Curie for the appellants has submitted that the Trial Court has committed a manifest illegality in appreciating the evidence available on record and has recorded a finding of conviction on the basis of surmises and conjectures. All the witnesses were official witnesses, who were interested in seeing conviction of accused as there was great pressure from the authorities to solve the case. Therefore, the Trial Court has committed an illegality in accepting their evidence as truthful.

36. It was further argued by the learned counsel for the appellants that as per the opinion of the Medical Officer, who conducted the postmortem of the deceased, the injuries were such as would have been caused by a heavy sharp edged weapon, like a Pharsa, Gandasa or Kanta and it was doubtful that the injuries were caused by simple knives which though have sharp edges were too light to have caused such deep wounds. The Trial Court has not considered this aspect of the matter in a correct perspective.

37. It has also been argued by the learned Amicus that independent witnesses were shown to be present on the spot when recovery memo was prepared of the clothing and other belongings of the deceased and the weapons of assault. However, they have not been produced before the Trial Court. It has further been submitted that the FIR of the case has been lodged ante-timed and in fact nobody had seen the incident and only with the purpose of solving a blind case of murder, the departmental officials have implicated the appellants. There are material contradictions and embellishments in the evidence of the prosecution witnesses and the Trial Court has failed to notice such discrepancies and relied on evidence of such untrustworthy witnesses. The appellants are entitled to be acquitted.

38. The learned counsel for the appellants argued that P.W.1 at different places has given different statements. Initially, he had stated that two of the assailants, who stopped them were carrying guns and one was carrying an iron road. At another place, he has stated that two were carrying guns and one was carrying a knife. Also at one place, P.W.1 stated that PAC outpost was 03 Km. away, it had a wireless set and armed Constables on duty. However, at another place he stated that there was no PAC outpost near the place where the accused had stopped and attacked them. P.W.1 did not initially say in his deposition that after reaching check post of Beat No.1 and narrating the incident to Nathuram Tripathi, they went to the Range Office. In the Range Office there were several persons including the Ranger, Rajendra Kumar and Deputy Ranger Abdullah. Besides Foresters, Forest Guard, and Forest Watchers, but none of them attempted to inform the Police or send information to the adjacent Range's Office through wireless set which was functioning. He also did not say that the employees at the Range Office had initially gone to the place where Jitendra Lala had been attacked. Kallu watcher was found dead while Jitendra Lala was found in a serious condition and was taken to hospital on the night of 05.08.2001.

39. During the course of cross examination of other prosecution witnesses, it has come out that after P.W.1 disclosed about the incident at the Range Office, the Ranger and Dy. Ranger along with some fifteen to twenty people had reached the place of incident by crossing the river on a steamer. It has also come out that P.W.1 did not accompany the Deputy Ranger to the Police Station- Sujauli for lodging of the FIR. The Police Station was only half an hour away from the Range Office by jeep. After the lodging of the FIR, the police had kept P.W.1 and P.W.2 Dashrath Forest Watcher and Bhukali Forest Watcher for fifteen to twenty days in the Police lock up and interrogated him as they did not believe their story. P.W.1 also stated that he did not know the names of the accused till the time of their arrest on 13.09.2001, when they themselves told their names to the Police and S.O.G. team, who had caught them however in his additional statement to S.O. Jitendra Kumar Kaushal, the third Investigating Officer, he had indeed told the names of the accused.

40. It has been argued by learned counsel for the appellants that it is difficult to believe that three well built Forest Guards and Forest Watchers were stopped on the main road to Nepal Ganj, which is quite a busy road, by three young men and killed with no witnesses, except P.W.1 to have seen the incident.

41. It has also been argued that the motive that has been disclosed by the official witness P.W.1 is hearsay and P.W.2, Dashrath Watcher is too weak a motive for the accused to kill the victims and it may also be tainted by personal enmity as Dashrath and Bhukhali Forest Watchers, who were accompanying the team that caught the accused, were both residents of Nepal and Bhukali's wife belonged to the same village from where the accused hailed.

42. The Trial Court has glossed over several discrepancies and contradictions in the prosecution story. It has been stated in the prosecution story as narrated in the Trial Court judgement that on 13.09.2001, Jitendra Kumar Kaushal, Station House Officer, along with one Constable and one Sub-Inspector Sreenivas Chaudhary accompanied the Special Operations Group headed by Sub-Inspector, M.Z. Khan and other Constables went on Govt. jeeps to conduct inspection on Nepal border, and after conducting such inspection reached Katarnia Ghat Range Office, Nathuram Tripathi Forest Guard told them about illegal felling of trees in his Beat near Gerua River. In the Forest Range Office at Katarnia Ghat, they met the Ranger - Rajendra Kumar, Deputy Ranger - Abdullah Khan, Foresters, Forest Guards, and Forest Watchers, who then accompanied them to the place near Gerua River, where trees were being illegally felt. On reaching the banks of Gerua River, they also took along personnel manning PAC outpost, and reached the spot as shown by Nathuram Tripathi Forest Guard. They quietly surrounded the place where a tree was being felled at around 01:30 AM and caught five persons along with axes and saws used for cutting trees. These five persons revealed their names as Surya Lal, Harichanda, Chankau, Haule, all residents of Ishwari Ganj and Hariram Tharu resident of Soli Thana, Rajapur in Nepal. On lighting the torch Nanmoon the informant told them that of the five, three i.e. Surya Lal, Chankau and Harichanda were the same persons who had killed Jitendra Munshi and Kallu Watcher in his presence on 05.08.2001.

43. In the Recovery Report/arrest dated 13.09.2001, it has been mentioned that after the three accused were identified by P.W.19, they themselves told the Police team that they had killed Jitendra Lala and Kallu Watcher because they had insulted and beaten them up the previous evening without any fault. They also expressed a willingness to show the place where they had hidden the cycles and the clothes of the deceased and the knives they had used for assaulting the victims. When it was dawn, they had taken the accused with them, who took out the cycles and the clothes of the victims and dug out the knives used in the assault from the ground. Both the knives had around seven to eight inches long blades. One had a wooden handle the other had a metal handle. The accused confessed of having first asked the victims to take off their clothes, then tied their hands behind their backs and then had killed him with the knives which had been recovered. The knives and clothes were sealed in separate bundles to be sent to the forensic lab for examination, the Recovery Memo was prepared on the spot, it was read out to the accused and their thumb impressions taken on it. The other two persons Haule S/o Ram Charan and Hariram S/o Dude Tharu were also arrested and handed over to Rajendra Prasad Range Officer Katarnia Ghat for being separately prosecuted for forest offence.

44. Learned AGA on the other hand has submitted that the Trial Court has not committed any illegality in appreciating the evidence available on record and has relied on the evidence of witnesses of fact, who, according to him appear to be trustworthy and reliable. It has further been submitted that the evidence of eyewitness of the incident has been supported by medical evidence and thus it was proved beyond reasonable doubt before the Trial Court that the accused persons have committed the murder of the deceased by stabbing them with knives, and there is no perversity in the judgement of the Trial Court, which would warrant interference in this appeal by the High Court.

45. Having heard the learned counsel for the appellants and having gone through the statements of the prosecution witnesses, we examined the judgement of the Trial Court carefully. The Trial Court has placed reliance upon the testimony of Nanmoon, the Forest Watcher, who is stated to be an eyewitness.

46. In Vadivelu Thevar Vs. State of Madras AIR 1957 Supreme Court 614, the Supreme Court had observed the contention that in a case of murder the Court should insist upon plurality of witnesses is much too broadly stated. The well recognised Maxim is that "evidence has to be weighed and not counted". Our legislature has given statutory recognition to the fact that administration of justice may be hampered if a particular number of witnesses were to be insisted upon. Vadivelu Thevar's case was referred to with approval in Jagdish Prasad Vs. State of Madhya Pradesh AIR 1994 Supreme Court 1251, where it was held that as a general rule, the Court can and may act on the testimony of a single witness provided he is wholly reliable. There is no legal impediment in convicting a person on the sole testimony of a single witness.

47. This Court finds it difficult to believe P.W.1 as according to him the accused were reckless enough to have stopped them on a busy road leading to Nepal border in the late evening at around 06:00 PM and then taking them to a secluded spot in the forest and then stabbing two of his companions only because one had scolded and slapped them a day earlier. If the accused were indeed so vengeful and reckless they would have killed Nanmoon also and left no eyewitness at all. It is difficult to believe that P.W.1 was let off only on his begging them to leave him.

48. Also, Nanmoon in his statement does not reveal that he along with others of the Forest Range had gone in the morning of 06.08.2001 to the scene of crime and brought Jitendra Lala in a serious condition to the District Hospital Bahraich for treatment and while going to the forest had lodged FIR at 06:10 AM by giving the written report to the Station House Officer at Police Station Sujauli.

49. P.W.1 also stated that wife of Dashrath Watcher belonged to Karmohini village in Nepal and Bhukali another Watcher belonged to the same village. P.W.1 also stated initially that at the time when the accused had stopped them on the way two were carrying guns and one had an iron rod. Later he changed the story and stated that two accused were carrying knives with which they stabbed the victims. Also, P.W.1 said he was not taken to the Police Station by Deputy Ranger Abdullah to lodge FIR but Constable Moharrir Mohit Yadav P.W.7 stated that both Abdullah and Informant had come on bicycles to the Police Station to lodge FIR. It is difficult to believe that Nanmoon and Abdullah had cycled their way to the Police Station on morning of 06.08.2001 as revealed by Mohit Yadav Constable Moharrir to lodge FIR with the Police and then went to rescue Jitendra Lala from the forest alone and the police did not accompany them

50. P.W.1 also failed to state that after raid on 13.09.2001 night and catching the three accused they were taken along with two independent witnesses Ameere and Ghasite to the scene of crime to recover clothes and cycles of the deceased and the two knives used in killing the victims.

51. Even if we take the statements of P.W.1 as believable and comprehensive, description of what happened on the night of 05.08.2001, P.W.1 has himself given two versions of the prosecution story. He has stated at one place that after stopping him and Jitendra Lala and Kallu Watcher on the road between Beat No.1 and Beat No.2, the accused had taken them to a secluded place in the forest and asked them to sit under a tree. Then they asked Jitendra Lala to take off his clothes and Kallu Watcher also to take of his clothes. They were stripped down to their underwear and their hands were tied behind their back with a rope made out of Rattan. Then one of them Surya Lal took Jitendra Lala aside and away from the sight of the others and returned alone some fifteen minutes later. On his return Chankau took Kallu Watcher away to the opposite side, and he also returned some 15 minutes later. It is evident from this version that P.W.1 had not clearly seen either Surya Lal or Chankau actually stabbing the victims to death.

52. The testimony of P.W.2 has been discarded by the Trial Court on the ground that initially he had stated that he was accompanying the victims on 04.08.2001 and had witnessed Jitendra Lala scolding and slapping the accused, but later changed his stand and stated that he had no personal knowledge of the incident on 04.08.2001 which could be the motive for the accused to kill the victims the next day.

53. While discussing the testimony of P.W.3, the Trial Court only referred to the raid conducted in the night of 13.09.2001 and catching of the accused alongside two other people, recovery of clothes, cycles of the deceased and the knives used by the accused to kill the victims. Abdullah, Deputy Ranger, P.W. 3 had also stated that he was on leave two days before the incident and returned from leave two days later to the Range Office. However, the Trial Court presumed that since there were residential quarters in Katarnia Ghat range, he may have been present in office to note down the story of attack as told by Nanmoon and then submitted the written report at Police Station Sujauli on 06.08.2001.

54. P.W.3 had given names of independent witnesses as Ameere and Ghasite but P.W.7 M. Z. Khan had given their names as Amir Hasan S/o Ghasite and Munnawar Ali S/o Kalute. Also P.W.7 stated that he was called to Police Station Sujauli by Inspector in-charge Jitendra Kumar Kaushal and then a team of nearly forty persons had conducted the raid on the night of 13.9.2001 whereas other prosecution witnesses have given the number of personnel conducting such raid as 29-30 only.

55. It is apparent that there is a marked discrepancy in the number of persons, who had allegedly gone for conducting the raid on 13.09.2001 in Beat No. 1 to catch hold of persons illegally felling of trees in the statements given in this regard by the official witnesses. The number of such persons arrange from 10 to 12 in the statement of P.W. 21 to 29-30 in the statement of P.W.10 to 40-45 in the statement of P.W.11.

56. Also official witnesses have not stated clearly as to when they went to retrieve the victim Jitendra Lala from the forest after receiving news of the attack from P.W.1. It is apparent Jitendra Lala was brought to District Hospital at around 09:00 AM on 06.08.2001, but it is not clear as to who brought Jitendra Lala to the hospital. Inquest was conducted at around 11.45 A.M. and the body handed over to Constable Bhupendra Singh at 01:00 PM. The body reached the mortuary for post-mortem on 06.08.2001 at 03:00 PM.

57. It is strange that no attempt was made by the Investigating Officer after taking additional statement of Dashrath, Nanmoon and Bhukali and deriving knowledge regarding names of the accused to approach the Nepal Police for handing over of the accused as they had committed an offence in India. The Investigating Officer also did not try to find out whether the accused were in fact relatives of Ramswaroop Tharu and Pulwinder Tharu as mentioned in the FIR lodged on 06.08.2001 by the first informant. There was no attempt by the Investigating Officer to conduct search operations to nab the accused until the incident on 13.10.2001, when it is alleged that after conducting a routine checking of Indo-Nepal Border, the Police personnel from Sujauli Police Station and SOG Team reached the Range Office at Katarnia Ghat and were told by one Forest Guard about the illegal felling taking place in his Beat No.1.

58. It is also strange that the prosecution story has been repeated with great accuracy by all the official witnesses, who were part of the team that raided the forest at night on 13.09.2001 and caught the accused felling a sheesham tree. But there is discrepancy in the statements of P.W.5, P.W.11 and P.W.1 with regard to whether after catching the accused at around 1:30 AM on the night of 13/14.09.2001, the entire team waited in the forest till dawn or whether they returned to the Katarnia Ghat Range Office and then went into the forest again early next morning to recover the cycles and clothes of the deceased and the weapons of assault. No attempt has been made by the Trial Court to call the independent witnesses, Amir Hasan and Munnawar Ali, who had allegedly witnessed the recovery of the assault weapons and belongings of the deceased.

59. The Constable Moharir Mohit Yadav had stated that Abdullah and Nanmoon had both come on bicycles in the morning at around 06:00 AM to the Police Station Sujauli to lodge FIR whereas Nanmoon stated that he stayed back in the Range Office and Abdullah did not take him along to Police Station for lodging FIR in the morning of 06.08.2001. Yet, P.W.1 Nanmoon, in his statement also said that written report was prepared by Abdullah, Deputy Ranger on the night of 05.08.2001 on dictation given by Nanmoon, who was illiterate, and the written report was handed over to the Police Station by them in the morning of 06.08.2001, while going to the forest to retrieve the injured victims. It is also curious that the body of Jitendra Lala was not covered with maggots when it was brought to the hospital in the morning of 06.08.2001, but the body of Kallu watcher, who was injured and died on 05.08.2001 and his body retrieved at 11:30 AM on 06.08.2001 was covered with maggots and the skin had disintegrated at some places when it was brought to the Hospital.

60. It is also strange that despite having derived knowledge of the attack in the night of 5/6.08.2001, and Jitendra Lala, being most probably alive, no attempt was made by the persons posted at the Range Office to rescue Jitendra Lala from the forest in the night itself. The Forest Range Office had sufficient number of personnel guns and torches/ search lights. The PAC Check Post was near the border and they could have easily sought help from PAC personnel to retrieve Jitendra Lala, who was still alive. P.W.1 has stated that he could hear the Jitendra Lala groaning with pain at the time he was leaving the forest. He had stated that he had seen Kallu Watcher die instantly, but Jitendra Lala was still alive. Also, P.W.1 has stated during cross-examination that he had not caught any person illegally felling of trees in his more than twenty years of service as Watcher which included his service tenure after the incident and the Trial Court has dismissed such statement on the ground that it had no relation to the offence.

61. P.W.1 had also stated that there was a twelve feet wide road on which vehicles could move easily in between Beat No.1 and Beat No.2, and this road led straight to the Forest Check Post, but it is strange that at the time they were stopped by the accused on this road near Ghalghala Nala, no other person traveling on the road saw them being stopped. The Trial Court observed that since the incident took place at around 09:00 to 10:00 PM at night, there was very little likelihood that other members of the public were traveling on the same road. But this Court has noticed that P.W.1 had stated clearly that when he was returning from his duty of inspecting the forest in Beat No.1 at around 07:00 PM, he had met Jitendra Lala and Kallu also returning from the duty in Beat No.2 in the evening. It is not clear as to how the Trial Court has come to the conclusion that the incident took place around 09:00 to 10:00 PM at night.

62. No medico legal examination of P.W.1 had taken place yet the Trial Court believed the statement made by P.W.1 that he had also been beaten up by the accused and he had injuries on his face. No such injuries were reported by P.W.1 while telling the story of attack on Jitendra Lala and Kallu watcher to the scribe of the written report.

63. During cross-examination of Dashrath, it had also come out that he and his wife also lived in Nepal in the neighbouring Karmohini Village while the accused belonged to Ishwari Ganj. Dashrath had also stated that he and Bhukali along with Nanmoon had been kept in Police lock up and tortured so that they would reveal the names of the accused, but they did not tell the names of the accused although they knew that they belonged to the family of Ramswaroop Tharu and Purinder Tharu.

64. The Trial Court has taken the testimony of P.W.1 to be wholly reliable whereas from the statement of P.W.1 it is evident that he has changed his stand often during his cross examination.

65. The Trial Court has treated P.W.3 Abdullah, Deputy Ranger as a wholly reliable witness, however, Abdullah himself had stated that he was on leave two to three days before the incident which happened in the night of 05.08.2001 and he returned to the Range Office around two days later.

66. P.W.4 Dr Ajay Kumar Tiwari Medical Officer on duty in District Hospital, Bahraich on the morning of 06.08.2001 had stated that Jitendra Lala was brought in at around 09:00 AM in a serious condition and he died fifteen minutes later. However, no question was put to this Witness regarding, who brought Jitendra Lala to the hospital at 09:00 AM.

67. P.W.5 M. Z. Khan had stated that he was in-charge of SOG Team and he accompanied Jitendra Kumar Kaushal of Police Station Sujauli to Indo-Nepal Border near Bhardia and Fakir Puri Villages and when they reached Katarnia Ghat, the Forest Guard Nathuram told them that some illegal felling was being done in the forest on the other side of Gerua river. The Forest Range Officer, Rajendra Kumar, along with other Forest Department employees and PAC Force at the Check Post accompanied the Police and SOG Team inside the forest on foot and at around 01:30 AM, they had found five persons cutting down a sheesham tree. P.W.5 also stated that the accused readily confessed to having killed Jitendra Lala forest guard and Kallu Watcher because they had scolded and slapped them the previous night.

68. P.W.5 stated that they came along with the five persons to the Range Office and next morning they along with two independent witnesses, Amir Hasan S/o Ghasite and Munnawar Ali S/o Kalute and the accused went again into the forest to recover the clothing and cycles of the victims and the weapons of assault.

69. The Trial Court has treated P.W.5 M. Z. Khan as wholly reliable on the ground that P.W.5 had no personal enmity with the accused to falsely implicate them in the crime, but his testimony varies from that of P.W.1 and P.W.11.

70. The Trial Court has also glossed over the testimony of Dr. M. R. Malik

P.W.6, who had conducted the postmortem on Jitendra Lala's body. Dr. M. R. Malik had stated that the nature of injuries on the body were such as they could have been caused by a heavy sharp edged weapon like a Pharsa or a Gandassa or a Kanta. However, the Trial Court did not analyse the nature of injuries, which were so deep as to cut through the bone, reach wind pipe, the food pipe and carotid artery, and then find out whether such injuries could have been caused by knives, such as those recovered allegedly from the accused with blades only around seven to eight inches long.

71. The Trial Court while dealing with the testimony of P.W.9, Sub-Inspector, Digvijay Singh, who was the Investigating Officer, who took over investigation from Sub-Inspector Sreenivas Chaudhary on 09.08.2001 failed to consider that no attempt was made by the second Investigating Officer to nab the accused, and in fact, he was removed from the case and transferred out because of his failure to do so.

72. P.W.11, Jitendra Kumar Kaushal had been handed over the investigation and he had taken charge only on 26.08.2001 and in the night of 13.09.2001, he was so fortunate as to have received information regarding illegal felling being carried out near Gerua River, and caught the accused.

73. While dealing with the testimony of P.W.10, the Trial Court has noted that he left for the scene of crime immediately on receiving information in the morning of 06.08.2001 and reached the scene of crime around 5 hours later, because it had started raining. P.W.10 only testified about finding the body of Kallu Watcher around 3 kms. away from No Man's Land and 4 kms. away from the banks of the river. He started inquest on Kallu Watcher's body, at around 11:00 AM. The Trial Court failed to notice that if Kallu Watcher's body was retrieved in the morning of 06.08.2001 at around 11:00 AM and brought to hospital for postmortem, it is not clear as to how the postmortem was done the next day when the doctor had found the body covered with maggots and the skin disintegrated at many places.

74. Sub-Inspector, Sreenivas Chaudhary P.W.10 had also stated that he had not made any attempt to find out the whereabouts of Jitendra Lala. He did not go to the hospital where Jitendra Lala was admitted and later died. He did not visit the mortuary to conduct inquest on his body, it is not clear from the testimony of any of the official witnesses as to who in fact retrieved Jitendra Lala from the forest and admitted him to hospital and who conducted the inquest on his body, although from the inquest report, it is clear that the inquest was done in the hospital in presence of the Additional City Magistrate as he had countersigned the same. It is not clear as to how then Jitendra Lala was retrieved and brought to the hospital on the morning of 06.08.2001 at around 09:00 AM as testified by P.W.4 Dr Ajay Kumar Tiwari Medical Officer on duty. The Trial Court failed to notice that in the statements given by official witnesses, it had come out that Jitendra Kumar Kaushal had been posted as in-charge at Police Station Sujauli on 12.09.2001, but he has stated at one place that he took over investigation on 26.08.2001. He had taken the additional statements of Nanmoon Watcher and Dashrath Watcher and his wife and Bhukali Watcher and he had come to know the names of the accused during the course of taking the additional statements.

75. The Trial Court has tried to fill in the gaps in the testimony of all the witnesses through conjectures and surmises and assumptions, which cannot take the place of evidence. Suspicion, however, great cannot take the place of evidence and bring home the guilt to the accused.

76. The Trial Court has brushed aside the argument of the defence that there was no strong motive for the accused to kill Jitendra Lala and Kallu Watcher as according to the Trial Court, Nanmoon, the only eyewitness. Further, where there is an eyewitness account available motive becomes irrelevant.

77. This Court has noticed the timeline as described by P.W.1 also does not match the prosecution story. P.W.1 initially stated that he was returning from Beat inspection at around 07:00 PM when he met Jitendra Lala and Kallu Watcher on his way and all three were returning to the Beat Check Post from the main road, which leads to Nepal Ganj, when they were stopped by the three accused. The three accused disrobed Jitendra Lala and Kallu. They did not, however, ask P.W.1 to take off his clothes also. He was also not tied up with rope. He was left alone with Harichanda keeping watch, while other two were taken in two different directions and attacked with knife. The accused came back and then allowed P.W.1 to go free and also allowed him to take his cycle. Being residents of Nepal, they could have taken the cycles belonging to the two victims with them. They did not also take the knives which they had used to injure the deceased with them to Nepal. They calmly untied the hands of P.W.1, only threatened him not to disclose the incident to anyone, let him ride his bicycle to the Forest Check Post, and did not try to abscond or stay away in Nepal for sufficient amount of time for all traces of the incident to have disappeared/get buried in the Forest under growth, but returned within one month to again do illegal felling at night when they were caught by the police, PAC and Forest Officials.

78. If the incident had happened at around 09:00 to 10:00 PM on 05.08.2001 and the body of Kallu Watcher was retrieved the next morning at around 11:30 AM, and inquest performed the same day did not reveal presence of any maggots on his body, when his postmortem was conducted on 07.08.2001 in the morning, then how his body was full of maggots and the skin disintegrated at some places, as was reported by the medical officer conducting the postmortem.

79. In the forensic examination report blood stains on clothes worn by the deceased were found to be of human origin, but on other specimens like knives allegedly used by the two accused for attacking the victims, the blood stains had disintegrated, and their origin could not be determined. It may be because the clothing and the knives were recovered in the morning on 14.09.2001 and sent to the Forensic Science Laboratory some five months later.

80. Also, the recovery/arrest memo at page 15 of the paper book on which reliance has been placed by the prosecution, appears to be doubtful. No independent witnesses have been examined to prove the contents of the recovery memo. Only the official witnesses have been relied upon and such official witnesses have also not been able to give a foolproof account of how the deceased were murdered.

81. As per the prosecution story, two knives and clothes were recovered from the site where the police and SOG Team and forest officials had been taken by the accused at on on 14.09.2001. However, such specimens of clothing and weapons of assault were sent to the forensic science laboratory in the first week of March 2002, almost five months later. The forensic science laboratory's report, therefore, found the blood disintegrated and it could not also give a definite opinion regarding it being of human origin. There was no question of matching of blood group of the victims. Hence, in view of the law settled by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Sonvir @ Somvir Vs. State NCT of Delhi (2018) 8 SCC 24, the weapons of assault allegedly recovered on 14.09.2001 at the behest of the accused and allegedly used in the commission of the crime cannot be taken as pieces of incriminating evidence against them.

82. Also, in view of the observations made by the Supreme Court in the case of Prakash Vs. State of Karnataka (2014) 12 SCC 133 regarding recovery of blood stained clothes of the victims identified by P.W.1, it cannot be said that since such clothes were blood stained and the blood in them was found of human origin, they could be said to belong to either of the victim. No serological comparison of the blood stains with that of the blood group of the victims was conducted.

83. Also, it is quite questionable as to how P.W.1 could recognise the accused Surya Lal, Chankau and Harichanda as the ones who had killed the victims as it is not the case of the prosecution that P.W.1 or any other victim was carrying a torch at the time of them being stopped by the three accused on their way while returning from duty. It is the prosecution story that P.W.1 and the two victims were taken by the accused inside the dense forest. We should not forget that they were stopped on 06.08.2001 at around 07:00 PM on the road between Beat No.1 and Beat No.2, and then taken inside the dense forest where no one could see them. On the Indo-Nepal Border in a reserve forest like Katarnia Ghat, there is hardly any source of light and during the monsoons in the month of August poor visibility owing to darkness at the scene of crime cannot be ruled out.

84. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in Sujit Biswas Vs. State of Assam (2013) 12 SCC 406 in paragraphs 13 and 14 has held as under:–

"13. suspicion, however great it may be, cannot take the place of proof, and there is a large difference between something that "maybe" proved, and something that "will be proved". In a criminal trial, suspicion, no matter how strong, cannot and must not be permitted to take the place of proof. This is for the reason that the mental distance between "may be" and "must be" is quite large, and divides vague conjectures from sure conclusions. In a criminal case, the court has a duty to ensure that conjectures or suspicion do not take the place of legal proof. The large distance between "may be" true and "must be" true, must be covered by way of clear, cogent, and unimpeachable evidence produced by the prosecution, before an accused is condemned as a convict, and the basic and golden rule must be applied. In such cases, while keeping in mind the distance between "may be" true and "must be" true, the Court must maintain the vital distance between mere conjectures and sure conclusions to be arrived at, on the touchstone of passionate judicial scrutiny, based upon a complete and comprehensive appreciation of all features of the case, as well as the quality and credibility of the evidence brought on record. The Court must ensure, that miscarriage of justice is avoided, and if the facts and circumstances of a case so demand, then the benefit of doubt must be given to the accused, keeping in mind that a reasonable doubt is not an imaginary, trivial, or a merely probable doubt, but a fair doubt that is based upon reason and common sense. (vide Hanumant Govind Nargundkar Vs. State of M.P. AIR 1952 Supreme Court 343, State Vs. Mahendra Singh Dahiya (2011) 3 SCC 109; and Ramesh Harijan Vs. State of UP (2012) 5 SCC 777.

14. In Kali Ram Vs. State of Himachal Pradesh (1973) 2 SCC 808, this Court observed as under: (SCC page 820, Para 25)

"25. Another golden thread, which runs through the web of the administration of justice in criminal cases is that if two views are possible on the evidence adduced in the case, one pointing to the guilt of the accused and the other to his innocence, the view which is favourable to the accused should be adopted…."

85. In view of the observations made here in above with regard to the acceptability of the evidence, and investigation being defective, if primacy is given to such prosecution story based on negligent investigation, the faith and confidence of the people would be shaken, not only in the law enforcing agency, but also in the administration of justice.

86. Consequently, the appeals deserve to be allowed and are allowed. The judgement and order dated 07.08.2014 is set aside. The appellants appear to be in jail, therefore it is directed that the appellants shall be released from prison forthwith. However, they shall file personal bonds along with two sureties of Rs.25,000/- each before the Trial Court within 30 days from today, as provided under section 437A of the Code of Criminal Procedure. (Now, Section 481 of the BNSS).

87. A Copy of this order along with the record of the Trial Court, be immediately sent to the Trial Court for compliance.

88. Sri Shreesh Kumar Mishra Atal, learned Amicus has very sincerely assisted this Court and we appreciate the effort put in by him. He is directed to be paid Rs.22,000/- as consolidated honorarium/fees for both the appeals allowed by us today.

Issue for Consideration

The matter pertains to credibility of the gang rape case and uncorroborated testimony of the prosecutrix.

Headnotes

A. Criminal matter-Criminal Procedure Code,1973-Section 374(2)-Indian Penal Code,1860-Evidentiary value of Prosecutrix testimony-Medical Evidence subordinate to ocular evidence-The appellants were acquitted-The primary reason was the highly unreliable identification procedure as they were identified for the first time in the dock and were previously unknown to the prosecutrix, who was in a semi-conscious state at the time of crime-the ocular evidence is paramount and will prevail over medical evidence if the victims' statement is consistent and trustworthy.

Held

The court affirmed that the prosecutrix's statement that she was ravished by multiple men was not to be disbelieved altogether, even if she was in a semi-conscious state, and even if she could not reliably identify the offenders-The court reiterated that the absence of injury to the prosecutrix's private parts does not mean her account of the gruesome crime is to be disbelieved, confirming the principle that the ocular evidence will prevail over the medical evidence when it is clear and trustworthy-Three Appellants acquitted-One appellant's conviction upheld. Mr. Kamta Prasad in Criminal Appeal No.1594,Mr. Sushil Kumar Dwivedi in Criminal Appeal No. 1897 of 2017,Mr. M.P. Yadav in Criminal Appeal No. 1580 of 2017, &, Mr. Indra Pal Singh Rajpoot in Criminal Appeal No. 1282 of 2017

Counsel for Respondent

Mr.Shashi Shekhar Tiwari, A.G.A. along with Mr. K.K. Nishad,State Law Officer on behalf of the State in all the appeals

(Delivered by Hon'ble J.J. Munir, J.)

1. These are appeals by four convicts, who stood their trial before Mr. Ram Kushal, the Additional Sessions Judge/ F.T.C., Mahoba, in Sessions Trial No.55 of 2015 (arising out of Crime No.7 of 2015), under Section 376-D of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (for short, 'IPC'), Police Station Charkhari, District Mahoba. All the four convicts, to wit, Irfan son of Shahzade, Irfan @ Golu son of Habeeb, Ritesh @ Shanu and Manvendra @ Kallu, were sentenced by the learned Trial Judge to suffer rigorous imprisonment for a term of 20 years along with a fine in the sum of Rs.20,000/- each; and, in default, to undergo for a further term of two years.

2. A First Information Report (for short, 'FIR') was lodged on 13.01.2015 by the informant Shyam Kumar son of Mani Lal, a resident of Mohalla, Qasba and Police Station Charkhari, District Mahoba, with Police Station Charkhari at 7.30 p.m., saying that his daughter 'A', aged 20 years, had left home on 11.01.2015 at about 7 o'clock in the evening in order to buy some gutkha for him. It is said that on account of cold weather and fog, almost all shops in the vicinity of the informant's home had closed for the day. 'A', who shall hereinafter be referred to as 'the prosecutrix', found Irfan @ Golu and Ritesh @ Shanu outside the informant's home, who muffled her voice and forcibly took her to a building in ruins, situate behind a shop, called Gaffar Chacha's. There, these two men had the company of another two, whom the prosecutrix does not know, but can recognize them. The two men, last mentioned, were already there. All four of them forced the prosecutrix to imbibe alcohol and beat her up. Next, all the four ravished the prosecutrix one by one and left her there, still inebriated.

3. On the 12th of January, 2015 at about 7 o'clock in the morning, the prosecutrix regained consciousness and raised alarm. It was then that, according to the informant, one Babu Lal Shankhwar informed him that his daughter, the prosecutrix, was lying in the ruins behind Gaffar Chacha's shop and that she was groaning. The informant, along with his wife, then picked up the prosecutrix and brought her to the police station. His daughter was in a state of shock and fear. At that time, according to the informant, she disclosed so much and no more to the informant that Irfan @ Golu had beaten her up. Thereupon, the informant got NCR No.3 of 2015 registered against Irfan @ Golu under Section 323 IPC, but on the following day, when the prosecutrix fully regained her senses, she told the informant that on 11.01.2015, Irfan @ Golu and Shanu, besides two of his accomplices, had ravished her by turns. The informant was, therefore, reporting the offence to the Police for action to be taken in accordance with law.

4. There is indeed on record, though not included in the paper-book, an information dated 12.01.2015 lodged by the informant, giving rise to NCR No.3 of 2015, under Section 323 IPC, relating to the selfsame incident dated 11.01.2015, as the one subject matter of the FIR, lodged on 13.01.2015. Allusion would be made to this NCR later in this judgment.

5. The written information, on the basis of which the FIR, giving rise to the present appeal was registered, was, after proof, marked as Ex. Ka-1, whereas the check FIR marked Ex. Ka-6. The prosecutrix's statement under Section 161 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (for short, 'Cr.P.C.') was taken down by Lady Constable, Shashi Prabha, on 14.01.2015 and signed by the prosecutrix. Upon proof of the said statement by the prosecutrix, it was marked Ex. Ka-4. The prosecutrix's statement under Section 164 Cr.P.C. was recorded before a Judicial Magistrate on 16.01.2015, who was functioning as the Civil Judge (Jr. Div.), Mahoba.

6. After investigation, the Police filed a charge-sheet on 10.02.2015 against six accused, to wit, Irfan @ Golu, Shanu son of Qasim, Irfan son of Shahzade, Chhotu @ Imran, Ritesh son of Bhawani Prasad and Kallu @ Manvendra Singh.

7. The Magistrate took cognizance on 08.04.2015. In due course, the case was committed to the Sessions, where all the six accused were jointly charged by the learned Additional Sessions Judge/ F.T.C., Mahoba on 29.04.2015 for an offence punishable under Section 376-D IPC. All the four accused pleaded not guilty and claimed trial.

8. The following witnesses were examined on behalf of the prosecution: PW-1, Shyam Kumar, the first informant; PW-2, the prosecutrix; PW-3, Lady Constable Shashi Prabha; PW-4, Dr. Amrita Singh; PW-5, Abdul Rajjak; and, PW-6, Dr. Anand Swaroop.

9. The following documents were produced at the trial: the written first information report, Ex. Ka-1; memo of recovery relating to slippers of the prosecutrix, water and liquor bottles recovered from the scene of occurrence, Ex. Ka-2; memo relating to clothes of the prosecutrix worn at the time of occurrence that were seized as material evidence, Ex. Ka-3; the statement of the prosecutrix under Section 161 Cr.P.C. recorded by the Lady Constable, Ex. Ka-4; the statement of the prosecutrix recorded by the Magistrate under Section 164 Cr.P.C., Ex. Ka-5; check FIR, Ex. Ka-6; GD Entry evidencing registration of the crime at the police station, Ex. Ka-7; the prosecutrix's medical examination report, Ex. Ka-8; the site-plan relating to the place of occurrence drawn up by the Investigating Officer, Ex. Ka-9; memo of arrest relating to Golu @ Irfan and Shanu, Ex. Ka-10; memo of arrest relating to Ritesh, Kallu @ Manvendra, Irfan son of Shahzade and Chhotu @ Imran, Ex. Ka-11; the charge-sheet, Ex. Ka-12; memo of the prosecutrix's statement recorded on a Compact Disk (CD), Ex. Ka-13; memo of recovery relating to Golu @ Irfan's underwear, Ex. Ka-14; memo of recovery relating to underwear of Ritesh, Manvendra, Chhotu @ Imran and Irfan son of Shahzade, Ex. Ka-15; report relating to material exhibit received from the forensic science laboratory, Ex. Ka-16; and, the primary or the first medical examination report relating to the prosecutrix, Ex. Ka-17.

10. The following material evidence was produced by the prosecution: CD carrying the prosecutrix's recorded statement, Material Exhibit (ME) 1; water bottle, wooden planks, slippers, liquor bottle, cigarettes and matchbox recovered from the place of occurrence, ME-2 to ME-13; and, pant, jacket and other clothes worn by the prosecutrix at the time of occurrence, ME-14 to ME-20.

11. After the prosecution evidence was over, the statement of the appellants as well as the co-accused acquitted were recorded under Section 313 Cr.P.C.

12. We propose to refer to the material part of the statements under Section 313 Cr.P.C. relating to the appellants alone. All the appellants, to wit, Irfan son of Shahzade, Irfan @ Golu son of Habeeb, Ritesh @ Shanu and Manvendra @ Kallu, after generally denying the evidence shown to be appearing against them, said that they had been falsely implicated and wish to lead evidence in defence. Head Constable, Virendra Kumar Shukla was examined by the appellants as DW-1.

13. The learned Sessions Judge, vide judgment and order dated 02.03.2017, convicted Irfan son of Shahzade, Irfan @ Golu son of Habeeb, Ritesh @ Shanu and Manvendra @ Kallu under Section 376-D IPC and sentenced each of them in the manner already indicated.

14. Aggrieved, these appeals have been filed.

15. Since all the appeals arise out of the same crime, where all the appellants were jointly tried and convicted by the same judgment, all the appeals have been heard together and are decided by this common judgment.

17. The learned Counsel for the appellants, appearing in all the appeals, have advanced some common submissions to discredit the prosecution case against them. They have much emphasized the fact that there is a solitary occurrence, that happened on 11.01.2015 at 7.00 p.m., but two different versions of the same occurrence have been put forward by the informant before the Police – the first being reported as an NCR on 12.01.2015, and, the other, as an FIR on 13.01.2015. They submit that relating to the same occurrence dated 11.01.2015, in N.C.R. No.3 of 2015, which was registered at 7.30 a.m. at the instance of the prosecutrix, the allegation is one of assault. The prosecutrix was, therefore, sent to the Community Health Centre, Charkhari, along with Lady Constable Shashi Prabha, PW-3, on the strength of a Chitthi Majrubi for medical examination. On 12.01.2015 at five minutes past twelve in the afternoon, the prosecutrix was medically examined by Dr. Anand Swaroop, PW-6, who noticed six external injuries and referred the prosecutrix to the Women District Hospital, Mahoba for her internal examination. On 13.01.2015 at 5.30 p.m., the prosecutrix was subjected to an internal examination by PW-4, Dr. Amrita Singh. She did not notice any telltale injury on the prosecutrix's private part, suggestive of sexual assault. Learned Counsel for the appellants emphasized that until this time on 12.01.2015, there was nothing said about the case of gang-rape i.e. until 5.30 p.m. on 13.01.2015.

18. On 13.01.2015, the FIR, giving rise to Crime No.7 of 2015, under Section 376-D IPC, was got registered at Police Station Charkhari by the informant at 7.30 p.m. against two nominated accused, Irfan @ Golu and Shanu son of unknown, together with two unnamed offenders. The case in the FIR is entirely different, which speaks about abduction by two of the nominated accused, who carried her off to a building in ruins, behind Gaffar's shop, made her forcibly drink alcohol upon pain of assault and then ravished her by turns throughout the night.

19. It is next submitted that the allegation against Irfan @ Golu was that when the proecutrix was proceeding to buy gutkha for her father leaving home, Irfan @ Golu met her on way, caught hold of her along with co-accused Shanu, who has been acquitted. Both of them forced her to a remote place, where she was ravished. It is also emphasized by the learned Counsel for the appellants that in her statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C., the prosecutrix came up with allegations against Irfan @ Golu and the acquitted co-accused Shanu, who caught hold of her, when she was proceeding to buy gutkha for her father. It is said that she raised alarm, but in vain. What is emphasized is that in this statement too, there is no reference to the appellants, Ritesh, Kallu @ Manvendra Singh and Chhotu @ Imran.

20. It is next submitted that according to the testimony of PW-5, the Investigating Officer, he recorded Irfan @ Golu's confession as well as that of Shanu, the acquitted co-accused, in police custody. It is urged that without any lawful evidence appearing against the other four, to wit, Ritesh, Kallu, Irfan and Chhotu @ Imran, PW-5 implicated them on the basis of co-accused's confession, which the learned Counsel for the appellants say, is inadmissible in evidence. At this stage, learned Counsel for the appellants point out that on 14.01.2015, according to the testimony of PW-5, Inspector Abdul Rajjak, the appellant Irfan @ Golu and the acquitted co-accused Shanu, were arrested.

21. Learned Counsel for the appellants say that on 15.01.2015, the remainder of the unnamed accused, to wit, Ritesh, Kallu @ Manvendra Singh, Irfan son of Shahzade and Chhotu @ Imran, were arrested by PW-5, Inspector Rajjak, on account of heavy pressure from the Bharatiya Janata Party Leaders, which came in consequence of the confessions of Irfan @ Golu and the acquitted co-accused Shanu.

22. It is argued by the learned Counsel for the appellants that on 16.01.2015, the prosecutrix was produced before the learned Magistrate for recording her statement under Section 164 Cr.P.C. In that statement, the prosecutrix disclosed the name of Irfan @ Golu, Shanu and another Irfan, besides one unknown offender, whose face had been covered by a scarf, all through moments of the crime. Learned Counsel for the appellants emphasize that in the statement under Section 164 Cr.P.C., the names of appellants, Ritesh, Kallu @ Manvendra Singh, were not disclosed by the prosecutrix. Learned Counsel say in one voice that the statement under Section 164 Cr.P.C. was a third opportunity, where the prosecutrix could disclose these two appellants, to wit, Ritesh and Kallu @ Manvendra Singh's name, but she did not. At this stage, there was no fear, if what she had to say were correct. It is next submitted, adding force to the attack, that the prosecution story carried in the FIR dated 13.01.2015, the prosecutrix's testimony recorded under Section 161 Cr.P.C. as well as that recorded under Section 164 Cr.P.C. on 16.01.2015, carry no allegation against Ritesh, Kallu @ Manvendra, not to speak of the acquitted co-accused, Chhotu @ Imran. The learned Counsel for the appellants say that these men were nevertheless arrested on 15.01.2015 and charge-sheeted on 10.02.2015 by PW-5 to assuage public feelings.

23. It is argued by the learned Counsel that these arrests were made under political pressure from leaders of the Bharatiya

Janata Party and the Vishwa Hindu Vahini. It is next said by the learned Counsel for the appellants that PW-5, in his testimony, has said that no doubt he had arrested Irfan @ Golu and Shanu and the rest of the men on 15.01.2015, on the basis of confessions made by Irfan @ Golu and Shanu, but to assure himself of the veracity of the prosecution, he had interrogated the prosecutrix again on 01.02.2015. According to PW-5, learned Counsel for the appellants emphasize, the prosecutrix disclosed the names of Ritesh, Irfan son of Shahzade, Kallu @ Manvendra and Chhotu @ Imran. Learned Counsel submit, with reference to these facts, that the entire prosecution story is based on falsehood, that was conjectured much after the occurrence with a good deal of deliberation and delay in shady settings, highly redolent of doubt and suspicion.

24. Mr. Kamta Prasad, learned Counsel appearing for the appellant, Irfan son of Shahzade and Ritesh in Criminal Appeal No.1594 of 2017 and 1580 of 2017 respectively, has made some submissions specific to the case of these two appellants, which we must note. It is argued that on 12.01.2015 at 7.30 p.m., the prosecutrix arrived at the police station, accompanied by her father Shyam Kumar and his wife, that is to say, the prosecutrix's mother. It is argued that during this visit to the police station, the prosecutrix was fully conscious and there was no impediment, physical or mental, that would keep her back from reporting the offence of rape, if there was one. It is argued that on 12.01.2015, the prosecutrix was sent for her medical examination, but at the time of her medical examination, she did not disclose the fact that she had suffered rape. On 13.01.2015, the prosecutrix was internally examined at the Women District Hospital, Mahoba, but she did not say anything, about being ravished, to PW-4 Dr. Amrita Singh. On the same day i.e. 13.01.2015, the prosecutrix did a U-turn and transmuted a case of assault into one of rape.

25. It is next submitted by Mr. Kamta Prasad that while the FIR lodged on 13.01.2015 mentions NCR No.3 of 2015 in connection with the allegations that figure against Irfan @ Golu, the origin and genesis of the case of assault, earlier set up, was completely suppressed by the prosecution, that was launched on the foot of the FIR, later lodged regarding commission of offence of gang-rape. It is also urged that falsehood of the prosecution can be fathomed by the fact that the appellants, Irfan son of Shahzade and Ritesh, were not named in the FIR, where the nominated accused were Irfan @ Golu and the acquitted co-accused, Shanu son of Qasim. Learned Counsel for the appellants here emphasizes that Irfan @ Golu and Shanu son of Qasim were arrested by Inspector Abdul Rajjak on 14.01.2015 and without any corroborating evidence, the appellants, Irfan son of Shahzade and Ritesh, together with Kallu @ Manvendra and Chhotu @ Imran, were arrested on 15.01.2015 on the basis of a confession attributed to Irfan @ Golu and Shanu son of Qasim. It is emphasized that so far as the appellant Ritesh is concerned, his name has not been disclosed by the prosecutrix, either in her statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. or Section 164. It is then urged that while the medical examination dated 12.01.2015 certainly supports a case of physical altercation, but the internal examination done later, on 13.01.2015, falsifies the prosecution story of gang-rape, involving six offenders.

26. Learned Counsel for the appellants has drawn our attention to the medico-legal report, that was authored by Dr. Amrita Singh, PW-4, where he emphasizes that she did not find any injury upon an internal examination of the prosecutrix. The doctor found no marks of violence suffered by the prosecutrix to her private parts, that would surely be there, if she was indeed ravished by six men or four. In support of this contention, learned Counsel for the appellants has reposed faith in Lilia alias Ram Swaroop v. State of Rajasthan, (2014) 16 SCC 303.

27. It is submitted by Mr. Kamta Prasad that both the appellants, to wit, Irfan son of Shahzade and Ritesh, are apparently victims of a patently false prosecution. He emphasizes that in contemporary society, laying of false charges of rape is not an uncommon phenomenon. There have been instances, where a parent has persuaded a gullible or obedient daughter to come up with a false charge of rape, either to take revenge or extort money or get rid of financial liability. The case here falls under a cloud of doubt also because Shanu, whose name figured in the FIR as also the statements under Sections 161 and 164 Cr.P.C., has been acquitted by the Trial Court.

28. Learned Counsel points out that the prosecutrix, in her dock evidence, resiled from the allegations against Shanu son of Qasim and Chhotu @ Imran. It was on this account that the Trial Court acquitted them on the same evidence as that appearing against the two appellants. It is emphasized that the Trial Court convicted the appellant, Ritesh, treating him as Shanu, without any cogent or corroborating evidence appearing against him.

29. It is next submitted that the false implication of the appellants is evident from the fact that the prosecutrix did not disclose the name, features or age of the appellants, Irfan son of Shahzade and Ritesh, in any of her statements recorded at the stage of investigation, but identified both Irfan son of Shahzade and Ritesh in the dock for the first time in her testimony recorded about 7-8 months after the occurrence. Ritesh's conviction, according to the learned Counsel, is one absolutely based on flimsy and undependable evidence, which cannot be countenanced. In support of his submission last mentioned, learned Counsel for the appellants has placed reliance upon Amrik Singh v. State of Punjab, (2022) 9 SCC 402 and Allarakha Habib Memon and others v. State of Gujarat, (2024) 9 SCC 546.

30. Elaborating on this submission of his, learned Counsel submits that the dock identification of the two appellants by the prosecutrix, PW-2, done after 7-8 months of the occurrence, is absolutely unreliable. The said witness had not given out either the name or the description of the two appellants, Irfan son of Shahzade and Ritesh in her statement to the Police or that recorded by the learned Magistrate under Section 164 Cr.P.C. Therefore, according to learned Counsel, if at all the prosecution was desirous of establishing the appellants' complicity, the prosecutrix should have been required to identify the two of them in a test identification parade, organized during investigation. Their identification in the dock for the first time is unacceptable. In support of this contention, learned Counsel for the appellants has placed reliance upon Kanan and others v. State of Kerala, (1979) 3 SCC 319 and Dana Yadav alias Dahu and others v. State of Bihar, (2002) 7 SCC 295.

31. Mr. Sushil Kumar Dwivedi, learned Counsel for the appellant, Irfan @

Golu, appearing in Criminal Appeal No.1897 of 2017, has advanced his own arguments, amongst which what is worth mention is that according to the learned Counsel, the first informant in his examination-in-chief has said that on 12.01.2015 at about 7 o'clock in the morning, behind Javed Photographer's shop, he found the prosecutrix lying unconscious in the ruins there. The prosecutrix said that Irfan @ Golu had assaulted her. Therefore, she was medically examined and an N.C.R. registered under Section 323 IPC against Irfan @ Golu alone. On 13.01.2015, according to the informant, when the prosecutrix regained consciousness, she told her mother, Maya Devi, the informant's wife, that Irfan @ Golu, Shanu, Irfan son of Shahzade and Chhotu had ravished her in the ruins. Learned Counsel emphasizes that the FIR, that was lodged on 13.01.2015, nominated two accused and carried the name of two unnamed offenders. It is emphasized that when the prosecutrix had told the entire incident and confided the names of all the four accused with her mother, it is not understandable why the FIR was lodged against two nominated men alone, leaving the identity of two others to uncertainty.

32. It is next pointed out by the learned Counsel for the appellant that the informant, Shyam Kumar, PW-1, along with his wife, Maya Devi, and the prosecutrix went to the police station on 12.01.2015 and lodged an N.C.R. relating to a case of assault, the previous evening at 7.00. The prosecutrix was sent for her medical examination in reference to N.C.R. No.3 of 2015, under Section 323 IPC. Learned Counsel for the appellant is quick to add that in the testimony of PW-2, the prosecutrix, it is clearly said that on 11.01.2015 at about 9.00 p.m., she was conscious and had shared the entire occurrence with her mother, that is to say, whatever had befallen her in the night of 11.01.2015. She was also fully conscious on 12.01.2015, while in the safety of her parents' home and talked to her parents. It is argued that the distance of the place of incident from the police station is one kilometer, but the informant and his wife as also the prosecutrix did not go to the police station until 12.01.2015. They went to the police station and lodged an N.C.R. Neither the informant nor his wife nor the prosecutrix ever came up with a case of rape, when they lodged the N.C.R. on 12.01.2015. The incident had taken place on 7.00 p.m. on 11.01.2015 and the place of occurrence is in the centre of a densely populated area. There are several shops, selling all kinds of wares. Men and women from the locality frequent the place and most of them know the prosecutrix. Learned Counsel submits that it is hard to believe that none of them would have seen or heard the prosecutrix suffer.

33. According to the learned Counsel, this is a case, which, on the evidence forthcoming and the circumstances, is not one which can be accepted by a man of ordinary prudence. It is said that after inquiry into the N.C.R., the prosecutrix was sent for her medical examination by the Police to the Community Health Centre. The informant, with the help of Jagdish Parihar, a local politician, and another Arvind Singh, besides 14-15 persons belonging to the Hindu Vahini, collectively reached Police Station Charkhari, District Mahoba, and successfully pressurized the Police into registering a case under Section 376-D IPC.

34. On behalf of Kallu @ Manvendra Singh, the appellant in Criminal Appeal

No.1282 of 2017, Mr. Indra Pal Singh Rajpoot, learned Counsel for the appellant, has advanced elaborate submissions, but in most of those he is ad idem with the learned Counsel in other appeals, whose submissions have already been noticed.

35. Mr. Shashi Shekhar Tiwari, learned Additional Government Advocate, has supported the impugned judgment and urged that on the evidence on record, the prosecution have established their case beyond reasonable doubt. The learned Trial Judge has rightly convicted all the appellants. He has particularly submitted that PW-1 and PW-2, who are witnesses of fact, have supported the prosecution flawlessly in their dock evidence and successfully withstood a searching cross-examination. The prosecutrix, in particular, has remained consistent in her testimony about the crime and the manner in which it was committed. Her testimony is unshaken, free from blemish or exaggeration. The prosecutrix's evidence is corroborated by the forensic report, Ex. Ka-16 and the injury reports, Ex. Ka-17 and Ka-8. It is emphasized by Mr. Tiwari that the prosecutrix had named four accused and the case was registered against them. Mr. Tiwari has, particularly, urged that the prosecutrix is the sole witness of the crime and her testimony, being consistent and corroborated by forensic evidence, cannot be disbelieved. It is also pointed out by the learned A.G.A. that the appellants have not offered any explanation why the prosecutrix would implicate them falsely or testify against them in Court on a false charge. There is no prior enmity between the prosecutrix, her family and the appellants. The appellants have not been able to lead any evidence to show the motive for a false implication. It is urged very emphatically that the appellants have sexually assaulted the prosecutrix, tortured her, beat her up, and in consequence of all these travails, she has sustained injuries, which the doctor has noticed upon her person.

1. If a case of change or improvement of the prosecutrix's case from one of simple assault to rape:

36. The learned Counsel for the appellants have scathingly criticized the prosecution for coming up with a case that was changed from one of simple assault into rape. They have much harped upon the fact that an N.C.R., bearing No.3 of 2015, was registered on 12.01.2015 at 7.30 a.m., but after the prosecutrix was examined at the Community Health Centre and then at the District Women Hospital on 12.01.2015, the following day, i.e. 13.01.2015 at 7.30 p.m., she came up with allegations of rape regarding the selfsame incident, which was earlier reported as a non-cognizable case to the Police. Learned Counsel for the appellants would say that this is not just an improvement, but a transmutation of one case into another, which initially never was.

37. Upon a perusal of the record, we find that it is true that regarding the occurrence dated 11.01.2015, that happened at 7.00 p.m., when the prosecutrix left home to buy gutkha for her father, an N.C.R. was lodged by the prosecutrix's father, after she was rescued by her parents in the morning of 12.01.2015. It does seem odd at the first blush that the prosecutrix, who went to the police station and thence to the two doctors for her medical examination on 12.01.2015, one at the Community Health Centre and the other at the District Women Hospital, where one of the doctors was a woman, she did not speak anything about being ravished. She came up with the allegation on 13.01.2015, confiding in the first informant what had befallen her during the night, intervening 11/12.01.2015. The explanation furnished in the FIR for not reporting the outrageous crime of gang-rape, was shock and fear that she had suffered. It has elsewhere figured in evidence, particularly, the testimony of PW-1, the first informant, that the prosecutrix was not in the complete possession of her senses due to stupor, resulting from alcohol, and for that reason, revealed a case of assault by Irfan @ Golu on the 12th of January, 2015, when she was recovered. That case was promptly reported to the Police. On the following day, i.e. 13.01.2015, when she fully regained her senses, she disclosed the entire occurrence to her mother, that is to say, the fact that she was gang-raped by the four appellants. It was then that the first informant lodged the present FIR, narrating what had befallen the prosecutrix. The relevant part of the first informant's (PW-1's) testimony reads:

"12 जनवरी को सुबह 7.00बजे जावेद फोटो वाले के पीछे खण्डहर मे बेहोशी की हालत मे मिली। इसके बाद मै उसे थाने लेकर गया। बच्ची ने मुझे मारपीट वाली बात बतायी थी। उसने बताया कि गोलू @ इरफान ने मारा पीटा है। रिपोर्ट लिखवाकर व डाक्टरी कराकर हम वापस आ गये। 13 तारीख को जब वह होश मे आयी तो उसने अपनी माँ को बताया और मेरी पत्नी मायादेवी ने मुझे बताया। उसने बताया था कि गोलू @ इरफान,शानू, इरफान व छोटू ने उसके साथ खण्डहर मे गलत काम किया था। 13 तारीख को जब रिपोर्ट लिखायी तब बच्ची ने अपने हाथ से एक तहरीरी प्रार्थना पत्र लिखा था। उस प्रार्थना पत्र को थाने मे देकर मुकदमा कायम कराया था।"

38. In the FIR lodged by this witness, it is said:

"तब मै तथा मेरी पत्नी xxxx को उठाकर थाने लाये थे मेरी पुत्री उसे समय सदमें तथा भय मे थी उस समय उसने मुझे सिर्फ इतना बताया था कि इरफान उर्फ गोलू ने मुझे मारा-पीटा है तब मैने इरफान उर्फ गोलू के खिलाफ NCR No.3/15 धारा 323 IPC पंजीकृत कराया था किन्तु आज जब मेरी पुत्री xxxx को पूरी तरह से होश आया तो उसने मुझे बताया कि दिनांक-11-1-15 को इरफान उर्फ गोलू व शानू एवं उसके दो अन्य साथियों ने उसके साथ बारी-बारी से दुष्कर्म किया है।"

39. In her testimony (cross-examination dated 24.09.2015), the prosecutrix has explained the sequence of events and the reason for not reporting on the first day the crime of gang-rape, in the following words:

"घटना के बाद मे सुबह छैः बजे अपने घर पिता जी के पास आ गई थी। खण्डर से मुझे मेरे पिता जी व मम्मी लेकर आये थे। मैने खण्डर मे आये अपने मम्मी पापा को देख लिया था व पहचान लिया था उस समय मै होश हवाश मे थी लेकिन मदिरा का नशा था। जब मेरे माता पिता मुझे खण्डर मे लेने आये थे तो मेरे आस पास देशी शराब के क्वाटर पानी की प्लास्टिक की खाली शीशी क्वाटर शराब की खाली शीशी सिगरेट की डिब्बी व कुछ जली अधजली सिगरेट के टुकड़े व माचिस आदि पड़ी थी। ये सभी चीजे मेरी घटना से जुड़ी हुई थी। मेरी चप्पल व पानी की दो भरी हुई बोतल पड़ी थी। मेरे मम्मी पापा जब मुझे लेने पहुँचे तब उन्होने व मैने यह सभी सामान पड़ा हुआ देख लिया था। मैने घर पर आकर मुँह हाथ नही धोया न फ्रेश हुई। मै करीब दस मिनट घर पर रूकी थी। मैने पापा को थोडी सी घटना रात वाली बतायी थी। मैने अपने पापा को यह बता दिया था कि गोलू उर्फ इरफान मुझे पकड़कर ले गया पकड़ने वालो मे दूसरा इरफान भी था दो लोग और थे। पिताजी को मैने इस दस मिनट के दौरान यह बताया था कि इरफान उर्फ गोलू और दूसरा इरफान ने मुझे पकड़कर खण्डर ले गये और खण्डर मे चार लोग हो गये वहां मुझे शराब जबरदस्ती पिलाई व चार लोगो ने मेरे साथ दुष्कर्म किया। फिर मेरे मम्मी पापा मुझे लेकर रिपोर्ट करने थाने गये। कोई प्रार्थना पत्र घटना का लिखके थाने मेरे पिताजी नही गये थे। बल्कि ऐसे ही गये थे। थाने पर जब हम पहुँचे तब वहां पर इन्सपेक्टर रज्जाक व दरोगा सिपाही मौजूद थे। दरोगा जी से मेरे पिताजी ने घटना बतायी थी मुझसे दरोगा जी ने घटना के बारे मे कुछ नही पूछा था। हम थाने पर 7.30 बजे सुबह पहुंच गये थे। और दिन मे 2 बजे तक रहे थे। मै बातचीत करने मे उस समय सक्षम थी। मेरी शरीर पर चोटे थी मेरे पिताजी के बताने पर थाने मे घटना की रिपोर्ट लिखली गई और मेरी डाक्टरी कराने सरकारी अस्पताल चरखारी भेजा गया। जब मेरे पिताजी थाने मे रिपोर्ट दर्ज करा रहे थे तब मै अपने पिता के पास मौजूद थी। पिताजी ने इरफान उर्फ गोलू के खिलाफ केवल मारपीट की रिपोर्ट दर्ज कराई थी। मैने पापा को लिखाते समय नही रोका था कि मारपीट के अलावा बलात्कार की भी रिपोर्ट क्यो नही कर रहे हो। जब मेरा डाक्टरी परीक्षण कराने सिपाही ले गयी थी तब मैने वहां भी डाक्टरो व सिपाहियो को बलात्कार की घटना की बात नही बताई। मैने थाने पर अस्पताल मे दरोगा पुलिस व डाक्टर को दुष्कर्म की बात भय के कारण नही बताई थी।"

"ग्यारह तारीख को ही रात्रि में 9.00 बजे ही मेरा सारा नशा उतर गया था और में पूरे होश हवास में हो गई थी। बारह तारीख को भी मैं पूरे दिन होश हवास में अपने घर पर रही और अपने माता पिता से बोलती चालती रही। होश में आने के ग्यारह तारीख को ही घटना के बारे में मैंने अपनी मां को बता दिया था। मेरे पिता को घटना के बारे में ग्यारह तारीख को ही पता चल गया था। दिनांक बारह तारीख को मेरे माता पिता ने पुलिस व अन्य किसी को घटना के बारे में नहीं बताया था। तेरह तारीख को सुबह नौ बजे हिन्दू युवा वाहिनी के कार्यकर्ता मेरे घर पर आये थे। आठ दस कार्यकर्ता आये थे। उनमें से भारतीय जनता पार्टी के नेता जगदीश परिहार तथा पूर्व चेयर मेन नगर पालिका पर० के अरविन्द सिंह चौहान भी आये थे। इन लोगो से मेरे मम्मी पापा ने बात की थी मैंने इनसे बातचीत नहीं की थी। मेरे माता पिता ने इन लोगों को घटना के बारे में जानकारी दी थी हिन्दु मुस्लिम के बारे में नहीं बताया था। मुझे यह पता कि अरविन्द सिंह चौहान चरखारी के बड़े वकील हैं। मैंने घटना करने वालों में गोलू का ही नाम बताया था और मुल्जिमानों के नाम मुझे मालूम नहीं थे। इसलिए नहीं बताये थे। हिन्दु युवा वाहिनी के कार्यकर्ता आदि हमे थाने लेकर गये। इन लोगों ने थाने पर इन्सपेक्टर के खिलाफ नारेबाजी नहीं की। रिपोर्ट लिखने के लिए इन्सपेक्टर से कहा था। प्रदर्श क-1 मैंने किसी के बोलने व बताने से नहीं लिखी थी बल्कि मेरे साथ जो घटना हुई थी वही मैंने अपने मन से लिखी थी पिता जी ने भी नहीं बोली थी। थाने मैं तहरीर मैंने इन्सपेक्टर साहब के सामने लीखी थी।"

41. The appellants' case that the prosecutrix changed the case from one of simple assault into gang-rape, discrediting the prosecution altogether, cannot be accepted. Appreciation of evidence, particularly the conduct of parties, cannot be tested on predetermined models of some standard behaviour. A victim, like the prosecutrix, can behave very differently, according to the socioeconomic background, the society where she stays, the kind of village, town or city she lives in, and many other similar and relevant factors. The prosecutrix's father is a Class-IV employee working with the Block Development Office and her mother, a mid-day meal worker. She herself is a student of B.A. Final Year at the Government Girls College, Charkhari. Charkhari is a small town, governed by a Nagar Palika. In these circumstances, for the prosecutrix or her parents to report with promptitude the gruesome offence of gang-rape, is a tall order.

42. There might have been circumstances, where the first informant and the prosecutrix would have straightaway reported or dehors any strengthening or prompting circumstances, they could have still reported due to individual characteristics of personality, or inexplicable and myriad factors. But, if the informant and the prosecutrix hesitated in straightaway reporting suffering gang-rape, and, did it a day later, when supported by members of the society, may be activists or even a political party, it does not mean that the prosecutrix changed her case from assault to gang-rape. The prosecutrix is a 20 year old small town girl, coming from a modest background, which we have already explained. She would have felt devastated to face the gruesome crime while still a college student and an unmarried woman. The parents too would have been shocked out of their wits. The fact that the parents and the prosecutrix went to the police station, but made a complaint about assault alone – not rape – does not predicate falsehood on the totality of evidence and circumstances. It is the result of a tug between a outraged conscience and hurt soul, on one hand, and the thoughts of practical sagacity, that would have dictated a cautious course.

43. The reason given out for not reporting rape earlier and in the first instance by the prosecutrix was shock and fear. The first informant, who is the father of the prosecutrix, has given a different explanation. A varying explanation, though not essentially different, would show that a day's time was required for the prosecutrix's family, including herself, to reconcile, resolve and report. It is not a case where the offence has been reported weeks or months later. A day's time for the prosecutrix and her parents to firm up and report to the police that indeed a young woman was the victim of gang-rape, is the result of an inhibitive behaviour, in the circumstances, that in no manner suggest falsehood for the prosecution.

44. Appreciation of evidence in a criminal case requires an understanding of things as they happen for an average person. We cannot overlook the fact and must take judicial notice of it too that there is extreme reluctance on the Police's part to promptly register particular kinds of offences, including some heinous ones. One of the 'reluctant categories', unfortunately, is rape, particularly gang-rape. There is a general hesitation amongst officers of the Police at the lower rungs, that is to say, at the station level, to register crimes promptly that portray a bad law and order situation. A gang-rape invites public outrage and is often seen that the Police try to downplay or ignore the crime. In this case, there is something telltale, though not essential to dwell upon, which would make us think that the FIR came a day later, not because the prosecutrix or the first informant necessarily hesitated, but because the Police were initially reluctant to register the gruesome crime.

45. If by the contents of the NCR, the only fact brought to the notice of the Police were a simple assault, perhaps they would not have sent the prosecutrix after the examination of her external injuries at C.H.C. Charkhari to the District Hospital for an internal examination. It appears that facts were brought to the notice of the Police at the Station, including the S.H.O., who was in double mind to register the gruesome crime. Once, the internal examination did not reveal any ostensible injury in consequence of the ravishment, the Police thought of drawing curtains on the matter with an N.C.R. The intervention of local leaders of the Ruling Party and the Hindu Yuva Vahini was apparently not a prompt to the informant or the prosecutrix to falsely report gang-rape. Possibly, it could not be. No one at the prompt of a political party, particularly a young woman of 20 years in a small town, like Charkhari, would come up with a case of gang-rape, placing herself at the receiving end of the offence. This is not a case, where a highly influential man was being charged. The appellants are like the prosecutrix, persons not from the influential strata of society. All, except one, were not even known to the prosecutrix. There is no reason, therefore, why at the instance of some activists or a political party, the prosecutrix would implicate men of ordinary pursuits, exposing herself to the social frown of a small-town society. What really appears to have happened is that the intervention of some influential men of the society enabled the first informant and the prosecutrix, not only to forcefully place their charges before the Police for all that the prosecutrix had suffered, but at the same time, brought sufficient pressure on the Police to register, what was already within their knowledge.

46. In our considered opinion, therefore, there is nothing to blemish the prosecutrix's version or the prosecution on ground that an earlier N.C.R. merely reported assault. Whatever has come by for this change, is logical and inspires confidence.

2. If the uncorroborated testimony of the prosecutrix can lead to conviction.

47. In this case, like many others, where a young woman is ravished, the presence of an eye-witness, except the victim herself, is a rare phenomenon. In the nature of things, a crime of this kind happens, unlike homicide, assault or robbery, away from the eyes of any possible witness. In a few cases where there is an eye-witness account, the witness is more often than not a feeble and non-threatening person to the offender or offenders, who can be ignored. This too is a rare occurrence. Amongst the rare of most cases, where an eye-witness account is forthcoming, the witness's presence is lurking and unknown to the offender or offenders. Therefore, what is left for an eye-witness account is that of the victim herself, which has been placed by the law at par with the testimony of an injured witness. The testimony of the prosecutrix is invariably to be accepted without corroboration unless there is some such inherent flaw or contradiction that the truth of it becomes difficult to accept. If, therefore, the testimony of the prosecutrix inspires confidence with the Court, it may be accepted without corroboration. After all, a victim or a prosecutrix's testimony in a case of rape is not an accomplice's testimony, which may always require corroboration by a rule of prudence.

48. Undoubtedly, in the present case, the testimony of the prosecutrix about the crime is the sole eye-witness account. The testimony of others, is hearsay and circumstantial. In her examination-in-chief at the trial recorded on 10.07.2015, the prosecutrix has said:

"घटना 11 जनवरी 2015 की है। शाम को 7 बजे अपने पापा के लिये गुटका लेने घर के पास ही जा रही थी। वहां पर गोलू @ इरफान मिला, उसके साथ एक व्यक्ति और था जिसका नाम भी इरफान था। इन दोनो व्यक्ति ने मुझे पकड़ा और घसीटकर गफ्फार चच्चा की दुकान के पीछे खण्डहर मे ले गये। जब मुझे पकड़कर दोनो लोग खण्डहर ले जा रहे थे तब इरफान (दूसरे) ने मेरा मुंह बन्द कर दिया। खण्डहर मे दो लोग और पहले से बैठे थे, एक का नाम शानू ले रहे थे दूसरे का नाम नही बता सकती, मुंह बांधे था, मै पहचान सकती हूँ। शानू ने मेरे दोनो हाथ पकड़े व दूसरा जो मुंह बांधे था अपना चेहरा ढके था। ने मुझे जबरदस्ती मार मार कर शराब पिलायी। जब मुझे पूरी तरह से नशे मे कर दिया तो चारों ने बारी-2 से मेरे साथ बलात्कार किया। फिर मुझे चारों लोग मुझे वही खण्डहर मे छोड़कर चले गये। इसके बाद खण्डहर मे कोई नही आया साक्षी ने हाजिर अदालत मुलजिम जो हिरासत मे है, कहा कि यह इरफान है। हाजिर अदालत मुल्जिम रीतेश को देखकर कहा कि यह भी मोके पर था इसे शानू - शानू कह रहे थे, हाजिर अदालत कल्लू को देखकर कहा कि यह भी घटना के समय मौजूद था जो मुंह मे बांधे था। हाजिर अदालत गोलू @ इरफान को देखकर कहा कि यह भी मौके पर था। होश मे आने पर मैने अपने पिताजी को और किसी अभियुक्त का नाम नही बताया था। मै पूरी रात खण्डहर मे नशे की हालत मे पड़ी रही। होश मे आने पर मै चिल्ला रही थी तो पास मे से गुजरने वाले किसी व्यक्ति ने मेरे घर बताया तो मम्मी पापा आये और मुझे ले गये। फिर घर से उसी दिन पापा मुझे थाने ले गये और पापा ने वहां F.I.R. लिखायी। F.I.R. के काफी दिन बाद पुलिस ने मेरा बयान लिया था। मेरी डाक्टरी पहले चरखारी मे हुयी थी फिर महोबा मे हुयी थी। गवाह ने कागज सं० 9क देखकर कहा कि शशिप्रभा नाम की महिला कांसटेविल ने लिखा था और कहा था कि इस पर हस्ताक्षर बना दो, मैने दस्तखत बना दिये थे। इस पर प्रदर्श क-4 डाला गया।"

49. In her cross-examination, generally, the prosecutrix has not wavered from the facts that she was ravished by four men and that she was abducted within minutes after she stepped out of her home on 11.01.2015 at 7.00 p.m. to buy gutkha for her father. She has maintained consistency about the place she was taken to by the appellants to realize their evil intent, and, generally, the manner of occurrence. There is a consistent story about the prosecutrix being forced to imbibe alcohol and then ravished through the night by four men while she was under the influence of liquor. The circumstances of her recovery the following morning from the specified scene of crime, that is to say, the ruins behind Gaffar's shop, by none other than her parents, who had come there upon information by a passerby, supports the prosecution by circumstances. The recovery of liquor bottles, cigarette butts, the prosecutrix's footwear, water bottle, are all consistent with the prosecutrix's version, which inspires confidence. This is, therefore, not a case where there might be some such inconsistency or flaw in the prosecutrix's account of the happening that the Court may seek corroboration from an eye-witness; and, failing that, feel disinclined to act on the prosecutrix's uncorroborated testimony. The prosecutrix's testimony is all the more worthy of acceptance because she is a young woman of 20 years, student of a senior class, on the verge of graduation. She possibly cannot be said to suffer from the handicap of her mental faculties being feeble on account of young age, or the resultant non-understanding of what befell her.

50. As to the principle that the prosecutrix's uncorroborated testimony, if consistent, and disclosing details of the incident as well as participation of the accused, can be accepted, we may refer with profit to Lok Mal alias Loku v. State of U.P., (2025) 4 SCC 470. In Lok Mal alias Loku, it was held by the Supreme Court:

"12. Though learned counsel for the appellant, submitted before this Court that the oral evidence is unacceptable being the testimony of interested witnesses, we are unable to accept the submissions of the learned counsel for the simple reason that the evidence of the prosecutrix is wholly trustworthy, unshaken and inspires confidence. Admittedly, the prosecutrix was a major girl studying in first part of BA at the time of the incident. Though she was subjected to detailed cross-examination, she stood firm and unshaken disclosing the incident in detail regarding the presence and participation of the accused in ravishing her."

51. Here also, the prosecutrix is a student of the final year of BA, like the victim in Lokmal, a major, who has withstood searching cross-examination on behalf of the appellants, to discredit her and come out with a consistent version of the occurrence, unscathed by the cross-examination.

52. In State of Uttar Pradesh v. Chhotey Lal, (2011) 2 SCC 550, it was observed by the Supreme Court:

"22. In the backdrop of the above legal position, with which we are in respectful agreement, the evidence of the prosecutrix needs to be analysed and examined carefully. But, before we do that, we state, as has been repeatedly stated by this Court, that a woman who is a victim of sexual assault is not an accomplice to the crime. Her evidence cannot be tested with suspicion as that of an accomplice. As a matter of fact, the evidence of the prosecutrix is similar to the evidence of an injured complainant or witness. The testimony of the prosecutrix, if found to be reliable, by itself, may be sufficient to convict the culprit and no corroboration of her evidence is necessary. In prosecutions of rape, the law does not require corroboration. The evidence of the prosecutrix may sustain a conviction. It is only by way of abundant caution that the court may look for some corroboration so as to satisfy its conscience and rule out any false accusations.

23. In State of Maharashtra v. Chandraprakash Kewalchand Jain [(1990) 1 SCC 550 : 1990 SCC (Cri) 210] this Court at SCC p. 559 of the Report said: (SCC para 16)

"16. A prosecutrix of a sex offence cannot be put on a par with an accomplice. She is in fact a victim of the crime. The Evidence Act nowhere says that her evidence cannot be accepted unless it is corroborated in material particulars. She is undoubtedly a competent witness under Section 118 and her evidence must receive the same weight as is attached to an injured in cases of physical violence. The same degree of care and caution must attach in the evaluation of her evidence as in the case of an injured complainant or witness and no more. What is necessary is that the court must be alive to and conscious of the fact that it is dealing with the evidence of a person who is interested in the outcome of the charge levelled by her. If the court keeps this in mind and feels satisfied that it can act on the evidence of the prosecutrix, there is no rule of law or practice incorporated in the Evidence Act similar to Illustration (b) to Section 114 which requires it to look for corroboration. If for some reason the court is hesitant to place implicit reliance on the testimony of the prosecutrix it may look for evidence which may lend assurance to her testimony short of corroboration required in the case of an accomplice. The nature of evidence required to lend assurance to the testimony of the prosecutrix must necessarily depend on the facts and circumstances of each case. But if a prosecutrix is an adult and of full understanding the court is entitled to base a conviction on her evidence unless the same is shown to be infirm and not trustworthy. If the totality of the circumstances appearing on the record of the case disclose that the prosecutrix does not have a strong motive to falsely involve the person charged, the court should ordinarily have no hesitation in accepting her evidence."

24. In State of Punjab v. Gurmit Singh [(1996) 2 SCC 384 : 1996 SCC (Cri) 316] this Court made the following weighty observations at pp. 394-96 and p. 403: (SCC paras 8 & 21)

"8. … The court overlooked the situation in which a poor helpless minor girl had found herself in the company of three desperate young men who were threatening her and preventing her from raising any alarm. Again, if the investigating officer did not conduct the investigation properly or was negligent in not being able to trace out the driver or the car, how can that become a ground to discredit the testimony of the prosecutrix? The prosecutrix had no control over the investigating agency and the negligence of an investigating officer could not affect the credibility of the statement of the prosecutrix … The courts must, while evaluating evidence, remain alive to the fact that in a case of rape, no self-respecting woman would come forward in a court just to make a humiliating statement against her honour such as is involved in the commission of rape on her. In cases involving sexual molestation, supposed considerations which have no material effect on the veracity of the prosecution case or even discrepancies in the statement of the prosecutrix should not, unless the discrepancies are such which are of fatal nature, be allowed to throw out an otherwise reliable prosecution case … Seeking corroboration of her statement before relying upon the same, as a rule, in such cases amounts to adding insult to injury … Corroboration as a condition for judicial reliance on the testimony of the prosecutrix is not a requirement of law but a guidance of prudence under given circumstances….

21. … The courts should examine the broader probabilities of a case and not get swayed by minor contradictions or insignificant discrepancies in the statement of the prosecutrix, which are not of a fatal nature, to throw out an otherwise reliable prosecution case. If evidence of the prosecutrix inspires confidence, it must be relied upon without seeking corroboration of her statement in material particulars. If for some reason the court finds it difficult to place implicit reliance on her testimony, it may look for evidence which may lend assurance to her testimony, short of corroboration required in the case of an accomplice. The testimony of the prosecutrix must be appreciated in the background of the entire case and the trial court must be alive to its responsibility and be sensitive while dealing with cases involving sexual molestations."

(emphasis in original)

25. In Vijay v. State of M.P. [(2010) 8 SCC 191 : (2010) 3 SCC (Cri) 639] , decided recently, this Court referred to the above two decisions of this Court in Chandraprakash Kewalchand Jain [(1990) 1 SCC 550 : 1990 SCC (Cri) 210] and Gurmit Singh [(1996) 2 SCC 384 : 1996 SCC (Cri) 316] and also few other decisions and observed as follows: (Vijay case [(2010) 8 SCC 191 : (2010) 3 SCC (Cri) 639] , SCC p. 198, para 14)

"14. Thus, the law that emerges on the issue is to the effect that the statement of the prosecutrix, if found to be worthy of credence and reliable, requires no corroboration. The court may convict the accused on the sole testimony of the prosecutrix."

26. The important thing that the court has to bear in mind is that what is lost by a rape victim is face. The victim loses value as a person. Ours is a conservative society and, therefore, a woman and more so a young unmarried woman will not put her reputation in peril by alleging falsely about forcible sexual assault. In examining the evidence of the prosecutrix the courts must be alive to the conditions prevalent in the Indian society and must not be swayed by beliefs in other countries. The courts must be sensitive and responsive to the plight of the female victim of sexual assault. Society's belief and value systems need to be kept uppermost in mind as rape is the worst form of women's oppression. A forcible sexual assault brings in humiliation, feeling of disgust, tremendous embarrassment, sense of shame, trauma and lifelong emotional scar to a victim and it is, therefore, most unlikely of a woman, and more so by a young woman, roping in somebody falsely in the crime of rape. The stigma that attaches to the victim of rape in Indian society ordinarily rules out the levelling of false accusations. An Indian woman traditionally will not concoct an untruthful story and bring charges of rape for the purpose of blackmail, hatred, spite or revenge.

27. This Court has repeatedly laid down the guidelines as to how the evidence of the prosecutrix in the crime of rape should be evaluated by the court. The observations made in Bharwada Bhoginbhai Hirjibhai v. State of Gujarat [(1983) 3 SCC 217 : 1983 SCC (Cri) 728] deserve special mention as, in our view, these must be kept in mind invariably while dealing with a rape case. This Court observed as follows: (SCC p. 224, para 9)

"9. In the Indian setting, refusal to act on the testimony of a victim of sexual assault in the absence of corroboration as a rule, is adding insult to injury. Why should the evidence of the girl or the woman who complains of rape or sexual molestation be viewed with the aid of spectacles fitted with lenses tinged with doubt, disbelief or suspicion? To do so is to justify the charge of male chauvinism in a male dominated society. We must analyse the argument in support of the need for corroboration and subject it to relentless and remorseless cross-examination. And we must do so with a logical, and not an opinionated, eye in the light of probabilities with our feet firmly planted on the soil of India and with our eyes focussed on the Indian horizon. We must not be swept off the feet by the approach made in the western world which has its own social milieu, its own social mores, its own permissive values, and its own code of life. Corroboration may be considered essential to establish a sexual offence in the backdrop of the social ecology of the western world. It is wholly unnecessary to import the said concept on a turnkey basis and to transplant it on the Indian soil regardless of the altogether different atmosphere, attitudes, mores, responses of the Indian society, and its profile. The identities of the two worlds are different. The solution of problems cannot, therefore, be identical.""

53. There is, thus, on principle no fetter on the Court accepting the prosecutrix's testimony, uncorroborated by that of another. The testimony, we have already remarked, is consistent and dependable and one that inspires confidence. It is, therefore, held that the uncorroborated testimony of the prosecutrix alone in this case can be accepted in support of the prosecution.

3. Whether non-holding of Test Identification Parade in a case where accused is not known to the prosecutrix, who identifies him for the first time in the dock, vitiates conviction.

54. This is a case where one of the appellants was known to the prosecutrix, but not the others. Whatever acquaintance, she claims about the other appellants, is one from the scene of crime. As would be seen presently, the evidence shows that the crime scene was not well illuminated. It was a dark hour of a wintry night, where the fog would have made visibility worse. A person known beforehand, even an acquaintance, could have been identified by the prosecutrix, the violence of the crime notwithstanding, but not an utter stranger. To add to it is the fact that besides the few moments that occupied the time that she was whisked away to the scene of crime and then made to imbibe alcohol forcibly after an assault, her faculties of cognition would have been overtaken by alcohol, which the prosecutrix says, kept her under a stupor through the night. There would, thus, be hardly any chance of identifying any of the strangers, who were the perpetrators, well enough for the prosecutrix to identify them dependably for the first time in the dock, when she saw them. This is a case, where no Test Identification Parade (TIP) was held before the prosecutrix confronted the appellants in the dock. It was during trial, admittedly, that the prosecutrix saw the appellants, the next time after the occurrence. There was no TIP held with the necessary precaution to ensure that the prosecutrix, in fact, recognized those of the appellants, who were strangers to her.

55. Going by the prosecutrix's testimony, there was one appellant alone, she knew beforehand. He was Irfan @ Golu son of Habib. This acquaintance came about because the prosecutrix had a shop selling clothes, located in the Nazarbad market. She would open and close shop and run the business. Close to the shop, Irfan @ Golu's brother had a gas-cylinder shop, where Irfan @ Golu would frequent. The prosecutrix had watched him there, and according to her own saying, was sufficiently acquainted with him for the said reason. In this regard, the prosecutrix's testimony, recorded during her cross-examination dated 24.09.2015, may be referred to. It reads:

"घटना के पहले मेरी नजरवाग मार्केट मे कपड़े की दुकान थी। दुकान खोलने बंद करने व चलाने हेतु मै जाती थी। मैने यह दुकान चार महीने चलाई है। मेरी इस दुकान के पास अभियुक्त इरफान उर्फ गोलू की कम्प्यूटर व इंटरनेट की दुकान नही थी। घटना के पहले मे इसको अपनी दुकान के पास देखती रहती थी। मेरे बगल मे इसके भाई की गैस सिलेण्डर की दुकान सलेण्डर है। वहां आता जाता था इसलिये मै जानती थी।"

56. So far as the appellant, Irfan son of Shahzade is concerned, the prosecutrix in her testimony dated 24.09.2015 has stated thus:

"मैं घटना के पहले से इरफान पुत्र शहजादे को नहीं जानती थी।"

57. In her testimony dated 28.10.2015, it is said about Irfan son of Shahzade by the prosecutrix:

"मेरे पापा के पता कराने पर दूसरे इरफान s/o शहजादे को जानकारी हुई थी। मुझे मालूम है कि मेरे पिताजी घटना में शामिल इरफान S/o शहजादे के बारे में रिपोर्ट दर्ज कराने के पहले पता कर आये थे । मेरी तहरीर प्रदर्श क-1 में इरफान S/o शहजादे का नाम नहीं लिखा है। इरफान S/o शहजादे का प्रदर्श क-1 में नाम न होने की मैं वजहा नहीं बता सकता हूँ। रिपोर्ट लिखने के बाद महिला पुलिस कर्मी ने मेरे घर आकर पहली बार ब्यान लिये थे कितने दिन बाद लिये थे मैं नहीं बता सकती। जब मेरा धारा 161 सी.आर.पी.सी. का ब्यान प्रदर्श क - 4 महिला कास्टेबल द्वारा अंकित किया गया था उससे पहले ही मुझे इरफान S/o शहजादे के नाम की जानकारी हो गई थी।"

58. So far as the appellant, Manvendra Singh @ Kallu is concerned, the prosecutrix has stated in her cross-examination dated 03.11.2015:

"मैं चरखारी जीजी आई. सी. मे पढती रही हूँ। मैं कक्षा आठ से वारह तक वहा पढी हूँ मैं 2005 से 2009 तक मै जी.जी.आई.सी. में पढ़ी हूँ। जी.जीआई.सी. के सामने इलाहाबाद बैंक है। इसी इलाहाबाद बैंक में एकाउण्ट था। बैंक में पढाई के दौरान मेरा आना जाना होता था। मुझे इस बात की जानकारी नही है कि कल्लू उसी बैंक में अस्थाई रूप से आपरेटर के पद पर कार्य करता था। मैने कल्लू को बैंक में जाने पर एक आद बार देखा है मैं कल्लू को एक आद बार बैंक में देखा था। मैं उसका नाम नही जानती थी। मेरी कभी इससे बातचीत नही हुई। मैने जब मजिस्ट्रेट साहब को ब्यान दिया था तब कल्लू का नाम नही बताया था। जहा घटना हुई थी वहा अन्धेरा था बिजली का कोई प्रबन्ध नही था इन लोगो ने मोबाइल के सहारे रोशनी किये थे। मुल्जिम कल्लू को मैने घटना स्थल पर करीब आधे घण्टे तक देखा। घटना करने के बाद आधे घण्टे में चला गया। जब कल्लू घटना कर रहा था तब वह अपना मुंह

नाक के नीचे का भाग मफलर से बांधे था। उसकी आँखे और सर दिखाई दे रहा था। घटना के दौरान इसने मुझसे कोई बात चीत नही किया । मुझे अभी भी जानकारी नही है कि मुल्जिम कहा का रहने वाला है और उसके पिता का क्या नाम है। जब मुल्जिम अरेस्ट हुआ था तब मुझे थाने पर नही दिखाया था बल्कि थाने वालो ने मुझे बताया था कि तुम्हारे साथ घटना करने वाला मानवेन्द्र उर्फ कल्लू भी है। मै जेल मे कभी भी कल्लू की शिनाख्त करने नही गई हूँ। मैने घटना के बाद कभी भी पुलिस को कल्लू का नाम नही बताया। मैने अपनी एफ. आई. आर. में मुल्जिम कल्लू का कोई हुलिया नही लिखाया था। यह कहना गलत है कि मुल्जिम कल्लू ने मेरे साथ कोई घटना न की हो और ये पुलिस के कहने पर झूठी गवाही दे रही हूँ।"

59. It appears that the prosecutrix was confounded about the appellant, Ritesh's name, whom she considered to be Shanu, a fact that she has disclosed in her cross-examination dated 03.11.2015 at the instance of the acquitted man, Shanu son of Qasim. She spoke about this confusion relating to Ritesh being Shanu, thus, in her cross-examination:

"हाजिर अदालत अभियुक्त शानू मौके पर घटना में शामिल नही था। हाजिर अदालत अभियुक्त रीतेश को अन्य लोग शानू शानू कह रहे थे इसी आधार पर मैने अपने पिता को शानू नाम बता दिया था। इसी आधार पर मैने दरोगा जी को 161 के ब्यान में अभि शानू का नाम बताया था एवं इसी आधार पर मै जज साहब को 164 सीआरपीसी के ब्यानो में भी शानू का नाम बता दिया था। अभियुक्त सानू ने मेरे मारपीट और बलात्कार की कोई घटना नही की है।"

60. Regarding Ritesh to be Shanu, the prosecutrix has said in her cross-examination dated 24.09.2015:

"शानू अभियुक्त को मैने घटना के समय जाना था पहले से नही जानती थी"

61. She has further on said in her cross-examination on the same day:

"रीतेश S/O भवानीदीन मेरे मुहल्ले अमरगंज में मेरे मकान से तीन-चार मकान छोड़कर नही रहता है। रीतेश किस मोहल्ले में रहता है मुझे पता नही है। घटना के करीब एक माह बाद होमगार्ड रश्मि चौरसिया ने मेरा ब्यान लिया था या नही मुझे याद नही है। यदि होमगार्ड रश्मि चौरसिया ने कागज सं. 22क पर मेरे ब्यान में बलात्कार करने वालो मे रीतेश का नाम लिखा हो तो मैं इसकी वजह नही बता सकती क्योंकि मैने पूरी विवेचना के दौरान विवेचक को व मजिस्ट्रेट के सामने बलात्कार करने वालो मे रीतेश का नाम नही बताया था। कागज सं. 22 क को देखकर कहा कि इस पर मेरे हस्ताक्षर है। यह कागज इन्सपेक्टर रज्जाक ने मेरे हस्ताक्षर एक कमरे पर बनवाये थे उस समय इस कागज पर कुछ लिखा नही था। मुझे यह भी नही पता कि रीतेश उपरोक्त किस जाती का है। मुझे यह भी नही पता कि रीतेश बैंक मे कर्मचारी है।"

62. The aforesaid stand of the prosecutrix in the cross-examination places matters beyond pale of doubt that out of the four appellants, she did not know Irfan son of Shahzade, Ritesh @ Shanu or the one whom she called Shanu and Manvendra @ Kallu. As already remarked, she saw them at the time of occurrence and then identified each of them in the dock. During this period of time, again as already remarked, no TIP was held. There was, thus, no early authentication of the fact if the prosecutrix could identify the three appellants, Irfan son of Shahzade, Ritesh @ Shanu, Shanu and Manvendra @ Kallu. So far as the appellant, Irfan @ Golu is concerned, he was a prior acquaintance and about his identify, there is no cavil.

63. The law about a first time identification of unknown assailants in the dock without an intervening Test Identification Parade is fairly well-settled and has been summarized recently by the Supreme Court in P. Sasikumar v. State of T.N., (2024) 8 SCC 600. In P. Sasikumar (supra), a case under Section 302 IPC, where the assailants were not known beforehand to the witnesses, it was observed by the Supreme Court:

"19. The incident is of about 7.00 p.m. on 13-11-2014 and both of them were arrested at around 10 p.m. on 15-11-2014. The case of the prosecution is that while they were being arrested, they received injuries as they tried to escape and consequently, they were taken to the hospital for treatment. It was in the hospital, that PW 1 i.e. father of the deceased and the complainant and PW 5 were taken by the investigating officer who are said to have identified the two accused as the one who had committed the crime. No explanation whatsoever has been given by the prosecution as to why TIP was not conducted in this case before a Magistrate as it ought to have been done.

20. In fact, the High Court has recorded this flaw in the investigation at more than one place in its judgment. It has again observed that the investigating officer (PW 24) was before the Court and in spite of being questioned as to what the reasons were for not holding TIP in this case, no satisfactory reply was given by him.

21. It is well settled that TIP is only a part of police investigation. The identification in TIP of an accused is not a substantive piece of evidence. The substantive piece of evidence, or what can be called evidence is only dock identification that is identification made by witness in court during trial. This identification has been made in court by PW 1 and PW 5. The High Court rightly dismisses the identification made by PW 1 for the reason that the appellant i.e. Accused 2 was a stranger to PW 1 and PW 1 had seen the appellant for the first time when he was wearing a monkey cap, and in the absence of TIP to admit the identification by PW 1 made for the first time in the court was not proper.

22. However, the High Court has believed the testimony of PW 5 who has identified Accused 2 under similar circumstances! The appellant was also stranger to PW 5 and PW 5 had also seen the accused i.e. the present appellant for the first time on that fateful day i.e. on 13-11-2014 while he was wearing a green-coloured monkey cap. The only reason assigned for believing the testimony of PW 5 is that he is after all an independent witness and has no grudge to falsely implicate the appellant. This is the entire reasoning.

23. We are afraid the High Court has gone completely wrong in believing the testimony of PW 5 as to the identification of the appellant. In cases where accused is a stranger to a witness and there has been no TIP, the trial court should be very cautious while accepting the dock identification by such a witness (see : Kunjumon v. State of Kerala [Kunjumon v. State of Kerala, (2012) 13 SCC 750 : (2012) 4 SCC (Cri) 406]).

24. After considering the peculiar facts of the present case, we are of the opinion that not conducting a TIP in this case was a fatal flaw in the police investigation and in the absence of TIP in the present case the dock identification of the present appellant will always remain doubtful. Doubt always belongs to the accused. The prosecution has not been able to prove the identity of the present appellant i.e. A-2 beyond a reasonable doubt.

25. The relevance of a TIP, is well-settled. It depends on the facts of a case. In a given case, TIP may not be necessary. The non conduct of a TIP may not prejudice the case of the prosecution or affect the identification of the accused. It would all depend upon the facts of the case.

It is possible that the evidence of prosecution witness who has identified the accused in a court is of a sterling nature, as held by this Court in Rajesh v. State of Haryana [Rajesh v. State of Haryana, (2021) 1 SCC 118 : (2021) 1 SCC (Cri) 327] and therefore TIP may not be necessary. It is the task of the investigating team to see the relevance of a TIP in a given case. Not conducting TIP in a given case may prove fatal for the prosecution as we are afraid it will be in the present case.

26. The relevance of TIP has been explained by this Court in a number of cases (see : Ravi Kapur v. State of Rajasthan [Ravi Kapur v. State of Rajasthan, (2012) 9 SCC 284, para 35 : (2012) 4 SCC (Civ) 660 : (2012) 3 SCC (Cri) 1107], Malkhansingh v. State of M.P. [Malkhansingh v. State of M.P., (2003) 5 SCC 746, para 16 : 2003 SCC (Cri) 1247])."

64. It is almost impossible for the prosecutrix to have identified the appellant, Manvendra @ Kallu, who admittedly had his face covered by a scarf during the entire episode. The other appellants too, i.e. Ritesh @ Shanu and Irfan @ Shahzade, who were admittedly not known to the prosecutrix beforehand, we have already noticed, had slender chances of identification in the dock because of various factors, that we have noted, such as poor visibility, the brief contact between these appellants and the prosecutrix not being in a fully conscious state. After all, she was, as she says, semiconscious due to the effect of liquor. Her evidence cannot, therefore, be considered as regards identity of the appellants to be of that sterling quality, which may be depended upon, on the basis of a dock identification alone, without a TIP being held.

65. Here, reference may be made to the remarks of the Supreme Court in Devinder Singh and others v. State of H.P., (2003) 11 SCC 488, also a case of gang-rape by multiple offenders, where the prosecutrix had a fleeting glimpse of the offenders by torch light. In Devinder Singh (supra), it was observed by the Supreme Court:

"21. In the course of her deposition though the prosecutrix stated that she had seen their faces in the torchlight after they had raped her, and had narrated the manner in which they discovered the torch and the battery cells, more or less in the same manner as in the first information report, from her deposition it appears that the torch was lighted only for a short duration. In the course of her cross-examination she admitted that for want of light she could not give particulars of the persons who put her on the cot or the person who raped her first. Reading of the deposition of this witness leaves no room for doubt that while the appellants committed the offence, there was no light in the room. In view of these circumstances even if it is accepted that the prosecutrix had a fleeting glimpse of the appellants when they lighted the torch in her room, in the absence of any other evidence to show that the prosecutrix had occasion to see the appellants earlier, or to know them, it was incumbent on the prosecution to hold a test identification parade. This is not a case where an occurrence took place in broad daylight and the prosecutrix had ample opportunity of noticing the features of the appellants. This apart, her naming some of the accused persons in the first information report and not naming them in the course of deposition casts a serious doubt on the veracity of this witness. Further, she named two other persons, and not two of the accused, in her report, and failed to name the accused whom she claimed to know from before as stated in her deposition."

66. All that we can accept the prosecutrix's evidence for is that there were four men involved, who committed the crime, but we cannot accept it for the identity of all four of them in the absence of a TIP being done before trial. We are of opinion that the identity of only one of the perpetrators is established and he is appellant, Irfan @ Golu. We are, therefore, of opinion that this was a case, where a TIP ought have been held in order to bring home the guilt against the three appellants, who are strangers to the prosecutrix, to wit, Irfan son of Shahzade, Ritesh @ Shanu and Shanu and Manvendra @ Kallu. The identification of these three appellants, being very doubtful in the absence of a TIP, they would be entitled to its benefit.

4. If a single person can be convicted of the offence of gang-rape, where factum of the offence being committed by one or more persons, constituting a group or acting in furtherance of a common intention, is established, but the multiple accused put on trial are acquitted for lack of identification.

67. This question is involved in the present case inevitably because we find on the evidence of the prosecutrix that she is dependable and consistent about the fact that she was ravished by four men, but on account of various factors, that we have already adverted to, her testimony about the identification of the appellants, except one, is doubtful. The one, who has been held by us to be unmistakably identified by the prosecutrix, is Irfan @ Golu, but for the other appellants, we have held that their identification is not free from doubt, of which they must receive benefit. On this state of evidence and our findings, the question is if the sole appellant, Irfan @ Golu can be convicted of the offence of gang-rape. The law seems to be fairly well settled that he can be.

68. The principle that an offence, requiring the participation of a group of offenders, where the factum of a group perpetrating the offence was established, but the guilt could be brought home against a solitary accused, could still lead to conviction of the solitary man for the offence involving multiple participation, has come to be well-acknowledged in cases of dacoity. Dacoity requires the participation of five or more persons and there are instances, where the requisite numbers of accused are arraigned and put on their trial, but the evidence leads to conviction of one alone. The question in such cases that in yesteryears drew judicial attention was if the solitary man found guilty, could be convicted of dacoity, where others, constituting the requisite number, were acquitted. This question arose in the context of a charge of dacoity, dacoity with murder and gang-rape as well, gang-rape being punishable, at the relevant time, under Section 376(2)(g) IPC, before the Supreme Court in Manoj Giri v. State of Chhattisgarh, (2013) 5 SCC 798. The facts in Manoj Giri (supra) figure in paragraph No.2 of the report, which read:

"2. According to the prosecution, on the fateful night of 25-1-2004 at about 9 p.m., the prosecutrix (PW 1) was returning with her husband, namely, Ganesh Sahu (PW 2) on the bicycle from Village Gatauri along with her father-in-law, Domara Sahu (since deceased) on other bicycle from Village Mohtarat after taking her treatment. It was a lonely road and as they were passing by Koshtha pond at Village Mohtarat, someone focused a torchlight on them and then hurled abuses and stopped them. Then two more persons reached there and caught the cycle of Ganesh Sahu and stopped him. Two other persons stopped the cycle of Domara Sahu. One person inflicted iron rod-blow to Ganesh Sahu and another slapped Domara Sahu. They took the prosecutrix, her husband and Domara Sahu towards the field and threatened that they would be killed if they cried out. Ganesh Sahu was beaten senseless and his hands and legs were tied up with a lungi. Domara Sahu was also beaten senseless. Those persons threatened the prosecutrix and took off her sari and undergarments and then raped her one by one. One of them had tied her legs and raped her, another untied her while raping her. Subsequently, after tying her up, they sat for some time and then ran away. Somehow she untied herself and untied her husband and they reached the house of one Raj Kumar Suryavanshi, who gave them shelter. She narrated the incident to Raj Kumar Suryavanshi, who sent Ashok Kumar (PW 13) to lodge the FIR at about 2.00 a.m. Domara Sahu who had been carried to local hospital, died at about 4.35 a.m."

69. The event in the Trial Court and non-challenge to the acquittal of four of the five accused by the State, is described thus in the report in Manoj Giri:

"11. The trial court considered the evidence and came to the conclusion that the accused were properly identified by the prosecutrix and with regard to whom there was sufficient evidence available for conviction held them guilty under Sections 395, 396, 397, 398 and 376(2)(g) IPC. As regards the other accused, the trial court came to the conclusion that the evidence against them was insufficient and contradictory and after the detailed discussion came to the conclusion that it was not possible to convict them mainly on the ground for want of identification. They were thus acquitted.

12. The State did not file any appeal against the acquittal of the other accused. The appellant Manoj Giri, however, filed an appeal to the High Court. Before us, this appeal has been filed against the said judgment."

70. It was in the context of these facts that about the solitary conviction of Manoj Giri on the charge of dacoity with murder, where others were acquitted for lack of identification, it was held by the Supreme Court:

"15. With regard to the appellant's conviction under Section 396 IPC for the murder of Domara Sahu in the case of dacoity, it was contended by the learned counsel for the appellant that since the other four accused who have been similarly charged were acquitted of the offence of dacoity, it would not be legal and proper to convict the appellant of the said charge. The argument is based on the presupposition that a conviction for dacoity with murder can be maintained only when five or more persons are convicted. Section 396 IPC reads as follows:

"396. Dacoity with murder. –If any one of five or more persons, who are conjointly committing dacoity, commits murder in so committing dacoity, everyone of those persons shall be punished with death, or imprisonment for life, or rigorous imprisonment for a term which may extend to ten years, and shall also be liable to fine."

This contention cannot be upheld in view of the observations made by this Court in Raj Kumar v. State of Uttaranchal [Raj Kumar v. State of Uttaranchal, (2008) 11 SCC 709 : (2008) 3 SCC (Cri) 888] which read as follows: (SCC p. 715, para 21)

"21. It is thus clear that for recording conviction of an offence of robbery, there must be five or more persons. In absence of such finding, an accused cannot be convicted for an offence of dacoity. In a given case, however, it may happen that there may be five or more persons and the factum of five or more persons is either not disputed or is clearly established, but the court may not be able to record a finding as to identity of all the persons said to have committed dacoity and may not be able to convict them and order their acquittal observing that their identity is not established. In such case, conviction of less than five persons–or even one–can stand. But in absence of such finding, less than five persons cannot be convicted for an offence of dacoity."

16. The observations in Raj Kumar case [Raj Kumar v. State of Uttaranchal, (2008) 11 SCC 709 : (2008) 3 SCC (Cri) 888] squarely apply to this case. Domara Sahu was killed in the assault by the five accused. The evidence against the other four was not sufficient to convict them. There is no doubt, the murder was committed during the conjoint commission of dacoity. If properly convicted each one of them were liable to be punished with death vide Section 396 IPC. Since that has not happened the conviction of five persons–or even one–can stand. We have, therefore, no hesitation in maintaining the conviction of the appellant for the incident in which there was a gang rape, dacoity and a wanton murder of the hapless father-in-law."

71. The principle in Manoj Giri, applicable to a case of dacoity and dacoity with murder, where the factum of participation by the requisite number of men in the crime, was well established, but the others were acquitted for lack of identification, permitting conviction of the solitary man found guilty of the offence that could be committed by a group alone, would squarely apply to a case of gang-rape, provided the factum of participation of multiple offenders, is established, but a solitary perpetrator's identity could alone be established. The question received the attention of a Bench of the Andhra Pradesh High Court in Kuruva Sreenivasulu v. SHO, Ullindakonda P.S., 2023 Supreme (AP) 47, where two men were accused of robbery and gang-rape, but the identity of one of them alone could be established by the prosecution. It was in this context held in Kuruva Sreenivasulu (supra):

"12) The argument of the learned Counsel for Accused No. 1 that, if any benefit is given to Accused No.2, Accused No. 1 cannot be convicted for an offence of gang rape, is ill-founded.

Merely because one of the accused is acquitted due to lack of proper evidence, it does not mean that the incident in question was committed only by one person. It is to be read as if it was committed by a known and one unknown person."

72. A similar issue, though not identical, arose before a Bench of the Delhi High Court in Praveen v. State of NCT of Delhi, 2025 SC OnLine Del 5583, where a charge of gang-rape on a woman under 16 years of age, amongst others, was brought against two men, one of whom absconded and could not be brought to trial. His complicity on evidence was established and so also the case of gang-rape, involving two men, but one alone could be convicted. It was urged before their Lordships of the Division Bench in Praveen (supra) that the other accused having absconded, the solitary man put on trial could not be convicted of the offence of gang-rape. Repelling the appellant's contention in Praveen, Rajneesh Kumar Gupta, J., speaking for the Bench, held:

"20. One of the arguments of the Appellant is also that as the alleged coaccused Kalu has not been arrested and only the Appellant has been convicted for the alleged offences, therefore, it is not the case of a gang rape. For the offence to be a gang rape, it must be that the Prosecutrix has been sexually assaulted by more than one person.

20.1 This argument is without any merit, as one offender can be convicted for gang rape, if the other offender managed to escape and could not be apprehended. On this aspect, it is relevant here to mention the judgment of Kailash Lal Singh Khangar v. State of Madhya Pradesh, ILR 1996 MP 446. The relevant paras of the said judgment are as follows:

"12. In such circumstances, when two persons are said to have committed rape upon a minor girl of aged 13 years at the times of the incident, it comes within the category of gang rape and there is no reason to discredit any of the prosecution witness in this incident.

13. Appellant had stated in his examination under Section 313, Criminal Procedure Code that he has been falsely implicated at the instance of one Bhagwansingh. But no evidence in defence has been led on this point.

14. The trial Court rightly came to the conclusion that the appellant was found guilty of committing rape upon Kumari Mathi, a minor girl of 13 years of age, which has been proved by her statement and medical evidence. The appellant was immediately arrested on the spot by the witnesses, reaching on the cries of the prosecutrix. The other-co-accused Lalu Thakur had managed to escape and could not be apprehended.

Therefore, in such a situation, it was a case of a gangrape and the appellant was certainly guilty. The trial Court had rightly convicted the appellant under Section 376, Penal Code, 1860."

73. Given this position of the law, we are of opinion that there is no impediment in holding the appellant, Irfan @ Golu alone, whose identity has been well established as one of the perpetrators, guilty of the offence of gang-rape. This is so because the involvement of four offenders is also well established, but their identity is the subject of a reasonable doubt that must enure to their benefit.

4. Whether the absence of any injury on the prosecutrix's private part in a case of gang-rape, can or must lead to the inference of non-complicity/ falsehood of the charge.

74. A point was emphatically made on behalf of the appellants that in the absence of an injury being sustained by the prosecutrix to her private part, a case of rape, much less gang-rape, cannot be accepted. Reliance has been placed on Lilia alias Ram Swaroop (supra), where acquitting the accused of the offence of rape under Section 376 IPC, their Lordships of the Supreme Court held:

"4. We have gone through the evidence in the matter as also the reasons recorded by the courts below. Admittedly the prosecutrix was a married woman. She has given a story that as she was on her way to deliver lunch to Madan Lal (PW 4) she had been waylaid by the appellant and he had then thrown her on the ground and raped her and that she had resisted and had got cut injuries as the glass bangles that she was wearing had broken during the commission of rape. The story projected by Madan Lal which is said to be corroborative of her statement is, however, difficult to believe. He says that he had seen the rape being committed for about fifteen minutes from a vantage point a short distance away but he had not made any attempt to rescue his sister-in-law. He further stated that one Inder Singh who was with him was also an eyewitness.

5. Admittedly, Inder Singh who could be said to be an independent witness, has not been examined. Some corroboration could have been found in the medical evidence if it had supported the prosecution story. The doctor however found no injury on the person of the prosecutrix though she was examined within two days of the incident. In the light of the fact that the story projected by the prosecution is on the face of it unacceptable and rather far-fetched and does not find corroboration from the medical evidence as well, on a consideration of the cumulative effect of all the circumstances, we are of the opinion that a case of rape has not been proved beyond reasonable doubt."

75. Injury to the private parts of a rape victim is not always necessary as evidence to establish the offence of rape, including gang-rape.

76. The absence of injury to the prosecutrix's private parts can primarily be the result of non-employment of force in perpetration of the crime. This can come about on account of various factors, particularly, the victim being put in fear to an extent that she did not resist the act. The other possibility could be that the victim being unconscious or semiconscious due to the deleterious effect of an intoxicating substance, like alcohol or any other drug did not offer resistence. In the present case, the testimony of the prosecutrix shows that she did resist until time when she was whisked away to the scene of crime and forced to imbibe alcohol. The external injuries that the prosecutrix sustained were mostly the result of assault and force used to make the prosecutrix imbibe alcohol. Some of the external injuries could be the result of the hard ground etc., where the prosecutrix lay and suffered the offence.

77. The fact, that the prosecutrix did not sustain any injury to her private parts, is clearly attributable to the fact that she was semiconscious and under the stupefying effect of the alcohol that she was forced to imbibe by the offenders. The resultant non-resistance from a semiconscious prosecutrix would exclude the possibility of injury to her private parts. In Vijay alias Chinee v. State of M.P., (2010) 8 SCC 191, also a case of gang-rape, it was observed by the Supreme Court:

"Injury on the person of the prosecutrix

25. In Gurcharan Singh v. State of Haryana [(1972) 2 SCC 749 : 1972 SCC (Cri) 793 : AIR 1972 SC 2661] this Court has held that : (SCC p. 753, para 8) the absence of injury or mark of violence on the private part on the person of the prosecutrix is of no consequence when the prosecutrix is minor and would merely suggest want of violent resistance on the part of the prosecutrix. Further absence of violence or stiff resistance in the present case may as well suggest helpless surrender to the inevitable due to sheer timidity. In any event, her consent would not take the case out of the definition of rape.

26. In Devinder Singh v. State of H.P. [(2003) 11 SCC 488 : 2004 SCC (Cri) 185] a similar issue was considered by this Court and the Court took into consideration the relevant evidence wherein rape was alleged to have been committed by five persons. No injury was found on the body of the prosecutrix. There was no matting on the pubic hair with discharge and no injury was found on the genital areas. However, it was found that the prosecutrix was used to sexual intercourse. This Court held that the fact that no injury was found on her body only goes to show that she did not put up resistance."

78. Also reference may be made to a Bench decision of the Gauhati High Court in J. Lalruatsanga v. State of Mizoram and another, 2020 SCC OnLine Gau 4897, where in the context of a gang-rape and the absence of injury to the prosecutrix, it has been observed:

"33. In the case of Lalliram (supra), the Apex Court in the case of gang rape held that when the allegation is of rape by many persons and several times but no injuries is noticed, it certainly would be an important factor. Although, it is true that injury is not a sine quo non for deciding whether rape has been committed but it has to be decided on the factual matrix of each case. If the court finds it difficult to accept the version of the prosecutrix on face value, it may search for evidence direct or circumstantial. In so far as the present case is concerned, the evidence on record would go to show that the accused-persons threatened the prosecutrix with a knife telling her that her throat would be cut if she resisted. Under such circumstance, the prosecutrix apparently out of fear may have surrendered to them. Apart from the underwear and the boxer shorts of the prosecutrix being tom, the evidence on record does not show that the accused-persons applied force unlike the case in Lalliram (supra), wherein the prosecutrix who was said to be four months pregnant at the time of occurrence was caught hold of by her bunch of hair and dragged for a considerable distance. As may be noticed, the facts in the present case are not similar. The evidence on record does not show use of forceful violence and, therefore, the absence of injury from the person of the prosecutrix cannot be the ground to disbelieve her testimony, which are also corroborated by the other prosecution witnesses.

34. In the case of Joseph S/o Kooveli Poulo (supra), the Apex Court held that the charge under section 376, IPC was mainly fastened upon the appellant only on the basis of 'last seen together' theory. The factum of rape of the deceased was sought to be proved from the report on examination of vaginal smear, collected and said to confirm the presence of semen and sparmatoza indicating that the alleged victim had sexual intercourse before her death. Although, the accused-appellant was found to be potent but no stain of blood or semen was found on his dhodi and further no injury was found on the vagina/private part of the victim. It was under such circumstance that it was held that rape was not proved. The facts and circumstance in the present case are again not similar to the case under reference. The prosecutrix was forcefully taken to a secluded place by threatening her with a knife, forced to drink liquor and was subjected to rape. It is a settled proposition in law that injury is not always a precondition to prove the charge of rape. As already stated herein above, the prosecutrix was not subjected to brutal force which would have led to her sustaining injuries. Therefore, the absence of injuries by itself cannot be the ground to disbelieve her version when her narrative about the incident appears to be cogent, inspiring the court's confidence and corroborated by the version of other prosecution witnesses. Therefore, the case under reference does not render any assistance to the case of the appellant."

79. J. Lalruatsanga (supra) was a case of the prosecutrix not sustaining any injury in the gang-rape due to non-resistence arising from fear. The present case is one where non-injury to the private parts of the prosecutrix is the result of non-resistance to the act of ravishment because she was semiconscious on account of the alcohol that she was forced to have.

80. In the context of a case of gang-rape, where the prosecutrix did not sustain injuries to her private parts, the following remark of the Supreme Court in Raju alias Umakant v. State of M.P., 2025 SCC OnLine SC 997 may be referred to with profit:

"28. Nothing much turns on the evidence of the Doctor, (PW-10) who performed the medical examination on the prosecutrix. Her evidence that no definite opinion could be given, and that no other injury other than the one on the lip of 'R' was present, does not mean that sexual assault was not committed on the prosecutrix 'R'. It is also well-settled that where the ocular evidence is clear, it will prevail over the medical evidence. [See Central Bureau of Investigation v. Mohd. Parvez Abdul Kayuum, (2019) 12 SCC 1 (para 65)]"

81. Here too is a case where the prosecutrix is consistent about the fact that she was ravished by multiple men. She was in a semiconscious state and may not be trusted with her identification of those offenders she knew not beforehand, but that does not mean that her account of suffering the gruesome crime is to be disbelieved altogether, merely because there was no injury to her private parts.

82. In the result, Criminal Appeal Nos.1594 of 2017, 1580 of 2017 and 1282 of 2017 succeed and are allowed. The appellants, Irfan son of Shahzade, Ritesh @ Shanu and Manvendra @ Kallu are hereby acquitted, granting them the benefit of doubt. They are in jail and shall be released from prison forthwith unless wanted in connection with any other case and subject to fulfilling the requirements under Section 437-A Cr.P.C. equivalent to Section 483 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023).

83. Criminal Appeal No.1897 of 2017 preferred by the appellant, Irfan @ Golu is hereby dismissed and his conviction and sentence by the Trial Court stand affirmed.

84. A copy of this judgment along with trial court record be sent to the Sessions Judge, Mahoba for information and necessary compliance.

Issue for Consideration

The appellant demanded money from his wife for ganja, she refused, leading to a quarrel. appellant killed her by pressing her mouth while sleeping. The trial resulted in the conviction of the appellant under section 302 IPC for the death of his wife.

Headnotes

A. Criminal matter-Criminal Procedure Code,1973-Section 374(2)-Indian Penal Code,1860-Section 302-Challenge to-Conviction-testimony of child witness needs corroboration-Material contradiction between the testimony of the eye-witness(PW-2) and the Complainant(PW-1) and with the post-mortem report and inquest report, the prosecution failed to meet the required standard of proving the cases beyond doubt.

Held

The court held that the testimony of PW-2 was deemed unreliable and likely tutored due to material contradictions, such as claiming the beating lasted 10-15 minutes but failing to wake the deceased's own sons sleeping nearby-The post-mortem finding of food in the stomach also contradicted PW-2's claim that they slept hungry-The FIR was delayed by four days-The court noted the possibility of the case being lodged due to enmity over money between the PW1 and the appellant-A pillow recovered , PW2 did not testify that a pillow was used-The Investigating officer admitted that no evidence was found on the pillow to link to the crime-The deceased daughter testified that her father was not present at the house that night and that PW-2 was lying-The court's rationale was that the prosecution failed to prove its case beyond reasonable doubt.(Para 22 to 26) (E-6)

1. Heard, Sri Rudra Pratap Lal,learned counsel for the appellant and learned AGA.

2. The instant Criminal Appeal under Section 374(2) of Criminal Procedure Code (hereinafter referred as Cr.P.C.) has been filed against the judgment and order dated 27.09.2013 passed in Session Trial No.19/2012; State versus Mata Prasad Mishra by the Special Judge, (E.C.) Act, Gonda arising out of Case Crime No.390/2011, under Section 302 of Indian Penal Code (hereinafter referred as I.P.C.), Police Station Dhanepur, District Gonda.

3. The prosecution case is that the sister of the complainant Raj Kumar Pandey, Shail Kumari was married about 25 years ago with Mata Prasad Mishra. His brother-in-law Mata Prasad Mishra always used to beat his sister but she did not speak anything. His sister has five children, two daughters and three sons. His brother-in-law always used to take ganja and never took responsibility of house and children. On 04.09.2011, his brother-in-law demanded money from his sister for ganja but she declined, on account of which there was quarrel between them and in the evening on that day, the food was not prepared. In the night of 4/5.9.11, while his sister was sleeping on cot alone and her children Jitendra, Shiv Nandini and Manoj were also sleeping near her, seeing the opportunity, his brother-in-law killed his sister by pressing her mouth. The complainant was out and when he came back then he came to know about it and, accordingly, the F.I.R. was lodged by him on 08.09.2011.

4. On the basis of Tehrir(Ex Ka-1) of the complainant, the F.I.R.(Ex.Ka-4) was recorded. Thereafter recovery memo(Ex Ka-2), carbon copy of the report (Ex. Ka-3), site plan of the place of incident(Ex.Ka-5), inquest report(Panchayatnama) (Ex.Ka-7), photograph of the dead body (Ex.Ka-8), Form No.13 (Ex.Ka-9), Letter of R.I. (Ex.Ka-10), Letter of C.M.O.(Ex.Ka-11), Sample Seal (Ex. Ka-12), copy of report No.25 prepared at 11:30 on 05.09.2011(Ex. Ka-13) and post mortem report (Ex. Ka-14) were prepared by the Investigating Officer during the investigation and placed on record. Thereafter, after recording the statement of the witnesses and collecting the material, charge sheet under Section 302 I.P.C.(Ex. Ka-6) was submitted in the court of C.J.M., Gonda. Considering the same, the cognizance was taken on the chargesheet and the accused/ appellant was summoned. On his appearance, the copies of the required documents in compliance of Section 207 Cr.P.C. were provided and finding it to be a case triable by the Sessions Court, it was committed to the Session by means of the order dated 10.01.2012 passed by Chief Judicial Magistrate, Gonda. The Session court framed charge against the appellant under Section 302 I.P.C., which was denied by the appellant and he prayed for trial.

5. During trial, in support of the charge, the complainant(brother of the deceased) Raj Kumar pandey as P.W.1, Manoj Kumar Pandey(son of the complainant) as P.W.2, Head Constable Nitya Nand Singh as P.W.3, Pramod Kumar Jha as P.W.5 and Dr. G.K. Sharma as P.W.6 and S.I. Ramayan Singh as P.W.6 were examined in evidence. Thereafter, the statement of the accused-appellant was recorded under Section 313 Cr.P.C., in which he stated that the incident is wrong, false evidences have been recorded and fraudulent recovery has been shown and the case has been lodged on account of enmity. He also stated for giving the evidence. Shivangi Mishra, daughter of the deceased, was examined in defence as D.W.1.

6. Thereafter, after hearing Assistant Government Advocate(Criminal) and the counsel for the defense, the trial court convicted the appellant under Section 302 I.P.C. and after affording opportunity of hearing, sentenced him with rigourous life imprisonment with a fine of Rs.5000/- and in default of payment of fine, he would have to undergo one month additional simple imprisonment. Being aggrieved by the impugned judgment and order, the instant Criminal Appeal has been filed.

7. Learned counsel for the appellant submitted that the appellant was falsely and wrongly implicated in the case on account of enmity with his brother-in-law, in connection with the dispute of payment of money. He further submitted that the marriage of the appellant and deceased was solemnized prior to 25 years of the date of incident and there is no prior complaint from any corner. The conviction has been made only on the basis of evidence of P.W.1 and P.W.2, who are the complainant and his son, without considering the evidence of the defence witness and the material on record and dealing it appropriately. Thus, learned counsel for the appellant submitted that the conviction of the appellant is not sustainable in the eyes of law and liable to be set aside.

8. Per contra, learned AGA, vehemently opposed the submissions of learned counsel for the appellant. He submitted that the appellant has rightly been convicted, in accordance with law, considering the evidence of eye witness who appeared as P.W.2 and the material on record. There is no illegality or error in the impugned order, which may call for any interference.

9. We have considered the submissions of learned counsel for the parties and perused the records.

10. The F.I.R. was lodged by Raj Kumar Pandey, the brother of the deceased Shail Kumari on 08.09.2011 with the allegation that the husband of the deceased has killed her in the intervening night of 4/5.9.11, while she was sleeping on cot and at that time his two sons namely Jitendra and Shiv Nandini and son of the complainant, Manoj Kumar Pandey were also sleeping near her. It has been stated that the sister of the complainant has been killed by her husband, as in the evening of 4.9.11, he had demanded money from her for taking ganja but she refused to pay the same. Admittedly, the complainant was not present at the time of alleged incident. It has been stated that when he came back in the evening of 7.9.11, then he came to know about the incident and thereafter he lodged the F.I.R.

11. It is not in dispute that the deceased Shail Kumari had died in the intervening night of 4/5.9.2011. The son-in-law of Shail Kumari, namely, Awadhesh Kumar Tiwari had reported the matter to police on 05.9.11 at 11:30 in the concerned police station. It was stated in the said report that his mother-in-law Shail Kumari wife of Mata Prasad Mishra has suddenly died. When he reached on the spot, he saw that body of her mother-in-law was lying on the door. He came to know that she had died suddenly. This report was recorded at Rapat No.25 at 11:30 on 05.09.2011 at Police Station Dhanepur, District Gonda, which has been marked as Ex.Ka(13). This report has been proved by S.I. Ramayan Singh, who appeared as P.W.6. It has further been stated by him that on receipt of the said information, he went to the spot and got the inquest of the dead body done. In the inquest i.e. Ex. Ka(7), the husband of the deceased Mata Prasad Mishra, i.e. the appellant is also a member. As per opinion of the members of the inquest report, the deceased had died suddenly but on account of doubt, the post mortem may be got done to remove the doubt. P.W.6 has proved the inquest report. He has also stated that at the time of inquest, the husband of the deceased was also present. During inquest, nobody had made any allegation against the husband of the deceased Mata Prasad Mishra. After inquest, the dead body was sent for post mortem.

12. The post mortem was done by Dr. G.K. Sharma, who appeared as P.W.6. He proved the report of post mortem. He stated that the age of the deceased was about 45 years. The upper rigor mortis is passing and lower present. The eyes were closed. The mouth was half open. No opinion was given in regard to the natural injuries. The red spots were present under the skin. The cavity and the mind was congested and corotina was also highly congested. The spinal cord was not opened. Three injuries were found. First was contused swelling of 12 cm x 8 cm over left side of her face, second was contusion of 10 cm x 10 cm over left shoulder backwards, and third contusion of 8 cm x 8 cm over right shoulder backwards. The cause of death was asphyxia as a result of antemortem smothering. The viscera was preserved. He also stated that the doctor, who was present with him, was in agreement with the opinion given in the post mortem report. In the cross examination, he stated that the deceased could have died on account of pressing of her mouth and nose. He also stated that such death was possible on account of pressing of mouth and nose by pillow. The time of death was within one and half day. The post mortem was conducted on 06.09.11 at 4:00 p.m. Admittedly, after post mortem the cremation of the deceased was done by the family members and the complainant was not present even at the time of cremation.

13. The complainant Raj Kumar Pandey appeared as P.W.1. He has stated that his sister Shail Kumari was married about 25 years ago with the appellant Mata Prasad Mishra. The house of his brother-in-law is at a distance of about 250-300 meter from his house. His brother-in-law always used to beat his sister, which she used to tell him. He further stated that his sister had 5 children, three sons and two daughters. His brother-in- law was in habbit of taking ganja. He did not take the responsibility of the children. His brother-in-law had demanded money from his sister on 04.9.11 for taking ganja and his sister had denied. On the said date, on account of quarrel between them, the food was not prepared. His sister was sleeping alone on one cot and near her three children were sleeping Shiv Nandini, Jitendra and Manoj(son of the complainant). His brother-in-law had killed his sister by pressing her mouth, which was told to him by his son Manoj. His son was staying in the house of his sister on the date of her death. When he came back, then his son informed that bua has been killed, thereafter, he gave a written tehrir at the police station, after getting it written by Devta Prasad pandey.

He also stated that he had not got the report written by dictating but he had told the incident, on which the report was written. Thereafter, after signature, he had submitted it at the police station. He proved the written report, which is Ex. Ka-1. He also proved his signatures. He further stated that after lodging of the F.I.R., the police had gone at the place of incident alongwith him and he had shown the place, where his sister had died. After arrest of his brother-in-law, the pillow was recovered before him, which is EX. Ka-2, which was also signed by him. From the evidence of P.W.1, it is apparent that he was not present either on the date of incident or thereafter in the cremation of the deceased and the F.I.R. has been lodged by him on the information given by his son Manoj Kumar Pandey, who appeared as P.W.2. The report was written by Devta Prasad on the basis of incident told by the complainant and not on his dictation. Thus the version in the F.I.R. is of the scriber of F.I.R. and not of the complainant, whose evidence in regard to incident is also hearsay. In regard to information received by the complainant, he has stated in the tehrir, on the basis of which, F.I.R. has been lodged, that when he came back then after talking to the children, he came to know about the incident, whereas in the evidence before the trial court, he has stated that his son Manoj Kumar Pandey was at the house of his deceased sister and when he came back, then he told that his bua has been killed. Thus, there is contradiction in the testimonyof P.W.1 Raj Kumar Pandey in regard to the information received by him.

14. Manoj Kumar Pandey(P.W.2), at time of recording of his evidence, was aged about 10-11 years. He stated that Mata Prasad Mishra is his phoofa and the name of his bua was Shail Kumari. He further stated that he had gone to the house of his bua in the evening. She told that quarrel has taken place and asked him to stay. When she was telling it, his phoofa had come and threatened him. Food was not prepared. They slept hungry in the night. After hearing noise of quarrel, he woke up. He saw that his phoofa was beating to his bua. He had climbed on her chest and pressing her mouth with balit(may be by palm). He told him that if he would tell it to anybody, then he will also face the same consequence. He further stated that after the incident, he stayed back there and in the morning he came back to his house and told about the incident to his grand mother. His father was out. When he came back then he told to him. He had come back on 07.9.11. The tehrir was given on 08.9.11. On asking by the Darogaji, he had told him. In the cross examination, he stated that he had gone to his bua's house at 4:00 in the evening. The quarrel was going on between his bua and phoofa since prior to his going. Thereafter he stated that no quarrel had taken place before him. Thus there is contradiction in his evidence regarding quarrel between the deceased and his phoofa. However, it is apparent that it had not taken place at least before him. Six persons reside in the house of his bua, Surendra, Jitendra, Usha, Badkanne and Chotkanne. When he reached there Badkanne and Chotkanne were not there. The remaining were there. One was inside his house. Chotkanne and Badkanne had gone to Surat. The food was not made at the house of bua on that date but he had not come to his house to take the food and he went to his house on the next day. He further stated that he used to come to the court alongwith his father. He further stated that his statement was recorded by the Darogaji after 10-15 days. He had gone to the police station alone for recording his statement. Father had not gone with him. The police station is about 5 kms away from his house. It is very strange that a child of 10-11 years, who used to come to court with his father, would had gone to the police station for recording of his statement on his own after lodging of the F.I.R., whereas the police station was about 5 kms. away. He has also stated in his cross examination that two sons of his bua, namely, Surendra and Jitendra were also sleeping together. He further stated that when phoofa was beating to his bua, their sons had not seen him. His phoofa had beaten to his bua for 10-15 minutes. His bua had cried but she had not wept. His phoofa was sleeping adjacent to him. All of them had slept at 7:00. He does not know as to what was the time when the marpeet had taken place. The marpeet had taken place in the mid night. It is very strange that as per evidence of P.W.2 marpeet had taken place for 10-15 minutes and the deceased was crying on account of which P.W.2 had awaken but other children of the deceased, who were also sleeping near them had not awaken. He has further stated that after death of his bua, they had not called anybody. He remained awake and both the sons kept on sleeping. He went to his house in the morning and told to his grandmother. In the house, his mother, elder brother and his younger brother were also there. On his information, they went to see his bua but he had not gone at that time. His father had gone to Balrampur to his bua's house, who came back on 7.9.11. He had gone to see his bua, who was residing in Balrampur. He further stated that on 4/5.9.11, his bua of Balrampur and his father had not gone to see the deceased. His grand mother had not lodged any report against his bua. The evidence of P.W.2 shows that either he was not present on the spot on the date of incident or he is lying on the instigation of somebody,may be his father, because it is very improbable that the deceased was being beaten for about 10-15 minutes and none of his sons, who were sleeping near her, had awaken.

15. Admittedly, no action was taken or report was lodged by the grand mother of P.W.2 i.e. the mother of the deceased. The report of death given by the son-in-law of the deceased also does not indicate any involvement of the appellant. It only indicates sudden death. In the opinion of the members of the inquest also, the death of the deceased was sudden. They had not indicated even a suspicion in the death of the deceased. The mother of the deceased and the complainant and the son-in-law have also not been produced in evidence. The Investigating Officer, Sri Pramod Kumar Jha, who appeared as P.W.4, has also stated in his evidence that statement of mother-in-law was not recorded by him. He has also admitted that the information of the death of the deceased was given by the son-in-law at the police station stating that his mother-in-law had died suddenly.

16. It was alleged in the F.I.R. that brother-in-law of the complainant Mata Prasad Mishra, has killed his sister by pressing her mouth. P.W.2, who is alleged to be an eye witness, has stated that when he woke up in the night after hearing the cry, then he saw that his phoofa was beating to his bua. He was climbing on her chest and pressing her mouth with balit(may be by palm). However, he has not stated that the appellant was pressing the mouth of the deceased by pillow, whereas recovery of pillow has been shown on the pointing out of the appellant as Ex. Ka-2 from the tree of tamarind from the back of the hut, which was on the eastern side, whereas in the Site Plan contained as Ex.

Ka-5, no tree of tamarind has been shown on the eastern side of the hut. The grove has been shown, which is on the south-east of the hut near the pond of Gram Samaj. This recovery has also been made in presence of the complainant i.e. Raj Kumar Pandey P.W.1, whereas he or P.W.2 have not stated in their evidence that the deceased was killed by pressing her mouth by pillow. P.W.4 in his evidence proved the pillow, which was recovered and present before him at the time of evidence. He has specifically stated that no evidence was found on the pillow, which may indicate that it was used in the incident. On pillow being shown to the witness, he stated that neither any blood, cough etc was found on it, nor any kind of mud etc. was found. Thus, on the one hand, it appears that by showing the recovery of pillow, it has been tried to show that the deceased was killed by pillow but no evidence of any kind on pillow, alleged to have been used in the incident, could be found or proved.

17. There is also material contradiction in the evidence of P.W.1 and P.W.2. P.W.1 has stated in his evidence that alongwith his sister Shivnandini, Surendra and Jitendra were sleeping, whereas P.W.2 who is alleged to be an eye witness has stated that alongwith her bua, her two sons namely Surendra and Jitendra were sleeping and he was sleeping with Surendra and Jitendra. P.W.4, the Investigating Officer has stated that he had made the investigation as told by the complainant on his saying. He has also stated that he had recorded the evidence of the complainant Sri Raj Kumar Pandey and the eye witness Km. Shivangi and inspected the site on pointing out of the complainant and recorded the evidence of other witnesses and also prepared the site plan,which is Paper No.5/2, whereas Km. Shivangi has not been shown to be present at the time of incident by P.W.1, who has been shown an eye witness by the investigating officer.

18. Km. Shivangi Mishra has appeared as D.W.1 as a defence witness. She has stated that relation between her father and mother were good. On 04.09.2011, his Aaji had become ill and his father had gone for his treatment. Her father and Aaji lives in the village. Her mother used to live in the house situated out of village. We also reside with the mother. She and her younger brother Jitendra were sleeping in the house of her grand mother on 04.09.2011. The father had not come in the night. In the morning of 05.09.2011, at about 9-10 a.m., we came to know that the mother is lying dead on the floor. She further stated that her father and Aaji had come at about 11:00 a.m. after hearing about the incident. She further stated that quarrel was going on between the maternal uncle and her father for quite a long time in connection with exchange of money. Mother used to tell that your maternal uncle had not come to home since 7-8 years and he keeps enmity with your father. She has further stated that her maternal uncle had never come to her house in her memory. She has also stated that Manoj, the son of maternal uncle, has wrongly stated that he was sleeping with her mother. Km. Shivangi Mishra was aged about 14 years at the time of her evidence. In the cross examination, nothing could be extracted which may create any doubt about her testimony.

19. P.W.4 has admitted in his evidence that he had not tried to enquire as to whether the complainant was at home or not. He has also stated that reference of report of son-in-law has not been made in the charge sheet, therefore, it is apparent that the Investigating Officer had not considered the report submitted by the son-in-law of the deceased at the police station, in which he had stated that his mother-in-law had died suddenly.

20. P.W.2 Manoj Kumar Pandey has stated that in the evening of 04.09.2011, the food was not prepared and all of them had slept without food, whereas the post mortem report indicates that about 30 ml liquid congested has been found in the stomach, pancreas were also congested. Thus, the post mortem report also does not support the evidence of P.W.2.

21. S.I. Ramayan Singh, who appeared as P.W.6 has stated that while he was posted as Sub Inspector in Police Station Thanepur, District Gonda on 05.09.2011, on the written information of Awadhesh Kumar Tiwari, he had reached in the village Mahesh Bhari at 12:15, where the dead body of the deceased Smt. Shail Kumari, wife of Mata Prasad Mishra was present. He had prepared the inquest report and proved the same, which is Ex. Ka-7. He has stated in his cross examination that on the information given by Awadhesh Kumar Tiwari, he had conducted the inquest of the dead body. In the said information, sudden death and that the body is lying on the door, was stated. There was no allegation against anybody in the report in regard to the death of the deceased. The members of the inquest report had also stated about sudden death. At the time of inquest, the husband of the deceased was also present. It has also been stated that during preparation of the inquest report also, nobody had levelled any allegation against the appellant, which is also apparent from the inquest report.

22. The instant prosecution is based mainly on the evidence of P.W.2, who is said to be an eye witness, because the F.I.R. has also been lodged on the information given by him to his father. Thus, he can be said to be 'star witness' or 'sterling witness' in the matter, on the testimony of whom, the fate of the prosecution was dependent. He was aged about 10-11 years at the time of evidence and a child of 9-10 years old at the time of incident. The testimony of such star witness, who was a minor child of 9-10 years also at the time of incident should be such that going through the same, the court can come to the conclusion that the accused is liable to be convicted and there should be no inconsistency in his testimony in itself or with the other witnesses, failing which his testimony would fail and the conviction cannot be based on the same. The evidence of such witness is required to be evaluated carefully.

23. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Rai Sandeep Alias Deeput versus State (NCT of Delhi); 2012) 8 SCC 21 has held that the "Sterling Witnesss" should be of a very high quality and calibre whose version should, therefore, be unassailable. The court considering the version of such witness should be in a position to accept it for its face value without any hesitation. The relevant paragraph 22 is extracted hereinbelow:-

"In our considered opinion, the 'sterling witness' should be of a very high quality and caliber whose version should, therefore, be unassailable. The Court considering the version of such witness should be in a position to accept it for its face value without any hesitation. To test the quality of such a witness, the status of the witness would be immaterial and what would be relevant is the truthfulness of the statement made by such a witness. What would be more relevant would be the consistency of the statement right from the starting point till the end, namely, at the time when the witness makes the initial statement and ultimately before the Court. It should be natural and consistent with the case of the prosecution qua the accused. There should not be any prevarication in the version of such a witness. The witness should be in a position to withstand the cross- examination of any length and howsoever strenuous it may be and under no circumstance should give room for any doubt as to the factum of the occurrence, the persons involved, as well as, the sequence of it. Such a version should have co-relation with each and everyone of other supporting material such as the recoveries made, the weapons used, the manner of offence committed, the scientific evidence and the expert opinion. The said version should consistently match with the version of every other witness. It can even be stated that it should be akin to the test applied in the case of circumstantial evidence where there should not be any missing link in the chain of circumstances to hold the accused guilty of the offence alleged against him. Only if the version of such a witness qualifies the above test as well as all other similar such tests to be applied, it can be held that such a witness can be called as a 'sterling witness' whose version can be accepted by the Court without any corroboration and based on which the guilty can be punished. To be more precise, the version of the said witness on the core spectrum of the crime should remain intact while all other attendant materials, namely, oral, documentary and material objects should match the said version in material particulars in order to enable the Court trying the offence to rely on the core version to sieve the other supporting materials for holding the offender guilty of the charge alleged."

24. The Hon'ble Supreme Court, in the case of Digamber Vaishnav & Anr. versus State of Chhattisgarh; 2019 (4) SCC 522, has held that the evidence of a child witness must be evaluated carefully as the child may be swayed by what others tell him and he is an easy prey to tutoring, therefore, the evidence of a child witness must find adequate corroboration before it can be relied upon. The relevant paragraphs 22 and 23 are extracted hereinbelow:-

"22. This Court has consistently held that evidence of a child witness must be evaluated carefully as the child may be swayed by what others tell him and he is an easy prey to tutoring. Therefore, the evidence of a child witness must find adequate corroboration before it can be relied upon. It is more a rule of practical wisdom than law.

23.In Alagupandi alias Alagupandian v. State of Tamil Nadu; (2012) 10 SCC 451, this Court has emphasized the need to accept the testimony of a child with caution after substantial corroboration before acting upon it. It was held that:

"36. It is a settled principle of law that a child witness can be a competent witness provided statement of such witness is reliable, truthful and is corroborated by other prosecution evidence. The court in such circumstances can safely rely upon the statement of a child witness and it can form the basis for conviction as well. Further, the evidence of a child witness and credibility thereof would depend upon the circumstances of each case. The only precaution which the court should bear in mind while assessing the evidence of a child witness is that the witness must be a reliable one and his/her demeanour must be like any other competent witness and that there exists no likelihood of being tutored. There is no rule or practice that in every case the evidence of such a witness be corroborated by other evidence before a conviction can be allowed to stand but as a rule of prudence the court always finds it desirable to seek corroboration to such evidence from other reliable evidence placed on record. Further, it is not the law that if a witness is a child, his evidence shall be rejected, even if it is found reliable."

25. dverting to the facts of the case, it is apparent that there is material contradiction in the evidence of P.W.1 and P.W.2 and looking to the evidence of P.W.2, it is apparent that either he was not present on the spot at the time of alleged incident or he is lying being tutored and his testimony does not inspire confidence. The F.I.R. has been lodged by the brother of the deceased, who has some enmity with his brother-in-law in connection with the exchange of certain money, which could not be ruled out on account of the fact that only he has lodged the F.I.R. and appeared in evidence alongwith his son and none of the family members of the deceased including her mother have even levelled any allegation against the appellant, what to say of lodging the F.I.R. or appearing in evidence. The complainant is also a witness to the recovery of pillow, whereas neither the F.I.R. nor the evidence of P.W.1 and P.W.2 discloses about use of pillow for pressing the mouth of the deceased and no evidence of use of same have been found on it. Though the complainant was not present at the time of incident but as admitted by the Investigating Officer, who appeared as P.W.4, the investigation was conducted and place of incident was inspected and the site plan was prepared on his pointing out but without considering it all the trial court has passed the impugned judgment and order. Thus, this Court is of the view that in the instant matter, neither investigation has been conducted appropriately nor the learned trial court has passed the impugned judgement of conviction and order of sentence after considering and dealing with the evidence and material on record appropriately, whereas as discussed above, the prosecution has failed to prove his case beyond doubt. The learned trial court has also failed to consider the evidence of D.W.1, who is daughter of the deceased, who has stated that the appellant was not present at the place of incident in the night of the incident and the complainant had some quarrel with the appellant for some time and in her memory he had not come to their house and P.W.2 was not at the place of incident in the said night and nothing could be extracted from her in cross-examination, which may create any doubt about her testimony. Thus, this Court is of the view that the impugned judgment and order is not sustainable in the eyes of law and liable to be set aside.

26. The appeal is, accordingly, allowed. The impugned judgment and order dated 27.09.2013 passed in Session Trial No.19/2012; State versus Mata Prasad Mishra by the Special Judge, (E.C.) Act, Gonda arising out of Case Crime No.390/2011, under Section 302 of Indian Penal Code (hereinafter referred as I.P.C.), Police Station Dhanepur, District Gonda is hereby set aside. The appellant is acquitted.

State ...Respondent

Counsel for the Appellants:
Anup Kumar Upadhyay, Priyansh, Pt. Mohan Chand

Counsel for the Respondent:
A.G.A.

Issue for Consideration

The appeal challenges the trial court's conviction of the accused persons, particularly the surviving appellant for charges of murder.
The case arose out of an incident where the deceased and his brother and an injured witness were attacked while taking a buffalo cart loaded with sugarcane to a factory.

Headnotes

A. Criminal matter-Criminal Procedure Code,1973-Section 374(2)-Indian Penal Code,1860-Sections 147, 148, 302/149, 323/149-Re-appreciation of Evidence-the court undertook thorough re-appreciation of the evidence on record, including ocular testimony and medical evidence-material discrepancy between eyewitness accounts and medical evidence vitiates the Prosecution case, engendering reasonable doubt warranting acquittal-appeal allowed.

Held

The court ruled that in murder prosecution u/s 302/149 IPC, ocular evidence demands independent corroboration from medical, circumstantial, or forensic evidence-uncorroborated or inherently improbable testimony cannot sustain conviction-Irreconcilable ocular-medical discrepancies (e.g. claimed 6.30 A.M. post-meal death vs postmortem empty stomach implying pre-dawn) vitiate the prosecution, warranting acquittal as per Moti Vs. State of U.P. judgment.(Para 41 to 53) (E-6)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ram Manohar Narayan Mishra, J.)

1. Heard Sri Priyansh, learned Amicus Curiae for the appellant Karua and Sri Amit Sinha, learned A.G.A. for the State-respondent.

2. Instant Criminal Appeal has been preferred against judgment and order dated 26.07.1983 passed by Leaned Additional Session Judge Etah in S.T. 215 of 1982, arising out of Case Crime No.238 of 1980, under Sections 147,148, 302/149, 323/149 IPC, Police Station Sahawar, Kasganj, (then District Eath). Learned trial court, in said trial convicted the appellants Govind, Chhadami and Ram Dayal for charge under Section 148 IPC and sentenced them to two years rigorous imprisonment. Accused Om Prakash and Karua were convicted of charge under section 147 IPC and sentenced to one year rigorous imprisonment. All the accused namely Govind, Chhadami, Om Prakash, Karua and Ram Dayal were further held guilty for charge under Section 323/149 IPC and sentenced to one year rigorous imprisonment. All the accused persons were further held guilty of main charge under Section 302/149 IPC and sentenced to imprisonment for life. One accused Ran Singh had been acquitted of all charges for want of evidence.

3. It appears that during the pendency of present appeal, appellants Govind, Chhadami, Om Prakash and Ram Dayal died during the pendency of appeal and this appeal qua them was directed to be abated by order of this Court passed from time to time on order sheet and present appeal has been heard in respect of surviving appellant accused Karua only.

4. The factual matrix of the case as appearing from the material on record is that the informant Het Ram son of Chokhey Lodh lodged an FIR on the basis of written report at P.S. concerned on 02.12.1980 at 09:05 AM. with allegation that on that day, at around 06:30 AM the informant and his sons Budh Singh and Liladhar were on way to Nagariya Sugar Factory and sugarcane was loaded in the buffalo cart. His son Budh Singh was sitting on sugarcane and his other son Liladhar was driving the cart. The informant, the witnesses Basdev and Pusey were following the vehicle on foot. As soon as they reached near the Phooti Ghata Pulia, situated after some distance from Gangpur, his co-villagers Govind, Chhadami, Ram Dayal, Om Prakash and Karua emerged from western-side gunders (Shrubs) Ram Dayal, Govind and Chhadami were armed with country made pistols, Karua and Om Prakash were wielding lathis; Ram Dayal, Govind and Chhadami asked Liladhar to stop the vehicle and challenged him. Liladhar stopped the vehicle, Om Prakash assaulted Liladhar by lathi (club) and he fell down on the earth. Thereafter, Govind, Chhadami, Ram Dayal and Karua climbed the buffalo-cart and brought Budh Singh down. Govind, Chhadami and Ram Dayal opened fired at Budh Singh by their respective country made pistols. Accused Karua had assaulted Budh Singh by Lathi on climbing the buffalo cart. Budh Singh died on the spot having hit by fire arms. These people are assisted by Ran Singh Ahir, R/o Meerapurwa and Baboo Lodh R/o Chak, P.S. Kasganj.

5. The written report Ext. Ka-1 was scribed by one Natthu Ram, a co-villager. Constable Moharir Ramesh Singh had drawn chick FIR Ext. Ka-4 on the basis of said written report and registered a case against five named accused persons, while GD Entry No.16 time 09:05 hours dated 02.12.1980. The extracts of said GD Entry are proved on record as Ext. Ka-5. The inquest was conducted on dead body of the deceased Budh Singh on 02.12.1980 between 10:00 am to 11:30 am at the place of incident by S.I. Hori Lal in presence of Panch Witnesses. In inquest report Ext. Ka-6 nine injuries are described on the person of the deceased. The dead body was carried to District Headquarter for postmortem by Constable Suraj Singh and Virendra Singh alongwith eight number of papers including, photo nash, chalan nash, report of CMO. The postmortem examination on the person of the deceased was conducted by the Dr. N.K. Agarwal on 03.12.1980 at around 03:30 PM at Etah, in which as many as six injuries were detected on the person of the decreased, out of which three injuries, in the opinion of doctor were inflicted by fire arms and three injuries were lacerated wound caused by some hard and blunt object.

6. In the opinion of the author of postmortem report, the cause of death was due to shock and hemorrhage as a result of antemortem injuries No.5 and 6. The investigating officer recorded statements of the informant and other witnesses on commencement of investigation. The medico legal examination of injuries of the injured Liladhar was conducted by doctor S.D. Mishra (PW-3) on 02.12.1980 at around 04:05 PM, and wherein five injuries were detected on his person and one injury was shown as complaint of pain in upper part of head.

7. S.I. P.C.Chaturvedi (PW-6) recorded statement of the informant on the date of lodging of FIR and conducted spot inspection of the place where dead body was lying. He directed S.I. Hori Lal Verma to carryout inquest on the dead body which was conducted in his presence.

8. The Investigating Officer also prepared site plan of place of occurrence on pointing out of the informant. He collected blood stained and plain earth from the spot and prepared an inventory, and he also took into his possession two empty cartridges which he got sealed and prepared its inventory. He took into his possession the buffalo-cart loaded with sugar-cane which was lying on the spot and entrusted it to the custody of Basdev, the uncle of the deceased. The named accused persons, after the lodging FIR became non traceable, as they absconded to evade arrest. The Investigating Officer effected proceedings under Section 82/83 Cr.P.C. against accused persons after getting the process issued from the court. This fact emerged from statement of witnesses during investigation that a conspiracy was hatched between named accused persons and one Ran Singh, on the eve of the day of incident dated 01.12.1980 in the chaupal of accused Ram Dayal, Govind, Chhadami, Om Prakash and Karua were present and they made a plan to eliminate Budh Singh.

9. The Investigating Officer submitted chargesheet against five accused persons after concluding the investigation namely Govind, Chhadami, Ram Dayal, Karua and Ran Singh for said charges, showing them as “absconded”. Subsequently, the attendance of accused persons was procured and accused Om Prakash and Karua were enlarged on bail and subsequently other accused were also enlarged on bail during trial. The case was committed to the court of session by learned CJM. On 11.05.1982 learned trial court framed charges against accused Om Prakash, Karua under Section 147, 323/149, 302/149 IPC. Learned trial court framed charges under Section 148, 323/149, 302/149 IPC against accused Govind and Chhadami on 25.06.1982. The accused Ram Dayal was charged with Section 148, 323/149, 302/149 IPC on 01.02.1982 as he was subsequently summoned under Section 319 Cr.P.C.. His case was initially separated due to his absence and he was not committed to court of session alongwith co-accused. The accused persons were put on trial.

10. In prosecution evidence, PW-1 Hethram the informant, PW-2 Liladhar injured witness, PW-3 Dr. S.D. Misra, the author of injury report of Liladhar, PW-5 Dr. N.K. Agarwal author of postmortem report of deceased Budh Singh, PW-6 S.I., P.C. Chaturvedi, the Investigating Officer were examined in support of prosecution case.

11. So far as exhibits are concerned PW-1 Hethram, the author of written report proved as Ext. Ka-1. PW-3 Dr. S.D. Mishra, proved injury report of Liladhar as Ext. Ka-2, PW-5 Dr. N.K. Agarwal proved postmortem report as Ext. Ka-3, PW-6 S.I. P.C. Chaturvedi, the Investigating Officer proved Chick FIR authored by Constable Ramesh Chandra as Ka-4 and extracts of G.D. entries of registration of case as Ext. Ka-5, inquest report as Ext. Ka-6., Photonash, chalan nash and report RI as Ext. Ka-7 to 9, site plan as Ext. Ka-10. Recovery memo of blood stained and plain earth and cartridges as Ext. Ka-11, recovery memo and supurtiginama of Buffalo-cart Ext. Ka-12 and chargesheet as Ext. Ka-13. He also proved arrest warrant, process under Section 82 and 83 issued by the Court against accused persons who have absconded after the incident as Ext. Ka-14 to Ka-53.

11. Out of six witnesses examined by prosecution to prove its case PW-1 Hethram, PW-2 Liladhar are produced as eye witness and other witnesses are medical and formal witnesses.

12. The prosecution has examined six witnesses to prove its case. P.W.-1 Het Ram is the de facto complainant. He has stated that Liladhar is his son and Budh Singh deceased was also his son. Pusey was of his village who has now Ran away from the village due to fear of the accused. Accused Govind, and Chhadami are of his village and Om Prakash, Karua and Ram Dayal are intimate and friends of Govind and Chhadami. Babu is the brother-in-law of Govind and Chhadami. He, further, stated his son Budh Singh was a Pahalwan (wrestler) and a healthy strong man. The field of Govind and Chhadami is adjoining to the place where his (P.W.1)'s cattle would be tied, Govind and Chhadami claimed this place and asked PW-1 to remove his cattle from that place, but Het Ram and his sons insisted that it was their land. Govind and Chhadami could not occupy that piece of land due to Budh Singh. There was altercation earlier in this connection between his son Budh Singh and Govind and Chhadami. A day prior to the occurrence, Liladhar told him that accused Govind, Chhadami, Ram Dayal, Om Prakash, Karua, Ran Singh and Babu were conspiring in the Chaupal of Ram Dayal, to commit the murder of Budh Singh. He did not pay any heed to this things. On the day of occurrence, he was going to Nagariya mill with his sugar cane loaded in a bullock-cart. The cart was being driven by Liladhar and Budh Singh was sitting over the cane in the cart. He (PW-1) along with Basdev and Pusey were following the cart on the foot. When the cart reached at Phooti Ghata Ki Puliya at about 06:30 AM, accused Govind, Chhadami, Ram Dayal, Om Praskash and Karua came out from the “Jhund” of Goondar. Govind, Chhadami and Ram Dayal had Tamanchas, Karua and Om Prakash had lathies. Govind and Chhadami came ahead and asked Liladhar and Budh Singh to stop the cart. They abused and said "Aaj Nikal Paogey Tab Malum Paregi. "Liladhar stopped the bullock cart. Govind, Chhadami and Karua went over the cart. Karua gave lathi blow to Budh Singh and Om Prakash gave lathi blow to Liladhar. Budh Singh was dragged down from the cart and then Chhadami, Govind and Ram Dayal fired at him with intention to kill him. Budh Singh died on the spot. He, Basdev and Pusey raised alarm and the accused ran away. Subsequently, the persons of the neighbouring places came there. He got his report written by Natthu of Gangpur. It is Ext. Ka-1. It was read over to him and then he put his thumb-impression over it.

13. He took the report to the Police Station and handed over it there. In his cross-examination, he has stated that Karua and Om Prakash are residents of other villages. Ran Singh is also resident of Karua's village. Govind and Chhadami are residents of his village.

14. He does not know the number of plot where he ties his cattle. He never obtained any sale-deed of the said land in his favour. He added that "Jamindar Nay Basaya Tha." He, further, stated "Chakbandi Sey Pahiley Muljiman Govind, Chhadami Wa Karua, Govind Wa Chhadami Kay Hissey Mian Le Gaya…… Pani Us Kuan Rahat Sey Ab Bhi Hamarey Kheton Main Chalta Hai." He stated that Govind and Chhadami wanted to occupy forcibly the place where his cattle are tied down and he does not relish it. There used to be be altercation between his sons and accused Govind and Chhadami, but he never lodged my report. He had stated before the I.O. that a day prior to the occurrence, there was conspiracy at the 'Chaupal' of Ram Dayal. He was confronted with his statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. On this point where he has stated that "Merey Lerkey Liladhar Ney Hame Kal Bataya Tha Ki Yahe Sab Log Ram Dayal Ke Chabutree Par Baith Kar Salah Kar Rahey They Ki Budh Singh Ko Pahele Marado. "This statement has been recorded on 12.12.1980. On the day of occurrence, the Parchi of the Sugar Mill was with Liladhar. The said 'Parchi' was not given and shown to the S.I. because the cart was loaded with sugar-cane. Budh Singh had taken some Nashta (breakfast) before starting for the mill. He had taken 1/2-1. 'Parantha' about 10 minutes prior to the occurrence. Hundred-two hundred persons had assembled on the spot and Siya Ram, Chowkidar of Gangpur had also come there. He did not take the Chaukidar along with him for lodging the report. He had no talks with chaukidar and persons assembled on the spot. He had gone to the Police Station alone. He did not talk to Liladhar before going to the Police Station. When the cart was halted, Om Prakash gave lathi blow to Liladhar first and then the accused climbed on the cart. He stated "Govind Aur Chhadami, Ram Dayal Ne Budh Singh Par Kharey Hokar Fire Kiye Thay Jo intino Ne Fire Kiye wah Tino kay Fire Budh Singh kay lagey." . It is wrong to suggest that he was not present on the spot. It is also wrong that this occurrence took place in the dark and the accused did not commit this murder. Where the cart halted Om Prakash gave lathi blow to Liladhar and then these accused went over the cart.

15. PW-2 Liladhar is son of the complainant, and brother of deceased. He was stated to be on the cart alongwith Budh Singh. He has stated that a day prior to the occurrence he was returning from the field. When he reached near the 'Chaupal' of Ram Dayal accused, he saw Ram Dayal, Govind, Chhadami, Om Prakash and Karua sitting there. They were planning to kill Budh Singh. They were saying "Budh Singh Ko Mar Do, Yahi Hi Tagra Padata Hai.". He stated "Ran Singh Wa Babu Us Chaupal Par Us Samay Nahin Thay."

16. Regarding the incident on the date of occurrence, he stated that he was driving the bullock-cart loaded with sugar-cane. Budh Singh was sitting over it. Het Ram, Basdev and Pusey Ram were following the bullock-cart on foot. It was about 06:30 am, when the cart reached near the pullia of Phooti Ghata, accused Om Prakash, Karua, Govind, Chhadami, and Ram Dayal came from the western Goonder. They asked him to stop the cart and said "Aaj Malum Parh Jayega Ki Aaj Nikal Paogey". He stopped the cart. Govind, Chhadami and Karua climbed over the bullock-cart. Om Prakash gave him a lathi blow and he fell down. Karua gave two -three lathi blows to Budh Singh and brought him down and then Govind, Chhadami and Ram Dayal fired at Budh Singh who died on the spot. All the accused ran away. In his cross examination he stated that he had not become unconscious after receiving the injuries. He stated that "Khara Ho Gaya Tha. Kharey Honey Ke Bad Phir Ek Aur Lathi, Om Prakash Nay Mari Thi." The three accused fired at Budh Singh and the shots of all the three persons hit him. He had stated before the I.O. that he fell down first after receiving the lathi blow. He had also stated that Karua had given 2-3 lathi blows to Budh Singh. He cannot tell the reason as to why the Investigating Officer has not written these things in his statement. 100-200 persons had reached there hearing the alarm. The S.I. came on the spot at about 12:00 at noon. He remained there till the arrival of the S.I.. He did not talk to the persons assembled there about the occurrence. His clothes were blood stained. The S.I. had told him that he may wash his clothes. The blood had fallen on the spot at two places. He had the Parchi of Sugar-cane in his possession. He has shown it to the S.I. who had returned it. The dead-body was taken from that place at about 01:00 PM and the S.I. had also gone in Jeep. When he reached with the dead body at the Police Station Etah, the S.I. had already reached there. His father had not stayed near the sugar-cane, but had gone with the dead-body. The S.I. had given 'Parchi' for hospital on the spot. The S.I. recorded his statement after her returned from the Hospital. It is wrong to state that he was not driving the bullock-cart on the spot. It is wrong that the occurrence did not take place in the manner stated by him. He had stated about the conspiracy for murder having been made a day prior to the occurrence. Nobody else except him saw and heard the accused hatching this conspiracy. He had narrated about this conspiracy to his father after the occurrence.

17. PW-3 is Dr. S.D. Mishra. He testified that on 02.12.1980 he was medical officer Sahawar. On that day at 4-5 PM, he examined the injuries of Liladhar son of Heth Ram and noted the following injuries in the injury report:-

1. Contusion 9 cm. x 3 cm. obliquely on the back of left side of chest caused by blunt weapon.

2. Contusion 3 cm. x 2 cm. on back of right side of chest caused by blunt weapon.

3. Contusion 8 cm. x 3 cm. at the vertibral column caused by blunt weapon.

4. Contusion 6 cm. x 11 cm. At top of right shoulder caused by blunt weapon.

5. Contused traumatic swelling 10 cm. X 3 cm. at the front and middle on the left thigh caused by blunt weapon, and

6. complaint of pain in the upper part of the head.

18. All the injuries were simple and could be caused by some blunt weapon, like lathi- danda. They were about ½ day old and could possibly be caused on 02.12.1980 at 06:30 AM. He has proved the injury report as Ext. Ka-2. In his cross-examination, he has stated that these injuries cannot be self-inflicted. But, if a person has endurance to bear such pain then these injuries can be manufactured. It is wrong to suggest that he has wrongly noted down these injuries under the pressure of the police. He has stated " In Choton Main Se Kabhi Kabhi Khoon Nahi Nikalta, Lalima 24 Ghante tak Rahetee Hai, uskey Bad Lalima Ka Rang Badalna Shuru Ho Jata Hai."

19. PW-4 in Constable G.P. Virendra Singh. He has given his statement on affidavit. He is a formal witness on 02.12.1980, he was posted at Shahawar and on that date at about 11:30 pm. Sri Hori Lal Verma S.I. handed over the sealed dead-body of Budh Singh to him for postmortem alongwith all connected papers including Panchayat nama etc. He, alongwith the other constable Surat Singh brought the sealed dead-body to Etah and on 03.12.1980 presented it before the doctor alongwith the connected papers. The sealed dead-body remained intact till it was in his possession.

20. P.W.-5 I Dr. N.K. Agarwal on 03.12.1980 he was Medical Officer District Jail, Etah on that date, he conducted the postmortem of the dead-body of Budh Singh. He found following ante-mortem injuries on the dead body :-

1. Lacerated would 3 cm x 1 cam x scalp deep or on middle of head 15 cm over bridge of nose.

2. Lacerated wound 12 cm x 0.5 cm on middle of fore-head 7 cam above middle of nose.

3. Lacerated would 1 cm x 0.5 cm x muscle deep on front and middle of chin.

4. Multiple fire-arm wounds of entry in an area 4 cm x 4 cm each, ¼ cm x ¼ cm x muscle deep on left side front of chest just below mid of left clavicle.

5. Fire arm would of entry 1.5 cm x 1.5. cm x through on left side front of chest 6 cm away and below left nipple in the position of 7 O'clock. No blackening, direction transversely right to left.

6. Fire Arm wound of exit, 15 cm x 5 cm on left side of chest 8 cm below left nipple at 4 O'clock position.

21. He also conducted the internal examination of the dead-body and the result in detail is mentioned in his post-mortem Ext. Ka-3. In his opinion the cause of death was due to shock and haemorrhage as a result of ante-mortem injuries Nos. 5 and 6. Haematoma was present under injury No.1 and 2. The death had taken place about 1-1/4 day back. The ante-mortem injuries could be inflicted on 02.12.1980 at about 6:30 am. These injuries were sufficient to cause death in ordinary course. In his cross-examination he has stated that the fire arm injuries could be possible by three shots. The injuries of blunt object could be caused by three blows. The stomach was empty, which demonstrates that the deceased had taken food 5-6 hours prior to his death. 15 pellets were recovered from wall under injury No.4 and 14 pellets recovered from pleural cavity. He has stated that left Vth rib was fractured anteriorly.

22. PW-6 is S.O. P.C. Chaturvedi the Investigating Officer. In December, 1980, he was posted as S.O.. Sahawar, District Etah. He has stated that on 02.12.1980 this case was registered in his presence at his police station at 09:05 am. Het Ram had brought his written report Ext. Ka-1 and on its basis constable Ramesh Chandra prepared the chick FIR which he has also signed. It is Ext. Ka-4. The same constable clerk made its entry on GD Report No.16 of the same date and its true copy is Ext. Ka-5.

23. He investigated this case. He recorded the statement of Het Ram at the police station, the same day. He reached the spot. The same day he recorded the statements of Basdev and Pusey etc. S.I. Horilal Verma prepared the panchayat nama of the dead-body, challan-lash and report for post-mortem etc. under his direction in his presence. They are Exts. Ka-6 to Ka-9. Panchayat nama has been signed by him also. The dead-body was sealed and handed over to constable Surat Singh and Virendra Singh alongwith necessary papers for taking it to Eath for post-mortem. On the pointing out of the complainant he prepared site-plan which is Ext. Ka-10. Place marked as 'A" is the place where blood was found and at place "B" he found two Khokha cartridges. He took the blood stained and plain earth in possession and sealed them separately. He sealed the two Khokha cartridges also and prepared their recovery memos. It is Ext. Ka-11 one bullock-cart loaded with sugar-cane was standing at place "B" marked in the site-plan. He took it in possession and gave it in the supurdgi of Basdeo and prepared the Supurdgi- nama Ext. Ka-12. Exts.1 to 4 are the blood stained and plain earth ad Khokha of the cartridges. He searched the accused persons, but they could not be apprehended. On 28.02.1981 after completing the investigation, he submitted charge-sheet Ext. Ka-13. Before submitting the charge-sheet, he obtained warrant and process under Sections 82 and 83 Cr.P.C. against the accused. They are Exts. Ka-14 to Ka-19. On the back of these warrants, there are the reports of S.I. Virendra Singh. The reports are Exts. Ka-20 to Ka-25. Proclamations issued are Exts. 26 to Ka-31. Seven reports of their back are Exts.32 to Ka-37. Exts Ka-38 to Ka-43 are the orders for attachments and Exts Ka-44 to Ka-49 are the reports behind them. Fard attachments of the accused are Exts. Ka-50 to Ka-53. All these attachments were made by S.I. Sri Lokendra Pal Singh. Their rep;orts are also written by him. He is familiar with his handwriting. In his cross-examination he has stated that after registration of the case at about 12 in the noon till 12 O'clock in the night one report of Gamblint Act case was entered at 07:40 pm, then he said that case property under Section 13 Gambling Act was deposited and at that time report of gambling was not entered. He had sent Liladhar for medical examination from the place of occurrence.

24. His 'Rawangi' from the police station is entered on 03.12.1980 at 06:10 am. Till his Rawangi, no report of any cognizable offence was lodged. The special report of this case was sent through Special Messenger. He had reached the spot in Jeep. He has not written about the injuries of Liladhar in G.D. at it is not necessary.

He has not noted down the time of recording the statement of complainant in the case diary. His statement was recorded at the police station when he had come to lodge the report, hence the time has not been written. In the case diary, he has not written the time of going for investigation. Similarly the time for reaching on the spot is also not written. The time is written in the Panchayatnama. The time is given of beginning of writing of panchayat-nama. During the investigation he did not record the statement of Chaukidar of village Gangpur. He did not record the statement of the constable who took the dead-body for post-mortem. He did not deem it necessary to send the blood stained earth for examination to Chemical Examiner. The blood was found at one place. He did not take the chothes of Liladhar in his possession. He stated "Lash Kay Uttar Purab Ko Karib Aath Kadam Par Khokhey Parey They. He has stated that he does not show this place specifically in the site-plan Ext. Ka-10. In his site-plan, he has not shown the witnesses being present behind the bullock-cart. He has also not shown the place where Liladhar was beaten. He has not written in the case diary that Liladhar had the Parchi of sugar-cane. He had no knowledge that Liladhar had it. He had seen the place regarding which there was dispute between the accused and the complainant, but he did not prepare its site-plan. It is wrong to suggest that there report was lodged anti-time and under his evidence. It is also wrong that Liladhar had no injuries and he got them written by the doctor. P.W. Hetram has not stated before him that the remaining accused are friends of Govind and Chhadami. Het Ram had stated before him that "Merey Larkey Liladhar Nay Mujhey Kal Bataya Tha Ki Inhi Sab Log Ram Dayal Kay Chabutra Par Salah Kar Rahey They." Liladhar had not stated before him " Karua Ney Budh Singh Ko 2-3 Lathi Mari." He had stated that "Lathi Meri Thi". Liladhar had stated that 'Om Prakash Merey Upar Lathi Chori Thi". He had not stated that he fell down. It is wrong to suggest that he has written fictitious things in the case diary.

25. In their statement under Section 313 Cr.P.C. accused denied the prosecution allegation and the evidence adduced against them. They stated that they have been falsely implicated in the case due to enmity. The other accused have denied to be intimate with Govind and Chhadami. Govind and Chhadami have admitted that they are real brothers and Babu is their brother-in-law (Bahanoi). Rest they have denied. The accused have not produced any oral defence. They have filed the following documents:-

i. Khatauni extract of village Lakhimpur Gopal Singh, Tehsil Kasganj, Etah of 1383 Fasli to show the mutation order dated 17.02.1977.

ii. Photostat copy of sale-deed dated 30.04.1983 executed by Ant Ram in favour of Ram Dayal and Roshan Lal son of Gopisingh and Maya Devi wife of Ram Dayal.

26. Learned counsel for the surviving appellant Karua submitted that there is no allegation against accused appellant regarding causing of any form injury to the injured Liladhar. The witnesses have stated that appellant Karua was armed with Lathi and he gave lathi blow to deceased. However, the evidence with regard to causing of lathi blow to the deceased by the appellant Karua is not flawless. There is difference in the statement of witnesses of PW-1 and PW-2 with regard to manner and mode of commission of crime and there is no consistency in their statement with regard to sequence of events which led to death of the deceased. PW-1 informant Hetram has stated that he was told by his son Liladhar that prior to date of the incident the accused persons had assembled in the Chaupal of Ram Dayal heard that they were planning the murder of Budh Singh, but this fact is not stated in FIR. Thus, the story of hatching of conspiracy of murder amongst accused persons, one day prior to the incident has been developed only to give a colour to prosecution version, and it does not inspire confidence. Had there been any conspiracy prior to commission of murder amongst accused persons as stated by PW1- and PW-2, they would have been alarmed and must have taken some steps to secure the life of the deceased from any murderous assault. PW-1 and PW-2 have no where stated in their statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. that Karua had caused three lathi blows on the deceased, but PW-2 has stated in his evidence before the court that he had seen that Karua had caused three lathi blows, while he was sitting on sugar-cane buffalo-cart. This statement has been developed only to correspond this with postmortem report of the deceased, in which three lacerated wounds have been recorded on his person.

27. In postmortem report, cause of death has been shown as ante-mortem firearm injuries. PW-1 Hetram has also developed his version from FIR and statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. during trial where he has stated that Karua had dragged the deceased from Bullalo-cart and brought him down.

28. PW-1 has stated in his examination in chief that Karua had given lathi blow to the deceased while riding the Buffalo-cart, but this statement is product of a leading question posed by prosecution counsel, in reply to that question "whether any one had given lathi blow to Budh Singh". He next submitted that the injuries of Liladhar are of simple in nature and can be manufactured or manipulated to falsely implicated the accused/appellant for a serious charge like murder.

29. PW-1 has stated in his evidence that Karua and Om Prakash are resident of other village and accused Ran Singh (since acquitted by trial court) is also a resident of the village of Karua. He has clarified that Govind, Chhadami and Ram Dayal are his co-villagers. Karua and Ran Singh are Yadav by caste. PW-1 has stated in his cross-examination that he had scribed this fact that as soon as the cart stopped, three persons climbed thereon and assaulted Liladhar. He had not given such statement to Darogaji. In fact PW-1 was not present on the spot, there are several contradictions in the statement of PW-1 from his previous statement recorded under Section 161 Cr.P.C. and that contained in written statement Ext. Ka-1, which form basis of FIR. He has also held in cross-examination that three accused persons had fired one shot each at the deceased to make his statement correspond with fire arm injuries shown in postmortem report.

30. Appellant Karua has not been assigned any motive to commit the offence or to share common object of committing murder of the deceased. He had nothing to do with the deceased or injured Liladhar (PW-2).

31. He next submitted there there is inconsistency in sequence of events narrated by PW-1 and PW-2 interse which creates a doubt in truthfulness of prosecution version. It is quite unnatural that Liladhar had over heard the conversation of accused Ram Dayal, Chhadami, Govind as well as Om Prakash who were engaged in consultation of committing murder of Budh Singh at the Chaupal of accused Ram Dayal, as deceased was physically strong.

32. PW-1 has stated that deceased was a wrestler, accused persons used to object regarding tethering of cattle by the witness as said land was adjacent to the agricultural plot of Govind and Chhadami. Due to physical strength of deceased Budh Singh they could not succeed to grab the portion of the land of the witness.

33. This is also not natural that the accused persons out of whom three persons were armed with firearms had spared PW-1 the father of the deceased without causing even slight injury to them and only one accused Om Prakash has caused slight injuries on his son Liladhar by lathi blow.

34. He also stated that one accused Ran Singh who was charged under Section 120B IPC has been acquitted by learned trial court on two counts firstly an accused cannot be charged under Section 120B IPC all alone, for an offence under Section 120-B IPC the charge has to be framed against all the accused persons who are alleged to have been involved in hatching conspiracy and secondly, there was no evidence on record to prove the charge of criminal conspiracy against him. Even Liladhar who is sole witness of conspiracy has categorically stated that Ran Singh and Babu were not present in the Chaupal of Ram Dayal, where other accused persons were hatching conspiracy.

35. He lastly submitted that there is medical inconsistency in the case. According to eye-witness accounts three accused persons Govind, Chhadami and Ram Dayal allegedly fired at Budh Singh and according to witnesses their shot hit him, but in medical evidence the doctor PW-5 found one wound of exit which is injury No.6 and other injuries such as injury Nos.4 and 5 which are firearm injuries of entry. The doctor has opined that these three injuries could be result of only two shots. Learned counsel also drew attention of the Court towards postmortem examination of the deceased, in which it is stated that on internal examination stomach was found empty, small intestine was half full, large intestine was also half full. This state of contents of stomach and intestine of the evidence makes it evident that deceased had not taken any foodstuff prior to the incident, inasmuch as he had not eased himself prior to death on that day. Whereas PW-1 has stated that the deceased has taken one or half paratha before leaving the home for sugarcane factory. He has stated that Budh Singh had taken some break-fast before departure, thus the eye-witness account is not consistent with Medical evidence on this score also, as it is well settled that stomach gets empty after 5-6 hours of taking meal. This supports defence version that the deceased was killed on the way by some unknown miscreants in the darkness of late night and not in the light of morning as stated by witnesses. Learned counsel also submits that in fact, none of the witnesses had seen the occurrence of killing of the deceased, otherwise their evidence would be consistent with medical evidence.

36. With above submissions, learned counsel for the appellant prayed for acquittal of surviving appellant Karua and submitted that the prosecution has failed to prove its case beyond reasonable doubt.

37. Per contra, learned A.G.A. submitted that the contention raised by learned counsel for the appellant are by and enlarge taken by defence before trial court also, but same has been duly addressed by the learned trial court while recording conviction of the accused persons including surviving appellant Karua for charge under Sections 147,148, 323/149 and 302/149 IPC and proper sentence has been passed against accused appellants after proof of charges. The case is based on eye-witness account of PW-1 and PW-2, which is duly corroborated by medical evidence. There is no occasion to disbelieve evidence of injured witnesses PW-2 Liladhar who is brother of the deceased and his presence on the spot was quite natural, as father and two sons were off to Nagariya sugar-mill for crushing the sugar-cane loaded on a buffalo-cart. PW-2 Liladhar was driving the buffalo-cart and deceased was sitting on sugar-cane, their father PW-1 Hetram was following the buffalo-cart on foot from behind alongwith his brother Basdev and witness Puse. PW-1 and PW-2 both have testified that parchi (slip) of sugarcane was with PW-2 Liladhar and same could not be given to S.O. as it was required to be produced at factory gate for cane crushing.

38. There is no medical inconsistency between eye-witness account of witnesses and injuries shown in postmortem report of the deceased. The contents of stomach are not decisive to ascertain time of death.

39. Learned A.G.A. lastly submitted that the impugned judgment is based on due appreciation of evidence and application of law. The impugned judgment and order requires no interference in the present appeal.

40. We have gone through the entire record and re-appreciated the evidence on record in the light of submissions made by learned counsels for the parties in instant appeal and also passed the impugned judgment under challenge.

41. According to testimony of PW-1 and PW-2 PW-1 was accompanied by his brother Basdev and Pusey at the time of incident, as they were walking behind Buffalo-cart, on which deceased were sitting. Pusey had filed an application alongwith affidavit on 03.11.1982 before the trial court wherein he has stated that it is wrong to say that he had witnessed the incident. He came to the spot on hearing the news of killing of Budh Singh alongwith his father Het Ram and Basdev and other persons, he found Liladhar in injured condition on the spot and Budh Singh was lying dead.

42. With above affidavit statement, he has expressed his disinclination to testify as a witness in the case, whereas according to prosecution version he escaped due to fear of accused persons to avoid to appear as a witness in the case. Basdev and Pusey are named witnesses of chargesheet. Surviving accused Karua has stated his age as 25 years at the time of his statement under Section 313 Cr.P.C. in the year 1983 which depicts that at present he would be of 68 years of age. The other witness Basdev has also not been examined by prosecution for reason that he also belonged to the family of the deceased.

43. In the instant case some strong indicators in favour of prosecution version, the incident allegedly occurred on 02.12.1980 at around 06:30 am. The distance of police station from place of occurrence is shown as 5 mile (around 7 ½ Kms). The son of the informant was killed in the incident on the spot, even then, FIR was lodged at 09:05 am at police station concerned. The informant has stated that he went to police station on foot, just after the incident, leaving the dead body of the deceased in the presence of his other son Liladhar (PW-2) who also received injuries in the incident, which was caused by one of the accused namely Om Prakash by lathi. Thus FIR in the present case, on its face, value appears to be lodged promptly. There is eyewitness account of two witnesses of fact, who are father and real brother of the deceased, and one of the witnesses himself injured. The testimony of injured is placed on high pedestal. The mode and manner of the incident has also been described in the FIR, and motive of commission of crime is also introduced which has been reiterated in the statement of the witnesses recorded by Investigating Officer under Section 161 Cr.P.C. as well as in their sworn testimony before the court. However, on a meticulous examination of the evidence of said eye-witnesses, PW-1 Hetram and PW-2 Liladhar some anomalous situation surfaces which finds no plausible explanation in their evidence. There are also flaws in investigation, seven accused persons are named in written report Ext. Ka-1, however, the FIR was lodged against five named accused persons and two named accused Run Singh and Baboo were left in the FIR. His name was included during investigation, the trial court has rightly acquitted Run Singh on the ground that there is no evidence to connect him for charge of criminal conspiracy under Section 120(B) IPC in hatching conspiracy to commit murder of the deceased Budh Singh alongwith other accused persons.

44. In the said statement at the end of written report Ext. Ka-1 the assailants are assisted by Ran Singh Ahir, R/o Mirapurwa and Baboo Lodh, R/o Chak Thanaganj., there is no material to connect them with the offence in question. In fact, the Investigating Officer filed chargesheet against Run Singh without any supportive material collected against him during investigation. The other accused Baboo Lodh in written report who is said to be brother-in-law of main accused Govind and Chhadami was not chargesheeted and did not face trial.

45. In prosecution evidence, this fact surfaced that the place of incident is 1 km away from the village of the informant and deceased. According to FIR version and testimony of PW-1 and PW-2 the five named accused persons namely Govind, Chhadami, Ram Dayal, Om Prakash and Karua emerged from western side gunders (Shrubs), when the deceased Budh Singh was going to unload sugarcane at Nagariya Sugar Mill; the sugarcane was loaded on a Buffalo cart, which was driven by PW-2 Liladhar who is real brother, his father Hetram (PW-1) accompanied by his brother Basdev and relative Pusey was following them. The incident occurred within limit of village Gangpur, H/o of kunwarpur near phooti ghata culvert. The accused Govind, Chhadami and Ram Dayal are co-villagers of the deceased and witnesses. The accused Om Prakash and Karua are resident of some other village. The motive has been imputed against accused Govind and Chhadami who are real brothers. Other accused persons are stated to be intimated to Govind and Chhadami. The motive of commission of offence is shown as some land dispute between the deceased and witnesses. On one hand, accused Govind and Chhadami and on the other hand regarding tethering of cattle by informant side on said land. The main dispute was between the deceased and two accused persons, as deceased was a wrestler and physically strong. The accused persons could not succeed to dispossess him from piece of of land. No enmity had been suggested by prosecution with the deceased and witnesses.

46. Accused Ram Dayal stated in his statement under Section 313 Cr.P.C. that he had purchased a land in Nagla Hamirpur, due to which witnesses got enraged, he has been falsely implicated due to enmity. Accused Karua has stated that there was no enmity between him and deceased side, there might be some enmity, but he is not aware of that. Accused Om Prakash has stated that he has been falsely implicated due to village party bandi and enmity. Accused Govind and Chhadami have also pleaded any specific enmity with the informant side and has given a general statement that this case was instituted against them, due to enmity.

47. There is some contradiction in sequence of events mentioned by the informant in FIR and his sworn testimony before the court as PW-1. In FIR he has stated that as soon as the accused persons came across the buffalo cart driven by Liladhar, on which deceased was sitting. Then Govind and Chhadami challenged Budh Singh and asked Liladhar to stop the cart, as soon as the cart stopped, Govind, Chhadami and Karua climbed over it. Liladhar tried to stop them, and in the meanwhile Om Prakash started assaulting Liladhar by Lathi and Karua had also attacked Budh Singh by lathi. Thereafter, all the five accused persons had brought down the deceased from the card and made him stand. The accused Govind, Chhadami and Ram Dayal had fired shots at the deceased by the respective country made pistol, which hit him and he fell down and died instantly.

48. According to informant, he went to police station from the place of incident to lodge the FIR which is scribed by one Nathuram, R/o of Gangpur, the scribed of written report Ext. Ka.-1 was not produced in evidence. However, the informant has acknowledged the contents of written report and his thumb impression affixed thereon.

49. PW-1 Hetram has not stated about the role played in the offence by Karua on first hand and when he was asked by prosecution counsel, as to who had given a lathi blow to Budh Singh, he replied that Karua had given lathi blow to Budh Singh on climbing the cart. Thus this statement is product of a leading question. In FIR, PW-1 has stated that three persons Govind, Chhadami and Karua got on the Buffalo cart, but in his examination in chief before the Court he stated that four persons namely Govind, Chhadami, Ram Dayal and Karua got on the vehicle. The conspiracy introduced during investigation does not inspire confidence. In FIR, there is no such statement that witness Liladhar had stated to the informant that on the eve of the fateful incident when he was passing through the Chaupal of accused Ram Dayal on pathway, he heard the conversation of Ram Dayal, Govind, Chhadami, Karua, Ran Singh and Baboo were engaged in consultation, that if Budh Singh happens to move alone he should be killed, because he is physically strong in his family. If this is so, and Liladhar had ever heard the consultation amongst accused persons it is quite natural that he would have become alarmed and discussed this matter while returning at home with his brother Budh Singh (deceased) and father, but he kept mum all alone and surprisingly disclosed this fact after death of his brother. This fact does not find mention in FIR. In contradiction to statement of PW-2 on this score, PW-1 stated the Liladhar had told him about the consultation amongst accused persons at the Chaupal of Ram Dayal one day prior to the incident.

40. PW-1 has stated in his evidence that Liladhar had told him that all the named accused persons Govind, Chhadami, Ram Dayal, Om Prakash, Karua, Ran Singh and Baboo were assembled at the Chaupal of Ram Dayal and in consultation to eliminate Budh Singh, if he happened to meet them alone.

41. PW-2 Liladhar who is alleged witness of this consultation has stated in his statement that he ever heard consultation amongst Govind, Chhadami, Ram Dayal, Om Prakash and Karua at the Chaupal of Ram Dayal at around 04:00 pm on one day prior to the incident. He categorically stated that Ran Singh and Baboo were not present in the chaupal. Thus, it appears that this conspiracy aspect has been introduced to fortify prosecution version.

42. PW-1 has submitted in his statement that prior to consultation there was a Rahat and Well in joint possession of the witness and accused Govind and Chhadami. After consultation that Rahat and Well came into share of Govind and Chhadami, he had not taken any compensation for that. He had denied the defence suggestion that Govind and Chhadami had stopped supply of water to their field. He admitted that he still irrigates his field from the water of Rahat and Well. Thus apart from that a piece of land, regarding which some dispute is lying between the parties regarding tethering of Baboo by witnesses. There is not other motive that has been proved against accused persons. However, we cannot over look the legal position that in a case based on direct evidence the motive loses much of its significants. PW-1 has stated in his evidence that he accompanied with his brother Basdev and Pusey was following the buffalo cart, on which deceased Budh Singh and his other son Liladhar were present. Out of these two witnesses Pusey has filed an affidavit before trial court that he was not present on the spot and he had not seen the incident and came to the place of incident after being apprised of it alongwith Hetram (PW-1), Pusey and other persons of the village. The buffalo cart was driven by PW-2 Liladhar and deceased was sitting over sugarcane loaded on it. It does not appeal to reason that what was occasion for PW-1 to follow the cart from village to sugarcane factory on foot and that too being accompanied by his brother and co-villager Pusey. Even, Basdev the real brother of PW-1 was not produced as a witness during the evidence.

43. The injuries of PW-2 Liladhar are proved by Dr. S.D. Mishra (PW-3) who stated that he conducted medico legal examination of the injured Liladhar on 02.12.1980 at 04:05 PM and six injuries were found on his person, out of which five injuries were visible and one is complaint of pain on upper portion of head. The injuries were detected on left side of back, right side of back, right shoulder joint, left thigh. All the five visible injuries are in the nature of contusion. In the opinion of doctor the injuries were of simple nature and might have been caused by some blunt object lathi and danda. These injuries could not be manufactured, but if a person has endurance to bear such pain, then only can the same may be manufactured.

44. Be that it may, one thing is clear that the injuries found on person of injured Liladhar is not on vital part, are of simple nature and were not of substantial nature. There is difference of ten hours between infliction of alleged injuries and medico legal examination. Therefore, on the basis of this injury report, the prosecution evidence may not be taken on its face value. Both the witnesses of facts have stated in their sworn testimony that all three accused persons namely Govind, Chhadami, Ram Dayal and Karua are armed with country made pistols had fired one shot each at the deceased, when he was brought down from the cart by them and the shots fired by them hit him. In another words, according to witnesses of facts, the deceased suffered three fire arm shots, but in postmortem report of the deceased, two wounds of entry and one wound of exit was detected on the person of a deceased, as an ante-mortem injury.

45. PW-5 Dr. M.K. Agarwal who is author of the postmortem report has stated in his cross-examination that cause of death was antemortem fire arm injuries, which was sufficient to cause death. 14 pellets were present in cavity of lungs, left lung was lacerated, total 29 numbers of pellets were retrieved from the dead body, which was sealed and sent to S.P. Etah. Cause of death was shock and hemorrhage. The deceased might have received three blows of blunt object and two fire arm shots. Thus, on the point of number of shots fired at the deceased there is inconsistency between ocular account of the incident and medical evidence. This fact is also relevant that PW-5 has stated in his evidence that stomach of the deceased was empty at the time of postmortem, which indicates that he would have taken meal 5-6 hours before his death. In postmortem examination, both the intestines were found half full and half empty.

46. According to prosecution version, the incident occurred at around 06:30 AM at a place when the deceased and witnesses were on way to sugar factory from their native village. The place of the incident is said to be 1 km far from the resident of the deceased. This implies that the deceased would have started for sugar factory for crushing of sugarcane loaded on Buffalo cart at around 06:00 am. The incident occurred in the month of December, 1983, which is a season of winter.

47. The stomach of the deceased was empty in postmortem report, even if the contention of learned A.G.A. is accepted that it is not necessary that the bowel of a person gets clear in the morning when he goes to ease himself, for many reasons like constipation or deceased would have thought to get himself eased on the way to sugar factory, yet the factum of emptiness of stomach is inconsistent with the testimony of PW-1, wherein he has stated in cross-examination that the deceased had taken some breakfast, just before leaving the home on fateful day. He could have taken one or half paratha as a meal, if this statement of PW-1 is accepted, then there is no reason as to how the stomach of the deceased was found empty in postmortem report, where there is some what a difference of around half hours, for taking of said breakfast and homicidal death of the deceased caused by assassins. In medico legal jurisprudence, this is settled position that it takes 4-6 hours to complete the process of digestion of food, and thereafter the meal be send to intestines. This medical inconsistency fortifies the defence version that in fact the deceased was killed by some assailants in the darkness of wee hours on fateful day and not at the time as propounded by prosecution in FIR version and in its evidence.

48. The above medical inconsistency between ocular testimony and medical evidence creates a cloud on testimony of prosecution witnesses and also creates a strong doubt about the fact that whether they had actually seen the incident of killing of the deceased.

49. In this connection a recent judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in Moti Vs. State of U.P. AIR, 2003 SC (1897) is relevant, wherein it has been observed as under:-

"14. It is rather surprising that the High Court should find this part of the medical evidence as being of no consequence at all. The High Court referring to this part of the medical evidence has observed : "In our opinion the stomach contents are not very material to determine the time of incident." We are of the considered opinion this view of the High Court is wholly erroneous. It may be possible to contend that contents of the stomach may not always be an indicator of the time of death. But in a case where stomach is empty and the prosecution evidence is that the murder had taken place shortly after the deceased had his last meal, to say that the contents of the stomach have no material hearing on the determination of the time, in our opinion, is not acceptable. In the instant case, time of death being a material factor to verify the presence of the eye-witnesses it was obligatory for the prosecution to have clarified the discrepancy between the medical evidence and the oral evidence. The prosecution having failed to do so, in our opinion, a serious doubt as to the time of incident and the presence of the eye-witnesses at the time of incident and their narration of the incident also becomes doubtful.

15. Incidentally, we may also notice that even according to the prosecution, appellant Moti had no motive to commit the crime in question. The incident as narrated by the eye-witnesses having taken place in a place where there was no proper light to identify the actual accused who dealt the fatal blow also contributes to the factum of doubt in the prosecution case. Therefore, in our opinion, the prosecution has failed to establish its case against the appellant Moti."

50. The investigation is also faulty in the case. The Investigating Officer has admitted that he has not shown the place in site plan from where the witnesses had seen the occurrence. He has also not indicated the track of the route of arrival of accused persons. However, he has shown the plants of goothers from which the accused persons allegedly emerged. The blood stained earth, plain earth and two empty cartridge shells recovered from the place of incident, were not sent to chemical /material examination to Forensic Science Laboratory. The witnesses have improved their version in their sworn testimony before the court from the earlier statement recorded under section 161 Cr.P.C. on many aspects, which is apparent from the testimony of prosecution witnesses and that of investigating officer of the case.

51. All the appellants, except appellant No.4 Karua have already died during the pendency of present appeal. Inasmuch as appellant Karua is said to have inflicted three lathi blow to the deceased, resulting in three lacerated wounds on his persons which appear to be simple in nature. On perusal of the postmortem report and the opinion of doctor who is author of postmortem report, the cause of death was shock and hemorrhage caused by fire arm injuries i.e. injury No.5 and 6. Thus, appellant Karua cannot be said to have contributed the resultant death of the deceased Budh Singh.

52. In view of foregoing discussion based on re-appreciation of evidence on record, we are of the considered opinion that learned trial court fell into error for recording conviction of the accused persons for said charges. Prosecution has failed to prove the guilt of the accused persons beyond reasonable doubt. Consequently, the conviction and sentence passed by learned trial court against the accused Karua for charge under Section 147, 302/149 IPC fails and is liable to be set-aside.

53. The conviction and sentence awarded by trial court to the surviving appellant Karua is set-aside. He is acquitted of said charges under Section 147, 302/149 IPC, he has been enlarged on bail by order of this Court during the pendency of the appeal. He need not surrender. He is directed to furnish two sureties and a personal bond to the satisfaction of the trial court in compliance of Section 437-A Cr.P.C. within fifteen days from today. The Criminal Appeal is accordingly allowed.

54. Let a copy of this judgment trial together with the trial court record be forwarded to learned trial court for compliance.

55. Before parting with the case, we deeply appreciate the valuable assistance rendered by Sri Priyansh, Advocate, learned Amicus Curiae who argued the case on behalf of surviving appellant Karua. He will receive Rs.25,000/- as honorarium from High Court, Legal Aid Committee.

Issue for Consideration

The matter pertains to matrimonial disputes in which wife of appellant no.1 alleged that she was harrased and beaten by in –laws for dowry.

Headnotes

A. Criminal matter-Criminal Procedure Code,1973-Section 374(2), 389, 482-Indian Penal Code,1860-Section 307-Powers of appellate court-Quashing of conviction based on compromise in matrimonial disputes-When the wife and husband settle their differences, resume cohabitation, and have lived peacefully for decades with children born from the marriage, continuation of criminal proceedings would be an abuse of process law-The conviction can be set aside to preserve family harmony.

Held

The court held that where the medical report and doctor's testimony reveal that the injuries caused to the victim were simple and not on any vital part of the body, the offence u/s 307 IPC is not made out-Even though Section 307 IPC is non-compoundable, the High Court in exercise of its appellate jurisdiction can, in exceptional circumstances, quash the conviction to secure the ends of justice, particularly in cases arising out of matrimonial disputes where parties have amicably settled and are living together.(Para 22 to 47)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Madan Pal Singh, J.)

1. Heard Mr. M.C. Singh, learned counsel for the appellant and Mr. Raj Bahadur Verma, learned A.G.A. for the State.

2. The instant criminal appeal is directed against the judgment and order dated 8th December, 1987 passed by the Special Judge (E.C. Act) in Sessions Trial No. 376 of 1984 (State Vs. Pramod Kumar & 2 Others) under Sections 307 and 307/34 I.P.C., Police Station-Zarifnagar, District-Budaun, whereby the accused-appellant nos. 1 and 3 have been convicted for the offence punishable under Section 307 I.P.C. and accused-appellant no.2 Ram Patti has been convicted for the offence punishable under Section 307/34 I.P.C. and they had been sentenced as follows:

"1. Accused-appellant no.1 was sentenced to undergo rigorous imprisonment for a term of 5 years and fine of Rs. 5,000/- and in default thereof, he had to further undergo 1 year rigorous imprisonment;

2. Accused-appellant no.3 Smt. Vidyawati was sentenced to undergo 3 years rigorous imprisonment and a fine of Rs. 2,000/- and in default thereof, she had to further undergo six month rigorous imprisonment;

3. Accused-appellant no.2 Ram Patti was sentenced to 2 years rigorous imprisonment and fine of Rs. 1,000/- and in default thereof, he had to further undergo 3 months rigorous imprisonment."

3. Brief facts, giving rise to the questions involved in this case, are that the parents of the complainant Kiran and the accused persons, namely Pramod Kumar, Ram Patti and Smt. Vidyawati are the resident of village Auntar, Police Station Zarifnagar District Budaun. Accused-appellant no.1 Pramod Kumar is son of accused-appellant nos. 2 and 3, namely, Ram Patti and Smt. Vidyawati. In the complaint, it was alleged that the marriage of complainant Kiran was solemnized with accused-appellant no.1 before a year of the said complaint. In the marriage, father of the complainant gave sufficient dowry, according to his means and status. The accused-appellant being greedy did not satisfy with the dowry so given by her parents. All of them started teasing the young bride for bringing inadequate dowry and she was subjected to day today teasing and ill-treatment from her husband and in-laws. She was also subjected to beating by the accused-appellant time and again for additional demand of dowry. On the fateful night of 5th June, 1983, the accused-appellant no.1 Pramod Kumar, as usual started beating the complainant Smt. Kiran. His parents also joined him after some time. All of them caught hold of and placed her hands beneath legs of cot and was given merciless beating by fists and legs. They also shouted while beating the complainant Smt. Kiran for bringing a motor-cycle and Rs. 5000/- from her parents, otherwise she would be finished one day or other. On showing her inability to fulfil the said additional demand of dowry, the accused-appellant Pramod Kumar became so furious and exhorted his parents to teach her a lesson. On the said exhortation, accused-appellant no.3 Smt. Vidyawati brought kerosene oil and poured the same on her and then, the accused-appellant Pramod Kumar set her on fire on which the complainant Kiran started shouting for her help. Hearing the said voice, witnesses, namely, Lakhan, Mahendra Pal, Girdhari and Several persons of the village came to the house of the accused-appellants. On reaching there, they saw the terror which was writ large on the face of the complainant Kiran. Seeing them complainant Kiran sobbed and disclosed the entire story to them in coherent sentences. The family members of the complainant also came there. Soon after she was rescued and was relieved from her greedy parents in-laws. The complainant Kiran was brought to her parents house. The matter could not be reported to police immediately due to threat and of accused-appellants. The complainant could manage to go to the District Police Chief on 7th June, 1983 and gave written report to him personally. The District Police Chief directed the Station Officer of concerning Police Station to register the case against the accused persons and get the complainant medically examined. The report was handed over at Police Station on 9th June, 1983 at 08:15 a.m. and on the basis of which chik report (exhibit ka-3) was prepared. The relevant entries was also made in General Diary. The carbon copy has been proved as Exhibit Ka-4. The complainant Kiran was medically examined at Primary Health Centre, Digawan on 9th June, 1983 at 10:30 a.m. When the police of Police Station Zarifnagar did not investigate the case properly and submitted final report in the case before the court concerned on 21st November, 1983, in the meantime, the complainant had filed private complaint in the court of Munsif Magistrate (Economic Offences). The complaint has been proved as (Ext. Ka-2). The learned Magistrate after recording the statement of complainant, Smt. Kiran under Section 200 Cr.P.C. and also after perusing other papers submitted therewith did not agree with the investigation of the police and rejected the final report vide his detailed order dated 2nd May, 1984. The accused persons were committed to the court of Sessions. The sessions trial as received to the Court of Special Judge (E.C. Act), Budaun by way of where accused persons put in appearance and stood charge as aforesaid and have been facing trial hither to.

4. The Prosecution, in support of its case, has examined Prosecution Witness No.1 i.e Complainant Smt. Kiran, Prosecution Witness No. 2 Lakhan, as witnesses of fact. Besides the above, the prosecution has also banked upon the evidence of constable Onkar Singh (P.W.-3) and Dr. T.A. Rafat as (P.W.-4).

5. P.W.-3 constable Onkar Singh is a formal witness. He has proved the chik report, copy of G.D. and a copy of N.C.R. lodged by one Ram Pratap. This report has been proved as Exhibit Ka-4.

6. Dr. T.A. Rafat (P.W.-4) had examined the injuries of the complainant Kiran and he had found following injuries on the person of complainant Kiran:

"1. Superficial burn 2 cm. X 1.5 cm over left ring finger at the top.

2. Diffuse tramatic swelling in the centre of right hand. Moment of the hand was found normal .

3. Tramatic swelling and pain over right elbow and upper part of right arm."

7. After medically examined the complainant Kiran, the P.W.-4 had opined that injury no.1 was simple and caused by burn and was about 4 days old. Injury nos. 2 and 3 were also simple and caused by some some blunt weapon and they were also about four days old. The injury report of the complainant Kiran had been proved as Exhibit Ka-6.

8. In the statements recorded under Section 313 Cr.P.C., the accused-appellants denied their participation in the alleged crime and attributed to their false implication in the case. The accused-appellant Pramod Kumar had stated in his statement that merely as the complainant Kiran was beautiful, he married her without taking any dowry from her parents. He further stated that only in order to grab money from him, the father of the complainant engineered the false case in collusion with the complainant Kiran. The accused-appellant no.2 Ram Patti had stated in his statement that under the influence of her father and witness Lakhan, who was in his party, had filed the present case against them. He further stated that he had not demanded any dowry in the marriage of his son i.e. accused-appellant Pramod Kumar. The same version had been reiterated by the accused-appellant no.3 Smt. Vidyawati.

9. Initially, the accused-appellant had stated that they would adduce oral defence but thereafter vide endorsement dated 15th October, 1987, it was mentioned that no oral defence would be adduced.

10. After considering the oral as well as documentary evidence adduced during the course of the trial and after hearing the counsel for parties, vide impugned judgment and order dated 8th December, 1987 passed in Sessions Trial No. 376 of 1984 (State Vs. Pramod Kumar & 2 Others) under Sections 307, 307/34 I.P.C., Police Station-Zarifnagar, District-Budaun, the trial court found the accused-appellant nos. 1 and 3, Pramod Kumar and Smt. Vidyawati guilty for the offence punishable under Section 307 I.P.C., whereas the accused-appellant no.2 Ram Patti was found guilty for the offence punishable under Section 307 read with Section 34 I.P.C. After conviction, the trial court has accused-appellant no.1 to undergo rigorous imprisonment for a term of 5 years and fine of Rs. 5,000/- and in default thereof, he had to further undergo 1 year rigorous imprisonment; accused-appellant no.3 Smt. Vidyawati to undergo 3 years rigorous imprisonment and a fine of Rs. 2,000/- and in default thereof, she had to further undergo six month rigorous imprisonment; and the accused-appellant no.2 Ram Patti was sentenced to 2 years rigorous imprisonment and fine of Rs. 1,000/- and in default thereof, he had to further undergo 3 months rigorous imprisonment.

11. It is against this judgment and order of the trial court, the present criminal appeal has been filed.

12. When the present appeal was entertained, a Coordinate Bench of this Court vide order dated 14th December, 1987 enlarged the accused-appellants on bail. During the pendency of the appeal, since the appellant nos. 2 and 3, namely, Ram Patti and Smt. Vidyawati had died, the present appeal at their behest had already been abated vide order dated 3rd September, 2013 by a Coordinate Bench of this Court.

13. After 2013, when this appeal has come up for hearing before this Court on 11th September, 2025, Mr. M.C. Singh, learned counsel appearing for appellant no.1 has stated that since the appellant no.1 Pramod Kumar and the complainant Smt. Kiran who are husband and wife respectively after settling their disputes amicably, had entered into compromise just after filing of the instant appeal i.e in the year 1987 and they are living happily as husband and wife along with their children. In that regard the learned counsel for the appellant no.1 has also filed a joint affidavit annexing the copy of the compromise which has been brought on record.

14. In the joint affidavit, which has been brought on record, both appellant no.1 (deponent no.1 in the affidavit) and the complainant Kiran (deponent no.2 in the affidavit) have stated as under:

"1. That the deponent no. 1 is the appellant no.1 in the aforesaid appeal and doing pairvi of his case and as such they he is well acquainted with the facts deposed to below:-

2. That the deponent no.2, who is victim-injured, W/o appellant no.1, who is well acquainted with the facts deposed to below.

3. at is stated that the That the outset it appellant no.2 and 3, namely Rampatti and Smt. Vidyawati, died long back. The aforesaid appeal against appellant no.2 and 3, stands abated by this Hon'ble Court by order dated 03.09.2013.

4. That both the deponents who are husband and wife respectively, with best efforts of members of both the families living together since 1988, till date.

5. That from their wed lock there are four children, three boys, namely, Anshul aged about 30 years, Ankit aged about 28 years and Himanshu aged about 26 years, and one daughter, namely, Monika aged about 25 years.

6. That at present deponent no.2, Smt. Kiran W/o Pramod Kumar, has no grudge/complaint against Pramod Kumar appellant no.1.

7. That as both the deponents settled their disputes with the efforts of elder members of both the families and living together since 1988, after filing the aforesaid appeal in this Hon'ble Court in the year 1987.

8. That both the deponents jointly prayed that as both the deponents settled their disputes, who are husband and wife and living together and from their wed lock four children born and has no grudge/complaint against each other the aforesaid appeal be disposed of acquitting the appellant no.1.

9. That it is pertinent to mention here that first informant Sri Suratpal, who was father in law of deponent no.1-appellant no.1, and father injured-victim, Smt. Kiran, died long back about 15 years back. of

10. That this joint affidavit be treated as the part of the criminal appeal and be considered at the time of the disposal of the aforesaid appeal."

15. Learned counsel for the accused-appellant no. 1 submits that the offence under Section 307 I.P.C. is a non-compoundable offence, as is clear from the perusal of the table referred to under Section 320 Cr.P.C. However, this Hon'ble Court having appellate jurisdiction can quash the proceeding in cases of non compoundable offences.

16. Learned counsel for the accused-appellant no.1 has further submitted that though the offence under Section 307 IPC is non-compoundable offence, but, in the present case, when the parties have entered into compromise and both are living as husband and wife under one roof alongwith their two sons and daughter, impugned judgment and order of the trial court against the accused-appellant no.1 may be quashed as the pendency of the instant appeal against him, would be an abuse of process of the law and this Court will vitiate the purpose of compromise and cordial relationship between the husband and wife along with their children.

17. Learned counsel for the accused-appellant no.1 has lastly submitted that the Bombay High Court as well as Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana High Court in the cases of Kiran Tulsiram Ingle vs. Anupama P. Gayakwad reported in 2006 0 Supreme (Bom) 1151 and Vinay Kumar Vs. State of U.P. and another; reported in 2016 0 Supreme (P & H) 243, even after conviction, Hon'ble Courts have been pleased to quash the criminal proceeding during the pendency of the appeal, exercising the power under Section 482 Cr.P.C.

18. To further bolster the aforesaid submissions, learned counsel for the applicants has placed reliance upon the following judgments of the Punjab and Haryana High Court, Bombay High Court and the Apex Court:

i. Vinay Kumar (Supra);

ii. Kiran Tulsiram Ingle (Supra);

iii. Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab reported in (2012) 10 SCC 303; and (iv) Ramgopal & Anr. Vs. State of Madhya Pradesh reported in 2021 Legal Egale (SC) 569.

In view of aforesaid submissions, learned counsel for the applicants submitted that the proceedings of the above mentioned criminal case are liable to be quashed by this Court as also the consequences thereof, i.e., conviction of the applicants is also liable to be set aside.

19. Alternatively, learned counsel for the appellant no.1 submits that since, as per the medical examination report and the testimony of the doctor who had medically examined the victim/complainant as P.W.-4, all the injuries found on the person of the victim/complainant are simple in nature and not on the vital part of her body and also the superficial burn injury found on the body of the victim/complainant is at the top of her left ring finger and such injuries are not sufficient to cause death of the victim, therefore, no case under Section 307 I.P.C. for causing such injuries upon her is made out against the appellant no.1, whereas, for such injuries, at the most offence under Section 324 I.P.C. would be made out against the appellant no.1.

20. Learned counsel for the appellant no.1, thus, submits that as Section 324 I.P.C. provides for a maximum punishment of three years and fine, therefore, considering the age of the appellant no.1 i.e. about 66 years, the period of incarceration already undergone by him and the period of the instant appeal, which is pending since 1987, he may be acquitted while setting a side the impugned judgment.

21. Mr. Raj Bahadur Verma, learned A.G.A. for the State has opposed the prayer made by the learned counsel for appellant no.1 by contending that since appellant no.1 has been convicted for the offence under Section 307 I.P.C. which is non-compoundable, this Court, in exercise of appellate powers under Section 374 read with Section 389 Cr.P.C. cannot quash the impugned judgment and order of the conviction passed against appellant no.1 on the basis of compromise. However, learned A.G.A. for the State could not dispute the fact that as per the medical evidence, the appellant no.1 at most could be convicted under Section 324 I.P.C. and not under Section 307 I.P.C. He also could not dispute the age of the appellant no.1 and the pendency of the instant appeal.

22. I have considered the facts and circumstances of the case, arguments so advanced by the learned counsel for the appellant no.1 and learned A.G.A., perused the material available on record including the impugned judgment of conviction and specifically the contents of the compromise so entered into between the parties.

23. Before proceeding any further, this Court, first, may come on the merits of the impugned judgment of conviction. During the course of argument, learned counsel for the appellant no.1 did not question the entire judgment of the trial court. He has only questioned a part of the same in which the trial court has convicted the appellants including appellant no.1 under section 307 I.P.C. instead of Section 324 I.P.C. even though the offence under Section 307 I.P.C. was neither made out nor proved against them as per the medical evidence and the testimony of P.W.-4.. As per the medical examination report of the victim/complainant and the testimony of P.W.-4 who medically examined the victim/complainant, the injuries found on the person of the victim/complainant are simple in nature and not on the vital part of her body, meaning thereby that the same could not sufficient to cause death to the victim in any manner. For causing such injuries, only Section 324 I.P.C. could be made out against the appellant no.1 and said offence under Section 324 I.P.C. could be proved against him. Therefore, this Court is of the considered opinion that the impugned judgment of conviction of appellant no.1 is liable to be altered from Section 307 I.P.C. to Section 324 I.P.C. Hence the conviction as awarded by the trial court under the impugned judgment is hereby modified to that extent only.

24. Now at this juncture, the issues which are up for consideration before this Court are whether (i) this Court first can convert non-compoundable offence into compoundable one (Section 324 I.P.C. in the facts of the present case), and (ii) quash/set aside the impugned judgment and order of conviction passed against appellant no.1 while exercising its appellate power under Section 374/389 Cr.P.C. to arrive at the ends of justice and in view of compromise so arrived at between the parties, who are none other than the husband and wife, when there is no equally efficacious course is open for the parties to get the relief prayed for herein.

25. There are authoritative judicial precedents where the Apex Court has approved the quashing of the proceedings when it found that they emanated from mutual marital discord, even though the proceedings included some offences, which were not compoundable (Section 324/307I.P.C. in the facts of the present case). In the present case, the dispute is matrimonial in nature, i.e., between the husband and wife in which the husband, father-in-law and mother-in-law of the wife have been convicted by the court below and they filed an appeal against the order of conviction. In the appeal, they have been enlarged on bail and for happy and peaceful life of the husband and wife as also the life of their son, they have settled their disputes during the pendency of the appeal and both husband and wife arrived at a compromise. After compromise, they are living together happily along with their sons and daughter, namely, Anshul aged about 30 years, Ankit aged about 28 years, Himanshu aged about 26 years and Monika aged about 25 years respectively. This Court, therefore, deems it appropriate and expedient to quash the impugned judgment and order of conviction, as it will result into a fruitless and vain exercise in the peaceful life of husband and wife as also their sons and daughter.

26. In various judgments, the Apex Court has held that if the parties have settled their disputes and arrived at a compromise for their safe and peaceful life, the High Court, in exercise of its inherent power i.e. under Section 482 Cr.P.C., can quash the criminal proceedings initiated under the compoundable and non-compoundable sections if the same relate to offences arising from commercial, financial, mercantile, civil, partnership or such like transactions or offences arising out of matrimony relating to dowry etc., or family disputes, as it would be unfair or contrary to interest of justice to continue with criminal proceeding or continuation of criminal proceeding would tantamount to abuse of process of law and to secure ends of justice.

27. The Apex Court in the case of B.S. Joshi & Others VS. State of Haryana & Another reported in (2003) 4 SCC 675 has opined that while exercising power of quashing under Section 482 Cr.P.C., it is for the High Court to take into consideration any special features which appear in a particular case to consider whether it is expedient and in the interest of justice to permit a prosecution to continue. Where, in the opinion of the Court chances of an ultimate conviction is bleak and therefore, no useful purpose is likely to be served by allowing a criminal prosecution to continue, the Court may, while taking into consideration the special facts of a case, also quash the proceedings. The special features in such matrimonial matters are evident. It becomes the duty of the Court to encourage genuine settlements of matrimonial disputes. Paragraph nos. 2, 13 to 15 of the said judgment, which are relevant, read as follows:

"2.The question that falls for determination in the instant case is about the ambit of the inherent powers of the High Courts under Section 482, Code of Criminal Procedure (Code) read with Articles 226 and 227 of the Constitution of India to quash criminal proceedings. The scope and ambit of power under Section 482 has been examined by this Court in catena of earlier decisions but in the present case that is required to be considered in relation to matrimonial disputes. The matrimonial disputes of the kind in the present case have been on considerable increase in recent times resulting in filing of complaints by the wife under Sections 498A and 406, IPC not only against the husband but his other family members also. When such matters are resolved either by wife agreeing to rejoin the matrimonial home or mutual separation of husband and wife and also mutual settlement of other pending disputes as a result whereof both sides approach the High Court and jointly pray for quashing of the criminal proceedings or the First Information Report or complaint filed by the wife under Sections 498A and 406, IPC, can the prayer be declined on the ground that since the offences are non-compoundable under Section 320 of the Code and, therefore, it is not permissible for the Court to quash the criminal proceedings or FIR or complaint.

13. The observations made by this Court, though in a slightly different context, in G.V. Rao v. L.H.V. Prasad & Ors. [(2000) 3 SCC 693] are very apt for determining the approach required to be kept in view in matrimonial dispute by the courts, it was said that there has been an outburst of matrimonial disputes in recent times. Marriage is a sacred ceremony, the main purpose of which is to enable the young couple to settle down in life and live peacefully. But little matrimonial skirmishes suddenly erupt which often assume serious proportions resulting in commission of heinous crimes in which elders of the family are also involved with the result that those who could have counselled and brought about rapprochement are rendered helpless on their being arrayed as accused in the criminal case. There are many other reasons which need not be mentioned here for not encouraging matrimonial litigation so that the parties may ponder over their defaults and terminate their disputes amicably by mutual agreement instead of fighting it out in a court of law where it takes years and years to conclude and in that process the parties lose their "young" days in chasing their "cases" in different courts.

14. There is no doubt that the object of introducing Chapter XX-A containing Section 498A in the Indian Penal Code was to prevent the torture to a woman by her husband or by relatives of her husband. Section 498A was added with a view to punishing a husband and his relatives who harass or torture the wife to coerce her or her relatives to satisfy unlawful demands of dowry. The hyper-technical view would be counter productive and would act against interests of women and against the object for which this provision was added. There is every likelihood that non-exercise of inherent power to quash the proceedings to meet the ends of justice would prevent women from settling earlier. That is not the object of Chapter XXA of Indian Penal Code.

15. In view of the above discussion, we hold that the High Court in exercise of its inherent powers can quash criminal proceedings or FIR or complaint and Section 320 of the Code does not limit or affect the powers under Section 482 of the Code."

28. The Apex Court in the case of Nikhil Merchant Vs. Central Bureau of Investigation & Anr. reported in (2008) 9 SCC 677, keeping in mind the decision of the Apex Court in the case of B.S. Joshi (Supra) has held that this is a fit case where technicality should not be allowed to stand in the way in quashing of the criminal proceedings, since, in our view, the continuance of the same after compromise arrived at between the parties would be a futile exercise. For ready reference, Paragraph nos. 29, 30, 31 which are relevant, read as follows:

"29. Despite the ingredients and the factual content of an offence of cheating punishable under Section 420 IPC, the same has been made compoundable under Sub-section (2) of Section 320 Cr.P.C. with the leave of the Court. Of course, forgery has not been included as one of the compoundable offences, but it is in such cases that the principle enunciated in B.S. Joshi's case (supra) becomes relevant.

30. In the instant case, the disputes between the Company and the Bank have been set at rest on the basis of the compromise arrived at by them whereunder the dues of the Bank have been cleared and the Bank does not appear to have any further claim against the Company. What, however, remains is the fact that certain documents were alleged to have been created by the appellant herein in order to avail of credit facilities beyond the limit to which the Company was entitled. The dispute involved herein has overtones of a civil dispute with certain criminal facets. The question which is required to be answered in this case is whether the power which independently lies with this Court to quash the criminal proceedings pursuant to the compromise arrived at, should at all be exercised?

31. On an overall view of the facts as indicated hereinabove and keeping in mind the decision of this Court in B.S. Joshi's case (supra) and the compromise arrived at between the Company and the Bank as also clause 11 of the consent terms filed in the suit filed by the Bank, we are satisfied that this is a fit case where technicality should not be allowed to stand in the way in the quashing of the criminal proceedings, since, in our view, the continuance of the same after the compromise arrived at between the parties would be a futile exercise."

29. The Apex Court in the case of the State of Madhya Pradesh Vs. Laxmi Narayan & Others reported in (2019) 5 SCC 688, has held that mere compromise between the parties would not be ground to accept the same resulting in acquittal of the offender, who has already been convicted by the trial court. Here charge is proved under Section 307 IPC and conviction is already recorded of a heinous crime and therefore, there is no question of sparing a convict found guilty of such a crime. But the Apex Court in the said judgment, taking into consideration the judgment of the Apex Court in the case of Gian Singh (Supra), has opined that while exercising its powers, the High Court is to examine as to whether the possibility of conviction is remote and bleak and continuation of criminal cases would put the accused to great oppression and prejudice causing extreme injustice to him by not quashing the criminal cases. The Apex Court has also held that mere mention of Section 307 cannot be sole basis of decision for not quashing of the criminal proceedings. Relevant paragraph nos. 15 to 18 read as follows:

"15. Considering the law on the point and the other decisions of this Court on the point, referred to hereinabove, it is observed and held as under:

15.1. That the power conferred under Section 482 of the Code to quash the criminal proceedings for the non-compoundable offences under Section 320 of the Code can be exercised having overwhelmingly and predominantly the civil character, particularly those arising out of commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes and when the parties have resolved the entire dispute amongst themselves;

15.2. Such power is not to be exercised in those prosecutions which involved heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity, etc. Such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society;

15.3. Similarly, such power is not to be exercised for the offences under the special statutes like Prevention of Corruption Act or the offences committed by public servants while working in that capacity are not to be quashed merely on the basis of compromise between the victim and the offender;

15.4. offences under Section 307 IPC and the Arms Act etc. would fall in the category of heinous and serious offences and therefore are to be treated as crime against the society and not against the individual alone, and therefore, the criminal proceedings for the offence under Section 307 IPC and/or the Arms Act etc. which have a serious impact on the society cannot be quashed in exercise of powers under Section 482 of the Code, on the ground that the parties have resolved their entire dispute amongst themselves. However, the High Court would not rest its decision merely because there is a mention of Section 307 IPC in the FIR or the charge is framed under this provision. It would be open to the High Court to examine as to whether incorporation of Section 307 IPC is there for the sake of it or the prosecution has collected sufficient evidence, which if proved, would lead to framing the charge under Section 307 IPC. For this purpose, it would be open to the High Court to go by the nature of injury sustained, whether such injury is inflicted on the vital/delegate parts of the body, nature of weapons used etc. However, such an exercise by the High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and the charge sheet is filed/charge is framed and/or during the trial. Such exercise is not permissible when the matter is still under investigation. Therefore, the ultimate conclusion in paragraphs 29.6 and 29.7 of the decision of this Court in the case of Narinder Singh (supra) should be read harmoniously and to be read as a whole and in the circumstances stated hereinabove;

15.5. while exercising the power under Section 482 of the Code to quash the criminal proceedings in respect of non-compoundable offences, which are private in nature and do not have a serious impart on society, on the ground that there is a settlement/compromise between the victim and the offender, the High Court is required to consider the antecedents of the accused; the conduct of the accused, namely, whether the accused was absconding and why he was absconding, how he had managed with the complainant to enter into a compromise etc.

16. Insofar as the present case is concerned, the High Court has quashed the criminal proceedings for the offences under Sections 307 and 34 IPC mechanically and even when the investigation was under progress. Somehow, the accused managed to enter into a compromise with the complainant and sought quashing of the FIR on the basis of a settlement. The allegations are serious in nature. He used the fire arm also in commission of the offence. Therefore, the gravity of the offence and the conduct of the accused is not at all considered by the High Court and solely on the basis of a settlement between the accused and the complainant, the High Court has mechanically quashed the FIR, in exercise of power under Section 482 of the Code, which is not sustainable in the eyes of law. The High Court has also failed to note the antecedents of the accused.

17. In view of the above and for the reasons stated, the present appeal is allowed. The impugned judgment and order dated 07.10.2013 passed by the High Court in Miscellaneous Criminal Case No. 8000 of 2013 is hereby quashed and set aside, and the FIR/investigation/criminal proceedings be proceeded against the accused, and they shall be dealt with, in accordance with law. Criminal Appeal No.350 of 2019

18. So far as Criminal Appeal arising out of SLP 10324/2018 is concerned, by the impugned judgment and order, the High Court has quashed the criminal proceedings for the offences punishable under Sections 323, 294, 308 & 34 of the IPC, solely on the ground that the accused and the complainant have settled the matter and in view of the decision of this Court in the case of Shiji(supra), there may not be any possibility of recording a conviction against the accused. Offence under Section 308 IPC is a non-compoundable offence. While committing the offence, the accused has used the fire arm. They are also absconding, and in the meantime, they have managed to enter into a compromise with the complainant. Therefore, for the reasons stated above, this appeal is also allowed, the impugned judgment and order dated 28.05.2018 passed by the High Court in Miscellaneous Criminal Case No. 19309/2018 is hereby quashed and set aside, and the FIR/investigation/criminal proceedings be proceeded against the accused, and they shall be dealt with, in accordance with law."

30. This Court has an occasion to have a glance on the opinion and observations made by the Apex Court in paragraph nos. 54 to 60 in the famous case of Gian Singh (Supra), after referring various judgments of the Apex Court on the same issue involved herein also, which read as follows:

"54. In different situations, the inherent power may be exercised in different ways to achieve its ultimate objective. Formation of opinion by the High Court before it exercises inherent power under Section 482 on either of the twin objectives, (i) to prevent abuse of the process of any court or (ii) to secure the ends of justice, is a sine qua non.

55. In the very nature of its constitution, it is the judicial obligation of the High Court to undo a wrong in course of administration of justice or to prevent continuation of unnecessary judicial process. This is founded on the legal maxim quando lex aliquid alicui concedit, conceditur et id sine qua res ipsa esse non potest. The full import of which is whenever anything is authorised, and especially if, as a matter of duty, required to be done by law, it is found impossible to do that thing unless something else not authorised in express terms be also done, may also be done, then that something else will be supplied by necessary intendment. Ex debito justitiae is inbuilt in such exercise; the whole idea is to do real, complete and substantial justice for which it exists. The power possessed by the High Court under Section 482 of the Code is of wide amplitude but requires exercise with great caution and circumspection.

56. It needs no emphasis that exercise of inherent power by the High Court would entirely depend on the facts and circumstances of each case. It is neither permissible nor proper for the court to provide a straitjacket formula regulating the exercise of inherent powers under Section 482. No precise and inflexible guidelines can also be provided.

57. Quashing of offence or criminal proceedings on the ground of settlement between an offender and victim is not the same thing as compounding of offence. They are different and not interchangeable. Strictly speaking, the power of compounding of offences given to a court under Section 320 is materially different from the quashing of criminal proceedings by the High Court in exercise of its inherent jurisdiction. In compounding of offences, power of a criminal court is circumscribed by the provisions contained in Section 320 and the court is guided solely and squarely thereby while, on the other hand, the formation of opinion by the High Court for quashing a criminal offence or criminal proceeding or criminal complaint is guided by the material on record as to whether the ends of justice would justify such exercise of power although the ultimate consequence may be acquittal or dismissal of indictment.

58. Where High Court quashes a criminal proceeding having regard to the fact that dispute between the offender and victim has been settled although offences are not compoundable, it does so as in its opinion, continuation of criminal proceedings will be an exercise in futility and justice in the case demands that the dispute between the parties is put to an end and peace is restored; securing the ends of justice being the ultimate guiding factor. No doubt, crimes are acts which have harmful effect on the public and consist in wrong doing that seriously endangers and threatens well-being of society and it is not safe to leave the crime- doer only because he and the victim have settled the dispute amicably or that the victim has been paid compensation, yet certain crimes have been made compoundable in law, with or without permission of the Court. In respect of serious offences like murder, rape, dacoity, etc; or other offences of mental depravity under IPC or offences of moral turpitude under special statutes, like Prevention of Corruption Act or the offences committed by public servants while working in that capacity, the settlement between offender and victim can have no legal sanction at all. However, certain offences which overwhelmingly and predominantly bear civil flavour having arisen out of civil, mercantile, commercial, financial, partnership or such like transactions or the offences arising out of matrimony, particularly relating to dowry, etc. or the family dispute, where the wrong is basically to victim and the offender and victim have settled all disputes between them amicably, irrespective of the fact that such offences have not been made compoundable, the High Court may within the framework of its inherent power, quash the criminal proceeding or criminal complaint or F.I.R if it is satisfied that on the face of such settlement, there is hardly any likelihood of offender being convicted and by not quashing the criminal proceedings, justice shall be casualty and ends of justice shall be defeated. The above list is illustrative and not exhaustive. Each case will depend on its own facts and no hard and fast category can be prescribed.

59. B.S. Joshi, Nikhil Merchant, Manoj Sharma and Shiji alias Pappu do illustrate the principle that High Court may quash criminal proceedings or FIR or complaint in exercise of its inherent power under Section 482 of the Code and Section 320 does not limit or affect the powers of the High Court under Section 482. Can it be said that by quashing criminal proceedings in B.S. Joshi, Nikhil Merchant, Manoj Sharma and Shiji alias Pappu, this Court has compounded the non-compoundable offences indirectly? We do not think so. There does exist the distinction between compounding of an offence under Section 320 and quashing of a criminal case by the High Court in exercise of inherent power under Section 482. The two powers are distinct and different although ultimate consequence may be same viz., acquittal of the accused or dismissal of indictment.

60. We find no incongruity in the above principle of law and the decisions of this Court in Simrikhia, Dharampal, Arun Shankar Shukla, Ishwar Singh, Rumi Dhar (Smt.). and Ashok Sadarangani. The principle propounded in Simrikhia that the inherent jurisdiction of the High Court cannot be invoked to override express bar provided in law is by now well settled. In Dharampal15, the Court observed the same thing that the inherent powers under Section 482 of the Code cannot be utilized for exercising powers which are expressly barred by the Code. Similar statement of law is made in Arun Shankar Shukla. In Ishwar Singh, the accused was alleged to have committed an offence punishable under Section 307, IPC and with reference to Section 320 of the Code, it was held that the offence punishable under Section 307 IPC was not compoundable offence and there was express bar in Section 320 that no offence shall be compounded if it is not compoundable under the Code. In Rumi Dhar (Smt.) although the accused had paid the entire due amount as per the settlement with the bank in the matter of recovery before the Debts Recovery Tribunal, the accused was being proceeded with for commission of offences under Section 120-B/420/467/468/471 of the IPC along with the bank officers who were being prosecuted under Section 13(2) read with 13(1)(d) of Prevention of Corruption Act. The Court refused to quash the charge against the accused by holding that the Court would not quash a case involving a crime against the society when a prima facie case has been made out against the accused for framing the charge. Ashok Sadarangani was again a case where the accused persons were charged of having committed offences under Sections 120-B, 465, 467, 468 and 471, IPC and the allegations were that the accused secured the credit facilities by submitting forged property documents as collaterals and utilized such facilities in a dishonest and fraudulent manner by opening letters of credit in respect of foreign supplies of goods, without actually bringing any goods but inducing the bank to negotiate the letters of credit in favour of foreign suppliers and also by misusing the cash-credit facility. The Court was alive to the reference made in one of the present matters and also the decisions in B.S. Joshi, Nikhil Merchant and Manoj Sharma and it was held that B.S. Joshi, and Nikhil Merchant dealt with different factual situation as the dispute involved had overtures of a civil dispute but the case under consideration in Ashok Sadarangani was more on the criminal intent than on a civil aspect. The decision in Ashok Sadarangani supports the view that the criminal matters involving overtures of a civil dispute stand on a different footing."

31. This Court may record that from perusal of the judgments of the Apex Court in the cases of B.S. Joshi, Nikhil Merchant, Manoj Sharma reported in (2008) 16 SCC 1, which are two Judges' Division Bench and Gian Singh (Supra), which is Three Judges' Full Bench, it is clear that in all the cases, the Apex Court has held that since Section 320 Cr.P.C. does not limit or affect the powers under Sections 482 Cr.P.C. or under Articles 226 and 136 of the Constitution of India, the High Court can quash the criminal proceedings/FIR/complaint. In the case of B.S. Joshi (Supra), Two Judges' Bench of the Apex Court has specifically held that the object of introducing Chapter XX-A in I.P.C. was to prevent torture to a woman by her husband or by relatives of her husband. Section 498-A was added with a view to punishing a husband and his relatives who harass or torture the wife or coerce her or her relatives to satisfy unlawful demands of dowry. A hyper technical view would be counterproductive and would act against the interests of women and against the object for which this provision was added. There is likelihood that non-exercise of inherent power to quash the proceedings to meet the ends of justice would prevent women for settling earlier. This is not the objective of Chapter-XX-A of I.P.C.

32. In the case of Gian Singh (Supra), the Three Judges' Full Bench of the Apex Court has specifically observed that where High Court quashes a criminal proceeding, having regard to the fact that dispute between the offender and victim has been settled, although offences are not compoundable, it does so as in its opinion, continuation of criminal proceedings will be an exercise in futility and justice in the case demands that the dispute between the parties is put to an end and peace is restored; securing the ends of justice being the ultimate guiding factor. No doubt, crimes are acts which have harmful effect on the public and consist in wrong doing that seriously endangers and threatens well-being of society and it is not safe to leave the crime- doer only because he and the victim have settled the dispute amicably or that the victim has been paid compensation, yet certain crimes have been made compoundable in law, with or without permission of the Court. In respect of serious offences like murder, rape, dacoity, etc; or other offences of mental depravity under IPC or offences of moral turpitude, under special statutes, like Prevention of Corruption Act or the offences committed by public servants, while working in that capacity, the settlement between offender and victim can have no legal sanction at all. However, certain offences which overwhelmingly and predominantly bear civil flavour having arisen out of civil, mercantile, commercial, financial, partnership or such like transactions or the offences arising out of matrimony, particularly relating to dowry, etc. or the family dispute, where the wrong is basically to victim and the offender and victim have settled all disputes between them amicably, irrespective of the fact that such offences have not been made compoundable, the High Court may, within the framework of its inherent power, quash the criminal proceeding or criminal complaint or F.I.R, if it is satisfied that on the face of such settlement, there is hardly any likelihood of offender being convicted and by not quashing the criminal proceedings, justice shall be casualty and ends of justice shall be defeated. The above list is illustrative and not exhaustive. Each case will depend on its own facts and no hard and fast category can be prescribed.

33. Similarly, in the case of Ramgopal (Supra) relied upon by the learned counsel for the appellant no.1, the Apex Court has opined that such powers of wide amplitude can be exercised carefully in the context of quashing of criminal proceedings, bearing in mind (I) nature and effect of the offence on the conscious of the society; (ii) seriousness of injury, if any, (iii) voluntary nature of compromise between the accused and victim and (iv) conduct of the accused persons, prior to and after the occurrence of the purported offence.

34. The relevant paragraph nos. 18 and 19 of the Judgment of the Apex Court in the case of Ramgopal (Supra) read as under:

"18. It is now a well crystallized axiom that the plenary jurisdiction of this Court to impart complete justice under Article 142 cannot ipso facto be limited or restricted by ordinary statutory provisions. It is also noteworthy that even in the absence of an express provision akin to Section 482 Cr.P.C. conferring powers on the Supreme Court to abrogate and set aside criminal proceedings, the jurisdiction exercisable under Article 142 of the Constitution embraces this Court with scopious powers to quash criminal proceedings also, so as to secure complete justice. In doing so, due regard must be given to the overarching objective of sentencing in the criminal justice system, which is grounded on the sub-lime philosophy of maintenance of peace of the collective and that the rationale of placing an individual behind bars is aimed at his reformation.

19. We thus sum-up and hold that as opposed to Section 320 Cr.P.C. where the Court is squarely guided by the compromise between the parties in respect of offences 'compoundable' within the statutory framework, the extra-ordinary power enjoined upon a High Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C. or vested in this Court under Article 142 of the Constitution, can be invoked beyond the metes and bounds of Section 320 Cr.P.C. Nonetheless, we reiterate that such powers of wide amplitude ought to be exercised carefully in the context of quashing criminal proceedings, bearing in mind: (i) Nature and effect of the offence on the conscious of the society; (ii) Seriousness of the injury, if any; (iii) Voluntary nature of compromise between the accused and the victim; & (iv) Conduct of the accused persons, prior to and after the occurrence of the purported offence and/or other relevant considerations."

35. In Narinder Singh reported in (2014) 6 SCC 466, the two Judges' Bench of the Apex Court, while framing guidelines for quashing the proceedings in cases where the offenses involved are non-compoundable, has quashed the criminal proceedings of FIR after accepting the compromise entered into between the parties. It is pertinent to mention here that in the said case, Offence under Section 307 I.P.C. was alleged against the accused for attacking the victim, who sustained injuries also, i.e. non-compoundable offence was involved.

36. Similarly, in the case of State of Madhya Pradesh (Supra), offence under Section 307 was alleged against the accused for attacking the victim, who sustained gun shot injuries. Seeing the nature of such heinous crime, which has harmful effect on the public and consist in wrong doing that seriously endangers and threatens well-being of society and it is not safe to leave the crime-doer only because he and the victim have settled the dispute amicably or that the victim has been paid compensation, the Three Judges' of Apex Court has refused to quash the criminal proceedings on the basis of settlement/agreement/compromise entered into between the parties.

37. However, in the case in hand, this Court after examining the medical evidence adduced during course of trial like medical examination report of the victim/complainant and the testimony of the doctor who has been examined as P.W.-4 has already held that since no case under Section 307 I.P.C. is made out against the appellant nos. 1 to 3, whereas Section 324 I.P.C. would be made out against them in that place, as such the conviction under Section 307 I.P.C. is liable to be altered to Section 324 I.P.C. as above.

38. Apart from the above, the facts of the case of State of Madhya Pradesh (Supra) is not applicable in the facts of the present case having regard to the altercation of conviction from Section 307 I.P.C. to Section 324 I.P.C.

39. The law laid down by the three Judges Full Bench of the Apex Court in the case of Gian Singh (Supra) leaves the matter concluded and it remains res-integra no more, which has not been overruled by any court of law i.e. more number of judges of the Apex Court and as such, still holds the field.

40. The objections raised by learned AGA could not have been more convincingly answered than by the ratio of the above noted pronouncement by the Apex Court in Gian Singh's case as the well as the Ramgopal's case as relied upon by the learned counsel for the appellant as referred to above.

41. This Court has no hesitation to record here that in the case of Gian Singh (Supra), inherent power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. has been exercised whereas in the case of Ramgopal (Supra), extraordinary power under Article 142 of the Constitution of India has been exercised and this Court now sitting in appellate jurisdiction under Section 374 read with Section 389 Cr.P.C. However, this Court has also kept in mind that the aim and object of law is not only to punish the culprit, but, the objective of the law is also to maintain peace, tranquillity, prosperity and harmony in society as well as in the country. If there is a compromise between husband and wife and they are living to live together and to lead happy family life, then it will also be ideal in building our society. Marriage is a sacred ceremony of our society, the main objective of which is to enable the young couple to settle down in life and live peacefully. But little matrimonial skirmishes suddenly erupt which often assume serious proportions, resulting in commission of heinous crimes in which elders of the family are also involved with the result that those who could have counselled and brought about rapprochement are rendered helpless on their being arrayed as accused in the criminal case. There are many other reasons which need not be mentioned here for not encouraging matrimonial litigation so that the parties may ponder over their defaults and terminate their disputes amicably by mutual agreement instead of fighting it out in a court of law where it takes years and years to conclude and in that process the parties lose their "young" days in chasing their "cases" in different courts.

42. In the facts of the present case, the marriage of the appellant no.1 was solemnized with the complainant/victim but after some time of their marriage, the relations between the two became strained and incompatible resulting in initiation of present criminal proceedings by the complainant against her husband, father-in-law and mother-in-law i.e. appellant nos. 1 to 3 (appellant nos. 2 and 3 have died during the pendency of the appeal). Thereafter, the appellant nos. 1 to 3 were convicted for an offence under Sections 307 and 307/34 I.P.C. under the impugned judgment. Against the said judgment of conviction, the appellants filed the present appeal. During the pendency of the appeal, after settling their all the disputes, appellant no.1 and the complainant have arrived at a compromise and now they are living happily as husband and wife under the same roof along with their major sons and daughter, and enjoying their happy family life. If this Court, in exercise of its powers under Section 374 Cr.P.C. read with Section 389 Cr.P.C. does not quash the impugned judgment of conviction, then the happy life of husband i.e. appellant no.1 and the complainant along with their major children will be ruined, especially the happy future life of sons and daughter of appellant no.1 and the complainant who have not seen anything yet and whose golden future remain yet to commence and who will suffer a lot. At the same time, it is also relevant to notice here that if a husband or a father (appellant no.1 herein) has to go to jail again, not only his wife (complainant herein) but also their children would suffer from mental trauma and they would also have to face humiliation and bad feelings in the society.

43. Accordingly, while relying upon the law laid down by the Three Judges' Full Bench of the Apex Court in the case of Gian Singh (Supra), and Two Judges' Bench of the Apex Court in the case of Ramgopal (Supra) and considering the peculiar facts and circumstances of the present case, this Court, in exercise of its powers under Sections 374/389 Cr.P.C., allows the present appeal and quash the impugned judgment of conviction dated 8th December, 1987 passed by the Special Judge (E.C. Act), having regard to the contents of the compromise so entered into between the parties, the nature of the offence and injuries sustained by the complainant, the period of incident i.e. 1983, the fact that there is nothing on record to evince that either before or after the purported compromise, any untoward incident transpired between the appellant no.1 and the complainant, both are living together happily as husband and wife and also looking to the fact that they are senior citizens and their children have attained majority.

44. Consequently, the impugned judgment and order dated 8th December, 1987 passed by the Special Judge (E.C. Act) in Sessions Trial No. 376 of 1984 (State Vs. Pramod Kumar & 2 Others) under Sections 307 and 307/34 I.P.C., Police Station-Zarifnagar, District-Budaun is set aside on the basis of compromise so entered between the appellant no.1 and the victim/complainant, who are none other than the husband and wife. Hence, the appellant no.1 is acquitted from the charge so altered by this Court herein above i.e. Section 324 I.P.C.

45. Since the appellant no.1 is reported to be on bail, he needs not surrender before the court below, unless he is wanted in any other case on compliance of the provisions of Section 437-A Cr.P.C. His bail bond shall be deemed to have been discharged.

46. Let a copy of this judgment be sent to the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Budaun, henceforth, for necessary compliance.

47. Subject to the observations made above, the present criminal appeal is allowed.

48. There shall be no order as to costs.

49. The original records already summoned shall be returned to the concerned court below.

Issue for Consideration

The case involves murder took place during the marriage ceremony. The main issue required the appellate court to determine the trustworthiness of evidence.

Headnotes

A. Criminal matter-Criminal Procedure Code,1973-Section 374(2)-Indian Penal Code,1860-Sections 302 r/w 34-Challenge to-Conviction-testimony of the witnesses cannot be discarded merely because they are relative or family member of the victim-The presence of the father (PW-1) and brother(PW-2) at the marriage ceremony was deemed probable, and their consistent testimony as eye-witness was accepted-the appellant's act along with the co-accused, established a "common intention" to commit murder, thus holding him liable for conviction u/s 302 IPC, regardless of who fired the fatal shot. The appeal dismissed.

Held

The court considered the entire evidence on record-The matter pertains to direct evidence, where motive attributed on the accused of helping co-accused in the design to exterminate the deceased -On the point of conversion of conviction of appellant from section 302 IPC to Section 304 IPC refused as the act attributed on accused appellant was intentional and also having knowledge that by the act death would be caused- No infirmity in appreciation of evidence carried out by the trial court.(Para 11 to 33)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Avnish Saxena, J.)

1. The present appeal is preferred against the judgment of conviction and sentence dated 09.07.2012 passed by the court of Additional Sessions Judge, Court No.2, Etawah in Sessions Trial No.59 of 2006 (State Vs. Kushal alias Alok Chauhan S/o Krishan Chandra Chauhan), in Case Crime No.383 of 1997, Police Station Kotwali, District Etawah, under Section 302 read with Section 34 of I.P.C.

2. The accused-appellant is punished with imprisonment for life and Rs.10,000/- fine, in default, two years additional imprisonment for committing the offence of murder committed in furtherance of common intention.

3. According to First Information Report (F.I.R.), two accused, namely, Deepak Dixit alias Deepu S/o Hari Om and Kaushal alias Alok Chauhan (appellant) have been named in the F.I.R. lodged by Sri Sunder Lal Gupta, father of deceased Kamlesh Kumar Gupta for offence under Section 307 I.P.C., when both the accused had fired at the deceased through their country made pistol on 13.07.1997 at 11:00 p.m., while the deceased, informant and other persons were gathered at the marriage ceremony of sister of Shailesh Kumar alias Popey Jain solemnized at Jain Dharmshala Lalpura, Etawah. The deceased was standing at the gate of Jain Dharmshala when the two accused, named above came and opened fire at Kamlesh Kumar Gupta, he was taken to hospital by his father and brother after visiting the police station, situated at a distance of half a kilometer from the place of incident. In the district hospital, Etawah, the accused was declared brought dead.

4. After investigation, the charge sheet has been submitted only against the present appellant, but not against the accused Deepak Dixit alias Deepu, who has been summoned by the trial court by order dated 24.03.2007 for offence under Section 302 I.P.C., invoking Section 319 Cr.P.C. This accused remained absconding and his file was separated.

5. The prosecution has produced two witnesses of fact, P.W.-1 Sunder Lal Gupta and P.W.-2 Shailesh Kumar Gupta, respectively, the father and brother of deceased.

6. The prosecution has produced five formal witnesses. P.W.-3 Constable Bhaiya Lal was the constable clerk (the scribe of Chik F.I.R. and G.D); P.W.-4 S.I. Subedaar Singh, the first Investigating Officer, who has also conducted inquest on the death body of deceased; P.W.-5 Inspector Karanvir Singh Sachan, the second Investigating Officer, who has carried out further investigation and submitted charge sheet; P.W.-6 Dr. P.C. Pandey, who has informed the police station concerned about the death of deceased; and P.W.-7 Jagdish Chandra Gupta, the Nursing Assistant of District Hospital, where Dr. S.C. Dubey (deceased) has conducted post mortem examination.

7. The statement of accused has been recorded under Section 313 Cr.P.C., wherein he has denied the allegation of murder on him; stated that he has been falsely implicated and the entire documentary evidences are false; showed ignorance as to why he has been implicated in the case as his name is not Kaushal, but Alok Chauhan.

8. Sri Sudeep Kumar Pathak, learned counsel for the appellant has submitted that there is no evidence on record of the trial to connect the appellant for offence of murder in furtherance of common intention. The appellant is known by the name of Alok Chauhan and never known by the name of Kaushal; the F.I.R. and the statement of witnesses recorded during investigation is silent about the role of named accused who caused detrimental fire; the evidence on the record shows enmity of deceased with co-accused Deepak Dixit, but no enmity is shown against the appellant; the main accused Deepak Dixit has not been charge sheeted; the witnesses of fact are related witnesses and shaky in their statements about knowing Kaushal prior to the lodging of F.I.R.; there is marked improvement in the statement of witnesses; the witnesses of fact initially stated that they later came to know that Kaushal is also known by the name of Alok Chauhan; the witnesses of fact are not the eye witnesses, but pretended to be the eye witnesses and therefore, they have continuously made improvements in their statements on the basis of tutoring; the medical evidence does not corroborate with the eye witness account; the Investigating Officer initially raised doubt on Popey Jain, who has certain trade related issues with the deceased; during investigation, some of the witnesses have also stated through affidavits that it was an accident during the celebratory firing at the marriage ceremony; the appellant is in custody for nearly 12 long years, having no criminal history. The above mentioned points have not been dealt with by the trial judge in right perspective, resultant into recording of conviction. It is further submitted that the witnesses of fact are interested witnesses and their statements have to be appreciated cautiously, but the trial Judge has not evaluated the statements of witnesses of fact cautiously. The learned counsel has relied on the cases of Goverdhan and another Vs. State of Chattisgarh[1] and Shyam Behari Mishra and another Vs. State of U.P.[2], decided by the Division Bench of this Court by judgment dated 24.03.2023 in Criminal Appeal No.1092 of 2005.

9. Per contra, Sri Sushil Kumar Pandey, learned A.G.A.-I has opposed the arguments made by the learned counsel for the appellant and submits that the murder of Kamlesh Kumar Gupta was occasioned in full public view, when the people were gathered at the marriage ceremony of sister of Sri Shailesh alias Popey Jain at the gate of Jain Dharmshala Lalpura, Etawah. The incident has been witnessed by many persons, but none came forward to depose before the Court, except the father and brother of deceased. The assailant, namely, Deepak Dixit alias Deepu and his friend Kaushal, who had their residences in the same vicinity were being identified by the persons including P.W.-1 and P.W.-2. The accused-appellant, who has been identified during dock examination was familiar in the locality. It is not necessary that the correct name is known to all, as the persons are generally known by their nick names. The appellant, in the same way also known by the name of Kaushal and when the name of accused was clear, his name is mentioned accordingly. Deceased Kamlesh was shot at the gate of Jain Dharmshala on 13.07.1997 at 11:00 p.m., which is reported on 14.07.1997 at 00:20 a.m. and died due to gunshot injury, is apparent from the post mortem examination report. The main accused, though dropped after investigation has been summoned by the trial court under Section 319 Cr.P.C. The trial Judge has rightly appreciated the evidence and recorded conviction, which is required to be affirmed in appeal.

10. We have considered the rival submissions made by the parties. Perused the judgment passed by the trial court vis-a-vis the evidence on record.

11. After venturing into the facts, evidence and arguments, we have considered the power of the appellate court provided under Section 386 Cr.P.C. in the case of Gowrishankara Swamigalu Vs. State of Karnataka and Another[3], it has been held by the Supreme Court that the powers to be exercised by an Appellate Court are as wide as of the trial court. The Appellate Court can review the whole evidence and all relevant circumstances to arrive at its own conclusion about the guilt or innocence of the accused, but where two views are possible on same evidence and the findings recorded by the trial court are not perverse, the appellate court should not interfere with the findings of the lower court.

12. Thus, the appellate court, firstly, to appreciate the evidence on record; and secondly, should interfere with the findings only when the view of appellate court is different from the trial court. Coupled with the observation that the finding recorded by the trial court is perverse.

13. It is also observed by the Supreme Court in the case of Jitendra Kumar Mishra alias Jittu Vs. State of M.P.[4] that the appellate court should be slow in interfering with conviction recorded by the trial court, but where evidence on record indicates that the prosecution has failed to prove the guilt of accused beyond reasonable doubt and that is a plausible view, different from the one expressed by the trial court, can be taken. The appellate court then should not shy away in giving benefit of doubt to the accused.

14. Keeping in view the above principles of law in mind, we have evaluated the facts and evidences. The incident occurred on 13.07.1997 at 11:00 p.m., at the gate of Jain Dharmshala Lalpura, Etawah. The police station is reportedly situated half a kilometer away from place of incident. The informant Sri Sunder Lal Gupta (P.W.-1), father of deceased had taken the deceased first to the police station from where to the District Sadar Hospital Etawah. The first information report was lodged under Section 307 I.P.C. at Police Station Kotwali, Etawah on 13.07.1997 at 11:40 p.m., registered as Case Crime No.383 of 1997.

15. The written information is dictated by the informant to one, Ram Prakash Gupta. It is disclosed in the written information that the informant, Sunder Lal Gupta, his son Kamlesh Kumar Gupta (deceased), his another son Shailesh Kumar Gupta, Arvind Verma S/o Ram Pal Verma, Kuldeep Gupta S/o Jagdish Prashad had gathered in the marriage ceremony of sister of Shailesh alias Popey Jain at Jain Dharmshala Lalpura Etawah. While the marriage ceremony 'Jaimala' was taking place, informant's son was standing at the gate of Dharmshala, when two accused namely, Deepak Dixit S/o Hari Om Dixit resident of Lalpura and his friend Kaushal came to the place, having country made pistols in their hands and opened fire at Kamlesh Kumar Gupta. He skipped one fire but suffered injury in his abdomen by another fire. Both the accused have sprinted away. It is also disclosed in the F.I.R. that Deepak Dixit and his family were inimical with Kamlesh Kumar.

16. Dr. P.C. Pandey (P.W.-6) gave a report to the police on 14.07.1997, Exhibit Ka-11 that Kamlesh Kumar Gupta succumbed to gunshot injuries at 00:20 a.m. It is on the basis of this report that the case is converted from Section 307 I.P.C. to Section 302 I.P.C.

17. It is required to be mentioned that the matter was of 1997, whereas the charge sheet has been submitted against the accused-appellant in the year 1997, but the trial commenced in the year 2006, as the accused-appellant was found absconding and process under Sections 82 and 83 Cr.P.C. have been initiated. The contention of the appellant for not appearing in the case was that his name is Alok Chauhan and not Kaushal. He then challenged the proceedings initiated against him under Section 83 Cr.P.C. in Criminal Misc. Application No.7484 of 1997 (Alok Chauhan Vs. State of U.P.). This Court while disposing of the application by order dated 26.11.1997 has made specific mention that the Magistrate before proceeding to pass any order under Section 83 Cr.P.C. shall satisfy whether any evidence has been collected to show the involvement of accused-appellant in the case. It is, thereafter, that the charge sheet has been submitted, trial concluded and judgment of conviction recorded.

18. The judgment of conviction is also challenged on the ground that the witnesses of fact are related witnesses, whose testimony is to be considered carefully. It is a settled position of law that the testimony of witness in a criminal trial cannot be discarded merely because the witness is a relative or family member of the victim. In such cases, Court has to adopt a careful approach in analyzing the evidence and if the testimony of related witness is found credible, the accused can be convicted. In the celebrated case of Ashok Kumar

Chaudhary Vs. State of Bihar*[5], it is observed by the Supreme Court that the Court cannot lose sight of the ground realities that the members of the public are generally insensitive and reluctant to come forward to report and depose about the crime, even though it is committed in their presence. It is in this backdrop that the Supreme Court has held, not to brushed aside the testimony of the related witnesses, merely because they are interested, but a duty is cast on the court to scrutinize such evidence with greater care and caution. This judgment is also considered by the trial court. The law on the point of related witness is also dealt with by the Supreme Court in the cases of M. Nageswara Reddy Vs. State of Andhra Pradesh and others[6] & State of Punjab Vs. Gurpreet Singh and others[7], wherein, it is held that the testimony of the witness cannot be discarded merely because the witness is related.

19. Before considering the deposition made by father and brother of deceased, as P.W.-1 and P.W.-2, respectively, it would be expedient to deal with the testimonies of formal witnesses and then the trustworthiness of witnesses of fact could be ascertained.

20. The first information report was registered by P.W.-3 Bhaiya Lal, who has deposed before the trial court that on 13.07.1997, he was holding the post of Constable Clerk in Police Station Kotwali, District Etawah when Sunder Lal Gupta (P.W.-1) came with a written information, written by Ram Prakash Gupta that Deepak Dixit alias Deepu and Kaushal had inflicted gun shot injuries on the son of informant, he registered the chik F.I.R. for offence under Section 307 I.P.C. He has also proved the general diary entry no.52 at 23:40 hours, he has been cross examined on various points to carve out a case of ante time F.I.R. It is mentioned in Exhibit Ka-3, the general diary entry that the injured was sent to District Hospital for medical examination and the injuries of injured were seen, from which blood was oozing out. The document and the statement of P.W.-3 clarifies that the deceased was first taken to police station and then to District Hospital, as has been mentioned in the written information.

21. Dr. P.C. Pandey, who was the Emergency Medical Officer of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar Combined Hospital (Male Section), Etawah has appeared in the case as P.W.-6 and proved the death report of the deceased Kamlesh Kumar Gupta as Exhibit Ka-11. It is specifically mentioned in the exhibit that Kamlesh Kumar Gupta aged about 30 years s/o Sunder Lal Gupta reached the emergency on 14.07.1997 at 00:20 a.m., brought by Constable Radha Charan of Police Station Kotwali, Etawah, who had gunshot wound and was brought dead. This intimation was received at the police station at 5:50 a.m. on 14.07.1997. S.I. Subedaar Singh P.W.-4 has made specific mention in his deposition that on getting the death report of deceased, the case was converted from Section 307 I.P.C. to 302 I.P.C. This witness has conducted inquest on the death body of deceased, which was carried out from 11:15 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. on 14.07.1997. He has proved the inquest report and other ancillary documents like photonash, chalanash, letter R.I. and letter C.M.O. He carried out inquest in presence of inquest witnesses, in whose opinion, the death was due to gunshot injury. The body was sealed and sent for post mortem examination, which was kept at the District Mortuary by P.W.-6 Dr. P. C. Pandey.

22. Dr. S.C. Dubey, who has conducted the post mortem examination on the death body of deceased Kamlesh Kumar Gupta on 14.07.1997 at 2:00 p.m., passed away when the case came up for trial. Hence, Jagdish Chandra Gupta (P.W.-7) the Nursing Assistant, who had assisted him during post mortem examination has proved the post mortem report as secondary witness stating that Dr. S.C. Dubey has conducted post mortem examination on the dead body of deceased Kamlesh Kumar Gupta and signed the post mortem examination report in his presence. He has identified the signatures and proved the same. The post mortem report reveals that the ante mortem injury is "one fire arm wound of entry 2 cm X 2.2 cm on front of lateral aspect of lower and lateral aspect of right side from chest about 8 cm below and lateral from right nipple. Mark of blackening, tattooing and charring present all around the wound in an area of 10 cm X 8 cm. Margins are inverted"

23. If the statement of Constable Bhaiya Lal (P.W.-3), Dr. P.C. Pandey (P.W.-6), Jagdish Chandra Gupta (P.W.-7) and the initial statement of S.I. Subedaar Singh (P.W.-4) is taken into consideration in totality. It reflects only one conclusive inference that Kamlesh Kumar Gupta suffered gunshot injury at night of 13.07.1997, who was taken to the police station, where he was found to be suffering from gunshot injury, blood was oozing out from the wound, then taken to the District Hospital, treated by Dr. P.C. Pandey (P.W.-6) and found that he was brought dead. Had there been an ante time F.I.R., the F.I.R. would have been lodged directly under Section 302 I.P.C. against the accused and not under Section 307 I.P.C. The learned trial court has rightly taken into consideration and held that the F.I.R. is within time without oblique motive of false implication. One more conclusive inference drawn is the death of Kamlesh Kumar Gupta was due to gunshot injury.

24. S.I. Subedaar Singh, the first Investigating Officer was entrusted with the investigation of the case on 13.07.1997, he has inspected the place of incident, prepared the site plan. The site plan was prepared by him on 15.07.1997, at the instance of informant, Sunder Lal Gupta (P.W.-1). He has also recorded the statement of Shailesh Kumar Gupta (P.W.-2). The site plan proved by him as Exhibit Ka-9 which reveals that the deceased was standing at the gate of Jain Dharmshala marked by english alphabet 'A'. The witnesses, P.W.-1 and P.W.-2 were standing at a place marked by english alphabet 'C'. It is shown that the accused had fired shots at a distance of two paces, the place of accused is shown by english alphabet 'B' and distance between the witness and the accused was five paces. During his cross-examination, he has stated that he came to the spot on 13.07.1997 five to seven minutes before 12:00 at night, where he found Ratan Chandra Jain, Rakesh, Suresh, Vinod alias Pappu and Popey. Marriage was of their sister. He has further stated that he came to know that there was some differences between deceased Kamlesh Kumar Gupta and Popey as both were partners in a business and thereafter, he thought it necessary to take statement of Popey. This angle of investigation shows that the Investigating Officer has also taken into consideration the relation between deceased and Popey in whose sister's marriage, the deceased and his family gathered. This further shows the presence of witnesses P.W.-1 and P.W.-2 at the place of incident. His inconsistent statement about the time of inquest will not make this witness untrustworthy because later on he has made specific mention that the inquest was started at 11:15 a.m. instead of 7:15 a.m.

25. The second Investigating Officer Karnavir Singh Sachan (P.W.-5), who has carried out investigation from 20.08.1997 has recorded statements of witnesses. He has submitted charge sheet against the accused. During his cross-examination, he has made specific mention that on the basis of direction of the High Court, he inquired into and found that Alok Chauhan is also known by the name of Kaushal and further submits that he did not find it necessary to get the accused identified by the witnesses, as the accused resides in the same vicinity and known to persons. In his further cross-examination, he has stated that Rajesh and Neeraj gave affidavits disclosing therein that Kamlesh Kumar Gupta was in the influence of liquor, which led the fire from 315 bore pistol. The statement of this witness shows that the accused is known by the name of Kaushal. The deponents Rajesh and Neeraj did not appear as witnesses during trial. Moreover, the deceased under influence of liquor is not revealed from medical evidence. Neither Dr. P.C. Pandey (P.W.-6) nor the post mortem examination report Exhibit Ka-12 reveals that the deceased was under the influence of liquor. Not in defense either.

26. Therefore, the statements of formal witnesses have established the place of incident, the time of incident and the presence of witnesses in the marriage ceremony.

27. Now, the point of concern is the trustworthiness of related witnesses and the involvement of accused-appellant, who has been convicted and sentenced for offence under Section 302 read with Section 34 I.P.C. It is pertinent to point out here that the co-accused, as per the record placed, is still absconding.

28. Sri Sunder Lal Gupta, P.W.-1, father of deceased has lodged the F.I.R. His presence at the place of incident is not disputed, as he and his family members consisting of deceased and P.W.-2 were gathered in the marriage ceremony. He has witnessed the incident and is a probable witness. It is a general tendency that when the family visits marriage ceremonies, they tend to be together. The accused Deepak Dixit and Kaushal have been named in the F.I.R., which is prompt. The name of Kaushal is mentioned in F.I.R., as per the name disclosed by the people gathered at the place, but during investigation, the real name of Kaushal came into light and therefore the charge sheet has been submitted. During the cross examination, this witness has admitted giving an affidavit to the police and further submits that the Investigating Officer has not recorded his statement, though his statement has been recorded by the first Investigating Officer P.W.-4 S.I. Subedaar Singh and it is at his instance that the site plan was prepared. Merely giving an affidavit to the police by a witness cannot nullify the statement recorded by the Investigating Officer, when the witness is stating before the trial court about the incident. Moreover, the informant was present at the place of incident, he has seen the incident, he has reported the incident without delay and he knew the accused-appellant prior to the incident though he was not clear about the name of accused-appellant.

29. Shailesh Kumar Gupta (P.W.-2) has also stated in his examination-in-chief that he was present at the place of incident along with other persons and witnessed the incident, wherein Deepak Dixit and Kaushal (who has been identified in the dock examination), had opened fire on Kamlesh Kumar Gupta. One bullet hit the deceased, whereas his brother skipped the second fire. He has also stated that Deepu fired first, which was skipped and the deceased suffered the second fire, which was shot by the accused-appellant. In his cross-examination, this witness has admitted that he has not made the statement before the Investigating Officer as to who had fired the first shot and also about the detrimental shot was fired by the accused-appellant. This statement of this witness is an improvement because it is nowhere the case even in the affidavit filed by this witness that the detrimental shot has been fired by the accused-appellant, but this improvement will not absolve the accused-appellant from his role of firing at the deceased. The evidence on record reveals that the accused-appellant came to the place of incident along with co-accused and fired a shot. It is therefore, the conviction has been recorded with the help of act committed by the accused-appellant in furtherance of common intention. As such, it is not of importance that who has fired the detrimental shot. This witness during his cross-examination has also stated that the fire was shot at his brother from a distance of ten paces. It has been argued by the learned counsel for the appellant that blackening, tattooing and charring are not possible if the fire was shot from a distance of ten paces. According to the site plan, the accused shot at the deceased from a distance of two paces. The laymen can never be sure about the distance until and unless it has been measured. The inconsistency in the statement of P.W.-2 Shailesh Kumar Gupta is not material in nature.

30. As such, the witnesses of fact are not only trustworthy and consistent in their statements, but their presence at the place of incident is also probable and they are the eye witnesses of the incident. They have also established the identity of the accused-appellant and his role of firing at the deceased.

31. We have considered the entire evidence on record, which are clinching in nature. The matter pertains to direct evidence, where the motive, though at the back stage, but attributed on the accused-appellant of helping the co-accused in the design to exterminate the deceased. The trial court has considered the entire evidence in right perspective. There is no infirmity in appreciation of evidence carried out by the trial judge. It is rightly held that the offence of murder is committed by the accused-appellant in furtherance of common intention. Therefore, we did not find any reason to interfere with the findings of the trial court. The grounds raised in the appeal are not tenable in the eyes of law. The appeal deserves to be dismissed.

32. We have also considered the arguments of learned counsel for appellant on the point of conversion of conviction of appellant from Section 302 I.P.C. to Section 304 I.P.C. and also gone through the judgments cited, but the evidence in the present case does not qualify the ingredients of Section 304 I.P.C., as the act attributed on accused-appellant was intentional and also having knowledge that by the act death would be caused.

33. Thus, the appeal is dismissed. The accused appellant is on bail. His bail bonds are forfeited. He is directed to be taken into custody.

34. The judgment of this Court along with the record shall be sent to the Trial Court for taking necessary steps so that the accused-appellant may surrender and serve the remaining sentence.

1. In this case notice has already been served upon the informant.

2. The present criminal appeal under Section 14-A(2) Scheduled Castes & Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act has been filed by the appellant-Krishna Rastogi to set aside the order dated 10.04.2025 in Bail Application No. 1837 of 25 and to release him on bail in Case Crime No.564 of 2024 under Sections 103(1), 3(5), 191(2), 190 and section 61(2) of BNS, section 3(2)5 SC/ST Act and Section 35 Arms Act, P.S. Dhampur, District Bijnor.

3. Heard learned counsel for the appellant, the learned AGA for the State-respondent no.1 and perused the entire record.

4. According to the prosecution case, the incident took place on 16.12.2024 and the FIR of this incident has been lodged on the same day stating therein that on the day of incident appellant along with other co-accused persons called him and caused the murder of her son and for this incident the information has given to her by the friends of her son.

5. Submission of learned counsel for the appellant is that the appellant is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. The appellant has not committed any offence as alleged in the impugned FIR. Further submission is that the prosecution story is totally false and fabricated. Essential ingredients to constitute the offence under the SC/ST Act are lacking in the matter. Appellant is languishing in jail since 19.12.2024. The appellant is having no criminal history. Learned counsel for the appellant next submitted that the appellant has been implicated due to enmity, There is no independent witness of the incident and nothing incriminating has been recovered from the possession of the appellant. The appellant had no motive to commit the murder. Further submission is that the impugned order rejecting the bail application of the appellant suffers from infirmity and illegality warranting interference by this Court.

6. On the other hand, learned A.G.A. as well as learned counsel for the opposite party no.2 opposing the prayer for bail had have submitted that the appellant committed the present offence having knowledge that the victim belonged to S.C./S.T. Community. There is no infirmity or illegality in the impugned order.

7. I have considered the rival submissions made by the learned counsel for the parties and have gone through the entire record including the impugned order carefully.

8. Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case and keeping in view the nature of the offence, evidence, complicity of the accused, role assigned to the present appellant and the nature of injury, the Court is of the opinion that the appellant has made out a case for bail. The Court below erred in rejecting the bail application of the appellant. The impugned order suffers from infirmity and illegality and the same is liable to be set-aside and the appeal is liable to be allowed.

9. Accordingly, the appeal is allowed and the impugned order rejecting the bail application of the appellant is hereby set-aside.

10. Let the appellant-Krishna Rastogi involved in aforesaid case crime number be released on bail on furnishing a personal bond and two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of the court concerned subject to following conditions. Further, before issuing the release order, the sureties be verified.

(i) The appellant will not tamper with the evidence during the trial.

(ii) The appellant will not pressurize/ intimidate the prosecution witness.

(iii) The appellant will appear before the trial court on the date fixed, unless personal presence is exempted.

(iv) The appellant shall not commit an offence similar to the offence of which he is accused, or suspected, of the commission of which he is suspected.

(v) The appellant shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence.

11. In case of breach of any of the above conditions, the prosecution shall be at liberty to move bail cancellation application before this Court.

Issue for Consideration

Matter pertains to whether the ex parte decree dated 31.03.1999 passed in Original Suit No. 28 of 1996, which declared ownership and possession of Bungalow No. 329, Jhokan Bagh, Jhansi in favour of plaintiff's father, operated as res judicata regarding title and possession of disputed property, or whether it could be impeached in present proceedings as a fraudulent and collusive decree obtained against a minor not duly represented before the court.

Headnotes

Uttar Pradesh Urban Buildings (Regulation Of Letting, Rent And Eviction) Act, 1972 - s. 21 - Specific Relief Act, 1963 - ss. 34, 38 and 41(h) - Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 - s. 10, O. 9 R. 13 - Limitation Act, 1963 - s. 6 - Guardian and Wards Act, 1890 - s. 39 - Appellant filed a civil suit seeking declaration of ownership and possession over Bungalow No. 329, Jhokan Bagh, Jhansi, contending that property originally belonged to his grandfather who had constructed it and remained its absolute owner - Upon his grandfather death, property devolved upon his son, i.e. appellant's father - Appellant alleged that ex parte decree dated 31.03.1999, passed in Original Suit declaring ownership and possession in favour of his father, was fraudulent and collusive, having been obtained when appellant was minor and without proper representation through a court-appointed guardian - It was further asserted that, taking advantage of said decree, defendants attempted to interfere with appellant's lawful possession and alienate portions of property - Defendants denied these allegations, asserting that ex parte decree was valid, conclusive and operated as res judicata between the parties - Trial court dismissed plaintiff's suit, upholding binding nature of 1999 decree, leading appellant to prefer the instant First Appeal u/s 96 C.P.C., challenging validity of decree on grounds of fraud, non-representation and lack of jurisdiction.

Held: Previously Mangal Sen Chhabra and subsequently, plaintiff is the true owner of disputed house - It is also apparent that regarding eviction of tenants from disputed house, Rent Control Appeal is pending - It is also apparent that tenants Samson William and Morris William are residing in property, who have allegedly handed over vacant possession of tenanted accommodation to defendants who are not true owner's of disputed house - Tenants were bound to handover vacant possession of tenanted accommodation to their landlord or true owner of disputed house - In such circumstances, it will be deemed that plaintiff is in lawful possession of disputed house, through tenants, who is entitled to relief of permanent injunction against defendants - In these circumstances, trial court erred in concluding that plaintiff 's suit was barred by s. 34, 38 and 41(h) of Specific Relief Act - Plaintiff is the true owner of disputed house - Defendants had no concern with this property, but they had illegally executed several sale deeds on 15.5.2006, which were registered on 20.7.2006, in favour of other defendants in suit, which are void ab-initio, which are not binding on plaintiff - The plaintiff has claimed that by declaratory decree of court, sale deeds executed by defendants in favour of other defendants be declared null and void, not binding on plaintiff and further, defendants be restrained from interfering, alienating, demolishing, constructing or transferring the disputed property - Trial court erred in dismissing plaintiff 's suit for declaration and permanent injunction - Accordingly, both the appeals allowed. (Delivered by Hon'ble Sandeep Jain, J.)

1. First Appeal no. 60 of 2011 has been filed by the plaintiff – appellant against judgment and decree dated 9.12.2010 passed by the court of Sri. Rajat Singh Jain, Additional District Judge/Special Judge(EC Act), Jhansi in O.S. no. 129 of 2005 Rajesh Chhabra versus Radhey Lal Jeswani and others, whereby the plaintiffs suit for the relief of declaration, for declaring void agreement to sell dated 20.4.2005, executed by defendant no.2 &3, in favour of defendant no.1, regarding bungalow no. 329, Jhokan Bagh, Jhansi and suit for the relief of permanent injunction, for restraining the defendants from demolishing, alienating, transferring, altering the above bungalow, has been rejected.

2. First appeal No. 70 of 2011 has been filed by the plaintiff – appellant against judgment and decree dated 9.12.2010 passed by the court of Sri. Rajat Singh Jain, Additional District Judge/Special Judge(EC Act), Jhansi in O.S. no. 365 of 2006 Rajesh Chhabra versus Radhey Lal Jeswani and others, whereby the plaintiffs suit for the relief of declaration, for declaring void registered sale deeds dated 15.05.2006 registered on 20.07.2006, executed by Smt.Savita Chhabra and Rishav Chhabra, in favour of defendant no.1,2,3,4&5, regarding bungalow no. 329, new no. 1358, Jhokan Bagh, Jhansi and suit for the relief of permanent injunction, for restraining the defendants from interfering, demolishing, alienating, transferring, altering the above bungalow, has been rejected.

3. Both the original suit no. 129 of 2005 and 365 of 2006 were consolidated by the trial court, and decided by the common judgment and decree dated 9.12.2010, aggrieved against which, the plaintiff – appellant has filed the above two appeals, which have been tagged and heard together and are being disposed by this common judgment.

Facts of O.S.no.129 of 2005

4. The suit was filed by the plaintiff – appellant with the averments that disputed house no. 329(old no.), new no. 967, present no.1358, Jhokan Bagh,Civil Lines, Jhansi was the property of Late Sardari Lal Chhabra, which was purchased by him in the name of his minor son Vinay Chhabra, in the year 1965. Vinay Chhabra died on 24.11.1987, leaving behind defendant no.2 his wife Smt. Savita Chhabra and defendant no.3 his son Rishav Chhabra, as his legal heirs.

5. It was averred by the plaintiff that when the disputed house was purchased by late Sardari Lal, then at that time mother of defendant no.4 and 5 Smt. H. William was the tenant in the disputed house, who has died, and after her death defendant no. 4 and 5 have become tenants in the disputed house.

6. It was averred by the plaintiff that since the properties left behind by late Sardari Lal belonged to the joint Hindu family of his sons, as such, in the year 1980, a partition took place between the heirs of late Sardari Lal, in which, the disputed house devolved upon the father of the plaintiff Mangal Sen Chhabra. Since, some heirs of deceased Sardari Lal Chhabra, refused to accept the family partition, as such, the plaintiff 's father Mangal Sen Chhabra filed suit no. 28 of 1996 Mangal Sen Chhabra versus Ramjeet Chhabra and others, for the relief of declaration, before the court of Civil Judge(Senior Division), Jhansi in which the present defendants no.2&3, were arrayed as defendant no.6&7. Suit No. 28 of 1996 was decreed on 31.3.1999 in favour of paintiff's father Mangal Sen Chhabra and as such, he was declared the owner in possession of disputed house no. 329 and it was also made clear, that the other defendants had no right, title or interest in the disputed house.

7. It was averred by the plaintiff, that after suit no. 28 of 1996 was decreed, the defendants no.2&3(of this suit) filed miscellaneous application no.125 of 1999 under Order 9 Rule 13 CPC, which was also dismissed on merits on 27.7 2001, which was also challenged by the defendant no.2&3, by filing Miscellaneous Appeal No. 66 of 2001 before the court of Special Judge/SCC, Jhansi, which was also dismissed on 30.7.2004, and such, the decree passed in O.S. no. 28 of 1996 dated 31.3.1999 remained effective and the defendants no.2&3 were bound by that decree.

8. It was further averred by the plaintiff that, subsequently regarding disputed house no. 329, a family partition took place between his father Mangal Sen Chhabra and him in November, 1995, in which, house no. 329 came to his share, in which defendant no.4&5 were residing as tenants, who thereafter, became tenants of the plaintiff. The plaintiff was residing since, the year 1995 in house no. 292, Issai Tola,Khatibaba,Jhansi. It was further averred that in the decree passed in O.S. no. 539 of 2000 Mangal Sen Chhabra versus Rajesh Chhabra, by the court of Civil Judge(Jr Division) Jhansi, it was declared that the plaintiff was the owner of the disputed house no. 329, which has got no concern with plaintiff's father.

9. It was further averred by the plaintiff that since the disputed house was required by him for his residential needs, as such, he had filed P.A.case no.8 of 2002 Rajesh Chhabra versus Samson William under section 21 of the UP Act no. 13 of 1972, in the court of Prescribed Authority/Civil Judge(Jr Division), Jhansi against tenant/defendant no.4&5, which was pending for disposal.

10. It was further averred by the plaintiff that, his father Mangal Sen Chhabra, in the lifetime of defendant no.2&3's predecessor Vinay Chhabra, had filed P.A.Case No. 65 of 1986 under section 21 of UP Act. no. 13 of 1972 ,against defendant no.4&5, in which Late Vinay Chhabra had filed his affidavit dated 16.12.1986 in which, he had accepted the family partition and had further stated that the disputed house no. 329 belonged to plaintiff's father Mangal Sen Chhabra and Vinay Chhabra, had no concern with the disputed house.

11. It was further averred by the plaintiff that the above facts proved that, he was the undisputed owner and landlord of house no. 329 and, as such, defendant no.2 &3, had no concern with the disputed bungalow. It was also averred that defendant no.1 very well knew that plaintiff was the owner of the disputed house and the defendant no.2&3 had no concern with the above house.

12. The plaintiff became aware that an agreement to sell dated 20.4.2005 was executed by defendant no.2&3 in favour of defendant no.1, in which he was not a party, a consideration of which was shown to be ₹ 22 lakhs ,which was a void document, because the defendant no. 2 and 3 had no right title and interest in the disputed house after the decree was passed in O.S. no. 28 of 1996. It was further alleged that the defendant no.4&5 were also indirectly involved in the above agreement to sell. It was further alleged that subsequently, many sale deeds were executed on 20.7.2006 in favour of defendant no. 6,7 and 8, which were null and void. With these submissions, the plaintiff sought the following reliefs from the court:-

(i) by decree of declaration granted in favour of the plaintiff against the defendants, it be declared that the agreement to sell dated 20.4.2005 executed by defendant no.2&3 in favour of defendant no.1, sale deed dated 20.7.2006 executed by defendant no.2&3 in favour of defendant no.1,6,7&8 are null and void, which do not affect the rights of the plaintiff in disputed house no. 329.

(ii) by decree of permanent injunction granted in favour of the plaintiff against the defendants, the defendants be restrained from demolishing the disputed bungalow no. 329, plotting it, alienating it, transferring it or interfering in the peaceful possession of the plaintiff.

Written Statement of defendant no.1&2

13. The defendant no.1 Radhey Lal Jeswani and defendant no.2 Smt.Savita Chhabra in their joint written statement accepted that Vinay Chhabra died on 24.11.1987, leaving behind his wife Savita Chhabra and son/defendant no.3 Rishav Chhabra. It was specifically averred that the plaintiff was never the owner and landlord of the disputed house no. 329 as such, the plaintiff had no cause of action to file the instant suit. It was further averred that previously for getting the disputed house vacated, the plaintiff had filed SCC suit no. 118 of 1996 Rajesh Chhabra and Mangal Sen Chhabra versus Samson William and others in the Court of Judge Small Causes, Jhansi, which was contested by defendant no.1&2, the suit was dismissed on 16.8.2003, in which the plaintiff was not accepted as the landlord of the disputed house. It was also held by the court that there was no relationship of landlord and tenant between Rajesh Chhabra/ Mangal Sen Chhabra and Samson William/Morris William.

14. It was further averred that the disputed house was purchased by Vinay Chhabra through his father, by a registered sale deed in the year 1965 and had also, obtained its possession. At that time, Vinay Chhabra was minor and after his death, his wife and son, became the owners in possession of the disputed house. It was further submitted that in case number 118 of 1996 Vinay Chhabra's wife and minor son had submitted their written statement, in which, they had alleged that Rajesh Chhabra and Mangal Sen Chhabra had no right to institute suit number 118 of 1996 because, they were neither the owner nor landlords.

15. It was further submitted that the disputed house was purchased by late Sardari Lal for the benefit of his minor son Vinay Chhabra, by registered sale deed executed in the year 1965. It was further alleged that recently Rishav Chhabra had attained majority. Smt. H. William was the tenant of Vinay Chhabra, and after her death, defendant no.4&5 became tenants in the disputed house, who had handed over the possession of the tenanted accommodation to the defendant no.2&3, prior to the filing of the suit, as such, defendant no.2&3 were the owners in possession of the disputed house.

16. It was specifically denied that the disputed property, was the property of the joint Hindu family of Sardari Lal. It was also denied that a family partition took place in the year 1980 between the legal heirs of late Sardari Lal, in which the property devolved on Mangal Sen Chhabra. It was further alleged that in suit no. 28 of 1996, title of the disputed property could not have been adjudicated, as such, the decree passed in that suit was null and void, which was not binding on defendant no.2&3, the decree was also not registered, as such,it had no legal effect. It was further alleged that the decree in suit no. 28 of 1996 was passed against minor defendant no.3, which was not for his benefit, as such, the defendant no.2&3, were not bound by the decree dated 31.3.1999.

17. It was further averred by them that the High Court in its order dated 31.7.1995 had not accepted plaintiff 's father Mangal Sen Chhabra, as the owner of the disputed house and due to this finding, Mangal Sen Chhabra's release application under section 21 of the UP Act no. 13 of 1972, was rejected. The High Court also did not accept in its above order, the alleged consent of the brothers. It was also alleged that the defendants were not bound by the decree passed in O.S. No. 539 of 2000 Mangal Sen Chhabra versus Rajesh Chhabra, by the court of Civil Judge(Jr Division), Jhansi because it was a collusive decree. Further, Mangal Sen Chhabra was not the owner of the disputed house as such, no question arises of Rajesh Chhabra being the owner of the disputed house . The alleged partition that took place in the year 1995, between Rajesh Chhabra and Mangal Sen Chhabra, was illegal and fraudulent, which was void. It was further averred that P.A. case no.8 of 2002 Rajesh Chhabra versus Samson William and others, under section 21 of the UP Act no. 13 of 1972, was pending. In P.A. case no. 65 of 1986, no affidavit was sworn by late Vinay Chhabra in favour of Mangal Sen Chhabra on 16.12.1986, the affidavit submitted by Mangal Sen Chhabra was fraudulent which was evident from the order dated 31.7.1995 passed by the High Court. The defendants accepted that agreement to sell dated 20.4.2005 was executed by defendant no.2&3 in favour of defendant no.1, for a consideration of ₹ 2 Lacs, which was a valid document. It was denied that any sale deed regarding the disputed house was executed by them on 20.4.2005. It was further alleged that the plaintiff had no cause of action to file the present suit. The suit was barred by section 34, 38 and 41(h) of the Specific Relief Act, the suit was undervalued and the court fees paid was insufficient, the plaintiff was bound by the decree dated 16.8.2003 passed by the court of JSCC,Jhansi in case no. 118 of 1996 Rajesh Chhabra and Mangal Sen Chhabra versus Samson William and others. With these submissions it was prayed that the plaintiffs suit be dismissed.

Written Statement of defendants no.6 to 9

18. It was accepted by the defendants that the disputed house was purchased in the name of minor Vinay Chhabra, by his father, late Sardari Lal Chhabra by sale deed dated 12.1.1965 and after the death of Vinay Chhabra, defendant no.2&3 being the legal heirs of Vinay Chhabra, became the owners in possession of the disputed house. It was also alleged that in the year 1965 Smt. H. William was the tenant in the disputed house, and after her death, her sons defendant no.4&5 became tenants in the disputed house. It was further alleged that the declaratory decree passed in suit no. 28 of 1996 was null and void, which was not binding on defendant no.2&3. It was also alleged that regarding disputed house, in proceedings under section 21 of UP Act no. 13 of 1972, which was filed by Mangal Sen Chhabra against Smt. H. William and her legal heirs,was challenged in Civil Misc. Writ Petition no. 2387 of 1990 Smt. H. William versus First Additional District Judge Jhansi, which was decided by the High Court on 31.7.1995, in which, it was not accepted that a family partition took place in the year 1980 between the parties. It was also held that Mangal Sen Chhabra was not the owner in possession of the disputed house.

19. It was further averred that the plaintiff never remained the exclusive owner in possession of the disputed house, which was never given to the plaintiff, in the family partition that took place between the plaintiff and his father Mangal Sen Chhabra. The decree passed in original suit no. 539 of 2000 Mangal Sen Chhabra versus Rajesh Chhabra, was a collusive decree, on the basis of which no right title and interest in the disputed house had devolved on the plaintiff and also, the defendants were not bound by the decree passed in that suit. It was further alleged that no affidavit was sworn in by late Vinay Chhabra in favour of Mangal Sen Chhabra in P.A. case no. 65 of 1986, and on the basis of the alleged affidavit, ownership rights in the disputed house had not devolved on the plaintiff and his predecessors. It was accepted by them that regarding the disputed house several legal sale deeds were executed on 15.5.2006, by defendant no.2&3 in favour of defendant no.1, 6,7,8 & 9. With these submissions, it was prayed that the plaintiff's suit be dismissed.

20. On the basis of the pleadings of the parties, the following issues were framed by the trial court:-

(i) Whether on the basis of grounds mentioned in the plaint the agreement to sell dated 20.4.2005 and four sale deeds dated 15.5.2006 were liable to be declared null and void?

(ii) Whether the plaintiff was owner in possession of bungalow no. 329,Jhokan Bagh, Jhansi on the basis of grounds mentioned in the plaint?

(iii) Whether the suit was undervalued and the court fee paid was insufficient?

(iv) Whether the suit was barred by sections 34, 38 and 41(h) of the Specific Relief Act?

(v) Whether the proceedings of the suit was liable to be stayed under section 10 of CPC as alleged in para 34 of WS 133A –1 ?

(vi)Whether the plaintiff was entitled to any relief, if any?

O.S.No 365 of 2006

21. This suit was filed by the plaintiff with almost the same averments that were made in O.S. no.129 of 2005 by him. It was averred by the plaintiff that previously he had filed O.S. no. 129 of 2005 for getting declared the agreement to sell dated 20.4.2005, executed by the legal heirs of late Vinay Chhabra, in favour of defendant no.1, null and void, but, subsequently the legal heirs of late Vinay Chhabra, had executed 4 sale deeds on 15.05.2006 registered on 20.7.2006 in favour of defendant no.2,3,4 & 5, which were null and void.

22. It was also averred that previously in SCC Revision No. 67 of 2003 Rajesh Chhabra versus Samson William, the plaintiff was held to be the owner and landlord of the disputed house. The plaintiff sought the following reliefs:-

(i) by declaratory decree granted in favour of the plaintiff against the defendants, the registered sale deeds executed by Smt. Savita Chhabra and Rishav Chhabra in favour of defendant no.1,2,3,4 & 5 executed on 15.05.2006 registered on 20.7.2006, regarding the disputed house, be declared null and void.

(ii) by decree of permanent injunction granted in favour of the plaintiff against the defendants, the defendants be restrained from interfering in the peaceful possession and vested rights as landlord, in disputed house no. 329, new no. 1358,Jhokan Bagh,Jhansi.

Written Statement of defendants

23. It was accepted by the defendants that the disputed house was purchased wayback in the year 1965 by Sardari Lal, in the name of his son Vinay Chhabra, and after the death of Vinay Chhabra on 24.11.1987, the ownership of the house devolved on his legal heirs, his wife Smt.Savita Chhabra and son Rishav Chhabra. It was also accepted that in the disputed house Smt. H. William was a tenant and after her death, her legal heirs became tenant's in the disputed house. It was also alleged that against the decision dated 23.12.2005 in SCC Revision No. 67 of 2003 Rajesh Chhabra and another versus Samson William and others, passed by the court of First Additional District Judge Jhansi, Writ Petition had been filed in the High Court, which was pending for disposal. It was also accepted that through 4 sale deeds dated 20.7.2006, the defendants purchased the disputed house and were in possession of the disputed house.

24. It was also averred by the defendants that the plaintiff never remained the owner in possession of the disputed house.Also, Smt. H. William never remained tenant of plaintiff or his father Mangal Sen Chhabra. It was also averred that after the death of Smt. H. William, her sons Samson William and Morris William never remained tenant of Mangal Sen Chhabra and Rajesh Chhabra, and Mangal Sen Chhabra and Rajesh Chhabra were neither accepted as landlords by Morris William and Samson William nor any rent was paid by them, to Rajesh Chhabra and Mangal Sen Chhabra. It was further alleged that the plaintiff was not in possession of the disputed house, instead, the defendants were the owner in possession. The plaintiff had not claimed the relief of possession, hence plaintiff's suit was barred by section 34, 38 and 41(h) of the Specific Relief Act. The plaintiff had not claimed the relief of cancellation of the sale deeds dated 20.7.2006 as such, by declaratory decree the above sale deeds cannot be cancelled. Since, the plaintiff was not in possession of the disputed house as such, the relief of permanent injunction was barred by section 38 of the Specific Relief Act. It was also alleged that on 19.4.2005, the alleged tenants Samson William and Morris William, handed over the possession of the tenanted accommodation to Smt.Savita Chhabra and Rishav Chhabra, and till 19.7.2006, Savita Chhabra and Rishav Chhabra remained the owner in possession of the disputed house and subsequently, on 20.7.2006, the disputed house was sold through four sale deeds to the defendants, and now the defendants were in possession of the disputed house. With these submissions, it was prayed that the plaintiff 's suit be dismissed.

25. On the basis of the pleadings of the parties, the following issues were framed, in this suit:-

(i) Whether the plaintiff was owner in possession of suit property?

(ii)Whether the sale deeds executed on 15.05.2006 registered on 20.7.2006 by Smt. Savita Chhabra and Rishav Chhabra in favour of defendant no.1 Radhey Lal Jeswani, defendant no.2 Sanjay Agarwal, defendant no.3 Smt. Hema Agarwal, defendant no.4 Sunil Kumar, and defendant no.5 Mahendra Kumar, were liable to be declared null, void and ineffective on the basis of grounds mentioned in the plaint?

(iii)Whether any cause of action arose to the plaintiff against the defendants?

(iv)Whether the suit was undervalued and the court fee paid was insufficient?

(v)Whether the suit was barred by sections 34, 38 and 41(h) of the Specific Relief Act?

(vi)To what relief, if any, the plaintiff was entitled to?

26. The trial court by order dated 3.3.2008, consolidated both the above suits and for the purpose of evidence, O.S. no.129 of 2005 was made leading case, in which evidence was recorded.

27. In oral evidence, the plaintiff Rajesh Chhabra examined himself as PW-1 and his father, Mangal Sen Chhabra as PW-2. The defendants examined Sanjay Agarwal as DW-1.

28. In documentary evidence, the plaintiff filed copy of plaint in O.S. no. 28 of 1996, certified copy of ex-parte judgment dated 31.3.1999 in the above suit, copy of order in Miscellaneous Case no. 125 of 1999 dated 27.7.2001, copy of memo of appeal in Miscellaneous Civil Appeal No. 66 of 2001, order dated 30.7.2004, copy of judgment dated 17.8.2002 in O.S. no. 539 of 2000 Mangal Sen Chhabra versus Rajesh Chhabra, certified copy of affidavit of Vinay Chhabra in P.A.case no. 65 of 1986, certified copy of agreement to sell dated 20.4.2005 executed by Smt. Savita Chhabra and Rishav Chhabra in favour of Radhey Lal Jeswani, defendant no.1, copy of Miscellaneous Case no.115 of 1990 under section 39 of Guardians and Wards Act by Smt.Savita Chhabra, certified copy of the statement of Balram Chhabra in SCC suit no.118 of 1996, certified copy of order dated 27.10.2005 in P.A.case no.8 of 2002 Rajesh Chhabra versus Samson William and others, judgment in SCCR no. 67 of 2003 Rajesh Chhabra and another versus Samson William and others, certified copy of sale deed dated 12.1.1965 regarding the suit property purchased in the name of Vinay Chhabra, memo of appeal in RCA No. 22 of 2007 Rajesh Chhabra and another versus Samson William and others, certified copy of order dated 10.9.2007 in O.S. no.129 of 2005, certified copy of 4 sale deeds dated 15.5.2006, photocopy of plaint of O.S. no.301 of 2006 Rishav Chhabra versus Mangal Sen Chhabra and others dated 29.07.2006 and photocopy of order dated 20.04.2010 passed by the High Court in Writ A no.20677 of 2006 Rishav Chhabra and another versus Rajesh Chhabra and others.

29. The defendants filed in documentary evidence, receipt of house tax in the name of Sanjay and Smt.Hema, receipt of house tax in the name of Sunil Kumar and Mahendra Kumar, photocopy of electricity bill, photographs of the disputed property, copy of judgment dated 11.5.2007 in P.A. case no.8 of 2002 Rajesh Chhabra versus Samson William, certified copy of sale deed dated 15.5.2006, executed by defendant no.2 & 3 in favour of defendant no.1, certified copy of sale deeds dated 15.5.2006 executed by defendant no.2 & 3 in favour of Sanjay Agarwal, his wife Smt.Hema Agarwal, Sunil and Mahendra Kumar, photostat copy of judgment of SCC suit no.118 of 1996, copy of judgment in Writ petition no. 2387 of 1990, copy of order passed in Writ A no. 20677 of 2006, certified copy of sale deeds dated 15.5.2006 and certified copy of judgment in P.A. case no.8 of 2002 Rajesh Chhabra versus Samson William.

Findings of the trial court

• Issue no.1 in O.S.no.129 of 2005 and Issue no.2 in O.S. no. 365 of 2006

30. Both the issues were decided jointly. The trial court came to the conclusion that the findings in P.A. cases could not be held binding because, these cases were decided by the court of Prescribed Authority under UP Act no. 13 of 1972, which was a court of limited jurisdiction. The trial court came to the conclusion that the finding recorded in these cases would not act as res-judicata, on a title suit, decided by a regular civil court.

31. The trial court noted that in O.S. no. 28 of 1996, which was filed by the legal heirs of late Sardari Lal, the legal heirs of late Vinay Chhabra, who died in an accident on 24.11.1987, namely Rishav Chhabra and Savita Chhabra were impleaded as defendant no.6 & 7, who had started claiming ownership in the disputed property, as such, a declaration was sought by Mangal Sen Chhabra, regarding his ownership and possession of the disputed property. The trial court also noted that when the above suit was filed, defendant no.3 Rishav Chhabra was only eight years old, who was minor, the service on defendants was effected by publication in newspaper, when none appeared, one Advocate Bharat Jain, was appointed as guardian- ad- litem of the minor defendant, but he did not take any step to safeguard the interest of the minor and ultimately, the suit was proceeded ex-parte against minor on 28.10.1997. The trial court noted that the above suit was decreed ex-parte on 31.3.1999, in which the plaintiff was declared to be the exclusive owner in possession of house no. 329, situated in Civil Lines,Jhansi and it was also declared that, the defendants do not have any right or share therein.

32. The trial court also noted that the defendant no. 2 & 3, after becoming aware that suit no. 28 of 1996 was decreed ex-parte against them, had moved an application under Order 9 Rule 13 CPC, in which a plea was raised by them, that the ex-parte decree was collusive, which was against the interest of the minor, because no service was effected on the defendants, the Advocate had not safeguarded the interests of the minor. The trial court noted that the restoration application was dismissed by the court of Civil Judge(Senior Division), Jhansi by order dated 27.7.2001, against which MCA no. 66 of 2001 was filed, which was also dismissed in default on 30.7 2004.

33. The trial court concluded that since minor defendant no.3 was not properly represented in O.S. no. 28 of 1996, the decree passed in that suit was fraudulent and collusive, which was not binding on defendant no.3 and further, it would not operate as res-judicata. The trial court also concluded that there was no necessity on the part of minor defendant, to file a separate suit, on attaining majority, for challenging the fraudulent and collusive decree passed in the above suit. It was also concluded by the trial court that, since the plaintiff in the above suit, was not having any subsisting ownership rights therefore, the decree passed in the above suit required registration.

34. The trial court concluded that disputed house was purchased by late Sardari Lal in the name of minor Vinay Chhabra. It was also concluded that in the affidavit filed by Vinay Chhabra, there was no admission of ownership of the plaintiff 's father. The trial court also disbelieved the version of the plaintiff that, in the year 1980, family partition took place between the legal heirs of late Sardari Lal. The trial court also concluded that, the disputed house was not a joint Hindu family property. The trial court finally concluded that the plaintiff failed to prove that he was the exclusive owner in possession of the suit property and as such, both the issues, were decided in negative.

• Issue no.2 in O.S. no.129 of 2005 and issue no.1 in O.S. no. 365 of 2005

35. Both these issues were decided jointly, by the trial court. The trial court concluded that the sale deeds and agreement to sell in question, could not be declared null and void, because it was mentioned in the deeds, that consideration was paid to the vendor's by the vendee's.

• Issue no.3 & 4 in O.S. no. 365 of 2006

36. The trial court decided these issues in favour of the plaintiff by concluding that the plaintiff was having cause of action to file the suit. The trial court also concluded that the plaintiff had correctly valued the suit and the court fee paid was sufficient.

• Issue no 4 in O.S. no. 129 of 2005 and issue no. 5 in O.S.no. 365 of 2006

37. The trial court decided both the issues jointly. The trial court concluded that since the plaintiff was out of possession of the disputed house, he should have claimed possession, but the plaintiff had only claimed declaration, without claiming possession, which was barred by section 34 and 41(h) of the Specific Relief Act. It was also held that in such circumstances, no injunction could be granted being barred by section 38 of the Specific Relief Act.

• Issue no.6 in both the suits

38. The trial court decided both the issues jointly. It was held that the plaintiff failed to prove that partition took place in the year 1980, between his father and his uncles. Further, he could not prove his exclusive ownership over the suit property and since, admittedly he was out of possession of the suit property, the plaintiff was held not entitled to any relief in both the suits. With this reasoning, both the suits of the plaintiff were dismissed.

39. Aggrieved against the dismissal of both the above mentioned suits, the plaintiff – appellant has filed two separate First Appeals 60 of 2011 and 70 of 2011, before this Court.

40. Learned counsel for the plaintiff-appellant submitted that Vinay Chhabra was only eight years old, in the year 1965, when his father Sardari Lal had purchased the property in his name, out of the funds of the joint Hindu family. Learned counsel submitted that since Vinay Chhabra was minor at that time, he was not having any independent income, as such, the whole consideration of the sale deed, was paid by Sardari Lal. Learned counsel submitted that Sardari Lal died in the year 1973, leaving behind his seven sons. Sardari Lal also left substantial property of the joint Hindu family, which was subsequently, orally partitioned among his heirs ,in the year 1980.

41. Learned counsel further submitted that in the year 1980, Vinay Chhabra had attained majority, who was also a party to the above partition, which was also accepted by him, by filing his affidavit in a subsequent eviction case, filed against the tenants, by plaintiffs father. Learned counsel further submitted that on 24.11.1987, Vinay Chhabra died in an accident, leaving behind his wife Smt. Savita Chhabra and minor son Rishav Chhabra. Learned counsel submitted that during his lifetime, Vinay Chhabra never disputed the partition, but after his death, his legal heirs raised a dispute, as such, the plaintiffs father Mangal Sen Chhabra filed suit no. 28 of 1996, before the competent civil court, for the relief of declaration of the ownership and possession of the disputed house no. 329, in which the defendant no. 2 & 3 of O.S. no.129 of 2005, were also arrayed as defendants no. 6&7, that suit was decreed on 31.3.1999.

42. Learned counsel further submitted that in suit no. 28 of 1996, the issue of ownership and possession of disputed house no. 329, was directly in issue, which was decided in favour of the plaintiff 's father Mangal Sen Chhabra, as such, that issue cannot be re-agitated in a subsequent proceeding, between the parties or their successors. Learned counsel further submitted that even if, the ex-parte decree passed in the above suit was held to be collusive and illegal, even then, it would operate as res-judicata between the parties, but, the trial court has erred in not treating the above decree as binding, in the facts and circumstances of the case. Learned counsel further submitted that an application under Order 9 Rule 13 CPC was filed by the defendant no.2 & 3, for setting aside the ex-parte decree in suit no. 28 of 1996, which was dismissed on merits, against which a Miscellaneous Civil Appeal was also filed by the defendants, which was also dismissed in default, as such, the decree passed in suit no. 28 of 1996 has attained finality, which would operate as res-judicata, insofar, as the title and ownership of the disputed house was concerned. Learned counsel further submitted that the above decree conclusively proved that the disputed house was property of joint Hindu family, regarding which an oral partition took place between the members of the joint Hindu family, which was accepted and acted upon by the members of the family and in accordance with the above partition, the disputed house came in the share of the plaintiffs father Mangal Sen Chhabra. Learned counsel further submitted that on the basis of subsequent partition, which took place between the plaintiff and his father, the plaintiff was the owner in possession of the disputed house.

43. Learned counsel further submitted that even if, it is assumed that, in suit no. 28 of 1996, guardian ad-litem, appointed by the court, failed to protect the interest of minor defendant, the defendant had the remedy of filing a suit, on attaining majority, to challenge the ex-parte decree passed in the above suit, and the minor defendant had availed that opportunity on attaining majority, by filing O.S. no.301 of 2006 Rishav Chhabra versus Mangal Sen Chhabra and others in the court of Civil Judge(Senior Division), Jhansi, which was dismissed in default on 7.12.2015 as such, the ex-parte decree passed in O.S. no. 28 of 1996, has attained finality, which cannot be challenged on any ground whatsoever and as such, the trial court could not have examined the ex-parte decree in O.S. no.28 of 1996, but the trial court exceeded its jurisdiction and went on to consider the legality of the decree passed in the above suit.

44. Learned counsel further submitted that the partition took place between the legal heirs of late Sardari Lal in the year 1980, which was accepted by all the heirs, otherwise, litigation would have ensued between the heirs. Learned counsel submitted that in the instant case, the dispute has not been raised by Vinay Chhabra, but by his legal heirs.

45. Learned counsel further submitted that when the house was purchased in the year 1965, even at that time Smt. H. William was the tenant, and after her death, her two sons Samson William and Morris William, inherited the tenancy, who remained in possession of the tenanted accommodation till, it was purchased by defendants by sale deed dated 15.5.2006. Learned counsel submitted that since, the tenants were inducted by the predecessors of the plaintiff, they were bound to hand the vacant and physical possession of the tenanted accommodation to the plaintiff, as such, the possession of the defendants is illegal. Learned counsel further submitted that since the tenants were in possession of the disputed house, it will amount to constructive/legal possession of the plaintiff, as such, the trial court erred in concluding that the plaintiff was not in possession of the disputed house and the suit was barred by section 34, 38 and 41(h) of the Specific Relief Act. Learned counsel further submitted that it was not disputed by the parties that defendant no.4 & 5 in O.S. no. 129 of 2005 were tenants in the disputed house. With these submissions, it was prayed that both the appeals be allowed and consequently, both the suits of the plaintiff be decreed.

46. Per contra, learned counsel for defendant – respondents submitted that the plaintiff failed to prove that the disputed house was a joint Hindu family property. Learned counsel submitted that the disputed house was purchased for the benefit and in the name of minor Vinay Chhabra, as such, after his death, his heirs became owners in possession of the disputed house, and in this capacity, they had executed the sale deeds on 15.5.2006 in favour of the defendants, which were perfectly legal. Learned counsel further submitted that the ex-parte decree in suit no. 28 of 1996, was a fraudulent and collusive decree, in which notices on the defendants were sent on wrong address as such, they never became aware of the suit and as such, could not appear before the trial court. Further, the interest of minor Rishav Chhabra was not protected by the court, also the guardian ad-litem appointed by the court, failed to protect the interest of the minor defendant, who was in collusion with the plaintiff of that suit as such, the decree passed in that suit was not binding on the minor, and the validity of the decree could be challenged, wherever, that decree was enforced against the minor defendant. Learned counsel further submitted that plaintiff failed to prove that the disputed house was the property of the joint Hindu family. The plaintiff also failed to prove that regarding the disputed property, a partition took place between the heirs of late Sardari Lal, as such, the disputed house never devolved upon the predecessor of plaintiff, as such, the plaintiff never acquired the ownership of that house, and in view of these facts, the plaintiff was not entitled to get any relief from the court regarding the disputed house. Learned counsel further submitted that in these facts and circumstances, the trial court had not committed any illegality in dismissing both the suits of the plaintiff.With these submissions, it was prayed that both the appeals are meritless and be dismissed.

47. I've heard the learned counsel of both the parties, perused the record and case laws submitted by them.

48. On the basis of the pleadings, evidence adduced in the suits and arguments of the learned counsel of the parties, the following issues arise for determination in these appeals:-

(1)Whether the decree passed in O.S.no. 28 of 1996 operates as res-judicata, insofar, the title and possession of the disputed house is concerned?

(2)Whether the decree passed in O.S.no. 28 of 1996, can be challenged, in these proceedings, on the ground that the decree is fraudulent,collusive and is against the interest of minor defendant, who was not properly represented in that suit ?

(3) What is the effect of O.S. no.301 of 2006 filed by the minor defendant Rishav Chhabra, on attaining majority, for declaring the ex-parte decree dated 31.03.1999 passed in O.S. no.28 of 1996 null and void, which was dismissed in default on 7.12.2015 ?

(4)Whether the disputed house was one of the properties of the joint Hindu family of late Sardari Lal Chhabra, which was orally partitioned among his heirs in the year 1980, after the death of Sardari Lal Chhabra?

(5)Whether the disputed house was the benami property of late Sardari Lal Chhabra?

(6)Whether the decree passed in O.S.no. 28 of 1996 required registration?

(7)Whether Samson William and Morris William are the tenants in the disputed house, who had inherited tenancy from their late mother Smt. H. William?

(8)Whether the possession of the tenants, is to be considered as constructive/lawful possession of the plaintiff, insofar as the disputed house is concerned ?

(9)Whether the court erred in declaring in O.S. No. 28 of 1996 Mangal Sen Chhabra the owner in possession of the disputed house, because prior to the filing of the suit, in the year 1995 itself, in the alleged family partition between him and his son Rajesh Chhabra, the disputed house had already devolved on his son Rajesh Chhabra?

(10)Whether the plaintiff 's suit is barred by section 34, 38 and 41(h) of the Specific Relief Act?

(11)What relief the plaintiff is entitled to get?

Pleadings of O.S.no. 28 of 1996, issues arising in that suit, findings recorded by the court ,while decreeing the suit ex-parte on 31.3.1999

49. The plaintiff Mangal Sen Chhabra had filed the above O.S. no.28 of 1996 with the averments that his father late Sardari Lal Chhabra had seven sons. In this suit the plaintiff had impleaded the legal heirs of deceased Vinay Chhabra as defendant no. 6 Rishav Chhabra and defendant no.7 Smt.Savita Chhabra. The plaintiff averred in that suit that during his lifetime, Sardari Lal had solemnised two marriages, from first marriage a son named Shyam and daughter named Shashi were born and from the second wife, plaintiff and defendants were born. Since the relations between plaintiff and Shyam were not cordial, as such Sardari Lal in the year 1962, willingly separated Shyam after giving him his share. In view of this, after the death of Sardari Lal, no property devolved on Shyam. The plaintiffs father Sardari Lal died on 5.8.1973, and after his death, the property which was purchased in different names, was in joint possession of the plaintiff and the defendants. The disputed bungalow no. 329 was purchased by Sardari Lal, during his lifetime in the name of defendant no. 6 's father Vinay Chhabra, who was minor at that time. According to plaintiff, after the death of Sardari Lal, a partition took place between the plaintiff and the defendant's in the month of January 1980, in which the disputed bungalow no. 329, including the tenants, came to the share of plaintiff and thereafter, the plaintiff realised the rent from the tenant Smt. H. William. The plaintiff specifically averred that the partition was acted upon and as such, after the partition, all the defendants came into the possession of their respective properties, devolved in partition. The plaintiff also averred that regarding the disputed bungalow no. 329, a partition took place between him and his son Rajesh in the year 1995, in which the disputed bungalow was given by the plaintiff to his son Rajesh. The defendant no.6's father Vinay Chhabra died in an accident on 24.11.1987, leaving behind his legal heirs as defendant no.6 and 7. The plaintiff specifically pleaded that the defendant no.6 and 7 were well aware that the partition had been effected between the plaintiff and the defendants in the year 1980 but even then, the defendant no.6 and 7 began to assert their ownership rights in the disputed bungalow no. 329 on the basis of the alleged sale deed executed in favour of their predecessor Vinay Chhabra. The plaintiff also averred that regarding the disputed bungalow, the defendant no.6 and 7 had got published a public notice in the newspaper Dainik Jagran on 3.1.1996, then the plaintiff felt the need for obtaining declaration regarding the disputed property. The plaintiff had impleaded his brothers as defendant number 1 to 5 in the suit, because they were also parties to the partition. The plaintiff prayed that by decree of the court he be declared the sole owner in possession of disputed bungalow no. 329, civil lines, Jhansi and further, the defendants have got no right title interest in this bungalow.

50. In the above suit, summons were sent to the defendants and thereafter, publication was also effected in the newspaper but none of the defendants appeared, as such by order dated 15.5.1996 the proceedings of the suit were proceeded ex-parte against defendant no.1 to 5 & 7. The proceedings of the suit were proceeded ex-parte against minor defendant no.6 Rishav Chhabra on 28.10.1997. In support of his pleadings, the plaintiff produced the certified copy of the affidavit of Vinay Chhabra filed in P.A. case no. 65 of 1986, Mangal Sen Chhabra versus H. William and the certified copy of order dated 18.4.1992 of the court of District Judge, Jhansi passed in Miscellaneous Case no. 115 of 1990 Smt. Savita Chhabra versus Ramjeet Chhabra. The plaintiff also filed his affidavit in oral evidence.

51. The trial court concluded that Vinay Chhabra had filed his affidavit in P.A. case no. 65 of 1986, Mangal Sen Chhabra versus H. William, in which he had accepted that the sale deed of disputed house no. 329, Jhokan Bagh, Jhansi was executed in his favour, but in partition, that property had devolved on his brother Mangal Sen Chhabra and as such, he had no right title and interest in that property. He acknowledged that Mangal Sen Chhabra was the sole owner of that property, who was entitled to realise the rent also. The trial court concluded that since the husband of defendant no.7 and the father of defendant no.6, had acknowledged in his lifetime, in the above affidavit, that the plaintiff was the sole owner of disputed house no. 329, as such the defendant no.6 and 7, who were the legal heirs of late Vinay Chhabra, had inherited the same right in the property, which devolved on Vinay Chhabra in that partition. The trial court also concluded that the declaration published by defendant no.7 in the newspaper, that she is entitled to realise the rent of disputed house no. 329, was without any legal right. The trial court also concluded that when the disputed property was purchased by Sardari Lal Chhabra, in the name of Vinay Chhabra, then at that time Vinay Chhabra was minor and after the death of Sardari Lal Chhabra, the properties left behind by him, came into the joint ownership of the plaintiff and the defendant's, regarding which a partition took place in the month of January 1980, in which the disputed house no. 329, civil lines Jhansi, came to the share and possession of the plaintiff along with the tenants, and thereafter, the plaintiff had also realised the rent from the tenants residing in that property. The trial court came to the conclusion that since no contrary evidence had been adduced by the defendants as such, there was no other alternative, but to believe the evidence adduced by the plaintiff. On the above reasoning, the trial Court decreed the suit ex-parte in favour of the plaintiff against the defendants, by declaring that the plaintiff was the sole owner in possession of the disputed bungalow no. 329, civil lines, Jhansi in which the defendants had no right and share.

52. It is apparent that in O.S. no. 28 of 1996, the title and possession of the disputed house no. 329 was directly in issue between the parties to the suit, on which the trial court had recorded a definite finding that in the oral partition that took place in the year 1980, after the death of late Sardari Lal Chhabra, between the sons of Sardari Lal Chhabra, the disputed house had come to the share of the plaintiff, along with the tenants residing in that house, at that time. The trial court had declared the plaintiff Mangal Sen Chhabra to be the sole owner in possession of the disputed house no. 329 and had also declared that the defendants, had no right or share in the disputed house.

Subsequent proceedings initiated by Smt.Savita Chhabra and Rishav Chhabra for setting aside the ex-parte decree dated 31.3.99 passed in O.S. no. 28 of 1996

53. It is also apparent that after the passing of the ex-parte decree in O.S. no. 28 of 1996, Savita Chhabra and Vinay Chhabra, instituted in the court of Civil Judge (Senior Division) Jhansi, Miscellaneous Case no. 125 of 1999 Savita Chhabra and another versus Mangal Sen Chhabra under Order 9 Rule 13 CPC, for setting aside the above ex-parte decree, on the ground that the summons in the suit were not duly served, they had no knowledge of that suit, the plaintiff had fraudulently got the suit decreed ex-parte against them, their address mentioned in the plaint was wrong since they resided in Allahabad, they never received any summons. It was also averred by them that Rishav Chhabra was minor, his guardian ad-litem Bharat Jain, Advocate, had never contacted the minor defendant, who was in collusion with plaintiff Mangal Sen Chhabra.

54. Mangal Sen Chhabra objected to the above application by submitting that the applicants were fully aware of the proceedings of O.S. no. 28 of 1996 but they deliberately didn't appear in that suit. Bharat Jain, Advocate was duly appointed guardian ad litem by the court, who had duly protected the interest of the minor defendant and the application was time barred.

55. The trial court concluded that the application was time barred and further, there was no sufficient ground to recall the ex-parte decree, as such, the application under Order 9 Rule 13 CPC, was rejected vide order dated 27.7.2001.

56. The defendants Savita Chhabra and Rishav Chhabra carried the matter further, by challenging the above order dated 27.7.2001, by instituting Miscellaneous Civil Appeal no. 66 of 2001 Smt. Savita Chhabra vs. Mangal Sen Chhabra and others, which was dismissed for non prosecution on 30.7.2004 by the court of Additional District Judge/Special Judge SC/ST Act, Jhansi. The matter was not carried any further by the contesting defendants, as such, the decree dated 31.3.1999 passed in O.S. no. 28 of 1996, attained finality.

57. The Apex Court in the case of Baldev Singh vs. Surinder Mohan Sharma and others (2003) 1 SCC 34, held as under:-

"13. It is now a well-settled principle of law that an ex-parte decree is as good as a contesting decree unless it is set aside. An ex-parte decree can be set aside by the court passing it or by an appellate court only at the instance of a person aggrieved thereby."

58. The Apex Court in the case of R. Unnikrishnan and another vs. V.K.Mahanudevan and others (2014)4 SCC 434, while considering the applicability of the principle of res-judicata, held as under;-

"19. It is trite that law favours finality to binding judicial decisions pronounced by courts that are competent to deal with the subject-matter. Public interest is against individuals being vexed twice over with the same kind of litigation. The binding character of the judgments pronounced by the courts of competent jurisdiction has always been treated as an essential part of the rule of law which is the basis of the administration of justice in this country. We may gainfully refer to the decision of the Constitution Bench of this Court in Daryao v. State of U.P. [AIR 1961 SC 1457] where the Court succinctly summed up the law in the following words: (AIR p. 1462, paras 9 & 11)

"9. ... It is in the interest of the public at large that a finality should attach to the binding decisions pronounced by courts of competent jurisdiction, and it is also in the public interest that individuals should not be vexed twice over with the same kind of litigation.

11. ... The binding character of judgments pronounced by courts of competent jurisdiction is itself an essential part of the rule of law, and the rule of law obviously is the basis of the administration of justice on which the Constitution lays so much emphasis."

20. That even erroneous decisions can operate as res judicata is also fairly well settled by a long line of decisions rendered by this Court. In Mohanlal Goenka v. Benoy Kishna Mukherjee [(1952) 2 SCC 648 : AIR 1953 SC 65] this Court observed: (AIR p. 72, para 23)

"23. There is ample authority for the proposition that even an erroneous decision on a question of law operates as 'res judicata' between the parties to it. The correctness or otherwise of a judicial decision has no bearing upon the question whether or not it operates as 'res judicata'."

21. Similarly, in State of W.B. v. Hemant Kumar Bhattacharjee [AIR 1966 SC 1061 : 1966 Cri LJ 805] this Court reiterated the above principles in the following words: (AIR p. 1066, para 14)

"14. ... A wrong decision by a court having jurisdiction is as much binding between the parties as a right one and may be superseded only by appeals to higher tribunals or other procedure like review which the law provides."

22. The recent decision of this Court in Kalinga Mining Corpn. v. Union of India [(2013) 5 SCC 252 : (2013) 2 SCC (Civ) 797] is a timely reminder of the very same principle. The following passage in this regard is apposite: (SCC pp. 267-68, para 44)

"44. ... In our opinion, if the parties are allowed to reagitate issues which have been decided by a court of competent jurisdiction on a subsequent change in the law then all earlier litigation relevant thereto would always remain in a state of flux. In such circumstances, every time either a statute or a provision thereof is declared ultra vires, it would have the result of reopening of the decided matters within the period of limitation following the date of such decision."

23. In Mathura Prasad Bajoo Jaiswal v. Dossibai N.B. Jeejeebhoy [(1970) 1 SCC 613] this Court held that for the application of the rule of res judicata, the court is not concerned with the correctness or otherwise of the earlier judgment. The matter in issue if one purely of fact decided in the earlier proceedings by a competent court must in any subsequent litigation between the same parties be recorded as finally decided and cannot be reopened. That is true even in regard to mixed questions of law and fact determined in the earlier proceeding between the same parties which cannot be revised or reopened in a subsequent proceeding between the same parties. Having said that we must add that the only exception to the doctrine of res judicata is "fraud" that vitiates the decision and renders it a nullity. This Court has in more than one decision held that fraud renders any judgment, decree or order a nullity and non est in the eye of the law. In A.V. Papayya Sastry v. State of A.P. [(2007) 4 SCC 221] , "fraud" was defined by this Court in the following words: (SCC pp. 231-32, para 26)

"26. Fraud may be defined as an act of deliberate deception with the design of securing some unfair or undeserved benefit by taking undue advantage of another. In fraud one gains at the loss [and cost] of another. Even most solemn proceedings stand vitiated if they are actuated by fraud. Fraud is thus an extrinsic collateral act which vitiates all judicial acts, whether in rem or in personam. The principle of 'finality of litigation' cannot be stretched to the extent of an absurdity that it can be utilised as an engine of oppression by dishonest and fraudulent litigants."

24. To the same effect is the decision in Raju Ramsing Vasave v. Mahesh Deorao Bhivapurkar [(2008) 9 SCC 54 : (2008) 2 SCC (L&S) 802] , wherein this Court held: (SCC p. 70, para 32)

"32. (ii) If a fraud has been committed on the court, no benefit therefrom can be claimed on the basis thereof or otherwise."

59. The Apex Court in the case of Vaijinath vs. Afsar Begum (2020) 15 SCC 128, reiterated the principles of res-judicata enunciated earlier in the case of Unnikrishnan(supra) and also held as under:-

"12. It was not the case of the respondents that the statutory certificate had been obtained by any fraud or misrepresentation by the appellant in which case undoubtedly it would have been open for reconsideration. The conclusion of the High Court that the issuance of the certificate was "fictitious, unfounded and useless" by reasons of being null and void is therefore completely unsustainable. The decisions on the earlier occasion had been rendered by a proper competent forum, after hearing the parties and on perusal of records. An erroneous decision by a proper forum, unless assailed before a superior forum will attain finality inter partes.

15. At this juncture we also consider it appropriate to take note of the submissions that the dismissal of the appeal by the respondent on grounds of limitation on 9-11-1971 gave a quietus to the matter on merits also as observed in Shyam Sundar Sarma [Shyam Sundar Sarma v. Pannalal Jaiswal, (2005) 1 SCC 436] as follows: (SCC p. 440, para 9)

"9.1. In Sheodan Singh v. Daryao Kunwar [(1966) 3 SCR 300 : AIR 1966 SC 1332] rendered by four learned Judges of this Court, one of the questions that arose was whether the dismissal of an appeal from a decree on the ground that the appeal was barred by limitation was a decision in the appeal. This Court held: (AIR p. 1337, para 13: SCR pp. 308 H-309 B)

'13. ... We are therefore of opinion that where a decision is given on the merits by the trial court and the matter is taken in appeal and the appeal is dismissed on some preliminary ground, like limitation or default in printing, it must be held that such dismissal when it confirms the decision of the trial court on the merits itself amounts to the appeal being heard and finally decided on the merits whatever may be the ground for dismissal of the appeal.' "

60. From the law laid down by the Apex Court in the cases of Unnikrishnan(supra) and Vaijinath(supra), it is apparent that if the earlier decision had been rendered by competent court, after hearing the parties and on perusal of records, then even an erroneous decision by that court, unless assailed before a superior court, would attain finality in between the parties, and the findings of that earlier suit, would operate as res-judicata in a subsequent suit, between the same parties or their successors, where similar question is involved. It is also well-settled that the correctness or otherwise of a judicial decision has no bearing upon the question whether or not it operates as res-judicata. It has been specifically held that the matter in issue if, is purely of fact decided in the earlier proceedings by a competent court then, it must, in any subsequent litigation between the same parties, be recorded as finally decided and cannot be reopened. It was further held that this applies to even in regard to mixed questions of law and fact determined in the earlier proceeding between the same parties, which cannot be revised or reopened in a subsequent proceeding between the same parties. The Apex Court also held that the only exception to the doctrine of res-judicata, is fraud that vitiates the decision and renders it a nullity or non est in the eye of law. It is also apparent that where a decision is given by the trial court on merits and the matter is taken in appeal and the appeal is dismissed on the ground of limitation or default, then such dismissal, confirms the decision given on merits by the trial court.

61. It is apparent that in O.S. no. 28 of 1996, the issue of title and possession of the disputed bungalow no. 329 was directly in issue between the plaintiff and the defendant's, in which the plaintiff had pleaded that the disputed property belonged to the joint Hindu family of the late Sardari Lal Chhabra, who died on 5.8.1973, and after his death, family partition took place between the plaintiff and defendants in the month of January 1980, in which all the properties left behind by Sardari Lal Chhabra, were divided between his seven sons, including Vinay Chhabra, who is the father of Rishav Chhabra and husband of Savita Chhabra, and in this partition, the disputed property came to the share of the plaintiff of that suit Mangal Sen Chhabra. The trial Court decreed the suit ex-parte in favour of the plaintiff by declaring that the plaintiff was the owner in possession of the disputed bungalow no. 329, civil lines Jhansi, in which the defendants had no right and share.

62. It is also apparent that in O.S. no. 28 of 1996, besides the legal heirs of late Vinay Chhabra and plaintiff, five other sons of late Sardari Lal Chhabra were arrayed as defendants no. 1 to 5, who never challenged the alleged partition that took place in the month of January 1980, which proves that indeed a partition took place between the seven sons of late Sardari Lal Chhabra, which was accepted by all the sons, and after the partition, the parties occupied the property, which came in their respective share.

63. It also appears that a release application under UP Act no. 3 of 1947 was filed by Sardari Lal Chhabra on the ground of his personal need, which was dismissed on 2.3.1972. An appeal filed by Sardari Lal Chhabra was also dismissed on 6.12.1972. Again, a release application under section 21(1)(a) of UP Act no. 13 of 1972 was filed by Mangal Sen Chhabra for getting released the disputed bungalow no. 329 from the tenant Smt. H. William(deceased) through LR's, on the ground of personal requirement on 23.4.1973, in which a plea was taken by Mangal Sen Chhabra that the property devolved on him on account of family settlement, which was dismissed by the court of Prescribed Authority on 10.7.1974 and it was held that the family settlement was not proved and therefore, Mangal Sen Chhabra cannot be said to be the sole owner of the house in question.. An appeal preferred by Mangal Sen Chhabra was also dismissed on 19.1.1976. Again, another release application under section 21(1)(a) of the above Act was filed on 11.7.1989, which was dismissed by the court of Prescribed Authority by concluding that no partition between Mangal Sen Chhabra and his brothers took place, which was reversed in appeal. The appellate order was challenged by the tenant Smt. H. William(deceased) through LR's by filing Civil Miscellaneous Writ Petition no. 2387 of 1990 which was allowed, by this Court vide order dated 31.7.1995.

64. It is well settled that in an eviction proceeding instituted in the court of Prescribed Authority constituted under UP Act no. 13 of 1972, between plaintiff and defendant, only relationship of landlord and tenant is seen, the ownership of the disputed property is neither in issue nor can be adjudicated by the court of limited jurisdiction, the proceedings are summary in nature as such, any finding given by such court, in these proceedings, regarding title and ownership of the disputed property, cannot operate as res-judicata .In view of this, the contesting defendants cannot legally rely upon any finding given by the above court, regarding title and ownership of the disputed bungalow. Even the trial court, has concluded ,that finding given in the proceedings under UP Act no. 13 of 1972, does not operate as res-judicata, insofar as the title of the disputed property is concerned.

Whether the ex-parte decree of O.S. no. 28 of 1996 can be set aside on the ground that it was passed against minor Rishav Chhabra, whose interest was not duly protected by the court?

65. The legal heirs of deceased Vinay Chhabra, his wife Smt. Savita Chhabra and son Rishav Chhabra, have also assailed the ex-parte decree in O.S. no. 28 of 1996, on the ground that it was passed against the then minor Rishav Chhabra, the court appointed guardian ad litem Bharat Jain, Advocate, was in collusion and connivance with the plaintiff Mangal Sen Chhabra, the interest of the minor defendant was not protected, as such, the ex-parte decree was not binding on the defendants.

66. It is specifically recorded in the order dated 27.7.2001 passed by the court of Civil Judge (Senior Division), Jhansi in Miscellaneous Case no. 125 of 1999, Savita Chhabra and another versus Mangal Sen Chhabra that vide order dated 12.3.1997, the court had appointed Shri Bharat Jain, Advocate as guardian ad litem of the minor defendant, before deciding the suit ex-parte. It is also apparent that the above application instituted by minor under Order 9 Rule 13 CPC for setting aside the ex-parte decree had been dismissed by the court on 27.7.2001, and the Miscellaneous Civil Appeal no. 66 of 2001 preferred against this order, had also been dismissed for non prosecution on 30.7.2004, as such, the decree passed in O.S. no. 28 of 1996 has attained finality.

67. Section 6 of the Limitation Act, 1963 reads as under:-

6.Legal disability.—(1)Where a person entitled to institute a suit or make an application for the execution of a decree is, at the time from which the prescribed period is to be reckoned, a minor or insane, or an idiot, he may institute the suit or make the application within the same period after the disability has ceased, as would otherwise have been allowed from the time specified therefore in the third column of the Schedule.*

68. The Apex Court in the case of Kameshwari Devi(SMT) alias Kaleshwari Devi and others vs. Barhani(SMT) dead by LRS. and others (1997)10 SCC 273, held as under:-

"4. It is true, as rightly contended by Dr Shankar Ghose, learned Senior Counsel, that in a case where the estate of the minor is involved in an action for partition or any other suit, the estate of the senior(sic minor) is required to be properly represented taking all diligent steps by either guardian ad litem or the court guardian. If the interest of the estate of the minor is not protected, necessarily, the minor on his attaining majority or within three years thereafter is entitled to file the suit under Section 7 of the Limitation Act, after cessation of the disability to question the correctness of a decree which is sought to be made binding on him. But in that case, the limited defence that could be open to him is that either the decree in the earlier suit was obtained by fraud/collusion or by negligence by the court guardian or that the guardian ad litem did not safeguard the interest of the estate of the minor. On proof of those facts, necessarily, the decree does not bind him and it is open to the court to go behind the decree and consider the right of the minor dehors the decree. But, in this case, whether that question arises for decision is to be seen. It is true, as found by all the courts, that the document, Ex. C, Phatbandi was a document marked as D/2 in Suit No. 178 of 1957. The sheet-anchor, in that suit, the defence open to all the parties on the document was that it was not a genuine document and was brought into existence only to defraud the creditors. That question was common to the interest of all the persons including the minor. The parties had hotly contested the suit and the matter was carried up to the High Court and the High Court had considered it and recorded the finding that it was true, valid and binding deed being a registered partition deed and was acted upon; and it bound the parties. Under these circumstances, though the court guardian had not filed any separate written statement, it makes little difference on the facts in this case, for the reason that the defence on Ex. C was common to all and the estate of the minor was sufficiently represented by appointment of the court guardian and that court had, in fact, gone into that question. It binds the appellant and operates as res judicata. If it were a case dehors the document and any other independent right was available and not set up nor considered in the earlier suit, necessarily that question could be gone into in the present suit since that was not pleaded by filing any written statement or contested by the court guardian in that behalf. No other plea was raised in this suit. Under these circumstances, the finding that Phatbandi, Ex. C binds the parties including the appellant is a finding validly recorded."

69. It is clear from the law laid down by the Apex Court in Kameshwari Devi(supra) that where the property of the minor is involved in a suit, it is required to be properly represented by either guardian ad litem or a guardian appointed by the court. It was further held that where the interest of the minor is not protected, in that case, the minor on attaining majority or within three years thereafter, is entitled to file the suit under the Limitation Act, after cessation of the disability, to question the correctness of a decree which is sought to be made binding on him. It was further held that where such a suit is filed by the minor on attaining majority, the limited defence that could be raised by such minor is that,either the decree in the earlier suit was obtained by fraud/collusion or by negligence by the court guardian or that the guardian ad litem did not safeguard the interest of the estate of the minor.

70. It is apparent that the minor defendant was represented by his mother Smt. Savitra Chhabra in case no.125 of 1999 filed under Order 9 Rule 13 CPC for setting aside the ex-parte decree passed in O.S. no. 28 of 1996 as well as, in Miscellaneous Civil Appeal no. 66 of 2001.

Effect of O.S. no. 301 of 2006 filed by Rishav Chhabra on attaining majority, for cancelling the ex-parte decree dated 31.03.1999 in OS. no. 28 of 1996 and it's dismissal for non prosecutioon on 7.12.2015

71. It is also apparent that the minor defendant Rishav Chhabra had also filed O.S. no. 301 of 2006 Rishav Chhabra versus Mangal Sen Chhabra and 6 others, on attaining majority in the court of Civil

"That he is the co-owner of house no.329,Jhokan Bagh,Jhansi which was purchased by his father Vinay Chhabra in the year 1965 through sale deed and its possession was also taken by his father. His father Vinay Chhabra died on 25.11.1987 in an accident and at that time he was minor and was in the care of his mother Smt. Savita Chhabra, who were harassed by the defendants, they did not get any share in the movable and immovable property of the joint Hindu family. At that time, he was represented by his mother, who resided in Allahabad and due to this, Mangal Sen Chhabra filed O.S. no.28 of 1996, in which notices were not served because the address given by the plaintiff was wrong. In 1996, he alongwith his mother resided in Allahabad, which was in the knowledge of Mangal Sen Chhabra but for obtaining the ex-parte decree, the plaintiff in that suit had effected service on his wrong address and had also subsequently obtained ex-parte decree. His mother had moved an application and had also filed Misc. Civil Appeal for setting aside the ex-parte decree but that was also rejected. His mother also didn't protect his interest and as such, the ex-parte decree is illegal and not binding on him. He became aware of the ex-parte decree during the pendency of O.S. no.129 of 2005 and when he tried to inquire from his mother about the above decree, even she didn't disclose the correct facts to him. It was further pleaded that in the above suit, no application was moved by the plaintiff for appointment of his guardian and even the court did not appoint anyone, as his guardian. It was further pleaded that in Civil Misc. Writ Petition no.2387 of 1990 Mrs. H. William versus 1st Additional District Judge,Jhansi, the alleged oral partition between plaintiff and defendants was not accepted. Besides this, as per the provisions of Hindu Minority and Guardianship Act,1956 without obtaining the permission of the court, the property of the minor cannot be partitioned. In view of this, if any partition had been effected by his mother, even then, it is not binding on him. Since the property was purchased in the name of his father Vinay Chhabra by registered sale deed in the year 1965, as such, the property never became the property of joint Hindu family, as such, it could not have been declared to be the property of the plaintiff Mangal Sen Chhabra in O.S. no.28 of 1996. The decree passed in the above suit was void and illegal, which was not binding on him. It was also pleaded that the cause of action for filing the suit arose on 17.3.2005, when he attained majority, thereafter, in the month of July 2005 when he became aware that the defendants had obtained ex-parte decree against him. The plaintiff in this suit claimed that it be declared by the court that the judgment and decree dated 31.3.1999 passed in O.S. no.28 of 1996, Mangal Sen Chhabra versus Ramjeet Chhabra and others, was a void and illegal document, which was not binding on him and the defendants be further restrained by decree of permanent injunction from interfering in his possession of disputed house no.329, Jhokan Bagh, Jhansi."

72. It is apparent that the above O.S. no.301 of 2006 was dismissed by the court of Additional Civil Judge(Senior Division) Court no.1, Jhansi, for non-prosecution on 7.12.2015.

73. It is also apparent that although the decree passed in O.S. no. 28 of 1996 had attained finality, with the dismissal of Miscellaneous Civil Appeal no.66 of 2001 on 30.7.2004, even then, the minor defendant Rishav Chhabra had one opportunity of assailing the decree, on attaining majority or within a period of three years thereafter, on the ground that his interest in O.S. no. 28 of 1996 was not properly safeguarded and the guardian ad litem appointed by the court was in collusion and connivance with the plaintiff, by instituting a suit. It is apparent that Rishav Chhabra had filed O.S. no. 301 of 2006, on attaining majority against Mangal Sen Chhabra and 6 others, which was dismissed for non prosecution by the court on 7.12.2015. In view of this, the decree passed in O.S. 28 of 1996 has attained finality, in every respect, and even the minor defendant Rishav Chhabra cannot assail its legality on the ground that it was passed against his interest or his interest was not properly safeguarded by the guardian ad litem appointed by the court. It is apparent that the decree in O.S. no. 28 of 1996 has been passed by court of competent jurisdiction as such, even if, it is deemed erroneous, even then, it is binding on the parties to the suit, as such, it operates as res-judicata in subsequent suit between the parties or their successors. In view of this, the trial court had no legal jurisdiction to examine the validity of the decree passed in O.S. no. 28 of 1996, acting like an Appellate Court, which is wholly contrary to the settled legal principles. The trial court has thoroughly examined the validity of the decree passed in O.S. no. 28 of 1996, as if, it was hearing Appeal, against that decree. The trial court has ultimately concluded that the decree in O.S. no. 28 of 1996 does not operate as res-judicata because it was a collusive decree which was obtained fraudulently, meaning thereby, the plaintiff was not the owner in possession of the disputed bungalow no. 329, which is contrary to the decree passed in O.S. no. 28 of 1996. The trial court has fundamentally erred in ignoring the well-settled principle of res-judicata. The finding recorded by the trial court is whimsical, arbitrary and against all settled principles of law.

74. Learned counsel for the respondents have argued that since the decree in O.S. no. 28 of 1996 was fraudulent and collusive, which was against the interest of the minor defendant Rishav Chhabra, as such, there was no legal requirement on the part of the minor defendant to file a separate suit on attaining majority for cancelling the above decree. Learned counsel in support of his above argument, has relied upon the case of Asharfi Lal vs. Smt.Koili (Dead) through Lrs (1995)4 SCC 163 (by 3 Judges).

75. The Apex Court in the case of Asharfi Lal(supra) held as under:-

"13. After the said decision of the Privy Council, the matter has been considered by various High Courts. Most of the High Courts have taken the view that though a judgment against a minor cannot be avoided on the ground of fraud or gross negligence on the part of his next friend under Section 44 of the Evidence Act, it is permissible for the minor to file a suit to set aside the decree on the ground of fraud or gross negligence on the part of his next friend. (See : Mahesh Chandra Bayan v. Manindra Nath Das [AIR 1941 Cal 401 : ILR (1941) 1 Cal 477] ; N.P.L. Egappa Chettiar v. S.V.L. Ramanathan Chettiar [AIR 1942 Mad 384 : (1942) 1 MLJ 155 : ILR (1942) Mad 526] ; Iftkhar Hussain Khan v. Beant Singh [AIR 1946 Lah 233 : ILR (1946) Lah 515 : 225 IC 456] ; Mohammad Bakhsh v. Allah Din [AIR 1942 Oudh 33 : 196 IC 457] ; Kamakshya Narain Singh Bahadur v. Baldeo Sahai [AIR 1950 Pat 97 : ILR 27 Pat 441] and Rameshwar Prasad v. Ram Chandra Sharma [AIR 1951 All 372 : 1950 ALJ 719] .) The Bombay High Court has, however, taken a different view and has held that gross negligence, apart from fraud or collusion on the part of the next friend or guardian ad litem or a minor litigant, cannot be made the basis of a suit to set aside a decree obtained against him. (See : Krishnadas Padmanabhrao Chandavarkar v. Vithoba Annappa Shetti [AIR 1939 Bom 67 (FB) : ILR 1939 Bom 340 : 180 IC 51] .) In that case Beaumont, C.J. has disagreed with the earlier decisions of the said High Court on the view that the said decisions were based on a misconception of English law and that under the English law an infant cannot challenge a decree properly passed against him on the ground that his guardian ad litem was guilty of gross negligence in suffering the decree, and if that is so, there was no reason why such a cause of action should lie in British India. Meredith, J., in Kamakshya Narain Singh Bahadur v. Baldeo Sahai [AIR 1950 Pat 97 : ILR 27 Pat 441] has dealt with the English law on the subject and has pointed out that Beaumont, C.J. in Krishnadas Padmanabhrao Chandavarkar v. Vithoba Annappa Shetti [AIR 1939 Bom 67 (FB) : ILR 1939 Bom 340 : 180 IC 51] was not right in his appreciation of the English law on the subject. According to the learned Judge (Meredith, J.) the substantive right of an infant, on attaining majority, to avoid a decree obtained against him owing to the gross negligence of his next friend was undoubtedly recognised in England from early times. The Privy Council in Talluri Venkata Seshayya v. Thadikonda Kotiswara Rao [AIR 1937 PC 1, 4 : (1937) 1 MLJ 113] has also pointed out that protection of minors against the neglect actings of their guardians is a special one. In the instant case, the High Court has proceeded on the basis that it is permissible for a minor to file a suit to set aside a decree on the ground of gross negligence on the part of his next friend. We are in agreement with the said view.

14. The question for consideration is whether, apart from filing a separate suit for setting aside a decree on the ground of gross negligence on the part of his next friend, it is permissible for a minor to avoid a decree, if relied upon in a subsequent proceeding, on the ground that the said decree was obtained on account of gross negligence on the part of his next friend in the previous suit. This would be permissible only if Section 44 of the Evidence Act can be invoked. As pointed out earlier, the Privy Council in Talluri Venkata Seshayya v. Thadikonda Kotiswara Rao [AIR 1937 PC 1, 4 : (1937) 1 MLJ 113] has laid down that Section 44 of the Evidence Act cannot be extended to cases of gross negligence. But in the said case the Privy Council has observed that the Court cannot treat negligence, or gross negligence, as fraud or collusion, unless fraud or collusion is the proper inference from the facts. In other words, in cases where an inference of fraud or collusion can be drawn from the negligence or gross negligence of the next friend it would be permissible for a minor to avoid the judgment or decree passed in the earlier proceeding by invoking Section 44 of the Evidence Act without taking resort to a separate suit for setting aside the decree or judgment.

15. In the present case, the consolidation authorities have found gross negligence on the part of Smt Budhna, the next friend of the appellant, in prosecuting the earlier declaratory suit filed by her in the name of the appellant inasmuch as Smt Nanki, the mother of the appellant, was not examined as a witness and material documents were not produced although the said evidence was available. The question is whether an inference of fraud or collusion can be drawn from the said negligence on the part of Smt Budhna, the next friend of the appellant. The Deputy Director (Consolidation) did not examine the case from this aspect. He has proceeded on the basis that gross negligence on the part of the next friend of the appellant entitles him to avoid the decree passed in the earlier declaratory suit. The High Court has set aside the said order of the Deputy Director (Consolidation) on the view that a decree obtained against a minor due to negligence of the guardian is not void but voidable and the decree passed in the earlier declaratory suit was binding unless it was avoided by filing a suit in an appropriate court and that the consolidation authorities were not competent to grant the declaration of adjudication on validity or otherwise of the decree. The High Court has taken note of the provisions contained in Section 44 of the Evidence Act but has held that the same were not of any assistance to the appellant. In taking the said view the High Court, with respect, has failed to note that if a judgment falls within the ambit of Section 44 of the Evidence Act it can be avoided in the proceedings in which it is sought to be relied upon and it is not necessary to have it set aside by instituting independent proceedings in a competent court. What was required to be considered was whether the judgment in the earlier declaratory suit fell within the ambit of Section 44 of the Evidence Act and for that purpose it was necessary to examine whether an inference of fraud or collusion could be drawn from the gross negligence on the part of Smt Budhna, the next friend of the appellant, in conducting the earlier declaratory suit. Since the matter has not been examined from this aspect, we consider it appropriate that the matter be remitted to the Deputy Director (Consolidation) for considering whether in view of the finding recorded by him there was gross negligence on the part of Smt Budhna in prosecuting the earlier declaratory suit filed, an inference of fraud or collusion can be drawn so as to attract the provisions of Section 44 of the Evidence Act. If he finds that such an inference can be drawn he would not be bound by the judgment in the earlier declaratory suit but if he finds that such an inference cannot be drawn he would be bound by the said judgment till it is set aside by the competent court in an appropriate proceeding.

(emphasis supplied)

76. The Apex Court in the case of Ramesh B.Desai and others vs. Bipin Vadilal Mehta and others (2006)5 SCC 638 has held that Order 6 Rule 4 CPC requires that complete particulars of fraud shall be stated in the pleadings. It was further held that particulars of alleged fraud, which are required to be stated in the plaint, will depend upon the facts of each particular case and no abstract principle can be laid down in this regard.

77. The Apex Court in the case of Asharfi Lal(supra) has held that if the earlier judgment against the minor falls within the ambit of section 44 of the Evidence Act, then it can be avoided in the proceedings in which it is sought to be relied upon and it is not necessary to have it set aside by instituting independent proceedings in a competent court. According to the Apex Court, what is required to be considered is whether the judgment in the earlier declaratory suit fell within the ambit of section 44, of the Evidence Act and for that purpose it was necessary to examine whether an inference of fraud or collusion could be drawn from the gross negligence on the part of next friend of the minor, in conducting the earlier declaratory suit. It was further held that if, an inference of fraud or collusion can be drawn, then the minor is not bound by the judgment in the earlier declaratory suit but if, such inference cannot be drawn, then the minor is bound by the said judgment till it is set-aside by the competent court in an appropriate proceeding.

78. From the perusal of the written statement of defendant no.1&2 in O.S. no.129 of 2005, it appears that they pleaded that, the family partition that took place in the year 1980 among the heirs of late Sardari Lal Chhabra, was a sham transaction. According to the defendants, the partition never took place. The defendants pleaded that the decree in O.S. no. 28 of 1996 was not binding on the minor defendant Rishav Chhabra. It was further averred that the disputed house was purchased by Vinay Chhabra through his father, in the year 1965, through registered sale deed and its possession was also taken. It was accepted that Vinay Chhabra was minor at that time and after his death, his wife and son, became the owners in possession of the disputed house. It was further pleaded that in O.S. no. 28 of 1996 title of plaintiff Mangal Sen Chhabra could not have been decided.

79. It is apparent from the above pleadings of the defendants in their written statement that no specific pleading has been made as to how the decree in O.S. no. 28 of 1996 was fraudulent and collusive. It has nowhere been pleaded in what manner fraud was practised by the plaintiff Mangal Sen Chhabra upon the defendants and how the guardian ad litem appointed by the court neglected in protecting the interest of the minor defendant Rishav Chhabra. There is no pleading to the effect that the guardian ad litem appointed by the court in that case, was in collusion with the plaintiff Mangal Sen Chhabra. It is clear that, in the absence of specific pleading of fraud and collusion, the trial court could not have examined these issues while deciding the suit.

80. It is also apparent that the minor defendant Rishav Chhabra, on attaining majority, had indeed challenged the ex-parte decree dated 31.3.1999 in O.S. no. 28 of 1996 by filing O.S. no. 301 of 2006 Rishav Chhabra versus Mangal Sen Chhabraand 6 others, which was dismissed for non-prosecution by the court of Additional Civil Judge(Senior Division) Court no.1, Jhansi vide order dated 7.12.2015 as such, Rishav Chhabra is precluded from challenging the validity of the ex-parte decree dated 31.3.1999 in O.S. no. 28 of 1996, at this stage.

81. It is apparent that even on merits, the ex-parte decree dated 31.3.1999 in O.S. no. 28 of 1996 cannot be challenged on the ground, that it was a fraudulent and collusive decree, in which the interest of the minor defendant Rishav Chhabra was not properly protected. Certainly, the trial court erred in concluding that the decree in O.S.no. 28 of 1996 was not binding on the minor defendant Rishav Chhabra and his mother Smt.Savita Chhabra.

Admission of Vinay Chhabra in affidavit filed in P.A. case no. 65 of 1986 Mangal Sen Chhabra versus Smt. H. William before the court of Prescribed Authority, Jhansi.

82. The plaintiff filed the certified copy of the above affidavit of Vinay Chhabra in the trial court which was disbelieved by the trial court on the ground that, the affidavit was itself not believed in that eviction proceeding by the Prescribed Authority, as such, it has got no evidentiary value and cannot be relied in this case also. The trial court further concluded that the plaintiff should have filed the original affidavit as such, the certified copy of the affidavit was held inadmissible in evidence. The trial court further concluded that in the affidavit there is no mention of house number of Vinay Chhabra.

83. The above mentioned affidavit dated 16.12.1986 of Vinay Chhabra, reads as under(translated in English, from Hindi):-

'House no. 329, Jhokan Bagh, Civil Line, Jhansi, was registered in my name, the photo copy of which I'm filing. In partition, this house came to the share of my brother Mangal Sen Chhabra, in which, I have no concern or right. The full owner of the house is Mangal Sen Chhabra, who is also entitled to collect the rent. The opposite party used to pay rent to him(Mangal Sen Chhabra) and in his name(Mangal Sen Chhabra) rent was deposited in the court. Mangal Sen Chhabra is in dire need of the house. I have read the affidavit of Mangal Sen Chhabra, in which the facts have been correctly mentioned. For the sake of brevity, I'm not repeating the facts mentioned in the affidavit of Mangal Sen Chhabra. The contents of the affidavit of Mangal Sen Chhabra, be deemed part of my affidavit."

84. It is apparent that Vinay Chhabra mentioned the number of the disputed house in his affidavit, as 329 Jhokan Bagh, Civil Lines, Jhansi, but still, the trial court has recorded a perverse finding that in the affidavit, the number of the house is not mentioned. The trial court went further, by concluding that since the original copy of the affidavit was not filed, the certified copy of the affidavit is inadmissible, which is also a perverse finding, against all settled principles of law. It is evident that the original affidavit was available in the file of P.A. Case no.65 of 1986 and as such, only a certified copy of the above document could have been filed by the plaintiff in the instant suit.

85. The above affidavit of Vinay Chhabra and also the fact, that partition that took place in the month of January 1980, was never challenged by the 7 sons of late Sardari Lal Chhabra, during their lifetime, itself proves that the partition indeed took place between the sons of late Sardari Lal Chhabra, which was accepted and acted upon by the parties to the partition, who occupied the property, which came to their respective shares. It is also apparent that Vinay Chhabra died on 24.11.1987 and after his death, his legal heirs, his wife Smt. Savita Chhabra and minor son Rishav Chhabra had challenged the above partition for the first time, which lacked substance.

Case no.115 of 1990 under Guardian and Wards Act, 1890 filed by Smt. Savita Chhabra against Ramjeet Chhabra

86. The above fact was also affirmed from the certified copy of plaint in case no. 115 of 1990 Smt. Savita Chhabra versus Ramjeet Chhabra, filed by the plaintiff in the trial court. This case was filed by Smt. Savita Chhabra under section 39 of the Guardian and Wards Act, 1890 for the relief that the opposite party Ramjeet Chhabra be removed as guardian of the property of minor Rishav Chhabra and in his place, the applicant Savita Chhabra, who is the natural mother of the minor, be appointed as guardian of the person and property of the minor Rishav Chhabra. This application was filed on 23.4.1990 in the court of District Judge Jhansi, in which the applicant Smt. Savita Chhabra had disclosed the properties left behind by her husband late Vinay Chhabra, in which the disputed house no. 329, Jhokan Bagh, civil lines, Jhansi was not mentioned. This fact proves that the disputed house never fell to the share of Vinay Chhabra after partition but, the contents of this application were disbelieved by the trial court on the ground that the minor was shown to be the partner in the properties, which implies that no partition took place till 1990.

87. The relevant paragraph 5 of the above application reads as under:-

"5.That late Sri Vinay Chhabra who left minor son, who is at this time, three years old, and had left the following property:-

(a) Minor Rishav Chhabra is partner in Chhabra Transport Service in Kanpur.

(b) Minor is a partner at M/S Prakash Guest House, Jhansi.

(c) Minor is a partner of house no. 360, civil lines ,Jhansi.

(d) Minor is a partner of bus no. UHH 979.

(e) Minor is a partner by way of succession of agriculture land situated at Tahsil Niwari, District Tikamgarh cost of land is ₹ 5 lakhs and the land is situated in Kanpur."

88. It is apparent that the above application was filed for appointing Smt. Savita Chhabra, as the natural guardian of the person and property of her minor son Rishav Chhabra on the ground that her husband Vinay Chhabra, had left behind the above-mentioned properties upon his death. The trial court believed the version of the defendants that the disputed house was not included in the above properties because it was the individual property of Vinay Chhabra, and only properties of joint Hindu family were mentioned in the application. It is apparent that on the death of Vinay Chhabra, his wife Smt. Savita Chhabra and son Rishav Chhabra became his legal heirs, on whom the property of Vinay Chhabra devolved as per Hindu Succession Act. Since, in the above mentioned properties, the disputed house no. 329, Jhokan Bagh, civil lines, Jhansi is not mentioned, it amounts to an admission that Vinay Chhabra had no right title and interest in the above disputed property, which is now the subject matter of the dispute. Even if, the disputed property was not the property of joint Hindu family, and was the individual property of Vinay Chhabra, even then, upon the death of Vinay Chhabra, the property would have devolved on his legal heirs, as such, if Vinay Chhabra was the owner of the disputed property at the time of his death on 24.11.1987, then the details of that property ought to have been mentioned in the above referred application. These facts amply prove that till the year 1990, the legal heirs of Vinay Chhabra were not claiming themselves to be the owners of the disputed bungalow no. 329, Jhokan Bagh, civil lines, Jhansi, which fortifies the plaintiffs case that Vinay Chhabra had himself submitted an affidavit in the above P.A.case no. 65 of 1986 on 16.12.1986, before the court of Prescribed Authority, in which he had admitted that the disputed property belonged to his brother Mangal Sen Chhabra.

Whether the disputed property was the property of the joint Hindu family of late Sardari Lal Chhabra and it was purchased benami in the year 1965 in the name of minor Vinay Chhabra?

89. The trial court has recorded a finding that the disputed property was not the joint Hindu family property of late Sardari Lal Chhabra and further the plaintiff failed to prove that family partition took place in the year 1980.

90. The certified copy of registered sale deed dated 12.1.1965, by which, the disputed property was purchased in the name of Vinay Kumar, minor son of Sardari Lal Chhabra, for a consideration of ₹ 8,000/- is on record.

91. The plaintiff Rajesh Chhabra PW-1 in his examination-in-chief proved the plaint averments. In his cross-examination, he admitted that when the disputed house was purchased in the name of Vinay Chhabra, he was not born. Vinay Chhabra had solemnised marriage in the year 1985. In the year 1980, he was about eight years old. The family partition among the sons of Sardari Lal was effected in the year 1980. It was an oral partition, which was not reduced into writing, it was among the seven brothers. In the family partition of 1980, Ramjeet Chhabra, Om Chhabra, Kishan Chhabra and Vinay Chhabra got Prakash Regency building, which was previously Jawla bank building. Balram and Vijay Chhabra got bungalow no. 330, Jhokan Bagh, Jhansi and his father,got the disputed bungalow no. 329,Jhokan Bagh. Jhansi. He does not remember the date and month, when family partition took place in the year 1980. He does not know whether the information of partition that took place in the year 1980 was published in the newspaper or not, whether the information of partition was given to the Nagarpalika or not, he does not know whether on the basis of partition, the ownership of disputed house in the record of Nagarpalika, was mutated in the name of his father or not. He does not remember whether water tax and house tax was paid by his father or not, he does not know whether the name of other brothers are recorded in the Nagar Palika or not. He deposed that since there was no inter-se dispute, as such, there was no necessity of fulfilling all the above requirements. He further deposed that he became aware of the partition, from his elders.

92. Mangal Sen Chhabra examined himself as PW-2 in the trial court. He deposed in his examination-in-chief that his father Sardari Lal had purchased house no. 329,Jhokan Bagh, civil lines, Jhansi in the name of his minor son Vinay Chhabra in the year 1965, who died on 24.11.1987. He further deposed that the disputed house came to his share, on partition. Thereafter, in partition between him and his son Rajesh Chhabra, the disputed house came to the share of Rajesh Chhabra. Initially, Smt. H. William and Morris William became his tenant, thereafter, they became Rajesh Chhabra's tenant. He deposed that O.S. no.28 of 1996, which was decided on 31.3.1999, was between the brothers and Smt. Savita Chhabra and Rishav Chhabra had no concern with the disputed house.

93. Mangal Sen Chhabra PW-2 deposed in cross-examination that an oral family partition took place in January, 1980 between him and his six brothers, which was not reduced into writing, which was decided by a case. His father purchased house no. 330 Jhokan Bagh in favour of minor Balram and himself, in the year 1964–65, which came to the share of Balram and Vinay Chhabra. The disputed house came to his share. His brother Ram, Kishan, Shyam and Vinay got house no. 360 and land adjoining house no. 330. At the time of partition, his parents were not alive. His father died on 5.8.1973 and mother died in the year 1979. His father had married twice. From the first wife, a son and a daughter were born, who are alive, who were partitioned wayback in the year 1962. He has no sister. On the basis of partition, none was mutated in the year 1980 in the records of Nagar Palika. When it happened subsequently, he does not remember. He had filed P.A. case no. 65 of 1986 against Smt. H. William for eviction of house on the ground that, he received that house in partition. In that case, a writ was filed in the High Court by Smt. H. William, in which his case was dismissed. He does not remember whether the writ was dismissed either because the partition was not accepted or he was also not accepted landlord. The partition was confirmed in O.S. no. 28 of 1996 Mangal Sen Chhabra versus Ramjeet Chhabra. Partition between him and his son Rajesh, took place in November 1995, which was published in the newspaper and also case no. 539 of 2000 was filed. After the partition in year 1995, name of Rajesh had been mutated in the record of Nagarpalika. He denied the suggestion that family partition did not take place in the year 1995.

94. The defendant Sanjay Agarwal examined himself as DW-1 in the trial court. In the examination-in-chief he proved the case of the defendants. He deposed that the defendants are not bound by the judgment passed by the court of Civil Judge (Junior Division), Jhansi in O.S. no. 539 of 2000 Mangal Sen Chhabra versus Rajesh Chhabra because the defendants were not the parties in that suit. He further deposed that the plaintiff and Mangal Sen Chhabra had filed SCC case no. 118 of 1996 Rajesh Chhabra and another versus Samson William and others in the court of JSCC Jhansi, for eviction of tenants from disputed house, which was dismissed on 16.8.2003 because the plaintiff was not held to be the landlord of the disputed house. He further deposed that the plaintiff had filed against the defendants no.4 & 5, P.A. case no.8 of 2002 Rajesh Chhabra versus Samson William and others under section 21 of UP Act no. 13 of 1972, which was dismissed by the court of Prescribed Authority/JSCC, Jhansi and in that case also, the plaintiff was not held to be the landlord of the disputed house. He further deposed that all the sale deeds executed by defendant no.2 and 3 in favour of defendants no.1,6 to 8 are valid. He proved the receipts of house tax, electricity bill,etc.

95. DW-1 deposed in cross-examination that he was born on 19.8.1965. He does not know about partition between the heirs of Sardari Lal. He does not know anything about O.S. no. 28 of 1996. Sale deed dated 12.1.1965 was not executed in his presence. He admitted that on 12.1.1965 Vinay Chhabra was minor. He does not know whether at the time of the purchase of the property, Vinay Chhabra was working or not. He made no effort to know what Vinay Chhabra did and from where the property was purchased. He denied that the property was not purchased from the funds of Vinay Chhabra. He had no knowledge about the judgment in O.S. no. 28 of 1996.

96. The Apex Court in the case of Pushpalata versus Vijay Kumar(dead) through Lrs. and others 2022 SCC OnLine SC 1152, while discussing law on holding particular transaction as benami , held as under:-

"22. The court's approach in cases, where the claim is that a property or set of properties, are benami, was outlined, after considering previous precedents, in Binapani Paul v. Pratima Ghosh(2007)6 SCC 100, where this court cited with approval extracts from Valliammal v. Subramaniam(2004)7 SCC 233:

"47. Burden of proof as regards the benami nature of transaction was also on the respondent. This aspect of the matter has been considered by this Court in Valliammal (D) By LRS. v. Subramaniam(supra) wherein a Division Bench of this Court held:

"13. This Court in a number of judgments has held that it is well established that burden of proving that a particular sale is benami lies on the person who alleges the transaction to be a benami. The essence of a benami transaction is the intention of the party or parties concerned and often, such intention is shrouded in a thick veil which cannot be easily pierced through. But such difficulties do not relieve the person asserting the transaction to be benami of any part of the serious onus that rests on him, nor justify the acceptance of mere conjectures or surmises, as a substitute for proof.Refer to Jaydayal Poddar v. Bibi Hazra [(1974) 1 SCC 3], Krishnanand Agnihotri v. State of M.P. [(1977) 1 SCC 816 : 1977 SCC (Cri) 190], Thakur Bhim Singh v. Thakur Kan Singh [(1980) 3 SCC 72], Pratap Singh v. Sarojini Devi [1994 Supp (1) SCC 734] and Heirs of Vrajlal J. Ganatra v. Heirs of Parshottam S. Shah [(1996) 4 SCC 490]. It has been held in the judgments referred to above that the question whether a particular sale is a benami or not, is largely one of fact, and for determining the question no absolute formulas or acid test, uniformly applicable in all situations can be laid. After saying so, this Court spelt out the following six circumstances which can be taken as a guide to determine the nature of the transaction:

(1) the source from which the purchase money came;

(2) the nature and possession of the property, after the purchase;

(3) motive, if any, for giving the transaction a benami colour;

(4) the position of the parties and the relationship, if any, between the claimant and the alleged benamidar;

(5) the custody of the title deeds after the sale; and

(6) the conduct of the parties concerned in dealing with the property after the sale. (Jaydayal Poddar v. Bibi Hazra [(1974) 1 SCC 3], SCC p. 7, para 6)

14. The above indicia are not exhaustive and their efficacy varies according to the facts of each case. Nevertheless, the source from where the purchase money came and the motive why the property was purchased benami are by far the most important tests for determining whether the sale standing in the name of one person, is in reality for the benefit of another. We would examine the present transaction on the touchstone of the above two indicia.

18. It is well settled that intention of the parties is the essence of the benami transaction and the money must have been provided by the party invoking the doctrine of benami. The evidence shows clearly that the original plaintiff did not have any justification for purchasing the property in the name of Ramayee Ammal. The reason given by him is not at all acceptable. The source of money is not at all traceable to the plaintiff. No person named in the plaint or anyone else was examined as a witness. The failure of the plaintiff to examine the relevant witnesses completely demolishes his case.""

97. From the perusal of the sale deed dated 12.1.1965 it is evident that the property was purchased in the name of minor Vinay Chhabra, for a consideration of ₹ 8,000/-. At that time, Vinay Chhabra was minor, having no independent source of income, as such, the whole consideration was paid by his father Sardari Lal Chhabra. Vinay Chhabra at that time, was under the guardianship of his father Sardari Lal. The possession of the property and the custody of the title deeds, also remained with Sardari Lal. After the sale, the property was treated, as property of the joint Hindu family, which was orally partitioned along with other properties of the joint family in the year 1980, after the death of Sardari Lal in the year 1973. Mangal Sen Chhabra PW-2 proved that after the death of Sardari Lal Chhabra, joint family properties, were orally partitioned among the seven sons of Sardari Lal Chhabra in the year 1980, and the disputed bungalow no. 329 came to his share and possession. When the above facts are appreciated in the light of the above law laid down by the Apex Court in the case of Pushpalata(supra), they convincingly prove that Vinay Chhabra was the benami owner of the disputed property, the real owner being Sardari Lal Chhabra.

98. Since the partition was oral, which was not reduced into writing as such, there is no documentary evidence of partition but, as previously discussed, even Vinay Chhabra had given affidavit in P.A. case No. 65 of 1986, Mangal Sen Chhabra versus Smt. H. William accepting that in the family partition, the disputed house no. 329 was given to Mangal Sen Chhabra and he had no concern with that house. It is also apparent that Vinay Chhabra remained alive till 24.11.1987 and till then, he never disputed the family partition, the dispute only arose after his death, when his legal heirs Smt. Savita Chhabra and Rishav Chhabra refused to accept the family partition.

99. It is also apparent that in O.S. no. 28 of 1996, the plea of joint Hindu family property was raised by the plaintiff Mangal Sen Chhabra, who also pleaded that after the death of his father Sardari Lal Chhabra, the properties of joint Hindu family were orally partitioned among the seven sons of late Sardari Lal Chhabra in the month of January, 1980 and in this partition, the disputed bungalow no. 329 came to the share of plaintiff Mangal Sen Chhabra. As previously discussed, the trial court in O.S. no. 28 of 1996 accepted the above pleadings of the plaintiff Mangal Sen Chhabra and decreed the suit ex-parte on 31.3.1999, which has attained finality and operates as res-judicata between the parties, because the title and possession of the disputed bungalow no. 329 was directly in issue in that suit. In view of the above, the trial court erred in concluding that the disputed property was not the property of the joint Hindu family of late Sardari Lal Chhabra, which was also not partitioned in the year 1980. The above finding recorded by the trial court is wholly perverse and arbitrary.

Whether the ex-parte decree dated 31.3.1999 in O.S. no. 28 of 1996 required registration?

100. The trial court concluded that the ex-parte decree dated 31.3.1999 in O.S. no. 28 of 1996 required registration, because there was no pre-existing right of the plaintiff Mangal Sen Chhabra in the disputed property.

101. The Apex Court in the case of Mohammade Yusuf and others vs. Raj Kumar and others(2020)10 SCC 264 has held that where the compromise decree comprising immovable property was with regard to the property, which was the subject matter of the suit, then it does not require registration. It was held as under:-

"7. A compromise decree passed by a court would ordinarily be covered by Section 17(1)(b) but sub-section (2) of Section 17 provides for an exception for any decree or order of a court except a decree or order expressed to be made on a compromise and comprising immovable property other than that which is the subject-matter of the suit or proceeding. Thus, by virtue of sub-section (2)(vi) of Section 17 any decree or order of a court does not require registration. In sub-clause (vi) of sub-section (2), one category is excepted from sub-clause (vi) i.e. a decree or order expressed to be made on a compromise and comprising immovable property other than that which is the subject-matter of the suit or proceeding. Thus, by conjointly reading Section 17(1)(b) and Section 17(2)(vi), it is clear that a compromise decree comprising immovable property other than which is the subject-matter of the suit or proceeding requires registration, although any decree or order of a court is exempted from registration by virtue of Section 17(2)(vi). A copy of the decree passed in Suit No. 250-A of 1984 has been brought on record as Annexure P-2, which indicates that decree dated 4-10-1985 was passed by the Court for the property, which was subject-matter of the suit. Thus, the exclusionary clause in Section 17(2)(vi) is not applicable and the compromise decree dated 4-10-1985 was not required to be registered on plain reading of Section 17(2)(vi). The High Court referred to the judgment of this Court in Bhoop Singh v. Ram Singh [Bhoop Singh v. Ram Singh, (1995) 5 SCC 709] , in which case, the provision of Section 17(2)(vi) of the Registration Act came for consideration. This Court in the above case while considering clause (vi) laid down the following in paras 16, 17 and 18: (SCC pp. 715-16)

"16. We have to view the reach of clause (vi), which is an exception to sub-section (1), bearing all the aforesaid in mind. We would think that the exception engrafted is meant to cover that decree or order of a court, including a decree or order expressed to be made on a compromise, which declares the pre-existing right and does not by itself create new right, title or interest in praesenti in immovable property of the value of Rs 100 or upwards. Any other view would find the mischief of avoidance of registration, which requires payment of stamp duty, embedded in the decree or order.

17. It would, therefore, be the duty of the court to examine in each case whether the parties have pre-existing right to the immovable property, or whether under the order or decree of the court one party having right, title or interest therein agreed or suffered to extinguish the same and created right, title or interest in praesenti in immovable property of the value of Rs 100 or upwards in favour of other party for the first time, either by compromise or pretended consent. If latter be the position, the document is compulsorily registrable.

18. The legal position qua clause (vi) can, on the basis of the aforesaid discussion, be summarised as below:

(1) Compromise decree if bona fide, in the sense that the compromise is not a device to obviate payment of stamp duty and frustrate the law relating to registration, would not require registration. In a converse situation, it would require registration.

(2) If the compromise decree were to create for the first time right, title or interest in immovable property of the value of Rs 100 or upwards in favour of any party to the suit the decree or order would require registration.

(3) If the decree were not to attract any of the clauses of sub-section (1) of Section 17, as was the position in the aforesaid Privy Council [Ed.: The reference is to Hemanta Kumari Debi v. Midnapur Zamindari Co. Ltd., 1919 SCC OnLine PC 41 : (1918-19) 46 IA 240] and this Court's cases [Ed.: The reference is to Mangan Lal Deoshi v. Mohd. Moinul Haque, 1950 SCC 760 : AIR 1951 SC 11; Bishundeo Narain v. Seogeni Rai, 1951 SCC 447 : AIR 1951 SC 280 and Shankar Sitaram Sontakke v. Balkrishna Sitaram Sontakke, AIR 1954 SC 352] , it is apparent that the decree would not require registration.

(4) If the decree were not to embody the terms of compromise, as was the position in Lahore case [Fazal Rasul Khan v. Mohd-ul-Nisa, 1943 SCC OnLine Lah 128 : AIR 1944 Lah 394] , benefit from the terms of compromise cannot be derived, even if a suit were to be disposed of because of the compromise in question.

(5) If the property dealt with by the decree be not the "subject-matter of the suit or proceeding", clause (vi) of sub-section (2) would not operate, because of the amendment of this clause by Act 21 of 1929, which has its origin in the aforesaid decision of the Privy Council, according to which the original clause would have been attracted, even if it were to encompass property not litigated."

15. This Court in Som Dev v. Rati Ram [Som Dev v. Rati Ram, (2006) 10 SCC 788] while explaining Section 17(2)(vi) and Sections 17(1)(b) and (c) held that all decrees and orders of the Court including compromise decree subject to the exception as referred that the properties that are outside the subject-matter of the suit do not require registration. In para 18, this Court laid down the following: (SCC p. 800)

"18. ... But with respect, it must be pointed out that a decree or order of a court does not require registration if it is not based on a compromise on the ground that clauses (b) and (c) of Section 17 of the Registration Act are attracted. Even a decree on a compromise does not require registration if it does not take in property that is not the subject-matter of the suit....."

102. It is apparent from the discussion made here-in-before, that Mangal Sen Chhabra was having pre-existing right in the joint Hindu family property, left behind by late Sardari Lal Chhabra, being one of his heirs, regarding which an oral partition took place between the seven sons of late Sardari Lal Chhabra in the month of January 1980, in which, the disputed house no. 329, Jhokan Bagh, civil lines, Jhansi, came to the share of Mangal Sen Chhabra, regarding which declaration of ownership and possession was sought from the court by filing O.S. no. 28 of 1996 which was decreed ex-parte by the court on 31.3.1999. It is apparent that, Mangal Sen Chhabra was having pre-existing ownership and possession of the disputed house, as such, no new ownership right in the disputed property was conferred by the court in Mangal Sen Chhabra by the ex-parte decree dated 31.3.1999, in declaring him to be the owner in possession of the disputed property, as such, in accordance with the law laid down by the Apex Court in the case of Mohammade Yusuf(supra) the ex-parte decree was not required to be registered, in accordance with the provisions of Registration Act. Clearly, the trial court erred in concluding that the ex-parte decree in O.S. no. 28 of 1996 required registration since, it created new rights in the disputed property in favour of plaintiff Mangal Sen Chhabra.

Whether Smt. H. William was tenant in the disputed property and after her death, her sons defendant no.4 Samson William and defendant no.5 Morris William inherited tenancy?

103. It is apparent that in the suit itself the plaintiff has averred that when the disputed house was purchased by Sardari Lal Chhabra in the name of Vinay Chhabra in the year 1965, then at that time Smt. H. William, the mother of defendant no.4 and 5 was a tenant in that house, who died subsequently, and thereafter, defendant no.4 and 5 inherited the tenancy in the disputed house.

104. The defendants in the written statement accepted that Smt. H. William was a tenant in the disputed house, and for her eviction, the plaintiffs father Mangal Sen Chhabra filed P.A.case no. 65 of 1986 under section 21 of the UP Act no. 13 of 1972 before the court of Prescribed Authority Jhansi, which was rejected and challenged in appeal by the plaintiffs father, which was allowed by the court of first Additional District Judge Jhansi, against which Smt. H. William had filed Civil Misc.Writ Petition no.2387 of 1990 before the High Court. It was also accepted by the defendants that during the pendency of the Writ Petition,Smt. H. William died, leaving her two sons as her legal heirs. It was also mentioned that the Writ Petition was allowed by the High Court on 31.7.1995, consequently P.A. case no. 65 of 1986 was dismissed and Mangal Sen Chhabra was not held to be the owner and landlord of the disputed house.

105. It was further mentioned by the defendants in their written statement that plaintiffs father Mangal Sen Chhabra had also filed SCC case no.118 of 1996 Mangal Sen Chhabra versus Samson William and Morris William in the court of JSCC, Jhansi for eviction of tenants from the disputed house which was dismissed on 16.8.2003, in which plaintiff and his father were not held to be the owner and landlord of the disputed house, aggrieved against which, SCC Revision No. 67 of 2003 was filed, which was allowed by the court of first Additional District Judge Jhansi vide order dated 23.12.2005, which had also been challenged by filing Writ Petition in the High Court.

106. The defendants have accepted that in the disputed house two sons of Smt. H. William, namely Samson William and Morris William were the tenants in possession, but they never remained the tenants of plaintiff or his father.

107. It was also averred by defendant no.1 & 2 in their written statement, that Rajesh Chhabra had also filed P.A.case no. 8 of 2002 Rajesh Chhabra versus Samson William and another, under section 21 of the UP Act no. 13 of 1972, before the court of Prescribed Authority/JSCC Jhansi,which was pending. This case was subsequently dismissed on merits on 11.5.2007, which was challenged by filing Rent Control Appeal no.22 of 2007 Rajesh Chhabra versus Samson William and others.

108. All these facts, amply prove that in the disputed house,Smt. H. William was the tenant and after her death, her two sons namely, Samson William and Morris William became joint tenants.

Whether the possession of the tenants, amounts to legal possession of the plaintiff, insofar as the disputed house is concerned?

109. From the discussion made herein above, it is apparent that, at present Samson William and Morris William are the tenants in the disputed property. It is also apparent that earlier, plaintiffs father Mangal Sen Chhabra had filed SCC case no. 118 of 1996 and P.A. case no. 65 of 1986 for eviction of tenants under UP Act no. 13 of 1972, which were dismissed. The plaintiff had also filed P.A.case no. 8 of 2002 against the tenants, which was dismissed on 11.5.2007 which was challenged by filing Rent Control Appeal no.22 of 2007 Rajesh Chhabra versus Samson William and others. It is also apparent that against dismissal of SCC case no.118 of 1996 vide judgment and decree dated 16.08.2003, SCC Revision no.67 of 2003 Rajesh Chhabra and Mangal Sen Chhabra versus Samson William and others was filed, which was dismissed on 23.12.2005, but the Revisional Court recorded a finding that the plaintiff and Mangal Sen Chhabra were the owner of the disputed property, which was challenged by Rishav Chhabra in Writ A no.20677 of 2006 Rishav Chhabra and another versus Rajesh Chhabra and others, which was disposed of by this Court on 20.4.2010, by specifically concluding that, in a rent suit any observation or finding with regard to title would not bind the regular civil court. Since, the Rent Control Appeal 22 of 2007 is pending, in which it will be decided whether there was a relationship of landlord and tenant, between the plaintiff and the defendants Samson William and Morris William. Whether the plaintiff or his predecessor are the landlord of the tenants in the disputed house, can neither be given by this Court nor it is the subject matter of the suit or appeal, as such, this Court refrains from expressing any opinion on the relationship of landlord and tenant between the parties.

110. It is apt to mention here that in PA case no. 8 of 2002 Rajesh Chhabra versus Samson William and others, decided by the court of Prescribed Authority/JSCC, Jhansi ,vide judgment and order dated 11.5.2007, the court recorded that according to the written statement of the defendant Rishav Chhabra, the tenants/defendants no.1 & 2 Samson William and Morris William had handed the possession of the disputed house on 19.4.2005 to Rishav Chhabra and Savita Chhabra, because the house had become dilapidated and as such, Samson William and Morris William were not in possession of the disputed house. In that PA case no. 8 of 2002, Rishav Chhabra and Smt. Savita Chhabra had asserted themselves to be the landlords of the above tenants. In these circumstances if, the plaintiff is held to be the landlord of the above tenants, then it will be deemed that plaintiff is in lawful possession of the disputed house no. 329, through his tenants Samson William and Morris William.

111. It is also well settled that the tenants are bound to surrender the possession of the tenanted accommodation to the landlord, who had inducted them into tenancy, even if, some other person is the owner of the tenanted accommodation, unless and until, the landlord and owner are one and the same person.

Whether the court erred in declaring in OS no. 28 of 1996 Mangal Sen Chhabra the owner in possession of the disputed house, because prior to the filing of the suit, in the year 1995 itself, in the alleged family partition between him and his son Rajesh Chhabra, the disputed house had already devolved on his son Rajesh Chhabra?

112. It is mentioned in the judgment dated 31.3.1999 in O.S. no. 28 of 1996 that the plaintiff Mangal Sen Chhabra had pleaded that after the family partition that took place in the month of January 1980 between the sons of late Sardari Lal Chhabra, in which the disputed house came to the share of Mangal Sen Chhabra, another partition took place in the year 1995 between Mangal Sen Chhabra and his son Rajesh Chhabra, in which the disputed house came to the share of his son Rajesh Chhabra.

113. It is apparent that in OS No. 28 of 1996, the plaintiff Mangal Sen Chhabra sought declaration of ownership of the disputed house on the basis of family partition that took place in January 1980, between the heirs of late Sardari Lal Chhabra. The plaintiff had only sought declaration regarding the above ownership. It is immaterial that, in subsequent family partition, which took place in the year 1995, the plaintiff Mangal Sen Chhabra was divested from the ownership of the disputed house. It is also apparent that the plaintiff Mangal Sen Chhabra had neither claimed any declaration regarding the subsequent partition that took place in the year 1995 between him and his son Rajesh Chhabra, nor any finding, regarding this, had been recorded by the court. The subsequent family partition that took place in the year 1995, was not in issue, in the suit. In view of the above facts, even if, a family partition took place between Mangal Sen Chhabra and his son Rajesh Chhabra in the year 1995, even then, the ex-parte decree dated 31.3.1999 in O.S. no. 28 of 1996, is binding on the parties, which cannot be challenged on this ground.

Whether the plaintiff 's suit is barred by section 34, 38 and 41(h) of the Specific Relief Act?

114. The trial court concluded that since the plaintiff was not in possession of the disputed house, as such, he should have claimed the relief of possession, which he had not, as such, it was held that the plaintiff 's suit was barred by section 34 and 41(h) of the Specific Relief Act. It was further held that since the plaintiff claimed the relief of permanent injunction, who was not in possession, as such, the plaintiff cannot be granted this relief, in view of section 38 of the Specific Relief Act.

115. The Apex Court in the case of Anathula Sudhakar vs. P. Buchi Reddy(Dead) by Lrs. and others (2008)4 SCC 594, while discussing the general principles as to when a mere suit for permanent injunction will lie, and when it is necessary to file a suit for declaration and /or possession with injunction as a consequential relief, held as under:-

"13. The general principles as to when a mere suit for permanent injunction will lie, and when it is necessary to file a suit for declaration and/or possession with injunction as a consequential relief, are well settled. We may refer to them briefly.

13.1. Where a plaintiff is in lawful or peaceful possession of a property and such possession is interfered or threatened by the defendant, a suit for an injunction simpliciter will lie. A person has a right to protect his possession against any person who does not prove a better title by seeking a prohibitory injunction. But a person in wrongful possession is not entitled to an injunction against the rightful owner.

13.2. Where the title of the plaintiff is not disputed, but he is not in possession, his remedy is to file a suit for possession and seek in addition, if necessary, an injunction. A person out of possession, cannot seek the relief of injunction simpliciter, without claiming the relief of possession.

13.3. Where the plaintiff is in possession, but his title to the property is in dispute, or under a cloud, or where the defendant asserts title thereto and there is also a threat of dispossession from the defendant, the plaintiff will have to sue for declaration of title and the consequential relief of injunction. Where the title of the plaintiff is under a cloud or in dispute and he is not in possession or not able to establish possession, necessarily the plaintiff will have to file a suit for declaration, possession and injunction.

14. We may, however, clarify that a prayer for declaration will be necessary only if the denial of title by the defendant or challenge to the plaintiff's title raises a cloud on the title of the plaintiff to the property. A cloud is said to raise over a person's title, when some apparent defect in his title to a property, or when some prima facie right of a third party over it, is made out or shown. An action for declaration, is the remedy to remove the cloud on the title to the property. On the other hand, where the plaintiff has clear title supported by documents, if a trespasser without any claim to title or an interloper without any apparent title, merely denies the plaintiff's title, it does not amount to raising a cloud over the title of the plaintiff and it will not be necessary for the plaintiff to sue for declaration and a suit for injunction may be sufficient. Where the plaintiff, believing that the defendant is only a trespasser or a wrongful claimant without title, files a mere suit for injunction, and in such a suit, the defendant discloses in his defence the details of the right or title claimed by him, which raise a serious dispute or cloud over the plaintiff's title, then there is a need for the plaintiff, to amend the plaint and convert the suit into one for declaration. Alternatively, he may withdraw the suit for bare injunction, with permission of the court to file a comprehensive suit for declaration and injunction. He may file the suit for declaration with consequential relief, even after the suit for injunction is dismissed, where the suit raised only the issue of possession and not any issue of title.

15. In a suit for permanent injunction to restrain the defendant from interfering with the plaintiff's possession, the plaintiff will have to establish that as on the date of the suit he was in lawful possession of the suit property and the defendant tried to interfere or disturb such lawful possession. Where the property is a building or building with appurtenant land, there may not be much difficulty in establishing possession. The plaintiff may prove physical or lawful possession, either of himself or by him through his family members or agents or lessees/licensees. Even in respect of a land without structures, as for example an agricultural land, possession may be established with reference to the actual use and cultivation. The question of title is not in issue in such a suit, though it may arise incidentally or collaterally.

16. But what if the property is a vacant site, which is not physically possessed, used or enjoyed? In such cases the principle is that possession follows title. If two persons claim to be in possession of a vacant site, one who is able to establish title thereto will be considered to be in possession, as against the person who is not able to establish title. This means that even though a suit relating to a vacant site is for a mere injunction and the issue is one of possession, it will be necessary to examine and determine the title as a prelude for deciding the de jure possession. In such a situation, where the title is clear and simple, the court may venture a decision on the issue of title, so as to decide the question of de jure possession even though the suit is for a mere injunction. But where the issue of title involves complicated or complex questions of fact and law, or where court feels that parties had not proceeded on the basis that title was at issue, the court should not decide the issue of title in a suit for injunction. The proper course is to relegate the plaintiff to the remedy of a full-fledged suit for declaration and consequential reliefs."

116. It is apparent from the discussion made here-in-before, that previously Mangal Sen Chhabra and subsequently, the plaintiff is the true owner of the disputed house no. 329, Jhokan Bagh, civil lines, Jhansi. It is also apparent that regarding eviction of tenants from the disputed house, Rent Control Appeal no.22 of 2007 is pending. It is also apparent that tenants Samson William and Morris William are residing in the property, who have allegedly handed over the vacant possession of tenanted accommodation to the defendants Smt. Savita Chhabra and Rishav Chhabra, who are not the true owner's of the disputed house. The tenants were bound to handover the vacant possession of the tenanted accommodation to their landlord or true owner of the disputed house. In such circumstances, it will be deemed that the plaintiff is in lawful possession of the disputed house, through tenants, who is entitled to the relief of permanent injunction against the defendants. In these circumstances, the trial court erred in concluding that the plaintiff 's suit was barred by section 34, 38 and 41(h) of the Specific Relief Act.

117. The learned counsel for the respondents submitted that since the plaintiff was not in possession of the disputed house, as such, the suit was barred by section 34 of the Specific Relief Act, because the consequential relief of possession was not claimed by the plaintiff. To buttress his argument, the learned counsel has placed reliance on the law laid down by the Apex Court in the following cases:-

(1)Venkataraja & others versus Vidyane Doureradjaperumal (2014) 14 SCC 502

(2)Vasantha(Dead) through LR versus Rajalakshmi@ Rajam(Dead) through Lrs 2024 INSC 109

(3)Mallavva and another versus Kalsammanavara Kalamma(Since Dead) by Lrs and others 2024 INSC 1021

(4)Rajeev Gupta and others versus Prashant Garg and others 2025 INSC 552

118. I have gone through the above case law submitted by the learned counsel for the respondents. There is no quarrel with the proposition of the law laid down by the Apex Court in the above judgments. It is well settled that where there is a cloud on the title of the plaintiff regarding the disputed property and who is also, not in possession of the disputed property, then in addition to the declaration of his title, he should mandatorily claim possession of the disputed property, and if, the possession of the disputed property is not claimed then, the plaintiff 's suit is barred by section 34 of the Specific Relief Act.

119. The above case law submitted by the learned counsel for the respondents are not applicable to the facts of this case because, the plaintiffs title was never in cloud because he was claiming title under his predecessor Mangal Sen Chhabra, who had already been declared the owner in possession of disputed house no. 329, Jhokan Bagh, civil lines, Jhansi, by declaratory decree dated 31.3.1999 in O.S. no. 28 of 1996, by a competent court of jurisdiction, which had attained finality, as already held by this Court in this judgment here-in-before. It has already been held by this Court in this judgment that the above ex-parte decree operates as res-judicata in this case and consequently, the defendants are restrained from challenging the validity and legality of the ex-parte decree in the instant suits and appeals. In view of the above, the plaintiff was not required to seek declaration of his title regarding the disputed house in the instant suits.

120. Insofar as the ownership of the disputed house is concerned, as discussed by this Court in this judgment here-in-before, the court of Prescribed Authority and JSCC Jhansi, were not competent to give any finding regarding the ownership of the disputed house, and if, such finding has been given, it is illegal. It is also evident that previously, the court of Prescribed Authority and the JSCC, Jhansi had simply not accepted that any partition took place between the heirs of late Sardari Lal Chhabra in the year 1980 and on this ground, it was held that since Mangal Sen Chhabra and Rajesh Chhabra failed to prove the above family partition, as such, they also failed to prove that they are the owner and landlord of the disputed property.It is also well settled in S.K.Sattar Sk. Mohd.Choudhari vs. Gundappa Amabadas Bukate AIR 1997 SC 998, that a tenant cannot challenge the family partition between the owners of the disputed property. Of course, it is open to the tenant to show that the partition was not bona fide and was a sham transaction to overcome the rigours of Rent Control laws which protected eviction of tenants except on specified grounds set out in the relevant statute. It is also evident that, the above finding of the Prescribed Authority and JSCC, Jhansi that family partition of the disputed property is not proved, is in teeth, of the decree in O.S. no. 28 of 1996, which has conclusively declared that the plaintiff 's predecessor Mangal Sen Chhabra, was the owner in possession of the disputed house no. 329, Jhokan Bagh, civil lines, Jhansi, on the basis of the family partition that took place among the heirs of late Sardari Lal Chhabra in the year 1980.

121. It is also apparent that eviction proceedings are pending in different Courts between the plaintiff and the tenant's Samson William and Morris William regarding their eviction from the disputed house under UP Act no. 13 of 1972, as such, as per the law laid down by the Apex Court in the case of Anathula Sudhakar(supra) it will be deemed that the plaintiff is in lawful possession of the disputed house, through tenants. In view of this, there is no necessity for the plaintiff to seek the relief of possession of the disputed house. Clearly, the trial court erred in concluding that the plaintiff 's suit is barred by section 34 of the Specific Relief Act because the plaintiff was not in possession and he had not claimed the relief of possession of the disputed house.

122. The Apex Court in the case of Hussain Ahmed Choudhury & Ors. vs. Habibur Rahman(Dead) through Lrs. & Ors. 2025 SCC Online SC 892, while discussing section 34 of the Specific Relief Act, 1963, held as under:-

"25. Having explained the scope of Section 31, we now deem it necessary to examine Section 34 of the Act, 1963, which reads thus:

"Section 34. Discretion of court as to declaration of status or right.-

Any person entitled to any legal character, or to any right as to any property, may institute a suit against any person denying, or interested to deny, his title to such character or right, and the court may in its discretion make therein a declaration that he is so entitled, and the plaintiff need not in such suit ask for any further relief:

Provided that no court shall make any such declaration where the plaintiff, being able to seek further relief than a mere declaration of title, omits to do so.

Explanation.-A trustee of property is a "person interested to deny" a title adverse to the title of some one who is not in existence, and whom, if in existence, he would be a trustee."

26. Section 34 entitles a person to approach the appropriate court for a declaration, if that person is entitled to (i) any legal character or (ii) any right as to any property. "Legal character" and "right to property" are used disjunctively so that either of them, exclusively, may be the basis of a suit. The disjunctive 'or' cannot be read as a conjunctive 'and'.

27. The object of the proviso to Section 34 is to obviate the necessity for multiple suits by preventing a person from getting a mere declaration of right in one suit and then subsequently seeking another remedy without which the declaration granted in the former suit would be rendered otiose. However, the answer to the question whether it was incumbent upon the plaintiff to ask for further relief must depend on the facts of each case and such relief must be appropriate to and consequent upon the right or title asserted. "Further relief" must be a relief flowing directly or necessarily from the declaration sought, i.e., the relief should not only be capable of being granted but of being enforced by the court and such relief should be necessary to make the declaration fruitful. The relief must also be such that it is not automatically granted to the plaintiff by virtue of the declaration already sought for.

28. The words used in proviso to Section 34 are "further relief" and "no other relief". Since, a further relief must flow necessarily from the relief of declaration, if such further relief is remote and is not connected in any way with the cause of action which has accrued in favour of the plaintiffs, then there is no need to claim a further relief and the proviso to Section 34 will not be a bar. All that the proviso forbids is a suit for pure declaration without necessary relief where the plaintiff being able to seek such a relief, has omitted to do so. The proviso must not be construed in a manner which compels the plaintiff to sue for any and all the reliefs which could possibly be granted to him. The plaintiff must not be debarred from obtaining a relief that he wants for the reason that he has failed to seek a relief which is not directly flowing from the relief of declaration already sought for.

29. Where the executant of a deed wants it to be annulled, he has to seek cancellation of the deed under Section 31 of the Act, 1963. But if a non-executant seeks annulment of a deed, he has to only seek a declaration that the deed is invalid, or non est, or illegal or that it is not binding on him. The difference between a prayer for cancellation and declaration in regard to a deed of transfer/conveyance, can be brought out by the following illustration relating to 'A' and 'B' — two brothers. 'A' executes a sale deed in favour of 'C'. Subsequently 'A' wants to avoid the sale. 'A' has to sue for cancellation of the deed. On the other hand, if 'B', who is not the executant of the deed, wants to avoid it, he has to sue for a declaration that the deed executed by 'A' is invalid/void and non est/illegal and he is not bound by it. In essence, both may be suing to have the deed set aside or declared as non-binding. [See : Suhrid Singh alias Sardool Singh v. Randhir Singh, reported in (2010) 12 SCC 112]

(emphasis supplied)

30. As observed aforesaid, a plaintiff who is not a party to a decree or a document, is not obligated to sue for its cancellation. This is because such an instrument would neither be likely to affect the title of the plaintiff nor be binding on him. We have to our advantage two very old erudite judgments of the Madras High Court and one of the Privy Council on the subject.

(emphasis supplied)

31. In Unni v. Kunchi Amma reported in 1890 SCC OnLine Mad 5, the legal position has been thus explained:

"If a person not having authority to execute a deed or having such authority under certain circumstances which did not exist, executes a deed, it is not necessary for persons who are not bound by it, to sue to set it aside for it cannot be used against them. They may treat it as nonexistent and sue for their right as if it did not exist."

32. The same principle has been distinctly laid down by the Privy Council in Bijoy Gopal Mukerji v. Krishna Mahishi Debi, reported in 1907 SCC OnLine PC 1, where the jural basis underlying such transactions was pointed out. In that case, the reversioner sued for a declaration that a lease granted by the widow of the last male owner was not binding on him and also for khas possession. It was objected that the omission to set aside the lease by a suit instituted within the time limit prescribed by Article 91 of the Indian Limitation Act, 1877 was fatal to the suit. The following observations which are equally applicable to the case at hand, are apposite:

"A Hindu widow is not a tenant for life, but is owner of her husband's property subject to certain restrictions on alienation and subject to its devolving upon her husband's heirs upon her death. But she may alienate it subject to certain conditions being complied with. Her alienation is not, therefore, absolutely void, but it is prima facie voidable at the election of the reversionary heir. He may think fit to affirm it, or he may at his pleasure treat it as a nullity without the intervention of any Court, and he shows his election to do the latter by commencing an action to recover possession of the property. There is, in fact, nothing for the Court either to set aside or cancel as a condition precedent to the right of action of the reversionary heir. It is true that the appellants prayed by their plaint for a declaration that the ijara was inoperative as against them, as leading up to their prayer for delivery to them of khas possession. But it was not necessary for them to do so, and they might have merely claimed possession, leaving it to the defendants to plead and (if they could) prove the circumstances, which they relied on, for showing that the ijara of any derivative dealings with the property were not in fact voidable, but were binding on the reversionary heirs."

33. In fact, it is logically impossible for a person who is not a party to a document or to a decree to ask for its cancellation. This is clearly explained by Wadsworth, J., in the decision rendered in Vellayya Konar (Died) v. Ramaswami Konar, reported in 1939 SCC OnLine Mad 149, thus:

"When, the plaintiff seeks to establish a title in himself and cannot establish that title without removing an insuperable obstruction such as a decree to which he has been a party or a deed to which he has been a party, then quite clearly he must get that decree or deed cancelled or declared void 'in toto', and his suit is in substance a suit for the cancellation of the decree or deed even though it be framed as a suit for declaration. But when he is seeking to establish a title and finds himself threatened by a decree or a transaction between third parties, he Is not in a position to get that decree or that deed cancelled 'in toto'. That is a thing which can only be done by parties to the decree or deed or their representatives. His proper remedy therefore in order to clear the way with a view to establish his title, is to get a declaration that the decree or deed is invalid so far as he himself is concerned and he must therefore sue for such a declaration and not for the cancellation of the decree or deed."

34. Therefore, filing a suit for cancellation of a sale deed and seeking a declaration that a particular document is inoperative as against the plaintiff are two distinct, separate suits. The plaintiff in the present case, not being the executant of the sale deed dated 05.05.1997 executed in favour of the respondent no. 1 (original defendant no. 14), was therefore, not obligated to sue for its cancellation under Section 31 of the Act, 1963. The question that remains is whether the plaintiff ought to have sought for a declaration that the sale deed dated 05.05.1997 was inoperative in so far as he is concerned or is not binding on him.

35. One should not lose sight of the fact that a suit for declaration of title to be decided by a court takes within its fold, consideration of several factors as to how the plaintiff is entitled for declaration of title. In such cases, the plea of the defendants about the validity, enforceability and binding nature of any document defeating the title of the plaintiff have also to be considered. In such cases, the court naturally views the evidence on both sides leaving apart the frame of the suit.

36. Therefore, the High Court having concurred with the Courts below on the legality and validity of the Gift Deed should not have dismissed the suit only on the ground that the plaintiff failed to pray for cancellation of the sale deed. The High Court should have kept the settled position of law in mind that the declaration of title is as good as a relief of cancellation of the sale deed or at least, a declaration that the sale deed is not binding on the plaintiff being void and thus non est.

37. Furthermore, it is a well-known and settled principle of law that the plaint must be read as a whole and the actual relief sought can also be culled out from the averments of the plaint. Those reliefs can be granted, if there is evidence and circumstances justifying the grant of such relief, though not directly or specifically claimed, or asked as a relief. The plaintiff had averred in his plaint that the original defendant nos. 1 to 6 had no title or saleable rights over the suit property. This reflects the intention of the plaintiff to not be bound by any instrument which they may have executed in favour of another party.

38. Courts have ample inherent powers and indeed it is their duty to shape their declaration in such a way that they may operate to afford the relief which the justice of the case requires. Section 34 of the Act, 1963 is not exhaustive of the cases in which a declaratory decree may be made and the courts have power to grant such a decree independently of the requirements of the Section. Section 34 merely gives statutory recognition to a well-recognised type of declaratory relief and subjects it to a limitation, but it cannot be deemed to exhaust every kind of declaratory relief or to circumscribe the jurisdiction of courts to give declarations of right in appropriate cases falling outside Section 34. The circumstances in which a declaratory decree under Section 34 should be awarded is a matter of discretion depending upon the facts of each case. [See : Supreme General Films Exchange Ltd. v. His

Highness Maharaja Sir Brijnath Singhji Deo of Maihar, reported in (1975) 2 SCC 530]

123. From the above law laid down by the Apex Court in the case of Hussain Ahmed Choudhury(supra) it is evident that where the plaintiff is not an executant of a document, he is not obligated to sue for it's cancellation. He is only required to seek a declaration that the document is invalid, or non-est, or illegal or that it is not binding on him. In view of this, in the instant case, the plaintiff was not required to seek cancellation of the agreement to sell or the sale deeds executed by Smt. Savita Chhabra and Rishav Chhabra in favour of other defendants.

To what relief the plaintiff - appellant is entitled to get?

124. From the above discussion, it is apparent that, the plaintiff is the true owner of the disputed house no. 329, Jhokan Bagh, civil lines, Jhansi. The defendants Smt. Savita Chhabra and Rishav Chhabra had no concern with this property, but they had illegally executed several sale deeds on 15.5.2006, which were registered on 20.7.2006, in respect of the above property, in favour of other defendants in the suit, which are void ab-initio, which are not binding on the plaintiff. The plaintiff has claimed that by declaratory decree of the court, the above sale deeds executed by defendants Smt. Savita Chhabra and Rishav Chhabra in favour of other defendants be declared null and void, not binding on the plaintiff and further, the defendants be restrained from interfering, alienating, demolishing, constructing or transferring the disputed property. It is apparent that, the trial court erred in dismissing the plaintiff 's suit for declaration and permanent injunction. Accordingly, both the appeals are liable to be allowed.

125. Accordingly,First Appeal no. 60 of 2011 and 70 of 2011, both the appeals are allowed. The judgment and decree of the trial court dated 9.12.2010 in O.S. no. 129 of 2005 and 365 of 2006 is set aside and both the suits are decreed.

126. The plaintiff is entitled to the following reliefs in O.S. 129 of 2005:-

(i) A declaratory decree is granted in favour of the plaintiff against the defendants that the agreement to sell dated 20.4.2005 executed by defendant no. 2 & 3 in favour of defendant no.1 regarding bungalow no. 329, Jhokan Bagh, Jhansi, the boundaries of which are mentioned at the end of the plaint, which is registered in the office of Sub-Registrar, Jhansi in register no.1, khand-1317, at page no. 239 – 260, serial no. 3425 on 23.4.2005, is a null and void ab-initio document, which is not binding on the plaintiff. An information to this effect be also sent to the concerned sub-registrar office.

(ii) A decree of permanent injunction is granted in favour of the plaintiff against the defendants, whereby, the defendants are forever restrained from demolishing, transferring, plotting, alienating, damaging, interfering in the peaceful possession of the plaintiff or creating any right whatsoever in bungalow no.329, Jhokan Bagh, Jhansi, the boundaries of which are mentioned at the end of the plaint.

127. The plaintiff is entitled to the following reliefs in O.S. no.365 of 2006 :-

(i) A declaratory decree is granted in favour of the plaintiff against the defendants, that the sale deeds executed by Smt. Savita Chhabra and Rishav Chhabra in favour of defendant no.1 Radhey Lal Jeswani executed on 15.5.2006, which was registered on 20.7.2006 in register no.1, at page no. 169/190, item no. 1609/3868; sale deed executed in favour of defendant no. 2 Sanjay Agarwal which is entered in register no.1, page no.191/212, item no. 1609/3969; sale deed executed in favour of defendant no.3 Smt. Hema Agarwal which is entered in the register no.1, at page no. 75/94, item no. 1609/3863 & sale deed executed in favour of defendant no.4 Sunil Kumar and defendant no.5 Mahendra Kumar which is entered in the register no.1, at page no. 49/74, item no. 1609/3862, all the above sale deeds which are relating to disputed house no. 329, new no.1358, Jhokan Bagh, Jhansi are declared null and void ab-initio, not binding on the plaintiff. An information to this effect be also sent to the concerned sub-registrar office.

(ii) A decree of permanent injunction is granted in favour of the plaintiff against the defendants, whereby, the defendants are forever restrained from interfering in the peaceful possession of the plaintiff and interfering in his rights as landlord, in house no.329, new no.1358, Jhokan Bagh, Jhansi, of which the plaintiff is the owner in possession, on the basis of above null and void ab-initio sale deeds.

128. Both the parties shall bear their respective costs of the appeals. Office is directed to prepare the decree accordingly.

129. Interim order, if any, stands vacated in both the appeals.

130. All interim applications, if pending, stands disposed of.

131. Original trial court record, if received, be sent back, forthwith.

132. This Court appreciates the efforts of Research Associate Mr. Rohit Mishra, in researching the relevant case laws on the controversy involved in this appeal.

Counsel for Appellant(s) : Ashutosh Pratap Singh, Manoj Kumar Singh
Counsel for Respondent(s) : Mayank Kumar Agrawal, Saroj Giri

(Delivered by Hon'ble Arindam Sinha, J.)

1. Husband in the marriage is appellant. He filed suit in respect of property purchased by him in name of his wife. The spouses have fallen out. The suit is for declaration that the purchase is not hit by subsequent amendment w.e.f., 1st November, 2016 to Prohibition of Benami Property Transactions Act, 1988.

2. Mr. Ashutosh Pratap Singh, learned advocate appears on behalf of appellant and Mr. Saroj Giri, learned advocate for respondent. Having heard them it appears there was application dated 25th March, 2023 made by respondent (wife) under rule 11 in order VII, Code of Civil Procedure, 1908. Then came impugned judgment dated 24th January, 2025. The judgment says, the plaint seeking relief under section 34 in Specific Relief Act, 1963 stands rejected by invoking section 7 of Family Courts Act, 1984 and sections 3 and 4 in Prohibition of Benami Property Transactions Act, 1988.

3. It is not necessary for us to take a view on interpretation of section 3 in the Act of 1988 as it stood prior to 1st November, 2016. While Mr. Singh submits that the property belongs to his client, Mr. Giri submits, the purchase was made in name of his client, as for her benefit.

4. Mr. Singh has relied on clause (c) under sub-section (1) in section 7 of Family Courts Act, 1988. The clause is reproduced below.

"7 (1) (c) a suit or proceeding between the parties to a marriage with respect to the property of the parties or of either of them"

In the suit husband is petitioner (plaintiff). The wife is respondent. Subject matter of the suit is property, which appellant says he purchased in name of respondent. Accordingly, he seeks declaration that the property is his. Respondent says the property was purchased for her benefit. Thus, the suit or proceedings between the parties, who are married, is in respect of property, which one of the parties is claiming to it be his and the other to be purchased for her benefit. The suit, in our considered view, is clearly one that comes within section 7 (1) (c) in the Act of 1988. Moreover the Family Court did acknowledge the position of law as would appear from a passage from official English translation of impugned judgement, reproduced below.

"In brief, the facts of the suit are that the plaintiff and defendant are husband-wife. They were married as per Hindu rites. The subject matter of the aforesaid suit, arose out of the marital relationship of the husband-wife and provisions of the Family Courts Act apply to both the parties."

5. As we have noticed, respondent had filed application questioning maintainability of the petition/suit. However, instead of framing issue of maintainability, the learned Judge framed one on the merits and proceeded to dismiss the suit. In doing so, the learned Judge held that vendor in the sale deeds had admitted receiving the consideration from respondent, whereafter the learned Judge said that the vendor had not been examined. Admission by a party can amount to proof for establishing a fact. In this case, impugned judgement was made ex parte against respondent. The vendor had not been examined. Appellant, who was petitioner/plaintiff was asserting that the transactions were Benami. In such circumstances, finding of admission by the vendor (not examined) to hold against appellant, who was urging to the contrary and having, had produced the documents from his custody, in our view was erroneous appreciation of the evidence before the Court. Another paragraph from aforesaid official English translation of impugned judgement is reproduced below.

"From the perusal of the file, it is evident that the defendant is absent, and due to her absence, the proceedings of the suit have been proceeded against her ex parte. The seller of the sale deed, Shri Kishan Pal Gupta, has admitted receiving the consideration for the property sold, amounting to Rs. 80,000/- from the defendant. Furthermore, the seller, Shri Kishan Gopal Gupta, has not been examined as witness in the instant case nor, has his statement been recorded. Furthermore, the plaintiff is not a witness in the sale deed of the disputed property. In the instant case, the plaintiff has filed affidavits of Som Prakash as PW-02, and Mohan Babu Agrawl as PW-03, but neither are witnesses in the sale deed of the disputed property, nor has any transaction for the consideration of the property sold taken place before these two witnesses. The present suit is civil in nature."

6. For reasons aforesaid impugned judgement reversed in appeal. The petition (suit) is remanded for trial afresh. Respondent has appeared and therefore will be entitled to contest in the hearing on remand. We request the Family Court to proceed with the adjudication expeditiously, without granting unnecessary adjournments.

7. We find in impugned judgment, reference to suit no. 150 of 2021 filed by appellant against respondent and pending in the Court of Civil Judge, Firozabad. Mr. Singh submits, the suit is for permanent injunction filed in his client?s capacity as tenant in the premises, to resist eviction by respondent wife. This fact and the consequences in law must also be decided by the Family Court. The Family Court has before it, the subsequent suit filed. Provisions in section 10 of the Code will not be applicable because the former suit is for protection against eviction while the latter is for declaration of title. Appellant has apparently put forward inconsistent claims and whether he can prosecute for relief on them, the Family Court will have to decide.

8. The appeal is allowed and disposed of.

Issue for Consideration

Matter pertains to whether the plaintiff - appellant could establish that disputed house though standing in the name of her paternal uncle, defendant was in fact purchased by him in a fiduciary capacity and for her benefit, thereby exempting the transaction from bar contained in Section 4(1) of Benami Transactions (Prohibition) Act, 1988, or whether said transaction was a benami transaction hit by statutory prohibition under said Act.

Headnotes

Uttar Pradesh Awas Evam Vikas Parishad Act, 1965 - s. 88 - Benami Transactions (Prohibition) Act, 1988 - ss. 2(a), 3, 4 - Specific Relief Act, 1963 - ss. 34, 41 - Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 - s. 34 - The plaintiff - appellant, instituted Original Suit No. 804 of 2010 before Civil Judge (Senior Division), Ghaziabad, seeking a declaration of ownership, possession, and permanent injunction in respect of disputed house asserting that though the property was purchased in the name of her paternal uncle, defendant no.1, it was actually acquired from her own earnings and savings and that defendant held same in a fiduciary capacity for her benefit - It was averred that plaintiff, being employed as a medical practitioner, had remitted substantial funds for purchase and construction of said property, whereas defendant's name was used merely for convenience due to his seniority and familial relationship - Subsequently, defendant asserted exclusive ownership, denied plaintiff's right, and attempted to alienate the property - Defendants contested the suit contending that sale deed stood in defendant's name, plaintiff had no locus standi or ownership interest, and the claim was barred u/s 4(1) of Benami Transactions (Prohibition) Act, 1988 - Trial court dismissed suit, holding the transaction to be benami and not protected under any fiduciary exception, leading to instant First Appeal u/s 96 C.P.C. before High Court.

Held: It stands established that disputed house was valued at about ₹30 lakhs, whereas plaintiff contributed only ₹ 8.45 lakhs, which defendant no.1 asserts was a loan taken for purchase of disputed house - Allotment and subsequent sale deed were executed exclusively in favour of defendant no.1, who paid entire consideration to defendant no.2 - Possession was also delivered to defendant no.1 pursuant to lease agreement dated 11.12.2006 - Evidence establishes that plaintiff and defendant no.1 were not residing together, defendant was not dependent on plaintiff and as a retired Central Government pensioner, had sufficient means, was living in his own house and though ill, was not mentally incapacitated - No HUF existed between them, plaintiff being married having her own family and neither a lineal descendant nor property of defendant would have devolved on plaintiff upon his death - Consequently, no fiduciary relationship is proved - While defendant no.1 admitted certain financial transactions existed between him and plaintiff and his daughter had taken money from plaintiff, which was returned subsequently, such transactions alone do not establish a fiduciary capacity vis-à-vis the plaintiff - Since plaintiff did not pay entire consideration for disputed house, she cannot be regarded as its true owner - It is neither a case of joint purchase nor a situation where defendant no.1 was minor or financially incapable at the time of acquisition - Defendant no.1 has denied any love or affection towards plaintiff and admitted absence of mutual trust - There is no written contract between the parties, hence, burden lay entirely on plaintiff to establish her ownership, which she has wholly failed to prove - Defendant no.1 is the lawful owner in possession of disputed house, which is not a benami property of plaintiff - As plaintiff's claim does not fall within exceptions u/s 4(3) of Benami Transactions (Prohibition) Act, 1988, suit is barred by Section 4(1) - Trial court committed no illegality in dismissing plaintiff's claim for possession and declaration regarding execution of sale deed by defendant no.2 and rightly decreed suit only to extent of ₹8,46,865/- with

6% interest per annum from date of payment to defendant no.1 until realization - Appeal is devoid of merit and stands dismissed. [Paras 30, 35, 36, 39] (E-13)

1. The instant first appeal under section 96 C.P.C. has been preferred by the plaintiff against judgment and decree dated 06.4.2013 passed by the Additional Civil Judge(Senior Division) Court no.4, Ghaziabad in Original Suit No. 1485 of 2006 Dr.Ila Gupta vs. Om Prakash Gupta and another, whereby the plaintiff 's suit for the main relief of declaration, permanent injunction and possession, regarding the flat no. 2C/322, Sector 2C, Vasundhara Scheme, Ghaziabad, has been dismissed.

Plaint case

2. The plaintiff- appellant filed a suit in the trial court with the averments that the defendant no.1 Omprakash Gupta was her paternal uncle, she regarded him immensely and had full faith in him. The defendant no.1 contacted her in the month of January, 2005 and informed her that the defendant No.2 Uttar Pradesh Awas Evam Vikas Parishad had constructed in Vasundhara Scheme, Ghaziabad duplex houses of high income category(HIG), which were semi-finished, which were available for allotment and if, she desired, then she can apply for allotment for a house in the above scheme. Since, she was busy in her medical profession and was unable to spare time to move an application for allotment in the above scheme, as such, she requested the defendant no.1 to move an application for allotment of house in the above scheme on her behalf, which was accepted by the defendant no.1. Since she trusted defendant no.1 immensely, she accepted the proposal of defendant no.1 and as such, consented that defendant no.1 may make an application for allotment of house in the above scheme on her behalf, in his own name. It is also the case of the plaintiff that being her real paternal uncle, the defendant no.1 was in a fiduciary capacity. Thereafter, the defendant no.1, for the benefit of plaintiff, moved an application number 1348 on 23.1.2009 for allotment of HIG, semi-finished duplex house in the above scheme, by making an application in the office of defendant no.2, accompanied by registration amount of ₹ 85,000/- paid by draft no. 035788 dated 23.1.2005, drawn on Canara Bank, Vivek Vihar, New Delhi. The amount of ₹ 85,000/- and the commission of demand draft of ₹ 192/- was paid from the bank account no. 26547 of the plaintiff.

3. It is the case of the plaintiff that, the defendant no.2 vide letter no. 1323 dated 23.2.2005 intimated defendant no.1 that, he had been allotted the above house, having estimated cost of ₹ 16.90 lakhs and 50% of that cost amounting to ₹ 7.60 lakhs was to be deposited by 30.4.2005. Thereafter, the plaintiff got issued a demand draft no. 8077363 of ₹ 7.60 lakh dated 2.4.2005 drawn on Canara Bank, Vivek Vihar, Delhi, in favour of defendant no.2. The demand draft was issued from the savings bank account no. 26547 of the plaintiff and the commission of rupees 1,673/- was also debited from the above bank account. The bank draft of ₹ 7.60 lakhs was given to the defendant no.1, who deposited it on 28.4.2005 in the Ghaziabad office of the defendant no.2. Thereafter, on 17.11.2005 the office of the defendant no.2 informed vide letter no. 11203, that house number 2C/322, Sector 2C, Vasundhara, Ghaziabad had been allotted.

4. It is the case of the plaintiff that the above house, was purchased for her benefit, by defendant no.1, who was in a fiduciary capacity vis-a-vis the plaintiff, the registration amount and 50% of the cost of the house was also borne by the plaintiff, the real owner and beneficiary of the house was the plaintiff, the defendant no.1 was a mere benami holder of the above house, who had no concern with the ownership of the house.

5. It is the case of the plaintiff that subsequently, after the allotment of the disputed house in favour of defendant no.1, the intention of defendant no.1 turned malafide and in order to have illegal gain, he began to show that he was the owner of the disputed house and denied plaintiff's ownership, whereas, the plaintiff was the real beneficiary and owner, as such, she was entitled to get the sale deed of the disputed house executed in her favour from defendant no.2. It is the specific case of the plaintiff, that the defendant no.1 had no right, title and interest in the disputed house.

6. It has been further averred by the plaintiff that she was not informed about the subsequent instalments of the house to be paid to defendant no.2, by the defendant no.1 intentionally and later on, she became aware that without her consent and knowledge, the defendant no.1 had deposited instalments with defendant no.2. When the intention of the defendant no.1 became apparent to plaintiff, then she gave a legal notice on 15.6.2006 to the defendant no.1 and 2, which was also under section 88 of the Uttar Pradesh Awas Evam Vikas Parishad Act, a copy of which was also sent to the Commissioner and Additional Commissioner of defendant no.2, which were served on the defendant's on 19.6.2006.

7. The plaintiff filed the suit for the following reliefs:-

(i) by a decree of declaration, the plaintiff be declared the real allottee of house no. 2C/322, Sector 2C, Vasundhara

Scheme, Ghaziabad, allotted by defendant no.2 and was also entitled to get the sale deed executed and registered in her favour.

(ii) by decree of declaration it be declared that the lease agreement dated 19.8.2006 executed by defendant no.2 regarding the disputed house, was null and void and the possession of the disputed house handed to defendant no.1 was also illegal and void.

(iii) If the relief claimed above, was granted by the court, then the defendant no.2 be directed to register the name of the plaintiff, as allottee of the disputed house, in its record and after receiving the balance consideration from the plaintiff, the sale deed be also executed and registered in favour of the plaintiff.

(iv) If the relief claimed in clause 1 and 2 was not granted to the plaintiff, then the alternate relief of refund of money of ₹ 8,46,865/-, which was paid by the plaintiff for purchasing the disputed house, along with interest @12% per annum w.e.f. 23.1.2005 till the date of actual refund, be granted to the plaintiff against the defendant no.1.

(v) by decree of permanent injunction granted in favour of the plaintiff against the defendant no.1, the defendant no.1 be restrained from selling, alienating or transferring the possession of the disputed house.

(vi) by decree of the court the actual possession of the disputed house be also given to the plaintiff from defendant no.1

(vii) the plaintiff be also awarded mesne profit at the rate of ₹ 10,000/- per month of the disputed house from the defendant no.1 during the pendency of the suit, till it's actual possession was not received by the plaintiff, the court fees on it will be paid at the time of execution.

(viii) The costs of the suit be also awarded to the plaintiff against the defendant's.

Defendant no.1's case

8. The defendant no.1 Omprakash Gupta filed his written statement in the trial court in which he denied the plaint case. He submitted that the plaintiff informed him that the defendant no.2 is constructing HIG semi-finished houses, which are also reserved for retired Central government employees and as such, he should apply for allotment in the above scheme. The defendant further submitted that he believed the information provided by the plaintiff and as such, applied for allotment of house in the above scheme of the defendant no.2. He further submitted that since he retired from the post of civil engineer in CPWD, after service of 36 years, he was well aware that the property was expensive. He further submitted that initially he resided alone, but after the recent marriage of his son, the house had insufficient accommodation, as such, he was in need of a large house for accommodating his family and keeping in view the needs of his family, he had applied for allotment of house in the housing scheme of defendant no.2. He further submitted that there was no necessity of getting house allotted through the plaintiff, because she was a 45 year old woman. He further submitted that he has not committed any fraud upon the plaintiff.

The plaintiff had no requirement of the disputed property as such, why he would have applied for house in the name of plaintiff. He specifically averred that since he was in need of a large house as such, he had applied for allotment of that house. He further submitted that the plaintiff had assured him of her financial support, for acquiring the disputed house, if required by him.

9. The defendant admitted that since he was busy in the marriage of his son from January 2005 to April 2005, and was unable to pay ₹ 7.60 lakhs as such, he had taken a short-term loan from the plaintiff of that amount and had deposited it with defendant no.2. He admitted that the defendant no.2 had informed vide letter no. 11203 dated 17.11.2005 that house number 2C−322 in Vasundhara has been allotted to him. He further averred that the plaintiff was no need of a house because she was having a two storeyed building no. B-4, Chandranagar, Ghaziabad, built in an area of 650 square yard, having a market value of ₹ 3 crores, the first floor of which was lying vacant. Besides this, the plaintiff was having an HIG flat no.3, Highway Apartment, in Ghazipur, which was in the name of her husband Ashok Gupta. The plaintiff wanted to usurp the disputed house illegally. The plaintiff was not the owner of the disputed house because it was allotted to him and the consideration of the disputed house was also paid by him. He further averred that half amount of consideration amounting to ₹ 1,354,560/- was paid by him to the defendant no.2 and as such, a lease agreement had been executed by defendant no.2 in his favour on 19.8.2006, on the basis of which he was entitled to the possession of the disputed house. The plaintiff was neither the allottee nor was in possession of the disputed house as such, the suit was barred by section 34 and 41 of the Specific Relief Act. The plaintiff filed the suit to harass him because he was an old and ill person. The plaintiff had got no cause of action to file the suit and was not entitled to get any relief from the court.

10. The defendant no.1 filed additional written statement in which, it was averred that after completing all the formalities regarding the disputed house and after depositing half amount of consideration of ₹ 13,54,560/- with defendant no.2, after paying stamp duty of rupees 2.71 lakhs, the defendant no.2 had executed a lease agreement on 19.8.2006 in his favour, on the basis of which he had obtained the physical possession of the disputed house on 7.12.2006, which was prior to the filing of the suit. It was further averred that after paying the whole consideration, the defendant no.2 had executed a sale deed on 31.3.2008 in his favour and in view of these facts and circumstances, the plaintiff was not entitled to any relief.

11. The defendant No. 2 Uttar Pradesh Awas Evam Vikas Parishad filed its written statement in which it was admitted that the consideration had been deposited by defendant no.1. It was further disclosed that vide its letter no. 1323 dated 23.2.2005 the defendant no.1 was informed to deposit 7.60 lakhs till 30.5.2025, which was deposited by defendant no.1 within time. The above amount was paid by defendant no.1 by a demand draft no. 807363 drawn on Canara Bank, Vivek Vihar, New Delhi. The challan of deposit was signed by Ashok Kumar. It was further averred that house no. 2C−322, Vasundhara, Ghaziabad was allotted on 17.11.2005 by it, to defendant no.1. It was admitted that the plaintiff had sent notice dated 15.6.2006 to it. It was further averred that on 19.8.2006 the defendant no.1 arrived at the office of defendant no.2 and had got executed an agreement of the disputed house. It was further disclosed that as per its record, defendant no.1 had applied for the registration of the disputed house, which was allotted to defendant no.1 and also on 19.8.2006 a lease agreement was executed by defendant no.2, in favour of defendant no.1. It was specifically averred that in the records, the disputed house had not been allotted to the plaintiff as such, no amount can be deposited by the plaintiff, with it. With these submissions, it was averred that the plaintiff had no right to file the suit, which was liable to be dismissed with special costs.

12. The trial court on the basis of the pleadings of the parties, framed the following issues, which read as under:-

(i) Whether the plaintiff was the allottee of house number 2C/322, sector 2C, Vasundhara scheme, Ghaziabad and was entitled to get the sale deed of this property executed and registered in her favour from defendant no.2?

(ii) Whether the defendant no.1 was the benami holder of disputed house? If yes, it's effect?

(iii) Whether the suit was barred by section 34 and 41 of the Specific Relief Act?

(iv) Whether any cause of action had arisen?

(v) Whether the suit was undervalued?

(vi) Whether the court fees paid was insufficient?

(vii) Whether the suit was barred by section 3 and 4 of the Benami Transactions(Prohibition) Act, 1988?

(viii) Whether the plaintiff was entitled to get any other relief?

(ix)Whether on the basis of plaint averments, the plaintiff was entitled to get the possession of the disputed property?

13. During trial, the plaintiff Dr Ila Gupta examined herself as PW-1 and defendant no.1 Omprakash Gupta examined himself as DW-1.

14. The trial court vide impugned judgment and decree dated 6.4.2013 dismissed the plaintiff's suit.

15. The trial court while deciding issue no.1 and 9 concluded that only a partial amount of ₹ 7.60 lakhs and ₹ 85,000 had been paid by plaintiff towards consideration of the disputed house, which was admitted by defendant no.1, the disputed house was allotted to the defendant no.1 and the plaintiff had failed to prove, that the disputed house was allotted for her benefit. The trial court concluded that since the lease agreement was executed by defendant no.2 in favour of defendant no.1 as such, the defendant no.1 will be deemed to be the owner of the disputed house, but the plaintiff was entitled to receive ₹ 7.60 lakhs and 85,000/- with interest from defendant no.1. Accordingly, issue no.1 and 9 were decided.

16. The trial court while disposing issue No.2 and 7 concluded that in section

3(2)(a) of the Benami Transactions (Prohibition) Act 1988, only the wife and unmarried daughter are covered within the definition of benami transaction, the plaintiff does not fall within that definition, as such, in the facts of the case, section 3 and 4 of the Act were held in-applicable. Issue No.2 and 7 were decided in the negative.

17. The trial court concluded that the defendant failed to prove that the suit was barred under section 34 and 41 of the Specific Relief Act, as such, issue no.3 was decided against the defendants.

18. The trial court, concluded that the plaintiff had cause of action to file the suit because she had paid ₹ 7.60 lakh and 85,000/- towards the allotment of the disputed house, which she was entitled to get back. On this reasoning, the trial court decided issue no.4 in favour of the plaintiff. Issues no.5 and 6, regarding valuation of the suit and sufficiency of court fees paid, were decided by the trial court on 18.4.2009. Issue no.8 was partly decided in favour of the plaintiff by concluding that since she had paid an amount of ₹ 8,46,865/- to the defendant no.1 regarding the disputed house, as such she was entitled to this amount along with pendente-lite and future interest @ 6% per annum, in accordance with section 34 C.P.C. Regarding other reliefs, the suit was dismissed, aggrieved against which, the plaintiff filed the instant First Appeal under section 96 CPC.

19. Learned counsel for the plaintiff – appellant submitted that the defendant no.1 was in fiduciary capacity vis-a-vis the plaintiff, being the real paternal uncle of plaintiff, the plaintiff trusted the defendant and acting on the advice of the defendant, had consented to apply for the disputed house in the name of the defendant, because there was a 10 % quota for senior citizens in the Vasundhara scheme, as such, there was an understanding that the defendant will apply for the house on behalf of the plaintiff, the plaintiff being the real owner, the funding for the house will be done by the plaintiff and the defendant will hold the house, for the benefit of the plaintiff but, after allotment of the house to the defendant, his intention became malafide and thereafter, to usurp the house illegally, the defendant began to exert his ownership rights in the house, which was illegal. Learned counsel submitted that the defendant no.1 was the benami owner of the disputed house. Since, the defendant was in a fiduciary capacity vis-a-vis the plaintiff, the bar of Benami Transactions (Prohibition) Act,1988 was not attracted in this case. Learned counsel further submitted that the trial court erred in dismissing the plaintiff's suit. With these submissions, it was prayed that the instant appeal be allowed and the suit be decreed. In support of his submissions learned counsel has relied upon the case law Marcel Martins vs. M.Printer and others(2012)5 SCC 342 and Pushpalata vs. Vijay Kumar (Dead) through LRs and others 2022 SCC OnLine SC 1152.

20. Per contra, learned counsel for the defendant – respondent no.1 submitted that the defendant was the real owner of the disputed house because a substantial part of the consideration was paid by the defendant. A loan was taken from the plaintiff initially for making an application before the defendant no.2, for applying the house, which was repaid by the defendant. Learned counsel submitted that the suit was barred by the provisions of Benami Transactions (Prohibition) Act,1988.

Learned counsel further submitted that the allotment was in favour of the defendant and possession of the disputed house was also with the defendant and further, the sale deed was also executed in favour of the defendant, as such, it cannot be said that the defendant was the benami holder of the disputed house. Learned counsel further submitted that the plaintiff and defendant never trusted each other, only because some financial transactions took place between them, it cannot be presumed that the defendant was in a fiduciary capacity vis-a-vis the plaintiff. Learned counsel further submitted that defendant was not financially dependent on plaintiff, was having his own income from pension and interest and had also invested his savings and also arranged funds from friends, relatives and family members, for purchasing the house. With these submissions, it was prayed that the instant appeal be dismissed.

21. On the basis of the arguments of the learned counsel of the parties, the following issues arise for determination, in this appeal:-

(1) Whether the disputed house was purchased by defendant no.1, for the benefit of plaintiff ?

(2) Whether the defendant no.1 was the benami owner of the disputed house, the real owner being the plaintiff ?

(3) Whether defendant no.1 was in a fiduciary capacity vis-a-vis the plaintiff ?

(4)Whether the suit of the plaintiff was barred by section 4(1) of the Benami Transactions (Prohibition) Act, 1988 ?

22. The plaintiff Dr.Ila Gupta examined herself as PW-1 in the trial court. In the examination- in- chief, she proved the pleadings of the plaint and reiterated her plaint case. She stated that defendant no.1, being her real paternal uncle was in a fiduciary capacity with her. She deposed that an amount of ₹ 7.60 lakhs and 85,000/- were paid by her towards the consideration of the disputed house to the defendant no.2 through demand draft, for which rupees192/- and 1,673/-were paid towards demand draft charges, in total, an amount of rupees 8,46,865/- was paid by her. She further deposed that the disputed house was purchased for her benefit, the defendant no.1 was only a benami owner of the disputed house, who had got no concern with the disputed house. She denied that the above consideration deposited by her with defendant no.2, was a loan provided by her to the defendant no.1. She further deposed that the disputed house was not reserved for retired Central government employees, but it was reserved, only for serving employees. She further deposed that the defendant no.1 was not having any requirement of a larger house because, the defendant no.1's son Sajal was working in a foreign country as such, the house, presently in which the defendant no.1 was residing, was sufficient for his requirements because the defendant no.1 had let out a room of that house, which proved that the defendant no.1 was not having any requirement of a larger house. She further deposed that house no. B-4,Chandra Nagar belonged to her father-in-law K.L. Gupta.

23. The plaintiff in her cross-examination admitted that she's the joint owner of a shop with her husband, situated in Palika Bazar, GT road, Ghaziabad, which was purchased in the year 1986 or 1987, from her own funds. She admitted that when the registration form of the disputed house was filled, at that time, she was residing at B-4, Chandranagar, Ghaziabad, which was at a distance of about 3-4 km from Vivek Vihar. She disclosed that Vasundhara was at a distance of about 5 km from her house. She admitted that the defendant no.1's house was at a distance of about 30 km from her house. She admitted that the sale deed of the disputed house had been executed in favour of defendant no.1. She denied that the part consideration of the disputed house was paid by her as loan, to the defendant no.1. She also admitted that the defendant no.1 had paid the remaining consideration to the defendant no.2 and had thereafter, got executed the sale deed in his favour from defendant no.2. She also admitted that the possession of the disputed house had been given by defendant no. 2 to defendant no.1. She admitted that there were financial transactions between her and defendant no.1 and his wife.

24. The defendant no.1 Omprakash Gupta examined himself as DW-1 in the trial court. In his examination-in-chief he reiterated the submissions made by him in his written statement. He deposed that since he was ill, as such, the plaintiff had assured him that regarding the purchase of the disputed house, she will help in completing all the formalities. He further deposed that since he worked as a civil engineer for 36 years in CPWD, as such, he was fully aware that the disputed house was very expensive. He was residing at that time in a LIG house of DDA, which was very small, keeping in view his requirements, as such, on the assurance of the plaintiff, that she will provide the necessary loan, had applied for allotment of house reserved for retired Central government employees on 23.1.2005, after taking loan of ₹ 85,000/- from the plaintiff. He further deposed that since he was ill at that time, as such, the allotment form was filled and deposited by the plaintiffs husband, with defendant no.2. He further deposed that he had obtained ₹ 7.60 lakhs on loan from plaintiff, which was deposited through demand draft by plaintiffs husband, with defendant no.2 on 29.4.2005. He further deposed that previously also there were financial transactions between him and the plaintiff, the plaintiff had given a loan of ₹ 59,000/- to his daughter Ruchi Gupta for purchasing Shivalik Apartment in Patparganj on 18.8.2002, which were subsequently returned by his daughter, by cheque to the plaintiff. He further deposed that half of the total consideration of ₹ 27,02,120/-, which amounts to ₹ 13,54,560/-, along with stamp paper of rupees 2.71 lakhs were deposited by him with defendant no.2 for executing lease agreement, which was executed on 19.8.2006 by defendant no.2 in his favour and also on 11.12.2006 the possession of the disputed house was also given to him by defendant no.2. He further deposed that after payment of the whole consideration, on 31.3.2008, the sale deed of the disputed house was executed by defendant no.2 in his favour. He further deposed that about ₹ 25 lakhs was paid by him towards the consideration of the disputed house. The plaintiff had no concern with the disputed house.

25. DW-1 deposed in cross-examination that the marriage of his son was solemnised on 28.4.2005, and after that, his son could not have resided with him, because his house was inadequate for accommodating all of them. He further deposed that he had no affection for the plaintiff, who never trusted him. He also never trusted the plaintiff. He admitted after reading paper no. 9 C that there was no reservation for retired Central government employees in the allotment of house. He deposed that the above fact of reservation of house was disclosed to him by the plaintiff. The house was reserved for senior citizens, plaintiff was not a senior citizen. He disclosed that when he had applied for allotment of the disputed house, at that time he was retired person, who was having income from pension and interest. He also disclosed that he had deposited money in the MIS scheme of Post Office, as well as bank. He also disclosed that he was paying income tax but could not disclose, when for the last time, he had filed his income tax return. He disclosed that his chartered accountant used to file income tax returns on his behalf, a copy of which was given to him. He disclosed that at that time, his son was employed as software engineer in Bangalore, who was getting annual salary in excess of ₹ 6 lakhs. He disclosed that the remaining consideration was paid by him, after obtaining money from his son, daughter-in-law and daughter Ruchi Gupta and some amount was also given by his wife. He had also obtained some money from his son-in-law and his friends. He disclosed that at present his son was living in the United Kingdom. He further disclosed that the disputed house was a duplex house, which was semi-finished.

26. The Apex Court in the case of Marcel Martins vs. M.Printer and others (2012) 5 SCC 342, while discussing the term fiduciary capacity mentioned in section 4(3)(b) of the Benami Transactions (Prohibition)Act,1988, held as under:-

"31. The expression "fiduciary capacity" has not been defined in the 1988 Act or any other statute for that matter. And yet there is no gainsaying that the same is an expression of known legal significance, the import whereof may be briefly examined at this stage.

32. The term "fiduciary" has been explained by Corpus Juris Secundum as under:

"A general definition of the word which is sufficiently comprehensive to embrace all cases cannot well be given. The term is derived from the civil or Roman law. It connotes the idea of trust or confidence, contemplates good faith, rather than legal obligation, as the basis of the transaction, refers to the integrity, the fidelity, of the party trusted, rather than his credit or ability, and has been held to apply to all persons who occupy a position of peculiar confidence toward others, and to include those informal relations which exist whenever one party trusts and relies on another, as well as technical fiduciary relations.

The word 'fiduciary', as a noun, means one who holds a thing in trust for another, a trustee, a person holding the character of a trustee, or a character analogous to that of a trustee with respect to the trust and confidence involved in it and the scrupulous good faith and condor which it requires; a person having the duty, created by his undertaking, to act primarily for another's benefit in matters connected with such undertaking. Also more specifically, in a statute, a guardian, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, conservator or any person acting in any fiduciary capacity for any person, trust or estate."

33.Words and Phrases, Permanent Edn. (Vol. 16-A, p. 41) defines "fiducial relation" as under:

"There is a technical distinction between a 'fiducial relation' which is more correctly applicable to legal relationships between parties, such as guardian and ward, administrator and heirs, and other similar relationships, and 'confidential relation' which includes the legal relationships, and also every other relationship wherein confidence is rightly reposed and is exercised.

Generally, the term 'fiduciary' applies to any person who occupies a position of peculiar confidence towards another. It refers to integrity and fidelity. It contemplates fair dealing and good faith, rather than legal obligation, as the basis of the transaction. The term includes those informal relations which exist whenever one party trusts and relies upon another, as well as technical fiduciary relations."

34.Black's Law Dictionary (7th Edn., p. 640) defines 'fiduciary relationship' thus:

"Fiduciary relationship. –A relationship in which one person is under a duty to act for the benefit of the other on matters within the scope of the relationship. Fiduciary relationships– such as trustee-beneficiary, guardian-ward, agent-principal, and attorney-client–require the highest duty of care. Fiduciary relationships usually arise in one of four situations : (1) when one person places trust in the faithful integrity of another, who as a result gains superiority or influence over the first, (2) when one person assumes control and responsibility over another, (3) when one person has a duty to act for or give advice to another on matters falling within the scope of the relationship, or (4) when there is a specific relationship that has traditionally been recognised as involving fiduciary duties, as with a lawyer and a client or a stockbroker and a customer."

35.Stroud's Judicial Dictionary explains the expression "fiduciary capacity" as under:

"Fiduciary capacity. –An administrator who [had] received money under letters of administration and who is ordered to pay it over in a suit for the recall of the grant, holds it 'in a fiduciary capacity' within the Debtors Act, 1869 so, of the debt due from an executor who is indebted to his testator's estate which he is able to pay but will not, so of moneys in the hands of a receiver, or agent, or manager, or moneys due on an account from the London agent of a country solicitor, or proceeds of sale in the hands of an auctioneer, or moneys which in the compromise of an action have been ordered to be held on certain trusts or partnership moneys received by a partner."

36.Bouvier's Law Dictionary defines "fiduciary capacity" as under:

"What constitutes a fiduciary relationship is often a subject of controversy. It has been held to apply to all persons who occupy a position of peculiar confidence towards others, such as a trustee, executor, or administrator, director of a corporation or society, medical or religious adviser, husband and wife, an agent who appropriates money put into his hands for a specific purpose of investment, collector of city taxes who retains money officially collected, one who receives a note or other security for collection. In the following cases debt has been held to be not a fiduciary one : a factor who retains the money of his principal, an agent under an agreement to account and pay over monthly, one with whom a general deposit of money is made."

37. We may at this stage refer to a recent decision of this Court in CBSE v. Aditya Bandopadhyay [(2011) 8 SCC 497] , wherein Raveendran, J. speaking for the Court in that case explained the terms "fiduciary" and "fiduciary relationship" in the following words : (SCC pp. 524-25, para 39)

"39. The term 'fiduciary' refers to a person having a duty to act for the benefit of another, showing good faith and candour, where such other person reposes trust and special confidence in the person owing or discharging the duty. The term 'fiduciary relationship' is used to describe a situation or transaction where one person (beneficiary) places complete confidence in another person (fiduciary) in regard to his affairs, business or transaction(s). The term also refers to a person who holds a thing in trust for another (beneficiary). The fiduciary is expected to act in confidence and for the benefit and advantage of the beneficiary, and use good faith and fairness in dealing with the beneficiary or the things belonging to the beneficiary. If the beneficiary has entrusted anything to the fiduciary, to hold the thing in trust or to execute certain acts in regard to or with reference to the entrusted thing, the fiduciary has to act in confidence and is expected not to disclose the thing or information to any third party."

It is manifest that while the expression "fiduciary capacity" may not be capable of a precise definition, it implies a relationship that is analogous to the relationship between a trustee and the beneficiaries of the trust. The expression is in fact wider in its import for it extends to all such situations as place the parties in positions that are founded on confidence and trust on the one part and good faith on the other.

38. In determining whether a relationship is based on trust or confidence, relevant to determining whether they stand in a fiduciary capacity, the court shall have to take into consideration the factual context in which the question arises for it is only in the factual backdrop that the existence or otherwise of a fiduciary relationship can be deduced in a given case. Having said that, let us turn to the facts of the present case once more to determine whether the appellant stood in a fiduciary capacity vis-a-vis the respondent-plaintiffs."

27. The Apex Court in the case of Mangathai Ammal(Died) Through Lrs. and others vs. Rajeswari and others(2020)17 SCC 496, discussing the law governing benami transactions, held as under:-

"7.1. In Jaydayal Poddar [Jaydayal Poddar v. Bibi Hazra, (1974) 1 SCC 3] it is specifically observed and held by this Court that the burden of proving that a particular sale is benami and the apparent purchaser is not the real owner, always rests on the person asserting it to be sold. It is further observed that this burden has to be strictly discharged by adducing legal evidence of a definite character which would either directly prove the fact of the benami transaction or establish circumstances unerringly and reasonably raising an interference of that fact. In para 6 of the aforesaid decision, this Court has observed and held as under : (SCC pp. 6-7)

"6. It is well settled that the burden of proving that a particular sale is benami and the apparent purchaser is not the real owner, always rests on the person asserting it to be so. This burden has to be strictly discharged by adducing legal evidence of a definite character which would either directly prove the fact of benami or establish circumstances unerringly and reasonably raising an inference of that fact. The essence of a benami is the intention of the party or parties concerned; and not unoften, such intention is shrouded in a thick veil which cannot be easily pierced through. But such difficulties do not relieve the person asserting the transaction to be benami of any part of the serious onus that rests on him; nor justify the acceptance of mere conjectures or surmises, as a substitute for proof. The reason is that a deed is a solemn document prepared and executed after considerable deliberation, and the person expressly shown as the purchaser or transferee in the deed, starts with the initial presumption in his favour that the apparent state of affairs is the real state of affairs. Though the question whether a particular sale is benami or not, is largely one of fact, and for determining this question, no absolute formulae or acid tests, uniformly applicable in all situations, can be laid down; yet in weighing the probabilities and for gathering the relevant indicia, the courts are usually guided by these circumstances : (1) the source from which the purchase money came; (2) the nature and possession of the property, after the purchase; (3) motive, if any, for giving the transaction a benami colour; (4) the position of the parties and the relationship, if any, between the claimant and the alleged benamidar; (5) the custody of the title deeds after the sale; and (6) the conduct of the parties concerned in dealing with the property after the sale."

7.2. In Bhim Singh [Bhim Singh v. Kan Singh, (1980) 3 SCC 72] this Court in para 18 observed and held as under : (SCC p. 84)

"18. The principle governing the determination of the question whether a transfer is a benami transaction or not may be summed up thus : (1) the burden of showing that a transfer is a benami transaction lies on the person who asserts that it is such a transaction; (2) it is proved that the purchase money came from a person other than the person in whose favour the property is transferred, the purchase is prima facie assumed to be for the benefit of the person who supplied the purchase money, unless there is evidence to the contrary; (3) the true character of the transaction is governed by the intention of the person who has contributed the purchase money; and (4) the question as to what his intention was has to be decided on the basis of the surrounding circumstances, the relationship of the parties, the motives governing their action in bringing about the transaction and their subsequent conduct, etc."

7.3. In P. Leelavathi [P. Leelavathi v. V. Shankarnarayana Rao, (2020) 19 SCC 816] this Court held as under : (SCC OnLine SC para 26)

"26. In Binapani Paul case [Binapani Paul v. Pratima Ghosh, (2007) 6 SCC 100] , this Court again had an occasion to consider the nature of benami transactions. After considering a catena of decisions of this Court on the point, this Court in that judgment observed and held that the source of money had never been the sole consideration. It is merely one of the relevant considerations but not determinative in character. This Court ultimately concluded after considering its earlier judgment in Valliammal v. Subramaniam [Valliammal v. Subramaniam, (2004) 7 SCC 233] that while considering whether a particular transaction is benami in nature, the following six circumstances can be taken as a guide:

(1) the source from which the purchase money came;

(2) the nature and possession of the property, after the purchase;

(3) motive, if any, for giving the transaction a benami colour;

(4) the position of the parties and the relationship, if any, between the claimant and the alleged benamidar;

(5) the custody of the title deeds after the sale; and

(6) the conduct of the parties concerned in dealing with the property after the sale , SCC p. 7, para 6.)

7.4. After considering the aforesaid decision in the recent decision of this Court in P. Leelavathi , this Court has again reiterated that to hold that a particular transaction is benami in nature, the aforesaid six circumstances can be taken as a guide."

28. The Apex Court in the case of Pushpalata vs. Vijay Kumar(Dead) through LRS and others 2022 SCC OnLine SC 1152, where the claim was that the property is benami, elucidated the law as under:-

"22. The court's approach in cases, where the claim is that a property or set of properties, are benami, was outlined, after considering previous precedents, in Binapani Paul v. Pratima Ghosh, where this court cited with approval extracts from Valliammal v. Subramaniam (supra):

"47. Burden of proof as regards the benami nature of transaction was also on the respondent. This aspect of the matter has been considered by this Court in Valliammal (D) By LRS. v. Subramaniam [(2004) 7 SCC 233] wherein a Division Bench of this Court held:

"13. This Court in a number of judgments has held that it is well established that burden of proving that a particular sale is benami lies on the person who alleges the transaction to be a benami. The essence of a benami transaction is the intention of the party or parties concerned and often, such intention is shrouded in a thick veil which cannot be easily pierced through. But such difficulties do not relieve the person asserting the transaction to be benami of any part of the serious onus that rests on him, nor justify the acceptance of mere conjectures or surmises, as a substitute for proof. Ref to Refer to Jaydayal Poddar v. Bibi Hazra [(1974) 1 SCC 3], Krishnanand Agnihotri v. State of M.P. [(1977) 1 SCC 816 : 1977 SCC (Cri) 190], Thakur Bhim Singh v. Thakur Kan Singh [(1980) 3 SCC 72], Pratap Singh v. Sarojini Devi [1994 Supp (1) SCC 734] and Heirs of Vrajlal J. Ganatra v. Heirs of Parshottam S. Shah [(1996) 4 SCC 490]. It has been held in the judgments referred to above that the question whether a particular sale is a benami or not, is largely one of fact, and for determining the question no absolute formulas or acid test, uniformly applicable in all situations can be laid. After saying so, this Court spelt out the following six circumstances which can be taken as a guide to determine the nature of the transaction:

(1) the source from which the purchase money came;

(2) the nature and possession of the property, after the purchase;

(3) motive, if any, for giving the transaction a benami colour;

(4) the position of the parties and the relationship, if any, between the claimant and the alleged benamidar;

(5) the custody of the title deeds after the sale; and

(6) the conduct of the parties concerned in dealing with the property after the sale. (Jaydayal Poddar v. Bibi Hazra [(1974) 1 SCC 3], SCC p. 7, para 6)

14. The above indicia are not exhaustive and their efficacy varies according to the facts of each case. Nevertheless, the source from where the purchase money came and the motive why the property was purchased benami are by far the most important tests for determining whether the sale standing in the name of one person, is in reality for the benefit of another. We would examine the present transaction on the touchstone of the above two indicia.

18. It is well settled that intention of the parties is the essence of the benami transaction and the money must have been provided by the party invoking the doctrine of benami. The evidence shows clearly that the original plaintiff did not have any justification for purchasing the property in the name of Ramayee Ammal. The reason given by him is not at all acceptable. The source of money is not at all traceable to the plaintiff. No person named in the plaint or anyone else was examined as a witness. The failure of the plaintiff to examine the relevant witnesses completely demolishes his case."

23. As a matter of law, the principle that one who alleges that a property is benami and is held, nominally, on behalf of the real owner- in cases which form the exception, under Section 4 (3) - has to displace the initial burden of proving that fact. Such proof can be through evidence, or cumulatively through circumstances. This fact was brought home, by this court, in Marcel Martins v. M. Printer. In that case, the issue was whether the transfer of rights in favour of one of the siblings, in the absence of a will, by the person having interest (as a tenant in the property), after her death, operated to exclude the other heirs. The court held that the transfer was made to fulfil a municipality's requirement, and the property was held by the one in whose name it was mutated, in a fiduciary capacity, under Section 4(3)(a) of the Act, on behalf of the siblings:

"22. It is manifest that while the expression "fiduciary capacity" may not be capable of a precise definition, it implies a relationship that is analogous to the relationship between a trustee and the beneficiaries of the trust. The expression is in fact wider in its import for it extends to all such situations as place the parties in positions that are founded on confidence and trust on the one part and good faith on the other.

23. In determining whether a relationship is based on trust or confidence, relevant to determining whether they stand in a fiduciary capacity, the Court shall have to take into consideration the factual context in which the question arises for it is only in the factual backdrop that the existence or otherwise of a fiduciary relationship can be deduced in a given case. Having said that, let us turn to the facts of the present case once more to determine whether the appellant stood in a fiduciary capacity vis-a-vis the plaintiffs-respondents.

24. The first and foremost of the circumstance relevant to the question at hand is the fact that the property in question was tenanted by Smt. Stella Martins-mother of the parties before us. It is common ground that at the time of her demise she had not left behind any Will nor is there any other material to suggest that she intended that the tenancy right held by her in the suit property should be transferred to the appellant to the exclusion of her husband, C.F. Martins or her daughters, respondents in this appeal, or both. In the ordinary course, upon the demise of the tenant, the tenancy rights should have as a matter of course devolved upon her legal heirs that would include the husband of the deceased and her children (parties to this appeal). Even so, the reason why the property was transferred in the name of the appellant was the fact that the Corporation desired such transfer to be made in the name of one individual rather than several individuals who may have succeeded to the tenancy rights. A specific averment to that effect was made by plaintiffs-respondents in para 7 of the plaint which was not disputed by the appellant in the written statement filed by him. It is, therefore, reasonable to assume that transfer of rights in favour of the appellant was not because the others had abandoned their rights but because the Corporation required the transfer to be in favour of individual presumably to avoid procedural complications in enforcing rights and duties qua in property at a later stage. It is on that touchstone equally reasonable to assume that the other legal representatives of the deceased-tenant neither gave up their tenancy rights in the property nor did they give up the benefits that would flow to them as legal heirs of the deceased tenant consequent upon the decision of the Corporation to sell the property to the occupants. That conclusion gets strengthened by the fact that the parties had made contributions towards the sale consideration paid for the acquisition of the suit property which they would not have done if the intention was to concede the property in favour of the appellant. Superadded to the above is the fact that the parties were closely related to each other which too lends considerable support to the case of the plaintiffs that the defendant-appellant held the tenancy rights and the ostensible title to the suit property in a fiduciary capacity vis-a-vis his siblings who had by reason of their contribution and the contribution made by their father continued to evince interest in the property and its ownership. Reposing confidence and faith in the appellant was in the facts and circumstances of the case not unusual or unnatural especially when possession over the suit property continued to be enjoyed by the plaintiffs who would in law and on a parity of reasoning be deemed to be holding the same for the benefit of the appellant as much as the appellant was holding the title to the property for the benefit of the plaintiffs.

25. The cumulative effect of the above circumstances when seen in the light of the substantial amount paid by late Shri C.F. Martins, the father of the parties, thus puts the appellant in a fiduciary capacity vis-a-vis the said four persons. Such being the case the transaction is completely saved from the mischief of Section 4 of the Act by reason of the same falling under Subsection 3(b) of Section 4. The suit filed by the respondents was not, therefore, barred by the Act as contended by the learned counsel for the appellant."

29. From the law laid down by the Apex Court in the case of Mangathai Ammal(supra) and Pushpalata(supra) it is clear that six circumstances- the source of the purchase money, possession of the property after purchase, motive of giving the transaction a benami colour, the position and relationship between the parties, custody of the title deeds after the sale and the conduct of the parties in dealing with the property after the sale, can be taken as a guide for determining whether the transaction was benami or not. It has been further held that the source from where the purchase money came and the motive why the property was purchased benami are by far the most important tests for determining whether the sale was benami or not. The Apex Court in the case of Marcel Martins(supra) has defined what is the meaning of fiduciary capacity.

30. It is apparent that the cost of the disputed house was about 30 lakhs, but only an amount of ₹ 8.45 lakhs has been paid by the plaintiff, which according to the defendant no.1 was the loan, which he had taken from the plaintiff, for purchasing the disputed house. It is also apparent that the allotment of the house was in favour of defendant no.1, who had also got executed the sale deed in his favour, after paying the whole consideration of the disputed house from defendant no.2. The possession of the disputed house was also handed to defendant no.1, in pursuance of the lease agreement executed by defendant no.2 in his favour on 11.12.2006.

31. Section 2(a), 3(1), 3(2)(a) and 4 of the Benami Transactions (Prohibition) Act, 1988, (hereinafter referred to as 'Act') reads as under:-

"2. Definitions- In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,-

(a) "Benami transaction" means any transaction in which property is transferred to one person for a consideration paid or provided by another person;

3. Prohibition of benami transactions- (1) No person shall enter into any benami transaction.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall apply to-

(a) the purchase of property by any person in the name of his wife or unmarried daughter and it shall be presumed, unless the contrary is proved, that the said property had been purchased for the benefit of the wife of the unmarried daughter.

*** *** ***

4. Prohibition of the right to recover property held benami- (1) No suit, claim or action to enforce any right in respect of any property held benami against the person in whose name the property is held or against any other person shall lie by or on behalf of a person claiming to be the real owner of such property.

(2) No defence based on any right in respect of any property held benami, whether against the person in whose name the property is held or against any other person, shall be allowed in any suit, claim or action by or on behalf of a person claiming to be the real owner of such property.

(3) Nothing in this section shall apply,-

(a) where the person in whose name the property is held is a coparcener in a Hindu undivided family and the property is held for the benefit of the coparceners in the family; or

(b) where the person in whose name the property is held is a trustee or other person standing in a fiduciary capacity, and the property is held for the benefit of another person for whom he is a trustee or towards whom he stands in such capacity."

32. It is evident that as per section 4(1) of the above Act, a suit claiming any right in respect of any property held benami against the person in whose name the property is held, is not maintainable by a person claiming to be the real owner of such property, but this is not applicable, where the property is held as a coparcener in a Hindu undivided family(HUF) and where the property is held for the benefit of the coparceners of such family. It is also not applicable, where the person in whose name the property is held, is a trustee or other person standing in a fiduciary capacity and the property is held for the benefit of another person for whom he is trustee or towards whom he stands in such capacity.

33. It is admitted to both the parties that the plaintiff is not a coparcener of the Hindu undivided family(HUF) of defendant no.1 as such, the exemption available under section 4(3)(a) of the Act, is not applicable, in the facts and circumstances of this case.

34. Learned counsel for the plaintiff-appellant vehemently submitted that the plaintiff trusted defendant no.1, who is her real paterenal uncle, who was in a fiduciary capacity vis-a-vis the plaintiff and as such, the disputed property was purchased by defendant no.1 for the benefit of plaintiff and part consideration for purchasing the property, was also provided by the plaintiff. Learned counsel submitted that in view of this, the suit is not barred by the provisions of section 4(1) of the Act.

35. From the evidence on record, it is proved that plaintiff and defendant no.1 were not residing together, the defendant was not dependent on plaintiff, the defendant was retired central government pensioner, who was having sufficient income from pension and interest to sustain his livelihood, who was living in his own house, who was ill but was not mentally impaired, there was no Hindu undivided family(HUF) of which plaintiff and defendant were coparceners, the plaintiff was married having her own family, who was neither a lineal descendant of defendant nor the property of defendant would have devolved on plaintiff upon his death, because the defendant was having his own family, as such, in these circumstances, it is not proved that the defendant no.1 was in a fiduciary capacity vis-a-vis the plaintiff. Although, defendant no.1 has admitted that there were financial transactions between him and the plaintiff and his daughter had taken money from the plaintiff, which was returned subsequently, but only on the basis of these financial transactions, it is not proved that defendant no.1 was in fiduciary capacity vis-a-vis the plaintiff.

36. It is also apparent that the plaintiff has only provided a part consideration of ₹ 8.45 lakhs for purchasing the disputed house, whereas the defendant no.1 has paid the remaining consideration of about ₹ 25 lakhs to the defendant no.2 for purchasing the disputed house. Since, in this case the whole consideration of the disputed house has not been paid by the plaintiff, she cannot be treated as the real owner of the house. It is not a case where the disputed house was purchased by the defendant jointly with the plaintiff, or the defendant no.1 was minor at the time of purchase of house, or was not having the financial capacity to purchase the disputed house. The defendant no.1 denied that he was having any love and affection for plaintiff and has also admitted that, there was no mutual trust between them. It is also apparent that, there is no written contract between the plaintiff and defendant no.1 as such, the whole burden was on the plaintiff to prove that she's the real owner of the disputed house, which she has utterly failed to prove.

37. In view of the above facts and as per the law laid down by the Apex Court in the case of Marcel Martins(supra), the plaintiff failed to prove that defendant no.1 was in a fiduciary capacity vis-a-vis the plaintiff, as such, the instant case does not fall within the exceptions mentioned in section 4(3) of the Act.

38. It is also proved that the plaintiff has only paid about 25% of the amount of consideration(Rs. 8.45 lakhs), the defendant no.1 is in possession of the disputed house, a sale deed has also been executed by the defendant no.2 in favour of defendant no.1 regarding the disputed house, there was no motive for purchasing the property benami, the plaintiff and the defendant no.1 resided separately and the defendant was not dependent on plaintiff for his livelihood, the defendant had sufficient financial means for purchasing the disputed house and the deficit, if any, was made good by borrowing the money from his friends, relatives and family members. It is also proved that the sale deed of the disputed house is in possession of the defendant no.1. It is also proved that the defendant no.1 neither expressly admitted nor acquiesced by his conduct, that the disputed house belonged to the plaintiff. When the above evidence is analysed in accordance with the law laid down by Apex Court in the case of Mangathai Ammal(supra) and Pushpalata(supra) then it is apparent that the plaintiff failed to prove that the alleged transaction was benami, and she was the real owner of the disputed house.

39. From the above analysis, it is proved that the defendant no.1 is the real owner in possession of the disputed house and the disputed house is not a benami property of plaintiff. Since, the plaintiff 's suit, does not fall within the exceptions specified in section 4(3) of the Benami Transactions (Prohibition) Act,1988, the plaintiff 's suit is barred by section 4(1) of the Act. The trial court has not committed any illegality in dismissing the plaintiff 's suit for the relief of possession of the disputed house and for declaration that the sale deed of the disputed house be executed by defendant no.2 in her favour. The trial court has rightly decreed the plaintiff's suit partially against defendant no.1, for an amount of ₹ 8,46,865/- with interest @ 6% per annum from the date when this amount was given to the defendant no.1, till the actual date of realisation. Accordingly, this appeal is meritless and is liable to be dismissed.

40. Accordingly, this appeal is dismissed. Consequently, the impugned judgment and decree dated 06.04.2013 passed by the trial court in O.S. No. 1485 of 2006, is affirmed.

41. All pending applications, if any, stand disposed of.

42. Interim order, if any, stands vacated.

43. However, in the facts and circumstances of the case, the parties shall bear their respective costs.

44. Office is directed to prepare the decree, accordingly.

THE HON'BLE SANDEEP JAIN, J.

First Appeal No. 381 of 2024

Smt. Archana Tyagi & Ors. ...Appellants
Versus
Yaduraj Narain ...Respondent

Counsel for the Appellants:
Shiv Sagar Singh

Counsel for the Respondent:
Ajay Kumar Singh, Ashish Kumar Singh

Issue for Consideration

Matter pertains to whether the donee, having constructed and operated a cinema hall on the land gifted conditionally by donor for that specific purpose, acquired full ownership rights upon fulfillment of condition, or whether the donor's successors retained a right to revoke the gift and reclaim possession of property on the ground that the donee subsequently demolished the cinema hall and commenced construction of a multiplex or commercial complex, allegedly in violation of terms of conditional gift deed.

Headnotes

Specific Relief Act, 1963 - ss. 38, 41 - Transfer of Property Act; 1882 - s. 126 - Plaintiffs - appellants being the legal heirs of late Pt. Parmanand Sharma, instituted Original Suit No. 434 of 2021 before the Civil Judge (Senior Division), Meerut, seeking a decree of declaration, possession, and permanent injunction in respect of land situated at Delhi Road, Meerut, originally gifted by their predecessor to late Yaduraj Narain, father of defendant, through two registered gift deeds dated 17.06.1968 and 18.06.1968, for the specific purpose of constructing and operating a cinema hall to serve the public - It was contended that donee accepted the gift and constructed the "Nandan Cinema Hall" thereon, which remained functional for decades, however, after its closure, defendant demolished the structure and commenced construction of multiplex and commercial complex, thereby acting contrary to stated purpose and violating condition of gift - Plaintiffs claimed that by such breach, gift stood revoked u/s 126 of Transfer of Property Act, 1882 and they were entitled to restoration of possession - On this, defendant contested the claim, asserting that condition of gift had been fully satisfied by constructing and operating cinema hall for over fifty years, that no clause in deed provided for reversion and that subsequent redevelopment of land was within his ownership rights - Trial court dismissed the suit, holding that gift was absolute and irrevocable, prompting the plaintiffs to prefer instant First Appeal u/s 96 C.P.C. before High Court.

Held: It is apparent from gift deeds that sole purpose of gift was to enable donee to construct cinema hall on the gifted land, after taking due permission from concerned authorities, in accordance with bye-laws prevailing at that time and if such permission was not granted to the donee, then it was expressly agreed that gifted land would not be used for any other purpose and further if, the donee failed to construct the cinema hall, then donor would be entitled to take back gifted land - Donee after accepting the gift, duly obtained the requisite permission from concerned authorities, under the relevant byelaws and thereafter, started construction of cinema hall, which was completed in year 1974, which came to be known as Nandan cinema hall - Cinema hall remained functional till year 2021, when it was demolished for constructing a multiplex, keeping in view, the changing times and attitude/taste of viewers, who intended to visit cinema hall, otherwise the donee would not have survived in this business - The donee, having complied with gift conditions by constructing and operating a cinema hall on gifted land for nearly 47 years, cannot be said to have breached terms of gift - With the conditions fully satisfied, donor's successors have no right to revoke gift or reclaim possession - Donor stood divested of all ownership rights in the gifted land once compliance occurred - Consequently, as the lawful owner, donee cannot be restrained from demolishing the old cinema hall and raising a modern multiplex having some shops providing eatables to cinema goers and also affording some shopping opportunities to them - Thus, appeal has no merits and liable to be dismissed. Case Arising From

ORIGINAL JURISDICTION: First Appeal No. - 381 of 2024

From the Judgment and Decree dated 16.03.2024 passed by the Court of Additional Civil Judge (Senior Division) - Second, Meerut in Original Suit No. 1510 of 2021

Appearances for Parties

(Delivered by Hon'ble Sandeep Jain, J.)

1. The instant first appeal under section 96 C.P.C. has been preferred by the plaintiff against judgment and decree dated 16.3.2024 passed by the Court of Additional Civil Judge(Senior Division) - Second, Meerut in Original Suit No. 1510 of 2021 Archana Tyagi and others vs. Yaduraj Narain, whereby the plaintiffs suit for the recovery of possession, permanent injunction and mesne profits,regarding the land gifted by their predecessor Raghukul Narain, has been dismissed.

Plaint case

2. The plaintiff- appellants filed a suit in the trial court with the averments that their predecessor Raghukul Narain(donor), had executed a gift deed on 8.2.1968 regarding land situated in khasra No. 4352, having area of 1104 square yards, the details of which were mentioned in the schedule of the plaint, in favour of his nephew /defendant Yaduraj Narain(donee), on the defendant's request. The gift deed was registered on 24.2.1968 in the office of Sub-Registrar, Meerut. It is the case of the plaintiffs that the gift was conditional that the defendant would construct a cinema hall on the gifted land ,after taking due permission and if, the cinema hall could not be constructed, then the gifted land would revert back to the donor or his successors, whoever is alive. According to the plaintiffs, the defendant duly accepted the conditional gift.

3. It is the case of the plaintiffs that another gift deed was executed on 30.10.1968 , consisting one plot of land of area 466.66 square yards and the other plot of land of 35 square yards, the smaller plot was to be used as a passage and the whole land was situated in khasra No. 4352, Garh Road, near Sohrab Gate, Meerut. This gift deed was registered on 8.11.1968 in the office of Sub-Registrar, Meerut. Both the gifts were conditional that if, due to some reason, permission to construct cinema hall is not granted by the competent authorities or if, the building of cinema hall is not constructed, then the gifted land would revert back to the donor or his successors, whoever is alive, and the defendant would have no objection to it. It was further agreed that a small area of 35 square yards would be used as a passage by both the predecessors of plaintiffs and the defendant, which would not be taken back.

4. It is the case of the plaintiffs that in the year 2019 their predecessor late Rajeev Tyagi came to know, that the defendant intended to demolish the existing Nandan cinema hall and in its place, construct a multiplex/commercial complex for business purposes and for this, the defendant has submitted a building plan before the Meerut Development Authority for approval. The plaintiffs contended that their consent was not obtained for demolishing the existing Nandan cinema hall and in its place, constructing multiplex /commercial complex, which proves that the defendant has deliberately violated the conditions of the gift deed. Subsequently, Rajeev Tyagi gave a notice dated 7.8.2019 to the defendant, Vice-Chairman/Secretary, Meerut Development Authority, Chief Development Officer, Meerut for restraining the defendant from constructing the multiplex/ commercial complex and for not sanctioning the building plan, because the land was gifted with the condition that only a cinema hall would be constructed on it. It was further averred that the defendant was not conferred any ownership right in the gifted land and a relationship of licensor and licensee, existed between Raghukul Narain and the defendant.

5. It is the case of the plaintiffs that the defendant has deliberately violated the terms of the gift deed and as such, the plaintiffs do not want to continue the relationship of licensor- licensee between them. A legal notice was given by the plaintiffs on 11.10.2021 terminating the license of the defendant and directing him to hand over the vacant possession of the disputed land after removing the superstructure and when this was not complied with by the defendant, the plaintiffs have filed the suit for the following reliefs:-

(i) by decree of mandatory injunction granted in favour of the plaintiffs against the defendant, the defendant be directed to hand over the vacant and physical possession of the land gifted to it, after removing the superstructure on it, and if the defendant fails to do so, then it's actual and physical possession be handed to the plaintiffs by court , by adopting due procedure of law.

(ii) by decree of permanent injunction granted in favour of the plaintiffs against the defendant, the defendant be restrained from selling the disputed land, mortgaging it, charging it, creating any lien on it or constructing multiplex/commercial complex on it or altering its condition.

(iii) by decree of the court granted in favour of the plaintiffs against the defendant, the defendant be directed to pay ₹ 5,000/- towards the cost of the legal notice.

(iv) by decree of the court granted in favour of the plaintiffs against the defendant, the plaintiffs be awarded mesne profits at the rate of ₹ 33,300/- per day from the date of filing of the suit till the date of actual possession, regarding which the court fees would be paid at the time of execution.

(v) the costs of the suit be also awarded to the plaintiffs.

Defendant's case

6. The defendant Yaduraj Narain filed his written statement in the trial court in which he accepted that the plaintiffs predecessor Raghukul Narain had conditionally gifted his land for constructing a cinema hall on it. He contended that in terms of the conditions of the gift deed, he had constructed Nandan cinema hall, after obtaining due permission and as such, complied with the conditional gift. He averred that since he had complied with the conditions of the gift, as such, the plaintiffs were not entitled to revoke the gift and take any other action against him. He specifically pleaded that after the execution of the gift deed dated 8.2.1968 and 30.10.1968, he had constructed Nandan cinema hall in the year 1974, after taking due permission and had operated the cinema hall on the gifted land, in accordance with the terms of the gift deed for a period of 53 years, and as such, the plaintiffs had no right to revoke the gift in the year 2021.

7. The defendant further averred that it was not mentioned in both the gift deeds that in future, in any situation whatsoever, the land would not be used for any other purpose. It was further submitted that keeping in view the prevailing situation, a building plan was submitted to the Meerut Development Authority for reconstruction/ remodelling the Nandan cinema hall, which was duly approved by the Meerut Development Authority, in accordance with the UP government order, which encouraged cinema business. The defendant further averred that previously he was using the land after constructing a cinema hall on it and subsequently also, he will utilise the land for operating a cinema hall on it. It was further averred that in the revenue records, the name of defendant has been mutated and as such, he is the owner of the gifted land, in accordance with the provisions of the Transfer of Property Act, from which he cannot be divested.

8. It was further averred that if, it is presumed that the gift deeds are null and void ab-initio then, since the defendant is in, hostile, open, continuous possession of the gifted land for 53 years, as such, he has perfected title of the gifted land on the basis of adverse possession and on this ground, the plaintiffs suit for the relief of possession is barred by limitation. It was further submitted that since the defendant is the owner of the gifted land as such, the plaintiffs are not entitled to get any mesne profit. The plaintiffs suit is barred by Section 38 and 41 of the Specific Relief Act. The defendant is the true owner of the disputed land as such, against the true owner, the plaintiffs are not entitled to get the relief of permanent injunction.

9. It was further averred that the defendant is constructing a multiplex on the gifted land, with all the modern facilities, whose budgeted cost of construction is about ₹ 20 crores and till date, the defendant has spent about ₹ 2 crores and on the spot, construction material of about ₹70 lakhs is lying and if the defendant is restrained from construction, then he will suffer monetary loss as well as physical damage, because basement has been dug. It was submitted that the plaintiffs suit has only been filed to harass the defendant and as such, it be dismissed with a special costs of ₹ 5 lakhs.

10. The plaintiffs filed replica in the trial court in which, they reiterated the plaint submissions and denied the averments of the defendant. It was reiterated that the gift was conditional, according to which cinema hall had to be constructed on the gifted land and further, the gifted land could have only been used for constructing a cinema hall on it and the ownership rights in the gifted land never devolved on the defendant. The possession of the defendant always remained permissive. It was further averred that after demolishing the cinema hall, the defendant has started constructing a multiplex/ shopping complex, which the defendant has got no right to do, which proves that the defendant has violated the conditions of the gift deed and as such, the plaintiffs have a right to revoke the gift and claim back the possession of the gifted land.

11. The trial court on the basis of the pleadings of the parties, framed the following issues on 6.9.2022, which read as under:-

(i) Whether the plaintiffs, on the basis of the plaint averments, are entitled to get back the vacant possession of the property mentioned in schedule A and B, at the end of the plaint?

(ii) Whether the plaintiffs, on the basis of plaint averments, are entitled to get the relief of permanent injunction regarding the disputed property?

(iii) Whether no cause of action has arisen to the plaintiffs for filing the suit?

(iv) Whether the plaintiffs are entitled to get the costs of notice amounting to ₹ 5,000/- from the defendant?

(v) Whether the plaintiffs are entitled to get mesne profits at the rate of ₹ 33,300/- per day, regarding the disputed property?

(vi) Whether the plaintiffs suit is undervalued?

(vii) Whether the court fees paid is insufficient?

(viii) Whether the plaintiffs suit is barred by limitation?

(ix) Whether the plaintiffs suit is barred by Section 38 and 41 of the Specific Relief Act?

(x) Whether the plaintiffs are entitled to get any other relief?

12. During trial, on behalf of the plaintiffs Amit Narain Singh Tyagi was examined as PW-1 and on behalf of the defendant, Devesh Narain was examined as DW-1.

13. The trial court vide judgment and decree dated 16.3.2024 has dismissed the plaintiffs suit. The trial court decided issue number 1,2,4,5,6,10 in favour of the defendant and issue No.3,7,8,9 was decided in favour of the plaintiff.

14. Learned counsel for the plaintiff - appellants submitted that the donor gifted the land only for the purpose of constructing cinema hall on it, and the defendant after accepting the conditional gift, was bound to obey the conditions of the gift. Learned counsel submitted that the defendant after having accepted the conditional gift and constructing a cinema hall on it, was not entitled to demolish the cinema hall and in its place, construct a multiplex/shopping complex, which amounts to violation of the terms of the gift deed as such, the plaintiffs are entitled to revoke the gift and claim back the possession of the gifted land. Learned counsel further submitted that the donee was never permitted to change the usage of the land, which was supposed to be used for constructing only cinema hall, but by constructing a multiplex/shopping complex the donee -defendant has changed the usage of the land, which was not permitted in terms of the gift deed. The defendant has admitted that he is constructing a multiplex/shopping complex on the disputed land after obtaining permission and after getting sanctioned the building plan from the Meerut Development Authority, as such, the defendant cannot be permitted to change the usage of the gifted land. Learned counsel further submitted that the trial court has erred in overlooking the above facts and has recorded a perverse finding that the defendant has duly complied with the terms and conditions of the gift, after having operated for more than 53 years, cinema hall on the disputed land, as such, the plaintiffs are not entitled for the reliefs sought in the plaint. Learned counsel further submitted that since no duration for operating the cinema hall was mentioned in the gift deed as such, a cinema hall once constructed on the gifted land, was supposed to remain in existence forever and by demolishing the cinema hall in the year 2021, the defendant has violated the terms and conditions of the gift, as such the plaintiff -appellants are entitled to get their suit decreed.

15. Per contra, learned counsel for the defendant- respondent submitted that the donee-defendant had accepted the conditional gift in the year 1968 and had accordingly, after obtaining due permission from the concerned authorities, constructed Nandan cinema hall in the year 1974 on the gifted land, and thereafter, operated the cinema hall for 47 years, till the year 2021. Learned counsel further submitted that after having constructed and operated the cinema hall on the gifted land for 53 years, the donee has fully complied with the terms of the gift deed. Learned counsel further submitted that since no duration was mentioned in the gift deed for which the cinema hall , after construction ,was to remain functional or to remain in existence, as such, it cannot be interpreted in the manner, that forever cinema hall had to be operated on the gifted land. Learned counsel further submitted that the defendant has keeping in view the changing times and taste of the people, to remain profitable in the cinema business, has only demolished the old Nandan cinema hall which was having only one screen, and by constructing a multiplex in its place, which is also a modern cinema hall having three screens. Also, as per the prevailing trend in the multiplexes there are several shops which sell coffee, sweets, popcorn, etc. catering to the demand of the viewers, which cannot be deemed as changing the usage of the gifted land. Learned counsel further submitted that the dominant purpose of the multiplex is to screen movies to the viewers as such, it cannot be said that by demolishing a single screen cinema hall and by constructing in its place a multiplex having three screens, a change of usage has been effected by the donee. With these submissions, it was prayed that the appeal has got no merits and it be dismissed.

16. Learned counsel for the defendant-respondent in support of his submissions has placed reliance upon the following judgments:-

(i) N.P. Saseendran vs. N.P. Ponnamma and Others 2025 SCC OnLine SC 626

(ii) Sridhar and Another vs. N. Revanna and Others (2020) 11 SCC 221

(iii) Narmadaben Maganlal Thakker vs. Pranjivandas Maganlal Thakkerand Others (1997) 2 SCC 255

(iv) Renikuntla Rajamma(Dead) By Legal Representatives vs. K. Sarwanamma (2014) 9 SCC 445

(v) Rajvir Singh vs. Randhir Singh 2024 SCC OnLine ALL 6235

(vi) Asokan vs Lakshmikutty and Others (2007) 13 SCC 210

17. I've heard the learned counsel of both the sides and perused the trial court record and the case law submitted by the learned counsel.

18. The judgments cited by the learned counsel for the defendant-respondent pertain to cases where either the character or nature of the gift deed was in dispute, or where the donor had created a life interest in the subject matter of the gift. However, such issues do not arise in the present case, as neither the character nor the nature of the gift deed is under challenge, nor has the donor created any life interest in the subject matter through the said gift deeds.

Therefore, the cited judgments are distinguishable and have no application to the facts and circumstances of the present case.

19. On the basis of the arguments of the learned counsel of the parties, the following issues arise for determination, in this appeal:-

(1) Whether the gift deeds were conditional? If yes, then what were the conditions of the gift?

(2) Whether the defendant has complied with the conditions of the gift?

(3) Whether the gift is revocable in the year 2021,after the donee having completed the construction of Nandan cinema hall in the year 1974, and keeping it functional for 47 years?

20. The controversy in this appeal hinges on the interpretation of the gift deeds executed by the predecessor of the plaintiffs Raghukul Narain(donor) wayback in the year 1968, in favour of the defendant(donee). For appreciating the controversy in issue, it will be appropriate to reproduce the relevant recitals of the gift deeds, which read as under(translated in English, from Hindi):-

First Gift Deed Dated 8.02.1968/24.02.1968

"I Raghukul Narain son of Raghunandan Richpal caste Tyagi resident of Mohalla Dhalampara Meerut, is the owner of land having area of 1104 square yards, which is shown in red colour in the annexed map, situated in khasra No. 4352 Garhmukteshwar Road, near Sohrab Gate, Meerut. My nephew Yaduraj's land is adjoining to my land, who intends to construct a cinema hall on his land, but since his land is insufficient, according to the bye laws, for constructing a cinema hall, as such he requires my land. Hence, I on my sweet will and consent ,gift the above land admeasuring 1104 square yards to Yaduraj Narain on the condition that if ,Yaduraj Narain is granted permission for constructing cinema hall then, he will construct the cinema hall and he will be entitled to use the gifted land for operating cinema hall on it but if, due to any reason, permission is not granted or if cinema hall is not constructed then, the gifted land will revert back to me or my successors, whoever is alive at that time and further, Yaduraj Narain will have no right to use the gifted land for any other purpose and the gift has been accepted with the above condition, by Yaduraj Narain. Both the parties and their successor will be bound by the above conditions."

Second Gift Deed Dated 30.10.1968/8.11.1968

"I Raghukul Narain son of Raghunandan Richpal caste Tyagi resident of Mohalla Dhalampara Meerut, is the owner of two pieces of land having area of 466.66 and 35(for passage) square yards, which are shown in red colour in the annexed map, situated in khasra No. 4352 Garhmukteshwar Road, near Sohrab Gate, Meerut. My nephew Yaduraj's land is adjoining to my above land, who intends to construct a cinema hall on his land, but since my land is also required, according to the cinema bye laws, hence I gift the above two pieces of land ,having market value of ₹ 10,000 on my sweet will and volition ,to Yaduraj Narain on the condition that if, Yaduraj Narain is granted permission for constructing cinema hall and if, he construct's a cinema hall then, he will be entitled to use both the gifted land as owner, but if, due to any reason, permission is not granted for constructing the cinema hall or if,cinema hall is not constructed then, I will be entitled to take back the possession of the larger piece of the gifted land having area of 466.66 square yards and further, Yaduraj Narain shall have no right to use the larger piece of land for any other purpose, but the smaller piece of land can be used as passage by me and Yaduraj Narain and this cannot be taken back.The gift has been accepted with the above condition by Yaduraj Narain. Both the parties and their successors will be bound by the above conditions."

21. It is pertinent to mention here that there is no dispute regarding the execution of the gift deeds by the donor and its, acceptance by the donee. There is also no dispute that the gift deeds were got fradulently executed from the donor. The only dispute is regarding the interpretation of the conditions of the gift deeds.

22. From the recitals of the gift deeds mentioned hereinabove, the following facts are apparent:-

(i) the land of donor and donee were situated adjacent to each other.

(ii) the donee wanted to construct a cinema hall on his land ,but it was insufficient according to the bye-laws applicable for constructing a cinema hall, as such, the donor gifted his adjoining land, to enable the donee to get the cinema hall constructed on the gifted land.

(iii) the donor exclusively gifted his land for constructing cinema hall on it and the donee was not permitted to use the gifted land for any other purpose/usage.

(iv) the donor gifted his land with the condition that the donee will obtain necessary permission from the authorities for constructing the cinema hall on the gifted land and if, the permission is granted, then, the donee will construct the cinema hall on the gifted land.

(v) the donor also stipulated in the gift deed that if, for any reason whatsoever, the donee is not able to obtain permission for constructing the cinema hall on the gifted land, or if the cinema hall was not constructed on the gifted land, then, the donee will not be able to use the gifted land for any other purpose/usage and in that situation, he will be entitled to take back the possession of the gifted land.

23.The Apex Court in the case of Annaya Kocha Shetty (Dead) through Lrs vs. Laxmibai Narayan Satose Since deceased through Lrs. and Others 2025 SCC OnLine SC 758 , while elucidating how to interpret the terms of a contract, held as under:-

"16. The circumstances dealing with the dispute between the parties are stated in required detail in the preceding paragraphs. At the outset, let us refer to the ratio of this Court in Provash Chandra Dalui (supra) on the construction of the basic agreement between the plaintiff and the defendant. This Court held that the court must look at the words used in the contract unless they are such that one may suspect that they do not covey the intention correctly. If the words are clear, there is very little the court can do about it. In constructing a deed, looking at the surrounding circumstances and subject matter is legitimate only if the words used are doubtful.

17. The guide to the construction of deeds and tools adopted can broadly be summarised as follows:

17.1 The contract is first constructed in its plain, ordinary and literal meaning. This is also known as the literal rule of construction.

17.2 If there is an absurdity created by literally reading the contract, a shift from literal rule may be allowed. This construction is generally called the golden rule of construction.

17.3 Lastly, the contract may be purposively constructed in light of its object and context to determine the purpose of the contract. This approach must be used cautiously.

18. The construction of a deed is "generally speaking, a matter of law." However, when there is an ambiguity in the deed, determining its meaning is a mixed question of fact and law.7 This concept is encapsulated by sections 91 and 92 of the Evidence Act, 1872.

18.1 Section 91 of the Evidence Act, 1872 denotes that a deed constitutes the primary evidence of the terms to which the parties are to adhere. Whereas section 92 of the Evidence Act, 1872 forbids any contradictions or variations in a written document by extrinsic evidence.8 However, there are exceptions outlined in the proviso to section 92, that allow variations from this general rule:

"92. Exclusion of evidence of oral agreement. - "When the terms of any such contract, grant or other disposition of property, or any matter required by law to be reduced to the form of a document have been proved according to the last section, no evidence of any oral agreement or statement shall be admitted, as between the parties to any such instrument or their representatives in interest, for the purpose of contradicting, varying, adding to, or subtracting from, its terms;

Proviso (1) : Any fact may be proved which would invalidate any document, or which would entitle any person to any decree or order relating thereto; such as fraud, intimidation, illegality, want of due execution, want of capacity in any contracting party want or failure of consideration, or mistake in fact or law:

Proviso (2) : The existence of any separate oral agreement as to any matter on which a document is silent, and which is not inconsistent with its terms, may be proved. In considering whether or not this proviso applies, the Court shall have regard to the degree of formality of the document:

Proviso (3) : The existence of any separate oral agreement, constituting a condition precedent to the attaching of any obligation under any such contract, grant or disposition of property, may be proved.

Proviso (4) : The existence of any distinct subsequent oral agreement to rescind or modify any such contract, grant or disposition of property, may be proved, except in cases in which such contract, grant or disposition of property is by law required to be in writing, or has been registered according to the law in force for the time being as to the registration of documents.

Proviso (5) : Any usage or custom by which incidents not expressly mentioned in any contract are usually annexed to contracts of that description, may be proved; Provided that the annexing of such incident would not be repugnant to, or inconsistent with the express terms of the contract:

Proviso (6) : Any fact may be proved which shows in what manner the language of a document is related to existing facts."

18.2 The subtle distinction in the point of law, as carved out by the provisos, is that the evidence to vary the terms of an agreement in writing is not admissible, but evidence to show that there is no agreement in the first place is admissible.9 Thus, unless the grounds fall within the provisos read with the illustrations to section 92, there is a bar on adducing oral evidence."

24. Section 126 of the Transfer of Property Act deals when gift may be suspended or revoked. The section reads as under:-

"126. When gift may be suspended or revoked .— The donor and donee may agree that on the happening of any specified event which does not depend on the will of the donor a gift shall be suspended or revoked; but a gift which the parties agree shall be revocable wholly or in part, at the mere will of the donor, is void wholly or in part, as the case may be.

A gift may also be revoked in any of the cases (save want or failure of consideration) in which, if it were a contract, it might be rescinded.

Save as aforesaid, a gift cannot be revoked.

Nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to affect the rights of transferees for consideration without notice."

25. The Apex Court in the case of R Thajudeen vs. Tamil Nadu Khadi and Village Industries Board (2024) SCC OnLine SC 3037, held as under:-

"14. Section 126 of the Act is drafted in a peculiar way in the sense that it contains the exceptions to the substantive law first and then the substantive law. The substantive law as is carved out from the simple reading of the aforesaid provision is that a gift cannot be revoked except in the cases mentioned earlier. The said exceptions are three in number; the first part provides that the donor and donee may agree for the suspension or revocation of the gift deed on the happening of any specified event which does not depend on the will of the donor*. Secondly, a gift which is revocable wholly or in part with the agreement of the parties, at the mere will of the donor is void wholly or in part as the case may be. Thirdly, a gift may be revoked if it were in the nature of a contract which could be rescinded.*

15. In simpler words, ordinarily a gift deed cannot be revoked except for the three contingencies mentioned above. The first is where the donor and the donee agree for its revocation on the happening of any specified event. In the gift deed, there is no such indication that the donor and donee have agreed for the revocation of the gift deed for any reason much less on the happening of any specified event. Therefore, the first exception permitting revocation of the gift deed is not attracted in the case at hand. Secondly, a gift deed would be void wholly or in part, if the parties agree that it shall be revocable wholly or in part at the mere will of the donor. In the present case, there is no agreement between the parties for the revocation of the gift deed wholly or in part or at the mere will of the donor. Therefore, the aforesaid condition permitting revocation or holding such a gift deed to be void does not apply. Thirdly, a gift is liable to be revoked in a case where it is in the nature of a contract which could be rescinded. The gift under consideration is not in the form of a contract and the contract, if any, is not liable to be rescinded. Thus, none of the exceptions permitting revocation of the gift deed stands attracted in the present case. Thus, leading to the only conclusion that the gift deed, which was validly made, could not have been revoked in any manner. Accordingly, revocation deed dated 17.08.1987 is void ab initio and is of no consequence which has to be ignored.

16. The non-utilisation of the suit property for manufacturing Khadi Lungi and Khadi Yarns etc., the purpose set out in the gift deed, and keeping the same as vacant may be a disobedience of the object of the gift but that by itself would not attract the power to revoke the gift deed. There is no stipulation in the gift deed that if the suit property is not so utilised, the gift would stand revoked or would be revoked at the discretion of the donor."

26. The Apex Court in the case of J Radha Krishna vs. Pagadala Bharathi and Another 2025 SCC OnLine SC 1447, held as under:-

"3. It is not in dispute that Shri KVG Murthy, had executed a document dated 10.01.1986 (Ex.B.1) - Gift Deed though claimed as settlement deed by the appellant - in favour of the respondent, the alleged foster daughter namely Pagadala Bharathi. The said document was subsequently cancelled by way of deed of cancellation dated 30.12.1986, whereafter on 30.09.1992, Shri KVG Murthy executed a Will in favour of his brother's son. The High Court while appreciating the evidence and statutory mechanism in place, more specifically Section 126 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, in para 19 has returned the findings as under: —

"19. As stated above, under Section 126 of the Act, if a gift is to be revoked or suspended there should be a right reserved. In fact, the evidence of PW.1, who is the plaintiff in the suit, only shows that a donor has executed the gift deed in favour of defendant no. 1 with the hope that she will look after him till his death. As defendant No. 1 was not looking after him, the settlement deed was cancelled. Therefore, it is a clear admission of a valid execution of the gift deed Ex.B.1 and no other proof is required. So far as the right of the deceased to cancel the gift deed for failure to maintain or look after the donor is concerned, the evidence of PW.1 does not show that at the time of execution of Ex.B.1, there was such an understanding between the donor and the first defendant. In the absence of such agreement, Section 126 of the Act cannot be relied upon when there is no right reserved or understanding entered into between the donor and donee*. Therefore, the decision first referred supra cannot be pressed into for the benefit of the respondent herein. In fact, the law of this aspect is very clear and the courts have repeatedly held a settlement deed once executed cannot be cancelled. In this connection it is useful to refer to a decision* reported in Namburi Basava Subrahmanyam v. Alapati Hymavathi (1996) 9 SCC 388, wherein their lordships after considering the interpretation of the document as a Will or a settlement deed found that the document was a settlement deed creating vested reminder and the said settlement deed subsequently cannot be cancelled by bequeathing the same property in favour of other. In a decision reported in M. Venkatasubbaiah v. M. Subbamma 1955 SCC OnLine AP 202, it was held that-

"A gift subject to the condition that the donee should maintain the donor cannot be revoked under Section 126 of the failure of the donee to maintain the donor firstly for the reason that here is no agreement between the parties that the gift should be either suspended or revoked; and secondly this should not depend on the Will of the donor. Again, the failure of the donee to maintain the donor as undertaken by him in the document is not a contingency which could defeat the gift. All that could be said is that the default of the donee in that behalf amounts to want of consideration. Section 126 itself provides against the revocation of a document of gift for the failure of consideration. If the donee does not maintain the donor as agreed to by him the latter could take proper steps to recover maintenance etc. It is not open to a settler to revoke a settlement at his will and pleasure and he has to get it set aside in a court of law by putting forward such pleas as bear on the invalidity of gift deed".

27. It is clear from section 126 of the Transfer of Property Act that the donor and donee may agree that on happening of any specified event ,which does not depend on the will of the donor, a gift shall be revoked. It is also apparent that at the mere will of the donor, a gift cannot be revoked. It is also apparent that a gift is like a contract, which can be rescinded like a contract, save for want or failure of consideration.

28. From the law laid down by the Apex Court in the case of Annaya Kocha Shetty (supra) , R Thajudeen (supra), J Radha Krishna (supra) it is evident, that the intention of the parties is to be ascertained while interpreting the contract. If the words of the contract are unambiguous than there is very little the court can do about it. It is also apparent that the surrounding circumstances and the subject matter, is also to be considered. It is also apparent that if, an absurdity is created by literally reading a contract, then a contract may not be literally interpreted. It is also apparent that a contract must be purposely constructed in the light of its object and context to determine the purpose of the contract.

29. Amit Narain Singh Tyagi PW-1 deposed and proved in his examination-in-chief, the plaint averments. He proved the plaint case. He disclosed in the cross-examination that Raghukul Narain died on 23.2.1986 and the plaintiffs filed the suit on 13.12.2021 and at the time of the filing of the suit, his father Rajeev Tyagi had died. He admitted that both the gift deeds were executed prior to his birth. He admitted that after the year 1968, the defendant had obtained permission for constructing the cinema hall and had also constructed the cinema hall, which had started functioning in the year 1974, as Nandan cinema, which remained functional till the year 2021. He feigned ignorance about the cycle stand, betel shop, eatables shop,etc. being situated inside the Nandan cinema hall. He also admitted that the donor had neither cancelled the gift deeds in his lifetime nor initiated any cancellation proceedings. After perusing the letter dated 27.4.2019 of Additional District Magistrate(Administration) Meerut sanctioning the building plan, he admitted that the defendant's son Divesh Narain has been granted permission to demolish the closed cinema hall and constructing in its place, a commercial complex, having all the modern amenities, including cinema house of small capacity, under the scheme facilitating such construction. He also admitted, after perusing the khatauni, that the current owner is the defendant Yaduraj Narain Singh. He also admitted that in the proposed multiplex, three small cinema halls will be constructed and the permission for constructing multiplex has not been opposed by the Additional Commissioner, Entertainment tax, Department because such permission, has been granted to facilitate the construction of multiplex having modern amenities, including small cinema halls. He also accepted that the deed which was executed in the year 1968, was a gift deed,and not a lease deed. He also admitted that in both the gift deeds, the word licensee has not been used. He stated that the gift deeds became void, when the cinema hall was demolished. He also admitted that in the gift deeds, it is not mentioned that the defendant will never demolish the cinema hall.

30. The defendant's son Devesh Narain DW-1, being the power-of-attorney holder of the defendant, proved the submissions of the written statement in his examination- in-chief. He deposed that it is nowhere mentioned in the gift deeds that in the future, in any situation whatsoever, the land would not be used for any other purpose. He further deposed that in accordance with the changing demands of the viewers, a building plan for reconstruction /remodelling of the Nandan cinema hall was submitted to the Meerut Development Authority, Meerut which was sanctioned by it. He further deposed that the sanction was accorded, keeping in view the policy of the State government for facilitating the cinema business, after complying with the terms and conditions of the relevant government order. He further deposed that the defendant had previously utilised the land for cinema hall and in future also, the land would be utilised for that purpose. He further deposed that the defendant's name is recorded in the relevant khatauni. He further deposed that after construction of Nandan cinema hall, the defendant has acquired ownership of the gifted land, from which he cannot be divested. He further deposed that if the gift deeds are null and void ab-initio, even then, since the defendant is in open, hostile and continuous possession of the land for more than 12 years, as such, the defendant has become owner of the disputed land on the basis of adverse possession. He further deposed that the construction of multiplex would cost around ₹ 20 crores, out of which about 4 crores have already been spent, and if, the construction of multiplex is stopped, then the defendant shall suffer huge loss.

31. DW-1 deposed in cross-examination that after the construction of Nandan cinema hall in the year 1974, the defendant had become owner of the land. He admitted that there was a condition in the gift deed that the defendant had to construct cinema hall on the gifted land, after obtaining permission and it was stipulated that, if the cinema hall is constructed, then the defendant will acquire the ownership of the gifted land. He admitted that the defendant had accepted the conditions mentioned in the gift deed. He admitted that the multiplex will consist of three small cinema halls and it will also have commercial amenities and the multiplex will be five storeyed building.

32. It is evident from the gift deed that the donor had gifted the land to enable the donee to construct a cinema hall on the gifted land after obtaining permission, under the bye-laws regulating the construction of cinema halls, and if such permission was not granted to the donee, then it was expressly agreed that the gifted land would not be used for any other purpose and further if, the donee failed to construct the cinema hall, then the donor would be entitled to take back the gifted land. It is also not disputed that in the year 1974 the construction of the Nandan cinema hall was completed on the gifted land, which remained functional till the year 2021, till then no dispute arose between the donor and the donee.

33. It is also apparent that no time limit was mentioned in the gift deeds, in which the donee had to construct the cinema hall on the gifted land, as such, it has to be interpreted that the parties intended the construction to take place within a reasonable time. In the instant case, after the execution of gift deeds in the year 1968, Nandan cinema hall was constructed, which started functioning in the year 1974, which remained functional, until it was demolished for constructing a multiplex/commercial complex in the year 2021. It is evident that the cinema hall remained functional for about 47 years.

34. Now the question that arises is, whether after having constructed and operated the cinema hall for about 47 years, can it be said that the donee has not complied with the terms and conditions of the gift, so as to enable the successors of donor to revoke the gift and claim back the possession of the gifted land?

35. It is also to be examined whether by demolishing the cinema hall and constructing in its place, a multiplex/commercial complex, can amount to change of usage of the gifted land?

36. It is very much apparent from the gift deeds that the sole purpose of the gift was to enable the donee to construct cinema hall on the gifted land, after taking due permission from the concerned authorities, in accordance with the bye-laws prevailing at that time. The donee after accepting the gift,duly obtained the requisite permission from the concerned authorities, under the relevant bye-laws and thereafter, started construction of the cinema hall, which was completed in the year 1974, which came to be known as Nandan cinema hall. The cinema hall remained functional till the year 2021, when it was demolished for constructing a multiplex, keeping in view, the changing times and attitude/taste of viewers, who intended to visit the cinema hall, otherwise the donee would not have survived in this business. It is the specific assertion of the defendant that the multiplex was constructed only because the people preferred to watch movies in the multiplexes and if the donee, had not constructed the multiplex, then he would not have survived in this business. It is also apparent that in modern multiplexes there are shops, which sell eatables, confectionery items, beverages, restaurants, to cater to the culinary requirements of the cinema goers.

37. If the condition mentioned in the gift deed is interpreted in the manner that after having once constructed a cinema hall on the gifted land, the donee was forever required to maintain that building, even when, it became dilapidated, outdated, then it will amount to an absurd condition. It is very much apparent that the concept of multiplex was not in existence in the year 1968, when the land was gifted to the donee for constructing cinema hall on it, as such, it would never have been contemplated by the parties, that in future, after about 50 years, a time will come, when people will stop visiting old-fashioned cinema halls and instead, they will prefer watching the movie in a multiplex, having modern amenities. In view of this, the gift deed cannot be interpreted in a manner, which prevents the donee from demolishing the cinema hall, even after 47 years of its existence. If the interpretation suggested by the learned counsel of the appellant is accepted ,then it will amount to an absurd interpretation of the gift deed, which is impermissible.

38. It is also apparent that the dominant purpose of the multiplex remains screening of movies, providing entertainment to the people. Only the subsidiary purpose is to provide eatables to the cinema goers, and affording some shopping opportunities to them. Generally, the people who desire to watch a movie, visit the multiplex. The primary purpose of majority of people visiting multiplex, is to watch a movie.

39. Since the donee-defendant has duly complied with the conditions of the gift by constructing a cinema hall on the gifted land and operating it for about 47 years, in my opinion, it cannot be said that the donee has violated the terms of the gift deeds and in view of this, the condition of the gift having been fulfilled, the successors of the donor are not entitled to revoke the gift and take back the possession of the gifted land, from the donee. Once the conditions of the gift have been complied with, the donor is divested of the ownership rights in the gifted land and as such, the donor cannot claim back the ownership and possession of the gifted land. After having fulfilled the conditions of the gift by constructing and operating the cinema hall for about 47 years, having become the owner of the gifted land, the donee-defendant cannot be prevented from demolishing the old cinema hall and constructing in its place, a modern multiplex having some shops providing eatables to the cinema goers and also affording some shopping opportunities to them.

40. In the above facts and circumstances, in my opinion, the trial court has not committed any error in concluding that the donee - defendant has not violated the terms of the gift deeds and as such, the plaintiffs have got no right to revoke the gift after about 53 years and claim back the possession of the gifted land. In view of the above discussion, this appeal has got no merits and is liable to be dismissed.

41. Accordingly, this appeal is dismissed. Consequently, the impugned judgment and decree dated 16.3.2024 passed by the trial court in OS No. 1510 of 2021 is affirmed.

42. However, in the facts and circumstances of the case, the parties shall bear their respective costs. Office is directed to prepare the decree, accordingly.

43. Original trial court record, if received, be sent back forthwith.

44. Interim order, if any, stands vacated.

Issue for Consideration

Issue pertains to whether the trial court, after finding the plaintiff's suit to be barred by Section 331 of U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act for want of jurisdiction, was justified in adjudicating the matter on merits, or whether it was legally bound to return plaint under O. VII R. 10 CPC for presentation before the court of competent jurisdiction.

Headnotes

Uttar Pradesh Zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Act, 1950 - s. 331 - Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 - O. 7 R. 10 - Plaintiff - appellant instituted Original Suit No. 801 of 2007 before Court of Additional Civil Judge (Senior Division), Nagina, Bijnor, seeking a decree of permanent injunction and declaration in respect of property situated in Mauja Rashidpur Satidas, within the limits of Nagar Palika Parishad, Nagina, claiming ownership over 99% of said property on the basis of alleged oral gift (hiba) made first in favour of his father by other co-sharers, and thereafter by his father in favour of plaintiff himself - It was alleged that defendant's predecessor in collusion with revenue officials, had fraudulently procured mutation of his name in Khatauni, thereby depriving the plaintiff and his predecessors of their rightful entries - Defendant contested the claim, asserting his recorded title and continuous possession for over fifty years - Trial court, upon appraisal of evidence, held that plaintiff failed to establish the alleged oral gifts and revenue entries enjoyed a presumption of correctness, further concluding that civil court lacked jurisdiction u/s. 331 of Act, 1950 - Consequently, suit was dismissed, leading to instant first appeal before High Court.

Held: Plaintiff has sought the relief of permanent injunction, but his name is not recorded as tenure holder in revenue records - He has claimed that defendant and his predecessors have illegally got recorded their name in revenue records, whereas, his and his predecessors name, should have been recorded in revenue record - It is apparent that plaintiff has to seek declaration of his title in disputed land, from the revenue court and without getting any declaration, relief of injunction cannot be granted to plaintiff - Further without correction of revenue entries, plaintiff cannot be granted any relief and jurisdiction of correction of revenue entries lies with revenue court, as such, trial court has not committed any illegality in holding that plaintiff's suit is barred by Section 331 of U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act, 1950, but trial court has committed legal error in examining the case on merits - Trial court should not have examined the case on merits and simply should have decided the case on jurisdictional issue - Since the trial court had no jurisdiction to decide suit, thus, it was also not vested with legal jurisdiction to examine the merits of case - Trial court has legally erred in deciding the suit - It is apparent from the law laid down by Apex Court in EXL Careers & Another(infra) that where the court has no jurisdiction, then plaint has to be returned in view of provisions of O. 7 R. 10 CPC to enable the plaintiff to present it before court having competent jurisdiction - It is also apparent that court of appeal or revision may also direct, after setting aside the decree passed in suit, return of plaint for presenting it before court of competent jurisdiction - Thus, trial court has committed legal error in dismissing suit for want of jurisdiction and not returning the plaint to plaintiff, to enable him to present it before court of competent jurisdiction - Accordingly, appeal is allowed and trial court's judgment and decree set aside. APPELLATE JURISDICTION: First Appeal No. - 641 of 2025

From the Judgment and Decree dated 13.02.2023 passed by the Court of Additional Civil Judge (Senior Division), Nagina Bijnor in Original Suit No.801 of 2007

Appearances for Parties

(Delivered by Hon'ble Sandeep Jain, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for the plaintiff-appellant and defendant-respondent.

2. Appeal is admitted.

3. The instant first appeal under Section 96 C.P.C. has been filed by the plaintiff-appellant against the judgment and decree dated 13.02.2023 passed by the Court of Additional Civil Judge (Senior Division), Nagina Bijnor in Original Suit No.801 of 2007 (Iqbal Ahmad vs. Mohiyuddin), whereby the plaintiff's suit for the relief of permanent injunction and declaration has been rejected.

4. Factual matrix is that the plaintiff filed O.S. No.801 of 2007 against the defendant in the lower court with the averments that as per khewat no.11, there is an orchard in khasra no.165, current no.165(b) area 1-13-0 in Mauja Rashidpur Satidas falling within the boundaries of Nagar Palika Parishad, Nagina, which is currently known as Mohalla Pahadi Darwaja, Nagina, in which Rahmat-ul-nisha (plaintiff's paternal grand mother), Nazar Ahmad, Umar, Saeed Ahmad (plaintiff's father), Batul, Zafar Ali, Mariyam, Akhtari, Mohd. Mehendi, Mohd. Aslam, Aamna, Kudasia, Umatul Aziza and Ruqayya were the owners in possession alongwith defendants' predecessor Zafaryab Hussain.

5. It is the case of the plaintiff that except Zafaryab Hussain, all other above named persons, had executed an oral gift (hiba) at some point, in favour of his father Saeed Ahmad, which was accepted by him, alongwith the possession of the gifted property.

6. According to the plaintiff, after the acceptance of the above oral gift (hiba), his father became owner of the 99% of the above named property, situated in khewat no.11. It is the case of the plaintiff that his father had orally gifted (hiba), the above property to him, about 25 years back and he had accepted the gift, alongwith the possession of the gifted property.

7. It is the case of the plaintiff that since some share in the disputed property belonged to the predecessor of the defendant Zafaryab Hussain, who with the connivance of the revenue officers had got mutated his name fraudulently in the revenue records, whereas, the name of his predecessors was deliberately left out, which should have been entered in the revenue records. The plaintiff has further averred that on the basis of the above illegal revenue entry, the predecessor of the defendant, as well as the defendant, had illegally tried to usurp the disputed land. The plaintiff has further averred that the Khatauni submitted by the defendant, paper no. 47C in the trial court, is fraudulent and illegal, because it has been prepared in collusion and connivance with the revenue officials, which needs to be corrected by the Court.

8. When the defendant refused to get corrected the relevant Khatauni entries, then the plaintiff has filed the suit in the lower court with the following reliefs:-

(i) That by decree of permanent injunction granted in favour of the plaintiff against the defendant, the defendant be restrained from interfering in the 99% share of the plaintiff in Khasara no. 165, current no. 165 (b) area 1?3?0 Mauja Rashidpur, Satidas.

(ii) That by decree of the court, it be declared that the Khatauni paper no.C-47, C-48 and C-49 are fraudulent and incorrect, and consequently, the revenue authorities be directed to correct the above revenue entries by recording the ownership of the plaintiff in 99% of the disputed property on the basis of oral gift (hiba) made in his favour by his predecessors.

9. It is apparent that the plaintiff has filed the suit claiming to be the owner of 99% of the disputed property on the basis of oral gift (hiba), executed in his favour, by his predecessors. It is also apparent that the plaintiff is not the recorded tenure holder, but he is seeking permanent injunction, which cannot be granted without seeking any relief of declaration of title, which can only be granted by the revenue court.

10. In the trial court, the defendant resisted the claim of the plaintiff on the ground that he is the recorded tenure holder in khewat No. 11 for the last 50 years, which conclusively proved his title in the disputed property. It was further averred by him that the plaintiff has failed to prove when the disputed property was orally gifted(hiba), in accordance with law, to his predecessors. The defendant also averred that the plaintiff has not been able to prove that the revenue entries are fraudulent.

11. On the basis of pleadings of the parties, the trial court framed the following issues:-

(i) Whether the plaintiff is entitled to get the relief on the basis of plaint averments?

(ii) Whether the plaintiff has got any cause of action against the defendant?

(iii) Whether the suit is under valued?

(iii) Whether the court fees paid is insufficient?

(iv) Whether the plaintiff is entitled to get any relief?

12. In the trial court, the plaintiff Iqbal Ahmad examined himself as PW1, Abdul Wahab as PW-2, the defendant Mohiyuddin examined himself as DW-1. Besides the above oral evidence, documentary evidence of certified copies of khewat, khatauni etc. were also filed.

13. The trial court after examining the case on merits, recorded a specific finding that the plaintiff has failed to prove, when the disputed property was orally gifted (hiba) to his predecessors. The trial court also concluded that the defendant's name is entered in the revenue records for sufficiently long duration, which raised a presumption of correctness of the revenue entries, which has not been rebutted by the plaintiff. The trial court also concluded that plaintiff has failed to adduce any evidence, to prove that the above revenue entries were fraudulent. The trial court also concluded that since the matter relates to correction of revenue entries, which cannot be granted by the civil court, as such, the plaintiff's suit is barred by Section 331 of the U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act, 1950.

14. In view of the above conclusions arrived at by the trial court, the plaintiff's suit was dismissed vide impugned judgment and decree dated 13.02.2023, aggrieved against which the plaintiff-appellant is in appeal before this Court.

15. Learned counsel for the plaintiff-appellant submitted that since the trial court has concluded that the civil court had no jurisdiction to decide the suit, which is barred under Section 331 of the U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act, 1950, as such, the trial court should not have examined the matter on merits and should have returned the plaint for presentation to the competent court of jurisdiction, instead of dismissing the suit on merits. Learned counsel further submitted that the appeal be allowed and the plaint be returned to the plaintiff, for presentation to the competent court of jurisdiction.

16. Learned counsel for the defendant-respondent submitted that the judgment of the trial court is perfectly legal, the jurisdiction for correction of revenue entries lies with the revenue court, as such, the plaintiff's suit was not legally maintainable. With these submissions, it was submitted that this appeal has no merits and is liable to be dismissed.

17. I have considered the submissions made by learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

18. It is apparent that the plaintiff has sought the relief of permanent injunction, but his name is not recorded as a tenure holder in the revenue records. The plaintiff has claimed that the defendant and his predecessors have illegally got recorded their name in the revenue records, whereas, his and his predecessors name, should have been recorded in the relevant revenue record. It is apparent that the plaintiff has to seek declaration of his title in the disputed land, from the revenue court and without getting any declaration, the relief of injunction cannot be granted to the plaintiff. It is also apparent that without correction of relevant revenue entries, the plaintiff cannot be granted any relief and the jurisdiction of correction of revenue entries lies with the revenue court, as such, the trial court has not committed any illegality in holding that the plaintiff's suit is barred by Section 331 of the U.P.Z.A. &

L.R. Act, 1950, but definitely the trial court has committed legal error in examining the case on merits. The trial court should not have examined the case on merits and simply should have decided the case on the jurisdictional issue. Since the trial court had no jurisdiction to decide the suit, as such, it was also not vested with legal jurisdiction to examine the merits of the case. To this extent, the trial court has legally erred in deciding the suit.

19. Now a question arises if the trial court had no jurisdiction to hear and decide the suit, then what was the correct legal option available to it?

20. Order 7 Rule 10 C.P.C., reads as follows:-

"10. Return of plaint- (1) Subject to the provisions of rule 10A, the plaint shall at any stage of the suit be returned to be presented to the Court in which the suit should have been instituted.

Explanation- For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that a Court of appeal or revision may direct, after setting aside the decree passed in a suit, the return of the plaint under this sub-rule.

(2) Procedure on returning plaint*- On returning a plaint, the Judge shall endorse thereon the date of its presentation and return, the name of the party presenting it, and a brief statement of the reasons for returning it."*

21. The Apex Court in the case of EXL Careers & Another vs. Frankfinn Aviation Services Private Limited, (2020) 12 SCC 667 (By 3 Judges) held as under:-

"15.Modern Construction [ONGC v. Modern Construction & Co., (2014) 1 SCC 648], referred to the consistent position in law by reference to Ramdutt Ramkissen Dass v. E.D. Sassoon & Co.[1929 SCC OnLine PC 3 : (1928-29) 56 IA 128 : AIR 1929 PC 103] , Amar Chand Inani v. Union of India (1973)1SCC115, Hanamanthappa v. Chandrashekharappa (1997) 9 SCC 688, Harshad Chimanlal Modi [Harshad Chimanlal Modi (2) v. DLF Universal Ltd., (2006) 1 SCC 364] and after also noticing Joginder Tuli [Joginder Tuli v. S.L. Bhatia, (1997) 1 SCC 502], arrived at the conclusion as follows: (Modern Construction case , SCC p. 654, para 17)

"17. Thus, in view of the above, the law on the issue can be summarised to the effect that if the court where the suit is instituted, is of the view that it has no jurisdiction, the plaint is to be returned in view of the provisions of Order 7 Rule 10 CPC and the plaintiff can present it before the court having competent jurisdiction. In such a factual matrix, the plaintiff is entitled to exclude the period during which he prosecuted the case before the court having no jurisdiction in view of the provisions of Section 14 of the Limitation Act, and may also seek adjustment of court fee paid in that court. However, after presentation before the court of competent jurisdiction, the plaint is to be considered as a fresh plaint and the trial is to be conducted de novo even if it stood concluded before the court having no competence to try the same"

"Joginder Tuli [Joginder Tuli v. S.L. Bhatia, (1997) 1 SCC 502] was also noticed in Harshad Chimanlal Modi (2) [Harshad Chimanlal Modi (2) v. DLF Universal Ltd., (2006) 1 SCC 364] but distinguished on its own facts."

22. It is apparent from the law laid down by the Apex Court in EXL Careers & Another(supra) that where the court has no jurisdiction, then plaint has to be returned in view of the provisions of Order 7 Rule 10 CPC to enable the plaintiff to present it before the court having competent jurisdiction. It is also apparent that the court of appeal or revision may also direct, after setting aside the decree passed in a suit, the return of the plaint for presenting it before the court of competent jurisdiction. It is clear that the trial court has committed legal error in dismissing the suit for want of jurisdiction and not returning the plaint to the plaintiff, to enable him to present it before the court of competent jurisdiction.

23. In view of these facts, it will be appropriate that after setting aside the impugned judgment and decree, the plaint is returned to the plaintiff to enable him to present it before the court of competent jurisdiction.

24. Accordingly, the appeal is allowed and the impugned judgment and decree of the trial court in O.S No.801 of 2007 dated 13.02.2023, is set aside.

25. The trial court is directed to return the original plaint to the plaintiff, in accordance with law. The parties shall bear their respective costs.

Issue for Consideration

Issue pertains to whether the Family Court erred in law and on facts in refusing to grant leave u/s 14(1) of Hindu Marriage Act, 1955, thereby dismissing joint application of parties seeking permission to present a petition for divorce by mutual consent before the expiry of one year from the date of marriage, on the ground of alleged exceptional hardship or depravity.

Headnotes

Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 - s. 14(1) - Appellant - husband and respondent - wife, whose marriage was solemnized on 3rd March 2025, jointly moved application before Family Court seeking leave to file petition for divorce by mutual consent before completion of one year from the date of marriage, asserting that marriage had irretrievably broken down and that exceptional hardship was being suffered by appellant owing to pendency of criminal proceedings instituted by respondent, which also hindered his plans to travel abroad - Family Court, by judgment dated 13th August 2025, dismissed the said application, holding that statutory requirement of one year's duration could not be waived in absence of proof of exceptional hardship or depravity - Aggrieved, the appellant preferred First Appeal contending that Family Court failed to appreciate the facts and law in their true perspective, particularly in light of coordinate Bench judgment in Angad Soni v. Arpita Yadav (infra), whereas respondent supported appellant's case, both parties having mutually agreed to dissolution of marriage.

Held: It is evident that parties have agreed to jointly petition for divorce by mutual consent within a short while of marriage, taken place on 3rd March, 2025, neither party has claimed exceptional depravity - Their conduct of being able to agree with each other to jointly petition for divorce by mutual consent militates against any or both of them alleging exceptional hardship - Intention of legislature is clear inasmuch as, marriage must be given a chance - Of all the provisions in Act for separation of parties, they are subject to section 14 - There can be cases of exceptional hardship and depravity, where one spouse is trying to take advantage of marriage happened - Here, both parties have joined and they have said in their joint petition, they are living separately - It was submitted that the parties stand separated from 21st March, 2025 and they stayed together for less than 20 days - In Angad Soni (infra), the coordinate Bench did not render independent determination but relied on precedents of various High Courts - No reason is made out to warrant interference with impugned judgment, which is accordingly affirmed, and appeal is dismissed. Adv. for the Respondent:

(Delivered by Hon'ble Arindam Sinha, J.)

1. Mr. Ashish Gupta, learned advocate appears on behalf of appellant-husband. He submits, his client is aggrieved by judgement dated 13th August, 2025 dismissing joint application made by the parties for allowing them to file and maintain joint petition for divorce by mutual consent. Mr. Manoj Kumar Gautam, learned advocate appears on behalf of respondent. He submits, his client supports appellant.

2. Mr. Gupta submits, the joint application was made under section 14(1) in Hindu Marriage Act, 1955. Leave ought to have been granted by the Family Court. It erred on facts as well as in law, to dismiss the application.

3 He submits, exceptional hardship is being suffered by his client. Firstly, because respondent lodged criminal complaint, pursuant to which criminal case is pending. Furthermore, his client wants to proceed abroad and this litigation prevents him.

4. He relies on judgement dated 29th May, 2025 of coordinate Bench in First Appeal Defective no. 115 of 2025 (Angad Soni Vs. Arpita Yadav). He submits, it was made on similar, if not same facts. Relied upon paragraph 14 is reproduced below.

"14. After going through the factual as well as legal aspect of the matter, it is clear that case of the appellant is also covered with the aforesaid judgements passed by various High Courts. The proviso to Section 14 (1) of the Act, 1955 is an exception to the necessity for expiration of a period of one year since the date of marriage to enable a party to file a petition for divorce. Once an application under Section 14 (1) of the Act, 1955 is filed before the court, certainly the court has to see whether there is exceptional hardship to the petitioner or exceptional depravity on the part of the respondent. In the present case, it is borne out of the record that criminal cases have been filed by the respondent and there is no chance that marriage will subsist. Therefore, the proviso to Section 14(1) of the Act, 1955 is to be invoked, so that the parties may get divorce and lead their peaceful life. Both the parties have mutually filed the divorce petition along with an application under Section 14(1) of the Act, 1955, therefore, the said application is ought to be allowed."

5. We have no hesitation to say that where the parties have agreed to jointly petition for divorce by mutual consent within a short while of the marriage, taken place on 3rd March, 2025, neither party has claimed exceptional depravity. We go further to say that their conduct of being able to agree with each other to jointly petition for divorce by mutual consent militates against any or both of them alleging exceptional hardship. Intention of the legislature is clear inasmuch as, the marriage must be given a chance. Of all the provisions in the Act for separation of the parties, they are subject to section 14. There can be cases of exceptional hardship and depravity, where one spouse is trying to take advantage of the marriage happened. Here, both parties have joined and they have said in their joint petition, they are living separately. On query Mr. Gupta submits, the parties stand separated from 21st March, 2025. It follows, they stayed together for less than 20 days.

6. We see that in Angad Soni (supra) coordinate Bench did not take an independent view but found the case covered by judgements passed by various High Courts. On facts and in the circumstances of present case, we have taken a view.

7. We do not find reason to interfere with impugned judgement. It is confirmed. The appeal is dismissed. We still hope parties, in the time required before they can file for divorce by mutual consent, will get back together.

8. The appeal is disposed of.

Issue for Consideration

Issue pertains to whether the trial court, having held that it lacked jurisdiction to entertain the plaintiff's suit seeking a declaration of her matrimonial status as the second legal wife of late Mukesh Sharma, erred in law in dismissing the suit outright instead of returning the plaint under O. 7 R. 10 of Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, for presentation before competent Family Court as mandated u/s 7 of Family Courts Act, 1984.

Headnotes

Family Courts Act, 1984 - s. 7 - Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 - O. 7 R. 10 - Plaintiff - appellant, instituted Original Suit No. 668 of 2015 before Court of Additional Civil Judge (Senior Division), Gautam Budh Nagar, seeking declaration that she be recognized as second legally wedded wife of late Mukesh Sharma, who had earlier been married to one Rekha Sharma and, after her demise, had allegedly solemnized marriage with plaintiff on 12.03.2011 according to Hindu rites and rituals - It was averred that couple lived together until Mukesh Sharma's death on 21.03.2014, leaving behind substantial movable and immovable assets valued at approximately Rs.30 crores, in which she claimed a one-third share along with defendants, his children from first marriage - Defendants, however, denied the marital relationship, asserting that plaintiff was merely a maid employed in household and had fabricated documents to usurp the estate - Trial court, upon considering pleadings and evidence, dismissed the suit on 17.09.2022 holding that relief sought for declaration of matrimonial status fell within exclusive jurisdiction of Family Court u/s 7 of Family Courts Act, 1984 - Aggrieved thereby, plaintiff preferred instant First Appeal challenging the legality of dismissal on the ground that trial court, having found want of jurisdiction, ought to have returned the plaint under O. 7 R. 10 CPC for presentation before competent Family Court.

Held: It is apparent from the law laid down by the Apex Court in Balram Yadav (infra) that relief of declaration of validity of marriage or matrimonial status of any person can only be granted by Family court, as such, trial court lacked jurisdiction to decide the suit and in view of this, trial court has not committed any illegality in coming to conclusion that it lacked jurisdiction to decide the plaintiff's suit - The law declared by Apex Court in EXL Careers & Another (infra) makes it clear that where a court lacks jurisdiction, the plaint must be returned under O. 7 R. 10 CPC for presentation before competent court - In the instant case, despite holding that it lacked jurisdiction, trial court erroneously dismissed the suit instead of returning the plaint - An appellate or revisional court, upon setting aside the decree, may also direct that the plaint be returned for presentation before court of competent jurisdiction - Thus, appeal is partly allowed, trial court's judgment and decree dated 17.09.2022, to the extent it rejects the entire suit, is set aside - However, the finding that suit is not maintainable for want of jurisdiction is upheld. 1. The instant appeal under Section 96 C.P.C. has been filed by the plaintiff-appellant Smt. Varsha Sharma @ Suman against the judgment and decree dated 17.09.2022 passed by the court of Additional Civil Judge (S.D.) Gautam Budh Nagar in O.S. No.668 of 2015, Smt. Varsha Sharma @ Suman Vs. Ajay Sharma & others, whereby the plaintiff's suit for declaration that she is the second legal wife of late Mukesh Sharma, has been dismissed by the trial court on the ground that the suit is not maintainable because the plaintiff is seeking declaration of her matrimonial status, which can only be granted by a Family court, constituted under the Family Courts Act, 1984.

2. Brief factual matrix is that the plaintiff-appellant filed a suit with the averments that her husband Mukesh Sharma was earlier married to a woman named Rekha, and from that wedlock, the defendants were born. Thereafter, Smt. Rekha died, after which the plaintiff-appellant and Mukesh Sharma willingly solemnized marriage, according to Hindu rites and rituals on 12.03.2011 and thereafter, lived together. No child was born from this wedlock. Unfortunately, her husband Mukesh Sharma expired on 21.03.2014, leaving behind movable and immovable property of approximately Rs.30 crores in which, she and the defendants had equal 1/3rd share. It is the case of the plaintiff that in order to usurp the property of her late husband, the defendants has refused to accept her as the legal wife of Mukesh Sharma. The plaintiff further averred that during her lifetime, Mukesh Sharma had acknowledged her to be his legal wife and had accordingly, opened joint bank accounts in different banks, in which defendant No.1 Ajay Sharma was also made nominee.

3. It was further submitted that in Aadhaar card and other documents, she was shown to be the legally wedded wife of Mukesh Sharma. The plaintiff submitted that since, the heirs of late Mukesh Sharma have refused to accept her as the legally wedded wife of the deceased, as such, there is no other alternative, but to seek declaration from this Court regarding her matrimonial status. With these submissions, it was prayed that:-

(i) By a decree of declaration granted in favour of the plaintiff, against the defendants, she be declared the second legal wife of late Mukesh Sharma;

(ii) The cost of the suit be also awarded to the plaintiff against the defendants;

(iii) Any other relief, which the Court, deems fit and appropriate may also be granted to the plaintiff, against the defendants.

4. The defendant No.1 Ajay Sharma filed his written statement in the trial court, in which he denied the plaint allegations and submitted that the plaintiff is a fraudulent woman, who worked as a maid in his house situated in Baraula, for which she was paid salary. The plaintiff has not filed any documents to prove that she is the legally wedded wife of late Mukesh Sharma. The plaintiff wants to usurp the movable and immovable property of the deceased, who is not the legally wedded wife of his father. It was further averred that he has lodged several criminal cases against the plaintiff. The plaintiff has forged and fabricated several documents. The plaintiff never remained the legally wedded wife of his father. With these submissions, it was prayed that the suit be dismissed with special cost.

5. On the basis of the pleadings of the parties, the trial court framed the following issues:-

(i) Whether the plaintiff is the legal wife of late Mukesh Sharma, after the death of his first wife Rekha Sharma?

(ii) Whether the suit is not maintainable?

(iii) Whether the suit is undervalued?

(iv) Whether the court fees paid is insufficient?

(v) Whether the plaintiff is entitled to get any other relief?

6. In the trial court, the plaintiff examined Varsha Sharma as PW-1 and Pramod Kumar as PW-2 and the defendant No.1 Ajay Sharma was examined as DW-1 and Om Prakash as DW-2. Besides the above oral evidence, documentary evidence in the form of photo copies of PAN card, Family register, passport of late Mukesh Sharma, certificate issued by Gram Pradhan, bank account statements, photo copy of voter list, photo copy of FIR in criminal cases, photo copy of insurance policies, etc. were submitted before the trial court.

7. During trial, defendant No.2 Ankita Sharma died on 01.10.2015.

8. The trial court while disposing the issue no.1 & 2 concluded that since the plaintiff has asserted that she is the legal wife of late Mukesh Sharma, as such, a declaration is required regarding her matrimonial status, which can only be granted by the Family court. The trial court came to the conclusion that only the Family court is competent to grant the desired relief to the plaintiff.

9. In view of this, issue no.2 regarding the maintainability of the suit was decided against the plaintiff, in favour of the defendants. The trial court came to the conclusion that the plaintiff cannot be granted any relief by this court and as such, the plaintiff's suit was dismissed, aggrieved against which, the plaintiff-appellant has filed the instant appeal.

10. Learned counsel for the appellant submitted that the trial court has legally erred by dismissing the suit on the issue of lack of jurisdiction. Learned counsel for the appellant further submitted that if, the trial court was of the opinion that the suit is not legally maintainable, then simply, the plaint should have been returned to the plaintiff, for presentation to the competent court of jurisdiction under Order 7 Rule 10 CPC. He further submitted that the trial court could not have examined the merits of the case. With these submissions, it was prayed that the impugned judgment and decree of the trial court be set aside, and the trial court be ordered to return the plaint to the plaintiff, for presentation to the competent court of jurisdiction.

11. Per contra, learned counsel for the respondent submitted that the trial court has not committed any legal error in dismissing the suit because the declaration of matrimonial status can only be granted by the Family court, constituted under the Family Courts Act, 1984. With these submissions, it was prayed that the appeal is meritless and is liable to be dismissed.

12. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

13. It is apparent that the plaintiff is claiming herself to be the second legal wife of late Mukesh Sharma. It is the plaintiff's case that after the death of Mukesh Sharmaâ€™s first wife Rekha Sharma, she had solemnized marriage on 12.03.2011 with Mukesh Sharma according to Hindu rites and rituals and thereafter, they lived together. The plaintiff submitted that the legal heirs of late Mukesh Sharma are not accepting her as the legally wedded wife of late Mukesh Sharma, as such, the plaintiff has sought declaration from the court that she be declared the second legal wife of late Mukesh Sharma.

14. Section 7 of the Family Courts Act, 1984 reads as under:-

"7.Jurisdiction- (1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, a Family Court shall–

(a) have and exercise all the jurisdiction exercisable by any district court or any subordinate civil court under any law for the time being in force in respect of suits and proceedings of the nature referred to in the explanation; and

(b) be deemed, for the purposes of exercising such jurisdiction under such law, to be a district court or, as the case may be, such subordinate civil court for the area to which the jurisdiction of the Family Court extends.

Explanation.–The suits and proceedings referred to in this sub-section are suits and proceedings of the following nature, namely:—*

(a) a suit or proceeding between the parties to a marriage for a decree of nullity of marriage (declaring the marriage to be null and void or, as the case may be, annulling the marriage) or restitution of conjugal rights or judicial separation or dissolution of marriage;

(b) a suit or proceeding for a declaration as to the validity of a marriage or as to the matrimonial status of any person;

(c) a suit or proceeding between the parties to a marriage with respect to the property of the parties or of either of them;

(d) a suit or proceeding for an order or injunction in circumstance arising out of a marital relationship;

(e) a suit or proceeding for a declaration as to the legitimacy of any person;

(f) a suit or proceeding for maintenance;

(g) a suit or proceeding in relation to the guardianship of the person or the custody of, or access to, any minor.

(2) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, a Family Court shall also have and exercise—

(a) the jurisdiction exercisable by a Magistrate of the First Class under Chapter IX (relating to order for maintenance of wife, children and parents) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974); and

(b) such other jurisdiction as may be conferred on it by any other enactment."

15. The Apex Court in the case of Balram Yadav vs. Fulmaniya Yadav (2016) 13 SCC 308, while discussing the jurisdiction of the Family courts, held as under:-

"7. Under Section 7(1) Explanation (b), a suit or a proceeding for a declaration as to the validity of both marriage and matrimonial status of a person is within the exclusive jurisdiction of the Family Court, since under Section 8, all those jurisdictions covered under Section 7 are excluded from the purview of the jurisdiction of the civil courts. In case, there is a dispute on the matrimonial status of any person, a declaration in that regard has to be sought only before the Family Court. It makes no difference as to whether it is an affirmative relief or a negative relief. What is important is the declaration regarding the matrimonial status. Section 20 also endorses the view which we have taken, since the Family Courts Act, 1984, has an overriding effect on other laws."

16. Order 7 Rule 10 C.P.C., reads as follows:-

"10. Return of plaint- (1) Subject to the provisions of rule 10A, the plaint shall at any stage of the suit be returned to be presented to the Court in which the suit should have been instituted.

Explanation- For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that a Court of appeal or revision may direct, after setting aside the decree passed in a suit, the return of the plaint under this sub-rule.

(2) Procedure on returning plaint- On returning a plaint, the Judge shall endorse thereon the date of its presentation and return, the name of the party presenting it, and a brief statement of the reasons for returning it."

17. The Apex Court in the case of EXL Careers & Another vs. Frankfinn Aviation Services Private Limited, (2020) 12 SCC 667 (By 3 Judges) held as under:-

"15.Modern Construction [ONGC v. Modern Construction & Co., (2014) 1 SCC 648], referred to the consistent position in law by reference to Ramdutt Ramkissen Dass v. E.D. Sassoon & Co.[1929 SCC OnLine PC 3 : (1928-29) 56 IA 128 : AIR 1929 PC 103] , Amar Chand Inani v. Union of India (1973)1SCC115, Hanamanthappa v. Chandrashekharappa (1997) 9 SCC 688, Harshad Chimanlal Modi [Harshad Chimanlal Modi (2) v. DLF Universal Ltd., (2006) 1 SCC 364] and after also noticing Joginder Tuli [Joginder Tuli v. S.L. Bhatia, (1997) 1 SCC 502], arrived at the conclusion as follows: (Modern Construction case , SCC p. 654, para 17).

"17. Thus, in view of the above, the law on the issue can be summarised to the effect that if the court where the suit is instituted, is of the view that it has no jurisdiction, the plaint is to be returned in view of the provisions of Order 7 Rule 10 CPC and the plaintiff can present it before the court having competent jurisdiction. In such a factual matrix, the plaintiff is entitled to exclude the period during which he prosecuted the case before the court having no jurisdiction in view of the provisions of Section 14 of the Limitation Act, and may also seek adjustment of court fee paid in that court. However, after presentation before the court of competent jurisdiction, the plaint is to be considered as a fresh plaint and the trial is to be conducted de novo even if it stood concluded before the court having no competence to try the same"

"Joginder Tuli [Joginder Tuli v. S.L. Bhatia, (1997) 1 SCC 502] was also noticed in Harshad Chimanlal Modi (2) [Harshad Chimanlal Modi (2) v. DLF Universal Ltd., (2006) 1 SCC 364] but distinguished on its own facts."

18. It is apparent from the law laid down by the Apex Court in Balram Yadav(supra) that the relief of declaration of validity of marriage or the matrimonial status of any person can only be granted by the Family court, as such, the trial court lacked jurisdiction to decide the suit and in view of this, the trial court has not committed any illegality in coming to the conclusion that it lacked jurisdiction to decide the plaintiff's suit.

19. It is also apparent from the law laid down by the Apex Court in EXL Careers & Another(supra) that where the court lacked jurisdiction, then plaint has to be returned in view of the provisions of Order 7 Rule 10 CPC, to enable the plaintiff to present it before the court having competent jurisdiction. In the instant case, after concluding that it lacked jurisdiction, the trial court has erred in dismissing the suit and, in not returning the plaint to the plaintiff, for presentation to the competent court of jurisdiction, and this illegality committed by the trial court, needs to be rectified in this appeal.

20. It is also apparent that the court of appeal or revision may also direct, after setting aside the decree passed in a suit, the return of the plaint for presenting it before the court of competent jurisdiction.

21. Accordingly, the appeal is partly allowed. The impugned judgment and decree of the trial court dated 17.09.2022, in so far, as the rejection of the whole suit is concerned, is set aside. The finding of the trial court that the suit is not maintainable for lack of jurisdiction, is upheld.

22. The trial court is directed to return the original plaint to the plaintiff in accordance with the provisions of Order 7 Rule 10 CPC, for presentation before the court of competent jurisdiction.

23. However, in the facts and circumstances of the case, there shall be no order as to costs.

24. Office is directed to prepare the decree accordingly.

25. Office is also directed to send back the original trial court record.

Issue for Consideration

Whether Writ of Habeas Corpus is not maintainable against a judicial order, i.e. an order passed by the Child Welfare Committee under the Juvenile Justice Act, 2015?

Head Notes

The Constitution of India, 1950-Article 226, The Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act-2015- Sections 2, 27, 37, 101 & 102- Person aggrieved by an order passed by the Child Welfare Committee can file an appeal under Section 101 of the JJ Act. JJ Act provides the revisional forum before the High Court -It cannot be presumed that in case the corpus is in Children's Home pursuant to an order passed by the 'Child Welfare Committee'; then the same is neither without jurisdiction nor illegal or perverse, keeping in mind the provisions of Juvenile Justice Act, 2015, the detention of the corpus cannot be said to be illegal and in case the petitioner is aggrieved by the order of the 'Child Welfare Committee', the petitioner is at liberty to take recourse of remedy of Appeal or Revision provided under Sections 101 & 102 of the Juvenile Justice Act- Petition dismissed.

Held-The order passed by the Committee pursuant to which the corpus has been sent to Children's Home is a judicial order and hence the detention of corpus cannot be termed to be illegal.(E-15)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Syed Qamar Hasan Rizvi, J.)

1. Heard Sri. Sanjeev Kumar Shukla, learned counsel for the petitioner, Sri. G.D.Bhatt, learned A.G.A. for the State-respondents as well as Sri. R. M. Yadav, Advocate, who has filed Vakalatnama on behalf of opposite party No. 7, which is taken on record.

2. By means of the present writ petition the petitioner has prayed for the following reliefs:

"I. Issue a writ or order in the nature of Habeas Corpus is direct the opposite party no. 2 & 3 to produce the corpus of the petitioner Mayank Ojha aged about 11 years Son of Surya Prakash Ojha before this Hon'ble Court he may be released from the illegal and unjustified custody and detention of the opposite party no.2 and 3 and in case if the opposite party no.2 and 3 failed to ensure the production of the corpus of the petitioners to directed the opposite party no-2 to 6 to ensure the production of the petitioner before this Hon'ble Court on date fixed by the Hon'ble Court and after recording her free statement, he may be released from the illegal and unjustified custody and detention of the opposite party no.2 and 3 and give the custody of her mother of the petitioner.

II. That in case if the opposite party no.2 failed to ensure the production of the corpus of the petitioner to directed the opposite party no. 3 to ensure the production of the petitioner before this Hon'ble Court on date fixed by the Hon'ble Court and after recording her free statement, he may be released from the custody of the opposite party no.02 an 3 and give the custody of her mother of the petitioner."

3. This Court on 26.08.2025 passed an Order, operative part whereof is extracted herein below for ready reference:

"7A. Having considered the submissions of the learned counsel for the parties and also to know the willingness of the detenue Mayank Ojha, his presence would be required before this Court on the next date.

8. List this case on 08.09.2025.

9. On that date, the detenue Mayank Ojha shall appear before this Court and his appearance shall be ensured by the Superintendent, Rajkiya Bal Grih (Balak), Mohaan Road, Lucknow and a copy of this order be provided to the Superintendent, Rajkiya Bal Grih (Balak), Mohaan Road, Lucknow, by registered post/speed post within three working days for its compliance.

10. On the next date, the mother of the detenue (petitioner here) namely Shashi and opposite party no. 7- Surya Prakash Ojha (father of the detenue) shall appear in person before this Court.

11. The Station House Officer, Police Station Sangrampur, District Amethi shall ensure the presence of opposite party no. 7 on the next date.

12. Learned A.G.A. shall intimate this order to the Station House Officer, Police Station Sangrampur, District Amethi, for its compliance "

4. In compliance of the aforesaid Order, Ms. Shashi the mother of the child/petitioner corpus namely Mayank Ojha and Mr. Surya Prakash Ojha (respondent No. 7) are present before this Court.

5. The child/corpus namely Mayank Ojha, aged about 11 years, son of Mrs. Shashi and Mr. Surya Prakash Ojha is also present-in-person. His presence before this Court has been ensured by Mr. Ram Krishna Awasthi, In-charge of 'Rajkiya Bal Griha (Balak)', Mohan Road, Lucknow.

6. Mr. Ram Krishna Awasthi has stated that earlier the child/corpus was placed at 'Rajkiya Bal Griha (Balak)', Mohan Road, in his custody, however, at present he is boarding at 'Dayanand Bal Sadan', Motinagar, Lucknow. He further submitted that in pursuance of the letter communicating the Court's Order dated 26.08.2025, he being the In-charge of 'Rajkiya Bal Griha (Balak)'; has given company to the child/petitioner corpus. He informed the Court that the petitioner corpus is enjoying his life in congenial and healthy atmosphere at 'Dayanand Bal Sadan', Motinagar, Lucknow. He has already been admitted to a school having good reputation and standard, where he is studying properly and participates in extracurricular activities. He is a very sharp / brilliant student and has secured first division.

7. Mr. Vinod Kumar Pandey, Sub-Inspector, Police Station-Sangrampur, Amethi has ensured the presence of the respondent No. 7 as well as the child/ petitioner corpus.

8. The child/petitioner corpus namely Master Mayank Ojha who is present before this Court appears to be a normal child with sharp and healthy mind having commendable ability to understand and answer the queries of the Court properly.

9. On being asked by the Court, as to whether he is willing to live with his mother namely Mrs. Shashi, who by means of the instant petition has come before this Court as natural guardian of the petitioner corpus; the child/corpus namely Mayank Ojha outrightly refused to accept the said proposal by saying that he is not at all willing to go and live with his mother. In reply to a pointed query as to why he is not willing to live with his own mother, he categorically stated that he does not like his mother as she had left him while he was just two years old baby. On being further asked as to whether he wants to go and live with his father Mr. Surya Prakash Ojha, the child reluctantly stated that although he has no objection in living with his father, but he would prefer to stay at 'Dayanand Bal Sadan', Motinagar, Lucknow where he is presently residing. He not only uttered satisfaction with his present status of living at 'Dayanand Bal Sadan' Motinagar, rather expressed happiness over the same.

10. Mr. Surya Prakash Ojha, the father of the child/corpus, on being asked as to whether he remarried after the dissolution of marriage with Ms. Shashi; he stated that though he got remarried, but his second wife died after some time. At present he is living alone at Faridabad on account of his job, where he is presently working as Quality Supervisor at Mehra Metal, Faridabad, Haryana.

11. Replying to the query of the Court that whether the father of the petitioner corpus ever visited the aforesaid Child Home to meet his son; the In-charge 'Rajkiya Bal Griha (Balak)', Mr. Ram Krishna Awasthi, quoted an incident that Mr. Surya Prakash Ojha once along with a lady came to 'Dayanand Bal Sadan', Motinagar, Lucknow and told that he has come to celebrate the birthday of his son Mayank Ojha. But, on verification it was found that the said lady was not the mother of the petitioner corpus. In such a situation suspecting some foul play the concerned authority did not permit him to meet the petitioner.

12. Confronting the aforesaid allegation, Mr. Surya Prakash Ojha fairly conceded that the said lady was not the mother of the petitioner but his maid, however, he had wrongly introduced her as the mother of the child just to manage a meeting with his son. He has stated that he is willing to live with his son Mayank Ojha and also undertaken that he will take care of him properly.

13. Per contra, Mr. G.D.Bhatt, learned Additional Government Advocate; appearing on behalf of the State-respondents, on the basis of the instructions / comments dated 20.08.2025 as furnished by Mr. Ram Prakash Yadav, Sub- Inspector, Police Station-Sangrampur, District- Amethi; submits that on account of the fact that the relationship between the mother and father of the petitioner corpus are so strained that they got their marriage dissolved from the Court of law. Moreover, the mother namely Mrs. Sashi lodged an First Information Report against Surya Prakash Ojha (father of the Petitioner corpus) and succeeded in sending him to jail in Case Crime No. 120/23 under section 420, 467 and 468 of I.P.C. Further, due to the explicit refusal of the petitioner corpus to go with his mother namely Ms. Sashi and father Surya Prakash Ojha being in Jail; he was sent to 'Gandhi Seva Niketan Bal Grih', Rae Bareli under the order / directions of the Child Welfare Committee, District-Amethi, dated 24.02.2024.

15. Learned Additional Government Advocate has also drawn our attention to the order dated 12.06.2025 as contained in Annexure No. 8 to the Writ Petition whereby The District Child Welfare Committee, Amethi after taking into consideration the overall facts and circumstances of the case passed a detailed order keeping in view the welfare of the minor and his wish/desire and directed the Superintendent, Rajkiya Bal Griha (Balak), Mohan Road, Lucknow to get him admitted in Dayanand Bal Sadan Awasiya Vidyalaya, Moti Nagar, Lucknow for his proper education. 16. The first and the foremost contention of the Learned Additional Government Advocate is that the Writ of Habeas Corpus is not maintainable against a judicial order, i.e. an order passed by the Child Welfare Committee under the Juvenile Justice Act, 2015. He further submitted that if the detention is pursuant to judicial orders passed by a Court of competent jurisdiction or by the Child Welfare Committee under the Juvenile Justice Act, the same cannot be treated as an illegal detention. The grievance, if any, against such an order may be redressed by way of challenging the legality, validity and correctness of the order by filing an appropriate proceeding before the competent appellate or revisional forum under the applicable provisions of law but the same cannot be reviewed in a petition seeking writ of habeas corpus.

17. It has been vehemently argued by Mr. G.D.Bhutt that the aforesaid order dated 12.06.2025 passed by the District Child Welfare Committee, Amethi in exercise of its' power under the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act has not been challenged before any competent forum having jurisdiction nor the custody of the petitioner corpus has been sought under the Guardians and Wards Act or any other law and as such neither the mother nor the father can be allowed to seek/procure the relief by circumventing the statutory remedies by way of Writ of Habeas Corpus.

18. We have heard the submissions of the parties present before the Court and perused the available material. Before entering into the merits of the case, it would be apt to consider the issue of maintainability of the instant Writ of Habeas Corpus.

19. At this stage it would be appropriate to go through the observations made by the Hon'ble Supreme Court regarding the Writ of Habeas Corpus, in the case of Kanu Sanyal versus District Magistrate, Darjeeling and Others; reported in (1973) 2 SCC 674. The relevant part of the same is extracted herein below:

"It will be seen from this brief history of the writ of habeas corpus that it is essentially a procedural writ. It deals with the machinery of justice, not the substantive law. The object of the writ is to secure release of a person who is illegally restrained of his liberty. The writ is, no doubt, a command addressed to a person who is alleged to have another person unlawfully in his custody requiring him to bring the body of such person before the Court, but the production of the body of the person detained is directed in order that the circumstances of his detention may be inquired into, or to put it differently, "in order that appropriate judgment be rendered on judicial enquiry into the alleged unlawful restraint". The form of the writ employed is "We command you that you have in the King's Bench Division of our High Court of Justice -- immediately after the receipt of this our writ, the body of A.B. being taken and detained under your custody -- together with the day and cause of his being taken and detained -- to undergo and receive all and singular such matters and things as our court shall then and there consider of concerning him in this behalf". The italicized words show that the writ is primarily designed to give a person restrained of his liberty a speedy and effective remedy Patna High Court CR. WJC No.1355 of 2019 dt. 05-03-2020 for having the legality of his detention enquired into and determined and if the detention is found to be unlawful, having himself discharged and freed from such restraint. The most characteristic element of the writ is its peremptoriness and, as pointed out by Lord Halsbury, L.C., in Cox v. Hakes (supra), "the essential and leading theory of the whole procedure is the immediate determination of the right to the applicant's freedom" and his release, if the detention is found to be unlawful. That is the primary purpose of the writ; that is its substance and end. ..."

20. The question on the maintainability of the habeas corpus petition with regard to custody of the minor child came up for consideration before the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Tejaswini Gaude versus Shekhar Jagdish Prasad Tewari reported in (2019) 7 SCC 42, wherein the Hon'ble Apex Court has been pleased to observe as under: (SCC p. 54, paras 19-20)

"19. Habeas corpus proceedings is not to justify or examine the legality of the custody. Habeas corpus proceedings is a medium through which the custody of the child is addressed to the discretion of the Court. Habeas corpus is a prerogative writ which is an extraordinary remedy, and the writ is issued where in the circumstances of the particular case, ordinary remedy provided by the law is either not available or is ineffective; otherwise, a writ will not be issued. In child custody matters, the power of the High Court in granting the writ is qualified only in cases where the detention of a minor by a person who is not entitled to his legal custody. In view of the pronouncement on the issue in question by the Supreme Court and the High Courts, in our view, in child custody matters, the writ of habeas corpus is maintainable where it is proved that the detention of a minor child by a parent or others was illegal and without any authority of law.

20. In child custody matters, the ordinary remedy lies only under the Hindu Minority and Guardianship Act or the Guardians and Wards Act as the case may be. In cases arising out of the proceedings under the Guardians and Wards Act, the jurisdiction of the court is determined by whether the minor ordinarily resides within the area on which the court exercises such jurisdiction. There are significant differences between the enquiry under the Guardians and Wards Act and the exercise of powers by a writ court which is summary in nature. What is important is the welfare of the child. In the writ court, rights are determined only on the basis of affidavits. Where the court is of the view that a detailed enquiry is required, the court may decline to exercise the extraordinary jurisdiction and direct the parties to approach the civil court. It is only in exceptional cases, the rights of the parties to the custody of the minor will be determined in exercise of extraordinary jurisdiction on a petition for habeas corpus.

21. The Full Bench of this Court in the case of Rachna and another versus State of U.P. and others; reported in AIR 2021 All 109 (FB), while deciding a reference made by a Division Bench considering various provisions of the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2015 and the law laid down by various Courts; has answered as under:

"We accordingly come on our conclusions in respect of question nos. 1, 2 and 3 for determination as follows: -

Question No. 1: "Whether a writ of habeas corpus is maintainable against the judicial order passed by the Magistrate or by the Child Welfare Committee appointed under Section 27 of the Act, sending the victim to Women Protection Home/Nari Niketan/Juvenile Home/Child Care Home?"

Answer: "If the petitioner corpus is in custody as per judicial orders passed by a Judicial Magistrate or a Court of Competent Jurisdiction or a Child Welfare Committee under the J.J. Act. Consequently, such an order passed by the Magistrate or by the Committee cannot be challenged/assailed or set aside in a writ of habeas corpus."

Question No. 2: "Whether detention of a corpus in Women Protection Home/Nari Niketan/Juvenile Home/Child Care Home pursuant to an order (may be improper) can be termed/viewed as an illegal detention?"

Answer: "An illegal or irregular exercise of jurisdiction by a Magistrate or by the Child Welfare Committee appointed under Section 27 of the J.J. Act, sending the victim to Women Protection Home/Nari Niketan/Juvenile Home/Child Care Home cannot be treated an illegal detention."

Question No. 3: "Under the Scheme of the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2015, the welfare and safety of child in need of care and protection is the legal responsibility of the Board/Child Welfare Committee and as such, the proposition that even a minor cannot be sent to Women Protection Home/Nari Niketan/Juvenile Home/Child Care Home against his/her wishes is legally valid or it requires a modified approach in consonance with the object of the Act ?"

Answer: "Under the J.J. Act, the welfare and safety of child in need of care and protection is the legal responsibility of the Board/Child Welfare Committee and the Magistrate/Committee must give credence to her wishes. As per Section 37 of the J.J. Act the Committee, on being satisfied through the inquiry that the child before the Committee is a child in need of care and protection, may, on consideration of Social Investigation Report submitted by Child Welfare Officer and taking into account the child's wishes in case the child is sufficiently mature to take a view, pass one or more of the orders mentioned in Section 37 (1) (a) to (h)."

22. The Full Bench of this Court, in the case of Rachna (supra) very categorically observed that writ of habeas corpus would not be maintainable, if the detention in custody is pursuant to judicial orders passed by a Judicial Magistrate or a court of competent jurisdiction or by the 'Child Welfare Committee'. Suffice to indicate that an illegal or irregular exercise of jurisdiction by the Magistrate passing an order of remand or by the 'Child Welfare Committee' under Juvenile Justice Act cannot be said to be an illegal detention. The grievance, if any, against such an order may be redressed by way of challenging the legality, validity and correctness of the order by filing an appropriate proceeding before the competent appellate or revisional forum under the applicable provisions of law but the same cannot be reviewed in a petition seeking writ of habeas corpus.

23. The Hon'ble Full Bench while deciding the case of Rachna (supra) also took serious note of the situation where a minor corpus refuses to go with his / her parents, then in such situation, appropriate arrangements must be made to ensure the well being of the child. His / her interest bears paramount importance and before proceeding to pass order for custody of the minor, the welfare of the minor must be kept in mind. The wish of minor and the wish/desire of girl can always be considered by the Magistrate concerned/Committee and as per her wishes/desire further follow up action is required to be taken in accordance with law under the Juvenile Justice Act.

24. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Nirmala versus Kulwant Singh and others; reported in (2024) 10 SCC 595, has been pleased to hold that the habeas corpus is a prerogative writ which is an extraordinary remedy and recourse to such a remedy should not be permitted unless the ordinary remedy provided by the law is either not available or is ineffective. The Hon'ble Apex Court has also observed that no hard-and-fast rule can be laid down insofar as the maintainability of a habeas corpus petition in the matters of custody of a minor child is concerned. The writ court should exercise its extraordinary jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India or not will depend on the facts and circumstances of each case. It has also been held by the Hon'ble Supreme Court that in child custody matters, the power of the High Court in granting the writ is qualified only in cases where the detention of a minor is by a person who is not entitled to his legal custody. It has further been held that in child custody matters, the writ of habeas corpus is maintainable only where it is proved that the detention of a minor child by a parent or others was illegal and without any authority of law.

25. It is trite in law that writ of habeas corpus would not be maintainable, if the detention in custody is pursuant to judicial orders passed by a Judicial Magistrate or a court of competent jurisdiction or by the Child Welfare Committee. Section 27 of the Juvenile Justice Act defines the 'Child Welfare Committee' and provides that the State Government shall by notification in the Official Gazette constitute for every district, one or more Child Welfare Committees for exercising the powers and to discharge the duties conferred on such Committees in relation to 'child in need of care and protection' under the said Act. The powers of the Committee are defined in Section 27(9) of the Juvenile Justice Act. The said provision of the Act makes it clear that while passing such orders, the Committee exercises the power of Judicial Magistrate and functions as a Bench and shall have the powers conferred by the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974) on a Metropolitan Magistrate or, as the case may be, a Judicial Magistrate of First Class. The powers, functions and responsibilities of the Committee are defined under Section 29 and 30 of the Juvenile Justice Act. Section 30(vi) provides that it is the function of the Committee to ensure care, protection, proper rehabilitation or restoration of children in need of care and protection, based on the child's individual care plan and passing necessary directions to parents or guardians or fit persons or children's homes or fit facility in this regard. It further provides for selection of registered institution for placement of each children requiring institutional support, based on the child's age, gender, disability and needs and keeping in mind the available capacity of the institution. Further, the term 'Juvenile' has been defined in Section 2(35) of the Juvenile Justice Act to mean a child below the age of 18 years. The word 'Child' has been defined in Section 2(12) of the Juvenile Justice Act to mean a person who has not completed 18 years of. Age. The meaning of the phrase 'child in need of care and protection' is defined under Section 2(14) of the Juvenile Justice Act.

26. The Juvenile Justice Act, 2015 provides a complete mechanism dealing with welfare of the child. The 'Child Welfare Committee' exercises the power of Magistrate in view of the provision of Section 27 of the Juvenile Justice Act, 2015 and for all purposes, the Committee acts like the Magistrate. Once the order has been passed by the Magistrate, then it can only be assailed before the appropriate Court by filing an appeal or any other remedy as provided under the law.

27. At the cost of repetition, we reiterate that if the corpus is found a child, as defined under Section 2(12) of the Juvenile Justice Act, 2015, he/she would fall in the category of 'child in need of care and protection' in view of Clauses (iii), (viii) and (xii) of Sub-section (14) of Section 2 of the Juvenile Justice Act, 2015. Hence the order passed by the Child Welfare Committee placing the corpus in a protection home would be within its power conferred under Section 37 of the Juvenile Justice Act, 2015. Thus, the person aggrieved by an order passed by the Child Welfare Committee can file an appeal under Section 101 of the Juvenile Justice Act, 2015. Further, the Juvenile Justice Act, 2015 provides the revisional forum before the High Court wherein the High Court may, at any time either on its own motion or an application received in this behalf, call for the record of any proceeding in which any Committee or Board or Children's Court, or court has passed an order, for the purpose of satisfying itself as to the legality or propriety of any such order and may pass such order in relation thereto as it thinks fit. Therefore, in such a situation, it cannot be presumed that in case the corpus is in Children's Home pursuant to an order passed by the 'Child Welfare Committee'; then the same is neither without jurisdiction nor illegal or perverse, keeping in mind the provisions of Juvenile Justice Act, 2015, the detention of the corpus cannot be said to be illegal and in case the petitioner is aggrieved by the order of the 'Child Welfare Committee', the petitioner is at liberty to take recourse of remedy of Appeal or Revision provided under Sections 101 & 102 of the Juvenile Justice Act.

28. It would not be out of place to quote the Para 69 of the judgment passed by the Full Bench of this Court in the case of Rachna (supra), which reads as under:

"69. If we look at the relevant Sections of J.J. Act, the object of the J.J. Act is pro-child legislation. The J.J. Act itself provides all remedial measures of rehabilitation and care to a child who is in need of care and protection. We attach equal importance to other Sections of the J.J. Act. They are emphatic, and in case the petitioner is aggrieved, and the corpus is sent to the shelter home arbitrarily, then the said situation may also be looked into and examined in the regular appeal or revision. Section 37 of J.J. Act clearly provides that the Committee on being satisfied through the inquiry that the child before the Committee is a child in need of care and protection, may, on consideration of Social Investigation Report submitted by the Child Welfare Officer and taking into account the child's wishes in case the child is sufficiently mature to take a view, pass one or more of the following orders. The framers have also consciously taken due care of child's wishes in case the child is sufficiently mature to take a view. It is the paramount responsibility of the Committee to take all necessary measures for taking into account the child's wishes after making due enquiry, which contemplates under Section 36 of J.J. Act and take final decision."

29. The order passed by the Committee pursuant to which the corpus has been sent to Children's Home is a judicial order and hence the detention of corpus cannot be termed to be illegal. Moreover, the order passed by the Committee is appealable. Thus, the instant Habeas Corpus Petition being not maintainable is liable to be dismissed.

30. In so far as the question of custody of the child is concerned, the ordinary remedy lies only under the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890. The jurisdiction of the Court is determined by whether the minor ordinarily resides within the area on which the Court exercises such jurisdiction. The Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Tejaswini Gaud (supra) has held that there are significant differences between the enquiry under the Guardians and Wards Act and the exercise of powers by a Writ Court, which is summary in nature. What is important is the welfare of the child. In the Writ Courts, rights are determined only on the basis of the affidavits. In case if the Court is of the view that a detailed enquiry including the welfare of the minor child and his preference would have been involved, such an exercise could be done only in a proceeding under the provisions of the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890 the Court may decline to exercise the extra-ordinary jurisdiction and direct the parties to approach the Civil Court.

31. Having regard to the foregoing discussion, the legal position which emerges is that in a case where the custody of the petitioner corpus has been handed over as per the order passed by the 'Child Welfare Committee', constituted under the Juvenile Justice Act, 2015, the said order cannot be assailed in a petition seeking a writ of habeas corpus.

32. We find that the petitioner corpus having been placed under the care of the respondent no.3 and has now been boarded in Dayanand Bal Sadan, Motinagar, Lucknow, pursuant to an order passed by the 'Child Welfare Committee' in exercising powers under the Juvenile Justice Act, 2015 and the rules made thereunder, the custody which is presently with the said respondent cannot be said to be illegal or unlawful detention and the petition for a writ of habeas corpus would not be entertainable in the facts of the case.

33. Learned counsel for the petitioner has not been able to dispute the aforesaid legal position.

34. In view of aforesaid, this Court is not inclined to exercise its extra-ordinary jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, so as to entertain the petition seeking a writ of habeas corpus.

35. The instant writ petition fails and is, accordingly, consigned to record.

36. The Sub-Inspector concerned, who is present before the Court as well as Mr. Ram Krishna Awasthi, In-charge of 'Rajkiya Bal Griha (Balak)', Mohan Road, Lucknow, are directed to ensure the safe return of the petitioner corpus to the Dayanand Bal Sadan, Motinagar, Lucknow from where he has been brought to the Court, as has been informed by the aforesaid In-charge of 'Rajkiya Bal Griha (Balak)', Mohan Road, Lucknow.

37. Before parting with the matter, in view of the fact that the father of the child/petitioner corpus has shown his serious concern regarding the well-being of his child and pressed for the custody of the child; this Court grants liberty to Mr. Surya Prakash Ojha, father of the child/petitioner corpus to file appropriate application under the provisions of the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890 before the competent court of having jurisdiction and in the event he files such an application, the competent court shall decide the same expeditiously. We further direct that in case such an application is made, an order at least with regard to visitation rights may be passed within a period of four weeks from the date of filing of such application before the court concerned. At the same time, we also grant liberty to the petitioner to assail the order of the 'Child Welfare Committee' under the provisions of the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2015 and the Rules made thereunder, before the appropriate forum strictly in accordance with law.

38. However, we clarify that no observation made by this Court while passing the present order, would in any manner influence the proceedings, if any, under the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890 or any other proceeding under the Juvenile Justice Act, 2015 and the same shall be decided in accordance with law, on its own merits.

39. On the earnest request made by Mr. Surya Prakash Ojha, father of the petitioner corpus, for promoting the bond between the minor child and the father in a graded manner; we provide that he may be allowed to visit the Children's Home/ 'Dayanand Bal Sadan', to meet his child but within the premises of the same, for a period of three hours at least once a month, after seeking prior permission from the competent authority of the said Children's Home. However, the aforesaid meeting with the child/petitioner corpus shall be managed and monitored by the competent authority. During the said meeting, the respondent no.7 shall strictly follow the instructions of the concerned authorities. The aforesaid arrangement shall continue till passing of appropriate orders by the competent Court on the said application seeking visitation rights.

1. Heard Mr. Punit Agarwal, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners and Mr. Ankur Agarwal, learned Standing Counsel for the State.

2. This is an application filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, wherein the writ petitioner is aggrieved by the inaction on the part of the respondent authorities in complying with the assessment order dated 01.10.2022 for the Financial Year 2017?18. By the said order, a sum of Rs. 5,00,00,000/- has been directed to be refunded, subject to the rule of unjust enrichment. It is to be noted that the issue with regard to the taxability of the amount has already been settled by a Division Bench of this High Court in Jain Distillery Private Limited vs. State of U.P. and Ors., 2021 (10) ADJ 69. The relevant paragraphs 73 and 74 are delineated below:

"73. Consequently, all the writ petitions deserve to be allowed. It is declared, the State lost its legislative competence to enact laws, to impose tax on sales of ENA, upon the enactment of the 101st Constitution Amendment. Consequently, and upon considering Section 174(1) (i) of UPGST. Act, 2017, the impugned Notification dated 17.12.2019, insofar as it seeks to impose UPVAT on ENA, Rectified Spirit and SDS, is ultra vires, both on account of lack of (i) legislative competence and (ii) valid delegation. It is therefore quashed. Consequentially, all assessment Orders/Notices dated 30.6.2021, 21.6.2021, 8.6.2021, 15.6.2021, 11.6.2021, 7.7.2021, the (administrative) Circulars/letters dated 10.6.2021 and 11.6.2021, impugned in these writ petitions, holding otherwise are also quashed.

74. It is further directed, subject to applicability of the rule against unjust enrichment, any amount that may have been deposited by the petitioners (except petitioners claiming under this order, in Writ Tax 355 of 2020), by way of UPVAT on ENA on or after 1.7.2017, may be refunded to them, within a period of one month from today."

3. In light of the above judgment of the High Court, the assessment order was passed by the authority concerned. It is to be noted that a Special Leave Petition has been filed on behalf of the State Government, wherein an order was passed by the hon'ble Supreme Court which is delineated below:

"1 Issue notice.

2 Mr Kumar Dushyant Singh, learned counsel, accepts notice on behalf of the first respondent.

3 Counter affidavit be filed within a period of four weeks from the date of service.

4 Tag with SLP(C) No 7735 of 2022."

4. It is agreed by the parties appearing on both sides that the Supreme Court did not grant any stay on the order passed by the High Court, that is being assailed before the Supreme Court.

5. It is a trite law that unless a superior Court passes an order of stay, the order of the court below remains binding on all the parties to the lis. Furthermore, any judgment of the High Court of Allahabad is applicable to the entire State of Uttar Pradesh. Article 265 of the Constitution of India very categorically states that no tax can be levied without the authority of law. This principle has been reiterated in the judgment of the High Court in the Jain Distillery Private Limited (supra).

6. In light of the same, it is clear that the amount that has been held by the State Authorities is without the authority of law and is required to be refunded, subject to the provisions of the Uttar Pradesh Value Added Tax Act, 2008, specially Section 43, which provides for the procedure for disbursement of amount wrongly realized by the dealers as tax. In the present case, both the buyer and the seller of the goods are before the Court. The liability of the tax in the present case has been passed on to the buyer of the goods, as per the finding in the impugned order.

7. In light of the same, we direct the authority concerned to refund the money to the buyer, i.e., petitioner No.2, upon an indemnity bond being furnished by petitioner No.2 in accordance with law to the satisfaction of the authorities, within a period of eight weeks from the date.

8. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner has also sought interest on the amount lying with the authorities to be paid. However, we are of the view that, at the present moment, only the principal amount should be returned to the petitioners and the interest be kept pending with the authorities and only be returned after the decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court.

9. With the above directions, this writ petition is disposed of.

10. The impugned order dated 19.07.2025, rejecting the refund, is quashed and set aside.

Issue for Consideration

1. Permissibility of considering the entire service record, and effect of non-considering the immediate previous service, while passing the order of compulsory retirement.
2. Scope of judicial review in the matter of compulsory retirement.

Headnotes

A. Service law – Compulsory Retirement – Immediate previous service record – Earlier, the Reviewing Officer promoted the petitioner relying upon it – Instead of considering this fact, the petitioner was compulsorily retired considering the entire service record – Validity challenged – Various disciplinary proceeding with multiple punishment orders were conducted against the petitioner – Relevance – Effect of Circular dated 09.07.2021 felt into consideration:

Held : In order to ascertain whether petitioner was fit to retain in service or was a case for compulsory retirement, his entire service record could be looked into, therefore, there is no illegality if entire record of petitioner was looked, therefore, a fact that petitioner was suffered with more than about 28 punishments within a period of 7 years would be a relevant fact to decide where petitioner was fit to continue or not in service – All clauses of Circular dated 09.07.2021 have to be read jointly – Later part of said Clause puts a caveat also that it would be considered only if employee was promoted on basis of merit and not on basis of seniority cum fitness, whereas learned Senior Advocate for petitioner has not put up his case that promotion of petitioner was based on merit only and not on basis of seniority cum fitness, therefore, benefit as sought by the petitioner of said Clause cannot be granted. [Paras 12 and 16]

B. Service law – Constitution of India – Article 226 – Judicial review – Compulsory Retirement – Scope of interference:

Held : The scope for judicial review of an order of compulsory retirement based on the subjective satisfaction of the employer is extremely narrow and restricted – H.C. (GD) Om Prakash's case relied upon. [Para 18] (E-1)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Saurabh Shyam Shamshery, J.)

1. Present case is arising out of an order dated 18.08.2023 passed by the Executive Director, North Zone, Food Corporation of India whereby petitioner was compulsorily retired in the interest of Corporation and public interest in general as well as an order dated 24.11.2023 whereby the representation of petitioner was rejected after examination by the Representation Committee.

2. Sri Ashok Khare, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Sri Shariq Shamim has not disputed a well settled position of law that order of compulsorily retirement is itself not an order of punishment nor it casts any stigma, however, he has argued that Reviewing Committee has not considered the detailed representation filed by the petitioner that his immediate previous service record was found satisfactory that he was found fit for promotion and was promoted also before impugned order was passed as well as broad criteria as mentioned in Circular dated 09.07.2021 issued by Food Corporation of India were also not followed and without assigning any reason, his representation was rejected by the Reviewing Committee.

3. Learned Senior Advocate has referred Clause No. 22(2) of Food Corporation of India Staff Regulation, 1971 as amended as well as Clause-10 of Circular dated 09.07.2021 and for reference, same are quoted below :-

"(2) (A) (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Regulation, the Appropriate Authority shall, if it is of the opinion that it is in the public interest so to do, have the absolute right to retire any Corporation employee by giving him notice of not less than three months in writing or three months' pay and allowances in lieu of such notice:

(a) If he is, in Category I & II service or post in a substantive, quasi-permanent or temporary capacity and had entered Corporation service befon attaining the age of 35 years, after he has attained the age of 50 years;"

"10. Broad Criteria to be followed by the Review Committee:- The broad criteria to be followed by the Review Committee while making the recommendations are as follows:-

(i) Corporation employees whose Integrity is doubtful shall be retired.

(ii) Corporation employees found to be Ineffective shall also be retired. The basic consideration In Identifying such Corporation employees should be their fitness / competence to continue in the post held.

(iii) No Corporation employee should ordinarily be retired on ground of Ineffectiveness, if, in any event, he would be retiring on superannuation within a period of one year from the date of consideration of his case. However, In a case where there is a sudden and steep fall in the competence, efficiency or effectiveness of a Corporation employee, It would be open to review such a case also for premature retirement: The sald Instruction of not retiring the Corporation employee within one year on the ground of Ineffectiveness except In case of sudden and steep. Ineffectiveness, but not on the ground of doubtful Integrity.

(iv) No Corporation employee should ordinarily be retired on ground of ineffectiveness, if, his service during the preceding 5 years or where he has been promoted to a higher post during that 5 year period, his service in the highest post, has been found satisfactory. There is no such stipulation, however, where the Corporation employee is to be retired on grounds of doubtful Integrity. In case of those Corporation employees who have been promoted during the last 5 years, the previous entries in the APARs may be taken Into account if he was promoted on the basis of seniority cum fitness, and not on the basis of merit.

(v) The entire service record of a Corporation employee should be considered at the time of review. The expression 'service record' refers to all relevant records and therefore, the review should not be confined to the consideration of the APAR dossier. The personal file of the Corporation employee may contain valuable material. Similarly, his work and performance could also be assessed by looking into files dealt with by him or in any papers or reports prepared and submitted by him. It would be useful if the concerned Internal Committee puts together all the data available about Corporation employee and prepares a comprehensive brief for consideration by the Review Committee. Even un-communicated remarks in the APARs may be taken into consideration."

4. Learned Senior Advocate has referred contents of representation filed by the petitioner before Reviewing Committee that his ACR for year 2015, 2016, 2018 and 2019 was 'very good' and his integrity and character was not doubted to make him unfit to continue in organization service and for public interest in general.

5. Learned Senior Advocate has also submitted that undisputedly petitioner has suffered 28 disciplinary proceedings between 2013 and 2020 and out of which two proceedings were dropped and in one case, a warning was given and in other case, increment was stopped for 2 years and for remaining 24 cases only, symbolic recovery penalty was imposed.

6. Learned Senior Advocate has further referred a judgment of High Court of Uttarakhand at Nainital as well as High Court of Punjab and Haryana wherein different High Courts have passed order in favour of employees that in a case where an employee was promoted in preceding 5 years, said fact would be an important factor for consideration of a representation filed against the compulsory retirement by the Reviewing Committee.

7. Learned Senior Advocate has also referred that petitioner was treated differently whereas there are example of other employees whose applications were accepted by Reviewing Committee and orders of compulsorily retirement were interfered.

8. Per contra, Sri Prem Narayan Rai, learned counsel for Union of India and Sri Santosh Kumar Mishra, learned counsel for respondent-FCI have referred a judgment passed by Supreme Court in C.I.S.F. vs. H.C. (GD) Om Prakash, AIR Online 2022 SC 122 : (2022) 5 SCC 100 and a judgment passed by coordinate Bench of this Court in Jagat Narayan vs. State of U.P. and others, AIR Online 2023 All 657 that entire record of employee-petitioner was rightly considered and it could not be limited only of last few years as well as procedure prescribed was followed by Reviewing Committee.

9. Learned counsel has further submitted that petitioner's service record is not unblemished and admittedly he has suffered various disciplinary proceedings wherein punishment awarded on multiple times, therefore, there was no illegality in impugned order.

10. I have considered above submissions and perused the record.

11. In order to consider rival submissions, few paragraphs of H.C. (GD) Om Prakash (supra) being relevant are quoted below :-

"12. In the judgment reported as Rajasthan SRTC v. Babu Lal Jangir [Rajasthan SRTC v. Babu Lal Jangir, (2013) 10 SCC 551 : (2014) 2 SCC (L&S) 219] , the High Court had taken into consideration adverse entries for the period 12 years prior to premature retirement. This Court held that Brij Mohan Singh Chopra v. State of Punjab [Brij Mohan Singh Chopra v. State of Punjab, (1987) 2 SCC 188] was overruled only on the second proposition that an order of compulsory retirement is required to be passed after complying with the principles of natural justice. This Court also considered the "washed-off theory" i.e. the remarks would be wiped off on account of such record being of remote past. Reliance was placed upon a three-Judge Bench judgment of this Court reported as Pyare Mohan Lal v. State of Jharkhand [Pyare Mohan Lal v. State of Jharkhand, (2010) 10 SCC 693 : (2011) 1 SCC (L&S) 550] and it was observed that : (Babu Lal Jangir case [Rajasthan SRTC v. Babu Lal Jangir, (2013) 10 SCC 551 :

"22. It clearly follows from the above that the clarification given by a two-Judge Bench judgment in Badrinath [Badrinath v. State of T.N., (2000) 8 SCC 395 : 2001 SCC (L&S) 13] is not correct and the observations of this Court in Gurdas Singh [State of Punjab v. Gurdas Singh, (1998) 4 SCC 92 : 1998 SCC (L&S) 1004] to the effect that the adverse entries prior to the promotion or crossing of efficiency bar or picking up higher rank are not wiped off and can be taken into account while considering the overall performance of the employee when it comes to the consideration of case of that employee for premature retirement.

23. The principle of law which is clarified and stands crystallised after the judgment in Pyare Mohan Lal v. State of Jharkhand [Pyare Mohan Lal v. State of Jharkhand, (2010) 10 SCC 693 : (2011) 1 SCC (L&S) 550] is that after the promotion of an employee the adverse entries prior thereto would have no relevance and can be treated as wiped off when the case of the government employee is to be considered for further promotion. However, this "washed-off theory" will have no application when the case of an employee is being assessed to determine whether he is fit to be retained in service or requires to be given compulsory retirement. The rationale given is that since such an assessment is based on "entire service record", there is no question of not taking into consideration the earlier old adverse entries or record of the old period. We may hasten to add that while such a record can be taken into consideration, at the same time, the service record of the immediate past period will have to be given due credence and weightage. For example, as against some very old adverse entries where the immediate past record shows exemplary performance, ignoring such a record of recent past and acting only on the basis of old adverse entries, to retire a person will be a clear example of arbitrary exercise of power. However, if old record pertains to integrity of a person then that may be sufficient to justify the order of premature retirement of the government servant."

13. There are numerous other judgments upholding the orders of premature retirement of judicial officers inter alia on the ground that the judicial service is not akin to other services. A person discharging judicial duties acts on behalf of the State in discharge of its sovereign functions. Dispensation of justice is not only an onerous duty but has been considered as discharge of a pious duty, therefore, it is a very serious matter. This Court in Ram Murti Yadav v. State of U.P. [Ram Murti Yadav v. State of U.P., (2020) 1 SCC 801 : (2020) 1 SCC (L&S) 245] held as under : (SCC p. 805, para 6)

"6. ... The scope for judicial review of an order of compulsory retirement based on the subjective satisfaction of the employer is extremely narrow and restricted. Only if it is found to be based on arbitrary or capricious grounds, vitiated by mala fides, overlooks relevant materials, could there be limited scope for interference. The court, in judicial review, cannot sit in judgment over the same as an appellate authority. Principles of natural justice have no application in a case of compulsory retirement."

14. Thus, we find that the High Court has not only misread the judgment of this Court in Baikuntha Nath Das [Baikuntha Nath Das v. District Medical Officer, (1992) 2 SCC 299 : 1993 SCC (L&S) 521] but wrongly applied the principles laid down therein. The adverse remarks can be taken into consideration as mentioned in the number of judgments mentioned above. There is also a factual error in the order [Om Prakash v. Central Industrial Security Force, 2011 SCC OnLine Del 4388] of the High Court that there are no adverse remarks and that the ACRs for the year 1990 till the year 2009 were either good or very good. In fact, the summary of ACRs as reproduced by the High Court itself shows average, satisfactory and in fact below average reports as well.

15. The entire service record is to be taken into consideration which would include the ACRs of the period prior to the promotion. The order of premature retirement is required to be passed on the basis of entire service records, though the recent reports would carry their own weight."

12. Aforesaid judgment is squarely applicable in present case that in order to ascertain whether petitioner was fit to retain in service or was a case for compulsory retirement, his entire service record could be looked into, therefore, there is no illegality if entire record of petitioner was looked, therefore, a fact that petitioner was suffered with more than about 28 punishments within a period of 7 years would be a relevant fact to decide where petitioner was fit to continue or not in service.

13. Court also takes note of relevant Regulation i.e. Clause-10 of Circular dated 09.07.2021 and its Clause-V has specifically provided that :-

"The entire service record of a Corporation employee should be considered at the time of review. The expression 'service record' refers to all relevant records and therefore, the review should not be confined to the consideration of the APAR dossier."

14. Therefore, an argument of learned Senior Advocate that his past record of 5 years was found good and he was found fit for promotion would have more weightage and earlier record which also includes multiple orders of punishment may be ignored, if accepted would be contrary to above referred Clauses of Circular dated 09.07.2021.

15. Facts of other cases wherein Reviewing Committee has passed favourable orders cannot be a ground to reconsider case of petitioner since their facts and their service records are not before this Court and each case is decided on basis of its own facts.

16. Court takes note of sub-clause-V of Clause – 10 of Circular dated 09.07.2021, however, Court is of the view that all clauses have to be read jointly. Clause-IV provides that "No Corporation employee should ordinarily be retired on ground of ineffectiveness, if, his service during the preceding 5 years or where he has been promoted to a higher post during that 5 year period, his service in the highest post, has been found satisfactory", however, later part of said Clause puts a caveat also that it would be considered only if employee was promoted on basis of merit and not on basis of seniority cum fitness, whereas learned Senior Advocate for petitioner has not put up his case that promotion of petitioner was based on merit only and not on basis of seniority cum fitness, therefore, benefit as sought by the petitioner of said Clause cannot be granted. In view of above, judgment of Birendra Singh Chauhan and others vs. Food Corporation of India and others and other connected cases, 2023:PHHC:164004 would also not much helpful to the case of petitioner.

17. In view of above, on basis of facts of present case and on basis of joint reading of sub-Clause X, the argument raised by learned Senior Advocate for petitioner has no legal basis, therefore, no case is made out for interference.

18. Court is also of the view that facts of present case are squarely covered by H.C. (GD) Om Prakash (supra) which is against the petitioner since the scope for judicial review of an order of compulsory retirement based on the subjective satisfaction of the employer is extremely narrow and restricted and since petitioner has failed to show that it was based on arbitrary or extraneous ground or affected by malafide, this Court in judicial review cannot sit as an Appellate Authority.

19. In view of overall circumstances, writ petition is dismissed.

Brief History of Roadways and it's Employees in State of U.P.

1. In order to consider real controversy involved in present case, it would be necessary to mention few facts about history of roadways in State of Uttar Pradesh and for that the Court takes some details mentioned by Supreme Court in a judgment passed in the case of U.P. Roadways Retired Officials and Officers Association Versus State of U.P. And Another : (2024) 9 SCC 33 and other relevant facts from pleadings.

2. In 1947, Uttar Pradesh Roadways was created as a temporary department of State Government for providing public transport facilities and its employees were accordingly appointed temporarily.

3. By a Government Order dated 16.09.1960 directions were issued on "Terms and Conditions of Service of Temporary Employees in the U.P. Roadways - Revisions of". For reference said Government Order is reproduced hereinafter :-

"G.O. No. 3014 D/XXX- 135/59 dated Sept. 16, 1960 Subject: Terms and conditions of service of temporary employees in the U.P. Roadways - Revisions of.

I am directed to say that the question of revising the terms and conditions of service of the Roadways employee, which is a nationalized commercial undertaking and has to work in conditions different from those prevailing in regular government offices, has been under the consideration of Government for some time past.

The passenger and goods services have to run irrespective of the fact whether it is a Sunday or a festival. The schedule of passenger services run by the State Undertaking cannot be altered off an on. In order to keep the Roadways services going the maintenance and repairs of vehicles has to be attend to even at odd hours at the workshops. At present the conditions of service of the employees of the U.P. Government Roadways and the Central Workshop, Kanpur are governed by the various rules and standing orders of Government applicable to other temporary government servants under the rule making powers of the Governor. In view of the special service conditions of employees of the Roadways it seems necessary to evolve a new set of service conditions for its employees which may be compatible with the nature of work and functions of the organization. Accordingly, in super session of all previous orders on the subject, the Governor has been pleased to pass the following orders prescribed revised terms and conditions of service of temporary employees of the U.P. Roadways including those detailed in para 2 below. The revised terms and conditions of service shall be applicable to all future entrants in the Roadways organization and shall be enforced in the manner mentioned hereinafter in the case of temporary employee including those on the work charge strength and paid on monthly basis.

(1) All temporary employees except those referred to in para 2 shall get one day's rest in every period of seven days in accordance with the rules to be framed by Government. In case the employees is deprived of any of the days or rest, he shall be allowed within the same or following month compensation holidays of equal number of the days of rest so lost.

(2) They shall be entitled to get one days paid holidays for every 20 days of work performed by them during the previous calender year, subject to the condition that the employee has worked for a period of 240 days or more during the previous calender year. In case the employees is not able to avail of full or part of the leave admissible to him during the calender year, it will be carried over to the following year, subject to a maximum of 30 days. (3) They shall got five days festival holidays in a calender year as prescribed by Government and subject to the rules to be framed for the purpose.

(4) They shall be paid extra wages at the rate of twice of ordinary rate of wages in respect of work performed by them beyond the prescribed hours of work.

(5) Their services are liable to termination on one month's notice on either side, or one month's pay in lieu thereof.

(6) In other respect the conditions of service will remain the same as at present.

The revised terms and conditions of services mentioned in para 1 above shall not apply to the following category of employees:-

(a) All employees working in the offices establishment of the Asstt. General Manager, General Manager, Service Manager, Chief Mechanical Engineer, Roadways Central Workshop, Kanpur and the Head Quarter Office of the Transport Commissioner.

(b) Supervisory staff of the rank of Junior Station Incharge and above on the traffic side;

(c) Technical staff of the rank of Junior Foreman and above on the engineer side;

The above three categories of Roadways staff will continue to be treated as regular government servants and will be entitled to the benefits admissible to any other government servant of the same category.

3. The Roadways and Central Workshop employees to whom the revised service rules are being made applicable shall be entitled to the provident fund benefits according to the provisions of the Employees Provident Fund Act. For this necessary orders have already been issued separately in G.O. No. 1488-D/XXX 2198/59 dated July, 29, 1960. Immediate step may please be taken for the implementation of the orders issued in the above G.O. The employees governed by the new terms and conditions of service will continue to get facilities for medical treatment so far enjoyed by them. All future entrants shall also be entitled to facilities for medical treatment admissible to Government servants. The canteen and rest house facilities as may be prescribed by government shall also be made available to them in course of time.

4. These order shall come into force w.e.f. October 1, 1960 and shall apply to all future entrants in the service of the Roadways organization and also the existing temporary employees who accept to continue to work on the revised terms and conditions of service. The status of Roadways employees already made permanent remains unaffected. All the existing temporary employees except those mentioned in para 2 above may be asked to indicate in writing if the new service conditions mentioned above are acceptable to them. Those who accept the new terms and conditions of service will be required to fill in a separate acceptance for which will be kept with their service records. If, however, any of the employees do not accept the new terms their services are to be terminated in accordance with the terms of their employment. I am to suggest that the implications of the revised orders may be explained to all concerned by the General Managers and Asstt. General Mangers and Chief Mechanical Engineer and that necessary action may please be intimated forthwith in order to implement the above orders."

4. Subsequently a Government Order dated 28.10.1960 was issued, whereby pension was provided to employees of three categories of Roadways Organization. For reference the same is mentioned hereinafter:-

"GO No. 3567-P/XXX-2198/99 dated 28.10.1960 - In continuation of G.O. No. 30140/XXX-135-V/1959 dated 16.9.1960, I am directed to say that the question or declaration the permanent posts in the Roadways Organization

(including the Roadways Central Workshop Kanpur) as pensionable has been under consideration of Government for some time past. In this connection, the Governor has been pleased to order that the permanent gazetted and non-gazetted incumbents of the following three categories would be entitled to the contributory 10 Provident Fund cum Pension Rules:-

(a) The employees working in the office establishment of the Asstt. General Manager, General Managers, Service Managers, Chief Mechanical Engineer, Roadways Central workshop, Kanpur and the Headquarter office of the Transport Commissioner.

2. The Governor has been further pleased to order, under note 3 Below Article 350 of the Civil Service Regulations that the rest of the permanent non-gazetted Employees both in the traffic and engineering sections of the organization, would be treated as non-pensionable posts referred to above, will be eligible for Provident Fund benefits in accordance with the provisions of the Employees Provident Fund Act.

3. I am also to add that Temporary Employment of the categories mentioned in para 1 above will be entitled to Provident fund benefits as provided under the Employees Provident Funds Act. As and when they became permanent, they will have the option to elect the contributory Provident Fund cum Pension Benefits in lieu of Employees Provident Fund.

4. As regards the grant of Provident Fund Benefits to other temporary and work charges employees of the Roadways organization necessary orders have already been conveyed to you in G.O. No. 14880/XXX-219/59 dated 29.7.1960.

5. The Roadways Corporation was constituted under Section 3 of the Road Transport Corporation Act, 1950 (hereinafter referred to as "Act, 1950") w.e.f. 01.06.1972. Section 3 of the Act, 1950 is mentioned herein after:-

"3. Establishment of Road Transport Corporations in the States. -The State Government having regard to—

(a) the advantages offered to the public, trade and industry by the development of road transport;

(b) the desirability of co-ordinating any form of road transport with any other form of transport;

(c) the desirability of extending and improving the facilities for road transport in any area and of providing an efficient and economical system of road transport service therein, may, by notification in the Official Gazette, establish a Road Transport Corporation for the whole or any part of the Union territory of Delhi under such name as may be specified in the notification."

6. State Government has issued Government Order dated 29.05.1972 wherein name of existing posts and name of corresponding posts in Corporation were mentioned. Earlier post by the name of Assistant Chief Manager was referred as Assistant Regional Manager in Corporation. In November, 1978 Corporation appointed some persons on newly created posts of Assistant Regional Manager and it is claimed that said posts were pensionable.

7. The State of U.P. issued a Government Order dated 07.06.1972, where by all the employees of erstwhile Roadways holding permanent posts as per earlier referred Government Order dated 28.10.1960 were declared entitled for pension, except following five categories of employees:

"(i) Those working on daily wages;

(ii) Those appointed on ad-hoc basis;

(iii) Those who had not completed minimum service period prescribed for the post;

(iv) Those holding posts which were not declared pensionable;

(v) Those who had been removed from service after departmental inquiry and those had been found guilty of criminal charges."

8. The State of U.P. issued a Government Order dated 05.07.1972 on a subject "Constitution of Uttar Pradesh State Road Transport Corporation and merger of the Officers/Employees of the Transport Organization". For reference the same is extracted hereinafter :-

Government of Uttar Pradesh

To Chief Manager
Uttar Pradesh State Road Transport Corporation Lucknow
Dated: Lucknow July 5, 1972
Transport Section-2

Sub: Constitution of Uttar Pradesh State Road Transport Corporation and merger of the officers/employees of the Transport Organisation.

Sir,
After merger of the officers/employees working under Uttar Pradesh Roadways with State Road Transport Corporation, in connection with merger of services under the Corporation, I have been directed to issue the following, amending the Government order no. 3000/30-2-1 70/72 dated June 7, 1972:

(1) According to the provision of para (1) (A) of the above Government order, all those permanent or temporary officers/employees who before the constitution of State Road Transport Corporation were in the services of State Roadways, their services would be considered in the Corporation on deputation. For this deputation no period is being fixed now.

(2) The State Road Transport Corporation has under section 45 of the Transport Corporation Act have not made rules about the service conditions till now in connection with the officers and employees under it. Therefore, leaving the above discussed Annexure 1 (1) A of the above Government order dated June 7, 1972, the remaining annexures would be considered dismissed. But whenever the Corporation would make rules regarding service conditions, then in them this assurance of the Government would be included that the service condition of the officers/employees under the Corporation in any condition would not be contemptuous than those conditions which were available to them under the Uttar Pradesh State Roadways and their government service period, their seniority under the corporation, promotion, fixation of pay, right concerning leave and financial benefits would be considered in that way only as they would have remained in their being in government service.

Yours faithfully

(g) the regulation of the carriage of passengers and goods in the road transport services of the Corporation."

"4. Option by the employees of the erstwhile Government Roadways Department and other employees. - (1) An employee of the erstwhile U.P. Government Roadways Department who was placed on deputation with the Corporation and who has or is deemed to have offered for absorption in the Service of the Corporation in accordance with Rule 4 of the Uttar Pradesh State Roadways Organisation (Abolition of Posts and Absorptions of Employee) Rules, 1982 (hereinafter referred to as the said, Rules), shall with effect from August 28, 1982, sand so absorbed, and shall, accordingly cense to be an employee of the State Government with effect from the said date.

Provided that the terms and conditions of service of the employees so absorbed in the Service of the Corporation shall, subject to the provisions of G.O. No. 3414/XXX-2-170- N-72, dated July 5, 1972, and the said rules be governed by these regulations.

(2) (i) Existing employees, who are not covered by sub- regulation (1) or those who are not exempted under Regulation 2, shall within one month of the commencement of these regulations, inform the appointing authority or such authority as the General Manager may in this behalf appoint whether or not they want to be governed by these regulations.

(ii) If they opt or fail to exercise their option for being governed by these regulations, their terms and conditions of appointment, so far as they are inconsistent with these regulations, shall stand rescinded:

Provided that, in respect of workmen where any of the provisions of these regulations is less favourable than the provisions of the U.P. Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the Payment of Wages Act, 1936, the Minimum Wages Act, 1948, the Factories Act, 1948 or of any other Act applicable to them, the provisions of such Act shall apply.

(iii) If such persons do not opt for being governed by these regulations, their services may be terminated in accordance with the terms of their appointment."

"39. Pension and other retirement benefits-(1)(i) Subject to the provisions of clause (ii) of this sub-regulation, an employee of the Corporation shall not be entitled to pension, but he shall be entitled to the retirement benefits mentioned in sub-regulation (2).

(ii) A person, who was the employee of the State Government in the erstwhile U.P. Government Roadways and has opted for the service of the Corporation, shall be entitled to pension and other retirement benefits in terms of the G.O. No.3414/302-170-N-72, dated July 5, 1972.

(iii) Such employees who have come in the service of the Corporation on pensionable posts on 1st June, 1972 or after that and now those posts have been declared non-pensionable under this Rule; the Corporation would contribute in the Provident Fund of such employees as desired under the provisions of Employees Provident Fund Scheme, 1952.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub- regulation (1) an employee (including an employee who was in the service of the State Government in the erstwhile U.P. Government Roadways Department), shall be entitled to the following retirement benefits:

(v) A free family pass for his return to his home from the place of posting at the time of retirement in case he does not accept railway fare;

(vi) Any other benefit that may be allowed by the Corporation from time to time. "

11. Rules 1, 4 and 8 of "The Uttar Pradesh State Roadways Organization (Abolition of Posts and Absorption of Employees) Rules, 1982" (hereinafter referred to as "Rules, 1982"), being relevant, are reproduced hereinafter:

"1. Short title and commencement.- (1) These rules may be called the Uttar Pradesh State Roadways Organisation (Abolition of Posts and Absorpotion of Employees) Rules, 1982.

(2) They shall come into force at once."

"4. Option to employees and absorption in Corporation service.-(1) An employee of the U. P. State Roadways Organisation, who was placed on deputation with the Corporation and who does not wish to be absorbed in the service of the Corporation, shall, within 3 months from the notification of these Rules in the Gazette, intimate the Secretary to Government in the Transport Department that he does not wish to be so absorbed.

(2) Every other employee who does not give an intimation, in accordance with sub-rule (1), shall be deemed to have exercised his option for absorption in the service of the Corporation.

(3) An employee, who is deemed to have opted for absorption in the service of the Corporation, in accordance with sub-rule (2), shall stand so absorbed with effect from the date of expiry of three months from the date of notification of these rules and his service under the State Government shall, with effect from the same date cease."

"8. Consequences where employee is absorved in the service of the Corporation.--(i) Leave account of the employee shall be transferred to the Corporation and the Corporation shall not be entitled to receive any contribution or compensation on this account from the Government.

(ii) Government shall bear the liability for pension, (which does not include family pension), and for gratuity, (if admissible to an employee), in proportion to the qualifying service in the Government rendered by an employee before the date of his being placed on deputation with the Corporation, the entire liability for family pension shall be borne by the Corporation.

(iii) Employees provident fund scheme.--In respect of an employee who did not hold any pensionable post but was a member of an Employee's Provident Fund Scheme, the liability for contribution required to be made by an employer, for the period prior to 1-6-1972 shall be that of the Government and with effect from 1-6-1972, it shall be that of the Corporation.

(iv) An employee shall, from the date of his absorption, cease to subscribe to his General Provident Fund account, if any, under the State Government and the amount to his credit in the fund, together with interest thereon, according to rules till the month preceding the date of transfer of his account shall be transferred to his new account to be opened under the Corporation."

12. In the year 1986, Corporation on basis of parameters determined by a report submitted by Pallavan Transport Consultancy Services for determination of number of Officers required in comparison to numbers of bus services, a considered proposal was prepared by Corporation for creation of 135 temporary posts of Assistant Regional Manager, which was adopted in the 98th meeting of the Board of Directors of Corporation and accordingly Corporation by an order dated 17.10.1986 created referred posts on temporary basis. The 'Proposal', it's 'Adoption' and 'Order' are reproduced hereinafter :-

Proposal

"निगम के पुर्नगठन के सन्दर्भ में विभिन्न विधाओं के सहायक क्षेत्रीय प्रबन्धक स्तर के 135 पदों के सृजन का प्रस्ताव ।

उत्तर प्रदेश राज्य सड़क परिवधन निगम के कार्य कलापों की विकेन्द्रीय कृत किये जाने के उद्देश्य से निगम की विभिन्न क्षेत्रीय इकाइयों / जोनल इकाइयों को त्रि स्तरीय सूचि से दो स्तरीय सूचि में परिवर्तित किये जाने का प्रस्ताव निदेशक मंडल की 96 वीं वैठक में प्रस्तुत किया गया था। निदेशक मन्डल ने संकल्प संख्या 1480/86 द्वारा उक्त का परिक्षण कर संस्तुति करने हेतु एक उप समिति का गठन किया था। उप समिति द्वारा अपनी बैठक दिनांक 2-6-06 में प्रोजेक्ट रिपोर्ट का विस्तारपूर्वक अध्ययन करने के उपरांत संशोधनों सहित योजन का क्रियान्वन करने हेतु अतिरिक्त पदों के सृजन किये जाने का प्रस्ताव शासन को अग्रतारित करने की अनुमति प्रदान की गयी थी। उप समिति के उक्त निर्णय का अनुमोदन निदेशक मण्डल ने अपनी बैठक दिनांक 20-6-86 में संकल्प संख्या 1498/86 द्वारा किया था। निदेशक मण्डल के अनुमोदनोपरांत 6 प्रधान प्रबन्धक, 18 उप प्रधान प्रबन्धक, 42 क्षेत्रीय प्रबन्धक एवं 135 सहायक क्षेत्रीय प्रबन्धक स्तर के अधिकारियों के पदों के सृजन का प्रस्ताव शासन को अग्रसारित किया गया था। शासन स्तर पर विस्तारपूर्वक विचार विमर्श के मध्य यह इंगित किया गया की शार्वजनिक उद्यम विभाग के द्वारा जारी

शासनादेश संख्या 306/44-2- उपं वे०रि०/1983 दिनांक 3-10-83 के क्रम में जारी शासनादेश संख्या 456 / चौवालीस/2-85 दिनांक 15-4-85 के अंतर्गत निदेशक मण्डल ऐसे समस्त पदों जिनका अधिकतम वेतन रुपया 1770/- से कम है, का सृजन तथा चयन करने हेतु सक्षम है। शासन स्तर से उपरोक्त जानकारी दिये जाने के उपरांत अब इन पदों के सृजन की औपचारिक स्वीकृति निर्देशक मण्डल द्वारा ही दी जानी है। अतएव निदेशक मण्डल से अनुरोध है कि 135 सहायक क्षेत्रीय प्रबन्धक स्तर के अधिकारियों (वेतनमान रुपया 900-1770) के पदों के सृजन किये जाने के प्रस्ताव पर विचार कर निर्णय लेने की अनुकम्पा करें ।

निदेशक मण्डल से अनुरोध है वि उपरोक्त प्रस्ताव का अनुमोदन प्रदान करने की अनुकम्पा करे।

विषयः अधिकारी सेवा विनियमावली, 1998 के प्रख्यापन के मध्य नियुक्त हुए, समस्त अधिकारियों को पेंशनरी लाभ दिये जाने सम्बन्धी मांग पर कार्यवाही कराया जाना।

उपर्युक्त विषयक महामन्त्री उत्तर प्रदेश राज्य सड़क परिवहन निगम, अधिकारी सगठन, लखनऊ के सलग्न पत्र दिनाक 16-05-2009 के अवलोकन से विदित होता है कि-

(1) 01.06.1972 को उत्तर प्रदेश सरकार के विभाग "उत्तर प्रदेश राजकीय रोडवेज" को समाप्त करके उत्तर प्रदेश राज्य सड़क परिवहन निगम का गठन किया गया।

(2) रोडवेज के पदों को समाप्त करने एवं इसके कर्मचारियों को उत्तर प्रदेश राज्य सडक परिवहन निगम में आमेलित करने के लिए दिनांक 28-04-1982 को एक नियमावली जारी की गयी।

(3) 01.06. 1972 के पहले रोडवेज के कतिपय पद लोक सेवा आयोग के क्षेत्रान्तर्गत थे। निगम बन जाने के बाद यह

पद निगम के क्षेत्रान्तर्गत आ गये परन्तु इन पदों के लिए निगम सम्भवतः तत्काल कोई सेवा-विनिमय नहीं बना सका। कोई समस्या न हो सम्भवतः इसीलिए 21-07-1972 को सरकार ने एक निर्देश जारी किया कि 01-06-1972 से निगम द्वारा सेवा नियम तैयार करने तक नियुक्ति की एवं अन्य सेवा शर्त यहीं रहेंगी जो निगम बनने के पहले उत्तर प्रदेश राजकीय रोडवेज में थी।

(4) उक्त प्रकार के अधिकारियों के लिये उत्तर प्रदेश राज्य सड़क परिवहन निगम अधिकारी सेवा नियमावली 1998 लागू हुई।

(5) उत्तर प्रदेश राज्य सड़क परिवहन निगम अधिकारी संगठन यह चाहते हैं कि 01-06-1972 से उत्तर प्रदेश राज्य परिवहन निगम अधिकारी सेवा नियमावली 1998 के प्रभाव में आने के बीच नियुक्त अधिकारियों को पेशन का लाभ दिया जाये।

2-इस सम्बन्ध में आपसे यह कहने का मुझे निर्देश हुआ है कि प्रथम दृष्टया अधिकारी संगठन की उक्त मांग औचित्यपूर्ण प्रतीत होती है। अतः कृपया नियमान्तर्गत कार्यवाही करने का कष्ट करें। इस सम्बन्ध में कोई कार्यीही हो और शासन से किसी निर्देश/आदेश की आवश्यकता हो तो कृपया औचित्यपूर्ण प्रस्ताव बोर्ड से अनुमोदित करवाकर शासन को भेजने का कष्ट करें।

17. The Petitioners have approached earlier before this Court by way of filing Writ-A No. 22832 of 2018, which was disposed of finally vide order dated 25.10.2018 with a liberty to State Government and Board of Directors of UPSRTC to consider the case of petitioners for pension. Relevant part of the order is extracted hereinafter:

"5. Heard learned counsel for the parties.

6. Certain facts relevant for demand are beyond the pale of dispute. The Road Transport Corporation Act was incorporated by the State Government in exercise of power vested in Section 3 of the Road Transport Corporation Act, 1950. Section 34 of the Road Transport Corporation Act, 1950 deals with the conditions of service of the employees of the State Government and the U.P. State Road Transport Corporation and the powers of the State Government in regard thereto. The relevant provision is being extracted hereunder for ease of reference :-

"34. Direction by the State Government.-

(1) The State Government may, after consultation with a Corporation established by such Government, give to the Corporation general instructions to be followed by the Corporation, and such instructions may include directions relating to the recruitment, conditions of service and training of its employees, wages to be paid to the employees, reserves to be maintained by it and disposal of its profits or stocks.

(2) In the exercise of its powers and performance of its duties under this Act, the Corporation shall not depart from any general instructions issued under sub-section (1) except with the previous permission of the State Government."

7. The service conditions of the officers of the U.P. State Road Transport Corporation were promulgated on 10.9.1998. The service rules for the officers of the U.P. State Road Transport Corporation are called U.P. State Road Transport Corporation Officers Service (General) Regulations 1998. All the petitioners were appointed prior to the promulgation of the service rules on 10.9.1998.

8. In exercise of powers under Section 34(1) of the Road Transport Corporation Act, 1950, an order was taken out by the Governor on 21.7.1972. The Government Order dated 21.7.1972 which is referrable to Section 34 (1) of the Road Transport Corporation Act, 1950 provides that from 01.06.1972 till the framing of the service rules by the U.P.S.R.T.C., the posts in the U.P.S.R.T.C. which came within the purview of the U.P. Public Service Commission prior to the incorporation of the U.P.S.R.T.C., shall be governed and regulated by the service rules applicable to the employees of the U.P. State Roadways, prior to the incorporation of the U.P.S.R.T.C. The claim of the petitioners is that since they were appointed subsequent to 1.6.1972 and prior to the promulgation of the service regulations framed by the U.P. State Road Transport Corporation in 1998, they are entitled to be governed by the G.O. dated 21.7.1972. They claim pensionary benefits on the foot of the Government Order dated 21.7.1972.

9. Copious correspondence was exchanged between the U.P. State Road Transport Corporation and authorities of the State Government regarding the aforesaid pensionary rights claimed by the petitioner on the footing of the government order of 21.7.1972. By way of an exemplar a communication dated 23.10.2008 sent by the Chief General Manager, (Administration), U.P. State Road Transport Corporation to the competent authority the State Government recorded that there were a number of posts which came within the purview of U.P. Public Service Commission and prior to the creation of the corporation and continue to exist in the corporation. The communication dated 23.10.2008 further records that the service regulations of the officers of the U.P. State Road Transport Corporation were framed in the year 1998. Hence officers appointed from 01.06.1972 to 1998 would be entitled for pensionary benefits. The letter recommends consideration of the case of such officials to be granted pension from the State exchequer. In a communication sent by the Special Secretary, Govt. of U.P. to the Managing Director, U.P. State Road Transport Corporation dated 12.6.2009 states that prima facie the demands of the officers for pension has merit. On 24.11.2017 the Managing Director, U.P. State Road Transport Corporation sent a communication to the Principal Secretary, Transport Department, Govt. of U.P., Lucknow. The letter dated 24.11.2017 after giving a brief back drop of the aforesaid controversy and communications in this regard refers to the Government Order dated 21.07.1972, taken out under Section 34(1) of the Road Transport Corporation Act, 1950 and other communications between the State Government and the U.P. State Road Transport Corporation. The letter dated 24.11.2017 most importantly records that the U.P. Road Transport Corporation Ltd. will bear the financial burden of payment of pension to its officers. The pension bill of similarly situated pensioners in the U.P.S.R.T.C. is being borne by the U.P.S.R.T.C. Such pensioners are being paid out by the financial resources of the U.P. State Road Transport Corporation. Finally the aforesaid interactive correspondence between the State Government and the U.P. State Road Transport Corporation culminated in a letter of the State Government sent by the Under Secretary, Govt. of U.P., on 25.1.2018. The letter directs the Managing Director of the U.P. State Road Transport Corporation, Lucknow to process and forward the resolution of the Board of Directors of the U.P. State Road Transport Corporation for grant of pensionary benefits to the officers appointed between 1.6.1972 and 2.10.1998.

10. The meeting of Board of Directors was convened on several dates including 17.7.2018 and 18.9.2018. However, on both the dates the Board of Directors failed to pass a resolution in this regard.

11. Considering the submissions made at the Bar and the relief claimed in the instant writ petition, no useful purpose would be served by keeping this writ petition pending in this court. With the consent of learned counsel for the parties the matter is being disposed of finally at the admission stage.

12. The claim of the petitioners for pension has to be decided by the competent authority. The claim has been made on the footing of the government order issued under the Road Transport Corporation Act, 1950 and correspondence between the State Government and the U.P. State Road Transport Corporation, on the subject. The decision cannot be postponed indefinitely.

13. The matter is remitted back to the Board of Directors of the U.P. State Road Transport Corporation. The Board of Director are arrayed as respondent no.3 in the instant writ petition. A mandamus is issued to the Board of Directors to the U.P. State Road Transport Corporation commanding the Board to pass a resolution in regard to the claim of the pension of the officers appointed between the period 1.6.1972 to 2.10.1998. The Board shall take a decision in the matter within a period of three months from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order along-with fresh representation made by such officers in that regard. The final resolution passed by the Board in the matter shall be communicated to the State Government within period of one month from the date of the resolution. The State Government shall take consequential action on the resolution passed by the State Government as expeditiously as possible preferably within a period of six months from the date of receipt of such resolution of the Board of Directors.

14. It is clarified that this court has not gone into veracity or the legitimacy of the claim of the petitioners for grant of pension. Grant of pensionary benefits is the prerogative of the Board of Directors of the U.P.S.R.T.C. and the State Government. Grant of pension and other service conditions are policy decisions. It is not the province of the courts to issue any directions to adopt any preferred policy option. It is for the State Government and the Board of Directors of the U.P.S.R.T.C. to take the final decision. There are huge financial implications which need to be considered by the competent authorities. All relevant considerations have to be factored in before a final decision is made. The rights of the petitioners in the light of the discussion in the preceding paragraphs is limited to the consideration of their case. The nature of the decision in this regard is the sole province of the said authorities. It is for the Board of Directors and the State Government to apply their minds independently and take a decision in that regard.

15. The writ petition is disposed of finally."

18. In pursuance of referred liberty, the petitioners submitted a joint representation dated 03.12.2018 to the Board of Directors, UPSRTC through its Chairman.

19. The Director of Board of Corporation in its 220th meeting on 25.01.2019 considered the issue of grating pension to officers appointed between 01.06.1972, when Corporation came into existence, and 03.10.1998, when Regulations, 1998 came into force. Board took decision on said proposal and on ground that the Corporation has suffered loss between April, 2018 to December, 2018 of about Rs. 98.10 crores in comparison of same period in the year 2017, rejected claim of granting pension. For reference the 'Proposal' and 'Decision' is mentioned hereinafter:

"परिवाहन निगम के गठन दिनांक 01.06.1972 से अधिकारी सेवा नियमावली, 1988 के प्रख्यापन दिनांक 10.09.1998 के मध्य नियुक्त हुये परिवहन निगम के अधिकारियों को पेंशनरी लाभ प्रदान किये जाने के सम्बंध में मा० उच्च न्यायालय के निर्णय दिनांक 25.10.2018 के अनुपालन के सम्बंध में।	निदेशक मण्डल द्वारा एजेण्डा टिप्पणी का अवलोकन कर निम्नवत् निर्णय लिया गयाः- 1. वर्तमान में 01.06.1972 से 19.06.1981 के मध्य नियुक्त हुये व निगम की पेंशन प्राप्त कर रहे अधिकारियों को अनुमन्य की गयी पेंशन सुविधा शासन के निर्देशों के अनुरूप है या नहीं यह जाँच कराकर समुचित प्रस्ताव निदेशक मण्डल के समक्ष प्रस्तुत किया जाय। 2. वर्तमान वित्तीय वर्ष में सातवां वेतनमान अनुमन्य किये जाने एवं डीजल मदों में हुई अप्रत्याशित वृद्धि से निगम की लाभदायकता पर प्रतिकूल प्रभाव पड़ा है। जिससे निगम की लाभदायकता में कमी आयी है, जिसमें कि अप्रैल 2018 से दिसम्बर 2018 तक की अवधि में गत वर्ष 2017 की इसी अवधि में हुये रू0 98.10 करोड़ के लाभ के सापेक्ष रू0 24.82 करोड़ की हानि हुयी है। इस परिस्थिति में प्रस्तुत प्रस्ताव पर होने वाले अतिरिक्त व्यय भार के दृष्टिगत संस्तुति किया जाना औचित्यपूर्ण नहीं पाया गया।"

20. Initially this writ petition was filed to challenge the aforesaid resolution dated 17.01.2019 with prayer to grant pension to petitioners who were appointed between 01.06.1972 to 03.10.1998.

21. During pendency of this writ petition this Court has passed orders on 17.03.2023 and 11.04.2023 and for reference the same are reproduced hereinafter:

Order dated 17.03.2023

"Heard Sri Samir Sharma, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Sri Ajay Kumar Srivastava and Sri S.K. Misra, learned counsel for the respondents/UPSTRC.

The dispute with regard to payment of pension to the petitioners was before this Court in Writ 'A' No.22832 of 2018 (Sandeep Raizada and 26 others Vs. State of U.P. & 4 others). The relevant portion of the said judgment dated 25.10.2018, reads as under:-

"6. Certain facts relevant for demand are beyond the pale of dispute. The Road Transport Corporation Act was incorporated by the State Government in exercise of power vested in Section 3 of the Road Transport Corporation Act, 1950.

Section 34 of the Road Transport Corporation Act, 1950 deals with the conditions of service of the employees of the State Government and the U.P. Despite there being such specific directions requiring the Board to consider the claim of the petitioners, the Board in its 220th Meeting dated 17.01.2019 by Resolution No. 41 did not consider the claim of the petitioners on merits; rather refused to consider the same on the ground that the Corporation is not in a financial condition to pay the same. The said decision of the Board in itself is a gross violation of the directions given by this Court.

The present petition was filed in the year 2019 and even during the last four years the Board has refused to take any decision on merits in itself speak the conduct of the respondents. Hence, a cost of Rs.25,000/- with regard to each petitioner is to be paid by the Managing Director, U.P. State Road Transport Corporation, Lucknow on or before 11.04.2023.

The Managing Director, U.P. State Road Transport Corporation, shall also ensure that the decision on merits is taken by the Board in furtherance of the directions of this Court in the judgment dated 25.10.2018 in Writ 'A' No.22832 of 2018, through his personal affidavit before this Court by the next date. In case of failure to comply with any of the direction, the Managing Director, U.P.S.R.T.C., shall be present in the Court on the next date.

"By order dated 17.03.2023 passed by this Court, the following directions were issued:

Today, an application for exemption along with compliance affidavit is filed. In the application for exemption there is no mention that order dated 17.03.2023, has been complied with regard to both directions. It merely prays for exemption of personal appearance of the Managing Director, U.P.S.R.T.C. today. In Paragraph 03 of the affidavit, it is stated that with regard to payment of cost amounting to Rs.25,000/- to each petitioner by order dated 17.03.2023, the same is assailed in Special Appeal No.182 of 2023 filed on 28.03.2023.

Learned counsel for respondents/Corporation admits that till date no stay order is granted in the said special appeal. Paragraph 03, of application also states that some more time may be granted to pay cost and case be fixed after the date fixed in special appeal. The prayer on the face of it is vague and cannot be accepted. Two days' further time is granted to the respondents to comply with the order for payment of cost as directed by order dated 17.03.2023, failing which the Managing Director, U.P.S.R.T.C. shall be present in the Court. It goes without saying that costs paid shall be subject to the decision passed in special appeal.

Put up on 13.04.2023, amongst top ten cases in the additional cause list."

22. Subsequently, the Board passed two resolutions dated 06.04.2023 and 19.10.2023, therefore, two amendment applications were filed being Amendment Applications No. 18 of 2023 and 22 of 2023 to challenge the resolution of Board of Directors of Respondent-Corporation dated 06.04.2023 and 18.10.2023. These amendment applications were allowed vide order dated 02.05.2024 and accordingly amended writ petition was filed. For reference 'Proposal' and 'Resolution' adopted by Board of Directors dated 06.04.2023 and 18.10.2023 are reproduced hereinafter:

23. A third amendment application, being Amendment Application No. 25 of 2024, was filed to challenge the amended agenda dated 27.06.2024 but neither it was pressed nor considered by this Court. However, for reference said resolution is also reproduced hereinafter:

"मद संख्या- 38 परिवाहन निगम के गठन दिनांक 01.06.1972 से उ०प्र० राज्य सड़क परिवहन निगम में अधिकारी सेवा विनियमावली 1998 लागू होने की तिथि दिनांक 10.09.1998 के मध्य नियुक्त अधिकारियों को पेंशनरी लाभ दिये जाने के सम्बन्ध में निदेशक मण्डल के समक्ष प्रस्तुत संशोधित एजेण्डा टिप्पणी:-

1. निदेशक मण्डल को अवगत कराना है कि विगत में निदेशक मण्डल की 246वीं बैठक दिनांक 18.10.2023 को मद सं० 20 पर प्रस्तुत एजेण्डा पर पारित संकल्प (अनुलग्नक-1) के क्रम में दिनांक 19.06.1981 से दिनांक 28.04.1982 के मध्य नियुक्त अधिकांश कार्मिकों द्वारा पेंशन अनुमन्य/पात्रता के सम्बन्ध में प्रार्थना पत्र प्रस्तुत / प्रेषित किये जा रहे हैं।

2. इस सम्बन्ध में निदेशक मण्डल को अवगत कराना है कि शासनादेश सं0-1470/30-2-2004-218/96 दिनांक 20.10.2004 (अनुलग्नक-2) में निम्नवत उल्लेख है:-

उत्तर प्रदेश राज्य सड़क परिवहन निगम कर्मचारी (अधिकारियों से भिन्न) सेवा विनियमावली 1981, जो दिनांक 19.06.1981 को प्रवृत्त हुयी है, के मध्य ऐसे पद, जो उत्तर प्रदेश राजकीय रोडवेज संगठन में दिनांक 01.06.1972 के पूर्व पेंशनीय थे, पर नियुक्त कार्मिकों को पेंशन की अनुमन्यता पर शासन को कोई आपत्ति नहीं है और उक्त सेवा विनियमावली-1981 के विनियम-39 (1) (एक) के प्राविधान के अन्तर्गत दिनांक 19.06.1981 से परिवहन निगम में नियुक्त कार्मिकों को पेंशन अनुमन्य नहीं होगा।

3 . उक्त के अतिरिक्त निदेशक मण्डल यह भी अवगत कराना है कि The Uttar Pradesh State Roadways Organisation (Abolition of Posts and Absorbtion of Employees) Rules 1982 जो अधिसूचना संख्या-2051/XXX-2-170-N-72 दिनांक 28.04.1982 (अनुलग्नक-3) द्वारा अधिसूचित की गयी हैं, के विनियम 2 (ii) व 3 (i) में क्रमशः कार्मिकों व इन नियमों के लागू होने को निम्नलिखित प्रकार परिभाषित किया गया है:-

2 (ii) 'Employee' means the Government servant employed in U.P. State Roadways Organisation and working on deputation with the Corporation.

3 (i) These rules shall apply to the U.P. State Roadways Organisation employees working on deputation with the Uttar Pradesh State Road Transport Corporation.

4. उपरोक्त विनियमों से स्पष्ट है कि The Uttar Pradesh State Roadways Organisation (Abolition of Posts and Absorbtion of Employees) Rules 1982 योवल उन्हीं कार्मिकों पर लागू थे, जो उ०प्र० राज्य सड़क परिवहन निगम के गठन दिनांक 01.06.1972 के पूर्व उ०प्र० राजकीय रोडवेज संगठन में कार्यरत थे तथा उ०प्र० राज्य सड़क परिवहन निगम के गठन दिनांक 01.06.1972 के पश्चात परिवहन निगम में प्रतिनियुक्ति (deputation) पर माने गये थे।

5. उ०प्र० राज्य सडक परिवहन निगम के गठन दिनांक 01.06.1972 के पश्चात परिवहन निगम द्वारा नियुक्त कार्मिकों पर The Uttar Pradesh State Roadways Organisation (Abolition of Posts and Absorption of Employees) Rules 1982, अधिसूचना संख्या-2051/XXX-2-170-N-72 दिनांक 28.04.1982 को अधिसूचित की गयी है, लागू नहीं हैं।

6. दिनांक 18.10.2023 को निदेशक मण्डल के समक्ष प्रस्तुत एजेण्डा एवं पारित संकल्प के अनुसार परिवहन निगम द्वारा दिनांक 28.04.1982 के बाद निगम द्वारा सृजित पदों के विरूद्ध नियुक्तियां प्रारम्भ की गयी एवं नियुक्ति पत्र में लगायी गयी शर्तों के साथ की गयी कि उनकी यह नियुक्ति, विनियमावली, जो निगम के द्वारा बनायी जायेगी, उसके आधीन होगी और उन्हें नियमावली मान्य होगी।

7. उपरोक्त के सम्बन्ध में स्पष्ट करना है कि निगम द्वारा अपने गठन दि० 01.06.1972 के उपरान्त ही, निगम द्वारा

सृजित पदों के विरूद्ध नियुक्तियां प्रारम्भ कर दी गयी थी तथा नियुक्ति पत्र में इस शर्त का भी समावेश किया जाना प्रारम्भ कर दिया गया था कि यह नियुक्तियां निगम द्वारा रोड ट्रान्सपोर्ट कारपोरेशन एक्ट-1950 की धारा 45 के अन्तर्गत बनाये जाने वाले नियम पूर्णतया प्रत्येक पर लागू होंगे।

उदाहरणार्थ दिनांक 28.04.1982 से पूर्व वर्ष 1978 में निगम द्वारा सहायक क्षेत्रीय प्रबन्धकों के पद सृजित करते हुए इन सृजित पदों के विरूद्ध सीधी भर्ती से नियुक्त किये गये अधिकारियों के नियुक्ति आदेश संख्या-6313/सी.एच.क्यू. /78/ 404 / सी. एच.ई/ 78 दिनांक 04.11.1978 (अनुलग्नक-4) में यह स्पष्ट उल्लेख है कि यह नियुक्तियाँ निगम द्वारा सृजित पदों के विरूद्ध की जा रही है एवं इस नियुक्ति आदेश के शर्त सं0-5 में यह अंकित है कि यह नियुक्तियाँ निगम द्वारा बनायी जाने वाली सेवा नियमावली के अधीन होंगी।

शासनादेश सं0-1470/30-2- 2004-218/96, दिनांक 20.10.2004 के अनुसार, उत्तर प्रदेश राज्य सड़क परिवहन निगम कर्मचारी (अधिकारियों से भिन्न) सेवा विनियमावली 1981, जो दिनांक 19.06.1981 को प्रवृत्त हुयी है. के मध्य ऐसे पद, जो उत्तर प्रदेश राजकीय रोडवेज संगठन में दिनांक 01.06.1972 के पूर्व पेंशनीय थे, पर नियुक्त कार्मिकों को पेंशन की अनुमन्यता पर शासन को कोई आपत्ति नहीं है और उक्त सेवा विनियमावली-1981 के विनियम-39(1) (एक) के प्राविधान के अन्तर्गत दिनांक 19.06.1981 से परिवहन निगम में नियुक्त कार्मिकों को पेंशन अनुमन्य नहीं होगा।

Submission on behalf of Petitioners

24. Sri Samir Sharma, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Sri A.K. Srivastava and Sri Himanshu Agrawal, learned counsel for petitioners, submitted that service conditions of petitioners who were appointed much prior to Regulations, 1998 came into force, were protected by Government Order dated 21.07.2072 that it will remain same as applicable to the earlier appointees when Corporation came into existence. No subsequent provision or regulations could change the conditions of service, which also include pension. Petitioners cannot be put in adverse situation on basis of any subsequent regulations on the subject.

25. Learned Senior Advocate by referring Government Order dated 29.05.1972 submitted that a post earlier known as Sahayak Pradhan Prabandhak was renamed as Assistant Regional Manager after Corporation came into existence. Therefore, the posts on which petitioners were appointed were earlier existed and service provisions applicable to said posts are squarely applicable to petitioners also.

26. Learned Senior Advocate by repeatedly referring Government Order dated 21.07.1972 has mentioned that it was issued under Section 34(1) of Act, 1950 after consultation with Corporation and on behalf of Governor, therefore, it shall be binding upon Corporation. In this regard he refers a judgement passed by Supreme Court in the case of General Manager, Mysore State Road Transport Corporation vs. Devraj Urs and another, (1976)2 SCC 862 that since it was already acted upon, therefore, the subsequent Regulations, 1998 would have no bearing on it.

27. Learned Senior Advocate by referring another judgment passed by Supreme Court in State of Madhya Pradesh and others vs. Shardul Singh, (1970)1 SCC 108 submitted that conditions of service would also include pension. By referring letter dated 23.10.2008 and 26.10.2017 he submitted that seniority list shows that post of Assistant Regional Manager/ Assistant General Manager was within the purview of U.P. Public Service Commission.

28. Some of the arguments of learned Senior Advocate raised during arguments and mentioned in written submission, are reproduced hereinafter:

"6. The officers who were appointed on the newly created posts of Assistant Regional Manager in the year 1978, have been granted pension by the Corporation. The pleadings in that respect made in paragraph 20 & 61 of writ petition have not been denied in paragraph 20 & 47 of counter affidavit and the Pension Payment Orders of some such officers appointed on newly created posts of Assistant Regional Manager and filed as Annexure No. SA-2 to the supplementary affidavit dated 18.02.2020 (necessary pleadings in paragraph no. 6 of supplementary affidavit) have not been denied in paragraph no. 36 of the supplementary counter affidavit.

7. The petitioners were appointed prior to framing of the Service Regulations 1998, and hence are entitled to pension and other post retirement benefits as payable to the officers of erstwhile U.P. Government Roadways, in accordance with the Government Order dated 21.07.1972. The date of appointment, etc., of the petitioners have been mentioned in para no. 17 of the writ petition which has not been denied in para no. 17 of the counter affidavit.

8. Even the appointment order of the petitioners provided that their services shall be governed by the Service Regulations to be framed under the Road Transport Corporation Act, 1950, and till such regulations are finally brought into effect, their services shall be governed by the Service Rules of the State of U.P. as applicable to the Government Servants as per G.O. dated 21.07.1972 (kindly refer to Annexure No.1 of the writ petition.

9. The right to pension accrues on the date of commencement of recruitment /of appointment. Hence rejection of the claim for pension to the petitioners by the Corporation amounts to resiling from the condition of service/promise made while giving appointment to the petitioners, and is impermissible under law.

(i) Writ (S/S) No. 1170 of 2010, Ashutosh Joshi vs State of Uttarakhand.

(ii) Writ (S/S) No.944 of 2010, Balwant Singh & Others State of Uttarakhand. (para 9) upheld in Special Appeal NO.330 of 2013 vide judgment dated 26.06.2014.

(iii) 2012 (1) ADJ 165, Raj Kumar Pundir us State of U.P, (paras 3, 7).

(iv) 2023 (11) ADJ 524, Nrupama Malviya vs State of U.P, (paras 20, 21, 22)."

"11. In accordance with the Government Order dated 21.07.1972, the officers of the erstwhile U.P. Government Roadways working on pensionable posts (Assistant General Manager re-designated as Assistant Regional Manager) and the petitioners / officers appointed as Assistant Regional Manager between 01.06.1972 till the date of framing of Service Regulations i.e. 10.09.1998, formed one homogenous class vis-à-vis pension. The impugned orders/resolutions therefore, are discriminatory and violative of Article 14, as it creates a distinct class out of the same homogenous class."

29. Learned Senior Advocate also challenged the resolution dated 17.01.2019 that it was arbitrary, perverse and unreasonable. Financial result of Corporation ought to have been considered on basis of whole financial year and it was profitable. Learned Senior Advocate also challenged the resolution dated 06.04.2023 that it was contrary to the purport of Government Order dated 21.07.1972, which has specifically provided that till framing of Officers' Service Regulations, the conditions of service applicable to the Government servants in erstwhile U.P. Government Roadways will continue to apply to such Officers. So far as resolution dated 18.10.2023 is concerned, learned Senior Advocate submitted that it was also incorrect and perverse.

30. Learned Senior Advocate further submitted that in all only 128 officers of Corporation are now left, who would be entitled to pension as per Government Order dated 21.07.1972 and 12.06.2009 and till March, 2019, 27 Officers out of total 128, have retired. The remaining 111 Officers would retire uptill 2032-33. As such, financial liability for payment of pension to them is not too much as contended by Respondent-Corporation.

31. Learned Senior Advocate by referring the judgment passed by Supreme Court in the case of State of Rajasthan and others vs. Mahendra Nath Sharma, (2015)9 SCC 540 submitted that it is a settled law that pension is not a bounty and an employee cannot be deprived of pension in violation of service condition providing for the same.

32. By referring various communications between State and Corporation learned Senior Advocate has submitted that despite there were specific observations and directions of State to consider claim of petitioners for pension being appointed between Government Order dated 21.07.1972 and 03.10.1998 when Regulations, 1998 came into force but said observations were ignored by respondents.

Submission of behalf of Respondent-Corporation

33. Per contra, Sri H.N. Singh, learned Senior Advocate and Sri S.K. Mishra, learned counsel for Respondent-Corporation, has submitted that pension can be granted only on basis of relevant provisions, however, in the present case petitioners have not been able to show any Rules, Regulations or Act which could provide pension to them. Learned Senior Advocate has placed heavy reliance on U.P. Roadways Retired Officials and Officers Association (supra) wherein history of Corporation was considered and while considering the issue of pension so far as employees of Corporation is concerned in relation to Road Transport Corporation Employees (Other Than Officers) Service Regulations, 1981 that pension could be granted only when there are specific provisions for the same. He has referred few paragraphs of aforesaid judgment with regard to law of pension and the same are reproduced hereinafter:

29. In order to examine the appellants' claim for pension it is necessary to dwell on the pre-requisites provided in the GO dated 28.10.1960. To be covered in the GO for receiving pension it is necessary for the appellants to plead and establish firstly, that they were holding permanent posts in the Roadways, and they fall in the three categories of employees referred to in para (1) of the GO. It is not the case of the appellants that they were made permanent by any express order issued by the Roadways management, nor they claim to be working in any of the three posts referred to in para (1) of the GO. Since para (2) of the GO clearly provides that the rest of the permanent non-gazetted employees both in the traffic and engineering sections of the organization, would be treated as non-pensionable and similarly, all temporary employees will also be non-pensionable, the appellants are not entitled to pension as per GO dated 28.10.1960. Secondly, the appellants are not covered under Article 350 as amended on 20.04.1997 of the Regulations to hold the pensionable posts inasmuch as despite amendment in the first part of Article 350 of the Regulations, Note 3 thereof has not suffered amendment which provides that service in non-gazetted posts in Government Technical and Industrial Institutions in Uttar Pradesh does not qualify in the case of persons appointed to such posts on or after 15.11.1938. Since the Roadways is considered to be Technical and Industrial Institution, the appellants are covered under Note 3 of Article 350, and they are not entitled for pension.

30. The High Court, under the impugned judgment, has observed that the appellants having received retiral benefits including the benefit under the Employees Provident Fund Scheme, cannot be permitted to turn round and contend that they should also be given pension. We have also considered this aspect of the matter and we approve the observations of the High Court on the principle that a party to the litigation cannot be permitted to approbate and reprobate. See National Council of Educational Research and Training vs. Shyam Babu Maheshwari & Ors., (2011)6 SCC 412 Krishna Kumar vs. Union of India, (1990)4 SCC 207 and Union of India vs. Kailas, (1998)9 SCC 721.

31. Similarly, in the matter of V.K. Ramamurthy vs. Union of India & Anr., (1996)10 SCC 73 this Court considered the claim for pension of those who opted for pension after a long gap of retirement and held in para 4 that the contributory provident fund retirees form a different class from those who had opted for pension scheme and as such they are not entitled to claim as of right to switch over from Provident Fund Scheme to Pension Scheme. Similar is the proposition in the matter of All India Reserve Bank Retired Officers Association & Ors. Vs. Union of India & Anr., (1992) Supp(1) SCC 664."

"35. The common thread in the above referred judgments of this Court is that pension is a right and not a bounty. It is a constitutional right for which an employee is entitled on his superannuation. However, pension can be claimed only when it is permissible under the relevant rules or a scheme. If an employee is covered under the Provident Fund Scheme and is not holding a pensionable post, he cannot claim pension, nor the writ court can issue mandamus directing the employer to provide pension to an employee who is not covered under the rules."

"49. We have already discussed the legal effect of the GOs dated 07.06.1972 and 05.07.1972 read along with Clause (4) of Regulation 39 of the Regulations, 1981. To reiterate, only those employees of the State Government working in the Roadways who have opted for services of the Corporation shall be entitled for pension and other retirement benefits in terms of GO dated 05.07.1972. However, other employees of the Corporation shall not be entitled to pension, but they shall be entitled to the retirement benefits mentioned in sub-Regulations (1) and (2) of Regulation 39. Thus, it is amply clear that only State Government employees absorbed in the Corporation shall be entitled to pension, "phrase that their service conditions shall not be inferior to the conditions as were available under the Government" would be applicable to the State Government employees for the purposes of according benefit of pension. The employees of Roadways who were not holding any pensionable post prior to their deputation or absorption in the Corporation, are not entitled to pension, as their service conditions in the erstwhile Roadways did not provide that they are entitled to pension. Thus, they have not been put to any inferior service conditions on their joining the services in the Corporation. In our considered opinion, the Division Bench of the High Court was not correct in holding that the members of the RKSP are entitled to pension even if they have been promoted after the cutoff date of 27.08.1982."

34. Learned Senior Advocate for Respondent-Corporation has vehemently referred the provisions of Regulations, 1998 that it was made in supersession of all existing regulations and orders on the subject. The said declaration is reproduced hereinafter:-

"In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (c) of sub-section (2) of Section 45 of The Road Transport Corporation Act, 1950 (Act No. 64 of 1950) and in supersession of all existing regulations and orders, on the subject, the Uttar Pradesh State Road Transport Corporation with the previous sanction of the State Government makes the following regulations regulating the conditions of the service of the offers appointed to the Uttar Pradesh State Road Transport Corporation Officers Service."

35. Learned Senior Advocate also referred the contents of Regulation 2 (Application); Regulation 17 (Superannuation / Retirement Benefits); and, Regulation 25 (Effect of Enforcement of these regulations), which are already referred in earlier paragraph of this judgment. By referring contents of Regulation 2, learned counsels submitted that Regulations, 1998 shall apply to the Officers, who stood absorbed or have opted for service under the Corporation and to the Officers appointed by the Corporation on or after first day of June, 1972 whether, in a substantive capacity; or in an officiating capacity against a regular vacancy; or on ad hoc basis; or in any other capacity whatsoever.

36. Learned Senior Advocate further submitted that petitioners have claimed that they were appointed against substantive capacity after 1st June, 1972, therefore, these Regulations shall be applicable in entirety to petitioners also irrespective of earlier orders on the subject, i.e., Government Order dated 21.07.1972 since these regulations were made in supersession of all existing regulations and orders, therefore, services of petitioners would govern after 03.10.1998 when Regulations, 1998 came into force as per its provision. He submitted that Regulation 17 is on superannuation / retirement benefits and the Board has not taken any decision that petitioners were entitled for pension.

37. Sri S.K. Mishra, learned counsel added that after Regulations, 1998 came into force except of the posts specifically declared pensionable, no other posts have option of pension. Learned Senior Advocate has also vehemently referred the effect of enforcement of these regulations and by referring Regulation 25 submitted that petitioners must have given undertaking within a month on the date of commencement that provisions of Regulations, 1998 are accepted to them as well as that no provision of Regulations, 1998 is under challenge.

38. Learned counsel has referred the history behind creation of 135 posts against which petitioners were appointed that it were newly created posts and only on basis of nomenclature petitioners could not equate the said posts with earlier posts which are pensionable. By referring the communications made by State he submitted that contents of said letters show that there was no direction that petitioners are entitled for pension and they have left to the Board to consider their claim for pension. Any reference in said letters was not binding upon the Board of Corporation. Even in earlier round of litigation liberty was granted to the Board and the State to consider the claim of petitioners, therefore, no benefit be granted to petitioners of said letters.

39. Learned counsel also referred the appointment letters of petitioners that they were initially appointed on temporary posts of Corporation and they never challenged any service conditions or approached this Court or respondents soon after Regulations, 1998 came into force.

40. Learned counsel by repeatedly referring the contents of Government Order dated 21.07.1972 submitted that it was only with regard to "selection process" and not "service conditions" such as pension.

Rejoinder Submission on behalf of Petitioners

41. In rejoinder, learned Senior Advocate appearing for petitioners has submitted that reliance on U.P. Roadways Retired Officials and Officers Association (supra) is completely misplaced and untenable as the ratio of aforesaid judgment is not applicable to the facts of present case. Before Supreme Court neither the question of effect of Government Order dated 21.07.1972 nor Regulations, 1998 were raised or considered. Said judgment was limited to the claim of pension of employees of Group 'C' and 'D' of Corporation and Government Orders issued in that regard. Learned Senior Advocate has referred the judgments passed by Single Bench and Division Bench of this Court which led to Supreme Court.

42. With regard to argument on delay, learned Senior Advocate for petitioners has referred para 17 of writ petition, that it was not denied in para 18 of counter affidavit. For reference para 17 of writ petition and para 18 of counter affidavit are reproduced hereinafter:

ARM = Assistant Regional Manager, RM= Regional Manager,

SM-Service Manager, GM = General Manager."

"18. That in reply to paragraph no. 17 of the Writ Petition, it is stated that the petitioners were appointed in year 1986 or thereafter i.e. subsequent to incorporation of the respondent corporation on the posts created for the first time in the respondent corporation, and the all appointments were subject to statutory rule to be framed in exercise of power conferred U/s of the Road Transport Corporation Act-1950."

43. Following are some submissions mentioned in additional written submissions by learned counsel for respondents:

"i. The posts in the U.P. Government Roadways stood transferred to the U.P. State Road Transport Corporation on creation of the Corporation w.e.f. 01.06.1972 (and the employees on such posts were treated to be on deputation to the Corporation). Hence, there was no question of creation of posts in the Government Roadways after 01.06.1972, which ceased to exist.

ii. Neither the claim of petitioners for pension has been rejected on this ground, nor is there any such pleading/proof in the counter affidavit / supplementary counter affidavit filed by the Corporation.

iii. The U.P. Government Roadways (Abolition of Posts and Absorption of Employees) Rules, 1982 (Annexure No. 4 to the writ petition), were only applicable to the "employees" (defined under Rule 2 (ii)) of the U.P. Government Roadways who were on deputation with the Corporation. While the appointment orders on the post of Assistant Regional Manager issued in the year 1978 (filed as Annexure No.3 to the writ petition) were issued by the respondent Corporation on the newly created posts, and those appointees were neither appointed in the U.P. Government Roadways, nor were on deputation with the Corporation."

44. He also submitted that argument of learned counsel for respondents that Government Order dated 21.07.1972 only relates to the selection process and not pension, is incorrect since this reason has not been assigned while rejecting the petitioners claim for pension in impugned resolutions as well as aforesaid Government Order specifically refers to "service conditions" which include pension.

45. I have heard learned Advocates for parties, perused the documents and pleadings available on record.

Discussion and Conclusion

46. On basis of above referred pleadings and rival submissions, the issue before this Court for consideration is:

"Whether the petitioners, who were appointed on the post of Assistant Regional Manager between 1986 and 1990 on newly created posts, are entitled for Pension on basis of a Government Order dated 21.07.1972 issued under Section 34(1) of Road Transport Corporation Act, 1950 on a subject in regard to selection procedure of posts under Road Transport Corporation as well as communications made by State Government to UPSRTC irrespective of provisions of the Uttar Pradesh State Road Transport Corporation Officers Service (General) Regulations, 1998 made in supersession of all exiting regulations and orders on the subject by the UPSRTC with the previous sanction of the State Government in exercise of the powers conferred by Clause (c) of sub section (2) of Section 45 of the Road Transport Corporation Act 1950?"

47. First of all the Court takes note of brief history mention in earlier part of this judgment. The Road Transport Corporation in State of U.P. was constituted w.e.f. 01.06.1972 and thereafter by a Government Order dated 05.07.1972 services of all Officers as well as Employees working in U.P. Roadways were merged with State Road Transport Corporation and their services were considered in Corporation on deputation and it was left open that whenever the Corporation would make rules regarding service conditions of said officers and employees, their service conditions under Corporation would not be contemptuous than those conditions which were available to them under U.P. State Roadways and their service period, seniority under Corporation, promotion, fixation of pay, right concerning leave and financial benefit, would be considered in the way only as they would have remained in Government service. The word 'pension' was missing in said Government Order.

48. Subsequently by way of another Government Order dated 21.07.1972 directions were issued by State Government under Section 34(1) of Act, 1950. Said Government Order was on the subject, "राज्य सड़क परिवहन निगम में पदों के चयन सम्बन्धी प्रक्रिया". By way of said Government order, it was directed that those posts which were within the purview of U.P. Public Service Commission and till U.P. Road Transport Corporation framed its rule, the service conditions of said posts, so far as appointment etc., shall remain same, i.e., as existed in U.P. Government Roadways.

49. The words "अन्य सेवा शर्त", i.e., "other service conditions" would include 'pension' or not is an issue for determination before this Court.

50. At this stage, it would be relevant to refer the judgment passed by Supreme Court in U.P. Roadways Retired Officials and Officers Association (supra) wherein it was reiterated that pension is a right and not a bounty. However, further a caveat was put that pension can be claimed only when it is permissible under the Rules or Schemes and per contra if there is no rule to support the claim of pension, the Writ Court cannot issue a mandamus directing an employer to provide pension to an employee, who is not covered under rules.

51. In aforesaid background the Court takes note of nature of appointment of petitioners, i.e., admittedly on basis of a recommendation of Pallavan Transport Consultancy Services, the Corporation has created 135 posts of Assistant Regional Manager without any reference that said posts were the same which exist before Corporation came into existence under different nomenclature, i.e., Assistant Chief Manager as well as it was also not referred, whether the service conditions of said post would ipso facto applicable to said newly created posts and, therefore, an ambiguity remains. Petitioners have never tried to get the ambiguity cleared, though they remained in service for many years.

52. The Court also takes note that conditions of appointment of petitioners were that their services will be under the Rules or Regulations to be framed under Act, 1950. In appointment letters there was a reference that till regulations are not framed, their services will be governed by the rules applicable to U.P. Government Employees. Even at that stage, there is no reference of 'pension' since specific service rule was not mentioned in the conditions though it is absolutely clear that if subsequently the Corporation frames rules or regulations, the services of petitioners would be governed by said rules or regulations only.

53. The Corporation at first instance framed Rules, 1981 for employees and its Rule 39 relates to "pension and other retirement benefits" for employees of Corporation that they will not be entitled to pension except who was employee of the State Government in erstwhile U.P. Government Roadways and has opted the service of Corporation since their pension was protected by Government Order dated 05.07.1972. Here it is reiterated that petitioners/ officers entered in the service of Corporation in the year 1986 onwards.

54. In aforesaid circumstances, the Court also takes note that in the year 1998 UPSRTC framed Regulations, 1998 applicable to Officers of Corporation, i.e., applicable to petitioners also. The introduction of said Regulations specifically provides that it was in supersession of all existing regulations and orders on the subject matter and it was framed in exercise of powers conferred by clause (c) of sub-section (2) of Section 45 of Act, 1950, which grant power to the Corporation to make regulations for the condition of appointment and service.

55. The declaration made in very beginning of Regulations, 1998 provides that it was in supersession of all Government Orders on subject, therefore, it was in supersession of the Government Order dated 21.07.1972 also, therefore, benefit of it, if any, to service conditions of petitioners would come to an end when Regulations, 1998 came into existence. After enforcement of Regulations, 1998 the services of petitioners would govern by its regulations only and, therefore, in case said regulations provides provision of pension to services of petitioners, it would be granted, otherwise no pension can be granted.

56. In above background, the Court also takes note that Regulation 2 of Regulations, 1998 provides that it would be applicable to officers appointed by Corporation on and after 01st June, 1972, therefore, without any dispute and ambiguity, these regulations are applicable to the service conditions of the petitioners in its entirety. Here the Court also takes note that none of the provisions of Regulations, 1998 were challenged by petitioners either in first round or in present round of litigation.

57. Regulation 17 of Regulations, 1998 provides that the Board may decide as to type of provident fund to be established for welfare of officers. However, neither petitioners not respondents have brought on record that in pursuance of said Regulation the Board has taken a decision that petitioners who were appointed before said Regulation came into force would be entitled for pension, rather petitioners who have retired, have taken benefits of Contributory Fund Scheme, i.e., other than pension scheme. Therefore, the Court is of the opinion that any specific scheme which could provide pension to petitioners is not in existence or framed in pursuance of Regulation 17 of Regulations, 1998.

58. The Court also takes note of Regulation 25 of Regulations, 1998, i.e., effect of enforcement of said Regulations. It provides that these Regulations shall apply to all Officers of Corporation who were in service of Corporation on the date of commencement of said Regulations and those who joined said service after such commencement. Since petitioners were admittedly in service of Corporation on the date of commencement of Regulations, 1998, therefore, also these Regulations shall apply to them. Clause (2) of Regulation 25 is also very relevant that Officers who were in service of Corporation when Regulations commenced, were under duty to give an undertaking within a month from the date of commencement of Regulations, 1998 that they have read and understood the regulations and accept the same. Neither petitioners nor respondents have come up with a case that petitioners have not given such undertaking since said clause further provides that in default of such undertaking, the Appointing Authority may consider termination of their employment. Therefore, petitioners are bound by provisions of Regulations, 1998.

59. On basis of above discussion, the Court is of the firm opinion that there is no specific provision subsequent to commencement of Regulations, 1998 that petitioners were entitled for pension.

60. The Court also carefully perused the resolutions adopted by Board of Directors of Respondent-Corporation. Firstly the resolution adopted in 220th meeting on 25.01.2019 which is referred in para 19 of this judgment that prayer of petitioners for grant of pension was rejected on ground of financial strength of Respondent-Corporation that it was in loss. No legal provision or applicable regulations, was considered, discussed or taken note of while taking said decision.

61. Subsequently, the Board of Directors took a resolution dated 06.04.2023 wherein the nature of creation of 135 posts against whom petitioners were appointed as well as purport of Government Order dated 21.07.1972 as well as retrospective effect of Regulations, 1998 were taken note of including the conditions of appointment that appointments will be governed by any subsequent regulations framed and enforced.

62. The Board of Directors further amended said decision by a subsequent resolution dated 18.10.2023 wherein similar decision was taken that petitioners were not entitled for pension. The Court takes note that decision took by Board of Directors are not happily worded and creates some ambiguity. Though they have referred Regulation 25 read with Regulation 17 but it does not clearly stated that these regulations are of Regulations, 1998 and referred Rules, 1982, which probably have not much bearing on the claim of petitioners. However, one issue is very clear that service conditions of petitioners have to be dealt with only in terms of Regulations, 1998 which were enforced in supersession of all earlier orders. In this regard the Court takes note of amended agenda dated 27.06.2024 but here also the ambiguity remains same, except paras 6 and 7 of it, which is reproduced hereinafter:

"6. दिनांक 18.10.2023 को निदेशक मण्डल के समक्ष प्रस्तुत एजेण्डा एवं पारित संकल्प के अनुसार परिवहन निगम द्वारा दिनांक 28.04.1982 के बाद निगम द्वारा सृजित पदों के विरूद्ध नियुक्तियां प्रारम्भ की गयी एवं नियुक्ति पत्र में लगायी गयी शर्तों के साथ की गयी कि उनकी यह नियुक्ति, विनियमावली, जो निगम के द्वारा बनायी जायेगी, उसके आधीन होगी और उन्हें नियमावली मान्य होगी।

7. उपरोक्त के सम्बन्ध में स्पष्ट करना है कि निगम द्वारा अपने गठन दि० 01.06.1972 के उपरान्त ही, निगम द्वारा सृजित पदों के विरूद्ध नियुक्तियां प्रारम्भ कर दी गयी थी तथा नियुक्ति पत्र में इस शर्त का भी समावेश किया जाना प्रारम्भ कर दिया गया था कि यह नियुक्तियां निगम द्वारा रोड ट्रान्सपोर्ट कारपोरेशन एक्ट-1950 की धारा 45 के अन्तर्गत बनाये जाने वाले नियम पूर्णतया प्रत्येक पर लागू होंगे।"

63. The outcome of above discussion is that:

(A) Petitioners were appointed against newly created 135 posts of Assistant Regional Manager and their appointment letter has specific condition that their services will be governed by the regulations to be framed under Act, 1950.

(B) Petitioners' claim that benefit granted by Government Order dated 21.07.1972 that service conditions of officers appointed thereafter will always remain the same as granted to U.P. Government Employees, is not a correct proposition since not only there was a reference of above condition in appointment letter but subsequently Regulations, 1998 came into force as well as same nomenclature of post could not be a criteria to determine entitlement for pension.

(C) The introduction of Regulations, 1998 specifically provides that it was in supersession of all earlier Government Orders issued on the subject, therefore, effect, if any, of Government Order dated 21.07.1972 came to end, when Regulations, 1998 were enforced and thereafter in terms of Regulations 17 and 25 the services of petitioners would be governed only by Regulations, 1998, which were accepted by them also.

(D) Petitioners are not able to show that in terms of Regulation 17 of Regulations, 1998 the Respondent-Corporation has framed any regulation with regard to pension, whereas admittedly all petitioners are beneficiaries of Contributory Fund Scheme and after retirement they have received the due benefits also.

(E) In pursuance of orders passed by this Court, repeated decisions were taken by Board of Directors and, as referred above, they may not be happily worded but it was a consistent decision that services of petitioners shall be governed by Regulations, 1998 once it was framed under the powers conferred by clause (c) of sub-section (2) of Section 45 of Act, 1950.

(F) The nature of communications of State Government has no statutory back up, therefore, they were not binding on the UPSRTC as well as only on ground of nomenclature of post or earlier also some similar post was created, would not negate the facts that 135 posts of Assistant Regional Manager were created in furtherance of recommendation of Pallavan Transport Consultancy Services and that petitioners' appointments were subject to any subsequent service regulations, which were framed in the year 1998, which is now hold the field so far as service conditions of employment of petitioners is concerned.

64. In aforesaid circumstances, discussions, analysis and it's outcome as well as in absence of any specific provision of service regulation to grant pension to petitioners, the relief sought cannot be granted. The issue framed in para 46 of this judgment is answered accordingly.

63. The writ petition is dismissed.

64. No order as to costs.

विचारणीय मुद्दा

वित्तिय संकट में नियोक्ता द्वारा अनुकम्पा नियोजन नहीं करने की, और तत्पश्चात ऐसे संकट से उबरने के बाद एकसाथ की जाने वाली कई नियुक्तियों की वैधानिकता।

सार-टिप्पणी (हेडनोट्स)

क. सेवा कानून- अनुकम्पा नियोजन अर्हता चालक / परिचालक पद 1165 मृतक आश्रितों की नियुक्ति - शासनादेश दिनांक 11.07.2003 द्वारा अलाभप्रद स्थिति वाले निगमों में अनुकम्पा नियुक्ति की व्यवस्था समाप्त कर दिया गया था किन्तु 2008, 2016, 2018 एवं 2024 में शिथिलता प्रदान कर अनुकम्पा नियुक्ति की व्यवस्था को आरम्भ करने का आदेश दिया गया, जिसके अनुक्रम में शासनादेश दिनांक 01.05.2025 एवं 05.05.2025 जारी की गई वैधानिकता को चुनाती बड़ी संख्या में एकसाथ अनुकम्पा नियोजन की अनुमन्यता :

अभिनिर्धारित : किसी भी नियोक्ता को ऐसी वित्तिय संकट में नियोजन के लिए बाध्य करना न केवल निगम के लिए अनुचित होगा, वरन् नियुक्त होने वाले कर्मचारी के लिए भी अनुचित रहेगा, क्योंकि उस पर भी इस संकट का प्रतिकूल प्रभाव होगा। वित्तिय दशा सुधारने पर ऐसे निगम को समय-समय पर अनुकम्पा नियोजन की अनुमति देने के लिए, उक्त शासनादेश में शिथिलता प्रदान तो की परन्तु 'नियम, 1974" के प्रावधानों में कोई भी शिथिलता प्रदान करने का आदेश नहीं दिया, वरन् उसके प्रावधानों का कठोरता से अनुपालन करने का आदेश भी दिया। इस कारण से भी शासनादेश दिनांक 01.05.2025 व 05.05.2025 विधिक शासनादेश है और उनको अभिखण्डित करने का कोई वैधानिक कारण नहीं है। (पैरा 15)

पुनः अभिनिर्धारित : शासन द्वारा 1165 पदों पर अनुकम्पा नियोजन की अनुमति दी गयी और यदि प्रत्येक वर्ष

आवश्यक दिशानिर्देश : उ. प्र. राज्य सड़क परिवहन निगम को यह निर्देशित किया जाता है कि अगर चालक व परिचालक के पद की मौलिक रिक्तियां हैं, तो सीधी भर्ती की प्रक्रिया को आरम्भ करने की दिशा में उचित कदम लें और यह भी प्रयास करें कि अनुकम्पा नियोजन भी वर्षानुवर्ष नियमानुसार हो सके, जिससे एक साथ अधिक संख्या में अनुकम्पा नियोजन के द्वारा पद भरने की आवश्यकता न हो। इसके लिए प्रदेश सरकार को निर्देश दिया जाता है कि शासनादेश दिनांक 11.07.2003 में उ. प्र. रा. स. प. नि. के संदर्भ में स्थायी शिथिलता प्रदान करने के लिए भी विचार करें और इस सम्बन्ध में उचित निर्णय शीघ्र लें। (पैरा 19)

१. सभी याचिकाकर्ता के पिता/माता उत्तर प्रदेश राज्य सड़क परिवहन निगम (संक्षेप में उ.प्र.रा.स.प.नि.) के कर्मचारी थे, जिनकी मत्यु उनके सेवाकाल में हुई। इन सबने 'उत्तर प्रदेश सेवाकाल में मृत

सरकारी सेवकों के आश्रितों की भर्ती 'नियम, १९७४' (संक्षेप में 'नियम, १९७४') के प्रावधानों के अंतर्गत उ.प्र.रा.स.प.नि. में उपयुक्त नियोजन की मांग की, परन्तु कथित रूप से उनके क्रमशः दावे 'नियम, १९७४' के प्रावधानों के अंतर्गत अर्ह न होने के कारण या तो लिखित रूप से अस्वीकार कर दिये गये या उनके नाम उ.प्र.रा.स.प.नि. द्वारा क्षेत्रानुसार प्रकाशित अभ्यार्थियों की सूची में सम्मिलित नहीं किये गये। इस कारण उन्होंने इस न्यायालय में व्यक्तिगत याचिकायें दायर की है; कि उनके नाम भी सूची में सम्मिलित किये जाये।

३. यहां यह उल्लिखित करना आवश्यक है, कि पूर्व में वर्ष २००२, २०१६ व २०१८ में भी ऐसे ही शिथिलता प्रदान करते हुए क्रमशः ६५०, १२०० व ५८७ चालकों/परिचालकों की पदों पर मृतक आश्रितों की नियुक्ति करी थी व इसके उपरान्त छः वर्षों तक मृतक आश्रितों को चालक/परिचालक पदों पर नियुक्त करने की कोई भी कार्यवाही नहीं हुई है और अब २६.०२.२०१८ से ३१.१२.२०२४ तक 'नियम, १९७४' के अन्तर्गत अर्ह आवेदकों की सूची प्रकाशित करी है। शासनादेश ०१ मई, २०२५ व ५ मई, २०२५ के द्वारा अर्ह आवेदकों के आवेदन को कुछ शर्तों के साथ पूर्ण होने पर अग्रिम कार्यवाही के निर्देश दिये हैं। सभी याचीकर्ताओं ने उपरोक्त दोनों शासनादेशों को निरस्त करने की प्रार्थना याचिका में प्रारम्भ में ही कर दी थी।

५. प्रतिवादी उ.प्र.रा.स.प.नि. ने एक प्रतिशपथ पत्र दाखिल किया व याचिकाकर्ता ने उसका प्रत्युत्तर शपथपत्र दाखिल भी किया, जिसके उपरान्त दोनों पक्षों के विद्वान अधिवक्तागणों को श्रवण करके निर्णय सुरक्षित किया गया।

६. याचिकाकर्ताओं की तरफ से उनके विद्वान वरिष्ठ अधिवक्ता श्री समीर शर्मा ने अपने सहयोगी श्री हिमांशु अग्रवाल व सर्वश्री मो० शरवर खान, आर.यू. अंसारी व कुलदीप कुमार गुप्ता ने निम्न तर्क इस न्यायालय के समक्ष रखे:

(क) रिट ए संख्या-७७८२/२०२५ में प्रार्थी के पिता की मृत्यु उनके सेवाकाल में १३.०८.२००६ को हुई थी। उसकी माता का प्रार्थना पत्र अनुकम्पा नियुक्ति के लिए लम्बे समय तक विचाराधीन रहा, परन्तु कोई निर्णय नहीं लिया गया। वर्ष २०११ में याचिकाकर्ता की माता ने उसकी अनुकम्पा नियुक्ति के लिए एक प्रार्थना पत्र दाखिल किया जो आदेश दिनांक १५.११.२०११ द्वारा अस्वीकार किया गया, कि वो अवयस्क (१८ वर्ष से छोटी) थी। याचिकाकर्ता ने वयस्क होने के उपरान्त एक प्रार्थना पत्र २१.११.२०१२ को दाखिल किया और अनुस्मारक पत्र २७.०४.२०१६ व २२.०७.२०१६ को दाखिल किये, परन्तु उस पर कोई निर्णय नहीं लिया गया। प्रार्थी ने लगातार प्रयास किया और अंततः उसका प्रार्थना पत्र इस आधार पर अस्वीकार किया गया कि वो प्रार्थना पत्र उसने उसके पिता की मृत्यु के ५ वर्षों के बाद दिया, वो भी उसके परिवार के वित्तीय संकट पर बिना ध्यान दिये।

(ख) ११६५ पदों पर केवल मृतक आश्रितों का नियोजन करना एक तरह से उनको १०० प्रतिशत आरक्षण देना है, जो भारत के संविधान के अनुच्छेद १४ व १६ के विरूद्ध है, क्योंकि इसके कारण नियमित चयन की प्रक्रिया गत कई वर्षों से नहीं हुई है। मात्र मृतक आश्रितों का ही चयन करना, उ.प्र.रा.स.प.नि. का एक मानक बन गया है और यह प्रक्रिया, चयन का वंशानुगत स्रोत बन गया है। सूची में उन अभ्यर्थियों के नाम भी शामिल किये गये हैं, जिनके प्रार्थना पत्र कर्मचारी के मृत्यु के पांच वर्ष के बाद प्रेषित किये गये हैं।

(ग) मृतक आश्रितों के द्वारा नियोजन के प्रार्थना पत्रों पर निर्णय लेने में बहुत विलम्ब होने के कारण व मृतक के परिवार के वित्तीय संकट के निर्धारण के मापदण्डों का सही अनुपालन, उ.प्र.रा.स.प.नि. द्वारा नहीं किया जा रहा है। इस कारण चयन प्रक्रिया में मनमानी हो रही है।

(घ) न्यायालय के द्वारा किये गये प्रश्न कि, अगर याचिकाकर्ताओं का नाम अर्ह अभ्यर्थियों की सूची में सम्मिलित न करने के कारण को न्यायसंगत मान लिया जाये और इस कारण से कि उनके या किसी अन्य द्वारा नियमित चयन की प्रक्रिया को आरम्भ करने की कोई मांग नहीं की गई है, तो क्या याचिकाकर्तागण के आग्रह पर सूची, प्रक्रिया व संदर्भित शासनादेश को निरस्त करना उचित होगा, जबकि इस निष्कर्ष से याचिकाकर्ताओं को कोई भी लाभ नहीं होगा और यह कि वर्तमान याचिकायें जनहित याचिकाएं भी नहीं हैं? के उत्तर में विद्वान वरिष्ठ अधिवक्ता ने कथन किया कि अगर कोई प्रक्रिया संविधान के अनुरूप नहीं है और उसका प्रभाव समाज के प्रतिकूल है तो याचिकाकर्ता इस न्यायालय के समक्ष आ सकता है और अगर वो यह प्रदर्शित करने में समर्थ हो जाता है कि प्रक्रिया संविधान के अनुच्छेद १४ व १६ व 'नियम, १९७४' के प्रावधानों के विपरीत है तो यह न्यायालय समस्त प्रक्रिया निरस्त कर सकता है, चाहे इससे याचिकाकर्ता का कोई व्यक्तिगत लाभ न भी हो और वो नियमित चयन प्रक्रिया में भाग लेना चाहता हो या नहीं; इसका कोई प्रतिकूल प्रभाव नहीं होगा।

७. याचिकाकर्ता के विद्वान अधिवक्ताओं ने निम्न विधिक दृष्टांगों पर बल प्रदान किया- विजय शंकर शर्मा एवं अन्य बनाम उत्तर प्रदेश सरकार एवं अन्य, २००५ (१५) एस.सी.टी. २६१; नेशनल इंस्टीट्यूट ऑफ टेक्नोलॉजी एवं अन्य बनाम नीरज कुमार सिंह (२००७) २ एस.सी.सी. ४८१; शिव कुमार दुबे एवं अन्य बनाम उत्तर प्रदेश सरकार एवं अन्य (२०१४) २ ए.डी.जे. ३१२ (एफ.बी.); नसीम बानो (श्रीमती) बनाम उत्तर प्रदेश सरकार एवं अन्य १९९३ सप. (४) एस.सी.सी. ४६; लोम्बार्डी इंजीनियरिंग लिमिटेड बनाम उत्तराखण्ड जल विद्युत निगम लिमिटेड (२०२४) ४ एस.सी.सी. ३४१; उत्तर प्रदेश स्टेट रोड कार्पोरेशन एवं अन्य बनाम मो० इस्माइल एवं अन्य (१९९१) ३ एस.सी.सी. २३९; उत्तर प्रदेश सरकार एवं अन्य बनाम अंतरिक्ष सिंह (स्पेशल अपील डिफेक्टिव नं० ९४२/२०१८) आदेश दिनांक १४.०५.२०१९; स्टेट ऑफ वेस्ट बंगाल बनाम देबवृता तिवारी एवं अन्य २०२३ आई.एन.एस.सी. २०२; केनरा बैंक बनाम अजीथकुमार जी.के. २०२५ आई.एन.एस.सी. १८४; जागेश्वर सिंह एवं अन्य बनाम उत्तर प्रदेश सरकार एवं अन्य २०१६: ए.एच.सी: १०५९०५; सुधीर कुमार मिश्रा बनाम उत्तर प्रदेश सरकार एवं अन्य (स्पेशल अपील नं० १७५/२०१६) आदेश दिनांक १९.०८.२०१६, कि किसी भी चयन प्रक्रिया में मृतक आश्रितों के लिए कोई भी पद आरक्षित नहीं किया जा सकता जबकि वर्तमान प्रक्रिया में उनका शत प्रतिशत आरक्षण है। यह कि मृतक आश्रित नियोजन, एक नियम की किसी भी नियोजन प्रक्रिया में सबको सम्मिलत होने का अधिकार है, का अपवाद है व यह नियोजन 'नियम, १९७४' या कोई योजना के प्रावधानों के अंतर्गत ही दिया जा सकता है। यह कि कोई भी शासनादेश, किसी वैधानिक नियमों का अतिक्रमण नहीं कर सकता है। चयन प्रक्रिया में ऐसे अभ्यर्थीगण जिन्होंने सरकारी सेवक की सेवाकाल में मृत्यु होने के ५ वर्ष के बाद आवेदन करने का कोई यथोचित कारण दर्शाया हो या वयस्क होने के कारण ५ वर्ष के बाद आवेदन किया हो, ऐसे, आवेदन को उनके वित्तीय संकट के मापदण्ड पर तय न करके और बिना किसी सोच-विचार के सूची में सम्मिलित न करना 'नियम, १९७४' के प्रावधानों का उल्लंघन है। यह कि ऐसे प्रार्थना पत्र जो विलम्ब से दिये गये हैं, उनके लिए मृतक आश्रित नियोजन के लिए, वित्तीय संकट या अनुचित कष्ट ही एक मात्र मानक है फिर भी प्रतिवादी ने इस पर विचार नहीं किया और न ही ५ वर्ष के उपरान्त प्रेषित आवेदनों को नियम ५ के परन्तुक के अन्तर्गत शासन को प्रेषित भी नहीं किया कि उक्त प्रावधान में शिथिलता प्रदान की जा सके।

८. उपरोक्त के प्रतिपक्ष में विद्वान अधिवक्तागण सर्वश्री सुनील कुमार मिश्रा, राहुल अग्रवाल, धर्मेन्द्र धर दुबे व मृत्युंजय मोहन सहाय ने कथन किया कि:

(क) सभी जिन याचिकाकर्ता के अनुकम्पा सेवायोजन के प्रार्थना पत्र स्वीकार नहीं किये गये उनके प्रकरण में कोई न कोई वैधानिक बाधा है और इस न्यायालय के समक्ष उस वैधानिक बाधा को दूर करने के लिए कोई ठोस आधार नहीं बताये गये हैं।

(ख) याचिकाकर्तागण एक तरफ अनुकम्पा सेवायोजन की सूची में अपना नाम सम्मिलित करवाना चाहते हैं और दूसरी तरफ अगर उनका नाम नहीं सम्मिलित हो पाये, तो सम्पूर्ण चयन प्रक्रिया को दूषित करार देना चाहते हैं। उनकी ये प्रार्थनायें आपस में आत्मघाती हैं। इस कारण से अगर उनकी प्रार्थना कि उन्हें सूची में सम्मिलित किया जाये, इस न्यायालय द्वारा अस्वीकार की जाती है तो अन्य प्रार्थना की समस्त प्रक्रिया दूषित घोषित करी जाये को यह न्यायालय सिरे से खारिज करे। प्रार्थियों के पास कोई वैधानिक आधार नहीं है कि चयन प्रक्रिया को चुनौती दें सके।

(ग) चयन प्रक्रिया, प्रदेश शासन द्वारा निर्गत शासनादेश दिनांक २९.०४.२०२५ द्वारा मृतक आश्रितों को ऐसे निगम जो लाभप्रद स्थिति में नहीं है उसमें अनुकम्पा नियोजन को समाप्त करने वाले शासनादेश दिनांक २२.०७.२००३ की विधिक

(घ) मुख्यालय परिवहन निगम, द्वारा क्षेत्रानुसार सूची प्रेषित की गयी (अलीगढ़ क्षेत्र की सूची दिनांक ०१.०५.२०२५ के पत्रांक द्वारा प्रेषित की गयी है) और शासनादेश दिनांक ०१.०५.२०२५ व २९.०५.२०२५ द्वारा यह भी निर्देशित किया गया कि 'नियम, १९७४' के प्रावधानों के अनुसार ही अग्रिम प्रक्रिया की जाये, अर्थात प्रत्येक अभ्यर्थी पद की योग्यता एवं आयु सम्बन्धी अर्हता पूर्ण करते हों और कर्मचारी की मृत्यु के ०५ वर्ष के अन्दर आवेदन करने वाले अभ्यर्थियों को ही नियुक्ति प्रदान की जाये। चालक के पदों के लिए मोटरयान अधिनियम, १९८८ के उचित प्रावधानों के अनुसार चालन अनुज्ञि की भी सम्यक रूप से जांच कर लिया जाये। अतः प्रयोज्य प्रावधानों में कोई भी शिथिलता प्रदान नहीं करी गयी है। अतः चयन प्रक्रिया में कोई वैधानिक दूषिता नहीं है। जिन याचिकाकर्तागण के आवेदन, यदि कर्मचारी की मृत्यु के ५ वर्षों के बाद प्रेषित किये गये हैं, इसलिए उन पर विचार करना अपेक्षित नहीं है।

(च) इस याचिका के प्रस्तर ४९ में एक अभ्यर्थी रेनू सिंह जिसका नाम सूची में है, के लिए यह कथन किया गया है, कि उसका प्रार्थना पत्र उसके पिता की मृत्यु (१०.०८.२०११) के ५ वर्ष बाद भी स्वीकार किया, परन्तु यह कथन अभिलेखों के विपरीत है, जैसा कि परिवहन निगम मुख्यालय के पत्रांक दिनांक २३, जनवरी, २०२३, जो प्रतिशपथ पत्र के साथ संलग्नक है, से स्पष्ट है कि अभ्यर्थी रेनू सिंह का पहला प्रार्थना पत्र १२.०१.२०१२ अर्थात उसके पिता की मृत्यु के ५ वर्ष के अन्दर ही प्रेषित कर दिया गया था, अतः चयन प्रक्रिया में मनमानी का आरोप आधारहीन है। याचिकाकर्ताओं ने किसी और अभ्यर्थी के संबंध में कोई तथ्यात्मक अवैधानिकता का उल्लेख नहीं किया है।

(छ) याचिकाकर्ता के विद्वान अधिवक्ता द्वारा विजय कुमार दुबे (पूर्व में उल्लिखित) के निर्णय का उल्लेख किया गया है परन्तु वो तथ्यों के अंतर के कारण याची के प्रकरण के लिए उपयुक्त नहीं हैं, क्योंकि विजय कुमार दुबे (पूर्व में उल्लिखित) के प्रकरण में उसके पिता का नियोजन श्रम न्यायालय द्वारा उनकी मृत्यु के २५ साल बाद वैध माना था। अतः उक्त समय का लाभ उसको दिया गया है और इतने वर्षों के बाद भी अनुकम्पा नियोजन प्रदान करने का आदेश दिया गया।

९. टिंकू बनाम हरियाणा सरकार: २०२४ आई.एन.एस.सी. ८६७:

"१२- जहाँ तक अनुकंपा नियुक्ति को, नियुक्ति के निहित अधिकार के रूप में दावा करने का विषय है, तो इतना उल्लेख करना पर्याप्त है, कि उक्त अधिकार सेवा काल में हुये मृत कर्मचारी की सेवा की शर्त नहीं है, जिसे बिना किसी जाँच या चयन प्रक्रिया के आश्रित को दिया जाना ही चाहिए। यह नियुक्ति विभिन्न मानदंडों के उचित और कठोर जाँच के बाद ही दी जाती है, जिसका उद्देश्य किसी परिवार को अचानक हुई आर्थिक तंगी से उबारना है, ताकि वह उस आपातकालीन स्थिति से उबर सके, जहाँ एकमात्र कमाने वाला व्यक्ति मर गया है और उन्हें असहाय और शायद दरिद्रता में छोड़ दिया है। इसलिए, अनुकंपा नियुक्ति, मृतक कर्मचारी के उस परिवार को संकट से उबारने के लिए प्रदान की जाती है, जो अत्यधिक आर्थिक कठिनाई का सामना कर रहा है और सेवायोजन के बिना, परिवार इस संकट का सामना करने में सक्षम नहीं होगा। यह किसी भी स्थिति में, अनुकम्पा नियुक्ति के लिए निर्धारित नीति, निर्देशों या नियमों की अपेक्षाओं को पूर्ण करने के अधीन होगी।

१३. यहां यह स्पष्ट रूप से उल्लिखित कर देना चाहिए कि ऐसे प्रकरण में जहां अनुकंपा के आधार पर नियुक्ति के लिए कोई नीति, निर्देश या नियम नहीं है, ऐसी नियुक्ति प्रदान नहीं की जा सकती।

१४. जहाँ भी अनुकंपा नियुक्ति के लिए ऐसी नीतियाँ बनाई जाती हैं, उनका मूल आधार और औचित्य, संकटग्रस्त और अभावग्रस्त परिवार को राहत प्रदान करने का उद्देश्य होता है, और इस प्रकार मृतक कर्मचारी के परिवार के पक्ष में सामान्य नियम का एक अपवाद बन जाता है। ऐसा ऐसे कर्मचारी द्वारा प्रदान की गई सेवाओं और उसके परिणामस्वरूप उत्पन्न वैध विधिक अपेक्षाओं को ध्यान में रखने के अतिरिक्त अप्रत्याशित घटनाओं अर्थात एकमात्र कमाने वाले की मृत्यु के कारण परिवार की स्थिति और घटनाक्रम में अचानक आए बदलाव को भी ध्यान में रखा जाता है।

१५. अतः, ऐसी नीतियों का उद्देश्य परिवार की परेशानियों में तत्काल सहायता प्रदान करना है। इस परिप्रेक्ष्य में, आश्रित द्वारा दावा प्रस्तुत करने के लिए कर्मचारी की मृत्यु की तिथि से तीन वर्ष की अवधि निर्धारित की गई है, जिसमें हरियाणा सरकार द्वारा जारी 1999 की नीति निर्देशों के अनुसार वयस्कता प्राप्त करना भी शामिल है, जिसे किसी भी स्थिति में अनुचित या अतार्किक नहीं कहा जा सकता, खासकर जब अनुकम्पा नियुक्ति एक निहित अधिकार नहीं है।

१६. वर्तमान मामले में, जैसा कि अभिलेखों से स्पष्ट है, अपीलकर्ता अपने पिता की दुर्भाग्यपूर्ण मृत्यु के ११ वर्ष बाद वयस्क हुआ। इस प्रकार, प्रतिवादी राज्य द्वारा दावे को उचित रूप से अस्वीकार किया गया है। इस प्रकार अपीलकर्ता के दावे को अस्वीकार करने वाले उच्च न्यायालय के आक्षेपित निर्णयों में कोई त्रुटि नहीं है।" (उपरोक्त हिन्दी अनुवाद न्यायालय द्वारा किया गया है। अतः किसी भी अनुवाद सम्बन्धी विवाद की स्थिति में मूल निर्णय को संदर्भित किया जाये।)

१०. याचिकाकर्ताओं ने एक ओर अनुकम्पा नियोजन के लिये अपना-अपना दावा प्रस्तुत किया है कि उनका भी प्रकरण 'नियम, १९७४' के प्रावधानों के अनुसार विचार किया जाय अर्थात् उनके नाम भी उ.प्र.रा.स.प.नि. के द्वारा प्रकाशित अर्ह अभ्यर्थियों की सूची में सम्मिलत कर लिये जाये अथवा वो समस्त शासनादेश जिसके द्वारा नियोजन की प्रक्रिया आरम्भ हुई है, विधि विरुद्ध घोषित करके अभिखण्डित किये जायें। उपरोक्त दोनों प्रार्थनाएं एक दूसरे के विरोधी हैं या दूसरे शब्दों में आत्मघाती हैं, क्योंकि अगर न्यायालय व्यक्तिगत याचिकाकर्ता के तथ्यों के संदर्भ में यह निर्णय देता है, कि उनका प्रकरण 'नियम, १९७४' के प्रावधानों के अनुसार विचार किये जा सकते हैं तो उनको अनुकम्पा नियोजन उन्हीं शासनादेशों के कारण प्रदान किया जायेगा, जिनको वैकल्पिक प्रार्थना के द्वारा अभिखण्डित करने की माँग करी गयी है। अतः एक कथन के माध्यम से आक्षेपित शासनादेश वैधानिक और दूसरे कथन के माध्यम से वो ही शासनादेश अवैधानिक घोषित करने की बहस करके, याचिकाकर्तागण दो नावों में एक साथ नौकायन करना चाहते हैं, वो भी जो एक दूसरे से विपरीत दिशा में जा रहीं हैं।

याचिकाकर्ता निधि शर्मा के प्रकरण के तथ्य व विधिक पहलुओं का विश्लेषण:-

११. अविवादित रुप से उक्त याचिकाकर्ता के पिता की मृत्यु उ.प्र.रा.स.प.नि. के सेवाकाल में दिनांक १३.०८.२००६ को हुई और याचिकाकर्ता ने वयस्क होने के उपरांत व पिता की मृत्यु के छः वर्ष बाद प्रार्थना पत्र प्रेषित करा और आगामी ४ वर्ष तक कोई कार्यवाही नहीं करी और एक विलम्बित अनुस्मारक पत्र २७.०४.२०१६ को प्रेषित करा। 'नियम, १९७४' के प्रावधानों के अनुसार मृत्यु के ५ वर्ष के उपरांत दिये गये प्रार्थना पत्र पर साधारणतः विचार नहीं किया जाता है और मात्र इस कारण से कि पूर्व में एक प्रार्थना पत्र याचिकाकर्ता के अवयस्क होने के कारण १५.११.२०११ को निरस्त हो गया था, यह नहीं माना जा सकता कि आवेदन ५ वर्ष के अंदर ही दे दिया था क्योंकि 'नियम, १९७४' के नियम ५ के अनुसार आवेदक वांछित पद के लिए निर्धारित शैक्षणिक योग्यताएं पूरी करता हो, अन्यथा सरकारी सेवा के लिए योग्य हो और सरकारी कर्मचारी की मृत्यु की तारीख से पांच वर्ष के भीतर रोजगार के लिए आवेदन करता है अर्थात् अगर उपरोक्त सभी स्थितियों को संतुष्ट करता हो, तो उन्हीं परिस्थितियों में उसके आवेदन पर 'नियम, १९७४' के अन्तर्गत विचार किया जा सकता है, परन्तु याचिकाकर्ता अविवादित रुप से उक्त सभी शर्त पूर्ण नहीं करती है।

१२. 'नियम, १९७४' का नियम ५ निम्न है:-

"(१) यदि किसी सरकारी सेवक की इन नियमों के लागू होने के पश्चात सेवाकाल में मृत्यु हो जाती है और मृतक सरकारी सेवक का पति या पत्नी पहले से ही केन्द्रीय सरकार या राज्य सरकार या केन्द्रीय सरकार या राज्य सरकार के स्वामित्व या नियंत्रण वाले निगम में नियोजित नहीं है, तो उसके परिवार एक सदस्य को, जो पहले से ही केन्द्रीय सरकार या राज्य सरकार या केन्द्रीय सरकार या राज्यसर के स्वामित्व या नियंत्रण वाले निगम में नियोजित नहीं है, इस प्रयोजन के लिए आवेदन करने पर, सामान्य भर्ती नियमों में छूट देते हुए, उत्तर प्रदेश लोक सेवा आयोग के क्षेत्राधिकार में आने वाले पद को छोड़कर, किसी पद पर सरकारी सेवा में उपयुक्त नियोजन दिया जाएगा, यदि ऐसा व्यक्ति-

(i) पद के लिए निर्धारित शैक्षणिक योग्यताएं पूरी करता हो,

(ii) अन्यथा सरकारी सेवा के लिए योग्य है, और

(iii) सरकारी कर्मचारी की मृत्यु की तारीख से पांच वर्ष के भीतर रोजगार के लिए आवेदन करता है:

परन्तु जहां राज्य सरकार को यह समाधान हो जाता है कि रोजगार के लिए आवेदन करने के लिए नियत समय-सीमा किसी विशिष्ट मामले में अनुचित कठिनाई उत्पन्न करती है, वहाँ वह मामले को न्यायसंगत और साम्यपूर्ण ढंग से निपटाने के लिए, जैसा वह आवश्यक समझे, आवश्यकता को समाप्त कर सकती है या उसमें ढील दे सकती है।

(२) जहां तक संभव हो, ऐसा रोजगार उसी विभाग में दिया जाना चाहिए जिसमें मृतक सरकारी कर्मचारी अपनी मृत्यु से पहले कार्यरत था।"

१३. उपरोक्त के पृष्ठभूमि में वरिष्ठ अधिवक्ता का यह कथन की प्रकरण की परिस्थितियों में ५ वर्ष की सीमा में शिलिलता देने के लिए उ.प्र.रा.स.प.नि. को याचिकाकर्ता का प्रकरण स्वत: राज्य सरकार को भेज देना चाहिए था। इस अन्तराल के बाद, जब याचिकाकर्ता ने पूर्व में स्वयं कोई कार्यवाही नहीं करी, स्वीकार नहीं किया जा सकता व उपरोक्त 'परन्तुक' नियोक्ता को बाध्य नहीं करता की वो इस तरह के प्रकरण को स्वतः राज्य सरकार को भेज दें। अतः वर्तमान याचिकाकर्ता का नाम अनुकम्पा नियोजन के अर्ह अभ्यर्थियों की सूची में सम्मिलित करने का कोई विधिक औचित्य नहीं है।

आक्षेपित शासनादेश व अनुकम्पा नियोजन की प्रक्रिया की विधिक वैधता का विश्लेषण: –

१४. शासनादेश दिनांक ११ जुलाई, २००३ द्वारा प्रदेश सरकार ने ऐसे उपक्रम जो लाभप्रद की स्थिति में नहीं थे उनमें अनुकम्पा नियोजन की प्रक्रिया को समाप्त करने का निर्णय लिया था और अविवादित रूप से उ.प्र.रा.स.प.नि. उस समय लाभप्रद स्थिति में नहीं था। कुछ वर्ष उपरान्त सम्भवतः वित्तीय स्थिति में सुधार होने के कारण, प्रदेश सरकार द्वारा वर्ष २००८, २०१६, २०१८ व अब ६ वर्ष बाद २०२४ में एक बार फिर से उक्त शासनादेश में शिथिलता प्रदान करते हुए अनुकम्पा नियोजन की प्रक्रिया को आरम्भ करने का आदेश दिया, जिसके अनुक्रम में उ.प्र.रा.स.प.नि. ने अन्य शासनादेश दिनांक ०१.०५.२०२५ व ०५.०५.२०२५ मुख्यालय स्तर व उसके उपरान्त क्षेत्रीय स्तर पर अर्ह अभ्यर्थियों के नाम की सूची के साथ जारी, इस निर्देश के साथ किये कि 'नियम, १९७४' के प्रावधानों का कठोरता से पालन करने के उपरान्त ही नियोजन का आदेश पारित करें। परन्तु इस न्यायालय के अंतरिम आदेश के कारण प्रक्रिया अभी पूर्ण नहीं हो पायी है।

१५. शासनादेश दिनांक ११.०७.२००३ द्वारा ऐसे निगम जो लाभप्रद स्थिति नहीं थे, अनुकम्पा नियोजन की प्रक्रिया को समाप्त कर दिया था। किसी भी नियोक्ता को ऐसी वित्तीय संकट में नियोजन के लिए बाध्य करना न केवल निगम के लिए अनुचित होगा वरन् नियुक्त होने वाले कर्मचारी के लिए भी अनुचित रहेगा, क्योंकि उस पर भी इस संकट का प्रतिकूल प्रभाव होगा। वित्तीय दशा सुधारने पर ऐसे निगम को समय-समय पर अनुकम्पा नियोजन की अनुमति देने के लिए, उक्त शासनादेश में शिथिलता प्रदान तो की परन्तु 'नियम, १९७४' के प्रावधानों में कोई भी शिथिलता प्रदान करने का आदेश नहीं दिया वरन् उसके प्रावधानों का कठोरता से अनुपालन करने का आदेश भी दिया। इस कारण से भी शासनादेश दिनांक ०१.०५.२०२५ व ०५.०५.२०२५ विधिक शासनादेश है और उनको अभिखण्डित करने का कोई वैधानिक कारण नहीं है।

१९. उपरोक्त विश्लेषण के उपरान्त भी, यह तथ्य की कई वर्षों से उ.प्र.रा.स.प.नि. में चालक व परिचालक की सीधी भर्ती की प्रक्रिया नहीं हुई और नियोजन या तो संविदा के माध्यम से या कई वर्षों के बाद अनुकम्पा नियोजन की प्रक्रिया से हुआ है और अब भी हो रहा है का यह न्यायालय गंभीरता से संज्ञान लेता है। जैसा कि सूचित किया गया है कि वर्ष २००५ में चालक के पदों पर अंतिम सीधी भर्ती क्षेत्रीय स्तर पर हुई थी एवं वर्ष २०१६ में उत्तर प्रदेश अधीनस्थ सेवा चयन आयोग द्वारा परिचालक के १६९० पदों पर अंतिम सीधी भर्ती हुई थी और उसके उपरांत कोई भी सीधी भर्ती की प्रक्रिया ना तो चालक और ना ही परिचालक के पदों पर हुई है। इस कारण से उ.प्र.रा.स.प.नि. को यह निर्देशित किया जाता है कि अगर चालक व परिचालक के पद की मौलिक रिक्तियाँ हैं तो सीधी भर्ती की प्रक्रिया को आरम्भ करने की दिशा में उचित कदम लें और यह भी प्रयास करें कि अनुकम्पा नियोजन भी वर्षानुवर्ष नियमानुसार हो सके, जिससे एक साथ अधिक संख्या में अनुकम्पा नियोजन के द्वारा पद भरने की आवश्यकता न हो। इसके लिए प्रदेश सरकार को निर्देश दिया जाता है कि शासनादेश दिनांक ११.०७.२००३ में उ.प्र.रा.स.प.नि. के संदर्भ में स्थायी शिथिलता प्रदान करने के लिए भी विचार करें और इस सम्बन्ध में उचित निर्णय शीघ्र लें।

२१. याचिका संख्या ११५४८ वर्ष २०२५: वर्तमान प्रकरण में आक्षेपित आदेश दिनांक २१.०६.२०२५ जिसके द्वारा याचीकर्ता के पक्ष में अनुकम्पा नियोजन को आदेश दिनांक ०२.०६.२०२५ और ०६.०६.२०२५ को इस न्यायालय के अंतिरम आदेश दिनांक ३०.०५.२०२५ के अनुपालन में याचिका संख्या ७७८२/२०२५ के अन्तिम निर्णय तक स्थगित कर दिया था और जैसा कि पूर्व में उल्लेखित किया गया है कि उक्त अंतरिम आदेश दिनांक ३०.०५.२०२५ निरस्त किया जा चुका है, और आक्षेपित शासनादेश वैध घोषित किये गये है। अतः याचिकाकर्ता को अब वांछित राहत प्राप्त हो गयी है। अतः याचिका का तद्नुसार निस्तारण किया जाता है।

२२. याचिका संख्या ११५४३ वर्ष २०२५: वर्तमान याचिका में आक्षेपित आदेश दिनांक १९.०६.२०२५ द्वारा याचीगण के पक्ष में अनुकम्पा नियोजन का आदेश दिनांक ३१.०५.२०२५ को इस न्यायालय के अंतिरम आदेश दिनांक ३०.०५.२०२५ के अनुपालन में याचिका संख्या ७७८२/२०२५ के अंतिम निर्णय तक स्थगित कर दिया था और जैसा कि पूर्व में उल्लेखित किया गया है कि अंतरिम आदेश दिनांक ३०.०५.२०२५ निरस्त किया जा चुका है व आक्षेपित शासनादेश वैध घोषित किये गये हैं, अतः याचिकाकर्ता को वांछित राहत प्राप्त हो गयी है। अतः याचिका का तद्नुसार निस्तारण किया जाता है।

परिचालक पद के लिए प्रेषित किया। परन्तु क्षेत्रीय प्रबन्धक, मेरठ के आदेशानुसार दिनांक ०९.०४.२०१९ के द्वारा याचिकाकर्ता के शैक्षिक प्रमाण पत्रों की जाँच के उपरान्त जब वो फर्जी पाये गये तो उसका मृतक आश्रित नियोजन का दावा निरस्त कर दिया गया। याचिकाकर्ता ने उक्त आदेश दिनांक ०९.०४.२०१९ को आक्षेपित किये बिना ही वर्तमान याचिका के माध्यम से अनुकम्पा नियोजन के लिए अर्ह अभ्यर्थियों की सूची में अपना नाम सम्मिलित कराने की प्रार्थना की है, जिस पर उपरोक्त विधिक बाधा के कारण विचार नहीं किया जा सकता है। अतः वर्तमान याचिका का निस्तारण इस टिप्पणी के साथ किया जाता है कि याचिकाकर्ता उचित विधिक उपचार के लिए स्वतंत्र है।

२५. याचिका संख्या ११३३७ वर्ष २०२५: वर्तमान प्रकरण में याचिकाकर्ता राजीव कुमार के पिता की मृत्यु सेवाकाल में दिनांक १६.१०.२०१८ को हुई और भारी वाहन चलाने का चालन अनुप्ति दिनांक २९.०७.२०१९ को निर्गत हुई। नियमानुसार चालन अनुप्ति के ५ वर्ष बाद ही याचिकाकर्ता चालक पद के लिए अर्ह होता है और क्योंकि जब अनुकम्पा नियोजन का आवेदन पत्र १२.१०.२०२३ को प्रेषित किया तब चालक अनुप्ति की अर्हता नहीं रखता था इसलिए आक्षेपित आदेश दिनांक १४.११.२०२३ द्वारा उसका आवेदन पत्र पर पात्रता पूर्ण न करने के कारण उस पर अग्रिम कार्यवाही नहीं की गई कि संदर्भित पात्रता २८.०७.२०२४ को पूर्ण होगी। अर्थात् याचिका के पिता की मृत्यु (१६.१०.२०१८) के ५ वर्ष के बाद पात्रता पूर्ण होगी। अतः न्यायालय का मत है कि आक्षेपित आदेश अनुकम्पा नियोजन के नियम के दृष्टिगत ही पारित किया गया है और जैसा पूर्व में उल्लेखित किया है कि चयन नियमों में कोई शिथिलता प्रदान नहीं की गयी है इसलिए आक्षेपित आदेश में हस्तक्षेप नहीं किया जा सकता। न्यायहित में याचिका इस टिप्पणी के साथ निस्तारित की जाती है कि उ.प्र.रा.स.प.नि. अगर चाहे तो याचिकाकर्ता को परिचालक के पद के योजन के लिए पुनः विचार कर ले, अगर वो पूर्ण पात्रता रखता हो। याचिकाकर्ता इस संदर्भ में नवीन प्रार्थना पत्र प्रेषित करने के लिए स्वतंत्र है।

२७. याचिका संख्या १२८८८ वर्ष २०२५: वर्तमान याचिकाकर्ता के प्रकरण के तथ्य याचिका ९८२२ वर्ष २०२५ के याचिकाकर्ता के समान है कि अनुकम्पा नियुक्ति के लिए अर्ह होने के व प्रशिक्षण के उपरान्त एक आपराधिक प्रकरण (मु.अ.सं. ०१२९/२०२५ दिनांक ०५.०५.२०२५ धारा ११५(२), ३५२, ३५१(३), ३३३ बी.एन.एस.) में याची का नाम आरोपी के रूप में दर्ज होने के कारण अग्रिम कार्यवाही रोक दी गयी है। अतः यह याचिका भी इस निर्देश के साथ निस्तारित की जाती है कि प्रार्थी अगर ३ सप्ताह के अंदर एक नवीन आवेदन क्षेत्रीय प्रबन्धक उ.प्र.रा.स.प.नि. के कार्यालय में व्यक्तिगत रूप से सौंपता है तो उक्त अधिकारी आवेदन पत्र का निस्तारण उच्चतम न्यायालय द्वारा अवतार सिंह बनाम भारत सरकार (पूर्व में उल्लिखित) के प्रकरण में पारित निर्णय के दृष्टिगत शीघ्रता से करेगा। याचिका तद्नुसार निस्तारित की जाती है।

Issue for Consideration

1. Criteria of preparation of list of 'suitable candidates' of unreserved category in preliminary examination to make them qualify for final examination.
2. Entitlement of OBC candidates, who might have scored better than unreserved category candidates to be placed in the list of suitable candidates falling in unreserved open category to compete with the unreserved category candidates in main examination.
3. How far granting of interim order by the Supreme Court against the Judgment of Punjab and Haryana High Court, can dilute the ratio laid down in this Judgment?

Headnotes

(A) Service law – Constitution of India – Article 14 and 16 – Right of equality – Reservation – Quota of unreserved category candidates vis-a-vis reserved category candidates – Recruitment for the post of Assistant Engineer – Main examination – List of suitable candidates declared qualified in preliminary examination was prepared as per the ratio of 1:12, instead as per the ratio of 1:15 provided under the advertisement – Validity challenged – Entitlement of OBC candidates who might have scored better than unreserved category candidates to be placed in the list of suitable candidates falling in unreserved open category to compete with the unreserved category candidates in main examination also felt into consideration:

Held : There could not be a quota of open category candidates as unreserved category quota to bar entry of reserved category candidates even while they have scored better marks to match or for better performance to the general category candidate – A candidate may have applied under reserved category but if he is not benefited by any relaxation other than the age and concession in fee at the preliminary examination result, then he can always enter unreserved category not only at the stage of final selection but at the same time when preliminary examination/screening test is held which may be only to shortlist candidates to find suitable candidates. [Paras 46 and 48]

Held further : The open category means open and when it comes to be a matter of adequate representation qua reserved category candidates, if a reserved category candidates matching cut off marks of candidates of unreserved category candidate, are permitted to march to the unreserved category, then it will be more a case of level playing field to invite all equals to participate in open competition. One must not forget that equality before law and equal protection of laws means "likes to be treated alike" and hence whoever competes with the candidates of open category and falls within the cutoff of that category as may be prescribed, would constitute a class for limited purposes to from suitable candidates' group within the meaning of Article 14 of the Constitution. Confining such a candidate to the reserved category only for the reason that list has been published category-wise, would definitely amount to discrimination. [para 49]

(B) Jurisprudence – Precedent – Principle of Stare decisis – Granting of interim order by the Supreme Court against the Judgment of Punjab and Haryana High Court, how far dilute the ratio laid down in this Judgment :

Held : The judgment of Punjab and Haryana High Court in the matter of Haryana Public Service Commission v. Parmila and Another, of course, has been stayed by Supreme Court but this interim order cannot be taken to have watered down or in any manner diluted the legal position emerging out from the judgment in the case of Deependra Yadav on principle of stare decisis – So long as the judgment in the case of Deependra Yadav stands, it would amount to a settled legal position as a binding precedent on same principle of stare decisis. [Paras 44 and 45]

(C) Interpretation of statute – Constitution of India – Article 14 – Equality before law and Equal protection of laws –Meaning:

Held : Equality before law and equal protection of laws means 'likes to be treated alike'. [Para 49] (E-1)

Advs. for the Respondeents : Anoop Trivedi, Senior Advocate, Nipun Singh, Naman Agarwal, Ritaj Vikram Singh, M. N. Singh, P.K. Srivastava

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ajit Kumar, J.)

1. Heard Sri Ashok Khare, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Sri Himanshu Singh, learned Advocate holding brief of Sri Siddharth Khare, learned counsel for the petitioners, Sri Anoop Trivedi, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Sri Nipun Singh, Sri Naman Agarwal and Sri Ritaj Vikram Singh, learned Advocates appearing for the Uttar Pradesh Public Service Commission and Sri P.K. Srivastava, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel for State of Uttar Pradesh and other State respondents.

2. All these three petitions since raise common question of law, they have been heard simultaneously and are now being decided by this common judgment.

3. The subject matter of controversy arising in all these petitions relate to preparation of result of preliminary examination conducted by Uttar Pradesh Public Service Commission (hereinafter referred to as 'Commission') for the purposes of selection and appointment upon different categories of posts in the Departments under the State, namely Assistant Engineer (Civil/ Mechanical) and likewise posts falling in Group-B, Grade-2 post of District Horticulture Officer/ Food Processing Officer in the department of Agriculture and Senior Technical Assistant, Group - A post in different branches of Chemistry/ Botany/ Agronomy/ Plant Protection and Development. In all 604 posts were initially advertised in total 5 groups by the Commission vide advertisement No. A-9/E-1/2024 dated 17.12.2024 inviting applications from eligible candidates. Later on 5 posts were added totalling to 609 posts. The petitioners in these petitions have applied for the posts of Civil/ Mechanical Engineer pursuant to the advertisement and also some of the petitioners have applied for Group-B posts of District Horticulture Officer/Food Processing Officer and Group-A category posts Senior Technical Assistants in different branches, Chemistry/ Botany/ Agronomy/ Plant Protection and Development.

4. For the purpose of statement of facts, legal pleas taken and reference made to certain Rules that are applicable in connection with the matter, writ petition in the matter of Rajat Maurya & 41 others v. State of U.P. & 6 Others being Writ - A No. 8788 of 2025, is taken up as a leading petition.

5. There is no quarrel as to number of vacancies, the preliminary examination (screen test) conducted by the Commission. The dispute erupted only upon result being published on 26.05.2025 qualifying only 7358 candidates against 609 vacancies which according to the petitioners was not in consonance with clause 11(8) of the advertisement.

6. In order to appreciate the controversy and before I deal with the arguments advanced on behalf of rival parties, I consider it appropriate to refer to the important clauses of the advertisement and the U.P. Direct Recruitment through Public Service Commission Preliminary Examination Rules, 1986 (hereinafter to be referred to as 'Rules, 1986') and the The Uttar Pradesh Public Services (Reservation for Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and Other Backward Classes) Act, 1994 (hereinafter referred to as 'Act, 1994'). Clauses 11(8), 11(13) and 11(14) of the advertisement relevant for in the case, are reproduced hereunder:

"11. IMPORTANT INSTRUCTIONS FOR CANDIDATES:-

(8). On the basis of the result of Preliminary Examination, fifteen times candidates to the number of vacancies shall be declared successful for the Main Examination and three times candidates to the number of vacancies shall be called for the interview.

(13. The minimum efficiency standard for S.C. & S.T. candidates is fixed 35% i.e. the Candidates of these Categories shall not be placed in the merit/select list if they have secured less than 35% marks in the Preliminary/Main examination. Similarly, the minimum efficiency standard for the candidates of other categories is fixed 40% i.e. such candidates shall not be placed in the merit/select list if they have secured less than 40% marks in the Preliminary/Main examination. All such candidates who have secured less marks than the marks of minimum efficiency standard as fixed by the Commission shall be treated disqualified.

(14). The candidates of reserved categories will be adjusted against the unreserved category in the final selection only if he/she will not have availed any benefit/concession in qualifying standard at the stage of Preliminary/ Main Examination."

(emphasis added)

7. Upon reading clause 11(8) as quoted above, it becomes clear that after the preliminary examination is held, fifteen times candidates qua the vacancies advertised shall be declared/ placed in the list of eligible candidates for the main examination and three times of the candidates qua the vacancies advertised shall be called for the interview finally.

8. The minimum efficiency standard for SC and ST category candidates is fixed 35% minimum marks and 40% minimum marks for the OBC and unreserved candidates vide clause 11(13).

9. Clause 11(14) which is a clause that needed interpretation and is in issue, it is provided that the reserved category candidates will be adjusted against unreserved category at the stage of final selection, provided such category candidate has not availed any benefit/ concession in qualifying standard at the stage of preliminary examination.

10. The relevant rules 2(viii), 2(ix), 3(1), 3(2), 3(3), 3(4) & 3(5) of the Rules, 1986 are reproduced hereunder:

"2. Definitions.--(i) "Commission means Public Service Commission Uttar Pradesh.

(viii) "Suitable candidates" means candidate securing minimum number of marks as may be fixed by Commission in its discretion at Preliminary Examination thereby enabling him to appear in the main examination or interview as the case may be;

(iv) "Main Examination or Interview" means the examination or interview as per relevant Service rules and Government orders.

3. Holding of preliminary examination.

(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in relevant service rules or Government orders regarding recruitment, the Commission may, with the prior approval of Government hold preliminary examination for selection of suitable candidates for admission to main examination or interview, as the case may be.

(2) Where a preliminary examination is held only such candidates as qualify in the preliminary examination will be entitled for admission to Main Examination or Interview, as the case may be.

(3) The marks obtained in the preliminary examination will not be counted for determining the final orders of merit.

(4) (i) Preliminary examination will consist of two question papers of two hours' duration each in cases where it is to be followed by main examination. Out of the two question papers one will be the compulsory paper of General Knowledge/ General Studies while the other will be of one of the subjects which may be offered by the candidates out of the optional subjects allowed for the Main Examination of that Service. In case there be no optional subjects allowed for the Main Examination, the second subject to be offered may be prescribed by the Commission in its discretion from amongst the compulsory subjects allowed for the examination.

(ii) In cases where selection by interview alone is prescribed the preliminary examination will be of one paper of two hours duration in such subjects as may be prescribed by the Commission in its discretion covering mainly questions on General Knowledge, General Studies and subjects relevant to the nature of job of the post.

(5) Question papers will be set in the language allowed for main Examination and in English and Hindi in cases where selection by interview is prescribed in Service rules and Government orders.

(6) The Preliminary Examination shall be held at places and on dates and time as is fixed by Commission."

(emphasis added)

11. From a bare reading of the aforesaid provisions, it comes out that a candidate who qualifies the preliminary examination by obtaining minimum qualifier percentage of marks as may be fixed under the advertisement, is termed as "Suitable Candidate" and main examination and interview are referable to the relevant service rules which provide for selection through written examination or walk-in-interview. There is no quarrel as to the conduct of main examination and interview for the purposes of recruitment against the vacancies advertised under the relevant departmental service rules. Rule 3 of the Rules, 1986 authorizes the Commission to hold preliminary examination to shortlist candidates for admission to main examination and/ or interview, as the case may be, with the prior approval of the Government and in the event preliminary examination is held, a candidate who qualifies, shall be a suitable candidate to appear in main examination or interview as the departmental service rules may provide. Rules further provide that preliminary examination is only qualifying examination for a candidate to become 'suitable candidate' for the purposes of main examination or interview as the case may be and the marks obtained and the merit secured in such preliminary examination will have no bearing as to the final merit to be determined in the main examination and/ or interview. Rule 3(iv) provides for question papers and the duration in terms of hours in the event it is to be followed by main examination and such papers will consist of General Knowledge and General Studies and also one of the optional subjects as the Commission may prescribe with the concurrence of the State Government. The ratio of marks is also prescribed under the relevant rule 4. The rules further provide for language of the paper to be the same i.e. prescribed/ allowed for main examination and will be in English and Hindi in the event preliminary test is followed by interview under the relevant service rules or the Government Orders. The rules also provide for holding preliminary examination at place and time at the discretion of the Commission.

12. Now coming to reservation Act, 1994, I find rule 3(1), (5) and (6) to be relevant for the purposes of resolving the issue involved in the present case and are accordingly reproduced hereunder:

3. Reservation in favour of Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and other backward Classes.--(1) In public services and posts, there shall be reserved at the stage of direct recruitment, the following percentage of vacancies to which* recruitment's are to be made in accordance with the roster referred to in sub-section (5) in favour of the persons belonging to Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and Other Backward Classes of citizens—

(a) in the case of Scheduled Castes Twenty-one per cent;

(b) in the case of Scheduled Tribes Two per cent;

(c) in case of Other Backward Classes of citizens Twenty-seven per cent:

Provided that the reservation under clause (c) shall not apply to the category of Other Backward Classes of citizens specified in Schedule II.

(5). The State Government shall, for applying the reservation under sub-Section (1), by a notified order, issue a roster which shall be continuously applied till it is exhausted.

(6). If a person belonging to any of the categories mentioned in subsection (1) gets selected on the basis of merit in an open competition with general candidates, he shall not be adjusted against the vacancies reserved for such category under sub-section (1)."

13. All that aforesaid rule 3(1) provides for percentage of vacancies for the purposes of reservation qua direct recruitment on the post in the Government Department and provides for procedure to apply reservation as per roster provided under sub-section (5) in favour of the persons belonging to SC/ ST and OBC citizens. The percentage provided for SC candidate is 21%, for ST 2% and for OBC 27%. There are certain exceptions carved out to deny reservation to OBC candidates in respect of the persons mentioned in schedule II of the Act.

14. Now coming to the controversy raised in these petitions, I find that petitioners are basically aggrieved for the ratio as contained in clause 11(8) for it being not strictly adhered to as pleaded vide paras 23, 24 &25 of the writ petition and for the reason that only 7358 candidates were made to qualify as 'suitable candidates' against 609 vacancies advertised and which accounts for a ratio of 1:12, whereas, according to the petitioners, as was argued before the Court, if the ratio 1:15 was made applicable then 9135 candidates would have been made to qualify for the second stage i.e. main examination.

15. Plea was taken that in view of the provisions contained under Rules, 1986, the Commission ought not to have prepared and published preliminary examination results categorywise, inasmuch as, a list ought to have been drawn of unreserved category candidates in the first instances as per the minimum efficiency standard fixed to make all successful candidates to qualify irrespective of their special reserved categories provided they met the minimum efficiency standard as was prescribed under clause 11(13). This logic appears to be based upon principle of migration from reserved to unreserved category, the latter being open to all.

16. Thus, Sri Ashok Khare, learned Senior Advocate, in a nut shell, raised following arguments:

(i) Preparation of result categorywise was against the express provisions of Rules, 1986.

(ii) The unreserved candidates cannot be classified as a category reserved in itself to oust the entry of reserved category candidates even at the stage of preliminary examination which may be merely a screen test.

(iii) The Commission was not justified in qualifying lesser number of candidates in the preliminary examination/ screen test only for the reason that a candidate if had applied against different categories of vacancies and qualified, then such candidate being common against such different vacancies would be counted as one candidate against all such posts multiple times to form the ratio of 1:15 even though actual number may not attain the parameter of 1:15 ratio.

17. In support of his above submissions, learned Senior Advocate Mr. Khare has placed reliance upon the judgment of Supreme Court in the case of Saurav Yadav & Others v. State of U.P. & Others, (2021) 4 SCC 542; Jitendra Kumar Singh & Another v. State of U.P. & Another, (2010) 3 SCC 119; and Deependra Yadav & Others v. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2024 SCC OnLine SC 724.

18. Meeting the arguments advanced as above on behalf of the petitioners, Sri Anoop Trivedi, learned Senior Advocate at the very threshold placed a chart after serving a copy thereof upon learned Senior Counsel appearing for the petitioners, in respect of Group1, Group-2, Group-3, Group-4 and Group-5 posts and posts under special drive selection, to demonstrate that Commission strictly adhered to clause 11(8) in preparing the list as a result of preliminary examination. The chart placed before the Court is reproduced hereunder:

Note - As per the order of the Commission dated 01.08.2019, for those examinations wherein the selection process is finally conducted through preliminary examination, main examination and interview, the marks and category wise cut off marks related to preliminary examination, main examination and final selection of those examinations are released after the final selection.

Sanjay Kumar Verma

(Section Officer)"

19. Defending the stand of the Commission in preparing categorywise list of suitable candidates in preliminary examination and compliance of clause 11(8) of advertisement was there, Sri Trivedi firstly argued that posts were categorized as per the reservation applicable both vertical and horizontal and then in the ratio of 1:15 the candidates were made to qualify as suitable candidates for main examination. Mr. Trivedi however, added that since the results were published categorywise to meet the mandate contained under the reservation Act, 1994 and the conditions laid in the advertisement for prescribing different set of efficiency standard and office memorandum issued earlier in order to ensure representation of all the categories to invite them to compete at a level playing filed, a stage of final examination, to wit 'open selection', that candidates were confined to their respective categories only. Hence, according to Mr. Trivedi, if in the unreserved category candidates belonging to unreserved were not able to qualify to form the ratio of 1:15, they were called in lesser number as 'suitable candidates' to qualify for main examination and this, according to Mr. Trivedi, may have happened to any of the categories. Thus, the qualifying preliminary examination result, according to Mr. Trivedi, was bound to be category specific.

20. The second argument advanced by Mr. Trivedi is, when the advertisement itself provided that a reserved category candidate would be adjusted against unreserved category in the final selection and the petitioners accepted such an advertisement and conditions laid therein, it was not open for them to make a hue and cry now when the preliminary examination results have been declared as per the conditions prescribed under clause 11(14) of the advertisement.

21. Sri Trivedi has also placed before this Court memorandum issued by the Secretary, Public Service Commission dated 9th January, 2020 to buttress his argument that whatever was prescribed under the advertisement had the support of the memorandum/ circular issued by the Public Service Commission regarding migration of the reserved category candidate to the unreserved category candidate including those falling EWS category only at the stage of final selection and in the absence of any rule governing modalities, the memorandum had the binding force.

22. Sri Trivedi placed reliance upon the very decision of Jitendra Kumar Singh (supra) already relied upon by learned Senior Advocate appearing for the petitioner and has placed paragraphs 75, 76 and 77 thereof that run as under:

"75. In our opinion, the relaxation in age does not in any manner upset the "level playing field". It is not possible to accept the submission of the learned counsel for the appellants that relaxation in age or the concession in fee would in any manner be infringement of Article 16(1) of the Constitution of India. These concessions are provisions pertaining to the eligibility of a candidate to appear in the competitive examination. At the time when the concessions are availed, the open competition has not commenced. It commences when all the candidates who fulfil the eligibility conditions, namely, qualifications, age, preliminary written test and physical test are permitted to sit in the main written examination. With age relaxation and the fee concession, the reserved candidates are merely brought within the zone of consideration, so that they can participate in the open competition on merit. Once the candidate participates in the written examination, it is immaterial as to which category, the candidate belongs. All the candidates to be declared eligible had participated in the preliminary test as also in the physical test. It is only thereafter that successful candidates have been permitted to participate in the open competition.

76. Mr Rao had suggested that Section 3(6) ensures that there is a level playing field in open competition. However, Section 8 lowers the level playing field, by providing concessions in respect of fees for any competitive examination or interview and relaxation in upper age-limit. We are unable to accept the aforesaid submission. Section 3(6) is clear and unambiguous. It clearly provides that a reserved category candidate who gets selected on the basis of merit in open competition with general category candidates shall not be adjusted against the reserved vacancies. Sections 3(1), 3(6) and Section 8 are interconnected. Expression "open competition" in Section 3(6) clearly provides that all eligible candidates have to be assessed on the same criteria.

77. We have already noticed earlier that all the candidates irrespective of the category they belong to have been subjected to the uniform selection criteria. All of them have participated in the preliminary written test and the physical test followed by the main written test and the interview. Such being the position, we are unable to accept the submissions of the learned counsel for the appellant-petitioners that the reserved category candidates having availed relaxation of age are disqualified to be adjusted against the open category seats. It was perhaps to avoid any further confusion that the State of Uttar Pradesh issued directions on 25-3-1994 to ensure compliance with the various provisions of the Act. Non-compliance with any officer was in fact made punishable with imprisonment which may extend to period of three months."

23. Sri Trivedi has further placed reliance upon certain observations made by the Supreme Court in Special Leave Petition (C) No.- 1868 of 2023 Pushpendra Kumar Patel and others v. High Court of Madhya Pradesh, whereby question of law as to the applicability of principle of migration at the stage of preliminary examination was left open.

24. Sri Trivedi submitted that in the case of Pushpendra Kumar Patel (supra) vide paragraphs 41 and 42 the Madhya Pradesh High Court had taken departure from the principle laid down in the judgement by same High Court earlier in the matter of Kishore Choudhary v. State of Madhya Pradesh and another in Writ Petition No.- 542 of 2021, wherein migration was held to be applicable at both stages of preliminary and main examination as per the constitutional scheme flowing from the Article 14 and 16 of the Constitution.

25. Sri Trivedi submitted that in the case of Deependra Yadav and others v. State of Madhya Pradesh and others 2024 SCC Online SC 724 that arose from the same High Court, reliance was placed upon the judgment in the case of Kishore Choudhary (supra) as no SLP had been preferred against the said judgment but upon a contradictory stand taken in the Purshpendra Kumar Patel (supra) and upon an SLP being preferred which though of course came to be dismissed but the Court left question of law open. Vide paragraph 41 and 42 of the judgment in the case of Pushpendra Kumar Patel (supra) the Madhya Pradesh High Court has held thus:

"41. The concept of migration which is purely merit centric cannot be made available to be availed by reserved category candidates at the stage of Preliminary Examination in which comparative merit of the candidates is not assessed. The migration therefore can be applied in the examination where comparative merit is assessed which herein is not the Preliminary Examination.

42. If right to migrate is permitted to be availed by reserved category candidate at the stage of result of Preliminary Examination then that would violate the very foundation on which the concept of migration stands. If the argument of learned counsel for the petitioners is accepted, then an anomalous situation would arise where candidates who have not been subjected to any comparative assessment on merit are allowed to invoke the principle of migration which is founded solely on merit."

26. The order passed by the Supreme Court dated 7th July, 2023 arising out of the aforesaid judgment in the matter of SLP (C) 1868 of 2023 is reproduced hereunder:

"Upon hearing the counsel the Court made the following

ORDER

SLP (C) No. 1868/2023

After opening the sealed envelope, we have seen the marks obtained by one of the petitioners, namely Amit Kumar Kirar, who had appeared in the written examination. He has failed to qualify. The other petitioners did not appear in the written examination.

In view of the aforesaid position, the present special leave petition is rendered as infructuous and is disposed of accordingly, leaving the question of law open.

SLP(C) No. 4843/ 2023

This special leave petition has become infructuous as the examination has already held.

In view of the aforesaid position, the special leave petition is dismissed as infructuous.″

(emphasis added)

27. Sri Trivedi also submitted that judgment of Punjab and Haryana High Court in the case of Haryana Public Service Commission v. Parmila and others in LPA No.- 329 of 2024 that permitted preparation for the fresh merit list of the preliminary examination test of open category by counting the marks of all candidates, be it of reserved or non reserved category, came under challenge before the Supreme Court in Special Leave to Petition No.- 38804 of 2025 and Supreme Court vide interim order dated 26th August, 2025 stayed the judgment of Division Bench of Punjab and Haryana High Court by making following observations:

"1. Delay condoned.

2. The short issue which arises for our consideration is as regards migration from reserved category to unreserved category at the stage of screening.

3. The High Court by the impugned order has allowed such migration.

4. The submission on behalf of the petitioner is that such migration would be permissible only if either the rules or the advertisement permits, otherwise a screening test is not one which determines merit and, therefore, general principle of merit based placement would not apply. It is submitted that advertisement does not permit such migration. In support of the above submission, the learned counsel for the petitioner has placed reliance on two clauses namely clauses 1(i) and 1(k) in the advertisement.

5. Matter requires consideration.

6. Issue notice, returnable in six weeks.

7. In the meantime, the effect and operation of the impugned order dated 09.04.2025 shall remain stayed.″

(emphasis added)

28. Sri Trivedi has also sought to distinguish the judgment in the case of Deependra Yadav (supra) by taking a plea that the said judgment was dealing with interpretation of relevant rules framed in the State of Madhya Pradesh for applicability of migration as such even at the preliminary stage and hence came to finally conclude vide paragraph 30, 31, 32 and 33 that even at the stage of preliminary examination test, the open category will remain open for all the candidates for the purposes of preparation of list of eligible candidates for main examination.

29. Sri Trivedi has also placed reliance upon the judgment of Division Bench of Chhattishgarh at Bilaspur in the case of Mukesh Kumar and others v. State of Chhattishgarh, in which the Court relied upon the judgment of Pushpendra Kumar Patel (supra) and vide paragraph 9 has held thus :

"9. Considering the fact that the selection process is already over, we are not inclined to unsettle the thing which has already been settled and further considering the fact that as per clause 6 of the terms of the advertisement dated 28.06.2023, the selection process has been prescribed in three stages. First stage is preliminary examination which consists of 50 Objective type questions and the candidates have to be called in ratio of 1 : 10 and to participate in the skill test. This clause specifically provides that the marks obtained in this examination will not be added for preparation of merit list. Thereafter, in the second stage skill test has to be conducted for Assistant Grade III and the final select list as well as waiting list have to be prepared as per the marks obtained in the skill test. As such, the first stage examination is nothing but a step for shortlisting of the candidates which is the process of evaluating and selecting a candidate with aim to identify the most qualified candidates for further consideration in selection process. The first stage examination being shortlisting of the candidates therefore, it is not necessary for the answering respondent to adopt vertical reservation as submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioners and further considering the finding recorded by the learned Single Judge while dismissing the writ petition filed by the writ petitioners/appellants herein, we are of the considered opinion that the learned Single Judge has not committed any illegality, irregularity or jurisdictional error in the impugned order warranting interference by this Court."

30. Sri Trivedi has also placed reliance upon another Division Bench judgment of Rajasthan High Court in the case of Gokala Ram v. The Rajasthan High Court and others (D.B. Civil Writ Petition No. 14279 of 2024), wherein the Court held that once a candidate participated in the selection process pursuant to the advertisement agreeing to the methodology adopted therein, subsequently he cannot maintain a complaint against the procedure adopted in the selection process. He placed paragraph 9 of the said judgment before the Court which is reproduced hereunder:

"9. It is now a well settled position in law that rule of migration under the Rules of 2010 will not have any applicability while preparation of select list at the stage of screening through Preliminary Examination. The rule of migration will only become applicable at the time of preparation of final merit list based on marks obtained by the candidates in written examination and interview. We may also add here that the Rules of 2010 and the advertisement dated 09th April 2024 both provide for preparation of a select/merit list after Preliminary Examination category-wise. The petitioners did not challenge the same before participating in the Preliminary Examination. Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of "Rekha Sharma v. The Rajasthan High Court, Jodhpur & Anr.": Civil Appeal No.5051/2023 decided on 21st August 2024 held that the candidates after they having found that their names do not appear in the list of successful candidates of Preliminary Examination, could not have questioned the result on the ground that the respondents had not declared the cut-off marks for their categories.

(emphasis added)

31. It is also argued by Sri Trivedi, learned Senior Advocate that petitioner being unsuccessful candidates as they have not found place in the list of suitable candidates prepared at the stage of preliminary test/ screening test, they cannot maintain this petition.

32. Sri Trivedi has thus sought to contend that petition itself is not maintainable at the instance of unsuccessful candidates. Sri Trivedi also raised a point that in the event list of unreserved candidates is prepared incorporating the names of those of reserved categories who could march to the unreserved category for having scored at par or above the last cut off of marks of unreserved category candidate, they may not match with the general category in the final examination and then they would again make a plea for being repatriated to the reserved category.

33. Thus, according to Sri Trivedi this is like a see-saw battle if argument of Mr. Khare for preparation of unreserved category result incorporating reserved category candidates is accepted and it would further render selection process not only complexed but also discriminating and impermissible on sound principle of adequate representation at a level playing field.

34. On the point of adequate representation of all the categories of the candidates to give due participation by creating equal playable field i.e. stage of final examination, Sri Trivedi has sought to distinguish the judgment of Supreme Court in the case of Andhra Pradesh Public Service Commission v. Baloji Badhavath and others (2009) 5 SCC 1. However, before placing the judgment, Sri Trivedi contended that Court in that case was basically dealing with the Andhra Pradesh Public Service Commission Rules and Regulations and the Government order dated 31st December, 1997 which required candidates to be called in for written examination in the ratio 1:50 without reference to category/ community vis-a-vis the earmarked reservation to their particular community. While Andhra Pradesh High Court held that Government order dated 31st December, 1997 insofar as it uses words irrespective of communities was liable to be declared irrational having no nexus with object sought to be achieved. The judgment was reversed by Supreme Court in SLP (supra) holding that once Public Service Commission had framed rules prescribing procedure, a Court ordinarily would not interfere with, unless it is found to be arbitrary or against the principle of fair play. Vide paragraphs 30, 31, 32 and 35 the Court has held thus:

"30. The proviso appended to Article 335 of the Constitution, to which our attention has been drawn by Mr Rao, cannot be said to have any application whatsoever in this case. Lowering of marks for the candidates belonging to the reserved candidates (sic categories) is not a constitutional mandate at the threshold. It is permissible only for the purpose of promotion. Those who possess the basic eligibility would be entitled to appear at the main examination. While doing so, in regard to General English whereas the minimum qualifying marks are 40% for OCs, it would be 35% for BCs and 30% for SC/STs and physically handicapped persons. However, those marks were not to be counted for ranking.

31. We have noticed hereinbefore, that candidates belonging to the reserved categories as specified in the notification are not required to pay any fee. Their age is relaxed up to five years. It is, therefore, not correct to contend that what is given by one hand is sought to be taken by another. They can, thus, appear in the examination for a number of times. Indisputably, the right conferred upon the respondent-writ petitioners in terms of Rules 22 and 22-A of the Andhra Pradesh State and Subordinate Service Rules, 1996 was to be protected. The extent of relaxation has been recognised. By reason of such a provision, the right to be considered has not been taken away.

32. Judging of merit may be at several tiers. It may undergo several filtrations. Ultimately, the constitutional scheme is to have the candidates who would be able to serve the society and discharge the functions attached to the office. Vacancies are not filled up by way of charity. Emphasis has all along been made, times without number, to select candidates and/or students based upon their merit in each category. The disadvantaged group or the socially backward people may not be able to compete with the open category people but that would not mean that they would not be able to pass the basic minimum criteria laid down therefor.

35. Rule 4 of the Andhra Pradesh Public Service Commission Rules of Procedure which refers to Rules 22 and 22-A of the Andhra Pradesh State and Subordinate Service Rules, 1996 would apply only where shortlisting is done. The first part of the said Rule empowers the Commission to restrict the number of candidates to be called for interview to such an extent as it may deem fit. While shortlisting, however, it may hold a written test or provide for a preferential or higher qualification and experience and only for that purpose it is required to take into account the requirements with reference to Rules 22 and 22-A of the Andhra Pradesh State and Subordinate Service Rules, 1996 and the rule of reservation in favour of local candidates."

35. Sri Trivedi summed up his arguments by contending that there was no final conclusive authority on the contentious issue in view of the fact that a SLP had been entertained by Supreme Court staying the judgment of Punjab and Haryana High Court as to the preparation of list of suitable candidates at the stage of preliminary examination/ screening test by incorporating and taking candidates of reserved category. According to Sri Trivedi, the law is yet to be crystallized and a judgment is a precedent for the case it decides and cannot be taken as elucid theorem to make the principle enunciated thereunder as a rule of general applicability.

36. In the rejoinder argument to the submission of Sri Trivedi, as to how many times candidates of reserved category can be placed in general and then can be repatriated, Sri Ashok Khare, learned Senior Advocate appearing for the petitioner, has placed reliance upon the authority of Supreme Court in the case of Alok Kumar Pandit v. State of Assam and others (2012) 13 SCC 516 to take a plea that migration from reserved category to unreserved category and then repatriation to reserved category for the purposes of having better post available for having secured better marks to top reserved category candidates have been held permissible and such candidate belonging to reserved category originally, can be still permitted to opt for higher post falling in reserved category for reserved quota being applied. He has placed paragraph 17 and 18 of the judgment that are reproduced hereunder:

"17. In Anurag Patel v. U.P. Public Service Commission [(2005) 9 SCC 742 : 2005 SCC (L&S) 563] this Court was called upon to consider whether more meritorious candidates of reserved category who were adjusted against the posts earmarked for general category were not entitled to make a choice of the post earmarked for reserved category. The facts as noticed by this Court were that the third respondent i.e. Rajesh Kumar Chaurasia in CA No. 4794 of 1998, who secured 76th place in the select list, filed Civil Miscellaneous Writ Petition No. 46029 of 1993 before the High Court of Allahabad contending that he was appointed as a Sales Tax Officer, although the appellant in CA No. 4794 of 1998 i.e. Nanku Ram (Anurag Patel) who was also a Backward Class candidate, was appointed as a Deputy Collector, who according to the third respondent, had secured 97th rank in the select list, a rank lower than him. Similarly, 8 persons, all belonging to Backward Classes, who find their names in the select list filed Writ Petition No. 22753 of 1993 alleging that they were entitled to get postings in higher cadre of service as the persons who secured lower rank in the select list were given appointment to higher posts. The first petitioner in the writ petition i.e. Shri Rama Sanker Maurya and the second petitioner i.e. Shri Abdul Samad were at Serial Nos. 13 and 14 in the select list. According to these petitioners, persons lower in rank who got appointment in the reserved category were given postings on the ground that those posts were earmarked for being appointed in Class II services.

18. After noticing the judgments in Ritesh R. Sah v. Y.L. Yamul [(1996) 3 SCC 253] and State of Bihar v. M. Neethi Chandra [(1996) 6 SCC 36] the Court observed: (Anurag Patel case [(2005) 9 SCC 742 : 2005 SCC (L&S) 563] , SCC pp. 746-47, para 5)

"5. ... In the instant case, as noticed earlier, out of 8 petitioners in Writ Petition No. 22753 of 1993, two of them who had secured Ranks 13 and 14 in the merit list, were appointed as Sales Tax Officer II, whereas the persons who secured Ranks 38, 72 and 97, ranks lower to them, got appointment as Deputy Collectors and the Division Bench of the High Court held that it is a clear injustice to the persons who are more meritorious and directed that a list of all selected Backward Class candidates shall be prepared separately including those candidates selected in the general category and their appointments to the posts shall be made strictly in accordance with merit as per the select list and preference of a person higher in the select list will be seen first and appointment given accordingly, while preference of a person lower in the list will be seen only later."

37. Besides the above, in rejoinder no additional arguments have been advanced, rather Mr. Khare gave up his first argument regarding preparation of list of suitable candidates categorywise by stating that he was not pressing the same any more.

38. I must refer here the chart reproduced above, as well. The chart shows that as against 187 unreserved vacancies of Assistant Engineer (Civil) total 187 x 15 (1:15) = 2805 candidates were to be called for main examination but only 2443 candidates were called. Likewise in Group 5 Rural Engineering Branch as against 5 unreserved vacancies 5 x 15 (1:15) = 75 candidates should have been placed in the list of suitable candidates for main examination but only 31 candidates were placed. This in fact is the grievance of petitioner. However, the chart shows that all those who had minimum prescribed efficiency have been placed in the list to qualify for main examination in the ratio of 1:15 and this is how in different categories candidates have been placed in the qualifying list more than the number required as per 1:15 ratio.

39. The chart further shows that in respect of Group - 3 category only one OBC post was there against which 15 candidates have been called for and so also the chart shows that in Group - 4 category there being no post in OBC quota, no candidate has been placed. The grievance of the petitioner for the reason is that those OBC candidates who might have scored better than unreserved category candidates could have been placed in the list of suitable candidates falling in unreserved open category to compete with the unreserved category candidates in main examination.

40. Having heard learned counsel for the respective parties and having perused the records, in long and short of it, the issue I find to be arising is, how to prepare a list of 'suitable candidates' of unreserved category in preliminary examination/ screening test to make them qualify for final examination.

41. In order to resolve the above issue as far as the preparation of preliminary examination result in question is concerned, I may clarify here that age relaxation and concession in fee for submission of application form provided to reserve category candidates is only statutory concession and not relaxation as such referred to under the circular of the Public Service Commission dated 9th January, 2020 and clause 14 of the advertisement.

42. In my above view, I find support from Division Bench judgment of this Court in the case of Sanjeev Kumar Singh v. State of U.P. and others, 2007 (2) ADJ 150 and the judgment of Supreme Court in the case of Jitendra Kumar Singh (supra), wherein it was held that "With age relaxation and the fee concession, the reserved candidates are merely brought within the zone of consideration, so that they can participate in the open competition on merit".

43. With the above perspective in mind as to the legal position regarding reserved category marching to the unreserved category for the purposes of final selection on merit, I proceed to examine the issue. It is true that judgment in the case of Deependra Yadav (supra) was considering the relevant rules framed by the State Government of Madhya Pradesh, the subsequent amendments made therein and then withdrawal of amendment restoring the previous unamended rule and further that, judgment in the case of Kishore Choudhary (supra) by Madhya Pradesh High court was contradicted to in another judgment of the bench of same strength of the said High Court in the case of Pushpendra Kumar Patel, but still relying upon the judgment in Deependra Yadav's case, to hold that preparation of list of unreserved category would include reserved category candidates as well if they score at par with general category in efficiency test, another division bench presided over by the then Chief Justice Vide paragraph 10 in the matter of Anushuchit Jati, Evam Jan Jati Adhikari Karmchari Sangh (AJJAKS) v.

M.P. High Court of Madhya Pradesh and Others, decided on 21st November, 2024 held thus:

"In view of the above, we direct that henceforth in all future recruitment exams conducted by Examination Cell of High Court of Madhya Pradesh benefit of migration shall be extended to meritorious reserved category candidates in unreserved category in all the stages of selection process. It is however clarified that ongoing recruitment examination conducted by the Examination Cell wherein examination (preliminary or mains as the case may be) has already been conducted shall not be affected by this order. "

44. Nothing has been placed before me to even infer that this above judgment was further appealed against before the Supreme Court. In so far as the judgment of Punjab and Haryana High Court in the matter of Haryana Public Service Commission v. Parmila and Another (supra) is concerned, the said judgment of course, has been stayed by Supreme Court but this interim order cannot be taken to have watered down or in any manner diluted the legal position emerging out from the judgment in the case of Deependra Yadav on principle of stare decisis.

45. I have further noticed the order of the Supreme Court which has been reproduced hereinabove in the matter of Pushpendra Kumar Patel, that leaves question of law open. In my considered view this would only mean that the said point will be determined by Supreme Court in appropriate case, but so long as the judgment in the case of Deependra Yadav (supra) stands , it would amount to a settled legal position as a binding precedent on same principle of stare decisis. Considering the judgment of supreme court against the judgement of Andra Pradesh High Court and the judgment in the matter of Pushpendra Kumar Patel and the decision cited before me of the High Courts of Chhatisgarh and Rajasthan, suffice it to observe that legal position continues to be a little fluid in different states for it being dependent upon local rules framed for the said purpose in those states. The judgments of High Courts of other states are having persuasive value and may be having sound binding principle in the event there is any grey area, but looking to the judgment in the case of Deependra Yadav, which relied upon an earlier judgment of the same Court in Saurav Yadav (supra) decided by a three judge bench, and which also cited the judgment of Kishore Chaudhary (supra) with tacit approval, it can be held that the principles discussed in paragraph 31,32, and 33 stand to be a settled legal position even in the face of the order of the two judges' bench of the Supreme Court staying the judgment of Punjab and Haryana High Court in the matter of Haryana Public Service Commission v. Parmila and Another (supra). I am bound to follow the judgment of the three judges bench of the Supreme Court in the matter of Saurabh Yadav (supra), in which vide paragraph 61 following principle has been laid down:

"The open category is not a 'quota', but rather available to all women and men alike. Similarly, as held in Rajesh Kumar Daria22, there is no quota for men. If we are to accept the second view [as held by the Allahabad High Court in Ajay Kumar v. State of UP23 and the Madhya Pradesh High Court in State of Madhya Pradesh & Anothers v. Uday Sisode, referred to in paragraph 20 of Justice Lalit's judgement], the result would be confining the number of women candidates, irrespective of their performance, in their social reservation categories and therefore, destructive of logic and merit. The second view, therefore - perhaps unconsciously supports- but definitely results in confining the number of women in the select list to the overall numerical quota assured by the rule.

46. The above principle has been discussed in the case of Deependra Yadav (supra) to form a view that there could not be a quota of open category candidates as unreserved category quota to bar entry of reserved category candidates even while they have scored better marks to match or for better performance to the general category candidate.

47. In the case of Deependra Yadav (supra), though Court discussed relevant rule, but if one goes to look into the principles and object behind those rules, as discussed prior to and after the amendment and then second time amendment, one would find that the position was that "firstly a list of candidate of unreserved category shall be prepared and this list will include candidate selected on the basis of another merit from Scheduled caste, Scheduled Tribes and Other Backward Caste who have taken any option/relocation given to the concerned category", but this position changed with amendment brought on 17th February, 2020 providing for separate list of candidates applied for unreserved , Scheduled Caste, Scheduled Tribes and Other Backward Caste and Economically Weaker Sections. However This rule further came to be re-amended on 26th March, 2021 restoring the position that was prior to first amendment. The controversy arose only on account of the first amendment rules being made applicable to the examination held during the interregnum period. The Courts were considering the effect of provisions from the point of view of preparation of preliminary examination results and the controversy centred around the principle as to whether reserved category candidates should be included in the unreserved category even at the stage of preliminary examination results. The Courts justified restoration of the old provision and so also given tacit approval to the judgment of division bench in Kishore Chaudhary applying the principle of reservation laid down in Saurabh Yadav (supra). Thus, even if the judgment in the case of Deependra Yadav was in connection with interpretation of local relevant rules, in principle it justified the old rules on the touchstone of Article 14 and 16 of the Constitution. Although I have discussed the above authorities to find a solution to the issue being agitated by the rival parties, but I will be failing in my duty if I do not refer to the division bench judgment of this Court in the case of U.P. Power Corporation Ltd and Another v. Nitin Kumar and 9 Others being Special Appeal No. 310 of 2015 decided on 19.5.2015 cited before me. The intra-court appeal was filed by the U.P. Power Corporation Ltd. against the order of learned Single Judge wherein it was directed that short listing of the candidates even in respect of unreserved category should be by including merit holders of the reserved category at preliminary test stage as well and accordingly merit was directed to be re-drawn. The relevant paragraphs of the judgment are reproduced hereinbelow:

"Section 3 (6) is a statutory recognition of the principle that if a candidate belonging to a reserved category is selected on the basis of merit in open competition with general candidates, such a candidate is to be adjusted not against the vacancies reserved for the reserved category to which the candidate belongs but against the unreserved seats. This proceeds on the foundation that where a candidate is meritorious enough to be placed within the zone of selected candidates independent of any claim of reservation and purely on the basis of the merit of the candidate, the candidate ought not to be relegated to a seat against the reserved category. The simple reason for this principle is that reservation is a process by which a certain number of posts or seats is carved out for stipulated categories such as OBC, Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes. Unreserved seats do not constitute a reservation for candidates belonging to categories other than the reserved categories. An unreserved post or seat is one in which every individual irrespective of the category to which the person belongs can compete in open merit. Hence, the principle which is embodied in Section 3 (6) is not confined in its application only at the stage when the final select list is to be drawn up. If the submission of the appellants were to be accepted, that would result in seriously absurd consequences. As the learned Single Judge noted, in the present case itself, the petitioners who belong to the OBC category had in fact secured higher marks in the written test than the last short-listed candidate from the unreserved category. However, they were sought to be excluded from short-listing for the unreserved posts only on the ground that as a candidate who had declared himself or herself to be of a reserved category, that candidate would have to be excluded from shortlisting from the unreserved category even if on the basis of the position in merit, such a candidate would otherwise fall in the list of short-listed candidates in the open or unreserved category. Such a consequence would not be permissible in law.

The principle of law has been laid down in the judgment of the Supreme Court in Andhra Pradesh Public Service Commission vs. Baloji Badhavath2 in the following observations:

"One other aspect of the matter must be kept in mind. If category wise statement is prepared, as has been directed by the High Court, it may be detrimental to the interest of the meritorious candidates belonging to the reserved categories. The reserved category candidates have two options. If they are meritorious enough to compete with the open category candidates, they are recruited in that category. The candidates below them would be considered for appointment in the reserved categories. This is now a well settled principle of law as has been laid down by this Court in several decisions. (See for example, Union of India v. Satya Prakash3, SCC Paras 18 to 20; Ritesh R. Shah v. Dr. Y.L. Yamul4, SCR at pp. 700-701 and Rajesh Kumar Daria v. Rajasthan Public Service Commission5, SCC para 9.)"

In a decision of a Division Bench of this Court in Sanjeev Kumar Singh vs. State of U.P.6, the Division Bench held that competition commences only at the stage where all the persons who fulfill the requisite conditions are short-listed. In that context, it was also held that a concession in fee or relaxation in the upper age limit are provisions not concerned with the process of selection. The Division Bench observed in para 53 as follows:

"In a selection which can be termed as open competition with general category candidates, the candidature of the reserved category candidates as well as the general category candidates is to be tested on the same merit and if in that case a reserved category candidate succeeds in the open competition with general category candidates, he would be placed amongst the general category candidates."

The judgment in Sanjeev Kumar Singh (supra) was followed by another Division Bench of this Court in Shiv Prakash Yadav vs. State of U.P.7 In that case, the learned Single Judge had held that once a reserved category candidate had exercised his option to be treated as a reserved category candidate, the provision of Section 3 (6) of the Act would not apply. This view was held to be erroneous in view of the judgment of the Division Bench in Sanjeev Kumar Singh's case (supra).

For these reasons, we are of the view that there was no error in the judgment of the learned Single Judge. The learned Single Judge has upheld the right of the appellants to carry out short-listing. However, the appellants have been faulted for having excluded candidates belonging to the reserved categories from the short-list of candidates for the unreserved posts which has resulted in a situation where candidates with higher marks failed to get short-listed for the unreserved posts merely because they belong to a reserved category. The view of the learned Single Judge and directions which have been issued consequently do not suffer from any error.″

48. The division bench judgment is equally binding upon me and no judgment has been cited of this Court or of the Supreme Court, which may have reversed the judgment of the division bench. The argument as to principle of "level playing field" to invite every category candidate to participate in the open competition would get frustrated if adequate representation of the reserved category candidates, as argued by Mr. Trivedi, does not impress the Court either. A candidate may have applied under reserved category but if he is not benefited by any relaxation other than the age and concession in fee at the preliminary examination result, then he can always enter unreserved category not only at the stage of final selection but at the same time when preliminary examination/screening test is held which may be only to shortlist candidates to find suitable candidates.

49. In my considered view whoever performs better/equal to a candidate of unreserved category would automatically fall in unreserved category, it being open to all as has been held in Saurav Yadav (supra), an earlier decision of Supreme Court to Deependra Yadav. There cannot be a bar to entry of such candidates even while holding preliminary examination/screening test. The open category means open and when it comes to be a matter of adequate representation qua reserved category candidates, if a reserved category candidates matching cut off marks of candidates of unreserved category candidate, are permitted to march to the unreserved category, then it will be more a case of level playing field to invite all equals to participate in open competition. One must not forget that equality before law and equal protection of laws means "likes to be treated alike" and hence whoever competes with the candidates of open category and falls within the cutoff of that category as may be prescribed, would constitute a class for limited purposes to from suitable candidates' group within the meaning of Article 14 of the Constitution. Confining such a candidate to the reserved category only for the reason that list has been published category-wise, would definitely amount to discrimination.

50. On the point of changing rules of the game while selection is on and the point that petitioners having submitted to the advertisement, they could not have raised this issue, suffice it to observe that interpretation to Clause (14) of advertisement would not amount to changing the rules of the game. Even otherwise if legal position through common law judgments has already got crystallized, more especially in the circumstances when in State of U.P. there are no rules as such, this Court may, therefore, intervene to arrest any discrimination or arbitrariness at the end of selection body. Qualifying standard for final selection to migrate a candidate to unreserved category means he must not have been placed in reserved category for any relaxation other than age and fee cancessation this does not mean preparation of unreserved category list in preliminary examination would oust meritorious reserved category candidates and so also on the principle of law laid down by Supreme Court in Deependra Yadav (supra) and Division Bench judgment of this Court in the case of U.P. Power Corporation (supra). This would amount to discrimination as already observed in preceding paragraph.

51. However, I may hasten to add here that there is no rule framed as such in the State of U.P. for preparation of result by the selecting body by drawing list of unreserved category first bringing within its hold those reserved category candidates who have attained marks matching or above unreserved category candidates but it is a matter of interpretation of existing circulars and memorandum and the conditions given under advertisement, in consonance with principle and object behind reservation and of course, in the light of common law through judgments that have made this above principle of preparation list of suitable candidates permissible even in preliminary examination.

52. In view of above, all these petitions succeed and are allowed to the extent that respondent U.P. Public Service Commission shall re-draw the merit list of the preliminary examination result of suitable candidates to qualify for next stage of final examination for the purposes of selection and appointment against vacancies advertised vide advertisement No. A-3/E-1/2024 dated 10.4.2024 and thereafter only Commission shall be holding main examination on the basis of such revised preliminary examination result.

53. There will be no order as to cost.

१. वर्तमान प्रकरण के तथ्यों व परिस्थितियों के संदर्भ में इस न्यायालय के समक्ष निम्नलिखित विधिक विषय विचारार्थ हैः-

"महिलाओं का कार्यस्थल पर लैंगिक उत्पीड़न (निवारण, प्रतिषेध और प्रतितोष) अधिनियम, २०१३ (संक्षेप में 'अधिनियम, २०१३') की धारा १३ के उपबंधों के अंतर्गत 'आंतरिक परिवाद समिति' के द्वारा वर्तमान प्रकरण के संदर्भ में उपलब्ध कराई गई 'जांच प्रतिवेदन रिपोर्ट' के निष्कर्ष कि 'सभी साक्ष्यों व बयानों के आधार पर यह घटना सत्य प्रतीत होती है' और प्रत्यार्थी के विरुद्ध नियोजक को 'नियमानुसार न्यूनतम प्रतिफल की संस्तुति' की अनुशंसा की गई है, तब 'अधिनियम, २०१३' की धारा १३(३) (i) के अनुसार, प्रयोज्य सेवा नियमों के उपबंधों के अंतर्गत लैंगिक उत्पीड़न के 'कदाचार' के लिए प्रत्यार्थी के विरूद्ध कार्यवाही करने की विधिक प्रक्रिया क्या होगी?"

तथ्यात्मक प्रारूप

३. उपरोक्त 'लैंगिक उत्पीड़न परिवाद पत्र' पर बैंक के क्षेत्रीय प्रबंधक के आदेशानुसार 'अधिनियम, २०१३' की धारा ४ के उपबंधों के अंतर्गत गठित 'आंतरिक परिवाद समिति' को उक्त परिवाद अग्रिम कार्यवाही के लिए प्रेषित किया। 'अधिनियम, २०१३' की धारा १० के अनुसार व्यथित महिला के अनुरोध पर दोनों पक्षों ने बैंक और कर्मचारियों की छवि को सुरक्षित रखने हेतु, उपबोधन के तहत, आपसी सहमति से तय किया, कि व्यथित महिला व उसके परिवार द्वारा कोई भी बाहरी कार्यवाही, मीडिया द्वारा, एवं पुलिस द्वारा नहीं की जायेगी व प्रथम सूचना रिपोर्ट भी नहीं करी जाएगी, बशर्ते 'आंतरिक परिवाद समिति' (आई.सी.सी.) द्वारा आंतरिक जांच जारी रखी जाएगी और याचिकाकर्ता सभी क्षेत्रीय कार्यालय कर्मचारियों के समक्ष व्यथित महिला से अपने कृत्य की क्षमा मांगेंगे, जो उसने मांगी भी। आपसी समझौते की एक प्रति, 'आंतरिक परिवाद समिति' की कार्यवाही के अभिलेखों पर सुरक्षित रखी गई।

एक जाँच आख्या, दिनांकित २७.१२.२०२३, क्षेत्रीय प्रबंधक को प्रेषित की गयी, जिसके प्रमुख अंश निम्न हैः-

"समिति द्वारा दोनों पक्षों व समबंधित स्टाफ के बयानों को धैर्यपूर्वक सुना गया। समिति के अनुसार दोनों ही पक्षो को मालूम था कि घर पर कोई नहीं है और ऐसे में बंद घर के अंदर जाने वाली परिस्थित को टाला जा सकता था | अंदर जाने के पश्चात सुश्री नेहा रानी की उनकी सहकर्मी सुश्री मोनिषा से निरंतर व्हाट्सअप के माध्यम से बात हो रही थी जिसमें वह अपनी परिस्थितियों का विवरण उन्हें दे रही थी। सुश्री नेहा रानी व सुश्री मोनिषा की बातों से ऐसा प्रतीत होता है कि सुश्री नेहा रानी असहज महसूस कर रही थी और अत्यधिक प्रतिक्रिया न करने के कारण वह तुरंत वहाँ से नहीं निकाल पायी।

समस्त बयान व साक्ष्यों का समिति द्वारा सावधानी से आंकलन किया गया है व दोनों पक्षों के कथन, कॉल रिकॉर्डिंग एवं अन्य तथ्यों से यह प्रतीत होता है कि सुश्री नेहा रानी को घर के अंदर जाने से पूर्व मालूम था कि घर के अंदर कोई नहीं है एवं घर पर हुई बातचीत के संदर्भ में श्री अखिलेश चौहान दवारा फोन एवं क्षेत्रीय कार्यालय के समस्त स्टाफ के सामने माफ़ी मांगी गई है। सुश्री नेहा रानी व् श्री अखिलेश चौहान के बीच पहले से किसी भी प्रकार के मतभेद नहीं थे जिसकी पुष्टि दोनों पक्षों ने की है। हालांकि यह घटना पर दोनों ही पक्षों के विचार मेल नहीं खाते हैं। चूंकि घटना के समय केवल श्री अखिलेश चौहान एवं कुमारी नेहा रानी ही घर पर मौजूद थे इसलिए घटना से संबन्धित कोई भी ठोस साक्ष्य उपलब्ध नहीं है। सभी साक्ष्यों व बयानों के आधार पर यह घटना सत्य प्रतीत होती है। श्री अखिलेश चौहान की अब तक की साफ छवि को देखते हुये व उनके द्वारा उनके कृत्य के प्रति माफी मांगने के उपरांत समिति श्री अखिलेश चौहान के लिए बैंक नियमनुसार न्यूनतम प्रतिफल की संस्तुति करती है।"

५. अविवादित रूप से याचिकाकर्ता ने 'आंतरिक परिवाद समिति' की जाँच आख्या, दिनांकित २७.१२.२०२३, के निष्कर्ष व की गई अनुशंसा के विरूद्ध 'अधिनियम २०१३' की धारा १८ के उपबंध के अंतर्गत कोई अपील दाखिल नहीं करी और न ही, उक्त जाँच आख्या को आक्षेपित ही किया अर्थात उक्त जाँच आख्या के निर्णय व अनुशंसा को याचिकाकर्ता ने स्वीकार कर लिया।

६. वर्तमान के प्रकरण में प्रथम तिथि में सुनवाई के दौरान न्यायालय की टिप्पणियों को ध्यान में रखते हुए, अगली तिथि पर सुनवाई के दौरान, याचिकाकर्ता के विद्वान अधिवक्ता द्वारा मौखिक रूप से उपरोक्त जाँच आख्या को वर्तमान याचिका में आक्षेपित करने की चेष्टा/प्रार्थना, इस न्यायालय द्वारा स्पष्ट रूप से अस्वीकार कर दी गयी थी।

८. 'विनियमावली २०१०' के संदर्भित विनियम संख्या १८,३८ व ३९ निम्न उद्दीर्णित किये जा रहे हैः-

"१८. विनियम और आदेशों का पालन करने का दायित्व- प्रत्येक अधिकारी या कर्मचारी इन

विनियमों का पालन करने को सुनिश्चित करेगा और जो ऐसे व्यक्ति या व्यक्तियों के द्वारा समय-समय पर उसे सभी आदेशों और निर्देशों का पालन, अनुपालन और आदर करेगा जो उसे दिए जाएं जिनकी अधिकारिता, अधीक्षण या नियंत्रण के अधीन वह तत्समय तैनात है।"

"३८. यौन उत्पीडन - कोई अधिकारी या कर्मचारी कार्यस्थल पर कोई ऐसा कार्य नहीं करेगा जो किसी स्त्री के यौन उत्पीड़न की कोटि में आता हो ।*

(क) शारीरिक स्पर्श और पहल;

(ख) यौन चाह की मांग या अनुरोधः

(ग) यौन रंजित अभयुक्तियां;

(घ) कोई अश्लील साहित्य दिखाना; या

(ङ) अवांछनीय शारीरिक, मौखिक या गैर-मौखिक यौन प्रकृति का आचरण।

३९. शास्तियां-इस अध्याय के पूर्वगामी विनियमों पर प्रतिकूल प्रभाव डाले बिना कोई ऐसा अधिकारी या कर्मचारी जो इन विनियमों को भंग करता है या जो उपेक्षा, अदक्षता या निष्क्रियता प्रदर्शित करता है या जो ऐसे कृत्य करता है जो बैंक के हितों के लिए हानिकारक हैं या उसके अनुदेशों के विरोध में है या जो अनुशासन भंग करता है अथवा कदाचार के किसी अन्य कृत्य का दोषी है, निम्नलिखित में से किसी एक या अधिक शास्तियों का दायी होगा, अर्थातः-*

१. अधिकारी:

(क) छोटी शास्तियां:

(i) परिनंदा करना;

(ii) संचयी प्रभाव के बिना वेतनवृद्धि विधारित करना या रोकनाः

(iii) पदोन्नति रोकना;

(iv) उपेक्षा या आदेश भंग द्वारा बैंक को हुई किसी संपूर्ण धनीय हानि या उसके भाग का उपलब्धियों या ऐसे अन्य रकमी से वसूली जो उसके प्रति शोध्य है।

(v) संचयी प्रभाव के बिना दो वर्ष से अनधिक की अवधि के लिए समय वेतनमान के निम्नतर प्रक्रम तक घटाना।

(ख) मुख्य शास्तियां:

(१) विनियम ३९ के उपविनियम (१) के खंड (क) की मद (v) में यथा उपबंधित के सिवाय किसी विनिर्दिष्ट अवधि के लिए समय वेतनमान में इस बारे में और निर्देशों सहित निम्नतर प्रक्रम तक कमी कि क्या अधिकारी ऐसी कमी की अवधि के दौरान वेतन वृद्धियां उपार्जित करेगा या नहीं और क्या ऐसी अवधि की समाप्ति पर कमी का उसके वेतन की भावी वृद्धियों को स्थगित करने का प्रभाव होगा या नहीं होगा;

(ii) निम्नतर ग्रेड या पद में कमी;

(iii) अनिवार्य सेवा निवृत्ति;

(iv) सेवा से हटाया जाना जो भावी नियोजन के लिए निरर्हता नहीं होगी;

(v) पदच्युति जो सामान्यतः भावी नियोजन के लिए निरर्हता होगी।

स्पष्टीकरण- इस विनियम के प्रयोजनों के लिए, निम्नलिखित बातें शास्ति की कोटि में नहीं आएंगी, अर्थातः-*

(i) किसी अधिकारी की, उस पद की नियुक्ति के निबंधनानुसार, जो उसने धारण किया है, विभागीय परीक्षण या परीक्षा उत्तीर्ण करने में उसकी असफलता के कारण उसकी एक या अधिक वेतनवृद्धि को रोकना;

(ii) दक्षतारोध पार करने की अनुपयुक्तता के आधार पर किसी अधिकारी के समय वेतनमान में उसकी दक्षतारोध पर वेतनवृद्धियों को रोकना;

(iii) किसी अधिकारी का उस उच्चतर ग्रेड पद के लिए स्थानापन्न कर्तव्यभार न देना या प्रोन्नति न करना, जिसके लिए वह विचार करने हेतु पात्र हो सकेगा किंतु उसके लिए उसके मामले पर विचार करने के पश्चात् वह अनुपयुक्त पाया जाता है;

(iv) प्रोन्नति के लिए कतिपय अपेक्षा के पूरा न होने या अनुशासनिक कार्यवाहियों के लंबित रहने जैसे कारणों के लिए किसी अधिकारी की प्रोन्नति को रोकना या स्थगित करना;

(v) उच्चतर ग्रेड या पद पर स्थानापन्न किसी अधिकारी का इस आधार पर कि उसे विचारण के पश्चात् या उसके आचरण से असंबद्ध प्रशासनिक आधारों पर ऐसे उच्चतर ग्रेड या पद के लिए अनुपयुक्त समझा गया, निम्नतर ग्रेड या पद पर प्रत्यावर्तन;

(vi) परिवीक्षा की अवधि के दौरान या उसके अंत में किसी अन्य ग्रेड या पद के लिए परिवीक्षा पर 'नियुक्त किसी अधिकारी का, उसकी नियुक्ति के निबंधनों, या नियमों अथवा ऐसी परिवीक्षा को शासित करने वाले आदेशों के अनुसार पूर्व ग्रेड या पद पर प्रत्यावर्तन;

(vii) प्रतिनियुक्ति पर किसी अधिकारी का उसके मूल संगठन में प्रत्यावर्तन;

(viii) किसी अधिकारी की सेवा की समाप्तिः-

(क) किसी संविदा या करार के अधीन से अन्यथा अस्थायी हैसियत में नियुक्त उस अवधि की समाप्ति पर, जिसके लिए उसे नियुक्त किया गया या उससे पूर्व उसकी नियुक्ति के निबंधनों के अनुसार;

(ख) किसी संविदा या करार के अधीन नियुक्ति, ऐसी संविदा या करार के निबंधनों के अनुसार;

(ग) छंटनी के भाग रूप में,

परंतु विनियम ३९ के उप विनियम (१) के खंड (क) की मद (१) से मद (v) में यथा विनिर्दिष्ट छोटी शास्तियां सक्षम प्राधिकारी द्वारा तब तक अधिरोपित नहीं की जाएंगी जब तक अधिकारी को लिखित में निम्नलिखित सूचना नहीं दे दी जाती –

(i) उसे उन आधारों की सूचना देना जिसके आधार पर उसने उक्त शास्तियों के अधिरोपण का प्रस्ताव किया है;

(ii) उसे सूचना की प्राप्ति की तारीख से १५ दिन की अवधि के भीतर लिखित में प्रतिरक्षा का कथन तैयार करने के लिए युक्तियुक्त अवसर देना और अधिकारी द्वारा प्रस्तुत प्रतिरक्षा के कथन, यदि कोई हो, पर सुनवाई के पश्चात् विचार किया जाएगाः

परंतु यह कि ऊपर विनिर्दिष्ट प्रमुख शास्तियों में से किसी शास्ति के अधिरोपण का कोई आदेश सक्षम प्राधिकारी द्वारा लिखित रूप में हस्ताक्षरित किसी आदेश के सिवाय, नहीं किया जाएगा और लिखित में आरोप या आरोपों को विरचित किए बिना और अधिकारी को दिए बिना और इस जांच के किए बिना कि उसके पास आरोप या आरोपों का उत्तर देने और स्वयं की प्रतिरक्षा का युक्तियुक्त अवसर रहे, ऐसा कोई आदेश पारित नहीं किया जाएगा।

परंतु यह और कि कोई जांच नहीं की जाएगी, यदि-

(i) यदि ऐसे मामलों में कदाचार साबित हो जाता है, बैंक का हटाए जाने या पदच्युति का दंड अधिरोपित करने का आशय नहीं है; और

(ii) बैंक ने अधिकारी को कारण बताओं सूचना जारी की है जिसमें उसे कंदाचार और उस दंड की सूचना दी गई है जिसका वह ऐसे कदाचार के लिए दायी हो सकेगा; और

(iii) अधिकारी ने पूर्वोक्त कारण बताओ सूचना के अपने जवाब में स्वयं के दोष को स्वेच्छा से स्वीकार कर लिया है; "

९. विभागीय जांच कार्यवाही में ११ प्रबंधन प्रदर्श व ५ बचाव प्रदर्श प्रस्तुत किये गये। ३ प्रबंधक गवाह व २ बचाव गवाहों के साक्ष्य भी अभिलिखित करे गये। इसकी के साथ बैंक मित्र, आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी व शिकायतकर्ता के कथन भी अभिलिखित करे गये।, जाँच अधिकारी ने जांच आख्या दिनांकित २३.१२.२०२४, महाप्रबंधक एवं सक्षम प्राधिकारी, आर्यावर्त बैंक, प्रधान कार्यालय, लखनऊ को प्रेषित करी और यह निर्णीत कियाः-

"उपरोक्त के आलोक में संभाव्यता की प्रबलता के आधार पर आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी पर आर्टिकल-१ के माध्यम से अधिरोपित आरोप सिद्ध होते है।"

१०. उपरोक्त वर्णित जांच आख्या में जांच अधिकारी का निष्कर्ष निम्नलिखित हैः-

"जांच कार्यवाही में प्रस्तुत साक्ष्यों एवं गवाहों के परिशीलन एवं प्रस्तुतकर्ता अधिकारी की आख्या एवं उस पर आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी द्वारा प्रस्तुत बचाव अभिकथन के आधार पर जांच अधिकारी का निष्कर्ष निम्नवत हैः-

श्री उबैश (DW-२) द्वारा ICC के समक्ष (Mex-९ में विडिओं स्टेटमेंट है) एवं जांच कार्यवाही (Daily Order sheet – ६ के पृष्ठ सं-४) में यह बताया कि मैनेजर सर द्वारा १६.१२.२०२३ को सुबह लगभग १०.३० बजे (समय की पुष्टि Dex-२ से की जाती है) पर काल कर के कहा कि कब तक आना है तो उनके (DW-२) द्वारा बताया गया कि उनके पिता जी अस्वस्त हैं एवं उन्हें डॉक्टर को दिखाना पड़ सकता है। इसलिए वह १५-२० मिनट में यह कन्फर्म करेंगे कि वह वसूली हेतु आ पाएंगे अथवा नहीं और उसके बाद DW-२ द्वारा फोन कर समय कन्फर्म नहीं किया जा सका। DW-२ द्वारा यह भी बताया गया कि आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी द्वारा उन्हें ११:३० बजे कॉल किया गया था किन्तु यह फोन उठा नहीं पाए, बाद में उन्होने (DW-२ ने) १२.१५-१२.३० बजे आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी को बता दिया था कि वो पिता जी को दिखाने ले गए हैं तथा वसूली पर नहीं आ पाएंगे। अतः आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी का कथन कि बैंक मित्र श्री उबैश द्वारा ICC के समक्ष दिए गये बयान MEX६(२०) तथा Daily order sheet-६ के पृष्ठ सं०-४ के अंत में EO के समक्ष यह बयान दिया गया है कि श्री उबैश द्वारा १५-२० मिनट्स के विलम्ब होने की जानकारी आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी को फोन के माध्यम से दी गयी थी, असत्य है। साथ ही उल्लेखनीय है कि जिस ११.३० बजे की काल की बात DW-२ कर रहा है वह आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी द्वारा दिए गए काल रेकार्डस (Dex-२) में कहीं भी दिख नहीं रही है। साथ ही श्री राम बाबू द्वारा ICC के समक्ष (Mex-९ में विडिओ स्टेटमन्ट है) अपने बयान में स्पष्ट रूप से कहा है कि मैने सर और उनके मध्य वसूली पर चलने हेतु १-१.१५ बजे से पहले कोई बात नहीं हुई थी एवं वह डाक्टर के यह अपने बेटे का प्लास्टर कटवाने गए थे, उनके द्वारा १५-२० मिनट में आने जैसी कोई बात नहीं कही गई थी। साथ ही Dex-२ के अवलोकन से स्पष्ट है कि आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी द्वारा श्री उबैश को सुबह १०:३४ पर कॉल कर वसूली हेतु आने का समय पूछा गया था तथा सुबह १०:३८ पर एक आउटगोइंग कॉल (जिसका विवरण जांच कार्यवाही में नहीं प्रस्तुत किया गया है) श्री रामबाबू के नंबर पर भी दिख रहा है (किन्तु श्री राम बाबू द्वारा उस कॉल की पुष्टि नहीं की गई है), तथापि इन दोनों कॉल से पूर्व ही शिकायतकर्ता को सुबह १०:३१ पर कॉल कर वसूली का समय कन्फर्म कर दिया गया था। उपरोक्त साक्ष्यों एवं गवाहों से स्पष्ट है कि आरोप

पत्रित अधिकारी का बयान एवं वसूली पर जाने वाले अन्य ०२ सदस्यों (श्री उवेश पूर्व श्री रामबाबू) के बयानों मे विरोधाभास है तथा आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी द्वारा शिकायतकर्ता को अन्य सदस्यों के १५-२० मिनट्स में आने की बात के संबंध में असत्य जानकारी देकर अपने घर इंतज़ार हेतु लगभग ०२ घंटे बैठाया गया।

शिकायतकर्ता के कंधे पर हाथ रखने का कोई सीधा साक्ष्य / गवाह जांच कार्यवाही में प्रस्तुत नहीं किया गया है. किन्तु कई महत्वपूर्ण साक्ष्य एवं गवाह जैसे MW-२ एवं शिकायतकर्ता की चैट (Mex -१०) Mex-११ (शिकायतकर्ता एवं आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी के मध्य की कॉल रिकॉर्डिंग) एवं आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी के बयानों में दिख रहे विरोधाभास (जैसे बैंक मित्र एवं रामबाबू से वसूली श्री हेतु तय समय श्री रामबाबू के ना आने का कारण कि बेटे को दिखाना था श्री अथवा पड़ोस में किसी की मृत्यु हो गई थी ICC के समक्ष दिए गए बयान में आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी द्वारा बताया गया कि उनके द्वारा शिकायतकर्ता को पहले ही फोन करके बताया गया था कि अभी समय लग रहा है जिस पर शिकायतकर्ता द्वारा ही कहा गया कि यहाँ पर कहा खड़े रहेंगे, तो वो उसे अपने घर ले गए, जबकि Dex -२ के अवलोकन से स्पष्ट है कि आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी द्वारा १०:३१ बजे कॉल करके शिकायतकर्ता को वसूली पर आने हेतु कहने के पश्चात कोई कॉल नहीं की गई है जबकि उनको बैंक मित्र द्वारा आने हेतु अस्पष्टता १०:३४ पर बता दी गई थी, इसके बाद शिकायतकर्ता द्वारा कमालगंज पहुंचने के पश्चात ११:०१ बजे स्वयं आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी को की गई थी; ICC के समक्ष दिए गए बयान में आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी द्वारा शिकायतकर्ता को घर दिखाने के संबंध में मना करना और कहना कि उनकी बैठक से उनका पूरा घर दिखता है जबकि शिकायतकर्ता को स्पष्ट रूप से पता है कि उनके घर में पढाई सम्बन्धी नोट टैग आदि लगे हुए है तथा ICC की एक सदस्या द्वारा भी कहा गया कि आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी द्वारा क्षेत्रीय प्रबंधक के केबिन में बताया गया था कि उसके शिकायतकर्ता को घर दिखाने की बात कही थी, तथा DW-३ द्वारा इस बात की पुष्टि भी की गई कि उनकी बैठक से किचन और पूजा घर दिखते है, आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी द्वारा अपने बयान में कहा गया कि शिकायतकर्ता लगभग पौन घंटे उनके घर रूकी थी जबकि शिकायतकर्ता द्वारा लगभग ०२ घंटे वसूली पर जाने हेतु इंतजार किया गया। ICC के समक्ष दिए गए बयान में आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी द्वारा कहा गया कि देर होने पर शिकायतकर्ता द्वारा मार्केट की जाने लगी तो उनके द्वारा बैंक मित्र एवं रामबाबू को कॉल किया गया और दोनों ने ही बताया कि अभी देर लगेगी जबकि बैंक मित्र के बयान से स्पष्ट है कि सुबह १०:३४ पर बात होने के पश्चात उसकी बात आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी से नहीं हो पाई थी एवं जब १२:१५-१२:३० बजे लगभग हुई तो उसने स्पष्ट तौर पर आने से मना कर दिया था साथ ही श्री रामबाबू ने तो ०१:१५ बजे से पहले आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी से किसी भी संपर्क को स्वीकार नहीं किया है), आदि के आधार पर शिकायतकर्ता की शिकायत को बल मिलता है एवं संभाव्यता की प्रबलता पर यह आरोप सिद्ध होता है कि आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी द्वारा शिकायतकर्ता को बहाने से अपने घर रोक कर रखा गया एवं उसकी अनुमति के बिना उसके कंधे पर हाथ रखने की कोशिश की गई एवं असहज महसूस कराया गया । यहाँ उल्लेखनीय है कि शिकायतकर्ता द्वारा जब १६.१२.२०२३ को ०३ बजे के लगभग कॉल कर के घटना के संबंध में आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी से अत्यंत तेज आवाज में सवाल जवाब किया गया एवं उसके कृत्य के संबंध में शिकायत की गई तो आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी द्वारा मात्र Sorry एवं Extremely Sorry जैसे शब्दो का प्रयोग किया गया तथा आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी का कहना कि उसने वसूली पर बुलाने हेतु सॉरी कहा है मानने योग्य नहीं है, क्योकि शिकायतकर्ता द्वारा काल पर आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी को बहुत कुछ कहा गया कि सर देखिए लड़की आपकी भी है और ये चीज आपको भी पता है कि आपके विहेव्यर कैसा था कैसा नहीं था, आप भी एक पिता है आपको थोडा रीस्पानसबल होना चाहिए, जब आपने वसूली पर बुलाया था तो आपको वसूली पर ही लेकर चलना चाहिए था, आपको कम से कम अपने मैनेजर होने का रीस्पेक्ट करना चाहिए आपको किस चीज से लगा कि मै interested हूँ या हिंट भी दे रही हूँ, आपको नहीं लगा कि आपका विहैव बहुत घटिया था आज का, आपको क्या लगा कि मैं किसी को कुछ भी बोलूंगी नहीं, भगवान ना करे कोई कभी आपकी लड़की के साथ ये सब करे पर बहुत टार्चरस होती है ये चीजे महीनो तक हान्ट करती है, आदि तब पर भी आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी द्वारा काल पर बार बार सिर्फ माफी ही मांगी जाती

आरोपी पत्रित अधिकारी का कथन की शिकायतकर्ता उसके प्रति पूर्वाग्रह से ग्रसित थी के संदर्भ में आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी द्वारा Mex-१० को उदभूत किया है, जो की पूर्वाग्रह को साबित करने हेतु पर्याप्त नहीं है।

(रेखांकित भाग पर विशेष बल दिया गया)

११. सक्षम अधिकारी द्वारा आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी को जांच अधिकारी की जांच आख्या दिनांकित २३.१२.२०२४ की एक प्रति, उसी दिन, अपना प्रति उत्तर/ बचाव कथन प्रस्तुत करने के लिए प्रेषित की। जो उसने, अपने पत्र दिनांकित १३.०१. २०२५ के माध्यम से प्रस्तुत करा। सक्षम अधिकारी ने आरोप पत्र, जांच अधिकारी की जांच आख्या, आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी का बचाव अभिकथन तथा अनुशासनिक प्रकरण से संबंधित समस्त साक्ष्यों एवं दस्तावेजों के गहन अध्ययन के उपरांत पाया की जांच की कार्यवाही, नैसर्गिक न्याय के नियमों के अनुपालन करते हुए, आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी को बचाव का समुचित अवसर प्रदान करते हुए पूर्ण करी गई। इस संदर्भ में श्री अदितेन्द्र सिंह, याचिकाकर्ता के विद्वान अधिवक्ता ने भी इस प्रक्रिया में किसी प्रकार की कोई विधिक त्रुटि होने का कोई दृष्टांत प्रदर्शित नहीं किया। अतः न्यायालय का मत है कि जांच प्रक्रिया, विधिक रूप से पूर्ण की गयी है।

१२. सक्षम अधिकारी ने संपूर्ण दस्तावेजों व आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी द्वारा जांच आख्या पर दिया गया अभिकथन व प्रबंधन साक्ष्य- ११, जो घटना के कुछ घंटो के बाद, आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी व शिकायतकर्ता के मध्य हुई सचल दूरभाष वार्तालाप की कॉल रिकॉर्डिंग है, को विशेष रूप से श्रवण किया और ध्यान दिया। आदेश में उक्त वार्तालाप को पूर्ण रूप से उद्दीर्णित भी किया और आदेश में यह भी उल्लेखित किया कि:-

"उक्त Recording के श्रवण से यह स्पष्ट है कि आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी को शिकायतकर्ता की बातें भली-भांति स्पष्ट तौर पर समझ में आ रही थी और उनके द्वारा शिकायतकर्ता की बातों को Respond भी किया जा रहा था। उक्त वार्ता से स्पष्ट है कि संदर्भित घटना के उपरांत जब शिकायतकर्ता द्वारा लगभग ०३ बजे आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी को कॉल करके उनसे ऊंचे स्वर में घटना के संदर्भ में सवाल-जवाब किया गया तो आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी द्वारा "Sorry" एवं "Extremely Sorry जैसे शब्दों का प्रयोग करते हुए वार्ता के दौरान अपनी गलती को स्वीकार किया गया था। अतएव आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी का यह कथन कि वे रिश्तेदारों के मध्य बैठे थे जहां शोरगुल हो रहा था, व शोरगुल के चलते उन्हें कु० नेहा रानी की बातें स्पष्ट नहीं हो रही थी, स्वीकार योग्य नहीं है।

आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी का यह कथन सत्य है कि संदर्भित घटना यथा आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी द्वारा शिकायतकर्ता के कंधे पर हाथ रखे जाने के सापेक्ष कोई ठोस साक्ष्य नहीं है किंतु कु० मोनिशा (MW-२) तथा शिकायतकर्ता के मध्य हुयी चैट (Mex-१०), शिकायतकर्ता व आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी के मध्य फोन पर हुयी वार्ता की काल रिकार्डिंग (Mex-११) एवं आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी के बयानों में दृष्टिगत विरोधाभास से दिनांक १७.१२.२०२३ को आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी के आवास पर हुये घटनाक्रम व शिकायतकर्ता की शिकायत को बल मिलता है व संभावना की प्रबलता के आधार पर आरोप के सिद्ध होने व शिकायती प्रकरण के सत्य होने की संभावना प्रबल होती है। अतएव आरोप के संदर्भ में आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी द्वारा प्रस्तुत प्रतिवाद स्वीकार योग्य नहीं है।"

"श्री अखिलेश चौहान, कार्मिक सं० ९५९६, प्रबन्धक द्वारा कृत कदाचार पूर्ण कृत्य हेतु उनके विरूद्ध जारी आरोप अनुच्छेद संदर्भ सं० HO/IL/H-२९(२०२३-२४)/१२७० दिनांक २०.०२.२०२४ सहपठित आरोपों की विवरणी संदर्भ सं० HO/IL/H-२९(२०२३-२४)/१२७१ दिनांक २०.०२.२०२४ के माध्यम से लगाये गये आरोप के सिद्ध पाये जाने के सापेक्ष आर्यावर्त बैंक (अधिकारी और कर्मचारी) सेवा विनियमन, २०१० के विनियम सं० ३९(१)(ख)(iii) के अंतर्गत "अनिवार्य सेवानिवृत्ति", का दण्डादेश अधिरोपित किया जाता है।"

१४. याचिकाकर्ता द्वारा उपरोक्त दण्डादेश के विरूद्ध एक अपील दिनांकित १७.२.२०२५, अपीलीय प्राधिकारी के समक्ष दायर की, जो तथ्य व विधिक पहलुओं पर संभावना की प्रबलता/प्रचुरता के आधार पर, आदेश दिनांकित ११.०८.२०२५ द्वारा निरस्त कर दी गई, कि सक्षम अधिकारी द्वारा पारित निर्णय, सकारण एवं सविस्तार है और अधिरोपित दण्ड यथावत रखा।

१५. उपरोक्त आदेश दिनांकित १५.०१.२०२५ व ११.०८.२०२५, वर्तमान याचिका में याचिकाकर्ता/आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी द्वारा आक्षेपित किये गयें हैं।

याचिकाकर्ता/आरोप पत्रित अधिकारी का पक्ष

१६. (क) श्री अदितेन्द्र सिंह, याचिकाकर्ता के विद्वान अधिवक्ता नें प्रतिवेदन किया कि, 'अधिनियम २०१०' के प्रावधानों के अंतर्गत ' आंतरिक परिवाद समिति' द्वारा जाँच आख्या को अनुशासनात्मक कार्यवाही में आधार नहीं बनाया गया। उक्त जाँच आख्या के अनुसार 'घटना सत्य प्रतीत होती है' ऐसा निर्धारित किया गया था और नियोजक द्वारा 'न्यूनतम प्रतिफल की संस्तुति की थी' परन्तु नियोजक ने नये सिरे से अनुशासनात्मक कार्यवाही करी और आरोप को स्वतंत्र रूप सिद्ध कारित करा और 'अनिवार्य सेवानिवृत्ति' का दण्डादेश पारित कर दिया। जो 'अधिनियम २०१०' के विनियम ३१ के अंतर्गत मुख्य शास्तियों में से एक है। यह कार्यवाही 'अधिनियम २०१३' के उपबन्धों के पूर्ण रूप से विपरीत होने के कारण, आरम्भ से ही शून्य (वायड एब इनिशियों) घोषित करनी चाहियें।

(ख) विद्वान अधिवक्ता ने मेधा कोतवाल लेले एवं अन्य प्रति यूनियन आफ इण्डिया एवं अन्य; (२०१३)१ एस.सी.सी. २९७ के निर्णय को संदर्भित करते हुए अभिकथन किया कि 'लैंगिक उत्पीडन की परिवाद समिति' द्वारा की गई जाँच, अनुशासनात्मक कार्यवाही के संदर्भ में जाँच आख्या माननी चाहियें और सक्षम प्राधिकारी उक्त जाँच आख्या के आधार व अनुशंसा पर ही दण्डादेश पारित कर सकते है। परन्तु वर्तमान प्रकरण में बैक द्वारा 'आंतरिक परिवाद समिति' की जाँच आख्या के निष्कर्ष व सिफारिश को पूर्ण रूप से अनदेखा करके, याचिकाकर्ता के विरूद्ध नवीन रूप से

अनुशासनात्मक कार्यवाही करी और 'अनिवार्य सेवानिवृत्ति' जो मुख्य शास्तियों में से एक है, का दण्डादेश पारित किया। इस प्रकार से 'अधिनियम २०१३' के सभी उपबंधो की अवहेलना की गयी, जो मेधा कोतवाल लेले (पूर्व में उल्लिखित) व उच्चतम न्यायालय द्वारा इसी विषय पर औरेलियानो फर्नानडिज़ प्रति स्टेट आफ गोआ एवं अन्य (२०२४)१ एस.सी.सी. ६३२ के प्रकरण में पारित निर्णय के भी विरूद्ध है। यहां यह स्पष्ट किया जाना आवश्यक है कि 'मेधा कोतवाल लेले (पूर्व में उल्लिखित) 'अधिनियम २०१३' के लागू होने से पूर्व का निर्णय है, जबकि औरेलियानो फर्नानडिज़ (पूर्व में उल्लिखित) का निर्णय उक्त 'अधिनियम २०१३' के लागू होने के उपरांत पारित किया गया है परन्तु विषय वस्तु वर्ष २०१३ से पूर्व की है।

(ग) विद्वान अधिवक्ता ने आक्षेपित आदेश को गुण-दोष के संदर्भ में तर्क दिया, कि 'आंतरिक परिवाद समिति' ने कथित घटना को पूर्ण रूप से 'सत्य' नहीं माना और मात्र यह निष्कर्ष दिया कि 'यह घटना सत्य प्रतीत होती है' और याचिकाकर्ता की अब तक की साफ छवि को देखते हुए व उसके द्वारा क्षमा मांगने के कारण बैंक से नियमानुसार 'न्यूनतम प्रतिफल' की संस्तुति करी परन्तु इसके विपरीत बैंक के सक्षम अधिकारी द्वारा 'अनिवार्य सेवानिवृत्ति' का दण्डादेश अधिरोपित किया, जो अनुचित है। सक्षम अधिकारी को मात्र दण्डादेश का आदेश पारित करना चाहिए था वह भी छोटी शास्तियों में एक दण्ड।

(घ) विद्वान अधिवक्ता ने यह भी प्रतिवेदन किया कि 'अनिवार्य सेवानिवृत्ति' का आदेश आम तौर पर एक दंड नहीं है और वो प्रशासन के सुधार एवं अक्षम कर्मचारियों को हटाने के लिए जनहित में लिया गया एक प्रासंगिक निर्णय हो सकता है। वर्तमान तथ्यों व 'आंतरिक परिवाद समिति' की अनुशंसा के दृष्टिगत छोटी शास्तियों में से कोई एक दण्ड दिया जा सकता था। इस कारण से भी याचिकाकर्ता के साथ अन्याय हुआ है।

प्रतिवादी/नियोक्त बैंक का पक्ष

१७. (क) श्री रमेश कुमार शुक्ला, बैंक के विद्वान अधिवक्ता ने उपरोक्त बहस के विरोध में प्रतिवेदन किया कि 'आंतरिक परिवाद समिति' ने नियोक्ता को यह स्वतंत्रता दी की वो उपरोक्त कृत्य को 'कदाचार' मानते हुए नियमानुसार कार्यवाही करें। इसी कारण 'विनियम २०१०' के उपबन्धो के अंतर्गत, प्राकृतिक न्याय के सिद्धान्तो का परिपालन कर याचिकाकर्ता व पीड़िता का साक्ष्य और अन्य दस्तावेज व अन्य गवाहों के कथन को आधार बनाया व याचिकाकर्ता व शिकायतकर्ता के घटना के कुछ समय उपरान्त हुई सचल दूरभाष वार्तालाप को सुना भी और जाँच आख्या में भी उल्लेखित किया। इसके उपरान्त ही यह निष्कर्ष दिया कि आरोप सिद्ध होता है और आरोप की गंभीरता के संदर्भ में वृहद दण्डादेश का आदेश पारित किया, जो न्यायसंगत व उचित है और उसमें किसी भी कारण से इस न्यायालय द्वारा हस्ताक्षेप न करने की प्रार्थना की।

(ख) 'अधिनियम २०१३' के उपरान्त ऐसे प्रकरण के जाँच की कार्यवाही उक्त अधिनियम के प्रावधानों के अंतर्गत ही हो सकती है तथा उसकी धारा १३ (३)(i) के अनुसार ही 'आंतरिक परिवाद समिति' की सिफारिश पर याचिकाकर्ता (प्रत्यर्थी) पर लागू सेवा नियमों के उपबंधो के अनुसार कदाचार के रूप में लैंगिक उत्पीड़न की कार्यवाही करी और दण्डादेश पारित किया जो एक न्याय संगत आदेश है।

तथ्यात्मक व विधिक विश्लेषण

१८. यहाँ यह अविवादित है कि 'आंतरिक परिवाद समिति' की जाँच आख्या दिनांकित २७.१२.२०२३ की एक प्रति, याचिकाकर्ता को प्राप्त होने के उपरांत भी उसने उक्त आदेश के विरूद्ध 'अधिनियम २०१३' की धारा १८ के उपबंध के अंतर्गत कोई अपील दाखिल नहीं करी। अतः आंतरिक परिवाद समिति का निष्कर्ष कि 'सभी साक्ष्यों व बयानो के आधार पर यह घटना सत्य प्रतीत होती है' विधिक रूप से अंतिम हो गया और इस स्तर पर जब अनुशासनात्मक कार्यवाही भी पूर्ण हो चुकी है तब याचिकाकर्ता उक्त निष्कर्ष को आक्षेपित या खंडित करने की प्रार्थना नहीं कर सकता है। अब एकमात्र प्रश्न यह रह जाता है कि 'आंतरिक परिवाद समिति' की सिफारिश की, 'ये बैंक द्वारा नियमानुसार न्यूनतम प्रतिफल की संस्तुति करती है' का विधिक तात्पर्य क्या है और इन परिस्थितियों में बैंक द्वारा क्या नवीन रूप से

अनुशासनात्मक कार्यवाही की जा सकती है या उक्त निष्कर्ष व अनुशंसा के दृष्टिगत मात्र दण्डादेश ही पारित किया जा सकता है।

१९. इस स्तर पर कोलकत्ता उच्च न्यायालय द्वारा प्रदीप मंडल प्रति यूनियन आफ इण्डिया व अन्य, २०१६(४)सी.एच.एन. (सी.ए.एल.)११८, के प्रकरण में पारित निर्णय का संदर्भ लेना समीचीन होगा जहां वर्तमान प्रकरण के तथ्यों के समान तथ्यों के संदर्भ में निम्न निर्धारित किया गया किः-

(क) जब कर्मचारी द्वारा 'आंतरिक परिवाद समिति' के निष्कर्ष व अनुशंसा के विरूद्ध 'अधिनियम २०१३' की धारा १८ के अंतर्गत कोई अपील दायर नहीं करी गयी हो तो उक्त निष्कर्ष व अनुशंसा, नियोक्ता पर आबद्धकारी होगी।

(ख) नियोक्ता द्वारा 'आंतरिक परिवाद समिति' की जांच आख्या के उपरांत अनुशासनात्मक कार्यवाही में पारित दण्डादेश और उसके विरूद्ध अपील निरस्त होने के बाद कर्मचारी को 'आंतरिक परिवाद समिति' के निर्णय के विरूद्ध अपील दायर करने की अनुमति नहीं दी जा सकती है।

(ग) उपरोक्त की दशा में 'अधिनियम, २०१३' की धारा १३(४) के अंतर्गत 'आंतरिक परिवाद समिति' का निष्कर्ष व अनुशंसा को नियोक्ता द्वारा या अनुशासनात्मक अधिकारी या अपीलीय प्राधिकारी द्वारा कोई छेड़छाड़ नहीं की जा सकती है व वह नियोक्ता पर पूर्ण रूप से बाध्य होती है और अनुशासनात्मक प्राधिकारी को उक्त निष्कर्ष व अनुसंशा व प्रकरण के तथ्यों के दृष्टिगत, मात्र दण्ड़ादेश पारित करने का अधिकार है। इस न्यायालय को उपरोक्त विधिक निष्कर्षों का अनुशरण करने में कोई विधिक बाधा नहीं है।

२०. प्रदीप मंडल (पूर्व में उल्लिखित) के प्रकरण में पारित निर्णय व 'अधिनियम, २०१३' की धारा १३(४) के दृष्टिगत वर्तमान प्रकरण में नियोक्ता बैंक द्वारा 'आंतरिक परिवाद समिति' की जाँच आख्या के उपरान्त, नवीन रूप से अनुशासनात्मक कार्यवाही करने की कोई आवश्यकता नहीं थी। परन्तु जब अनुशासनात्मक कार्यवाही का निष्कर्ष भी आरोपित आरोप को सत्य मानता है व उपलब्ध सामग्री के आधार पर भी आरोप सिद्ध हुआ है कि याचिकाकर्ता नें 'लैंगिक उत्पीड़न' का 'कदाचार' कारित किया तो न्यायालय का मत है कि उक्त अनुशासनात्मक कार्यवाही 'अनियमित' हो सकती है, परन्तु 'अविधिक' नहीं हो सकती है, क्योकि अन्ततः 'आंतरिक परिवाद समिति' का निष्कर्ष व 'अनुशासनात्मक कार्यवाही' का निष्कर्ष, समान है।

२१. अन्त में यह निर्धारित करना है कि जबकि 'आंतरिक परिवाद समिति' की अनुशंसा कि 'न्यूनतम प्रतिफल' है तो क्या 'अनिवार्य सेवानिवृत्ति' का दण्डादेश जो एक वृहद शास्तियों में से एक है, न्यायसंगत होगा। इस संदर्भ में न्यायालय का मत है कि चूँकि अनुशासनात्मक प्राधिकारी ने 'आंतरिक परिवाद समिति' की दण्ड के लिए की गयी अनुशंसा का संज्ञान ही नहीं लिया था और इस कारण से न्यूनतम प्रतिफल का अर्थ, अर्थात न्यूनतम दण्ड देने के विषय पर विचार ही नहीं किया गया। अतः इस स्तर पर दण्डादेश का निर्णय, विधि विरूद्ध हो जाता है।

"लैंगिक उत्पीड़न के परिणामस्वरूप भारत के संविधान के अनुच्छेद 14 और अनुच्छेद 15 के अधीन समता तथा संविधान के अनुच्छेद 21 के अधीन प्राण और गरिमा से जीवन व्यतीत करने के किसी महिला के मूल अधिकारों और किसी वृत्ति का व्यवसाय करने या कोई उपजीविका, व्यापार या कारबार करने के अधिकार का, जिसके अंतर्गत लैंगिक उत्पीड़न से मुक्त सुरक्षित वातावरण का अधिकार भी है, उल्लंघन होता है;

और, कार्यस्थल पर लैंगिक उत्पीड़न से महिलाओं के संरक्षण के लिए उक्त अभिसमय को प्रभावी करने के लिए उपबंध करना समीचीन है;"

२३. यह भी अविवादित विधिक सिद्धान्त है कि 'विशेष अधिनियम' के उपबन्ध सामान्यतः 'सामान्य अधिनियम' के उपबन्धों पर प्रबल होंगे एवं 'अधिनियम २०१३' की धारा २८ के अनुसार इस अधिनियम के उपबंध तत्समय प्रवृत किसी अन्य विधि के उपबंध के अतिरिक्त होंगे न कि अल्पीकरण में। यहाँ यह भी उल्लेख करना समीचीन होगा कि , 'विनियम २०१०' बैंक द्वारा आंतरिक विषयों पर लागू विनियम है इस कारण से भी 'अधिनियम २०१३' के उपबंध बैंक पर पूर्ण रूप से लागू है और बाध्यकारी है एवं 'विनियम २०१०' के उपबंधो पर प्रबल हैं।

२४. अतः दण्डादेश निरस्त किया जाता है, एवं प्रकरण को अनुशासनात्मक प्राधिकारी को प्रति प्रेषित इस निर्देश के साथ किया जाता है कि वह 'आंतरिक परिवाद समिति' की अनुशंसा की 'न्यूनतम प्रतिफल की संस्तुति करने पर नये रूप से विचार करके नवीन दण्डादेश पारित करेगा। एवं सुनिश्चित करेंगे कि यह प्रक्रिया आज से ३ माह के भीतर पूर्ण कर ली जायें।

२५. उपरोक्त विश्लेषण, निष्कर्ष व निर्देशों के अनुसार, विचारार्थ विधिक विषय निर्णीत किया जाता है तथा वर्तमान याचिका निस्तारित की जाती है।

THE HON'BLE J.J. MUNIR, J.

Writ A No. 16506 of 2024

Sanjay Kumar ...Petitioner
Versus
Punjab National Bank & Ors.
...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Mr. Amit Mishra

Counsel for the Respondents:
Mr. Ashok Shankar Bhatnagar

Issue for Consideration

1. Permissibility to calculate the brother's income while considering the financial condition of the petitioner to decide claim for compassionate appointment.
2. Nature of compassionate appointment to be made in the public office and extent of permissibility of compassionate appointment contrary to the rules of equality.
3. Extent of power of the High Court to modify the government policy.

Headnotes

Service law – Compassionate appointment – Eligibility – Terminal dues – Financial conditions of claimant – Relevancy of the income of petitioner's brother living separately and further of deceased employee's widow to evaluate the financial conditions – Court's power to modify the government policy, extent of:

Held : The reckoning of the petitioner's brother, Arjun Singh's income along with the deceased's family's income is an approach that is absolutely perverse. Arjun Singh is an independent man with a wife and two children to support. He lives separately since the year 2017, when the deceased was still around. Even if he stayed in the same house, it would make no difference at all. He has his own employment and a family to support. In the same house, there can be two homes – Not only the deceased's other son's income, who is an independent man, has to be excluded from the calculation of the deceased's dependant's family income, but also the pension that the deceased employee's widow received for a few months before she passed away, leaving behind the petitioner with no means. [Paras 15 and 20]

Held further : It is true that compassionate appointment is an exception to the rule of equality in matters of public employment, but, compassionate appointment is a class that is constitutionally valid, if the employer chooses to provide for it, in terms of their policy. Once that policy is forged into statutory rules or circulars, there has to be an even-handed, fair and just application to all such claims, that are put forth, upon the demise of a deceased employee by his dependants, as defined under the scheme. [Para 23]

Held further : The compassionate appointment policy, though cannot be modified by the Court about the parameters of entitlement for a candidate to establish his claim, but, it is not that the Court would fold its hands and permit an absolutely arbitrary, unfair and perverse application of the principles to evaluate a compassionate appointment scheme prescribed by the respondents' policy, rule or circular itself. We think, in this case, there has been an arbitrary evaluation of the petitioner's claim, taking into consideration credits to the family income, that are absolutely not there. [Para 27] (E-1)

(Delivered by Hon'ble J.J. Munir, J.)

This writ petition is directed against the order dated 09.09.2024 passed by the Chief Manager, Punjab National Bank, Circle Office, Bulandshahr, rejecting the petitioner's claim for compassionate appointment. Also, under challenge is a report of the Committee of Officers dated 16.07.2024, recommending a rejection of the petitioner's proposal for compassionate appointment as well as the decision of the Committee of Officers dated 29.08.2024, resolving to decline the petitioner's claim.

2. The petitioner's father, the late Suraj Pal, was a Class IV employee at the Punjab National Bank1, last posted at Branch Gulawati, District Bulandshahr. He passed away in harness on 05.03.2021, due to a heart attack, while in the care and management of the Metro Hospital. He left behind a widowed mother, Premwati Singh, wife Kamlesh, daughter Pooja and two sons, Arjun Singh and Sanjay Kumar, the petitioner. After Suraj Pal's demise, the petitioner's wife, Kamlesh, represented the matter before the Bank, seeking compassionate appointment for him. The petitioner's brother Arjun Singh as well as sister Pooja filed affidavits of no objection as regards the petitioner's candidature for compassionate appointment. The petitioner asserts that he possesses the essential qualifications for appointment to a considerable post with the Bank under the compassionate appointment scheme then prevalent. He possesses a certificate of intermediate education, that he earned in the year 2022 from the Uttar Pradesh Board of High School and Intermediate Education. After the petitioner's father's demise, his mother, Kamlesh, also did not survive for long. She suffered from ill heath and passed away on 11.01.2022. The family spent a considerable sum of money in paying for the petitioner's father's and mother's treatment.

3. At the time of his demise, Suraj Pal was in receipt of salary to the tune of ₹24110 per mensem. After his death, no sum of money was paid by the Bank to his dependants. The petitioner asserts that a considerable sum of money was spent on his mother's treatment, after his father passed away. He has annexed a photostat copy of Kamlesh's bank account, besides that of his father's, Suraj Pal, to prove the fact. It is the petitioner's case that he does not have a suitable source of livelihood and works as a casual labourer in the village, though he is the holder of an intermediate certificate. He has been issued a certificate in this regard by the Village Pradhan.

4. The petitioner, therefore, moved an application before the Bank, seeking compassionate appointment on 26.11.2022, stating all facts and circumstances of the family. Since no action was taken by the Bank, the petitioner instituted Writ - A No. 22164 of 2022, seeking to secure compassionate appointment for himself. The said writ petition was disposed of at the admission stage on 31.01.2023, after hearing learned Counsel for the Bank and acting on his statement that the petitioner's application is under active consideration of the Bank and would be considered and decided within fifteen days. This Court directed the Bank to decide the petitioner's application for compassionate appointment within next fifteen days, strictly in accordance with law. The Bank was also directed to intimate the petitioner of the decision within 24 hours.

5. The case of the petitioner is that acting on the orders passed by this Court on 31.01.2023, the Bank rejected his claim for compassionate appointment, without considering the financial condition of the petitioner, that is to say, the dependants of the deceased's family. The remark in the order of rejection is that the petitioner's monthly income from all sources is more than 60% of the notional gross salary of the deceased employee (net of notional tax), as per relevant policy guidelines. The petitioner pleads that he has lost his father and mother, involving considerable expenditure incurred in the treatment. His brother, Arjun Singh, lives separately along with his own family. The petitioner, who was dependent on his father, has plunged into a sudden economic crisis.

6. It is also averred that the petitioner's mother, the late Kamlesh, was drawing a family pension to the tune of ₹13,288 per mensem, which she received till December, 2021. She died on 11.01.2022, whereafter, family pension, too, has gone away. The petitioner's brother, Arjun Singh receives a monthly salary of ₹15,274, who lives separately with his family comprising his wife and two children. He stays separately since the year 2017. The deceased's family are, therefore, left without a source of income. They were totally dependent upon him.

7. The petitioner has come up with a case that after his father's demise, the deceased's family received terminal dues from the Bank to the tune of ₹987358. It is urged that the entire sum of terminal dues as well as other savings have been spent in his father's and mother's treatment, and the family are left with no resources. The petitioner's case is that the respondent-Bank have calculated the total income of the deceased's family at a sum of ₹33745.73, worked out in the manner that a sum of ₹5283 has been regarded as income from monthly interest from terminal dues, ₹13288 per month as the deceased's wife's family pension and ₹15274 per month as the deceased's other son's (Arjun Singh) salary. The petitioner has averred that there is no Fixed Deposit in any of the banks, yielding the hefty interest of ₹5183 per mensem. Since Kamlesh passed away on 11.01.2022, the family pension has also ceased. The petitioner's brother, Arjun Singh, is living separately, as already asserted, since the year 2017, with a family of his own, comprising his wife and children to support. His income is, therefore, not one that can be reckoned towards the income of the deceased's family. The petitioner says that he has to fend for himself and can hardly make ends meet, working as a casual labourer.

8. A short counter affidavit was filed by Mr. Ashok Shankar Bhatnagar, learned Counsel appearing on behalf of respondent No. 2 on 25.10.2024. A short rejoinder was filed on 27.10.2024. A counter affidavit was filed on behalf of respondent No. 2 dated 07.11.2024, and a further short counter affidavit, on 19.11.2024. A second counter affidavit was filed on behalf of respondent Nos. 1, 2 and 3 on 16.12.2024.

9. With so much of pleadings exchanged, this petition was admitted to hearing on 17.12.2024, which proceeded on that day, but remained inconclusive. The roster changed, on account of which, this matter was assigned to me, under the orders of His Lordship the Hon'ble The Chief Justice dated 15.01.2025. The matter was finally heard and judgment reserved.

10. Heard Mr. Amit Mishra, learned Counsel for the petitioner and Mr. Ashok Shankar Bhatnagar, learned Counsel appearing on behalf of the respondent-Bank.

11. In paragraph No. 8 of the counter affidavit dated 07.11.2024, calculation of the petitioner's eligibility under the compassionate appointment scheme has been set forth. The relevant scheme for compassionate appointment is carried in HRMD Circular No. 495 dated 26.03.2020, as modified by the HRMD Circular No. 550 dated 09.02.2021. The calculation for determining the petitioner's eligibility, as pleaded in the counter affidavit, is as follows :

8. That in view of the laid down procedure the application of Sh. Sanjay Kumar was processed. The details which was considered by the committee of officers are as under:

Particulars of the family of the deceased employee

c) Family Pension : Rs. 13288.02

d) At the time of his death, the monthly gross salary received by the employee was Rs. 41805.06

Calculation of Eligibility of the Applicant under the Relevant Scheme :

The relevant details for determining eligibility of the dependent family members for employment as per the above provisions are given as under:-

Sr. No.	Particulars	Amount in Rs.
1	Total Amount of Terminal Dues	1383813.61
2	Total Amount of Bank Loans	396455.42
3	Net Amount of Terminal Dues (1-2)	987358.19
4	Total amount of other investments	Nil
5	Loans against other investments, if	Nil any

6	Net amount of other Investments	Nil
7	Monthly interest on Net Terminal dues (as at S.no.3) @6.30% (Maximum FD Interest of Bank applicable for staff)	5183.63
8	Monthly income from other investments (as at S.no.6)@6.30%	Nil

12	Notional Gross Monthly Salary of Deceased (Feb 2021)	41805.06
13	Amount of notional Income Tax deducted	1097.75
14	Salary (Net of notional tax)	40707.31
15	Eligible Amount (60% of 14)	24424.38
16	Whether eligible for compassionate Appointment?	NO

12. The case for denial of the petitioner's claim for compassionate appointment is pleaded in paragraph no. 9 of the counter affidavit, which must be quoted for every word of it. It reads :

9. That the total last drawn salary (net of taxes) was Rs. 40,707.31 and the eligible amount being 60% comes to Rs. 24,424.38. The total monthly income of the family from all sources comes to Rs. 33,745.73 which is more than 60% of the last drawn gross salary net of taxes (Rs. 24,424.38) of the deceased employee. Hence, the Committee of Officers found that Shri Sanjay Kumar son of Late Shri Suraj Pal Singh was not eligible for compassionate appointment in terms of above provisions of the Scheme.

13. Learned Counsel for parties have furthered their submissions more or less in tune with the parties′ pleadings.

14. The question is if under the scheme for compassionate appointment, current in the bank at the time of the petitioner's father's demise, is he eligible for compassionate appointment?

15. We have carefully heard learned Counsel for parties and perused the Committee's reasoning for discarding the petitioner's claim. The reckoning of the petitioner's brother, Arjun Singh's income along with the deceased's family's income is an approach that is absolutely perverse. Arjun Singh is an independent man with a wife and two children to support. He lives separately since the year 2017, when the deceased was still around. Even if he stayed in the same house, it would make no difference at all. He has his own employment and a family to support. In the same house, there can be two homes. Therefore, tagging Arjun Singh's monthly income as part of the deceased's family's monthly income is the result of a perverse reasoning. Arjun Singh's income has to be excluded from the deceased's family income, which would reduce the dependant family's income, as Mr. Bhatnagar admits, to a figure of ₹18471.65.

16. But, this is not the end of the matter. The total sum of terminal dues received on account of the deceased's demise is a figure of ₹987358, from which, a monthly income of ₹ 5183.63, on the basis of interest of 6.30% (maximum Fixed Deposit interest of bank applicable for staff) has been inferred. This item of the deceased's monthly income is sans material. It is not that the terminal dues received by the surviving family of the deceased have been wasted or misspent. The petitioner claims that the sum of money received in terminal dues has been spent in the treatment of the deceased and the petitioner's mother, besides drawing on the corpus of other investments that the family had.

17. It is not reasonable to think that any sum of money would have been spent out of the deceased's terminal dues received from the Bank on his treatment as such, because the terminal dues would have, in any case, been received after the deceased passed away. But, a perusal of the deceased's wife's statement of account from 03.10.2021 to 02.11.2021 shows that substantial withdrawals shown there could be the money spent on the deceased's wife's treatment, as she passed away soon after the deceased employee′s demise. What was spent in medical treatment of the deceased's wife is a matter that requires to be closely scrutinised, before drawing a conclusion if the entire sum of money paid in terminal benefits was available as investment with the deceased's family, yielding a monthly income. The proof of expenditure ought have been annexed by the petitioner, and, if not that, the petitioner should have been asked to produce the relevant vouchers etc. In the absence of a clear determination that the terminal dues were not spent on the deceased's wife's medical treatment, a blanket inference, that this sum of money was available to the deceased's family, and now the petitioner has a source of monthly income by interest, is patently flawed.

18. The more important aspect in this calculation of denial for the petitioner is consideration of the family pension that the deceased's wife received for a short while. The deceased passed away on 05.03.2021, while his wife expired on 11.01.2022. She passed away, therefore, within the space of ten months after her husband's demise. The deceased's family, therefore, were in receipt of family pension for a very small period of time. This period of time cannot be regarded as one stabilising the family and bringing them out of the financial crisis, that they plunged into, upon the deceased employee′s sudden demise. If the widow would have lived on for a relatively longer period of time, it could be said that the family pension would account towards the deceased's dependants' family income. The extremely short-lived feature of the family pension in this case would not serve to reckon the deceased's dependents′ total income.

19. We were persuaded by Mr. Bhatnagar to accept his submission that family income has to be reckoned precisely on the date of the deceased's demise. Notwithstanding the fact that compassionate appointment is not an inherent right, but one created by statutory rules or employer's policy, carried in administrative circulars, as in this case, a policy, once there, has to be reasonably construed. It cannot be applied in an arbitrary manner. The purpose is to bail out the dependants of the deceased from financial crisis. A widow, surviving a few months after the employee's death and receiving pension for a short period of time, cannot be regarded as a factor that would stabilise the dependent family members and enable them to tide over the financial crisis.

20. In the circumstances of this case, therefore, we are of clear opinion that not only the deceased's other son's income, who is an independent man, has to be excluded from the calculation of the deceased's dependant's family income, but also the pension that the deceased employee's widow received for a few months before she passed away, leaving behind the petitioner with no means.

21. The reliance placed by Mr. Bhatnagar upon the authority of the Supreme Court in State Bank of India and another v. Somvir Singh[2], we are afraid, would not be of much assistance to the respondents. The reason is that the respondents have evaluated the petitioner's claim for compassionate appointment in manifest error, committing a blunder of numerical nature. They have added to the income of the deceased employee's family, represented by the petitioner, sums of money that were not at all relevant to reckon, as already remarked.

22. Learned Counsel for the respondents has next placed reliance upon the authority of the Supreme Court in General Manager, State Bank of India and others v. Anju Jain[3]. He has invited our attention to the following remarks in Anju Jain (supra) :

31. We are of the view that both the courts were wrong in granting relief to the writ petitioner. Appointment on compassionate ground is never considered a right of a person. In fact, such appointment is violative of rule of equality enshrined and guaranteed under Article 14 of the Constitution. As per settled law, when any appointment is to be made in Government or semi-government or in public office, cases of all eligible candidates must be considered alike. That is the mandate of Article 14. Normally, therefore, the State or its instrumentality making any appointment to public office, cannot ignore such mandate. At the same time, however, in certain circumstances, appointment on compassionate ground of dependants of the deceased employee is considered inevitable so that the family of the deceased employee may not starve. The primary object of such scheme is to save the bereaved family from sudden financial crisis occurring due to death of the sole bread earner. It is thus an exception to the general rule of equality and not another independent and parallel source of employment.

23. It is true that it is always open to the employer to devise a formula to determine a threshold of eligibility, based on financial circumstances of the deceased's family, in order to enable them to a consideration for compassionate appointment. There is nothing inherently unfair or discriminatory about it. But, the formula, once devised, as already said, cannot be applied in an arbitrary fashion in order to reject a claim for compassionate appointment. Considerations irrelevant under the employer's scheme or a perverse application of principles embodied in the scheme is not to be countenanced. It is true that compassionate appointment is an exception to the rule of equality in matters of public employment, but, compassionate appointment is a class that is constitutionally valid, if the employer chooses to provide for it, in terms of their policy. Once that policy is forged into statutory rules or circulars, there has to be an even-handed, fair and just application to all such claims, that are put forth, upon the demise of a deceased employee by his dependants, as defined under the scheme. It is not the respondents′ case that the petitioner is not a member of the deceased′s family, as defined under the scheme. They have discarded the claim on the basis of working out an income for the deceased′s family, that is absolutely not there.

24. There is not much cavil about the principle or the fact that a married son, living apart from the deceased′s family, with his wife and children, cannot have his income reckoned towards the deceased′s family′s income. The more subtle issue, that is involved here, is about the pension that was paid to the widow until she was alive for a short while - less than a year after the deceased′s demise. If the widow had lived for a reasonably long period of time, long enough for the petitioner, definitely a dependant of the deceased's, to settle himself in life and get over the sudden crisis brought about by the deceased employee's passing away from this mortal world, different conditions would have applied. The test, we think, that would be just and fair to apply, well-grounded in reasonableness, as understood under the Constitution, would be if the financial crises, that the employee's sudden demise created, has blown over. Indeed, not in this case. The deceased passed away on 05.03.2021 and his widow died on 11.01.2022. The short spell of time that the family pension enured to the benefit of the deceased employee's family, was not long enough to provide the petitioner with a reasonable degree of opportunity to find for himself suitable employment. The time period, we think, that would be reasonable, cannot be placed in a straight-jacket formula, but still, it should be long enough to enable a surviving and young dependant of the deceased employee to stake claim for public employment or find other means of livelihood. Decidedly, in our opinion, a time period of less than a year is not that long, where the crisis brought on by the employee's demise can be said to be a matter of history.

25. The respondents definitely faltered in not accounting for the money spent out of terminal dues on the deceased's widow's aliment, while alive. It had to be taken note of and counted out of the funds available for investment. If the medical expenditure was reimbursable and was actually reimbursed, it would be a different matter, but then, that finding has to be recorded. The evaluation of the petitioner's claim, where a recurring monthly income has been read to the credit of the deceased employee's family, has to be understood and revaluated in the aforesaid perspective. Likewise, revaluation of the petitioner's claim must be one that places out of consideration the petitioner's brother, Arjun Singh's salary of ₹15274 per mensem. Also, the family pension, which the wife received, while alive, must be discounted.

26. The respondents are, therefore, obliged to reconsider the petitioner's claim with a different set of figures in terms of their policy. Else, the policy would suffer from the vice of arbitrariness.

27. The compassionate appointment policy, though cannot be modified by the Court about the parameters of entitlement for a candidate to establish his claim, but, it is not that the Court would fold its hands and permit an absolutely arbitrary, unfair and perverse application of the principles to evaluate a compassionate appointment scheme prescribed by the respondents' policy, rule or circular itself. We think, in this case, there has been an arbitrary evaluation of the petitioner's claim, taking into consideration credits to the family income, that are absolutely not there.

28. In the result, this writ petition succeeds and stands allowed. The impugned order dated 09.09.2024 passed by the Chief Manager, Punjab National Bank, Circle Office, Bulandshahr is hereby quashed. Likewise, the report of the Committee of Officers dated 16.07.2024 and the decision of the Committee of Officers dated 29.08.2024 are also quashed. A mandamus is issued to the Chief Manager, Punjab National Bank, Circle Office, Bulandshahr and the Committee of Officers of the Bank, designated under the HRMD Circular No. 495 dated 26.03.2020, as modified by HRMD Circular No. 550 dated 09.02.2021, to reconsider the petitioner's claim for compassionate appointment, bearing in mind the remarks carried in this judgment. Thereafter, orders shall be made on the petitioner's claim for compassionate appointment within a period of two months of the date of receipt of a copy of this order by the Chief Manager, Punjab National Bank, Circle Office, Bulandshahr.

29. The Registrar (Compliance) is directed to communicate this order to the Chief Manager, Punjab National Bank, Circle Office, Bulandshahr through the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Bulandshahr.

DATED: ALLAHABAD 09.09.2025

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE J.J. MUNIR, J.

Writ A No. 16747 of 2024

Sonu Nagar ...Petitioner
Versus
The General Manager, Punjab National Bank & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Mr. Virendra Singh

Counsel for the Respondents:
Mr. Ashok Shankar Bhatnagar

Issue for Consideration

1. Relevancy of the financial criteria to get compassionate appointment as fixed under the Circular, and effect of non-fulfillment of this criteria.
2. Nature of right to compassionate appointment on the public post and it's limitations.

Headnotes

Service law – Compassionate appointment – Eligibility – Petitioner's father was died during service – No objection certificate of other family members was also filed in support of application – Total monthly income of all the members was more than 60% of the last gross salary – Relevancy – Reckoning of income of petitioner's son namely Monu Nagar along with the deceased's family income – Permissibility:
Held : The reckoning of Monu Nagar's income along with the deceased's family income after him, is absolutely impermissible. Monu sNagar is an independent man with his own wife and children, living separately since the time when the deceased was around. Even if he stayed in the same house, it would make no difference. [Para 19]

Held further : The right to compassionate appointment is not an inherent right. It is governed by the employer's policy, sometimes expressed in statutory rules, and at others, in administrative circulars. Since the right is the creature either of a statute embodying a policy or a policy expressed in administrative circulars, the right is no more and no less than what the rule or the policy circular says it is – If the compassionate appointment policy or the rules of an employer devise a formula, as in the present case, to determine a threshold of eligibility based on the financial circumstances of the family, there is nothing illegal, unfair or discriminatory about it. [Paras 24 and 25]

Held further : The petitioner would be eligible under the respondent's compassionate appointment policy if the income of the deceased's family were 13241.11 or less, applying 60% of the notional gross monthly salary last drawn by the deceased's standard, stipulated under the policy, as the entitling criteria – The figure does not bring the petitioner's case where the deceased's family were eligible to have a member of theirs appointed on compassionate basis in terms of the dying-in-harness policy applicable to the respondents. [Para 30] (E-1)

Case Arising From

Order dated 09.09.2024 rejecting the petitioner's claim for compassionate appointment.

Appearances for Parties

Advs. for the Petitioners : Mr. Virendra Singh
Advs. for the Respondeents : Mr. Ashok Shankar Bhatnagar

(Delivered by Hon'ble J.J. Munir, J.)

The petitioner's claim for compassionate appointment has been rejected by the respondents, the officers of the Punjab National Bank1, and the petitioner thinks that they have done so arbitrarily, committing a manifest error of law. He assails the decision of the Bank to refuse his application for compassionate appointment on account of his father's death in harness. The petitioner has challenged various orders and resolutions passed by the officers and Committees of the Bank, declining his claim, to which a moreful allusion would be made later in this judgment.

2. The petitioner's father served the Indian Army, which he left upon his retirement from service. He availed the benefit of being an ex-serviceman and was appointed as an Armed Guard with the Bank on 16.12.2014. His date of birth was 20.07.1973. The petitioner's father, the late Satyaveer Singh was a permanent employee of the Bank. He died in harness on 17.12.2016, suffering a cardiac arrest. The petitioner made an application for compassionate appointment under the dying-in-harness scheme applicable on 11.06.2020. He made another application on 19.02.2021. At the time of his demise, the petitioner's father was survived by his mother Ramwati, aged about 72 years, his wife Sudesh Devi aged about 45 years, a son Monu Nagar, aged about 27 years, another son, Sonu Nagar (the petitioner), aged about 22 years, still another son, Praveen, aged about 18 years, and, Sonika, a married daughter aged 24 years. These facts about the deceased's family profile are clearly set forth in the application that the petitioner made for compassionate appointment to the Bank. It was supported by a 'No Objection' from the other family members, saying that they would have no objection if the petitioner's claim for compassionate appointment were considered by the Bank.

3. The petitioner, on the strength of the no objection certificate, which was on affidavit by the other survivors of the deceased, applied for compassionate appointment, as aforesaid. The Bank raised certain objections by their letter dated 23.02.2022, which the petitioner, through an affidavit, caused to be removed. These objections were with regard to dependency of the family members upon the deceased.

4. The petitioner says that he moved an application before the Branch Manager (Currency Chest), Ambedkar Marg, Ghaziabad, pressing his claim for compassionate appointment. The Branch Manager last mentioned visited the petitioner's Village Atta, Post Office Gulaothi, District Bulandshahr and appraised the circumstances of the deceased's family. He verified the particulars about the petitioner's claim. The petitioner's application was considered in all its details by a Committee comprising two officers - the Chief Manager and a Senior Manager, who, vide their memo dated 30.12.2022, found the petitioner not entitled to compassionate appointment in terms of the scheme for compassionate appointment dated 26.03.2020, as revised vide circular dated 09.02.2021 and 17.07.2021.

5. After consideration by the Committee as aforesaid, recommendations were placed for decision before another Committee of three officers, comprising an Assistant General Manager (HRDD), the Deputy General Manager (HRMD) and the General Manager (HRD). They tick-marked their approval to the recommendations of the two-member committee, declining the petitioner's claim. The Committee of three Managers of the Bank, who held the petitioner ineligible, have not dated their orders, but the orders appear to be one passed in December, 2022, as the footnote of the orders would show. On the basis of the decision of the three-member Committee, a formal order dated 28.04.2023 was issued, where the Chief Manager (HRD), Kavinagar, Ghaziabad rejected the petitioner's claim. The reason assigned to decline the petitioner's claim all through is that since the income of the family from all sources, relevant under the Scheme is more than 60 per cent of the notional gross salary of the employee, the petitioner's claim for compassionate appointment was not sustainable.

6. Aggrieved by the resolution of the Committee dated 30.12.2022 and the orders formally rejecting the petitioner's claim passed by the Chief Manager (HRD), Ghaziabad dated 20.03.2023, the petitioner has preferred the present writ petition.

7. It may be clarified here that though this writ petition was heard along with Writ-A No. 16506 of 2024, as certain questions of fact and law were common involving the Bank, but we think that looking to the very different facts in both matters, separate judgment should be passed.

8. A notice of motion was issued on 25.11.2024, in response to which, the Bank has filed a counter affidavit. The petitioner made an application for amendment, which was granted on 17.12.2024, leading him to file an amended copy of the writ petition, incorporating the necessary pleas. The petition was admitted to hearing on 18.03.2025, which proceeded forthwith and judgment reserved.

9. Heard Mr. Virendra Singh, learned Counsel for the petitioner and Mr. Ashok Shankar Bhatnagar, learned Counsel appearing on behalf of the respondent-Bank.

10. The thrust of the submissions made by Mr. Virendra Singh, learned Counsel for the petitioner, is that the Committee, which appraised the petitioner's case and put up their recommendations for consideration by the other Committee for decision, all dated 30.12.2022, took into consideration an irrelevant item towards the income of the deceased's family, on the foot of which, they rejected the petitioner's claim in manifest error. It is urged that they tagged along with the income of the family, a sum of ₹35,337 per month, which is the income of Monu Nagar, an independent son of the deceased, who was not dependent upon the deceased for his livelihood and has a family of his own to take care of. He resides separately. The submission is that since the total income of the deceased's family is the guiding criteria, fixed at less than 60% of the gross monthly salary last drawn by the deceased, entitling a dependent of his to compassionate appointment, the Committee's calculation to discard the petitioner's claim has gone all wrong. It is further pointed out by the learned Counsel for the petitioner that in their report, the Committee, which appraised the petitioner's claim, have held that the family received terminal dues from the Bank in the sum of ₹2,23,329. He submits that what the Committee ignored from consideration are the terminal dues as well as other savings that the family had spent for survival, and, particularly, defraying the expenditure in marriage of the deceased's daughter and the petitioner's sister. The petitioner does not have income from any other source. It is also submitted that the Committee also ignored the fact that there is a loan, which the petitioner has taken to support his livelihood, which is still outstanding.

11. It is next submitted that the calculation of the family members' income from all sources, fixing it at a sum of ₹64,219.41 per month is patently erroneous. It is said that ₹1488.85 has been worked out on account of monthly interest payable on the net terminal dues at the rate of 8% per annum, ₹3084.44 per month as monthly income from other investments, also at the rate of 8% and ₹20,309 per month as the sum of money payable on account of family pension received by the deceased's widow from the Army. To this has been added, as already pointed out, in manifest error, a sum of ₹35,337, being the salary drawn by the petitioner's brother, Monu Nagar, who has nothing to do with the deceased's family and lives independently with his own family, comprising his wife and children. A further sum of ₹4000 per month, as the learned Counsel for the petitioner says, has been added on account of the petitioner's monthly income. Learned Counsel for the petitioner submits that there is no fixed deposit with any Bank, and, therefore, the monthly income of ₹1488.86, earned on the net terminal dues paid to the surviving family of the deceased, is without basis. It is argued most persuasively that Monu Nagar is a married man, who lives separately along with his family, comprising his wife and children at Sri Gandhi Nagar, Rajasthan since 2015, that is to say, before the deceased employee passed away. There is absolutely no basis to tag his income along with the income of the deceased's family, comprising his dependants.

12. It is next pointed out that so far as the petitioner is concerned, he does manual work as a labourer in the village and the locality. He has taken an agricultural loan from the State Bank of India, Branch Gulaoti, District Bulandshahr to establish his livelihood. The loan is in the sum of ₹1,47,000. The petitioner has earned his B.Com degree. The financial condition of the family is very penurious. The respondents have calculated the deceased's family's income in manifest error, without any basis, to reach those figures that are there in the recommending Committee's report, on the foot of which, the decision-making Committee have resolved to reject the petitioner's claim. It is also emphasized that the family do not have any funds with them invested in the fixed deposit and that assumption by the Committee is bereft of the deceased's family's financial details. Learned Counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is entitled to be considered for compassionate appointment under the dying-in-harness scheme applicable, that is to say, the one in cases of deaths of the employees occurring prior to 26.03.2020, except CoViD-19 cases in terms of the HRMD Circular No. 495 dated 26.03.2020 and its subsequent revisions.

13. Mr. Ashok Shankar Bhatnagar, learned Counsel appearing on behalf of the respondents points out that upon the demise of Satyaveer Singh, the petitioner's application was considered. He has given out, in tabular form, the family profile of the deceased employee and the family's income, that was taken into consideration by the Committee of Officers assigned to decide the compassionate appointee's case. The said information, which Mr. Bhatnagar has placed before the Court in tabular form, is shown below :

• Particulars of the family of the deceased employee

Sr. No.	Name	Relationship	Age	Qualification	Marital Status	Whether employed	Details of income
1	Sudesh Devi	Spouse	45	-	Widow	No	Army Pension Rs. 20,309/-
2	Monu Nagar	Son	27	12th	Married	Yes	Rs. 35,337/-
3	Sonu Nagar	Son	22	B.Com.	Married	No	Rs. 4.000/-

							(Agri. Income)
4	Praveen	Son	17	12th	Single	No	Nil
5	Soni ka	Daughter	24	12th	Married	No	Nil

14. The financial position of the deceased's family, that was considered by the Committee appointed by the Bank to consider compassionate appointment claims, has been placed by Mr. Bhatnagar in the following terms :

Financial Position of the family of the Deceased

a) Immovable Property: One house self occupied

b) Terminal Dues received from the bank:

Dues Paid	Amount (in Rs.)	O/s Loans with Interest	Amount (in Rs.)
Provident Fund /NPS	1,03,136.00		Nil
Gratuity	25780	O/s in Clean OD
Leave Encashment	14143	Vehicle Loan
Contributor Fund	30000	Festival Loan
Financial Aid	50000	Society Loan with Bank's permission
TOTAL (A)	2,23,329.00	TOTAL (B)	Nil
NET TERMINAL DUES RECEIVED FROM BANK (A-B) = Rs. 2,23,329.00

c) Family Pension : Nil

d) Army Pension : Rs. 20,309/-

• Amount Received / Lilkely to be received from other sources / investments : Rs. 4,61,251/- (LIC) and Rs. 1,431.60 (Deposit)

• At the time of his death, the monthly gross salary received by the employee was Rs. 22,068.52

15. Mr. Bhatnagar has then invited the Court's attention to the Committee's calculation of the petitioner's entitlement under the compassionate appointment scheme. This, again, according to the learned Counsel, is a tabular description, which he has placed before the Court. It is depicted below :

Sr. No.	Particulars	Amount in Rs.
1	Total Amount of Terminal Dues	2,23,329.00
2	Total Amount of Bank Loans	Nil
3	Total amount of other investments	4,62,682.60
4	Loans against other investments, if any	Nil
5	Net amount of other	4,62,682.60

	Investments
6	Monthly interest on Net Terminal dues (as at S.no.1) @ 8% (Maximum FD Interest of Bank applicable for staff)	1488.56
7	Monthly income from other investments (as at S.no.3) @ 8%	3084.55
8	Amount of monthly Family Pension (Army Pension)	20309
9	Any other income Monthly income of Monu Nagar Monthly income of Sonu Nagar	 35,337.00 4,000.00
10	Total Monthly income (7 to 10)	64219.41
11	Notional Gross Monthly Salary of Deceased (November, 2016)	22068.52
12	Amount of notional Income Tax deducted	Nil
13	Salary (Net of notional tax)	22068.52
14	Eligible Amount (60% of 14)	13241.11
15	Whether eligible for compassionate Appointment?	NO

16. Learned Counsel for the petitioner submits that the last salary drawn by the deceased (net of taxes) was ₹22068.52, and, in order for the petitioner to be eligible for compassionate appointment, his dependent family members should have an income less than 60% of the employee's last gross salary drawn, net of taxes. The total monthly income of the family from all sources is a sum of ₹64219.41, which is more than 60% of the last gross salary, net of taxes, that the deceased drew. It is for this reason that the Bank's Committee for Compassionate Appointments did not find the petitioner eligible under the scheme.

17. It is next contended by Mr. Bhatnagar that the sole contention that the learned Counsel for the petitioner has raised is that the monthly income of the petitioner's brother, Monu Nagar, amounting to a sum of ₹35337 per month, cannot be taken into consideration while calculating the family income of the deceased at the time of his demise, inasmuch as Monu Nagar was a married man, with his own family, independent of the deceased's family. It is submitted by learned Counsel for the respondents that even if Monu Nagar's monthly income is excluded, while calculating the family's income, the family would still have an income of ₹28882 per month per month, which is much above the last gross salary, net of taxes, drawn by the deceased employee, to wit, ₹22068.52. The deceased's family, therefore, are not in indigent circumstances, nor is the petitioner, within the meaning of HRMD Circular No. 495 dated 26.03.2020, as modified by HRMD Circular No. 550 dated 09.02.2021. It is urged that in these circumstances, the petitioner has no case for consideration of his compassionate appointment claim. It is argued that compassionate appointment is offered on humanitarian grounds and gives expression to the rule of equality in matters of public employment. It is not a vested right and this Court, in exercise of power of judicial review, cannot be swayed by sympathetic considerations.

18. We have carefully heard learned Counsel for parties, perused the Committee's reasoning for discarding the petitioner's claim and the order impugned.

19. We must say at once that so far as the Committee's analysis of the petitioner's claim for compassionate appointment is concerned, the reckoning of Monu Nagar's income along with the deceased's family income after him, is absolutely impermissible. Monu Nagar is an independent man with his own wife and children, living separately since the time when the deceased was around. Even if he stayed in the same house, it would make no difference. He has his own employment and a family to support. Therefore, tagging Monu Nagar's monthly income as part of the deceased's family's monthly income is the result of perverse reasoning. Monu Nagar's income has to be excluded from the deceased's family income, which would reduce the dependent family's income, as Mr. Bhatnagar admits, to a figure of ₹28882 per month. This figure too, we think, not merely on impressions, is much inflated.

20. The total sum of terminal dues received on account of the deceased's demise is a figure of ₹223329, from which, a monthly income of ₹1488.86, on the basis of an interest of 8% per annum (maximum Fixed Deposit interest applicable for bank staff) has been inferred. This item, in the deceased's monthly income, is sans material. It is not that the terminal dues received by the surviving family of the deceased have been wasted or misspent. This sum of money, together with whatever has been regarded for the deceased as the corpus of other investments, according to the petitioner, has been spent in solemnising the deceased's daughter's marriage. The other investments, that have been taken into consideration, is a sum of ₹462682. From this sum of money, a monthly income of ₹3084.55 has been inferred. We have already indicated that this sum of money, even if regarded to be there on account of investments of the family, has been well utilised, according to the petitioner, in solemnising the deceased's daughter's marriage. The sum of ₹223329 paid by the Bank to the deceased's dependant family members, after his demise, is not a princely sum, going by the contemporary worth of money at the time when Satyaveer Singh passed away and in the short run thereafter.

21. This holds true for the sum of ₹462682.60 on account of other investments inferred for the deceased's dependent family. The total sum of ₹686011.60 held to the credit of the deceased's surviving and dependant family is a modest sum of money, which the family would have spent in the deceased's daughter's wedding. There is no reason to infer, even if the respondents are absolutely right, that this money was available to the family. That the petitioner's case that it was all spent in solemnising his sister's marriage, is a claim not to be disbelieved. The sum of ₹686011.60 (₹223329+₹462682.60) as a corpus, available to the deceased's family, has to be discounted, and, a fortiori, the monthly income held to be derived from the said claim.

22. Quite apart, the availability of ₹223329 in the hands of the deceased's family after his demise can be accepted as that spent in his daughter's wedding. The other sum of ₹462682 shown under the head of "Other Investments" is an inference based on pure conjecture. No evidence aliunde has been shown to us during hearing, particularly, in the affidavit filed on behalf of the respondents, that this sum of money amounting to ₹462682 was, in fact, available to the deceased's family. The respondents are a Bank and they should have provided the particulars of the availability of this sum of money in an account of the deceased's widow or other family members in order to credit the family with its possession. There is vague assertion that this sum of money is likely to be received from other sources/investments. This is pure conjecture in the absence of specific material to show that this sum of money was, in fact, available in any kind of security or deposit to the deceased's family.

23. Therefore, from the deceased's family income, we have to further deduct a sum of ₹4573.41. Deducting this sum of money from the monthly income of ₹28882 per month, acknowledged by Mr. Bhatnagar during hearing as the deceased's family's income, would be reduced to a sum of ₹24308.59. This is the monthly income, on the foot of which, the deceased's entitlement to compassionate appointment was to be considered by the Bank. They, instead, considered it on an inflated figure of ₹64219.41 per month. Mr. Bhatnagar very fairly said before us, as already remarked, that the deceased's income, that ought have been considered by the Committee, was a figure of ₹28882 per month, though he hastened to add that, that figure would not place the petitioner's case under the policy in any better stead. We have already found that Mr. Bhatnagar's fair and candid concession also does not represent the correct figure of the deceased's family's monthly income. It is a still lower sum of money per mensem, that is to say, ₹24308.59.

24. It now has to be examined if the petitioner has a right to be considered for compassionate appointment. It would be well to remember that the right to compassionate appointment is not an inherent right. It is governed by the employer's policy, sometimes expressed in statutory rules, and at others, in administrative circulars. Since the right is the creature either of a statute embodying a policy or a policy expressed in administrative circulars, the right is no more and no less than what the rule or the policy circular says it is. Also, even if a right to a consideration for compassionate appointment is there under the rules or the policy, there is no vested right to be actually appointed, inhering in the dependant of a deceased employee. Of course, if a rule or policy is there and everything is the same as between two candidates, the respondents cannot differentially apply the policy on a pick-and-choose basis. In this connection, reference may be made to the decision of the Supreme Court in State Bank of India and another v. Somvir Singh[2], where it has been held :

10. There is no dispute whatsoever that the appellant Bank is required to consider the request for compassionate appointment only in accordance with the scheme framed by it and no discretion as such is left with any of the authorities to make compassionate appointment dehors the scheme. In our considered opinion the claim for compassionate appointment and the right, if any, is traceable only to the scheme, executive instructions, rules, etc. framed by the employer in the matter of providing employment on compassionate grounds. There is no right of whatsoever nature to claim compassionate appointment on any ground other than the one, if any, conferred by the employer by way of scheme or instructions as the case may be.

12. The competent authority while considering the application had taken into consideration each one of those factors and accordingly found that the dependants of the employee who died in harness are not in penury and without any means of livelihood. The authority did not commit any error in taking the terminal benefits and the investments and the monthly family income including the family pension paid by the Bank into consideration for the purposes of deciding as to whether the family of late Zile Singh had been left in penury or without any means of livelihood. The scheme framed by the appellant Bank in fact mandates the authority to take those factors into consideration. The authority also did not commit any error in taking into consideration the income of the family from other sources viz. the agricultural land.

13. In our considered opinion, the High Court itself could not have undertaken any exercise to decide as to what would be the reasonable income which would be sufficient for the family for its survival and whether it had been left in penury or without any means of livelihood. The only question the High Court could have adverted itself to is whether the decision-making process rejecting the claim of the respondent for compassionate appointment is vitiated? Whether the order is not in conformity with the scheme framed by the appellant Bank? It is not even urged that the order passed by the competent authority is not in accordance with the scheme. It is well settled that the hardship of the dependant does not entitle one to compassionate appointment dehors the scheme or the statutory provisions as the case may be. The income of the family from all sources is required to be taken into consideration according to the scheme which the High Court altogether ignored while remitting the matter for fresh consideration by the appellant Bank. It is not a case where the dependants of the deceased employee are left "without any means of livelihood" and unable to make both ends meet. The High Court ought not to have disturbed the finding and the conclusion arrived at by the appellant Bank that the respondent was not living hand-to-mouth. As observed by this Court in G.M. (D&PB) v. Kunti Tiwary [(2004) 7 SCC 271 : 2004 SCC (L&S) 943] the High Court cannot dilute the criterion of penury to one of "not very well-to-do". The view taken by the Division Bench of the High Court may amount to varying the existing scheme framed by the appellant Bank. Such a course is impermissible in law.

25. It has also to be remembered that compassionate appointment is an exception to the rule of equality in public employment, which is otherwise governed by the mandate of Articles 14 and 16 of the Constitution. It is designed to save from penury a family which has plunged into the abyss of economic crisis upon the sudden demise of the breadwinner. A scheme for compassionate appointment or the rules, if they provide for evaluation of the financial circumstances of the family, before offering compassionate appointment to one of the dependant family members, brings about an intelligible differentia, bearing a reasonable nexus with the object to be achieved. If the compassionate appointment policy or the rules of an employer devise a formula, as in the present case, to determine a threshold of eligibility based on the financial circumstances of the family, there is nothing illegal, unfair or discriminatory about it. In this connection, reference may be made to the remarks of the Supreme Court in General Manager,

State of India and others v. Anju Jain[3], where it is observed :

31. We are of the view that both the courts were wrong in granting relief to the writ petitioner. Appointment on compassionate ground is never considered a right of a person. In fact, such appointment is violative of rule of equality enshrined and guaranteed under Article 14 of the Constitution. As per settled law, when any appointment is to be made in Government or semi-government or in public office, cases of all eligible candidates must be considered alike. That is the mandate of Article 14. Normally, therefore, the State or its instrumentality making any appointment to public office, cannot ignore such mandate. At the same time, however, in certain circumstances, appointment on compassionate ground of dependants of the deceased employee is considered inevitable so that the family of the deceased employee may not starve. The primary object of such scheme is to save the bereaved family from sudden financial crisis occurring due to death of the sole bread earner. It is thus an exception to the general rule of equality and not another independent and parallel source of employment.

26. Though we have already discarded the submission of Mr. Bhatnagar that in order to know the financial status of the family, the income of the other family members, namely, other sons, has been included in the policy of the petitioner, we again think that it is quite an irrelevant consideration. Given the contemporary social milieu, families are nuclear; not joint. A husband and wife fend for themselves and their minor children. They are no longer part of a bigger family, as in yesteryears. What is really to be tested is if the family, after the deceased's demise, are in indigent circumstances.

27. It is true that in order to evaluate the financial circumstances of the family for the purpose of offering compassionate appointment, terminal benefits, investments, monthly family income including pension and income of the family from other sources, such as agricultural land, has to be taken into consideration by the employer. It is after taking into consideration all these matters that the employer must reach a conclusion if circumstances of the family are, indeed, penurious. The assessment has to be one under the employer's policy embodied in rules or circulars. In this connection, we may harp back to the principle laid down in Somvir Singh (supra) in the most eloquent terms, to which, allusion has been made in the earlier part of this judgment.

28. Regarding the principles on which compassionate appointment proceeds, reference must be made to Canara Bank v. Ajithumar G.K. [4]. Dwelling upon the objective of compassionate appointment and what is really meant by penurious circumstances, it was held in AjithKumar G.K. (supra) :

29. The second sub-issue pertains to the real objective sought to be achieved by offering compassionate appointment. We have noticed the objectives of the scheme of 1993 and construe such objectives as salutary for deciding any claim for compassionate appointment. The underlying idea behind compassionate appointment in death-in-harness cases appears to be that the premature and unexpected passing away of the employee, who was the only bread earner for the family, leaves the family members in such penurious condition that but for an appointment on compassionate ground, they may not survive. There cannot be a straitjacket formula applicable uniformly to all cases of employees dying-in-harness which would warrant appointment on compassionate grounds. Each case has its own peculiar features and is required to be dealt with bearing in mind the financial condition of the family. It is only in "hand-to-mouth" cases that a claim for compassionate appointment ought to be considered and granted, if at all other conditions are satisfied. Such "hand-to-mouth" cases would include cases where the family of the deceased is 'below poverty line' and struggling to pay basic expenses such as food, rent, utilities, etc., arising out of lack of any steady source of sustenance. This has to be distinguished from a mere fall in standard of life arising out of the death of the bread earner.

30. The observation in Kunti Tiwary (supra) noted above seems to assume significance and we draw inspiration therefrom in making the observation that no appointment on compassionate ground ought to be made as if it is a matter of course or right, being blissfully oblivious of the laudable object of any policy/scheme in this behalf.

31. Thus, examination of the financial condition to ascertain whether the respondent and his mother were left in utter financial distress because of the death of the bread earner is not something that can be loosely brushed aside.

32. This takes us to the third sub-issue tasking us to consider whether there has been a proper and reasonable assessment of the financial condition of the family consequent upon death of the respondent's father. The order of the MD & CEO has been extracted above, verbatim. What transpires from a bare reading of such order is that the deceased left behind him his widow, the respondent and three daughters as his surviving heirs. All the daughters were married and settled. Only his spouse and son could count as dependants. The daughters were not shown to be dependent on the deceased while he was alive and in service. The respondent and his mother were residing in their own house. That apart, the deceased was 4 (four) months away from retirement on superannuation. It has been indicated in such order what the last drawn net salary of the deceased was and had he survived even after superannuation, what quantum of money would he have received as monthly pension. Also, the amount of monthly family pension being paid to the respondent's mother is indicated. Although on behalf of the respondent a contention has been raised that there has been no proper assessment of his financial condition, rather strangely, the figures referred to by the MD & CEO have not been disputed at all. We are, thus, left with no option but to proceed on the basis that the same are correct. If, indeed, the respondent's father would have received a pension amount of Rs. 6398/- and burdened to feed himself as well as his two dependants, viz. his spouse and son, the amount of family pension initially sanctioned, i.e., Rs. 4637.92 could not have, by any stretch of imagination, be seen as insufficient or inadequate for feeding two mouths. It is also not in dispute that the net terminal benefits in a sum of Rs. 3.09 lakh paid to the respondent/his mother would have been the same amount which the deceased would have received as terminal benefits after superannuation, had he been alive. Thus, it is not a case where the death of the respondent's father brought about such dire consequence and/or disastrous outcome that the respondent and his mother would have to cope with miserable effects which, as the respondent urged, could be remedied only by offering an appointment on compassionate ground. We regret our inability to bead idem with learned counsel for the respondent.

29. What, therefore, has to be seen is if the petitioner, or so to speak, the family of the deceased were, indeed, in penurious circumstances on account of his demise. It is not, in the slightest doubt, that assessment of the deceased's family's financial condition has to be made according to rules of the policy relating to compassionate appointment and not in accordance with what the Court might think to be entitling penury for the deceased's family. This is a logical corollary of the foremost precept that compassionate appointment is no inherent right, but a concession given by the employer according to its policy framed for the purpose, if at all, and carried in its rules or circulars. The entitlement to compassionate appointment would, therefore, have to be viewed by those financial standards of the deceased's family being indeed hand-to-mouth, as the policy for compassionate appointment of the particular employer envisages. Here, the policy in vogue is carried in HRMD Circular No. 495 dated 26.03.2020, as modified by the HRMD Circular No. 550 dated 09.02.2021.

30. It is not in dispute that the petitioner's case is governed by the pre-revised scheme applicable for deaths up to 31.03.2021, except CoViD cases. There, the foremost criteria is that the total monthly income of a family, from all sources, should be less than 60% of the last drawn monthly salary, net of taxes, by the deceased employee. The respondents considered the deceased's gross monthly salary for the month of November, 2016 to be a figure of ₹22068.52 and since no tax was deducted, as the recommendations of the Committee dated 20.03.2023 would show, 60% of the last drawn salary was worked out to a figure of ₹13241.11. The deceased's widow was admittedly in receipt of a family pension from the Army in the sum of ₹20,309 per month, to which may be added the petitioner's income of ₹4000, which would lead to the figure of ₹24,309. The deceased's last notional gross salary, net of taxes, has been worked out to a figure of ₹22,068.52, 60% whereof has already been noticed to be ₹13241.11. Juxtaposed against this figure is the deceased's family's income of ₹24,309, at the time of his demise. This figure does not bring the petitioner's case where the deceased's family were eligible to have a member of theirs appointed on compassionate basis in terms of the dying-in-harness policy applicable to the respondents, as carried in circulars dated 26.03.2020 and 09.02.2021 mentioned above. The petitioner would be eligible under the respondent's compassionate appointment policy if the income of the deceased's family were ₹13241.11 or less, applying 60% of the notional gross monthly salary last drawn by the deceased's standard, stipulated under the policy, as the entitling criteria.

31. We may emphasise that a mere lowering of standard of the deceased's family from what they would have enjoyed if the deceased was around is not the test to hold the family entitled to the benefit of compassionate appointment under the respondents' compassionate appointment policy. It has to be judged according to the standards fixed by the compassionate appointment policy in force in the employer's establishment at the time when the deceased passed away. The applicable policy clearly stipulates a monthly income much below than that which the deceased's family, by all standards, have. This is, therefore, not even a case where, despite excluding some very arbitrary and irrational figures that the Committee took into consideration for declining the petitioner's claim for compassionate appointment, we ought direct a reconsideration of that claim on the basis of income of the deceased's family, as we have determined it. On the basis of that income too, the compassionate appointment policy would not work to make the petitioner eligible for consideration, as shown above.

32. In the circumstances, we do not find any good ground to interfere with the impugned order and the resolutions of the Committees, declining the petitioner's claim for compassionate appointment.

33. In the result, this petition fails and stands dismissed.

34. There shall be no order as to costs.

श्री काशी विश्वनाथ मन्दिर में 'आचार्य' पद की प्रकृति, और इस पद पर नियुक्ति पश्चात सेवाविस्तार न करने संबंधी आदेश की वैधानिकता।

सार-टिप्पणी (हेडनोट्स)

क. सेवा कानून श्री काशी विश्वनाथ मन्दिर ट्रस्ट याचिकाकर्ता की आचार्य पद पर 13. 01.1994 को नियुक्ति की गई मुख्य कार्यपालक अधिकारी द्वारा आक्षेपित आदेश दिनांक 12.07.2000 पारित कर यह निर्धारित किया गया कि याचिकाकर्ता का सेवा विस्तार 24.06. 1998 के बाद से नहीं हुआ। अतः इस तिथि से सेवाएं स्वयं समाप्त हो गयी इस आदेश की वैधानिकता को चुनौती दी गई मामले में 'आचार्य' पद की प्रकृति एवं प्रतिष्ठा संबंधी प्रश्न भी उठे :

अभिनिर्धारित: आदेश दिनांकित 12.07.2000 स्वयं में विरोधाभाषी है। याचिकाकर्ता न तो न्यास का कर्मचारी और न ही 60 वर्ष की उम्र के उपरान्त भी, उपरोक्त कार्य करने में कोई विधिक बाधा है, परिस्थितियों के दृष्टिगत आक्षेपित आदेश पूर्वाग्रह से ग्रसित प्रतीत होता है। 'आचार्य' का पद एक परम्परागत पद है या यह कहा जा सकता है कि यह एक 'दायित्व' है। उसकी मंदिर के किसी साधारण कर्मचारी से तुलना नहीं की जा सकती है। अतः आदेश दिनांकित 12.07.2000 खण्डित किया जाता है और इसी कारण अन्य आदेश दिनांकित 22.02. 2023 भी न्यायसंगत न होने के कारण खडित किया जाता है। (पैरा 16)

१. वर्तमान याचिका गत् २५ वर्षों के अन्तराल के पश्चात, आज अंतिम रूप से निस्तारित की जा रही है।

२. वर्तमान याचिका में निम्नलिखित तथ्य, पत्रावली पर उपस्थित आलेख व अभिवचनों की पृष्ठभूमि में अविवादित माने जा सकते हैं:-

क. याचिकाकर्ता, डा० देवी प्रसाद द्विवेदी को उनकी विद्ववता, कि वह कर्मकाण्ड में निष्णात, व नैष्ठिक विद्वान है और भगवान का दैनिक अभिषेक करने वालो में उच्च रहें है, के दृष्टिगत, श्री काशी विद्वत्परिषत् के अध्यक्ष ने एक पत्र दिनांकित १३.०१.१९९४, आयुक्त एवं अध्यक्ष कार्यपालक समिति, काशी विश्वनाथ मन्दिर, वाराणसी को प्रेषित करके, याचिकाकर्ता की पूर्व स्वीकृति के साथ, भगवान विश्वनाथ की विधि-विधान की पूजा उनकी देख-रेख में करने के लिए, उचित निर्णय हेतु निवेदन किया। इस निवेदन की आवश्यकता का कारण पूर्व में भगवान विश्वनाथ की पूजा की देख-रेख, कई गत् वर्षों से कर रहे, पं० बंशीधर का स्वर्गवास होना था।

ख. उपरोक्त वर्णित पत्र दिनांकित १३.०१.१९९४, का संज्ञान लिया गया और याचिकाकर्ता की सुविधानुसार और यह कि रात्रिकालीन भोग आरती के लिए कोई शास्त्री/आचार्य नियुक्त नहीं था और यह भी विचारणीय रहा कि याचिकाकर्ता को रात्रीकालीन पूजा आरती का कार्य करने में बहुत कष्ट न हो तो उक्त प्रयोजन व अन्य धार्मिक कार्यों के लिए उन्हे नियुक्त किया जा सकता है।

ग. उपरोक्त के दृष्टिगत व विचार विमर्श के उपरान्त, मुख्य कार्यपालक अधिकारी ने पत्रांक संख्या ९४१/आ०लि० ०-९४, दिनांकित २४ जून १९९४, द्वारा याचिकाकर्ता को, श्री काशी विश्वनाथ मंदिर वाराणसी में रात्रिकालीन भोग आरती को विधिवत् सम्पन्न कराने हेतु 'आचार्य' नियुक्त किया तथा उन्हें विश्वनाथ मंदिर के पुजारियों को कर्मकाण्ड आदि के प्रशिक्षण का दायित्व भी सौंपा गया। यह भी स्पष्ट किया गया कि यह नियुक्ति/व्यवस्था एक वर्ष के लिए, अस्थायी रूप से रहेगी तथा यह व्यवस्था बिना किसी कारण कभी भी समाप्त की जा सकेगी। एक मानद राशि रू० १५००/- प्रति माह भी निर्धारित करी गयी।

घ. उपरोक्त के दृष्टिगत, याचिकाकर्ता ने ०१.०७.१९९४ को उपरोक्त वर्णित पद का कार्यभार ग्रहण किया और पूर्ण निष्ठा से उक्त पूजा-पाठ श्रृंगार आरती व अन्य कार्यों का निर्वाहन प्रारम्भ कर दिया।

ङ श्री काशी विश्वनाथ मन्दिर ट्रस्ट, वाराणसी की बैठक दिनाँक २७.०५.१९९५, में विस्तृत विचार विमर्शोपरांत सर्वसम्मति से अध्यक्ष, श्री काशी विद्वत्परिषत् के, प्रस्ताव दिनांक १३.०१.१९९४, को स्वीकार किया और याचिकाकर्ता को श्रृंगार- भोग आरती सम्पन्न कराने हेतु तथा पुजारियों के परीक्षण हेतु, १५००/- रू० मासिक मानद राशि पर, 'आचार्य' के रूप में नियुक्ति की स्वीकृति प्रदान करी तथा इसी बैठक में दो और निर्णय सर्वसम्मति से पारित किए। पहला, याचिकाकर्ता का मानदेय १५०० रू० मासिक से बढाकर ३००० रू० मासिक किया गया और दूसरा उनका कार्यकाल ३ वर्षों के लिए बढ़ाया गया।

च. उपरोक्त बैठक में याचिकाकर्ता के कार्यों की सराहना भी की गयी, कि मन्दिर के प्रशासन, प्रगति एवं मंदिर के

छ. काशी विश्वनाथ मन्दिर ट्रस्ट, वाराणसी की ३७वीं न्यास परिषद बैठक दिनाँक १० नवम्बर १९९८ में सर्वसम्मति से याचिकाकर्ता के द्वारा दिये गये प्रार्थना पत्र पर विचारोपरान्त यह निर्णय किया गया कि उनके नियुक्ति पत्र में अंकित एक वर्ष की समय सीमा समाप्त की जायें व उनका मानदेय रू० ३०००/- से बढाकर रू० ३५००/- प्रतिमास किया जाने का निर्णय लिया गया तद्नुसार स्वीकृति भी प्रदान करी गयी। साथ ही साथ खण्डित मूर्तियों आदि का विधिपूर्वक विसर्जन करने के लिए भी याचिका कर्ता व एक अन्य को अधिकृत किया गया। नियुक्ति आदेश से एक वर्ष की समयावधि को समाप्त करने का निर्णय याचिका कर्ता को मुख्य पालक अधिकारी ने पत्र दिनांकित ०३.१२.१९९८ द्वारा सूचित भी किया। यहाँ यह उल्लिखित करना आवश्यक है कि याचिकाकर्ता के नियुक्ति पत्र में 'एक वर्ष' की समयावधि समाप्त करने का निर्णय, मानदेय बढाने का निर्णय व अन्य कार्यों के सम्पादन के लिए अधिकृत करना, का तात्पर्य, याचिकाकर्ता का नियोजन बनाए रखना तो हो सकता है परन्तु इन सबका ऐसा कोई भी विपरीतार्थक तात्पर्य नहीं हो सकता कि याचिकाकर्ता का नियोजन विस्तार नहीं किया गया था और इस कारण उसका नियोजन समाप्त हो गया। अन्यथा उक्त सभी निर्णय व्यर्थ और बेमतलब हो जायेंगे और यह कि इसके उपरान्त भी याचिकाकर्ता अविवादित रूप से पूजा अर्चना करता रहा।

ज. प्रतिवादी संख्या ५ जो तत्समय मुख्य सचिव के पद पर कार्य कर रहे थे। अचानक कथित रूप से विश्वनाथ मंदिर में आकर एक दिन लम्बे समय तक अनुष्ठान करना चाहते थे, जिसके लिए एकान्त की आवश्यकता थी, जो मंदिर के सामान्य भक्तों के दर्शन रोक कर, देने में कठिनाई थी। इस कारण याचिकाकर्ता ने उस अधिकारी से ऐसी पूजा न करने का आग्रह किया, जो उस अधिकारी को नागवार गुजरा और याचिकाकर्ता के विरूद्ध, पूर्वाग्रह से ग्रसित होकर एक छद्म परिवादी को खडा कर, एक शिकायत पत्र दिनांकित ०५.०२.२००० प्रेषित करवाया गया कि याचिकाकर्ता की नियुक्ति अवैध है और मंदिर के क्रिया-कलापों में वित्तीय अनियमिततायें हुई है।

झ. उक्त शिकायत पत्र का संज्ञान लिया गया और याचिकाकर्ता के विरूद्ध, उसकी पीठ के पीछे एक जाँच करायी गयी और जाँच आख्या को न्यास की बैठक दिनांक २२.०६.२००० में विचारण हेतु रखा गया, जिसमें यह निर्णय लिया गया कि काशी विश्वनाथ अधिनियम, १९८३ की धारा २१ (१) तथा २१ (३) के अन्तर्गत, मुख्य कार्यपालक अधिकारी, कर्मचारी की नियुक्ति करने तथा उन्हे हटाने में सक्षम है और उसको याचिकाकर्ता की सेवायें समाप्त करने के सम्बन्ध में अन्तिम निर्णय लेने के लिए प्राधिकृत किया गया। यहाँ यह भी उल्लिखित करना आवश्यक है कि प्रतिवादी ने कभी भी याचिकाकर्ता को मंदिर का कर्मचारी नहीं माना है।

ञ. शिकायती पत्र के आधार पर जाँच आख्या की प्रति याचिकाकर्ता को उपलब्ध नहीं करायी अपितु शिकायत पत्र की एक प्रति याचिकाकर्ता को मुख्य कार्यपालक अधिकारी ने पत्र दिनांकित २७.०५.२००० के माध्यम से प्रेषित की। याचिकाकर्ता ने उसका एक विस्तृत उत्तर दिनांकित १५.०६.२००० को प्रेषित किया।

ट. उपरोक्त परिस्थितियों में मुख्य कार्यपालक अधिकारी ने आदेश दिनांकित १२.०७.२००० द्वारा यह निर्धारित किया कि याचिकाकर्ता का सेवा विस्तार २४.०६.१९९८ के बाद नहीं हुआ। अतः उक्त तिथि से उनकी सेवायें स्वतः समाप्त हो गयी। साथ ही साथ उनको दी गयी मानक राशि भी विधि सम्मत नहीं थी और विस्तृत परीक्षण के बाद वसूली हेतु अलग से विस्तृत आदेश पारित करने की स्वतंत्रता रखी। आदेश के मुख्य अंश निम्न है:

''मैने अखिल भारतीय श्री पण्डित परिषद का शिकायती प्रार्थना पत्र , डा० देवी प्रसाद द्विवेदी द्वारा दिए गए स्पष्टीकरण एवं अन्य साक्ष्य तथा शासन द्वारा करायी गयी जांच आख्या का अवलोकन किया तथा श्री द्विवेदी को व्यक्तिगत पत्रावली पर लगे सभी अभिलेख का परीक्षण किया और उस पर विचार किया। डा० देवी प्रसाद द्विवेदी ने अपने स्पष्टीकरण दिनांक 15.06.2000 में स्वयं स्वीकार किया है कि " श्री काशी विश्वनाथ मन्दिर कार्यालक समिति की २२ वी बैठक दिनांक १५.०४.९४ में सर्वसम्मति से मन्दिर आचार्य पद पर मुझे नियुक्त किया गया तथा उसी बैठक में मुझे भोग-श्रंगार आरती सम्पन्न कराने तथा पुजारियों को प्रशिक्षण देने हेतु आचार्य के रूप में नियुक्ति की गयी। नियुक्ति के एक वर्ष बाद मन्दिर आचार्य पद पर मेरी नियुक्ति तीन वर्ष के लिए पुनः बढा दी गयी। वह तीन वर्ष की अवधि २८ को समाप्त हो गयी। मैने मन्दिर आचार्य पद पर सेवा एवं संतुष्टि हेतु प्रार्थना पत्र दे दिया। किन्तु सेवा स्थायीकरण का आदेश अभी तक निर्गत नहीं हुआ। मुख्य कार्यपालक अधिकारी से पूछने पर उन्होने कहा कि आदेश निकले या न निकले उससे आपका क्या मतलब आप मन्दिर आचार्य पद पर नियमों के तहत स्थायी थे। डा० देवी प्रसाद द्विवेदी के उपरोक्त कथन में बल नहीं है। न्यास परिषद की

ठ. उपरोक्त आदेश वर्तमान याचिका में आक्षेपित किया गया है।

३. इस न्यायालय द्वारा पारित, अंतरिम आदेश दिनांकित २३.०८.२००२ द्वारा आक्षेपित आदेश को निलम्बित कर दिया गया। अंतरिम आदेश का पालन हुआ और याचिकाकर्ता पूर्व की भांति पूजा अर्चना इत्यादि करता रहा।

४. कालान्तर में याचिकाकर्ता को पद्म विभूषण व पद्म श्री से सम्मानित किया गया और वर्ष २०१६ से २०१८ के मध्य वो उत्तर प्रदेश लोक सेवा आयोग का सदस्य भी रहा। इसके उपरान्त भी याचिकाकर्ता अपना दायित्व निभाता रहा।

५. अंतरिम आदेश के रहते हुए व इस न्यायालय की बिना कोई अनुमति लिये, काशी विश्वनाथ न्यास परिषद ने १०४वी बैठक दिनांक २२.०२.२०२३ में यह निर्णय लिया कि, चूँकि याचिकाकर्ता की उम्र ६० वर्ष से अधिक है, इसलिए न तो उनको मानदेय दिया जा सकता है और न ही उनको कार्यरत रखा जा सकता है, आदेश का सारांश निम्न हैः-

''इस प्रकार उपरोक्त तथ्यों के आलोक में यह स्पष्ट है कि डा० देवी प्रसाद द्विवेदी की नियुक्ति २२.०६.१९९४ को तत्कालीन मुख्य कार्यपालक अधिकारी द्वारा अस्थायी रूप से एक वर्ष के लिए की गयी थी जिसे तीन वर्ष तक सेवा विस्तार दिया गया। श्री द्विवेदी की नियुक्ति बिना पद सृजन के की गयी थी। डा० देवी प्रसाद द्विवेदी की नियुक्ति दिनांक २४.०६.१९९८ को स्वतः समाप्त हो गयी। शिकायत होने के क्रम में शासन द्वारा करायी गयी जाँच में आरोप सत्य पाये जाने के कारण तत्कालीन मुख्य कार्यपालक अधिकारी द्वारा श्री द्विवेदी के विरूद्ध धनराशि वसूली के आदेश पृथक से निर्गत करने के आदेश दिये गये थे। श्री द्विवेदी द्वारा मा० उच्च न्यायालय से अधिवक्ता की अनुपस्थिति के क्रम में स्टे आर्डर प्राप्त कर लिया गया। श्री द्विवेदी दिनांक २०.१०.२०१६ को अपनी अधिवर्षता आयु पूर्ण कर चुके तथा मा० उच्च न्यायालय के वसूली रोकने के आदेश का अनुपालन किया जा चुका है। ऐसी स्थिति में न्यास परिषद के निर्मय के आलोक में दिनांक २०.१०.२०१६ (अधिवर्षता आयु ६० वर्ष) के उपरान्त श्री द्विवेदी का किसी भी प्रकार से कोई मानदेय व अधिकार नहीं बनता है। श्री द्विवेदी की नियुक्ति लोक सेवा आयोग में होने के कारण इनको दिये जाने वाले मार्ग व्यय का भुगतान सितम्बर २०१६ तक किया गया है। अक्टूबर २०१६ मार्ग व्यय का भुगतान अवरूद्ध कर दिया गया। श्री द्विवेदी द्वारा अपने प्रत्यावेदन से दिनांक ०४.११.२०१८ को कार्यभार ग्रहण करना बताया गया है। परन्तु वर्तमान में उपलब्ध पत्रावली में कोई रिकार्ड नहीं है।

१. डा० देवी प्रसाद द्विवेदी की ६० वर्ष की आयु २० अक्टूबर, २०१६ को ही पूर्ण हो चुकी है।

२. श्री द्विवेदी की नियुक्ति बिना पद सृजन के तथा बिना सक्षम अधिकारी के की गयी थी।

३. श्री काशी विश्वनाथ मंदिर न्यास के अन्तर्गत अधिग्रहण के समय जिन पुजारीगण के प्रशिक्षण का उल्लेख किया गया है, वह स्मस्त पुजारीगण सेवानिवृत्त हो चुके है। वर्तमान में जो भी पुजारी कार्यरत है सभी आचार्य उच्च योग्यता धारी एवं समस्त प्रकार के पूजा, आरती इत्यादि में दक्ष है। वर्तमान में कोई प्रशिक्षण देने की कोई आवश्यकता नहीं है।

अतः उक्त परिस्थितियों के आलोक में न्यास परिषद यह निर्णय लेता है कि श्री द्विवेदी के प्रकरण में मा० न्यायालय के आदेश का अनुपालन न्यास परिषद द्वारा किया जा रहा है। वर्तमान में सभी प्रकार के कर्मचारियों की सेवा शर्तों के अनुसार अधिकतम ६० वर्ष की आयु ही अधिवर्षता आयु नियत है। चूँकि श्री द्विवेदी अपनी अधिवर्षता आयु ६० वर्ष पूर्ण कर चुके है, इसलिए न्यास परिषद के अन्तर्गत इन्हे कार्यरत नहीं रखा जा सकता। तद्नुसार श्री द्विवेदी के प्रत्यावेदन पर निर्णय लिया जाता है।''

६. उपरोक्त परिस्थितियों में याचिकाकर्ता ने एक अवमानना आवेदन (कंटेम्पट अपलीकेशन,सिविल) संख्या १६६३ सन् २०२३, इस न्यायालय में दाखिल करी कि उपरोक्त निर्णय इस न्यायालय के द्वारा पारित अंतरिम आदेश दिनांकित २३.०८.२००२ के विपरीत है। उक्त अंतरिम आदेश की भी अवहेलना हुई है। अतः यह अवमानना का मामला बनता है। उचित पीठ ने आदेश दिनांकित ०३.०३.२०२३ द्वारा यह आदेश दिया कि याचिकाकर्ता पूर्व की भांति श्रृंगार भोग आरती (रात्रि ८ से १० बजे तक) काशी विश्वनाथ मंदिर में करता रहेगा। काशी विश्वनाथ न्यास के विद्वान अधिवक्ता ने भी उक्त आदेश के प्रति सहमति दी। ऐसा प्रतीत होता है याचिकाकर्ता ने उक्त आदेश का पालन या तो स्वः इच्छा से या अन्य परिस्थितियों के कारणवश नहीं किया और श्रृंगार आरती नियमित रूप से प्रतिदिन नहीं करी।

७. उपरोक्त पृष्ठभूमि में इस न्यायालय ने एक आदेश दिनांकित २६.०८.२०२५ पारित करा कि सभी पक्षकार सौहार्दपूर्ण वातावरण में बात कर सहमति के आधार पर कोई निर्णय लें।

९. उपरोक्त पृष्ठभूमि में याचिकाकर्ता को, उसके विद्वान वरिष्ठ अधिवक्ता श्री एच.एन.सिंह को व उनके सहयोगी विद्वान अधिवक्ता श्री विनीत कुमार सिंह को , प्रतिवादी सं० १,२,३ के विद्वान अधिवक्ता श्री विनीत संकल्प को व प्रतिवादी संख्या ४ के विद्वान अधिवक्ता के प्रतिवेदन को ध्यानपूर्वक श्रवण किया। प्रतिवादी सं० ५ की तरफ से कोई अधिवक्ता प्रस्तुत नहीं हुआ।

१०. प्रतिवादी का कथन रहा है कि याचिकाकर्ता उसका कर्मचारी नहीं है और उसकी नियुक्ति 'आचार्य' के रूप में वर्ष १९९८ के बाद विस्तारित नहीं की गयी और मुख्य कार्यपालक अधिकारी 'अधिनियम १९८३' की धारा २१ (१) तथा २१ (३) के अंतर्गत याचिकाकर्ता के विरूद्ध आदेश पारित करने का अधिकार रखता है। यह अविवादित है, याचिकाकर्ता के विरूद्ध कार्यवाही एक शिकायत पत्र को संज्ञान में लेते हुए प्रारम्भ करी गई थी। उनका यह भी कथन रहा है कि आक्षेपित आदेश पारित करने के पूर्व प्राकृतिक न्याय के सिद्धान्तो का पूर्ण परिपालन किया और कार्यवाही पूर्वाग्रह से ग्रसित नहीं थी। इस न्यायालय के अंतरिम आदेश के जीवान्त होने के बावजूद, क्योकि याचिकाकर्ता ६० वर्ष की उम्र से अधिक हो गये थे, केवल इस कारण से ही उनको अग्रिम कार्य न कराने का आदेश दिनांक २३.०२.२०२५ को पारित किया गया था।

११. श्री विनीत संकल्प, न्यास के विद्वान अधिवक्ता ने अनुदेश के आधार पर यह कथन किया कि न्यास को याचिकाकर्ता के विद्वता, उनकी निष्ठा व उनके मंदिर में मनोयोग से पूजा अर्चना करने के विषय में किंचित भी संदेह नहीं है और न्यास इस न्यायालय के द्वारा पारित किसी भी निर्णय का सम्मान करेगा।

१२. याचिकाकर्ता स्वयं न्यायालय कक्ष में उपस्थित हैं और न्यायालय की अनुमति से उन्होनें अपना पक्ष न्यायालय के समक्ष, भावुकता परन्तु गम्भीरता से प्रस्तुत किया। भगवान शिव की महात्मय के विषय में उन्होने उच्चारण किया किः-

"तव तत्त्वं न जानामि कीदृशोऽसि महेश्वर।"

"यादृशोऽसि महादेव तादृशाय नमो नमः॥"

जिसका अर्थ है " हे महेश्वर ! मैं आपके तत्व (रहस्य) को नहीं जानता हूं कि आप कैसे हो । परन्तु हे महादेव ! आप जिस किसी तरह के हो, जैसे हो, वैसे के वैसे लगन आपको मैं बार-बार प्रणाम करता हूँ।"

१३. याचिकाकर्ता ने कहा कि उन्होने आचार्य के रूप में मन्दिर में अपनी सेवायें बिना किसी भेद-भाव से, सम्पूर्ण विधि-विधान से, नियमित रूप से पूजा अर्चना करके दी और मानदेय भी न्यास के बार-बार आग्रह करने के उपरान्त ही स्वीकार किया। वह कभी भी न्यास का कर्मचारी नहीं रहा। उसको, उसकी विशेषताओं के कारण आचार्य पद पर कुछ विशेष कार्यों के सम्पादन हेतु नियुक्त किया गया। विशेष रूप से रात्रि भोग आरती को विधिवत् सम्पादित करने के लिए, जो उसने मनोयोग से पूर्ण की। आक्षेपित आदेश, पूर्वाग्रह से ग्रसित है, क्योंकि तत्कालीन एक वरिष्ठ शासकीय अधिकारी को उन्होने एक विशिष्ट पूजा करने से रोका था, क्योकि उसके कारण मंदिर को खाली नहीं कराया जा सकता था, जबकि भक्त दर्शन के लिए प्रतीक्षा कर रहे थे। वह आज भी भगवान विश्वनाथ की रात्रि भोग आरती, मनोयोग से करना चाहते हैं, जब

तक उसका शरीर उनका साथ दे। वह किसी भी पदाधिकारी से किसी भी प्रकार की शिकायत का भाव नहीं रखते हैं। मात्र उचित सम्मान के प्रार्थी है।

१४. याचिकाकर्ता के विद्वान वरिष्ठ अधिवक्ता श्री एच. एन. सिंह ने प्रतिवेदन किया कि प्रतिवादी संख्या पांच ने कोई प्रत्युत्तर नहीं दिया है एवं प्रतिवादी संख्या - १,२ एवं ३ के द्वारा दाखिल प्रतिशपथ पत्र में पूर्व में उल्लेखित घटना को बहुत सामान्य रूप से अस्वीकार किया है एवं अन्य कारकों के दृष्टिगत वो घटना ही आक्षेपित आदेश पारित करने का कारण हो सकती है। विधिक रूप से आक्षेपित आदेश पारित नहीं किया जा सकता था। आक्षेपित आदेश तथ्यात्मक दृष्टि से भी विकृत है। जब याचिकाकर्ता अविवादित रूप से न्यास का कर्मचारी ही नहीं है तो अधिनियम- १९८३ के उपबन्ध उस पर लागू ही नहीं हो सकते हैं। अन्तिम न्यास की बैठक में लिये गये निर्णयों का पूर्णतः विपरीत अर्थ, आक्षेपित आदेश में दिया गया है जो न्यायसंगत नहीं है। इसी प्रकार याचिकाकर्ता ६० वर्ष का हो गया है मात्र इस कारण 'आचार्य' का कार्य नहीं कर सकता, यह निर्णय भी न्यायसंगत नहीं है।

१५. प्रतिवादी सं० १,२ व ३ के विद्वान अधिवक्ता श्री विनीत संकल्प ने आक्षेपित आदेश का समर्थन करने की असफल कोशिश करी, क्योकि उपरोक्त वर्णित तथ्य उनके किसी भी तर्क के विरोध में है। उन्होनें पुनः निवेदन किया कि यह न्यायालय वर्तमान प्रकरण की परिस्थितियों के दृष्टिगत जो आदेश पारित करेगा, उसका यथायोग सम्मान किया जायेगा।

१६. उपरोक्त के संदर्भ में इस न्यायालय का मत है कि याचिकाकर्ता के पक्ष में दिये तर्क में बल है कि आक्षेपित आदेश तथ्यात्मक व विधिक दोनों रूपों में त्रुटिपूर्ण है। यह भी निर्धारित किया जा सकता है कि आदेश दिनांकित १२.०७.२००० स्वयं में विरोधाभाषी है। याचिकाकर्ता न तो न्यास का कर्मचारी और न ही ६० वर्ष की उम्र के के उपरान्त भी, उपरोक्त कार्य सम्पादित करने में कोई विधिक बाधा है परिस्थितियों के दृष्टिगत आक्षेपित आदेश पूर्वाग्रह से ग्रसित भी प्रतीत होता है। 'आचार्य' का पद एक परम्परागत पद है या यह कहा जा सकता है कि यह एक 'दायित्व' है। उसकी मंदिर के किसी साधारण कर्मचारी से तुलना नहीं की जा सकती है। अतः आदेश दिनांकित १२.०७.२००० खण्डित किया जाता है और इसी कारणवश अन्य आदेश दिनांकित २२.०२.२०२३ भी न्यायसंगत न होने के कारण खण्डित किया जाता है और समस्त परिस्थितियों व सभी पक्षों के प्रतिवेदन के दृष्टिगत वर्तमान याचिका निम्न निर्देशों के साथ निस्तारित की जाती है:-

क. याचिकाकर्ता पूर्व की भांति ही रात्रि भोग श्रृंगार आरती का सम्पादन विधिपूर्वक करता रहेगा। जिसका कोई मानदेय नहीं होगा।

ख. प्रतिवादी संख्या १,२ व ३ यह सुनिश्चित करेंगे कि पूजन-अर्चन सुगमता से सम्पादित होता रहे एवं याचिकाकर्ता उचित सम्मान का अधिकारी रहेगा।

ग. याचिकाकर्ता यदि चाहे तो सप्ताह में तीन दिन (सोमवार, बुद्धवार व गुरूवार) को ही रात्रि भोग श्रृंगार आरती करने का निर्णय ले सकता है और इसके लिए वो प्रतिवादी को २ सप्ताह के भीतर सूचित करेगा।

घ. रात्रि भोग श्रृंगार आरती के समय याचिकाकर्ता अपने साथ एक सहयोगी रख सकता है बशर्ते वो कर्म-काण्ड व पूजा-पद्यति का उचित ज्ञाता हो।

ङ. प्रतिवादी संख्या १,२ व ३ यदि निर्धारित करना चाहें तो मास में एक दिवस व कुछ समय निश्चित कर सकेंगे, जिससे याचिकाकर्ता, उपासकगणों को कर्म-काण्ड से सम्बन्धित शिक्षा दे सके। ऐसा आयोजन मंदिर परिसर में ही होगा।

च. याचिकाकर्ता स्वः इच्छा से रात्रि भोग श्रृंगार आरती का सम्पादन कभी भी त्याग सकते है, उसका स्वास्थ्य एक कारण हो सकता है। ऐसा करने के पूर्व वह न्यास को सूचित करेगा।

छ. याचिकाकर्ता से अपेक्षा रहेगी कि वो एक वरिष्ठ अनुभवी व्यक्ति होने के नाते अपने उक्त कृत्यों में सरलता बनाये रखेगा।

१७. उपरोक्त निर्देशों के संदर्भ में किसी विवाद की दशा में, जब विवाद आपसी बातचीत से सुलझ न पायें तो कोई भी पक्षकार, इस न्यायालय में पुर्नविचार याचिका दाखिल करने के लिए स्वतंत्र रहेगा।

Issue for Consideration

1. Validity of termination of appointment obtained by using fraudulent educational certificate.
2. Availability of protection provided under Article 311 of the Constitution of India, when the appointment was not made legally.

Headnotes

(A) Service law – Termination – Assistant Teacher – Principle of natural justice – Complaint of using forged educational certificate was made – Verification report of university mentioned that degree as claimed has not been issued by it – Relevancy – No full fledged department enquiry was held – No opportunity of hearing was granted – Effect :

Held : An appointment obtained by fraud is non est. Fraud is anathema to all equitable principles and any affair tainted with fraud could not be perpetuated or saved by application of any equitable doctrine – Fraudulently obtained order of appointment or approval can be recalled by the authority concerned. In such cases merely because the employee continued in service for a number of years, on the basis of fraudulently obtained orders, cannot create any equity in his favour or any estoppel against the employer/authority. When an appointment or approval has been obtained by a person on the basis of forged documents, it would amount to misrepresentation and fraud on the employer. [Paras 34 and 35]

Held further : Where a person secures appointment on the basis of a forged marksheet or certificate or appointment letter and on that basis he or she has been inducted in Government service then he/she becomes beneficiary of illegal and fraudulent appointment. Such an appointment is illegal and void ab initio. Therefore, holding disciplinary proceedings envisaged by Article 311 of the Constitution of India or under any disciplinary rules including the Uttar Pradesh Basic Education Staff Rules, 1973 or the Uttar Pradesh Government Servant (Discipline and Appeal) Rules 1999, shall not arise – No opportunity is to be granted to a person who has played fraud while seeking appointment. [Paras 38 and 40]

(B) Service law – Constitution of India – Article 311 – Right of opportunity of hearing – Entitlement – Appointment obtained by using forged certificate – Protection provided under Article 311, extent of its availability :

Held : Protection under Article 311 of the Constitution of India is available only to a person who has been validly and legally appointed to any post under the Union or a State. The Constitutional safeguard presupposes a lawful entry into a service. Where an incumbent secures an appointment by suppression of material facts or by producing forged and/or fabricated documents such an appointment is void ab initio and confers no right to hold the post. [Para 43] (E-1)

Case Arising From

Order dated 16.09.2017 passed by the Basic Shiksha Adhikari terminating the service of the petitioner.

Appearances for Parties

Advs. for the Petitioners : Niklank Kumar Jain, Siddharth Khare

Advs. for the Respondeents : B.P.Singh, C.S.C., Ram Prasad Dubey

(Delivered by Hon'ble Mrs. Manju Rani Chauhan, J.)

1. Mr. Siddharth Khare, learned counsel for the petitioner, Mr. Ram Prasad Dubey, learned counsel for respondent, Basic Education Officer, and Mr. Shailendra Singh, learned counsel for State-respondents.

2. The instant petition has been filed for following relief:

"i. Issue a writ, order of direction in the nature of certiorari to quash the impugned order dated 16.09.2017 passed by respondent no. 2/B.S.A., District Badaun against the petitioner."

3. Brief facts of the case are that the petitioner was appointed as an Assistant Teacher in Junior High School, Dhimarpura, Block Samrer, District Badaun on 04.02.2011. On some complaint filed by respondent no. 3- Chandrabhan Singh, regarding appointment of the petitioner on the basis of false educational certificates the District Basic Education Officer, Badaun, vide order dated 23.09.2016, stopped salary of the petitioner until inquiry being conducted. Thereafter, by order dated 07.04.2017, respondent no. 2 issued order for release of the petitioner's salary.

4. A Civil Misc. Writ Petition No. 17802 of 2017 was filed by respondent no. 3 before this Hon'ble Court regarding appointment of the petitioner being sought on the basis of false educational certificate and this Court by order dated 27.04.2017 by requiring respondent no. 2 therein to summon the original records and examine all the educational qualification certificates of the petitioner, and thereafter to get them verified from institutions concerned. A direction was also issued to take a final decision, in accordance with law by means of a reasoned speaking order after affording opportunity of hearing to the petitioner.

5. Notice was issued to the petitioner on 03.06.2017 to which a reply was submitted on 14.06.2017 along with all educational certificate mentioning therein that the complainant was enemical to him due to election dispute and therefore has made a false complaint against him.

6. The counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner had passed

High School Examination in the year 1994 with roll number 057126, photocopy of the mark sheet as well as high school certificate is annexed as Annexure No. 6 to the instant petition, Intermediate examination in the year 1996 with roll number 029165, photocopy of the mark sheet as well as Intermediate certificate is annexed as Annexure No. 7 to the instant petition, B.Com Part- 3 examination in the year 2003 with roll number 093763 from Dr. Bhimrao Ambedkar University Agra, photocopy of duplicate statement of marks of B.Com Part-3 as well as certificate issued by Dr. Bhimrao Ambedkar University Agra is annexed as Annexure No. 8 to the instant petition B.Ed. Examination in the year 2005 with roll number 5176138 from Dr. Z.H. Degree College, Etah, photocopy of the B.Ed mark sheet is being annexed as Annexure No. 9 to the instant petition. The petitioner has also qualified Special B.T.C. Training 2007 in the year 2010, photocopy of the certificate of Special B.T.C. Training dated 03.11.2010 is also annexed as Annexure No. 10 to the instant petition.

7. Despite the aforesaid, the respondent no. 2 has proceeded to pass the order dated 16.09.2017 terminating the services of the petitioner while deciding the representation of respondent no. 3 in compliance of order of this Court, dated 27.04.2017, passed in writ petition no. 17802 of 2017. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the order impugned is arbitrary, illegal and is based on the complaint as made by respondent no. 3 under influence of political pressure.

8. On the basis of telephonic information given by the complainant to the District Basic Education Officer that the verification of the educational documents of B.Com and B.Ed as submitted by the petitioner were forged on account of which the District Basic education officer issued letter dated 06.09.2017 to the office of Registrar of Dr. Bhimrao Ambedkar University Agra and only on the basis of oral information as given by clerk Sunil Kumar Srivastava who after perusal of the records orally informed that no verification was done and letter dated 16.08.2017 was also not issued from his office. By order dated 16.09.2017 respondent no. 2, only on the aforesaid facts, terminated the services of the petitioner and ordered to recover the amount of salary from the petitioner which is illegal.

9. The order dated 16.09.2017 has been passed without going through the educational certificates of the petitioner, as produced along with reply, and without giving opportunity of hearing to the petitioner, therefore, the order is arbitrary and in violation of principles of natural justice. The respondent no. 2 has passed the order dated 16.09.2017 relying upon the complaint as made by respondent no. 3 who was enmical to him and has proceeded to terminate his services which is unjustified.

10. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has not done any forgery nor filed any forged certificate and has placed the certificates along with the writ petition to prove the same. Therefore the order terminating his services is bad and unsustainable in the eyes of law. Placing reliance upon a judgement in the case of Smt. Parmi Maurya Vs. State of U.P. and 2 Others passed in Special Appeal Defective No. - 110 of 2014 as decided on 31.01.2014 submits that the disciplinary inquiry/full fledged inquiry as required under law has not been conducted prior to passing of the order dated 16.09.2017 terminating his services.

11. The counsel for the petitioner further submits that by letter dated 16.08.2017, which finds mention in para no. 11 of the counter affidavit, speaks about verification of two degrees possessed by the petitioner. Hence no forgery has been conducted and the petitioner's services have been terminated on a nonexistent ground. The controversy pertaining to bachelor of education degree awarded by Dr. Bhimrao Ambedkar University Agra during academic session 2004-2005 is subject matter of Special Leave Petition before Supreme Court in which interim orders have been granted, therefore, once the B.Ed degree of the petitioner has not been annulled till date it cannot be said that he has committed any forgery. On the aforesaid grounds the impugned order is liable to be quashed.

12. He has also submitted that on 12.10.2017 the matter was heard and the following order was passed:-

"Issue notice to the second and third respondent.

Four weeks' time is allowed to the respondents to file counter affidavit. Rejoinder affidavit, if any, may be filed within two weeks thereafter.

Petitioner was appointed as Assistant Teacher at Junior High School, Dhimarpura, Block Samrer, District Badaun, on 4 February 2011. On a complaint made by the third respondent, the B.Com. degree of the petitioner was got verified from Dr. Bhimrao Ambedkar University, Agra, which was duly certified by the Registrar on 16 August 2017. Accordingly, the High School and Intermediate mark sheets were also duly certified by the Regional Officer of the Board, at Meerut, by communication dated 25 May 2017. Thereafter, the impugned order would record that the second respondent, District Basic Education Officer, District Badaun, on telephonic information of the third respondent i.e. complainant, personally visited the University and on the information of the clerk dealing with the record that the letter dated 6 September 2017 was not issued by the office, nor it has been signed by the Registrar, the impugned order has been passed. But the impugned order would not record as to whether any enquiry was made regarding the genuineness and validity of the certificates pertaining to the petitioner. The course adopted by the second respondent is a procedure unknown to Government office, therefore, it creates doubt about the reasoning in rejecting the certificate of the petitioner merely on a statement of a clerk.

Learned counsel for the second respondent prays for and is granted two weeks' time to file counter affidavit. The second respondent shall file his personal affidavit on the date fixed, failing which, he shall appear in person along with record.

List on 02.11.2017.

Till the next date of listing, the effect and operation of the impugned order dated 16 September 2017 passed by the second respondent District Basic Education Officer, District Badaun, shall remain stayed."

13. He submits that since then the petitioner is working and is being paid salary. Therefore, the order impugned may be quashed and the petitioner may be allowed to continue to work as Assistant Teacher and his salary may be paid accordingly with all consequential benefits. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that from the report as placed by the SIT it can utmost be said that some tampering is their in the records which can not be said to be any fraud or forgery on the part of the petitioner even otherwise no fraud has been done and certificates of the petitioner are genuine.

14. The written submissions were placed, on behalf of the petitioner, before this Court on 16.09.2025 in which following grounds have been taken:-

" 1. A perusal of the order impugned itself would reflect that opportunity of hearing was granted to the petitioner on 14.06.2017 alone whereas the documents relied upon by the respondent authorities to hold the petitioner guilty of filing forged educational certificates are after the date opportunity of hearing was granted to the petitioner, i.e., 06.09.2017 when the BSA, Badaun enquired about the certificates from the Vice Chancellor, Dr. B.R. Ambedkar University and the statement of Sri Sunil Kumar Srivastava, the Verification Clerk, mentioned that the verification report dated 16.08.2017 has not been issued from the office, aforesaid is reflected from the first paragraph of the second page of the order dated 16.09.2017 (page 40 to the writ petition) and averments made in para 12 of the Counter Affidavit.

2. Even for purposes of argument it is considered that despite the fact that the petitioner is a regular employee, a full fledged departmental inquiry is not required to be undertaken against the employee concerned if the material on the basis of which reliance is being placed to pass the order impugned has been furnished, whereas in the present case it is undisputed that the opportunity of hearing was granted on 14.06.2017 while reliance is placed upon the verification undertaken by the BSA, Badaun itself on 06.09.2017 from Dr. B. R. Ambedkar University and no notice in this regard was ever issued to the petitioner that reliance is being placed on the statement of Verification Clerk Sri Sunil Kumar Srivastava on the basis of which the order impugned is passed. Even endorsement of Sunil Kumar has been made on a verification report enclosed as Annexure-4 with the Counter Affidavit.

3. Attention is drawn to order dated 27.04.2017 passed by this Hon'ble Court in Writ Petition No. 17802 of 2017 (page 22 of the writ petition), a perusal of which would reflect that a specific direction was issued to complete the entire exercise within a period of 8 weeks from the date certified copy of this order is filed before him. In view of the aforesaid, since the notice was issued to the petitioner on 03.06.2017, at best, for purposes of argument it may be assumed that the certified copy of the order dated 27.04.2017 reached before the respondent authorities on 03.06.2017 even then the BSA, Badaun was duty bound to complete to the entire proceedings and pass final order, at best, not later than 03.08.2017, if the date is computed from 03.06.2017, the date when notice was issued.

Whereas the order impugned has been passed on 16.09.2017, i.e. after much delay from the time stipulated in the order dated 27.04.2017 passed by this Hon'ble Court in Writ Petition No. 17802 of 2017 which could not have been done without taking the liberty from the court for time extension. It is specifically stated that no time extension was taken by the authority concerned in Writ Petition No. 17802 of 2017 (the statement is being made after going through the order sheet of Writ-C No. 17802 of 2017, attention in this regard is drawn to a Full Bench Judgment in the case of Abhishek Prabhakar Awasthi Vs. New India Assurance Co. Ltd & Others, reported in 2014 (6) ADJ 641 as also Judgment passed in Writ-A No. 19199 of 2023 (Narsing Narain Singh vs. State Public Service Tribunal). True copies of Full Bench Judgment in the case of Abhishek Prabhakar Awasthi Vs. New India Assurance Co. Ltd & Others, reported in 2014 (6) ADJ 641 as also Judgment passed in Writ-A No. 19199 of 2023 (Narsing Narain Singh vs. State Public Service Tribunal) are annexed as Enclosure Nos. 1 & 2 respectively to this Written Argument.

4. Apart from the aforesaid, the petitioner being a confirmed employee a regular departmental proceedings ought to have been undertaken by the respondent authorities in case they felt that the documents filed by the petitioner are forged, whereas merely issuing a notice and passing the order impugned dehors the Rules could not have been done, attention in this regard is drawn to Judgment dated 16.04.2024 passed in SLP (C) No. 8788-8789 of 2023 (Sandeep Kumar Vs. G.B. Pant Institute); Judgment in Special Appeal Defective No. 110 of 2014 (Smt. Parmi Maurya Vs. State of UP and Others) & Judgment in the case of Riazul Hasan vs. State of UP and Others reported in (2024) 6 ALJ 542). True copies of Judgment dated 16.04.2024 passed in SLP (C) No. 8788-8789 of 2023 (Sandeep Kumar Vs. G.B. Pant Institute); Judgment in Special Appeal Defective No. 110 of 2014 (Smt. Parmi Maurya Vs. State of UP and Others) & Judgment in the case of Riazul Hasan vs. State of UP and Others reported in (2024) 6 ALJ 542) are annexed as Enclosure Nos. 3, 4 & 5 respectively to this Written Argument."

15. The counsel for the petitioner has further taken a ground that the cancellation of appointment by the order impugned without proper departmental inquiry is in violation of Article 311(2) of the Constitution of India.

16. Learned counsel for the petitioner, placing reliance upon the case of Smt. Parmi Maurya (Supra), submits that cancellation of appointment culminating to termination without proper inquiry as required under law is illegal.

17. Learned counsel for respondent opposed the aforesaid and submits that there is no illegality in the order impugned as the appointment letter was initially issued mentioning a condition that in case after verification it is found that any false statement has been made or forgery has been committed the appointment shall stand cancelled after proper inquiry. It has also been mentioned that the aforesaid appointment shall be subject to the orders passed by High Court from time to time.

18. On the complaint a proper inquiry was conducted in compliance of order passed by this Hon'ble Court, the notice dated 03.06.2017 was given to the petitioner which is clear from the reply as submitted by the petitioner on 14.06.2017 and has been placed on record by means of Annexure 5 of the writ petition.

19. Learned counsel for the respondents further submits that the petitioner has placed self attested copies of High school and Intermediate mark-sheets and certificate. He further placed B.Com degree bearing roll number 093763 issued from Dr. Bhimrao Ambedkar University Agra as passed from Adarsh Krishna Mahavidyalaya Shikohabad, Firozabad. He further placed on record the copy of B.Ed degree alleged to have been issued by Dr. Bhimrao Ambedkar University Agra bearing roll number 5176138 as passed from Dr. Z.H Degree College.

20. After receiving a complaint from respondent no. 3 a letter dated 18.04.2017 was issued to the vice chancellor Dr. Bhimrao Ambedkar University Agra inquiring about issuance of B.Com degree with roll number 093763 and B.Ed degree with roll number 5776138. The Block Education Officer, Ujhani District- Badaun was also directed to personally visit the university along with copy of the letter for necessary compliance and certification from the university and endorsement made to this effect in the aforesaid letter proves the same. A reminder letter dated 25.05.2017 was issued as no verification was received from the university. Pursuant to the directions dated 18.04.2017 and 25.05.2017 when no information was received from the university the Block Education Officer went to the university on 16.06.2017 where he was informed that due to investigation being going on by the SIT no verification with regard to B.Ed degrees of session 2004-2005 may be done at the present. However, on availability of original records verification of the documents as required will be done.

21. A verification letter was issued on 25.05.2017 regarding B.Com degree of the petitioner. A letter dated 16.08.2017 has been placed with the counter affidavit as has been received from the university which mentions about the verification dated 25.05.2017 not being done by the university. In response to aforesaid the verification report dated 16.08.2017 was placed wherein it has been clearly mentioned that the B.Com degree of degree of Satya Veer Singh son of Chunni Lal having roll number 093763 of year 2001 has not been issued.

22. The respondent no. 2 issued letter dated 06.09.2017 regarding verification of report dated 25.05.2017 regarding the graduation mark-sheet with roll number 093763 of 2003 and B.Ed mark-sheet with roll number 5176138 of 2005 of Satya Veer Singh son of Chuuni Lal (Petitioner) as well as a report dated 16.08.2017 which has been received in his office. Further a request has been made by respondent no. 2 to get the reports verified as to whether they have been issued from his office or not.

23. From the information as given by the principal Adarsh Krishan Degree College Shikohabad District Firozabad by letter dated 10.08.2017 to the complainant also it is clear that the petitioner was not a student of the aforesaid college as in the year 2003 students from roll number 091526 to 091805 were enrolled in the said college whereas the petitioner has claimed to have roll number 093762. The perusal of the aforesaid letter dated 10.08.2017 shows that the aforesaid information has been provided through right to information act.

24. During the inquiry an affidavit was given by the petitioner on 07.04.2017 stating therein that in case his educational qualification is found to be forged his candidature may be cancelled. Paragraph no. 2 of the said affidavit, being relevant, is reproduced hereinafter:-

"यह कि मुझ सपथकर्ता का हाई स्कूल अनु-057126 सुभाष इन्टर कालिज नौगाँव, यू.पी. बोर्ड इलाहाबाद, इन्टर मीडिएट परीक्षा अनु-29165 सुभाष इन्टर कालिज नौगाँव. यू.पी. बोर्ड इलाहाबाद, वी. कॉम. अनु 093763 ए के कालिज शिकोहाबाद, डॉ वी. आर अम्बेडकर विश्वविद्यालय आगरा बी. एड अनु -5176138 डॉ. जेड. एच. डिग्री कालेज एटा बोर्ड डा. बी. आर. अम्बेडकर विश्वविद्यालय आगरा मेरे द्वारा समस्त कथन सत्य है यदि कोई कथन गलत पाया जाता है तो मैं उसके लिए स्वयं उत्तरदायी होउंगा। जिसके लिए मैं न्यायालय आदि में नहीं जाउंगा।"

25. Learned counsel for the respondent submits that both B.Com and B.Ed degrees were found to be forged hence the appointment sought on the basis of forged documents has been cancelled and the services of the petitioner have been terminated in accordance with law. He submits that special investigating team has also investigated about the genuineness of the degrees for the session 2004-2005 and has placed its report according to which the B.Com and B.Ed degrees of the petitioner were found to be forged.

26. The counsel for the respondent submits that any person who has sought appointment on the basis of forged or by playing fraud and during course of inquiry has submitted an affidavit in this regard cannot challenge the termination order on the ground that the proper inquiry has not been done as it is settled position of law that no opportunity of hearing or inquiry is required in such cases.

27. Learned counsel for the respondent submits that the interim order granted to the petitioner was also vacated on 02.11.2017 and the same is reproduced hereinafter:-

"Sri Chandan Agarwal has filed Stay vacation application along with counter affidavit and personal affidavit on behalf of the second respondent, wherein, it is stated that the State Government constituted Special Investigation Team (SIT) to investigate the genuineness of the B.Com and B.Ed. degrees for the session 2004-05 issued by the affiliated colleges of Dr. Bhim Rao Ambedkar University, Agra. SIT has submitted report, wherein, petitioner's degree of B.Com and B.Ed. has been found forged.

Learned counsel for the petitioner prays for and is granted two weeks' time to file rejoinder affidavit.

List thereafter.

Interim order dated 12.10.2017 stands vacated."

28. Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

29. The law is well-settled on this issue, with numerous judicial pronouncements emphasizing the importance of integrity and honesty in public appointments. Courts have consistently held that fraudulent appointments are void ab initio and must be set aside, regardless of the consequences.

30. In the case of Ram Chandra Singh vs. Savitri Devi (2003) 8 SCC 319, the Apex Court held that fraud as is well known vitiates every solemn act, fraud and justice never dwells together.

31. If an appointment is found to be based on forgery, the authority has the right to recall the appointment. The individual appointed under such circumstances cannot claim any equity or rights based on their continued service, as the appointment is fundamentally flawed. The aforesaid has been held by the Co-ordinate Bench of this Court in the case of Usha Singh vs. State of U.P. and another, 2017 SCC Online All 6109. Also the same has been held by Madhya Pradesh High in the case of Nageswar Sonkesri vs. State of M.P. and another 2020 SCC Online MP 4461.

32. In the case of Vijay Krishnarao Kurundkar and another vs. State of Maharashtra and Others, 2020 SCC Online SC 834, the Apex Court has consistently held that appointments made on the basis of forged documents are invalid and such appointments are void ab initio and cannot be legitimized by any subsequent actions.

33. In the case of Jainendra Singh vs. State of U.P., 2012 (8) SCC 748, Hon'ble Supreme Court considered the fact of appointment obtained by fraud and held in para 29.1 to 29.10 as under :-

"29.1 Fraudulently obtained orders of appointment could be legitimately treated as voidable at the option of the employer or could be recalled by the employer and in such cases merely because the respondent employee has continued in service for a number of years, on the basis of such fraudulently obtained employment, cannot get any equity in his favour or any estoppel against the employer.

29.2 Verification of the character and antecedents is one of the important criteria to test whether the selected candidate is suitable to the post under the State and on account of his antecedents the appointing authority if find not desirable to appoint a person to a disciplined force can it be said to be unwarranted.

29.3 When appointment was procured by a person on the basis of forged documents, it would amount to misrepresentation and fraud on the employer and, therefore, it would create no equity in his favour or any estoppel against the employer while resorting to termination without holding any inquiry.

29.4 A candidate having suppressed material information and/or giving false information cannot claim right to continue in service and the employer, having regard to the nature of employment as well as other aspects, has the discretion to terminate his services.

29.5 Purpose of calling for information regarding involvement in any criminal case or detention or conviction is for the purpose of verification of the character/antecedents at the time of recruitment and suppression of such material information will have clear bearing on the character and antecedents of the candidate in relation to his continuity in service.

29.6 The person who suppressed the material information and/or gives false information cannot claim any right for appointment or continuity in service.

29.7 The standard expected of a person intended to serve in uniformed service is quite distinct from other services and, therefore, any deliberate statement or omission regarding a vital information can be seriously viewed and the ultimate decision of the appointing authority cannot be faulted.

29.8 An employee on probation can be discharged from service or may be refused employment on the ground of suppression of material information or making false statement relating to his involvement in the criminal case, conviction or detention, even if ultimately he was acquitted of the said case, inasmuch as such a situation would make a person undesirable or unsuitable for the post.

29.9 An employee in the uniformed service pre-supposes a higher level of integrity as such a person is expected to uphold the law and on the contrary such a service born in deceit and subterfuge cannot be tolerated.

29.10 The authorities entrusted with the responsibility of appointing Constables, are under duty to verify the antecedents of a candidate to find out whether he is suitable for the post of a Constable and so long as the candidate has not been acquitted in the criminal case, he cannot be held to be suitable for appointment to the post of Constable."

(Emphasis supplied by me)

34. Thus, the law in case of appointment obtained fraudulently is well settled. Fraudulently obtained order of appointment or approval can be recalled by the authority concerned. In such cases merely because the employee continued in service for a number of years, on the basis of fraudulently obtained orders, cannot create any equity in his favour or any estoppel against the employer/authority. When an appointment or approval has been obtained by a person on the basis of forged documents, it would amount to misrepresentation and fraud on the employer. It would create no equity in his favour or any estoppel against the employer to cancel such appointment or approval since "Fraud and justice never dwell together."

35. An appointment obtained by fraud is non est. Fraud is anathema to all equitable principles and any affair tainted with fraud could not be perpetuated or saved by application of any equitable doctrine.

36. It is well settled that if the initial appointment itself was obtained fraudulently then no inquiry in terms of Rules 1999 is required as is held by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the cases of R. Vishwanatha Pillai Vs. State of Kerala and others, (2004) 2 SCC 105, and Patna High Court judgements in Ishwar Dayual Sah Vs. State of Bihar, 1987 Lab IC 390 and Rita Mishra Vs. Director, Primary Education, 1988 Lab IC 907. The Apex Court, in the aforesaid cases, came to the following conclusion:

"12. Taking a cue from the ratio of the decision of the Supreme Court, we are of the opinion that if it is ultimately found on inquiry referred earlier that the opposite party no. 1 had practiced fraud or deceit to obtain the appointment as already discussed, then, it would be a case to proceed for cancellation of appointment by issuing a show cause notice for the said purpose annexing the inquiry report and material collected in such inquiry and then considering the reply of the appointee in this regard and taking a reasoned decision after affording an opportunity of personal hearing for cancellation of appointment and not necessarily for dismissal or removal of service, therefore, there is no question of any inquiry to be held in terms of Rules, 1999 as has already been held in the aforesaid decision of the Supreme Court.

13. This will be sufficient observance of principles of natural justice. It may also be pointed out that an employee of Basic Education Department does not have the benefit of Article 311 of the Constitution of India as Article 311 of the Constitution of India would not apply, however, the relevant rules for disciplinary proceedings for imposition of major punishment such as removal, dismissal etc. would apply, but, for the reasons aforesaid, those will also not apply if on a fact finding inquiry it is found that the appointment was obtained by fraud, as already observed hereinabove and thereafter the aforesaid procedure is followed."

37. In the case of Union of India Vs. Prohlad Guha etc., 2024 SCC OnLine SC 1865 it has been clearly held by the Apex Court that in case the employment has been obtained based on fraudulent documents on concealing material facts, the beneficiary of such fraud cannot seek that proper procedure as prescribed under Rule 1999 must be followed.

38. Thus, where a person secures appointment on the basis of a forged marksheet or certificate or appointment letter and on that basis he or she has been inducted in Government service then he/she becomes beneficiary of illegal and fraudulent appointment. Such an appointment is illegal and void ab initio. Therefore, holding disciplinary proceedings envisaged by Article 311 of the Constitution of India or under any disciplinary rules including the Uttar Pradesh Basic Education Staff Rules, 1973 or the Uttar Pradesh Government Servant (Discipline and Appeal) Rules 1999, shall not arise.

39. A similar type of controversy has also been dealt in Special Appeal No. 26 of 2007 (Vinay Kumar Shahi Vs. Deon D. Upadhyay & Ors.) Neutral Citation No.-2010:AHC118883-DB and in Special Appeal No. - 211 of 2011 (Poonam Shukla Vs. State of U.P. & Others) 2015 LawSuit(AII) 3864.

40. As regards the submission of learned counsel for petitioner that no opportunity of hearing was granted to the petitioner after inquiring about the certificates from the Vice-Chancellor of the concerned University and the statement of the clerk, it is settled law that no opportunity is to be granted to a person who has played fraud while seeking appointment. The inquiry so conducted by the University was for the purpose of verifying as to whether educational certificates as filed by the petitioner were forged or not and the report reflects about the aforesaid documents being forged. The aforesaid inquiry was a matter of record of the concerned university, therefore, inquiry was conducted and the report was placed accordingly for which no opportunity was to be given to the petitioner.

41. As regards the submission of counsel for petitioner regarding the full fledged departmental inquiry not being undertaken prior to passing of the impugned order is concerned, the matter has already been dealt in the case of Kamlesh Kumar Nirankari Vs. State of U.P. & 2 Ors., reported in 2025 0 Supreme (All) 3053.

42. As regards the submission of delay in inquiry in passing the final orders is concerned , in case direction of writ court was not complied with then contempt petition should have been filed. The delay in inquiry was not deliberate as several opportunities were given to the petitioner for the purpose of inquiring about the certificate from the University concerned in which time was required. Even otherwise it is not relevant in the facts of the present case.

43. To the submission as made by counsel for the petitioner regarding violation of Article 311 (2) of the Constitution of India, this Court finds that it is settled proposition of law that protection under Article 311 of the Constitution of India is available only to a person who has been validly and legally appointed to any post under the Union or a State. The Constitutional safeguard presupposes a lawful entry into a service. Where an incumbent secures an appointment by suppression of material facts or by producing forged and/or fabricated documents such an appointment is void ab initio and confers no right to hold the post. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in R.Vishwanatha Pillai Vs. State of Kerala & Ors reported in 2004 (2) SCC 105, Union of India Vs. M. Bhaskaran reported in 1995 Supp (4) SCC 100 and others pronouncements has consistently held that fraud vitiates everything and that any appointment obtained by fraudulent means is non est in the eyes of law. In such circumstances, the individual never acquires status of a government servant and therefore cannot invoke the protection of Article 311 of the Constitution of India. Termination of service in such cases wherein appointment has been obtained by fraud is not a penalty attracting requirement of regular departmental inquiry but merely a declaration of the illegality of very appointment itself. The plea that Article 311 mandates inquiry before cancellation of such an appointment is wholly misconceived. Accordingly, it is held that wherein an appointment is obtained on the basis of fake or forged certificates the employer is competent to cancel the same without holding an inquiry under Article 311 of the Constitution of India as such, an incumbent cannot claim any constitutional protection of tenure.

44. Considering the argument advanced by learned counsel for the petitioner in which he has placed reliance on Smt. Parmi Maurya (Supra), this Court finds that it is well established that in case an employment has been obtained based on fraudulent documents beneficiary of such fraud cannot seek procedure prescribed under the relevant rules or act as not been followed for the purposes of inquiry. The aforesaid has also been held in the case of District Basic Education Officer Vs. Smt. Punita Singh and 3 Ors.

45. The other grounds and issues as argued by learned counsel for the petitioner have been dealt by this Court in Writ-A No. 11846 of 2025 (Virendra Kumar Mishra Vs. State of U.P. and 4 Ors.) as decided on 19.08.2025.

46. In view of aforesaid discussions, this petition is dismissed.

Issue for consideration

Whether there can be any interference in writ jurisdiction in case of concurrent findings of all authorities under consolidation proceedings?

Headnotes

A. Property Law - In case of concurrent findings of all authorities under consolidation proceedings, no interference could be caused, except in exceptional circumstances, such as, if the impugned order was passed by an authority who does not have jurisdiction to pass such order or the findings are patently perverse. (Para 8)

In the present case, admittedly, Consolidation Officer has not made an issue with regard to validity of Will allegedly executed in favour of petitioners. Only two issues, i.e., "whether name of Kamla Kant alias Lallan was wrongly recorded in Khata No. 40 and 130" and "what would be the share of parties in land in dispute", were framed. No objection was raised by petitioners at relevant stage, i.e., before Consolidation Officer and they have led evidence only on basis of aforesaid two issues and accordingly the Consolidation Officer passed order whereby objections filed by petitioners were rejected. (Para 9)

Admittedly, petitioners are not part of family of Kadedeen, therefore, a doubt that said Kadedeen could execute a Will in favour of strangers, would be a natural doubt, specifically when all three authorities have returned a finding that family members of Kadedeen have cordial relations amongst each other. The execution of Will, therefore, surrounds with suspicious circumstances. (Para 10)

Surya Narain son of Kadedeen, died in 1945, when Kadedeen was alive and in normal circumstances it could not be believed that Kadedeen would disassociate his minor grandson, when there was no evidence that there was uncordial relationship between father and son. Settlement Officer of Consolidation has also upheld said findings. Deputy Director of Consolidation has considered the issue of Will at length that it was dated 07.05.1951 and though he referred that a 20 years old document, if submitted from a genuine custody, could be considered a genuine document, however, still a finding was returned that petitioners have failed to prove the Will in accordance with law as well as upheld the suspicious circumstances. (Para 11)

Aforesaid concurrent findings were based on material and at this belated stage the Court cannot reopen the issue of Will, since all the authorities under Act, 1953 have put a doubt on the manner of execution of Will, which are legally valid also. (Para 12)

B. Admittedly petitioners have failed to prove Will in accordance with law, therefore, no case of interference is made out in the concurrent orders passed by all three authorities under Act, 1953. (Para 14)

Consolidation proceedings were commenced in the year 1977, i.e., 48 years ago and this writ petition was filed against concurrent findings of all three authorities under Act, 1953 in the year 1980, i.e., about 45 years ago. The prayer for stay was already rejected by this Court, therefore, at this stage even if the Court considers argument of learned counsel for petitioners that issue of Will could be decided, however, the matter cannot be remitted to Consolidation Officer. Otherwise also, the Court is of the view that concurrent findings cannot be disturbed since the same are not perverse. (Para 13)

Writ petition dismissed. (E-4)

For Respondent: Shankatha Rai

(Delivered by Hon'ble Saurabh Shyam Shamshery, J.)

1. This writ petition is arising out of consolidation proceedings. Petitioners before this Court have lost before all the three authorities, i.e., Consolidation Officer, Settlement Officer of Consolidation and Deputy Director of Consolidation, under U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953 (hereinafter referred to as "Act, 1953").

2. Sri Ruduvant Pratap Singh, learned counsel for petitioners, is not able to dispute that scope of interference by High Court in writ jurisdiction in the concurrent findings recorded by Consolidation Authorities, is very limited, i.e., except the findings are absolutely perverse.

3. Learned counsel for petitioners submitted that the petitioners' consistent case was that they are owner of land in dispute of the share of Kadedeen in Khata No. 40 and 130, situate in Village Chati, Pargana Garwara, District Jaunpur, through a registered Will dated 07.05.1951 executed by Kadedeen in favour of petitioners. However, admittedly no such issue was framed by Consolidation Officer while considering the objections filed by parties and, therefore, the Will was not proved in accordance with law. He further submitted that in appeal petitioners have specifically taken the plea about execution of Will, however, without taking note of such grounds and without framing any issue in this regard, Settlement Officer of Consolidation has rejected claim of petitioners on basis of Will. For reference relevant part of order dated 24.01.1979 passed by Settlement Officer of Consolidation is reproduced hereinafter:

"कडेदीन द्वारा लिखा गया वसीयतनामा पत्रावली पर उपलब्ध है जिसके हासिये के गवाह केदार नाथ निवासी मनकापुर तथा बासुदेव तिवारी निवासी बक्खोपुर के है। इससे स्पष्ट है कि गांव का एक भी गवाह वसीयतनामा पर नहीं है। और यह वसीयत नामा गांव वालों से छिपाकर चुपके से लिखाया गया है जिससे कि इस वसीयत नामा को कडेदीन की कार्यवाही गांव के किसी व्यक्ति को न हो सके यह भी संदेह है कि इस वसीयतनामा को कडेदीन ने लिखा या नहीं कडेदीन के जीवनकाल में ही उसका लडका सूर्य नरायन की मृत्यु हो गई। नाबालिग पोता कमलाकान्त के जीने का कोई सहारा नहीं था उसका ख्याल न करते हुये कडेदीन ने तीर्थराज आदि के हक में अपने आराजी का वसीयत कर दिया जब कि तीर्थ राज के पिता सत्यानरायन भी जीवित थे किसी दादा से इस प्रकार की आशा नहीं की जा सकती कि अपने नाबालिग पोतो को छोडकर दूसरे पोतो को तनहा जमीन वसीयत कर दे कडेदीन के मरने के बाद आराजी निजाई पर कमला कान्त व तीर्थराज आदि दोनो का नाम वरासतन दर्ज हुआ। उस समय भी तीर्थराज आदि ने इस बात की कोई आपत्ति किया कि जरिया वसीयत वह कडेदीन के वारिस है। देव नरायन व सीताराम आदि ने कडेदीन आदि पर यू०पी० टिनेन्सी ऐक्ट की धारा 59 के अन्तर्गत दिनांक 03.12.49 को दावा दाखिल किया जिसका निर्णय दिनांक 05.11.52 को हुआ। यह मुकदमा माननीय अदालत राजस्व परिषद तक चला जहां पक्षों के बीच सुलह हुआ। उस मुकदमें में कडेदीन मृतक के स्थान पर तीर्थराज आदि बनाम कमलाकान्त उर्फ कल्लन नाबालिग पुत्र सूर्य नरायन वारिस बताये गये तथा कमला कान्त को नाबालिग के वली व कारपरदाज तीर्थ राज ने सुलहनामा कमलाकान्त कारपरदाज की हैसियत से सुलहनामा पर हस्ताक्षर किया है इस दफा 59 के मुकदमें में भी उन्होने जिक्र नहीं किया गया। अपील कर्ता गण की जानकारी में नाम कमलाकान्त का खाता में दर्ज चला आ रहा है उसी के अनुसार आराजी निजाई पर उनका कब्जा है। 1953 से अब तक वसीयतनामा के आधार पर अपना नाम दर्ज करने की कोई कार्यवाही नहीं की गई। इससे स्पष्ट है कि अपीलकर्ता गण को 1953 के वाद ही वसीयत के जरिया

4. Learned counsel further submitted that in revision said objection was reiterated, however, on similar grounds revision of petitioners was dismissed by Deputy Director of Consolidation vide order dated 19.02.1980 and relevant part thereof is mentioned hereinafter:

"7- सूर्य नरायन की मृत्यु दिनांक 10.4.43 को हुई। पक्षो मान्य है कि कडेदीन की मृत्यु 1953 में हुई। और निगरानी कर्ता के पिता सत्य नरायन की मृत्यु 1956 में हुई। इस प्रकार वसीयत के निष्पादन के साक्ष्य समय सत्य नरायन जीवित थे पत्रावली पर यह भी सिद्ध है कि कमलाकान्त का जन्म 1942 में हुआ थे और वसीयत के निष्पादन के समय वह भी जीवित था और नाबालिग था कमलाकान्त दिनांक 01.07.1952 के पूर्व पैदा हुआ था और इसलिये परिवार की सब संयुक्त सम्पत्ति में उनके निहित अधिकार थे वसीयत की इबारत में कडेदीन द्वारा यह लिखा गया है कि उनके सत्य नरायन व सूर्यनरायन थे यह उल्लेख वसीयतनामा में कडेदीन ने लिखा है कि वसीयत में लाभार्थी के अतिरिक्त उसके लडके सत्य नरायन और पूर्व मृतक पुत्र के कमला कान्त जीवित थे वसीयत में हिब्बेनामें से प्राप्त जायदाद व संयुक्त परिवार की मौरूसी जायदाद को कतई अलग अलग नहीं बयान किया गया है। इस उल्लेख से जाहिर होता है कि वसीयत बिल्कुल फर्जी है और अमान्य है। इसके विपरीत उत्तरवादियों ने दो एक पत्र काफी पुराने प्रस्तुत किये है जिसमें सत्य नरायन और कमलाकान्त के आपसी सम्बन्ध की चर्चा है जो एक परिस्थिति गत साक्ष्य है जिसमें यह पुष्टि होता है कि परिवार सदैव संयुक्त रहा है और सारी सम्पत्ति का इसी तरह से प्रयोग हुआ है इसके अतिरिक्त एक बात और भी उल्लेखनीय है कि विवादित सम्पत्ति में 165, 176 आदि ऐसी भूमि होती है जो दखिल कारी सीरदारी थी जिनका न हिब्बा नामा हो सकता था न ही वसीयत हो सकती थी।" (Emphasis supplied)

5. Learned counsel further submitted that Settlement Officer of Consolidation as well as Deputy Director of Consolidation, both have committed error that matter ought to have been remitted back to Consolidation Officer to pass a fresh order after framing issue on validity of Will, however, it was not done. He also submitted that without specific pleadings on the issue, both authorities, i.e., Settlement Officer of Consolidation and Deputy Director of Consolidation, have made comments disputing execution of Will. No opportunity was granted to petitioners to prove the Will in accordance with law.

6. None appeared on behalf of respondents despite a notice was issued by this Court and on basis of office report dated 15.05.2022 this Court vide order dated 17.08.2022 found that service upon respondents was sufficient.

7. I have considered the above submissions and perused the record.

8. As already referred that the in case of concurrent findings of all authorities under consolidation proceedings, no interference could be caused, except in exceptional circumstances, such as, if the impugned order was passed by an authority who does not have jurisdiction to pass such order or the findings are patently perverse. In this regard, the Court takes note of judgments passed Supreme Court in Krishnanand (dead) through Lrs and others vs. Deputy Director of Consolidation and others, (2015) 1 SCC 553 and Central Council for Research in Ayurvedic Sciences and another vs. Bikartan Das and others, 2023 SCC Online SC 1996. Relevant paragraphs of said judgments are mentioned hereinafter:

Krishnanand (supra):

"12. The High Court has committed an error in reversing the findings of fact arrived at by the authorities below in coming to the conclusion that there was a partition. No doubt, the High Court did so in exercise of its jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution. It is a settled law that such a jurisdiction cannot be exercised for re-appreciating the evidence and arrival of findings of facts unless the authority which passed the impugned order does not have jurisdiction to render the finding or has acted in excess of its jurisdiction or the finding is patently perverse. In the present case, though the High Court reversed the concurrent findings of the authorities below and came to the opposite conclusion on matter of facts, the High Court did not do so on the ground that the authorities below acted in excess of their jurisdiction or without jurisdiction or that the finding is vitiated by perversity.

13. We are of the view that the High Court ought not to have entered into re-appreciation of evidence and reversed the findings of fact arrived at by the three authorities below, especially since, the authorities had neither exceeded their jurisdiction nor acted perversely. The High Court has no where stated that it was of the view that there is any perversity, much less the High Court failed to demonstrate any such circumstances."

Central Council for Research in Ayurvedic Sciences (supra):

"65. Thus, from the various decisions referred to above, we have no hesitation in reaching to the conclusion that a writ of certiorari is a high prerogative writ and should not be issued on mere asking. For the issue of a writ of certiorari, the party concerned has to make out a definite case for the same and is not a matter of course. To put it pithily, certiorari shall issue to correct errors of jurisdiction, that is to say, absence, excess or failure to exercise and also when in the exercise of undoubted jurisdiction, there has been illegality. It shall also issue to correct an error in the decision or determination itself, if it is an error manifest on the face of the proceedings. By its exercise, only a patent error can be corrected but not also a wrong decision. It should be well remembered at the cost of repetition that certiorari is not appellate but only supervisory.

66. A writ of certiorari, being a high prerogative writ, is issued by a superior court in respect of the exercise of judicial or quasi-judicial functions by another authority when the contention is that the exercising authority had no jurisdiction or exceeded the jurisdiction. It cannot be denied that the tribunals or the authorities concerned in this batch of appeals had the jurisdiction to deal with the matter. However, the argument would be that the tribunals had acted arbitrarily and illegally and that they had failed to give proper findings on the facts and circumstances of the case. We may only say that while adjudicating a writ-application for a writ of certiorari, the court is not sitting as a court of appeal against the order of the tribunals to test the legality thereof with a view to reach a different conclusion. If there is any evidence, the court will not examine whether the right conclusion is drawn from it or not. It is a well-established principle of law that a writ of certiorari will not lie where the order or decision of a tribunal or authority is wrong in matter of facts or on merits. [See : King v. Nat Bell Liquors Ltd., [1922] 2 A.C. 128 (PC)]"

9. In the present case, admittedly, Consolidation Officer has not made an issue with regard to validity of Will allegedly executed in favour of petitioners. Only two issues, i.e., "whether name of Kamla Kant alias Lallan was wrongly recorded in Khata No. 40 and 130" and "what would be the share of parties in land in dispute", were framed. No objection was raised by petitioners at relevant stage, i.e., before Consolidation Officer and they have led evidence only on basis of aforesaid two issues and accordingly the Consolidation Officer passed order whereby objections filed by petitioners were rejected.

10. Admittedly, petitioners are not part of family of Kadedeen, therefore, a doubt that said Kadedeen could execute a Will in favour of strangers, would be a natural doubt, specifically when all three authorities have returned a finding that family members of Kadedeen have cordial relations amongst each other. The execution of Will, therefore, surrounds with suspicious circumstances.

11. Surya Narain son of Kadedeen, died in 1945, when Kadedeen was alive and in normal circumstances it could not be believed that Kadedeen would disassociate his minor grandson, when there was no evidence that there was uncordial relationship between father and son. Settlement Officer of Consolidation has also upheld said findings. Deputy Director of Consolidation has considered the issue of Will at length that it was dated 07.05.1951 and though he referred that a 20 years old document, if submitted from a genuine custody, could be considered a genuine document, however, still a finding was returned that petitioners have failed to prove the Will in accordance with law as well as upheld the suspicious circumstances.

12. Aforesaid concurrent findings were based on material and at this belated stage the Court cannot reopen the issue of Will, since all the authorities under Act, 1953 have put a doubt on the manner of execution of Will, which are legally valid also.

13. Consolidation proceedings were commenced in the year 1977, i.e., 48 years ago and this writ petition was filed against concurrent findings of all three authorities under Act, 1953 in the year 1980, i.e., about 45 years ago. The prayer for stay was already rejected by this Court, therefore, at this stage even if the Court considers argument of learned counsel for petitioners that issue of Will could be decided, however, the matter cannot be remitted to Consolidation Officer. Otherwise also, the Court is of the view that concurrent findings cannot be disturbed since the same are not perverse.

14. The Court also takes note of a judgment passed by this Court in Satish Chandra Sharma vs. State of U.P. and others, 2023:AHC:233235 wherein the manner to prove a Will was discussed at length and since admittedly petitioners have failed to prove Will in accordance with law, therefore, also no case of interference is made out in the concurrent orders passed by all three authorities under Act, 1953.

15. The writ petition is accordingly dismissed.

Counsel for the Petitioner:

Counsel for the Respondents:

Issue for consideration

Whether an incumbent, who otherwise has interest in property, loses his right in the property in question and stands ousted from the property merely because he has not at all participated in the proceedings in question?

Headnotes

A. Property Law - U. P. Consolidation of Holdings, Act, 1953: Ss. 4(2), 9, 49; Limitation Act: Section 17 - The revenue court while dealing with the suit for declaration can, on coming to the finding that the entries made by the consolidation authorities were procured by fraud and were wrong, declare the plaintiff's right as tenure holder and direct that the entries be corrected accordingly. (Para 44)

In present case, the plaintiff's case was that the plot in dispute was purchased through a registered sale deed dated 17.3.1969, both by the plaintiff and defendant (writ petitioner), who was a co-sharer. The case of the plaintiff further was that it was the defendant petitioner who was looking after the cases in the court, and the plaintiff, who was living in the forest, being Gaderiya looking after his goats, was duped by the defendant in removing his name from the revenue record. The plaintiff has also claimed that after the sale deeds, both parties came in possession. A co-sharer who claim to be in possession of the property and whose name is not recorded in the consolidation proceeding is not debarred from bringing a suit u/s 229-B for correcting the entries and recording his name, also if the allegation is that his name was removed by practising fraud on him. (Para 45)

B. When the name of a co-tenure holder could not be recorded by practising fraud, the entries in consolidation proceeding can be challenged and bar of Section 49 would not at all come into place since fraud vitiates even the most solemn proceeding. (Para 46)

The U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act does not deal with the grant of authority to grant substantive rights to a tenure holder, rather it is only empowered to recognize the existing rights of tenure holder and in the said direction a full-fledged mechanism has been provided for. (Para 48)

C. Landed property be it individually, jointly, or based on co-sharer confers rights over the property in question and the said rights in question can be defeated or be taken away only in accordance with law. (Para 49)

A right of property is a human right and also a constitutional right and the same cannot be taken away except in accordance with law. Article 300-A of the Constitution protects such a right and as far as U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953 is concerned, the purpose of the aforementioned Act is not at all to divest an incumbent of such right keeping in view the provisions of Article 300-A of the Constitution of India as its paramount object is to see that agricultural activity is to be carried out in one area and in case at the point of time of constituting one compact are, in respect of one compact area in case anyone has to raise any issue, he can come forward. (Para 50)

D. Section 49 of the 1953 Act contemplates a bar to the jurisdiction of the Civil or Revenue Court for the grant of a declaration or adjudication of rights of tenure holders in respect of land lying in an area for which consolidation proceedings have commenced. The Supreme Court has further held that Section 49 of the 1953 Act is a provision of transitory suspension of jurisdiction of the Civil or Revenue Court only during the period when consolidation proceedings are pending. (Para 55)

Notably, such suspension of jurisdiction of these Courts through the non obstante provision is only with respect to the declaration and adjudication of rights of tenure holders. In other words, unless a person is a pre-existing tenure holder, Section 49 does not come into operation. (Para 56)

E. The object of the 1953 Act is to prevent fragmentation of the land holdings and consolidate them in such a fair and equitable manner that each tenure holder gets nearly equivalent land rights in the same revenue estate, and that the duty of a Consolidation Officer u/s 49 of the 1953 Act is to prevent fragmentation and consolidate the different parcels of land of a tenure holder.

The power u/s 49 of the 1953 Act cannot be exercised to take away the vested title of a tenure holder. No such jurisdiction is conferred upon a Consolidation Officer or any other Authority under the 1953 Act. The power to declare the ownership in an immovable property can be exercised only by a Civil Court save and except when such jurisdiction is barred expressly or by implication under a law. Section 49 of the 1953 Act does not and cannot be construed as a bar on the jurisdiction of the Civil Court to determine the ownership rights. (Para 57)

In present case, petitioner is claiming his rights through Smt Kulvanta Devi, his mother, on the basis of a registered sale deed dated 19/03/1959. Therefore, even before the consolidation proceedings, Smt Kulvanta Devi was the joint owner of the property, and such rights cannot be taken away during the consolidation proceedings.

F. The delay was duly explained and no objections were ever filed by the respondents and in the peculiar circumstances of the case, where the order impugned was based on fraud, the benefit of section 17 of the Limitation Act would accrue to the petitioner, and accordingly, the delay ought to have been condoned. (Para 60)

Writ petition allowed. (E-4)

For Petitioner: Sri Vijay Bahadur Verma

For Respondent: Standing Counsel for the State-respondents and Sri Upendra Nath Mishra, Senior Advocate assisted by Sri Amit Kumar Singh for the private respondents

(Delivered by Hon'ble Alok Mathur, J.)

1. Heard Sri Vijay Bahadur Verma, learned counsel for the petitioner, as well as learned Standing counsel for the State-respondents and Sri Upendra Nath Mishra, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Sri Amit Kumar Singh for the private respondents.

2. The petitioner, being aggrieved by the rejection of his claim with regard to the property situated at Khata no.26 in village Adharkhera, Parghana Mahona, Tehsil Bakshi Ka Talab, District Lucknow, from Jagan, which was purchased jointly by his mother, Smt Kulwanta Devi, and Lalta Singh, has assailed the orders dated 02/03/1960 passed by the Assistant Consolidation Officer, order dated 11/03/2015 passed by the Settlement Officer of Consolidation, and order dated 16/02/2019 passed by the Deputy Director of Consolidation.

3. According to the petitioners, the disputed land was purchased vide a registered sale deed on 19/03/1959 by Sri Kamta Singh, the father of the petitioner, who paid the consideration for the purchase of the said land, which was registered in the name of Smt. Kulwanta Devi, his wife, and Lalta Singh, his brother. Lalta Singh moved an application for mutation based on the aforesaid Sale dated 19/03/1959 before the Assistant Consolidation Officer, and the land was mutated only in the name of Lalta Singh.

4. It is the case of the petitioners that the said land continued to be in joint possession of the mother of the petitioner and a younger brother-in-law (Devar), and she was not aware that Lalta Singh had got the land mutated in his own name only, even though, as per the sale deed, the land was jointly purchased.

5. It was submitted that in the meantime, the consolidation operation had been held in the said village twice, the 1st proceedings were conducted between 1960 and 1966, and secondly from 1996 to 2002. The mother of the petitioner, namely Smt. Kulwanta Devi has died in the meantime. The petitioner stated that he is the son and legal heir, along with the party No. 2 of Smt. Kulwanta Devi, and that they came to know about the mutation of the disputed land in the name of Lalta Singh, only on 23/09/2013 from inspection of the record, and after taking legal opinion, challenged the order of mutation dated 02/03/1960 by filing an appeal before the Settlement of the Consolidation, Lucknow.

6. The appeal was decided and rejected on 11/03/2015, thereby declining to condone the delay in filing the said appeal. Before the appellate authority, it was the case of the petitioner that the entire sale consideration for the sale of the disputed property was given by their father, Sri Kamta Singh, while the sale deed was executed in favour of Smt. Kulwanta Devi and Lalta Singh. The father of the petitioner, Kamta Singh, was working in the police department and was posted in Moradabad. He superannuated from service in 1971 from Sitapur, and the appellant was living with him all along and therefore was not aware of the mutation proceedings having been carried out by Lalta Singh. After his retirement, his father started living in the village Teghna Mau and died in 1990, and during this period, the appellant could hardly visit Lucknow or find out about the disputed land. It was further stated that the petitioner and his brother got involved in the agricultural work in the disputed land jointly with the successor in interest of Lalta Singh, and there was therefore never any doubt about their ownership, nor did they suspect any wrongdoing that Lalta Singh would have got the land mutated in his name only to the exclusion of Smt. Kulwanta Devi fraudulently had further categorically denied that the Smt. Kulwanta Devi had entered into any sort of compromise or agreement with Lalta Singh before the consolidation officer so that the land could be mutated in his name alone.

7. Before the Settlement Officer of Consolidation, the opposite parties Nos. 1 and 2 accepted the fact that the sale deed was jointly in the name of Lalta Singh and

Smt. Kulvanta Devi and there was no legal basis for having the land recorded in the name of only Lalta Singh to the exclusion of Kulvanta Devi.

8. The Settlement Officer of Consolidation considered the fact that in the second round of consolidation notification under Section 52 had already been issued on 22.8.2003 and was of the view that once the first consolidation proceedings had been concluded, then the petitioner lost any right to file an appeal with regard to orders passed in the second consolidation proceedings. In the said circumstances, the Settlement Officer of Consolidation found that the delay of 53 years is an extremely long length of time and no satisfactory explanation has been given by the petitioner, apart from which the consolidation proceedings have been conducted twice, and such a long delay cannot be condoned and thereby dismissed the appeal filed by the petitioner.

9. The petitioner, being aggrieved by the order of the Settlement Officer of Consolidation dated 11.3.2015, filed a revision before the Deputy Director of Consolidation. Before the revisional authority, it was submitted that the petitioners had duly explained the delay in filing the said appeal, apart from which the opposite party had not filed any objection, and accordingly stated that the delay in filing the appeal ought to have been condoned. The Deputy Director of Consolidation examined the entire factual controversy and the grounds taken by the petitioner, and also considered the objection of the opposite parties and upheld the order of the Settlement Officer of Consolidation. He has further taken into consideration that the brother of the petitioner, Yogendra Pratap Singh, has not joined him in filing the appeal and has been made the respondent in the revision.

10. Considering the aforesaid facts, he found that the delay of 53 years is not liable to be condoned and accordingly rejected the same.

11. Learned counsel for the petitioner assailing the impugned orders has submitted that there is no dispute with regard to the fact that, as per the sale deed dated 19.3.1959, the land was purchased jointly in the name of Lalta Singh, son of Babu Madhav Singh and the mother of the petitioner, namely Kulvanta Devi. He further submitted that any order of mutation passed on the basis of the aforesaid registered sale deed ought to have been made jointly in the name of Kulvanta Devi and Lalta Singh, but by exercising undue pressure and with collusion of revenue authorities, Lalta Singh got the land mutated only in his own name in proceedings under Section 9 of U. P. Consolidation of Holdings, Act. He submits that in the appeal, he had given adequate reasons so that the appellate authority could set aside the delay, much as the father of the petitioner, who was working in the police department, served in various districts, and the petitioner, who was a student, had been accompanying his father wherever he was posted. He further submits that his father superannuated from service in 1971 from Tigahana Mau and died in 1990. It is further stated that the petitioner and his brother started agricultural activities along with his relatives on the disputed land, and it is only in 2013 that he came to know that the land had been recorded exclusively in the name of Lalta Singh. They inspected the record and filed an appeal. It was stated that the delay has been satisfactorily explained, and there is no finding that the grounds given by the petitioner were false or incorrect, or that they had any knowledge about the order dated 02/03/1960.

12. It was vehemently submitted that there is no dispute that the predecessor-in-interest of the respondents had fraudulently got the entire land mutated in the name of Lalta Singh and accordingly in such circumstances benefit of Section 17 of the Limitation Act was available to the petitioners and any solemn act which has been done fraudulently cannot be sustained and, therefore, in the peculiar facts of the present case the revision preferred by the petitioner ought to have been allowed.

13. The petitioners have further submitted that any order which has been obtained by fraud is a nullity and non-est in the eyes of the law, and if that being the case, the order obtained by fraud can be challenged in any court at any time or even in collateral proceedings. The basis of the aforesaid arguments is that Lalta Prasad had got the land mutated clandestinely without disclosing this fact to the predecessor of the interest of the petitioner exclusively in his name, even though the said mutation was made based on the sale deed dated 19.3.1959.

14. The petition has been vehemently opposed by Sri Upendra Nath Mishra, Senior Advocate, assisted by Sri Amit Kumar Singh as well as Learned Counsel for respondent no.6. It was stated that a family settlement was arrived at between the parties where it was stated that both the brothers had resolved that they shall keep their lands separately whereas Kamta Prasad shall relinquish his rights in favour of Lalta Prasad in the disputed land. It was stated that it is on the basis of the said compromise that by means of an order dated 02.03.1960, his land came to be recorded only in the name of Kamta Prasad. It was further stated that as the village fell into consolidation operations from 1960-66, where no objections were filed by the petitioner, and Smt Kulwanta Devi died in 1980, and during her lifetime, no objections were filed against the order dated 02.03.1960. It was submitted that the second consolidation proceedings were initiated in 1996 and concluded in 2003, and no dispute was raised by the petitioner or his brother, and accordingly supported the order passed by the Settlement Officer of Consolidation in the second consolidation proceedings. He submits that such inordinate delay in initiating legal proceedings cannot be condoned.

15. It was further submitted that as the petitioner had not filed any objection under Section 9 of the U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act, they were precluded from invoking the provisions of Section 11 of the 1953 Act and, therefore, the appeal preferred by the petitioner itself was not maintainable.

16. It was further submitted that all the disputes relating to title are decided in consolidation proceedings and no objection/appeal or revision was preferred by the petitioner during the first consolidation proceedings and in allowing the statutory prohibition provided for under Section 49, the appeal filed by the petitioner was not maintainable accordingly it was submitted that there is no infirmity in the impugned orders dated 2.3.1960, 11.3.2015 and 16.2.2019 and prayed for dismissal of the writ petition.

17. Considering the rival contentions, it is noticed that there is no dispute with regard to the essential facts in issue. The dispute in the present case relates to the property situated at Khata No. 26 in Village Adharkhera, Parghana Mohana, Tehsil Bakshi Ka Talab, District Lucknow, which was jointly purchased by means of a registered sale deed dated 19.3.1959 in the name of Smt. Kulvanta Devi and Lalta Singh. On the basis of the application given by Lalta Singh, aforesaid property came to be recorded exclusively in the name of Lalta Singh by means of order dated 2.3.1960 passed by Assistant Consolidation Officer after a delay of nearly 53 years the appeal has been filed by the petitioner challenging the order dated 2.3.1960 which has been rejected on the ground of limitation by means of order dated 11.3.2015 and even Deputy Director of Consolidation has rejected the revision by his order dated 16.2.2019.

18. The appellants in the said case had pleaded that the orders passed by the competent authority under the Consolidation of Holdings Act had attained finality and Kamta Singh and Smt Kulvanta Devi had lost their right, title, and interest in the subjected land and further that the appeal was filed hopelessly time barred and, therefore, the Deputy Director of Consolidation also rejected the revision preferred by the petitioner.

19. Per contra, the petitioners/respondents had contended that neither Section 49 of the Act of 1953 nor the Consolidation Officer was competent to interfere with the ancestral rights as tenure holder on the subject land of Kamta Singh. It was further urged that Smt Kulvanta Devi was a co-tenure holder of the subject land along with Kamta Singh or his successor, and the possession of the land continued in favour of all the co-tenure holders, and even if one of them was in actual physical possession, the said possession was permissible on behalf of all the co-owners. It was submitted that the initial order was passed during the first consolidation proceedings by the Assistant Consolidation Officer on 02/03/1960.

20. In the present dispute, the appellate authority has already noticed that neither the sale deed is controverted, nor the fact that the property ought to have been mutated in the joint name of Lalta Singh and Smt Kulvanta Devi.

21. Before we delve into the factual scenario and the defensibility of the order condoning delay, it seems prudent to state the obligation of the court when dealing with an application for condonation of delay and the approach to be adopted while considering the grounds for condonation of such a substantial delay.

22. In Collector, Land Acquisition, Anantnag and another v. Mst. Katiji and others (1987) 2 SCC 107, a two-Judge Bench observed that the legislature has conferred power to condone delay by enacting Section 5 of the Indian Limitation Act of 1963 to enable the courts to do substantial justice to parties by disposing of matters on merits. The expression "sufficient cause" employed by the legislature is adequately elastic to enable the courts to apply the law in a meaningful manner which subserves the ends of justice, for that is the life-purpose for the existence of the institution of courts. The learned Judges emphasized the adoption of a liberal approach while dealing with the applications for condonation of delay, as ordinarily a litigant does not stand to benefit by lodging an appeal late, and refusal to condone delay can result in a meritorious matter being thrown out at the very threshold and the cause of justice being defeated. It was stressed that there should not be a pedantic approach, but the doctrine that is to be kept in mind is that the matter has to be dealt with in a rational common-sense pragmatic manner and cause of substantial justice deserves to be preferred over the technical considerations. It was also ruled that there is no presumption that delay is occasioned deliberately or on account of culpable negligence and that the courts are not supposed to legalise injustice on technical grounds, as it is the duty of the court to remove injustice. In the said case the Division Bench observed that the State, which represents the collective cause of the community, does not deserve a litigant-non-grata status and the courts are required to be informed with the spirit and philosophy of the provision in the course of interpretation of the expression "sufficient cause".

23. In G. Ramegowda, Major and others v. Special Land Acquisition Officer, Bangalore, (1988) 2 SCC 142 Venkatachaliah, J. (as his Lordship then was), speaking for the Court, has opined thus:-

"The contours of the area of discretion of the courts in the matter of condonation of delays in filing appeals are set out in a number of pronouncements of this Court. See : Ramlal, Motilal and Chhotelal v. Rewa Coalfield Ltd.[3] ; Shakuntala Devi Jain v. Kuntal Kumari[4] ; Concord of India Insurance Co. Ltd. V. Nirmala Devi[5] ; Lala Mata Din v. A. Narayanan[6] ; Collector, Land Acquisition v. Katiji etc. There is, it is true, no general principle saving the party from all mistakes of its counsel. If there is negligence, deliberate or gross inaction, or lack of bona fide on the part of the party or its counsel, there is no reason why the opposite side should be exposed to a time-barred appeal. Each case will have to be considered on the particularities of its own special facts. However, the expression 'sufficient cause' in Section 5 must receive a liberal construction so as to advance substantial justice and generally delays in preferring appeals are required to be condoned in the interest of justice where no gross negligence or deliberate inaction or lack of bona fides is imputable to the party seeking condonation of the delay."

24. In O.P. Kathpalia v. Lakhmir Singh (dead) and others, AJR (1984) 4 SCC 60, the Supreme court was dealing with a fact-situation where the interim order passed by the court of first instance was an interpolated order, and it was not ascertainable as to when the order was made. The said order was under appeal before the District Judge, who declined to condone the delay, and the said view was concurred with by the High Court. The Court, taking stock of the facts, came to hold that if such an interpolated order is allowed to stand, there would be a failure of justice and, accordingly, set aside the orders impugned therein, observing that the appeal before the District Judge deserved to be heard on the merits.

25. In State of Nagaland v. Lipok AO and others, the Court, after referring to New India Insurance Co. Ltd. V. Shanti Misra, N. Balakrishnan v. M. Krishnamurthy, State of Haryana v. Chandra Mani and Special Tehsildar, Land Acquisition v. K.V. Ayisumma, came to hold that adoption of strict standard of proof sometimes fails to protect public justice and it may result in public mischief.

26. In this context, we may refer with profit to the authority in Oriental Aroma Chemical Industries Limited v. Gujarat Industrial Development Corporation and another, (2010) 5 SCC 459 where a two-Judge Bench of the Supreme Court has observed that the law of limitation is founded on public policy. The legislature does not prescribe limitation with the object of destroying the rights of the parties, but to ensure that they do not resort to dilatory tactics and seek remedies without delay. The idea is that every legal remedy must be kept alive for a period fixed by the legislature. To put it differently, the law of limitation prescribes a period within which a legal remedy can be availed for redress of the legal injury. At the same time, the courts are bestowed with the power to condone the delay if sufficient cause is shown for not availing the remedy within the stipulated time. Thereafter, the learned Judges proceeded to state that this Court has justifiably advocated adoption of a liberal approach in condoning the delay of short duration and a stricter approach where the delay is inordinate.

27. In Improvement Trust, Ludhiana v. Ujagar Singh and others, AIR 2010 SC 228, it has been held that while considering an application for condonation of delay, no straitjacket formula is prescribed to come to the conclusion if sufficient and good grounds have been made out or not. It has been further stated therein that each case has to be weighed from its facts and the circumstances in which the party acts and behaves.

28. A reference to the principle stated in Balwant Singh (dead) v. Jagdish Singh and others, (2010) 8 SCC 685 would be quite fruitful. In the said case the Court referred to the pronouncements in Union of India v. Ram Charan, AIR 1964 SC 215, P.K. Ramachandran v. State of Kerala, (1997) 7 SCC 556 and Katari Suryanarayana v. Koppisetti Subba Rao, AIR 2009 SC 2907 and stated thus:-

"25. We may state that even if the term "sufficient cause" has to receive liberal construction, it must squarely fall within the concept of reasonable time and proper conduct of the party concerned. The purpose of introducing liberal construction normally is to introduce the concept of "reasonableness" as it is understood in its general connotation.

26. The law of limitation is a substantive law and has definite consequences on the right and obligation of a party to arise. These principles should be adhered to and applied appropriately depending on the facts and circumstances of a given case. Once a valuable right has accrued in favour of one party as a result of the failure of the other party to explain the delay by showing sufficient cause and its own conduct, it will be unreasonable to take away that right on the mere asking of the applicant, particularly when the delay is directly a result of negligence, default or inaction of that party.

Justice must be done to both parties equally. Then alone the ends of justice can be achieved. If a party has been thoroughly negligent in implementing its rights and remedies, it will be equally unfair to deprive the other party of a valuable right that has accrued to it in law as a result of his acting vigilantly."

29. In the case of Maniben Devraj Shah v. Municipal Corporation of Brihan Mumbai, AIR 2012 SC 1629 the Hon'ble Supreme Court referred to the pronouncement in Vedabai v. Shantaram Baburao Patil, (2001) 9 SCC 106 wherein it has been opined that a distinction must be made between a case where the delay is inordinate and a case where the delay is of few days and whereas in the former case the consideration of prejudice to the other side will be a relevant factor, in the latter case no such consideration arises. Thereafter, the two-Judge Bench ruled thus: -

"23. What needs to be emphasized is that even though a liberal and justice-oriented approach is required to be adopted in the exercise of power under Section 5 of the Limitation Act and other similar statutes, the courts can neither become oblivious of the fact that the successful litigant has acquired certain rights on the basis of the judgment under challenge and a lot of time is consumed at various stages of litigation apart from the cost.

24. What colour the expression "sufficient cause" would get in the factual matrix of a given case would largely depend on the bona fide nature of the explanation. If the court finds that there has been no negligence on the part of the applicant and the cause shown for the delay does not lack bona fides, then it may condone the delay. If, on the other hand, the explanation given by the applicant is found to be concocted or he is thoroughly negligent in prosecuting his cause, then it would be a legitimate exercise of discretion not to condone the delay." Eventually, the Bench, upon perusal of the application for condonation of delay and the affidavit on record, came to hold that certain necessary facts were conspicuously silent and, accordingly, reversed the decision of the High Court which had condoned the delay of more than seven years."

30. Considering the submissions of the petitioner, it is found that the act of moving the application before the Assistant Consolidation Officer, and having the property recorded exclusively in the name of Lalta Singh on the basis of the sale deed dated 19/03/1959 was an act of fraud on Smt Kulvanta Devi, and therefore in such circumstances the said order itself was non-est, illegal and arbitrary, and further that the said fact was concealed from Smt Kulvanta Devi and her legal heirs who were the joint property holders, which also amounted to fraud. Further, the order obtained fraudulently is liable to be set aside, and any delay caused in filing the appropriate application ought to have been condoned. Undoubtedly, on the execution of the sale deed, Lalta Singh and Kulwant became the joint owners of the property, and accordingly, the property ought to have been registered jointly in their names. Merely because Lalta Singh got the property mutated in his name alone in the revenue records would not deprive Kulvanta Devi of the benefits of ownership of the said property. The respondents could not offer any defence regarding the said aspect that the property ought to have been recorded in the joint names.

31. Though before the Deputy Director of Consolidation, a vain attempt was made to justify the order dated 02/03/1960 on the ground that the property was purchased by Lalta Singh out of his own funds, and Smt. Kulvanta Devi had entered into a settlement before the Assistant Consolidation Officer. No document was filed in this regard, and in the said circumstances, both the authorities below did not accept the aforesaid argument and rejected the same.

32. This court, after considering the rival contentions, is of the considered view that the disputed property ought to have been recorded in the joint names of Lalta Singh and Smt. Kulvanta Devi, when the application for mutation was based on the sale deed dated 19/03/1959, which clearly shows that the property was jointly purchased. We see no reason as to why the land was recorded only in the name of Lalta Singh and therefore have no hesitation in holding that Lalta Singh had fraudulently got the land recorded in his name, to the exclusion of Smt Kulvanta Devi, in collusion with the authorities. We also take note of the provisions of section 17 of the Limitation Act, which is reproduced here under:_

17. Effect of fraud or mistake.—

(1) Where, in the case of any suit or application
For which a period of limitation is prescribed by this Act,—

(a) The suit or application is based upon the fraud of the defendant or respondent or his agent; or

(b)the knowledge of the right or title on which a Suit or application is founded is concealed by the Fraud of any such person as aforesaid; or

(c) the suit or application is for relief from the consequences of a mistake; or

(d) where any document necessary to establish the right of the plaintiff or applicant has been fraudulently concealed from him, the period of limitation shall not begin to run until plaintiff or applicant has discovered the fraud or the mistake or could, with reasonable diligence, have discovered it; or in the case of a concealed document, until the plaintiff or the applicant first had the means of producing the concealed document or compelling its production:

33. Accordingly, in case Section 17 is applied, then the period of limitation would commence from the date of discovery of fraud. In the present case, the reasons for the delay have been duly considered by the Settlement Officer Consolidation, where it was stated that the father of the petitioner, who was working in the police department, served in various districts, and the petitioner, who was a student, had been accompanying his father wherever he was posted. He further submits that his father superannuated from service in 1971 from Tigahana Mau and died in 1990. It is further stated that the petitioner and his brother started agricultural activities along with his relatives on the disputed land, and it is only in 2013 that he came to know that the land had been recorded exclusively in the name of Lalta Singh. Though the delay was of extremely long length of time, but the delay caused was satisfactorily explained, and also that these facts were never controverted by the respondents, coupled with the fact that the order assailed in the appeal was itself obtained by fraud accordingly, such delay was which was duly and satisfactorily explained was entitled to be condoned, and both the authorities below have committed manifest error in declining to condone the delay and dismissing the appeal and revision preferred by the petitioner.

34. With regard to the delay caused in setting aside an order obtained by fraud, the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of A. V. Papayya Sastry and others Vs. Govt. of A.P. and others, (2007) 4 Supreme Court Cases 221 have held as under:-

"Now, it is well settled principle of law that if any judgment or order is obtained by fraud, it cannot be said to be a judgment or order in law. Before three centuries, Chief Justice Edward Coke proclaimed;

"Fraud avoids all judicial acts, ecclesiastical or temporal".

It is thus settled proposition of law that a judgment, decree or order obtained by playing fraud on the Court, Tribunal or Authority is a nullity and non est in the eye of law. Such a judgment, decree or order by the first Court or by the final Court has to be treated as nullity by every Court, superior or inferior. It can be challenged in any Court, at any time, in appeal, revision, writ or even in collateral proceedings. In the leading case of Lazarus Estates Ltd. v. Beasley, (1956) 1 All ER 341 : (1956) 1 QB 702 : (1956) 2 WLR 502, Lord Denning observed:

"No judgment of a court, no order of a Minister, can be allowed to stand, if it has been obtained by fraud."

In Duchess of Kingstone, Smith's Leading Cases, 13th Edn., p.644, explaining the nature of fraud, de Grey, C.J. stated that though a judgment would be res judicata and not impeachable from within, it might be impeachable from without. In other words, though it is not permissible to show that the court was 'mistaken', it might be shown that it was 'misled'. There is an essential distinction between mistake and trickery. The clear implication of the distinction is that an action to set aside a judgment cannot be brought on the ground that it has been decided wrongly, namely, that on the merits, the decision was one which should not have been rendered, but it can be set aside, if the court was imposed upon or tricked into giving the judgment. It has been said; Fraud and justice never dwell together (fraus et jus nunquam cohabitant); or fraud and deceit ought to benefit none (fraus et dolus nemini patrocinari debent).

Fraud may be defined as an act of deliberate deception with the design of securing some unfair or undeserved benefit by taking undue advantage of another. In fraud one gains at the loss of another. Even most solemn proceedings stand vitiated if they are actuated by fraud. Fraud is thus an extrinsic collateral act which vitiates all judicial acts, whether in rem or in personam. The principle of 'finality of litigation' cannot be stretched to the extent of an absurdity that it can be utilized as an engine of oppression by dishonest and fraudulent litigants.

In S.P. Chengalvaraya Naidu (dead) by LRs. V. Jagannath (dead) by LRs. & Ors. (1994) 1 SCC 1 : JT 1994 (6) SC 331, this Court had an occasion to consider the doctrine of fraud and the effect thereof on the judgment obtained by a party. In that case, one A by a registered deed, relinquished all his rights in the suit property in favour of C who sold the property to B. Without disclosing that fact, A filed a suit for possession against B and obtained preliminary decree. During the pendency of an application for final decree, B came to know about the fact of release deed by A in favour of C. He, therefore, contended that the decree was obtained by playing fraud on the court and was a nullity. The trial court upheld the contention and dismissed the application. The High Court, however, set aside the order of the trial court, observing that "there was no legal duty cast upon the plaintiff to come to court with a true case and prove it by true evidence". B approached this Court. Allowing the appeal, setting aside the judgment of the High Court and describing the observations of the High Court as 'wholly perverse', Kuldip Singh, J. stated:

"The courts of law are meant for imparting justice between the parties. One who comes to the court, must come with clean-hands. We are constrained to say that more often than not, process of the court is being abused. Property-grabbers, tax- evaders, bank-loan- dodgers and other unscrupulous persons from all walks of life find the court - process a convenient lever to retain the illegal-gains indefinitely. We have no hesitation to say that a person, who's case is based on falsehood, has no right to approach the court. He can be summarily thrown out at any stage of the litigation".

The Court proceeded to state: "A litigant, who approaches the court, is bound to produce all the documents executed by him which are relevant to the litigation. If he withholds a vital document in order to gain advantage on the other side then he would he guilty of playing fraud on the court as well as on the opposite party".

The Court concluded: "The principle of 'finality of litigation' cannot be pressed to the extent of such an absurdity that it becomes an engine of fraud in the hands of dishonest litigants".

In Indian Bank v. Satyam Fibres (India) Pvt. Ltd., (1996) 5 SCC 550 : JT 1996 (7) SC 135, referring to Lazarus Estates and Smith v. East Elloe Rural District Council, 1956 AC 336 : (1956) 1 All ER 855 : (1956) 2 WLR 888, this Court stated;

"The judiciary in India also possesses inherent power, specially under Section 151 C.P.C., to recall its judgment or order if it is obtained by Fraud on Court. In the case of fraud on a party to the suit or proceedings, the Court may direct the affected party to file a separate suit for setting aside the Decree obtained by fraud. Inherent powers are powers which are resident in all courts, especially of superior jurisdiction. These powers spring not from legislation but from the nature and the Constitution of the Tribunals or Courts themselves so as to enable them to maintain their dignity, secure obedience to its process and rules, protect its officers from indignity and wrong and to punish unseemly behaviour. This power is necessary for the orderly administration of the Court's business".

(emphasis supplied) In United India Insurance Co. Ltd. v. Rajendra Singh & Ors., (2000) 3 SCC 581 : JT 2000 (3) SC 151*, by practising fraud upon the Insurance Company, the claimant obtained an award of compensation from the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal. On coming to know of fraud, the Insurance Company applied for recalling of the award. The Tribunal, however, dismissed the petition on the ground that it had no power to review its own award. The High Court confirmed the order. The Company approached this Court.*

Allowing the appeal and setting aside the orders, this Court stated;

"It is unrealistic to expect the appellant company to resist a claim at the first instance on the basis of the fraud because appellant company had at that stage no knowledge about the fraud allegedly played by the claimants. If the Insurance Company comes to know of any dubious concoction having been made with the sinister object of extracting a claim for compensation, and if by that time the award was already passed, it would not be possible for the company to file a statutory appeal against the award. Not only because of bar of limitation to file the appeal but the consideration of the appeal even if the delay could be condoned, would be limited to the issues formulated from the pleadings made till then.

Therefore, we have no doubt that the remedy to move for recalling the order on the basis of the newly discovered facts amounting to fraud of high degree, cannot be foreclosed in such a situation. No Court or tribunal can be regarded as powerless to recall its own order if it is convinced that the order was wangled through fraud or misrepresentation of such a dimension as would affect the very basis of the claim.

The allegation made by the appellant Insurance Company, that claimants were not involved in the accident which they described in the claim petitions, cannot be brushed aside without further probe into the matter, for, the said allegation has not been specifically denied by the claimants when they were called upon to file objections to the applications for recalling of the awards. Claimants then confined their resistance to the plea that the application for recall is not legally maintainable. Therefore, we strongly feel that the claim must be allowed to be resisted, on the ground of fraud now alleged by the Insurance Company. If we fail to afford to the Insurance Company an opportunity to substantiate their contentions it might certainly lead to serious miscarriage of justice".

35. Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Prashant Singh and others Vs. Meena and others, (2024) 6 Supreme Court Cases 818 while dismissing the appeals held as under:-

"14. The power to declare the ownership in an immovable property can be exercised only by a Civil Court, save and except when such jurisdiction is barred expressly or by implication under a law. Section 49 of the 1953 Act does not and cannot be construed as a bar on the jurisdiction of the Civil Court to determine the ownership rights.3

15. Having held so, it is not difficult to explain that Kalyan Singh had acquired ancestral rights as a tenure holder. He was co-owner in the suit land much before the consolidation proceedings commenced. Hence, the only declaration and adjudication of rights of Ramji Lal or 1 Attar Singh v. State of U.P., 1959 Supp (1) SCR 928, para 3. 2 Amar Nath v. Kewla Devi, (2014) 11 SCC 273, para 17. 3 Karbalai Begum v. Mohd. Sayeed, (1980) 4 SCC 396, para 12-13. Kalyan Singh that a Consolidation Officer could undertake under Section 49 of the 1953 Act was to avoid the fragmentation of their respective land holdings and consolidate or redistribute the parcels of land among them. As analyzed above, the provision does not enable the Consolidation Officer to grant ownership to Ramji Lal in respect of a property, which, before the consolidation proceedings, never vested in him. Vice versa, the Consolidation Officer could not take away the ownership rights of Kalyan Singh which he had already inherited much before the commencement of the consolidation proceedings.

16. That being so, the order dated 08.05.1960 passed by the Consolidation Officer has rightly been held to be null and void and without any jurisdiction. It was passed usurping a power fraudulently, which never ever vested in a Consolidation Officer. The said order is thus liable to be ignored for all intents and purposes. Having held that, it is not necessary for us to go into the question of fraud played upon Kalyan Singh in securing that order with or without collusion of the Consolidation Officer. All that is required to be held is that the order dated 08.05.1960 had no binding force or any adverse effect on the rights of Kalyan Singh."

36. Learned counsel for the respondents in the present case have laid much emphasis on the aspect of delay and relied upon the following judgment of the Supreme Court, where the delay has not been condoned:-

1. Esha Bhattacharjee Vs. Managing Committee of Raghunathpur Nafar Academy and others (2013) 12 SCC 649. (Paa No.15.8 and 15.10 and 22)

2. Vijay Narayan Vs. Deputy Director of Consolidation and 6 others, Writ B No.218 of 2022 (page No.s 3, 6 and 7)

3. Nanda Vs. DDC Ghaziabad and others, Writ B No.9205 of 2001(para No.s 4 and 5)

4. PathapatiSubba Reddy (Died) BY L.R.s and Others Vs. The Special Deputy Collector (L.A.) SLP (Civil) No.31248 of 2018 (para No. 3, 7, 23 to 26 and 32)

5. Raj Kishore Vs. Deputy Director of Consolidation and others passed in C.M.W.P. No.3372 of 1999 (Para No.s 3, 15 and 22) and

6. Jagdish Ram Vs. DDC, Barabanki and others, 2025:AHC-LKO:16108 (Para 19)

37. They have further stated that Statutory Bar under Section 11 A of Consolidation of Holdings Act, restraining from raising objections at any subsequent stage, if not raised under Section 9 earlier, is akin to the principle of 'res judicata' and relied upon the following judgments:-

1. Gafoor and another Vs. Deputy Director of Consolidation and others, AIR 1975 SC 1716 (para 3)

2. Smt. Kiran Devi Vs. Deputy Director of Consolidation, Ghaziabad, 2008 (1) RJ 643 at 647and 648

3. Randhir Singh Vs. Deputy Director of Consolidation, Saharanpur and 5 others, Writ B No.23936/2017 decided on 14.7.2017 (paga 2 and 3)

38. It was also contended by them that according to Section 49 of the Consolidation of Holdings Act, a person is restrained from raising ownership rights which already stood decided in consolidation proceedings, in any subsequent rounds of consolidation proceedings, and relied upon the following judgments:-

Ashok Kumar Vs. Deputy Director of Consolidation, Allahabad Camp and others, 2009 (9) ADJ 32.

39. Considering the rival submissions in this regard, we find that the non-obstente clause used in section 49 of the act of 1953 that "proceedings could ought to have been taken under this act" imposes an absolute bar on civil or revenue Court from entertaining any proceedings in respect of declaration and adjudication of right of a tenure holder or adjudication of any other right arising out of Consolidation operations, for which person concerned ought to have or could have taken proceedings at the time when the villagers brought under consolidation operation by promulgation of notification under section 4 (2) of the act of 1953. Accordingly, finality is sought to be attached with regard to the declaration and adjudication of rights of tenure holders, and after culmination of the Consolidation proceedings and issuance of notification under section 52 of the Act of 1953, the civil or revenue courts do not have any jurisdiction to entertain any such litigation for adjudication to declare the right, title, and interest of the parties.

40. This view has also been taken and upheld by the Supreme Court in the case of Sita Ram vs Chhota Bhondey, AIR 1991 Supreme Court 249.

41. The object primarily appears to be allotting a compact area to the tenure holders in place of their scattered plots and this much is also reflected that with the passage of time, the area of operation of the aforementioned Act in question has been enhanced by providing that all such issues that can be answered after notification has been issued under Section 4(2) in reference of adjudication of rights arising out of consolidation proceedings be dealt with at one forum and declaration and adjudication of rights of tenure holders in respect of land lying in the area covered by notification under Section 4(2) of the Act and for adjudication of any other right arising out of consolidation proceedings.

42. A Division Bench of our Court, in the case of Amar Singh Vs. State of U.P., 2008 (104) RD 421, while considering the issue as to whether the suit filed was barred under Section 49 of the Act, held as follows:-

"The bar contained in Section 49 contemplates a bar of entertainment of suit by a civil or revenue court in respect of following:

(a) the declaration and adjudication of rights of tenure holders,

(b) adjudication of any other rights arising out of consolidation proceedings, and

(c) adjudication of any right in regard to which a proceeding could or ought to have been taken under U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953."

43. In view of the above, it is clear that any adjudication done with regard to land lying in the area in which a notification under Section 4(2) of the U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953 has been issued operates a bar of reagitating in any other revenue or civil Court. The second limb of Section also creates a bar with regard to adjudication of any other right regarding which proceedings could or ought to have been taken under U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953. The provision contains the principles of res judicata as well as principles of constructive res judicata.

44. This Court, in the case of Smt. Sudama v. Hansraj, reported in 1981 R.D. 116 has again reiterated the same view. The case of the appellant before the High Court was that the defendant abused their position in getting their name recorded as the sole tenure holder by practising fraud on the plaintiff by misrepresentation before the consolidation authorities. The court took the view that the suit under Section 229-B for declaration of the title was not barred. The following was observed by the Court:-

"The revenue court while dealing with the suit for declaration can, on coming to the finding that the entries made by the consolidation authorities were procured by fraud and were wrong, declare the plaintiff's right as tenure holder and direct that the entries be corrected accordingly."

45. Coming to the facts of the present case, the plaintiff's case was that the plot in dispute was purchased through a registered sale deed dated 17.3.1969, both by the plaintiff and defendant (writ petitioner), who was a co-sharer. The case of the plaintiff further was that it was the defendant petitioner who was looking after the cases in the court, and the plaintiff, who was living in the forest, being Gaderiya looking after his goats, was duped by the defendant in removing his name from the revenue record. The plaintiff has also claimed that after the sale deeds, both parties came in possession. A co-sharer who claim to be in possession of the property and whose name is not recorded in the consolidation proceeding is not debarred from bringing a suit under Section 229-B for correcting the entries and recording his name, also if the allegation is that his name was removed by practising fraud on him. The judgment of the Apex Court in the case of Karbalai Begum Vs. Mohd. Sayeed and others, AIR 1981 SC 77 fully supports the view taken by the courts below that the suit is not barred under Section 49 of the U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953.

46. Section 49 of 1953 Act under the scheme of things contemplates bar of entertainment of suit by a Civil Court/Revenue Court in respect of right of tenure holder, however exception has been carved out based on judicial pronouncement that when the name of a co-tenure holder could not be recorded by practising fraud, the entries in consolidation proceeding can be challenged and bar of Section 49 would not at all come into place since fraud vitiates even the most solemn proceeding.

47. Once we have proceeded to examine the parameters of the provisions of Section 49 of the U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953, the larger issue i.e. engaging our attention is as to whether an incumbent, who otherwise has interest in property, looses his right in the property in question and stands ousted from the property merely because he has not at all participated in the proceedings in question.

48. In respect of right in land, the provisions of U.P. Zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Act, 1950 are self sufficient and the provisions of U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953 as already quoted above had only limited role to play in respect to consolidation of agriculture holdings to facilitate better quality of agriculture activities, whereas U.P. Act No.1 of 1951 deals with all aspects including the acquisition of interest of intermediaries and its consequences, vesting of land for Gaon Sabha and its superintendence, management of control of land etc by the Land Management Committee and its tenural rights, classes of tenure, transfers, dissolution, division/ extension of rights, rent, ejectment, conferment of rights etc. U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act no point of time has ever proceeded to deal with the expansion of rights or with the conferment of rights, rather under the scheme of things provided under U. P. Consolidation of Holdings Act, the existing rights over the land under consolidation operation are only to be recognized under the provisions of U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act and nothing beyond the same. The U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act does not deal with the grant of authority to grant substantive rights to a tenure holder, rather it is only empowered to recognize the existing rights of tenure holder and in the said direction a full-fledged mechanism has been provided for.

49. Landed property be it individually, jointly, or based on co-sharer confers rights over the property in question and the said rights in question can be defeated or be taken away only in accordance with law.

50. Apex Court in the case of N. Padmamma Vs. S. Ramakrishna Reddy, AIR 2008 SC 2834 held that a right of property is a human right and also a constitutional right and the same cannot be taken away except in accordance with law. Article 300-A of the Constitution protects such a right and as far as U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953 is concerned, the purpose of the aforementioned Act is not at all to divest an incumbent of such right keeping in view the provisions of Article 300-A of the Constitution of India as its paramount object is to see that agricultural activity is to be carried out in one area and in case at the point of time of constituting one compact are, in respect of one compact area in case anyone has to raise any issue, he can come forward.

51. Apex Court, in the case of Rajiv Sarin vs. State of U.K. 2011 (8) SCC 708 while considering the provisions of U.P.Z.A.L.R. Act alongwith K.U.Z.A.L.R. Act (Kumaun and Uttarakhand Zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Act 1960) took the view where appellants' father had acquired in the year 1945 propriety right in an estate which comprised of large tracts of forest spanning in and around and where by Gazette notification dated 21.12.1977 under Section 4-A of K.U.Z.A.L.R. Act as amended by U.P. Act No.15 of 1978, the rights, title and interest of hissedar in respect of forest land situated in the specified areas ceased w.e.f. 01.01.1978 and the same were vested in the State Government, qua the said forest land stand taken by the State that the right, title or interest of a hissedar could be acquired without payment of compensation cannot be accepted as every hissedar whose rights, title or interest are acquired under Section 4, shall be entitled to receive and be paid compensation. Said right has been recognised on the anvil of Article 300-A of the Constitution, which ensures that persons should not be deprived of property save by authority of law. The scrutiny of the subject matter of U.P.C.H. Act clearly reflects that at no point in time has the endeavour under the said Act been to deprive a person of his property; rather, said legislation was directly linked with agrarian reforms, an enactment under Schedule VII List II Entry 18 of "land".

52. Conscious of this situation, mention has been made that right in the property in question is not at all lost under the provisions of U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953, rather the forum to regain the property in question is lost, being barred by operation of law.

53. Once a right in property cannot be taken away except in accordance with law, as Article 300-A of the Constitution protects such a right, in such a situation and in this background, the larger issue is that, would in such a situation, accepting for the purposes of the case that the rights are there even then, there is a loss of forum?

At this juncture, the two Judgements of the Apex Court are being looked into.

54. Apex Court in the case of Amar Nath Vs. Kewla Devi and another AIR SCW 3110 has clearly ruled in reference of bar being placed under Section 49 of U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953 that where plaintiff claimed himself to be belonging to a common ancestor as defendant and then order was passed against him by playing fraud and his right to be accorded as co-bhoomidhar in revenue records cannot stand extinguished merely because he withdrew objection, the Apex Court took the view that orders of consolidation officer suffers of legal malice as there is accepted withdrawal of plaintiff's objection without examining evidence produced as to ownership of land and bar under Section 49 has been held to be not attracted. Relevant extract of the said judgement reads as follows:-

"We do not think it necessary to remit the matter back to the High Court for fresh consideration. We feel it is sufficient to set aside the impugned judgment and uphold the well-reasoned judgment of the first appellate court where it was held that the very fact that the trial court held that it was proved that Amar Nath was s/o Vaij Nath based on the evidence on record, then automatically the court should have given half the portion of the disputed land to the appellant along with defendant no.1, Kewla Devi. Instead, the trial court as well as the Consolidation Officer have passed judgments that are bad in law as they have failed to see that the right of the appellant cannot simply be extinguished because of the defendants' plea that he has entered into a compromise. The defendants have taken undue advantage of the appellant's illiteracy and the Consolidation Officer has abdicated his role by allowing the objection of the appellant to be withdrawn and by not examining whether or not the appellant was indeed the S/o Vaij Nath who was the S/o Gaya. The order of the Consolidation Officer is thus bad in law and it has resulted in a grave miscarriage of justice. We think it fit to restore the judgment and decree passed by the first appellate court wherein the court declared that the appellant, Amar Nath is S/o Vaij Nath who was son of Gaya thereby holding that the order passed by the Consolidation Officer is void and illegal and the trial court was wrong in not quashing the order of the Consolidation Officer and that nowhere in the revenue record was his name recorded and fraud was committed against him as defendant no.1, Kewla Devi has got her name recorded in each and every revenue record. The judgment of the first appellate court is legal and valid as it is fair and keeping with the principles of justice. The trial court in its answer to issue nos. 1 and 10 has rightly held that Amar Nath is S/o Vaij Nath who was undisputedly the son of Gaya and if that fact was proved, then we see no reason why it was not directed for the appellant's name to be recorded in the revenue records. The right of the appellant over the suit schedule property cannot be extinguished simply because objection was withdrawn, over which there is a cloud of doubt anyway and also, the appellant has pleaded that he had no idea about the order of the Consolidation Officer in the first place. We find it highly likely that fraud was committed on him by the defendants as well as the Consolidation Officer by not recording his name in the revenue records as the defendants have taken undue advantage of his illiteracy so that the whole property goes to the defendants."

55. We further find that the controversy in this regard has been laid to rest by the Supreme Court in the case of Prashant Singh and others Vs. Meena and others, (2024) 6 Supreme Court Cases 818, where it has been observed that Section 49 of the 1953 Act contemplates a bar to the jurisdiction of the Civil or Revenue Court for the grant of a declaration or adjudication of rights of tenure holders in respect of land lying in an area for which consolidation proceedings have commenced. The Supreme Court has further held that Section 49 of the 1953 Act is a provision of transitory suspension of jurisdiction of the Civil or Revenue Court only during the period when consolidation proceedings are pending.

56. "Notably, such suspension of jurisdiction of these Courts through the non obstante provision is only with respect to the declaration and adjudication of rights of tenure holders. In other words, unless a person is a pre-existing tenure holder, Section 49 does not come into operation", states the bench.

57. Further, the Supreme Court has observed that the object of the 1953 Act is to prevent fragmentation of the land holdings and consolidate them in such a fair and equitable manner that each tenure holder gets nearly equivalent land rights in the same revenue estate, and that the duty of a Consolidation Officer under Section 49 of the 1953 Act is to prevent fragmentation and consolidate the different parcels of land of a tenure holder. "Such a power can be exercised only in respect of those persons who are already the tenure holders of the land. Conversely, the power under Section 49 of the 1953 Act cannot be exercised to take away the vested title of a tenure holder. No such jurisdiction is conferred upon a Consolidation Officer or any other Authority under the 1953 Act". The Supreme Court has further held that "the power to declare the ownership in an immovable property can be exercised only by a Civil Court save and except when such jurisdiction is barred expressly or by implication under a law" and that "Section 49 of the 1953 Act does not and cannot be construed as a bar on the jurisdiction of the Civil Court to determine the ownership rights"

58. The Court further observed that Kalyan Singh had acquired ancestral rights as a tenure holder, that he was a co-owner in the suit land, much before the consolidation proceedings commenced. "Hence, the only declaration and adjudication of rights of Ramji Lal or Kalyan Singh that a Consolidation Officer could undertake under Section 49 of the 1953 Act was to avoid the fragmentation of their respective land holdings and consolidate or redistribute the parcels of land among them", remarks the Bench

59. It was accordingly held that section 49 does not enable the Consolidation Officer to grant ownership to Ramji Lal in respect of a property, which, before the consolidation proceedings, never vested in him, and clarified that vice versa, the Consolidation Officer could not take away the ownership rights of Kalyan Singh, which he had already inherited much before the commencement of the consolidation proceedings.

60. Considering the facts of the present case, we find that the petitioner is claiming his rights through Smt Kulvanta Devi, his mother, on the basis of a registered sale deed dated 19/03/1959. Therefore, even before the consolidation proceedings, Smt Kulvanta Devi was the joint owner of the property, and such rights cannot be taken away during the consolidation proceedings, and this court relies upon the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Prashant Singh and others Vs. Meena and others (Supra). With regard to the delay, we have already considered the said aspect and found that the same was duly explained and no objections were ever filed by the respondents and in the peculiar circumstances of the case, where the order impugned was based on fraud, the benefit of section 17 of the Limitation Act would accrue to the petitioner, and accordingly, the delay ought to have been condoned.

61. Accordingly, the writ petition is allowed. The impugned orders dated 11/03/2015 and 16/02/2019 are illegal and arbitrary, and are accordingly set aside. The order dated 02/03/1960, having been obtained by fraud, is also quashed.

62. As the land was purchased jointly in the names of Lalta Singh and Smt. Kulvanta Devi, it shall vest jointly in both and, after their death, with their legal heirs.

63. The parties would be at liberty to move an appropriate application before the competent authority/court for passing orders in compliance with the directions issued herein.

ISSUE FOR CONSIDERATION

Whether the State Government before passing the order under Section 16 (D) (4) of the Act is bound to give an opportunity to Committee to show cause.

HEADNOTE

Uttar Pradesh Intermediate Education Act, 1921 — Section 16-D(3), 16-D(4) — Appointment of Authorized Controller — Financial irregularities — Violation of Scheme of Administration — Opportunity of hearing — Principles of natural justice — Recording of reasons

HELD

On plain reading, sub-section (4) is silent regarding requirements of notice to be served upon the Committee of Management before any order is passed by the State Government. What is required is application of mind to the relevant facts placed before the Administrative Authority; short reasons that weight with them to take action need to be recorded.It is settled law that High Court exercising the power under Article 226 of the Constitution is not like an appellate authority to consider the dispute. It has to see whether the impugned order is based on records or whether the authorities have applied their own mind to the relevant facts. (Para 23, 32, 33)

In the instant case, the Committee of Management challenged the appointment of the Authorized Controller alleging violation of the principles of natural justice and non-consideration of their reply. However, in the present case, the petitioners were supplied with the enquiry reports, issued notice, granted time, and personally heard. Adequate opportunity was provided, and reasons have been recorded. The Government applied its mind to the facts and came to the conclusion that the Committee had contravened clauses (v) and (vi) of Section 16-D(3), and therefore, the power under Section 16-D(4) was rightly exercised. The writ petition was dismissed. The Authorized Controller has been directed to take charge and conduct elections within the statutory period. (E-5)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Chandra Dhari Singh, J.)

1. The instant writ petition has been filed by the petitioner to issue a writ, order or direction in nature of certiorari quashing the impugned order dated 19.05.2025 passed by respondent no.1 i.e. Special Secretary, Secondary Education, Government of U.P. and also prayed for issuance of writ, order or direction in the nature of mandamus directing the respondent authorities not to interfere in the peaceful functioning of petitioners' Committee of Management of the Institution.

Factual Matrix

2. The petitioners' Institution is Non-Government aided Secondary School recognized upto Intermediate level. The above-said Institution is governed under the provision of Uttar Pradesh Intermediate Education Act, 1921 (here-in-after referred to as "the Education Act") and regulation made therein. The school has an administration plan, approved and sanctioned by the department to run the Institution in accordance with Scheme. The Committee of Management of School was constituted as per the promulgated provisions. As per the scheme, the term of Committee of Management is three years and one month.

3. The last election of Committee of Management was held on 29.10.2023, in which one Pradeep Kumar Singhal was elected as Manager and one Satish Kumar Mittal was elected as President of Committee of Management of the Institution, which has been duly recognized by the District Inspector of Schools, Shamli (for short the "D.I.O.S.").

4. Due to bad health, the then Manager Sri Pradeep Kumar Singhal had resigned from the post of Manager and the same had been accepted by the Committee of Management and Committee of Management has elected Sri Akash Kumar Singhal as a Manager for remaining period of Committee of Management of the Institution.

5. One Raj Kumar had made a complaint before the Director of Education (Secondary) U.P., Prayagraj against the Manager and requested for initiation of an enquiry against the said Manager. On the above-said complaint, Director of Education (Secondary) U.P., Prayagraj directed to the Joint Director of Education (Secondary), Saharanpur Region, Saharanpur to make an enquiry against the petitioner. The Director of Education (Secondary) U.P., Prayagraj issued a show cause notice on 16.08.2023 under Section 16-D(3) of the Education Act to the petitioner. Against the said show cause notice dated 16.08.2023, petitioner preferred a writ petition bearing Writ – C No.32169 of 2023 before this Court for quashing the said show cause notice on the ground that Director of Education (Secondary) U.P., Prayagraj has initiated the proceeding with mala fide intention on the complaint of the complainant.

6. The above-said Writ – C No.32169 of 2023 has been dismissed by this Court on the ground that the instant writ petition was filed at premature stage as no final order had been passed. After completion of initial enquiry, the Divisional Finance and Account Officer, office of Joint Director of Education, Saharanpur Division, Saharanpur has submitted a report dated 25.01.2022 to the Joint Director of Education, Saharanpur Division, Saharanpur and subsequently the said report was forwarded to the Director of Education (Secondary) U.P., Prayagraj vide covering letter dated 03.02.2022. The Additional Director of Education (Secondary) U.P. issued a notice on 25.02.2022 to the petitioner and sought the explanation within thirty days.

7. The Additional Director of Education (Secondary) U.P. made a report on 11.12.2024 and submitted it to the Deputy Secretary U.P. Government, Sanskriti Education Section (Secondary Education Section-9), Lucknow.

8. The Director of Education (Secondary) U.P. made a report dated 07.02.2025 and submitted it before Special Secretary, U.P. Government, Secondary Education Section-9 (Sanskriti Education Section), Lucknow. After considering the above-said reports dated 11.12.2024 and 07.02.2025, the State Government passed an order dated 19.02.2025. The said order dated 19.02.2025 was challenged in Writ Petition No.6941 of 2025. This Court passed the order dated 19.03.2025, by which the impugned order dated 19.02.2025 therein had been set aside on the ground that the report dated 11.12.2024 and 07.02.2025 were not supplied to the petitioners and direction had been issued to respondent no.1, Special Secretary (Secondary Education) Government of U.P., Lucknow to pass a fresh order, in accordance with law, within a period of two months.

9. In pursuance of said order, the petitioner made a representation on 07.04.2025 and subsequently the Government of U.P. had issued a notice dated 02.05.2025, by which it was intimated that the petitioners may submit the explanation/reply and date had been fixed for hearing on 07.05.2025 at 3.30 p.m. in the office of Special Secretary (Secondary Education). The petitioners appeared before the respondent no.1 and sought further time for filing explanation and the time was granted and date was fixed on 14.05.2025. The petitioners appeared before the Special Secretary (Secondary Education) and submitted the written explanation. D.I.O.S. had also appeared before the Special Secretary after considering the oral submissions and written submissions of the petitioners. Respondent no.1 passed impugned order dated 19.05.2025, by which the authorized controller has been appointed for the period of six months.

10. Hence, the instant writ petition has been filed.

Submissions:

11. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners submitted that the impugned order dated 19.05.2025 was passed by respondent no.1 without considering the averments made in the reply submitted on 14.05.2025, 24.03.2022, 14.03.2022 and 24.07.2024. It is further submitted that while passing the impugned order, respondent no.1 has not even accorded any reason, therefore, the said order is non- speaking and vague and passed without application of mind.

12. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners submitted that the impugned order is contrary to the provisions under Section 16-D(4) (8) of the U.P. Intermediate Education Act, 1921 (here-in-after referred to as "the Education Act") on account of fact that no notices were issued by any of the Education Authority to the petitioners with regard to election dated 29.01.2024. It is also submitted that the impugned order passed by respondent no.1 is only passed upon the ex parte reports sent by the Educational Authorities from time to time against the petitioners, since the petitioners' averments have not been considered by the respondent no.1 while passing the impugned order and there were no finding recorded by respondent no.1 for rejecting the averments of the petitioners.

13. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners submitted that as per Clause 10 of the Scheme of Administration clearly provides that any person who has been elected by the Committee of Management of the Institution for remaining period of term of Committee of Management of the Institution is legal and valid. It is submitted that in pursuance of the directions given by Director of Secondary Education, U.P. Prayagraj to the District Inspector of Schools, Shamli on 04.08.2023 and the direction given by the Director of Education, U.P. Prayagraj to the Joint Director of Education, Saharanpur Region Saharanpur on 02.04.2023 and 02.05.2023, neither the District Inspector of Schools, Shamli nor the Joint Director of Education (Secondary), Saharanpur Region, Saharanpur has afforded any opportunity of hearing to the petitioners prior to submitting the recommendation to the Director of Secondary Education, U.P. Prayagraj. Therefore, the impugned order dated 19.05.2025 passed by respondent no.1 is arbitrary and discriminatory exercise of power violating the principle of natural justice and deserves to be set aside.

14. Per contra, learned Standing Counsel appearing on behalf of the State-respondents vehemently opposed the instant writ petition and submitted that there are no illegality or error in the impugned order. The impugned order has been passed by respondent no.1 after considering the entirety of the matter and material on record. It is submitted that on early occasion, an audit/enquiry report dated 25.01.2022 was submitted by the Divisional Finance and Account Officer, office of Joint Director of Education, Saharanpur before the Joint Director of Education, Saharanpur Division, Saharanpur and subsequently, it was forwarded before the Director of Education (Secondary), U.P., Prayagraj by a covering letter dated 03.02.2022 and in pursuance of it, the Additional Director of Education (Secondary), U.P. issued a notice on 25.02.2022 to the petitioners/Manager, Committee of Management, Hindu Inter College, Kandhla, District Shamli and sought explanation within 30 days.

15. It is further submitted that the Additional Director of Education (Secondary), U.P. made a report on 11.12.2024 and submitted it before Deputy Secretary, Uttar Pradesh Government, Sanskriti Education Section (Secondary Education Section-9), Lucknow. The Director of Education (Secondary) U.P. made a report on 07.02.2025 and submitted it before Special Secretary, Uttar Pradesh Government, Secondary Education Section-9 (Sanskriti Education Section) Lucknow. After considering the above-said reports dated 11.12.2024 and 07.02.2025, the State Government passed an order dated 19.02.2025 and subsequently it was challenged by means of writ petition bearing Writ Petition No.6941 of 2025. The Co-ordinate Bench of this Court passed the order dated 19.03.2025, by which the impugned order dated 19.02.2025 has been quashed on the ground that the report dated 11.12.2024 and 07.02.2025 were not supplied to the petitioners and directions has been issued upon respondent no.1, Special Secretary (Secondary Education) Government of U.P., Lucknow to pass a fresh order, in accordance with law, within a period of two months.

16. It is further submitted that in pursuance of the said order, the petitioners made a representation on 07.04.2025 and subsequently the Government of U.P. had issued a notice dated 02.05.2025, by which it had been intimated that the petitioners may submit the explanation as per his requirement in the matter concern and date was fixed for hearing in the office of Special Secretary (Secondary Education). It is further submitted that in the instant notice dated 02.05.2025, the reports dated 11.12.2024 and 07.02.2025 had also been enclosed, therefore, the petitioners have full knowledge about the facts of the case and also have knowledge about two reports i.e. 11.12.2024 and 07.02.2025.

17. Learned Standing Counsel for the State-respondents further clarified that since on the earlier occasion this Court had set aside the order passed by the Special Secretary only on the ground that both the reports dated 11.12.2024 and 07.02.2025 were not supplied to the petitioners. It is vehemently submitted that on 07.05.2025, the petitioners appeared before the Special Secretary and sought time for filing their replication/explanation for their case and the next date was fixed on their request on 14.05.2025. On 14.05.2025, the D.I.O.S., Shamli and the Manager of the Institution appeared before the Special Secretary (Secondary Education) and the Manager submitted his oral statement as well as his written submissions. Thereafter, the Special Secretary after considering the reply and submissions of respective parties, passed the impugned order dated 19.05.2025.

18. Learned Standing Counsel appearing on behalf of the State-respondents submitted that in view of the above-said facts, the petitioners have failed to make out any case for issuance of writ, order or direction as prayed in the instant writ petition. The instant writ petition is devoid of merit and has to be dismissed.

19. Heard Sri Ashok Khare, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Sri P.N. Ojha, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners, Sri Dinesh Kumar Singh, learned Standing Counsel appearing on behalf of the State-respondents, Sri V.K. Singh, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Sri Vikas Upadhyay, learned counsel appeared to assist the Court.

Analysis and Findings

20. Taking into consideration the submissions made in forgoing paragraphs, the short question for determination is as to whether the State Government before passing the order under Section 16 (D) (4) of the Act is bound to give an opportunity to Committee to show cause.

21. Provisions under Section 16-D of the Act is quoted as under:

"[16-D. (1) The Director may cause a recognized institution to be inspected from time to time.

(2) The Director may direct a management to remove any defect or deficiency found on inspection or otherwise.

(3) If on the receipt of information or otherwise, the Director is satisfied that –

(i) the Committee of Management of an institution has failed to comply with the judgment of any court or any direction made under this Act or any other law for the time being in force; or

(ii) the Committee has failed to appoint teaching staff possessing such qualifications as are necessary for the purpose of ensuring the maintenance of academic standard in the institution or has appointed or retained in service any teaching or non-teaching staff in contravention of the provisions of this Act or the Regulations; or

(iii) any dispute with respect to the right claimed by different persons to be lawful office-bearers of the Committee of Management has affected the smooth and orderly administration of the institution concerned; or

(iv) the Committee has persistently failed to provide the institution with such adequate and proper accommodation, library, furniture, stationery, laboratory equipment or other facilities as are necessary for the efficient administration of such institution; or

(v) the Committee has substantially diverted misapplied or misappropriated the property of the institution to its detriment or has transferred any property in contravention of the provisions of the Uttar Pradesh Educational Institutions (Prevention of Dissipation of Assets) Act, 1974 (U.P. Act No.3 of 1975);or

(vi) the draft of the Scheme of Administration has not been submitted within the time allowed therefore under Section 16-B, or that the Management of the institution is being conducted otherwise than in accordance with the Scheme of Administration or the affairs of the institution are being otherwise mis-managed;

(vii) the Scheme of Administration in relation to an institution, approved before the commencement of the Intermediate Education (Amendment) Act, 1980, is inconsistent with the provisions of this Act and the management of the institution has failed to alter or modify it within a reasonable time despite notice under section 16-CCC; he may refer the case to the Board for withdrawal of recognition of such institution, or issue notice to the Committee of Management to show cause within thirty days from the date of receipt of notice why an order under sub-section (4) should not be made.

(4) Where the Committee of Management of an institution fails to show cause within the time allowed under sub-section (3) or within such extended time as the Director may, from time to time allow, or where the Director, is after considering the cause shown by the Committee of Management satisfied that any of the grounds mentioned in sub-section (3) exists, he may recommend to the State Government to appoint an Authorized Controller for that institution, and thereupon, the State Government may, by order, for reasons to be recorded, authorize any person (hereinafter referred to as the Authorized Controller) to take over, for such period not exceeding two years, as may be specified, the Management of such institution and its properties:

Provided that if the State Government is of opinion that it is expedient so to do in order to continue to secure the proper management of the institution and its properties, it may, from time to time, extend the operation of the order, for such period, not exceeding one year at a time, as it may specify, so however, that the total period of operation of the order, including the period specified in the initial order, but excluding the period specified in sub-section (8), does not exceed five years :

Provided further that if at the expiration of the said period of five years, there is no lawfully constituted Committee of Management of the institution, the Authorized Controller shall continue to function as such, until the State Government is satisfied that a Committee of Management has been lawfully constituted."

22. As per aforesaid scheme of the statute contained in Section 16(D)(1) provides that Director may cause a recognized institution to be inspected from time to time, sub Clause (2) would provide that the Director may direct the management to remove any defect or deficiency found during the inspection or otherwise, whereas, sub Clause 3 provides the eventualities upon which the Director may refer the case of the Institution to the Board for withdrawal of recognition of such Institution and issue notice to the Committee of Management to show cause within thirty days from the date of receipt of such notice why an order under sub Section (4) should not be made. Sub Clause (4) would provide that where the Committee of Management of an Institution fails to show cause within the time allowed under Sub Section (3) or within such extended time as the Director may from time to time allow, where the Director, after considering the show cause shown by the Committee of Management is satisfied that any of the grounds mentioned in sub Section (3) exists, he may, recommend to the State Government to appoint an authorized controller for that Institution.

23. On plain reading, sub-section (4) is silent regarding requirements of notice to be served upon the Committee of Management before any order is passed by the State Government.

24. The question how far the principle of natural justice govern administrative enquiries came up for consideration before the Queen's Bench Division In re H. K. (An Infant)1 Therein the validity of the action taken by an Immigration Officer came up for consideration. In the course of his Judgement Lord Parker C.J. observed thus:

"But at the same time, I myself think that even if an immigration officer is not in a judicial or quasi-judicial capacity, he must at any rate give the immigrant an opportunity of satisfying him of the matters in the sub-section, and for that purpose let the immigrant know what his immediate impression is so that the immigrant can disabuse him. That is not, as I see it, a question of acting or being required to act judicially, but of being required to act fairly. Good administration and an honest. or bona fide decision must, as it seems to me, require not merely impar-tiality, nor merely bringing one's mind to bear on the problem, but acting fairly, and to the limited extent that the circumstances of any particular case allow, and within the legislative framework under which the administrator is working, only to that limited extent do the so-called rules of natural justice apply, which in a case such as this is merely a duty to act fairly. I appreciate that in saying that it may be said that one is going further than is permitted on the decided cases because heretofore at any rate the decisions of the courts do seem to have drawn a strict line in these matters according to whether there is or is not a duty to act judicially or quasi-judicially."

25. In the same case Blain J., observed thus:

"I would only say that an immigration officer having assumed the jurisdiction granted by those provisions is in a position where it is his duty to exercise that assumed jurisdiction whether it be administrative, executive or quasi-judicial, fairly, by which I mean applying his mind dispassionately to a fair analysis of the particular problem and the information available to him in analysing it. If in any hypothetical case, and in any real case, this court was satisfied that an immigration officer was not so doing, then in my view mandamus would lie."

26. In the case of Suresh Koshy George v. University of Kerala,[2] Hon'ble Supreme Court held that rules of natural justice are not embodied rules. What particular rule of natural justice should apply to a given case must depend to a great extent on the facts and circumstances of that case, the framework of the law under which the enquiry is held and the constitution of the Tribunal or body of persons appointed for that purpose. Whenever a complaint is made before a court that some principle of natural justice had been contravened the court has to decide whether the observance of that rule was necessary for a just decision on the facts of that case.

27. I may, however, hasten to add that no general rule of universal application can be laid down as to the applicability of the principle of natural justice, in addition to the language of the provision, undoubtedly, that can be exceptions to the said doctrine.

28. The question whether the principle has to be applied or not is to be considered bearing in mind the express language and the basic schemes of the provision conferring the power; the nature of the power conferred; the purpose for which the power is conferred and the final effect of the exercise of that power.

कैशबुक के अनुसार नकद धनराशि उपलब्ध होते हुए भी प्रत्येक माह नकद आहरण बैंक से किया जाता रहा जिसका कोई औचित्य स्पष्ट नहीं किया गया।

अधिकांशतः भुगतान नकद ही किये गये हैं जबकि नियमानुसार समस्त भुगतान चौक के माध्यम से किये जाने चाहिए।

निर्माण कार्यों में किये गये व्यय बिल बाऊचर्स इत्यादि की जाँच के समय यह तथ्य भो प्रकाश में आया कि किसी भी प्रकार की टेण्डर/कोटेशन की प्रकिया नहीं अपनायी गयी है।

दिनांक 09.10.2019 को कैशबुक (बैंक / दुकानों से प्राप्त किराये के सम्बन्ध में) में 22,000.00 का व्यय

दिनांक 17.01.2020 को कैशबुक में 1,25,000.00 रु० का नकद व्यय दर्शाया गया है जबकि इस सम्बन्ध में विद्यालय द्वारा कोई भी स्थिति स्पष्ट नहीं की गयी।

कैशबुक के अनुसार उपलब्ध नकद का माहवार भौतिक सत्यापन किया जाना चाहिए जिसके सम्बन्ध में कोई स्थिति स्पष्ट नहीं की गयी।

ऑडिट की अवधि के दौरान वर्तमान में अवशेष नकद का भौतिक सत्यापन भी ऑडिंट टीम को नहीं कराया गया।

विद्यालय कैशबुक के परीक्षण से संज्ञानित है कि अनेको निर्माण कार्यों के प्रति नकद व्यय दर्शाये गये है परन्तु मजदूरी के सम्वन्ध में दैनिक मस्टर रोल प्रस्तुत नहीं किये गये।

> उपरोक्त स्थिति स्पष्ट हो जाने के उपरांत संस्था में व्याप्त वित्तीय अनियमितता के निराकरण हेतु मंडलीय संयुक्त शिक्षा निदेशक, सहारनपुर ने संस्था प्रकरण समिति के विरुद्ध इंटरमीडियट शिक्षा अधिनियम 1921 की धारा 16डी(2) के अधीन कार्यवाही किये जाने के संबंध में निदेशालय को प्रकरण संदर्भित किया गया।

> उपरोक्त प्राप्त प्रस्ताव के आलोक में इंटरमीडियट शिक्षा अधिनियन 1921 की धारा 16 डी (2) के अधीन संस्था प्रबन्धक को निदेश निर्गत करते हुये प्राप्त वित्तीय अनियमितता की निराकरण आख्या उपलब्ध कराये जाने के संबंध में निर्देशित किया गया।

> तत्क्रम में संस्था प्रबन्धक से प्राप्त उनके अभिकथन पर जिला विद्यालय निरीक्षक शामली से संस्तुति उपलब्ध कराये जाने के संबंध में निर्देशित किया गया, जिसके अनुपालन में जिला विद्यालय निरीक्षक शामली ने वित्तीय अनियमितता स्पष्ट होने की स्थिति में संस्था प्रबंध समिति के विरुद्ध इंटरमीडियट शिक्षा अधिनियम 1921 की धारा 16 डी के अधीन कार्यवाही किये जाने के संबंध में संस्तुति की गयी।

> इसी क्रम में मंडलीय संयुक्त शिक्षा निदेशक, सहारनपुर ने भी संस्था वित्तीय अनियनितता संज्ञानित व स्पष्ट हो जाने के दृष्टिगत संस्था प्रबंध समिति के विरुद्ध इंटरमीडियट शिला अधिनियम 1921 की धारा 16 डी के अधीन कार्यवाही किये जाने के संबंध में संस्तुति की गयी।

> संस्था प्रबन्धक द्वारा उपरोक्त निर्धारित 30 दिवस के भीतर अपना अभिकथन प्रस्तुत न किये जाने के दृष्टिगत इंटरमीडियट शिक्षा अधिनियम 1921 की धारा 16 डी की उपधारा-4 के अधीन निदेशालय द्वारा प्रकरण की स्थिति से अवगत कराते हुये संस्था की परिसंपत्तियों के प्रबंधन हेतु प्राधिकृत नियंत्रक नियुक्त किये जाने के संबंध में प्रकरण को शासन संदर्भित कर दिया गया।

> संस्था प्रबन्धक ने निदेशालय द्वारा निर्गत धारा-16 डी-3 की नोटिस के विरुद्ध एक याचिका संख्या 32169/2023 व शिकायतकर्ता द्वारा एक याचिका संख्या 20059/2023 योजित की गयी उक्त दोनों मान० उच्च न्यायालय द्वारा सम्बद्ध करते हुये अपने निर्णय दिनांक 31-01-2024 द्वारा उपरोक्त याचिकाओं को खारिज कर दिया गया।

> संस्था प्रबंध समिति ने अपना पक्ष शासन के समक्ष दिनांक 27.04.2024 को सम्पन्न सुनवाई बैठक में प्रस्तुत किया गया जिसके सापेक्ष शासन ने संस्था प्रबन्धक की व्यक्तिगत सुनवाई किये जाने के उपरांत द्वारा शासन को प्रस्तुत किये गये अभिकथन पर संस्तुति उपलब्ध कराये जाने के सबंध में निर्देशित किया गया।

7- इस सम्बन्ध में उल्लेखनीय है क़ि संस्था प्रबंधतंत्र द्वारा संस्था की वित्तीय परिसंपत्तियों को विभागीय वित्तीय नियमों के विपरीत जाकर नगद कैश के रूप में लेन-देन किया गया। उक्त नगद लेन देन मे प्रबंधतंत्र यह स्पष्ट करने में असफल रहा कि, लेन देन की गयी धनराशि संस्था हित में की गयी थी अथवा व्यक्तिगत? यदि संस्था प्रबंधतंत्र द्वारा वित्तीय नियमों के अनुरूप धनराशि का अंतरण बैंक अथवा सरकार द्वारा प्रचलित प्रक्रियाओं (ई-पेमेंट, चेक आदि) के माध्यम से किया जाता तो यह प्रमाणित हो सकता था कि संस्था की निधि किसको अंतरित की गयी व किस प्रयोजन हेतु ? किन्तु उक्त स्थिति के विपरीत जाकर संख्था प्रबंधतंत्र ने जानबूझकर संस्था निधि को वित्तीय नियमों के विपरीत लेन देन किया गया जोकि

वित्तीय अनियमितता की श्रेणी में आता है, जिस हेतु संस्था की परिसंपत्तियों के प्रबंधन हेतु इंटरमीडियट शिक्षा अधिनियम 1921 की धारा 16 डी (4) के अधीन् प्राधिकृत नियंत्रक नियुक्त किये जाने के सम्बन्ध में शिक्षा निदेशक, माध्यमिक, उ०प्र० प्रयागराज द्वारा शासन को की गयी संस्तुति उचित है।

8-उक्त के अतिरिक्त शिक्षा निर्देशक, माध्यगिक द्वारा अपनी संस्तुति में शासन को यह भी अवगत कराया गया है कि श्री प्रदीप कुमार सिंघल, प्रबन्धक, हिन्दू इण्टर कॉलेज, कांधला, शामली द्वारा अपनी स्वास्थ्य सम्बन्धी समस्याओं के कारण दिनांक 18.01.2024 को उपाध्यक्ष, प्रबन्ध समिति, हिन्दू इण्टर कालेज, कांधला शामली को अपना त्याग-पत्र प्रस्तुत किया गया। फलतः प्रबन्ध समिति की दिनांक 29.01.2024 को आहूत बैठक में श्री प्रदीप कुमार सिंघल का त्याग पत्र स्वीकार करते हुए शेष अवधि के लिए प्रबन्धक का कार्यभार साधारण सभा के आजीवन सदस्य श्री आकाश कुमार सिंघल को दिये जाने का विनिश्चय किया गया। प्रबन्ध समिति के उपरोक्त प्रस्ताव के आधार पर जिला विद्यालय निरीक्षक, शामली की आख्यानुसार विद्यालय की स्वीकृत / अनुमोदित प्रशासन योजना की धारा-10 (1) में निहित व्यवस्थानुसार शेष अवधि हेतु श्री आकाश कुमार सिंघल के हस्ताक्षर संस्था प्रबन्धक के रूप में जिला विद्यालय निरीक्षक, शामली द्वारा प्रमाणित कर दिये गये।

9-प्रकरण में पूर्व में मण्डलीय संयुक्त शिक्षा निदेशक, सहारनपुर की आख्या दिनांक 27.06.2024 के साथ प्राप्त संस्था हिन्दू इण्टर कालेज, कांधला, शामली की अनुमोदित / स्वीकृत प्रशासन योजना की धारा-10 (1) में उल्लिखित है कि "समिति के सदस्यों (पदेन सदस्यों से भिन्न) या समिति के पदाधिकारियों के पद में होने वाली किसी आकस्मिक रिक्ति की पूर्ति समिति द्वारा कार्यकाल की शेष अवधि के लिए की जाएगी और इस प्रकार नियुक्त व्यक्ति उस शेष काल के लिए संमिति का सदस्य या पदाधिकारी (जैसी भी दशा हो) होगा, जिसके लिए वह व्यक्ति रहता, जिसके स्थान की वह पूर्ति करता है। ऐसी रिक्ति की पूर्ति हेतु पदेन तथा मनोनीत सदस्य भी वोट देने के अधिकारी होंगे।"

10-उपरोक्त अनुमोदित/स्वीकृत प्रशासन योजना में समिति का तात्पर्य स्कूल की प्रबंध समिति से है का उल्लेख है। इस प्रकार जिला विद्यालय निरीक्षक, शामली द्वारा विद्यालय में सर्वप्रथम श्री प्रदीप कुमार सिंहल की दिनांक 29.01.2024 को त्याग-पत्र से फलित आकस्मिक रिधि पर साधारणसभा के सदस्य श्री आकाश कुमार सिंहल के चयन को अनुमोदित करते हुए उनके हस्ताक्षर प्रमाणन की कार्यवाही की गयी, जो विद्यालय की अनुमोदित/स्वीकृत प्रशासन योजना से निम्न कार्यवाही है। श्री आकाश कुमार सिंहल साधारण सभा के पदेन सदस्य है, जबकि संस्था की अनुमोदित / स्वीकृत प्रशासन योजना के अंतर्गत प्रबन्ध समिति के सदस्यों या पदाधिकारियों से ही प्रबन्धक के पद की आकस्मिक रिक्ति की पूर्ति की जानी थी। इस प्रकार जिला विद्यालय निरीक्षण, शामली द्वारा की गयी उपरोक्त कार्यवाही अनुमोदित / स्वीकृत प्रशासन योजना के विपरीत है।

12-अतः मा० उच्च न्यायालय द्वारा रिट याचिका सी० संख्या-6941/2025 में पारित आदेश दिनांक 19.03.2025 के अनुपालन में शासन सार पर आहूत सुनवाई बैठक दिनांक 07.05.2025 एवं दिनांक 14.05.2025 में याची प्रबंध समिति / प्रबंधक द्वारा प्रस्तुत किये गये मौखिक एवं लिखित पक्ष/तर्क उपर्युक्त प्रस्तर-6 से 10 में वर्णित वस्तुस्थिति एवं तथ्यों के दृष्टिगत पूर्णतः आधारहीन एवं बलहीन होने के कारण संख्या हिंदू इंटर कॉलेज, कांधला, शामली की प्रबंध समिति के विरुद्ध माध्यमिक शिक्षा अधिनियम, 1921 की धारा 16 डी (4) के अंतर्गत प्रबन्ध तंत्र को अतिक्रमित करते हुए संस्था एवं उसकी परिसम्पत्तियों के प्रबन्धन हेतु जिला बेसिक शिक्षा अधिकारी, शामली (पदेन) को श्री राज्यपाल इस शर्त के साथ छ (06) माह हेतु प्राधिकृत नियंत्रक नियुक्त करते हैं कि प्राधिकृत नियंत्रक द्वारा निर्धारित समयावधि में संस्था में व्याप्त अनियमितताओं का निराकरण करते हुए संस्था में मान्य प्रबन्ध समिति के गठन की कार्यवाही की जाएगी।"

30. After perusal of the aforesaid impugned order dated 19.05.2025, by which an authorized controller has been appointed in the school due to alleged financial irregularities. As per the pleadings and material on record in the instant matter, an audit report dated 25.01.2022 was submitted by the Divisional Finance and Account Officer, office of Joint Director of Education, Saharanpur before Joint Director of Education, subsequently it was forwarded to Director of Education (Secondary), Prayagraj vide letter dated 03.02.2022. In pursuance of it, the Additional Director of Education (Secondary), Uttar Pradesh issued a notice on 25.02.2022 to the petitioner and sought the explanation within 30 days. The Additional Director of Education (Secondary), U.P. made a report on 11.12.2024 and same was submitted to Deputy Secretary, U.P. The Director of Education (Secondary), U.P. made a report on 07.02.2025 and submitted to Special Secretary (Secondary Education), U.P. After considering the aforesaid reports, the State Government passed an order dated 19.02.2025. The said order was challenged in the High Court vide Writ Petition No.6941 of 2025. The Co-ordinate Bench quashed the order dated 19.02.2025 passed by the Government vide order dated 19.03.2025 on the ground that the aforesaid both reports dated 11.12.2024 and 07.02.2025 were not supplied to the petitioners. It was further directed to pass fresh order in accordance with law.

31. In pursuance of the aforesaid order dated 19.03.2025 passed by the Co-ordinate Bench, the Government of U.P. has issued notice dated 02.05.2025 to the petitioners and called for explanation and date was fixed for hearing on 07.05.2025 at 3.30 p.m. in the office of Special Secretary (Secondary Education). On 07.05.2025, petitioners appeared and sought the time for filing his reply of show cause and next date was fixed on 14.05.2025. On 14.05.2025, the D.I.O.S., Shamli and the petitioners appeared before the Special Secretary. The petitioners submitted their oral submissions as well as written submissions before the Special Secretary, then the impugned order dated 19.05.2025 was passed by which an authorized controller has been appointed for period of six months.

32. Learned Senior Counsel for the petitioners has contended that requirement of recording reasons mentioned in Sub-Section (4) of Section 16(D) of the Act has not complied with. After perusal of aforesaid facts, the petitioners had been given opportunity for hearing and for submitting the explanation before the Special Secretary. The officer concerned after taking into the consideration the explanation and material on record before him rejected the explanation of the petitioners and passed the impugned order. Recording of reasons is preceded by consideration of the explanation followed by agreement or disagreement with the explanation submitted by the Management. Reasons recorded in that behalf would not constitute compliance of sub-section (4) of Section 16(D) of the Act. It is settled law that Administrative Authorities are not required to record reasons as elaborately as an order by a Court. What is required is application of mind to the relevant facts placed before the Administrative Authority; short reasons that weight with them to take action need to be recorded. It is seen that the order at law is an elaborate one and from the record it is seen that the Secretary has given opportunity to all the parties to explain their cases. After consideration of the explanation of the petitioners as well as audit reports and other reports submitted in the competent officials of the education department, passed the impugned order.

33. It is settled law that High Court exercising the power under Article 226 of the Constitution is not like an appellate authority to consider the dispute. It has to see whether the impugned order is based on records or whether the authorities have applied their own mind to the relevant facts. When the facts do exist on record and Government have applied their mind to those facts and came to the conclusion that from the facts so collected they were satisfied that the Committee had contravened clauses (v) and (vi) of Sub-Section (3) of Section 16-D of the Act , they have rightly exercised the power under Sub-Section (4) of Section 16D of the Act.

Conclusions:-

34. In the case at hand, after perusal of the records and pleadings, I am satisfied that the State Government before passing the impugned order, have put the Committee of Management to notice and the Committee of Management duly replied to the notice and also presented its case before the Special Secretary as discussed above. Under these circumstances, I am of the view that there are no illegality or errors in the impugned order dated 19.05.2025 passed by the Special Secretary, Govt. of U.P. After taking into consideration of the material, I am also of the view that the Committee should not be allowed to be in the management of the institution. Accordingly, the Authorized Controller is directed to immediately take over the Management of the institution and set right the running of the institution on proper line, then conduct the election within the period prescribed under the Act and hand over the management to newly elected body.

35. The instant writ petition is accordingly, dismissed.

ISSUE FOR CONSIDERATION

Whether landowners who did not initially file references under Section 18 of the Act, 1894, can seek redetermination of compensation under Section 28-A based on enhanced awards granted to similarly situated landowners under the same acquisition notification ?

HEADNOTE

Land acquisition - Re-determination of compensation - Land Acquisition Act, 1894, Section 28-A - Beneficent legislation with the object to remove inequality in compensation - Landowners not filing reference under Section 18 held eligible to seek re-determination - Limitation under Section 28-A computed from the award relied upon for redetermination and not from earlier set-aside awards - Right of landowners to rely upon subsequent award granting higher compensation recognized - persons entitled to apply under Section 28-A are not restricted to relying only on the earliest award but can invoke the provision on the basis of any subsequent award granting higher compensation, provided the application is filed within three months thereof - Objection of limitation raised by acquisition beneficiary/KUMS rejected - Earlier enhancement order of 1990 having been set aside could not form basis for limitation - Acceptance of compensation without protest not a bar - Entitlement to statutory benefits including solatium, additional compensation and interest affirmed - Direction for implementation issued - Writ petition by landowners allowed.

HELD

Court held that Section 28-A of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 is a beneficent provision which must be interpreted liberally to achieve its object of removing inequality in compensation awards; that the limitation period for filing applications under Section 28-A commences from the date of the award on which the applicant relies for redetermination and not from any earlier award; that the landowners' applications dated 26.04.2016 were well within the prescribed period of three months from the Reference Court's award dated 30.01.2016; that the order dated 17.02.2022 passed by the Special Land Acquisition Officer granting enhanced compensation at the rate of Rs.108/- per square metre along with statutory benefits was legally sound and deserved implementation; and that the objections raised by the Krishi Utpadan Mandi Samiti regarding limitation and maintainability lacked merit and were contrary to established legal principles. Consequently, the leading writ petition filed by the landowners was allowed and the connected writ petitions filed by the Krishi Utpadan Mandi Samiti were dismissed, with a direction to the Krishi Utpadan Mandi Samiti to comply with the order dated 17.02.2022 and deposit the enhanced compensation along with statutory benefits within six weeks, failing which the amount would carry interest at the rate of 12% per annum from the date of default until actual payment; it was further declared that the landowners were entitled to enhanced compensation at Rs.108/- per square metre together with 30% solatium, 12% additional compensation and interest at the prescribed rates, and the writ petitions were disposed of accordingly, without any order as to costs. (Paras 8, 9)

Writ petitions by acquisition body/KUMS dismissed. (E-5)

CASE ARISING FROM

Order dated 17.02.2022 passed by the Special Land Acquisition Officer, Moradabad,4 under Section 28-A of the Act, 1894.

Appearances for Parties

Advs For Petitioner: Sudeep Harkauli, Suresh C. Dwivedi; Ravi Prakash Pandey

Advs For Respondents: C.S.C.;

(Delivered by Hon'ble Mahesh Chandra Tripathi, J.)

1. Heard Shri Sudeep Harkauli, learned counsel for the land-owners (petitioners in the WRIT-C No. 35876 of 2022 and respondents in all other connected writ petitions filed by the Krishi Utpadan Mandi Samiti1 mentioned at Serial Nos.2 to 10), Shri Suresh C. Dwivedi, learned counsel for the Krishi Utpadan Mandi Samiti and Shri Devesh Vikram, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel and Shri Fuzail Ahmad Ansari, learned Standing Counsel for the State-respondents.

2. Since all the afore-noted writ petitions involve a common legal issue,, i.e. whether landowners who did not initially file references under Section 18 of the Act, 1894, can seek redetermination of compensation under Section 28-A based on enhanced awards granted to similarly situated landowners under the same acquisition notification, with the consent of learned counsel for the parties, all the afore-noted petitions have been clubbed and heard together and are being disposed of by this common judgment. The WRIT-C No. 35876 of 20222 is made the leading writ petition.

A. PRAYERS:

The Leading Writ Petition:-

3. This writ petition has been filed, inter alia, praying for a writ, order, or direction in the nature of mandamus, directing the KUMS to decide the representation of the petitioners/landowners dated 03.09.2022. It is further prayed that a direction in the nature of mandamus be issued to the KUMS to deposit the money mentioned in the letter dated 15.03.2022 and to comply with the orders passed under Section 28-A of the Land Acquisition Act, 18943.

Writ Petitions filed by the KUMS mentioned at Serial Nos.2 to 10:-

3.1 The writ petitions at Serial Nos. 2 to 10 have been filed, inter alia, seeking a direction in the nature of certiorari to quash the impugned order dated 17.02.2022 passed by the Special Land Acquisition Officer, Moradabad,4 under Section 28-A of the Act, 1894. It is further prayed that a direction in the nature of mandamus be issued restraining the SLAO from compelling the KUMS to deposit the amount of compensation as re-determined by the impugned judgment and order dated 17.02.2022.

B. FACTUAL MATRIX OF THE CASE:

4. That the brief facts of the case are that the KUMS, Moradabad had made a proposal for acquiring 47.98 ½ acres of land situated at village Majhola, Tehsil and District Moradabad for the purpose of construction of a Market Yard by the Krishi Utpadan Mandi Samiti, Moradabad. Pursuant to such proposal, after making preliminary enquiries and preparing compensation statements, the State Government issued a notification under Section 4(1)/17(4) of the Act, 1894 on 30.04.1977, which was duly published on 14.05.1977 for acquiring the land of the landowners situated in village Majhola, Tehsil and District Moradabad. Thereafter, a declaration under Section 6(1)/17 of the Act, 1894 was also issued on the same date i.e. 30.04.1977 and was published on 14.05.1977.

4.1. The possession of the acquired land was thereafter taken by the acquiring body/ KUMS on 10.07.1977 and the award was declared by the SLAO, Moradabad under Section 11 of the Act, 1894 on 09.08.1982. The compensation was determined at the rate of Rs.15.75 per square yard. However, some of the tenure holders were dissatisfied with the compensation awarded by the SLAO vide award dated 09.08.1982. Accordingly, one Land Acquisition Reference No.59 of 1983 came to be filed by a tenure-holder namely Moti, who subsequently died and was substituted by his heir Yad Ram. The said Land Acquisition Reference was rejected by order dated 03.02.1989 passed by the learned 1st Additional District Judge, Moradabad. Similarly, other Land Acquisition References filed by tenure holders, namely L.A.R. Nos.65 of 1983, 128 of 1983 and 64 of 1983, were also rejected by the Reference Court vide judgment dated 03.02.1989.

4.2 Thereafter review applications were filed by the landowners/ tenure holders/ claimants in respect of the aforesaid references which had been rejected on 03.02.1989. The said review applications were filed inter alia on the grounds that there was an apparent error on the face of the record and further on the ground that other Land Acquisition Reference Cases being L.A.R. Nos.63 of 1983, 55 of 1983 and 57 of 1983 had been decided on 24.03.1989 whereby the learned Reference Court allowed compensation at the rate of Rs.64/- per square metre. These review applications were registered as Misc. Case No.9 of 1989 (Hori Lal and others vs. KUMS and another), Misc. Case No.10 of 1989 (Yad Ram vs. KUMS and others), Misc. Case No.11 of 1989 (Gulab Singh and others vs. KUMS and others) and Misc. Case No.12 of 1989 (Jagram vs. KUMS and others). The learned 1st Additional District Judge, Moradabad/Reference Court allowed the said review applications vide judgment and order dated 14.03.1990 and enhanced the compensation of the acquired land to Rs.64/- per square metre, along with statutory benefits of 30% solatium and 9% interest.

4.3. Subsequently, the KUMS challenged the awards of the Reference Court granting compensation @ Rs.64/- per square metre by filing various first appeals before this Hon'ble Court. First Appeal No.522 of 1993 (KUMS vs. Khusi Ram and others) was decided on 26.02.2004, whereby the appeal filed by KUMS was allowed and the matter was remanded to the Reference Court for fresh determination of market value. Similarly, other first appeals were also filed, such as First Appeal No.295 of 1990 (KUMS vs. State of U.P. and others) arising out of L.A.R. No.71 of 1983, which was allowed on 05.04.2004, and First Appeal No.193 of 1991 filed against the order dated 14.03.1990 in L.A.R. No.59 of 1983 (Moti through L.Rs. Yad Ram vs. State of U.P.), which too was allowed on 05.04.2004, whereby this Hon'ble High Court remitted the matters to the Reference Court with a direction to re-determine the compensation.

4.4. In compliance of the aforesaid directions of this Hon'ble High Court, the Reference Court re-opened the matters and proceeded afresh. Vide judgment dated 30.01.2016, it decided L.A.R. Nos.60 of 1983 (Ram Prasad vs. State of U.P.), 64 of 1983 (Jagram vs. State of U.P.), 65 of 1983 (Hori Lal vs. State of U.P.) and 58 of 1983 (Jhabban Singh and others vs. State of U.P. and others), awarding compensation at the rate of Rs.108/- per square metre. Subsequently, vide judgment dated 19.09.2017 in L.A.R. No.59 of 1983 (Moti through L.R. Yad Ram vs. State of U.P. and others), similar compensation @ Rs.108/- per square metre was awarded.

4.5. Against the orders of the Reference Court dated 30.01.2016 and 19.09.2017, the KUMS preferred First Appeals before this Hon'ble Court, which were numbered as First Appeal Nos.246 of 2016, 229 of 2016, 233 of 2016, 231 of 2016 and 230 of 2016, and all of which came to be dismissed vide common judgment dated 05.02.2020. First Appeal No.26 of 2018 filed against the order dated 19.09.2017 in L.A.R. No.59 of 1983 was also dismissed on 08.02.2021, following the decision dated 05.02.2020.

4.6 The judgment of this Hon'ble Court dated 05.02.2020 was challenged by the KUMS before the Hon'ble Apex Court by filing Special Leave to Appeal (C) No.8759 of 2020, which too was dismissed by the Hon'ble Apex Court on 26.10.2020.

4.7. Thereafter, claimants/ landowners moved applications before the SLAO, Moradabad on 10.02.2021 for disposal of their applications filed under Section 28-A, notices were issued to the KUMS calling for objections. The KUMS filed detailed objections on 01.11.2021 and 25.11.2021 raising the plea of limitation and maintainability of the application under Section 28-A. Thereafter, the SLAO, Moradabad proceeded to pass the impugned order dated 17.02.2022 allowing the applications under Section 28-A of the Act, 1894, whereby the compensation was re-determined at Rs.108/- per square metre along with statutory benefits, solely relying upon the Reference Court's award dated 19.09.2017 in L.A.R. No.59 of 1983, and thereby enhanced compensation was accorded to the landowners for their acquired land.

4.8. Consequently, the petitioners preferred the leading writ petition for compliance of the aforesaid order dated 17.02.2022. The KUMS has preferred the writ petitions noted above at Serial Nos.2 to 10 for quashing of the impugned order dated 17.02.2022. The writ petitions preferred by the KUMS were dismissed by the writ court vide order dated 12.12.2022 and the leading writ petition was disposed of on 14.03.2023. The said orders were challenged before the Apex Court in Civil Appeal Nos. 12973–12980/2024 and other connected appeals, in which Honble Apex Court has clarified that Section 28A(3) can only be invoked by aggrieved claimants, and not by the acquisition beneficiary. Consequently, the High Court's orders were set aside by the Apex Court by order dated 21.11.2024, and the matters were remitted for fresh consideration on merits, with all issues left open. In light of the order dated 21.11.2024 passed in Civil Appeal No. 12973 of 2024 [@ SLP (CIVIL) NO.9683/2023], a report was placed before the learned Registrar General for restoring the instant matters, whereupon the same have been restored.

4.9. The facts noted above have not been disputed by the parties.

C. SUBMISSIONS:

5. Shri Sudeep Harkauli, learned counsel for the landowners, in support of the leading writ petition, submits that this petition has been filed seeking implementation of the order dated 17.02.2022 passed in eight separate applications under Section 28-A moved by the landowners, wherein it was held that their land had been acquired under the same notification as that of other landowners who were granted enhanced compensation by the Reference Court vide order dated 30.01.2016. Consequently, the landowners were found entitled to compensation at the enhanced rate of Rs.108/- per sq. mtr. along with 30% solatium, 12% additional compensation, and interest at the rate of 9% from the date of possession for the first year and 15% thereafter till actual payment. Despite the lapse of eight months, no payment has been made, although the order has not been challenged before any court. Hence, in the absence of any interim order, the KUMS is duty-bound to comply, and the leading writ petition deserves to be allowed.

5.1. Shri Sudeep Harkauli, learned counsel for the landowners, in opposition of the writ petitions noted at Sl. Nos. 2 to 10 filed by the KUMS, submits that the sole objection raised by the KUMS before the SLAO as well as before this Hon'ble Court is that the applications under Section 28-A were not filed within the statutory period of three months, contending that since the first order of enhancement was passed on 14.03.1990, the applications ought to have been filed within three months thereof. He submits that this objection is wholly misconceived and unsustainable, as the said order was challenged by the KUMS in First Appeal and was set aside by this Hon'ble Court, thereby ceasing to exist and hence cannot be relied upon for computing limitation under Section 28-A. He further submits that the controversy in hand is no more res integra and stands conclusively settled by the Hon'ble Apex Court in Banwari and others v. Haryana State Industrial and Infrastructure Development Corporation Limited (HSIIDC) and another[5], wherein it has been clarified that applications may be filed within three months of any reference order relied upon by the landowners. In the present case, the landowners relied on the order dated 30.01.2016 and filed their applications on 26.04.2016, well within limitation. As no other objection has been raised, it is evident that the connected petitions lack merit and deserve dismissal.

5.2. Lastly, Shri Sudeep Harkauli, learned counsel for the landowners, submits that the landowners have been running from pillar to post since 2016 and despite the order dated 17.02.2022, the respondent–KUMS has failed to accord them the benefit.

6. Shri Suresh C. Dwivedi, learned counsel for the KUMS submits that the impugned order dated 17.02.2022 passed by the SLAO, Moradabad is wholly illegal, arbitrary, and liable to be set aside. It is argued that the claimants accepted the compensation determined in 1982 without protest and did not prefer any reference under Section 18 of the Land Acquisition Act. Even when compensation was enhanced by the Reference Court in 1990, and again in 2016, the claimants did not file any application under Section 28-A of the Act, 1894 within the prescribed period of 90 days. Instead, they remained silent for nearly 27 years and moved an application only on 18.12.2017 after the order dated 19.09.2017. Such a delayed application is clearly barred by limitation and cannot be entertained. The SLAO failed to appreciate this vital aspect and decided the matter mechanically without recording any finding on limitation or considering the KUMS' objections. Furthermore, interest on enhanced compensation cannot be awarded under Section 28-A, as the Collector has no such power. It is settled law that stale claims cannot be revived after inordinate delay, and public authorities cannot be financially burdened for the negligence of the claimants. Hence, the impugned order dated 17.02.2022 deserves to be quashed.

6.1. Shri Devesh Vikaram, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel for the State-respondents supports the arguments advanced by learned counsel for the KUMS.

D. DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS:

7. Having heard the learned counsel for all parties and having perused the record, this Court finds that the present case involves the fundamental question of whether landowners who did not initially file references under Section 18 of the Act, 1894, can seek redetermination of compensation under Section 28-A based on enhanced awards granted to similarly situated landowners under the same acquisition notification. The resolution of this issue requires a careful examination of the statutory provisions, the object and purpose of Section 28-A, and the authoritative pronouncement of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Banwari and others (supra).

7.1. Before delving into the specific contentions raised, it is imperative to understand the legislative intent behind Section 28-A of the Act, 1894. For ready reference, Section 28 of the Act, 1894 is reproduced herein below:

"28. Collector may be directed to pay interest on excess compensation.- If the sum which, in the opinion of the Court, the Collector ought to have awarded as compensation is in excess of the sum which the Collector did award as compensation, the award of the Court may direct that the Collector shall pay interest on such excess at the rate of [nine per centum] [6] per annum from the date on which he took possession of the land to the date of payment of such excess into Court:

[Provided that the award of the Court may also direct that where such excess or any part thereof is paid into Court after the date of expiry of a period of one year from the date on which possession is taken, interest at the rate of fifteen per centum per annum shall be payable from the date of expiry of the said period of one year on the amount of such excess or part thereof which has not been paid into Court before the date of such expiry.] [7]

[28-A. Re-determination of the amount of compensation on the basis of the award of the Court[8] .- (1) Where in an award under this Part, the Court allows to the applicant any amount of compensation in excess of the amount awarded by the Collector under section 11, the persons interested in all the other land covered by the same notification under section 4, sub-section (1) and who are also aggrieved by the award of the Collector may, notwithstanding that they had not made an application to the Collector under section 18, by written application to the Collector within three months from the date of the award of the Court require that the amount of compensation payable to them may be re-determined on the basis of the amount of compensation awarded by the Court:

Provided that in computing the period of three months within which an application to the Collector shall be made under this sub-section, the day on which the award was pronounced and the time requisite for obtaining a copy of the award shall be excluded.

(2) The Collector shall, on receipt of an application under sub-section (1), conduct an inquiry after giving notice to all the persons interested and giving them a reasonable opportunity of being heard, and make an award determining the amount of compensation payable to the applicants.

(3) Any person who has not accepted the award under sub-section (2) may, by written application to the Collector, require that the matter be referred by the Collector for the determination of the Court and the provisions of sections 18 to 28 shall, so far as may be, apply to such reference as they apply to a reference under section 18.]".

7.2. As eloquently observed by the Hon'ble Apex Court in Union of India and another vs. Pradeep Kumari and Others[9] case (which has been reaffirmed in Banwari' case), Section 28-A is a beneficent provision enacted to address the inherent inequality in compensation awards that arose due to the inability of inarticulate and poor landowners to effectively utilize the reference mechanism under Section 18 of the Act, 1894. The Statement of Objects and Reasons reveals that the primary objective underlying Section 28-A is to remove disparity in compensation payments for lands of similar quality and characteristics that fall under the same acquisition notification. This provision recognizes the harsh reality that while some landowners, owing to their resources, awareness, and access to legal counsel, could successfully challenge inadequate compensation awards through references, others - particularly the poor, illiterate, and marginalized sections of society - remained deprived of just compensation despite owning land of identical or similar quality.

7.3. The Hon'ble Apex Court in Banwari and others (supra) has categorically held that Section 28-A being a beneficent legislation must be construed liberally to advance its policy objective of extending benefits rather than adopting a restrictive interpretation that would curtail the relief intended to be provided. This principle of beneficial construction demands that courts should not, through judicial interpretation, read words into the statute that are not present therein, particularly when such reading would restrict the scope and amplitude of the beneficial provision. As observed in Pradeep Kumari (supra) and reiterated in Banwari and others (supra), that "in the matter of construction of a beneficent provision it is not permissible by judicial interpretation to read words which are not there and thereby restrict the scope of the said provision." This fundamental principle must guide our interpretation of Section 28-A in the present case.

7.4. The primary contention raised by the KUMS relates to the question of limitation, arguing that applications under Section 28-A should have been filed within three months of the first enhancement order dated 14.03.1990. This argument is fallacious as it demonstrates a fundamental misunderstanding of both the statutory provision and the judicial precedents. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in Banwari and others (supra) has conclusively settled this controversy by holding that the limitation period under Section 28-A commences from the date of the specific award on the basis of which redetermination is sought, not from the date of any earlier award that may have been subsequently challenged or set aside. The Court observed that "the limitation for moving the application under Section 28-A will begin to run only from the date of the award on the basis of which redetermination of compensation is sought."

7.5. Applying the principles laid down in Banwari and others (supra) to the facts of the present case, it is undisputed that all the lands in question were acquired under the same notification dated 30.04.1977. This satisfies the fundamental requirement that the person seeking benefit under Section 28-A must be interested in land covered by the same notification as that of the landowner who obtained enhanced compensation. The Reference Court vide judgment dated 30.01.2016 awarded enhanced compensation at Rs.108/- per square metre to similarly situated landowners. This award was upheld by this Court and subsequently by the Hon'ble Apex Court, attaining finality. The landowners filed their applications under Section 28-A on 26.04.2016, well within three months of the Reference Court's judgment dated 30.01.2016. This satisfies the limitation requirement as interpreted in Banwari and others (supra). Additionally, the landowners had not filed any reference under Section 18, which is a prerequisite for invoking Section 28-A.

7.6. The KUMS' argument that limitation should be computed from date of the order dated 14.03.1990 is legally untenable for multiple reasons. First, the order dated 14.03.1990 was successfully challenged by the KUMS itself in First Appeals, which were allowed by this Court, thereby setting aside the said order. An order that has been judicially annulled cannot serve as the foundation for computing limitation for subsequent proceedings. Second, as clarified in Banwari and others (supra), the cause of action for a Section 28-A application arises from the specific award on which the applicant relies for redetermination. In the present case, the landowners specifically relied upon the award of the year 2016, not any order of the year 1990. Third, accepting the KUMS' argument would lead to the absurd situation where landowners would be required to file applications based on awards that were subsequently set aside, rendering the entire exercise futile.

7.7. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in Pradeep Kumari (approved in Banwari and others) has addressed scenarios similar to the present case where multiple awards are rendered at different times. The Hon’ble Apex Court held that persons entitled to apply under Section 28-A are not restricted to relying only on the earliest award but can invoke the provision based on any subsequent award that grants higher compensation, provided the application is filed within three months of such award. This interpretation serves the beneficial purpose of the legislation by ensuring that landowners are not penalized for circumstances beyond their control, such as becoming aware of enhancement awards at different times or relying on awards that provide better compensation.

7.8. The KUMS' contention that these are "stale claims" after 27 years is misconceived. The concept of stale claims typically applies to situations where parties sleep over their rights for unreasonably long periods without justifiable cause. However, in the present case, the landowners could not have filed applications under Section 28-A until a valid, final award granting enhancement was available. The 1990 award was challenged and set aside, making it impossible to rely upon. The landowners promptly filed their applications within three months of the 2016 award, demonstrating diligence rather than negligence. The delay, if any, was occasioned by the prolonged litigation initiated by the KUMS itself, and it would be inequitable to penalize landowners for delays caused by the acquiring body's own actions.

7.9. The argument that public authorities should not bear financial burden due to negligence of landowners/claimants is misplaced in the present context. Section 28-A was enacted precisely to address situations where landowners, due to various constraints, could not initially challenge inadequate compensation. The legislative intent is clear - to ensure that all landowners under the same acquisition receive equitable compensation regardless of their initial ability to pursue legal remedies. Moreover, as observed in Banwari and others (supra), the provision serves the inarticulate and poor, who form a significant portion of landowners affected by acquisitions. Denying them the benefit of enhanced compensation would perpetuate the very inequality that Section 28-A was designed to eliminate.

7.10. Regarding the KUMS' objection to the award of interest, it is well-settled that when compensation is enhanced under Section 28-A, the landowner becomes entitled to statutory benefits including interest as prescribed under the Act, 1894. The SLAO's power to redetermine compensation necessarily includes the authority to grant consequential benefits that flow from such redetermination. The KUMS' allegation that the SLAO decided the matter "mechanically" is unfounded. A perusal of the impugned order dated 17.02.2022 reveals that the SLAO carefully considered the applications, issued notices to all concerned parties, heard their objections, and applied the correct legal principles. The decision to grant enhanced compensation based on the Reference Court's award was legally sound and well-reasoned.

7.11. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in Banwari and others (supra) has comprehensively addressed and resolved the apparent conflict between the judgments in Union of India v. Pradeep Kumari and Others (supra) and Ramsingbhai (Ramsangbhai) Jerambhai v. State of Gujarat and another[10]. The Hon'ble Apex Court observed that both cases were decided by Benches of equal strength comprising three learned Judges, with Pradeep Kumari being rendered on 10th March 1995 and Ramsingbhai on 24th April 2018. However, upon careful analysis, the Court noted that the Ramsingbhai judgment failed to take note of the earlier view taken by the three-Judge Bench in Pradeep Kumari, making it a case decided per incuriam. The Apex Court emphasized that Pradeep Kumari, being earlier in point of time and having elaborately considered the relevant statutory provisions of Section 28-A of the Act, 1894, along with its Statement of Objects and Reasons and principles of beneficial interpretation, would constitute the binding precedent. In contrast, the Ramsingbhai (supra) judgment was characterized as a "short judgment" that merely referred to the text of Section 28-A(1) without the comprehensive analysis undertaken in Pradeep Kumari (supra).

7.12. Relying on the Constitution Bench decision in National Insurance Company Limited v. Pranay Sethi and others[11], the Hon'ble Apex Court reiterated that an earlier decision of a co-equal Bench binds subsequent Benches of the same strength, and a judgment can be considered per incuriam when it cannot be reconciled with a previously pronounced judgment of a co-equal Bench. Consequently, the Apex Court held that Pradeep Kumari (supra), having undertaken elaborate consideration of the beneficent nature of Section 28-A and its interpretative principles, remains the correct legal position, while Ramsingbhai (supra), not having considered this precedent, cannot be treated as laying down the accurate legal principle.

7.13. The Hon'ble Apex Court in another Constitution Bench judgment of Union of India vs. Hansoli Devi[12], has also definitively clarified the scope and application of Section 28-A of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, particularly addressing two fundamental questions that had generated considerable litigation across various High Courts. The Hon'ble Apex Court has categorically held that when a landowner's application seeking reference under Section 18 is dismissed on grounds of delay or other technical reasons, such dismissal amounts to "not filing an application" within the meaning of Section 28-A, thereby preserving the landowner's right to seek benefits under this beneficial provision.

7.14. The Hon'ble Apex Court emphasized that the expression "did not make an application" should be interpreted as "did not make an effective application" that was entertained and resulted in a substantive reference being answered, noting that a time-barred application that does not fructify into any meaningful reference cannot be considered an effective application. Furthermore, the Apex Court has unequivocally ruled that accepting compensation from the Land Acquisition Collector, whether with or without protest, does not disqualify a person from being considered "aggrieved" under Section 28-A, observing that imposing such additional conditions would amount to denying substantial rights not contemplated by the Legislature itself.

7.15. The Apex Court's interpretation ensures that the beneficial nature of Section 28-A is preserved in its true spirit, allowing eligible landowners to seek re-determination of compensation based on enhanced awards obtained by others in similar circumstances, while maintaining the legislative intent of providing relief to those who had not initially sought reference but subsequently became aware of higher compensation awards granted to similarly situated landowners.

7.16. The principles laid down in Hansoli Devi (supra) also support the case of the petitioners in the present matter. In fact, the case of the landowners herein stands on an even stronger footing than that of Hansoli Devi (supra), where the landowner had indeed made an application under Section 18 of the Act, 1894, which was dismissed on the ground of delay and laches, but the Hon'ble Apex Court held that such application was not an "effective application" and, considering the beneficial nature of Section 28-A, granted relief. However, in the instant case, the landowners never made any application under Section 18 of the Act, 1894, which makes their position squarely within the protective scope of Section 28-A as interpreted by the Hon'ble Apex Court.

7.17. Beyond the strict legal interpretation, the case also involves fundamental principles of equity and natural justice. It would be manifestly unjust to deny the landowners enhanced compensation when their lands were acquired under the same notification, at the same time, and for the same public purpose as those who received higher compensation. The doctrine of equal treatment demands that similarly situated persons should receive similar compensation for similar lands. The record reveals that all procedural requirements have been meticulously followed. The landowners filed proper applications, notices were issued to all parties, objections were heard, and a reasoned decision was rendered. The SLAO's order dated 17.02.2022 demonstrates due application of mind and correct appreciation of legal principles.

7.18. While the KUMS raises concerns about financial implications, it must be remembered that compensation for land acquisition is not a gratuitous payment but a constitutional obligation under Article 31 of the Constitution of India. The State's duty to provide just compensation is not diminished by financial considerations. Moreover, Section 28-A serves the larger public policy of ensuring equitable treatment of all landowners affected by acquisition. The fact that the Hon'ble Apex Court in Civil Appeal No. 12973 of 2024 remanded the matter for fresh consideration on merits, with all issues left open, provides this Court with the opportunity to examine the case in light of the settled legal position in Banwari and others (supra). The remand order clarifies that Section 28-A(3) can only be invoked by aggrieved claimants, not by acquisition beneficiaries, further supporting the landowners' case.

7.19. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in Banwari and others (supra) has laid down specific conditions which are required to be satisfied for invoking the provisions of Section 28-A(1) of the Act, 1894. In the present case, all these conditions are satisfied comprehensively. These conditions are as follows:

"(i) An award has been made by the Court under Part III of the Act after coming into force of Section 28-A;

(ii) By the said Award, the amount of compensation in excess of the amount awarded by the Collector under Section 11 has been allowed to the applicant in that reference;

(iii) The person moving the application under Section 28-A is interested in other land covered by the same notification under Section 4(1) to which the said award relates;

(iv) The person moving the application did not move the application under Section 18;

(v) The application is moved within three months from the date of the award on the basis of which redetermination of amount of compensation is sought; and

(vi) Only one such application can be moved under Section 28-A for redetermination of the compensation by the applicant."

7.20. The Hon'ble Apex Court in Banwari and others (supra) has emphasized that the object underlying the enactment of Section 28-A of the Act, 1894 is to remove inequality in the payment of compensation for same or similar quality of land arising on account of inarticulate and poor people not being able to take advantage of the right of reference to the civil court under Section 18 of the Act, 1894. The Hon'ble Apex Court observed that this is sought to be achieved by providing an opportunity to all aggrieved parties whose land is covered by the same notification to seek redetermination once any of them has obtained orders for payment of higher compensation from the Reference Court under Section 18 of the Act, 1894. While construing the provisions of such a legislation, the Court should adopt a construction which advances the policy of the legislation to extend the benefit rather than a construction which has the effect of curtailing the benefit conferred by it.

7.21. The Hon'ble Apex Court has further elaborated that it has to be seen from the point of view of inarticulate and poor people who cannot be expected to keep track of all the references that were pending in court on the date of coming into force of Section 28-A and may not be in a position to know, in time, about enhancement awards. Such persons would be deprived of the benefit extended by Section 28-A if a restrictive interpretation is adopted. Such a construction would result in perpetuating the inequality in the payment of compensation which the legislature wanted to remove by enacting Section 28-A. The object underlying Section 28-A would be better achieved by giving the expression "an award" in Section 28-A its natural meaning as meaning the award that is made by the court in Part III of the Act, 1894 after the coming into force of Section 28-A.

7.22. The beneficent nature of Section 28-A of the Act, 1894 and the imperative of ensuring equal treatment to similarly situated landowners has also been reinforced by the Hon'ble Apex Court in Narendra and others vs. State of U.P. and others[13], wherein the Apex Court emphasized that the spirit underlying Section 28-A mandates that all landowners whose lands are acquired under the same notification should receive fair and equal compensation, regardless of technical limitations in their initial claims. The Hon'ble Apex Court observed that once a particular rate of compensation is judicially determined as fair compensation, the benefit thereof should be extended even to those who could not approach the court or who may have initially claimed lesser compensation due to poverty or other constraints. The Court categorically held that "once such a fair compensation is determined judicially, all land owners whose land was taken away by the same Notification should become the beneficiary thereof. Not only it is an aspect of good governance, failing to do so would also amount to discrimination by giving different treatment to the persons though identically situated." The Apex Court further emphasized that in matters of compulsory acquisition, landowners are not willing parties and are compelled to surrender their land for public purpose, making it imperative that they receive just and fair compensation without being penalized for technical deficiencies or their inability to claim higher amounts initially. This principle of distributive justice and equal treatment forms the very foundation upon which Section 28-A operates, ensuring that the economically disadvantaged and inarticulate sections of society are not deprived of their rightful compensation merely due to procedural constraints or lack of legal awareness.

E. CONCLUSION:

8. Based on the comprehensive analysis of the legal issues, statutory provisions, and authoritative precedents, this Court arrives at the following conclusions:

(a) Section 28-A of the Act, 1894 is a beneficent provision that must be interpreted liberally to achieve its object of removing inequality in compensation awards.

(b) The limitation period for filing applications under Section 28-A commences from the date of the award on which the applicant relies for redetermination, not from any earlier award.

(c) The landowners' applications filed on 26.04.2016 were well within the prescribed limitation period of three months from the Reference Court's award dated 30.01.2016.

(d) The SLAO's order dated 17.02.2022 granting enhanced compensation at Rs.108/- per square metre along with statutory benefits is legally sound and deserves implementation.

(e) The KUMS' objections regarding limitation and maintainability lack merit and are contrary to established legal principles.

F. FINAL ORDERS/ DIRECTIONS:-

9. In light of the above findings, this Court hereby:

(i) ALLOWS the leading writ petition (WRIT-C No. 35876 of 2022) filed by the landowners.

(ii) DISMISSES the writ petitions (Serial Nos. 2 to 10) filed by the Krishi Utpadan Mandi Samiti (KUMS).

(iii) DIRECTS the KUMS to immediately comply with the order dated 17.02.2022 passed by the SLAO, Moradabad and deposit the enhanced compensation amount along with statutory benefits within six weeks from today.

(iv) DIRECTS that in case of non-compliance within the stipulated period, the amount shall carry interest at 12% per annum from the date of default until actual payment.

(v) DECLARES that the landowners are entitled to enhanced compensation at Rs.108/- per square metre along with 30% solatium, 12% additional compensation, and interest at the prescribed rates as determined by the SLAO.

10. Before parting, this Court notes with concern the prolonged litigation that has denied the landowners their rightful compensation for over four decades. The wheels of justice, though they grind slowly, must ultimately ensure that justice is not only done but is seen to be done. The beneficial legislation like Section 28-A exists precisely to protect the rights of those who, due to various constraints, cannot initially assert their claims through formal legal processes.

10.1. The judgment in Banwari and others (supra) serves as a beacon for courts dealing with similar issues, emphasizing that technical objections cannot be allowed to defeat the substantive rights of landowners, particularly when such objections arise from the very parties who initially challenged and delayed the compensation determination process.

10.2. Finally, this Court expresses the hope that the authorities will implement this order in letter and spirit, ensuring that the landowners receive their due compensation without further delay or harassment. The compensation awarded is not a largesse but a legal entitlement that has been long overdue.

11. The writ petitions are disposed of accordingly. No order as to costs.

Issue for Consideration

Whether, in view of the final judgment of the High Court dated 07.11.1969 quashing the revised notice dated 04.10.1963, the ceiling authorities could have proceeded contrary thereto by issuing fresh notices, registering fresh ceiling cases and declaring land transferred prior to 24.01.1971 as surplus, ignoring binding judicial findings, revenue records, consolidation proceedings, limitation under Section 31 of the Act, and principles governing jurisdiction and natural justice.

Headnotes

Ceiling proceedings under the U.P. Imposition of Ceiling on Land Holdings Act, 1960 – First notice dated 21.08.1962 did not include the land which was sold and transferred up to 1961 through registered sale deeds – Prescribed Authority, vide order dated 04.10.1963, directed preparation of a fresh notice which included the land which had been transferred – Said notice challenged in Writ Petition No. 4772 of 1963, which was allowed on 07.11.1969 – High Court held that if a statement has been prepared on the basis of revenue records, that statement should be taken to be correct and that the Prescribed Authority had no jurisdiction to issue a fresh notice – Order dated 04.10.1963 quashed – Judgment attained finality – Findings recorded therein binding on the State – Ceiling authorities could not have proceeded contrary thereto or taken any steps for any reassessment – Ceiling authorities could not have made any enquiry into the sale deeds executed prior to 24.01.1971 – Land transferred prior to the cut-off date could not have been included in any fresh notice — Findings of Consolidation Officer dated 09.02.1983 confirming transfers and revenue records after participation of Naib Tehsildar (Ceiling) – Such findings constituted documentary evidence relating to transfers prior to 24.01.1971 – Proceedings under the Consolidation of Holdings Act, even if by virtue of Section 38-B they do not operate as res judicata, yet they do not lose their evidentiary value – Repeated notices issued – Proceedings initiated against dead persons – Ex parte orders passed without notice – Registration of fresh ceiling cases during pendency of earlier proceedings – An exercise contrary to law – Limitation under Section 31(2) not noticed — Burden wrongly shifted upon petitioner – Findings regarding benami transfers and mutation held perverse — Non-consideration of affidavits and relevant material – Binding effect of earlier judgments and evidence omitted to be considered – Prescribed Authority acted beyond jurisdiction — Impugned orders dated 19.07.1993, 31.03.1995 and appellate order dated 14.10.2003 quashed — Ceiling Case No. 48/18 and Ceiling Case No. 45 annulled . (Paras 73–123)

HELD:

Proceedings were initiated against the petitioner under the U.P. Imposition of Ceiling on Land Holdings Act and an order dated 04.10.1963 was passed by the Prescribed Authority against the father of the petitioner. Father of the petitioner filed Writ Petition No. 4772 of 1963, which was finally allowed vide judgment and order dated 07.11.1969 and the order dated 04.10.1963 passed by the Prescribed Authority was set aside, and he was directed to decide the objections filed by the father of the petitioner on the statement prepared in CLH Form-3. Ceiling authorities and their officials, being bound by the said findings and the judgment of the High Court, could not have proceeded contrary thereto or taken any steps for reassessment or for initiating any proceedings in respect of the land. Neither could the Prescribed Authority have issued any fresh notice in respect of the said land nor could any examination of the facts relating to the sale deeds executed prior to 24.01.1971 have been undertaken by them after the amending Act came into force. The land which stood transferred prior to 24.01.1971 could not have been made the basis for any fresh notice. Prescribed Authority acted beyond jurisdiction in declaring the land of village Pipra as surplus and illegally included the same in the holding of the original tenure holder and the petitioner by instituting fresh Ceiling Case No. 45 by the impugned order dated 19.07.1993. Consequently, the impugned orders of the Prescribed Authority dated 19.07.1993 and 31.03.1995, as well as the impugned order passed by the Appellate Authority dated 14.10.2003, were quashed and the proceedings of Ceiling Case No. 48/18 and Ceiling Case No. 45 were annulled.

Writ Petition allowed. (E-5)

1. Heard Sri G.K. Singh, learned Senior Counsel assisted by Sri Sankalp Narain, learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri Vijay Shankar Prasad, learned counsel for the State-respondents and the counsel for the applicant who moved an application for impleadment. .

2. The present petition has been filed by the petitioner as a result of proceedings under the UP Imposition of Ceiling on Land Holdings Act, 1960 whereby Land treated to be the holding of the petitioner has been declared surplus under the impugned orders passed by the prescribed authority dated 19.07.1993 (Annexure 16, pg 191) and 31.03.1995 (Annexure 13, pg 128) as well as the impugned appellate order dated 14.10.2003 (Annexure 15, pg 172).

3. The challenge raised is broadly on the ground that the impugned orders overlook the impact of the earlier judgments of the High Court dated 07.11.1969 (Annexure 1, pg 40) and 21.08.1997 (Annexure 14, pg 166) as well as relevant and material evidence which proves the fact of a substantial area of the land having been transferred much prior to the cut-off date of 24.01.1971 that were bonafide transactions as well as the orders passed by the Revenue / Consolidation Authorities evidencing and confirming the transactions which establish that the ceiling authorities have erroneously proceeded to issue notices that were invalid and had also been held as such in the Judgement of the High Court dated 07.11.1969. The Impugned Orders have therefore been questioned contending that they are in teeth of the Judgment and orders that have intervened as well as suffer from perversity on account of non-consideration of relevant material evidence or ignoring the impact thereof. Other submissions oral and written have also been raised that shall be dealt with in detail hereinafter.

4. At the very outset, learned counsel for the Petitioner argued that one of the issues relating to the transfer of a substantial area of land by the Original Tenure Holder through registered sale deed for consideration had taken place in 1961 or even before that and the first ceiling notice that was issued to the tenure holder 21.08.1962 (Annexure SA-1, pg 12) did not include the land which had already been sold and transferred was all prior to the issuance of the ceiling notice.

5. Objections to the said notice had also been filed by the tenure holder and in between some rank outsider gave an application before the prescribed authority on 17.11.1962 informing the prescribed authority to also include the land that had been transferred by the original tenure holder who was the petitioner's late father. The Prescribed authority entertained the said application and called upon the Naib Tehsildar to prepare a fresh notice that was served on the Original Tenure Holder and which included the land which has been transferred.

6. This amended / revised Notice pursuant to the Order of Prescribed Authority dated 4.10.1963 were both challenged by the Original Tenure Holder in Civil Writ Petition No. 4772/1963 wherein further proceedings were initially stayed and the writ petition was ultimately allowed on 07.11.1969 (Annexure 1, pg 40) by the High Court.

7. Learned counsel for the petitioner argued that a perusal of the said judgement would leave no room for doubt that the issuance of the Notice by the Prescribed Authority impugned in the writ petition was without jurisdiction as it had been initiated at the instance of a person who had no locus in the matter. The High Court further called upon the State to explain by filing a supplementary counter affidavit as to the nature of the land as to whether it was a grove or not on the relevant date. The State failed to file any counter affidavit to that effect as desired but the affidavit which was brought on record on behalf of the State was disbelieved as it was based on personal knowledge. It was accordingly held that the revenue records reflected the correct position and therefore, the notice initially issued to the Original Tenure Holder where the said lands had not been included, was correctly prepared.

8. It was argued that under the original ceiling act of 1960 under section 6(1), grove land was totally exempt and could not be subjected to inclusion for ceiling purposes in the holding of a Tenure Holder. The judgment dated 7.11.69 therefore, acknowledged the revenue records to that effect and to that extent it was held that prescribed authority had no jurisdiction to issue a fresh notice on the basis of alleged revised statement. The order of the prescribed authority dated 04.10.1963 initiating the fresh notice was held to be without jurisdiction and was accordingly quashed and directions were issued to dispose of the objections filed by the Original Tenure Holder on the basis of the original CLH Form 3.

9. It was next argued that the fresh notice seems to have been issued on 12-11-1974 and further notices had been issued in the name of one Rani Jagdiswari Kunwari who had died more than two decades ago. The notices relating to the land that was proposed surplus in the holding of Rani Jagdiswari Kunwari was not served on the Original Tenure Holder Bisheshwar Pratap Sahi and his two brothers Khagendra Pratap Sahi and Novendra Pratap Sahi and without affording any opportunity of hearing an order was passed by the prescribed authority on 13.03.1975, 25.03.1975 and 29.03.1975. All three orders of the prescribed authority were challenged in appeal before the Ld. Second Additional District Judge in Ceiling Appeal No. 478, 479 and 480 of 1975. Appeal No. 478/1975 was allowed on 09.07.1979 (Annexure 2, pg 48) holding that notice could not have been sent to a dead person and without affording any opportunity to Original Tenure Holder, the matter could not have proceeded and accordingly all the orders were set aside remanding the matter back for recalculating the share of each of the brothers in the said holding. The other two appeals being Appeal Nos. 479 and 480/1975 were allowed in terms of Appeal No. 478/1975.

10. Mr. Singh counsel for the Petitioner has drawn the attention of this Court to the effect that consolidation process had set commenced under the U.P. Consolidation of Land Holdings Act, 1960 and a large number of objections by third parties were filed in respect of the holdings of village Pipra by Individuals claiming that the revenue entries reflected their title and possession over the respective plots as against the recorded tenure holders in possession who were the transferees of the Petitioner's late father, the Original Tenure Holder. As noted above the transfers had been made in favour of the purchasers between 1959 and 1961 However, in all these proceedings objections had been filed in relation to some of the land in Village Pipra that stood recorded in the name of the Original Tenure Holder, the Petitioner's late father and his two brothers as well as over the holdings that stood recorded in the name of the transferees of the original tenure holder. Accordingly, the Original Tenure Holder namely the Petitioner's late father was arrayed as a Party and all the objections filed by those third parties were consolidated and heard by the Consolidation Officer exercising jurisdiction under section 9(a)(2) under UP CH Act, 1953. The aforesaid decision of the Consolidation Officer deciding the objections on 09.02.1983 (Annexure 8, pg 80) was filed before the prescribed authority and has also been filed in this Petition as evidence. The decision disposed of the objections in relation to the entire land of village Pipra transferred between 1959 and 1961 by the Original Tenure Holder and was contested before the Consolidation Officer. The claim of the objectors was rejected on the ground that they had relied on extracts of revenue records which were fake and forged and further the entries in the relevant khataunis beginning from 1359 Fasli had been tampered and interpolated.

11. While dealing with the evidence and the facts relating to the revenue entries in the recorded tenure holders it was also noted that the Tenure Holders alleged that the land had been sold by the erstwhile proprietors. The references to the orders passed by Revenue Authorities by the Objectors were found to be fake and their endorsement were held to be forged thereby maintaining the entries in favour of the recorded tenure holders which included the transferees from the Petitioner's late Father between 1959 and 1961.

12. During the proceedings, it was recorded by the Consolidation Officer that the Naib Tehsildar (Ceiling) had also filed a response in these proceedings and then findings were recorded evidencing the fact of the quashing of the notice by the High Court through its Judgment dated 07.11.1969 (Annexure 1, pg 40). The Consolidation Officer therefore, also relied on this evidence and reaffirmed the evidence regarding the transfer of the land between 1959 and 1961 through registered sale deeds.

13. To further support its conclusion the Consolidation officer also referred to the photocopies of the sale-deeds that had been filed on behalf of the recorded Tenure Holders that were also verified by the Consolidation Officer and which was further corroborated by the record of rights the certified copies whereof were filed on record and are described in the Land Record Manual as Register Malikan (Annexure SA-2,3,4,5, pg. 22, 24, 26, 28). The relevant khasra of possession was the same as that had been produced before the Celling Authorities and before the High Court in W.P. No. 4772 of 1963 decided on 7.11.69, and therefore its veracity and probative value was confirmed by the consolidation officer.

14. It was also held that the recorded Tenure Holders who were the transferees had participated in the proceedings and were represented and evidence was filed on their behalf and accordingly all the objections filed by the strangers to the land on the basis of fake entries were rejected.

15. It was submitted that the order of the consolidation officer has attained finality as the same had been upheld by the Settlement Officer in appeal vide judgement and order dated 20.06.1989, as stated in paragraph 36 of the writ petition, and was therefore, a valid piece of evidence reckoning and acknowledging the past transactions of transfers of the land in village Pipra that stood confirmed by the corroborative evidence of the revenue entries as well as its culmination in the decision of the High Court dated 07.11.1969.

16. Meanwhile, the Original Tenure Holder, namely, Bisheshwar Pratap Sahi, father of the Petitioner, who had been contesting all the proceedings before died on 09.04.1989.

17. It was then pointed out that a fresh notice had been prepared in the name of the Original Tenure Holder and a fresh CLH Form 3 was also prepared in his name on 23.06.1986. The said notice was never served on the Petitioner's late father and on the basis of an unsubstantiated report of service by the process server, the prescribed authority passed an exparte order on 2.05.1990 (Annexure 3, pg. 52). It was argued that this order simply in three pages proceeds to to declare land surplus without referring to any of these proceedings and orders referred to above. The order was without any notice to the Original Tenure Holder or to his heirs after his death in 1989. There is no proof of service recorded in the order dated 02.05.1990. The order incorrectly recorded that in spite of substitution, and dispatch and service of notice the heirs had not responded and consequently, it was presumed that they had no objections to the notice that was the basis of the proceedings. The said assumptions were wrong and against the facts and consequently the petitioner moved an application on 1990 to set aside the ex-parte order.

18. It has been stated by the petitioner that initially an order of status quo was passed on 27.03.1991 and applications had been moved by the Petitioner pointing out that the proceedings were concluded without complying with the earlier orders and also the objections taken regarding the separation that had taken place between the family members of the Original Tenure Holder but none of these applications were considered Requests were made through applications for continuing the status quo but all these applications were rejected on 14.02.1992 and a direction was issued for enforcement of the exparte order dated 02.05.1990 (Annexure 3, pg 52).

19. Aggrieved against the same the Petitioner filed an Appeal before the Ld. Commissioner, which was allowed on 17.04.1993 (Annexure 4, pg 66) holding that there had been no service of notice by the Prescribed Authority on the Petitioner or the legal heirs and accordingly the exparte order dated 02.05.1990 and order dated 14.02.1992 were set aside. While allowing the appeal the appellate authority categorically directed for issuance of separate notices to the appellants and the others and to give full opportunity to them to file objections and lead evidence. The plea of separation between the family members had been noted by the Appellate Authority while issuing the direction and, therefore, the said objections could not be ignored.

20. The right of the family members to file their objections even if their names-were not entered in the revenue records is further countenanced by the full bench of this Court in Upper Ganges Sugar Mills Ltd. Vs. Civil Judge, Bijnor and Ors. reported in 1969 RD202, wherein in paragraph 38, it has been specifically held that, the fact that even if a tenure holder is not recorded as such in the revenue records it will not be relevant for determining whether he is entitled to file an objection to the statement prepared under Section 10(1) of the Act and issued to another person under Section 10(2) of the Act and the above fact will not disentitle him to file an objection if he is otherwise entitled to do so.

21. It has been mentioned that the notices to the transferees are stated to have been sent earlier in 1991 and 1992 that were returned without service and apparently because they were sent to all the transferees on the same address of the Petitioner's late father at Allahabad. It is contended that this service itself was ridiculous and a mere formality and it is for the said reason that order was passed on 17.04.1993 (Annexure 4, pg 66) setting aside orders dated 02.05.1990 and 14.02.1992 by the Appellate Authority directing service of notice afresh on the petitioner and all others.

22. It is argued that the said order dated 17.04.1993 has not complied with and without referring to the same, the Prescribed Authority in haste proceeded to institute an altogether new ceiling proceedings against the petitioner being Ceiling Case No.45 and the surprising aspect of the matter is that the land which was made the subject matter of the said ceiling case was the same land which the Prescribed Authority had earlier included vide order dated 4.10.1963 to be surplus that was quashed as being without jurisdiction vide judgement and order dated 7.11.1969. In the newly instituted Ceiling Case no.45 the Prescribed Authority in haste, recording the despatch of the previous notices, without issuing any fresh notice, passed an order on 19th July 1993 (Annexure 16. pg 191), which is impugned herein whereby 146.06 acres of land of Village Pipra was declared surplus by assuming that the transferees appear to be benami Tenure Holders. The prescribed authority approved CLH Form 3 as sent by the sub divisional officer to be correct. The order has been passed in undue haste and in clear violation of the principles of natural justice completely overlooking all the objections that had been taken as well as the evidence on record including the order of the High Court dated 07.11.1969 and the evidence corroborating the transfers of the land of village Pipra as discussed in detail in the order of the Consolidation Officer dated 09.02.1983.

23. The order does not refer to any law and as would be evident from the submissions narrated hereinafter and the relevant decisions on the issues relied on by the counsel for the petitioner.

24. The Petitioner filed a recall application contending that the ceiling cases could not be proceeded separately as the original proceedings being proceedings in Celling Case No. 48/18 against the Petitioner's late Father pursuant to the notice dated 21.08.1962 had not been finalised. No order was passed on this recall application as a result whereof an appeal being Appeal. No. 102/53/323/70/D-1993 (Annexure SA-13, pg 63) was filed challenging the said order 19.07.1993 and a stay order was passed on 30.08.1993 (Annexure 9. pg 117) which is to the following effect-

"Heard the learned counsel for the appellant.

D.G.C.R. appeared for State. Let the execution of the P.A. be stayed till further orders. Subject to confirmation by P.O. issue notice. Fix early date. Call for the records. Sd/-

Additional Commissioner (J)

GKP 30.08.1993."

25. During the pendency of the Appeal the petitioner had also moved other applications on 17.02.1995, 28.02.1995 (Annexure 11. pg 121) and 24.03.1995 (Annexure 12, pg 124) before the Prescribed Authority where the recall application was pending, again requesting the Prescribed Authority to consolidate the cases together and proceed with the matter after notice to all the tenure holders and after verifying the correct statement under CLH Form 3. The applications dated 17.02.1995 and 28.02.1995 were rejected by the Prescribed Authority on 28.02.1995 (Annexure 10, pg 119) and application dated 24.03.1995 was rejected on 31.03.1995 (Annexure 13, pg 127) by the Prescribed Authority who disposed off all other objections by rejecting them.

26. Three appeals were filed by the Petitioner. Appeal No. 34/P-1995 against the order dated 28.02.1995 in reference to the applications dated 17.02 1995 and 28.02.1995. Appeal No. 113/31/49/P-1995 was filed against the order dated 24.03.1995 that were interlocutory orders referred to hereinabove and Appeal No. 103/48/70/N-1995 (Annexure SA-16, pg 97) was filed against the order dated 31.03.1995. These appeals alongwith appeal No. 102/53/323/70/D-1993 that was filed in 1993 against the order of Prescribed Authority dated 19.07.1993 and were pending were consolidated and heard together and was finally disposed of on 7.11.1996 (Annexure SA-15, pg 80).

28. This order of the appellate authority came to be challenged in Writ Petition No. 36434 of 1996 before the High Court which was ultimately allowed vide judgment dated 21.08.1997 (Annexure 14, pg 166) setting aside the order of the Commissioner in appeal and remanding the matter for fresh consideration alongwith the observations made therein. Consequently, the Appeals were restored and were directed to be decided once again by the Appellate Authority, categorically holding that reasonable opportunity had not been given to the petitioner who was seriously prejudiced because of his independent right which he was claiming as a share-holder and it was further observed that the transactions of the sale-deeds that have been effected prior to the relevant date could not be treated as a sham transaction in as much as the burden had been wrongly placed on the Petitioner and it was for the State to have established the same by leading cogent evidence.

29. Learned counsel for the petitioner argued that the Appellate Authority once again has proceeded to decide the appeal vide impugned order dated 14-10-2003 (Annexure 15, Pg. 172) recording the findings that the petitioner is not entitled to any separate share as claimed by him on the basis of his date of birth and further the transfers made in 1961 were in teeth of the 1960 Act that had restrained the transfer from 20.08.1959 onwards. This order it is urged was passed without going through the original records that have been summoned by the Commissioner himself vide letter dated 22-24.07.03 (Annexure 17, pg 196). The matter was heard in the absence of original records and was decided accordingly without perusal of the original record which contained the evidence on which reliance has been placed.

30. It is submitted that the impugned orders suffer from procedural irregularities, non-consideration of the relevant material rendering them perverse and not in conformity with the legal provisions and the law, the principles whereof have been ignored and incorrect findings have been recorded which are inconsistent with the weight of evidence on record.

31. It was vehemently urged that the impact of the first judgment of the High Court dated 07.11.1969 holding that the revised statement had proceeded on an incorrect basis and that the original CLH Form 3 could not have been revised has been completely ignored. The second finding recorded in the Judgment dated 7.11.69 upholding the contention of the Petitioner that the revenue records indicated that the land to be grove has been completely omitted to be considered in all the impugned orders. This omission is vital and seriously prejudicial in as much as the State had been called upon to respond to the said allegation but its failure to do so by simply swearing an affidavit on personal knowledge was categorically rejected and recorded and the conclusion therefore drawn was that the notice at the initial stage in CLH Form 3 had been correctly prepared. The High Court held that the prescribed authority had no jurisdiction to issue a fresh notice. It is, therefore, evident that the Judgment dated 7.11.69 was binding on clear issues of fact relating to the nature of the land and holding the action of the Prescribed Authority to be without jurisdiction in issuing a fresh notice and including the land of village Pipra.

32. It is contended that as per the Ceiling Act as then existed, under section 6(1) grove was totally exempt and in this background there was no legal bar for the transfer of the land that was sold by the Tenure Holder and the registered sale-deeds were executed between 1959 and 1961. The acceptance of the contention of the Ld. Addl. DGC (Revenue) that the transfers have been restricted after 20.08.1959, has, therefore, no substance as the said contention was accepted ignoring the aforesaid aspect of the case and the binding impact of the Judgement dated 7.11.69 that has attained finality.

33. The findings that have been recorded in treating the transfers to be benami, the Appellate Authority has overlooked the fact that a benami transacted property held by a person is one in respect whereof consideration has been provided by some other person as held by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Smt. Shaifali Gupta Vs. Smt. Vidyadevi Gupta and others in SLP (C) No. 4673 of 2023 in paragraph 26, where it has been specifically defined as to what would constitute a benami transaction. To prove the same, no evidence has been led to that effect except an allegation that in spite of registered notices having been sent the purchasers did not appear before the Prescribed Authority. This finding on notice of the transferees as contended is perverse in as much as it is evident that all the notices were dispatched to the transferees at the address of the original tenure holder i.e. the late deceased father of the Petitioner at his residence at Allahabad. It is argued that there is no material to establish nor any evidence was led by the State that the address of the transferees was in the city of Allahabad as reported by the Revenue Officials and placed on record before the Prescribed Authority. The Appellate Authority has completely ignored this aspect and has based its findings only on the strength of the order of the Prescribed Authority and without perusing the records or summoning them even though the Appellate Authority itself had sent a letter on 22 / 24.07.2003.

34. The conclusion of the Appellate Authority that there is clarity in the order of the Prescribed Authority on this aspect is absolutely misplaced and contrary to the facts and evidence on record.

35. In this regard it is argued that what is further noticeable are the findings on the evidence relating to the transactions as recorded by the Consolidation Officer in the order dated 09.02.83: The Appellate authority has held that the Order dated 9.02.83 is a decision after the cut-off date under the Ceiling Act, which is 24.01.1971 and has discarded the impact of the order as it was delivered after 24.01.71.

36. It was vehemently contested by the learned counsel for the petitioner that the Appellate Authority has ignored the fact that the dispute raised before the Consolidation Officer were objections filed on the basis of revenue entries relating to 1359 fasli (1952) and 1367 fasli (1960). The objectors had attempted to get these revenue entries (record of rights) interpolated and manipulated and on that basis had produced revenue extracts claiming that they were in possession and therefore, the settlement record should be corrected in their favour and their objections should be allowed. petitioner's late father was also a party to the said proceedings and after contest all objections were rejected with findings relating to the evidence and the transfers that were all prior 24.01.71. The order of the Consolidation Officer, therefore, related to pre-existing facts and evidence prior to 1971. The evidence and the facts relating to the transfer were crystallised in the Judgment of the Consolidation Officer that became final after having entertained the affidavit of Naib Tehsildar (Ceiling) and noticing the judgment of the High Court dated 7.11.69. Consequently, neither the judgment of the High Court dated 7.11.69 could be ignored nor the entire evidence corroborating the status of the transferees, supported by the revenue records and the entire material that was discussed by the Consolidation Officer could have been ignored. Non consideration of this vital evidence which are all related to the period prior to 24.01.71 was prejudicial to the petitioner. Therefore, merely because the Consolidation Officer had decided the issues in 1983 the same did not in any way dissolve or dilute the pre-existing evidence or even the judgement of the High Court dated 7.11.69. By omitting to consider the same the Appellate Authority as well as the Prescribed Authority in the impugned orders have arrived at conclusions which are perverse for non-consideration of relevant material available on record. A Judicial review of such orders on the ground of perversity is clearly permissible in view of the full bench decision of the this court in the case of Nanha vs. DDC (1975 AWC Pg. 1).

37. The submission of the State that the judgement of the Consolidation Officer cannot be looked into is further not acceptable in view of the fact that the judgement of the Consolidation Officer does not loses its evidentiary value as has been held by this Court in the case of Jhandoo Vs. State of U.P. and others reported in 1977 (3) ALR 418 specifically in paragraphs 9 & 11.

38. This Hon'ble Court has gone on to interpret Section 38-B as added by U.P Amending Act No. 20 of 1976 in Uma Shanker Vs. State of U.P. and others reported in 1980 AWC 487 ALL, wherein the division has held in paragraphs 10, 11 & 13, that has been relied on by the learned counsel and is quoted herein below:

10. Hence Section 38-B does not obliterate all decisions or findings given by courts of law either under the general law or under the Consolidation Act from being given effect to in ceiling proceedings. Section 38-B makes the provisions of the Ceiling Act to have an overriding effect and so the findings which are in conflict or at variance with the provisions of the Ceiling Act will not bar retrial of the involved issues in proceedings under the Ceiling Act. But otherwise the decisions are to be recognized even in proceedings under the Ceiling Act. To this effect is the decision of Gopi Nath, J. in Ramlal v state of Uttar Pradesh MANU/UP/0636/1978 1978 AWC 713. In that case, the question was whether after the coming into force of the Amending Act No.2 of 1975 and Act No.20 of 1976 a re-determination of ceiling area of a tenure holder has to follow as a matter of course in respect of cases decided by the Ceiling Authorities or is it confined to cases affected by amendments incorporated in those Amending Acts. It was held that a fresh notice for re-determination of surplus land was to issue not in all cases but only in such of them as were likely to be affected by amendments.

Section 9 of the Act No.2 of 1975 provided:

Where an order determining the surplus land in relation to a tenure holder has been made under the Principal Act, before the commencement of this Act, the Prescribed Authority may at any time within a period of two years from the commencement of this Act, re-determine the surplus land in accordance with the Principal Act as amended by this Act.

11. The learned Judge rightly pointed out that the re-determination was to be done in so far as it was required for the amendments introduced by the Amending Act of 1975.

13. The learned Judge observed that re-determination was required only when it was necessitated by the amendments made in the Principal Act, notwithstanding the existence of a decision determining the surplus land either by the Prescribed Authority or in appeal the learned judge concluded that the general review of the earlier orders was not intended by the aforesaid provisions permitting re-determination. Only such cases are liable to be reopened which required re-determination in view of the amendments incorporated in the Principal Act. Section 38-B was to be interpreted in the light of these provisions of the Amendment Act by which Section 9 of the Act 2 of 1972 was introduced in the Ceiling Act. Section 38-B facilitated the re-determination directed to be done by Section 9 of Act No.2 of 1975 and Section 31 of Act No.20 of 1976, by specifically providing that the findings or decisions given before October 10, 1975 shall not debar the retrial of the issues governed by the Act as amended."

39. It is argued that the aforesaid law laid down by this Court has again been followed in paragraphs 4 & 5 in the case of Kr. Shiv Mahendra Singh Vs. State of U.P. and others reported in 1982 ALL.L.J. 106.

40. It has been further argued that in the facts of the instant case the State has failed to point out as to whether any findings or decisions of any authorities or a court of law as has been relied upon by the petitioner including the findings of fact recorded in the order of the Consolidation Officer dated 9.2.1983 are contrary to any of the amendments made in the Principal Act which would warrant a retrial of the same, therefore as per the law laid down by this Court in Ram Lal Vs. State of U.P. and others reported in 1978 AWC 713 ALL in paragraphs 19, 20 & 21, the ceiling authorities were not justified in ignoring the decisions rendered by competent courts or authorities in respect of matters which were not affected by the changes made in the Principal Act.

41. It is further pointed out that the State has not denied nor has it controverted the findings returned in the order of the Consolidation Officer or the order itself, therefore the law laid down by the Division Bench of this Court in Rajendra Prasad Vs. State of U.P. and others reported in 1978 AWC 657 ALL in paragraph 10 would also squarely cover the case of the petitioner in as much as the revenue entries made under Section 49 of U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act would be final as the consolidation order has remained unrebutted in the petitioner's case.

42. Apart from the above, as has been argued earlier and has been reiterated that as is evident from the order of the Consolidation Officer dated 9.2.1983 itself. the Naib Tehsildar Ceiling had also participated in the consolidation proceedings, therefore the celling authorities were unjustified in ignoring the findings of fact returned in the order of the Consolidation Officer that too without providing any reason on the basis of any material evidence available on record that the said findings were in any way contrary to the amendments made in the ceiling law or were perverse.

43. There is yet another legal aspect that has been urged which directly answers the issues raised particularly regarding the cut-off date of 24.01.1971 and any transfers made prior to the said date. Reference was made to the Judgment of the Apex Court in the case of Ram Adhar Singh vs. Prescribed Authority and Ors. 1994 (Supp.) (3) SCC Pg. 702.

44. In spite of this judicial pronouncement and the binding effect thereof learned counsel submits that the Appellate Authority as well as the Prescribed Authority have manifestly breached the same and have recorded findings contrary to law by attempting to enter into the status of the sale-deed that have been executed long before the cut-off date of 24.01.71.

45. It has been then urged that a perusal of the orders impugned it becomes clear that instead of disproving the veracity of the sale deeds the State has tried to shift its burden upon the petitioner requiring him to prove the same. The said action on the part of the ceiling authorities is contrary to the mandate of this Court in Mukhtar Singh Vs. The 2nd Additional District Judge Bulandshahar and others reported in 1982 ALL.L.J. 1453 wherein this Court in paragraph 8 has specifically held that a sale deed must prevail according to its apparent tenor and the burden of proving that the ostensible is not the actual state of affairs is on the person who alleges that proposition. Even otherwise as urged earlier the petitioner has proved the veracity of the sale deeds on the basis of unrebutted facts including the revenue records and findings of facts returned in the order of Consolidation Officer dated 9.2.1983. The copies of the Register Malikaan have been pointed out that have been filed alongwith the supplementary affidavit.

46. The aforesaid mandate further finds support from paragraph 10 of an earlier decision of this Court in Vishwa Nath Singh Vs. State of U.P. and others reported in 1978 ALL.L.J. 1085.

47. The categorical findings of the High Court in its order dated 7.11.69 have been clearly pleaded in paragraphs 10 and 11 of the Writ Petition.

48. The Counter Affidavit filed on behalf of the State in paragraphs 9 and 10 does not rebut the same.

49. It is therefore contended that there is no question raised by the State about the legality of the order dated 7.11. 69, that has been become final. The State, therefore, is clearly bound by the said judgment and these aspects seem to have been neither construed in accordance with law nor their legal impact has is no question raised by the State about been assessed that renders the impugned orders invalid deserving to be quashed.

50. It has been argued that the proceedings were conducted in violation of principles of natural justice in the manner in which the revised notices were prepared and reissued that have been done without verifying the correct status of the holding of the Petitioner or the Original Tenure Holder and as a matter of fact the State in its anxiety to somehow the other declare land surplus has thrown over-board all procedures as held in the Judgment dated 7.11.69 and then subsequently by the Appellate Authority in the previous round of proceedings in the order dated 17.04.93. Not only this in spite of the remand of the matter by the High Court once again vide Judgment dated 21.08.97, the Appellate Authority has completely omitted to consider that the burden lay on the State to prove the transfer transactions to be benami. This discharge of burden by the State was attempted only by explaining of service of notice and the absence of response by the transferees without indicating as to how the transfers were benami. The sending of notices has already been indicated above to be a farcical exercise as it was dispatched to the residential address of the Original Tenure Holder in Allahabad City. This was therefore, not sufficient to discharge the burden of proving a benami transaction for which no evidence was led. To the contrary, the Petitioner had furnished all the material regarding the revenue records and the entries made therein, the fact of the transfer made and other related documents discussed above, on record as well as through the Judgment of the High Court dated 7.11.69 and the order of the Consolidation Officer dated 9.02.1983. The contention of the State therefore, was fully rebutted by leading evidence by the Petitioner which could not be dislodged by the State by leading any evidence to the contrary. The presumptive value of the said evidence including judgement of the High Court and that of the Consolidation Officer remained unrebutted. In the said background there was no reason much less a good reason for the Appellate and the Prescribed Authority to have decided the matter which has been done in a perfunctory manner and accordingly they deserve to be quashed.

51. It is then argued that the petitioner had set up a separate claim with regard to an additional share on the ground that he was born prior to the abolition of zamindari and therefore, a separate unit to the extent provided under the Act should be earmarked in his favour. This argument has also been noticed by the High Court in its judgement 21.08.97 regarding the share of a person born before the abolition of zamindari in land which was sir or khudkast. This Court has further held in Vishwa Nath Singh Vs. State of U.P. and others (supra) in paragraph 12. that a son born before 1.7 1952 has a right and a share in sir and khudkast plots and it is not relevant whether his name was entered in the revenue records of the disputed plot or not or whether he was in actual possession over his share in the plots or not.

52. Furthermore it is urged that the findings in the impugned order is also contrary to the judgement and order dated 9.7.1979 passed by the 2nd Additional District Judge, wherein it was held that the holding of Smt. Jagdishwari Kunwari would be included in the holdings of her heirs qua their respective shares, who were the petitioner's late father i.e. the original tenure holder as well as the petitioner's two uncles namely Late Khagendra Pratap Sahi and Novendra Pratap Sahi and it is the same holding which has devolved upon the petitioner, therefore there can be no doubt or dispute regarding the land to be ancestral sir and khudkast. Even otherwise relevant pleadings regarding the same have been made in paragraphs 37 & 39 of the writ petition which has been dealt with in paragraph 25 of the counter affidavit, wherein there is no specific denial regarding the same nor has the State produced any evidence or material available on record to rebut the said averments.

53. There was no evidence on record regarding the petitioner having passed graduation or having a post graduate degree. The Appellate Authority concluded that the petitioner ought to have submitted his high school certificate and having not done so a presumption was drawn that he was not bom before the abolition of zamindari. The date of birth of the Petitioner was proved by evidence to be January 17, 1951, which is prior to the date of vesting of zamindari, i.e., 01.07.1952. The State had not adduced any evidence and yet assumptions were drawn by the Appellate Authorities. This has been specifically challenged in the paragraph 37 of the Writ Petition. The same has been denied in paragraph 25 but without any proof or evidence to confirm the finding recorded by the Appellate Authorities. On the other hand, the Petitioner had filed evidence supported by the Affidavit of one Mr. Adya Prasad Dubey and the affidavit of his late mother Smt. Manorama Devi supporting that the date of birth of the petitioner was 17.1.1951. Even though, the Appellate Authority has in the operative part of the order indicated that this claim can be made by the Petitioner before the prescribed authority but has recorded contrary findings presuming the educational qualification of the petitioner as graduate and master of arts that too without there being any basis. The Petitioner's assertion in para 37 has been met with a bald denial by the state in the counter affidavit. On the other hand, the affidavit of the mother of the petitioner has not been disbelieved nor can it be discarded inasmuch as a mother's evidence is the best piece of evidence. The affidavit of the mother dated 28.08.2003 has also been filed but the Appellate Authority has only mentioned the affidavit of Mr. Adya Prasad Dubey. The Appellate Authority has, therefore, ignored the affidavit of the mother. It is relevant to point out that the averment about the affidavit having been filed of the mother dated 28.08.2003 has been categorically stated on oath in para 36 of the writ petition which has been replied to in the counter affidavit by the State in para 24 wherein there is no denial to the same.

54. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in its judgement between State of Chattisgarh Vs. Lekh Ram reported in (2006) 5 SCC 736 has emphasized upon the importance of the corroboratory evidence of the statement of a mother. The petitioner has made categorical averments in paragraph 36 of the writ petition regarding the documents and material evidences filed by him to prove his date of birth which has not been rebutted by the State in paragraph 28 of the counter affidavit on the basis of any material evidence available on record and a mere bald denial has been made in the said paragraph by the State. The ceiling authorities while passing the impugned orders have also been unable to dislodge the veracity and validity of the Voter I.D. submitted by the petitioner before them, therefore in the absence of the same the findings regarding the date of birth of the petitioner returned in the impugned order are of no consequence.

55. Even, the filing of the affidavit of the mother and Mr. Adya Prasad Dubey which was filed on 15.09.2003, has not been rebutted in the counter affidavit. The petitioner in his memo of appeal had clearly raised an issue of the separate share of the family members under a family settlement dated 17.08.1969 whereby the Petitioner's brother and his sister and mother were in possession of the plots allotted to them in the said family settlement. This Issue has been completely ignored even though it has been taken as ground no. 14 & 15 of the memo of appeal that has been filed alongwith with the supplementary affidavit on record. Thus, these issues have also been either considered erroneously or have been omitted to be considered as such the impugned orders are invalid. Furthermore, this fact has been asserted in para 51 of the writ petition to which there is a bald denial in para 31 and there is no other denial in any of the other paragraphs of the counter affidavit. All the facts have once again been reiterated by the Petitioner in his rejoinder coupled with the supplementary Affidavits filed on record.

56. It may be reiterated that the Appellate Authority as noted above in the operative part has observed that in the event the Petitioner provides an affidavit that he has no other land he may be extended the benefit of 2 hectares of land over and above 18.04 acres of the land admissible under the Act. Once the operative part admits the entitlement of additional 2 hectares to the Petitioner over and above the ceiling limit then the findings recorded in the main order becomes inconsistent and for this reason also the impugned orders deserve to be set aside.

57. As pointed out above the impugned appellate order dated 14.10.2003 admits the entitlement of additional two hectares to the petitioner over and above the celing limit, however the appellate authority has not extended the same benefit of Section 5(3)(a) of the Act to the other family members of the petitioner. The pleadings in that regard have been taken in paragraph 38 of the writ petition which has again been met with a bald denial by the State in paragraph 25 of the counter affidavit which shows that in absence of any categorical and specific denial of the same the ceiling authorities were bound to consider the said plea of the petitioner.

58. In view of the above discussion and in the absence of any specific denial by the state in its counter affidavit on the basis of any cogent evidence it becomes amply clear that the plea of the petitioner regarding his date of birth to be 17-01-1951 and his entitlement of an independent and individual share is liable to be accepted.

59. It has also been pointed out that similar proceedings had been initiated by the Authorities displaying flagrant violation of procedure and ignoring material evidence in the case of the brother of the Original Tenure Holder late Khagendra Pratap Sahi, who during the same period had suffered from the same faulty process and it refers to the same orders passed in 1975 as in the present case. In that petition the order of the Prescribed Authority and the order in appeal dated 19.07.93 and 27.03.1997 respectively had been challenged. The High Court allowed the writ petition no. 12723 of 1997 vide order dated 27.02.2013 (Annexure SA-1, Pg. 10) and came down heavily on the State commenting that the impugned orders have been passed in a manner which deserves to be deprecated strongly.

60. From the facts discussed hereinabove yet another glaring fact comes to light that the impugned orders passed by the ceiling authorities is nothing but sheer arbitrariness in as much as undisputedly the initial ceiling case initiated against the petitioner and against the original tenure holder i.e. his late father was Ceiling Case no. 48/18 and again in between 1990 to 1993 another Ceiling Case was instituted against the petitioner which was Ceiling Case No. 45. It is no more res integra that two separate ceiling cases against the same tenure holder cannot be proceeded with by the ceiling authorities. The continuance of two separate ceiling cases being Ceiling Case No. 48/18 and Ceiling Case No.45 are also admitted to the State which is also evident from the orders impugned.

61. As noted above under identical and almost similar circumstances and by a similar order dated 19.7.1993 a fresh ceiling case was instituted against the petitioner's late uncle namely Khagendra Pratap Sahi, who was also a co-tenure holder and the said order was challenged by him in Writ-C No. 12723 of 1997, the judgement whereof has been recorded herein above. This court in its judgement dated 27.2.2013 depreciated the action of the ceiling. authorities and altogether quashed the new proceedings initiated against the petitioner's late uncle Khagendra Pratap Sahi. In the instant case also the fresh ceiling case being Ceiling Case No. 45 could not have been instituted nor could it have continued against the petitioner in view of the aforesaid judgement as well as the fact that the land which was the subject matter of Ceiling Case No.45 had earlier also been included in the ceiling notice by holding it to be surplus by the Prescribed Authority vide order dated 4.10.1963 which was held to be without jurisdiction vide judgement and order dated 7.11.1969 in Writ Petition No. 4772 of 1963. Thus the new ceiling case being Ceiling Case No.45 was against the directions issued in the judgement dated 7.11.1969 as well as contrary to the settled principles of law.

62. The aforesaid fact was specifically pleaded in paragraph 3 of the memo of appeal against the order dated 19.7.1993 and in paragraphs 34 & 35 of the memo of appeal against the order dated 31.3.1995 which are part of the record as Annexures SA-13 and SA-16 to the supplementary affidavit, however the impugned orders have failed to record any cogent reasoning to dislodge the same.

63. A similar attempt has been made by the Prescribed Authority as well as by the Appellate Authority while passing the impugned orders whereby they have illegally included the land of one Krishna Murti Singh in the holdings of the petitioner and his late father while determining the land of the petitioner and his late father to be surplus. The authorities while passing the impugned orders have failed to take into consideration the import and the impact of the Judgement and order passed by the Additional Commissioner (Administration) dated 13-10-1995 (Annexure SA-14, Pg 70) in ceiling appeals no. 34/46/P-1995 and 52/71/P-1995 between Krishna Murti Singh and the State of U.P. wherein it was categorically held that plot nos. 12,13,15,17,18 and 20 pertaining to village Tandwa does not belong to petitioner's late father or his uncle Novendra Pratap Sahi and a further direction was issued by the appellate authority to exclude the said land from land declared as surplus of the petitioner's late father and uncle. Therefore, on this count also the impugned orders are liable to be quashed.

64. It is, therefore, evident that the authorities of the State have proceeded in a manner which is not only unjust but is also illegal and the proceedings deserves to be quashed.

65. The submission of the petitioner that abadi land has also been included in the notice under Section 10(2) of the Act by showing it to be irrigated land and furthermore that there were constructions and houses standing thereon of different persons even prior to the Act which were liable to be exempted under Section 6-F of the Act has been categorically made in paragraph 50 of the writ petition which has again been met with a vague and a bald denial by the State paragraph 31 of its counter affidavit, therefore it is evident that ceiling authorities have either altogether ignored the said submissions or they have not considered the said pleas of the petitioner in accordance with Section 6 of the Act, therefore the said plea of the petitioner has to be decided afresh by taking into consideration the exemptions provided under Section 6 of the Act.

66. Arguments have been advanced with regard to the status of possession pending the proceedings before the prescribed authority after the appeal was allowed on 17.04.93 setting aside the order dated 02.05.1990 After the appeal had been allowed and the matter had been remanded, orders with regard to stay had also been passed after the Prescribed Authority had decided the matter on 19.07.93. An interim stay was granted on 30.08.93 and in between the prescribed authority had passed orders that have been referred to hereinabove as such in order to protect the possession of the land writ petition No. 15960/1995 was filed which was disposed of with observations on 07.06.1995. A photocopy of the certified copy of the order has been annexed alongwith the written submissions filed by the petitioner.

67. It has been pointed out that the matter was being contested by the Petitioner and prior to the passing of the impugned appellate order dated 14.10.2003, the previous appellate order had been quashed by the High Court on 21.08.97 It is relevant to notice that when the said writ petition 36434/1996 was filed, an interim order was passed on 14.11.1996, which is quoted hereinbelow:-

"The notice on behalf of respondents have been accepted by Ld. Standing Counsel. He prays for and is granted one month time to file counter affidavit. Rejoinder Affidavit may be filed within two weeks thereafter. List for admission on 28.01.1997.

The Petitioner shall not be evicted from the land in dispute and the land shall not be allotted to any one provided the petitioner deposits a sum of Rs.25,000/- with Respondent No. 4 within 3 weeks from today. The amount so deposited shall be subject to the decision of the Writ Petition.

Sd/-(Sudhir Narain) 14.11.96"

68. Thus, there were interim orders which were operating and even after the passing of the impugned Appellate Order challenged in the present writ petition an interim order was passed on 22 10.2003, which is quoted hereinbelow:-

"Issue Notice.

Until further orders of the court, dispossession of the petitioner from the land in dispute shall remain. stayed.

Sd/-(R.P. Misra. J.)

Dt:22.10.2003"

69. In view of the aforesaid facts it is urged that the petitioner as well as the transferees were in actual and physical possession of the plots in view of the various interim orders passed by the authorities as well as by the High Court.

70. Responding to the aforesaid submissions, the learned standing counsel has argued that the proceedings initiated and the orders passed are in accordance with law and consequently after having considered the entire material on record the Appellate Authority has in compliance of the judgment dated 21.08.1997 proceeded to determine the issues in accordance with law and therefore the findings recorded on all the issues do not suffer from any factual or legal infirmity. The learned standing counsel invited the attention of the court to the contents of the counter affidavit and has urged that the contentions advanced on behalf of the petitioner have no merit and the WP deserves to be dismissed. He has supported the findings recorded by the Prescribed Authority as well as the Appellate Authority contending that the previous judgment and orders in the proceedings have no binding effect and are no impediments for a decision on the basis of the notices issued to the Tenure Holder and to the petitioner and consequently the contention raised are untenable in the eyes of law.

71. Learned counsel for the allottees have asserted their rights claiming possession and as is evident from the impleadment application they claim allotment pursuant to the order dated 19.07.93 passed by the Prescribed authority. They have thus only asserted rights of possession on the strength of the facts stated in the impleadment application regarding consequential allotments on the strength of the impugned order of the Prescribed authority dated 19.07.93. The allottees have not contested the present petition on it's merit and have fairly accepted that they only have any right in case the State suceeds.

72. Heard the learned Counsel for the petitioner, learned Standing Counsel for the State as well as all the learned Counsel who have appeared for the subsequent allottees.

73. Having heard learned Counsel for the parties and having perused the records as well as the relevant documents, the pleadings including the counter affidavit of the State and the supplementary affidavits filed on behalf of the Petitioner, the challenge raised in the present proceedings has its genesis in the proceedings that were initiated against the original tenure holder under the 1960 Act. The first notice that was issued on 21.08.1962 is on record as Annexure 1 to the supplementary affidavit. The said notice did not include the land which stood sold and transferred up to

1961. These transfers had been made by the original tenure holder through registered sale deeds and the names of all transferees were accordingly recorded and the revenue records were maintained as per the same. Objections to the said notice had been filed by the tenure holder but in between some rank outsider moved an application for including the said land which has been transferred relating to village Pipra, Tehsil Padrauna then District Deoria (now Kushinagar) and the prescribed authority issued directions for preparation of a fresh notice under his order dated 04.10.1963. This fresh notice was prepared in CLH form 3 of the Ceiling act 1960 which was challenged by the tenure holder contending that the land which had already been sold and transferred through registered sale deeds could not be included in the notice and therefore the notice was bad and without jurisdiction. This gave rise to Writ Petition No.4772 of 1963 filed by the tenure holder (Petitioner's late father) where an interim order was passed and then the Writ Petition was finally allowed after exchange of affidavits on 07.11.1969. The impact of the said order has a direct bearing on the contentions raised and it is therefore essential to reproduce the same and is quoted hereinbelow:-

"The petitioner has come up to this court against this order which is Annexure-6 to the writ petition. It has been contended before me by the learned counsel for the petitioner that the Prescribed Authority had no jurisdiction to allow the fresh notice to be issued with a revised statement to the petitioner. It has been stated by the learned counsel that the Naib Tehsildar Ceiling prayed that a fresh copy of the revised statement in Form CLH 3 be sent along with the notice to the petitioner to show cause why the revised statements be not taken as correct. According to the learned counsel Form CLH 3 is form prescribed under rule 7 of the rules framed under the Act 7 runs thus:

Soon after the issue of general notice in CLH Form 1, the Prescribed Authority shall, after making necessary inquiries, cause to be prepared a statement in C.L.H Form 3.

In proposing the ceiling area applicable to a tenure holder in Part C of CLH Form 3, the Prescribed Authority shall have regard to the following:

As far as possible, land carrying a superior class of soil or tenure or being under cultivation or specialized valuable crops, such as pan, Keora, Bela, Chamela or Gulab, etc. should be included in the proposed ceiling area.As far as possible sub-division of holdings should be avoided by including in the first instance share of the tenure holder in joint holdings in the proposed ceiling area applicable to the tenure holder.

The ceiling area proposed to be given to the tenure holder should be as compact as possible.

Under Sub-section (2) of Section 10 of the Act, this form prepared under sub-section (1) is to be sent along with the notice in CLH Form 4. According to the learned counsel there is no provision for having the statement prepared under sub-section (1) of Section 10 in CLH Form 3 after the objection had already been filed and on failure of the tenure-holder to dispute the correctness of the statement the statement can be treated as final and on that basis ceiling area applicable to the tenure holder and the surplus land shall be determined. Where the statement prepared is in dispute the Prescribed Authority shall determine the surplus land of the tenure holder. From a reading of Annexure-5 it appears that the Naib Tehsildar took objection that the land specified in the application has wrongly been shown as grove or to have been sold before 20th August 1959, and has been shown as exempted land in the statement. According to the Naib Tehsildar the land should have been included in the tenure holder's land holding and should have been accounted for at the time of determining the surplus area as it was neither a grove on the spot nor was sold on or before 20th August, 1959. According to the learned counsel the statement prepared in CLH Form 3 is based on the revenue records prepared by the revenue department and it was not possible for Prescribed Authority to revise such a statement and issue a revised notice and call for the petitioner to the file objection against the same. To me it appears that the objection taken in this writ petition on behalf of the petitioner is well founded. If a statement has been prepared on the basis of revenue records that statement should be taken to be correct. During the hearing of this writ petition I directed the learned Standing Counsel, appearing for the State, to file a supplementary counter affidavit to show on basis of the revenue record whether the land said to be grove was or was not a grove on the 1st day of May 1959. No supplementary counter affidavit has been filed on the basis of record. Of course supplementary counter affidavit has been filed, but that has been filed on personal knowledge of the person swearing the affidavit. It means that the revenue record speaks things otherwise than contained in the supplementary counter affidavit. The statements, therefore, appear to have been correctly prepared at the initial stage in CLH Form 3 and the Prescribed Authority in my opinion had no jurisdiction to issue a fresh notice on the basis of the alleged revised statement. The order dated 4th October, 1963 based on the application of the Naib Tehsidar Ceiling and that of Gauri Shanker Sahi who has no lacus standi to put in appearance in these proceedings is an order passed without jurisdiction and there is an apparent mistake in passing such an order passed by the Prescribed Authority. In my opinion the order should be quashed:

I allow the writ petition, quash the order dated 4.10.1963, passed by the Prescribed Authority, Padrauna, and direct that the objections filed by the petitioner on the statement prepared in CLH Form 3 be disposed of according to law. I make no order as to costs.

Sd/-C.D. Parekh

Dated: November 7, 1969"

74. A perusal of the said judgment of the High Court clearly indicates that it investigated the contention regarding the nature of the land that was claimed by the Petitioner to have been recorded as grove and recorded as such in the relevant revenue record khasra that was relied on by the Petitioner.

75. As contended by the tenure holder, the land under the said Act which was reflected as a grove in the revenue was exempt and therefore the ceiling statement was examined to which the Naib Tehsildar had taken an objection that it was wrongly shown as a grove and therefore it should have been included in the tenure holder's land. The State therefore was justifying the issuance of the second revised notice contending that the land was not a grove on the spot nor had it been sold prior to 20.08.1959. The tenure holder took a stand that the original CLH form 3 was based on revenue records and the prescribed authority could not have revised the same on the basis of some personal knowledge about the nature of the land. The land therefore could have been transferred and was bonafidely transferred. As is evident from a perusal of the judgment the challenge /objection taken by the tenure holder was held to be well founded and it was categorically recorded that if the statement had been prepared on the basis of revenue records then it has to be taken as correct. However, the High Court in order to satisfy itself seems to have issued a direction to the State Counsel to file a supplementary counter affidavit explaining the status of the land as to whether it was grove or not on the first day of May 1959. The supplementary affidavit was not filed on the basis of any revenue record and to the contrary an affidavit was filed based on personal knowledge. The High Court therefore took exception to the same and categorically held that the revenue records reflected otherwise than the supplementary counter affidavit filed by the State, and then went on to hold that the ceiling statement prepared at the initial stage in CLH form 3, which was obviously issued on 21.08.1962, had been correctly prepared and the prescribed authority had no jurisdiction to issue a fresh notice which was the notice under challenge dated 04.10.1963 that was held to be without jurisdiction. Accordingly, the initiation of issuance of a fresh notice on 04.10.1963 was held to be without jurisdiction on the basis of the aforesaid findings and the Writ Petition was allowed and the order and notice dated 04.10.1963 was quashed. Directions were issued that the objections filed by the tenure holder/Petitioner on the basis of the original statement prepared in CLH form 3 be disposed of according to law.

76. The said judgment of the High Court became final that has been categorically averred with a copy of the judgment filed on record as Annexure 1 to this Writ Petition with a reference to the same in paragraph 10 with recitals in paragraph 11 of the Writ Petition. The counter affidavit in the present writ Petition filed by the State states in paragraph 9 and 10 as follows:

"9. That the contents of paragraph no. 10 and 11 of the writ petition are related to the order dated 07.11.1969 passed by the Hon'ble High Court in writ petition No. 4772 of 1963 Sri Vishshwar Pratap Shahi Vs. State of U.P. and others, hence need no comments.

10. That the contents of paragraph no. 12, 13 and 14 of the writ petition need no comments."

77. A combined reading of the said paragraphs leaves no room for doubt that the judgment of the High Court dated 07.11.1969 has been admitted in the counter affidavit as a matter of record and needed no comments. In my considered opinion, the finality of the said judgment not having been disputed, the correctness thereof and the findings recorded therein are clearly binding on the State. The ceiling authorities and its officials therefore being bound by that finding and the judgment of the High Court could not have proceeded contrary to the same or to take any steps for any reassessment for initiating any proceedings of the land as the notice

04.10.1963 itself had been quashed by the High Court after recording findings as indicated above.

78. At this juncture it is appropriate to refer to the status of the transfers. Even otherwise the amended provisions of the Ceiling Act came up for consideration before the Apex Court in the case of Ramdhar Singh Vs. Prescribed Authorities & Ors 1994 Supp 3 SCC 702. In that case, the challenge raised was to a transfer made on 22.04.1969 through a registered sale deed by the tenure holder in favour of his son. The said land was sought to be included in the holding and the sale deed dated 22.04.1969 was put to test wherein the ceiling authorities took the view that the sale deed was not genuine for want of consideration as it was a transaction between father and the son. The Apex Court went on to hold that the ceiling authorities could not have made any enquiry into the sale deeds executed prior to 24.01.1971. The relevant portion of the said judgment reversing the judgment of the High Court and the ceiling authorities is quoted hereinbelow:

"The existence of the sale deed being not disputed and it having taken place, as said before, on February 24, 1969, prior to the appointed day that is January 24, 1971, the inquiry regarding the validity of the sale deed under sub-section (6) of Section 5 was totally misplaced. Thereunder, as it appears to us, the appropriate authority had no jurisdiction to be put the validity of the sale deed to test since his jurisdiction arose only when the deed of transfer had been effected on or after the appointed day. Not only the first and the appellate authority under the Act persisted in that view, but the High Court too proceeded on that basis. The effort of the appellant to have it declared that the authorities had no jurisdiction to invalidate the sale under sub-section (6) of Section 5 when read with Explanation II to sub-section (1) of Section 5 also was a futile attempt because the High Court followed the path, as did the authorities under the Act, and rejected the writ petition. We are of the view that this was a wholly erroneous approach. Sub-section (6) of Section 5 did not confer jurisdiction on the authorities to determine the validity of the sale and if that is so any finding of theirs as to the contents of the sale is of no assistance. In the result the appeal must succeed. Accordingly, allowing the same we set aside all the orders of the authorities below as also that of the High Court. No costs."

79. A perusal of the same would indicate that such an action was held to be erroneous as the authorities were held to have no jurisdiction to determine the validity of the sale and the appeal was accordingly allowed.

80. This needs to be emphasised that the issuance of the revised notice in the present case was quashed by the High Court which had included the land that had been transferred through sale deeds as indicated above including the land that was transferred in Village Pipra. It is, therefore, evident that there was no determination of any surplus land in the present case by the Authorities prior to 24.01.1971 as the revised notice had been quashed by the High Court on 7.11.69. The Ceiling Act came to be amended with the introduction of new provisions and under the amended act the cut-off date was 24.01.1971 as a result whereof transfers before this cut-off date were held to be beyond scrutiny in the case of Ramadhar Singh (supra).

Consequently, the land which stood transferred by the Tenure Holder prior to the said date could not have been included in any fresh notice.

81. Thus, neither the Prescribed Authority could have issued any fresh notice in respect of the said land as per the binding effect of the High Court judgment nor otherwise any examination of the facts relating to the sale deeds executed prior to 24.01.1971 could have been undertaken by them after the amending act came into force and fresh proceedings were initiated giving rise to the present proceedings.

82. Thus, the land that stood transferred prior to 24.01.1971 could not be made the basis for any fresh notice in any manner whatsoever.

83. There is yet another valid reason for the same which is the evidence relating to the said facts of the transfers and the status of the land confirming the holding to be of the transferees that was thoroughly examined in the settlement proceedings of the U.P. Consolidation of Land Holdings Act 1954 as recorded in the order of the consolidation officer dated 09.02.1983. The said fact has been brought on record and the contentions in this regard have been raised in detail Indicating that some land of the original tenure holder and the land which had already been transferred under the sale deeds was made subject matter of a large number of objections filed by third parties on the basis of fake and manipulated revenue entries and fake orders of revenue authorities. These objections were filed in respect of the same land against the tenure holder (the Petitioner's father herein) as well as against his transferees about whom reference has been made hereinabove. The said objections were contested and during the contest the Naib Tehsildar Ceiling was also made to participate along with the revenue records to verify the correctness and the status of the revenue entries relating to the land in Pipra. The Consolidation officer who tried all the objections in terms of the UP CH Act 1954 recorded findings relating to the same pre-existing facts of transfer effected prior to 24.01.1971 and the revenue records indicating the title of the transferees and confirmed the same. A perusal of the findings recorded therein are, therefore, an evidence relating to the facts and status of the land that stood transferred and recorded prior to 24.01.1971, and the said order dated 09.02.1983 that was passed with the participation of the Naib Tehsildar Ceiling and also taking notice of the judgment of the High Court dated 07.11.1969, became final. Some of the objectors had also preferred an appeal against the said order but the same were dismissed and this fact has also been noticed in the orders passed by the Appellate Authority. The evidence to this effect was filed before the Appellate Authority being the order of the Settlement Officer Consolidation Padrauna dated 20.06.1989. This has been stated in paragraph 36 of the writ petition to which there is no denial on facts in paragraph 24 of the counter affidavit. Thus, the order of the Consolidation Officer is a documentary evidence in relation to the facts as indicated above pertaining to the transfers prior to 24.01.1971.

84. The High Court in the case of Jhandoo Vs. State of UP & Ors. 1977 AWC 318-1977 (3) ALR 418 while considering the impact of Section 38-B as brought by way of an Amendment in 1976 in the Ceiling Act examined this issue in the context of reduction in land during Consolidation proceedings under the UP

CH Act 1954 and its impact on ceiling proceedings. The question posed by the High Court in paragraph 5 is as follows:

"5. The answer to the problem raised in the petition shall depend on the question whether order passed by the Consolidation Courts is final regarding the area held by the Petitioner. And the date for determination of ceiling area is 8-6-1973 or the date when the objection is decided."

85. The State took a stand that the finality of any orders passed in terms of Section 38-6 of the Ceiling Act is taken away and therefore the order passed in consolidation proceedings after coming into force of the said provisions will have no binding effect as a combined reading of Section 31 read with Section 38-B lift the bar of the conclusiveness of any judgment. The issue was discussed in detail by the High Court and the finding recorded and the conclusion drawn is quoted hereinbelow:-

"6. The learned Standing Counsel has relied on Section 38B of the Act, added by Act 20 of 1976 and has urged that finality of any order passed by any Court except the ceiling Court has been taken away. And, therefore, the order passed in consolidation proceedings did not have the force of res judicata. He maintains that a combined reading of Section 31 and its various sub-clauses read with Section 38-B leaves no room for doubt that Section 31 permits reopening of all matters decided earlier, by ceiling authorities and Section 38B lifts the bar of conclusiveness of any judgment, finding or issue given by any Court, tribunal or authority.

7. Sri Verma on the other hand severely criticised the enactment of this section. According to him, the Legislature instead of accepting the interpretation put by the Supreme Court in Agricultural and Industrial Syndicate Ltd. v. State of U.P. MANU/SC/0350/1973: AIR 1974 SC 1920 came out in its usual haste, with an amendment which, if the interpretation of Standing Counsel is accepted, creates a situation of uncertainty and chaos. He argued that such legislations do not only obscure the objective for which the Act was enacted but also bring untold misery and hardship to the agriculturist class who are all the time living on a state of uncertainty. According to him these retrospective enactments are against the spirit of the Act and are responsible for huge arrears in law Courts and denial of justice.

8. Sri Yudhishthir has however, rightly pointed out that these are matters of policy with which this Court is not concerned.

Section 388 of the Act reads as follows.

No finding or decision given before the commencement of this section in any proceedings or on any issue (including any order, decree or judgment) by any Court, tribunal or authority in respect of any matter governed by this Act, shall bar retrial of such proceeding or issue under this Act, in accordance with the provisions of this Act as amended, from time to time.

9. If the interpretation, as suggested by the Standing Counsel is accepted it may create anomaly. The present case demonstrates it in full measure. The total area held by the Petitioner on 8-6-1973, the date after which a tenure holder cannot hold any land in excess of ceiling area, was more than the celling area fixed by the Act. But as a result of the findings recorded by the consolidation Courts the area has been reduced to such an extent that nothing remains to be declared as surplus land. The finding recorded by the Consolidation Courts is binding on the Petitioner. He cannot agitate or challenge in any competent civil or revenue court and urge that the area which has been reduced as a result of consolidation is incorrect and the original area should be restored to him. The effect of Section 38B on the one hand shall to be destroy the finality of an order passed under the Consolidation of Holdings Act for purposes of determination of ceiling area yet the order remains binding on the Petitioner under Section 49 of the Consolidation of Holdings Act. Such an anomaly could not have been intended by the Legislature. The argument, therefore, that any finding of issue recorded by any Court can be reopened does not appear to be sound. As pointed out in Civil Misc. Writ No. 734 of 1977 decided on 18-5-1977, it is the finding recorded in a ceiling case decided before October, 1975 that shall not operate as res-judicata."

86. A perusal of the said judgment would demonstrate that finality of proceedings were judged on a comparison of the provisions of Section 38-B and the binding effect of the orders of the consolidation courts under Section 49 of the Consolidation of Holdings Act 1954. The argument of the State that the finding of issue recorded by any court can be reopened, was rejected.

87. In the present case, the findings recorded by the Consolidation Officer is in relation to those facts of the transfer and status of revenue records that related to the period prior to 24.01.1971. The transfer of land by the tenure holder prior to 24.01.1971 stood reduced from his holdings and was not therefore rightly included in the original ceiling notice dated 21.08.1962. Consequently, the order of Consolidation authority could not have been ignored to the extent of discarding its evidentiary value. It remains an order by a competent authority with regard to the facts of transfer prior to 24.01.1971. It has to be remembered that the Consolidation Officer did not create any new rights of the tenure holder or the transferees under the order dated 09.02.1983 but held that all objections to the holdings on the basis of fake and manipulated documents deserved to be rejected, and accepted the evidence of transfer through sale deeds and revenue entries in favour of the tenure holder as well as the transferees to be correct.

88. Apart from this, the order of the Consolidation Officer did not record any finding contrary to the provisions of the amended Ceiling Act for the purpose of the reopening of the case under Section 38-B. It only acknowledged and confirmed the status of revenue records as well the transfers already affected and maintained the settlements of the tenure holder and the transfers.

89. The High Court in the judgment of Jhandoo Vs. State of U.P. & Ors. in paragraph 11 categorically held that the proceedings under The Consolidation of Holdings Act, even if by virtue of Section 38-B do not operate as res judicata, yet it does not lose its evidentiary value. Learned counsel for the petitioner has also relied on Paragraphs 19, 20 and 21 of the decisions in the case of Ramlal Vs. State of UP 1978 AWC 713 and Paragraph 10 of Rajendra

Prasad Vs. State of UP & Ors. 1978 AWC 657.

90. Having held as above, proceeding further, there are yet other intervening facts which need to be noticed. Fresh notices were issue in 1974 on 12.11.1974 to the tenure holder (father of the petitioner). Another notice emanated in the name of the deceased predecessor in interest of the tenure holder late Rani Jagdishwari Kunwari, who had died more than two decades ago proposing some more land as surplus. These notices related to the land where the two brothers of the tenure holder had also an interest relating to their respective shares. The said notice was against a dead person and the prescribed authority proceeded to pass three orders on 13.03.1975, 25.03.1975 and 29.03.1975 which were all ex-parte and without notice to the heirs of the aforesaid deceased tenure holder. All these three orders were challenged by the petitioner's father and his two brothers in Ceiling Appeal No.478, 479 and 480 of 1975 before the learned Second Additional District Judge. All the three appeals were allowed on 09.07.1979 holding that the notice had been issued in the name of a dead person and the proceedings have been finalised without affording any opportunity to the existing tenure holders. A copy of the judgment by the learned Second Additional District Judge in Appeal No. 478/1975 against the order dated 13.03.1975 has been filed on record where it was held that the proceedings could not have been undertaken against a dead person and without affording opportunity to the Appellant and his brothers. The same judgment was followed in Appeal Nos. 479 and 480 challenging the orders of the prescribed authority dated 25.03.1975 and 29.03.1975 and the appeals were accordingly, allowed. This fact has been categorically stated in paragraph 14 of the writ petition that has been replied to in paragraph 10 of the counter affidavit of the State that it needs no comments. Paragraph 10 of the counter affidavit is quoted hereinbelow:

"10. That the contents of paragraph no. 12, 13 and 14 of the writ petition need no comments"

91. The aforesaid fact therefore stands confirmed that the ceiling authorities in addition to the earlier notices had adopted a fresh notice for instituting a fresh case that was also set aside and in my opinion could not have been initiated as a tenure holder has to be given a consolidated notice and separate proceedings are not contemplated under the Ceiling Act. The learned standing counsel could not explain as to how a fresh notice was issued and in this regard a similar finding was arrived at by the High Court in the case of the deceased Tenure Holder's brother in Writ Petition No. 12723/1997 decided on 27.02.2013, the judgment whereof has been brought on record through a supplement affidavit. The same issue was raised and answered by this Court in para 21 of the Judgment which is extracted hereinunder:-

"21. When this Court enquired from the learned Standing Counsel as to how a new case could have been registered in 1988-89 when the earlier matters were already pending, he could not reply at all."

92. In the present case also the proceedings arising out of Celling Case No. 48/18 was pending and a fresh case was registered being Ceiling Case No 45. No answer was forthcoming on this legal aspect either from the learned standing counsel or even from the learned counsel for the allottees. Neither, the Prescribed Authority nor the Appellate Authority have been able to justify the registration of the fresh case and had failed to accept this contention of the petitioner that has been raised before them as has been noted hereinabove.

93. In this background and with the aforesaid facts what appears is that a fresh notice was prepared without complying with the aforesaid judgment of the learned Second Additional District Judge on 23.06.1986. The said fact has been clearly pleaded in paragraph 15 of the writ petition as follows:

"15. That the judgement of the District Judge was never complied with in its essence and the notices were not prepared accordingly and it is alleged that fresh CLH Form-3 were prepared in the name of the petitioner's late father on 23 June, 1986."

94. Even though the same in the counter affidavit is stated to be not admitted but to the contrary as appears on record, the notices were issued but without service on the tenure holder, the prescribed authority proceeded with the matter. The tenure holder (petitioner's father) died on 08.04.1989. No notice had been served on him nor is there any evidence in rebuttal to that effect.

95. Not only this, in spite of substitution of the heirs of the tenure holder, no notices were served on them. The prescribed authority presuming service of notice on the petitioner and his brother proceeded to pass a cryptic two-page order on 02.05.1990 declaring surplus land without looking to the records or the entire preceding events, judgments and orders referred to hereinabove. The petitioner, pointing out these facts and the entire background of the litigation, moved an application for recall of the said order wherein initially an order of status quo was passed on 27.03.1991. Applications were moved by the petitioner also for compliance of the earlier orders and also to take notice of objections regarding the separation of the family of the petitioner as well as other objections but all the applications were cursorily rejected on 14.02.1992 and instead an order was passed reaffirming the order dated 02.05.1990 and to proceed accordingly. What is noticeable is that the prescribed authority also made an attempt allegedly sending notice to the transferees of the tenure holder with regard to which facts have already been noted hereinabove. This was attempted by sending a consolidated notice to the transferees and a report of the Lekhpal dated 09.02.1991 indicates that a majority of the notices were dispatched on only one address, 11 Kariappa Road Allahabad, which was the address of the residence of the tenure holder and not the transferees. This fact has been categorically stated in paragraph 23 of the writ petition and in paragraph 16 of the counter affidavit, the state has simply narrated that these facts relate to the issuance of notice as per law to the transferees. A perusal of the said report, which has been brought on record as Annexure 5 demonstrates that this dispatch of notice was a mere formality and dispatched on almost a single address. These notices were reported to have remained unserved which was obvious because they were deliberately addressed blind-foldedly at the address of the petitioner's father. Thus, notice having been sent at the wrong address was clearly an empty formality.

96. The ex-parte order dated 02.05.1990 and the order dated 14.02.1992 were both challenged before the Appellate Authority. The aforesaid facts of sending notices in a haphazard manner was also challenged before the Appellate Authority. It was held that service of notice was not proved and was insufficient and accordingly both the orders dated 14.02.1992 and 02.05.1990 were set aside on 17.04.1993. This fact has been stated in paragraph 19 of the writ petition which has not been denied and it has been stated in paragraph 13 of the counter affidavit that it needs no comments. It is thus clear that the prescribed authority had proceeded ex-parte without notice to the heirs of the tenure holder and to any of the interested parties and therefore the orders were set aside with directions to proceed on merits.

97. The prescribed authority proceeded once again to pass a cryptic order on 19.07.1993 of two pages relying on the very same service of notice and the reports regarding service of notice in a case that was registered afresh as Ceiling Case No.45 in the name of the deceased tenure holder Mr. Visheshwar Pratap Sahi (petitioner's father) who had died on 09.04.1989. It simply in a cryptic manner records that the notices which were sent to the transferees have been returned back as postal note that there were no such persons available on the given address. As noted above, the notices had been sent to the transferees on the address of the deceased tenure holder in the ceiling proceedings no. 48/18. The same procedure seems to have been adopted once again by the prescribed authority in the newly instituted case Ceiling Case No.45 and then again the holdings of village Pipra to the tune of 146.06 acres was declared surplus. This order dated 19.07.1993 was once again ex-parte wrongly recording that the land was being cultivated by Mr. Visheshwar Pratap Sahi. This finding is perverse inasmuch as the tenure holder had already died on 09.04.1989 and there was no question of the land being cultivated by the deceased tenure holder. In my considered opinion, the order is cryptic and unmindful of facts as well as all the previous proceedings and their impact as discussed above again in two pages. The registration of a new ceiling case and then proceeding to declare the land surplus is an exercise contrary to law. The said order dated 19.07.1993 declares the same land as surplus of village Pipra, the notice in respect whereof had already been quashed by the High Court on 07.11.1969 as indicated above. Once, it was held that the notice in respect of the said land was without jurisdiction, and the same stood confirmed with the evidence discussed in the order of the Consolidation Officer dated 09.02.1983, the prescribed authority could not have overreached the same to pass a fresh order in respect of the same land, that too completely omitting to refer to the judgment and orders. The transfers could not be questioned in the light of the observations made hereinabove. This was a clear jurisdictional error of fact and of law by ignoring the binding effect of the previous proceedings referred to hereinabove. In my opinion, this also amounts to an exercise of authority which can be termed as malice in law. Reference be had to the judgments of the Apex Court where legal malice and malice in law have been explained as something done without lawful excuse being a deliberate act in disregard to the rights of others. The statutory exercise of power by the prescribed authority was therefore for a purpose that was alien to the facts and the law and seems to be a deliberate omission with an intent to defeat the culmination of the earlier proceedings. Reference be had to the judgment in the case of Ravi Yashwant

Bhoir Vs. District Collector, Raigarh & Ors. 2012 (4) SCC 407 and the decision in the case of Sama Aruna Vs. State of Telangana 2018 (12) SCC 150. It may also be pointed out that the notice which was issued on 12.11.1974 after the order of the High Court did not include the land of village Pipra that was transferred prior to 24.01.1971, the sale deeds whereof had been discussed by the Consolidation Officer in the order dated 09.02.1983 referred to hereinabove.

98. There is yet another legal issue which seems to have been not noticed by the prescribed authority regarding the applicability of limitation under the provisions of Section 31(2) under the amendment brought about in the amended Act of 1976 under the amended provisions of the Ceiling Act. It may be necessary to point out that amendments in the Ceiling Act were brought about through the U.P. Imposition of Ceiling on Land Holdings Amendment Act 1972 (18) of 1973, the Amendment Act 1974 (2) of 1975 and Amendment Act 1976 (20) of 1976. The 1976 Amending Act introduced Sections 31(1) to (4). This related to abatement of earlier proceedings and issuance of fresh notices. These provisions came up for consideration before the Apex Court in the case of Arvind Kumar Vs. State of UP & Ors. 2016(9) SCC 221. The Apex Court after discussing the legislative history of the Ceiling Act and the provisions aforesaid in that case held that the transitory provisions as contained in Section 31 prescribed a limitation The argument of the Appellant therein was resisted by the State of UP contending that the redetermination of the ceiling was permissible.

99. There is yet another issue which has been overlooked namely that the Appellate Authority in the orders passed in Appeal No.478, 479 and 480 of 1975 on 09.07.1979 had set aside the orders of the prescribed authority passed on 13.03.1975, 25.03.1975 and 29.03.1975. With regard to these proceedings, nothing seems to have been done till fresh notices were once again initiated on 23.06.1986 which is after seven years of the decision of the Appellate Authority and after 11 to 12 years of the issuance of the notices in 1974. The provisions of the amendments brought about in the Ceiling Act particularly Section 31 (2) of the UP Act No.20 of 1976 has nowhere been referred to or even noticed for which a reference can be made to the decision of the Apex Court in the case of Arvind Kumar (supra).

100. Since, the order dated 19.07.1993 passed by the prescribed authority was erroneous, a recall application was moved by the petitioner contending that with the institution of three cases through three separate notices as narrated by the petitioner was incorrect. A request was made to rehear the matter after consolidating all the proceedings. This recall application was not decided and therefore the order dated 19.07.1993 was challenged in Appeal No.102/53/323/70/D-93. The Appellate Authority passed an interim order dated 30.08.1993 which has been filed as Annexure 9 to the writ petition. Since the recall application had not been decided by the Prescribed Authority while the appeal was pending as stated above, two applications were moved on 17.02.1995 and 28.02.1995 before the Prescribed Authority requesting that service should be effected appropriately on all interested persons and secondly the revenue records should be summoned for the verification of the status of the land included in the ceiling notice of different villages. These two applications have also been filed on record as Annexure 11 and the same came to be rejected on 28.02.1995, copy whereof is Annexure 10 to the Petition. Another application had been moved before the prescribed authority to consolidate all the proceedings and the same was also rejected on 24.03.1995.

101. The Prescribed Authority proceeded to decide Ceiling Case No.48/18, the original ceiling proceedings that had been initiated against the Petitioner's father and passed an order on 31.03.1995 once again where objections with regard to the status of the shares of the Petitioner and other issues raised by the Petitioner, declared land surplus in the hands of the Petitioner and his brother vide order dated 31.03.1995. Consequently, three more appeals were filed, two against the said rejection of the Applications by the prescribed authority as referred to above and Appeal No. 103/48/70 P-95 against the order dated 31.03.1995. All these appeals were heard simultaneously and were disposed of on 07.11.1996 upholding the declaration of surplus land by the authority in the two orders dated 19.07.1993 and 31.03.1995.

102. The petitioner aggrieved by the improper procedure and incorrect findings recorded by the prescribed authority in the orders, challenged the same in Writ Petition No.36434/1996 before the High Court and the appellate order dates 07.11.1996 was set aside on 21.08.1997 the judgment whereof has been filed as Annexure 14. The High Court once again indicated that the burden regarding the status of the sale deeds and the transfers was on the state which had not been discharged. Other issues with regard to the independent rights of the Petitioner in the holdings was also taken into account and it was ultimately found that the orders passed by the Appellate Authority arising out of the aforesaid orders of the prescribed authority were not sustainable and consequently the Writ Petition was allowed and the Appeals were restored to their original numbers for decision afresh after taking into consideration all the observations made in the said judgment.

103. The Appellate Authority was requested that since the records are voluminous and the entire pleadings and the proofs as referred to hereinabove is on the record of the prescribed authority, therefore the same may be summoned. The Appellate Authority on 22.07.2003 passed an order for summoning of the records which order has been filed as Annexure 17 to the Petition. The aforesaid fact has been stated in paragraph 46 and 47 of the writ Petition which have not been clearly denied and it has been stated in paragraph 31 of the counter affidavit that suitable reply has been given in the preceding paragraphs whereas no such reply to the same is found in the counter affidavit. Not only this, the denial in paragraph 31 is that the orders have been passed in accordance with law. Thus, the fact of the records having not been summoned has not been denied factually and apparently the swearing clause of the affidavit indicates that paragraph 31 of the counter affidavit has been sworn on legal advice which is obviously not based on record. It is therefore evident that the records of the Prescribed authority do not appear to have been summoned in spite of the Appellate Authority having passed an order to that effect. Where after the impugned order has been passed on 14.10.2003 that has been assailed in the present Writ Petition along with the orders of the prescribed authority dated 19.07.1993 and 31.03.1995

104. It may be indicated that the impugned order records the filing of two affidavits on behalf of the petitioner one of Mr. Adya Prasad Dubey dated 15.09.2003 and the affidavit of the Petitioner's Mother dated 28.08.2003 as additional evidence which stands recorded in the impugned order. These two affidavits relate to the date of birth of the petitioner stated to be 17.01.1951. While recording findings only one of the affidavits of Adya Prasad Dubey have been referred to and seems to have been cast aside as it was filed during hearing. The contents of the affidavit of the mother of the petitioner that has been totally ignored. The Appellate authority seems to have been carried away by an indication in the family register about the educational qualification of the petitioner being a post-graduate which is alleged as patently incorrect and was vehemently contested which has also been asserted in the paragraph 37 of the Writ Petition. There is a bald denial in the counter affidavit but no proof has been filed to establish that the Petitioner was a post graduate. Once the affidavit of the mother had been filed, the same was of evidentiary value and could not have been ignored. The evidence of the parents particularly the mother was therefore a valid piece of evidence to assert the date of birth as such the impugned order stands vitiated for non-consideration of relevant material in spite of the fact that the said affidavit was admittedly on record. The supplementary affidavit filed by the petitioner is supported by an Aadhar Card of the petitioner that mentions his date of birth as 17.01.1951 which again supports his contention and removes any doubt regarding the same

105. The ceiling authorities in the impugned orders have returned a finding that the petitioner has not been able to demonstrate that the independent share of land being claimed by the petitioner is sir and khudkast land. The said finding is again contrary to the mandate of the judgements cited herein above in as much as the State cannot shift its burden upon the petitioner to prove his case in as much as the burden was upon the State to prove that the land being claimed by the petitioner was not sir or khudkast for which no findings have been returned in the impugned orders nor any averments regarding the same have been made in the counter affidavit.

106. The Appellate Authority then while proceeding to consider the issue with regard to the transfers came to the conclusion that the transfers were suspicious and appeared to be Benami as it was not possible to have many purchasers in the same year of 1961. He has further recorded that the mutation of the sale deeds had not taken place in 1961 and therefore they had not been mentioned in the earlier notice. This finding also appears to be perverse inasmuch as mutations do not confer title. The transfers were through registered sale deeds and as is evident from the order of the consolidation officer dated 09.02.1983 the execution of the said sale deeds was verified by the consolidation officer and was compared with Register Mallikaan, the extracts whereof had already been filed and have also been filed along with the supplementary affidavit dt. 23.10.2003 in the present proceedings

107. The finding further is that if the said mutations were recorded in 1962 then too also the said sale deeds being after 20.08 1959 were invalid and were Benami. This conclusion is also perverse inasmuch as the first notice was issued on 21.08 1962 and not in 1961. Secondly, the judgment of the High Court dated 07.11.1969 and its impact has been completely overlooked by the Appellate Authority. Thirdly, the legal position as explained by the Apex Court in the case of Ramdhar Singh (Supra) as discussed hereinabove has also been completely overlooked. Thus, the invoking of the provisions of Section 38B was misplaced as neither the impact of the judgment of the High Court dated 07.11.1969 could have taken away nor the findings recorded therein and its evidentiary value could have been ignored. Similarly, the conclusion drawn by the Appellate Authority that the order of the Consolidation officer dated 09.02.1963 was after the appointed day of 24.01.1971 is a misconceived conclusion in view of the discussions hereinabove and the law indicated inasmuch as the said order had only acknowledged the pre-existing rights of the transferees that were transfers through registered sale deeds prior to 24.01.1971 with the revenue records confirming the recording of such transfers. Needless, to repeat as already indicated above the Naib Tehsildar Ceiling had participated before the Consolidation officer and had filed a response therein. These aspects have also been completely overlooked and as noted above, the said findings recorded have on facts remained unrebutted in the counter affidavit of the State except for saying that the order dated 09.02.1983 was liable to be ignored. The submissions and arguments on behalf of the Petitioners as noted are therefore correct on all the issues raised rendering the proceedings and impugned orders unsustainable. Therefore in view of the finality of the judgement of this court dated 07-11-1969 along with other unrebutted and uncontroverted evidences on record, the Prescribed Authority had acted beyond jurisdiction in declaring the land of village Pipra as surplus and had illegally included the same in the holding of the original tenure holder and the petitioner by instituting the fresh Ceiling Case No. 45 by the impugned order dated 19-07-1993.

108. The Appellate Authority has further recorded the fact that the Appeals filed against the order of the consolidation officer had been dismissed on 26.06.1989 which orders are after 24.01.1971. This again is an erroneous conclusion inasmuch as the fact of dismissal of an appeal after 1971 or even the order of the Consolidation officer does not loose its evidentiary value as already held hereinabove. The order completely ignores these legal propositions and is therefore contrary to law.

109. It is also evident that another tenure holder namely Mr. Krishna Murti Singh had been proceeded against declaring this holding to be part of the holdings of the Petitioner's late father. Mr. Krishna Murti Singh had challenged the same and the Appeal was allowed by the Appellate Authority itself on 13.10.1995. This order has been brought on record in the Writ Petition and the said fact has been categorically stated in paragraph 53 which has not been denied as stated and paragraph 53 of the Writ Petition even though has not been admitted in paragraph 31 but the same has been sworn on the basis of legal advice and not on the basis of record. The order in the case of Mr. Krishna Murti Singh had categorically held that certain land of Village Tandwa did not belong to the Petitioner's father and had been wrongly included in the notice of the tenure holder. This explains the casual manner in which the ceiling notices were prepared and served on the basis of which the proceedings were initiated.

110. Apart from this, there is yet another relevant fact which has been brought forth through the supplementary affidavit which is a decision of this Court dated 27.02.2013 in Civil Miscellaneous Writ Petition No.12723 of 1977 (Mr. Khagendra Pratap Sahi Vs. State of UP & Ors.). The Judgment is a matter of record and it recites that notices had been served on the tenure holder along with his two brothers, (including the Petitioner's late father) but it was found that the lands were separately held by the three brothers and had been erroneously clubbed into one and that the notices therefore issued to the tenure holder on 12.04.1989 were erroneous and accordingly the order passed by the prescribed Authority on 19.07.1993 was illegal. It was held therein that a ceiling proceeding had been instituted afresh which was erroneous as purportedly a new case has been registered as Ceiling Case No.44 and then decided on 19.07.1993. It is the said order of the prescribed authority which was challenged in appeal and the Appellate Authority had dismissed the same on 27.03.1997. Both these orders were challenged in the said Writ Petition and were quashed while imposing costs on the state. Apparently, the order of the prescribed authority in the said case appears to be of the same date as in one of the cases in the present proceedings as is evident from the order of the High Court dated 21.08.1997.

111. The judgment dated 27.02.2013 is extracted hereinunder:-

"19. In para 27 of the writ petition that names of certain persons have been given and it is stated that notices were issued to them though those persons had nothing to do with the land in dispute. This averment in paragraph 27 of writ petition has been replied in para 21 of counter affidavit stating that the persons mentioned therein are fabricated and have got no business with the disputed land as they are outsiders.

20. I find facts of this case and the way in which ceiling authorities have proceeded, really strange, startling and shocking. The specific case of petitioner is that against the same holding, earlier fabricated proceedings were initiated, inasmuch as, a ceiling case no. 112 was initiated against a dead person. Obviously, there could not have been any occasion to serve a notice upon the dead person namely Rani Jagdishwari Kunwari. Further, without giving due opportunity to the petitioner and his two brothers, three separate ceiling proceedings were initiated and whimsical orders were passed by Prescribed Authority. The said orders were set aside in appeal vide three judgments of same date, i.e., 9th July, 1979. Despite the fact that the Prescribed Authority was directed to take up all the matters together and after serving copy of statement prepared under Section 10(2) upon the concerned tenure holders namely the petitioner and his two brothers, to pass order in accordance with law but the Prescribed Authority did not pass any order thereupon and kept the matters pending. But abruptly in 1988-89, a new case was registered i.e., ceiling case no. 44 against petitioner and after serving notice upon persons, whom respondents themselves have stated and admitted in para 21 of counter affidavit that they have nothing to do with the land in dispute, order dated 19.07.1993 was passed declaring petitioner's land as surplus. Interesting thing here is that no notice was served upon the petitioner at all. The transaction of sale took place in 1959 treated to be benami without examining the same in the light of statutory requirement under Act, 1960.

21. When this court enquired from the learned Standing Counsel as to how a new case could have been registered in 1988-89 when the earlier matters were already pending, he could not reply at all.

22. In my view, the manner in which ceiling authorities have proceeded in this case and impugned orders have been passed deserve to be deprecated very strongly. It is nothing but a sheer arbitrary show of might and power upon a helpless individual tenure holder so as to deprive him of his valuable property rights in the pretext of passing statutory orders though patently illegal. This is not according to procedure prescribed in law and beside being in the teeth of the provisions of Act, 1960, it is violative of Article 300-A of the Constitution of India.

23. The writ petition, in view of the above, deserves to be allowed with exemplary cost against erring respondent officials.

24. In view of the above discussion, the writ petition is allowed. The impugned orders dated 19.07.1993 and 27.03.1997 (Annexure 9 and 11 to the writ petition) are hereby quashed.

25. The petitioner shall be entitled to cost which I quantify to Rs.20,000/- which, at the first instance, shall be paid by the respondent no. 1, to the petitioner, but it shall be open to it to recover the same from concerned official i.e.. Prescribed Authority who has caused and forced this avoidable litigation upon petitioner, after making such inquiry as permissible in law."

112. This order only supports the contention of the Petitioner that the notices which have been time and again served and were prepared on Ceiling Forms without appropriately verifying the revenue records and the status of the land mentioned in the Notices were erroneous. Resultantly the calculations and determination was incorrect and hence the findings recorded in the impugned orders in Ceiling Case No. 48/18 and Ceiling Case No 45 are neither sustainable either in fact or in law. Accordingly, the proceedings and the impugned orders deserves to be set aside. The order further supports the contention of the petitioner that a fresh coiling case could not have been instituted against him.

113. Appellate Authority has nowhere taken into account the claims of family settlement, the separate shares claimed as well as all other issues that had been raised before the prescribed authority and were subject matter of appeal before him. The right of the family members to file their objections even if their names were not entered in the revenue records is further countenanced by the full bench of this Court in Upper Ganges Sugar Mills Ltd. Vs. Civil Judge, Bijnor and Ors. reported in 1969 RD202, wherein in paragraph 38, it has been specifically held that, the fact that even if a tenure holder is not recorded as such in the revenue records it will not be relevant for determining whether he is entitled to file an objection to the statement prepared under Section 10(1) of the Act and issued to another person under Section 10(2) of the Act and the above fact will not disentitle him to file an objection if he is otherwise entitled to do so.

114. The binding effect of the judgment of the High Court referred to above including the entire evidence on record and the contentions related therefore have been summarily omitted to be considered and therefore non-consideration of the contention raised by the Petitioner also vitiates the impugned order. In addition thereto the issues relating to Abadi lands and other issues which could not have been included in terms of the exemptions provided under Section 6 have also not been discussed or considered and for that matter also the impugned order is vitiated. The Appellate Authority has also overlooked the orders passed in Appeal No.478, 479 and 480 dated 09.07.1979 and no consideration appears to have been made in accordance with the said directions as the notices do not appear to have been sent as per the respective shares as claimed by the Petitioner's father as well as his brothers.

115. The Appellate Authority has observed that the Petitioner would be entitled to an additional share of two hectares of land. The aforesaid conclusion drawn in favour of the Petitioner to that extent is therefore to be considered upon acceptance of the shares of the family members in accordance with the personal law as discussed by the High Court in the judgment dated 21.07.1997. This has not been done by the Appellate Authority even though the Ceiling Authorities were bound to act accordingly.

116. It also deserves mention that an application on behalf of the lease holders being impleadment application no.68877/2004 Somari & 7 Ors. was moved praying for being heard in this Petition contending that they had been allotted land pursuant to the declaration of surplus way back in 1996. When the hearing proceeded an impleadment application was moved on behalf of one Sanjay & 5 Ors. seeking impleadment. A similar application has been moved by one Munna Prasad & 29 Ors. on 10.09.2025 after the hearing had proceeded in the matter. All these applications have been allowed vide order dated 10.09.2025 and all the learned Counsel on their behalf have been heard even though two of the above-noted applications have been moved highly belatedly after 22 years of the filing of the Writ Petition. In the application filed by Munna Prasad & 29 Ors. It is admitted in paragraph 5 that they have not been handed possession till date. Learned Counsel for all the lease holders have advanced the same submissions that they cannot be denied possession over the allotted land as they have been granted lease by the State. Needless to mention that a land unless held to be surplus does not vest in the State and consequently no better rights can be claimed by the Allottees This legal position could not be disputed and was fairly conceded by both the learned standing counsel for the State as well as the learned Counsel for the allottees. In the present case, what appears from the facts on record is that the first order of the Prescribed authority dated 02.05.1990 was set aside on 17.04.1993 by the Appellate Authority where after once again the Prescribed authority passed orders on 19.07.1993 and in the Appeal filed by the Petitioner a stay order was passed by the Appellate Authority on 30.08.1993. The Prescribed authority passed the other order on 31.03.1995 as narrated above against which an appeal was filed and both the orders dated 19.07.1993 and 31.03.1995 were upheld on 07.11.1996 by the Appellate Authority that was set aside by the High Court on 21.08.1997. These Applicants claim to have been allotted land before 07.11.1996 on the basis of the order dated

19.07.1993 that stood merged with the order dated 07.11.1996 of the Appellate Authority that was ultimately quashed by the High Court on 21.08.1995. In between while the matter was pending in Appeal before the Appellate Authority in 1993 where an interim order had been passed on 30.08.1993 against the order dated 19.07.1993, the Petitioner had filed Writ Petition No. 15960/1995 that was disposed off on 07.06.1995. A copy of this order has been produced during the course of the arguments along with the written submissions. The same is extracted hereinunder:

The Writ Petition stands allowed in terms of the Judgment dated 06.04.95 passed in Civil (Misc.) Writ Petition No. 8550/1995 with the following orders:-

Learned Counsel for the Petitioner argued that the Prescribed Authority had directed the taking over the possession in violation of section 14(1)(c) of the Act, as appeal has been preferred and is still pending. The argument has force. The petitioner cannot be deprived of the possession of land during the pendency of the appeal. There is a statutory bar for taking over of possession by Prescribed Authority where the appeal is pending. Even if the stay application was not moved, the Prescribed Authority could not direct the taking over of the possession till the appeal is finally disposed off.

For the aforesaid reason, Respondent no. 4 is restrained from taking over the possession till the appeal is decided. The Writ Petition is allowed.

A certified copy of this order may be given to the learned counsel for the parties on payment of usual charges within 3 days.

117. All the allottees seeking impleadment as noted above have claimed allotment pursuant to the Order of the Prescribed Authority dated 19.07.1993 as noted in the order of this Court dated 10.09.2025 extracted hereinunder:-

"Ref:- Civil Misc. Impleadment Application No.68877 of 2004

3. Judgement reserved.

4. Interim order, granted earlier, will continue till the delivery of judgement."

118. The orders were finally passed by the Appellate Authority on 07.11.1996. The orders of allotment if any therefore, were subject to the outcome of Writ Petition No. 36434/1996 that had challenged the Appellate Order dated 07.11.1996 wherein also an interim order was passed staying any allotment as well as eviction of the petitioner which order has already been extracted hereinabove. There was an interim order in appeal on 30.08.1993 as noted above. The said order has already been referred to in the pleadings (Annexure 9) of the writ petition. The allottees claim that they were allotted land as a consequence thereof. It is for this reason that the High Court clarified the position vide judgment dated 7.06.1995 quoted hereinabove.

119. Once again as noted above, the High Court had quashed the orders on 21.08.1997 where after the impugned order was passed on 14.10.2003. This Writ Petition was entertained and interim orders were passed on 22.10.2003 which has continued during the pendency of these proceedings. In view of the aforesaid facts the possession as maintained under the said orders of the High Court cannot be disturbed. The possession of the land has to be maintained in accordance with law in the light of continuity of the interim orders and final orders as referred to above. It is further clarified that this court by allowing the impleadment applications of the allottees has not created any rights in their favour.

120. The Writ Petition with the aforesaid observations and directions and for all the reasons recorded hereinabove is accordingly allowed. The impugned orders of the Prescribed Authority dated 19.07.1993, 31.03.1995 and the impugned order passed by the Appellate Authority dated 14.10.2003 are hereby quashed and as a consequence whereof proceedings including that of Ceiling Case No. 48/18 and Ceiling Case No. 45 stand annulled.

121. The Prescribed authority therefore will have to, before proceeding any further, comply with the findings recorded hereinabove and thereafter will proceed to carry out any determination in accordance with law in the light of what has been stated hereinabove before taking any other step.

122. It goes without saying that the petitioner as well as any other person claiming rights through the Tenure Holder or independently will have a right to exercise the choice of plots falling in their share with regard to which the Prescribed Authority shall be obliged to give an opportunity for the same as was already indicated by the Prescribed Authority itself in the order dated 28.02.1995.

123. Needless to mention that this order shall stand recorded in the proceedings and shall also be reflected in all the concerned revenue records for compliance. The Petition stands allowed in the above terms with liberty to the Prescribed Authority to proceed as directed above. No order as to costs.

ISSUE FOR CONSIDERATION

Whether the Sub-Registrar was justified in refusing registration of an agreement to sell relating to a bungalow (superstructure) on Old Grant land in Meerut Cantonment without prior permission/NOC from the Defence Estates Officer/Central Government, and whether such refusal can be challenged directly under Article 226 without exhausting the statutory appeal under Section 72 of the Indian Registration Act, 1908.

HEADNOTE

Cantonment Land Administration Rules, 1937 — Rules 2(c) & 15 — GGO No. 179 dated 12.09.1836 — Old Grant property — Agreement to sell of superstructure standing on defence land — Registration refused for want of prior permission — Superstructure cannot be treated as a separate entity from the defence land — "building site" includes the building together with open ground/courtyard adjacent thereto — attempt to register agreement to sell without prior permission is a colourable device to do indirectly what is directly prohibited — such agreement contemplates eventual transfer of possession and incidents of ownership and is impermissible without sanction of Central Government — refusal by Sub-Registrar is in strict compliance with Division Bench directions dated 28.08.2010 and State Circular dated 21.02.2011 — refusal order is appealable under Section 72 of the Registration Act, 1908 — alternative and efficacious statutory remedy available — direct writ petition not maintainable — petition dismissed.

HELD

Petitioner purchased Old Grant rights for Bungalow No.132, Meerut Cantonment vide sale deed executed by the heir of the recorded holder of occupancy rights. Petitioner entered into an agreement to sell and applied for registration of the said agreement, on which objections were raised by the Sub-Registrar citing absence of prior permission/NOC from the Defence Estate Officer. Held: Land of Cantonment Board cannot be sold without prior permission of the Central Government/Defence

Estate Officer as provided under Rule 15 of the Cantonment Land Administration Rules, 1937. General Order No.179 dated 12.09.1836 provides that the property of the Government cannot be sold by the grantee, but houses or other property situated thereon may be transferred subject to restrictions. Under the law, the petitioner cannot transfer any land without the prior permission of the Central Government. The superstructure in question was on defence land and cannot be treated as a separate entity. An agreement which, in substance, transfers possession, consideration and incidents of ownership without prior NOC is a colourable action, void ab initio and unenforceable. The Sub-Registrar refused registration of the agreement to sell, which is a step preceding execution of the sale deed of the house and the land attached thereto. The rejection was based on Government orders and the judgment of this Court directing that property belonging to Cantonment Board shall not be registered until prior permission is obtained from the competent authority. Further, against the refusal order, a statutory remedy is available under Section 72 of the Registration Act to file an appeal, and thereafter a suit may be instituted under Section 77. Writ petition not maintainable. (E-5)

This is a writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, wherein the writ petitioner has made the following prayers :

"(a) issue writ, order of direction of in the nature of CERTIORARI calling for the records and quashing the objection raised by respondent no. 3 dated 26.10.2012 (Annexure-1 to the present writ petition).

(b) issue writ, order or direction in the nature of MANDAMUS commanding the respondent no.3 to register the instrument presented in his office by the petitioner on 26.10.2012 for registration of agreement-to-sell with respect to property described as Bungalow No.132, Survey No.56, British Calvary (B.C) Lines, Bungalow Area, Meerut Cantt."

FACTS

2. The factual matrix of the present writ petition is delineated below :

(a) The Sub Registrar, IV, Sadar, Meerut vide order dated October 26, 2012 made objections in registering the agreement to sale entered into by the petitioner, Ahmad Ali Khan, with Sri Ajay Gupta and Smt. Parul Gupta in respect of a property known as Bungalow No.132, Survey No.56, British Calvary (B.C.) Lines, Bungalow Area, Meerut Cantt. relying upon the decision of this Court in Writ C No. 12897 of 2008 (Cantonment Board, Varanasi vs. State of U.P. and others) decided on 28.10.2010, PIL No. 74227 of 2010 (Virendra Kumar and Others vs. State of U.P. and others) decided on 22.12.2010 and the Circular issued by the government of Uttar Pradesh dated 21.02.2011. The objection/letter dated October 26, 2012 is quoted below :

CONTENTIONS OF THE PETITIONER

3. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner has made the following submissions :

a. The petitioner had purchased the old grant rights for Bungalow No.132, Survey No.56, British Calvary (B.C.) Lines, Bungalow Area, Meerut Cantt vide sale deed dated 18.05.2006 executed by Sri Tejpal Singh Chatrath, Smt. Surjeet Puri and Smt. Kamal Chaddha who were the recorded holders of occupancy right with respect to the aforesaid Bungalow. The petitioner entered into an agreement to sale with Sri Ajay Gupta and Smt. Parul Gupta on 26.10.2012 for total consideration of Rs.45.00 lacs out of which the petitioner has accepted Rs.25.00 lacs as advance payment. Petitioner had applied for registration of the said agreement to sale on which objections were raised by the Sub Registrar.

b. There is no provision in the Registration Act, 1908 enabling the Sub Registrar to deny the registration of any deed, therefore, he cannot deny registering the agreement to sale in favour of a third person by the petitioner.

c. The petitioner is in possession of the aforesaid Bungalow and as per the agreement to sale, the possession will be delivered to the vendees at the time of execution of the sale deed. As per the agreement to sale, the time period for execution of the sale deed has been fixed to be one year.

d. The agreement to sale is only with respect to the superstructure upon the land and there is no agreement to sale with respect to the land. In fact, the petitioner has admitted in the agreement to sale that the land is in the ownership of the Central Government and the agreement to sale does not include the land and as such agreement to sale has nothing to do with the land.

e. For the execution of such agreement, no prior permission of the Cantonment Board is required. However, the Sub Registrar in view of the circular dated 21.02.2011; circulated on 04.03.2011 has raised objection to the effect that the document presented cannot be registered in the absence of permission by the Defence Estate Officer of the Cantonment Board, Meerut.

f. The aforesaid circular is based upon two Division Bench orders of this Hon'ble Court which prohibit the execution of a deed relating to land. There is no prohibition with respect to the registration of an instrument relating to an agreement to transfer a superstructure. Hence, none of the documents that form the basis of the objections are applicable in the facts of the present case.

g. A contract for sale is not transfer and this is evident from the proviso to Section 54 of the Transfer of Property Act. Hence, registration of an agreement to transfer does not imply the transfer of the property or a sale. Under such circumstances, the instrument presented before the Sub Registrar does not amount to sale and as such is not barred. In fact, Rules have been framed under the Cantonment Act, 1924 that are called as Transfer of Property in Cantonment (Form of Notice and Manner of giving such Notice) Rules, 1985 which provides that only upon registration of the transfer of title that notice is required to be given to the Cantonment Board and not prior to getting the instrument registered. The registered instrument of transfer is to be provided to the Cantonment Board along with notice of transfer. This is evident from perusal of Rule 3 as well as from perusal of Form-A provided for in the said Rules.

h. The Sub Registrar cannot refuse to register the agreement to sale inasmuch as the document becomes compulsorily registrable as contemplated under Section 17(1A) of the Registration Act, 1908 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Registration Act'), therefore, the Sub Registrar has failed in his duty to register the instrument and the objections raised by the respondent no. 3 is dehors the statutory provision contained under Section 17(1A) of the Registration Act.

i. The Sub Registrar has misread and misinterpreted the judgments and orders of this Court, which relate only to transfer of land. The case of transfer of land is clearly distinguishable from a case of transfer of super structure inasmuch as the ownership of the land stands vested in the Central Government and any transfer of land by a private person without permission or notice to the Central Government clouds the title of the Central Government and as such prior permission or notice is necessary. However, so far as transfer of superstructure is concerned ownership vests in the person to whom it was granted and the ownership of the superstructure can be transferred by a private arrangement. It is for this reason that Rules have been framed by the Cantonment to give notice of such transfer after such transfer gets affected.

j. In the present matter, it is not in dispute that on the demise of the recorded holder of occupancy rights in the year 1997, the legal heirs namely Capt. Tej Pal Singh (son), Mrs. Surjeet Puri and Mrs. Kanwal Chaddha (Daughters) had moved an application for mutation which remained pending at the end of the concerned authorities. Thereafter, when the rights came to be transferred to the petitioner pursuant to the sale deed dated 18.05.2006, the petitioner had also applied for mutation vide his letter dated 10.04.2008. It is, therefore, apparent that the onus casted upon the petitioner was duly discharged by him and nothing more remained to be done on his part. In such a situation it does not lie in the mouth of the respondents to allege that there did not exist any valid title with the petitioner to enter into an agreement to sell. Such being the situation the agreement to sell as executed by the petitioner in faovur of Mr. Ajay Gupta and Mrs. Parul Gupta is in accordance with the provision of law which holds the field and any inference to the contrary sought to be made by the Defense Estate Officer is wholly misconceived.

k. It is not the case of the petitioner that the land is being sold by him but it is only property standing upon the land which is sought to be transferred by the petitioner.

CONTENTIONS OF RESPONDENTS

4. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the respondents has rebutted the arguments of the petitioners and made the following submissions:

a. The petitioner has not obtained the land in a legal manner as provided under the law as without prior permission of the Central Government, no property can be transferred to any person as is provided under Rule 15 of the Cantonment Land Administration Rules, 1937 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Cantonment Rules, 1937').

b. No property can be transferred without prior permission of the authority of Cantonment Board/Central Government as per Rule 15 of the Cantonment Rules, 1937 as well as the Circular Dated 21.01.2011 issued by Government of Uttar Pradesh and the decisions of this Court.

c. The property in question admeasuring 2994.23 sq.mtrs is held on Old Grant Terms and recorded occupancy holders of the premises are Major Jaswant Singh Chatrath and Smt. Tirath Kaur, under the management of Defence Estate Officer Meerut Circle, Meerut Cantt.

d. On demise of recorded Holder of Occupancy Rights during 1997 their legal heirs, namely, Capt. Tejpal Singh (son), Mrs Surjit Puri and Mrs Kanwal Chadha (daughter) had applied for mutation in their favour but before their names could be recorded in the General Land Register maintained by Defence Estate Officer, Meerut, the said legal heirs transferred the property to Shri Ahmed Ali Khan S/o Arshad Ali Khan by virtue of sale deed registered on 18.05.2006. Hence, their request for mutation is also required to be rejected due to violation of Old Grant Terms. Through a general power of attorney, Shri. Arshad Ali Khan, Shri Ahmed Ali Khan applied for mutation of property in his name vide letter dated 16.04.2008, which is still pending and the property still stands recorded in the General Land Register, Meerut Cantt in the names of Major Jawant Singh Chatrath and Smt. Tirath Kaur. However, Shri Ahmed Ali Khan has submitted a registered admission declaration deed dated 07.10.2008 admitting title of Govt. over the land and trees standing thereon and also the term of 'Old Grant' under the General Order by the Governor General in Council, No.179 dated 12.09.1836 (hereinafter referred to as 'the GGO-179 dated 12.09.1836'). As per term of 'Old Grant', prior permission for any sale/purchase is needed.

e. The GGO-179 dated 12.09.1836 deals with grant of land in cantonments. It is provided that in every such case the property of the Government could not be sold by the grantee but houses or other property thereon situated could be transferred subject to certain restrictions. It further provided that the Government retained the power to resume the land on giving due notice and paying the value of such buildings as may have been authorized to be erected thereon.

f. Such individuals, currently in possession of the houses, are merely grantees (licensees) or lessees of land with absolutely no ownership rights on the land that continues to vest with the Government and the occupancy holders are permitted to transfer their occupancy rights or leasehold rights only of the authorized structures built by them on such Government land subject to certain terms and conditions which includes prior permission as per Clause 6 of GGO-179 dated 12.09.1836, in cases of all Old Grant Properties.

g. The Delhi High Court in Shital Parshad Jain v. Union of India and others reported in AIR 1991 Del 253 has held, that GGO 179 dated 12.09.1836 had statutory force and is an existing law in force.

h. The Supreme Court in Chief Executive Officer v. Surendra Kumar Vakil reported in 1999 (3) SCC 555, has held that the terms of the grant are statutorily regulated under GGO-179 dated 12.09.1836. Further the Supreme Court in Chitra Kumari v. Union of India and others reported in (2001)3 SCC 208 has taken notice that the GGO-179 dated 12.09.1836 is still in force.

i. In a Cantonment, covered earlier under the Cantonments Act, 1924 and presently under the Cantonments Act, 2006 and for properties given on the Old Grant Terms, the rights of ownership is only of the super-structures, which, though transferred by sale deed, needs to be compulsorily recorded in the General Land Register as the Holder of Occupancy Rights in the first instance. Further, it is an admitted fact that the land within Cantonment is either leased out or held on Old Grant terms belongs to the Government of India, Ministry of Defence. As such land tenure within Cantonments is very different from what is prevalent and commonly understood in Municipal areas. The difference is explained in detail hereinafter. For convenience and to arrive at a just/fair conclusion, ALL LANDS WITHIN CANTONMENTS ARE OWNED BY THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA, MINISTRY OF DEFENCE. Hence, when a property is purchased within a Cantonment only the superstructure can be bought and sold, the rights of occupation of land do not automatically get transferred to the purchaser of the superstructure or house property, thereon. The sale has to be permitted by the Government of India, Ministry of Defence prior to the purchase and if all legal/statutory requirements are fulfilled, as laid down in this connection, then the Government of India, Ministry of Defence recognizes the purchaser by mutating his/her name in the GLR.

j. The municipal areas where private land exists, sale/purchase of land alongwith the building is a legally tenable transaction. Thus, there the purchaser becomes owner of both land and building thereon. But not in the peculiar cases of land within a Cantonment where only the superstructure is sold and purchased. Even this purchase is qualified by the fact that Government of India, Ministry of Defence should recognize this as per procedure delineated herein before.

k. The refusal orders passed by respondent nos.2 and 3 are in accordance with law and also the order passed by this Court in writ petition No.12897/2008 followed by the order passed in writ petition (PIL) No.74227/2010.

l. As per GGO-179 dated 12.09.1836 Old Grant rights cannot be purchased/Transferred without obtaining prior approval of Government of India, Ministry of Defence. It is also stated that Shri Tejpal Singh Chatrath, Smt. Surjit Puri and Smt. Kamal Chaddha are till date not the recorded Holder of Occupancy and the Government has not yet sanctioned mutation in their favour till date.

m. This Court in its order dated 28.08.2010 has clearly stated that "we direct the Sub Registrar (Registration) not to register any document and not to execute any sale deed/lease deed", without there being no objection or permission of Defence Estates Officer. Therefore, the agreement to sell dated 26.10.2012 presented by the petitioner before the Sub Registrar IV Meerut is null and void as it is well covered under the legal terminology/nomenclature used in the said order of this Court.

n. The agreement to sell any property tantamounts to sale subsequently as per terms settled in the agreement. So, if the sale deed or the lease deed cannot be executed or registered by the Sub Register without obtaining 'no objection' or 'permission' of the Defence Estates Officer, then the agreement to sell which is a document prior to sale deed, cannot be registered without obtaining No Objection or permission of the Defence Estates Officer as per direction given by this Court. Therefore, the agreement to sell cannot be registered by the respondent No.3.

o. The superstructure in question is on defence land, and there is no material on record to demonstrate that the said construction was made after the permission of the competent authority.

p. It is submitted that the orders passed by this Court as stated in preceding paragraphs, apply to the property of the Cantonment Area even if the land is not sold. The order dated 28.8.2010 directs the Sub Registrar (Registration) not to register any document and not to execute any sale deed/lease deed of the land falling within the Cantonment Board. Usually in Cantonment Areas only superstructure is sold due to the land belonging to Ministry of Defence. But if the superstructure is sold without the 'permission' or 'no objection' of Cantonment Board then the intention of this Court will be defeated. Everybody will come with a document not selling the land on which superstructure stands, as the land is not his and rightfully he is not entitled to sell it because he has no title on it. In Cantonment Area only superstructure belongs to private persons, not the land.

q. It is submitted that if an agreement to sale is registered without permission then people will give possession of the property without getting the sale deed executed due to the want of permission and the purpose of the transfer will become effective, thus, the whole intention of the Court's order will be defeated. This Court in its order dated 28.8.2010 directed non registeration of any document without prior permission. It is also submitted that before this order the registration of sale deed/lease deed of the properties situated in Cantonment Board area took place without any permission or no objection by the Defence Estate Officer of the Cantonment Board. Any transaction of the cantonment area depends upon the contracts between the parties and only after registration any liability of the registering authority is created because in Registration Department transactions are not chargeable only documents are chargeable to stamp duty. The parties after registration apply for Mutation to the Cantonment Board.

ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

5. Heard learned counsel appearing on behalf of the parties and perused the material on record.

6. In this case, the petitioner wants to register an agreement to sale in respect of a building erected on the land of Cantonment Board to a third person and the same has been refused by the Sub Registrar mentioning the decisions of this Court as well as the Circular issued by the Government of Uttar Pradesh. The Sub Registrar has relied upon the decision of this Court in Writ Petition No. 12897 of 2008 (Cantonment Board, Varanasi Vs. State of UP and Others) decided on 28.8.2010. The order is being quoted below:

"By means of this petition, the petitioner has prayed for a writ of mandamus commanding the State of U.P. through Secretary Institutional Finance, Sub Registrar (Registration) and the Collector Varanasi not to register any document pertaining to sale/lease of immovable properties situated in Cantt. Area, Varanasi without obtaining no objection certificate from the competent authority of Government of India, Ministry of Defence. The basis of the writ petition is that the land belongs to the cantonment board and the fake sale deed/lease deed are being executed and they are being registered.

From the avernments made in the writ petition, it is clear that the fake sale/lease deeds were being executed by those persons who were not entitled to execute the lease deed or sale deed and fake sale deeds were being registered in respect of the property belonging to the Ministry of Defence and after registration of the document, further litigation has to face to the Defence department for cancellation of the sale deed for getting it declared void in order to check such execution of fake sale deed/lease deed.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case stated in the writ petition, we direct the Sub-Registrar (Registration) not to register any document and not to execute any sale deed/ lease deed of the land falling within the Cantonment Board and belonging to the Ministry of defence without there being no objection or permission by the Defence Estate Officer of the Cantonment Board Varanasi.

With the above observation, the writ petition is disposed of finally."

7. The above order was in respect of Varanasi Cantonment Board. Later on a PIL was filed being Public Interest Litigation (PIL) No. 74227 of 2010 (Virendra Kumar and Others Vs. State of U.P. and Others), in which order passed by this Court in Cantonment Board, Varanasi (supra) was brought to the notice of the Court which was dealing with the said PIL. Thereafter, the Court issued directions to circulate the decision of Cantonment Board, Varanasi (Supra) to all the Sub Registrars. The order dated December 22, 2010 is being quoted below :

"On behalf of respondents 1 to 3, learned Standing Counsel seeks time to take instructions in the matter.

Our attention has been drawn by the writ petitioners to the order dated 28.8.2010 passed in Writ -C No.12897 of 2008, whereby the Sub-Registrar (Registration) has been directed not to execute any sale deed/lease deed of the land falling within the Cantonment Board and belonging to the Ministry of Defence without there being no objection or permission by the Defence Estate Officer of the Cantonment Board, Varanasi.

Learned Standing Counsel may seek instructions.

In the meantime, the Secretary, Institutional Finance, Govt. of U.P. is directed to circulate to all the Sub-Registrars a copy of the order dated 28.8.2010 passed by this Court in Writ-C No.12897 of 2008.

Place the matter on board on 12.01.2011."

8. In compliance of the above order, the Government of Uttar Pradesh vide Circular dated February 2, 2011 circulated the above decision of this Court. The Circular is being quoted below :

9. On being informed about the above circular issued by the Government of Uttar Pradesh, the Court dealing with the above PIL being Public Interest Litigation (PIL) No. 74227 of 2010 (Virendra Kumar and Others Vs. State of U.P. and Others) disposed of the PIL on 3.8.2017. The said order is being quoted below :

" Heard learned counsel for the parties.

We need not retain the present writ petition any further, in view of the fact of that the counsel for the Cantonment Board has informed this Court that in view of the provisions of Cantonment Land Administration Rules, 1937 specifically Rule 15 no land of the Cantonment can be sold without prior permission of the Central Government. In the said background, a Division Bench of this Court vide order dated 22.12.2010 has already issued a direction to the Secretary, Institution Finance, Govt. of U.P. to direct all Sub-Registrar within the State of Uttar Pradesh not to register any sale deed/lease deed in respect of the land falling within the Cantonment Board and belonging to the Ministry of Defence without no objection or permission of the Defence Estate Officer of the Cantonment Board, Varanasi.

We have been informed that such circular has been issued by the State of Uttar Pradesh.

In view of the aforesaid, no further directions are required to be made.

This Public Interest Litigation is disposed of."

10. The Court dealing with the Public Interest Litigation (hereinafter referred to as 'the PIL') has disposed of the PIL being satisfied that the land of Cantonment Board cannot be sold without prior permission of the Central Government/Defence Estate Officer as provided under Rule 15 of the Cantonment Rules, 1937. The fact was in the knowledge of the Court dealing with the PIL that land falling in the Cantonment Board was situated in the defence area, and therefore, such land cannot be transferred to anybody without having prior permission of the authority mentioned in the Rules, 1937 as it may cause security issues to the defence establishment as well as to the Nation. Rule 15 of the Cantonment Rules, 1937 is quoted below :

"5. Sale of land Prohibited-The sale of land for any purpose without the definite orders of the Central Government is prohibited."

11. The Sub Registrar is under obligation to abide by the order of this Court and the Circular issued by the State Government in light of the decisions of this Court and therefore, as there is no provision in the Registration Act, the Sub Registrar has rightly refused to register the deed of agreement to sale.

12. The submission of the petitioner that the agreement to sale is only with respect to the superstructure upon the land and there is no agreement to sale with respect to the land cannot sustain as the superstructure in question is on defence land and it cannot be treated as a separate entity. Rule 2(c) of the Cantonment Rules, 1937 defines 'building site' which includes open ground or courtyard enclosed by, or adjacent to the building erected thereupon. Therefore, the building also includes the land which belongs to the Cantonment Board. Rule 2(c) is delineated below:

"(2c) –"building site" means a portion of land held or intended to be held for building purposes, whether any building be erected thereon or not, and includes the open ground or courtyard enclosed by, or adjacent to, any building erected thereupon;"

13. The GGO-179 dated 12.09.1836 provides that the property of the Government could not be sold by the grantee but houses or other property thereon situated could be transferred subject to certain restrictions. The relevant provisions of the General Order are being quoted below :

"6. Conditions of occupancy- No ground will be granted except on the following conditions, which are to be subscribed by every grantee as well as by those to whom his grant may subsequently be transferred:-

1st. Resumption of land- The Government to retain the power of resumption at any time on giving one month's notice and paying the value of such buildings as may have been authorised to be erected.*

2nd. Land belongs to Government. Land cannot be sold by grantee. Trans fer of houses between military officers-The ground, being in every case the property of Government, can not be sold by the grantee, but houses or other property thereon situated may be transferred by one Military or Medical Officer to another without restriction except in the case of reliefs, when, if required, the terms of sale or transfer are to be adjusted by a Committee of Arbitration.*

3rd. Arbitration in case of transfer on relief. Transfer of house to civilian-If the ground has been built upon, the buildings are not to be disposed of to any person, of whatever description, who does not belong to the army, until the consent of the Officer Commanding the Station shall have been previously obtained under his hand.*

4th. Transfer to native- When it is proposed, wide consent of the General Officer, to transfer possession to a native, should the value of the house, buildings or property to be so transferred exceed Rs. 5000, the sale must not be effected until the sanction of Government shall have been obtained through His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief.*

7. Power to require owner to let house to Military Officer-The owner of any house in a military cantonment not occupied by a person belonging to the army on duty at the station, or by a person in the service of Government directed or authorised by Government to reside therein, may be required to rent the same to any military officer belonging to the station who may require it to reside la, if the Officer Commanding the Station is satisfied that there is no other suitable house available with due regard to the rank of the claimant and to the duties he may have to perform.*

Vacation of house on sale to another military officer-In every such case, however, if the owner shall have formally intimated to the officer who has so obtained the house his desire to sell rather than let it, and the offer have not been accepted, the officer shall at any time be required to vacate it within a week of his receiving notice, through the Brigade Major or Station Staff Officer, that the house has been sold, with the consent of the Commanding Officer of the Station, to another military officer on duty at the station who requires it for his own residence.

Committee of Arbitration.- The rent to be paid in such cases, or the price to be paid for the house when the claimant accedes to the owner's Committee of Arbitration-The rent to be paid in such cases, or the agreeing as to the amount, by a Committee of Arbitration constituted as follows.]

[G.O. No. 1001, dated 3-12-1864]"

14. As already held the property for which agreement to sale is to be executed falls within the ambit of land, therefore, the above GGO-179 dated 12.09.1836 would apply to the facts of this case which does not permit the grantee to sell the land.

15. Although the petitioner has submitted that he is not executing any sale deed, but only an agreement to sale by way of a registered deed, yet under the law, the petitioner cannot transfer any land without the prior permission of the authority of the Central Government. Thus, in the present case, the petitioner has attempted to do indirectly what he cannot do directly in a colourable manner. Moreover, the petitioner has not been able to show as to how he has obtained the property of the Cantonment Board, that is, whether he has taken prior permission of the authority concerned before taking possession of that very land through any person or the Cantonment Board. The legal principle quando aliquid prohibetur ex directo, prohibetur et per obliquum that when the law prohibits a particular act, it equally prohibits all indirect means of achieving the same result would be applicable and the petitioner cannot be allowed to use a circuitous route to achieve what is prohibited in law.

16. In every agreement to sale, certain conditions are stipulated, and upon fulfillment of those conditions, the vendor is bound to transfer the property personally. In the event of the vendor′s death, it is open to the vendee to initiate proceedings under Section 53A of the Transfer of Property Act for part performance. In such a case, the Court may either direct the legal representatives of the vendor to execute the sale deed, or it may itself direct the Sub Registrar to execute the transfer deed in favour of the vendee. Section 53A of the Transfer of Property Act is quoted below:-

"53A. Part performance.— Where any person contracts to transfer for consideration any immoveable property by writing signed by him or on his behalf from which the terms necessary to constitute the transfer can be ascertained with reasonable certainty:

and the transferee has, in part performance of the contract, taken possession of the property or any part thereof, or the transferee, being already in possession, continues in possession in part performance of the contract and has done some act in furtherance of the contract, and the transferee has performed or is willing to perform his part of the contract, then, notwithstanding that where there is an instrument of transfer, that the transfer has not been completed in the manner prescribed therefor by the law for the time being in force, the transferor or any person claiming under him shall be debarred from enforcing against the transferee and persons claiming under him any right in respect of the property of which the transferee has taken or continued in possession, other than a right expressly provided by the terms of the contract:

Provided that nothing in this section shall affect the rights of a transferee for consideration who has no notice of the contract or of the part performance thereof."

17. Therefore, the petitioner by colourable methods has tried to transfer the property to the third party which he cannot do. An agreement which, in substance, transfers possession, consideration, and incidents of ownership without prior NOC, is a colourable action, void ab initio, and unenforceable under Section 23 of the Contract Act.

18. Moreover, and importantly, the petitioner has neither challenged the vires of the Government Order as well as the Rules nor the order/judgment passed by this Court in the PIL wherein it has been provided that before transferring the property, prior permission is required to be obtained from the competent authority.

19. The petitioner has simpliciter assailed the refusal order passed by the Sub Registrar refusing to register the agreement to sale which was done in light of the circular issued by the State Government in light of the decisions of this Court. Moreover, the refusal order of the Sub Registrar is appealable under Section 72 of the Registration Act.

20. As per Section 72 of the Registration Act, if any order is passed by Sub Registrar refusing registration of any document, the same is appealable before the Registrar (the ADM (F/R)). Sections 72 and 73 of the Registrar Act, are quoted below :

"72. Appeal to Registrar from orders of Sub-Registrar refusing registration on ground other than denial of execution.-(1) Except where the refusal is made on the ground of denial of execution, an appeal shall lie against an order of a Sub-Registrar refusing to admit a document to registration (whether the registration of such document is compulsory or optional) to the Registrar to whom such Sub-Registrar is subordinate, if presented to such Registrar within thirty days from the date of the order; and the Registrar may reverse or alter such order.

(2) If the order of the Registrar directs the document to be registered and the document is duly presented for registration within thirty days after the making of such order, the Sub-Registrar shall obey the same, and thereupon shall, so far as may be practicable, follow the procedure prescribed in sections 58, 59 and 60; and such registration shall take effect as if the document had been registered when it was first duly presented for registration."

73. Application to Registrar where Sub-Registrar refuses to register on ground of denial of execution.-(1) When a Sub-Registrar has refused to register a document on the ground that any person by whom it purports to be executed, or his representative or assign, denies its execution, any person claiming under such document, or his representative, assign or agent authorised as aforesaid, may, within thirty days after the making of the order of refusal, apply to the Registrar to whom such Sub-Registrar is subordinate in order to establish his right to have the document registered.

(2) Such application shall be in writing and shall be accompanied by a copy of the reasons recorded under section 71, and the statements in the application shall be verified by the applicant in manner required by law for the verification of plaints. "

21. Furthermore, in case the Registrar (ADM F/R) refuses to order the document to be registered, a suit can be instituted in a Civil Court under Section 77 of the Registration Act, which is delineated below :

(1) Where the Registrar refuses to order the document to be registered, under section 72 or a decree section 76, any person claiming under such document, or his representative, assign or agent, may, within thirty days after the making of the order of refusal, institute in the Civil Court, within the local limits of whose original jurisdiction is situate the office in which the document is sought to be registered, a suit for a decree directing the document to be registered in such office if it be duly presented for registration within thirty days after the passing of such decree.

(2) The provisions contained in sub-sections(2) and (3) of section 75 shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to all documents presented for registration in accordance with any such decree, and, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the documents shall be receivable in evidence in such suit.

22. The decision relied upon by the learned counsel on behalf of the petitioner in Nirbhay Kr. Shahabadi and another vs. State of Jharkhand and others, MANU/JH/15012013 does not apply to the facts and circumstances of the case as the same was not in respect of land within the jurisdiction of the Cantonment Board. Ergo, this judgment will not come to the aid of the petitioner.

23. If any order is passed by this Court directing that without prior permission of the authorities no sale deed would be executed, the authorities within the State are bound to follow the same as the decisions of this Court operates as the law of the land within the State in view of Articles 215 and 226 of the Constitution of India and in respect of the land belonging to the Cantonment Board, no land can be sold without prior permission of the Central Government or the authority concerned as required under the law. It is further observed that the definition of 'building site' includes open ground or courtyard enclosed by, or adjacent to, any building erected thereupon.

24. The law mandates that any person before transferring any property is required to take prior permission from the competent authority. It is still open for the petitioner to first obtain the permission from the concerned authority and thereafter transfer the property either by way of agreement to sale which would culminate into a sale deed after fulfilling the conditions mentioned in the agreement to sale. There is no bar for moving an application for obtaining permission from the competent authority and if there is a refusal order in granting permission, it is still open for the petitioner to challenge the order passed by the authorities under Rule 15 of the Cantonment Rules, 1937 for granting permission.

25. The maxim nemo dat quod non habet signifies that no one can convey a better title to property than what he himself possesses; in other words, a transferor cannot pass ownership rights which he does not legally own. This principle safeguards true ownership and prevents unlawful enrichment of a transferee at the expense of the rightful owner.

26. In the present case, the petitioner has tried to transfer the property in question in a colourable method which he could not do directly. Moreover, the petitioner has failed to provide proof as to how he has obtained the property of the Cantonment Board, that is, whether he has taken prior permission of the authority concerned before taking possession of that very land through any person or the Cantonment Board as till date the name of the petitioner has not been entered into the records of the Cantonment Board.

27. The Sub Registrar has refused to register the agreement to sale deed, which is in the preceding step to a sale deed of the house as well as the land attached to the building. The above rejection is on the basis of the Government order as well as judgment and order passed by this Court directing that the property belonging to the Cantonment Board shall not be registered by the Sub Registrar until and unless prior permission is obtained from the concerned authority. The order of the Government has obviously been passed keeping in mind national interest and the security threat to the assets of the army and to the army personnel staying in the cantonment area. Furthermore, the Sub Registrar has refused to register the agreement to sell and against the said order, there is a provision under Section 72 of the Registration Act to file an appeal and thereafter there is a provision to challenge the order of appeal under Section 77 of the Registration Act by filing a suit. Therefore, the petitioner is directed to avail the appropriate remedy, if he desires to do so.

28. In light of the reasons above mentioned, we are of the view that the writ petition filed by the petitioner is not maintainable and is accordingly dismissed. There shall be no order as to costs.

ISSUE FOR CONSIDERATION

Whether, after the final disposal of Appeal No. 466/1975 on 11.10.1976 and the appellate order attaining finality due to non-challenge, the petitioner was entitled to reopen the ceiling proceedings by filing applications after 14 years and maintaining a fresh appeal (No. 86/89-90) against the Prescribed Authority's order deciding Issues 3, 4 and 5.

HEADNOTE

U.P. Imposition of Ceiling on Land Holdings Act, 1960 — Sections 10(2), 4-A, 14 — Ceiling proceedings — Objections rejected — 48.16 irrigated acres declared surplus — Appeal partly allowed — Remand confined to Issues 3, 4, 5 — Appeal kept pending — Prescribed Authority recorded findings and returned case — No objection filed — Appeal finally decided on 11.10.1976 — Order not challenged — Finality — Subsequent appeal not maintainable — Writ petition dismissed.

HELD

Notice under Section 10(2) was issued to the petitioner's father. Objections were rejected. Prescribed Authority declared 48.16 irrigated acres surplus. In Appeal No. 466/1975, the appellate court affirmed findings on Issues 1, 2, 6, while remanding Issues 3, 4, 5 under Section 4-A to the Prescribed Authority with a direction to return findings keeping the appeal pending. Findings were recorded on 12.07.1976; no objection was filed by the tenure holder. The appeal was finally decided on 11.10.1976. The order attained finality and the State took possession under Section 14 and allotted the land to landless persons. After 14 years, the petitioner sought reopening of the matter and filed Appeal No. 86/89-90 against the order deciding Issues 3, 4, 5. The appellate authority dismissed the appeal as not maintainable, holding that the Prescribed Authority's order had merged into the appellate order dated 11.10.1976 and no fresh appeal lay thereafter. Held: Once Appeal No. 466/1975 was finally decided on 11.10.1976, the findings on remanded issues merged into the appellate order and attained finality. A subsequent appeal against the same findings was not maintainable. There was no jurisdictional error in dismissal of Appeal No. 86/89-90. Writ petition dismissed. (E-5)

CASE ARISING FROM

Judgment and order dated 31.07.1996 passed by Additional Commissioner-I, Lucknow Division in Ceiling Appeal No. 86/89-90 affirming the order dated 16.08.1990 of the Prescribed Authority.

Appearances for Parties

Advs For Petitioner: P.L. Misra, Amit Kumar Pathak, Askari Naqvi, Mohammad Alishah Faruqi, Mohammad Aslam Khan, Rajesh Mishra, Rakesh Pathak, S.K. Tripathi, Sibte Alam Khan.
Advs For Respondents: C.S.C., Askari Naqvi, Madhulika Yadav, S.K. Tripathi.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Irshad Ali, J.)

1. Heard Sri Mohd. Arif Khan, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Sri Mohd. Aslam Khan, learned counsel for the petitioner, Sri S.P. Maurya, learned Standing Counsel for the State-respondent and Ms. Madhulika Yadav, learned counsel for the proposed respondents.

2. By means of the present writ petition, the petitioner has prayed as under :-

"(a) That by means of a writ, direction or order in the nature of certiorari the judgment and order dated 31.7.1996, passed by the Additional Commissioner I, Lucknow, as contained in Annexure No.9 to the writ petition, as well as the judgment and order dated 16.8.1990, passed by the Prescribed Authority, as contained in Annexure No.7 to the writ petition, be quashed;

(b) That by means of a writ, order or direction in the nature of mandamus the opposite parties no. 2 and 3 be directed to decide the dispute in accordance with the order dated 13.3.1976, passed by the Prescribed Authority;

3. The present writ petition is directed against the judgment and order dated 31.07.1996 passed by Additional Commissioner-I, Lucknow, in Ceiling Appeal No. 86/89-90, whereby the appeal was dismissed as not maintainable and the order dated 16.08.1990 of the Prescribed Authority was affirmed.

4. Factual matrix of the case is that the petitioner's father Shri Digvijai Prasad was issued notice under Section 10(2) of the U.P. Imposition of Ceiling on Land Holdings Act, 1960 (as amended in 1972) on 25.08.1974. He filed objections contending :-

(i) Sale of 12.25 acres in favour of Smt. Nanhee Devi in 1970, duly mutated on 22.01.1971; she was in separate possession since then. It was also pleaded that separation had taken place between the petitioner and Smt. Nanhee Devi 15 years ago and since then, they are living in two distinct villages and were not living as husband and wife.

(ii) Partition of 1971 between petitioner and his father by order of Sub Divisional Officer dated 14.04.1971; land mutated in petitioner's favour.

(iii) Independent tenure holders: Smt. Nanhee Devi, being a separated wife, was an independent recorded tenure holder, hence, her land could not be clubbed with that of the petitioner's father.

(iv) The unirrigated land and Usar land of village Saidpur has been shown as irrigated land.

5. The objections of the father of the petitioner were dismissed by the prescribed authority and it was held as under :-

(i) that partition suit was pending as on 24.01.1971; petitioner was a minor at that time.

(ii) Sale deed in favour of Nanhee Devi was before 24.01.1971 but separation was not judicial.

6. Consequently, 62.79 acres (unirrigated) (equivalent to 48.16 irrigated acres) was declared as surplus land.

7. An earlier appeal, registered as Appeal No. 466/1975, had been partly allowed by the Ist Additional District Judge, Sitapur, on 13.03.1976, whereby findings on some issues were affirmed but issues 3, 4, 5 were remitted to the prescribed authority for fresh findings. Shri Digvijai Prasad had also preferred Writ Petition No. 1086/1976, which was dismissed vide judgment and order dated 30.8.1978.

8. After the death of Shri Digvijai Prasad, the present petitioner was substituted and carried on the proceedings. His statutory appeal, registered as Appeal No. 86/89-90 and the same was transferred to the court of Additional Commissioner-I, Lucknow Division, Lucknow for disposal. In pursuance to the judgment and order dated 13.3.1976, the prescribed authority was required to give findings on the issue Nos.3, 4 and 5 and return the same to the appellate court. The prescribed authority did not decide these issues in the light of the observations made by the appellate court.

9. The Appeal No. 86/89-90 was finally dismissed on 31.07.1996 by the Additional Commissioner, Lucknow, as not maintainable. A review application filed against the said order is stated to be still pending. Meanwhile, the opposite parties are proceeding with the allotment of the surplus land. The petitioner claims to be in possession and apprehends irreparable injury in the event of dispossession.

10. Submission of learned counsel for the petitioner is that the appellate authority has failed to exercise the jurisdiction vested in it and erred in dismissing the appeal as not maintainable instead of adjudicating it on merits.

11. It is further submitted that the Prescribed Authority did not record findings on issues 3, 4 and 5 in the manner directed by the appellate court in its order dated 13.03.1976, resulting in failure of justice.

12. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the order of the Prescribed Authority merged into the appellate order dated 13.03.1976 and hence, until disposal of the appeal, the determination of surplus land could not be treated as final. The acceptance of choice of land by the Prescribed Authority was premature and beyond jurisdiction as the appeal was pending.

13. It is also submitted that lands standing in the names of the petitioner and Smt. Nanhee Devi, being those of independent tenure holders, could not be clubbed with the holdings of Shri Digvijai Prasad.

14. In support of his submission, he placed reliance upon the following judgments :-

(i) Ram Asrey and others Vs. Additional Commissioner Jhansi Division, Jhansi and others [2008 (105) RD 608]. Relevant paragraphs-8, 9, 13 and 14 are being quoted as under :-

"8 . Taking support of the aforesaid section, learned Counsel for respondents submits that unless and until order has become final, no allotment can be made of surplus land declared of a tenure holder. Reliance has been placed upon a judgement reported in 1984 ALJ 403 Raj Bahadur and Ors. v. District Judge, Hamirpur and Anr. and reliance has been placed upon Para 4 of said judgement. The same is being reproduced below:

"4. The petitioners claimed to be the allottees of the land. It is said that the allotment was made on 25,6.1976. It should be seen that no allotment could be made on the said date as the ceiling proceedings had not become final before the Prescribed Authority. The Prescribed Authority finally disposed of the ceiling case on 2 J. 12.1977 as is clear from the judgment of this Court in the earlier writ petition (Annexure 2 to this petition). Thereafter, an appeal was filed. The appellate court decided initially on 3.2.1979. I have already stated above that against the said appellate judgment dated 3.2.1979, the earlier writ petition was filed and 1 allowed the same and remanded the case again to the appellate court, which finally decided the appeal by the aforesaid impugned judgment dated 5.9.1981. It is, therefore, obvious that during the pendency of these ceiling proceedings first before the Prescribed Authority and thereafter before the appellate court, no valid allotment could be made in favour of anyone. In the ceiling proceedings the alleged allottees did not have any locus standi. The contest was between the tenure-holder and the State. It is not necessary to consider the case of the transferees etc. from the tenure-holder to determine whether in the ceiling proceedings such transferees-have a locus standi or not. However, so far as the alleged allottees are concerned. I am clear in my mind that they did not come at all in the picture till the ceiling proceedings became final and the notification under Section 14 of the Act is issued. I have already stated above that the final verdict of the appellate court was that the tenureholder did not hold any surplus land and, therefore, the notice under Section 10(2) of the Act stood discharged. In such a situation, there was no question of any surplus land vesting in the State and being the subject-matter of any allotment.

9 . Another judgement has been relied upon by learned Counsel for respondents reported in MANU/UP/0297/2001 : 2001 (92) RD 538Ram Bhajan v. Chief Revenue Officer/Prescribed Authority , Mirzapur and Ors. Reliance has been placed upon para 13, 14, 15, and 16 of the said judgement. The same are being reproduced below:

13. It is well settled that the matter of declaration of the land as surplus is between the State and the tenure holder and nobody comes in between and thus once the State has chosen not to take up the matter to the higher forum, challenging the judgment of the Prescribed Authority by which notice for declaration of the land as surplus itself was withdrawn, no argument can be advanced by the petitioner raising any finger on this aspect that the tenure holder might have surplus land if the matter is examined in further details in the light of the facts as are being pleaded by him.

14. It is also settled that the allottee cannot acquire any better right than the right as exists with the State and thus the State itself having no right to the land as the same did not remain as surplus the claim of the allottee will fall short as the giver himself is not possessed to part anything to the petitioner.

15. The decisions as has been cited by the learned Counsel for the petitioner although lays down that the allottee has to be given opportunity of hearing before cancellation of the allotment, but in my opinion those decisions have no application to the facts of the present case. Those decisions can only apply when there is proceedings for cancellation of the allotment and some impropriety and illegality in the allotment proceedings are alleged, which can be subject matter of enquiry and scrutiny in that cancellation proceedings for which certainly the allottee will have to be given opportunity of hearing so that he can demonstrate the completion of all the formalities and validity of the allotment. But so far the present case is concerned neither the tenure holder has taken any ground nor have challenged the validity of the allotment on any ground which may be available for cancellation of the allotment. Here by virtue of the fact that by the judgement of the Prescribed Authority no land remained as surplus and thus as a consequence thereof the Prescribed Authority has directed to restore the correct position of the revenue records and therefore, the decision as has been cited by the learned Counsel for the petitioner will not fit in the facts of the present case.

16. In fact the land having been given to the allottee by the Collector, the allottee cannot get any better title than the Collector was possessed, as the petitioner has stepped into the shoes of the Collector. In view of the judgment of the Prescribed Authority dated 22.5.86 the restoration of the correct entry in the revenue record and even restitution of the possession will be an automatic follow-up to which the petitioner can have no say in the matter as he has no locus standi to intervene in the matter of declaration of the land as surplus.

13. In Ram Bhajan's case (supra), this Court has further held that "if order has become final and it has not been challenged by the State, the restoration of possession after discharge of notice in the revenue record is an automatic follow-up to which allottee can have no say and they have no locus-standi to intervenes in the matter of declaration of the land as surplus."

14. In view of aforesaid proposition of law as held by this Court and in view of Section 14 of the Act, it is clear that unless and until proceeding against tenure holder has become final, in case, any allotment is made and if the notice under Section 10 is discharged, the tenure holder is entitled to possession. In any event, if the respondent State during pendency of proceeding on the basis of order passed by prescribed authority, allot the land to certain persons and handover possession, as soon as the notice is discharged the restoration of possession to the tenure holder is automatic. The allottees in that circumstances, will have no right to say regarding the validity and genuineness of the order passed in favour of tenure holder. It is only State, who comes in picture to challenge the order passed, if any, in favour of tenure holder. Admittedly, the order dated 2.6.1999 has become final as it regards to the State. State has not filed any writ petition challenging the said order. Therefore, I am of the opinion that in spite of fact that petitioners were permitted to be impleaded before the Appellate Authority and they have been given opportunity to be heard but in the facts and circumstances of the case, as the appellate authority has already discharged the notice vide its order dated 2.6.1999 and has held that no land of respondent No. 2 is surplus, therefore, consequence of that will be that respondent No. 2 will be entitled to get possession of surplus land held by prescribed authority in his earlier order. Petitioners will have no right to challenge the order passed by Appellate Authority dated 2.6.1999. Only the State can have a say regarding the validity of the order dated 2.6.1999 passed by Appellate Authority but admittedly, the State has not filed any writ petition before this Court, challenging the order passed by appellate authority and that has become final."

(ii) Ram Bhajan Vs. Chief Revenue Officer/ Prescribed Authority, Mirzapur and others [2001 (44) ALR 541]. Relevant paragraphs-13 and 14 are being quoted below :-

"13. It is well settled that the matter of declaration of the land as surplus is between the State and the tenure holder and nobody comes in between and thus once the State has chosen not to take up the matter to the higher forum, challenging the judgment of the Prescribed Authority by which notice for declaration of the land as surplus itself was withdrawn, no argument can be advanced by the petitioner raising any finger on this aspect that the tenure holder might have surplus land if the matter is examined in further details in the light of the facts as are being pleaded by him.

14. It is also settled that the allottee cannot acquire any better right than the right as exists with the State and thus the State itself having no right to the land as the same did not remain as surplus the claim of the allottee will fall short as the giver himself is not possessed to part anything to the petitioner."

15. Smt. Madhulika Yadav, Advocate by means of impleadment application has opposed the submission advanced by learned counsel for the petitioner on the ground that proposed opposite parties who have filed application for impleadment were allotted land from the surplus land in the year 1990. The proposed respondents are patta holders and poor landless scheduled caste persons and possession was handed over to them, who have been continuously in possession of the same since 1990 to 1997 and their names have been recorded in revenue record (khatauni), therefore, any order without impleadment will be bad in the eyes of law.

16. After having heard the submission advanced by learned counsel for the parties, I perused the material on record as well as the law report cited by learned counsel for the petitioner.

17. Ms. Madhulika Yadav, Advocate was heard in opposition without allowing impleadment application. The rights of the proposed respondents shall be subject to decision passed in the writ petition.

18. The petitioner's father Shri Digvijai Prasad was issued notice under Section 10(2) of the U.P. Imposition of Ceiling on Land Holdings Act, 1960 (as amended in 1972) on 25.08.1974. He filed objections stating therein that sale of 12.25 acres in favour of Smt. Nanhee Devi in 1970, duly mutated on 22.01.1971; she was in separate possession since then. It was also pleaded that separation had taken place between the petitioner and Smt. Nanhee Devi 15 years ago and since then, they are living in two distinct villages and were not living as husband and wife. Partition of 1971 between petitioner and his father by order of Sub Divisional Officer dated 14.04.1971; land mutated in petitioner's favour. Independent tenure holders: Smt. Nanhee Devi, being a separated wife, was an independent recorded tenure holder, hence, her land could not be clubbed with that of the petitioner's father. The unirrigated land and Usar land of village Saidpur has been shown as irrigated land.

19. The objections filed by the father of the petitioner were dismissed by the prescribed authority holding that the partition suit was pending as on 24.01.1971 and the petitioner was a minor at that time. Sale deed in favour of Nanhee Devi was before 24.01.1971 but separation was not judicial.

20. Consequently, 62.79 acres (unirrigated) (equivalent to 48.16 irrigated acres) was declared as surplus land. At earlier point of time Appeal No. 466/1975, had been partly allowed by the Ist Additional District Judge, Sitapur, on 13.03.1976, whereby findings on some issues were affirmed but issue Nos.3, 4, 5 were remitted to the prescribed authority for fresh findings. Shri Digvijai Prasad had also preferred Writ Petition No. 1086/1976, which was dismissed vide judgment and order dated 30.8.1978.

21. After the death of Shri Digvijai Prasad, the present petitioner was substituted and carried on the proceedings. His statutory appeal, registered as Appeal No. 86/89-90 and the same was transferred to the court of Additional Commissioner-I, Lucknow Division, Lucknow for disposal. In pursuance to the judgment and order dated 13.3.1976, the prescribed authority was required to give findings on the issue Nos.3, 4 and 5 and return the same to the appellate court. The prescribed authority did not decide these issues in the light of the observations made by the appellate court.

22. The ceiling proceeding under Section 10(2) of The U.P. Imposition of Ceiling on Land Holdings Act, 1960 was initiated against Digvijay Prasad, the father of the petitioner and he filed the objection and the prescribed authority framed six issues and ultimately dismissed the objection of Digvijay Prasad on 31.10.1975 after taking the evidence and declared 48.16 acre surplus land against which Digvijay Prasad filed appeal No.466 of 1975 and Additional District and Sessions Judge, Sitapur partly allowed the appeal on 13.03.1976 and confirmed the finding on issue Nos.1, 2 and 6 and the case was remanded back to the prescribed authority to decide the issued Nos.3, 4, 5 as per provisions of Section 4-A of Ceiling Act and further directed to decide issued Nos.3,4, 5 within a month and the finding recorded by the prescribed authority be returned back so that the appeal may be finally decided.

23. The prescribed authority issued notice to Digvijay Prasad and he appeared in the court on 26.05.1976 and given statement that he do not want to give evidence and he has filed writ petition before Hon'ble High Court but no restrained order was produced and State was directed to produce evidence. Meantime, Digvijay Prasad again moved an application on 02.07.1976 and prayed to stay the present proceeding till the decision of writ petition but as per order dated 26.04.1976 the possession of tenure holder shall not be disturbed and no restrained order was passed, therefore, the prescribed authority decided issue Nos.3, 4, and 5 on 12.07.1976 (Annexure SCA1 to supplementary counter affidavit) and prescribed authority sent the file back to the District Judge and the District Judge, Sitapur fixed the date 20.08.1976 for filing the objection against the finding recorded on issue Nos.3, 4 and 5 but Digvijay Prasad neither appeared nor filed any objection against the findings and he has also not given any fresh proposal to declare the surplus land and the District Judge sent file back to the prescribed authority on 20.08.1976 (Annexure SCA 2 to supplementary counter affidavit) for sending fresh proposals for declaration of surplus land as per order dated 13.03.1976 within 15 days and fixed the date on 15.09.1976 for further order and the prescribed authority sent the proposal on 30.08.1976 to District Judge, Sitapur and the District Judge finally decided Civil Appeal No.466 of 1975 vide order dated 11.10.1976 which was never challenged by the petitioner or his father Digvijay Prasad and the order dated 11.10.1976 become final.

24. Writ Petition No.1086 of 1976 Digvijay Prasad Vs. State of U.P. and Another was decided on 04.10.1989 but father of the petitioner suppressed about the order dated 11.10.1976 and the State taken possession over surplus land under Section 14 of U.P. Imposition of Ceiling on Land Holdings Act, 1960 and allotted the surplus land to several landless persons and the said allotment has also became final.

25. The petitioner filed an application to the prescribed authority on 26.07.1990 (Annexure SCA 5 to supplementary counter affidavit) after a lapse of 14 years and prayed that the allotment of surplus land should be stopped and further stop to take possession from petitioner and second application was filed on 26.07.1990 in which prayer was made to set aside ex parte order dated 12.07.1976 and decide the case after taking evidence on issues 3, 4 & 5 and the petitioner further filed an application on 09.08.1990 and given choice of the land suppressing the order dated 11.10.1976 passed by District Judge, Sitapur which become final due to non challenge of the same before any forum.

26. The State has filed the order dated 12.07.1976, 20.08.1976, 30.08.1976 and 11.01.1976 before the prescribed authority and the prescribed authority rejected both the applications by a reasoned order dated 16.08.1990 without mentioning aforesaid orders and the appeal filed by the petitioner was also dismissed on 31.07.1996 by the Additional Commissioner, Lucknow as not maintainable.

27. The appellate authority has dismissed the appeal No.86/89-90 on the ground that while allowing the appeal partly, the Ist Additional District Judge, Sitapur on 13.03.1976 remanded the matter back to the prescribed authority keeping the appeal pending. The prescribed authority after deciding the issue Nos.3, 4 and 5 listed it in the pending appeal which was finally decided the appeal on 11.10.1976. The order passed in the appeal finalized was not challenged by the petitioner in writ petition, or in revision or before any forum, therefore, the judgment and order passed in the appeal became final.

28. The appeal No.86/89-90 was filed against the order passed by the prescribed authority for deciding issue Nos.3, 4 and 5 before the Additional Commissioner, Lucknow, who dismissed the appeal as not maintainable on the ground that the appeal has already been decided in which the order of prescribed authority was affirmed, therefore, the appeal No.86/89-90 was dismissed on 31.07.1996. The order passed by the appellate court does not suffer from any infirmity or illegality in view of the fact that pending appeal against the judgment and order dated 13.03.1976 the matter was remanded back to the prescribed authority to decide issue Nos.3, 4 & 5 afresh keeping the appeal pending. Thereafter, the matter was decided by the prescribed authority and was placed in the pending appeal which has been decided by the appellate court which has not been assailed at any forum, therefore, the judgment and order passed in the appeal attained finality.

29. The appellate authority has not exercised jurisdiction vested in it due to reason that earlier appeal which was kept pending has been decided and the next appeal No.86/89-90 was not maintainable. The finding recorded by the prescribed authority on the issue Nos.3, 4 & 5 was duly submitted before the appellate court which was accepted and the appeal was dismissed vide order dated 11.10.1976.

30. Subsequent appeal filed against the order of prescribed authority passed in deciding the issue Nos.3, 4 & 5 and appeal No.86/89-90 the finding recorded by the appellate authority does not suffer from any infirmity or illegality as was held that the appeal is not maintainable. The order of the prescribed authority merged into appellate court order passed at earlier point of time, therefore, the appeal No.86/89-90 was not maintainable.

31. In case the petitioner was aggrieved by the order passed by the appellate court at earlier point of time accepting the order of prescribed authority the petitioner was aggrieved, he would have filed the writ petition against that order. There was no occasion to file fresh appeal for the same purpose. During pendency of appeal remanding the matter to the prescribed authority by recording finding of issue Nos.3, 4, 5 the prescribed authority decided the issue and placed it in the pending appeal, which was subsequently dismissed and the same was not assailed at any forum, therefore, the order passed in the appeal attained finality.

32. In regard to order passed in the appeal no.86/89-90 vide judgment and order dated 31.07.1996 the review application filed against the said order has already been decided but the date of order was not pointed out and the same has not been assailed in the writ petition. The judgments relied upon by learned counsel for the petitioner which have been noticed in the present judgment are not applicable to the facts and circumstances of the case. The appeal has rightly been dismissed as not maintainable.

33. In view of totality of facts and circumstances of the case, the present writ petition filed against order of prescribed authority and passed in the subsequent appeal No.86/89-90 do not suffer from any infirmity or illegality.

34. The writ petition lacks merit and is hereby dismissed.

35. No order as to costs.

Headnotes
Default Bail-Default bail application filed-rejected-impugned- on account of non-filing of complaint within ninety days-from the date of arrest-allegation against applicant being an employee of Ordnance Factory-was sharing confidential information and documents through WhatsApp to an agent of Pakistan-preliminary objection-Section 21(4) of the Act 2008-appeal shall lie to the High Court against an order of the Special Court granting or refusing bail-notwithstanding contained in Section 378 (3) Cr.P.C.- no otherwise definition can be given against the intent of the legislature. Application not maintainable-dismissed.
Held, apparent from the provision of Section 21(4) of the Act 2008 that an appeal shall lie to the High Court against an order of the Special Court granting or refusing bail, notwithstanding contained in Sub Section (3) of Section 378 of the Cr.P.C. This provision is overt in its mandate and while applying this provision in the present case, it is apparent that this does not speak regarding any difference of any kind of refusing or granting bail, meaning thereby that if the Special Court (NIA) grants or refuses the bail, the same is amenable to the provisions of the appeal, prescribed under Section 21 of the Act 2008 and, therefore, in presence of the obvious provisions, no otherwise definition can be given against the intent of the legislature. Counsel for Opposite Party(s) : G.A.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shree Prakash Singh, J.)

1. Heard Sri Purnendu Chakravarty, learned counsel assisted by Ms. Aishwarya Saxena, Mr. Pranajal Jain and Mr. Rohit Kanaujia, learned counsels for the applicant and Sri Shiv Nath Tilhari, learned counsel for the State of U.P.

2. Present application is directed against the order dated 7.7.2025 passed by learned Additional Sessions Judge, Court No.3/Special Judge/NIA, Lucknow whereby the default bail application on account of non-filing of complaint, within ninety days, from the date of arrest, has been rejected.

3. At the very outset, a preliminary objection has been taken by Sri Shiv Nath Tilhari, learned counsel appearing for the State that the F.I.R. No.2/2025 dated 19.3.2025 was registered under Section 148 BNS and Section 3/4/5 of the Official Secrets Act, 2023 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Act 2023'), against the applicant, while alleging that the applicant being an employee of Ordnance Factory, Kanpur, was sharing confidential information and documents through WhatsApp to one Neha Sharma who is said to be an agent of Pakistan, compromising the safety and interest of the Country. He submits that the schedule as prescribed under the National Investigation Agency Act, 2008 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Act 2008') reveals that Chapter VI of the Indian Penal Code [Sections 121 to 130 (both inclusive)] are find mention and, therefore, this is amenable to the jurisdiction of Special Court designated/constituted under the scheme of the Act 2008 read with the Rules 2008 made thereunder. He submits that Section 121A of I.P.C. corresponds to Section 148 in Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 (hereinafter referred to as 'the BNS'). He further submits that the order impugned dated 7.7.2025 has admittedly been passed by the Special Court (NIA) wherein default bail application has been rejected. He argued that any order passed by the Special Court (NIA) is appealable as per the provisions given under Section 21 of the Act 2008.

4. For ready reference, Section 21 of the Act 2008 is reproduced hereinunder:-

"21. Appeals. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code, an appeal shall lie from any judgment sentence or order, not being an interlocutory order, of a Special Court to the High Court both on facts and on law.

(2) Every appeal under sub-section (1) shall be heard by a bench of two Judges of the High Court and shall, as far as possible, be disposed of within a period of three months from the date of admission of the appeal.

(3) Except as aforesaid, no appeal or revision shall lie to any court from any judgment, sentence or order including an interlocutory order of a Special Court.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (3) of Section 378 of the Code, an appeal shall lie to the High Court against an order of the Special Court granting or refusing bail.

(5) Every appeal under this section shall be preferred within a period of thirty days from the date of the judgment, sentence or order appealed from:

Provided that the High Court may entertain an appeal after the expiry of the said period of thirty days if it is satisfied that the appellant had sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal within the period of thirty days:

Provided further that no appeal shall be entertained after the expiry of period of ninety days."

5. Referring to Sub Section (4) of Section 21, he submits that an appeal shall lie to the High Court, against an order of the Special Court, granting or refusing bail and in the present case, the default bail application has been rejected, thus, he submits that the order impugned dated 7.7.2025 passed by the Special Court (NIA) is appealable under the provision of Act 2008 and therefore, being an efficacious and alternative statutory remedy available to the applicant, the present application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. is not maintainable, as such, this application may be dismissed on this ground alone.

6. Per contra, learned counsel for the applicant has opposed the contention aforesaid and submits that Section 167(2) Cr.P.C. (corresponding to Section 187(3) BNS, 2023) is a statutory provision which confers indefeasible right upon accused to be released on bail, on non-filing of charge sheet, within the prescribed time period whereas Section 439 Cr.P.C./Section 483 Bharatiya Nyaya Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (hereinafter referred to as 'the BNSS') is regular bail procedure and is wholly discretionary in nature. He also submits that Sub Section (1) (2) of Section 21 of Act 2008 provides right to appeal against the Judgment, sentence or order, not being an interlocutory order. Further submitted that Section 21(3) of the Act provides an exclusion clause, restricting appeals against interlocutory orders and Section 21(4) of the Act 2008 prescribes the right to appeal against an order granting or refusing bail which is to be construed with reference to Section 439 Cr.P.C./483 BNSS and does not apply to Section 167 (2) Cr.P.C./187(3) of BNSS 2023.

7. In support of his contention, he has placed reliance on a Judgement of this Court in the case of Harendra Vs. State of U.P. and another reported in 2020 SCC OnLine All 850 and has referred to para 13, which reads as under:-

"13. Thus, on the facts of the case that the applications for default bail were filed prior to the filing of the charge-sheet and following the law as laid down by the Supreme Court in the case of Union of India Through General Bureau of Investigation v. Nirala Yadav alias Raja Ram Yadav alias Deepak Yadav (Supra), I am of the view that the applicants were entitled to be enlarged on statutory bail and non-grant of statutory bail and the rejection of the application for grant of statutory bail was wholly untenable in law."

8. He also argued that non-filing of charge sheet within the prescribed time, mandates release of an accused under statutory remedy of default bail and such release is a deemed release under Chapter XXXIII of Cr.P.C., however, order for the bail can be cancelled under Section 439 (2) of Cr.P.C. which is subject to cancellation and, therefore, any order which is subject to cancellation, withdrawal or recession, would not be a final order. He also added that test of finality has to be seen in terms of Sub Section (2) which bars alteration or review of Judgment or final judgement except of clerical or arithmetical errors and since this Court possesses inherent power to give effect to any order under this Code empowers it to give effect to Section 167 (2) of Cr.P.C. while directing the release of an accused on statutory bail.

9. Concluding his arguments, he submits that the order passed under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C./187(3) BNSS is not passed, on the merits of this case, thus, the same cananot be treated as a final order. and, therefore, the instant application under Section 482 Cr.P.C./582 of BNSS is maintainable and, therefore, the preliminary objection may be rejected.

10. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and after perusal of the record, it transpires that at the very inception, the preliminary objection has been raised by the counsel appearing for the State, on the premises of Section 21 of the Act 2008, while submitting that the appeal is maintainable against any order passed by the Special Court constituted/designated under the provisions of Act 2008.

11. By way of the present application, the order passed under Section 187(3) of BNSS whereby the default bail has been rejected, is under challenge. The provision prescribed under Section 187(3) of BNSS contains the 'statutory bail', which in fact identifies the indefeasible right given to the accused person. In fact, the right of default bail can be exercised once and not likewise the other provision of bail as prescribed under Section 439 of the Cr.P.C. where at the subsequent stage ,more bail applications can be instituted, in form of second, third and fourth bail application and so on.

12. The provision of statutory bail under Section 187(3) BNSS/167(2) Cr.P.C. is whether an interlocutory order or a final order. The test which could be applied, for an order, being interlocutory, intermediary or final, can be summarized in two folds; firstly that any such order, which substantially affects the right of the accused or parties, cannot be termed as an interlocutory order and secondly, any right, which accrue out of some statutory provisions, is also not an interlocutory order. Time and again, this issue has exhaustively been dealt with by the Apex Court starting from a three Judge Bench decision of the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Madhu Limaye Vs. the State of Maharashtra, reported in (1977) 4 SCC 551 wherein the ratio drawn in the case of Amar Nath and others Vs. State of Haryana and another, reported in (1977) 4 SCC 137 has partly been affirmed, holding that the term 'interlocutory order' as is used in Section 397 of the Cr.P.C. does not invariably mean the converse of the term of 'final order' and certain guidelines were provided to examine that a particular order is not an 'interlocutory order'.

13. Subsequently, the Apex Court in the case of V.C. Shukla Vs. State reported in 1980 Supp SCC 92, considering the ratio drawn in Amar Nath (supra) and Madhu Limaye (supra), has held that the intermediate, quasi final and final orders are revisable. In this view, the provision of statutory bail under Section 187(3) of BNSS is an intermediary order and the same is revisable, subject to any other provision provided in a special Act.

14. Coming to the crux of the issue of maintainability, it is apparent from the provision of Section 21(4) of the Act 2008 that an appeal shall lie to the High Court against an order of the Special Court granting or refusing bail, notwithstanding contained in Sub Section (3) of Section 378 of the Cr.P.C. This provision is overt in its mandate and while applying this provision in the present case, it is apparent that this does not speak regarding any difference of any kind of refusing or granting bail, meaning thereby that if the Special Court (NIA) grants or refuses the bail, the same is amenable to the provisions of the appeal, prescribed under Section 21 of the Act 2008 and, therefore, in presence of the obvious provisions, no otherwise definition can be given against the intent of the legislature. This Court is also aware of the trite law that a thing should be done in the manner prescribed under the statute, not otherwise. Admittedly, vide order dated 7.7.2025, the learned Special Judge (NIA) has rejected the default bail application of the applicant. Thus, against such order the remedy of appeal is provided under the Special Act, i.e., Act 2008.

15. Further this Court also noticed that the law referred by counsel for the applicant, which is rendered in case of Harendra Vs. State of U.P. and another (supra), is on different factual matrix and this will not apply to the facts and circumstances of the present case as the dispute in question in the above-said case was regarding completion of ninety days as the charge sheet was dispatched on the same day when the application for default bail was moved, therefore, this will not cover the field of the issue in the instant matter.

16. Ergo, this Court is of the considered opinion that the instant application challenging the order dated 7.7.2025 passed by the Special Court (NIA) is not maintainable, thus, preliminary objection taken by counsel for the State; sustains.

17. The present application is hereby dismissed as not maintainable.

18. However, it is open to the applicant to pursue the appropriate remedy, provided under law.

19. Consigned to the records.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ajay Bhanot, J.)

1. Heard Shri Abhishek Singh, learned counsel assisted by Shri Anuj Kumar Gupta, learned counsel for the applicant, Shri Syed Farookh Ahmad, learned counsel for the first informant-opposite party no. 2 and Shri Vivek Gupta, learned AGA for the State.

2. By the impugned order dated 11.06.2024 the application filed by the applicant under Section 311 Cr.P.C. for recall of P.W. 8 Tara Singh Patel who was the investigation officer has been declined.

3. The learned trial court while rejecting the application has first noticed the timeline of the case. As per the impugned order examination in chief of P.W. 8 Tara Singh Patel was conducted on 28.10.2022. The defence did not cross examine the P.W. 8 on the date of examination in chief. Thereafter P.W. 8 was extensively cross examined on 10.02.2023 by the defence. Adequate opportunity to cross examine P.W. 8 was thus provided to the applicant. The defence has also asked all relevant questions in the facts and circumstances of the case to the investigating officer while the latter was under cross examined. After examination of P.W. 8 and all prosecution witnesses the trial proceeded in due course. The conclusion of prosecution evidence set the stage for proceedings under Section 313 Cr.P.C. The proceedings under Section 313 Cr.P.C. too were concluded over a period of time.

4. It is fairly informed by learned counsel for the applicant that three defence witnesses have also been introduced at the stage of defence evidence. After conclusion of the evidence of both sides the matter was posted for hearing. The applicant then moved an application on 06.12.2023 under Section 311 Cr.P.C. to recall P.W. 8 for further cross examination. The trial also adverted to the merits of the case set out in application. On the back of the aforesaid reasoning and factual determination the learned trial court has rejected the application under Section 311 Cr.P.C.

5. The jurisdiction of the trial court under Section 311 Cr.P.C. is wide enough to meet the ends of justice. However, good authority has provided for caution and circumspection while exercising judicial discretion under the said provision.

6. The Supreme Court in State (NCT of Delhi) vs. Shiv Kumar Yadav reported at (2016) 2 SCC 402, it has been held: -

"Certainly, recall could be permitted if essential for the just decision, but not on such consideration as has been adopted in the present case. Mere observation that recall was necessary "for ensuring fair trial" is not enough unless there are tangible reasons to show how the fair trial suffered without recall. Recall is not a matter of course and the discretion given to the court has to be exercised judiciously to prevent failure of justice and not arbitrarily. While the party is even permitted to correct its bona fide error and may be entitled to further opportunity even when such opportunity may be sought without any fault on the part of the opposite party, plea for recall for advancing justice has to be bona fide and has to be balanced carefully with the other relevant considerations including un-called for hardship to the witnesses and un-called for delay in the trial. Having regard to these considerations, there is no ground to justify the recall of witnesses already examined."

7. The Supreme Court in Ratanlal Vs. Prahlad Jat reported at (2017) 9 SCC 340, held as under:

"17. In order to enable the court to find out the truth and render a just decision, the salutary provisions of Section 311 are enacted whereunder any court by exercising its discretionary authority at any stage of inquiry, trial or other proceeding can summon any person as witness or examine any person in attendance though not summoned as a witness or recall or re-examine any person already examined who are expected to be able to throw light upon the matter in dispute. The object of the provision as a whole is to do justice not only from the point of view of the accused and the prosecution but also from the point of view of an orderly society. This power is to be exercised only for strong and valid reasons and it should be exercised with caution and circumspection. Recall is not a matter of course and the discretion given to the court has to be exercised judicially to prevent failure of justice. Therefore, the reasons for exercising this power should be spelt out in the order."

8. The Supreme Court in Swapan Kumar Chatterjee vs CBI, reported at (2019) 14 SCC 328, held thus:

"10. The first part of this section which is permissive gives purely discretionary authority to the criminal court and enables it at any stage of inquiry, trial or other proceedings under the Code to act in one of the three ways, namely, (i) to summon any person as a witness; or (ii) to examine any person in attendance, though not summoned as a witness; or (iii) to recall and re-examine any person already examined. The second part, which is mandatory, imposes an obligation on the court (i) to summon and examine, or (ii) to recall and re-examine any such person if his evidence appears to be essential to the just decision of the case.

11. It is well settled that the power conferred under Section 311 should be invoked by the court only to meet the ends of justice. The power is to be exercised only for strong and valid reasons and it should be exercised with great caution and circumspection. The court has vide power under this section to even recall witnesses for re-examination or further examination, necessary in the interest of justice, but the same has to be exercised after taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of each case. The power under this provision shall not be exercised if the court is of the view that the application has been filed as an abuse of the process of law."

9. In V. N. Patil vs. K. Niranjan Kumar, reported at (2021) 3 SCC 661, the Supreme Court held: -

"14. The object underlying Section 311 CrPC is that there may not be failure of justice on account of mistake of either party in bringing the valuable evidence on record or leaving ambiguity in the statements of the witnesses examined from either side. The determinative factor is whether it is essential to the just decision of the case. The significant expression that occurs is "at any stage of any inquiry or trial or other proceeding under this Code". It is, however, to be borne in mind that the discretionary power conferred under Section 311 CrPC has to be exercised judiciously, as it is always said "wider the power, greater is the necessity of caution while exercise of judicious discretion".

17. The aim of every court is to discover the truth. Section 311 CrPC is one of many such provisions which strengthen the arms of a court in its effort to unearth the truth by procedure sanctioned by law. At the same time, the discretionary power vested under Section 311 CrPC has to be exercised judiciously for strong and valid reasons and with caution and circumspection to meet the ends of justice."

10. Learned counsel for the applicant has relied upon the judgement rendered by the Supreme Court in Manju Devi Vs.State of Rajasthan and others reported at 2019 (6) SCC 203. The facts of the case in which discretion was exercised in favour of the accused while allowing the application under Section 311 Cr.P.C., the Supreme Court in Manju Devi (supra) noticed the following facts:

"11. The indisputable fact situation of the case remains that the daughter of the appellant died an unnatural death on 14.01.2010 in Nigeria, where she was living with her husband (the respondent No. 2), who is standing the trial for offences under Section 302, 304B and 498A IPC. The first post-mortem of the dead-body of the daughter of appellant was carried out on 16.01.2010 in Aminu Kanu Teaching Hospital, Nigeria by the said Dr. I. Yusuf. A copy of the post-mortem report prepared by the said doctor in Nigeria has, of course, been placed on record wherein, the cause of death is stated as "asphyxia secondary to strangulation". Though the dead-body of the daughter of appellant was brought to India on 29.01.2010 and Medical Board was constituted for conducting the post-mortem but then, the Board found that no definite opinion could be given regarding the time and cause of death. The investigating agency, for the reasons best known to it, did not cite the said doctor, who conducted the first post-mortem in Nigeria as a witness. It is also not the case on behalf of the accused that the copy of the post-mortem report dated 16.01.2010 prepared in Nigeria was not disputed and/or he would not be seeking to cross-examine the said doctor, if he is examined as a witness in this matter. In the given set of facts and circumstances, evident it is that the testimony of the said doctor who conducted the first post-mortem in Nigeria is germane to the questions involved in this matter; and for a just decision of the case with adequate opportunity to both the parties to put forward their case, the application under Section 311CrPC ought to have been allowed.

11. In those facts and circumstances the Supreme Court in Manju Devi (supra) held that the age of a case should not be the determinative factor in such matters and in any case length of the trial per se should not come in the way of examination of material witness by holding:

"12. Though it is expected that the trial of a sessions case should proceed with reasonable expedition and pendency of such a matter for about 8-9 years is not desirable but then, the length/duration of a case cannot displace the basic requirement of ensuring the just decision after taking all the necessary and material evidence on record. In other words, the age of a case, by itself, cannot be decisive of the matter when a prayer is made for examination of a material witness."

12. As noticed above in Manju Devi (supra) the material witness namely Doctor who had conducted the postmortem report was waived as a prosecution witness and not produced before the court. The testimony of the said witness was likely to have a significant impact on the trial. The facts of this case are distinguishable and Manju Devi (supra) does not support the case of the applicant.

13. On the contrary as noticed by the learned trial court in this case the defence had ample opportunity to cross examine P.W. 8. The defence has also fully availed the said opportunity and conducted a comprehensive cross examination. The applicant had been afforded all opportunities and the trial was processed in a fair manner.

14. In this wake failure to file an application in a reasonable period of time would be a relevant factor in deciding the fate of the application under Section 311 Cr.P.C. Consequently the said delay in tendering the application under Section 311 Cr.P.C. would have a material bearing on its fate.

15. The need for recall of P.W. 8 for further cross examination will now be assessed on merits. The application under Section 311 Cr.P.C. seeks to cross examine the investigating officer on various aspects of forensic science laboratory report which was always in the record and in the knowledge of the applicant and his counsel. The question as regards the inspection of the spot of the incident by the investigating officer which is depicted in the application under Section 311 Cr.P.C. is an exercise in futility since the question related to the aforesaid inspection was pointedly asked to PW 8. This question only fortifies the findings of the learned trial court that the application under Section 311 CrP.C. is a dilatory tactic of the applicant to delay the process of law.

16. This Court has no reason to disagree with the findings of the learned trial court that all relevant questions in the facts and circumstances of the case have already been posed to P.W. 8 when the said witness was under cross examination.

16. In wake of the preceding discussion there is no cause for interference in the order impugned passed by the learned trial court.

17. The Application U/S 482 is accordingly dismissed.

18. Interim order stands vacated.

19. A copy of this order to be communicated to the learned trial court.

20. The learned trial court shall forthwith proceed in accordance with law after giving an opportunity to the applicant to make his final arguments (through his counsel). In case the applicant or his counsel impedes the trial or adopts dilatory tactics the learned trial court shall record a finding to this effect and proceed in accordance with law.

Issue for consideration

Effect of wrong cognizance by the Court upon the chargesheet; legality of impugned cognizance and summoning order and chargesheet.

Headnotes

Indian Penal Code-sec 188; Code of Criminal proceeding- court concerned took the cognizance and issued summons on the police report u/s 173(2) Cr.P.C.- Court can not take cognizance for an offence u/s 188 IPC on the police report u/s 173(2) Cr.P.C.- except on the complaint in writing made by the public servant- therefore impugned cognizance and summoning order and proceedings are bad -cognizable offence and therefore it cannot be held that investigation of the case was bad-on the basis of evidence collected by the Investigating Officer-no offence punishable u/s 188 IPC is made out against the applicant –charge sheet can very well be quashed on this ground. Application allowed.

Held, considering the facts of the present case it is apparent that on the basis of evidence collected by the Investigating Officer, no offence punishable under section 188 IPC is made out against the applicant and though charge sheet of the present case cannot be quashed on the ground that cognizance was barred by virtue of section 195(1)(a)(i) Cr.P.C. but on this ground charge sheet can very well be quashed. Law is settled, if evidence collected during investigation does not disclose alleged offence then charge sheet can be quashed (See: State of Haryana and others Vs. Counsel for Opposite Party(s) : G.A.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Sameer Jain, J.)

1. Heard Sri Praveen Kumar Singh, learned counsel for the applicant and Sri Manish Goyal, learned AAG assisted by Sri Rupak Chaubey, learned AGA for the State-respondent.

2. The instant application u/s 528 BNSS has been filed by the applicant with a prayer to quash the summoning order dated 9.9.2019 and the charge sheet dated 7.11.2017 as well as the entire proceedings of case No. 2436 of 2019 (State Vs. Surendra Patel and others) arising out of case crime No. 193 of 2017 u/s 188 IPC, Police Station Kotwali, District Varanasi, pending in the court of Additional Civil Judge (JD)-V/J.M., Varanasi.

Brief facts of the case:-

3. FIR of the present case was lodged on 20.9.2017 for offence punishable under section 188 IPC against the applicant and ten others and 500 unknown persons and according to the FIR on 20.9.2017 at about 11:50 am applicant and other accused were agitating against the government and they in spite of the restrictions laid the procession and therefore, they violated the provisions of section 144 Cr.P.C. and thus committed offence under section 188 IPC.

4. After registration of the FIR investigation was commenced and after investigation charge sheet has been filed against the applicant and others on 7.11.2017 under section 188 IPC and after submission of charge sheet court concerned took the cognizance on 9.9.2019 and issued summons.

5. Hence, the instant application.

Argument advanced on behalf of the applicant:-

6. Learned counsel for the applicant submitted that only due to political vendetta, applicant has been roped in the present case alongwith others on the basis of false allegations.

7. He further submitted, applicants and others carried out a peaceful procession and merely by doing so it can not be said that they committed offence under section 188 IPC.

8. He further submitted that mere violation of section 144 Cr.P.C does not attract the provisions of section 188 IPC and for offence punishable under section 188 IPC it is also necessary that the alleged disobedience committed by an accused must cause or tends to cause obstruction, annoyance or injury or risk of obstruction, annoyance or injury to any person lawfully employed.

9. He further submitted that from the evidence collected by the Investigating Officer during investigation, it could not be reflected that either applicant or any other accused caused or tended to cause any obstruction or injury to any person lawfully employed but inspite of that charge sheet under section 188 IPC has been filed against the applicant and court concerned also took the cognizance and issued summons on 9.9.2019.

10. He further submitted that even as per section 195(1)(a)(i) Cr.P.C., no court shall take cognizance for an offence punishable under section 178 to 188 (both inclusive) of the IPC except on the complaint in writing made by a public servant concerned and therefore, cognizance and summoning order dated 9.9.2019 is illegal as in the present matter admittedly court concerned took the cognizance for offence under section 188 IPC on the police report submitted u/s 173(2) Cr.P.C.

11. He further submitted that therefore, considering the facts and circumstances of the case argued above, cognizance and summoning order dated 9.9.2019 as well as charge sheet filed against the applicant dated 7.11.2017 and entire proceeding pending against the applicant are bad and are liable to be quashed.

Argument advanced on behalf of the State:-

12. Per contra, learned Additional Advocate General submitted that no doubt by virtue of section 195(1)(a)(i) Cr.P.C. no Court can take cognizance on a police report submitted under section 173(2) Cr.P.C. for offence under section 188 IPC and Court can take cognizance for offence under section 188 IPC only on written complaint made by public servant concerned and therefore, cognizance and summonig order dated 9.9.2019 appears to be illegal but he further submitted that the charge sheet filed against the applicant and others on 7.11.2017 cannot be said to be illegal and therefore, same should not be quashed.

13. He further submitted that offence under section 188 IPC is cognizable offence and therefore, neither lodgement of the FIR nor investigation with regard to the offence under section 188 IPC is barred and therefore, if after registration of the FIR under section 188 IPC, investigation has been conducted then it cannot be said that entire investigation is bad including charge sheet.

14. He further submitted that investigation of a case and taking cognizance are two entirely different matters and even if cognizance is barred then also it cannot be said that investigation was also barred.

15. He further submitted that in the present matter, however, considering the provisions of Section 195 (1)(a)(i) Cr.P.C. charge sheet should not be forwarded to the court concerned and instead of forwarding the charge sheet to the court public servant concerned should file written complaint on the basis of investigation conducted by the Investigating Officer but merely due to this reason chargesheet cannot be said to be bad.

16. He further submitted that if charge sheet of the present case prepared by the Investigating Officer after the investigation is quashed then entire material collected by Investigating Officer during investigation will also be automatically quashed and thereafter, there will be no material before the public servant concerned to file written complaint against the applicant as required under section 195(1)(a)(i) Cr.P.C.

17. He further submitted that however charge sheet of the present case can be quashed if from the material collected during investigation no offence under section 188 IPC is made out against the applicant but from the FIR and statements of the witnesses recorded during investigation including the statement of the informant it is apparent that applicant and others, in spite of request made by police officers, continued to make agitation against the government and laid the procession and therefore, violated the provisions of section 144 Cr.P.C. and it cannot be said that their disobedience did not cause any annoyance or obstruction to public servant and therefore, from this angle too charge sheet cannot be quashed. He placed reliance on the judgement of Apex Court passed in case of State of Maharashtra and another Vs. Sayyed Hassan Sayyed Subhan and others (2019) 18 SCC 145.

18. He further submitted that therefore, considering the provisions of section 195 (1)(a)(i) Cr.P.C. this Court, however, may quash the cognizance and summoning order dated 9.9.2019 but charge sheet filed against the applicant should not be quashed and if State wants then on the basis of investigation conducted by the Investigating Officer public servant can file written complaint against the applicant and court concerned can took cognizance, in accordance with law.

Analysis:-

19. I have heard learned counsel for both the parties and perused the record of the case.

20. From perusal of the record it reflects that charge sheet has been filed against the applicant for offence under section 188 IPC and thereafter court concerned took the cognizance and issued summons on 9.9.2019 on the police report submitted under section 173(2) Cr.P.C. therefore, it is apparent that cognizance has been taken by the court concerned on the police report and not on the written complaint filed by the public servant.

21. As per section 195(1)(a)(i) Cr.P.C., no court shall take cognizance of any offence punishable under sections 172 to 188 (both inclusive) of the IPC except on the complaint in writing made by the public servant concerned or of some other public servant to whom he is administratively subordinate, therefore, from perusal of the statutory provisions of law, it is crystal clear that a Court can not take cognizance for an offence under section 188 IPC on the police report submitted under section 173(2) Cr.P.C. therefore, cognizance and summoning order dated 9.9.2019 and proceedings pending against applicant before the court concerned are bad in the eyes of law.

22. Further, however, as offence punishable under section 188 IPC is cognizable offence and therefore, it cannot be held that investigation of the case was bad. Further investigation of the case and taking cognizance are two different matters and even if cognizance is barred then also it cannot be said that investigation was also barred and therefore, it cannot be said that as on the charge sheet cognizance can not taken, therefore, charge sheet is also bad.

23. This Court finds merit in the submission advanced by learned AAG that if charge sheet of the present case has been quashed then entire material collected by investigating officer will also be quashed and therefore, no material will be available before the public servant to file complaint as required under section 195(1)(a)(i) Cr.P.C., therefore, from this angle too charge sheet of the present case cannot be quashed on the ground that cognizance was barred.

24. Now, it is to analyze whether charge sheet filed against applicant can be quashed on the ground that from the material collected by investigating officer during investigation no offence under section 188 IPC is made out. To analyze the same it will apposite to go through section 188 IPC which runs as under:-

"188. Disobedience to order duly promulgated by public servant-

Whoever, knowing that, by an order promulgated by a public servant lawfully empowered to promulgate such order, he is directed to abstain from a certain act, or to take certain order with certain property in his possession or under his management, disobeys such direction, shall, if such disobedience causes or tends to cause obstruction, annoyance or injury, or risk of obstruction, annoyance or injury, to any person lawfully employed, be punished with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month or with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, or with both; and if such disobedience causes or tends to cause danger to human life, health or safety, or causes or tends to cause a riot or affray, shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

Explanation.- It is not necessary that the offender should intend to produce harm, or contemplate his disobedience as likely to produce harm. It is sufficient that he knows of the order which he disobeys, and that his disobedience produces, or is likely to produce, harm.

Illustration

An order is promulgated by a public servant lawfully empowered to promulgate such order, directing that a religious procession shall not pass down a certain street. A knowingly disobeys the order, and thereby causes danger of riot. A has committed the offence defined in this section."

25. From perusal of section 188 IPC it reflects following are its essential ingredients:-

(i) Knowledge of the order promulgated by a public servant directing the accused to abstain from certain act;

(ii) Disobedience of such order by the accused in such manner it causes or tends to cause obstruction, annoyance or injury or risk of obstruction, annoyance or injury to any person lawfully employed and

(iii) If such disobedience causes or tends to cause danger to human life, health or safety or cause or tends to cause a riot or affray.

26. Therefore, from the essential ingredients of section 188 IPC it reflects, mere disobedience of the order promulgated by a public servant is not sufficient to attract the provisions of Section 188 IPC and for an offence under section 188 IPC it is necessary that the offender must cause or tend to cause obstruction annoyance or injury or risk of obstruction annoyance or injury to any person lawfully employed or such disobedience causes or tends to cause danger to human life, health or safety or cause or tend to cause riot or affray and it is also necessary that the offender must had the knowledge of restriction order promulgated by a public servant.

27. In case at hand, it is not the case of applicant that he was not having knowledge of the restriction order passed by public servant under section 144 Cr.P.C., therefore, first ingredient of section 188 IPC has been fulfilled.

28. Further, as far as ingredient Nos. 2 and 3 of section 188 IPC are concerned, from the record, it reflects applicant and others carried out a peaceful procession and from the entire evidence available on record collected during investigation by the Investigating Officer it could not be reflected that by disobeying the restrictive order promulgated under section 144 Cr.P.C. applicant caused or tended to cause obstruction, annoyance or injury or risk of obstruction, annoyance or injury to any person lawfully employed and it also could not be reflected that such disobedience caused or tended to cause danger to human life, health or safety or caused or tends to cause riot or affray, therefore, prima facie, it reflects, essential ingredient Nos. 2 and 3 of Section 188 IPC are not fulfilled and therefore, offence punishable under section 188 IPC is not made out against applicant.

29. Further, however, learned AAG placed reliance on the judgement of the Apex Court passed in case of Sayyed Hassan (supra) but facts of that case were distinguishable from the facts of present case. In that case prohibitory order was passed by Commissioner Food and Safety and therefore, Apex Court after considering the third ingredient of Section 188 IPC held that disobedience of such order attracts the provision of Section 188 IPC. 30. Therefore, considering the facts of the present case it is apparent that on the basis of evidence collected by the Investigating Officer, no offence punishable under section 188 IPC is made out against the applicant and though charge sheet of the present case cannot be quashed on the ground that cognizance was barred by virtue of section 195(1)(a)(i) Cr.P.C. but on this ground charge sheet can very well be quashed. Law is settled, if evidence collected during investigation does not disclose alleged offence then charge sheet can be quashed (See: State of Haryana and others Vs. Bhajan Lal and others 1992 Supp (1) SCC 335).

31. Therefore, from the discussion made above, in my view, cognizance and summoning order dated 9.9.2019 as well as charge sheet filed against the applicant and proceeding pending against the applicant are bad and are liable to be quashed.

32. Accordingly, the cognizance and summoning order dated 9.9.2019, chargesheet filed against the applicant and proceeding pending against him are, hereby, quashed. 33. The instant application u/s 528 BNSS stands allowed.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Vikram D. Chauhan, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for the Applicants and learned A.G.A. for the State. No one appears on behalf of Opposite party no.2.

2. By order dated 18.4.2024, Opposite party no.2 was proceeded ex-parte. On 29.7.2025 also no one appeared on behalf of opposite party no.2.

3. This application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. is preferred by Applicants for quashing the impugned charge sheet dated 3.6.2017 in Criminal Case No.1702 of 2017, State Vs. Shivam and others, arising out of Case Crime No.107 of 2017, under Sections 406, 120-B I.P.C., Police Station Badhapur, District Bijnor.

4. It is submitted by learned counsel for Applicants that Applicant nos.1 and 3 are the real brothers. Applicant nos.2 and 4 are mother and father of Applicant nos.1 and 3. On 4.3.2017, present first information report was lodged by Opposite party no.2 against Applicants. It is alleged in first information report that informant Manju Tyagi and Manish Tyagi executed a sale deed in favour of Shivam Agarwal (Applicant no.1) on 6.4.2015 of agricultural land area 3.618 hectare situated at Mauja Bhajrawala Jagir, Pargana Badhapur, District-Bijnor including liability of agricultural debt. Shivam Agarwal and his father Hari Om Agarwal assured to pay the bank loan. On the same day i.e. 6.4.2015 his sister Monika Tyagi also executed a sale deed in favour of Smt. Rashmi Agarwal of agricultural land, area 1.070 hectare situated at Mauja Ramdas Bairagai, Pargana Badhapur, District Bijnor including liability of agricultural loan upon the said land. Rashmi Agarwal, her husband Hari Om Agarwal and their son Lavi Agarwal assured to pay the aforesaid bank loan. The loan amount was Rs.9,65,000/- from Punjab National Bank, Badhapur. It is alleged that they have not paid the aforesaid loan amount.

5. Investigating Officer investigated the matter and has recorded the statement of the informant and witnesses of the fact, namely, Smt. Manju Tyagi-informant and witnesses Smt. Manisha Tyagi, Smt. Monika Tyagi, Mohit Tyagi and Satendra Tyagi under Section 161 Cr.P.C. Thereafter, the Investigating Officer submitted charge sheet against Applicants under Sections 406, 120-B I.P.C. on 3.6.2017.

6. Learned counsel for Applicants submits that the father of opposite party no.2 and Monika Tyagi was posted as Sub-Inspector at Police Station-Kotwali, Najibabad, Bijnor in the year 2015. Applicants are businessmen and they are carrying business at Najibabad, Bijnor. The father of opposite party no.2 stated to Applicant no.1 to sell abovenoted agricultural land. He concealed the fact of loan amount, taken upon the said agricultural land. The Applicant no.1 trusted upon the father of opposite party no.2 and gave Rs.10 lacs as advance amount for purchasing the aforesaid agricultural land. Thereafter, the Applicant no.1 made a query from the revenue department and found that there is agricultural loan of Punjab National Bank upon the said agricultural land. The Applicant nos.1 and 3 requested to return the advance amount of Rs.10 lacs due to agricultural loan upon the aforesaid land. But the father of the opposite party no.2 denied to return the aforesaid advance amount.

7. It is further submitted by learned counsel for the Applicants that thereafter, Applicant no.1 had to compromise and got executed sale deed in his favour, executed by opposite party no.2 and her sister Manisha Tyagi and another sale deed in favour of his mother Smt. Rashmi Agarwal executed by another daughter of opposite party no.2-Monika Tyagi on 6.4.2015. It is true that the Applicant no.1 assured to pay the said loan amount as mentioned in the sale deed, but Applicants did not state to pay the said loan amount within specific period. The opposite party no.2 and his sister Monika Tyagi did not pay any amount in respect of aforesaid loan since 2013 till the execution of sale deed dated 6.4.2015. While the said loan was taken in the year 2013 as Rs.2,33,000/- in one account and Rs.2,33,000/- in another account and Rs.1,86,000/- in the third account. The total amount was Rs.6,52,000/- in the year 2013 and which at present was Rs.13,16,000/-.

8. It is further stated that Applicant nos.3 and 4 are neither the party of both the sale deeds nor they are witnesses of said sale deeds. They have no concern with the aforesaid sale deeds. They are falsely implicated in this present case due to their relation being the family. Applicant no.1 as well as Applicant no.2 did not deny to pay the said loan amount. Till the payment of loan amount the said land purchased by them cannot be free and without payment of loan their names cannot be recorded in the revenue record. The aforesaid Applicants are having possession of aforesaid land since the date of sale deed, but due to the aforesaid loan amount their name could not be entered in revenue records.

9. Applicant nos.1 and 2 were ready to pay the said loan amount.Applicant no.1 went to Punjab National Bank, Badhapur and gave an Application on 10.3.2017 to Manager, Punjab National Bank, Badhapur requesting to provide statement of account for payment of said amount. It is relevant to state here that the Manager returned the said application on ground that the said account has become NPA (Non Performing Asset) and after taking instruction regarding the loan amount, loan may be adjusted under the scheme of One Time Settlement (OTS). So the Applicant no.1 and 2 were trying to pay the said loan amount after OTS Scheme.

10. Thereafter, the bank concern made correspondence with the Applicants and settled the loan amount under the OTS scheme with the Applicant nos.1 and 2. In respect of OTS scheme the Applicant nos.1 and 2 deposited token amount in all three loan accounts (1) A/c No.059200ae00001229 in the name of Monika Tyagi (2) A/c No.059200ae00001210 in the name of Manju Tyagi Rs.1,00,000/- (3) A/c

No.059200ae00001238 in the name of Manisha Tyagi Rs.1,00,000/- on 17.11.2017. The bank concern received the said amount and issued receipt of the same to Applicant nos.1 and 2 as token amount. After settlement under the OTS scheme the Applicant nos.1 and 2 paid rest amount Rs.1,18,000/- by cheque. The said amount was debited from the account of Shubham Agarwal and credited in the account of Monika Tyagi on 6.1.2018.

11. Thereafter, the Applicant nos.1 and 2 deposited rest amount under the OTS scheme in pursuance of settled amount Rs.4,58,000/-. The bank concern issued no dues certificate on 17.1.2018 in the name of Manju Tyagi, Manisha Tyagi and Monika Tyagi separately by closing the loan account under OTS scheme. Bank concern executed reconveryance deed on 20.1.2018 and released the mortgage land. Applicant nos.1 and 2 deposited the token amount of Rs.2,10,000/- in all three loan account on 17.11.2017 under the OTS scheme and after clearing the loan amount, the bank concern issued no dues certificae on 17.1.2018 after closing the loan account of 15.1.2018.

12. Learned A.G.A. has opposed this application and submits that the charge sheet has been rightly submitted and the applicants have been summoned in accordance with law. The applicants have not deposited the loan amount as per the agreement and as such the present application is liable to be dismissed.

13. Initially, a first information report dated 4.3.2017 was lodged at Police Station-Badhapur, District-Bijnor, under Sections 420, 406 I.P.C. against the Applicants-accused. The first information report was lodged by one Manju Tyagi. As per the allegations in the first information, it is alleged by the informant that on 6.4.2015 the informant Manju Tyagi and Manish Tyagi sold their agricultural land to Shivam Agarwal-accused. At the time of the aforesaid sale of the land, there was agricultural loan against the aforesaid land and the accused Shivam Agarwal & his father Hariom Agarwal had assured the sellers that they would deposit the loan amount with the bank and aforesaid fact was also recorded in the sale deed. On the same day i.e. 6.4.2015 the sister of the informant, namely, Monika Tyagi has also executed sale deed of their agricultural land in favour of accused-Rashmi Agarwal and, on the aforesaid land, also there was agricultural loan which was assured to be deposited by Rashmi Agarwal, Hariom Agarwal and Lavi Agarwal and the recital in respect of the same was also recorded in the sale deed. Subsequently, the informant receives notice from the bank for Rs 9,65,000/-. On repeated requests, the accused persons have not deposited the amount due with the bank. The accused persons are utilising the aforesaid amount in the business.

14. In pursuance to the above-mentioned first information report, the Investigating Officer has recorded the statement of informant-Manju Tyagi, Manisha Tyagi, Monika Tyagi, Mohit Tyagi, Satyendra Tyagi, who have supported the prosecution case. Thereafter, the Investigating Officer submitted chargesheet dated 3.6.2017 under Section 406 I.P.C. read with Section 120B I.P.C. The court concerned, thereafter, has taken cognizance on 8.11.2017.

15. The sale deed of land in question has been executed by Manisha Tyagi in favour of Shivam Agarwal on 6.4.2015.

The aforesaid sale deed contains a recital that on debt/loan on the land in question would be paid by the purchaser. Similarly, on 6.4.2015 sale deed has been executed by Monika Tyagi in favour of Smt. Rashmi Agarwal. The aforesaid sale deed also contained a recital that debt/loan on the land in question would be paid by the purchaser.

16. The Applicants case is to the effect that the Applicant nos.1 and 2 were ready to pay the loan amount and, in this respect, went to the Punjab National Bank and applied on 10.3.2017 to the Manager of the Punjab National Bank for providing the statement of account for payment of the loan amount in question. The Manager concerned returned the aforesaid application informing that the account has become NPA (Non Performing Asset) and only after seeking instruction regarding the loan amount, the loan would be adjusted under the One Time Settlement (OTS) scheme of Bank. It is also stated by the Applicants that the Applicants repaid the loan amount in question under the OTS scheme of bank and a reconveyance deed was executed on 20.1.2018 and the bank concerned has also issued a No Dues Certificate on 17.1.2018 in the name of the sellers by closing the loan account.

17. The Applicants are being proceeded under Sections 406 and 120B of I.P.C. Section 406 of I.P.C. provides punishment for criminal breach of trust. The offence of criminal breach of trust is defined under Section 405 I.P.C. The said section provides whoever, being in any manner entrusted with property, or with any dominion over property, dishonestly misappropriates or converts to his own use that property, or dishonestly uses or disposes of that property in violation of any direction of law prescribing the mode in which such trust is to be discharged, or of any legal contract, express or implied, which he has made touching the discharge of such trust, or wilfully suffers any other person so to do, commits “criminal breach of trust”.

18. Under Section 54 of Transfer of Property Act, “Sale” is a transfer of ownership in exchange for a price paid or promised or part-paid and part-promised. In the present case, the ownership of the property in question was transferred in favour of the Applicants by the informant. The sale deeds in question contained a stipulation that in the event of any loan against the property, the purchaser would pay the loan. The expression entrustment of property signifies that the person was handing over the property to another person, the first person continued to be owner of the property in question. The sale of the property does not create any trust between the seller and the purchaser and the sale transaction imports transfer of ownership. The transfer of ownership implies that the purchaser has all the rights in respect of the property in question including the right to enjoy the property as he intends to. It is true that the sale deeds in question contains a stipulation with regard to the payment of the loan against the property by the purchaser of the property. The aforesaid condition in the sale deed was the terms of transfer of liability against the loan in favour of the purchaser and did not create any trust between the seller and the purchaser.

19. In the case of State of Gujarat Vs. Jaswantlal Nathalal, AIR 1968 SC 700 the supreme court has held as under:-

“8. The term "entrusted" found in Section 405 IPC governs not only the words "with the property" immediately following it but also the words "or with any dominion over the property" occurring thereafter - see Velji Raghvaji Patel v. State of Maharashtra[(1965) 2 SCR 429] . Before there can be any entrustment there must be a trust meaning thereby an obligation annexed to the ownership of property and a confidence reposed in and accepted by the owner or declared and accepted by him for the benefit of another or of another and the owner. But that does not mean that such an entrustment need conform to all the technicalities of the law of trust - see Jaswantrai Manilal Akhaney v. State of Bombay[[1956] SCR 483, 498-500] . The expression "entrustment" carries with it the implication that the person handing over any property or on whose behalf that property is handed over to another, continues to be its owner. Further the person handing over the property must have confidence in the person taking the property so as to create a fiduciary relationship between them. A mere transaction of sale cannot amount to an entrustment. It is true that the Government had sold the cement in question to BSS solely for the purpose of being used in connection with the construction work referred to earlier. But that circumstance does not make the transaction in question anything other than a sale. After delivery of the cement, the Government had neither any right nor dominion over it. If the purchaser or his representative had failed to comply with the requirements of any law relating to cement control, he should have been prosecuted for the same. But we are unable to hold that there was any breach of trust."

20. It is to be noted that the sale deed in question did not provide any stipulation that the loan amount against the property in question was required to be paid by the purchaser-Applicants within a stipulated time period. The sale deed contains a general stipulation that any loan against the property in question would be paid by the purchaser. The Applicants have made a specific case that the loan amount against the property in question have been paid to the bank and no dues certificate has been issued in this respect by the concerned bank. The pleadings in this respect are contained in paragraph 16, 17 and 18 of the affidavit filed in support of this application. The opposite party-State has not denied the aforesaid averments of the Applicants in their counter affidavit.

21. It is further to be seen that the Applicants have repaid the loan amount and has honoured the condition in the sale deed. Even otherwise, there was no entrustment of the property by the informant to the Applicants, in fact the ownership of the property was transferred by sale transaction. In the present case, there is no material or circumstance to demonstrate entrustment of property and in fact the present case is a case of sale transaction. If any condition of sale contract is violated by any party to the contract, the liability would be a civil liability and no offence under Section 406 I.P.C. would be attracted. More particularly, in the circumstances where the loan in question has been repaid by Applicants to bank concerned and the bank concerned has issued a no dues certificate. Further, it has not been shown by opposite parties that the Applicants dishonestly uses or disposes of that property in violation of any direction of law prescribing the mode in which such trust is to be discharged, or of any legal contract, express or implied, which is made touching the discharge of such trust. Mere inaction in completing the stipulations of contract of sale without disposition of the property would not constitute an offence under Section 406 of the Indian Penal Code. The transaction alleged or omission on part of Applicant in the present case is founded on the violation of the terms of contract which is civil wrong.

22. In view of the facts and circumstances and reasons stated hereinabove, the present 482 Cr.P.C application is allowed and the criminal proceedings including chargesheet dated 3.6.2017 in Criminal Case No. 1702 of 2017 (State Vs Shivam and others) arising out of Case Crime No. 107 of 2017, under Sections 406 and 120B I.P.C, Police Station-Badhapur, District-Bijnor are hereby quashed.

1. Heard Sri Randhir Jain and Sri Sandeep Kumar Kesari, learned counsels for the Applicant, Sri Arunesh Kumar Singh, learned counsel for opposite party no.2 and learned A.G.A. for the State.

2. The present application is preferred by Applicant for quashing the chargesheet dated 12/5/2019 under sections 498A, 323, 504, 506 of I.P.C. and under sections 3/4 of Dowary Prohibition Act, 1961, police Station - Chaubeypur, District - Varanasi, as well as, cognizance order dated 25/7/2019 in criminal case no. 999 of 2019 (State Vs Anil Sharma and others) arising out of Case Crime No. 02 of 2019 under sections 498A, 323, 504, 506 I.P.C and Sections 3/4 of Dowary Prohibition Act pending in the Court of Judicial Magistrate-IIIrd, District Magistrate, Varanasi.

3. The applicant is brother-in-law of informant. Initially, the first information report dated 03.01.2019 was lodged under sections 498A, 323, 504, 506 of Indian Penal Code and Sections 3/4 of Dowry Prohibition Act, against Applicant and five other accused persons [(namely - Anil Sharma (Husband), Virendra Sharma (Father in law), Malti Devi (Mother in Law), Amit Sharma (Brother in law), Ishu (Brother in law)], at police Station - Chaubeypur, Varanasi. The first information report was lodged by opposite party no. 2 - Geeta Sharma. The first information report was lodged at Case Crime No.02 of 2019.

4. The prosecution case as per the first information report is to the effect that opposite party no. 2-wife was married to Anil Sharma on 24.04.2013. At the time of marriage, at the tilak ceremony Rs. 50,000/- cash, gold ring, clothes and other items were given and thereafter at the time of marriage further gifts were given. After marriage, informant went to matrimonial home then after one and half months of marriage, husband, father-in-law, mother-in-law and brother-in-law (which included the applicant), started harassing and beating the informant for dowry and demanded Rs. 2 lakhs for establishment of business. The opposite party no. 2 objected to aforesaid demand and stated that the family members of opposite party no. 2 are not in a position to pay Rs. 2 Lacs as demanded by accused persons, as a result of the same, accused persons started beating and harassing opposite party no 2. When the father of informant came to take informant for some days, accused persons have demanded dowry and stated that informant may not be sent back to matrimonial home if the demand for dowry is not fulfilled. The jewellery which was given by father of informant was retained by accused persons and informant was sent back. The father of informant used to send back informant to matrimonial home. Out of the marriage, one son was born who is aged about three years at the time of lodging of first information report, however, all the expenses of aforesaid son are being met out by father of informant. On 05.06.2018, when informant was seven months pregnant, the husband, father-in-law, mother-in-law and brother-in-law and Kishori came and on the enticing of Kishori, accused persons demanded rupees two lakhs as dowry and thereafter have assaulted informant and have thrown her out of matrimonial home along with child and the accused persons have stated that informant may not come back till demand of dowry is met. The accused person have beaten informant and as a result of the same she was admitted in hospital at Varanasi and second child was born dead. Informant is living with her father in her parental home and accused persons had not taken any pain to contact her.

5. The investigating officer thereafter has recorded statement of the informant under section 161 of Code of Criminal Procedure, where informant has stated that marriage of informant with co-accused-Anil Kumar was held on 22.04.2013 in accordance with Hindu Rituals and Rites. In the marriage, father of informant had given 50,000 cash, jewellery and other items. After one and half years of marriage the husband, father-in-law, mother-in-law and three brother-in-law have beaten and harassed the informant for demand of dowry. The accused person were demanding dowry to the tune of Rs. Two Lacs for purpose of establishment of business. When the parents of informant went to meet the accused persons they have demanded Rs Two Lacs and further stated not to send informant if the demand is not met. All the jewellery were kept by the accused persons and the informant was sent back to her parents home. The parents of informant used to send the informant to the matrimonial home. One son was born out of marriage. In the intervening period when informant was sent back to her matrimonial home, the husband, mother-in-law, father-in-law and brother-in-law used to assault the informant and have thrown her out of matrimonial home and stated to informant not to come back without the amount demanded.

6. Thereafter, statement of mother of informant namely Shanti Sharma was recorded by investigating officer, who has stated that Geeta Sharma is my daughter and she was married with great pomp and show with Anil Sharma by giving 50,000 cash and jewellery. Initially, everything was good but after few days my daughter's husband, mother-in-law, father-in-law and brother-in-law started demanding Rs. Two Lacs as dowry. When it was informed that they do not have the money then the accused persons have beaten my daughter (informant) abused her and thrown her out of matrimonial home and further stated that if the amount of Rs. four lakh is not given then they will kill her. The accused persons have harassed the informant for dowry.

7. The investigating officer has further recorded the statement of father of informant namely-Chauthi Sharma who has stated that marriage of his daughter was held with great pomp and show by giving 50,000 cash as Tilak and some jewellery. Things were fine for some time after marriage but after few days, husband, mother-in-law, father-in-law and three brother-in-law started demanding rupees Rs. two lacs as dowary and started harassing informant. We tried to convince accused persons and sent informant to matrimonial home, however, accused persons used to pressurise informant to bring Rs. two lacs as dowry, further accused persons used to harass informant and beat her, abuse her and threatened for life.

8. The investigating officer thereafter submitted charge-sheet dated 03.01.2019 against accused persons including the applicant under section 498A, 323, 504 and 506 of Indian penal code and section 3/4 of Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961. The court concerned thereafter has taken cognizance on 25.07.2019.

9. It is submitted by learned counsel for applicant that applicant is brother-in-law and is residing in Prayagraj city for preparation of competitive examination. It is further submitted that allegations in first information report and statement recorded by investigating officer, in respect of applicant, are wholly vague in nature and lacks specification. It is further submitted that applicant has never demanded any dowry nor has harassed opposite party no.2 for non-fullfillment of dowry.

10. It is submitted by learned counsel for opposite party no. 2- informant that the informant lodged the first information report against the accused persons including applicant and thereafter investigating officer has investigated the case and recorded the statement under section 161 of Cr.P.C. and found accused person to be offender. The accused persons including applicant have committed assault and have harassed informant and demanded dowry as such investigating officer has rightly submitted chargesheet and the court concerned has taken cognizance in accordance with law.

11. Learned AGA on behalf of opposite party no.1 submitted that chargesheet has been submitted against applicant in accordance with law and the court concerned has taken cognizance of offence. It is further submitted that applicant was found to have demanded dowry and subjected informant to harassment and assault. The court concerned has in accordance with law taken cognizance of offence. The present 482 Cr.P.C application is liable to be dismissed.

12. In the present case, applicant (who is brother-in-law of informant), is also prosecuted under Section 498-A of Indian Penal Code and Section 3/4 of Dowry Prohibition Act. Section 498A of Indian Penal Code provides penal consequences where husband or relative of husband subjects such woman to cruelty. The cruelty has been defined in the explanation appended to Section 498A of Indian Penal Code. There are two explanations provided under aforesaid provision for interpretation of word "cruelty" provided under aforesaid section. The explanation (a) provides that "cruelty" would mean any willful conduct which is of such a nature as is likely to drive the woman to commit suicide or to cause grave injury or danger to life, limb or health (whether mental or physical). The explanation (b) provides cruelty would mean harassment of the woman where such harassment is with a view to coerce her or any person related to her to meet any unlawful demand for any property or valuable security or is on account of failure of her or any person related to her to meet such demand. The provisions of Section 498A of Indian Penal Code prescribes as under :

"498A. Husband or relative of husband of a woman subjecting her to cruelty.- Whoever, being the husband or the relative of the husband of a woman, subjects such woman to cruelty shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years and shall also be liable to fine.

Explanation.-For the purposes of this section, "cruelty" means- (a) any wilful conduct which is of such a nature as is likely to drive the woman to commit suicide or to cause grave injury or danger to life, limb or health (whether mental or physical) of the woman; or (b) harassment of the woman where such harassment is with a view to coercing her or any person related to her to meet any unlawful demand for any property or valuable security or is on account of failure by her or any person related to her to meet such demand."

13. In the present case, there is no allegation that the applicant has offered any willful conduct which is of such a nature as is likely to drive the woman to commit suicide or to cause grave injury or danger to life, limb or health of woman. The counsel for opposite parties has neither relied upon any grave injury suffered by opposite party no. 2 nor has relied upon any medical report in this respect. It is not in dispute between the parties that no medical practitioner was examined in support of FIR before the court concerned. It is not alleged in the FIR nor any material circumstances have been shown on behalf of opposite parties that the conduct of applicant was of such a nature as is likely to drive the wife to commit suicide.

14. As per prosecution case, it is alleged that the wife was being subjected to harassment by accused person and demanding amount to meet unlawful demand. For the purpose of prosecution under Section 498A of Indian Penal Code, it is imperative that the woman should be subjected to cruelty by the husband or relative of the husband of a woman. As per explanation (b) of the aforesaid section, it is imperative that the harassment of woman should be with a view to coerce her or any person related to her to meet any unlawful demand for any property or valuable security or is on account of failure by her or any person related to the woman to meet such demand.

15. A perusal of First Information Report would go to show that general and omnibus allegations are made against the applicant with regard to demand of dowry. Although in first information report, it has been stated that accused persons were demanding dowry of Rs. two lacs, however, neither the date nor time of alleged demand has been disclosed in the FIR. The statement of informant also does not disclose the details of harassment which has been incurred by applicant to the wife-informant in respect of demand for dowry.

16. This Court in Viri Singh and another Vs State of U.P. and another - 2025:AHC:147074 in the context of vague and general allegations in a criminal case, has observed as under :-

"24. Criminal law is set in motion by lodging of First Information Report or Complaint. The investigation/prosecution is carried upon to find the truth in allegations. Setting in motion criminal law entails consequences including curtailing of liberty of individual. The criminal law machinery is based on the nature of allegations and the evidence found during investigation/ prosecution/ enquiry. It is important for prosecution to provide precise details of allegations and evidence to support the prosecution case.

25. Vague, ambiguous and omnibus allegations can violate the right of accused to process of law and fair trial. It is fundamental principle of law that accused be subjected to fair trial. Vague allegation has significant effect on defence by creating uncertainty. Without specific details and evidence, the defence of accused may be prejudiced or the accused may not be able to effectively defend himself.

26. Vague allegation can affect the defence of accused by making it difficult to formulate a targeted defence strategy. Without clear specifics or evidence to address, accused may struggle to refute the allegations or present a compelling counter argument. Lawyers/Advocates typically rely on specific information to prepare their case, such as dates, time, location, and witnesses. Vague allegations lack these crucial details, leaving the defence to speculate or generalize their response, which can weaken their defence in court. The mere suggestion of wrong doing, without substantiation, can lead to stigma and prejudice against the accused, making it harder for them to receive a fair trial. Moreover, vague allegations may prolong legal proceedings as the defence attempts to gather more information to understand the accusations fully."

17. In S.M.S. Pharmaceuticals Ltd. v. Neeta Bhalla, (2005) 8 SCC 89 the Supreme Court has laid emphasis that the complaint must contain material to enable the court to make up mind for issuing process.

"5. Section 203 of the Code empowers a Magistrate to dismiss a complaint without even issuing a process. It uses the words "after considering" and "the Magistrate is of opinion that there is no sufficient ground for proceeding". These words suggest that the Magistrate has to apply his mind to a complaint at the initial stage itself and see whether a case is made out against the accused persons before issuing process to them on the basis of the complaint. For applying his mind and forming an opinion as to whether there is sufficient ground for proceeding, a complaint must make out a prima facie case to proceed. This, in other words, means that a complaint must contain material to enable the Magistrate to make up his mind for issuing process. If this were not the requirement, consequences could be far-reaching. If a Magistrate had to issue process in every case, the burden of work before the Magistrate as well as the harassment caused to the respondents to whom process is issued would be tremendous. Even Section 204 of the Code starts with the words "if in the opinion of the Magistrate taking cognizance of an offence there is sufficient ground for proceeding". The words "sufficient ground for proceeding" again suggest that ground should be made out in the complaint for proceeding against the respondent. It is settled law that at the time of issuing of the process the Magistrate is required to see only the allegations in the complaint and where allegations in the complaint or the charge-sheet do not constitute an offence against a person, the complaint is liable to be dismissed."

18. The question therefore arises what is the material which is required to be before the court to issue process under criminal law. The material facts and particulars to constitute an offence are required to be shown by prosecution before the court proceeds to issue the process. The material facts and particulars are those facts which essentially would be required to constitute an offence. These facts would also include such facts which the law recognises as important facts for proceeding with the trial of the case. These facts are also necessary to bring fairness in the process of trial. In this respect, Sections 212 and 213 of Cr.P.C. (Section 235 & 236 of BNSS) also recognises that the charge shall contain particulars of time & place of offence and the particulars or the manner in which the alleged offence was committed. The rule of law requires that accused is visited with specific allegations in criminal prosecution. Specific allegations under criminal law would require that date, time and place of alleged offence is specified (more particularly when the complainant is the victim having personal knowledge), the details of person against whom the offence is committed or the thing in respect of which the offence was committed. The allegations should also describe the manner in which the offence is committed. In Neelu Chopra v. Bharti, (2009) 10 SCC 184 the Hon'ble Supreme Court has emphasised the need for specific and proper allegation in criminal law. In this reference para-9 of the Neelu Chopra Judgement (Supra) is quoted herein below :

"9. In order to lodge a proper complaint, mere mention of the sections and the language of those sections is not the be all and end all of the matter. What is required to be brought to the notice of the court is the particulars of the offence committed by each and every accused and the role played by each and every accused in committing of that offence."

19. In Achin Gupta Vs State of Haryana, 2024 INSC 369, the Supreme Court has laid emphasis that general and sweeping allegation without specific instance is an abuse of process of Court. In this reference para-25 of the Achin Gupta (Supra) is quoted herebelow :

"25. If a person is made to face a criminal trial on some general and sweeping allegations without bringing on record any specific instances of criminal conduct, it is nothing but abuse of the process of the court. The court owes a duty to subject the allegations levelled in the complaint to a thorough scrutiny to find out, prima facie, whether there is any grain of truth in the allegations or whether they are made only with the sole object of involving certain individuals in a criminal charge, more particularly when a prosecution arises from a matrimonial dispute"

20. In Dara Lakshmi Narayana & Others Vs State of Telangana & Another, 2024 INSC 953, the Supreme Court has observed that vague allegation may lead to misuse of legal process. In this respect, para 18 & 28 is quoted herein below:

"18. A bare perusal of the FIR shows that the allegations made by respondent No.2 are vague and omnibus. Other than claiming that appellant No.1 harassed her and that appellant Nos.2 to 6 instigated him to do so, respondent No.2 has not provided any specific details or described any particular instance of harassment. She has also not mentioned the time, date, place, or manner in which the alleged harassment occurred. Therefore, the FIR lacks concrete and precise allegations.

28. The inclusion of Section 498A of the IPC by way of an amendment was intended to curb cruelty inflicted on a woman by her husband and his family, ensuring swift intervention by the State. However, in recent years, as there have been a notable rise in matrimonial disputes across the country, accompanied by growing discord and tension within the institution of marriage, consequently, there has been a growing tendency to misuse provisions like Section 498A of the IPC as a tool for unleashing personal vendetta against the husband and his family by a wife. Making vague and generalised allegations during matrimonial conflicts, if not scrutinized, will lead to the misuse of legal processes and an encouragement for use of arm twisting tactics by a wife and/or her family. Sometimes, recourse is taken to invoke Section 498A the IPC against the husband and his family in order to seek compliance with the unreasonable demands of a wife. Consequently, this Court, time and again, cautioned against prosecuting the husband and his family in the absence of a clear prima facie case against them."

21. In Geeta Mehrotra and another Vs State of Uttar Pradesh and another - 2012 (10) SCC 741, the Supreme Court has held that where the contents of the first information report do not disclose specific allegations against the brother and sister of the complainant's husband except casual reference of their names, it would not be just to direct them to go through protracted procedure and as a result of same criminal proceedings against brother-in-law and sister-in-law were quashed in the said case.

22. A bare perusal of First Information Report and statement of opposite party no. 2 would go to show that general, vague and omnibus allegations are made against applicant. It has not been disclosed in first information report or in statement of opposite party no.2 as to the role assigned to applicant. Even the date of demand of dowry and the manner in which demand for dowry was made, is not stated. In the statement of opposite party no.2, general and vague allegations with regard to demand of dowry are made against the applicant, who is brother-in-law. In view of aforesaid, general, vague and omnibus allegations have been made against applicants, (who is family members of husband) as such, the aforesaid allegations cannot be a ground for summoning the applicant-accused under Sections 498A of Indian Penal Code and Section 3/4 of Dowry Prohibition Act.

23. The Applicant is also summoned under Sections 504 and 506 of Indian Penal Code. The offence under Section 504 of Indian Penal Code prescribes that whoever intentionally insults, and thereby gives provocation to any person, intending or knowing it to be likely that such provocation will cause him to break the public peace, or to commit any other offence, shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine, or with both. The offence under Section 504 I.P.C. requires that there should be intentional insult and thereby giving provocation to any person intending or knowing that such provocation will cause him to break public peace or to commit any offence. In the present case, there are no material circumstances to show that there was any intentional insult which would give provocation to the wife to cause any break of public peace or to commit any offence as such the material ingredient of offence under Section 504 I.P.C. is not made out from the prosecution case. Further, Section 506 provides punishment for offence of criminal intimidation.

24. The offence of criminal intimidation has been prescribed under Section 503 of Indian Penal Code and the same is quoted here in below :-

"503. Criminal intimidation.- Whoever threatens another with any injury to his person, reputation or property, or to the person or reputation of any one in whom that person is interested, with intent to cause alarm to that person, or to cause that person to do any act which he is not legally bound to do, or to omit to do any act which that person is legally entitled to do, as the means of avoiding the execution of such threat, commits criminal intimidation.

Explanation.-A threat to injure the reputation of any deceased person in whom the person threatened is interested, is within this section."

25. An act of criminal intimidation would occur when a person threatens another with any injury to his person, reputation or property, or to the person or reputation of any one in whom that person is interested, with intent to cause alarm to that person, or to cause that person to do any act which he is not legally bound to do, or to omit to do any act which that person is legally entitled to do, as the means of avoiding the execution of such threat, commits criminal intimidation.

26. A perusal of first information report would go to show that there is no allegation of any threatening against applicant. The first information report does not make any specific allegations against applicant with regard to any threatening and using of abusive language. The first information report does not specify as to what was the language used by applicant. Further the date, time and place of threatening by applicant has also not been disclosed in the complaint. Even otherwise, allegations do not constitute an offence under Sections 504 and 506 of Indian Penal Code against applicant. The court concerned erred in issuing summons against applicant under Sections 504 and 506 of Indian Penal Code.

27. The applicant is also summoned under Sections 323 of Indian Penal Code. Section 323 of Indian Penal Code provides for offence of causing hurt. The 'Hurt' has been defined under Section 319 of I.P.C. as whoever causes bodily pain, disease or infirmity to any person is said to cause hurt. The informant has specifically alleged that the accused has assaulted the Informant and have thrown her out of matrimonial home. The statement of complainant before the court concerned alleges general, vague and omnibus allegation against the applicant with regard to assault and there is no allegation in the first information report nor in the statement of informant of causing any body pain, disease or infirmity to informant. The counsel for opposite party no.2 has not relied upon any medical report nor any doctor is shown to have been examined by investigating officer with regard to any bodily pain, disease or infirmity. In view of the aforesaid, the prosecution case does not satisfy the ingredients of offence under Sections 323 IPC read with section 319 IPC. 28. In view of reasons stated herein above, the criminal proceedings against Applicant (namely-Rohit Sharma) including chargesheet dated 12.05.2019 under sections 498A, 323, 504, 506 of the Indian Penal Code and under section 3/4 of Dowary Prohibition Act, 1961, Police Station - Chaubeypur, District - Varanasi as well as cognizance order dated 25.07.2019 in Criminal Case No. 999 of 2019 (State Vs Anil Sharma and others) arising out of Case Crime No. 2 of 2019 under Sections 498A, 323, 504, 506 I.P.C and Section 3/4 of Dowary Prohibition Act pending in the Court of Judicial Magistrate-IIIrd, District Magistrate, Varanasi is hereby quashed in respect of applicant - Rohit Sharma. The present application under Section 482 of Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 is allowed.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Sameer Jain, J.)

1. Heard Sri Dilip Kumar, learned Senior Counsel assisted by Sri Sudhanshu Kumar, learned counsel for the applicant and Dr. S. B. Maurya, learned AGA-I for the State-respondent.

2. The instant application has been filed by the applicant with a prayer to quash the impugned charge sheet No. 9 of 2023 dated 20.8.2023 as well as the entire proceeding of criminal case No. 52/1652 of 2023-State Vs. Braham Singh (arising out of case crime No. 281/2019, Police Station Kasna, District Gautam Budh Nagar), based on the impugned charge-sheet, presently pending in the Court of Additional District & Sessions Judge/Special Judge, Prevention of Corruption Act, Meerut, under Sections 13(1)(b) r/w 13(2) of Prevention of Corruption Act 1988-Amended Act 2018 and the order dated 10.10.2023, passed by Additional District & Sessions Judge/Special Judge, Prevention of Corruption, Meerut by which the learned Special Judge, has taken the cognizance and issued process against the applicant, to face trial, under section 13(1)b read with 13(2) Prevention of Corruption Act 1988 [Amendment Act 2018].

3. At the very outset, learned counsel for the applicant and learned AGA submitted that in the present matter, there is no need to call counter affidavit as entire relevant materials have already been annexed alongwith the instant application and therefore, instant application may be heard and disposed off, finally.

4. In view of the above, with the consent of parties the instant application is being heard and disposed of without calling counter and rejoinder affidavits.

Brief facts of the case:-

5. FIR of the present case was lodged on 30.3.2019 against the applicant under section 13(1)(e), 13(2) Prevention of Corruption Act and according to the FIR, applicant was posted as Assistant Manager, Grade-II, Greater NOIDA, Development Authority and from his known sources during check period his income was Rs. 43,71,394.00/- but his expenditure during this period was Rs. 10395229.37/- and therefore, his expenditure is disproportionate to his known income and his expenditure was 137.80% higher than his known income.

6. After registration of the FIR investigation was conducted and during investigation Investigating Officer found that Vigilance Inquiry Report on the basis of which FIR was lodged was correct and expenditure of the applicant was in excess of his known source of income during the check period and thereafter he submitted charge sheet against him on 20.8.2023 under section 13(1)(b) r/w 13(1) (2) Prevention of Corruption Act.

7. After submission of charge sheet court concerned took the cognizance and issued summons to the applicant.

8. Hence the instant application.

Submission made on behalf of the applicant:-

9. Learned counsel for the applicant submitted that by way of instant application applicant is challenging the charge sheet filed against him and entire proceeding of the criminal case pending against him solely on the ground that although as per the prosecution expenditure of the applicant was higher than his known source of income during check period but on the basis of the same allegation when departmental inquiry was conducted then in the departmental inquiry he has been exonerated.

10. He further submitted that from the annexure-7 to the affidavit filed in support to the instant application it reflects, when on the basis of the complaint a departmental inquiry was conducted then on 16.5.2018 i.e. well before lodgement of the FIR, applicant has been exonerated. He next submitted that from the inquiry report dated 16.5.2018 it reflects during check period when details of the property of the applicant were verified through the last five years ITR submitted by him then it was not found that income of the applicant and his expenditure were disproportionate.

11. He further submitted that after above inquiry dated 16.5.2018 a second departmental inqury was conducted and on 14.10.2019 General Manager/Inquiry Officer again found that on the basis of ITR of the applicant allegations of disproportionate income levelled against him appears to be incorrect.

12. He further submitted that the above inquiry report dated 14.10.2019 was kept pending in the office of the Deputy Secretary Industrial Development, U.P. Lucknow for two years and thereafter show cause notice was issued to the applicant and ultimately on 25.1.2022 departmental disciplinary proceeding pending against him was concluded and final departmental inquiry report dated 25.1.2022 has been annexed as annexure-15 to the affidavit filed in support of the instant application.

13. He further submitted that even from the final inquiry report dated 25.1.2022 it is apparent that the charges of disproportionate income levelled against the applicant were not found correct, however, Additional Chief Secretary awarded penalty of censure punishment.

14. He further submitted that against the penalty of censure punishment applicant filed claim before State Public Service Tribunal, Lucknow and vide order dated 17.5.2023 State Public Service Tribunal, Lucknow allowed his claim petition and even quashed the censure punishment awarded to him. He next submitted that therefore, in departmental inqury applicant has been fully exonerated.

15. He next submitted that as allegations against the applicant in the instant matter and allegations against him in the departmental inquiry are same and in the departmental inquiry applicant has already been exonerated therefore, continuation of criminal prosecution on the basis of same allegations is nothing but abuse of the process of law.

16. He further submitted that this issue has come before the Apex Court in several cases and Apex Court in these cases also categorically held that if an accused in the departmental inqury on the basis of same allegations/charges is exonerated then criminal proceeding pending against him on the basis of same allegation/charges cannot be continued.

17. He placed reliance on the following judgements of the Apex Court:-

a. P.S. Rajya Vs. State of Bihar; 1996 (9) SCC 1

b. Radheshyam Kejriwal Vs. State of West Bengal and another; 2011 (3) SCC 581; and

c. Ashoo Surendranath Tewari Vs. The Deputy Superintendent of Police, EOW, CBI & Anr.; 2020(9) SCC 636.

18. He next submitted that therefore, charge sheet filed against the applicant in the instant matter and criminal proceeding pending against him is liable to be quashed.

Submission advanced by State:-

19. Per contra, learned AGA opposed the prayer and submitted that in the present case, as from the investigation conducted by the Investigating Officer, prima facie, it appears applicant is dishonest public servant and his expenditures were very high than his known source of income, therefore, by filing the charge sheet against him Investigating Officer did not commit any illegality.

20. He further submitted that after perusing the material annexed alongwith the charge sheet court concerned also took the cognizance and issued summons to the applicant and therefore, it cannot be said that cognizance and summoning order passed by the court concerned is illegal.

21. He further submitted that criminal proceeding pending against the accused cannot be culminated on the ground that in the departmental proceedings he has been exonerated as standard of proof of both the proceedings are entirely different.

22. He further submitted that departmental/ civil proceedings are based on preponderance of probabilities while standard of proof in criminal charges is beyond reasonable doubt which is solely based upon the evidence adduced by the prosecution and therefore, area of both the proceedings are entirely different and both the proceedings do not overlap each other and therefore, exoneration in any of such proceeding does not ipso facto entitles the accused to either exonerate in departmental proceeding or his acquittal in criminal proceeding.

23. He further submitted that law is settled that a criminal prosecution can only be quashed if evidence collected by the investigating officer during investigation does not disclose alleged offences and in the instant case, from perusal of the charge sheet, prima facie, it appears that charge sheet discloses offences under sections 13(1)(b) r/w 13(2) Prevention of Corruption Act against the applicant and therefore, neither charge sheet nor proceeding pending against the applicant can be quashed.

24. He next submitted that therefore, the instant application filed by the applicant is devoid of merit and it should be dismissed.

Analysis

25. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record of the case.

26. The sole issue before this Court in the instant application is that if charge sheet and evidence collected by the Investigating Officer during investigation, prima facie, discloses alleged offences against an accused then whether chargesheet filed against him and criminal proceeding pending against him can be quashed on the ground that he has been exonerated in the departmental proceedings on the same set of allegations/charges.

27. The criminal prosecution and departmental proceeding hold two entirely different fields. The departmental proceedings are based on preponderance of probabilities while criminal prosecution is based on evidence produced by the prosecution during trial and standard to prove a criminal charge is proof beyond reasonable doubt and the departmental proceedings relate to conduct of delinquent officer to punish him for his misconduct defined under statutory Rules or Law. Therefore, even if an accused has been exonerated in the department proceeding then also it cannot be said that ipso facto his criminal prosecution on the basis of same charges cannot be continued.

28. The Constitution Bench of the Apex Court in the case of Iqbal Singh Marwah and another Vs. Meenakshi Marwah and another (2005) 4 Supreme Court Cases 370 although in different context in para-32 observed as:-

"Coming to the last contention that an effort should be made to avoid conflict of findings between the civil and criminal Courts, it is necessary to point out that the standard of proof required in the two proceedings are entirely different. Civil cases are decided on the basis of preponderance of evidence while in a criminal case the entire burden lies on the prosecution and proof beyond reasonable doubt has to be given. There is neither any statutory provision nor any legal principle that the findings recorded in one proceeding may be treated as final or binding in the other, as both the cases have to be decided on the basis of the evidence adduced therein……"

(Emphasis Supplied)

29. Again three Judges Bench of the Apex Court in case of Depot Manager A.P. State Road Transport Corporation Vs. Mhd. Yousuf Miya and others; (1997) 2 SCC 699 in para-8 held that:-

"...The purpose of departmental enquiry and of prosecution are two different and distinct aspects. The criminal prosecution is launched for an offence in violation of a duty the offender owes to the society or for breach of which law has provided that the offender shall make satisfaction to the public. So crime is an act of commission in violation of law or of omission of public duty. The departmental enquiry is to maintain discipline in the service and efficiency of public service...″

30. Again Apex Court in case of State Bank of India and others Vs. R.B. Sharma; (2004) 7 SCC 27 in para-8 observed as:-

"...When trial for criminal offence is conducted it should be in accordance with proof of the offence as per the evidence defined under the provisions of the Indian Evidence Act 1872 (in short the 'Evidence Act'). Converse is the case of departmental enquiry. The enquiry in a departmental proceedings relates to conduct or breach of duty of the delinquent officer to punish him for his misconduct defined under the relevant statutory rules or law. That the strict standard of proof or applicability of the Evidence Act stands excluded is a settled legal position...″

31. The similar issue whether if on same charges, an offender has been exonerated in the departmental inquiry then criminal prosecution pending against him on same charges can be quashed or not has come up before three judges bench of Apex Court in case of State (NCT of Delhi) Vs. Ajay Kumar Tyagi (2012) (9) SCC 685 and after elaborate discussion Apex Court held that "it is well settled that the standard of proof in a departmental proceeding is lower than that of criminal prosecution. It is equally well settled that the departmental proceeding or for that matter criminal cases have to be decided only on the basis of evidence adduced therein. Truthfulness of the evidence in the criminal case can be judged only after the evidence is adduced therein and the criminal case cannot be rejected on the basis of the evidence in the departmental proceeding″. The Apex Court further observed that "we are, therefore, of the opinion that the exoneration in the departmental proceeding ipso facto would not result in quashing of the criminal prosecution″.

(Emphasis Supplied)

32. Learned counsel for the applicant, however, relied upon three judgements of the Apex Court. Firstly, he placed reliance on judgement of Apex Court passed in the case of P.S. Rajya (supra).

33. From perusal of the judgement of the Apex Court passed in the case of P.S. Rajya (supra) it reflects that however, Apex Court quashed the proceeding pending against the petitioner and by quashing the same Apex Court also considered the inquiry report but from bare perusal of the judgement of P.S. Rajya (supra), it reflects that under peculiar facts and circumstances of that case, Supreme Court was pleased to quash the proceedings after considering the judgement of the Apex Court passed in the case of State of Haryana and others Vs. Bhajan lal 1992 (Supl) (1) SCC 335. Therefore, it reflects, facts of the case of P.S. Rajya (supra) were entirely different from the facts of the present case and Supreme Court quashed the proceeding after observing that on the peculiar facts of the case the criminal proceeding initiated against the applicant cannot be pursued. Therefore, no benefit can be extended to the applicant in the present case on the basis of judgement of the Apex Court passed in the case of P.S. Rajya (supra).

34. Second judgement was relied by learned counsel for the applicant is the judgement of Apex Court passed in the case of Radheshyam Kejriwal (supra) which is three judges bench judgement. After perusing the judgement passed in case of Radheshyam Kejriwal (supra), it reflects that said case relates to the provisions of Foreign Exchange Regulation Act, 1973 (in short, "FERA") and in that case prosecution against the appellant was launched under section 56 of FERA and penalty proceeding was initiated under section 51 of FERA and as appellant had already exonerated in the penalty proceeding therefore, Supreme Court quashed the criminal proceeding initiated under section 56 of FERA.

35. From the facts of the case of Radheshyam Kejriwal (supra) it reflects that the criminal prosecution for offence under section 56 of FERA was connected with the penalty proceeding initiated under section 51 of FERA and as in penalty proceeding appellant has been exonerated, therefore, Supreme Court opined that continuation of the criminal prosecution is not permissible. Therefore, facts of the case of Radheshyam Kejriwal (supra) were also entirely different from the facts of the present case which is a case of disproportionate income.

36. Learned counsel for the applicant also placed reliance upon the judgment of the Apex Court in the case of Ashoo Surendranath Tewari (supra). This judgement is also passed by three judges Bench of the Apex Court. In this case also Apex Court on the basis of the report of Chief Vigilance Commissioner quashed the criminal prosecution pending against the petitioner but this case is also distinguishable on facts. It reflects, in the case of Ashoo Surendranath Tewari (supra) concerned Sanctioning Authority denied the sanction on the ground that there is no evidence to support the prosecution case and considering this fact, Apex Court quashed the criminal prosecution.

37. In case at hand, admittedly, sanctioning authority has already accord sanction against the applicant after perusing the material produced by the investigating agency and therefore, no benefit can be given to the applicant on the basis of the judgement of Ashoo Surendranath Tewari (supra).

38. Recently the same issue has again come up before the Apex Court in the case of Puneet Sabharwal and another Vs. CBI; 2024 SCC OnLine SC 324 and Apex Court categorically observed that in so far as the submission that where there is exoneration in a civil adjudication criminal proceeding on the same set of facts and circumstances cannot be allowed to continue is concerned, the same is also without merit as far as the present case is concerned. It is pertinent to note that Apex Court in this case also discussed its earlier judgements passed in Radheshyam Kejriwal and Ashoo Surendranath Tewari (supra) and distinguished them on facts.

39. The Apex Court in the case of Superintendent of Police (CBI) VS. Deepak Chowdhary and others; (1995) 6 SCC 225 also held that on the basis of exoneration in the departmental proceeding by disciplinary authority criminal prosecution cannot be quashed and further, held that what is necessary and material is whether the facts collected during investigation would constitute the offence or not.

40. Therefore, from the above authorities it is apparent that even if an accused has been exonerated in the departmental proceeding on the basis of same set of charges then also ipso facto his criminal prosecution even on same charges cannot be quashed.

41. Further, however, learned counsel for applicant argued only above single point and he did not argue that even from perusal of material collected during investigation no offence is made out against applicant but even from the chargesheet, prima facie, it cannot be said that alleged offences are not made out against applicant.

42. Therefore, from the discussion made above, in view of this Court, the charge-sheet filed against applicant and proceedings of the instant case pending against him can not be quashed.

43. Accordingly, instant application filed by the applicant is devoid of merit and stands dismissed.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Vinod Diwakar, J.)

1. Heard Shri Prashant Sharma and Shri Surendra Pratap Singh, learned counsel for the petitioner, Shri Amrit Raj Chaurasiya, learned AGA for the State-respondents, and perused the material on record.

2. The instant application has been filed with the prayer to quash the entire criminal proceedings arising out of Case Crime No.108 of 2023, under Sections 420, 467, 468, 471 IPC read with Section 60/63 Excise Act, registered at P.S. Jaswant Nagar, District Etawah, as well as the impugned summoning/cognizance order dated 19.8.2023 along with charge-sheet dated 21.7.2023.

2.1 In the alternative, it is also prayed that the entire criminal proceedings in the aforesaid case be stayed, failing which the applicant shall suffer irreparable loss and injury.

3. The brief facts of the case are as follows:

3.1 On 29.04.2023, on the instructions of senior officers, the local police team started checking vehicles passing from the Jaunai Farm police post at District Etawah. While checking incoming and outgoing vehicles, a black Scorpio (Registration No.T-1223-JH-7384-D) was stopped, and three people were found sitting in the Scorpio. Upon inquiry, the person sitting in the driver's seat stated his name as Yadram, son of Ratanlal, resident of U-4, New Roshanpura, Najafgarh, Police Station, Najafgarh, District South-West, Delhi, caste-Mali*, aged approximately 35 years. During a personal search, a Redmi mobile phone, sky-blue in colour, was recovered from the right pocket of his trousers. The person sitting in the front passenger seat stated his name as Praveen Chhetri, son of Birendra Kumar, resident of House No.RZ 176A, New Dharmapura-1, Kakrola Road, Najafgarh, Police Station Najafgarh, District South-West, Delhi, aged about 29 years,* caste- Pahadi Rajput*. Upon personal search, Rs.1,150/- and one Apple mobile phone, light sky-blue in colour, were recovered from the pocket of his trousers. The person sitting in the rear seat stated his name as Deepak Kumar Singh, son of Santosh Kumar Singh, resident of Kulharia, Police Station Karakat (Godari), District Rohtas, State Bihar, aged approximately 29 years, belonging to the* caste- Thakur*. Upon personal search, Rs.550/- and an Oppo mobile phone, grey in colour, were recovered from the pocket of his trousers.*

3.2 On searching the Scorpio, 70 bottles of "ROYAL CHALLENGE CLASSIC PREMIUM WHISKY - FOR SALE IN HARYANA ONLY" and 36 bottles of "ROYAL STAGE PREMIUM WHISKY - FOR SALE IN HARYANA ONLY - 42.8% V/V NET Qty 750 ml" were recovered from the rear boot of the car along with two number plates marked "T1222 JH 7384D". The number plate affixed to this vehicle was also found to be fake, and the actual number plate was kept in the boot.

3.3 Upon being strictly questioned, the three persons revealed that their other associates were following behind in an Accent car No.HR-34-K-2257 is carrying more liquor. Thereafter, the police team intensified their checks, and shortly thereafter, a white Accent car, having Registration No.HR-34-K-2257 was seen and stopped.

3.4 The person sitting in the driver's seat stated his name as Lokesh alias Leela, son of Dilip Kumar, resident of 75 Dharmapura, Police Station Najafgarh, District South-West, Delhi, aged about 29 years, caste- Punjabi Parashar and the women sitting in the front passenger seat stated her name as Nisha, daughter of Rajesh, wife of Sanjeet, originally resident of RZ 30 Laxmi Vihar, Dichau Kalan, District South-West, Delhi, presently residing at House No. 105, Dinpur, Najafgarh, Police Station Najafgarh, District South-West, Delhi, caste-Brahmin*. On a personal search, one Oppo mobile phone, light sky-blue in colour, was recovered from the pocket of her trousers.*

3.5 On searching the car, 230 bottles of "ROYAL CHALLENGE CLASSIC PREMIUM WHISKY" and 24 bottles of "ROYAL STAGE PREMIUM WHISKY - 42.8% V/V Net Qty 750 ml - FOR SALE IN HARYANA ONLY" were recovered from the boot of the car; two number plates bearing "BR01DE 0941" were also recovered.

3.6 When both vehicle drivers and other persons sitting inside were asked to produce a license for possession and transportation of liquor, they failed to do so and all stated in unison that they earn their livelihood from selling liquor and Praveen Chhetri - the applicant- is their gang leader. Upon further strict interrogation of the accused, they stated that they bring liquor from Haryana and sell it at higher prices in Bihar to earn monetary profit, and that they keep changing the vehicle number plates while travelling to and fro.

4. Being aggrieved by the registration of FIR and initiation of subsequent proceedings, the applicant has preferred the present petition on the following grounds inter alia stating;

4.1 That the applicant has been falsely implicated in the present case at the behest of the police because of an ulterior motive.

4.2 The actual facts are that the applicant had gone to Etawah to attend a family gathering on account of the death of a relative. Upon conclusion of the post-death rituals, he attempted to arrange public transport to return home, but, finding it too late at night, discovered that no public transport was available.

4.3 While exploring other options, the applicant was informed by a restaurant owner that public transport might be available on the nearby highway. Acting on this advice, the applicant reached the highway and sought help from multiple passing vehicles, but none stopped. Eventually, after repeated attempts, a black Scorpio vehicle came to a halt. Upon the applicant's request, the driver agreed to give him a lift and asked him to board the vehicle.

4.4 Soon, thereafter, the police intercepted the said vehicle, conducted a search, and recovered certain alleged liquor bottles. The applicant was then falsely implicated in the case, despite having neither committed any offence nor possessed any knowledge of the said recovery.

4.5 At the relevant time, the applicant had only Rs.1,150/- in his possession. He was neither the driver nor the owner of the said vehicle, nor acquainted with the two other persons travelling therein.

5. During the course of argument, this Court observed that the Investigating Officer has mentioned the caste of the accused against their name, therefore, by order dated 3.3.2025 the Director General of Police was directed to file a personal affidavit justifying the requirement and relevance of mentioning the caste of a suspect or a group of persons named in an FIR or during a police investigation in a caste-ridden society, where social divisions continue to influence law enforcement practices and public perception.

6. Pursuant to the aforesaid direction, the Director General of Police filed an affidavit inter alia stating:

6.1 Generally, police do not ask/disclose the caste of the accused either in the First Information Report or in the Recovery memo, but due to the reason that there could be several persons of the same name in the same village or area and as such, identification of the real accused has become very crucial task to the police and in such circumstances for avoiding any confusion in future, often police record caste. The police authorities, at the time of preparing the Recovery Memo, are required to comply with the law, particularly regarding cases related to the Excise and N.D.P.S. Act. In the present case, the memos were prepared on the spot and signed by the accused persons. A copy of the Recovery Memo was provided to the accused person on the spot. In such circumstances, the Investigating Police Officer, to avoid any confusion regarding the identity of the accused person, as per the version of the accused, must have mentioned the caste.

6.2 The police do not discriminate against the accused persons on the basis of caste or religion or place of residence, as the only aim and intention of the investigating officer is to disclose the truth regarding the incident so that the real culprits shall be put behind bars. The police investigate as per the procedure established by law without favouring anyone. Additionally, it relied on the Government Letter dated 10.12.1997, issued based on the instructions by the central government to implement a computerised crime and criminal tracking and network system for effective investigation.

6.3 The Government of India and the National Crime Record Bureau have developed a computerised Crime and Criminal Tracking Network and Systems (CCTNS), and the State Government has implemented the Integrated Investigation Form since 10.12.1997 for the purpose of better scientific investigation. As such, the contents of the form can only be amended either by the Central Government or by the National Crime Records Bureau, the affidavit asserts. Therefore, to fill up the entries given in the Formats discussed herein below, and the police record, the name of the caste against the name of the accused and complainant/informant is mentioned.

6.4 Being a Welfare State, the government provides monetary benefits to the victims of members of the Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes under the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989, as amended from time to time and as such, victims and accused disclose their castes at the time of the incident to get the benefit of the State Government schemes.

6.5 The compliance affidavit has been accompanied with Format of First Information Report registered under section 154 Cr.P.C. (Police Form No.341), Crime Detail Form (Police Form No.178Ka), Property Seizure Memo [Search/Production/Recovery under/section----(Police Form No.173)], Arrest/Court Surrender Memo (Police Form No.401), Police Final Report prepared under section 173 Cr.P.C. (Police Form No.339), Court Disposal Form, and Result of Appeal.

7. On examination of aforesaid Formats, it′s revealed that there is no para in the First Information Report Format wherein it is mandatory for the police to mention the caste and religion of accused and complainant, in fact in Para No.7 the accused′s can be identified based on description accused′s sex, date/year of birth, build, height in centimetre, complexion, identification mark/marks, deformities/peculiarities, teeth, hair, eye, habit(s), dress habit, language/dialect, burn mark, leukoderma mole, scarf and tattoo, if any.

7.1 Similarly, on examination of the Crime Detail Form, it's revealed that there is no para for identification of the accused based on caste and religion; in fact, Para No.5 contains particulars of victims, wherein sub-para 7 & 8 mandate mention of religion and caste (whether SC/ST/OBC) respectively.

7.2 Similarly, on examination of Arrest/Court Surrender Memo, it is revealed that Para No.6 pertains to particulars of accused, wherein sub-para 8, 9 & 10 pertains to religion, caste/tribe and SC/ST respectively, besides name, Father's/Husband's Name, first alias, second alias, other alias, nationality, voter ID, passport number (date of issue and place of issue), permanent address with district and police station, and present address with district and police station. Para No.9 contains the descriptions of the accused's sex, date/year of birth, build, height in centimetres, complexion, identification mark/marks, deformities/peculiarities, teeth, hair, eyes, habit(s), dress habit(s), language/dialect, burn mark, leukoderma mole, scarf, tattoo and another other features. Para Nos.10 & 11 contain the requirements for fingerprints and the socio-economic profile of the accused, indicating their living status: living alone, with family or relatives in a pucca house/hotel/ kaccha house/ thached house/ slum, or being homeless. Besides educational qualification(s), occupation and income group, respectively.

7.3 Similarly, on examination of the Police Final Report Format, it is revealed that Para No.10 (VII & VIII) contains the requirement of religion, whether SC/ST, and occupation, besides other details of the accused charge sheeted. Likewise, Para No. 11 mandates the similarly required details of the accused persons not charged (suspected), besides other details such as name, father's or husband's name, year of birth, sex, nationality, passport number with date and place of issue, occupation, and address.

7.4 Whereas, on examination of the Court Disposal Form, Result of Appeal, and the Property Seizure Memo, no requirement of caste and religion has been observed.

8. The DGP's affidavit emphasized three key justifications: first, the identification of the accused by caste name is done to avoid any confusion about the identity of the accused, and second, the contents of the Formats (annexed with the affidavit) may be amended either by the Union Government or the National Crime Records Bureau, and third, the police do not discriminate with accused persons on the basis of their caste or religion and conducts the investigation as per the procedure established by law - so far as the caste is concerned, the police scientific method of investigation have no impact on the psyche of the law enforcement agencies.

8.1 With regard to the police's stand on the identification of the accused based on caste, it is a legal fallacy. In the first quarter of the 21st century, the police still rely on caste as a means of identification. It's unfortunate. This is particularly untenable when modern tools such as body cameras, mobile cameras, fingerprints, Aadhar cards, mobile numbers, and parental details (Mother and Father, both) are available. In addition, the Formats themselves already contain extensive descriptive fields relating to the accused, including sex, date/year of birth, build, height (in centimetres), complexion, identification marks, deformities/peculiarities, teeth, hair, eyes, habits, dress habits, language/dialect, burn marks, leukoderma, moles, scars, and tattoos, if any. Therefore, this Court is not impressed with the reasoning of the Director General of Police.

8.2 So far as the second issue is concerned, the stand of the police is not legally sustainable, since public order (policing) is a state subject1, and the State is empowered to amend the contents, whether by deletion or addition, to achieve the constitutional aim of a caste-less society. It's unfortunate, the State has taken no steps in align with constitutional morality.

8.3 The third issue warrants careful scrutiny of the influence of caste on the socio-psychological behaviour of society, the government and its organs. In a caste-ridden society where deep-rooted social divisions continue to shape both public perception and law enforcement practices, it becomes both necessary and appropriate to re-examine the practice of recording caste and religion in police reports and public documents.

9. In the present context, it may not be necessary to examine the origin of caste and its relevance in ancient Indian society, and even before the Britishers came to India. A reference to the judgment passed in the first quarter of the 19th century may no longer be fruitful. However, recent judgments of the Supreme Court, which contain mandatory directions prohibiting the mention of caste and religion in pleadings, are certainly relevant for arriving at a just decision. Notably, in the early 20th century, Indian courts frequently addressed the impact of caste on both societal dynamics and judicial functioning.

10. Before I dwell upon the judgment passed by the Supreme Court and examination of the critical view of the jurist, a re-look at the famous speech of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar delivered on 25.11.1949 on the conclusion of deliberations in the Constituent Assembly may fulfill the purpose and aspiration of the rising India, the confident India; a nation driven by vision, powered by innovation, and rooted in its timeless values. The relevant extracts are reproduced hereinafter: "In India, there are castes. The castes are anti-national. In the first place, they bring about separation in social life. They are anti-national also because they generate jealousy and antipathy between caste and caste. But we must overcome all these difficulties if we wish to become a nation in reality. Fraternity can be a fact only when there is a nation. Without fraternity, equality and liberty will be no deeper than coats of paint.2"

10.1 Dr. Ambedkar further emphasized that "caste is not a physical object like a wall of bricks or a line of barbed wire which prevents the Hindus from commingling and which has therefore to be pulled down. Caste is a notion; it is a state of the mind."

11. In Indra Sawhney v. Union of India, the Supreme Court observed that secularism is the basic feature of the Indian Constitution. It envisages a cohesive, unified and casteless society. The Constitution has completely obliterated the caste system and has assured equality before the law. Reference to caste under Articles 15(2) and 16(2) is only to obliterate it. The prohibition on the ground of caste is total; the mandate is that never again in this country shall caste raise its head. Even access to shops on the grounds of caste is prohibited. The progress of India has been from casteism to egalitarianism-from feudalism to freedom.

11.1 The caste system, which has been put in the grave by the framers of the Constitution, is trying to raise its ugly head in various forms. Caste poses a serious threat to secularism and, as a consequence, to the integrity of the country. Those who do not learn from the events of history are doomed to suffer again. It is, therefore, of utmost importance for the people of India to adhere in letter and spirit to the Constitution, which has moulded this country into a sovereign, socialist, secular democratic republic and has promised to secure to all its citizens justice, social, economic and political, equality of status and of opportunity.

12. The Supreme Court in Ashok Kumar Thakur v. Union of India has confirmed that achieving a casteless society is an ultimate aim of the Constitution.

13. Further, the Supreme Court in State of Rajasthan v. Gautam s/o Mohanlal observed that an accused has no caste or religion when the Court deals with the case. The Court emphasised that such information should not be included in the cause title of judgments, and this practice needs to be discontinued and held that, "an accused has no caste or religion when the Court deals with his case and further observed that the Court has failed to understand why the caste of the accused has been mentioned in the cause titles of the High Court and Trial Court judgments. The caste or religion of a litigant should never be mentioned in the cause title of the judgment. The Court was surprised that despite their earlier order dated 14th March 2023 that such practice should never be followed, it's still prevalent.

14. Similarly, the Supreme Court in Shama Sharma v. Kishan Kumar, while hearing a transfer petition filed by petitioner-wife under Section 25 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, seeking transfer of petition for restitution of conjugal rights filed by the respondent-husband under Section 9 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955, pending before the Principal Judge, Family Court, Sri Ganga Nagar, Rajasthan to a Court of competent jurisdiction at Faridkot, Punjab. The Supreme Court, while examining the Court's record, noted with surprise that the caste of both parties has been mentioned in the memo of parties, besides their other details. The Court directed all the High Courts to ensure that the caste/religion of a litigant does not appear in the memo of parties.

14.1 The Supreme Court observed that there was no reason for mentioning the caste/religion of any litigant even before Supreme Court or the courts below, and thus, shunned such practice and held that it must be seized forthwith, and passed general order directing that henceforth the caste or religion of the parties shall not be mentioned in the memo of parties of a petition/proceedings filed before the Supreme Court irrespective of whether any such details have been furnished before the courts below. A direction was also issued to all the High Courts to ensure that the caste/religion of a litigant does not appear in the memo of parties in any petition/suit/proceedings filed before the High Court or the Subordinate Courts under their respective jurisdiction.

15. "The Judges of the Supreme Court of India, 1950-1989"- a seminal work by George H. Gadbois, Jr.9, presents a biographical essay for each of the first ninety-three judges who served on the Supreme Court from 1952 through mid-1989. The contents of the biographical essay were gathered in the only way they could be - from conversation with the judges. Chapter II of Part Two of the book deals with caste. It starts with "Caste, the most important differentiator in the Indian social life, is better indicative of social origin and class than parental occupation....." and the book concludes with the phrase that caste has also been one of the indicators in the appointment of Supreme Court judges- not in all, but in some cases- and the analysis ended with the observation that....."judges of the highest rank in all or nearly all nations will not be representative of the social make-up of their country."

16. Professor G. Mohan Gopal11, in the opening paragraph of his essay titled "Supreme but Pro-Caste: How the Jurisprudence of the Supreme Court of India Preserves and Protects India's Caste System", published in "[In] Complete Justice? The Supreme Court at 75", edited by Justice S. Muralidhar12, invokes the words of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, who cautioned: "Some say that they should be satisfied with the abolition of untouchability only, leaving the caste system alone. The aim of abolition of untouchability alone, without trying to abolish the inequalities inherent in the caste system, is a rather low aim." Drawing from Supreme Court judgments, Professor Gopal critiques the Court's approach to caste, arguing that it has, in effect, preserved and protected the caste system.

16.1 The following selected paragraphs are excerpted from Professor G. Mohan Gopal's essay, which critically examines the Supreme Court's approach to caste and underscores the need for a casteless society. The essay offers a perspective that may illuminate certain dimensions of the issue at hand. However, this Court does not, at this stage, fully concur with all the views expressed therein;

"Notwithstanding its rhetoric about a casteless society, in the seventy-five years of its existence, the SCI has protected and preserved the caste system. It has been an anti-catalyst in two ways: first, by suitably redefining three foundational legal concepts (caste, religion and Hindu); and second, by eviscerating reservation, which, as conceived by Dr. Ambedkar, is the intended constitutional weapon of caste destruction."

"As the caste system is a system for vesting, divesting and regulating rights of individuals and social groups, it is a political system of government rather than a religious system or a social system. In effect, the varna-jaati system is a system of unequal citizenship. A system of government may be defined as a structure for the establishment and operation of institutions to distribute power and govern people by defining and regulating rights, claims, privileges, disabilities and liabilities. These are the practical functions of the varna-jaati system. The varna-jaati system should therefore also be recognised for what it is in its essence: a form of government."

"For instance, Article 17 abolishes, forbids and criminalises the practice of untouchability, and Article 25 vests freedom of religion in the 'individual' and not in groups. This is a radical rejection of the varna system, which does not recognise the individual except as a member of a group and vests all claims, privileges, liabilities and disabilities exclusively in groups. Further, Article 25 makes the right to religion subject to other fundamental rights."

17. The British colonial rule dramatically transformed the caste system. The first all-India census was carried out in 1871-1872 by the British to gather demographic status of the entire population of India for better administrative control, categorizing and freezing caste identities, turning fluid social groups into fixed administrative categories, besides other details like education, religion, occupation, military and non-military population, etc. The British rule in India used caste for governance and financial gain, creating caste groups and criminal tribes, and by introducing separate codified laws for different communities.

18. There is another aspect attached to the codified law and concept of justice, and there exists a fundamental distinction between the concept of justice and the framework of codified or statutory law. This difference becomes particularly evident when viewed through the lens of India′s colonial legal history.

19. The British introduced judicial reforms in India not with the intent of delivering justice in its truest sense, but rather to serve the administrative and commercial interests of the East India Company and subsequently the British Empire. The establishment of Diwani and Faujdari Adalats under Warren Hastings marked the beginning of this legal restructuring. His successor, Lord Cornwallis, continued these reforms, and the Charter Act of 1833 further advanced this project by allowing Indians to enter judicial services and establishing a Law Commission to codify laws.

20. As a result, several important statutes were enacted: the Civil Procedure Code (1859), the Indian Penal Code (1860), and the Criminal Procedure Code (1861), Indian Contract Act, 1872 and Succession and Custody Laws, among others. Nearly 52 Legislative Acts have been passed by British Colonial Rulers for India. Yet, despite the presence of a comprehensive legal framework, there was widespread discontent among Indians. The Indians recognized that while procedural law had been established, true justice remained elusive.

21. The colonial legal system, though codified law, for illustration; (i) Government of India Act, 1858, the British Parliament passed its Act to liquidate the East India Company, following the 1857 mutiny, (ii) Government of India Act, 1919, and (iii) Government of India Act, 1935 often worked to undermine Indian resources, culture, governance, and autonomy. The application of law was frequently a tool of exploitation, not emancipation. It can be best demonstrated by the fact that in 1650, India′s GDP was 25% of the world′s GDP, and by 1950, when the British left India, it′s GDP reduced to 2% of the world′s GDP!

Imagine how much wealth was created in those three hundred years, which was transferred to Britain.

22. This disconnect between law and justice fuelled mass movements- such as the Non-Cooperation Movement, the Quit India Movement, and other struggles for Swarajya- that ultimately led to pass the Indian Independence Act, 1947.

23. This historical experience teaches us an essential lesson: the mere existence of law does not guarantee justice. Procedural codes, however well-structured, can fail to serve the people if they are not grounded in principles of JUSTICE, social, economic and political; LIBERTY of thought, expression, belief, faith, and worship; EQUALITY of status and of opportunity; and to promote among all FRATERNITY assuring the dignity of the individual and the unity and the integrity of the Nation.

24. Therefore, in the contemporary Indian judicial landscape, the pursuit of justice demands a holistic appreciation of the entire judicial framework rather than mere adherence to codified law and the law propounded through judgments. Structural judicial reform is urgently needed- reform that prioritizes justice not only in theory but in alignment with the rule of law, ensuring that the law and government policies serve WE, THE PEOPLE OF INDIA, not the other way around.

25. Caste in India is not merely a system of social stratification - it is a deeply embedded psychological and legal phenomenon that influences identity, behaviour, and access to rights. Caste has been institutionalized over centuries through religious texts, social customs, and cultural practices. The caste-based notion of superiority, especially among historically privileged castes, persists in the collective consciousness despite constitutional guarantees of equality and dignity. It is a human-made construct- not a genetically evolved condition, like the evolution of humans from homo sapiens to present-day human beings; It′s not a divinely ordained system.

26. The Constitution of India enshrines the principle of equality and explicitly prohibits caste-based discrimination through several key provisions. Article 14 guarantees "equality before the law" and "equal protection of the laws" to all individuals. Article 15(1) prohibits discrimination on the grounds of religion, race, caste, sex, or place of birth. Yet, caste-based discrimination continues to exist in society, and the Courts have recognized this in various judgments, particularly in matters involving atrocity laws and reservations.

27. Many individuals from privileged caste(s) experience cognitive dissonance when confronted with their privilege. While they may intellectually accept constitutional equality, they often deny structural discrimination, attributing marginalized groups. This denial acts as a psychological defence mechanism to preserve caste identity and caste based privileges without overt guilt. This fosters implicit bias and a persistent sense of social superiority, which resists rational legal intervention.

28. The psyche behind the caste dominance is the assertion of identity amid insecurity. These displays often come from privileged and socially anxious caste groups as India moves towards urbanization, inter-caste mingling, and affirmative programmes, formerly privileged castes experiencing status anxiety- a fear of losing historical privileges. Further, it′s a reflection of cultural narcissism and group egotism. Caste is turned into a performative identity, an ego project, where pride is rooted not in individual merit but in fake ancestral valour or a delusion rooted in fictitious mythical supremacy. This behaviour echoes the concept of "culture of dominance", where marginal superiority is exaggerated to cover deep-seated inferiority. The sociology-psychological implications of collective narcissism, wherein individuals anchor self-worth in caste identity rather than merit or civic virtue, and symbolic intimidation of caste emblems signals dominance and discourages inter-caste social mixing, stimulate digital echo chambers of the mind.

29. What manifests as caste pride is often not about identity but insecurity, not about history but hegemony. It reflects a failure of the education system, law enforcement, and political class to instil constitutional values of FRATERNITY, assuring the dignity of the individual and the unity and integrity of the Nation.

30. The caste-based congregation and associations gather to assert caste identity, influence the political landscape and determine access to resources, rituals and even entry to temples and crematoriums. In such a scenario, a fair treatment of merit and respect for hard work is the least expected.

31. The resurgence of caste identifiers in public and digital spaces is not the beginning of a cultural phenomenon- it is a coded assertion of social power that contradicts India's constitutional values. In the northern part of India- in states like Uttar Pradesh, Haryana, Punjab, Rajasthan, and parts of Madhya Pradesh and Bihar- individuals commonly mark their cars, bikes, and sometimes homes with caste identifiers. Vehicles adorned with caste emblems, slogans or even warnings.

32. The rise of digital platforms like Instagram, YouTube Shorts, and Facebook Reels has given young caste-identified individuals a platform for performance. These reels often romanticize caste aggression and dominance, rural masculinity, and regressive honour codes. The socio-psychological, cultural, and legal dimensions of such behaviour reveal how the assertion of caste in public domains undermines constitutional morality and reflects an identity crisis rooted in historical superiority and modern insecurity.

33. Social media becomes an echo chamber for hyper-masculine caste identity, historical revisionism (e.g., glorifying feudal lords or caste based political leaders). It promotes a toxic digital masculinity rooted in caste, weaponizing tradition in a postmodern format. The digital caste ego is further influencing the cognitive behaviour of the youth, thereby undermining the constitutional morality of brotherhood and unity.

34. The collective political will, bureaucratic setup, and law enforcement agencies are oblivious to the aforementioned social trend. The reasons are best known to them; either they have accepted it as the future of the new India, or their cognitive behaviour and social psyche have been shaped by caste narcissism.

35. The police and other law enforcement agencies are not immune to these societal biases. They often reflect, reproduce, and sometimes intensify caste-based prejudices. It becomes necessary to deal with the cognitive behaviour of law enforcement officials in India when influenced by caste-ridden thought, combining insights from the conduct infused by social psychology, and behavioural patterns reflected in contemporary cases. This is evident from discrimination and segregation in the education and justice departments that remain rampant across India, driving inequality in education, life opportunities, and in justice delivery system.

36. The cognitive behavior of law enforcement officials-as evident from the facts of the present case and observed in others-reflects a caste consciousness that persists in the mind, as there was no legal requirement for the investigating officer to mention the caste of accused persons in order to bring them to justice, still the investigating officer mentioned the accused caste in the impugned FIR and the search and seizure memo highlights one of the most serious challenges to constitutional democracy in India. It reveals that the problem of caste is not just in society or religion but embedded in the mental framework of the State itself. Legal and institutional reforms must be accompanied by a moral and psychological revolution in the minds of those entrusted with upholding the law. Only then can we hope to dismantle the caste matrix that continues to influence India's criminal justice system.

37. Even though Article 15 of the Indian Constitution protects individual Indians from discrimination based on religion, race, caste, sex and place of birth. Yet, nearly 75 years after the Indian Constitution came into force, the critical and influential institutions of State are still influenced by a malignant system that often adopts immoral caste, sex and religion-based preferences under the guise of so-called "independence" and "transparency". The preferences for the privileged class of society undermine our national unity and compromise merit and hard work. The individual's hard work, excellence and individual achievement are compromised in favour of a detrimental framework. The hard work and merit of individuals should not be stigmatized, demeaned, or shut out of opportunities because an individual does not come from the privileged category of class.

38. The psyche behind an inflated ego is a myth, and the constitutional instrumentalities need to bust it. It is not just regressive- it is resistant to the idea of a progressive, transformed, developed, modern, and unified India. India's future lies in social integrity and participative democracy. Confronting this psyche requires more than regulation; it demands social re-education, moral awakening, and deconstruction of caste as a symbol of worth. The real pride of a citizen must lie not in caste, but in character- and not in legacy, but in equality and fraternity. Equality means equal opportunities for all, and fraternity means a collective sense of brotherhood. It is not a subject of good and impressive literature, but rather one to be embodied in practice through body, action, and behavior. It's about engaging your whole self.

39. To address the psychological dimensions of system based privileges and behavior sentiments, legal reform must go beyond punitive measures, and the rule of law shall be given prominence while dealing with biases, and to eliminate such biases and prejudices, the sensitization of the judiciary and police through anti-bias training programmes and introducing new curricular reform to challenge casteist and sexiest narratives in schools and colleges, and in bureaucratic set- ups. Strengthening social justice jurisprudence with attention to lived experience, rather than just legal definitions, and implementing legal literacy campaigns to dismantle internalized superiority may serve a useful purpose in establishing a caste-less and gender neutral society.

40. So far as caste based discrimination is concerned, the policy and rule makers must consider curbing caste emblems and slogans in public vehicles and regulating caste glorification content on social media, and promoting inter-caste institutions and community centres instead of exclusive caste based institutions.

41. While anti-discrimination laws provide punishment for caste based exclusion, they cannot by themselves dismantle centuries-old social structures. In India, caste is not merely a matter of discrimination but also a significant aspect of identity and the assertion of power. The caste-based political rallies, glorification of caste in TV debates, caste-based songs and social media content, caste-based leadership, and caste-based congregations remain frequent, undermining the very spirit of constitutional morality and anti-discrimination provisions of the Indian Constitution. Even matrimonial ads in newspapers and online portals openly mention caste preferences, reflecting deep social conditioning. Instead of promoting equality, the media often becomes a mirror of entrenched hierarchies.

42. India′s legal framework against caste based discrimination is amongst the most comprehensive in the world. Articles 14, 15 & 17 of the Constitution explicitly guarantee equality and outlaw discrimination. However, most measures focus on protection and affirmative action, not on dismantling social prejudices that arises because of discrimination based on caste. The law can punish overt acts of discrimination, but it does little to address the subtle everyday forms of exclusion still prevalent in institutions, schools, workplaces, and villages.

43. There is no national wide awareness programme specially targeted at caste prejudice, like campaigns on cleanliness and gender equality. The school have a policy on inclusion, but there is no systematic curriculum module dedicated solely to anti-caste education. Government often treats caste issues as matters of law and order, focusing on punishing atrocities rather than preventing them through dialogue, community reforms, providing equal opportunity where there is no reservation, and or sensitization through sustained campaigns.

44. To minimize caste discrimination, the government needs sustained programmes alongside laws- a national campaign promoting social harmony and caste equality. School curriculum modules should teach children about equality, dignity, and the dangers of caste prejudice. Community-level initiatives, mandatory training for public officials, teachers, and employees on caste sensitivity, and media campaigns highlighting positive stories of caste integration and the danger of caste prejudices, may be taken by reference from history.

45. The law alone cannot change hearts and minds. The absence of sustained government programmes to eliminate discrimination may not fulfil its Constitution obligation towards a casteless society. India must move beyond punishment and economic schemes to create proactive programmes of education, awareness, and social reform to achieve constitutional morality and the vision of an equal and inclusive society in participative democracy. The affirmative programmes and economic schemes have their own worth but cannot substitute the aforesaid pro-active programmes.

46. The investigative impartiality and enforcement neutrality must be consciously cultivated, especially in a society where caste is pervasive. Writing or declaring the caste of an accused- without legal relevance-amounts to identity profiling, not objective investigation. It reinforces prejudice, corrupts public opinion, contaminates judicial thinking, violates fundamental rights, and undermines constitutional morality.

47. The Court is not impressed with the justification offered by the Director General of Police. In the Court′s view, the DGP, coming from a third-world background, appears to have little exposure to the complex realities of Indian society and the demands of professional policing. True legal and professional acumen necessarily requires an understanding of society-its nature, its functioning, and its constitutional values. Yet, despite holding the state's highest police office, he conducted himself like an ivory-tower policeman, detached from constitutional morality, and eventually retired merely as a bureaucrat in uniform.

48. Recording the caste of the accused as Mali, Pahadi Rajput, Thakur, Punjabi Parashar, and Brahmin (emphasis supplied) in the impugned FIR and Seizure Memo serves no lawful or legitimate purpose. What is truly unfortunate is that, rather than recommending a departmental inquiry or ensuring the officer undergoes sensitization on constitutional morality and social concerns, the conduct was defended on vague and unsustainable grounds. Such insensitivity on the part of the state's highest police authority compelled this Court to engage in a deeper deliberation on the larger issue of caste based prejudices, leading to the issuance of recommendations (with the hope and expectation that a serious and deliberate consideration by the Union would strengthen the intent of these deliberations to achieve constitutional obligations towards caste-less society) to various departments of the Union Government, as well as specific directions to the State of Uttar Pradesh.

49. The sole purpose of the observation made herein above is merely an attempt to invoke constitutional morality and awaken a sense of compassion and justice in the conscience of those occupying the highest constitutional offices. Constitutional authorities must never forget that the dignity of the Nation does not emanate from lineage or caste affinity, but from adherence to constitutional morality and the collective effort of building a strong national character. Pride in ancestry or social identity cannot be a substitute for the values of equality, justice, and fraternity enshrined in the Constitution. True honour for one′s office, and true service to the people, lies in upholding these principles with humility and devotion. Reverence for the Constitution, rather than for lineage, is the highest form of patriotism and the truest expression of national service. Such conduct, if any, by the constitutional authority undermines the constitutional morality.

50. Before parting, I would like to observe that India has resolved to become a developed nation by 2047, marking the centenary of its Independence. To truly realize this vision, it is imperative that we eradicate the deeply entrenched caste system from our society.

50.1 This goal demands sustained, multi-level efforts from all levels of government-through progressive policies, robust anti-discrimination laws, and transformative social programs. While the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act exists to address specific abuses, there remains no comprehensive law aimed at dismantling the caste system itself and its pervasive social influence.

50.2 As rightly asserted by social reformers such as Raja Ram Mohan Roy, Jyotiba Phule, Savitribai Phule, Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, Swami Vivekananda, Narayana Guru, Vinoba Bhave, Kandukuri Veeresalingam and Swami Dayanand Saraswati-among many others-the glorification, institutionalization, or promotion of caste-based identities and programs runs counter to the spirit of national unity and progress. Such practices are, in effect, anti-national.

50.3 A nation's development is best measured not just by economic growth, but by two fundamental benchmarks: the effective implementation of the rule of law and the realization of an egalitarian society. If we are sincere in our commitment to becoming a truly developed nation by 2047, the annihilation of caste must be a central part of our national agenda. History has made this lesson clear for us!

RECOMMENDATIONS

51. Based on the aforesaid deliberations, the government may prepare a regulated framework to regulate and amend the Central Motor Vehicle Rules (CMVR) to explicitly ban caste-based slogans and caste identifiers on all private and public vehicles. Issue uniform circulars to RTOs and traffic departments across the state to enforce the removal of caste signage and impose heavy fines, which may act as a deterrent. Strengthen provisions under the Information Technology (Intermediary Guidelines and Digital Media Ethics Code) Rules, 2021, to flag and act against caste-glorifying, hate-inducing content on social media. Support media literacy and anti-casteism campaigns targeting youth on platforms like Instagram, YouTube, and WhatsApp. May set up a Monitoring and Reporting Mechanism for citizens to enable them reporting portals and mobile apps to anonymously report violations in collaboration with (i) Ministry of Road Transport & Highways (MoRTH), (ii) Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology (MeitY), (iii) Press Council of India, and (iv) Civil society organizations working on caste equity and digital rights.

of the Father/Husband of the person who has shown the place of occurrence. Column No. 8 of para 5 shall be deleted from the format of the Crime Details Form*. (Reference: Page 11 of the Counter Affidavit).*

(c) Name of mother shall be added in para-5 & 6 of the Property Seizure Memo along with the name of Father/Husband. (Reference: Page 17 of the Counter Affidavit).

(d) In Para 6(1), the name of the mother of the accused shall be added along with the name of the Father's/ Husband's Name, whereas Para 6(9) and 6(10) shall be deleted from the Arrest/Court Surrender Memo*. (Reference: Page 19 of the Counter Affidavit)*

(e) In Para 8 (Kha), the name of the mother of the complainant/informant shall be added along with Father's/Husband's Name, and Para 10 (vii) shall stand deleted so far as the requirement of SC/ST/OBC is concerned from the Police Final Report*. Likewise, similar changes shall be made in the paragraph. 11. (Reference: Page 22 & 23 of the Counter Affidavit).*

(f) In brief, the entries, in paragraph and column pertaining to the requirement of caste or tribe shall stand deleted, whereas the Mother's Name shall be added along with the name of father and husband in all the aforesaid FORMATS annexed with the counter affidavit filed by Director General of Police, UP.

(g) It's learnt that the notice board installed at all the police stations of Uttar Pradesh carries a column of the caste against the name of the accused; the government shall issue an appropriate order to delete (erase) the same with immediate effect immediately after receipt of the copy of this order.

(h) It is also brought to the court's notice that in rural India, sub-urban towns (Kasbas and Tehsils), and even in certain colonies of district headquarters, certain disgruntled elements-driven by false caste pride and caste narcissism-have installed signboards glorifying caste and declaring specific geographical areas as caste territories or estates. Such signboards or proclamations must be removed forthwith, and strict measures should be taken to ensure that no such boards are erected or installed in the future. A formal regulation to this effect should be framed at the earliest by the competent authority.

52. The ACS (Home) in consultation with the DGP, Uttar Pradesh shall frame and implement Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) to implement aforesaid guidelines, and amend police manuals/ regulation, if necessary, to prohibit the caste disclosure in investigations and public records of complainant/informant, accused and witnesses, however, complainant(s)/informant(s) are exempted only in cases where there is a statutory requirement for mentioning caste, like in cases registered under the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989, and other public records.

53. The aforesaid directions shall be applicable in the territorial jurisdiction of Uttar Pradesh and are optional for the central government, as it was not before this Court.

54. Reverting to the prayer made in the present petition for quashing of the impugned criminal proceedings arising out of Case Crime No.108 of 2023, under Sections 420, 467, 468, 471 IPC read with Sections 60/63 of the Excise Act, registered at Police Station Jaswant Nagar, District Etawah, as against the applicant, this Court has placed reliance upon the judgment of the Supreme Court in State of Haryana and others v. Ch. Bhajan Lal and others. In the said judgment, the Supreme Court elaborately discussed the scope of inherent powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C. and laid down guidelines for the exercise of such power, holding inter alia that where the allegations made in the First Information Report or complaint, even if taken at face value and accepted in their entirety, do not prima facie constitute any offense or make out a case against the accused, the criminal proceedings may be quashed besides other directions.

55. In the present case, upon perusal of the record and examination of the documents placed before the Court, it is prima facie established that the applicant was arrested on the spot, and upon personal search, an amount of Rs. 1,150/- and one Apple mobile phone (light sky-blue in colour), bearing IMEI Nos.(i) 355387490148201 and (ii) 355387490208206 were recovered from his pocket. Upon searching the Scorpio vehicle, 70 bottles of "ROYAL CHALLENGE CLASSIC PREMIUM WHISKY - FOR SALE IN HARYANA ONLY" and 36 bottles of "ROYAL STAGE PREMIUM WHISKY - FOR SALE IN HARYANA ONLY - 42.8% V/V NET Qty 750 ml" were recovered from the rear boot of the car. Additionally, two number plates bearing "T1222 JH 7384D" were recovered from the rear boot, and the number plate affixed to the vehicle was also found to be fake. During the course of the investigation, it was further revealed that the applicant is the gang leader involved in the smuggling of liquor.

56. Considering the nature of illegal smuggling of liquor across state borders for financial gain and applying the principles laid down in Bhajan Lal (supra), a prima-facie case is made out against the applicant. Therefore, no ground for quashing the impugned proceedings is made out.

57. As regards the submissions advanced by learned counsel for the applicant, they involve questions of fact that are to be determined by the trial court upon proper adjudication. Determination of factual issues, appreciation of evidence, or assessment of the reliability and credibility of the prosecution's version does not fall within the scope of jurisdiction under Section 482 Cr.P.C. In light of the material on record, it also cannot be held that the impugned criminal proceedings are manifestly tainted with mala fide, or maliciously instituted with an ulterior motive to wreak vengeance on the applicant, or to settle a personal or private grudge. Likewise, no illegality, perversity, or any substantial error has been pointed out in the impugned summoning order to warrant interference by this Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C.

58. Accordingly, the application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. is devoid of merit and is hereby dismissed, with the aforesaid directions to the Additional Chief Secretary (Home) and Director General of Police, Uttar Pradesh, to ensure compliance forthwith.

59. The Registrar (Compliance) is hereby directed to transmit a copy of this order to (i) the Chief Secretary, Uttar Pradesh, who in turn shall place a copy of this order to the Hon'ble Chief Minister, Uttar Pradesh, for information, (ii) Additional Chief Secretary (Home), and Director General of Police, Uttar Pradesh, for compliance forthwith.

60. A copy of this order shall also be sent to (i) Union Home Secretary, Government of India; (ii) Secretary, Ministry of Road Transport & Highways (MoRTH); (iii) Secretary, Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology (MeitY), and (iv) Secretary, Press Council of India for information and future reference.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Arun Kumar Singh Deshwal, J.)

1. Heard Sri Abhishek Krishna, learned counsel for the applicant and learned AGA for the State.

2. The present application has been filed for the following relief:

"It is, therefore, most respectfully prayed that this Hon'ble Court may graciously be pleased to direct the learned Settlement Officer of Consolidation, District Azamgarh to conclude and decide the Misc. Case No.5 of 2023 [Sufia Vs Mohd. Wamik) under Section 340(2) of Cr. P.C., as well as direct the Consolidation Officer Phoolpur, District Azamgarh to conclude and decide the Misc. Case of 2019 (Sufia Vs Mohd. Wamik) under Section 340 of Cr. P.C., pending before them for a long time, within the shortest period of time to be stipulated by the Hon'ble Court to avoid all inconvenience to the Applicant in the interest of justice."

3. Learned AGA has raised preliminary objection that application u/s 340 Cr.P.C. is not maintainable before the Consolidation Officer as the consolidation authorities are not the competent court as required u/s 340 Cr.P.C.

4. Learned counsel for the applicant in reply to the preliminary objection raised by the learned AGA submitted that proceeding before the consolidation authorities is judicial proceeding as per Section 40 of Uttar Pradesh Consolidation Holdings Act, 1953 (in short 'the Act, 1953'). Therefore, if any false evidence has been filed before the Consolidation Officer then the application u/s 340 Cr.P.C. would be maintainable before the Consolidation Officer.

5. To decide the aforesaid legal issue, it would be appropriate to discuss basic ingredients of Section 340 Cr.P.C. For ready reference, Section 340 Cr.P.C. (corresponding Section 379 BNSS) is being quoted as under:

"340. Procedure in cases mentioned in Section 195.

(1) When upon an application made to it in this behalf or otherwise any Court is of opinion that it is expedient in the interest of justice that an inquiry should be made into any offence referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 195, which appears to have been committed in or in relation to a proceeding in that Court or, as the case may be, in respect of a document produced or given evidence in a proceeding in that Court, such Court may, after such preliminary inquiry, if any, as it thinks necessary, -

(a) record a finding to that effect;

(b) make a complaint thereof in writing;

(c) send it to a Magistrate of the first class having jurisdiction;

(d) take sufficient security for the appearance of the accused before such Magistrate, or if the alleged offence is non-bailable and the Court thinks it necessary so to do, send the accused in custody to such magistrate; and

(e) bind over any person to appear and give evidence before such Magistrate.

(2) The power conferred on a Court by sub-section (1) in respect of an offence may, in any case where that Court has neither made a complaint under sub-section (1) in respect of that offence nor rejected an application for the making of such complaint, be exercised by the Court to which such former Court is subordinate within the meaning of sub-section (4) of Section 195.

(3) A complaint made under this section shall be signed, -

(a) where the Court making the complaint is a High Court, by such officer of the Court as the Court may appoint;

(b) in any other case, by the presiding officer of the Court or by such officer of the Court as the Court may authorise in writing in this behalf.

(4) In this section, "Court" has the same meaning as in Section 195."

6. From perusal of Section 340 Cr.P.C., it is clear that it basically provides procedure for conducting preliminary enquiry to satisfy whether offence u/s 195(1)(b) Cr.P.C. in respect of a document produced and given evidence in the proceeding of a court is prima facie made out. Therefore, it is a procedure for satisfaction of court before filing a complaint regarding production or giving any forged document in relation to the proceeding of court and the proceeding u/s 195 Cr.P.C. cannot be initiated without a complaint. Section 195(1)(b) Cr.P.C. provides procedure of taking cognizance for the offence u/s 193 to 196, 199, 200, 205 to 211, 463, 471, 475, 476 or abetment of any of these offences which relates to giving or producing false evidence in a proceeding of any court. Section 195(3) Cr.P.C. defines the term 'court' as civil, revenue or criminal court including Tribunal constituted by or under the Central, Provincial or State Act. Section 195(3) Cr.P.C. is being quoted as under:

"195(3). In clause (b) of sub-section (1), the term "Court" means a Civil, Revenue or Criminal Court and includes a Tribunal constituted by or under a Central, Provincial or State Act, if declared by that Act to be a Court for the purposes of this section."

7. From perusal of Section 195(3) Cr.P.C., it is clear that revenue court is also a court and as per Section 40 of the Act, 1953, proceeding before the Settlement Officer Consolidation, Consolidation Officer and Assistant Consolidation Officer would be judicial proceeding. Section 40 of the Act, 1953 is being quoted as under:

"40. Proceeding before Settlement Officer, Consolidation, Consolidation Officer and Assistant Consolidation Officer to be judicial proceedings.

- A proceeding before a [Director of Consolidation, Deputy Director, Consolidation] [Inserted by U.P. Act No. 38 of 1958.], Settlement Officer, Consolidation, Consolidation Officer and Assistant Consolidation Officer shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of Sections 193 and 228 and for purposes of Section 197 of the Indian Penal Code."

8. Therefore with conjoint reading of Section 40 of the Act, 1953 and Section 195(3) Cr.P.C., it is clear that consolidation authorities including the Consolidation Officer are revenue court, therefore, same is court for the purpose of Section 340 Cr.P.C. and if any false document is produced or false evidence is given before the Consolidation Officer then the Consolidation Officer would be, within its jurisdiction to conduct the preliminary enquiry u/s 340 Cr.P.C. in relating to the offence u/s 195(1)(b) of Cr.P.C.

9. In view of the above analysis, this court is of the opinion that application u/s 340 Cr.P.C. (corresponding Section 379 BNSS) is maintainable and Consolidation Officer or other consolidation authorities would be, well within their jurisdiction to conduct preliminary enquiry regarding the offence u/s 195(1)(b) Cr.P.C. relating to giving or producing false document or evidence before it and after enquiry if the consolidation authorities are of the opinion that prima facie offence referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 195 Cr.P.C. is made out then it will record its finding to that effect and make such complaint in writing and send it to the Magistrate of first class having jurisdiction thereof.

10. Considering the fact that application of the present applicant u/s 340 Cr.P.C. has been pending before the opposite party no.3-Consolidation Officer, Phoolpur, District-Azamgarh since 2019 but till date even the number has not been allotted to the misc. case to the file of application u/s 340 Cr.P.C., present application is disposed of with a direction to the opposite party no.3-Consolidation Officer, Phoolpur, District-Azamgarh to decide the application of the applicant u/s 340 Cr.P.C., expeditiously.

Issue for consideration

Regarding maintainability of Application u/s 482 Cr.P.C. if approached after approaching the Revisional Court under Sections 397 or 399 Cr.P.C.

Headnotes

Maintainability-sec. 482 Cr.P.C.- Preliminary objection for maintainability - powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C., are not dependent on any other provisions of the Cr.P.C.- despite there being an express provision under Sections 397(3) and 399(3) Cr.P.C.- there cannot be a total ban on power u/s 482 Cr.P.C.- merely because the applicant has approached this Court after having approached the Revisional Court under Sections 397 or 399 Cr.P.C.- Section 482 Cr.P.C. application cannot be rejected on this ground alone- facts of the case- abetment of suicide must be express and cannot be implied- no express abetment to suicide-impugned order- facts has been duly appreciated by the trial court before rejecting the complaint case filed by the applicant. Application dismissed. (E-9)

Counsel for Opposite Party(s) : G.A.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Anish Kumar Gupta, J.)

1. Heard Sri Subhash Gosain, learned counsel for the applicant and and Sri Rakesh Kumar Mishra, learned A.G.A. for the State.

2. The instant application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. has been filed seeking quashing of the order dated 09.10.2024 passed in Criminal Revision No. 02 of 2024 (Smt. Geeta Devi vs. State of U.P. and Others) as well as the order dated 20.12.2023 passed in Complaint Case No. 173 of 2022 (Smt. Geeta Devi vs. Sunil Kumar and Others) under Sections 306, 504, 506, 388 I.P.C. and under Section 203 Cr.P.C., P.S.- Kotwali Orai, District-Jalaun.

3. Learned A.G.A. has raised a preliminary objection with regard to the maintainability of the instant application under Section 482 Cr.P.C., as the applicant had already availed the remedy of revision under Section 397 Cr.P.C. and the said criminal revision was rejected. Relying upon the provisions of Section 397(3) as well as 399(3) Cr.P.C., learned A.G.A. submits that the second revision is barred under the Code of Criminal Procedure. Thus, the Application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. is nothing else but a second revision, which is specifically barred in the Code of Criminal Procedure, therefore, where there is a specific statutory bar the powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C., cannot be exercised.

4. In support of his submissions, learned A.G.A. has relied upon the judgments of the Apex Court in Dharampal & Ors. vs. Ramshri : 1993 (1) SCC 435, Deepti alias Arati Rai vs. Akhil Rai & Ors. : 1995 (5) SCC 751 and also Rajathi vs C. Ganesan : 1999 SCC (Cri) 1118.

5. Per contra, learned counsel for the applicant relying upon the judgment of the Apex Court in Krishnan and Another vs. Krihnaveni and Another: AIR 1997 Supreme Court 987, which is a three-judge Bench, submits that there can be no fetters in the powers of the High Court under Sections 482 Cr.P.C. Once, the second revision is barred under the provision of the Code of Criminal Procedure, this Court has ample power to entertain the application under Section 482 Cr.P.C., if there is a miscarriage of justice. He has further relied upon the judgments in Lakshmi Bai Patel vs. Shyam Kumar Patel : 2002 3 JT 409.

6. Learned counsel for the applicant has further relied upon the judgment of the Apex Court in Mohit vs. State of U.P. : 2013 (7) SCC 789. He further places reliance upon the judgment of the Co-ordinate Bench of this Court in Criminal Misc. Writ Petition No. 718 of 2006 (Jagveer vs. State of U.P. and Another), wherein it is held that while exercising the powers under Article 227 of the Constitution of India, the evidence available on record cannot be re-appreciated by this Court. Relying upon the aforesaid observation, learned counsel for the applicant submits that once the Application under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C. was rejected and the criminal revision filed against the same was also rejected, the matter requires re-appreciation of evidence, therefore, the remedy under Article 227 is not available to the applicant herein. Further, he submits that the remedy of second revision is also barred under the provisions of Section 397(3) and 399(3)

Cr.P.C. In view thereof, learned counsel for the applicant submits that where there is no remedy available to the applicant in a criminal case, the powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C. is unfettered and that can be exercised by this Court, if there is a miscarriage of justice.

7. In view thereof, learned counsel for the applicant submits that the application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. filed by the applicant is maintainable.

8. Having heard the rival submissions so made by learned counsel for the parties, this Court has carefully gone through the record of the instant case.

9. The brief facts of the instant case are that the applicant herein filed an application under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C. against the opposite parties no. 2, 3 and 4, alleging therein that the son of the applicant herein was married to opposite party no.4. Since after the marriage, the opposite party no.4 used to quarrel with her son and used to pressurize him to transfer his property in her name and also bear the expenses of her maternal family members. In her application, she has also narrated various incidents and finally, it has been alleged that due to such torture and humiliation on the part of the opposite party no.4 and her family members, on 20.07.2021, at around 6:00 P.M., the son of the applicant herein went to his room, however, in the morning, when his room was not opened, then she informed the police and the police opened the door, and found that the son of the applicant herein had committed suicide. It is alleged that the opposite parties have abetted the son of the applicant to commit suicide and they are still threatening her for false implication in false cases. The said application was treated as a complaint case and thereupon the statements of witnesses under Sections 200 and 202 Cr.P.C. were recorded. However, vide order dated 20.12.2023, the complaint case of the applicant herein was rejected under Section 203 Cr.P.C. Aggrieved by the same, the applicant herein had filed the Criminal Revision No.2 (Smt. Geeta Devi vs. State of U.P. and Others) before the District and Sessions Judge, which has also been rejected vide impugned order dated 09.10.2024.

10. On the aforementioned backdrop, it has been submitted by learned A.G.A. that since the applicant has already availed the remedy of criminal revision, therefore, an application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. is not maintainable as the second revision is impermissible in view of the provisions of Sections 397(3) and 399(3) Cr.P.C.

11. Before proceeding further it would be relevant to take note of the provisions of Section 482 Cr.P.C. as well as Sections 397 and 399 Cr.P.C., which reads as under:

S. 397 Calling for records to exercise powers of revision

(1) The High Court or any Sessions Judge may call for and examine the record of any proceeding before any inferior Criminal Court situate within its or his local jurisdiction for the purpose of satisfying itself or himself as to the correctness, legality or propriety of any finding. Sentence or order, recorded or passed, and as to the regularity of any proceedings of such inferior Court, and may, when calling for such record, direct that the execution of any sentence or order be suspended, and if the accused is in confinement, that he be released on bail or on his own bond pending the examination of the record.

(2) The powers of revision conferred by Sub-Section (1) shall not be exercised in relation to any interlocutory order passed in any appeal, inquiry, trial or other proceeding.

(3) If an application under this section has been made by any person either to the High Court or to the Sessions Judge, no further application by the same person shall be entertained by the other of them.

S. 399 Sessions Judge's powers of revision

(1) In the case of any proceeding the record of which has been called for by himself the Sessions Judge may exercise all or any of the powers which may be exercised by the High Court under Sub-Section (1) of section 401.

(2) Where any proceeding by way of revision is commenced before a Sessions Judge under Sub-Section (1), the provisions of Sub-Sections (2), (3), (4) and (5) of section 401 shall, so far as may be, apply to such proceeding and references in the said subsections to the High Court shall be construed as references to the Sessions Judge.

(3) Where any application for revision is made by or on behalf of any person before the Sessions Judge, the decision of the Sessions Judge thereon in relation to such person shall be final and no further proceeding by way of revision at the instance of such person shall be entertained by the High Court or any other Court.

S. 482 Saving of inherent power of High Court

Nothing in this Code shall be deemed to limit or affect the inherent powers of the High Court to make such orders as may be necessary to give effect to any order this Code, or to prevent abuse of the process of any Court or otherwise to secure the ends of justice.

12. From the perusal of the aforementioned provisions, it is apparent that Section 397(1) Cr.P.C. confers power upon the High Court as well as the Sessions Judge to call for records in exercise of power of revision. However, sub-section (2) of Section 397 Cr.P.C. limits the power under this Section and restrained that the said power cannot be exercised in relation to an interlocutory order passed in any appeal, inquiry, trial or other proceedings. Sub-section (3) of Section 397 Cr.P.C. further restrains and limits the power of revision that once the application under Section 397(1) has been made by any person either before the High Court or the Sessions Judge, no further application by the same person can be entertained by the either of them. Meaning thereby, the second revision by the same person is impermissible.

13. Similarly, sub-section (3) of Section 399 Cr.P.C, also states that order passed in a revision by the Sessions Judge shall be final and no further proceedings by way of revision at the instance of such person shall be entertained by the High Court or any other court. Thus, according to the provisions of Section 399(3) Cr.P.C, further proceedings against the revisional order passed by the Sessions Judge are not permissible to be entertained even by the High Court or any other court.

14. Section 482 Cr.P.C. states the inherent power of the High Court and provides that nothing in this Code shall limit or affect the inherent power of the High Court to make such orders as may be necessary:

(i) to give effect to any order under this Code;

(ii) to prevent abuse of the process of any court; and

(iii) to secure the ends of justice.

15. Before proceeding further it would be relevant to take note of some of the judgements of the Apex Court in this regard.

16 In Madhu Limaye v. State of Maharashtra [(1977) 4 SCC 551 : 1978 SCC (Cri) 10] the Three-Judge Bench was to consider the scope of the power of the High Court under Section 482 and Section 397(2) of the Code.

"6. The point which falls for determination in this appeal is squarely covered by a decision of this Court, to which one of us (Untwalia, J.) was a party in Amar Nath v. State of Haryana [(1977) 4 SCC 137 : 1977 SCC (Cri) 585] . But on a careful consideration of the matter and on hearing learned Counsel for the parties in this appeal we thought it advisable to enunciate and reiterate the view taken by two learned Judges of this Court in Amar Nath case but in a somewhat modified and modulated form. In Amar Nath case as in this, the order of the trial court issuing process against the accused was challenged and the High Court was asked to quash the criminal proceeding either in exercise of its inherent power under Section 482 of the 1973 Code corresponding to Section 561-A of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 - hereinafter called the 1898 Code or the old Code, or under Section 397(1) of the new Code corresponding to Section 435 of the old Code. Two points were decided in Amar Nath case in the following terms:

(1) While we fully agree with the view taken by the learned Judge that where a revision to the High Court against the order of the Subordinate Judge is expressly barred under sub-section (2) of Section 397 of the 1973 Code the inherent powers contained in Section 482 would not be available to defeat the bar contained in Section 397(2).

(2) The impugned order of the Magistrate, however, was not an interlocutory order.

7. For the reasons stated hereinafter we think that the statement of the law apropos Point No. 1 is not quite accurate and needs some modulation. But we are going to reaffirm the decision of the Court on the second point.

8. Under Section 435 of the 1898 Code the High Court had the power to "call for and examine the record of any proceeding before any inferior criminal court situate within the local limits of its ... jurisdiction for the purpose of satisfying itself ... as to the correctness, legality or propriety of any finding, sentence or order recorded or passed, and as to the regularity of any proceedings of such inferior Court", and then to pass the necessary orders in accordance with the law engrafted in any of the sections following Section 435. Apart from the revisional power, the High Court possessed and possesses the inherent powers to be exercised ex debito justitiae to do the real and the substantial justice for the administration of which alone Courts exist. In express language this power was recognized and saved in Section 561-A of the old Code. Under Section 397(1) of the 1973 Code, revisional power has been conferred on the High Court in terms which are identical to those found in Section 435 of the 1898 Code. Similar is the position apropos the inherent powers of the High Court. We may read the language of Section 482 (corresponding to Section 561-A of the old Code) of the 1973 Code. It says:

Nothing in this Code shall be deemed to limit or affect the inherent powers of the High Court to make such orders as may be necessary to give effect to any order under this Code, or to prevent abuse of the process of any Court or otherwise to secure the ends of justice.

At the outset the following principles may be noticed in relation to the exercise of the inherent power of the High Court which have been followed ordinarily and generally, almost invariably, barring a few exceptions:

(1) That the power is not to be resorted to if there is a specific provision in the Code for the redress of the grievance of the aggrieved party;

(2) That it should be exercised very sparingly to prevent abuse of process of any Court or otherwise to secure the ends of justice;

(3) That it should not be exercised as against the express bar of law engrafted in any other provision of the Code."

9. In most of the cases decided during several decades the inherent power of the High Court has been invoked for the quashing of a criminal proceeding on one ground or the other. Sometimes the revisional jurisdiction of the High Court has also been resorted to for the same kind of relief by challenging the order taking cognizance or issuing processes or framing charge on the grounds that the Court had no jurisdiction to take cognizance and proceed with the trial, that the issuance of process was wholly illegal or void, or that no charge could be framed as no offence was made out on the allegations made or the evidence adduced in Court. In the background aforesaid, we proceed to examine as to what is the correct position of law after the introduction of a provision like sub-section (2) of Section 397 in the 1973 Code.

10. As pointed out in Amar Nath case the purpose of putting a bar on the power of revision in relation to any interlocutory order passed in an appeal, inquiry, trial or other proceeding, is to bring about expeditious disposal of the cases finally. More often than not, the revisional power of the High Court was resorted to in relation to interlocutory orders delaying the final disposal of the proceedings. The Legislature in its wisdom decided to check this delay by introducing sub-section (2) in Section 397. On the one hand, a bar has been put in the way of the High Court (as also of the Sessions Judge) for exercise of the revisional power in relation to any interlocutory order, on the other, the power has been conferred in almost the same terms as it was in the 1898 Code. On a plain reading of Section 482, however, it would follow that nothing in the Code, which would include sub-section (2) of Section 397 also, "shall be deemed to limit or affect the inherent powers of the High Court", But, if we were to say that the said bar is not to operate in the exercise of the inherent power at all, it will be setting at naught one of the limitations imposed upon the exercise of the revisional powers. In such a situation, what is the harmonious way out? In our opinion, a happy solution of this problem would be to say that the bar provided in sub-section (2) of Section 397 operates only in exercise of the revisional power of the High Court, meaning thereby that the High Court will have no power of revision in relation to any interlocutory order. Then in accordance with one of the other principles enunciated above, the inherent power will come into play, there being no other provision in the Code for the redress of the grievance of the aggrieved party. But then, if the order assailed is purely of an interlocutory character which could be corrected in exercise of the revisional power of the High Court under the 1898 Code, the High Court will refuse to exercise its inherent power. But in case the impugned order clearly brings about a situation which is an abuse of the process of the Court or for the purpose of securing the ends of justice interference by the High Court is absolutely necessary, then nothing contained in Section 397(2) can limit or affect the exercise of the inherent power by the High Court. But such cases would be few and far between. The High Court must exercise the inherent power very sparingly. One such case would be the desirability of the quashing of a criminal proceeding initiated illegally, vexatiously or as being without jurisdiction. Take for example a case where a prosecution is launched under the Prevention of Corruption Act without a sanction, then the trial of the accused will be without jurisdiction and even after his acquittal a second trial, after proper sanction will not be barred on the doctrine of autrefois acquit. Even assuming, although we shall presently show that it is not so, that in such a case an order of the Court taking cognizance or issuing processes is an interlocutory order, does it stand to reason to say that inherent power of the High Court cannot be exercised for stopping the criminal proceeding as early as possible, instead of harassing the accused up to the end? The answer is obvious that the bar will not operate to prevent the abuse of the process of the Court and/or to secure the ends of justice. The label of the petition filed by an aggrieved party is immaterial. The High Court can examine the matter in an appropriate case under its inherent powers. The present case undoubtedly falls for exercise of the power of the High Court in accordance with Section 482 of the 1973 Code, even assuming, although not accepting, that invoking the revisional power of the High Court is impermissible."

17. Following the aforesaid judgement of Madhu Limaye (supra), the Apex Court in Raj Kapoor v. State, (1980) 1 SCC 43, the Apex Court has observed as under:

"10. The first question is as to whether the inherent power of the High Court under Section 482 stands repelled when the revisional power under Section 397 overlaps. The opening words of Section 482 contradict this contention because nothing of the Code, not even Section 397, can affect the amplitude of the inherent power preserved in so many terms by the language of Section 482. Even so, a general principle pervades this branch of law when a specific provision is made: easy resort to inherent power is not right except under compelling circumstances. Not that there is absence of jurisdiction but that inherent power should not invade areas set apart for specific power under the same Code. In Madhu Limaye case [Madhu Limaye v. State of Maharashtra, (1977) 4 SCC 551 : 1978 SCC (Cri) 10 : AIR 1978 SC 47] this Court has exhaustively and, if I may say so with great respect, correctly discussed and delineated the law beyond mistake. While it is true that Section 482 is pervasive it should not subvert legal interdicts written into the same Code, such, for instance, in Section 397(2). Apparent conflict may arise in some situations between the two provisions and a happy solution would be to say that the bar provided in sub-section (2) of Section 397 operates only in exercise of the revisional power of the High Court, meaning thereby that the High Court will have no power of revision in relation to any interlocutory order. Then in accordance with one or the other principles enunciated above, the inherent power will come into play, there being no other provision in the Code for the redress of the grievance of the aggrieved party. But then, if the order assailed is purely of an interlocutory character which could be corrected in exercise of the revisional power of the High Court under the 1898 Code, the High Court will refuse to exercise its inherent power. But in case the impugned order clearly brings about a situation which is an abuse of the process of the Court or for the purpose of securing the ends of justice interference by the High Court is absolutely necessary, then nothing contained in Section 397(2) can limit or affect the exercise of the inherent power by the High Court. But such cases would be few and far between. The High Court must exercise the inherent power very sparingly. One such case would be the desirability of the quashing of a criminal proceeding initiated illegally, vexatiously or as being without jurisdiction" [(1977) 4 SCC 551, 556, para 10 : AIR 1978 SC 47, 51]

In short, there is no total ban on the exercise of inherent power where abuse of the process of the court or other extraordinary situation excites the court's jurisdiction. The limitation is self-restraint, nothing more. The policy of the law is clear that interlocutory orders, pure and simple, should not be taken up to the High Court resulting in unnecessary litigation and delay. At the other extreme, final orders are clearly capable of being considered in exercise of inherent power, if glaring injustice stares the court in the face. In between is a tertium quid, as Untwalia, J. has pointed out as for example, where it is more than a purely interlocutory order and less than a final disposal. The present case falls under that category where the accused complain of harassment through the court's process. Can we state that in this third category the inherent power can be exercised? In the words of Untwalia, J.: (SCC p. 556, para 10)

"The answer is obvious that the bar will not operate to prevent the abuse of the process of the Court and/or to secure the ends of justice. The label of the petition filed by an aggrieved party is immaterial. The High Court can examine the matter in an appropriate case under its inherent powers. The present case undoubtedly falls for exercise of the power of the High Court in accordance with Section 482 of the 1973 Code, even assuming, although not accepting, that invoking the revisional power of the High Court is impermissible."

I am, therefore clear in my mind that the inherent power is not rebuffed in the case situation before us. Counsel on both sides, sensitively responding to our allergy for legalistics, rightly agreed that the fanatical insistence on the formal filing of a copy of the order under cessation need not take up this court's time. Our conclusion concurs with the concession of counsel on both sides that merely because a copy of the order has not been produced, despite its presence in the records in the court, it is not possible for me to hold that the entire revisory power stands frustrated and the inherent power stultified."

18. In Dharampal (supra), the Division Bench of the Apex Court has observed as under:

"6. .....The Sessions Judge had dismissed the said application on May 14, 1979. Section 397(3) bars a second revision application by the same party. It is now well settled that the inherent powers under Section 482 of the Code cannot be utilised for exercising powers which are expressly barred by the Code. Hence the High Court had clearly erred in entertaining the second revision at the instance of respondent 1. On this short ground itself, the impugned order of the High Court can be set aside."

19. In Deepti alias Arati Rai (supra), the Division Bench of the Apex Court has observed as under:

"4. .....It should have also applied its mind to the aspect that second revision application, after dismissal of the first one by Sessions Court is not maintainable and that inherent power under Section 482 of the Code cannot be utilised for exercising powers which are expressly barred by the Code. As we find that the order passed by the High Court is not legal and just it will have to be set aside....."

20. In Krishnan (supra), the Three Judges' Bench of the Apex Court has observed as under:

"10. Ordinarily, when revision has been barred by Section 397(3) of the Code, a person - accused/complainant - cannot be allowed to take recourse to the revision to the High Court under Section 397(1) or under inherent powers of the High Court under Section 482 of the Code since it may amount to circumvention of the provisions of Section 397(3) or Section 397(2) of the Code. It is seen that the High Court has suo motu power under Section 401 and continuous supervisory jurisdiction under Section 483 of the Code. So, when the High Court on examination of the record finds that there is grave miscarriage of justice or abuse of the process of the courts or the required statutory procedure has not been complied with or there is failure of justice or order passed or sentence imposed by the Magistrate requires correction, it is but the duty of the High Court to have it corrected at the inception lest grave miscarriage of justice would ensue. It is, therefore, to meet the ends of justice or to prevent abuse of the process that the High Court is preserved with inherent power and would be justified, under such circumstances, to exercise the inherent power and in an appropriate case even revisional power under Section 397(1) read with Section 401 of the Code. As stated earlier, it may be exercised sparingly so as to avoid needless multiplicity of procedure, unnecessary delay in trial and protraction of proceedings. The object of criminal trial is to render public justice, to punish the criminal and to see that the trial is concluded expeditiously before the memory of the witness fades out. The recent trend is to delay the trial and threaten the witness or to win over the witness by promise or inducement. These malpractices need to be curbed and public justice can be ensured only when trial is conducted expeditiously.

21. In Rajatjhi (supra), the Division Bench of the Apex Court has followed the judgement in Krishnan (Supra) and observed as under:

11. In the present case, the High Court minutely examined the evidence and came to the conclusion that the wife was living separately without any reasonable cause and that she was able to maintain herself. All this the High Court did in exercise of its powers under Section 482 of the Code which powers are not a substitute for a second revision under sub-section (3) of Section 397 of the Code. The very fact that the inherent powers conferred on the High Court are vast would mean that these are circumscribed and could be invoked only on certain set principles."

22. In Laxshmi Bai Patel (supra), the Division Bench of the Apex Court has observed as under:

"(3) BEFORE taking up the merits of the case, it would be proper to consider the exercise of jurisdiction under section 482 Cr. P.C. by the High Court in the facts and circumstances of the case. In a case where the sessions court exercising revisional power under section 397(3) Cr.P.C. has dismissed the revision petition by the aggrieved party, a second revision petition about acceptance of the same party is barred. The position is well-settled that in such a case power under section 482 Cr.P.C. can be exercised by the High Court in rare cases and in exceptional circumstances where the court finds that permitting the impugned order to remain undisturbed will amount to abuse of process of the court and will result in failure of justice."

23. In Dhariwal Tobacco Products Ltd. v. State of Maharashtra, (2009) 2 SCC 370, the Division Bench of the Apex Court has observed as under:

"6. Indisputably issuance of summons is not an interlocutory order within the meaning of Section 397 of the Code. This Court in a large number of decisions beginning from R.P. Kapur v. State of Punjab [AIR 1960 SC 866] to Som Mittal v. Govt. of Karnataka [(2008) 3 SCC 574 : (2008) 2 SCC (Cri) 1 : (2008) 1 SCC (L&S) 910] has laid down the criterion for entertaining an application under Section 482. Only because a revision petition is maintainable, the same by itself, in our considered opinion, would not constitute a bar for entertaining an application under Section 482 of the Code. Even where a revision application is barred, as for example the remedy by way of Section 115 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, this Court has held that the remedies under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India would be available. (See Surya Dev Rai v. Ram Chander Rai [(2003) 6 SCC 675] .) Even in cases where a second revision before the High Court after dismissal of the first one by the Court of Session is barred under Section 397(2) [Ed.: The intended provision seems to be Section 397(3). In this regard See (1) Krishnan v. Krishnaveni, (1997) 4 SCC 241 : 1997 SCC (Cri) 544; (2) Puran v. Rambilas, (2001) 6 SCC 338 : 2001 SCC (Cri) 1124; (3) Kailash Verma v. Punjab State Civil Supplies Corpn., (2005) 2 SCC 571 : 2005 SCC (Cri) 538.] of the Code, the inherent power of the Court has been held to be available."

24. In Mohit v. State of U.P., (2013) 7 SCC 789, the Division Bench of the Apex Court has observed as under:

"28. So far as the inherent power of the High Court as contained in Section 482 CrPC is concerned, the law in this regard is set at rest by this Court in a catena of decisions. However, we would like to reiterate that when an order, not interlocutory in nature, can be assailed in the High Court in revisional jurisdiction, then there should be a bar in invoking the inherent jurisdiction of the High Court. In *other words, inherent power of the Court can be exercised when there is no remedy provided in the Code of Criminal Procedure for redressal of the grievance. It is well settled that the inherent power of the Court can ordinarily be exercised when there is no express provision in the Code under which order impugned can be challenged."

25. In Prabhu Chawla v. State of Rajasthan, (2016) 16 SCC 30, the Three Judges' Bench of the Apex Court has observed as under:

6. In our considered view any attempt to explain the law further as regards the issue relating to inherent power of the High Court under Section 482 CrPC is unwarranted. We would simply reiterate that Section 482 begins with a non obstante clause to state:

"482. Saving of inherent powers of High Court.

.-Nothing in this Code shall be deemed to limit or affect the inherent powers of the High Court to make such orders as may be necessary to give effect to any order under this Code, or to prevent abuse of the process of any court or otherwise to secure the ends of justice."

A fortiori, there can be no total ban on the exercise of such wholesome jurisdiction where, in the words of Krishna Iyer, J.

"abuse of the process of the court or other extraordinary situation excites the Court's jurisdiction. The limitation is self-restraint, nothing more". (Raj Kapoor case [Raj Kapoor v. State, (1980) 1 SCC 43 : 1980 SCC (Cri) 72] , SCC p. 48, para 10)*

*We venture to add a further reason in support. Since Section 397 CrPC is attracted against all orders other than interlocutory, a contrary view would limit the availability of inherent powers under Section 482 CrPC only to petty interlocutory orders! A situation wholly unwarranted and undesirable.

7. As a sequel, we are constrained to hold that the Division Bench, particularly in para 28, in Mohit [Mohit v. State of U.P., (2013) 7 SCC 789 : (2013) 3 SCC (Cri) 727] in respect of inherent power of the High Court in Section 482 CrPC does not state the law correctly. We record our respectful disagreement."

26. In Vijay v. State of Maharashtra, (2017) 13 SCC 317, the Division Bench of the Apex Court has observed as under:

"7. After hearing the counsel and also after perusing the impugned order, we are of the considered opinion that the order of the High Court has no legs to stand in view of the law laid down by this Court in Prabhu Chawla [Prabhu Chawla v. State of Rajasthan, (2016) 16 SCC 30] . In the above referred case, in view of the divergent opinions of this Court in Dhariwal Tobacco Products Ltd. [Dhariwal Tobacco Products Ltd. v. State of Maharashtra, (2009) 2 SCC 370 : (2009) 1 SCC (Cri) 806] and Mohit v. State of U.P. [Mohit v. State of U.P., (2013) 7 SCC 789 : (2013) 3 SCC (Cri) 727] , the matter was placed before the three-Judge Bench of this Court. The three-Judge Bench took the view that Section 482 CrPC begins with a non obstante clause to state:

"482. Saving of inherent powers of High Court.

-Nothing in this Code shall be deemed to limit or affect the inherent powers of the High Court to make such orders as may be necessary to give effect to any order under this Code, or to prevent abuse of the process of any court or otherwise to secure the ends of justice."

As Section 397 CrPC is attracted against all orders other than interlocutory, a contrary view would limit the availability of inherent powers under Section 482 CrPC only to petty interlocutory orders! A situation which is wholly unwarranted and undesirable. The three-Judge Bench has confirmed the law laid down by this Court in Dhariwal Tobacco Products Ltd. [Dhariwal Tobacco Products Ltd. v. State of Maharashtra, (2009) 2 SCC 370 : (2009) 1 SCC (Cri) 806]

8. In view of the above settled law, mere availability of alternative remedy cannot be a ground to disentitle the relief under Section 482 CrPC and, apart from this, we feel that the learned Judge without appreciating any of the factual and legal position, in a mechanical way, passed the impugned order, which warrants interference by this Court. Accordingly, the order of the High Court is set aside and the matter is remanded to the High Court for reconsideration in the light of the settled legal position."

27. In Kaisar Jaha v. S.P., Distt. Sultanpur, 2024 SCC OnLine All 6758, the Coordinate Bench has observed as under:

"10. The two Judge Bench of the Hon'ble Supreme Court which decided Vipin Sahni (Supra) after relying upon the earlier two Judge Bench decision in the case of Mohit (Supra), did not take note of the three Judge Bench decision in the case of Prabhu Chawla (Supra), which will prevail over the two Judge Bench decision. Thus the law as it exists now is that there are no absolute restrictions on the inherent powers of this Court and availability of a remedy of filing a revision would not create an absolute bar against the inherent powers of this Court being invoked. However, the inherent power can be invoked only to make such orders as may be necessary to give effect to any order under this Sanhita, or to prevent abuse of the process of any Court or otherwise to secure the ends of justice."

28. In a recent judgement passed by this Court in Vijay Singh vs. State of U.P. and 7 Others (Application under Section 482 Cr.P.C.No. 14485 of 2024) dated 21.10.2024, the Coordinate Bench of this Court has observed as under:

"10. Thus, it is clear that availing of remedy of revision before Sessions Judge under section 399 Cr.P.C. does not bar a person from invoking power of High Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C. but High Court should not act as a second Revisional Court under garb of exercising inherent powers. While exercising inherent powers in such a matter, the High Court can interfere only where it is satisfied that if complaint is allowed to be proceeded with, it would amount to abuse of the process of Court or that interest of justice otherwise call for quashing of the charges. When High Court on examination of record finds that there is grave miscarriage of justice or abuse of process of the Court or the required statutory procedure has not been followed with or there is failure of justice, it is the duty of High Court to have corrected it at the inception lest grave miscarriage of justice would ensue. It is therefore to meet the ends of justice or to prevent abuse of process that High Court is preserved with inherent powers and would be justified under such circumstance to exercise inherent powers. While exercising its inherent powers in such a matter it must be conscious of the fact that the Sessions Judge has declined to exercise his revisory power in the matter. Section 482 Cr.P.C. saves the inherent power of the High Court to make such orders as may be necessary to prevent abuse of the process of any Court or otherwise to secure the ends of justice and it has to be exercised sparingly and with circumspection. In exercising that jurisdiction the High Court can not embark upon an enquiry whether the allegations in the complaint are likely to be established by evidence or not. "

29. In the case of Nandu Alias Nandlal vs. State of U.P. and 7 Others (Application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. No. 2241 of 2025) dated 09.05.2025, the Coordinate Bench of this Court has observed as under:

"13. Thus, it is clear that availing of remedy of revision before Sessions Judge under section - 399 Cr.P.C. does not bar a person from invoking power of High Court under Section - 482 Cr.P.C. but High Court should not act as a second Revisional Court under garb of exercising inherent powers. Interference in such cases can only be made when there is grave miscarriage of justice or abuse of process of the Court or the required statutory procedure has not been followed with or there is failure of justice. It is therefore to meet the ends of justice or to prevent abuse of process that High Court is preserved with inherent powers and would be justified under such circumstance to exercise inherent powers."

30. Thus, it is apparent that powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C., are not dependent on any other provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure and the amplitude of this power is very wide and cannot be curtailed in any circumstances. However, since the power under Section 482 Cr.P.C is very wide and there is no restrictions on the same and it has been repeatedly held by the Apex Court that, except the self-restraint restrictions, there is no other restriction on exercise of power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. However, the said powers should be exercised in rarest of the rare cases with circumspection and intro-inspection. In view of the aforesaid authoritative pronouncement by Three Judges' Bench in Madhu Limaye (supra), Krishnan (supra) and Prabhu Chawla (supra), it is settled position of law that, despite there being an express provision under Sections 397(3) and 399(3) Cr.P.C., there cannot be a total ban on the exercise of inherent power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. to prevent the abuse of the process of the court or to secure the ends of justice. In the light of the aforesaid judgements of Three Judges' Bench of the Apex Court in Madhu Limaye (supra), Krishnan (supra) and Prabhu Chawla (supra), it can be safely concluded that judgement of Division Bench of the Apex Court in Dharampal (supra) and Deepti alias Arati Rai (supra), relied by the learned A.G.A., do not hold the field. Therefore, merely because the applicant has approached this Court after having approached the Revisional Court under Sections 397 or 399 Cr.P.C., Section 482 Cr.P.C. application cannot be rejected on this ground alone. However, while entertaining an application under Section 482 Cr.P.C., the court must exercise such power with self-restraint and it should be exercised in the rarest of rare cases, only for the purpose of preventing the abuse of the process of court or securing the ends of justice.

31. Coming back to the facts of the instant case, from the complaint case it is apparent that there was a matrimonial dispute between the son of the applicant herein and his wife. From the material available on record, it is apparent that the death of the son of the applicant herein was caused by asphyxia and ante-mortem hanging. Thus, the death of the son of the applicant was suicidal. However, it has been alleged that due to the matrimonial dispute between them, the opposite parties came to the applicant's house around 6:00 P.M. on 20.07.2021 and they threatened that the opposite party no.4 would stay in the applicant's house only when the land, car, etc. were transferred in the name of the opposite party no.4. Thereupon, on the same date, the son of the applicant herein went inside the room and locked it from inside and did not open it. In the morning after getting no response from the applicant's son, the police was called to open the door and afterwards it was found that he had committed suicide.

32. In her statement, it has been further stated by the complainant that after the said incident, the opposite party no.4 stayed in the applicant's house and the cremation of her son was done. Thereafter, after four to five days later, she has gone along with her brother and thereafter, the applicant went to report at the police station that, due to her abetment, her son had committed suicide. The aforesaid facts has been duly appreciated by the trial court before rejecting the complaint case filed by the applicant herein. It is a settled position of law that the abetment of suicide must be express and cannot be implied. However, from the entire allegations made on record, there is no express abetment to suicide on the part of the opposite parties except the usual chorus between husband and wife with regard to family properties.

33. Therefore, this Court does not find any illegality in the impugned orders passed by the court below. Accordingly, the instant application is dismissed.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Arun Bhansali, C.J.)

1. This appeal under Section 37 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (for short 'the Act') is directed against orders dated 13.09.2024, 19.10.2024 and 07.03.2025 passed by Commercial Court, Kanpur Nagar whereby the application filed by the appellant under Section 34 of the Act, has been closed for lack of jurisdiction and the application has been ordered to be returned, on account of passing of order dated 13.09.2024, the bank guarantee produced by the respondents has been ordered to be released and application filed by the appellant seeking correction in the order dated 13.09.2024 and restoration of the application as filed, has been rejected respectively.

2. The application was filed under Section 34 of the Act by the appellant against award dated 04.10.2017 passed by the U.P. State Micro & Small Enterprises Facilitation Council, Kanpur ('the Council'). During pendency of the proceedings under Section 34, an application under Section 7 of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 (for short 'the Code') was filed by the ICICI Bank before the NCLT seeking initiation of Corporate Insolvency Resolution Process ('CIRP') against the appellant. The NCLT by its order dated 03.06.2024 admitted the application in terms of Section 7(5) of the Code against the appellant and passed certain directions including imposing a moratorium under Sections 13 and 14 of the Code.

3. The appellant filed Application 107Ga before the Commercial Court bringing on record the order dated 03.06.2024 passed by the NCLT. In the application, an assertion was made that no proceedings could be continued in the case against the appellant company and a prayer was made to take the order dated 03.06.2024 on record and pass consequential necessary directions.

4. Before the Commercial Court, on behalf of the respondents, submission was made that on account of the order passed by the NCLT, the matter cannot proceed and therefore, the same be returned.

5. The Commercial Court, after hearing the parties, referred to provisions of Section 14 of the Code and order passed by the NCLT under Sections 13 and 14 of the Code. The Commercial Court also took notice of provisions of Section 33 of the Code providing for bar of instituting suit or legal proceedings by or against the corporate debtor when a liquidation order has been passed and that the proviso to Section 33(5) provides that proceedings can be instituted with the prior approval of the Adjudicating Authority and that no such approval has been produced. The Commercial Court further noticed the bar under Section 63 of the Code barring the jurisdiction of the civil court and came to the conclusion that on account of the order passed by the NCLT and for lack of any approval from the Authorised Authority and the bar created by Section 63, the Commercial Court now has no jurisdiction to hear and decide the said application under Section 34 of the Act and purportedly accepting the application filed by the appellant qua lack of jurisdiction, closed the proceedings. It further ordered that the application be returned and the case be consigned to record.

6. Subsequent to passing of the order, on an application made by the respondents, the bank guarantee furnished during pendency of the proceedings was ordered to be released on 19.10.2024. Whereafter, the appellant moved an application seeking correction in the order dated 13.09.2024 and restoration of the application which was dismissed on 07.03.2025.

7. At the outset, learned counsel for the respondents raised preliminary objection pertaining to maintainability of the present appeal under Section 37 of the Act. Submissions were made that under Section 37(1)(c) of the Act, appeal can lie only against an order passed by Commercial Court setting aside or refusing to set aside an arbitral award under Section 34 and as by the order impugned dated 13.09.2024, only for lack of jurisdiction the proceedings have been closed and application has been ordered to be returned, the order cannot be said to be 'refusing to set aside an arbitral award' and therefore, the appeal under Section 37 of the Act is not maintainable. Reliance was placed on BGS SGS SOMA JV Vs. NHPC LIMITED : (2020) 4 SCC 234.
